This Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium a People's Caucus will be held to present names as candidates to be voted for April 12. It is the imperative duty of every voter to be present at tonight's meeting to participate in placing in nomination men suitable for taking care of our interests in this mammoth stock company.

FINE FOOTHILL HOMES

J. C. WOODS PLANS AND BUILDS FOR SELF AND DAUGHTER

A few years ago J. C. Woods of Los Angeles bought 20 acres of foothill land at the corner of Kenneth Road and Grand View Avenue. He has sold it all off in lots, after subdividing, except four acres. On two of the large lots he retained he has had beautiful six-room bungalows built for himself and wife and his daughter and her husband. They are handsomely finished inside and out. The outside is of plaster and being painted a dazzling white and located high up on the mountain side, both houses are quite conspicuous and a decided addition to the landscape.

Mr. Woods and his wife occupy the bungalow to the west and G. C. Whittle and wife the other. The latter couple have most of their household goods stored in their garage and are camping for a few days with her parents. Mr. Woods came to California from Waterloo, Iowa, six years ago. He was a furniture dealer there for many years. He preferred the quieter life of a small city, so, after looking about extensively, decided on the Glendale site. His daughter married G. C. Whittle a few years ago and wishing her and her husband to be near by, he built the home for them also. Mr. Whittle is in charge of athletics at Los Angeles High School. Though but 26 years of age he has six men under his charge and is a valued member of the faculty.

Mr. Woods says that all the men he has sold lots to from his acreage will build on them soon and ere long there will be quite a little colony up there.

OWEN EMERY OPENS LAW OFFICE IN GLENDALE

Owen Emery, who was associated in law practice with Sol Rehart in Los Angeles, both before and since the war, has moved his office to the Wright building in Glendale, believing that this city has just begun to grow and offers a splendid opportunity for both business and professional men. He has been a resident of Glendale for the past fifteen years and graduated from the High School in 1911. He later attended U. S. C., graduating from the law college in 1915. He was admitted to the bar in 1914 and practiced in Los Angeles continually since that time except during his 20 months of war service. He was first sergeant in the 316th Ammunition Train and was in France nine months, taking part in the Argonne and Belgian offensives.

BUY OUT HAMMOND CO.

BENTLEY-SCHOENEMAN LUMBER COMPANY BUYS YARD ON LOS FELIZ ROAD

The Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber Company of 200 East Broadway has just completed the purchase and have taken possession of the Hammond Lumber Company's yard at 462 West Los Feliz Road, Glendale. For the past year the business of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber Company has been steadily increasing, and got to a point where they had to have more room to handle the large amount of lumber that is coming into and going out of the yard at all times. They will now be in a position to give the public even better service than before because of greater economy in operation.

NEW THEATRE

"THE GLENDALE" SOON TO RISE AT 120 TO 126 SOUTH BRAND

A permit for the erection of the new Glendale Theatre building at 120 to 126 South Brand Boulevard was taken out this morning by Chas. W. Kent & Son, the contractors. It calls for an expenditure of $60,000. The cost of the grounds and of the necessary furnishings will bring the total investment up to a figure approximating $100,000.

The building is to be 75x180, extending from Brand almost to Maryland Avenue. It is to be of brick with a terra cotta front. There will be two business rooms on the ground floor, one on either side of the entrance to the auditorium, which is to seat 1500 people. This auditorium and the stage will occupy the full two stories.

Mrs. Louise Goodno of Pasadena is the owner and her husband, Dr. Goodno, a retired physician, is looking after the business arrangements. He is much impressed with Glendale as a city with a great business future before it as well as a city of beautiful homes and he chose it after a thorough investigation of many cities suburban to Los Angeles.

It will require about six months to complete the building.

ST. PATRICK DINNER PARTY

A very pretty dinner party was given last evening by Miss Carolyn Ayars at her home, 315 North Orange Street. The house was beautifully decorated in green and the table decorations and favors were carried out in real St. Patrick emblems, a green flag held in place by a large potato, small green baskets of flowers and a shamrock greeted each guest as they came to the table. Those present were the Misses Margaret Fife, Marjorie Temple, Margaret Wilson, Erma Lucas, Winifred Parker and the hostess, Carolyn Ayars. After the dinner Mrs. Ayars accompanied the guests to the Palace Grand Theatre where they enjoyed "Pollyanna."

