REPORT OF THE MANAGING COMMITTEE.

DURING 1887 the work of this Institution has proceeded quietly and satisfactorily; its details are particularized in the report of our valued Superintendent, Mr. Buckle, who has been ably and loyally supported by the Matron, and by all the Officers of the School. The comfort of the inmates, particularly the female pupils and the resident staff, has been largely promoted by a substantial improvement of the Kitchen and Laundry, and by a heating apparatus in connection therewith, which has introduced into the cold passages of the old house a warm and pleasant atmosphere. The cost, however, of all this work, including the erection of a new Wash-house, has been considerable, involving an outlay of £721 2s. 1d.

The Legacies and Donations received last year, and elsewhere enumerated, amount to £1956 7s. 2d., of which sum the Committee have invested £937 15s. 6d., the remainder being absorbed by part payment for the improvements already referred to, and by meeting the deficiency of income from other sources. Hence the Managers still feel the necessity of reminding their friends and the public of the needs of this Institution. It may be noted here that the legacy of Miss E. Smith, of Hull, received in 1886, has been applied in the purchase of a new Pianoforte for the Music Room, in the choice of which the Committee are indebted to their old friend, Mr. Barnby, for his assistance; and they gratefully acknowledge the kind consideration of Messrs. Broadwood, who minimised this expense.

The Committee desire to direct the special attention of Subscribers, and of all interested in the prosperity and usefulness of the Institution, to the necessity of more liberally supporting the commercial department, as being a most important element in reference to the finances of the Institution, and as affording opportunities for the pupils' instruction in some branch of trade by which they can maintain themselves after leaving the school.

The health of the pupils continues good, and the Committee have to thank Mr. North for his continued attention to this important subject in the absence, through illness, of Mr. Allen, our medical officer.

This School was visited and inspected by Lord Egerton, of Tatton, and other Members of the Royal Commission, the publication of whose Report on the Condition and Education of the Blind, Deaf Mutes, and Idiots is now awaited by this Committee and all friends of the blind with great interest. The welfare of the blind is now, indeed, regarded with a careful attention, in marked contrast with their condition when our Queen began to reign. Well, therefore, might our pupils commemorate Her Jubilee; and the Committee have pleasure in recording, on the pages of this Report, the composition of Henry Grantham, a young pupil in the school, on that occasion, and the Ode composed by Mr. Buckle. This latter, being set to music by old pupils of the School, is to be repeated on each anniversary of the Queen's accession to the throne. Out of the munificence of the late Mr. Henry Gardner, this School is now favoured by the Gardner Trustees with an annual grant of £30, for the purpose of enabling the blind children of needy parents to attend this Institution.

The Gardner bequest is the richest gift the blind in England have received, but those in Yorkshire have long placed first among their friends Sir Charles and Lady Lowther. It is not easy, where two are one, as they were, to say to which the pupils of this School have been most indebted; but those who are responsible for its management cannot close their report of last year without acknowledging their great indebtedness to the late Lady Lowther, and tendering their respectful sympathy to Sir Charles in his bereavement.

A. P. PUREY-CUST,

9th March, 1888.

Chairman.

THE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT TO THE MANAGING COMMITTEE.

GENTLEMEN,

With regard to the numbers under instruction in the School, I have to report as follows :

	Boys.	Girls.	Total.
Number on the Books Jan 1st, 1887 ..	44	27	71
,, left during the year	5	9	14
Admitted during 1887	3	4	7
Number on the Books 31st Dec., 1887 ..	42	22	64

The work of Instruction in the Schools has progressed much as usual ; I have nothing special to note regarding it.

Of the Boys, 14 are in the Schoolroom all day ; 15 are learning Basket-making, of whom 6 are at work all day, and the other 9 are part of the day in School ; 11 Boys work in the Brush-room part of the day, and spend part in the Schoolroom ; 9 Boys are learning the art of Pianoforte Tuning ; and 10 of the Girls are employed, part of their time, in learning to repair Canseated Chairs. It is pleasing to report that several of the Girls are making commendable progress in Plain Sewing, and I hope, with further attention bestowed on it, we may soon be able to point to results of no insignificant value.

