

NEWS & EVENTS

March 30--April 5, 1973

Published by Communications Services
Rochester Institute of Technology

'73 Commencement Set June 9; Will Be On Henrietta Campus

"Beginnings," RIT's 88th commencement ceremonies, will be held Saturday, June 9, for the first time entirely on the Henrietta campus.

The 1973 graduation ceremonies have been totally redesigned to personalize the occasion and give more individual recognition to graduating students, RIT officials said.

RIT has previously held its commencement ceremonies at the Rochester War Memorial, which is unavailable this year due to scheduled repairs.

Four separate ceremonies will be intermingled with a festive-type celebration that will include jazz, rock, semi-classical, and country western musical groups. There will be no formal commencement speech.

"To convey the festive atmosphere of the various events, large colorful flags, banners, and balloons will line the walkways to where the events are occurring," said Gene DePrez, RIT's director of Communications, and the coordinator of the festival-type celebration.

Banners and flags will line Lomb Memorial Drive to draw parents and visitors to the commencement sites. Following the ceremonies, trombonists and trumpeters situated on the roof of the Ingle Auditorium will greet the students, parents and guests, and direct them to the festival area which will be centered around the academic quadrangles and the various music groups. Colorful food stands will dispense light lunches.

The 88th commencement program has officially been dubbed "Beginnings," a suggestion from several students who are participating in the program's planning.

Two ceremonies each will be held simultaneously starting at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Frank Ritter Memorial Ice Arena and in the George H. Clark Memorial Gymnasium. Various events including open houses in the colleges, and the general festival, will take place between 11:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Sharing one commencement ceremony each will be the School of Printing and the School of Photographic Arts and Sciences in the College of Graphic Arts and Photography;

cont'd. page 4

Aerialist Terry O'Brien will appear with the internationally-known Hanneford Circus, which comes to RIT Friday April 6 for performances at 4:30 and 8 p.m. in Clark Memorial Gymnasium. Tickets are available at the College Union desk.

Two Win Full Tuition Scholarships

David W. Racklyeft, son of Mr. and Mrs William A. Racklyeft of 16274 Windermere Circle, Southgate, Mich., and Barbara Ann Haher, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Haher of 303 Chestnut St., Oneonta, N.Y. have been named winners of $9,000, four-year scholarships at RIT.

The announcement was made by RIT President Dr. Paul A. Miller.

Barbara and David were among 151 high school seniors from throughout the United States who competed in the 1973 RIT Outstanding Freshmen Award Competition held in February.

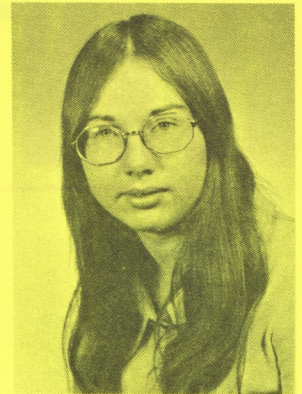

Donald A. Hoppe, dean of Admissions and Records, said that the winners were chosen on the basis of their total school records, interviews, and an all-morning written examination taken during the scholarship competition weekend on the RIT campus.

Barbara completed high school at Oneonta Senior High in January, and ranks at the top of the 1973 senior class. She is a member of the National Honor Society, a finalist in the National Merit Scholar competition, and a member of her student council. She is active in a number of choral groups and is an accomplished pianist, as well as being a member of her high school's ski, judo and drama clubs. During high school, Barbara received academic awards in languages, mathematics, the sciences, social studies, history and music, and was a summer exchange student in Guatemala.

She plans to enroll in RIT's College of Business and major in accounting.

David will graduate in June from Southgate High School. He ranks at the top of his senior class and is a National Merit Scholar finalist. He recently received an award for Appreciation of Service to the Southgate High School student government of which he is a member, and served as the student representative on the local school board. David's activities include memberships in the math club, stage band and debate team. He is involved with his church youth fellowship and Taste & See, a Christian action group.

He plans to enroll in RIT's Department of Computer Science & Technology and major in Computer Systems.

David W. Racklyeft and Barbara Haher are each winners of $9,000 RIT scholarships.

Copyright Laws Topic Of Local Symposium

The Rochester Audiovisual Association will sponsor a day-long symposium on the threat of modern duplicating methods to copyright protection Tuesday, April 3, at 10:30 a.m. in the Holiday Inn Downtown.

RAVA President Dean Hudson said the conference is open to anyone in the community who has an interest in copyright protection.

The keynote speaker who will set the stage for the day will be Abe Goldman, the general counsel of the U.S. Copyright Office in Washington.

