"MORETTI still was basking in what he thought GIANCANA's esteem on April 18, 1957, when three men got into MORETTI's car. Later that day his body was found in the trunk of his car near Joliet. He had been beaten, shot, and strangled. Police found no documents or papers in MORETTI's clothing. The only item on his body was a comb. This, it was said, was left by his killers to indicate that he had been combed clean, something the slayers of MARCUS neglected to do with their victim".

Coin Machines

It has been previously reported that [REDACTED] Operator of the Valley Music Company in Aurora, Illinois, advised that he had been contacted by ROCKY PRANO regarding the Syndicate taking over his jukebox business. PRANO has been described as a lieutenant for GIANCANA in far western suburbs of Chicago particularly in the realm of jukebox and pinball machine business.

OTHER 4

Chicago T-10 advised in October, 1958, that during the summer of 1956, he had been contacted at various times by from two to six men who claimed they represented the Syndicate and advised him that they were going to take over a certain territory. These men indicated an interest in coin machines, mostly bowling, pool, and pinball machines. These men called themselves "field men" and claimed that they have been studying coin machine and jukebox operation in Kane County for several weeks and knew all about the operation, including the spots where the machines were located and the take from each machine. These men advised the informant that they were "cutting themselves in" on his business.

Informant stated that he then went to the Sheriff of Kane County, Mr. HOWARD KELLETT, who advised the informant that his, the informant's, position was a very bad one and concluded that his only chance to survive was to deal with these unidentified field men. Informant related that he had no choice but to accept the proposition and as a result is now working for ROCKY PRANO.

Travel

Chicago T-9 advised on February 13, 1959, that he had learned from MARSHALL CAIFANO, a Chicago top hoodlum, that GIANCANA and either JOE CAESAR or JOEY O'BRIEN, had departed for Florida during the weekend of February 8, 1959. The informant said that he was not acquainted as to the address that the subject would be visiting in Florida; however, he assumed it would be Miami Beach and commented that the Bombay Hotel at about 61st and Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, was a hangout frequented by many Chicago hoodlums.

It should be noted that JOE CAESAR is an alias of JOE DI VARCO, a Chicago top hoodlum and JOEY O'BRIEN is an alias of JOSEPH AIUPPA, a Chicago top hoodlum.

of a partnership with DRAYTON DIXON. He furnished capital of $35,000 ($10,000 from a mortgage on his home, the rest savings) and DIXON furnished about $26,000 to the partnership. According to Mr. LOVIG, DIXON sold one of two houses he owned to raise the $26,000. According to Mr. LOVIG, DIXON is a chemist for Robbin Industries and lives and works in Cleveland, Ohio, but comes to Stone Park occasionally on week ends to assist in the operation of the restaurant.

Mr. LOVIG pointed out that the restaurant has been leased from CHARLES PIZZO on a ten year lease and that as soon as the restaurant is on solid financial footing it is DIXON's intention to resign from his job and assist in the operation of the restaurant.

Mr. LOVIG emphasized that no hoodlums or, in fact, any parties other than DIXON and he, have any interest whatsoever in the restaurant, and that he has never been approached by anyone offering to buy a part or all of the restaurant. Mr. LOVIG stated that his auditor is one PHIL SARATELLA with the Chicago Business Service and he has complete knowledge of the financial structure of the restaurant as he handles all books and completes the income tax returns for both he and DIXON. Mr. LOVIG stated that if there is any doubt as to the financing of the Country Fair Restaurant he would be willing to make available, through Mr. SARATELLA, all financial records pertaining to the restaurant.

Villa Venice

CG T-2 advised on November 5, 1958, that she frequented the Villa Venice from about April to September, 1958 during which time she came to know many of the personnel employed at the Villa. According to this informant the real boss of the Villa Venice is SAM GIANCANA, for when he would appear on the scene everyone would "snap to attention." GIANCANA would inspect the place and would severely reprimand any of the staff, including the ostensible owners, JAMES and STELLA MEO, if the place or they themselves were not clean.
