DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

¥ 60,000.00 allocated for the travel expense of child Welfare Officials for this fiscal ywar has gine already by the end of August this year.
The additional budget ¥ 20.000.00 has been requested to the Prefecture , but is not approved by the Prefectural Assembly as yet.
Besides the above, ¥ 251,000.00 was allocated to the Child Welfare Center and ¥ 144,631.00 to Temporary Shelter for 1950 fiscal year.
Case workers visit children whom they take care of three times a month in Sendai city and once in local areas. They are using bicycles (4) for this purpose so far, but more bicycles are necessitated.

5. Present No. of children in temporary shelter: 34

In the case of clients visiting this center, first the intake worker has an interview with them and makes four copies of casepaper of which two to supervisor one to the assistant and one to be kept by himself. First, whether this case should be accepted by this center or not will be determined, and if acceepted, whether it should be handled by the Clinic or The Consultation will be fixed. Next, child Welfare Official has an interview with the child and check his life history, school and family. If the residence is located in Sendai city, he usualyy pays a visit at least three times. The case paper will go to the clinic through the supervisor where clinical personnel review the peper and , if it is not satisfactory, ask further necessary information. In the case the diagnostic conference is necessary to be held about the case, a case-worker in charge of the case should attend it without fail. For the completion of the process mentioned above, it takes a couple weeks to one month. If the child is necessitated to be placed in the Temporary Shelter, the child should be retained until the completion of the diagnostic conference. The longest period of children retained in the Temporary Shelter is about five months. Those are children such as having VD, hating to be refered to other welfare institutions, vagrants wandering from one prefecture to the o other prefecture.

Out of 76, the number of inmates, 30 ran away, Of those,fifteen children were taken back by the personnel of this center, two came back by themselves and the rest were taken back upon the report of the police. Generally, longer children are protected by the Temporary Shelter, less they have chance to run away.

The main troubles this center has are theft, runaway and violence, such as breaking windows or panels. There is no play ground, play equipment and adequate daily n cessities in this center, but ¥ 2,100.00 which is expected from Sendai Rotary Club as donation will be spent for play equipment.
The enough clothing have been given the children by Christian missioneries through Christian Women's Club thus far.

3. Persons secure public opinion to help in changing governor.

Mr. Shoji could get only 11 SFS. Talked to welfare and education committee of assembly and they will talk to gov.,who is showing more favor but budget is difficult. So expect to get the rest in Dec.or Feb. Quota for workers with disabled persons. 5. Gov. approved 3 (great successs!) Prefecture has five plus one vacancy in JFS.

Three other caseworkers beside. All JFS in Ken work under Child Consultation Center in own assigned areas. (Before Miss Carroll's visit JFS spent 30% in Ken CW section, rest of time here). These workers find cases in their areas and work with children in clinic. May refer some to T & V without referring to Child Consultation Center. Dr. Ogawa represents the governor in making placements and the JFS actually takes the child to the home or the institution. They have no form to accept responsibility for placement from the parents. With its referrals the Family Court does send a court order which gives the right of placement to the center.

Court may

1. Send child direct to Child Consultation Center
2. Send child direct to home for delinquent, neglected & abused
3. Send child direct to Reformatory.

Dr. Ogawa has asked that all children be sent to Child Consultation Center. Have had trouble only with the Catholic institution in refusing to permit a child to be moved on the claim that only if a child stayed till the age of 18 would it be a good child. WC chief has been working with the sister on this and now the institution does not refuse——still some trouble though.

2. Some children refuse to go to institution and are kept in center until prepared and willing to enter institution.

3. When child from other prefecture, time is required to receive reply to letter of inquiry. Have index system—— permanent. Face sheet is filed separetely from case folder. Boys are three types.

2. Runs away - habitual vagrants too.
3. Steals

Mr. Tanaka has heard that a former house father tried putting an older resident in charge of a newcomer, but this developed into making the older boy a boss. He would like to give each child individual attention, but does not have sufficient staff. Overcrowding is another problem. Most children are fromother prefectures Not enough play spece or adquate equipment. Rotary Club may give 2,000 yen per month, or clothing from Missionaries repaired by Christian Women's Club.

Girl, 14 years 7 month from Kesenuma, 2nd year lower secondary school (Junior High),for stealing school referred to Dr. Ogawa when he visited the town. On 11 Sept. father brought child here.

The following report made by the Morioka Municipal Police is one of the many reasons for introducing a prevention program.

a. Morioka Police Record Concerning Rape Cases

The number of suspects arrested on the charge of rape by the Morioka Municipal Police amounts to sixty-five.

