[23d March 1842.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 53.      7 G. 4. c. 74.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for vacating any Presentment for rebuilding the Gaol of Newgate in Dublin, and vacating any Contract between the Commissioners for rebuilding the said Gaol and the Contractor, whereby, among other things, Provision was made for ascertaining by Arbitration the Compensation to be made to the Contractor for rebuilding the Gaol of Newgate in the City of Dublin, for any Losses sustained by him by reason of such Contract not being carried into effect: And whereas the Sum of One thousand seven hundred Pounds was accordingly awarded to John North, the Contractor for rebuilding the said Gaol, in full for his Damages, Expences, and Costs in relation to the said Contract: And whereas, in pursuance of the Presentment previously made for rebuilding the said Gaol, a Sum of One thousand five hundred and thirty Pounds was raised off the County of the City of Dublin, and paid to the Collector of Excise of the Dublin District, pursuant to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act, had advanced to the Commissioners for rebuilding the said Gaol the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, which was expended by them in the Preparation of the necessary Plans and Specifications for the then intended Building: And whereas, after the Repayment of the said Sum of Five hundred Pounds so advanced by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, there remained in the Hands of the said Collector of Excise only a Sum of One thousand and thirty Pounds applicable to the Payment of the said Sum of One thousand seven hundred Pounds so awarded to the said John North; and the said Sum of One thousand and thirty Pounds has been paid, pursuant to the Provisions of the herein-before first-recited Act, to Anne North, Administratrix of the said John North, who is lately deceased, but there is still due to the said Anne North, as such Administratrix, the Sum of Six hundred and seventy Pounds on Foot of the said Award: And whereas the Provisions made by the said first-recited Act for the Payment of any Sum which might be awarded to the said Contractor, exceeding the Amount of the Instalments then paid to the Collector of Excise for the said Dublin District for and on account of the said Presentment, are not effective for that Purpose, and no Provision was thereby made for defraying the Costs and Expences attendant upon the said Arbitration; and it is necessary to make Provision for both such Purposes, and to amend the said first-recited Act accordingly: Be it therefore enacted enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Sum of Six hundred and seventy Pounds so remaining due to the said Anne North, as Administratrix of the said John North, on Foot of the said Award, as also the Costs and Expences of the said Arbitration, together with the Expences of Witnesses, and all other Costs and Expences attendant upon the said Arbitration and Award, or which may have been incurred in the Settlement of the Matter aforesaid, shall be raised by Presentment by the Grand Jury of the County of the City of Dublin at the next or any subsequent Presenting Term, on the Certificate of the Chief or Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, specifying the Sum or Sums to be so raised, in like Manner as Grand Jury Presentments are now by Law raised on or off the said County; and that the said Sum of Six hundred and seventy Pounds shall, when so raised, be paid to the said Anne North, or the Person who shall then be the personal Representative of the said John North, and that the Sum or Sums due on account of the said Costs and Expences shall, when so raised, be paid to the Person or Persons who shall in and by such Certificate be declared entitled thereto.

C A P. XI.

An Act for appointing Commissioners to inquire as to the Issue, Receipt, Circulation, and Possession of certain forged Exchequer Bills.

[22d April 1842.]

‘ WHEREAS certain Documents purporting to be Exchequer Bills have been presented at the Exchequer for Examination, and have been there detained as forged, and there is Reason to believe that other forged and fraudulent Documents purporting to be Exchequer Bills have been put into circulation, and are now holden by divers Persons, who claim to have become possessed thereof bond fide, and for a full and valuable Consideration: And whereas it is highly expedient for the Public Service that an Inquiry should be made by Commissioners, to be specially appointed for that Purpose, into the Manner whereby such Documents were made and issued, and in which the same came into the Possession of the Parties by whom they may now be holden:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Right Honourable William Earl of Devon, Henry John Stephen Esquire, Serjeant at Law, and Robert Mitford Esquire, be constituted and appointed Commissioners of Inquiry for the Purpose of this Act; and in case of the Death, Resignation, Refusal, or becoming incapable to act of any of the said Commissioners, then and as often as the same shall happen it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by a Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to constitute and appoint a Person to be a Commissioner of Inquiry for the Purposes of this Act in the Place of the Commissioner so dying, resigning, refusing, or becoming incapable to act.

Commissioners
to be appointed.

to be sworn.

II. And be it enacted, That every Commissioner appointed in pursuance of this Act shall, before beginning to act in the Execution of the Commission, take the following Oath before the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen’s Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, or the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer; (that is to say,)

‘ I A. B. do swear, That I will truly and faithfully execute the Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act, intituled [here set forth the Title of this Act], according to the best of my Knowledge and Judgment.

So help me GOD.’

Place of Meeting.

V. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, by all such lawful Means as to them may appear best, with a view to the Discovery of the Truth, inquire into the Case of every Owner or Holder of any of the Documents purporting to be Exchequer Bills which are mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and also any other such Documents as shall be referred to them by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall from Time to Time report to Her Majesty the Evidence which shall be taken by them, and what they shall find concerning the Manner of the Issue, Circulation, Deposit, or Possession of every such Document, and especially in what Manner the Owners or Holders of such Documents received the same, whether in exchange for other Bills, and if so, in what Manner such Exchange was made; or whether by Purchase in open Market or otherwise, and if so, at what Rate of Purchase; or whether by way of Deposit as Securities for Loans of Money, and if so, at what Rate of Interest, and for what Time such Loans were made, and whether such Loans were renewed, and if so, how often, and for what Time; and also, whether the Owners or Holders of such Documents received the same in the usual Course of Business, and whether they employed any and what Means of Inquiry into the Genuine-ness of such Documents; and all other Matters and Things whereby, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, the Truth may be better known touching the Premises.

Inquiry by the Commissioners.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Report which the said Commissioners shall make to Her Majesty in pursuance of this Act, with the Exception of any Part of the Evidence which the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may deem it essential for the Public Interest to withhold, shall be laid before Parliament within One Calendar Month next after such Report shall be made, if Parliament shall then be sitting, or if not, then within One Calendar Month next after the then next Meeting of Parliament.

 the said Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, or have all the same Powers for enforcing such Order or Orders as they now have by Law in regard to the Contributions required by such Guardians.

 this Act contained shall be deemed or taken to render any Debt, Liability, or Engagement a valid Charge upon the Poor Rates of any Parish which is not at the Time of passing hereof a subsisting legal Charge thereon, except where such Resolution shall have been passed and such Order shall have been made as aforesaid :
 And provided always, that every Payment out of the Poor Rates, either of Principal or Interest, in respect of any such Debt, Liability, or Engagement, without such Order of the said Commissioners, shall be unlawful, and as such disallowed in the Accounts of the Officer or Officers or other Person paying the same.

 shall, where the Context shall not be at variance with such Interpretation, be deemed to express the Meaning assigned thereto in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty; and every Order, Regulation, Mortgage, Security,

C A P. XXII.

An Act for consolidating the Queen's Bench, Fleet, and Marshalsea Prisons, and for regulating the Queen's Prison.

[31st May 1842.]

1&2 Viet. c. 110.

The Queen's Bench Prison to be called the Queen's Prison, and to be the only Prison for Debtors, Bankrupts, &c. instead of the Queen's Bench, Fleet, and Marshalsea Prisons.

‘ WHEREAS the Prison of the Marshalsea of the Court of Queen's Bench is a Prison for Debtors and for Persons confined under the Sentence or charged with Contempt of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench : And whereas the Fleet Prison is a Prison for Debtors and Bankrupts, and for Persons charged with Contempt of Her Majesty's Courts of Chancery, Exchequer, and Common Pleas : And whereas the Prison of the Marshalsea of Her Majesty's Household is a Prison for Debtors, and for Persons charged with Contempt of Her Majesty's Courts of the Marshalsea, the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster, and the High Court of Admiralty, and also for Admiralty Prisoners under Sentence of Courts-martial : And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for abolishing Arrest on Mesne Process in Civil Actions, except in certain Cases ; for extending the Remedies of Creditors against the Property of Debtors ; and for amending the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, Arrest on Mesne Process in Civil Actions was abolished, except in certain Cases, and further Provision was made for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, by reason whereof the Prison of the Court of Queen's Bench is sufficient to contain all the Persons who are now imprisoned within the said several Prisons, or who will be hereafter taken in Execution of Process of the said several Courts :’ Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the passing of this Act the Prison now known as the Prison of the Marshalsea of the Court of Queen's Bench shall be called the Queen's Prison, and shall be the only Prison for all Debtors, Bankrupts, or other Persons who before the passing of this Act might lawfully have been imprisoned in any of the said Prisons of the Marshalsea of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Fleet Prison, or the Prison of the Marshalsea of the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster ; and after the passing of this Act no Person shall be committed from any of the said Courts to the Fleet Prison or Prison of the Marshalsea ; and that the Persons imprisoned in the Queen's Prison shall be there in the Custody of the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison from whichever of the said Courts they shall have been severally committed ; and all Securities taken from any Officer of the Queen's Bench Prison for Performance of his Duty respecting the Prisoners now confined in the Queen's Bench Prison shall endure endure for securing the Performance of the like Duty respecting the Prisoners who shall be confined in the Queen's Prison under this Act; and all Rules, Orders, and Enactments now in force respecting the Queen's Bench Prison and the Prisoners therein shall be taken to apply in all respects to all the Prisoners who shall be confined in the Queen's Prison, subject to the Provisions hereinafter contained: Provided always, that until the Removal of the Persons now imprisoned in the Fleet Prison and Prison of the Marshalsea and of the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster, as herein-after provided, such Persons may be lawfully detained within the Prison in which they are now severally confined, and shall be there in the same Custody and subject to all the Rules now in force respecting such Prisoners as if this Act had not been made.

Proviso.

II. And be it enacted, That within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act the Warden of the Fleet Prison and the Keeper of the Prison of the Marshalsea and of the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster shall severally certify under their Hands to the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench a true List of the Names of the Prisoners then in their Custody, with the several Causes and Times of their Commitments; and as soon thereafter as the Queen's Prison can be conveniently made ready for the Reception of the Prisoners to be removed under this Act, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench shall issue his Warrant or Warrants from Time to Time, under his Hand, severally directed to the Warden of the Fleet Prison and to the Keeper of the Prison of the Marshalsea and of the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster, requiring them severally to deliver into the Custody of the Marshal of the Queen's Prison the Persons then in their Custody, or such of them as shall be named in any such Warrant; and upon the Receipt of any such Warrant the said Warden and Keeper shall severally deliver into the Custody of the Marshal of the Queen's Prison the Persons named in the said Warrant, with the several Warrants of Commitment of such Persons delivered, and the Marshal of the Queen's Prison shall forthwith convey the Prisoners so delivered into his Custody to the Queen's Prison; and if any Person named in any such Warrant of the Lord Chief Justice shall have been lawfully discharged out of the Custody of the said Warden or Keeper before the Execution of the Warrant, the said Warden or Keeper shall certify the Fact under his Hand to the said Lord Chief Justice, and shall deliver such Certificate to the Marshal of the Queen's Prison; and the Removal of any such Prisoners in obedience to the Warrant of the Lord Chief Justice as aforesaid shall not be construed to be an Escape.

Prisoners to be removed by Warrant of Lord Chief Justice of Queen's Bench.

III. And be it enacted, That as soon as all the Prisoners confined in the Fleet Prison shall have been discharged, or removed under this Act into the Custody of the Marshal of the Queen's Prison, all Records, Books, and Papers in the Custody of any Officer of the Fleet Prison relating to the Business of the said Prison shall be delivered to the Marshal of the Queen's Prison, and the Offices of Warden of the Fleet, Deputy Warden, Clerk of the Papers, and all other Offices of the Fleet Prison shall be abolished; and as soon as all the Prisoners confined in the Prison of the Marshalsea and of the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster shall have been discharged, or removed under this Act into the Custody of the Marshal of the Queen's Prison, all Records, Books, and Papers in the Custody of any Officer of the Prison of the said Marshalsea and Palace Court relating to the Business of the said Prison shall be delivered to the Marshal of the Queen's Prison, and the Offices of Keeper, Chaplain, Surgeon, and all other Offices of the Prison of the said Marshalsea and Palace Court shall be abolished.

Abolition of Offices of Fleet and Marshalsea Prisons.

Officers whose Offices are abolished may make Claims for Compensation.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Fleet Prison or Marshalsea Prison whose Office will be abolished, and for every other Person whose Emoluments will be affected by this Act, to make a Claim for Compensation, within Six Calendar Months after the passing thereof, to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, including in the Case of the Warden of the Fleet Prison and Keeper of the Prison of the Marshalsea and Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster a Claim for the Value of the Furniture and Fixtures (if any) belonging to the said Warden and Keeper in the said Prisons respectively; and the said Commissioners shall proceed, in such Manner as they may think proper, to inquire whether any Compensation ought to be made to such Claimant, and, if any, what were the lawful Fees and Emoluments in respect of which the same should be allowed; and in every Case in which such Claim shall be established to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners they shall be empowered to determine, by an Order under the Hands of any Three of them, the Amount of the annual Compensation which shall seem to them to be just and reasonable for the Loss sustained by such Claimant, not being in any Case less than Three Fourth Parts of the full net annual Value of the lawful Fees and Emoluments of the Office so abolished or affected; and the Amount of such annual Value as aforesaid shall be ascertained by the said Commissioners according to such an Average of yearly Receipts and Disbursements before the passing of this Act as they shall think proper, and such annual Compensation shall commence from the passing of this Act; and until the Amount of such Compensation shall be settled in each Case the Salary of each Officer so to be compensated shall continue to be paid to him in like Manner as before the passing of this Act, but shall be accounted for by such Officer to the said Commissioners upon the Settlement of the Compensation in each Case; and an Account of all such Compensations shall be laid upon the Table of the House of Commons within Fourteen Days next after the same shall be so granted, if Parliament shall then be sitting, or if Parliament shall not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament then next following.

Salaries now paid out of Civil List to be retained as Part of the Consolidated Fund.

V. And be it enacted, That as soon as the Compensation to be granted to the Keeper and Officers of the Prison of the Marshalsea and Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster shall be settled, the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall retain in each Year during the Life of Her Majesty, out of the Revenues granted to Her Majesty, the Amount of the Salaries and Allowances paid to the said Keeper and Officers which are now charged upon and paid out of the said Revenues granted granted to Her Majesty, and the Amount so retained shall continue to form a Part of the Consolidated Fund.

VI. And be it declared and enacted, That upon the Abolition of the Office of Warden of the Fleet Prison the said Prison so to be discontinued, with all the Messuages, Lands, and Tenements, Furniture and Fixtures, thereunto in anywise belonging, and upon the Abolition of the Office of Keeper of the Prison of the Marshalsea and of the Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster the last mentioned Prison so to be discontinued, with all the Messuages, Lands, and Tenements, Furniture and Fixtures, thereunto in anywise belonging, shall vest absolutely in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and shall be within the ordering and Survey of the Court of Exchequer, and under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and within the Provisions of all Acts passed respecting any Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown within the ordering and Survey of the said Court of Exchequer.

Discontinued Prisons declared to be vested in the Crown.

VII. And be it enacted, That where by any Act now in force any thing is provided to be done with respect to the Fleet or Marshalsea Prison or the Prisoners therein, or the Warden or Keeper of either of the said Prisons, the said Acts, unless so far as any such Provision is repealed or altered by this Act, shall continue in force, and shall be taken to apply to the Queen's Prison and to the Prisoners therein, and to the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison, respectively.

Enactments respecting the Fleet and Marshalsea to apply to the Queen's Prison.

VIII. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for providing Relief for the poor Prisoners confined in the King's Bench, Fleet, and Marshalsea Prisons, Provision is made for the Payment of several Sums of Money by the Treasurers of the several Counties and Divisions of Counties mentioned in the Schedule annexed to the said Act, in part to the Treasurer of the County of Surrey, for the Relief of the Prisoners confined in the King's Bench and Marshalsea Prisons, and in part to the Treasurer or Chamberlain of the City of London, for the Relief of the Prisoners confined in the Fleet Prison; be it enacted, That after the Removal of all the Prisoners in the Fleet and Marshalsea Prisons to the Queen's Prison the whole Sums provided by the said Act to be paid by the said several Treasurers for any of the Purposes of the said Act, and also any Balance of any such Sums which at that Time shall remain unappropriated in the Hands of the Chamberlain of the City of London or of the Treasurer of the County of Surrey, shall be by them paid to the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison, to be by him applied, under the Direction of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for the Relief of the Prisoners confined in the Queen's Prison; and Receipts signed by the said Marshal or Keeper for any Monies payable to him by virtue of this Act shall be sufficient Discharges for the same; and all Provisions of the last-recited Act respecting Monies paid or which ought to be paid to the Treasurer of the County of Surrey, or the Persons entitled to be relieved thereby, shall apply to the Monies so paid or to be paid to the said Marshal or Keeper by virtue of this Act, and to Sums payable for the Relief of poor Prisoners to the Treasurer of the County of Surrey and Chamberlain of the City of London under 53 G. 3. c. 113. to be paid to the Keeper of the Queen's Prison.

the Prisoners confined in the Queen's Prison; and all the Surplus and Residue (if any) of the said Monies shall be paid as provided by the last-mentioned Act to the Treasurer for the Time being of the Royal Hospital of Bethlehem, for the Relief and Benefit of the said Hospital.

So much of 53 G. 3. c. 113. as provides for the Administration of the Relief to Prisoners in Execution, and the accounting for Monies, &c. repealed.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That after the said Removal of all the Prisoners in the Fleet and Marshalsea Prisons to the Queen's Prison, so much of the last-recited Act as provides that no Prisoner who shall be charged in Execution for Debt shall be relieved by virtue of that Act after the First Day of the Term next following the Time when he or she should be charged in Execution, and that the Relief to be given to the said Prisoners shall be given under the Direction of any Justice of the Peace for the County of Surrey, and that the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey, or the major Part of them, at their General Quarter Sessions, shall make any Orders, Rules, or Regulations respecting the Monies to be collected under the last-recited Act, and that the Treasurer of the County of Surrey, or any Person appointed to receive and distribute any of the said Monies, shall render to the said Justices any Account of their Receipts and Disbursements under the last-recited Act, shall be repealed; and the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison shall account for the Receipt and Disbursement of the said Monies, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

Keeper of the Queen's Prison to account.