In the Adults' Departments of the School (Outmates and Outpupils) we have employed in the past year 7 at Brush-making, 6 at Basket-making, and 3 at Mattress-making. They have been paid wages amounting to £547 14s. 2d., which is £70 19s. 0d. in advance of the previous year. From the Treasurer's Balance Sheet it will be seen that the receipts on account of trade have not varied much as compared with 1886, and our stocks remain about the same.

In the Mattress Department, which has now been in operation 18 months, I regret to say that, financially, we have not been successful. We have sold the straw palliasses pretty readily at the usual trade prices, which, however, have not been as remunerative as we were led to expect. It would probably be premature to speak definitely against the department as a paying concern; for I trust with a higher class of work, which will probably fall to our lot as this department gets more widely known, we may be able in time to report more favourably.

In November last the York Newspapers very kindly inserted an appeal, addressed to friends of the School who had time to spare, asking them to undertake the transcription of books into Braille type, for our pupils. Necessarily, the number of works printed for the blind is very limited, and as it is a very simple matter for a seeing person to learn the Braille type, it seemed to me a ready way of increasing our Library, thus to secure help from our friends outside. The response to my appeal has exceeded my expectation. Upwards of 25 ladies and two gentlemen have made a beginning, and several of them have already transcribed a considerable amount. We only ask for about half-an-hour daily, and all those who have mastered the system describe their work as very interesting. On a future occasion I hope to be able to give a goodly list of works added by this means to our Library. We all feel grateful for the help thus afforded us. The work of our friends is, I can assure them, fully appreciated by those whom it is intended to benefit; and on their part, and none the less on my own, I take this opportunity of thanking them for their self-denying efforts.

Other kindnesses during the past year, of which we have been recipients, I must mention. Foremost among these must be Mr. Alderman Close's kind present of five shillings to each pupil in the School, given for the purpose of encouraging habits of thrift, by the opening of an account for each in the York Savings' Bank, in addition to a pleasant evening's treat and one shilling each for pocket money. On the occasion of the distribution of prizes at Christmas, the Lord Mayor (Mr. Alderman J. S. Rymer) left us a donation to our Christmas treat, and a present of sixpence each to the pupils as pocket money. A lady, who wishes to be anonymous, at Christmas made each Girl a present of two shillings for her Savings' Bank Account. Major Williams Hepworth sent us a liberal supply of rabbits; Mr. and Miss Dawnay, as in many former years, provided us in June with their annual treat at Beningbrough; Mr. Banks, of Stonegate, has given us admission to several concerts; Mr. Hopton, our neighbour, kindly does for the pupils, free of charge, whatever is necessary in dental matters; Mr. Halliwell, of Hammerton, and Mr. Munby, and other friends have sent us presents of fruit.

The Markham Fund has during the year assisted 38 former pupils of the School, in various ways, to the total amount of £52 15s. 6d.

During the latter months of the year, in the domestic part of the house and on the Girls' side, we have felt the benefit of the heating apparatus, which has been fitted up in the Dining Hall and Corridors. The temperature in these passages, which formerly were very cold and draughty, has been constantly maintained at 60°, and that without any extra trouble or additional expenditure for fuel.

I have again the satisfaction of closing my Report by referring, in terms of commendation, to the labours of those who have so long and so zealously worked with me here, and who have always shewn themselves desirous of furthering all the best interests of the Institution generally, as well as of their own special departments.

I remain, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

A. BUCKLE.

GENERAL RULES

OF THE

YORKSHIRE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND,

INSTITUTED AT YORK, 1833.

1. The object of the Institution is to give the pupils such instruction as may enable them to obtain a livelihood; attention being, at the same time, paid to their moral and religious education.

2. The pupils shall attend at the places of religious worship which their parents may desire; or which, if adults, they shall themselves prefer.

3. Such mechanical arts shall be taught in the school as the blind can exercise to advantage; with whatever other branches of knowledge may appear conducive to the above-mentioned ends.

ELECTION OF PUPILS.

4. Subscribers to the amount of £1 a year, Donors to the amount of £10, or Donors to the amount of £5, subscribing also not less than 10s. annually, shall be entitled to one vote in the election of each pupil; and every additional contribution, of equal amount, shall entitle to an additional vote.

5. A legacy of not less than £50 shall entitle the acting Exeutor, first named in the will, to one vote, during his life, in the election of each pupil.

6. Prior to an election, the Committee shall determine the number of pupils to be elected, examine the eligibility of candidates, and make public the list of those who are eligible.