Of the above 65, 24 boys have been recognized as leaders of various "gangs" which were organized and lived in the unprivileged part of Morioka.

The number of rape and attempted rape cases amounts to twenty-one.

4 - raped in the center of Morioka.

1 - raped in a hot spring resort.

9 - couples out walking, gangs attacked the man and chased or beat him up, and then proceeded to attack the women.

1 - married couple

4 - girls on their way home from work.

4 - girls on their way home from village festival.

2 - girls deceived by boys "Sweet Words."

Of the 21 cases, 16 were actually attacked and raped.

b. The causes of the crime as stated by the Morioka Police.

(1) Juveniles not members of any youth organization.

(2) Bad environmental conditions.

(3) Lack of recreational facilities.

(4) Deterioration of national morals due to post war conditions.

Many of the suspects confessed that the incentive or stimulus for the sex crimes originated from reading magazines such as "Fuku Seikatsu" (couples Living Together) or "Ryo-Ki" (Sexual Adventure), and that they had nothing to do at nights.

As a result the officials and citizens who were gravely interested in this present problem organized and established a council called "Iwate-Ken Juvenile

AGENDA OF TOHOKU*HOKKAIDO BLOCK FOSTER PARENT SYSTEM DELIBERATIVE CONFERENCE

1. Foster Parents and Foster Children

a. Switch-over to foster parents from institutional care

From the standpoint of "There is no place like home", it is advisable for inmate-children to be placed with foster parents. There are cases, however, where lack of understanding and non-cooperation on the part of parties concerned are held responsible for its poor materialization. (Akita)

b. Hard to get suitable foster parents

The number of children requiring foster parent care is increasing nowadays. Nevertheless, we find it difficult to get suitable foster parents due to the child's previous record expenses involved in care and others. (Iwate)

2. Foster Parent System

a. Responsibility for care-needing children

If the governor were supposed to assume under the Child Welfare Law all the responsibilities for children placed actually or potentially with foster parents or institutions, it would bring about smooth after-care operation and desirable relationship between the institution and the foster parents. We, therefore, appeal to the Ministry for legislation to that effect. (Miyagi)

b. Switch-over to foster parents of children registered under Article 30

The law, in its partial revision effected in June last year, calls for any person with a child beyond fourth degree in his home to report to the governor. In this connection it is conceivable that these persons might be switched over to foster parents. (Akita)

c. Qualifications for foster parents

The qualifications for foster parents are so strict in local areas that there are not a few cases in which applicants with profound understanding, enthusiasm and affection are disapproved on ground of few ineligible factors. This constitutes a deterrent to sound development of foster parent system. Under these circumstances, we request that this matter be taken into full consideration in fixing Foster Parent Minimum Standard reportedly now under contemplation. (Niigata)

d. Switch-over to foster parents from "home care and work" practice

Special consideration should be paid to those cases where "home care and work" practice has been switched over to foster parents. Considering that these foster parents are mostly in need of many hands, it is taken for granted that they should bring up the child on one hand and have him help out with their farming or stock-raising on the other. The above-mentioned practice, however, locally prevalent for scores of years, guarantees in many forms the future livelihood of the child and as such is regarded even as laudable. Yet we should be on the alert in order to forestall any illegal use of such children and to assure their welfare. (Aomori)

3. Adoption and Foster Parents

a. Very few foster parents find themselves based on the true spirit of foster parents as mentioned in the law, possible future adoption being involved in the majority. While credited with strong enthusiasm for child care, the latter has a tendency to try to have the child at his or her mercy. Such tendency is something that must be eliminated to help improve the idea toward foster parents. (Aomori)

b. Adoption under Civil Code and Child Welfare Law (Akita)

Some people who are not eligible for foster parents are desirous of legal adoption under the Civil Code. From the standpoint of child welfare we appeal for legislation to the effect " in such cases the competent child welfare worker and the consultation center shall be referred to for opinion.

4. Allowance for Foster Parents (Iwate, Niigata, Miyagi)

a. The bulk of long term absentee-children are made to take care of infants at home. Towns and villages, however, where there is no day nursery available have no alternative but to depend upon day-time foster parents. The present daily allowance of ¥ 2.56 is too low. It would be suitable if the rate were increased up to ¥ 13.64 to correspond with that of the temporary shelter. Allowance boost would result in increased number of day-time foster parents. As things stand today, there are hardly any people offering their services as such.

b. With a view to ensuring accurate approval and operation we appeal for a provision classifying foster parents into three categories; (1) free foster parents, (2) paid foster parents and (3) foster parents having the child working for them as well as bringing him up. (Yamagata)