Appropriation of charitable Gifts and Bequests.

X. And be it enacted, That the Warden of the Fleet Prison and Keeper of the Prison of the Marshalsea and Court of the Queen's Palace of Westminster shall severally make out and deliver to the Marshal of the Queen's Prison a true List of all charitable Gifts and Bequests heretofore made for the Relief of poor Prisoners or for the Discharge of poor Debtors in the Fleet and Marshalsea Prisons respectively; and all the said Gifts and Bequests, and also all charitable Gifts and Bequests heretofore made for the Relief of poor Prisoners or for the Discharge of poor Debtors in the King's Bench Prison, shall be applied, after the Removal of all the Prisoners in the Fleet and Marshalsea Prisons to the Queen's Prison, for the Relief of poor Prisoners or Discharge of poor Debtors (as the Case may be) in the Queen's Prison, as well of those who but for the passing of this Act would have been imprisoned in the Queen's Bench Prison, as of those who but for the passing of this Act would have been imprisoned in the Fleet Prison or Marshalsea Prison indiscriminately, according to their Wants, at the Discretion of the Persons lawfully administering such charitable Gifts and Bequests respectively.

Prisoners Fees abolished. 55 G. 3. c. 50.

XI. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Abolition of Gaol and other Fees connected with the Gaols in England, it was provided, that nothing therein contained should be construed to extend to the King's Bench Prison, His Majesty's Prison of the Fleet, the Marshalsea and Palace Courts; be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act all Fees and Gratuities paid or payable by any Prisoners on the Entrance, Commitment to, Continuance in, or Discharge from the Queen's Prison, except as herein-after provided, shall absolutely cease, and any Marshal or Keeper or other Officer of the Queen's Prison who, who, after the passing of this Act, shall exact from any Prisoner any Fee or Gratuity for or on account of the Entrance, Commitment, or Discharge of such Prisoner, or in the Name of Chamber Rent, or for any other Purpose whatsoever, except such as shall from Time to Time be sanctioned by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for any Work and Labour actually performed for the Use and Benefit of any Prisoner, or who shall detain any Prisoner in Custody for Nonpayment of any Fee, Rent, or Gratuity, shall be rendered incapable of holding his Office, be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and be punished by Fine and Imprisonment.

XII. And whereas, owing to the former crowded State of the Queen's Bench and Fleet Prisons, a Practice hath prevailed of suffering Prisoners to go at large within Districts adjacent to the said Prisons, and known by the Names of "The Rules of the Queen's Bench Prison," and "The Rules of the Fleet Prison," on Payment of certain Fees, and on giving Security to the Marshal and Warden respectively: And whereas it is expedient that such Practice, and also the Practice of granting Day Rules, be abolished; be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison to grant any Day Rule, or to grant the Liberty of the Rules to any Person, except for the Purpose of continuing the Liberty of the Rules of the Queen's Bench Prison for such Time as the Marshal shall think fit, not more than Twelve Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, to those Persons who shall be in the Enjoyment of the Liberty of the Rules of the Queen's Bench or Fleet Prison at the Time of the passing of this Act; and that all Persons in the Custody of the Marshal or Keeper to whom the Liberty of the Rules of one of the said Prisons shall not have been granted before the passing of this Act, and also those Persons to whom such Liberty shall have been granted before the passing of this Act, after the next Determination of such Liberty, shall be confined within the Walls of the Queen's Prison, and that it shall be deemed an Escape if any such Prisoner be suffered to go beyond the Walls of the Prison, except as herein-after provided.

Abolition of the Liberty of the Rules.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if the Marshal of the Queen's Prison shall think fit to grant the Liberty of the Rules of the Queen's Bench Prison to any Person who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be in the Enjoyment of the Liberty of the Rules of the Fleet Prison, and shall be removed into the Custody of the said Marshal under this Act, the said Marshal shall not exact any Fee from such Person for granting such Liberty; and the Securities to be entered into and executed in favour of the said Marshal, for Assurance that such Person will not escape out of the Custody of the said Marshal, shall not be liable to any Stamp Duty.

No Fees or Stamp Duties to be paid on Securities for granting Liberty of Rules to certain Fleet Prisoners.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Prisoner confined in the Queen's Prison shall become or be found to be of unsound Mind during his or her Imprisonment, and shall be so reported by the Marshal or Keeper thereof to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, by Warrant under his Hand directed to the said Marshal or Keeper, upon the Certificate of Two Physicians or Surgeons that that such Prisoner is of unsound Mind, to order that such Prisoner shall be forthwith removed to the Royal Hospital of Bethlehem, and the President, Treasurer, and Governors of Bethlehem Hospital shall be bound to receive such Prisoner, and him or her safely to keep, until a Warrant of the Secretary of State shall be directed to them for Re-delivery of such Prisoner into the Custody of the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison as herein-after provided, and such Removal shall not be construed to be an Escape; and every Prisoner so removed shall remain under Confinement in Bethlehem Hospital until it shall be duly certified to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Two Physicians or Surgeons, that such Prisoner hath become of sound Mind, whereupon the Secretary of State shall issue his Warrant to the President, Treasurer, and Governors of Bethlehem Hospital, ordering that such Prisoner be re-delivered into the Custody of the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison, for the Purpose of being remanded to the Queen's Prison, and neither the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison, nor the President, Treasurer, and Governors of Bethlehem Hospital, shall be answerable for any Escape which such Prisoner may make out of Bethlehem Hospital.

Removal of Prisoners in Cases of contagious Diseases or Emergency.

XV. And be it enacted, That whenever One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall deem it necessary that the Prisoners, or any of them, shall be removed on account of any contagious or infectious Disease in the Prison, or upon any other Emergency, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State, by a Warrant under his Hand, directed to the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison, to order that such Prisoners shall be removed, in the Custody of the said Marshal or Keeper, to such other Place of Imprisonment as the Secretary of State shall direct, such Place having been first reported by the Marshal or Keeper of the Queen's Prison to the Secretary of State as a safe Place of Custody, and fit for the Reception of such Prisoners; and when such Disease shall have ceased, or the Purposes for which the Prisoners shall have been removed shall have been fulfilled, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State, by a like Warrant, to order that such Prisoners be removed back to the Queen's Prison; and any Place to which any Prisoners shall be removed under any such Warrant shall be deemed, during their Imprisonment therein, to be a Part of the Queen's Prison, and no such Removal of any Prisoner shall be construed to be an Escape.

Rules for the Government of the Queen's Prison to be made by the Secretary of State.

XVI. And be it enacted, That after the passing of this Act the Rules for the Government and Regulation of the Queen's Prison shall be made from Time to Time by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who shall subscribe a Certificate that such Rules are fit to be enforced; and all Rules so made shall be binding upon the Marshal or Keeper and other Officers of the Prison, and upon the Prisoners confined therein; and all such Rules shall be laid before Parliament within Six Weeks after such Rules shall be certified, or if Parliament be not then sitting within Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament; and so much of any Act as relates to the making of Rules for the said Prison by any Court in Westminster Hall shall be repealed: Provided always, that the Judges of Her Majesty's Courts

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Building shall be called "The Pentonville Prison," and shall be used as a Prison for such Offenders as are herein-after specified, and shall be within the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for effecting greater Uniformity of Practice in the Government of the several Prisons in England and Wales, and for appointing Inspectors of Prisons in Great Britain, and of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the better ordering of Prisons.

II. And be it enacted, That the said Prison, and all the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments thereunto belonging, with the Appurtenances thereof, and all Persons in respect thereof, shall be wholly freed and discharged from all Taxes, Rates, Assessments, and Charges whatsoever.

III. And be it enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Five Years after the passing of this Act the said Prison, and all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments purchased before the passing of this Act for the Purposes thereof, under the Powers of this Act shall become and remain absolutely vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors; and that if any Proceedings shall be taken before the Expiration of the said Term of Five Years, upon which Judgment shall be obtained for the Recovery of the Possession of any such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, then, within Two Calendar Months after such Judgment shall be obtained, there shall be paid or tendered to the Person obtaining such Judgment, instead of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, his Costs on the Proceedings for obtaining such Judgment, and such Sum of Money as a Jury, in the Manner herein-after mentioned, shall find to have been the Value of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Jury which shall try any Proceeding brought for the Recovery of the Possession of any of the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall at the same Time ascertain the Value thereof at the Time when they were conveyed for the Purposes of this Act, or when Possession was taken thereof; and the Value so found shall be certified by the presiding Judge under his Hand, and such Certificate shall be delivered to the Persons seeking to recover Possession thereof, and the Value so ascertained shall be the Amount to be paid, instead of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to appoint for the said Prison a Governor, a Chaplain or Chaplains, being Clergymen not having any other

Care of Souls, and a Medical Officer, and, with the like Approval, to remove all or any of them; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to appoint, and at their Pleasure to remove, so many other Officers and Servants as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall deem to be necessary for the Service and Discipline of the Prison; and the Secretary of State, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall fix the Salaries to be paid to the said Governor, Chaplain or Chaplains, Medical Officer, and other Officers and Servants of the Prison: Provided always, that no Chaplain so to be appointed shall officiate at the said Prison until he shall have obtained a Licence for that Purpose from the Bishop of the Diocese of London, nor for any longer Time than while such Licence shall be in force; and Notice of every such Appointment of a Chaplain shall be sent to the Bishop by the said Commissioners within One Calendar Month next after such Appointment.

An Act for better recording Fines and Recoveries in Wales and Cheshire. [18th June 1842.]

‘ WHEREAS the Records of Fines levied and Recoveries ‘ suffered in the lately abolished Courts of Great Sessions ‘ in the Principality of Wales, and the lately abolished Court of ‘ Session in the County Palatine of Chester, were in many Cases ‘ so irregularly and carelessly engrossed and kept, that divers ‘ Purchasers and others whose Titles were intended to be secured ‘ by and under the said Fines and Recoveries are in danger to ‘ have the same impeached, notwithstanding that the said Fines ‘ and Recoveries had duly passed all the Offices, and that the ‘ Lands intended to be thereby assured are sufficiently described ‘ in the Proceedings upon such Fines and Recoveries :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons,

Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Fines levied in the lately abolished Courts of Great Sessions in the Principality of Wales, or in the lately abolished Court of Session of the County Palatine of Chester, of which the Writ of Covenant was duly returned and compounded, and of which the Acknowledgment was before the Judge or by Commissioners duly taken and allowed, and of which the said Writs and Concords, with other Proceedings, were lodged in the Office of the Prothonotary of the County in which the Lands named in such Writs are situated, shall be holden good and firm in Law, notwithstanding the Misprision or Neglect of any Prothonotary, Deputy Prothonotary, Secondary, or other Officer of any of the said Courts, or their Clerks, or any other public Officer whatsoever, to file the same, or to engross the Chirograph or Foot of such Fine, to endorse or record the Proclamations thereof, or to enrol or docket the said Fine, or do any other thing which by his Office he ought to have done after the Acknowledgment of the said Fine.

All Fines levied in the late Courts of Great Sessions in Wales and the Court of Session in Cheshire, shall be held to be good in Law, notwithstanding any Neglect in keeping the Record.

II. And be it enacted, That where it shall be needful to prove that any Fine which appears to have been duly acknowledged was levied with Proclamations in any of the said Courts, it shall be taken to have been so levied, and shall have all the Force of a Fine levied with Proclamations, although no Chirograph or Foot of such Fine be found endorsed with the Proclamations, nor any Entry of them or any of them appear on Record, if such Fine were duly enrolled or entered on the Plea Roll of the Session in which it was levied, or docketed in the Docket Roll or Docket Book of such Session, so as to set forth the Names of the Parties and the Places in which the Lands are situated of which such Fine was levied; or if within Three Years from the passing of this Act, or such further Time as the Court of Common Pleas shall in any Case allow, such Fine shall have been docketed, in such Form as aforesaid, in Docket Rolls or Docket Books of Parchment or Vellum, by the several late Prothonotaries of the said abolished Courts, or in case of the Death or Inability of any such Prothonotary by some Person or Persons appointed for that Purpose by the Master of the Rolls; or if within the said Period of Three Years, or such further Time as the Court of Common Pleas shall in any Case allow, the Writ of Covenant, and the Concord and all other Proceedings of such Fine, shall have been enrolled, with the Allowance of the said Court, in a Book or Books, Roll or Rolls of Parchment or Vellum, as herein-after provided: Provided always, that any such Fine may be reversed by Writ of Error issued within Twenty Years from the levying thereof.

Certain Fines taken to be levied with Proclamations.

III. And be it enacted, That all Recoveries suffered in any of the said abolished Courts whereof the Writ of Entry was duly returned, and the Appearance of the Tenant and Vouchee or Vouchees duly recorded by the Court, or the Warrant or Warrants of Attorney duly executed and allowed, and of which the said Writ and other Proceedings (if any) was or were lodged in the Office of the Prothonotary of the County in which the Lands named in the said Writ are situated, shall be holden good and firm in Law, notwithstanding the Non-enrolment or Non-exemplification of such Recovery or any other Misprision or Neglect of any any Prothonotary or other Officer as aforesaid to do any thing which by his Office he ought to have done after the recording of the Appearance of the Tenant and Vouchee or Vouchees, or the Execution and Allowance of the Warrant or Warrants of Attorney : Provided nevertheless, that where no Enrolment on the Plea Roll of the Session in which such Recovery was suffered, or any Exemplification of a pretended Enrolment thereof, sealed with the judicial Seal of the Court, or any Entry on the Remembrance Roll sufficient to prove the Arraignment of the Writ of Entry, can be found or produced, no such Recovery shall be holden good by virtue of this Act, unless within Three Years after the passing of this Act, or such further Time as the Court of Common Pleas shall in any Case allow, the Writ of Entry or other Proceedings extant of Record touching the said Recovery shall be enrolled as herein-after provided, or such Recovery shall have been docketed in full and ample Manner as aforesaid : Provided also, that any such Recovery may be reversed by Writ of Error issued within Twenty Years from the suffering thereof.

Saving the amending Power of Court of Common Pleas.

V. And be it declared and enacted, That the Court of Common Pleas shall have the same Power of amending any Fine or Recovery, and the Record or Enrolment thereof, whether as now extant, or as such Fine or Recovery, or any Proceedings thereof, shall hereafter be enrolled in manner aforesaid, as if the same had been originally levied, suffered, or had in the Court of Common Pleas.

6 G. 4. c. 94.

' WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the 'Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter and amend an Act for the better Protection of the Property of Merchants and others who may hereafter enter into Contracts or Agreements in relation to Goods, Wares, and Merchandize intrusted to Factors or Agents, Validity is given, 'under certain Circumstances, to Contracts or Agreements made 'with Persons intrusted with and in possession of the Documents

C A P. XL.

An Act for carrying into effect the Treaty between Her Majesty and the Argentine Confederation for the Abolition of the Slave Trade. [30th June 1842.]

‘ WHEREAS on the Twenty-fourth Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine a Treaty was concluded and signed at Buenos Ayres, between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Argentine Confederation, for the Abolition of the Slave Trade, whereby it was agreed as follows :

‘ ARTICLE I.—The Slave Trade, having been legally abolished throughout the Territories of the Argentine Confederation, is hereby declared to be henceforward and for ever totally prohibited to all the Citizens of the said Republic in all Parts of the World.

‘ ARTICLE II.—The Argentine Confederation hereby engage, that immediately after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, and from Time to Time afterwards as may become needful, they will take the most effectual Measures for preventing the Citizens of the said Republic from being concerned, and the Flag of that Republic from being used, in carrying on in any way the Trade in Slaves; and the said Republic especially engages that, within Two Months after the above-mentioned Exchange of Ratifications, they will renew the Promulgation throughout the Territory of the Republic of the penal Law by which the Slave Trade has been declared Piracy, and that the Punishment attached to Piracy shall be inflicted on all those Citizens who shall, under any Pretext whatever, take any Part whatever in the Traffic of Slaves.

‘ ARTICLE III.—In order more completely to accomplish the Object of the present Treaty, the Two High Contracting Parties mutually consent that those Ships of their Navies respectively which shall be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as herein-after mentioned, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may upon reasonable Grounds be suspected of being engaged in the Traffic of Slaves, or having been fitted out for the Purposes thereof, or of having, during the Voyage in which they are met with by the said Cruisers, been engaged in the Traffic in Slaves, contrary to the Provisions of this Treaty; and that such Cruisers may detain and send or carry away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial in the Manner herein-after agreed upon.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—In order to regulate the Mode of carrying ‘ the Provisions of the preceding Article into execution, it is ‘ agreed,—

‘ First,—That all Ships of the Navies of the Two Nations ‘ which shall hereafter be employed to prevent the Traffic ‘ in Slaves shall be furnished by their respective Govern‘ ments with a Copy, in the English and Spanish Languages, ‘ of the present Treaty, of the Instructions for Cruisers ‘ annexed thereto, Letter (A.), and of the Regulations for ‘ the Mixed Courts of Justice annexed thereto, Letter (B.); ‘ which Annexes shall be considered as integral Parts of the ‘ Treaty.

‘ Secondly,—That each of the High Contracting Parties ‘ shall from Time to Time communicate to the other the ‘ Names of the several Ships which have been furnished ‘ with such Instructions, the Force of each Ship, and the ‘ Names of their several Commanders.

