

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

ORAL EXPRESSION CLASS AND MUSIC DEPARTMENT TO GIVE PROGRAM

The music and oral expression classes of the Glendale Union high school, under the direction of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson and Miss Abbie C. Terry, respectively, will present the following program Friday afternoon of this week at 2 o'clock, and as the closing event of school before the Christmas holidays, will be one of especial interest to both pupils and friends of the school:

- Nazareth.....Gounod
- High School Orchestra
- Silent Night.....Adapted
- Girls' Glee Club

The second part of the program will be the presentation of the playlet, "The Mouse Trap," by Dean Howells, noted English author. Following is the cast of characters:

- Mrs. Summers.....Ethel West
- Mrs. Curwen.....Edna Alley
- Mrs. Miller.....Ethel Collins
- Mrs. Beams.....Maybeth Pigg
- Jane, a maid.....Clara Jenkins
- Mr. Campbell.....Ben Nichols

The cast for the playlet is made up entirely of students in the fourth period oral expression class. There will be no admission charged and the excellency of the programs always presented by the music and oral expression departments of the school will undoubtedly attract a great number of visitors.

The tenth year geometry class at the high school is being initiated into the mysteries of the study of quadrilaterals at the present time.

The senior and freshman girls' basketball teams held another one of their friendly interclass matches on Monday evening on the high school court. Of course the game was really "interesting," "exciting" and the like, and the girls are developing real skill in shooting baskets, so they say. The senior girls won, 10-4, but it was not an easily earned victory.

GRAND SALUTE TO OPEN EXPOSITION

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 15.—Two days and nights of festivities and ceremonies will be held incidental to the opening of San Diego's wonderful exposition, arrangements for which are now being made by a committee of citizens of San Diego, of which Col. D. C. Collier is chairman. Beginning with a grand salute from the warships in the harbor and the guns at Fort Rosecrans, the ringing of bells and blowing of whistles throughout the city, and cheers from thousands of throats at the moment when the lights of the exposition are set aglow by the touch of a button by President Wilson in the White House at midnight of December 31, the celebration will continue until midnight of January 2, 1915, winding up with a grand carnival on the Isthmus, the wonderful amusement street of the exposition, on Saturday night.

Appropriate ceremonies at midnight on December 13 will mark the opening of the gates of the exposition, with notable personages from all parts of the country present to participate with the exposition officials in these events. Red fire will burn on all of the points of land in Balboa park, where the exposition is located, and huge bonfires will light the mountain tops of San Diego county.

On the morning of January 1st, a great parade of automobiles will be one of the features of the celebration. The official dedication ceremonies will be at 2 o'clock. That night the president's banquet is to be given on the grounds.

Military and naval organizations will head the monster parade to be seen on the morning of January 2. Officers and men from the U. S. warships in the harbor, artillerymen from Fort Rosecrans, naval militia and companies of state troops will be in line. Special events will be staged on the grounds of the exposition during the afternoon, and at night a grand carnival will be held on the Isthmus.

GREAT TRADING INDUCEMENTS

In perusing the columns of this issue of the Evening News one's attention is readily attracted by the inducements the Tropic Mercantile company is offering in their large advertisement on page 2. No need of people of this community paying carfare to Los Angeles when there are such good bargains of quality merchandise on this side of the river.

HARD TIMES PARTY

NORTH GLENDALE LAD ENTERTAINS FRIENDS—OTHER NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. E. J. Young of 810 North Brand boulevard entertained in honor of her son, Master Edison, last Saturday evening. The occasion was a hard times party and the guests came dressed accordingly. The house was decorated with cornstalks and other ridiculous things, which certainly was in harmony with the grotesque costumes of the young people. Games such as feeding the elephant peanuts while blindfolded were enjoyed and the gracious hostess served delicious sweet cider, home-made doughnuts, candy and apples, which was the only part of the fun that was not suggestive of hard times, for there was enough for all and to spare. The jolly evening was enjoyed by the following invited guests: Miss Annie McIntyre, principal of the North Central avenue school, and Miss Elizabeth Edwards, the fifth and sixth grades teacher in the same school; Miss Ethel Parks of Los Angeles and the Misses Marion Soher, Eleanor Mellon, Theo Payne, Elizabeth Sternberg, and Masters Lawrence Young, John Ehreshman, Bert Coughran, Frank Marsh, Wesley Coughran, Byron England, Harold Soher and the happy honoree, Master Edison Young.

