Personnel Justification: Mr. Newton S. Miler
Mr. Jackson E. Nordin
Mr. Thomas A. Smith

1. It is requested that approval be granted for the transportation by air to Shanghai, China of the above named man.
2. These three men are being trained and processed for overseas assignment as communications code clerks at field or base stations in China. They are being sent as part of the allotment of code clerks requested in Shanghai cable IN40909, dated 25 August 1946.
3. All three of these men are presently enrolled in the course of training and indoctrination established by the Communications Division, and have maintained excellent ratings in this school. Upon completion of this specialized training, each man will be fully qualified to assume his duties overseas.
4. It is recommended that this justification be approved.

For the Chief, Communications:

CHARLES H. ENGLISH
Executive Officer.

OATH OF OFFICE

STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT
WAR DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON, D. C

I, Newton S. Miler, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that, unless authorized in writing by the Director, SSU, I will not disclose or reveal either by word, by conduct, or by any other means, any information affecting the national interest or the national defense which I may obtain by reason of my employment by the Strategic Services Unit, War Department, and I will forever keep secret any information so obtained by me.

I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have read and understand the Security Regulations of the Strategic Services Unit, in force at the date of taking this oath, and Sections 31 and 32 of Title 50, U.S.C., known as the "Espionage Act," and that I do hereby bind myself to abide and be governed by them and by any supplements or amendments thereto.

I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God.

ESPIONAGE ACT

1. Unlawfully obtaining or permitting to be obtained information affecting national defense. - That (a) whoever, for the purpose of obtaining information respecting the national defense with intent or reason to believe that the information to be obtained is to be used to the injury of the United States, or to the advantage of any foreign nation, goes upon, enters, flies over, or otherwise obtains information concerning any vessel, aircraft, work of defense, navy station, submarine base, coaling station, navy yard, fort, battery, torpedo station, dockyard, canal, railroad, arsenal, camp, factory, mine, telegraph, telephone, wireless, or signal station, building, office, or other place connected with the national defense, owned or constructed, or in progress of construction by the United States or under the control of the United States, or of any of its officers or agents, or within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, or any place in which any vessel, aircraft, arms, munitions, or other materials or instruments for use in time of war are being made, prepared, repaired, or stored, under any contract or agreement with the United States, or with any person on behalf of the United States, or otherwise on behalf of the United States, or any prohibited place within the meaning of section 6 of this title; or (b) whoever for the purpose aforesaid, and with like intent or reason to believe, copies, takes, makes, or obtains, or attempts, or induces or aids another to copy, take, make, or obtain, any sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blue print, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, document, writing, or note of anything connected with the national defense; or (c) whoever, for the purpose aforesaid, receives or obtains or agrees or attempts or induces or aids another to receive or obtain from any person, or from any source whatever, any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, or note, of anything connected with the national defense, knowing or having reason to believe, at the time he receives or obtains, or agrees or attempts or induces or aids another to receive or obtain it, that it has been or will be obtained, taken, made or disposed of by any person contrary to the provisions of this title; or (d) whoever, lawfully or unlawfully having possession of, access to, control over, or being intrusted with any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, or note relating to the national defense, willfully communicates or transmits or attempts to communicate or transmit the same to any person not entitled to receive it, or willfully retains the same and fails to deliver it on demand to the officer or employee of the United States entitled to receive it; or (c) whoever, being intrusted with or having lawful possession or control of any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, note, or information, relating to the national defense, through gross negligence permits the same to be removed from its proper place of custody or delivered to anyone in violation of his trust, or to be lost, stolen, abstracted, or destroyed, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten years and may, in the discretion of the court, be fined not more than $10,000. Sec. 1, Title I, act 15 June 1917 (40 Stat. 217), as amended by sec. 1, act 28 March 1940 (54 Stat. 79; 50 U.S.C. 31).

2. Unlawfully disclosing information affecting national defense. - (a) Whoever, with intent or reason to believe that it is to be used to the injury of the United States or to the advantage of a foreign nation, communicates, delivers, or transmits, or attempts to, or aids or induces another to, communicate, deliver, or transmit, to any foreign government, or to any faction or party or military or naval force within a foreign country, whether recognized or unrecognized by the United States, or to any representative, officer, agent, employee, subject, or citizen thereof, either directly or indirectly, any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, note, instrument, appliance, or information relating to the national defense, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than twenty years: provided, That whoever shall violate the provisions of sub-section (a) of this section in time of war shall be punished by death or by imprisonment for not more than thirty years; and (b) whoever, in time of war, with intent that the same shall be communicated to the enemy, shall collect, record, publish, or communicate, or attempt to elicit any information with respect to the movement, numbers, description, condition, or disposition of any of the armed forces, ships, aircraft, or war materials of the United States, or with respect to the plans or conduct, or supposed plans or conduct of any naval or military operations, or with respect to any works or measures undertaken for or connected with, or intended for the fortification or defense of any place, or any other information relating to the public defense, which might be useful to the enemy, shall be punished by death or by imprisonment for not more than thirty years. Sec. 2, act 15 June 1917 (40 Stat. 218; 50 U.S.C. 32).

OATH OF OFFICE

I, Thomas Alan Smith do solemnly swear (or affirm) that, unless otherwise permitted or authorized, I will not reveal or disclose either by word or by conduct any information which I may obtain by reason of my employment by the Strategic Services Unit, War Department, and I will forever keep secret any information so obtained by me.

I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have read and understand the Security Regulations of the Strategic Services Unit, War Department, in force at the date of taking this oath, and Sections 31 and 32 of Title 50, U.S.C., known as the "Espionage Act", and that I do hereby bind myself to abide and be governed by them and by any supplements or amendments thereto.

Dear Mr. Miller:

Thank you for your recent letter addressed to Mr. Brickelmaier in which you offer your services to this organization.

On the basis of the information given in your letter, we are considering you for the position of radio operator in the China Theater at the base salary of $2644 plus living and quarters allowance of approximately $1200 per annum. It should be mentioned here that all foreign appointments are made for a minimum period of 18 months. However, before any definite commitments can be made and in order that we may more closely examine your qualifications with respect to our specific needs, it is requested that you complete and return the inclosed application forms at your earliest convenience. At the time you submit these papers, it is requested that you also forward 2 profile and 4 front view photographs.

In addition, we should like to know whether or not it would be possible for you to come to Washington on the 28th of August for a personal interview and assessment for approximately 2 days. Your expenses for this trip will be borne by the Government. When you arrive, it is requested that you contact Miss Dexian who is located in 107 North Building and who can be reached on Executive 6100, Extension 2981. Kindly notify us at your earliest convenience whether or not the above date meets with your approval.

Very truly yours,
