Publication Note.

Heretofore, the Chronological Table has normally been published in conjunction with the Index and the two works have been interdependent, the Chronological Table indicating, by means of cross-references against each existing Act, the title or titles in the Index under which that Act could be found. In view of the difference in functions between the two works, contemporaneous publication is not, however, essential and since the Table, by reason of its less complex form, can be ready for publication much earlier in each year than the Index, it has been decided that the Chronological Table should not be tied to the publication date for the Index. The two works will therefore be published separately in future and for this reason the cross-references to the titles in the Index which hitherto have appeared in the Chronological Table against existing Acts have been transferred to the chronological list at the beginning of the Index and are no longer included in the Chronological Table.

PREFACE

AUTHORITY FOR PUBLICATION

1. Preparation and publication of the Chronological Table are conducted under the authority of His Majesty's Government (the first edition having been published in 1870 in pursuance of a suggestion made by Lord Cairns to Lord Chelmsford when Lord Chancellor), and are placed under the supervision of the Statute Law Committee. The Committee at present consists of the Lord Chancellor (President), Sir Granville Ram, K.C.B., K.C. (Chairman), Mr. J. G. Archibald, Sir Edward Bridges, G.C.B., G.C.V.O., M.C., Sir Norman Brook, K.C.B., Sir Cecil Carr, K.C.B., K.C., Sir Geoffrey Cox, C.B.E., T.D., Sir M. Millar Craig, C.B., K.C., Sir Alan Ellis, K.C.B., Mr. E. H. Keeling, M.C., M.P., Sir David Milne, K.C.B., The Hon. Sir Albert Napier, K.C.B., K.C., Sir Frank Newsam, K.C.B., K.B.E., C.V.O., M.C., The Marquess of Reading, C.B.E., M.C., T.D., K.C., Mr. T. Reid, C.M.G., M.P., Lord Schuster, The Rt. Hon. Sir Hartley Shawcross, K.C., M.P., The Rt. Hon. Lord Simonds, Sir John Stainton, K.B.E., K.C., Mr. A. L. Ungood-Thomas, K.C., M.P., Mr. H. G. G. Welch, C.B.E., The Rt. Hon. J. Wheatley, K.C., M.P.

ARRANGEMENT.

2. The Chronological Table is based (as are the Revised Editions of the Statutes published under the supervision of the Statute Law Committee) on the edition of the Record Commissioners, known as the Statutes of the Realm, as far as that edition extends, namely, to the end of the reign of Queen Anne (13 Anne). Thenceforth Ruffhead's edition, by Serjeant Runnington, 1786, has been followed, as far as it extends, namely, to the end of the session of the twenty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third (25 Geo. 3). Thence downwards, it is believed, all editions are alike. The variances between the Statutes of the Realm and Ruffhead's edition are partly shown in footnotes or in parentheses; a complete table of those variances is given on pages 1-6.

3. The Chronological Table covers the whole period between the passing of the earliest statute of the Parliament of England (1235) and the end of the year 1950. Ante-Union Acts of the Parliaments of Scotland and Ireland are not included in the Table.* Acts of the Parliament of England extended to Ireland by Poynings Act† are, in relation to Ireland, treated as Ante-Union Acts of the Parliament of Ireland, with the exception that the repeals of such enactments by the Statute Law Revision (Ireland) Act, 1872, are noted.

4. The Chronological Table comprises all Acts printed in the "Statutes of the Realm," and, after the end of that edition, all Acts printed by the King's or Queen's Printers as Public or as Public General.‡ Many of these Acts, however, cannot be regarded as public Acts affecting the community generally, being special or private Acts relating to particular persons or places or to private concerns. Acts of this kind are distinguished by the italic entries Local, Personal, Private, in the second column of the Table (except in cases in which they are shown not to be in force); the Table does not profess to show all repeals affecting these Acts. Further means of reference to the provisions of these Acts is afforded by the Index to Local and Personal Acts prepared under the direction of the Statute Law Committee, which covers the period 1801 to 1947.