HARD TIMES PARTY

LADIES OF HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC CHURCH GIVE SUCCESSFUL FUNCTION

The Hard Times party given by the ladies of the Holy Family Catholic Church in the Pearl Keller studio proved a grand success, and every dancer had a fine time. Punch was served throughout the evening and prizes were given for the best hard times costumes. The first prize was won by Mrs. Mary O'Brien dressed as an old and impoverished lady supported by a black thorn cane. The prize was a handsome cut glass dish. To Charles Rudel, who was exceptionally good in a tramp get-up, went the first prize for gentlemen, a silver mounted pencil. The second prize for ladies, a box of candy, was captured by Miss Eva Leslie, dressed in rags, and the second gentlemen's prize was awarded to Walter Thistlewhite, who appeared in a nondescript comedy costume, and who also received a box of candy.

UNDESIRABLE ADVERTISING

Glendale is not always favorably advertised abroad. One of the unfavorable occasions took place recently at Hotel U. S. Grant in San Diego when a man registered as A. A. Carrick, Glendale, Cal., and then beat a board bill for $4.25, so reports a member of a detective agency which is searching for the man.

GETTING ACTION ON PEACE TREATY

SENATE SHOWS DISPOSITION TO GET FINAL VOTE AND CONSIDERS REMAINING RESERVATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Displaying a disposition to get a final vote on the peace treaty without delay, the Senate today began voting on the remaining reservations. It rejected three reservations proposed by Senator Reed.

FARMERS DISFRANCHISED

SENATOR JOHNSON CHARGES THEY WERE CUT OFF FROM VOTING AT MINNESOTA PRIMARIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Farmers were virtually disfranchised in the Minnesota presidential primary elections, Senator Hiram Johnson, who was a candidate, declared in a statement today. "This primary was the first strong arm act of the campaign," Johnson declared. He charged that the "machine" conducted the fight for Wood and despite his protests the polls were open only an hour in the evening.

ADMIRAL SIMS COMPLETES CASE

COMMANDER FINISHES HIS ARRAIGNMENT OF U. S. NAVY HEADS BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Admiral William S. Sims today completed his case against the navy department's conduct of the war with a tribute to the achievements of the navy in the face of the handicap of a "vacillating policy," "mis-direction," and "dangerous delay," by Washington. The senators will begin cross examination tomorrow. Sims' preliminary statement is one of the longest ever read to a Senate committee. It covers nearly 200 closely printed pages totalling 120,000 words. In this statement he went into minute details regarding the operation of the war, quoting scores of secret tables and referring to hundreds of others.

AMERICAN TROOPS ON RHINE

MAJOR GENERAL ALLEN DECLARES THEY ARE READY FOR ANY EMERGENCY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 18.—In an interview given out at Coblenz which was received here today, Major General Allen is reported to have said:

"I do not think the Von Kapp movement had any reflection along this line but naturally we could not tell how far it was to extend. The American troops are in fine condition and we are ready for any emergency."

The meeting of allied chiefs called by Marshal Foch was arranged before the coup in Berlin and hence was not an incident in that coup, Allen said. The question of allied control beyond the Rhine bridgehead was not discussed.

HOOVER WOULD ACCEPT TREATY

SAYS RESERVATIONS PROPOSED SHOULD SATISFY MOST TIMID REGARDING "ENTANGLEMENTS"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Herbert Hoover declared today that the peace treaty should be accepted so long as its final form leaves us freedom of action and room for the constructive development of peace. Hoover also said that the growing state of international antagonism cannot be modified until the United States joins the league of nations. His statement, which was prepared for a Washington daily, stated that the reservations proposed for the treaty should satisfy the most timid as to "entanglements."

ADAMS-HERRON

PRETTY WEDDING OF POPULAR SUNLAND GIRL ATTENDED BY MANY GUESTS

The marriage of Miss Cornelia Herron of Sunland and Elmer Adams of Los Angeles was celebrated Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Monte Vista Hotel in the presence of about one hundred and fifty guests. The corner reserved for the ceremony had been banked with white carnations and ferns, the bridal pair standing beneath a beautiful white wedding bell, also of carnations. A Los Angeles clergyman, an old friend of the groom, officiated, and the Lohengrin Wedding March was played by Rev. Stevens, pastor of the Sunland church.

Miss Herron made a charming bride gowned in white satin veiled with net over which fell her beautiful silk net veil crowned with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white bride roses which was afterwards caught by Miss Moneta Huse when the good-byes were said.

The pathway for the bridal pair was strewn with rose petals by lit-

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Twenty-five years ago, a few days before the birthday of Ireland's patron saint, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Tresslar of 320 West Lexington Drive, this city, were married at Riverside, Cal. In celebration of their silver anniversary they entertained a group of twelve Wednesday evening with a card party. In recognition of the day a green color scheme dominated the floral decorations in which green carnations were employed, likewise the appointments of the table at which refreshments were served at the close of the evening, and the menu itself. There was a hand-painted place card, a girl figurine dressed in green for each guest, the personal work of the clever hostess, who was the recipient of some very pretty gifts of silver.

