Library List No. 45

Washington 25, D. C., March 1949

EDUCATIONAL EXHIBITS

A List of References

Compiled by Cora L. Feldkamp

This list includes references to publications issued since July 1932, and supersedes the Bibliography of Publications Relating to Agricultural Exhibits issued as U. S. D. A. Misc. Ext. Pub. No. 3. However, the scope has been broadened to include references to books and periodicals in addition to the publications of the Land-Grant Colleges and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

With few exceptions State publications are free of charge and will be furnished upon request to the directors of cooperative extension work at the institutions listed, until the supplies are exhausted. Any that are not thus obtainable should be found in the libraries of the Land-Grant Colleges as well as in the larger public libraries. This should be true also of the books and periodicals.

The publications of the U. S. Department of Agriculture may be obtained by writing to the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. If price is quoted the publication is available by purchase only from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

Photoprint or microfilm copies of publications listed may be obtained from the U. S. Department of Agriculture Library at the following prices:

MICROFILMS:

Periodical Articles. - A flat charge of 50 cents for any single article, from any single column of a periodical.

Books and Serial Publications. - 50 cents for each 50 pages or fraction thereof.

PHOTOPRINTS:

50 cents for each 5 pages of text or fraction thereof.

Call numbers following the citations are those of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Library.

GENERAL

1. DEAN, F. W. Do fair exhibits pay? U. S. Ext. Forester Jan. 1938: 2-3. 1.9 Ex892Exf
Exhibits pay if properly prepared and planned, and are most effective if an attendant is always present to answer questions.

2. FRIER, G. M., and BUSCHE, L. M. Indiana State Fair exhibits in the Purdue University Building, Indiana State Fair, Indianapolis, Indiana, August 29 - September 5, 1941 (Data collected on September 2, 3 and 4). Purdue U. Agr. Ext. Studies C. 6, 8 p. Nov. 1941. 275.29 In2Ext

Report of a study made by the Division of Short Courses and Exhibits and the Associate Director's Office on exhibit effectiveness. Of the 208 visitors interviewed answering the question regarding the most interesting exhibit, it was found that "farmers answered in terms of their economic interests, while the homemakers mentioned the electric kitchen more than any other exhibit."

3. NEELY, W. C. The agricultural fair. New York, Columbia U. Press, 1935. 313 p., illus. 4 N29

Historical presentation. Considers also "the fair functionally in its educational, recreational and socializational aspects."

4. U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE. Deep roots for American agriculture: an exhibit portraying the objectives of American agriculture on display at the American Farm Bureau Federation Exhibition, basement floor of the Stevens Hotel, Chicago, December 4-8, 1939. Washington, 1939. 4 p. 1.913 E4D36

Prepared for same exhibit at New York World's Fair, 1940.

Brief notes on the following exhibits: security of income, plenty without waste, operator-ownership of farms, wise use of land, efficient distribution, a fair share of the world markets, expansion of domestic consumption, and better farm living.

5. WEST VIRGINIA. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE. Law and regulations pertaining to state aid for fairs. W. Va. Dept. Agr. B. (n. s.) 27, 8 p. May 22, 1941.

West Virginia law.
