CARSTAIRIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

MESSRS. T. P. & R. DOLBEAR ... respectfully invite the citizens of New Orleans to call at their writing establishment, No. 48, Canal street, (over Miss Carroll's book store) and examine numerous specimens, execute by ladies and gentlemen who are receiving their instructions, as well as those who have completed their lessons.

The movements of the ... arm, fore arm and fingers, with their combinations, which are given by this system, are adapted to the various purposes of the counting room and parlor, and if properly acquired, will never fail to enable any person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, without cramping, or pairing the hand or wrist—as these systematic movements are founded upon the philosophy of mechanics.

A class of ladies writes daily from 12 to 1, for whom a separate apartment is provided. Gentlemen's apartment open from 9 a. m. to 10 1-2 p.m. Private lessons given as usual. Ornamental writing, &c. &c. executed with elegance. Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Persons attending this institution are not restricted to a given number of lessons, but ... desired to acquire an elegant hand ... have, ... require ten or thirty lessons. m 7

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman:

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over every other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear, having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage, on account of the correctness and mildness of ... on account of the rapid progress of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July ... 1832 A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, ... Carstairian system; we have examined ... of the writings of his pupils, ... age from ... to ... years, written through an ... of instruction, after having done so, it is with ... we can testify to the rapid ... unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a decided opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so eminently useful to us and our ... es.

CARSTAIRIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

MESSRS. T. P. & R. DOLBEAR ... respectfully invite the citizens of New Orleans to call at their writing establishment, No. 48, Canal street, (over Miss Carroll's book store) and examine numerous specimens, execute by ladies and gentlemen who are receiving their instructions, as well as those who have completed their lessons.

The movements of the ... arm, fore arm and fingers, with their combinations, which are given by this system, are adapted to the various purposes of the counting room and parlor, and if properly acquired, will never fail to enable any person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, without cramping, or pairing the hand or wrist—as these systematic movements are founded upon the philosophy of mechanics.

A class of ladies writes daily from 12 to 1, for whom a separate apartment is provided. Gentlemen's apartment open from 9 a. m. to 10 1-2 p.m. Private lessons given as usual. Ornamental writing, &c. &c. executed with elegance. Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Persons attending this institution are not restricted to a given number of lessons, but ... desired to acquire an elegant hand ... have, ... require ten or thirty lessons. m 7

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman:

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over every other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear, having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage, on account of the correctness and mildness of ... on account of the rapid progress of those who received his lessons.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a decided opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so eminently useful to us and our ... es.