IRISH MUSICAL

PLAYERS' CLUB ENTERTAINS AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. D. RIPLEY JACKSON

The Music Section of the Glendale Players' Club provided the program Wednesday evening when the club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson on Chestnut Street. An excellent and most appreciative audience was present and greatly enjoyed the social as well as the musical pleasures of the evening. In preparation for the event the library of the Jackson home had been converted into a stage and the house beautifully decorated with roses and wisteria.

The first number on the program was given by six young ladies designated as "The Irish Sextette," and composed of Misses Nellie Mae Williams, Lillian Chudley, Dorothy Hunt, Ruth Wilson, Gertrude Champlain and Mrs. B. Kirk Smith. Their contribution was the Irish swing song, "Shoety-Shoo." Following the ten-minute intermission which divided the program the sextette sang "The Rose of Tipperary" and "The Owl and the Pussy Cat." D. Ripley Jackson, the host, sang "Macushla" in his best manner, and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," for which his house guest, Mrs. Mary Brandis, furnished the piano accompaniment. She also presided at the piano as "Maggie Murphy," appropriate.

CANTALOUPE GROWING

JAPS ALREADY HAVE SEED STARTED, DESPITE FROSTS

A novel sight attracts the passer-by on the north side of Sixth Street, about halfway between Pacific Avenue and Grand View Avenue. There are rows and rows of paper dunce caps, apparently, a space of five acres being covered by them. The rows are eight feet apart and the caps seven feet. Investigation discloses that this is a field devoted to cantaloupe growing and one wonders at the infinite patience required to place over the more than 6000 hills of growing plants these little paper caps designed to protect from frosts and weight them down with dirt to keep the wind from lifting them. No wonder white people can not compete with such workers as these who put in 12 to 16 hours a day, men, women and the children of all ages.

A woman working in the field said the caps were left on for a week or more, until the cold had hardened the resisting power of the plants. Asked when it was expected melons from these plants would be ripe she said about July 15. They are all of the Tiptop variety, smooth and light green in color on the outside and with yellow meat.

TIME UP FOR REPLACING AUTO LICENSE PLATES

The Glendale police headquarters has received word from the automobile licensing department that Monday, March 15, was the last day for replacing the old number plates with new ones and that arrests should be made where neglect was shown in complying with the law.

KNOCKED DOWN BY BICYCLE

A Mrs. Seymour of Colorado St. reports to the Evening News office that she was knocked down, on Elk Avenue, by two boys riding a bicycle, and considerably hurt. She says she stepped off the walk to avoid them but they turned as she did and the bicycle struck her. She says boys should be compelled to keep off the sidewalks when riding bicycles.

CLUB BENEFIT TEA

TEN HOSTESSES UNITE IN BIG FUNCTION AT HOME OF MRS. TOLL

The largest social affair that has taken place since the influenza embargo and one of the biggest functions of the winter was enjoyed by about 150 ladies at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll on Kenneth Road Wednesday afternoon when ten ladies who are neighbors in that part of the city and who are members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, joined in giving a benefit tea for the club house fund. The hostesses were: Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. James Connor, Mrs. David Black, Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Charles T. Nesselroad, Mrs. S. W. Jamison, Mrs. Charles Montgomery, Mrs. H. Olmstead.

Occurring as it did on the birthday of St. Patrick it was made a real Irish day. Most of the hostesses were gowned in white and wore fetching green aprons shaped to the semblance of a three-leafed clover, but Mrs. Campbell, who was chairman of the group, was garbed in a charming creation of emerald green, and to her was given the responsibility.

HOUSE FAMINE

J. KLIBERT IS DOING HIS SHARE TOWARD RELIEVING IT

J. Klibert, who bought the C. W. McFadden property at 213 West Elk Avenue a few months ago and after making additions and improvements moved into it from 904 East Lomita Avenue, is engaged now in reducing the house famine in Glendale. He is in the used car business in Los Angeles but chooses to make his home and invest his money in Glendale. He recently bought the lot at the southwest corner of Lomita and Glendale Avenues on which the orange and lemon packing house stood for so many years. It has a frontage of 102 feet on Lomita Avenue and narrows down to 30 feet at the rear end where it backs up against a lot on Chestnut. An old house standing at 336 West Cypress Avenue was bought by Mr. Klibert and moved to this lot. It was placed facing on Glendale Avenue, about 40 feet from the rear of the lot. It is being made into a six-room house. On the front of the lot and facing on Lomita Avenue Mr. Klibert plans to build two houses. The garages for all three will be built back of the house facing on Glendale Avenue and will face the same way.