The beautiful house built by May Bros. for Mr. Menzo Williams of North Central avenue has been completed and accepted and Mr. Williams with his family moved in Monday. The house is one of the most beautiful in the vicinity and the many friends of these charming people hope they will enjoy it to the fullest extent.

Mr. Jared Wenger of 819 Campbell street returned Monday from Inyo county, where he has extensive ranch property near Independence, Cal. While there the gentleman encountered snow and ice and experienced the feeling of living for a short time where it was real cold.

Mrs. William Alston of 1652 Ruth street and Mrs. Oliver E. Wright of 1649 Ruth street spent Monday in Hollywood, where they were the guests of Mrs. Alston's aunt, Mrs. Barkley Lyons, and daughter, Miss Alice Lyons, of Sunset boulevard.

Mrs. Charles Sharp of Melrose avenue was a Los Angeles visitor Monday, enjoying the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Josselyn of Los Angeles are spending a few days with Mr. Josselyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Josselyn of 1641 Ruth street.

Mrs. Lucius F. Drake of 1657 Ruth street spent Monday in Los Angeles, where she was the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sternberg and three children of 1226 Viola avenue left Monday for Elsinore Hot Springs where they will remain indefinitely while Mr. Sternberg takes the baths in the hope that his health will be benefited.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Chaney of Lindsey, Cal., are guests of Mrs. Chaney's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clement of 1321 North Pacific avenue after spending the past week with another aunt, Mrs. R. D. Greer of Ontario.

TROPIC

Mr. Frederic C. Richardson and daughter, Miss Margaret Richardson, have returned from a visit to Santa Paula. Mrs. Richardson will remain a few days longer in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hough and daughter, Miss Mary Jane Evans Hough, will spend the merry Christmas as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Craig, who are now at the Hough ranch near Saugus.

Mrs. Harry Tisdale of Paloma avenue has returned from a few days' visit with friends in San Bernardino. Raymond Davis of Los Angeles is enjoying the week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hartwig of Acacia avenue.

Miss Eva Dutton, who spent the week-end as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dutton of Virginia place, returned to Inglewood Monday morning, where she resumed her duties as supervisor of music in the schools at Inglewood.

There will be an interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the First Methodist church of Los Angeles on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, national superintendent of Sunday school work for the W. C. T. U., will speak. Mrs. Irvine's subject will be "Echoes from the National Convention at Atlanta, Georgia."

WHAT A GERMAN GIRL THINKS OF THE WAR

SHE SAYS GERMANY HAS SO STRONG A MORAL HOLD AND SO STRONG A DETERMINATION TO BECOME VICTORIOUS THAT SHE CANNOT BE CRUSHED AND IF THE WORLD WERE FULL OF DEVILS THREATENING TO SWALLOW GERMANY, THAT COUNTRY WOULD HAVE NO FEAR

Through the kindness of Miss Flora Fromm of Glendale, we are permitted to publish a letter just received from her cousin, Miss Elfrieda Schultz of Germany. The letter reaches us with the following explanation made by Attorney Frank L. Muhleman, also of Glendale:

I am enclosing herewith a free translation of a letter received by Miss Flora Fromm of Glendale from her cousin in Germany. The letter was just recently received, although the date indicates that it was November 1st when it was written. This translation was made by my brother-in-law, Prof. H. von Wahlde of Tropic, who was born in Germany and whose translation I feel sure is correct.

I enclose the letter with the thought that perhaps you may desire to publish it, or at least a portion of it, for to my mind its genuineness and its statement of the facts impress me as being extremely fair under all the circumstances. Of course, we have to remember that the young lady who wrote it is a German and has an affection for her fatherland, and that Germany considers England the cause of the war and the antipathy of the nations at this time is overestimated by each country.