5. The first column of the Chronological Table sets out the chapter numbers of the statutes according to the regnal year and session. The second column contains the following particulars:—

- (a) As respects Acts repealed, the short title of the Act (or, in the absence of a short title, the general subject) is printed in italic type with a reference to the repealing enactment;

* A volume of the Ante-Union Irish Acts (Revised) was published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office in 1885; that volume contains an Index to such Acts arranged like the Index forming Volume 2 of the present work. Information as to Ante-Union Irish Acts is given in the Chronological Table and Index of Statutes in Force in Northern Ireland (see footnote, p. ix below). A volume of the Ante-Union Scottish Acts (Revised) was published by His Majesty's Stationery Office in 1908.

† Poynings Act (10 Hen. 7. c. 22 (1.)), extending English Statutes to Ireland, is printed in "Irish Statutes Revised" at p. 3; see also 10 Car. 1. sess. 3. c. 15. s. 1 (1.) and 21 & 22 Geo. 3. c. 48 (1.), ibid., pp. 65, 580.

‡ For the division into Public General and Public Local and Personal Acts see footnote to the regnal year 38 Geo. 3 in the Table below.

- (b) As respects Acts of a public nature wholly or partly in force—
- (i) the short title (or, if necessary, in the absence of a short title, the general subject in square brackets) is printed in heavy type ;
 - (ii) references are added in ordinary type to subsequent enactments by which the Act has been partially repealed or amended, extended, explained or otherwise affected. These subsequent enactments sometimes include Church Assembly Measures or Statutory Rules and Orders or Statutory Instruments : the Orders in Council which adapted legislation in giving effect to constitutional changes in Ireland are not noted here, but are mentioned in the Index to the Statutes in Force under the headings " EIRE " and " NORTHERN IRELAND."

REPEALS.

6. (1) The particulars of the effect of subsequent legislation are stated in accordance with the following general practice as regards repeals :—

- (a) In a few instances, Acts have been repealed in part after having been wholly repealed ; in such cases the later partial repeal is disregarded.
- (b) In other instances, Acts have been repealed more than once ; in such cases a discretion has been exercised as to which repealing Act should be entered, and in some cases more than one are entered.
- (c) A repeal made nugatory by an express or implied revival is not always noticed.
- (d) Where a temporary Act has been repealed by an Act also temporary but lasting longer than the original Act would have lasted if not repealed, the repeal is treated as final.
- (e) Where an Act has been partially repealed, and afterwards wholly repealed, the total repeal only is entered, except in the case of a partial repeal more extensive territorially than the total repeal.
- (f) In like manner, partial repeals, covered by later partial repeals, are frequently omitted.
- (g) The partial determination, otherwise than by express repeal, of an Act which has not wholly ceased to be in force is not always noticed.

(2) Reference has already been made to Acts extended to Ireland in 1495 by Poyning's Act. Some Acts passed after Poyning's Act by the Parliament of England or of Great Britain purport to extend beyond England or Great Britain ; repeals of these Acts affected by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1863 (ending with the reign of King James the Second), are entered as unrestricted, though the repealing Act is in terms limited to England ; repeals of these Acts effected by Acts other than the Statute Law Revision Act, 1868, which repeals are in terms limited territorially, have been dealt with thus :—

- (a) The territorial limitation of the repeal is noticed, in case the Act repealed had a more extensive operation territorially than the repeal.
- (b) In other cases the repeal is entered as unrestricted.

AMENDMENTS.

7. As regards amendments it sometimes happens that when an Act is amended by more than one Act, second or subsequent amendments are not, in the amending Acts, made by reference to the original Act. In such cases, the Table does not always show such amendments against the original Act : it follows, therefore, that an entry indicating an amendment should be checked to see whether the amending Act has been further amended.

IRISH ENACTMENTS.