‘ Thirdly,—That if at any Time there shall be just Cause ‘ to suspect that any Merchant Vessel, sailing under the ‘ Flag of either Nation, and proceeding under the Convoy ‘ of any Ship or Ships of War of either of the Contracting ‘ Parties, is engaged or is intended to be engaged in the ‘ Traffic in Slaves, or is fitted out for the Purposes thereof, ‘ or has, during the Voyage on which she may be met ‘ with, been engaged in the Traffic in Slaves, it shall be ‘ lawful for the Commander of any Ship of the Royal Navy ‘ of Great Britain, or of the Navy of the Argentine Con‘ federation, furnished with such Instructions as aforesaid, ‘ to communicate his Suspicions to the Commander of the ‘ Convoy, who, accompanied by the Commander of the ‘ Cruiser, shall proceed to the Search of the suspected ‘ Vessel; and in case the Suspicions appear well founded, ‘ according to the Tenor of this Treaty, then the said ‘ Vessel shall be conducted or sent to One of the Points ‘ where the Mixed Courts of Justice are stationed, in order ‘ to undergo the Sentence applicable to the Case.

‘ Fourthly,—It is further mutually agreed, that the Com‘ manders of the Ships of the Two Navies respectively who ‘ shall be employed on this Service shall adhere strictly ‘ to the exact Tenor of the aforesaid Instructions.

‘ ARTICLE V.—As the Two preceding Articles are entirely ‘ reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties engage ‘ mutually to make good any Losses which their respective ‘ Subjects or Citizens may incur by the arbitrary and illegal ‘ Detention of their Vessels; it being understood that this ‘ Indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government ‘ whose Cruiser shall have been guilty of such arbitrary and ‘ illegal Detention: It is further agreed, that the Visit and ‘ Detention of Vessels specified in the Third Article of this ‘ Treaty shall be effected only by those British or Argentine ‘ Ships which may form Part of the Navies (Royal and ‘ National) respectively of the Two High Contracting Parties ‘ to this Treaty, and by such Ships only of those Navies as ‘ shall ‘ shall be provided with the special Instructions annexed to ‘ the present Treaty.

‘ The Compensation for Damages mentioned in this Article ‘ shall be made within the Term of One Year, reckoned from ‘ the Day on which the Mixed Court of Justice pronounces ‘ Sentence on the Vessel for the Detention of which such ‘ Compensation is claimed.

‘ ARTICLE VI.—In order to bring to Adjudication with ‘ as little Delay and Inconvenience as possible Vessels which ‘ may be detained according to the Tenor of the Third Article ‘ of this Treaty, there shall be established, within the Space ‘ of a Year at furthest from the Exchange of the Ratifi‘ cations of the present Treaty, Two Mixed Courts of Justice, ‘ formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two ‘ Nations, named for this Purpose by the Two High Con‘ tracting Parties respectively.

‘ These Courts shall reside, one in a Possession belonging ‘ to Her Britannic Majesty, the other within the Territories ‘ of the Argentine Confederation; and the Two Governments, ‘ at the Period of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the ‘ present Treaty, shall declare each for its own Territories in ‘ what Places the said Courts shall respectively reside, each of ‘ the Two High Contracting Parties reserving to itself the ‘ Right of changing at its Pleasure the Place of Residence ‘ of the Court held within its own Territories: Provided, ‘ however, that one of the Two Courts shall always be held ‘ upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in the Territory of ‘ the Argentine Confederation.

‘ These Courts shall judge the Causes submitted to them ‘ according to the Provisions of the present Treaty, without ‘ Appeal, and in conformity with the Regulations and ‘ Instructions which are annexed to the present Treaty, and ‘ which are considered as forming an integral Part thereof.

‘ ARTICLE VII.—If the Commanding Officer of any of ‘ those Ships of the Navies of Great Britain and of the ‘ Argentine Confederation respectively, which shall be duly ‘ provided with Instructions according to the Provisions of the ‘ Third Article of this Treaty, shall deviate in any respect ‘ from the Stipulations of the said Treaty, or from the ‘ Instructions annexed to it, the Government which shall ‘ conceive itself to be wronged thereby shall be entitled to ‘ demand Reparation; and in such Case the Government to ‘ which such Commanding Officer may belong binds itself to ‘ cause Inquiry to be made into the Subject Matter of the ‘ Complaint, and to inflict upon the said Officer a Punishment ‘ proportioned to any wilful Transgression which he may have ‘ committed.

‘ ARTICLE VIII.—It is hereby further mutually agreed, ‘ that every Merchant Vessel, British or Argentine, which ‘ shall be visited by virtue of the present Treaty, may law‘ fully be detained, and be sent or brought before the Mixed ‘ Courts of Justice established in pursuance of the Provisions ‘ thereof,

- ' thereof, if in her Equipment there shall be found any of ' the Things herein-after mentioned; namely,
 ' First,—Hatches with open Gratings, instead of the close
 ' Hatches which are usual in Merchant Vessels.
 ' Secondly,—Divisions or Bulkheads in the Hold or on ' Deck in a greater Number than are necessary for Vessels
 ' engaged in lawful Trade.
 ' Thirdly,—Spare Plank fitted for being laid down as a ' Second or Slave Deck.
 ' Fourthly,—Shackles, Bolts, or Handcuffs.
 ' Fifthly,—A larger Quantity of Water in Casks or in ' Tanks than is requisite for the Consumption of the ' Crew of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.
 ' Sixthly,—An extraordinary Number of Water Casks,
 ' or of other Receptacles for holding Liquid, unless the ' Master shall produce a Certificate from the Custom House ' at the Place from which he cleared Outwards, stating ' that sufficient Security had been given by the Owners ' of such Merchant Vessels that such extra Quantity of ' Casks or of other Receptacles should only be used for ' the Reception of Palm Oil, or for other Purposes of ' lawful Commerce.
 ' Seventhly,—A greater Quantity of Mess Tubs or Kinds
 ' than are requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel
 ' as a Merchant Vessel.
 ' Eighthly,—A Boiler or other cooking Apparatus of an ' unusual Size, and larger, or fitted for being made larger,
 ' than requisite for the Use of the Vessel as a Merchant
 ' Vessel, or more than One Boiler or other cooking
 ' Apparatus of the ordinary Size.
 ' Ninthly,—An extraordinary Quantity of Rice, of the ' Flour of Brazil, Manioc, or Casada, commonly called
 ' Farina, of Maize, of Indian Corn, or of any other Article
 ' of Food whatever beyond what might probably be requisite
 ' for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel, such Rice, Flour,
 ' Maize, Indian Corn, or other Article of Food not being ' entered on the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.
 ' Tenthly,—A Quantity of Mats or Matting greater than ' is necessary for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a ' Merchant Vessel.
 ' Any One or more of these several Things, if proved to have ' been found on board, shall be considered as prima facie
 ' Evidence of the actual Employment of the Vessel in the ' Slave Trade, and the Vessel shall thereupon be condemned,
 ' and be declared lawful Prize, unless clear and incontestable
 ' Evidence on the Part of the Master or Owners shall ' establish, to the Satisfaction of the Court, that such Vessel
 ' was, at the Time of her Detention or Capture, employed
 ' in some legal Pursuit, and that such of the several Things
 ' enumerated as were found on board her at the Time of ' her Detention, or which had been put on board her on the ' Voyage on which she was proceeding when captured, were ' needed for legal Purposes on that particular Voyage.

' ARTICLE

‘ ARTICLE IX.—If any of the Things specified in the preceding Article shall be found in any Merchant Vessel, no Compensation for Losses, Damages, or Expences consequent upon the Detention of such Vessel shall in any Case be granted either to her Master or to her Owner, or to any other Person interested in her Equipment or Lading, even though the Mixed Court of Justice should not pronounce any Sentence of Condemnation in consequence of her Detention.

‘ ARTICLE X.—It is hereby agreed between the Two High Contracting Parties, that in all Cases in which a Vessel shall be detained under this Treaty by their respective Cruisers, as having been engaged in the Slave Trade, or as having been fitted out for the Purposes thereof, and shall consequently be adjudged and condemned by the Mixed Courts of Justice to be established as aforesaid, the said Vessel shall, immediately after Condemnation, be broken up entirely, and shall be sold in separate Parts after having been so broken up.

‘ ARTICLE XI.—The Negroes who are found on board a Vessel which has been detained by a Cruiser, and has been condemned by the Mixed Courts of Justice, in conformity with the Stipulations of this Treaty, shall be placed at the Disposal of the Government whose Cruiser made the Capture, on the distinct Understanding that they shall be immediately set at liberty, and shall be thenceforward kept free. The Two High Contracting Parties respectively guarantee the full and permanent Liberty of such Negroes; and, with a view of ensuring the due Execution of the Treaty in this respect, they each engage to afford from Time to Time, and whenever required to do so by the other High Contracting Party, the fullest Information as to the State and Condition of such Negroes.

‘ The Regulations, Letter (C.), annexed to this Treaty, as to the Treatment of Negroes liberated by Sentence of the Mixed Courts of Justice, are declared to form an integral Part of this Treaty.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the Right to alter or suspend, by common Consent, but not otherwise, the Terms of such Regulations.

‘ ARTICLE XII.—The Annexes to this Treaty, which it is mutually agreed shall form an integral Part thereof, are as follows:

 ‘ Manner, and with every Attention which ought to be ob-

 ‘ shall in all Cases be made by an Officer holding a Rank ‘ Regulations.

‘ ARTICLE III.—The Mixed Courts of Justice are to ‘ decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Vessels ‘ as the Cruisers of either Nation shall, in pursuance of the ‘ said Treaty, detain.

‘ These Courts shall judge definitively, and without Appeal, ‘ all Questions which shall arise out of the Capture and ‘ Detention of such Vessels.

‘ The Proceedings of these Courts shall take place with ‘ as little Delay as possible, and for this Purpose the Courts ‘ are required to decide each Case, as far as may be practi‘ cable, within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from ‘ the Day on which the detained Vessel shall have been ‘ brought into the Port where the deciding Court shall reside.

‘ If, in consequence of such Proceedings, the Vessel whose ‘ Case is brought before the Court shall be found to be ‘ employed in the Slave Trade, or to have been fitted out for ‘ the Purposes thereof, such Vessel, her Cargo of Merchandize ‘ and her Equipments, shall be condemned by the Court, and ‘ shall be declared lawful Prize; and any Slaves who may ‘ have been put on board such Vessel for the Purposes of ‘ Traffic shall be emancipated.

‘ The final Sentence shall not in any Case be delayed ‘ beyond the Period of Two Months, either on account of ‘ the Absence of Witnesses or for any other Reason, except ‘ upon the Application of any of the Parties interested, in ‘ which Case, if such Party or Parties shall give satisfactory ‘ Security that they will take upon themselves the Expence ‘ and Risks of the Delay, the Courts may, at their Discretion, ‘ grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

‘ Either Party shall be allowed to employ such Counsel as ‘ he may think fit, to assist him in conducting his Cause.
‘ All the essential Parts of the Proceedings of the said Courts ‘ shall be written down in One Act, in the Language of the ‘ Country in which the Courts shall respectively reside.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—The Form of the Process shall be as

‘ The Judges appointed by the Two Governments respec‘ tively shall, in the first place, proceed to examine the Papers ‘ of the detained Vessel, and to take the Depositions of the ‘ Master or Commander, and of Two or Three at least of the ‘ principal Individuals on board such Vessel, as well as the ‘ Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should such Declara‘ tion appear to be necessary, in order to enable them to ‘ judge and to pronounce whether the said Vessel has been ‘ justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the ‘ aforesaid Treaty.

‘ In

‘ In the event of the Two Judges not agreeing as to the Sentence which they ought to pronounce with respect to the Legality of the Detention of any Vessel, as to the Liability of the Vessel to Condemnation, as to the Compensation to be allowed to the Owners, or as to any other Question which may arise out of any Capture, or if any Difference of Opinion should arise between them as to the Mode of Proceeding in the said Court, they shall in any such Case draw by Lot the Name of one of the Two Arbitrators appointed as is stated in Article I. of this Annex; and the Arbitrator whose Name shall be so drawn shall, after he has considered the Proceedings which have taken place, consult with the Two above-mentioned Judges; and the final Sentence or Decision shall be pronounced in conformity with the Opinion of the Majority of the Three.

‘ ARTICLE V.—If the detained Vessel shall be restored by the Sentence of the Court, the Vessel and the Cargo, in the State in which they shall then be found, shall forthwith be given up to the Master, or to the Person who represents him; and such Master or other Person may before the same Court claim to have a Valuation made, in order to ascertain the Amount of the Damages to which he shall be entitled. The Captor himself, and in his Default his Government, shall remain responsible for the Damages which may definitively be pronounced to be due to the Master of such Vessel, or to the Owners of the Vessel or of her Cargo.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties bind themselves to pay, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the Costs and Damages which may be awarded by the aforesaid Court, it being mutually understood and agreed that such Costs and Damages shall be made good by the Government of the Country of which the Captor shall be a Subject or Citizen.

‘ ARTICLE VI.—If a detained Vessel shall be condemned, she shall be declared lawful Prize, together with her Cargo, whatever it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who shall have been found on board; and the said Vessel, in conformity with the Regulations in Article X. of the Treaty of this Date, shall, as well as her Cargo, be sold by public Sale for the Profit of the Two Governments, subject to the Payment of the Expences herein-before mentioned.

‘ Each Slave shall receive from the Court a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government to whom belongs the Cruiser which made the Capture, to be dealt with according to the Regulations and Conditions contained in the Annex to this Treaty, Letter (C.)

‘ ARTICLE VII.—The Commander and the Crew of a Vessel condemned under this Treaty, and all Persons found on board who shall have been Accomplices in her Slave Trade Undertaking, shall, on Condemnation of the Vessel, be sent as Prisoners to the nearest Settlement of the Country of which they are Subjects or Citizens, and shall be there delivered over to the Authorities of the Place, to be tried according to the Laws of their Country for the Offences which

‘ which they have committed against those Laws. The Com‘ mander of the Cruiser which made the Capture of the Vessel ‘ shall, on the Requisition of the Members of the Mixed ‘ Courts of Justice, take charge of the Commander, the ‘ Crew, and Accomplices on board of the captured Vessel, ‘ and shall convey them and deliver them over as before ‘ mentioned.

‘ The Charges incurred for the Support and Return Voyage ‘ of the Commander, the Crew, and the Accomplices thus sent ‘ as Prisoners, shall be defrayed by the Government of which ‘ they are the Subjects or Citizens.

‘ ARTICLE VIII.—The Mixed Courts of Justice shall also ‘ take cognizance of, and shall decide definitively, and with‘ out Appeal, all Claims for Compensation on account of ‘ Losses occasioned to Vessels and Cargoes which shall have ‘ been detained under the Provisions of this Treaty, but ‘ which shall not have been condemned as legal Prize by the ‘ said Courts; and in all Cases wherein Restitution of such ‘ Vessels and Cargoes shall be decreed (save as mentioned in ‘ a subsequent Part of these Regulations, and in Article IX.
 ‘ of the Treaty to which these Regulations form an Annex), ‘ the Court shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or to ‘ his or their lawful Attorney or Attornies, for his or their ‘ Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of ‘ Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Owner or ‘ Owners may have actually sustained by such Capture and ‘ Detention; (that is to say,)

‘ First,—In case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants ‘ shall be indemnified,—

 ‘ Stores.

‘ (b) For all Freights due and payable.

‘ (c) For the Value of the Cargo of Merchandize, ‘ if any, deducting all Charges and Expences payable ‘ upon the Sale of such Cargo, including Commission ‘ of Sale.

‘ (d) For all other regular Charges in such Case of ‘ total Loss.

‘ Secondly,—In all other Cases, not of total Loss, save ‘ as herein-after mentioned, the Claimant or Claimants shall ‘ be indemnified,—

‘ (a) For all special Damages and Expences occa‘ sioned to the Ship by her Detention, and for Loss of ‘ Freight when due or payable.

‘ (b) For Demurrage, according to the Schedule ‘ annexed to the present Article.

‘ (c) For any Deterioration of the Cargo.

‘ (d) For all Premium of Insurance on additional ‘ Risks.

‘ Further, the Claimant or Claimants shall be entitled to ‘ Interest at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum on the ‘ Sum awarded, until such Sum is paid by the Government to ‘ which the capturing Ship belongs. The whole Amount of ‘ such Indemnification shall be calculated in the Money of the ‘ Country

‘ Country to which the detained Vessel belongs, and shall be ‘ paid at the Rate of Exchange current at the Time of the ‘ Award.

‘ The Two High Contracting Parties, however, have agreed ‘ that if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Judges ‘ of the Two Nations, and without recourse to the Decision ‘ of an Arbitrator, that the Captor has been led into Error
 ‘ by the Fault of the Master or Commander of the detained ‘ Vessel, the detained Vessel shall in such Case not receive for ‘ the Time of her Detention the Demurrage stipulated by the ‘ present Article, nor any other Compensation for Losses, ‘ Damages, or Expences consequent upon such Detention.

‘ ARTICLE IX.—Neither the Judges, nor the Arbitrators, ‘ nor the Secretaries of the Mixed Courts of Justice, shall ‘ demand or receive from any of the Parties concerned in ‘ the Cases which shall be brought before such Courts any ‘ Emolument or Gift, under any Pretext whatsoever, for the ‘ Performance of the Duties which such Judges, Arbitrators, ‘ and Secretaries have to perform.

‘ ARTICLE X.—The Two High Contracting Parties have ‘ agreed, that in the event of the Death, Sickness, Absence on ‘ Leave, or other legal Impediment of One or more of the ‘ Judges or Arbitrators composing the above-mentioned Courts
 ‘ the Post of such Judge or of such Arbitrator shall be ‘ supplied ad interim in the following Manner:

‘ First,—On the Part of Her Britannic Majesty, and in ‘ that Court which shall sit in one of the Possessions of ‘ Her said Majesty, if the Vacancy be that of the British ‘ Judge, his Place shall be filled by the British Arbitrator, ‘ and either in that Case, or if the Vacancy be originally ‘ that of the British Arbitrator, the Place of such Arbitrator ‘ shall be filled successively by the Governor or Lieutenant ‘ Governor resident in such Possession, by the principal ‘ Magistrate of the same, and by the Secretary of the ‘ Government; and the said Court so constituted as above ‘ shall sit, and shall proceed to adjudge all Cases brought ‘ before them for Adjudication, and shall pass Sentence
 ‘ accordingly.

