Emergency Response Coordination Centre (ERCC) - ECHO Daily Map | 28/4/2015 Nepal, India, China – Earthquakes

European

Humanitarian Aid Commission | and Civil Protection

Copyright, European Union, 2015. Map created by EC-JRC. The boundaries and names shown on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the European Union

SITUATION

- · The death toll from the recent earthquakes in Nepal has risen to 4 349, with 8 517 injured, as of 28 April. Numbers are expected to continue rising significantly. The district Sindhupalchuk alone has recorded 1 250 deaths and another 1 039 have been reported in Kathmandu.
- · According to the UN, an estimated 8 million people have been affected throughout Nepal.
- In India, 72 dead, 56 of which in the worst affected State of Bihar.
- The death toll continues increasing in China, with 25 dead and 117 injured.

Sources: ECHO, GDACS, COPERNICUS-EMS, USGS, Nepal MOFA, UN OCHA, Chinese Gov, Media

Weather Forecast

Over the next 24 h, thunderstorms may affect some areas of central and eastern Nepal, including the areas severely hit by the earthquakes. Light to moderate snowfall could affect the high mountain areas. Thunderstorms may also affect some areas of eastern India and the Chinese affected areas.

Sources: NOAA, MFD, IMD, CMA

COPERNICUS EMS - Settlement Grading