7. It is recommended to the Committee to place on the list of candidates the names of children from ten to fifteen years old, in preference to any above or below those ages, and in electing candidates, when authorized by the Governors, to receive them for a certain or uncertain number of years, but so that no pupil be retained in the School after attaining 20 years of age, except under special circumstances.

8. No candidate shall be admitted who has a greater degree of sight than suffices to distinguish light from darkness, or who is incapacitated, by weakness of intellect or otherwise, from learning to obtain a livelihood.

9. No candidate shall be admitted labouring under an infectious disease, nor without having had the smallpox, or undergone vaccination.

10. No candidate shall be admitted without an engagement being subscribed by some responsible person to answer for the payments required by the rules, and for receiving back the pupil when discharged from the Institution.

11. The election shall be held at the Half-yearly Meeting of the Governors in the Spring Assizes, and at such other times as they may appoint; and the pupils shall be received on the four quarter days of 1st of January, 1st of April, 1st of July, and 1st of October.

12. Proxies (post paid) will be received in the election of pupils.

13. Every pupil shall pay towards his maintenance and clothing a sum to be fixed by the Committee.

14. The children of wealthier parents may be admitted by the Committee to receive tuition, on such terms as may be beneficial to the Institution.

INFLAMMATION IN THE EYES OF INFANTS AS A CAUSE OF BLINDNESS.

THE MANAGING COMMITTEE OF THE WILBERFORCE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND think that public attention needs to be called to this question in England, for they find that out of 89 pupils on the books of the School, 37 are stated to be blind from this cause; and this proportion is probably not higher than in other similar institutions, for an eminent ophthalmic surgeon in London states that probably half the blindness in the country is due to the cause referred to.

The reason why so many have fallen victims to this disease is not, indeed, that the medical treatment of it was defective in times past, but it is rather due to the unpardonable indifference of the midwives and nurses, or others who have charge of infants in their earliest days, who, in many cases, prevent resort to skilled assistance in order to try some domestic remedies, until it is too late. The disease may, in some cases, appear in so mild a form, that without any treatment, or even in spite of unsuitable means, it may have a fortunate issue; but in most cases it takes a more determined character, and then, if left to itself, it may develop with such rapidity that in the course of a day or two the condition is quite hopeless.

A description of the disease and of its progress, however popularly written, would be of little use here, and would be understood only by a very few. It will be sufficient to remark that in general newly-born children seldom suffer from any other eye disease, and the first appearance of this disease is easily recognisable by the redness and swollen state of the inner skin of the eyelid, and by the discharge of a yellowish white matter. The main thing to be borne in mind here is that this dangerous and ruinous disease may in most cases be cured if, on the first appearance of this inflammation in the eyelids, skilled advice is sought. Until this can be obtained, nothing further need be done except to keep the eye as clean as possible from the yellowish white matter, and for this purpose warm water applications should be used as often as there is any matter to wash away.

The following directions should also be carefully followed. The cleansing of the eye is best done with small pieces of cotton wool, or, failing this, with soft linen rag. The eyelids should be carefully half opened, and cotton wool, steeped in warm water, gently used in wiping away all matter both inside and out.

The warmth is best applied to the eyes by means of dry cotton wool cut out about the size of a crown piece, and folded double. This should only be applied while the child is sleeping, and then should be removed every hour or two; this wool ought not to be allowed to get saturated with moisture, as it often will do in the course of a short time. The eye, of course, requires much watchful care and attention, but it must be borne in mind that the question of sight or blindness depends entirely in these cases on perfect cleanliness, great care and attention. If the matter discharged has a tendency to cause the eye-lids to stick together, as often happens, then apply the very smallest quantity of the best and purest cod liver oil to the edges of the lids. It is almost unnecessary to say that fresh air and equable temperature in the sick room are very important, and that the eyes, while suffering from the disease, should be kept from all strong lights, and on no account should the cotton wool or rag be used a second time. The nurse or mother should always wash her own hands after she has attended to the eye of the child, as the matter is occasionally of a very infectious nature.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PARENTS AND FRIENDS OF BLIND CHILDREN.