‘ Secondly,—On the Part of Great Britain, and in that ‘ Court which shall sit in some Place within the Terri‘ tories of the Argentine Confederation, if the Vacancy be ‘ that of the British Judge, his Place shall be filled by ‘ the British Arbitrator; and either in that Case, or if the ‘ Vacancy be originally that of the British Arbitrator, the ‘ Place of British Arbitrator shall be filled successively by ‘ the British Consul and British Vice Consul, if there be a ‘ British Consul or British Vice Consul appointed to and ‘ resident in such Place; and if the Vacancy be both of ‘ the British Judge and of the British Arbitrator, then ‘ the Vacancy of the British Judge shall be filled by the ‘ British Consul, and that of the British Arbitrator by ‘ the British Vice Consul, if there be a British Consul and ‘ a British Vice Consul appointed to and resident in such ‘ Place; and if there shall be no British Consul or British ‘ Vice Consul to fill the Place of British Arbitrator, then ‘ the Argentine Arbitrator shall be called in, in those Cases ‘ in which a British Arbitrator (if there were any) would ‘ be called in; and in case the Vacancy be both of the ‘ British Judge and British Arbitrator, and there be ‘ neither British Consul nor British Vice Consul to fill ad ‘ interim the Vacancies, then the Argentine Judge and ‘ Argentine Arbitrator shall sit, and shall proceed to adjudge ‘ all Cases brought before them for Adjudication, and shall ‘ pass Sentence accordingly.

‘ Thirdly,—On the Part of the Argentine Republic, and ‘ in that Court which shall sit within the Territories of that ‘ Republic, if the Vacancy be that of the Argentine Judge, ‘ of the Argentine Arbitrator, the Place of such Arbitrator ‘ shall be filled successively by the highest Civil Authority ‘ resident in such Possession, by the principal Magistrate

 ‘ all Cases brought before them for Adjudication, and shall

‘ Fourthly,— On the Part of the Argentine Republic,

 ‘ the Argentine Arbitrator shall be filled successively by ‘ the Argentine Consul and Argentine Vice Consul, if there ‘ be an Argentine Consul or Argentine Vice Consul ap-

 ‘ Vacancy be both of the Argentine Judge and of the ‘ Argentine Arbitrator, then the Vacancy of the Argentine ‘ Judge shall be filled by the Argentine Consul, and that ‘ of the Argentine Arbitrator by the Argentine Vice Consul, ‘ if there be an Argentine Consul and an Argentine Vice ‘ Consul appointed to and resident in such Possession; ‘ and if there be no Argentine Consul or Argentine Vice ‘ Consul to fill the Place of Argentine Arbitrator, then the ‘ British Arbitrator shall be called in, in those Cases in ‘ which an Argentine Arbitrator would be called in; and ‘ in case the Vacancy be both of the Argentine Judge and ‘ Argentine Arbitrator, and there be neither Argentine Con‘ sul nor Argentine Vice Consul to fill ad interim the ‘ Vacancies, then the British Judge and British Arbitrator ‘ shall sit, and shall proceed to adjudge all Cases brought ‘ before them for Adjudication, and shall pass Sentence

 ‘ accordingly.

‘ The highest Civil Authority of the Settlement wherein ‘ either of the Mixed Courts of Justice shall sit shall, in ‘ the event of the Vacancy arising either of the Judge or ‘ of the Arbitrator of the other High Contracting Party, ‘ forthwith give Notice of the same to the highest Civil ‘ Authority of the nearest Settlement of such other High ‘ Contracting Party, in order that such Vacancy may be ‘ supplied at the earliest possible Period; and each of the ‘ High Contracting Parties agrees to fill up definitively as ‘ soon as possible the Vacancies which may arise in the ‘ above-mentioned Courts from Death, or from any other ‘ Cause whatever.

An Act for carrying into effect a Convention between Her Majesty and the Republic of Hayti for the more effectual Suppression of the Slave Trade. [30th June 1842.]

Convention between Great Britain and France for Suppression

‘ WHEREAS Two Conventions for the Suppression of the Slave Trade were concluded between His late Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French, and signed at Paris on the Thirtieth

‘ Thirtieth Day of November in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and the Twenty-second Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: And whereas by the Ninth Article of the first of the said Conventions the High Contracting Parties thereto agreed to invite the other Maritime Powers to accede thereunto: And whereas an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for carrying into effect Two Conventions with the King of the French for suppressing the Slave Trade: And whereas a Convention was concluded between Her Britannic Majesty, His Majesty the King of the French, and the Republic of Hayti, containing the Accession of the Republic of Hayti to the aforesaid Two Conventions between Great Britain and France for the more effectual Suppression of the Slave Trade: And whereas the said Convention was signed at Port-au-Prince on the Twenty-third Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, whereby it was agreed as follows:—

‘ ARTICLE I.—The President of the Republic of Hayti accedes to the Conventions concluded and signed on the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and on the Twenty-second of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, between His late Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Majesty the King of the French, relating to the Suppression of the Slave Trade, as well as to the Annex of the latter Convention, containing Instructions to Cruisers, excepting the Reservations and Modifications expressed in the Articles II., III., IV., and V. herein-after given, which Articles shall be considered additional to the said Conventions, and to the Annex above mentioned, and excepting the Differences which necessarily result from the Situation of the President of the Republic of Hayti as a Party acceding to these Conventions after their Conclusion:

‘ Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland accepts the Accession of the President of the Republic of Hayti:

‘ Therefore all the Articles of the Two Conventions aforesaid, and all the Conditions of the said Annex, shall, excepting the Reservations and Modifications aforesaid, be held to have been concluded and signed in the same Manner as the present Convention directly between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the President of the Republic of Hayti:

‘ The High Contracting Parties engage and promise reciprocally to each other to execute faithfully all the Clauses, Conditions, and Obligations of the present Convention, subject always to the Reservations and Modifications therein contained; and in order to prevent any Uncertainty it has been agreed that the above-mentioned Conventions, and the Annex of the latter, containing Instructions to Cruisers, shall be inserted here Word for Word [which were accordingly inserted Word for Word therein].

‘ ARTICLE

‘ ARTICLE II.—It is agreed, with reference to the Fifth Article of the Instructions annexed to the Supplementary Convention of the Twenty-second of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, that all Vessels bearing the Haytian Flag, and appearing by their Papers to belong to Hayti, which shall be detained, in execution of the Conventions above described, by the Cruisers of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be conducted or sent to Port-au-Prince, Capital of the Republic of Hayti.

‘ ARTICLE III.—If the Republic of Hayti should not deem it expedient to fit out Cruisers for the Suppression of the Slave Trade, it nevertheless engages to furnish the special Authority or Warrant required by the Fifth Article of the Convention of the Thirtieth November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one to the Commanders of the British Cruisers, as soon as the Names and the Number thereof shall have been notified to the Republic.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—Whereas the Islands of Cuba and of Porto Rico are only separated from the Island of Hayti by a narrow Strait each : And whereas the Republic of Hayti, as a free, sovereign, and independent State, possesses the exclusive Right of Police within its own Waters : It is agreed that, by Exception to Numbers 3. and 4. of Article I. of the Convention of the Thirtieth November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, British Cruisers shall not search Haytian Vessels navigating within that Half of one or the other Strait contiguous to the Coasts of Hayti.

‘ ARTICLE V.—It is also agreed—

‘ First,—That Article II. of the Convention of the Thirtieth of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, Article I. of the Convention of the Twenty-second of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and No. 1. of the Instructions thereunto annexed, shall, as far as the Commanders of Haytian Cruisers are concerned, be understood in this Sense, that the said Commanders shall be of the Ranks therein specified, or of corresponding Ranks.

‘ Second,—That, by Exception to Article V. of the Convention of the Twenty-second March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, that Portion of the net Produce of the Sale of the captured Vessels and of their Cargoes which falls to the Share of the British Cruisers shall, conformably to the Haytian Laws, be only Fifty per Centum of the net Produce of the Sale; and it is further understood, that no Kind of Head Money will be due by the Haytian Government on Captives found on board the said Ships, and landed in the Republic.

‘ Third,—That the last Paragraph of Article XI. of the Convention of the Twenty-second March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three; (videlicet), “ They reserve to themselves, however, for the Welfare of the Slaves themselves, the Right to employ them as Servants or free Labourers, conformably to their respective Laws,” shall

‘ be held null and void as regards the Haytian Govern‘ ment, inasmuch as the Liberty they will enjoy in Hayti ‘ will, conformably to the Intention of the Constitution, be ‘ full, entire, and without Restraint, and as, according to a ‘ Law passed on the Nineteenth of November last, the ‘ Republic has proclaimed that it will provide for their ‘ Welfare.

‘ And whereas by the Sixth and last Article of the said Convention ‘ it was agreed that the same should be ratified, and the Ratifica‘ tions thereof should be exchanged at Port-au-Prince within the ‘ Space of Six Months, or sooner if possible: And whereas the ‘ said Convention was ratified by and between Her Majesty and ‘ the Republic of Hayti respectively, and such Ratifications were ‘ exchanged at Port-au-Prince on the Twentieth of October in ‘ the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty:
 ‘ And whereas it is expedient and necessary that the Provisions ‘ of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the ‘ Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth should be ‘ applied to the said Convention of Accession of the Republic of ‘ Hayti, signed at Port-au-Prince, One thousand eight hundred ‘ and thirty-nine, for the carrying into execution the said Con‘ vention and Articles for the more effectual Suppression of the ‘ Slave Trade:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the liament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, shall be applied and put in force for the Purpose of carrying into execution the said Convention, and the several Articles, Stipulations, and Regulations therein respectively contained, (except so far as any of such Powers and Authorities are altered by this Act,) as fully and effectually as if the same were re-enacted in this Act as to such Convention, and as to all Matters therein respectively contained.

The Provisions of the recited Act extended to the Convention of Accession of the Republic of Hayti.

II. And be it enacted, That in pursuance of the said Second Article of the Convention all Vessels bearing the Haytian Flag, and appearing by their Papers to belong to Hayti, which may be detained, in execution of the said Conventions of the Years One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one and One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three respectively, by the Cruisers of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and to the Share of the British Cruiser shall be only Fifty per Cen- tum or One Moiety of the Produce of the Sale thereof.

British Cruisers

 Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade,

An Act to amend an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland. [1st July 1842.]

3&amp;4 Vict. c. 108.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland, Provision was made for making out on the Fifth Day of September in the First Year in which the said Act should come into operation in any Borough divided into Wards, Lists of all Persons entitled to be enrolled in the Burgess Roll according to the Provisions of the said Act: And whereas it is by the said Act also provided, that, on certain Days and within certain Times specified in the said Act, certain Matters should happen and be done with a view to the Revision of Burgess Lists before Barristers to be appointed by the Lord Lieutenant, the making of a Burgess Roll, and the holding of Elections of Town Councillors, Auditors, and Assessors before such Barristers, in the first Year in which the said Act should come into operation in any such Borough: And whereas Provision is made by the said Act for the Poor Law Commissioners certifying to the Lord Lieutenant the Day of the making of a Rate for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland in any Borough named in the Schedule A. to the said Act annexed, and Provision is also made for the Lord Lieutenant declaring that, upon the Day happening next after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months from the Day to be so certified, the said Act should be in force in such Borough: And whereas it is by the said Act also provided, that it should be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, if he should think fit, by the Advice of Her Majesty’s Privy Council there, to order any convenient Day after the said Act should come into operation in any Borough for doing the several Matters required or authorized by the said Act to happen or to be done on the Fifth Day of September in the first Year in which the said Act should come into operation in that Borough, instead of the said Fifth Day of September; and it was thereby further provided, that in such Case all Matters mentioned in such Order should be done in the said Year on such Day as should be mentioned in that Behalf in such Order, as if the Day mentioned in such Order had in every Instance been mentioned in the said Act instead of the said Fifth Day of September, and not otherwise; and it was further provided, that all Things required or authorized by the said Act to happen or to be done on any other Day, or within any Time from or after any Day named in the said Act, should be done in the said first Year, or such other Days and within such other Times as should have, in point of Time, whether prior or subsequent, the same Relation to the Day so ordered by the Lord Lieutenant, instead of the Fifth Day of September, as the Days and Time mentioned in the said Act had to the said Fifth Day of September, but if any such Day should fall on a Sunday, then on the following Day; but that no Person should be entitled to be enrolled in the Burgess Roll of any Borough in the first Year in which the

‘ said Act should come into operation in that Borough, unless he ‘ would have been entitled on the Fifth Day next before the Day ‘ so ordered by the Lord Lieutenant to have his Name included ‘ in some Churchwarden’s List, if such List had been made out on ‘ the said Fifth Day next before the Day so ordered: And ‘ whereas it is expedient in any Borough where Lists with a view ‘ to the making of a Burgess Roll have been revised, and a Burgess ‘ Roll has been made, and an Election of Town Councillors has ‘ been held before any Barrister or Barristers appointed for that ‘ Purpose by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, as herein-after men‘ tioned, that in any such Borough the said Act, and all Proceed‘ ings had with a view to its Operation, should have and be in full ‘ Force and Validity, notwithstanding any Matters or Things ‘ required or authorized by the said Act to happen or to be done ‘ shall not have happened or shall not have been done on the Days ‘ or within the Times required or authorized by the said Act:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Case in which in any Borough wherein the said Act is now in operation a Barrister or Barristers (appointed by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to revise the Lists of Burgesses, and to hold the Municipal Elections in or for such Borough, in the first Year of the Operation of the said Act in such Borough,) did revise Lists with a view to the making of a Burgess Roll for such Borough, and did make or cause to be made a Book or Roll purporting to be a Burgess Roll for such Borough, and did, by himself or themselves, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies, hold an Election of Aldermen and Town Councillors for such Borough, in every such Case the Persons who have been in fact elected Aldermen and Councillors at such Election shall be and shall be deemed and taken to have been duly elected under the Provisions of the said Act, at and from the Time when such Election did in fact take place (of which Election the Declaration under the Hand or Hands of the said Barrister or Barristers, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies, shall be Evidence), and that all Matters and Things required by the said Act to happen or to be done previously to the first Election of Town Councillors in any Borough shall be deemed and taken to have happened and to have been done in the Borough in which such Election was so held previously to such Election, and that, from the Time when such Election was so held in such Borough, all the Provisions of the said Act, and of another Act passed in the same Session held in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to annex certain Parts of certain Counties of Cities to adjoining Counties, to make further Provision for Compensation of Officers in Boroughs, to limit the Borough Rate, and to continue for a limited Time ‘An Act to restrain the Alienation of Corporate Property in Ireland,’ shall have Operation and shall apply, and shall be deemed and taken to have had Operation and to have applied, in and to such Borough in which such Election was so held, and in and to the County or Counties at large to which any Part or District of such Borough shall or might be added by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act:

 deemed to have operation in any Borough in which, de facto, Burgess Lists shall have been revised, a Bur-

Provision for discontinuing Proceedings, questioning Elections, &c. under the Act 3&4 Vict. c. 108.

II. And be it enacted, That any Proceeding commenced before the passing of this Act in the Court of Queen's Bench (whether the same be still pending there, or a Writ of Error shall have been brought upon any Judgment therein,) for the Purpose of questioning the Validity of any Title to any Corporate Office, on the ground either that a valid Election of Town Councillors was held, or that a valid Election of Town Councillors was not held, in any Borough under the said last-mentioned Act, shall be discontinued immediately upon the passing of this Act, upon Payment of the Costs incurred up to that Time to the Party in such Proceeding whose Title was so questioned, such Costs to be taxed between Party and Party; and the Amount of such Costs, and of the other Costs incurred in such Proceeding by the Party paying the same, shall be paid to such last-mentioned Party by the Treasurer of said Borough out of the Borough Fund.

Removing Doubts as to Continuance in Office of Judges of Courts of Conscience.

III. ' WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Third and ' Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King ' William the Fourth, for consolidating the Laws of the Customs : ' And whereas it has been found necessary from Time to Time ' to make certain Alterations therein : And whereas certain further ' Alterations and Amendments are now required : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the same shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation for the Purposes mentioned therein, except where any other Commencement is herein-after particularly directed.

Certain Prohibitions
repealed.

III. ' And whereas by one of the said Acts, intituled An Act for the Regulation of the Customs, several Sorts of Goods, enumerated or described in a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards therein set forth, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to repeal several of the same Prohibitions; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act and Table as prohibits the Importation into the United Kingdom of Beef or Pork, fresh or corned or slightly salted, great Cattle, Mutton, Lamb, Sheep, Swine, and Fish of Foreign Taking or Curing, or in Foreign Vessels, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

V. And be it enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned Act as permits Turbot of Foreign Taking or imported in a Foreign Ship to be landed in the United Kingdom, without Report, Entry, or Warrant, and so much of the said Act as excepts such Turbot from the Regulations as to Times and Places of landing, and Presence of Officers of Customs at landing, shall be repealed.

As to Weight of Packages of Tobacco, the Produce of Mexico, &c. imported from British Possessions and United States.

VI. ' And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act, and by an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs, certain Restrictions are laid down in respect of the Packages in which Tobacco may be imported into the United Kingdom; be it therefore enacted, That the said Restrictions shall not extend to Negrohead Tobacco, the Produce of and imported from the United States of America in Packages of not less than One hundred and fifty Pounds Weight each, nor to any Tobacco the Produce of Mexico, Columbia, or the Continent of South America, or the Islands of Saint Domingo and Cuba, when imported from the Warehouse in any British Possession in America, in Packages of not less than Eighty Pounds Weight each.

VIII. ' And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act certain Articles therein mentioned, which have been exported from the United Kingdom, cannot be re-imported for Home Use by Bill of Store, and it is expedient to remove such Restriction from the Article of Tobacco; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as restricts the Re-importation of Tobacco into the United Kingdom shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that such Tobacco so re-imported shall be subject to all the Restrictions imposed by Law upon Tobacco imported into the United Kingdom, and liable to Forfeiture if imported contrary to such Restrictions.