Mulheim-Ruhr, Nov. 1, 1914.

Dear Cousin:

You will, no doubt, be interested to hear from us in these days of horror. We are, thank God, well, and would scarcely notice anything about war in our dear country if it were not for the wounded soldiers in our midst. Life here is exactly the same as in the days of peace. We therefore do not suffer want in any way. On the contrary, we are aware, more than ever, how immensely rich Germany is, the war loan being no less than five and a half billion marks. Thousands of them are wisely utilized to mitigate the hardships of our wounded soldiers and of those wailing the sword. From all the large cities, every week, innumerable gifts are sent to them by means of automobiles, and an abundant number of gorgeously decorated trains take the wounded soldiers from the battle lines to sanitariums. I saw a great number of them, especially French and Turcos, pass through our city. They are treated, in all respects, with the same kind of attention as our own. Uninjured prisoners have to be content with the treatment usually accorded prisoners of war. I only hope that our men who are taken prisoners are treated as well. We already have more than 300,000 prisoners. Their conduct is good, excepting that of the English, who, of course, are treated in conformity with such conduct.

How we hate the English you cannot imagine. England is the nation that caused the war. Every human eye in looking upon them exhibits a visible anger, and only with the highest indignation do our soldiers look down upon the English army. Our soldiers, however, speak well of the French. Also is the hate against the Russians insignificant compared with that of the English. How different is the manner of those fighting against us: Yellow, brown and black races. That these cruel natured people, entirely lack civilization, do not treat our wounded soldiers humanely, but extremely barbarously, is obvious. It was intended to keep English, French, Belgians, Russians and Turcos together, but this could not be carried out, since they jeopardized and half killed each other.

A terrible misfortune occurred to one of father's assistants. He was captured by the French and brought to Paris, tied between two horses, where he was welcomed by the low people in the streets spitting on him. He had been deprived of his money by a French officer and for ten days he nearly starved, then being returned to Switzerland. Our poor, poor prisoners. By the Russians they surely won't be treated very tenderly.

About one thing, however, we can congratulate ourselves. The fighting takes place not on German soil, but in the land of our foes, where houses and sometimes whole cities are destroyed and the inhabitants have to flee. Poor France, why did you seek revenge for the sake of Alsace-Lorraine? You had to face more than any other nation, and to the fullest extent, the horrors of the war!

Our East Prussian province is, to our deepest regret, invaded by Russian troops, who most shamelessly terrorize that region. Thirty thousand have flown to Berlin, where they, to be sure, were most cordially greeted and received with open arms. They were actually overwhelmed with donations of all kinds. Well, our Hindenburg has driven the Russians far back into their own land.

What news do you hear about the war? I presume you are inundated with French and British lies. Our unsuccessful attacks being exaggerated and our true statements distorted. It however remains a fact. What our troops have done up to this time is so ostentatious and puissant that it stands unsurpassed in the history of the world. And whom do we have to thank for it? Above all our heroic soldiers and their wise and intrepid leaders, and to some extent our nearly perfect weapons. A nation which, like ours, has so strong a determination to become victorious and that has so strong a moral hold, cannot be crushed! And if the world were full of devils, threatening to swallow us, we have no fear, for we would still gloriously succeed! We are fully aware, however, that we must do all in our power and bring many a sacrifice to subdue such a number of powerful foes. But no sacrifice is too great that we bring for the sake of our fatherland. I am proud to be a German! Rich or poor, high or low, in every heart the same love and the same thought. This unity is so puissant and sublime that it makes every heart beat stronger. Where are our political parties? They have all vanished. Even our Social Democrats hurried, inflamed with enthusiasm, to meet the enemy. A noted one has already found his death on the battlefield. "I know no party; I know only Germans." Such were the words of our emperor on the day war was declared. Up to the last hour he had been endeavoring to uphold peace.