Producers and publishers will have spokesmen on their behalf, while others will represent the thousands of teachers and educators who feel it is absolutely necessary, for effective teaching, to be able to duplicate visual and audio materials, Hudson said.

The symposium will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the Holiday Inn Downtown. Following luncheon and two protagonist speakers, the afternoon session of the Symposium will be held next door in the Chamber of Commerce building. This general session will consist of a panel discussion, audience participation and closing remarks.

For registration and other information call RAVA at 244-6630.

Library Adds Floor Directory

Lois Goodman, art librarian at Wallace Memorial Library, demonstrates new electronic floor directory (left). Designed by the Media Design Center, the directory was recently installed in the library. Flashing lights in the directory locate specific sections of the library when user presses button. The directory is located in the main lobby area of Wallace Library.

Computer Services Sets Access Changes

On March 30, 1973, the RIT computer access arrangement for all on-campus computer users will be changed, according to John L. Gunter, director of the Office of Computer Services. During the hours from 12:00 noon until approximately 5:00 p.m., changes will be made in the communication system and RIT internal lines to the computer may be inoperable. All computer Centrex lines, specifically the rotaries involving the numbers 464-4711 and 464-4811, will be converted to a "level 8" access arrangement.

After installation, users will access the computer from any 464 number by simply dialing the single digit "8". On the first dialing, the new access equipment will scan through a set of ten (10) lines and, if all ten of these lines are busy, a busy signal will be received. Upon hanging up and dialing "8" again, the access equipment will then scan through the next set of 10 lines. It is important for the users to understand that a busy signal may not mean that the number you are calling is busy and this will be true for the "level 8" arrangement as well.

The new "level 8" access arrangement will prevent anyone off-campus from getting into the 15-to-19 on-campus lines (an increase from the existing 8 lines) and should improve access considerably.

Gunter said "RIT's change to the Xerox computer system, and now with the recent addition of more core memory, more dial-up ports and more discs and tapes, and with the recent change to a new operating system (UTS) and this new "level 8" access arrangement, RIT is developing a powerful and capable system which should be a significant tool for academic and administrative work at the Institute."

Youth Seminar Set By Extended Services

A two-day seminar, directed toward adults and young persons representing social and health agencies, education, civic, service and religious groups as well as business and special interest organizations, will be offered by the Extended Services Division of RIT April 2-3.

"YOUTH -- Motivation & Trauma" will consider the dimensions of mental and physical health and their implications in the prevention of drug and alcohol abuse.

The keynote speaker for the first session will be Dr. Winton H. Beaven, dean, Kettering College of Medical Arts (Ohio). He will discuss mental health factors as they relate to youth. Discussion groups will follow, and will cover such topics as self-image, social relationships, attitudes towards the "establishment," and values.

Don Lew, a consultant on drug abuse and alcohol from Shorewood, Wis., will give the keynote address on the morning of the

Cont'd page 4

Commencement

cont'd from page 1

the College of Continuing Education, the College of Science, School of Applied Science, and the Center for Community and Junior College Relations; College of Business, College of General Studies, and the National Technical Institute for the Deaf; and the College of Engineering and the College of Fine and Applied Arts.

Following the ceremonies, the various colleges that comprise RIT will sponsor open houses featuring exhibits and displays of various kinds. Members of the faculties, deans, and officers will be on hand to greet the graduates and guests.

By breaking the ceremony into four separate events and eliminating the commencement speaker, RIT feels it can provide greater personal recognition to each graduating student, who will now be able to personally receive his degree citation, DePrez said. In the past, due to the large size of the graduating classes, one student has represented his college or program by receiving a token certificate for his entire group.

"As our student population grows, so also does the need to personalize our approach to education by not losing sight of the individual human element," said Dr. Todd H. Bullard, RIT's provost and vice president for academic affairs.

"We feel that the graduating students and their parents ought to be given something 'special' in recognition of the students expended time, expense, and study," Dr. Bullard said.

The 1973 commencement ceremonies coincide with RIT's Fifth Anniversary on its 1,300 acre, $100 million Henrietta campus.

Lomb Room Luncheons To Begin April 5

Quantity Food Production classes in the Department of Food Administration will again be serving luncheons in the Henry Lomb Room during Spring Quarter, Assistant Professor Ivan Town said.

The luncheons will be Tuesday and Thursday at noon beginning Thursday, April 5, Town said, and will cost $1.50. Reservations may be made by calling 464-2351 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. daily. Planned menus for the quarter will be published in an upcoming issue of News & Events.

News & Events should be delivered to faculty and staff department offices and other central locations throughout the Institute every Friday, except during vacation periods.

If you consistently receive News & Events late, we want to know about it.

Call us at 464-2337 and we'll try to speed up distribution.