EXTRADITION OF FORMER KAISER

LONDON, March 18.—Despite repeated assurances given by Count Hohenzollern, the former kaiser, that he will refrain from political activity, the belief prevails that the entente will demand that Holland extradite him. The allies will demand that Wilhelm be exiled to Curacao in the West Indies or to the British East Indies, it is believed. Also, the Kapp coup, though short-lived, the allies believe, has given Holland evidence that it will be impossible for the ex-kaiser to remain in Europe because of the trouble of guarding him. The sentiment throughout Holland has changed, it is affirmatively reported. Several communications and discussions between the entente and Holland have occurred within the past few days. Yesterday a royal decree published in Holland confined Wilhelm to that portion of Utrecht Province in which Amerongen and Doorn are located. Holland is also understood to have notified the entente that the strictest precautions will be adopted regarding the former kaiser.

ALL FACTIONS OPPOSE REVOLUTIONISTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Undated Dispatch—The government of Ebert, imperial president of Germany, will face wide-spread demands for drastic reforms when it returns to Berlin, today's dispatches indicated. The resignation of Von Kapp and the revolutionary group that seized power last Saturday was forced not so much by pressure from the Ebert group as by the determination of the radicals that no reactionary government should stand in Germany. There is every indication that the socialists and spartacans will strive to the fullest extent in their power to obtain greater representation in the government, demanding reorganization with participation of their representatives. Deputies Daumig and Cohn, leaders in the coalition of independent socialists and communists who forced the revolutionists out are reported to have declared that the proletariat will not reorganize the workingmen's forces for the profit of Ebert but will demand power for themselves.

The Von Kapp dictatorship ended Wednesday night when Ebert took over the government.

PEOPLE'S CAUCUS

To be held in the Glendale Union High School, Thursday evening, March 18, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for city offices as follows, to be voted on at the city election, Monday, April 12, 1920.

- Three trustees to serve for a term of four years;
One city clerk to serve for a term of four years;
One city treasurer to serve for a term of four years.

Said caucus to be presided over by a Chairman chosen by a vote of the people assembled.

The committee recommends that all votes be taken by ballot, and that all proceedings of the caucus be conducted in such a manner that the will of the people assembled may govern.

Some of the problems to come before the next Board of Trustees are the spending of $260,000.00 of water bond money, the consideration of a municipal sewer system, and the question of adopting a special charter to govern the city. Trustees who are the choice of the people should be empowered to attend to these important duties.

You are requested to give this call the widest publicity possible.

The fact that some government jobs are going begging is as strong proof as any one need have of the shortage in the labor market, particularly professional and expert employments. Civil service commissions in Los Angeles and elsewhere are having to re-advertise examinations for laboratory assistants in the navy department, employes in Panama Canal service, teachers, physicians, etc. New examinations are to be held March 17th and 21st.

The body of a beautiful collie dog with a Los Angeles tag on, was found on the lawn at 1002 Orange Grove Avenue this morning, evidently, from its clean appearance a pet in some family. The cause of its death was not apparent, as there were no bruises on the body and no appearance as of poisoning.

SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

PROFITABLE SESSION AT GLENDALE PRES. CHURCH WEDNESDAY EVE.

The fourth of the series of five sessions of the School of Missions being held at the Glendale Presbyterian Church followed the regular prayer meeting last evening and the room was well filled with members of the congregation and friends who have been receiving instructive and helpful messages during the sessions which started a few weeks ago. "Christian Americanization," under the leadership of Miss Rose Scott, was very interesting, followed by a book review of "From Alien to Citizen," conducted by Dr. J. K. Gikerson. Then came the address of the evening by Dr. J. C. Shedd of Occidental College. Dr. Shedd laid special emphasis on the great work being accomplished by our American schools and colleges impressing upon his hearers that the public schools and colleges are the greatest aid to Americanization of any institution existing. His address was illustrated by striking examples from real life and those fortunate enough to hear him were well repaid by the knowledge gained from his remarks. After the address members of the Men's Bible Class entertained during a social hour with hot chocolate and cake.

CENTRAL AVENUE LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid of the Central Avenue Methodist Church put on an original and highly entertaining program at the church Tuesday evening as a benefit for the church debt. Eight talented members gave a little original playlet, a burlesque business session of the Ladies' Aid, which was greatly appreciated. The ladies in the cast were: Mesdames Tuttle, Kopp, Doughty, Blythe, Tisdale, Richards, Augustus, Muhleman, and Miss Goodsell. The playlet was followed by readings by Mrs. E. B. Moore and by a vocal duet by Misses Emily Kopp and Helen Muhleman. Refreshments of coffee and pie were served and a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed. Considering the stormy weather the attendance was large.