IX. ' And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act it is provided that every Manifest for Tobacco shall be a separate Manifest, distinct from any Manifest for any other Goods, and shall without fail contain the particular Weight of Tobacco in each Hogshead, Cask, Chest, or Case, with the Tare of the same, and that if such Tobacco be the Produce of the Dominions of the Grand Seigneur, then the Numbers of Parcels or Bundles within any such Hogshead, Cask, Chest, or Case shall be stated in such Manifest, and it is expedient that so much of the said Act should be repealed; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned Act as is herein-before set forth shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that the general Manifest shall include Tobacco in common with all other Goods imported in British Ships.

 ‘ Particulars of the Quantity and Quality of the Goods, and the ‘ Packages containing the same, and the Marks and Numbers on ‘ the Packages, and setting forth whether such Goods be the Pro-

 ‘ same Time pay down all Duties due upon the Goods; and the ‘ Collector or Comptroller or other proper Officer shall thereupon ‘ grant their Warrant for the lading or unlading of such Goods;’
 be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as is herein above recited shall from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-three extend to all Goods entered for Exportation, and to all Vessels clearing Outwards, in any of XLIII. And be it declared and enacted, That neither the Recorder for such united District, nor any Barrister at Law appointed by Her Majesty to hold any Court of General Sessions of the Peace or Gaol Delivery for any Borough, District, or Place, shall be empowered at any Court holden by him to try any Person or Persons for any Treason or Felony which, by an Act passed in this Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to define the Jurisdiction of Justices in General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, the Recorder of any Borough is restrained from trying at any Session of the Peace.

C A P. LIV.

An Act to amend the Acts for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, and to continue the Officers appointed under the said Acts for a Time to be limited.

[30th July 1842.]

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 71. ' WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the ' Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for the Com-
' mutation of Tithes in England and Wales, it was among other ' things enacted, that no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner,
' Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or other Officer or Person ap' pointed under the said Act, should hold his Office for a longer ' Period than Five Years next after the Day of the passing of the ' said Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session
' of Parliament; and that after the Expiration of the said Period
' of Five Years and of the then next Session of Parliament so ' much of the said Act as authorizes any such Appointment should ' cease: And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of ' Parliament it was among other things provided, that so much of

‘ the last-recited Act as is herein-before recited should be repealed, ‘ and that no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, Secretary, ‘ Assistant Secretary, or other Officer or Person so to be appointed, ‘ should hold his Office for a longer Period than until the Thirty-‘ first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-two ;
 ‘ and that after the said Thirty-first Day of July so much of the ‘ last-recited Act as authorizes any such Appointment should ‘ cease : And whereas it is expedient that the said Commission be ‘ further continued ;’ be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the last-recited Act as is herein-before recited shall be repealed, except so far as it repeals any Part of the first-recited Act ; and that no Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, or other Officer or Person so appointed or to be appointed shall hold his Office for a longer Period than the Thirty-first Day of July in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Last-recited Act in part repealed.

Continuance of Tithe Commission.

II. ‘ And whereas by the first-recited Act Power is given to the ‘ Land Owners and Tithe Owners of any Parish to make and ‘ execute an Agreement for the Commutation of the Tithes of ‘ that Parish as therein specified ; and Power is also given to the ‘ said Commissioners, after the First Day of October in the Year ‘ One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, to make compul‘ sory Awards for the Commutation of Tithes in any Parish in ‘ which no such Agreement shall have been made as aforesaid, and ‘ confirmed by the said Commissioners : And whereas Doubts ‘ have been entertained whether, pending the Proceedings toward ‘ a compulsory Award, the Land Owners and Tithe Owners can ‘ make and execute a voluntary Agreement which, if confirmed by ‘ the said Commissioners, shall be valid, and it is expedient that ‘ such Doubts be removed ;’ be it declared and enacted, That a Parochial Agreement for the Payment of a Rent-charge instead of Tithes, as provided by the said Act, may be made in the Manner therein specified, at any Time before the Confirmation of any Award for the Commutation of the Tithes of the same Parish ; and such Agreement may contain Provisions for declaring how the Expences of the Parties, or any of them, shall be defrayed, which shall have been incurred in contesting the Award ; and every such Agreement, whether made before or after the passing of this Act, if confirmed by the Commissioners, shall be as valid as if made and executed before any Proceedings had been taken toward making a compulsory Award, and shall have the Effect of making null and void all the Proceedings toward such compulsory Award, or incident thereunto, except so far as the same shall be adopted in such Agreement.

Agreements may be made pending Proceedings toward an Award.

III. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where no Time is fixed by any Award or Agreement commuting the Tithes of a Parish for the Commencement of the Rent-charge or Rent-charges therein awarded or agreed upon, it shall be lawful, notwithstanding that the Apportionment of the said Rent-charge or Rent-charges may have been confirmed for the Land Owners and Tithe Owners, Parties may make a supplemental Agreement as to Commence-

 charge.

having such an Interest in the Land and Tithes of the Parish as is required for making a Parochial Agreement, to enter into a supplemental Agreement for fixing the Period at which the Rent-charge or Rent-charges to be paid under such Award or Agreement shall commence: Provided always, that such supplemental Agreement shall be of no Force or Effect unless the same shall be confirmed by the said Commissioners under their Hands and Seal; and a Copy of every such supplemental Agreement shall be deposited with the Registrar of the Diocese, and in the Parish, in like Manner as Instruments of Apportionment are deposited under the said first-recited Act.

Such Agreement to be confirmed, and a Copy deposited.

In making special Adjudication an Account may be taken of Parochial Agreements.

IV ' And whereas by the first-recited Act Power is given to the said Commissioners to make Awards in Cases reserved for special Adjudication, having regard to the average Rate which shall be awarded in respect of Lands of the like Description and similarly situated in the neighbouring Parishes: And whereas it sometimes happens that voluntary Agreements for the Commutation of Tithes have been made in the greater Part of such neighbouring Parishes; be it enacted, That, in awarding the Rent-charge in any Case so reserved, the Commissioners shall be empowered to have regard to the average Rate of Commutation in respect of Lands of the like Description and similarly situated, not only in the neighbouring Parishes in which there has been an Award by the Commissioners, but also in those in which there has been a Parochial Agreement for the Commutation of Tithes.

Powers for defining and exchanging Glebe.

V. ' And whereas it will be beneficial to both Tithe Owners and Land Owners if the Tithe Commissioners are empowered to define the Glebe Lands in those Cases in which the Quantity of Glebe is known, but cannot be identified, and also to exchange the Glebe Lands or Part thereof for other Land; be it enacted, That for the Purpose of defining and settling the Glebe Lands of any Benefice, on the Application of the Spiritual Person to whom the same belongs in right of such Benefice, and with the Consent of the Land Owner or Land Owners having or claiming Title to the Land so defined as Glebe, and being in possession thereof, the Tithe Commissioners shall, during the Continuance of the Commission, as well before as after the Completion of any Commutation, have the same Powers which they have for ascertaining, drawing, and defining the Boundaries of the Lands of any Land Owners on their Application; and also upon the like Application of any Spiritual Person the said Commissioners shall have Power to exchange the Glebe Lands, or any Part thereof, for other Land within the same or any adjoining Parish, or otherwise conveniently situated, with the Consent of the Ordinary and Patron of the Benefice and of the Land Owner or Land Owners having or claiming Title to the Land so to be given in Exchange for the Glebe Lands, and being in actual Possession thereof as aforesaid, such Consent to be testified as their Consent under the first-recited Act is testified to any thing for which their Consent is therein required; and in every such Case the Tithe Commissioners shall make an Award in like Manner as Awards are made under the first-recited Act, setting forth the Contents, Description, and Boundary of the Glebe Lands as finally settled by them, and of the Lands awarded to the several

several Parties to whom any Lands theretofore Part or reputed Part of the Glebe Lands are to be awarded; and every such Award shall have all the Incidents of an Agreement confirmed by the said Commissioners for giving Land instead of Tithes, and in every Case of Exchange shall operate as a Conveyance of the Lands theretofore Part or reputed Part of the Glebe Lands to the several Persons to whom the same shall be awarded, and to their Heirs and Successors, Executors and Administrators, as the Case may be; and such Lands shall thereupon be holden by the same Tenure, and upon the like Uses and Trusts, and subject to the like Incidents, as the Land awarded as Glebe in Exchange for the same was formerly holden; and the Expence of so defining, exchanging, and settling any Glebe Lands shall be borne in such Manner as the Tithe Commissioners shall think just.

VI. And whereas the Power of giving Land instead of Tithes has been found beneficial to both Tithe Owners and Land Owners, but such Power has been inoperative in a great degree by reason that the Land Owners by giving Land instead of Vicarial Tithe cannot free their Lands from the Liability to Rectorial Tithe, and the converse; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Tithe Owner, with the Consent of the Patron and Ordinary in the Case of Spiritual Tithes, to be testified as their Consent under the first-recited Act is testified to any thing for which their Consent is therein required, and subject in that Case to the Limitation of Quantity of Land provided by the first-recited Act, and subject to the Approval of the Tithe Commissioners, to agree for the Assignment to any other Owner of Tithes issuing out of the same Lands of so much of his Tithes arising within the same Parish, or of the Rent-charge agreed or awarded to be paid instead of such Tithes, as shall be an Equivalent for the Tithes belonging to such other Tithe Owner issuing out of the same Lands, or for the Rent-charge agreed or awarded to be paid instead thereof, for the Purpose of enabling any Land Owner who shall be desirous of giving Land instead of Tithes to free his Lands, or any Part thereof, from both Rectorial and Vicarial Tithes, and from the Payment of any Rent-charge in respect thereof; and every such Agreement shall be carried into effect by means of an Award or Supplemental Award, to be made by the said Commissioners either before or after the Confirmation of the Apportionment, in like Manner as Awards or Supplemental Awards are made by them pursuant to the Powers vested in them before the passing of this Act.

Extending Power of
for Tithes.

VII. And be it enacted, That where any Agreement shall have been made before the passing of the first-recited Act for giving Land or Money, or both, instead of Tithes or Glebe or commonable or other Rights or Easements, which is not of legal Validity, and such Lands or Money, or both, shall appear to the Commissioners to be a fair Equivalent for the said Tithes or Glebe, or Rights or Easements, they shall be empowered to confirm and render valid such Agreement; and in case the same shall not appear to be a fair Equivalent, the said Commissioners shall nevertheless be empowered to confirm such Agreement, and also to make an Award for such Rent-charge, which with the said Land or Money, or both, will be a fair Equivalent for the said Tithes

Confirmation

ments for giving Land for

or

or Glebe, or Rights or Easements, and, subject to such Confirmation and Award, to extinguish the Right of the Tithe Owners to the Perception of the said Tithes, or his Title to the said Glebe Rights or Easements, or to the Receipt of any Rent-charge instead thereof, other than the Rent-charge awarded over and above, the Lands or Money, or both, so confirmed to them.

Power to charge Expences of Commutation on Benefices extended.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which any Spiritual Person shall have died or vacated his Benefice before exercising the Powers vested in him of borrowing Money for the Purpose of defraying so much of the Expences of Commutation as is to be defrayed by him, and of charging the Rent-charge with the Repayment of the Money borrowed, it shall be lawful for the Tithe Commissioners, with the Consent of the Ordinary, to borrow Money for that Purpose, and to charge the Repayment thereof upon the Rent-charge, or so much thereof as they, with the like Consent, shall think just, with Interest thereupon, and for that Purpose to assign the Rent-charge in like Manner as such Spiritual Person, if living or in possession of his Benefice, could himself have done; and the Person in whose Favour such Charge shall have been made, and his Assigns, shall have the like Remedies for enforcing Payment of the Principal and Interest of the Money so borrowed, in case of any Arrear in Payment of the said Charge, as if such Charge had been made by the Person so dying or vacating his Benefice.

For settling Questions of Arrears and Costs in Suits in Equity.

IX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases, whether the Tithes of any Parish have been commuted or not, where any Question as to the Liability of any Lands to the Render of Tithes, or as to the Existence of any Modus or Composition Real, or Prescriptive or Customary Payment, or any Claim of Exemption from or Non-liability to the Payment of Tithes in respect of any Lands, shall have been heard and determined by the said Commissioners, or by any Assistant Commissioner under their Direction, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, after the Time for Appeal to a Court of Law from the said Determination has elapsed, or in case there has been such Appeal, after the Judgment of the Court on such Appeal, to make an Award, founded on the Decision of the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, or the Judgment of any Court of Law to which Appeal shall have been made from the Decision of the said Commissioners or Assistant Commissioner, for the Determination of all Questions of Arrears of Tithes claimed in any Suit which may be pending in any Court of Equity for the Purpose of trying, as to the same Lands, such Liability, or the Legality of such Claim, Modus, Composition, or Customary Payment, and of the Liability of any of the Parties to Payment of the Costs of the Proceedings in such Suit, for which Purpose they respectively shall have all the Powers which under the said recited Acts or any of them they have for ascertaining the Value of the Tithes of such Lands; and such Award shall have the Effect of the Verdict of a Jury, on an Issue directed by the Court of Chancery satisfactory to the Judge or Court directing the same, and shall be received by the Court of Chancery as conclusive Evidence of the Liability or Non-liability of such Lands, and of the Amount of such Arrears, and of the Liability of the several Parties to the Payment ment of Costs in such Suit; and any Order of the Court of Chancery made thereon shall be binding on all Parties, and no Appeal to any other Judge or Court shall be brought against such Order.

X. And be it enacted, That where any Question is or shall be brought for the Decision of the Tithe Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner, relative to any of the Matters mentioned in an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for shortening the Time required in Claims of Modus decimandi or Exemption from or Discharge of Tithes, as to which any such Suit shall have been commenced and shall be pending as would have prevented the Operation of the said recited Act, such recited Act shall not have any Operation as to any Award or Decision respecting such Question to be made by the said Tithe Commissioners or any Assistant Commissioner.

XI. And be it enacted, That in any Parish where any Rent-charge has been agreed or awarded to be paid instead of Tithes, and Security has been given for Payment of such Rent-charge, and the Lands in such Parish have been discharged from Payment or Renter of Tithes or Composition, or Rent in the Nature thereof, instead of Tithes, before the Apportionment of such Rent-charge, it shall be lawful for the Tithe Commissioners, by a Declaration in Writing under the Hands of any Two of them, and their Seal of Office, to fix the same half-yearly Days of Payment of the whole Rent-charge after Apportionment thereof; and in consideration that the Payment of some Sums will be thereby accelerated, and the Payment of other Sums will be thereby deferred and retarded, to make such Alterations and Allowances in the Payments to be made in the First Year after the Apportionment, both by way of Interest for every Sum of which Payment will be thereby deferred, and by way of Discount to be allowed for every Sum of which Payment will be thereby accelerated, as to the Commissioners shall seem just.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Owner of Rent-charge, having taken possession of any Land for Nonpayment of the Rent-charge under the Provisions of the first-recited Act, from Time to Time during the Continuance of such Possession to let such Land, or any Part thereof, for any Period not exceeding One Year in possession, at such Rent as can be reasonably obtained for the same; and the Restitution of such Land, on Payment or Satisfaction of the Rent-charge, Costs, and Expences, shall be subject and without prejudice to any such Tenancy.

XIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Board of Guardians of any Parish or Union, with the Consent of the Poor Law Commissioners, and subject to such Conditions as the said Poor Law Commissioners may prescribe, to pay out of the Rates of any Parish any Portion of the Cost of making or providing any Map or Plan which shall have been confirmed under the Hands and Seal of the Tithe Commissioners, or any other Sum of Money by way of Consideration for the Use of the said Map or Plan, for the Purpose of estimating the net annual Value of Property in respect of which Rates may be assessed for the Relief of the Poor; and after the Tithe Commissioners shall have certified in Writing that such Money has been paid, the Overseers of the Parish,

The Act 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 100. not to have any Operation as to any Award of the Commissioners in certain Cases.

Provision for fixing the same Days of Payment of all Parts of the same Rent-charge.

Power to Owner of Rent-charge to let Land taken under Writ of Possession.

Power in certain Cases to use Tithe Commutation Maps for Parochial Purposes.

Parish, or any Person authorized by them in Writing, or any Officer of the said Board of Guardians, or any Person authorized by them in Writing, shall at all reasonable Times have Access to the Copy of the said Map or Plan deposited with the Incumbent and Church or Chapel Wardens of the Parish, or other Persons approved by the said Tithe Commissioners, and may inspect and make Copies or Extracts from the said Copy, without paying any thing for such Access or Inspection, or for making such Copies or Extracts.

Power to alter
ments.

XIV. 'And whereas by the first-recited Act Power is given for altering Apportionments of Rent-charge by the Commissioners of Land Tax, on the Application of the Owner of the Lands charged therewith, and it is expedient that the Power thereby given should be extended, and also that during the Continuance of the Tithe Commission the like Power should be vested in the Tithe Commissioners;' be it enacted, That if at any Time after the Confirmation of any Instrument of Apportionment it shall appear that the Lands charged with One entire Rent-charge belong to or have become vested in several Owners, and that any of the Owners of such Lands shall be desirous that the Apportionment thereof should be altered, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Land Tax for the County or Place where the said Lands are situated, or any Three of them, to appoint, by Notice under their Hands, a Time and Place for hearing the Parties to such Application, and all other Parties interested therein; and upon satisfactory Proof of such Notice having been served on all Parties interested full Twenty-one Days before the Day of hearing, to proceed to alter the Apportionment in such Manner and in such Proportion amongst the said Lands as to them shall seem just, subject nevertheless to the Consent of Two Justices of the Peace, as in the said first-recited Act provided; and further, that upon such Application being made to the said Tithe Commissioners, they shall have the same Power of making such Alteration as by the said first-recited Act and by this Act is vested in the Commissioners of Land Tax, and that without any such Consent of Two Justices of the Peace; provided that no Alteration of any Apportionment shall be made under the first-recited Act or this Act whereby any Rent-charge shall be subdivided, so that any Subdivision thereof shall be less than Five Shillings.

Copy of Instrument of altered Apportionment to be sent to Tithe Office.

