THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 10, 1983

SPEECH TO THE AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION

DATE: January 11, 1983
LOCATION: Dallas Convention Center
Dallas, Texas
TIME: 11:25 a.m. - 11:40 a.m.

I. PURPOSE

To seek and solidify support for your policies in the agricultural community.

II. BACKGROUND

The American Farm Bureau Federation is the largest agricultural organization in the United States. They have chapters in 49 states and have actively worked in support of your Administration with the exception of the 1982 Tax Bill which they openly opposed. This meeting is the largest of any agricultural group throughout the year.

Because of high interest rates and low commodity prices, there has been a growing concern in the agricultural community over U.S. agriculture and agricultural trade policies. Bankruptcies and foreclosures are increasing throughout the agricultural sector, and the more militant farmers are calling for drastic action. Payment-in-kind and contract sanctity are major issues at this time.

A strong base of support exists for you and your appearance before this group can help maintain it. A warm and positive reception is expected and the organization will actively respond to any Presidential request for help and support.

III. PARTICIPANTS

8,000 farmers and ranchers

BRIEFING PAPER

VISIT TO NORTH TEXAS FOOD BANK

DATE: January 11, 1983

LOCATION: Dallas, Texas

TIME: After Farm Bureau Event

FROM: Jay Moorhead
Special Assistant to the President
Private Sector Initiatives

I. PURPOSE

To support, encourage and recognize a public/private partnership which resulted in the creation of a food bank in Texas.

II. BACKGROUND

Food banks collect food which is not sold in the normal marketplace (dented cans, mislabeled products, over-supply, etc.) and distribute it to the needy clients (usually non-profit organizations). This food bank came into being after the Texas legislature passed the "Good Faith Donor" law which removed liability to groups who donate their food. Once the legislation was passed, several big food stores agreed to provide food; the Department of Health and Human Services agreed to provide seed money for their operating budget and ACTION provided volunteers to man the bank. The public sector and grocery chains became the catalyst for additional corporate support. It is expected that the food bank will become self-sufficient by the middle of next year. One hundred and eight agencies receive food from these banks and are charged ten cents a pound.

III. PARTICIPANTS

- Dallas Food Bank Board Members
- Local government officials
- Several members from Private Sector Initiatives Task Force of Governor Clements

IV. PRESS PLAN

Pool coverage.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

- President arrives at main entrance
- President met by Katherine Kain (Board member who initiated the food bank idea)
- Walk into warehouse - Remarks to Board Members and guests
- Walking tour of facilities
- President departs

VI. REMARKS

- Brief remarks attached

D

CONGRESSMAN STEVE BARTLETT
(REPUBLICAN-TEXAS)

Steve Bartlett is a Freshman Republican from Texas' Third Congressional District (north Dallas area). He succeeded Representative Jim Collins, who relinquished his House seat to be the Republican nominee in opposition to U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D-Texas) last Fall. In the Senate race, Bentsen defeated Collins by a margin of 59% to 41%. In the Third District House race, Bartlett won with 78% of the vote--the largest percentage achieved by any Freshman House Republican in the 98th Congress.

In the House of Representatives, Steve Bartlett will serve on the Education and Labor Committee and the Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Committee. During a January 4, 1983 meeting with a White House staff representative (with press representatives present), Bartlett stressed his support of the President and of Administration economic and defense policies. Bartlett and his wife, Gail, attended the President's dinner for newly elected Members of Congress on January 6, 1983.

On this trip, Bartlett will be returning to Dallas for the first time since being sworn in as a Member of the 98th Congress. For this reason, he considers it particularly symbolic that he will be accompanying the President.

CONGRESSMAN CHARLIE STENHOLM
(DEMOCRAT-TEXAS)

Charlie Stenholm is a third term Democrat from Texas' Seventeenth Congressional District (north central part of state). In the House of Representatives, Charlie serves on the Agriculture Committee and the Small Business Committee. He also is a founder and leader of the House Boll Weevils.

Stenholm was highly supportive of the Administration's economic and defense initiatives during the 97th Congress; and he can be expected to remain supportive this year--but in a less visible manner.

Charlie has split with the Administration on a number of farm policy initiatives, including the 1981 Omnibus Farm Bill. With respect to the Payment In Kind proposal, he has not agreed with the need to limit commodity price support (Target Price) levels but he has been very supportive of other elements of the original plan. Charlie shares the Administration's view that immediate action is necessary to restore the farm economy.

Stenholm has met with the President and attended White House events on a number of occasions. He would like to discuss farm policy issues with the President or other Administration officials on the return trip from Dallas.
