中華民國三十五年十一月十五日

TREATY OF AMITY BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA

HIS EXCELLENCY THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA on the one hand and

HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF SAUDI ARABIA on the other hand

animated by the desire to establish and to consolidate the bonds of friendship and good understanding between their respective countries, have resolved to conclude a Treaty of Amity and have for this purpose appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

His Excellency the President of the National Government of the Republic of China:

His Excellency Mr. Cheng Ye-tung, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of China to Iran;

His Majesty the King of Saudi Arabia:

His Excellency Sheikh Youssif Yasseen, Acting Foreign Minister of Saudi Arabia; who, having communicated their Full Powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

There shall be perpetual peace and amity between the Republic of China and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia as well as between their peoples.

ARTICLE II

The High Contracting Parties agree to establish diplomatic relations between the two States in conformity with the principles of Public International Law.

They also agree that the diplomatic representatives of each State shall enjoy, on the basis of reciprocity, in the territory of the other, the treatment recognized by the general principles of Public International Law.

ARTICLE III

The High Contracting Parties agree that either High Contracting Party may establish consulates in such localities of the territory of the other as may be agreed upon.

The consular officers of either High Contracting Party shall enjoy, on the basis of reciprocity, in the territory of the other, the treatment recognized by the general principles of Public International Law.

ARTICLE IV

The High Contracting Parties agree that the nationals of either High Contracting Party residing or travelling in the territory of the other shall be accorded the most favoured nation treatment in regard to the protection of their person and property.

ARTICLE V

The High Contracting Parties agree that on the death of a national of either High Contracting Party in the territory of the other, if there is no lawful trustee to take care of the property of such a national, such property, after the carry out of judicial procedures concerned, shall be handed over to the nearest consular officer of his own country for forwarding to his rightful heir.

ARTICLE VI

The High Contracting Parties agree to regulate in a convention to be concluded later the commercial relations between their respective countries. *

ARTICLE VII

The present Treaty shall be ratified with the least possible delay by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their respective laws. The instruments of ratifications shall be exchanged as soon as possible.

The present Treaty shall enter into force on the day of the exchange of ratifications.

In faith whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty.

Done at Jedda this fifteenth day of the eleventh month of the thirty-fifth year of the Republic of China, corresponding to the twenty-second of Zilhegga of the year one thousand three hundred and sixty-five of Hegira, that is, 15th November 1946, in duplicate, and in the Chinese, Arabic and English languages, all being equally authoritative.