ST. PATRICK'S PICNIC

A jolly party of friends was entertained for St. Patrick's Day at the home of Mrs. Robert Lyons in honor of a guest from the East, Mrs. Moore, who is spending the winter in Pasadena. A picnic lunch was served and a musical afternoon enjoyed, as one of the guests, Miss Haas, is a fine vocalist. The party included Mrs. O. J. Furst, Mrs. C. M. Haas and daughter, Miss Virginia Haas of Los Angeles, Mrs. C. H. Hood of Glendale, Mrs. Charles Moore, the hostess and sister, Mrs. Tom Furst.

Regino Verdugo of 224 Howard Street is up after a severe attack of pneumonia, but is not yet able to be out of the house.

MAN BEGGING TOLD TO MOVE ON

A police report rivaling in terseness many famous historical dispatches appeared on the records at headquarters yesterday. It was as follows: "Charles Green was found on the street begging. The judge advised him to go while the going was good. He went." There is no excuse for an able-bodied man to be begging these times.

TWO-STORY GARAGE FOR YOSTS

Kent & Son are building a two-story garage for Robert M. Yost of North Verdugo Road on the lot recently purchased at 406 Riverdale Drive, just west of A. S. Chase's residence property. The garage will have three living rooms besides the room for the machine and these are to be servants' quarters when the big new house is built on the front and will be occupied temporarily by Mr. and Mrs. Yost if they sell their present home. The garage will cost $2900.

JEWISH RELIEF

GOVERNOR STEPHENS ISSUES PROCLAMATION FIXING DATES FOR DRIVE

The drive for funds to aid in the feeding and clothing of 800,000 orphans and destitute children of Jewish parents in Poland and other devastated countries in Europe will be conducted in Glendale on March 28 to April 3, inclusive, in accordance with the proclamation below:

"There exists today amongst the Jewish people throughout Poland and other devastated sections of Europe the most appalling conditions of destitution and starvation in the world's history.

"Heretofore the Jews of our land have not asked for assistance in caring for the wants of their needy, but this time the task is too great for them to shoulder alone, as the feeding and clothing of the 800,000 orphans and destitute children is beyond their financial ability.

"The Jewish people responded nobly during the great war, furnishing 200,000 of the best American Jewish blood, also they gave liberally of their money and time to the Allied cause. They have proved themselves good Americans, and have shown beyond a doubt that they appreciate the freedom and privileges enjoyed by true citizens of this great republic.

"To expedite the raising of funds, I hereby designate the dates March 28th to the 3rd of April, inclusive, as official Jewish War Relief for Southern California days, and I urge our people to do as they have in all other worthy campaigns, contribute liberally to this fund for the Jewish War sufferers of the old world."

CLUB SITE COMMENT

Having read of the discussion which took place recently at the Tuesday Afternoon Club on the question of exchanging club lots, and since I was not present I would like to make a suggestion. The corner lot which was acquired during my presidency certainly has not depreciated in value any more than other lots in Glendale. I think it a serious mistake to make a public statement that such is the case, even if convinced that the lot is now worth only $1500, which I personally do not believe to be the case. Such statements would be better if made in executive board sessions only. We should not allow our property to be depreciated below the value of property offered in exchange for ours. I do not know what agents made the valuation on the lots owned by the club, but surely not the ones who placed the valuation on the Brand Boulevard frontage recently for the school bond election. Surely a corner lot near such high priced property can not have depreciated $500 unless others have done the same in other locations.

I am in favor of more ground decidedly, but upon a fair estimate of valuation for exchange of properties involved.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones.

IRISH MUSICALS

privately dressed for the part, in a surprise number put on by Mr. Jackson designated as "The Barnyard Quartette," which he directed with an axe for a baton. The singers, who were in costume, were: Bob and Al Sullivan, Kenneth Jackson and Tommy Elliott, an Eastern friend of the Jacksons, who is now living in Los Angeles. Their repertoire included Irish songs and popular songs, and they made a great hit.

Mrs. Le Roy Bosserman played delightfully "Valse Brillante" in A Flat by Moskowski, and John Marquardt contributed a violin solo, "Ballette Polonoise," by Vieuxtemps, Miss Gertrude Champlain being his accompanist at the piano.

Miss Mary Louise Hand, the whistler, gave charmingly "Love's Garden of Roses" and "The Mocking Bird," to a piano accompaniment contributed by her sister-in-law.

Mrs. Mabel Capell delighted her audience with two songs, "Before the Dawn," by Chadwick, and "Ah, Love But a Day," by Gilberte.

Variety was afforded by a reading, "Pauline Pavlova," by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, which was greatly enjoyed.

A dainty fancy dance was executed by Miss Esther Ralston, which also pleased all beholders.

Announcements of the club's plans were made during the intermission by Miss Ina Whitaker, who also thanked the artists and the host and hostess on behalf of the club for the evening's entertainment.

