

Offences (Aggravation by Prejudice) (Scotland) Act 2009

2009 asp 8

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 3rd June 2009 and received Royal Assent on 8th July 2009

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision about the aggravation of offences by prejudice relating to disability or to sexual orientation or transgender identity.

1 Prejudice relating to disability

- (1) This subsection applies where it is—
 - (a) libelled in an indictment, or specified in a complaint, that an offence is aggravated by prejudice relating to disability, and
 - (b) proved that the offence is so aggravated.
- (2) An offence is aggravated by prejudice relating to disability if—
 - (a) at the time of committing the offence or immediately before or after doing so, the offender evinces towards the victim (if any) of the offence malice and ill-will relating to a disability (or presumed disability) of the victim, or
 - (b) the offence is motivated (wholly or partly) by malice and ill-will towards persons who have a disability or a particular disability.
- (3) It is immaterial whether or not the offender's malice and ill-will is also based (to any extent) on any other factor.
- (4) Evidence from a single source is sufficient to prove that an offence is aggravated by prejudice relating to disability.
- (5) Where subsection (1) applies, the court must—
 - (a) state on conviction that the offence is aggravated by prejudice relating to disability,
 - (b) record the conviction in a way that shows that the offence is so aggravated,
 - (c) take the aggravation into account in determining the appropriate sentence, and
 - (d) state—
 - (i) where the sentence in respect of the offence is different from that which the court would have imposed if the offence were not so aggravated, the extent of and the reasons for that difference, or