It will be observed that by Rule 7, Page 16, children under ten years of age are not generally admitted into the Yorkshire School for the Blind. The following suggestions, therefore, should be entertained by the parents and friends of any child born blind or losing its sight in infancy, during all the earlier years of its life. Without due regard to these suggestions, the Committee cannot promise or even hope for the success of any pupil, as habits acquired in infancy are all important in their influence.

1.—Blind children should not be kept at home all day long simply on account of their infirmity. It is much better for them to be sent to some school. Even if they do not learn much, it will still be found that no slight benefit is derived from associating with other children, and from learning in school habits of attention and obedience. The very worst thing in regard to the education of a blind child which can befall it is to be allowed to sit at home in a corner, and do nothing but talk and rock itself.

2.—It is not a very difficult matter for parents and friends of blind children to teach them the elements of their education. The alphabet may easily be taught them, and the girls may be taught plain knitting. It should always be borne in mind that if these simple rudiments are learnt before the children are admitted they will have all the more time for more important matters after their admission.

N.B.—An elementary Reading Book, containing the Alphabet, &c., will be forwarded to any address in exchange for Twelve Stamps sent to the SUPERINTENDENT, School for the Blind, York.

3.—The foundation of habits of self-dependence may be laid at home. It is a most important branch of the education of the blind to be taught to do all they possibly can for themselves. Encourage the child to become acquainted with all the parts of the house and the immediate neighbourhood, to go little errands, and to find things for itself; if it drops or loses anything, do not pick it up or seek for it, let the child do that for itself. Do not be too much afraid of its falling over, or knocking against anything which is not really dangerous; such little mishaps prove often very good teachers. Blind children should be taught to dress themselves, including the lacing of their shoes and boots, stays, &c., and the tying of all neckerchiefs, ties, strings, &c., blacking their boots and shoes, and, in the case of girls, dressing their hair.

4.—It will be found that blind children often acquire peculiar "tricks," shown in various motions of the head, hands, or bodies. Such habits are often the result of insufficient out-door exercise. They should be guarded against and checked. It is almost an impossibility to eradicate them after they have been indulged in for a few years, and in later life they have a very prejudicial effect.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE OUTDOOR DEPARTMENT OF THE INSTITUTION.

Convenient Workrooms in connection with the Yorkshire School for the Blind have been provided for such blind artizans, residing at their own homes, as are willing to comply with the following Rules and Regulations:—

1.—Any blind man who has learnt a trade carried on in this department of the Institution, and who desires to partake of the proposed advantages, must make his application, according to a form to be obtained from the Secretary, and be afterwards duly elected by the Managing Committee.

2.—The necessary materials and tools will be supplied by the Institution, and the Superintendents of each branch of manufacture, and the sale of all articles produced will be under its exclusive charge.

3.—Wages will be paid on Fridays. As a general rule, all the non-resident blind (hereafter to be called outmates) shall be employed on piece work, and be paid accordingly, at the average market rate, in proportion to the amount and quality of the work done by each workman, of which an exact account will be kept by the Superintendent, with the aid of the Trade Teachers. Should exceptional cases arise where fixed wages are necessary, the Managing Committee shall deal with such cases on their respective merits.

4.—Every outmate will be required to provide his own lodging, food, and clothes out of his wages, or other means of support.

5.—The work hours to be observed by the outmates shall be as follows:—

From 1st March to 31st October.....	6-30 A.M. to 6 P.M.
From 1st November to the end of February	7 A.M. to 6 P.M.
For Breakfast.....	8 to 9 A.M.
For Dinner	1 to 2 P.M.

6.—Those who are not in the Workrooms at the time fixed for commencement of work, and after meals, shall be fined one penny, and twopence if such absence exceed a quarter of an hour.

7.—The only entrance to the premises will be by the door on the south side of the School, the key of which shall be kept by an authorized person, and all entrances and departures recorded.

8.—Without the sanction of the Superintendent, none shall be permitted to leave the premises or receive visitors during the hours of work. All idleness and disorderly conduct shall be punished by fine, and if persisted in, by dismissal: and all insubordination, or the use of improper language shall be reported to the Managing Committee, the members of which shall inflict such punishment as they see fit.

9.—The smoking of tobacco, the use of intoxicating drinks, spitting on the floors, and carrying or using lucifer matches, are strictly prohibited.

10.—Those who are absent from work on account of ill health must send notice to the Superintendent on the first day of their illness.