That this war had to come was obvious. Germany had become too great and was therefore envied by the other nations and this envy did not let them rest until they forced Germany to draw the sword. They want to crush us. We will show them what it means to attack Germany! With what enthusiasm did our soldiers hurry to meet the enemy you could hardly believe.

Often did I go to the railway station when the soldiers departed. Decorated with lovely flowers and incessantly hailed by all that were near, young and old, thus they proudly marched away, delighted by song and music. One and one half million volunteers are impatiently waiting to join the others in the battlefield. At the beginning of the war there came also Germans from Belgium who had to relinquish everything that they possessed.

That our troops first invaded Belgium is to be explained in the fact that those people's attitude exhibited a strong adherence to France, and we knew that Belgium, in case of a French-German war, would be on the side of France and would let French troops pass through it. It therefore scarcely behooves one to speak of violation of neutrality on the part of Germany. Belgium is at the present time ours. Whether or not it will remain ours depends upon the final result of the war.

Our army has invaded France to Verdun, Belford in the south and Dunkirk in the north. Vehement fighting takes place at present in the proximity of the canal. Soon we will, in all probability, have Calais. Then it will be difficult on the part of the British to land troops on French soil. Some large cities like Lille, Louvain and Combra are also in our possession. The efficacy of our airships is indeed wonderful. They now and then pay a visit to Paris and London.

We are quite safe here from bullets. Recently an English aeronaut succeeded in throwing bombs on the airship hangars at Dusseldorf; did, however, but little damage.

The success of our marine is grand. Our ship Emden alone has already sunk twenty ships. You have heard, perhaps, of the heroic deed of the submarine N-9, which sunk three English cruisers.

Our most worthy brothers in Singtau and in our other colonies hold to the last. It is not well to think of all the misery and suffering that has been caused by the war. It is indeed too horrible. How many of our dear ones have already become victims of the war.

There are about 800 wounded soldiers in Mulheim. Some of them are hurt but slightly, others dangerously. They all receive the most circumspect care and are revered by young and old. They deserve it. I was four weeks in the hospital, where I could, to my great delight, nurse the sick. But there are so many wanting to

SCHOOLS NEED MONEY

STATISTICS COMPILED SHOWS GAINS IN ELEMENTARY AND HIGH SCHOOLS

Edward Hyatt, superintendent of public instruction for the state of California, has compiled the following interesting statistics:

The figures given below will show you the gains in the elementary and high schools of the state for the period beginning 1907 and ending 1914:

Elementary Schools
 Number of teachers—1907, 8848; 1914, 12,266.
 Number of pupils enrolled—1907, 294,385; 1914, 422,029.
 Average daily attendance—1907, 234,624; 1914, 319,229.
 Number of graduates—1907, 12,683; 1914, 24,780.
 State aid given—1907, $3,977,295.40; 1914, $5,358,779.04.
 County aid given—1907, $2,866,479.17; 1914, $4,980,197.76.
 District aid given—1907, $937,001.16; 1914, $1,591,921.29.

Bonds voted for buildings—1907, $1,374,395.58; 1914, $3,287,895.03.
 Note: The repeal of the poll tax will deduct from the state aid annually about $900,000, or $2.82 per pupil. If the state makes up this loss, the aid will go to all the elementary schools of the state in all counties alike. If the county makes this up, some counties will and some will not. If it is left to the district most of the districts will not call for a special tax to do this and the loss will reduce the schools in annual income about one month each year. The coming legislature should provide for this loss.

High Schools
 Number of schools—1907, 179; 1914, 255.
 Number of teachers—1907, 1188; 1914, 2997.
 Number of pupils enrolled—1907, 27,578; 1914, 65,927.
 Average daily attendance—1907, 22,333; 1914, 48,312.
 Number of graduates—1907, 2890; 1914, 7477.
 State aid given—1907, $237,016.77; 1914, $642,815.52.
 District aid given—1907, $2,026,685.26; 1914, $5,506,429.22.
 Bonds voted for buildings—1907, $429,576.50; 1914, $1,893,657.