XV. 'And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for recording all such Alterations of Apportionment;' be it enacted, That the Registrar of every Diocese, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, shall cause to be made and sent to the Office of the Tithe Commissioners a Copy, certified under his Hand, of every Instrument of altered Apportionment in his Custody, which was made before the passing of this Act, the reasonable Cost of making and sending which Copy shall be defrayed by the Tithe Commissioners as Part of the Expence of putting in execution the Acts for the Commutation of Tithes; and after the passing of this Act Three Counterparts shall be made of every Instrument of altered Apportionment at the Expence of the Land Owner desiring the Alteration; and Two of the said Counterparts shall be sent as provided by the first-

recited Act, and the Third shall be sent to or deposited in the Office of the Tithe Commissioners, or, after the Expiration of the Tithe Commission, shall be sent to and kept by the Person having Custody of the Records and Papers of the said Commission, and shall be annexed to the Instrument of Apportionment in the Custody of the said Commissioners, or the Person having the Custody of their Records and Papers.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in case any Land charged with One Amount of Rent-charge shall belong to Two or more Land Owners in several Portions, and the Owner of any One of such Portions, or his Tenant, shall have paid the whole of such Rent-charge, or any Portion thereof greater than shall appear to him to be his just Proportion, and Contribution thereto shall have been refused or neglected to be made by any other of the said Land Owners, or his Tenant, after a Demand in Writing made on them, or either of them, for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace acting for the County or other Jurisdiction in which the Land is situated, upon the Complaint of any such Land Owner, or his Tenant or Agent, to summon the Owner so refusing or neglecting to make Contribution, or his Tenant, to appear before any Two or more of such Justices of the Peace, who, upon Proof of the Demand and of Service of the Summons, as hereiu-after provided, whether or not the Party summoned shall appear, shall examine into the Merits of the Complaint, and determine the just Proportion of the Rent-charge so paid as aforesaid which ought to be contributed by the Land Owner of such other Portion of the said Land, and by Order under their Hands and Seals shall direct the Payment by him of what shall in their Judgment be due and payable in respect of such Liability to Contribution, with the reasonable Costs and Charges of such Proceedings, to be ascertained by such Justices; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Complainant to take the like Proceedings for enforcing Payment of the said Amount of Contribution and Costs, and with the like Restriction as to the Arrears recoverable, as are given to the Owner of the Rent-charge by the said first-mentioned Act or this Act for enforcing Payment of the Rent-charge.

Remedy for enforcing Payment of Contribution to Rent-charge.

XVII. And be it enacted, That Service of the said Demand in Writing, and Summons, or of any Notice to distrain, or Copy of Writ to assess the Arrears of Rent-charge, or Notice of the Execution thereof under the said first-recited Act, or the several Acts to amend the same, or this Act, upon any Person occupying or residing on the Land chargeable with the Rent-charge, or in case no Person shall be found thereon, then affixing the same in some conspicuous Place on the Land, shall be deemed good Service of any such Summons, Notice, Writ, or other Proceeding.

Service of Summons, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Defendants in Replevin, brought on any Distress for Rent-charge payable under the said first-recited Act, or the several Acts to amend the same, or this Act, to avow or make cognizance generally that the Lands and Tenements whereon such Distress was made were chargeable with or liable to the Payment of a certain yearly Amount of Rent-charge under the Provisions of the Statutes for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, which Rent-charge, or some Part thereof, was in arrear and unpaid for the Provision for general Avowry in Actions of Replevin for Rent-charge.

Irregularity not to vitiate Proceedings.

XIX. And be it enacted, That where any Distress shall be made for any Rent-charge payable under the said recited Acts or any of them, or this Act, and justly due, and any Irregularity or unlawful Act shall be afterwards done by the Party distraining, or his Agent, in the Conduct, Sale, or Disposition of the Distress, the Distress itself shall not be therefore deemed to be unlawful, nor the Party making it deemed a Trespasser from the Beginning, but the Party aggrieved by such unlawful Act or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case; provided nevertheless, that no Plaintiff shall recover in any Action for any such unlawful Act or Irregularity, if Ten Days Notice in Writing shall not have been given to the Defendant by the Plaintiff of his Intention to bring such Action before the Commencement thereof, or if Tender of sufficient Amends has been made by the Party distraining, or his Agent, before such Action brought, or if after Action brought a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court, with Costs, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

An Act for the better Regulation of Railways, and for the Conveyance of Troops. [30th July 1842.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 97.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating Railways, Provision was made for the Supervision of Railways: And whereas it is expedient for the Safety of the Public to make further Provision for that Purpose;’ be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall come into operation on the passing thereof.

Commencement of Act.
Recited Act and this Act to be construed together.

II. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act shall be construed together as One Act, except so far as the Provisions of the said recited Act are hereby repealed, or shall be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

III. ‘ And

III. ' And whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, that after Two Months from the passing of the said recited Act no Railway, or Portion of any Railway, shall be opened for the public Conveyance of Passengers or Goods until One Calendar Month after Notice in Writing of the Intention of opening the same shall have been given, by the Company to whom such Railway shall belong, to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations: And whereas by the said recited Act it is also enacted, that if any Railway or Portion of any Railway shall be opened without due Notice as aforesaid, the Company to whom such Railway shall belong shall forfeit to Her Majesty the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every Day during which the same shall continue open, until the Expiration of One Calendar Month after the Company shall have given the like Notice as is herein-before required before the opening of the Railway, and any such Penalty may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record; ' be it enacted, That the said recited Provisions of the said Act shall be and they are hereby repealed.

Notice before opening Railway repealed.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Railway or Portion of any Railway shall be opened for the public Conveyance of Passengers until One Calendar Month after Notice in Writing of the Intention of opening the same shall have been given, by the Company to whom such Railway shall belong, to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations, and until Ten Days after Notice in Writing shall have been given by the said Company to the Lords of the said Committee of the Time when the said Railway or Portion of Railway will be, in their Opinion, sufficiently completed for the safe Conveyance of Passengers, and ready for Inspection.

Notice of intended opening of Railway.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Railway or Portion of any Railway shall be opened without such Notice as aforesaid, the Company to whom such Railway shall belong shall forfeit to Her Majesty the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every Day during which the same shall continue open until the said Notices shall have been duly given and shall have expired; and every such Penalty may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, or in the Court of Session or in any of the Sheriffs Courts in Scotland.

If Railway opened without Notice, Company to forfeit 20*l*.

VI. And be it enacted, That if the Officer or Officers appointed by the Lords of the said Committee to inspect any such Railway or Portion of Railway shall, after Inspection thereof, report in Writing to the Lords of the said Committee that, in his or their Opinion, the opening of the same would be attended with Danger to the Public using the same, by reason of the Incompleteness of the Works or permanent Way, or the Insufficiency of the Establishment for working such Railway, together with the Grounds of such Opinion, it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee, and so from Time to Time, as often as such Officers shall after further Inspection thereof so report, to order and direct the Company to whom such Railway shall belong to postpone such opening for any Period not exceeding One Calendar Month at any One Time, until it shall appear to the Lords of the said Committee that such opening may take place without Danger to the Public; and if any such Railway, or any Portion thereof, shall be opened contrary to any such Order and Direction of the Lords of the said Committee, the Company to whom such Railway shall belong shall forfeit to Her Majesty the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every Day during which the same shall continue open contrary to such Order and Direction; and any such Penalty may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, or in the Court of Session or in any of the Sheriffs Courts in Scotland: Provided always, that no such Order as aforesaid shall be binding upon any Railway Company unless therewith shall be delivered to the said Company a Copy of the Report of the Officer or Officers on which such Order shall be founded.

Notice of Accidents to be given to
Trade.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Railway Company shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Occurrence upon the Railway belonging to such Company of any Accident attended with serious personal Injury to the Public using the same, give Notice thereof to the Lords of the said Committee; and if any Company shall wilfully omit to give such Notice every such Company shall forfeit to Her Majesty the Sum of Five Pounds for every Day during which the Omission to give the same shall continue; and every such Penalty may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, or in the Court of Session or in any of the Sheriffs Courts in Scotland.

Board of Trade empowered to direct Returns.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Lords of the said Committee may order and direct any Railway Company to make up and deliver to them Returns of serious Accidents occurring in the course of the public Traffic upon the Railway belonging to such Company, whether attended with personal Injury or not, in such Form and Manner as the Lords of the said Committee shall deem necessary and require for their Information with a view to the public Safety; and if any such Returns shall not be so delivered within Fourteen Days after the same shall have been required, every such Company shall forfeit to Her Majesty the Sum of Five Pounds for every Day during which the said Company shall neglect to deliver the same; and every such Penalty may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, or in the Courts of Session or in any of the Sheriffs Courts in Scotland: Provided always, that all such Returns shall be privileged Communications, and shall not be Evidence in any Court whatsoever.

Gates at level Crossings to be kept closed across the Road.
2 & 3 Vict. c. 45.

IX. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of Her present Majesty, and intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth relating to Highways, it was enacted, that whenever a Railway crosses or shall hereafter cross any Turnpike Road, or any other Highway or Statute Labour Road for Carts or Carriages in Great Britain, the Proprietors or Directors of the said Railway shall make and maintain good and sufficient Gates across each End of such Turnpike or other Road at each End of the said Crossings, and shall employ good and proper Persons to open and shut such Gates, so that the Persons, Carts, or Carriages passing along such Turnpike or other Road shall not be exposed to any Danger or Damage by the passing of any Carriages or Engines along the said Railway: And whereas by the Acts relating to certain Railways it is provided

' that

‘ that such Gates shall be kept constantly closed across the ‘ Railway, except during the Time when Carriages or Engines ‘ passing along the Railway shall have to cross such Turnpike or ‘ other Road : And whereas Experience has shown that it is more ‘ conducive to Safety that such Gates should be kept closed across ‘ the Turnpike or other Road instead of across the Railway ;’ be it therefore enacted, That, notwithstanding any thing to the contrary contained in any Act of Parliament heretofore passed, such Gates shall be kept constantly closed across each End of such Turnpike or other Roads, in lieu of across the Railway, except during the Time when Horses, Cattle, Carts, or Carriages passing along such Turnpike or other Road shall have to cross such Railway ; and such Gates shall be of such Dimensions and so constructed as, when closed across the Ends of such Turnpike or other Roads, to fence in the Railway, and prevent Cattle or Horses passing along the Road from entering upon the Railway while the Gates are closed : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee, in any Case in which they are satisfied that it will be more conducive for the public Safety that the Gates at any level Crossing over any such Turnpike or other Road should be kept closed across the Railway, to order and direct that such Gates shall be kept so closed, instead of across the Road ; and such Order of the Lords of the said Committee shall be a sufficient Authority for the Directors or Proprietors of any Railway Company to whom such Order is addressed for keeping such Gates closed, in the Manner directed by the Lords of the said Committee.

Proviso.

X. ‘ And whereas it is expedient that further Provision be made ‘ for the Safety of the Public in respect of the Fences of Railways ;’ be it enacted, That all Railway Companies shall be under the same Liability of Obligation to erect, and to maintain and repair, good and sufficient Fences throughout the whole of their respective Lines, as they would have been if every Part of such Fences had been originally ordered to be made under an Order of Justices by virtue of the Provisions to that Effect in the Acts of Parliament relating to such Railways respectively.

Railway Companies to erect and maintain Fences.

XI. And be it enacted, That where Two or more Railway Companies whose Railways have a common Terminus or a Portion of the same Lines of Rail in common, or which form separate Portions of One continued Line of Railway Communication, shall not be able to agree upon Arrangements for conducting at such common Terminus, or at the Point of Junction between them, their joint Traffic with Safety to the Public, it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee, upon the Application of either of the Parties, to decide the Questions in dispute between them, so far as the same relate to the Safety of the Public, and to order and determine whether the whole or what Proportion of the Expences attending on such Arrangements shall be borne by either of the Parties respectively ; and if any Railway Company shall refuse or wilfully neglect to obey any such Order made upon or against such Company by the Lords of the said Committee pursuant to this Provision, such Company shall forfeit to Her Majesty the Sum of Twenty Pounds per Day for every Day during which such Refusal or Neglect shall continue ; and every such Penalty may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, or in the Court of Session or in any of the Sheriffs Courts in Scotland.

Powers of making Branch Communication with Railways, and of entering upon them with locomotive Engines, to be regulated by the Board of Trade.

XII. ' And whereas Powers of laying down Branch Lines opening into the Ledges or Flanches of Main Lines of Railway, and of entering upon and passing along such Main Lines with Carriages and Waggon drawn by locomotive Engines, or by other mechanical or animal Power, and also Powers to form Roads or Railways across existing Railways on a Level, have been given by various Acts relative to Railways to the Owners or Occupiers of Lands adjoining the Railway, and to other Persons, with their Consent: And whereas Experience has shown that the Exercise of such Powers without Limitation would in many Cases be attended with Danger to the Public using such Railway; be it therefore enacted, That if, in the Case of any Railway on which Passengers are conveyed by Steam or other mechanical Power, it shall appear to the Lords of the said Committee that such Power as aforesaid cannot be so exercised without seriously endangering the public Safety, and that an Arrangement may be made with a due Regard to existing Rights of Property, it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee to order and direct that such Powers shall only be exercised subject to such Conditions as the Lords of the said Committee shall direct: Provided always, that no Railway shall be considered a Passenger Railway if Two Thirds or more of the gross annual Revenue of such Railway shall be derived from the Carriage thereon of Coals, Ironstone, or other Metals or Minerals.

Defining a Passenger Railway.

Alteration of dangerous level Crossings.

XIII. ' And whereas in many Cases Railways have been made to cross Turnpike Roads, Highways, and private Roads and Tramways on the Level, and the Companies to whom such Railways belong would in some Cases be willing, at their own Expence, to carry such Roads and Tramways over or under such Railways by means of a Bridge or Archway for the greater Safety of the Public, but have no Authority so to do: And whereas it would promote the public Safety if Railway Companies were enabled, under the Sanction and Authority of the Lords of the said Committee, to substitute Bridges or Archways for such level Crossings as aforesaid; be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Railway Company shall be willing, at their own Expence, to carry any Turnpike Road, Highway, or private Road or Tramway over or under their Railway by means of a Bridge or Arch in lieu of crossing the same on the Level, it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee, on the Application of the said Company, and after hearing the several Parties interested, if it shall appear to the Lords of the said Committee that such level Crossing endangers the public Safety, and that the Proposal of the Company does not involve any Violation of existing Rights or Interests without adequate Compensation, to give the said Company full Power and Authority for removing the Danger at their own Expence, either by building a Bridge, or by such other Arrangement as the Nature of the Case shall require, subject to such Conditions as the Lords of the said Committee shall direct.

Power for Railway Companies

XIV. ' And whereas it is essential for the public Safety, and also for the proper Maintenance of Railways in a State of Efficiency

‘ciency for the public Service, that Railway Companies should to enter upon ‘have the Power, in case of Accidents or Slips happening or being adjoining ‘apprehended to their Cuttings and Embankments or other Works, Lands to repair ‘to enter upon the Lands adjoining their respective Railways, for Accidents.
 ‘the Purpose of repairing or renewing the same, and to do such ‘Works as may be necessary for the Purpose;’ be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee to empower any Railway Company, in case of any Accident or Slip happening or being apprehended to any Cutting, Embankment, or other Work belonging to them, to enter upon any Lands adjoining their Railway for the Purpose of repairing or preventing such Accident, and to do such Works as may be necessary for the Purpose: Provided always, that in case of Necessity it shall be lawful for any Railway Company to enter upon such Lands and do such Works as aforesaid, without having obtained the previous Sanction of the Lords of the said Committee; but in every such Case such Railway Company shall, within Forty-eight Hours after such Entry, make a Report to the Lords of the said Committee, specifying the Nature of such Accident or apprehended Accident, and of the Works necessary to be done, and such Powers shall cease and determine if the Lords of the said Committee shall, after considering the said Report, certify that their Exercise is not necessary for the public Safety: Provided also, that such Works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining Lands as the Nature of the Accident or apprehended Accident will admit of, and shall be executed with all possible Despatch; and full Compensation shall be made to the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands for the Loss or Injury or Inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such Works, the Amount of which Compensation, in case of any Dispute about the same, shall be settled in the same Manner as Cases of disputed Compensation are directed to be settled by the Acts relating to the Railway on which such Works may become necessary: Provided always, that no Land shall be taken permanently by any Railway Company for such Works without a Certificate from the Lords of the said Committee as herein-after described.

XV. ‘And whereas by various Acts relating to Railways com- Compulsory ‘pulsory Powers are given to Railway Companies of purchasing Powers of ‘and taking Lands for the Construction of such Railways, and it taking Land ‘is provided that such compulsory Powers shall not be exercised for the Pur-‘after the Expiration of certain limited Periods from the passing poses of Rail-‘of the said Acts: And whereas it is sometimes found necessary ways extended, ‘for the public Safety that additional Land should be taken where thought ‘after the Expiration of such Periods for the Purpose of giving necessary for ‘increased Width to the Embankments and Inclination to the Safety by the ‘Slopes of Railways, or for making Approaches to Bridges or Board of Trade.
 ‘Archways, or for doing such Works for the Repair or Prevention ‘of Accidents as are herein-before described;’ be it therefore enacted, That, in every Case in which the Lords of the said Committee shall certify that the public Safety requires additional Land to be taken by any Railway Company for such Purposes as aforesaid, the compulsory Powers of purchasing and taking Land contained in the Act or Acts of such Railway Company, together with all the Clauses and Provisions relative thereto, shall, as regards

such Portion or Portions of Land as are mentioned in the Certificate of the Lords of the said Committee, revive and be in full Force for such further Period as shall be mentioned in such Certificate: Provided always, that any Railway Company applying to the Lords of the said Committee for any such Certificate shall give Fourteen Days Notice in Writing, in the Manner prescribed by the Act or Acts of such Company for serving Notices on Land Owners, of their Intention to make such Application, to all the Parties interested in such Lands, or such of them as shall be known to the Company, and shall state in such Notice the Particulars of the Lands required; and if any of such Parties interested shall apply within the said Period of Fourteen Days to the Lords of the said Committee, such Party shall be heard by them before any such Certificate is given: Provided also, that where any such Application shall have been made by any Railway Company to the Lords of the said Committee, upon which Application any such Certificate shall have been refused, the Directors of such Railway Company shall, if required by the Lords of the said Committee repay to the Party resisting such Application any Expences which he or they may have incurred in resisting such Application.

