Visual Editor References

Web reference from URL
For the former settlement with this name, see Point Reyes (former settlement), California.

Point Reyes is a prominent cape and popular Northern California tourist destination on the Pacific coast of northern California. It is located in Marin County, approximately 30 miles (50 km) west-northwest of San Francisco. The term is often applied to the Point Reyes Peninsula, the region bounded by Tomales Bay on the northeast and Bolinas Lagoon on the southeast. The headland is protected as part of Point Reyes National Seashore.
Point Reyes is a prominent cape and popular Northern California tourist destination on the Pacific coast of northern California. It is located in Marin County approximately 30 miles (50 km) west-northwest of San Francisco. The term is often applied to the Point Reyes Peninsula, the region bounded by Tomales Bay on the northeast and Bolinas Lagoon on the southeast. The headland is protected as part of Point Reyes National Seashore.

Contents
1 Overview
2 History
   2.1 The Coast Miwok
   2.2 Sir Francis Drake
   2.3 The wreck of the San Augustín
   2.4 Portola’s inland expedition and the establishment of missions
   2.5 Rancho Tomales y Baulíñas
   2.6 Confused boundaries
   2.7 The Shafter Empire
   2.8 The towns of Point Reyes
   2.9 20th century
3 Ecology
4 Geology
5 Climate
   5.1 Fog
6 Recreation
7 See also
8 References
9 External links
The "more types" drop down switches to show the current type. The web reference is displayed below. You can add the reference now or choose to edit details.
If you decide to edit the details, you enter advanced dialog. You can edit auto-filled fields and also enter more recommended fields.