YOUTH, cont'd from page 3

second session. Discussion groups will then consider venereal disease, drugs and alcohol, psychosomatic problems and environmental relations.

The program is being sponsored in cooperation with Truth for Youth, Inc., of Rochester and will be held at RIT's Metropolitan Center, from 9 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. on both days.

For further information regarding tuition, registration and accommodations for out-of-town participants, contact A. Robert Maurice, assistant director, Extended Services Division, RIT, 50 West Main St., Rochester, N.Y., 14614 or call 262-2709.

Harvard Dean To Speak On Urban Environment

Dr. Paul N. Ylvisaker, dean of the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University and former chairman of President Johnson's Task Force on the Cities, will be at RIT for a series of meetings with students, faculty and staff Tuesday, April 3.

Dr. Ylvisaker's visit is sponsored by the Division of Public Affairs and the College of General Studies.

Ylvisaker will lecture on "The Urban Environment" from 9 to 10 a.m. in Room 1251 of the College of General Studies. From 10 a.m. to 12 noon he will lead a discussion on "How Can The City and a Technological Institute Be Partners in Urban Affairs?"

Ylvisaker, who has a variety of experience in both public service and private foundations and universities, is recognized as a specialist in urban policy, particularly in the relationship of industry to the development of a community.

In addition to serving with President Johnson, Ylvisaker was for several years director of the Public Affairs program at the Ford Foundation and a member of the board of the National Academy of Public Administration.

NEWS AND NEWSMAKERS

William J. Welch, RIT controller, and his wife Tish, have accepted as co-chairmen the leadership of the Henrietta Community Chest/Red Cross Campaign for 1973. . . . Dr. Pellegrino Nazzaro, associate professor of history in the College of General Studies, has published an article in the April issue of Current History. The article deals with Italy's position in Western Europe and its role in East-West relations in the last three years. . . . Dr. Herb Mossien, professor in the College of Business, will address a "shirt-sleeve" session of the Rochester Sales Executive Club the evening of April 9 at the Pittsford on the Mall Restaurant. Two of his students, Senior Margaret Dubrosky and Junior Bill Daddario, will participate and address the group. The title of the presentation is "Management of the New Generation" Dr. Fred W. Smith, vice president of Student Affairs and dean of Complementary Education at RIT, will participate as a member of a workshop panel at the annual National Association of Student Personnel Administrators Conference in Philadelphia, April 8 to 11. "Perspectives on Learning: Student Affairs and Changing Dimensions of Education" will be the topic discussed.

Personnel Lists Staff Openings

As of our printing deadline the following staff positions were open at RIT. Employees interested in learning more about these jobs and/or applying for consideration should contact Personnel (x2424) for information or an appointment.

FULL-TIME

1. SECRETARY - Central Placement Services 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Good typist and general clerical knowledge. Some receptionist duties. High School Graduate. 2-3 years experience.
2. SECRETARY - Ice Arena 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Billings and keeping records, phones and general office work. 3-4 years experience.
3. OFFICE SUPERVISOR - College of Science 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Supervisor of secretarial work in departments of Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics & Physics. High School Graduate - some secretarial courses, 3-4 years experience. Shorthand, typing and good secretarial skills.
4. COMPUTER OPERATOR'- Computer Services (2nd Shift) 4:00 p.m. - 11:30 p.m.
High School Graduate. Operate Sigma 6 computer and minimum one year experience.
5. KEYPUNCH OPERATOR - Computer Services 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Knowledge of 029 keypunch & 059 verifier. High School Graduate. Minimum 1 year experience.
6. CARPENTER - Physical Plant 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
First or second class carpenter. 3-5 years experience. Good health and use of all limbs.
7. PLACEMENT COUNSELOR - Central Placement 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Career guidance type work. Prepare students for co-op work experience. 1-5 years experience. Familiarity with computer field desirable but not necessary.

PART-TIME

1. SECRETARY - NTID 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Preparation of reports, assisting in maintaining student schedules and general office. Willing to learn communication technique for deaf students/staff interaction.

