Puracy!-We were informed, yesterday, by three individuals direct from Barataria, that on the 11th inst. they observed a ship giving chase to another during that and the succeeding day until near 12 o'clock, when the pirate overhauled and took possession of her, pulled down her masts, amount insured on this vessel and sher cargo in Wall and set her on fire. The young men of Barataria, with the greatest dispatch, got on lount of canoes in order to afford relief to the unformation of the cargo in order to afford relief to the unformation of the cargo in order to afford relief to the unformation of the cargo in the cargo in with the cargo in th relief to the unfortunate sufferers whom they supposed to discover any particulars relative to the pirate, as she spread all her sail and put to sea.

MEXICO.

The ship Congress arrived in our port yesterday. from Vera Cruz, formshing files of papers from that I luce to the 6th first. In looking over these papers, we under the command of Calderon, and Gen. St. Anna, the loss of the battle was overrated by the accounts preunder his momentate orders, and not the total of his army, as had been mentioned. The whole of the cave. St. Anna went to Santa Rita. It was not before the 18th that the latter determined to sproach Vern Cruz. notwithstanding the communications between that city and the interior word stopped; yet, St. Anna and his friencs' were advised By describers from the government, that the strongest disuffection existed among its partimans. Many octies, and even many legislatures had declared that the, would unite in the wishes that might be expressed by the garrisons of Vera Cruz and St. Joan D Ulua. The battation of Tuspan, so soon as it learnt that it was against the inhabitants of Vera army of the ministeral purty, was apprehended in Vera Cruz, accused of a design to attempt the assassi nation of Santa Anna.

Cruz, that it was proceeding, immediately disbanded it-

The Ceasor, of the 10 h M reh observes that it has understood from a course worthy of implicit confidence, that the Total of artiflery, Joseph John Landero, indigmant at the assassination of his brother. Col. Lerre Landero, threw himself into the fortress of Perotte, and forcibly took the commanding officer of that station prisoner, and declared himself immediately after in layor of Santa Anna. It seems that Fa cio had left this, place to advance to the side of Ver-Conz. because on the 13th, he was at Puente National The same Journal, of the 13th, says that the parri son of Julisco bad seconded the prononciamiento of that of Vera Cruz, and that the commotions in the south and in the state of Puebla, had considerably ingive the government the greatest anxiety.

The city of Tracginham as we had previously anpounced, had declared, after the manifest of Tampico, in favor of St. Anna.

It does not seem that the deach neat of Santa which were to make the seige of Vera Cruz, under the orders of Gen. Calderon, were milking much movement towards the accomplishment of that design.

the troops stationed about it, were satisfied with firing under the insolvent laws, the occupation of each. In occasionally a few rounds of cannon, the effects of a list published we observe two "cumedians" who are which were not dangerous. The Vera Cruzians ridi- about to take their "benefit," in this farce of "a new culed the seige, treating it as a mere farce, which they way to pay old debts." Their creditors will doubtless say will soon end, us the troops of Calderon are in the greatest want; being almost without food or ammunition. Up to the 25th of March, the forces of Calderon were concentrated on the point of Vergara. A portion of them, however, now have possession of the Positos. The ministers, through their journals, insert every

PARIS, February 19. There was a report yesterday, circulated with some confidence, that the Chamber was to be prorogued, or dissolved, after the rote on the ministry of the interior, if the foreign affairs have not yet obtained a satisfac tory solution. It is probable, at any rate, that the demand of two or three twelfths will be inevitable.

NEW YORK, April 8. Packet Ship De Rham .- Our news schr, Eclipse as again alor gside the De It ham at day break yesterday morning, and sailed on her return at 9 o'clock. Mr. Lowber, the news collector, reports that she was will in the same situation as, when she well ashore, with 12 feet of water in her hold. There were plenty of lighters into which they were discharging the cargo with the utmost expedition; three of them arrived in town last night.

The greater part of the cargo will probably be saved. hough all will be injured that is succeptible of receiving damage from water. Yesterday no part of her stern had been stove in, as we have seen stated, nor was there any probability that she would go to pieces before he cargo was out and the vessel dismantled.

They say it was impossible to possession of the Liberia Herald of 22d January, from themselves up, and were hanged for their crimes. which we have made some extracts. We are also advised by mail of the arrival of the ship James Perkins, Capt. Crowell, who returned to Norfolk on Monday last from Monravia, via the Isle of May, having been absent only 108 days from the former-port. Not only the papers, but Captains Crowell and Gal-

FROM CONSTANTINOPLE .- We have been favored with the Moniteur Ottoman' to the 7th of Jan. We have late y learnt that two sheets of each number are published cone in Turkish for the Mahomedans, and one in French for foreigners. The latter we receive.
We learn from the last paper, that the expressions n the late firman of the Sultan, in favor of persons of different religious, have given much satisfaction. The Moniteur says, that the Sultan feels a strong affection for his subjects, of whatever religious faith they may be, a wish to render them happy, and a desire that his An individual, supposed to be a deserter from the to his c re.