Note: The county gives no aid to the high school excepting in cases of county high schools. The above figures will show that the state aid to high schools has kept pace with the district aid; that is, the percentage is about the same, though the district gave in addition to the buildings about 8.6 times as much towards the support of high schools as did the state.

BEACH VISITORS

Monday a school of twenty huge whales made a call at Santa Monica bay and spent most of the day in the quiet waters. All day the beach was lined with people watching the huge leviathan spouting only a short distance from shore. In fact, a couple of them passed so close to the end of the long wharf that they gently brushed against it and the slight bump that Mr. Whale did not even notice took away half a dozen of the pilings and several of the floor planks. The people of the bay city are glad their visitors did not try to swim the whole length of the wharf, as they might have "brushed" it all away.

act as nurses that all cannot be taken. In the field only sisters of long experience are permitted.

At home we are assiduously knitting for the soldiers, and every week a package is sent to them.

In conclusion I shall tell you something about our two beloved ones in the army. Father has, as chief of the surgical staff, with him a company of 200 persons and seven physicians. With these people he constantly follows a number of troops and takes, when arrived at the fighting place, immediate possession of the place selected for the hospital. Not seldom is he received by bullets and granates. We often hear from him; he from us seldom. At present he is located southeast of Lille and has met there my brother Willy. Brother is 17 years old and had, at the commencement of the war, successfully submitted himself to an examination as lieutenant. He has joined our old regiment. Thus his fervently fostered wish of becoming a lieutenant is fulfilled. He has already participated in various combats and will, if wounded, without delay be brought to father. He lies often with his soldiers for days long in the trenches. We will hope and wish with all our hearts that we will soon find our dear ones well and unharmed before us.

Your cousin,
ELFRIEDA SCHULZ.

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF HOLY FAMILY CHURCH A HAPPY SUCCESS

The reunion and card party held at Masonic hall on Monday evening by the people of the Holy Family church was a success in every way. About 250 guests were present and 122 of these played cards. For those who did not care to play there were games and entertainment of other kinds. The great hall was beautifully decorated with pepper boughs and scarlet flowers and the program was of unusual merit. Among the numbers given were the following:

Piano solo, "Waltz in E Major" (Moszkowski), played in a masterful way by Miss Millicent Virden of Vienna. In response to a hearty encore Miss Virden gave "Staccato Caprice" by Vogrich.

The violin numbers by Mr. Ferdinand Rigali of Tropic were delightful. This talented young man has every attribute of a great musician. Mr. Rigali's number was "Thais," by Massenet, with "Spanish Dance," by Moszkowski, as an encore.

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan gave dialect readings of almost every nation under the sun, passing from one to the other with the ease and grace of the finished artist, which she is. Mrs. Sloan was repeatedly encored. Miss Viola Yorba closed the program with two charming songs by James Rogers, "At Dawning" and "At Parting." Miss Yorba was accompanied by Miss Pauline Ruprecht of Tropic.

After the program cake and excellent coffee were served. The prize winners at the card tables were as follows: Ladies' first prize, Mrs. Edward Burlingham; second prize, Mrs. Chas. W. Hughes; third prize, Mrs. Rudell, and consolation prize, Miss Sarah Vaughn. Gentlemen's first prize, Mr. Frank Rudway, Sr.; second prize, Mr. Frank Patch; third prize, Mr. P. J. Dougherty, and consolation prize, Mr. Dietrich.

Father O'Neill's tall figure was seen everywhere, and especially among the children, where he played games with the little ones. Last, but not least, Father O'Neill was presented with an automobile by his grateful people, who feel that the parish is too large a one for him to walk over.

EAST IN WINTER'S GRIP

Winter, unadulterated, is said to be sweeping the East, the area of the cold wave being very wide and penetrating as far south as Alabama. In some localities the cold is accompanied by blizzards. In the northwest the temperature Monday night ranged from 4 to 20 below zero. Stiff gales on the Great Lakes brought navigation to a standstill. Snow seems to have enveloped a large part of the East and Middle West.