11.—A register of the residences of the outmates will be kept by the Superintendent, to whom any change must be notified within the week after it has taken place.

12.—All the outmates will be required promptly to obey whatever orders may be given during working hours by the Superintendent, or by the Overlookers or Trade Teachers; but they will be at liberty to bring complaints or make communications to the Managing Committee.

13.—All fines for breaking these rules will be fixed by the Managing Committee, and be deducted from the wages of the person fined.

14.—The Superintendent shall keep a conduct book, in which a record of all offences will be kept, to enable the Committee to judge of the character of each individual.

15.—These rules shall be read to the outmates by the Superintendent four times a year, viz:—the first Monday in February, May, August, and November.

16.—In the temporary absence of the Superintendent, the Trade Teachers shall have full authority to direct the outmates and the work then in hand.

17.—The Trade Teachers shall keep, in such form as may from time to time be required, an account of the time consumed, of the work done by each outmate, and of such other particulars as may at any time be deemed necessary by the Superintendent: and such Trade Teachers shall at all times be under the direction and authority of the Superintendent, in all things relating to their duties.

18.—No outmate shall be permitted to leave the Institution without a fortnight's notice to the Superintendent, on pain of forfeiting a week's wages.

19.—The Superintendent is required to visit, as circumstances may admit, the homes of those blind persons who are employed as outmates, and to inform himself of their condition and habits, so as to enable him to report to the Committee thereon at least once a year.

MRS. MARKHAM'S FUND FOR ASSISTING THE BLIND.

The late Mrs. Speneer Markham, who for many years had taken a deep interest in the pupils of the Yorkshire School for the Blind, by means of Donations and Subscriptions from friends of the Blind in the County, raised a fund in the year 1866 for the purpose of aiding former pupils of the School to establish themselves in positions of independent industry.

This fund Mrs. Markham invested in the names of three Trustees, and during her lifetime, from the interest thereof and from annual subscriptions, she assisted in various ways many of the former pupils of the School. The present trustees of the Fund are the Very Rev. the Dean of York, the Archdeacon of York, and the Rev. Canon Raine.

In their Declaration of the Trust the Trustees state, "That the income shall be applied in behalf of the pupils who have been educated in the Wilberforce School for the Blind, and have gone home to follow the trade they have been taught, and earn a livelihood for themselves, in manner following :—

- 1st.—By providing apparatus, materials, or tools for those who cannot afford to buy them ; or,
- 2nd.—By making small grants of money, afterwards, to such of the pupils as are well reported of by the clergyman in whose parish he or she may reside, as a recognition in industrious habits and good conduct ; or
- 3rd.—By affording assistance in any case of sickness or accident.

The Trust Fund consists of £800 invested in the N.E.R. Company's Fund.

Applications for grants may be made to the Very Rev. the Dean of York, and forms for this purpose may be obtained from the Superintendent of the School.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer, for the time being, of the Yorkshire School for the Blind, Established at York, the sum of _____ Pounds, free of legacy duty, for the general purposes of the said Institution, to be paid within _____ calendar months next after my death. And in order that the same legacy may be paid in full, I direct the same, together with the legacy duty thereon, to be paid exclusively out of such part of my personal estate as, by the laws in force at my death, my be bequeathed for charitable purposes, and in priority to all other legacies bequeathed by this my will or any codicil thereto. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Institution shall be an effectual discharge for the said legacy.

GUARDIANS OF THE POOR AND EDUCATION OF THE BLIND.

The Parents of the greater number of the blind are unable to bear the expense of educating their children in Institutions. It has, therefore, been deemed advisable here to insert some of the laws that now exist in favour of the blind, to show how far they can be assisted in their education by the Guardians of the Poor.

LEGISLATION IN THE INTEREST OF THE BLIND AND OF DEAF MUTES.

Guardians may Maintain and Educate in Certified Schools.

25 and 26 Vic. (1862), cap. 43, sec. 1. The Guardians of any Parish or Union may send any poor child to any school certified as hereinafter mentioned, and supported wholly or partially by voluntary subscriptions, the managers of which shall be willing to receive such child, and may pay out of the funds in their possession the expenses incurred in the maintenance, clothing, and education of such child therein, during the time such child shall remain at such school (not exceeding the total sum which would have been charged for the maintenance of such child if relieved in the Workhouse during the same period), and in the conveyance of such child to and from the same, and in case of death the expenses of his or her burial.