Carriages of greater Weight than Four Tons may be used on Railways.

XVI. ' And whereas by various Acts relating to Railways it is enacted, that no Carriage or Waggon shall carry or bear at any One Time upon the Railway (including the Weight of such Carriage) more than Four Tons, and Experience has shown that it is in many Cases more conducive to Safety to use a heavier Description of Carriage or Waggon upon Railways than was originally contemplated; be it therefore enacted, That every Provision contained in any such Act or Acts respectively limiting the Weight to be carried or borne at any One Time in any Carriage or Waggon upon any Railway (including the Weight of such Carriage or Waggon) to Four Tons shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and that, notwithstanding any thing in any Act contained, it shall be lawful for any Railway Company to use and to permit to be used upon any Railway Carriages or Waggons carrying or bearing (including the Weight of such Carriage) a greater Weight than Four Tons, subject to such Regulations as may from Time to Time be made and be in force pursuant to any Act or Acts of Parliament already or hereafter to be passed in that Behalf.

Punishment of Persons employed on Railways guilty of Misconduct.

XVII. ' And whereas by the said recited Act for regulating Railways Provision is made for the Punishment of Servants of Railway Companies guilty of Misconduct, and it is expedient to extend such Provision; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer or Agent of any Railway Company, or for any Special Constable duly appointed, and all such Persons as they may call to their Assistance, to seize and detain any Engine Driver, Waggon Driver, Guard, Porter, Servant, or other Person employed by the said or by any other Railway Company, or by any other Company or Person, in conducting Traffic upon the Railway belonging to the said Company, or in repairing and maintaining the Works of the said Railway, who shall be found drunk while so employed upon the said Railway, who shall commit any Offence against any of the Bye Laws, Rules, or Regulations of the said Company, or who shall wilfully, maliciously, or negligently do or omit to do any Act whereby the Life or Limb of any Person passing along or being upon such Railway or the Works thereof respectively shall be or might be injured or endangered, or whereby the Passage of any Engines, Carriages, or Trains shall be or might be obstructed or impeded, and to convey such Engine Driver, Guard, Porter, Servant, or other Person so offending, or any Person counselling, aiding, or assisting in such Offence, with all convenient Despatch before some Justice of the Peace for the Place within which such Offence shall be committed, without any other Warrant or Authority than this Act; and every such Person so offending, and every Person counselling, aiding, or assisting therein, as aforesaid, shall, when convicted upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses before such Justice as aforesaid (who is hereby authorized and required, upon Complaint to him made upon Oath, without Information in Writing, to take cognizance thereof, and to act summarily in the Premises), in the Discretion of such Justice, be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, or in the like Discretion of such Justice, shall for every such Offence forfeit to Her Majesty any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of Payment thereof shall be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, as aforesaid, for such Period, not exceeding Two Calendar Months, as such Justice shall appoint, such Commitment to be determined on Payment of the Amount of the Penalty; and every such Penalty shall be returned to the next ensuing Court of Quarter Sessions in the usual Manner.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which by the present or the said recited Act for regulating Railways it is provided that Offenders shall be taken before One or more Justices of the Peace for the Place within which the Offence was committed it shall be lawful, in case the Offence is committed in Scotland, to take such Offenders before the Sheriff of the County, or other Magistrate acting for the District within which such Offence shall be committed, or where such Offender shall be apprehended, without any Warrant or Authority other than this Act; and such Sheriff or Magistrate is hereby empowered and required, on the Application of the Railway Company, to proceed in all respects as if the Words "Sheriff or Magistrate" had been substituted for the Word "Justice" in the said Acts, and shall be entitled summarily, and without a Jury, to execute the Powers thereby and hereby committed to him.

Sheriffs to have Jurisdiction in Scotland.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all Notices, Returns, and other Documents required by this Act or by the said recited Act to be given to or laid before the Lords of the said Committee shall be delivered at or sent by the Post to the Office of the Lords of the said Committee; and all Notices, Requisitions, Orders, Regulations, Appointments, Certificates, certified Copies, and other Documents in Writing, signed by One of the Secretaries of the said Committee, or by some Officer appointed for that Purpose by the Lords of the said Committee, and purporting to be made by the Lords of the said Committee, shall, for the Purposes of this and of the said recited Act, be deemed to have been made by the Lords of the said Committee, and that in the Absence of Evidence to the contrary, without Proof of the Authority of the Person signing the same or of the Signature thereto; and Service of the same at One of the terminal Offices of any Railway Company on the Secretary or Clerk of the said Company, or by sending the same by Post addressed to him at such Office, shall be deemed good Service upon the said Company.

Railway Companies shall convey Military and Police Forces at Prices to be settled.

XX. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary to move any of the Officers or Soldiers of Her Majesty's Forces of the Line, Ordnance Corps, Marines, Militia, or the Police Force, by any Railway, the Directors thereof shall and are hereby required to permit such Forces respectively, with their Baggage, Stores, Arms, Ammunition, and other Necessaries and Things, to be conveyed at the usual Hours of starting, at such Prices or upon such Conditions as may from Time to Time be contracted for between the Secretary at War and such Railway Companies for the Conveyance of such Forces, on the Production of a Route or Order for their Conveyance signed by the proper Authorities.

Meaning of the Words "Railway" and "Company."

XXI. And be it enacted, That whenever the Word "Railway" is used in this or in the said recited Act it shall be construed to apply to all Railways used or intended to be used for the Conveyance of Passengers in or upon Carriages drawn or impelled by the Power of Steam or by any other mechanical Power; and whenever the Word "Company" is used in this or in the said recited Act it shall be construed to extend to and include the Proprietors for the Time being of any such Railway, whether a Body Corporate or Individuals, and their Lessees, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, unless in either of the above Cases the Subject or Context be repugnant to such Construction.

Application of Penalties.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all Penalties under this Act, for the Application of which no special Provision is made, shall be recovered in the Name and for the Use of Her Majesty, in the Manner provided by the said recited Act for regulating Railways.

Act may be repealed this Session.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

C A P. LVI.

An Act for further amending the Laws relating to the Customs. [30th July 1842.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 47. ' WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs, and by Class Five of the Table to the said Act annexed, certain Duties of Customs are imposed upon Timber and Woods not otherwise charged from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-two: And whereas, among other Articles enumerated in the said Class, certain Duties are imposed upon Wood of or from Foreign Countries, planed or otherwise dressed or prepared for Use, and not particularly enumerated nor otherwise charged with Duty: And whereas the said last-mentioned Duties are imposed in the Words following; (that is to say,) "Nine-pence per Foot of Cubic Contents, and further for every One hundred Pounds Value ‘ Value Ten Pounds; from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-two Seven-pence Half-penny per Foot of Cubic Contents, and further for every One hundred Pounds Value Ten Pounds:” And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Time when the said Duty of Seven-pence Halfpenny per Foot of Cubic Contents, and further for every One hundred Pounds Value Ten Pounds, is to commence, and it is therefore expedient to declare and explain the Meaning of the said Act in that respect; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Duty of Seven-pence Halfpenny per Foot of Cubic Contents, and further of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds Value, shall commence and be payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and not from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-two; and that the said Duty of Nine-pence per Foot of Cubic Contents, and further of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds Value, shall be payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-two only until and on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

II. ‘ And whereas by the said Act, and by Class Six of the Table thereto annexed, certain Duties are respectively imposed upon Ore of Copper of respective Qualities therein specified, and which in the said Table are described in the Phrases herein-after set forth; (that is to say,) Ore of Copper containing not more than Fifteen Parts of Copper, Ore of Copper containing not more than Twenty Parts of Copper, and Ore of Copper containing more than Twenty Parts of Copper: And whereas Doubts are entertained as to the Proportions between the Copper and the Ore which are intended to be designated by the Phrases above set forth, and it is expedient to declare and explain the Meaning of the said Act and Table in that respect; be it therefore enacted, That the said Act and Table shall be construed, and the said Duties on Ore of Copper of the several Qualities so described as aforesaid shall be chargeable and leviable, as if the Words following, (namely,) “in the Hundred Parts of Ore,” were inserted immediately after the Words “Parts of Copper” in each of the several Phrases herein-before set forth.

5 & 6 Vic. c. 47. Class VI.

Removal of Doubts as to Duties on Copper Ore.

III. ‘ And whereas by the said Act certain Manufactures of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man are, for the Purposes of Duty, to be deemed and taken to be the Produce of and imported from a Foreign Country; be it enacted, That the said last-mentioned Provision shall not be taken to extend to any Manufactures of the said Islands the Materials whereof are not of Foreign Origin or Produce, but of the Growth or Produce of the said Islands, although such Materials may be liable to Duty upon the Importation thereof into the United Kingdom.

Manufactures of Guernsey, &c. from Home Produce not to be deemed Foreign.

IV. ‘ And whereas by the said Act, and by Class 19 in the Table (A.) thereto annexed, the following Duties are imposed upon Pearls not to be exempted from Duties, as in Class 19.

‘ And whereas, in consequence of the final Mark of the Parenthesis ‘ as above set forth having been erroneously inserted after the ‘ Word Pearls, instead of after the Word Diamonds, Pearls may

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Commission or Commissions or Instructions as aforesaid, to convene a General Assembly, to be elected by the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the said Colony, in such and the same Manner as if this Act and the said recited Acts had not been passed, and to authorize the Governor for the Time being of the said Colony, with the Advice and Consent of the said General Assembly, and of a Legislative Council, to be by Her Majesty for that Purpose appointed, to make Laws for the Peace, Order, and good Government of the said Colony, or it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, in manner aforesaid, to constitute a General Assembly, for the Purposes aforesaid, consisting of a single House of General Assembly alone, which one House of General Assembly shall be composed, in such Proportions as to Her Majesty may seem meet, of Members to be nominated by Her Majesty, and of other Members to be elected by such Freeholders or other Inhabitants; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Commission or Commissions or Instructions as aforesaid, to establish such Rules and Orders as to Her Majesty shall seem meet for the Nomination or Election of the Members of the said General Assembly, as the Case may be, and to determine how and where such Election shall be holden, and for that Purpose to divide or to provide for the Division of the said Colony into Electoral Districts, and to determine what shall be the Qualification of the Persons so to be elected, and of the Voters at any such Elections, and to regulate all other Things for which it may be expedient to provide, in order to the Meeting of any such General Assembly; and it shall also be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Commission or Instructions

VII. ' And whereas by the herein-before recited Acts the Colonization Commissioners for South Australia were authorized and empowered, for defraying the necessary Costs, Charges, and Expences of founding the said intended Colony, and for providing for the Expences of the said Commissioners, and for defraying all Costs, Charges, and Expences incurred in carrying the said Acts into execution, and in applying for and obtaining the same, from Time to Time to borrow and take up at Interest, not exceeding Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole Two hundred thousand Pounds, by granting or issuing, to any Person or Persons willing to advance such Monies, Bonds or obligatory Writings, under their Hands and Seals, to be termed "South Australia Colonial Revenue Securities," or by selling or granting Perpetual Annuities, or Annuities for any Life or Lives, or for any Term or Terms of Years, on such Terms as to the said Commissioners should appear to be reasonable; and it was further provided and declared, that all such Sum or Sums of Money so borrowed or taken up, and all such Annuities to be granted as aforesaid, should be a Charge upon the ordinary Revenue or Produce of all Rates, Duties, and Taxes to be levied and collected within the said Province, and should be deemed and taken to be a public Debt owing by the said Province; and it was also provided, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners at any Time to borrow or take up any Sum or Sums of Money for the said Purposes at a lower Rate of Interest than any Security or Securities previously given by them might bear, and therewith to pay off and discharge such previously existing Security or Securities bearing a higher Rate of Interest, and likewise to repurchase and redeem the said Annuities so often as it should appear that the Charge created thereby could be reduced: And whereas, in pursuance of the said Powers, the said Commissioners did from Time to Time borrow and take up several Sums of Money, at the said yearly Rate of Interest of Ten Pounds by the Hundred, and did grant certain Annuities, with Power to redeem the same, by Payment at the Rate of One hundred Pounds for every Six Pounds of such Annuities, and did give or grant certain Bonds or Writings obligatory for the Sums so borrowed or taken up, or for securing the said Annuities, which said Bonds are still outstanding and unpaid: And whereas the Holders of the said Bonds or Writings obligatory have signified in Writing their Consent to receive, instead of the said Rates of Interest or Annuity, one uniform yearly Rate of Three Pounds Ten Shillings by the Hundred upon the Principal Sums secured by the said Bonds, or payable in redemption of the said Annuities, provided the regular Payment of the said reduced Rate of Interest or Annuity be duly assured to them; and it is expedient that such Assurance should be given, and that Provision should be made for the due

1 & 2 Vict. c. 60.
s. 2.

‘ and regular Payment of the said reduced Interest or Annuities;’ be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Holders of the said Bonds or Writings obligatory shall be entitled to receive Interest or Annuities on the several Sums so secured or covenanted to be paid as aforesaid, and which said Sums amount in all to Eighty-five thousand eight hundred Pounds, at one uniform yearly Rate of Three Pounds Ten Shillings by the Hundred only.

Interest may be charged on Consolidated Fund of the
 dom.

VIII. And for the better and more perfect Assurance of the due Payment of the said Interest or Annuities, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, if he or they shall be satisfied that the general Revenue of the said Province of South Australia is insufficient (after defraying the necessary Costs and Charges of the Civil Government, and of the due Administration of Justice, and the Maintenance of Peace, Order, and good Government therein,) for the Payment of the Interest or Annuities upon the said Sums secured or covenanted to be paid by the said Bonds or Writings obligatory, or any Part thereof, to authorize and direct the Issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of the growing Produce of the said Fund, to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, of such Sum or Sums as shall be required for paying such Interest or Annuities as above mentioned, at the several respective Rates at which the same are now payable, as shall have accrued or become due previously to the passing of this Act, and shall not have been paid, or that may hereafter accrue and become due at the reduced Rate before mentioned, or for paying any Part thereof: Provided always, that the several Principal Sums secured by the said Bonds or Writings obligatory shall remain and be a Charge on the Revenues of the said Colony, and nothing herein contained shall be taken to relieve the said Revenues from the said Charge, or from the Charge of the Interest or Annuities due or that may hereafter become due in respect thereof, or of any Portion or Portions of such Interest or Annuities as shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom in the Manner before mentioned, or from repaying to the said Consolidated Fund, under such Regulations as may be from Time to Time made in that respect by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, such Sums as may have been from Time to Time paid out of the said Consolidated Fund on account thereof.

The Sum of 155,000*l.* advanced under 4 & 5 Vict. c. 13.
 to be taken to have been granted in aid of the Revenues of South Australia.
 4 & 5 Vict. c. 13.

IX. ‘ And whereas from the Insufficiency or Failure of the ‘ Means provided by the said before-recited Acts for defraying ‘ the Costs, Charges, and Expences of founding the said Colony, ‘ and of providing for the Government thereof, and for the other ‘ Expences, Costs, and Charges mentioned in the said first-recited ‘ Act, it became necessary that further Aid should be granted for ‘ that Purpose; and by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of Her ‘ Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to authorize the Advance of a ‘ Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund on account of the ‘ Colony of South Australia, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's ‘ Treasury

‘ Treasury were empowered to advance and lend to the Colonization Commissioners for South Australia for the Time being, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding One hundred and fifty-five thousand Pounds in the whole, at such Rate of Interest as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury should direct, the same to be applied for the Payment of Bills drawn and Expences incurred on account of the Colony of South Australia; and it was further enacted, that the Repayment of all Advances so made, with the Interest accruing thereon, should be secured in such Manner as might be provided by any Act passed for that Purpose in the then Session of Parliament: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act certain Advances have been made for the Purposes therein mentioned, but it is not expedient that any further Claim should be made upon the said Colonization Commissioners, or upon the Revenues of the said Province, in respect of such Advances, or of any Interest thereon;’ be it therefore enacted, That the said Sum of One hundred and fifty-five thousand Pounds shall be taken to have been granted in aid of the Revenues of South Australia, and that all further Claim for the Repayment thereof, or for Interest thereon, shall be abandoned.

X. ‘ And whereas certain other Debts and Engagements have been incurred and contracted in respect of the said Colony, under the Powers of the said recited Acts, and it is necessary to make Provision for the Liquidation thereof, and for Payment of Interest thereon in the meantime;’ be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor of the Colony of South Australia, by and with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or of any Three, or more of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury, to make out and issue, in satisfaction of the said Debts, or of any Claims arising from or in respect thereof, Debentures, to be charged upon and payable from the Revenues of the said Colony, and to bear Interest in the meantime at a yearly Rate not exceeding Five Pounds by the Hundred, to be in like Manner payable from the said Revenues: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken to relieve from Responsibility any Party or Parties who may have become or shall hereafter become accountable for the Application of any Portion or Portions of the said Sums so raised, or of any other Sums raised under the said recited Acts, or of any of them, or in respect of any of the said Debts or Engagements remaining to be liquidated.

Debentures on the Revenues of the Colony may be issued

XI. And be it enacted, That in the event of any such General Assembly being so convened as aforesaid it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Commission or Commissions or Instructions as aforesaid, to reserve and set apart from Her Majesty’s Revenue arising within the said Colony such an annual Sum of Money, by way of Civil List, as may be necessary for the Maintenance and Support of the Civil Government and the Administration of Justice within the said Colony, provided that the same shall in no Case exceed the annual Sum or Sums that shall have been previously assigned for the said Purposes by the Legislative Council aforesaid, by and with the Approbation and Consent of Her Majesty, and likewise such further annual Sum or Sums of Money as shall

XII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall come into force and take effect within the said Colony from a Day to be for that Purpose appointed by the Governor of the said Colony, by a Proclamation to be by him for that Purpose issued, which Time shall not be more than One Calendar Month after the Receipt by such Governor of a Copy of this Act.