8. When new legislatures were set up in Ireland in 1928 it was recognised, as regards the Index to the Statutes in Force, that it was no more concerned with matters delegated to the legislatures of the two countries into which Ireland was divided than with matters within the legislative competence of any of the overseas Dominions. At the same time it was also decided that the Table should not attempt to show the effect of Acts of the two Irish legislatures on the Acts contained in the Table. As a consequence certain Acts of Irish application are distinguished in the Table by an asterisk which indicates that entries relating to amendments by either of the Irish legislatures have not been made in the Table and that, if the Act is applicable to Northern Ireland, the Parliament of Northern Ireland may have legislated, or has apparently power to legislate, upon the subject of the Act or upon some aspect of it.

Furthermore, as appears from the heading of each page of the Table, certain Acts are shown in the Table in italics when they are marked as "Irish." The enactments referred to are enactments which are applicable to the Republic of Ireland only or are applicable to the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland or Northern Ireland only and, if applicable to Northern Ireland, are within the competence of the Northern Ireland legislature.

The reason for this course being taken in the Table is that the Table is intended to be a companion volume to the Third and subsequent Editions of the Statutes Revised and Section 3 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1950, authorises (among other things) the omission from any revised edition of the Statutes of enactments relating to the Republic of Ireland and, so far as relates to matters within the powers of the Parliament thereof, Northern Ireland : such enactments have been omitted from the Third Edition of the Statutes Revised. Where the Parliament at Westminster has, since the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, repealed or amended any such enactments so far as they relate to Northern Ireland, such repeal or amendment is shown in the Table.*

MISCELLANEOUS.

9. The fact that this Table is intended both now and in the future to be a companion volume to the current edition of the Statutes Revised makes it desirable that it should be easy to distinguish between entries in the Table which are reflected in that edition and those which, because they are subsequent in date, are not i.e. in the case of the Third Edition, all post-1948 entries. With this object a distinguishing mark has been employed (see the note at the head of each page of the Table). If there are no entries with the distinguishing mark against a particular Act, it means that the text of that Act in the Third Edition has been unaffected by subsequent legislation up to the date to which the Table extends: if it is otherwise, the post-1948 entries, being marked with the distinguishing mark and being placed on separate lines, are easily identifiable.

10. Communications respecting the work may be addressed to the Director, Statutory Publications Office, 27, Abingdon Street, London, S.W.1.

* A Chronological Table of the Statutes in Force in Northern Ireland, similar in plan to the present publication, is published by H.M. Stationery Office under direction of the Statute Law Committee of Northern Ireland. These Northern Ireland volumes give information, inter alia, as to Ante-Union Irish Acts.

(a) From this year onwards the Public Acts are divided into two series : Public General (the Acts of each session being numbered in arabic figures), and Public Local and Personal Acts (the Acts of each session being numbered in roman figures) ; this Table is thenceforward confined to Acts numbered and included in the "General" series. Until 1868 Acts confirming Provisional Orders were included in the "General" series : in that year and thereafter they were relegated to the "Local and Personal" series. In this Table all Acts which under the arrangement prevailing since 1868 would fall outside the Public General and into the Local and Personal series, whether of a date earlier or later than the 1797-8 or 1868 re-arrangements, are entered in col. 2 as "Local." Since 1920 an Index to Local Acts has been published annually. A consolidated index to Local Acts 1801-1947 was published in 1949.

- (a) REPRINT OF ARMY ACT AS AMENDED. — The Army Act has been reprinted and placed on sale in separate form each year (save for the suspension of reprinting in 1941 and after) with the insertion of the latest amendments made by the Army and Air Force (Annual) Act. For the omission of the year "1881" from the short title (in relation to the 1881 Act as amended) see 53-4 V. c. 4. s. 4.
- (b) AIR FORCE ACT. The Army Act, as thus applied to the Air Force, forms (see s. 12 (1) of the Air Force Constitution Act (7-8 G. 5. c. 51)) the Air Force Act. That Act as subsequently modified has been printed and put on sale in separate form with the annual or other amtds. incorporated. It bears no chapter number and does not appear in the annual volume of the statutes of 7 & 8 Geo. 5 : it is entered in this Table after 7-8 G. 5. c. 51.