Sec. 9. No child shall be sent under this Act to any School which is conducted on the principles of a religious denomination to which such child does not belong.

Sec. 10. . . . The word "School" shall extend to any Institution established for the instruction of blind, deaf, dumb, lame, deformed, or idiotic persons, but shall not apply to any certified Reformatory School.

Guardians may send Deaf Mutes or Blind to Uncertified Schools.

31 and 32 Vic. (1868), cap. 122, sec. 42. The Guardians of any Union or Parish may, with the approval of the Poor Law Board, send any poor deaf and dumb or blind child to any school fitted for the reception of such child, though such school shall not have been certified under the provisions of the Act of the 25th and 26th years of Victoria, chapter 43.

Guardians may Subscribe towards support of Institutions, Associations, &c.

42 and 43 Vic. (1879), cap. 54, sec. 10. Whereas by Section 4 of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1851, Guardians are authorised, with such consent as is therein mentioned, to subscribe towards the support and maintenance of any public Hospital or Infirmary as therein mentioned; and it is expedient to extend the said section. Be it therefore enacted as follows:—

The provisions of the said section shall extend to authorise the Guardians, with such consent as is therein mentioned, to subscribe towards any Asylum or Institution for blind persons, or for deaf and dumb persons, or for persons suffering from any permanent or natural infirmity, or towards any Association or Society for aiding such persons, or for providing nurses, or for aiding girls or boys in service, or towards any other Asylum or Institution which appears to the Guardians, with such consent as aforesaid, to be calculated to render useful aid in the administration of the relief of the poor.

Provided always that nothing herein contained shall authorize any subscription to any Asylum or Institution unless the Local Government Board be satisfied that the paupers under the Guardians have, or could have, assistance therein in case of necessity.

❖ JUBILEE ❖

HER ❖ MAJESTY ❖ THE ❖ QUEEN.

YORKSHIRE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

SPECIAL CONCERT

ON

THURSDAY, JUNE 23RD,

AT 2-30 P.M.

PROGRAMME.

1. PIANOFORTE DUET.
2. JUBILEE ODE.
(Music composed by former Pupils of the School.)
3. CORONATION ANTHEM (Handel).
4. GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

JUBILEE OF HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

1887.

Music by T. Haw.

Hail! Empress Queen of regions fair,
Whose sway benign we celebrate
With feast and song, and pageant great,
The glorious crown which thou dost wear.
With undimm'd lustre shines afar
'Mid all earth's diadems the star
Of clearest light without compare;
Wide o'er the earth thy praises ring,
"God save the Queen" with joy we sing.
O maiden fair, in youth's glad prime
With blushing cheek and modest mien,
Thy grandsire tells thee of the time
When first he saw the maiden Queen
With grace fulfil Her regal part,
Sovereign of every loyal heart.
Be thou like Her, as lily pure,
Queenly in maiden love and truth,
Then thou shalt win the blessing sure,
The crown of unstained gladsome youth.
Glad bride, whom faithful love hath won,
A helpmate sure in weal or woe,
'Mid tears and smiles thou cling'st to one,
Thro' life's oft devious paths to go;
With queenly grace how fair Her life,
When by his side She walked a wife.
Constant, like Her, be thou, O bride,
That wedded love may closer bind
Two hearts in one, whate'er betide,
That home's best joy ye too may find.

Music by W. Kinsley.

Fond mother, mid thy offspring fair,
That round thee cling with elasp and kiss,
See, happy freed from state's deep care,
As tho' for Her, earth's sweetest bliss
Was in home's joyous circle found,
The Mother Queen Her children round.
Shouldst thou, like Her, e'er know the day
When widow'd in Her untoid grief,
May their true love thy pangs allay
And yield thee then earth's best relief.

Music by E. Wagstaff.

O, happy home, where mother's love
 Supreme doth bind each duteous heart,
 Where such a father's life doth move
 Each younger life to act its part,
 In such nobility and grace
 As well befit its royal place.

May England's homes, or rich or poor,
 Long see such bright examples set,
 That joys, all innocent and pure,
 May be their best adornment yet.

Music by W. H. Strickland.