CHAPTER A. H.

Chapter A. H., P. E. O., held the first meeting of the new chapter year at the home of Mrs. John Hobbs on Tuesday, March 16th. Mrs. Hobbs, Miss Dorothy Hobbs and Mrs. N. Ripley were the hostesses. Mrs. D. H. Smith and Mrs. A. G. Barkley, both of Chapter L, were the guests of the day. Mrs. C. M. Turck gave the third of a series of talks on her trip abroad, which are always a delight to all. The next meeting of the chapter will be held April 9th at Mrs. A. Stephenson's on Central Avenue.

He said he expected to start for London, England, in about a week to take a post-graduate course in medicine and would then return to Burbank and resume his practice.

FORTY-TWO GLENDALÉ SCOUTS
ENJOY HIKE TO SISTER
ELSIE MOUNTAIN

Last Saturday, Mr. Kellogg, at the wheel of a "flivver" truck, met forty-two of Glendale's Scouts at the Intermediate School. The crowd was too large for one poor little truck, so half of the boys took to the Montrose "dinky." The first load of boys was "dumped" at La Crescenta summit and sent on ahead on foot, while the truck returned to the end of the carline to pick up the crowd who had taken to the street car. The entire band reassembled again at the mouth of Haynes Canyon.

From here the government trail was followed through the canyon for about three miles, and then came the long steep ascent via the new trail to the summit of Sister Elsie. It was a hard climb, but the view from the trail was superb, and was of itself worth the climb.

The leaders reached the summit at 12:30 and Mr. Kellogg was the first to let drive a snowball. By 1 o'clock all of the party had gained the top, and those who had already finished their lunch were engaged in making the snow fly. Before long, almost the whole party had completely forgotten their fatigue and were waging a battle royal.

At 2:15 after a refreshing rest and enough snow to make many a hand numb with the cold the party started the descent and reached the truck by 4 o'clock.

The rest of the trip, except for the singing and yelling, was uneventful but enjoyed by all. On alighting from the truck most of the boys showed marked signs of stiff muscles, but were none the worse for wear, and all joined in voting the hike a delightful success from start to finish.

Tests
Troop 2—Warren May, Harland May, David Roberts, Stewart Eaton, Lewis Steele and Burnham Warner passed a total of six tests.
Troop 3—Alexander McPherson, Ralph Eckles, Burton DeGroot, Perry Townsend, Eugene Wernette made a total of seven tests.
Troop 4—Richardson Jones and Artaur Wetton passed three tests.
(One account of a fourteen-mile hike was handed in without any name on it. It is thought to belong to a member of Troop 3. The paper was passed.)

Swimming Pool Drive
Many of the boys have been somewhat discouraged in their efforts to raise money for the pool by finding that in most of the homes, parents were giving through their own school children. This is to be expected. The Scouts were reserved in the Liberty Loan drives as "Gleaners after the Reapers" to bring in the odd subscriptions during the last week, which had been missed during the previous days of the drive. It is so in this case also. The Scouts are to comb the territory thoroughly, not missing a house, and gather the subscriptions of those who have no school children in their families. So don't be discouraged, Scouts. You are chosen for the hardest job, because it is known that you can be depended on!

LEAGUE OF SOUTHWEST
LOS ANGELES, March 18.—(United Press).—In preparation for the big annual convention of the League of the Southwest here April 1, 2 and 3, every district in the southwest interested in or affected by the problem of the Colorado River Improvement has been urged to hold meetings to arrange delegations to the convention here.

One pre-convention session will be held in Los Angeles tomorrow in the Chamber of Commerce; another has been called by the Imperial Valley Irrigation district, and yet another by interests in Arizona, headed by the San Carlos Irrigation Association.

Officials of the league announced that some of the new additions to the list of nationally known speakers included Engineer E. C. LaRue of Pasadena, America's foremost authority on the Colorado River basin's improvement needs; Cato Sells, United States Indian commissioner; Chairman Elwood Mead of Berkeley, of the California Land Settlement Board; Secretary of Interior John Barton Payne, and H. J. Grant of

"I can truthfully say that I have had the very best results in my experience with the 'J. B. L. Cascade.' You certainly have struck the keynote of many diseases."
By means of the "J. B. L. Cascade" simple warm water cleanses the lower intestine the entire length, removes all the poisonous waste therein and keeps it clean and pure, as Nature demands it shall be for perfect health.

You will be astonished at your feelings the morning after taking an internal bath with the "J. B. L. Cascade." You will feel bright, brisk, confident and as though everything is working right—and it is.

It absolutely removes constipation and prevents Auto-Intoxication.