EVENTS

Meetings

Saturday, March 31

9 a.m. to 6 p.m.—CYO Cheerleaders, Conference Room G, Gymnasium

Sunday, April 1

10 a.m. to 10 p.m.—Women's Caucus, Alumni Room

Monday, April 2

9:30 to 10:30 a.m.—Support Services Division of the Graduation Committee, Room M-1, College Union

7 p.m.—Student Court Meeting, Conference Room A, College Union

Tuesday, April 3

10 a.m. to noon—Student Affairs Staff Meeting, Conference Room A

12 noon to 2 p.m.—Women's Caucus, Booth Auditorium

2 to 3 p.m.—Slide Lecture by William Harper, contemporary enamelist, Booth Auditorium

Wednesday, April 4

8 p.m.—American Chemical Society Lecture, "Explaining Research and Development Viewpoints to Top Managers," with Professor Francis Pallischeck, Booth Auditorium

11 a.m.—Mechanical Engineering Seminar, "What is an Engineer and What Is His Role in Today's World?" with M.J. Corson, assistant chief engineer, Rochester Gas & Electric Corp.; Room 1030, School of Engineering

4:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.—Society of Manufacturing Engineers, "Metric Orientation for U.S. Manufacturing and Industry," Booth Auditorium

8 p.m.—Black Awareness Coordinating Committee Lecture, with Assemblyman Aruthr Eve, Room A-205, College of General Studies

12 noon to 1 p.m.—Professional Businesswoman's Association, Conference Room B, College Union

8 p.m.—Alumni Lecture Series, "How the Investing Public Looks at the Corporation's Annual Report," with William D. Gasser, professor in the College of Business, Room A-100, Library

Thursday, April 5

3:45 p.m.—Chemistry Seminar, "The Origin and Synthesis of Life," with Professor Charles Price, University of Pennsylvania Chemistry Department, Room 2178, College of Science

10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.—Social Work Department Meeting, Room M-1, College Union

2:45 p.m.—Traffic Review Board, Conference Room B, College Union

7 p.m.—Human Sexuality Course, Conference Room C, College Union

8 p.m.—Black Awareness Coordinating Committee Lecture, with Sonya Sanchez, Room A-205, College of General Studies

7:30 p.m.—Career Guidance Seminar on Engineering, conducted by RIT Alumni, Kate Gleason Hall North Lounge

Movies

Friday, March 30

7:30 and 10 p.m.—Talisman Film Festival, "Derby," the wild world of the roller derby, with its audience hysteria, is a dramatic and penetrating film about a young man who wants to make the derby a way of life; Ingle Auditorium, $1

Saturday, March 31

7:30 and 10 p.m.—Talisman Film Festival, "McCabe and Mrs. Miller," a visual work of outstanding sensual beauty. Warren Beatty, in perhaps the most absorbing role of his career, stars as the grizzled small-time gambler whose business is bringing pleasure to a Presbyterian church, with Julie Christie. Ingle Auditorium, $1

Sunday, April 1

7 p.m.—"The Lonliness of the Long Distance Runner," Fairport Library

7:30 and 10 p.m.—Talisman Film Festival, "The Girls," Mai Zetterling, Sweden's leading woman director, creates a forceful statement on feminism and woman's sexual role in society; Ingle Auditorium, $1

Music

Saturday, March 31

8:15 p.m.—Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians, University of Rochester Eastman Theatre

Sunday, April 1

3 p.m.—Gallery Series, "Archduke Trio," Beethoven, Evelyn Hirschland, piano; Sara Pistolesi, violin; Donald Pistolesi, violincello: Memorial Art Gallery

Campus Night Life

Friday, March 30

4:30 to 6:30—Faculty, Student, Staff Happy Hour, Union Mezzanine, drinks 2/99 cents

8 p.m. to 1 a.m.—Beer and Pizza Party, sponsored by Evening Student Association, Ritskellar, College Union

Sunday, April 1

7 to 10 p.m.—Boswell Coffee House, Milti-Purpose Room

Announcements

Thursday, April 5

12 noon to 6 p.m.—Blood Drive, College Union Lounge. There will be displays on the ceiling for the enjoyment of the donors.

12 noon—Quantity Food Production classes will begin serving luncheons to anyone who is interested in the Henry Lomb Room, Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting today. Reservations may be made by calling 464-2351.

Religious Services

Friday, March 30

7:30 p.m.—Hillel Services; 3rd Floor Lounge, Nathaniel Rochester Hall

Sunday, April 1

10:30 a.m.—Roman Catholic Mass, Father Appelby; Kate Gleason North Lounge

1 p.m.—Protestant Worship, Reverend Rodney Rynearson; Kate Gleason North Lounge

The next edition of the calendar will cover the period April 6 through 12. Material for that issue must be received by News & Events or Reporter by Friday, March 30.

Exhibits

WALLACE MEMORIAL GALLERY: RIT Potters, through April 6, Library

FORUM EAST GALLERY: Painting and sculpture by Lorna Ritz, RIT instructor in Fine and Applied Arts, through April 6, Monroe Community College

BEVIER GALLERY: "The Things We Take For Granted," an exhibit of the artistry found in products and machines used by local industry, through April 13, College of Fine and Applied Arts

XEROX SQUARE EXHIBIT CENTER: The Gund Collection of Western Art, through May 6