O, Queen belov'd, thy people's pride,
 Thy reign of half-a-hundred years
 In glory beams, tho' dimm'd by tears.
 Victoria's sway shall far and wide
 Its splendour shed long ages o'er,
 When we and ours shall sing no more ;
 It's glories ne'er shall be out-vied,
 Its victories shall know no decrease,
 The bloodless victories of peace.

O, King of Kings, to Thee we pray
 For blessings on Thy servant's head,
 On her and hers rich bounties shed ;
 Be Thou her guide, and as life's day
 Steals onward to the peaceful west,
 May she in Thee find perfect rest ;
 And when earth's shadows pass away,
 Change earthly Crown of lustre bright
 For Thy reward in heaven's blest light.

A.B.

The following, composed by HENRY GRANTHAM, a Pupil in the School, aged 12, will be interesting to Subscribers and Friends of the School:—

TO THE QUEEN ON HER JUBILEE.

All hail to thee, O noble Queen,
 Who sit'st upon thy throne serene;
 The truest monarch and the best.
 That ever England's throne possess't.
 Thou seekest England to improve,
 Thou, Queen, art worthy of our love:
 To thee, from all thy subjects true,
 The heartiest praise and thanks is due.
 We'll cast away disloyalty,
 And stand by thee, Queen, faithfully;
 Of toil and woe we'll think no more,
 But serve thee till life's race be o'er.
 Ne'er was monarch so beloved,
 Ne'er will that lasting love be moved,
 Right royally we'll honour thee,
 Upon thy year of Jubilee.
 Thy subjects true forget their fears,
 During thy reign of fifty years;
 And joy to know, since thou hast reigned,
 Glory and honour they have gained.
 The beggar poor, the merchant great,
 Come forth this day to celebrate
 By some good work thy Jubilee,
 Thus showing their great love for thee.
 We pray that thou mayest always see
 Thy kingdom in prosperity:
 Thy throne surrounded by the brave
 And fearless, on the land or wave.
 The Indian mutineers were bold,
 Yet they could not remove thy hold
 Upon those Indian allies who,
 Despite their ravages, kept true:
 And in the fiercest last attack
 The rebel hosts were driven back.

So may'st thou always overcome
Thy enemies, and reach the home
Where all who rest in Christ's dear love,
Shall reign with Him in heaven above.
Thy reign, so full of brilliancy,
Shall ne'er by us forgotten be ;
And when we lay thee down to rest,
To be no more by care opprest,
Our loyal hearts shall think of thee,
And of thy happy Jubilee.

BEDS, MATTRESSES AND PALLIASSES.

The Committee beg to call the special attention of Householders in the City and neighbourhood to this new branch of work in the School, undertaken by them to afford employment to those who, through loss of sight, have been compelled to give up their former occupation, and who, if not so employed by the Committee, would in enforced idleness be dependent on the rates.

The Committee appeal to all

TO HELP THE BLIND TO HELP THEMSELVES.

BEDS CLEANED, FEATHERS PURIFIED, AND NEW CASES MADE TO ORDER.

THE USUAL TRADE PRICE CHARGED.

A. BUCKLE, Superintendent.

THE

COMPRISES THE FOLLOWING DEPARTMENTS :

- 1.—THE SCHOOL for the Education and Training in some handicraft, or in Music, of 47 Boys and 40 Girls.
- 2.—THE OUTMATES' DEPARTMENT for the employment of a limited number of Blind Workmen in Basket or Brush-making, residing at their own homes and working at the School.
- 3.—THE OUT-PUPILS' DEPARTMENT for teaching a handicraft to such as have lost their sight after 16 years of age.
- 4.—MRS. MARKHAM'S FUND FOR ASSISTING FORMER PUPILS to attain positions of independent industry.
- 5.—THE OUTMATES' BENEFIT CLUB, a Sick Club founded by the Outmates themselves, and managed by them and the Officers of the School. The funds, which are quite distinct from those of the School, are in the charge of the Hon. Treasurer of the School. As the number of Outmates is only 14, and their weekly contributions small, the Club cannot be expected to be self-supporting. Hence, donations to it will be a real help given to those who give good evidence of a desire to help themselves.

The Committee would be grateful for presents of Old Pianofortes; or of Books to be read to the Pupils; and desire to remind the Subscribers and Friends that Orders for Goods made at the School are most valuable in sustaining the efforts of the Committee to keep the blind in full wage-earning employment.