Roberts & Echols in Glendale will show and explain the "J. B. L. Cascade" to you, and will also give you, free on request, a most interesting booklet, "Why Man of To-day Is Only 50% Efficient," by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, of New York, for 25 years a specialist on Internal Bathing. Ask for it to-day.

bility of directing and announcing the program, a duty performed with characteristic charm and wit which won all hearts. She first secured a census of all ladies present who had been born, like herself, in Ireland. There were few real daughters of Erin, but when she called for those who descended from Irish parents or grandparents, many hands were raised. When she introduced the hostesses of the day she apologized for or commended on other accounts all who had missed birth in Ireland. She also introduced the president of the club—Mrs. W. A. Tower—who reminded the ladies of the dinner at which club husbands will be entertained this week, and Mrs. Campbell then introduced the past presidents who were present, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones. Mrs. Black and Mrs. Nesselroad presided at the tea table and other hostesses assisted in serving.

To Mrs. Black was given credit for the unique decoration of the tea table, which was centered with a large mirror to represent an Irish lake dotted with islands on which reeds, broom and other characteristic flora were apparently growing. At one side and presumably making a circuit of the lake was an Irish jaunting car with a ruddy faced son of Erin as driver, and very lifelike sons and daughters as passengers. It was a bright scheme cleverly carried out.

Before the tea drinking took place a brief program was given, which opened with a beautiful demonstration of the sword dance by Little Divina Wood (daughter of Mrs. Bessie Wood of this city) in Highland costume. After an interval of musical numbers she gave the Highland Fling in quite as spirited and charming a manner, greatly pleasing her sympathetic audience of mothers. Vocal numbers which included "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," "I Will Love Thee Only," Granier's "Hosannah," and "Mother Macree," were beautifully sung by Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts, Mrs. Spencer Robinson furnishing the piano accompaniment.

While part of the ladies were being served with tea in the dining room Mrs. Campbell made an informal little talk on present conditions in Ireland based on her own first hand knowledge and on information received by her from relatives now living in her old home. The keynote of her little speech was: "Hands Off Ireland." Outsiders, she declared, do not understand the problem nor the existing conditions and are therefore not competent to meddle, and England is quite able to settle her own business. Said she: "Many people will try to make you believe that Ireland is a down-trodden country, and forty years ago it was, but today it is a conquered country. The English government for the past forty years has been doing everything known to be good to the Irish people. (applause). Ireland has its town council, its lord lieutenant, its own city governments, its officers elected by the people and for the people as you say, and in the British parliament Ireland has one representative to every forty per cent of population while England, Scotland and Wales has one representative to 70 or 80 per cent of population."

She explained that she is what is termed an "Ulster-Scott" because she came from the Province of Ulster which includes in its nine counties four which are largely Protestant—Counties Antrim, Londonderry, Down and Armagh, where the people are prosperous and contented and where great linen mills and shipbuilding plants are found, where Roman Catholics and Protestants live in amity and where the boys from Roman Catholic and Protestant homes alike went to war shoulder to shoulder, equally loyal to their government and ready to die for their country and its ideals. The discontent of which we read is found, she says, among a class of people ignorant and superstitious, who are still ruled by the prejudices of forty years and more ago and who are nursing obsolete grievances.

IN DEFENSE OF RIPE OLIVES
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Declaring that the Eastern market for California olives had reached a standstill because of the sensational publicity given to several cases of botulism poisoning, George Wolff, Secretary of the Sunical Packing Company, of San Francisco, sounds a warning that prompt action must be taken to counteract the effects of the ill-founded statements concerning the ripe olive, else the entire industry of the state will be damaged to a far reaching extent.

Wolff, who is one of the leading packers of the state and a director of the California Olive Association, addressed a large assemblage of wholesale and retail representatives at the luncheon of the California Industries Association at the Palace Hotel. Reviewing market conditions and dwelling upon the gravity of the situation confronting the olive grower, he stated that every Californian must prove his loyalty by denouncing all attempts to discredit the ripe olive.

"There are more than 40,000 acres planted to olives in California representing an investment of $20,000,000. The pack last year represented $3,500,000. To handle this output more than 90,000,000 containers were used, and "yet," said Wolff, "within a few months six instances of poisoning in different states have been magnified to such an extent that this great industry, whose history dates back to Biblical times, must suffer almost irreparable injury."

"Botulism is not an infection, but an intoxication. The bacillus botulinus is a spore bearing anaerobic organism which thrives in room temperature. It is the toxin that produces the poison.

"The cases of botulism reported are not confined to ripe olives alone. The germ is found in practically all foods either in the canned or fresh state. It is frequently detected in canned asparagus, apricots, string beans. It was originally discovered in Germany in a sausage preparation.