PLEASANT CHILDREN'S PARTY

Among the pretty affairs of the past week was the party given in celebration of the eighth birthday anniversary of Geraldine Frances Meagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. James Meagher of Tenth street.

After a jolly time spent in frolic and games, the little folks formed in line and as the Victrola sounded out the march, they came into the dining-room, where a fairyland of dainty surprises met their eyes. The little hostess was the recipient of many pretty presents. Those present included Carlotta Wade, Genevieve Marek, Lucile Cook, Rose Jennings, Violet Bener, Gladys Goodsell, Dorothy Carmack, Edith Carmack, Frances Armstrong, Elizabeth Goodrich, Erma Hollace Lucas, Audrey Haynes and Frances Lucas.

BEAUTIFUL SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH

After what was perhaps the largest B. Y. P. U. service of the season, the young people of the local Baptist church were prepared for the regular evening service. Miss Evelyn Kent made a strong talk on the value of good books, in which she showed her splendid education and appreciation of the best things in life. Seldom has the society enjoyed a more profitable time. In fact, all of the talks were splendid. The same sweet spirit of harmony and inspiration prevailed at the evening service. Pastor Troy made one of his tender appeals to follow Christ. He said that the greatest thing about Christ was his character and that the life of Christ in us will make us free from the law of sin and death. In response to the invitation, seven expressed their desire to follow Christ. A few more such meetings and a genuine revival will commence.

The program will consist of a symposium on the "Girl Problem in Glendale." Speakers will be Mrs. Frank G. Thorpe on "Her Leisure Time," Miss Carrie Noble, vice-principal of the Intermediate school, on "Her Dress from the Teacher's Viewpoint," Mrs. Edith M. Hunchberger on "Her Dress from a Mother's Viewpoint." This meeting will be held at the Third street school and will be open to the general public. Anyone interested in the subject or in Parent-Teacher work is cordially invited.

A BIBLE TEACHER

Without doubt one of the kindest spirited, non-offending evangelists now on the religious platform is to be found in Rev. Bruce Brown. His charity for all religious people and his care to say nothing bitter, while at the same time presenting the teaching of the Scriptures in a most forcible and uncompromising manner, is making itself felt. Mr. Brown loves to teach the Bible and uses no clap-trap to make his teaching interesting, yet holds his auditors' attention at all times.

Each evening he calls for quotations from the Bible on vital themes, and these are given by members of the audience quickly and very instructively. The sermon on Monday night on "The State of the Dead" was enjoyed by a good audience. This subject was presented to give his views for the information of Christians especially, but he emphasized the far greater value of a knowledge of our duty toward God and our fellow men in this world. The former is more or less confusing and subject to differences of interpretation, while the latter is very plain and vital.

Tonight's subject will be "Types of the Old Testament Representing the Realities of the New." On Wednesday evening, "Satan's Sermon" will no doubt draw a large audience.

The whole world is interested in the study of the Bible—you are interested and will be greatly benefited if you will hear Mr. Brown. You are invited to every service. Come tonight.

We should each and all of us help make the air electric with good will as Christmas approaches.

ver to the Idaho town, covering the distance of 975 miles in three days less than two months. The dog was raised in the Idaho town. He was purchased by Smith and shipped from Idaho July 16. He was placed in a baggage car and fastened with a collar and chain. The dog was on the train when it reached

Denver. Smith went to the baggage car to claim the dog. He and the baggageman were astounded to find the dog missing. The collar, securely fastened to the chain, remained to tell in what manner he had made his escape. Smith spent four days in Denver hunting for the dog and advertised extensively in the newspapers. He finally gave up hope of hearing of the animal again. The telegram from the former owner of the dog at American Falls informed Smith that the dog had just arrived there and that he was footsore, weary and otherwise suffering from his long journey.

Of course angels fly. That's why they have wings. A visit to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco any day that the winged ladies are taking their places on the roofs of the exhibit palaces will be convincing if the accompanying photograph does not serve that purpose. The particular winged ladies in question are called "the acroteria." There are to be thirty-two of them distributed about the various exhibit palaces.
