

Professor Fauzias started her Academic career at UKM in 1986. She attained the highest level of Academic career by reaching a Professor of Finance in 2003 before she retired in 2015. She completed her Ph.D. from Dublin University, Ireland in 1991. She defended her Ph.D. thesis in Finance (Specializing in Corporate Finance – Merger and Acquisition) without any corrections. This demonstrates how intelligent, determined, and hard work she is. Prior to that, she earned a Master of Business Administration (M.B.A) from the University of Miami, Florida, U.S.A in 1985, Bachelor of Business Administration - B.B.A (Finance), University of Miami, Florida, the United States of America in 1984 and a Diploma in Accountancy, ITM, Shah Alam, Malaysia in 1977.

Dr. Fauzias currently is a professor of Finance at Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (USIM). Her research interest is in Islamic Finance with a special focus on Corporate Finance and Banking. Before joining USIM in 2015, she served at UKM for more than 29 years as a lecturer, an associate Professor, and a Professor in Finance. She was the founding Dean of the Graduate School of Business UKM and the former President of the Malaysian Finance Association. She also has served Majlis Agama Islam Selangor (MAIS) and YAPEIM as their Investment Committee and YAPEIM Risk Management Committee, OXCIS, and ISRA Visiting Scholar in 2013. She has published many journal articles in high-impact finance journals around the world. She is the recipient of several excellent services and best paper awards. She also presented many papers at conferences around the globe. She serves as an Editor-in-Chief and reviewer of many Finance journals.

During her Professional career at UKM, Professor Dr. Fauzias held various Positions which includes:

Auditor at Auditor General Office Malaysia (1985 - 1986)

Committee (1 February 2017 – 31 January 2018)

Founding member and President of Malaysia Finance Association (MFA) from 2004-2005 and 2010-2011.

Out of her zeal and interest to continue spreading knowledge which she has always never been tired of after she retired from UKM, she joins USIM in 2015 to continue benefitting society. Since her assumption of duties at USIM, she held several positions and has won awards and grants among them include:

Director, USIM 'Alamiyyah (International Centre) and USIM University Management,

Head, Islamic Finance and Wealth Management Institute (IFWMI), USIM,

Professor of Finance (since 2015) at USIM.

She is an experienced supervisor and examiner that has been supervising and examining Ph.D. and Master student's theses for over 35 years. She taught, mentored, examined, and supervised over 100 PhDs (to say the least) who were dispersed in different angles and corners of Malaysia and the rest of the world.

Many of her students are currently Professors who supervise many Ph.D. students that also became professors, supervisors, and examiners. Thus, she has the ability and curiosity to pinpoint any loopholes in a research proposal in a blink of an eye.