"The surest safeguard is complete sterilization, and this process is made easier and more effectual by the use of cans. The scientists who are investigating botulism have decided that the poisonings have been due to improper pasteurization. New methods of packing have been prescribed and a recurrence of botulism poisoning will doubtless be remote. Sterilization at a temperature of 225 degrees Fahrenheit will kill any known germ, and in the future no doubt all responsible packers will adopt this formula.

"The famed Mission olive which represents 95 per cent of the California production is free from suspicion and to the credit of the legitimate ripe olive let it be understood that the fatal poisonings were due to a variety known as the Sevillano. This is a giant green olive colored and labeled 'ripe.' Because of its size, sterilization was difficult and the bacillus was not killed. The government has now prohibited the use of the term 'ripe' on this character of packed article."

Mr. Wolff read a number of official communications from chiefs of scientific and health organizations, all defending the ripe olive as a safe and wholesome article of diet. All, however, declared that as in all other packed fruits, proper sterilization is necessary to make the ripe olive a germ free food.

tie Mildred Adams, sister of the groom, dressed in white organdie, and wearing a blue sash, little Bettie Hitchcock of this city carrying a calla lily in which the ring was borne. She, too, was dressed in white organdie girdled with a pink sash.

The bride was attended by Miss Carrie Adams, sister of the groom, gowned in pale pink Georgette over satin, decorated with touches of blue, and wearing a pink tulle hat to match. She carried Cecil Brunner roses. William B. Lancaster of Sunland supported the groom as best man.

The ceremony was followed by a brief reception after which light refreshments were served under the direction of Misses Winifred Herron and Gladys and Moneta Huse. The bridal party then left for Los Angeles, where it was entertained with a dinner by the parents of the groom before Mr. and Mrs. Adams left on their honeymoon trip. They will be gone about ten days and on their return will take possession of the pretty home the groom has been building in Sunland.

The Glendale National Bank

thanks you for your co-operation —for your part in making this bank a thriving institution. It isn't the big accounts that help so much as the many smaller ones. Don't think because your account is not large it is not appreciated. We do appreciate it and we want more of the same kind. Tell your neighbor what a convenience it is to have a checking account. You can tell him honestly that you wouldn't go back to the old unbusinesslike way, can't you?

THE "REAL" AMERICAN WORKMAN

American workmen, as a whole, do not want to tear everything down, do not want to give up the land or homes they own and make them common property, do not want to destroy family life and place their wives at the disposal of any and every ruffian who prowls the streets. American workmen would like to have some voice in determining their working conditions some voice in the fixing of wages and hours, some share, if possible, in the profits which they help to create. They want to progress; they want to raise their status. They want to see industry democratized along the lines of the American form of government. But they are not bolsheviks; they are not anarchists; they are not revolutionists; they are not socialists.

There are increasing indications that the level-headed rank and file of union members are beginning to assert themselves against the agitators of distinctly reddish hue who recently succeeded in foisting themselves into the councils of trade unionism in this country.

The return of a full day's work for a full pay envelope is nearer than it was a month ago.

MORE SPEED FOR THE HIRED MAN

The hired man has been coming in for a little deserved attention of late, and it is only fair that he should do so. He is the original victim of overtime. If he were paid for his overtime in anything like the proportion that his fellow-laborer in town is paid, he would not be so likely to leave the farm and go to the city. If his overtime were cut down, the same result might be obtained.

But when it comes right down to brass tacks, a good deal of the hired man's overtime, and of the farmer's, too, for that matter, is his own fault. He gets up before the dawn because he has so much work to do, and then he takes all day to do the work because he has so much time before him. The farm hand who walks swiftly, who speaks crisply, who voices his ideas and carries it out with the same promptness as does the city man in his office, is the eighth wonder of the world.

What the hired man needs more than shorter hours or pay for overtime is to learn to work swiftly. This does not mean an insane hurry that no man could sustain and live, but it does mean the same sort of activity which is demanded in the up-to-date factory, where rest periods and health conservation are considered a mere matter of business.

Probably the hired man is overworked and underpaid in many instances, but also in many instances his long hours are due to the fact that he takes two where one would be enough.—Long Beach Telegram.

THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

The Geological Survey is an interesting branch of government work which will appeal to a boy's adventurous spirit. Its advance guard is the topographical division which makes maps showing the contours of the land. Then come the geologists who study the shale and rocks, the dip of the strata and geological formation of the whole region. They plot on the maps the various minerals in colors. They can often predict coal, oil, and mineral deposits with amazing accuracy. Then come the hydrographers who record the rainfall, the capacity of lakes and rivers, their volumes and currents and all that pertains to drainage. All this information recorded on the maps of the survey is of immeasurable value to the engineer who comes seeking a route for a canal or railway, a site for a storage reservoir, or the location of a mine.—Boys' Life.
