Hq I Corps, APO 301, 11 JUN 1946

TO: CO, 103rd Mil Govt Co, APO 713.

1. The Nihon Kokusai Koku K.K., Kyoto Plant, may resume operations under the authority of the permit issued this company by Headquarters I Corps, 18 January 1946. This permission to operate will be effective only until such time as the machinery and equipment in this plant is required for reparations. The provisions of Operational Directive No. 5 will still apply to the Nihon Kokusai Koku K.K.

2. You are directed to notify the subject company of this decision.

103rd Mil Govt Co., APO 713 (Kyoto, Honshu) 3 June 46

TO: Hq. I Corps, APO 301 (Kyoto, Honshu)
Attn: Mil Govt Section, Res. & Ind. Officer

1. The basic factory is listed on Incl. 2, Operational Directive No. 5 and Operational Instructions No. 1, under its former name, Nihon Kokusai Koku K.K., Kyoto Plant.

2. A procurement demand No. SHGH-4, Account Code 121S, 19 April 46, has been issued to this plant for production of 1000 footlockers, by the 107th Mil. Govt. Co. Only 15 machines are being utilized in this work. At present they are producing 10 per day.

3. A permit was issued by Hq. I Corps, 18 Jan 46, for this plant to manufacture motor engines for agriculture, and household goods and utensils. In accordance with basic communication, Hq. I Corps, 25 April 46, AG 004-BA, subject: Cancellation of Permit of Kyoto Plant, Nihon Kokusai Kabushiki Kaisha, this permission was revoked. This cancellation was based on the reason that a company on the restricted list, which has done nothing thus far to reconvert should not be permitted to begin reconversion. The reason for delay in reconversion is explained in the covering letter sent in by the Chief of Kyoto Factory.

4. An inspection was made of the machinery in the basic firm and found the employees taking proper steps to preserve machinery. From this Hq. representatives observation, the inventory of machinery listed on the attached application is correct.

5. The Liaison Office informs this Hq. that the requested additional items are necessary to minimize the demand and need for them caused by war distruction. The Liaison Office also believes that with the manufacturing facilities this company has to offer, they will be able to produce the requested items cheaper, better and faster than most plants.

5. This Hq. feels, keeping in mind that even though this firm is listed on the restricted list and might be taken for reparation soon, permission should be granted for the production of the additional items.

TO: Hq. I Corps, APO 301 (Kyoto, Honshu)
Attn: Mil Govt Section, Res. & Ind. Officer

1. The basic factory is listed on Incl. 2, Operational Directive No. 5 and Operational Instructions No. 1, under its former name, Nihon Kokusai Koku K.K., Kyoto Plant.

2. A procurement demand No. SHGH-4, Account Code 1213, 19 April 46, has been issued to this plant for production of 1000 footlockers, by the 107th Mil. Govt. Co. Only 15 machines are being utilized in this work. At present they are producing 10 per day.

3. A permit was issued by Hq. I Corps, 18 Jan 46, for this plant to manufacture motor engines for agriculture, and household goods and utensils. In accordance with basic communication, Hq. I Corps, 25 April 46, AG 004-BA, subject: Cancellation of Permit of Kyoto Plant, Nihon Kokusai Kabushiki Kaisha, this permission was revoked. This cancellation was based on the reason that a company on the restricted list, which has done nothing thus far to reconvert should not be permitted to begin reconversion. The reason for delay in reconversion is explained in the covering letter sent in by the Chief of Kyoto Factory.

4. An inspection was made of the machinery in the basic firm and found the employees taking proper steps to preserve machinery. From this Hq. representatives observation, the inventory of machinery listed on the attached application is correct.

5. The Liaison Office informs this Hq. that the requested additional items are necessary to minimize the demand and need for them caused by war distruction. The Liaison Office also believes that with the manufacturing facilities this company has to offer, they will be able to produce the requested items cheaper, better and faster than most plants.

5. This Hq. feels, keeping in mind that even though this firm is listed on the restricted list and might be taken for reparation soon, permission should be granted for the production of the additional items.

Subject: Account of Delay in Reconversion from War Production and for Resumption of Production of Civilian Commodities.

TO : Major Harold C. Sheffield, Commander,
103rd Military Government.

1. From the Conclusion of the War To the Application for Reconversion.
Since the conclusion of the War makes us to give up the menufacture of airplanes, we are very eager to reconvert from the war production and resume to produce civilian commodities, pushing on the adjustment of remaining business as well. Last September the 136 Infantry Regiment, 6th Army occupied the whole area of the Factory and stationed there thenceforce. The employees are all therefore obliged to set up and remove to the temporary office at the residential area of the Factory about 1 Kilometer northeast of the Factory and continued works there. In such way as we could not enter the area, we are at a loss then how to manage the Factory in fulfulling the reconversion from war production and the arrangement of materials and machines.

On December 13th, 1945 except some parts, what is called welfare zone, the factory area released, as some of the occupation units departed the place. Soon after the release of the area, we resumed the business in the former buildings and set about the preparation to resume production. About that time we applied to the 6th Army Headquarters for permit to reconvert from war production and commence civilian production.

2. How the Preparation going on.
Even under such adverse circumstances, we worked hard positively in adjusting and arranging the factory and got good results. But as the SCAP directed on January 22nd, 1946 to the Imperial Japanese Government to designate the Japanese aircraft plants, arsenals and laboratories as reparation objets, we thought that it is very difficult for us to get permit for reconversion. We therefore setting importance on the arrangement of the bombarded buildings and preservation of the equipments, machinery and materials, from the chief to the laborers strived ourselves to resume the production in the future.

3. Permit of Reconversion.
On March 15th, we without any previous notice received the letter dated March 12, from Major James W. Coleman, Commanding Officer of 31st Military Government to the effect that an original permit (IC-114) would be considered as effective and our operation might continue.

The original permit IC-114, after inquiring various ways by the words of the Military Government that they had already sent it to the Local Government found being held at the Kyoto Prefectural Government not purposely and we received it on April 5.

4. Why Delayin Reconversion and Resumption of Civilian Production.
On the other hand, even though we know the permit was given on March we might not be able to commence new production except the ingot by reasons as follows.

1. Personnel wanted
   a. Most parts of the employees are to be engaged in arranging and adjusting works of the bombarded buildings and other arrang.
   b. Skilled workman retired according to the reduction policy of the company.
2. Buildings damaged.
   Almost all the buildings and the machines were so much damaged and dispersed that they must be repaired and adjusted.
3. Materials to be centralized.
   The materials and machines dispersed during the wartime at more than 50 warehouses in Kyoto and in the neighborhood and it takes much time to arrange them in the Factory.
4. Reparation Objects.
   As the machinery and equipments were designated as the reparation objects, it takes much labor to preserve them.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775013

In such circumstance we are very regrettable that we could not inform you with our progress not only in preparation for resumption but also the condition of reconversion.

5. Procurement Demand of Footlockers Received

The Procurement Demand on Imperial Japanese Government No. SHGH-4, Account Code 1213. as attached herewith, nominated our company to manufacture 3000 duralumin footlockers and we are now already in the process. We are at present in the status not only from the point of materials but also personnel that would be able to resume production at any time along the line of the above mentioned permission and have much desire with our whole strength to accomplish them.

We are greatly obliged if you give the matter prompt attention and permit us to reconvert from war production and resume to produce essential civilian goods as applied in the attached documents.
