Carolina is for lovers

Kooka
Racha
Koo

And his servants will come upon the earth,
And the earth will yield to the pull, and cast off their bonds of hunting.
They will be with us,
and if he is with us, everyone will be against us;
for his neck is red and his socks, they be white;
and all of Washington will laugh at the sight.
The Greek shall reign no more, no more.
The world shall end.
Amen. Amen."

And it came to pass in the days before the feast of the sacrificial game that there arose one who was the Head, known among his tribe as the prophet William. And he opened his mouth and gnashed his teeth saying: "Verily, verily I say unto you; greatly shall you fear your enemy the Blue Devil, lest he sted upon you and weaken your defense and your secondary; for the laws shall be stricken from the polls." Whenceforth the scribes did write his words upon the Daily Scroll and read them to the people; and lo, they were sore amazed.

Now there went out in those days a decree from Caesar Alumnus that everyone should be smashed. And all came unto the Hill, each from his own city, that they might be filled to the fullest measure thereof. Now included among the multitude was Joe Carolina and his wife Mary, but there was no room for them at the Inn, for they both had reservations.

Then it was that the sacred Ram was brought forth before the people amidst trumpets and banners, and each one praised it with loud voices. And the possessions and the intemperations were the first quarter, and the families and the recoveries were the second quarter, and these plus more were the third quarter. Then it came to pass that two touchdowns were the fourth quarter, and the Devils returned to their fiery refuge arms the way; yea, even with their tails between their legs with embarrassment.

*And then cometh the time of the great concert draught.
The people were up-in-arms, and there was much talk of the scarcity of concerts at and about the Wall.
But those who did come to perform in the arena,
They filled the place with their voices, their fiddles, their drums,
And I seen their debauch.
At the end of the year,
The multitudes survived the winter situation,
And they were mildly pleased —
But, seriously, there was no real jubilation!*

*Then the rains came, and the winds did blow,
for it was yet another season, even unto the New Year.
Whence forth the people journeyed unto their homes for a break, and when they returned, lo, there was a great snow to greet them.*

And their chains rattled for four days and four nights.

*Thus they began a new semester,
for the old registration hath passed away.*

*Yea though the courses be new,
the routine becometh old again.
And so, they settled into the Grind,
Even as Winter froze them.*

Apple Chill Fair

Now there came a great change upon the face of the Hill.

The green returned to the grass,

the leaves to the trees,

and the sun to the outside;

For a great cloud had descended upon the people,

so that they could hardly see the world;

and a number of grim shapes abode

in the clouds above.

Then the children said,

"We will go home again."

The father and his members were afraid to go,

for the world was overcast,

And the people were dead,

and every one who died had lost his daughter;

And so the children went home again.

The professor is my shepherd, I shall not study.

He maketh me to lie down in the wee hours;

His homework leadeth me through the stacks.

He restoreth my apathy, he leadeth me in the path of knowledge for my own sake.

*Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of failure,
I will fear plagiarism.*

University Day

O<sup>rg</sup>anizations o<sup>f</sup> R<sup>esidence</sup> c<sup>olleges</sup>

The image shows a person sitting on a bench in a park-like setting with trees and a path.

In the beginning, they fixed the roof of Old East, for the termites had run out of wood.

*And it was said, "Let there be light!"
and there were no bulbs.*

The officials saw the darkness, and sent nightmen three months later.

*These men saw that it was good enough to break again in a week.
And on another day they said; "Let the woods be bulldozed, and let South Campus emerge from the swamps."*

And South Campus brought forth high rises, and ranches, and condominiums;

and everybody thought that it was good fun.

And the University was blessed

*And went forth and recruited and multiplied to 20,000 students.
More apartments were built and Granville arose like three monsters from the sea.*

And the real estate men saw that the money was good.

And then it was rumored that Henderson was to be a living learning center.

And the girls and guys on North Campus thought it might be a good chance . . .

And then the administration said, "Let's make Student Government in our own image, and let them have dominion over that which is trivial. So SG blessed itself and said, 'We must be fruitful and multiply, and they created the Student Government Council and I think it might be good.'

And there was a sit-in on the Hill about the Daily Texan and its much publicized raises, and the students gave money to help because they knew that the DTH was poor, and all the other clubs and organizations needed much about their money, but each thought that it was good. But Dick the Mighty One, and his cohorts, thought differently.

Then after looking out all of the residence villages and organizations, a hand fell round about and we said that this hand was good.

*In the fall, the sororities and fraternities they rusbeth,
And even so in the spring.
For as the rusbee cometh,
So doth the beer chugging.
The Greeks are the established among the unconventional
The organized amidst the masses,
The broghers and sisters united.
They abideth in great dwellings,
And celebrate the victories of the sporting troops.
And lo, they even provideth carnivals that benefit the Campus Chest
And they pileth pennies to help the crippled,
That they might walk once more.
Whether the occasion might be the sacrifice of the Great Pumpkin for carving,
The celebration of St. Valentinus among the children,
Or the parade of the triumphant Rabbit,
They smileth even so as they laugh,
And are at peace with themselves.*

*Create in me a celebrity, O coach;
and renew a winning spirit within me.
Cast me not away from thy team and take not my jersey from me.
Keep unto me the joy of victory,
and uphold me with thy money.
Then will I teach the rivals their place;
and high school stars shall be converted unto UNC.
Then shalt thou be pleased with the winning records and with the offerings of the alumni, and especially with the Carmichael Cup upon thy mantle.*

Thank You

To every person there is a number and no time for anything under blue heaven

*A time to be bored and a time to cry;
A time to drop and a time to add those courses which he hath heard were easy;*

*A time to sell books and of course be ripped off;
Lots of time to drink and not much time to study;*

A time to love in the grass and a time to itch;

A time to get good grades but more time to get bad ones;

A time to play poker but never time to win;

A time to want a parking space, and a time to wish your car hadn't been towed;

A time to cram and a time to sleep;

A time to tell your friends which professor is easy and a time to know that he doesn't pass anyone;

A time for sunshine and too much time for rain;

*Each person, in his four years here, hath made a fool of himself and awakened the next morning
With a moan and a time to begin again.*

*Though we speak with the tongues of learned people, without desire, we are but parts of the Big Machine.
And though we have the gift of Wisdom and think we understand all mysteries and knowledge, and though we have potential energy enough to move mountains,
without desire, we are nothing.*

And though we bestow money enough for four years and treat our bodies with many sleepless nights, without desire, we are nothing.

We care for the

*But when that which is perfect is seen, that which we dream will always remain.
For we used to see dimly through one colored glass, but now the world beckons its people and they
and only the dreams of the past remain.*
