"The Spirit of Sierra Madre" manifested itself last night in the demonstration of securing fire apparatus. Every person living in this town should be proud of the Board of Trustees and the Chamber of Commerce. Sierra Madre has shown Southern California that there is nothing im-possible in this little city.

TOO MUCH LITTER

Objection is again raised by several citizens to the litter of newspapers which are scattered about the streets around were covered with berry-laden holly, the bright berries affording a rich color to take the place of flow-ers. Pampas plumes relieved any ceived for distribution, and the bundle wrannings not properly disposed of. Street Superintendent Udell has had trouble with the papers plugging certain culverts so storm water could not flow freeley, thus causing an overflow on private property or a scatter-ing of gravel and debris on the pavement. Some systematic means of dis-> committing a nuisance should be found.

LOCAL MASON DIES

THE NEWS, SIERRA MADRE, CALIFORNIA

John E. Appleby, aged 76, passed away at the Pasadena hospital Sunday afternoon where he has been the last month. His end, though expected, was blessedly reaceful and painless. Was blessedly "eaceful and painless. Mr. Appleby was born in New Brunswick and as a young man in Canada joined the order of Masons, acting as organist for five years in the St. John lodge. At his death he was a Royal Arch Mason and associat-ed with the Siener Made lodge