XIV. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. LXII.

11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. cxviii.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the ‘ Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable the Commissioners of Wide Streets to widen and improve certain Ways, Streets, and Passages, in and about the City and County of Dublin; and to amend and extend the Provisions of Two Acts passed in the Forty-seventh and Fifty-seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, for improving and rendering more commodious such Parts of the County and County of the City of Dublin as are situate on the South Side of the River Anna Liffey and West of His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, and by certain other Acts therein recited, certain Commissioners therein named were authorized and empowered to improve and render more commodious certain Parts of the County and City of Dublin, and for that Purpose to purchase certain Lands, Buildings, and Hereditaments, and (amongst other Improvements) to complete the Opening of the Quay on the North Side of the River Anna Liffey, between West Liffey Street and George the Fourth's Bridge in front of the Royal Barracks: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Commissioners of Wide Streets to sell, and Her Majesty to purchase, certain Hereditaments in the City of Dublin, on the North Bank of the River Anna Liffey, reciting (among other things) that, in pursuance of the Powers in the said last-recited Act contained, the said Commissioners of Wide Streets, out of the Funds appropriated or available for the Purposes of the said Act, did purchase the Inheritance in Fee Simple of a Plot of Ground extending from West Liffey Street, along the North ‘ Bank

4 & 5 Vict. c. 16.

' Bank of the River Anna Liffey, and lying between the said ' River and the Royal Barracks, to King George the Fourth's
 ' Bridge, on which were formerly standing certain Houses and ' Buildings forming the Streets called Park Gate Street, Barrack
 ' Street, Windmill Court, West Liffey Street, and Flood Street
 ' respectively; and reciting, that all the said Houses and Build' ings, with the Exception of Eleven Dwelling Houses, which ' were specified in the Second Division of the Schedule to the ' Act now in recital annexed, had been taken down and entirely ' removed, and the Space on which the same formerly stood was ' then vacant; and reciting, that the said Eleven Dwelling Houses
 ' with the Appurtenances were subject to the Residue of a Term
 ' of Years, of which Twenty-seven Years or thereabouts were then ' unexpired, and the Interest of the Parties entitled thereto under ' the said Lease had not been purchased or taken by the said ' Commissioners of Wide Streets; and reciting, that as the Com' missioners of Wide Streets were, under the Powers vested in ' them, directed to apply all Ground to be purchased by them for ' effecting the Improvements they were authorized to make as and ' for Building Ground and other specific Purposes, it was expedi' ent, with a view to the Improvement of the Property of the ' Crown in the Vicinity of the Ground so purchased as aforesaid
 ' by the Commissioners of Wide Streets, and to the general Im' provement of the said City of Dublin, that the said Ground
 ' should be purchased, and form Part of the Land Revenues of ' the Crown; it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Com' missioners of Wide Streets, mentioned in the said Act passed in ' the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George
 ' the Fourth, to sell unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors,
 ' and for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests,
 ' Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, with the Consent of the ' Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's
 ' Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, to purchase
 ' on the Behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, (at a ' Price to be fixed by a Valuation to be made in manner therein-
 ' after directed,) the Fee Simple and Inheritance of all that Piece ' of Ground therein-before mentioned, and more particularly ' described in the First Division of the Schedule to the Act now
 ' in recital annexed, and the Eleven Dwelling Houses with the ' Appurtenances, described in the Second Division of the said
 ' Schedule, subject nevertheless, as to the said Eleven Dwelling
 ' Houses with the Appurtenances, and the Site on which the same
 ' stood, to such Term of Years or other Interest as was then out' standing therein; and it was enacted, that the said Heredita-
 ' ments, when purchased, should be conveyed to Her Majesty,
 ' Her Heirs and Successors, as Part of the Possessions and Land
 ' Revenues of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in right of ' the Crown; and it was enacted, that for enabling the Commis' sioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works,
 ' and Buildings to effect such Purchase as aforesaid, and to defray
 ' all Expences relating thereto, and also for the purchasing the ' Leasehold Interests of any Parties for the Time being entitled ' to the said Eleven Houses and Buildings as aforesaid, it should ' be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treas-

' sury

' sury to raise any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Forty-three ' thousand Pounds, by Sale of a competent Part of the Sum of ' Eighty-three thousand eight hundred and fifty-one Pounds Nine
 ' Shillings and Four-pence Bank Three and a Half per Centum
 ' Annuities in Ireland, then standing in the Names of the Com' missioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and which was purchased ' with Monies which arose from the Sale of certain of the Crown
 ' Land Revenues in Ireland: And whereas by another Act passed
 ' in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of Her present 4&5 Vict. c. lxiv. ' Majesty, intituled An Act for further extending the Powers of ' several Acts for enabling the Commissioners of Wide Streets,
 ' Dublin, to widen and improve certain Ways, Streets, and Pas-
 ' sages in the City and County of Dublin, and for raising Funds
 ' to enable the said Commissioners to carry the same into execution,
 ' after reciting that an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ire- ' land in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the 31 G. 2. (I.) ' Second, intituled An Act for making a wide and convenient Way,
 ' Street, and Passage from Essex Bridge to the Castle of Dublin,
 ' and for other Purposes therein mentioned, and that several subse' quent Acts were passed as well in the Parliament of Ireland as ' in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, whereby certain ' Powers were from Time to Time given to the Commissioners of ' Wide Streets for the Purpose of widening and improving certain ' Streets, Ways, and Passages in the County and County of the ' City of Dublin, the last of which Acts was passed in the First 7 W. 4. & 1 Vict. ' Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, and was intituled An
 c. cxxvii. ' Act to extend, alter, and enlarge the Powers of several Acts for ' enabling the Commissioners of Wide Streets in Dublin to widen
 ' and improve certain Ways, Streets, and Passages in the said City ' and County of Dublin, and for raising further Funds to enable ' the said Commissioners to carry the same into execution; and ' reciting, that several of the Improvements and Alterations speci' fied and set forth in the said Act of the First Year of the Reign ' of Her present Majesty were in progress and others yet remained ' to be perfected, but it had been found impossible to complete
 ' the same within the Time for that Purpose limited by the said
 ' last-mentioned Act; it was enacted, that the said Act of the ' First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, and the Acts
 ' therein recited or referred to, and all and every the Powers, ' Provisions, Matters, and Things in the said Acts contained, (save
 ' and except such Parts thereof as might be varied, altered, or ' repealed by the Act now in recital, and subject to the Provisions ' therein-after contained,) should be as effectual for carrying the ' Act now in recital into execution as if the same had been re-' enacted in the Body of the Act now in recital, and should (save ' as aforesaid) extend, among other Purposes, to the Purpose
 ' following; (that is to say,) to complete the opening of the ' Quay on the North Side of the River Liffey, between West
 ' Liffey Street and King George the Fourth's Bridge, in front of ' the Royal Barracks; and it was enacted, that the Powers of ' the Commissioners for the compulsory Purchase or taking of ' Messuages, Houses, Buildings, or Lands for the Purposes of the ' Act now in recital should not be exercised after the Expiration ' of Four Years from the passing thereof: And whereas, in pur' suance

‘ suance of the Powers of the said recited Act of the Fourth ‘ Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, the said Commis‘ sioners of Wide Streets contracted to sell, and the Commissioners ‘ of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and ‘ Buildings, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Ma-‘ jesty’s Treasury, contracted to purchase, on behalf of Her ‘ Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, at a Price to be fixed by a ‘ Valuation to be made in manner by the said Act directed, the ‘ Fee Simple and Inheritance of all that the said Plot of Ground ‘ extending from the West Side of Liffey Street, along the North ‘ Bank of the River Anna Liffey, and lying between the said River ‘ and the Royal Barracks, to King George the Fourth’s Bridge, ‘ more particularly described in the First Division of the Sched‘ ule to the said Act annexed, and the Eleven Dwelling Houses, ‘ with the Appurtenances, described in the Second Division of the ‘ said Schedule, subject nevertheless, as to the said Eleven Dwell‘ ing Houses, with the Appurtenances, and the Site on which the ‘ same now stand, to such Term of Years or other Interest as was ‘ then outstanding therein : And whereas the Price to be paid for ‘ the said Plot of Ground and Premises so contracted to be sold ‘ and purchased (subject, as to the said Eleven Dwelling Houses, ‘ to such Term of Years or other Interest therein as aforesaid,) has ‘ been fixed, by a Valuation made in the Manner by the said Act ‘ directed, at the Sum of Sixteen thousand six hundred and thirty-‘ one Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Five-pence ; but in making ‘ such Valuation it has been considered that, to give Value to the ‘ said Ground, a Quay Wall must be constructed along the North ‘ Bank of the River Anna Liffey, and a Roadway formed on the ‘ South Side of the said Plot of Ground, at the Expence of the Pur‘ chasers thereof, and a Sum of Two thousand two hundred and ‘ seventy-nine Pounds and Ten Shillings has been allowed or de‘ ducted from the Price of the said Premises as the estimated Cost ‘ of constructing the said Quay Wall and Roadway : And whereas ‘ the Interests of the Parties entitled to the said Eleven Dwelling ‘ Houses, with the Appurtenances, for the Residue of the Terms ‘ unexpired therein, have not yet been purchased or contracted to ‘ be purchased ; but it is estimated that the Sums necessary to be ‘ reserved for the Purchase of such Interests, and also for the ‘ Construction of the Quay Wall and Roadway herein-before ‘ mentioned, after Payment of the said Sum of Sixteen thousand ‘ six hundred and thirty-one Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Three‘ pence, the ascertained Price of the Fee Simple and Inheritance ‘ of the said Plot of Ground and Premises so contracted to be ‘ purchased, subject to such Interests as aforesaid, will not wholly ‘ exhaust the before mentioned Sum of Forty-three thousand ‘ Pounds, which by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of ‘ Her Majesty’s Reign the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treas‘ ury were authorized to raise for the Purpose of effecting such ‘ Purchases as aforesaid ; and it is expedient that the Surplus of ‘ the said Sum of Forty-three thousand Pounds should be appro‘ priated to Improvements upon or in the Vicinity of the said ‘ Plot of Ground, as herein-after mentioned :’ May it therefore ‘ please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted ‘ by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice ‘ and Commissioners of the Treasury empowered to raise 43,000*l.* by Sale of Bank Annuities in Ireland, and to pay same to the Commissioners of Woods, &c.

Application of such Money.

Powers of Wide Street Commissioners vested in the Commissioners of Woods, so far as regards and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Sale of a competent Part of the Bank Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities in Ireland standing in the Names of the said Commissioners, and which Annuities were purchased with Monies which arose from the Sale of certain of the Crown Land Revenues in Ireland, to raise and pay to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings such Sum or Sums of Money as, with the Monies already raised and paid to the said last-named Commissioners under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, will make up in the whole the full Sum of Forty-three thousand Pounds authorized to be raised by the said recited Act.

II. [30th July 1842.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 91.      5 Vict. c. 7.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Frauds and Abuses committed by Weavers, Sewers, and other Persons employed in the Linen, Hempen, Union, Cotton, Silk, and Woollen Manufactures in Ireland, and for the better Payment of their Wages, for One Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-two such Laws as may expire within a limited Period, the said Act was continued for a certain Time, therein limited: And whereas it is expedient to amend and further continue the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, and this Act, shall be and continue in force for One Year from the Twenty-seventh Day of July in this

this present Year, and thenceforth until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

II. ' And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act it was enacted, that if any Person should sell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwise unlawfully dispose of, or offer to sell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, any such Materials, Tools, or Apparatus as therein are mentioned, knowing them to have been purloined or embezzled, or received from Persons fraudulently disposing thereof, he should upon Conviction be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and it was also enacted, that on Proof on Oath of there being just Cause to suspect that any such Materials, Tools, or Apparatus as aforesaid had been fraudulently sold, pawned, purloined, or embezzled, by the Person to whom intrusted, or that such Materials, Tools, or Apparatus had been purchased or received, or sold, or pawned, pledged, or exchanged, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of, or offered for Sale, Pawn, Pledge, Exchange, or other Disposal, by any Person knowing the same to have been purloined or embezzled, or received from some Person fraudulently disposing thereof, such Proceedings might be taken as in the said Act are mentioned: And whereas by the said Act it was enacted, that any Person who should be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, agreeably to any of the previous Sections of the said Act, should, in addition to being deprived, without Compensation, of any stolen or embezzled Materials or Goods which should have been found in his Possession, forfeit the Sum therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the aforesaid Enactments should extend to Cloths made of such Materials as in the said Act is mentioned: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether all the Provisions of the said Enactments extend to Tools and other Apparatus, as well as to Materials, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts; be it therefore enacted, That the said Act shall extend and apply to Cloths made of Linen, Hempen, Cotton, Silk, or Woollen Yarns, or Cloths made of any One or of any Mixture of these Materials, and also to such Tools and Apparatus as in the said Act are mentioned, in such and the same Manner as if the Words " Cloths, Tools, and Apparatus " had been inserted and mentioned throughout the said several Enactments, together with and in addition to " Materials."

Certain Enactments in the said Act referring to the unlawful Disposal of Materials, &c. to extend and apply to Cloths, Tools, and Apparatus.

That if the Landlord or other Person making such Seizure shall give the Manufacturer or Agent a Notice in Writing of such Seizure having been made, and requiring him to have all such Cloths, Yarns, Materials, or Tools or Apparatus removed off the Premises, and he shall refuse or neglect to have the same removed within Three Days (exclusive of Sunday) from the Time of Service of such Notice, then in such Case such Manufacturer or Agent shall be deprived of any Remedy he would otherwise be entitled to for the Recovery of the same under the said Act, from such Landlord or other Person.

 ' and entitled to and shall have the Benefit of the Provisions
 ' contained in that Act, so far as the same are applicable to the ' Objects of such Charitable Pawn or Deposit Offices: And
 ' whereas, in consequence of the Provisions touching the Quali-

 ' before recited Act, and notwithstanding such Persons may have ' caused their Manager, Clerk, Agent, or Servant to be licensed
 ' as required by the said Two first-recited Acts for carrying on

C A P. LXXVII.

An Act to enable Grand Juries at the ensuing Summer and Spring Assizes to make certain Presentments in Counties of Cities and Towns in Ireland; and to remove Doubts as to the Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in Places recently annexed to Counties at large in Ireland.

[5th August 1842.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland, it was enacted, that the Boundaries of the several Boroughs named in Schedule (A.) to that Act annexed should, for the Purposes of that Act, be taken to be according to the Description of such Boundaries set forth in Schedule (C.) to that Act annexed; and by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to annex certain Parts of certain Counties of Cities to adjoining Counties, to make further Provision for Compensation of Officers in Boroughs, to limit the Borough Rate, and to continue for a limited Time an Act to restrain the Alienation of Corporate Property in Ireland, it was enacted, that for the Purposes of the said first-recited and of that Act all Places locally situate or included within the Boundaries of any of the Boroughs of Cork, Dublin, Kilkenny, Limerick, Waterford, and Drogheda, as defined under the said first-recited Act, should, from and after the Time when ‘ the said Act secondly above mentioned should come into operation, ‘ be deemed and taken to be Part or Parts of the County of the ‘ City or County of the Town of such Borough respectively, and ‘ of no other County; and every Portion, Place, or Precinct of ‘ every County of a City or County of a Town, not under the said ‘ Acts included within any such Borough, should, until Provision ‘ in that Behalf should be otherwise made under and by virtue of ‘ the said last-mentioned Act, be One Barony in itself, and should, ‘ for all Purposes of Grand Jury Presentments, and of Criminal ‘ Jurisdiction, and also of Civil Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts ‘ of Common Law in Dublin, be Part of the County at large which ‘ was adjacent to it, or with which it had the largest common ‘ Boundary: And whereas the said Act secondly above recited ‘ came into operation in some of the said Boroughs after the Sum‘ mer Assizes of the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred ‘ and forty-one: And whereas under the said recited Acts certain ‘ Parts or Portions only of the old Liberties of some of the Cities ‘ and Towns therein mentioned, and certain Parts of Parishes and ‘ other Denominations, are included within the Boundaries of the ‘ Counties of such Cities or Towns or Boroughs as defined under ‘ the Provisions of the said Acts; and other Parts or Portions of ‘ the Liberties of the same Cities or Towns, and of such Parishes ‘ and other Denominations, not being within such Boundaries, have,

 ‘ for the Purposes of Grand Jury Presentments, among others, ‘ become Part of the adjoining Counties; and Difficulties have ‘ been found to exist in respect of the making Presentments, and ‘ of assessing and applotting the public Money, within the same ‘ respectively: And whereas Contracts have been entered into by ‘ the Grand Juries of the same Cities and Towns, or some of ‘ them, for keeping in repair Roads in the Liberties thereof, some ‘ Portions being within and other Portions being without the ‘ Boundaries of the said Boroughs as defined under the said Acts; ‘ and Doubts have arisen as to the Manner in which Monies to ‘ be presented by the Grand Juries of the Counties of the same ‘ Cities and Towns, and of the adjoining Counties respectively, in ‘ respect of such Contracts, should be apportioned: And whereas ‘ the respective Grand Juries assembled at the Assizes in the ‘ present Year, holden for certain of the said Counties of Cities or ‘ Counties of Towns, made divers Presentments for Monies justly ‘ chargeable, in the whole or part, on the whole of such Counties ‘ of Cities or Towns as existing previous to the coming into ‘ operation of the said Act, but the Warrants of the respective ‘ Treasurers of the Counties of such Cities or Towns under such ‘ Presentments would not extend to any Part of the Liberties or ‘ Suburbs of any of the said Cities or Towns annexed under the ‘ Provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, to an adjoining ‘ County, and it is expedient that Provision should be made to ‘ remedy such Difficulty; be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s ‘ most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of ‘ the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present ‘ Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all ‘ Presentments made at the Spring or Summer Assizes in this present ‘ Year in and for any County of a City or County of a Town in ‘ Ireland in respect to which the Act secondly before recited came into

Certain Presentments made or Summer

 Assizes in this

II. And be it enacted, That in case the Members of the said respective Grand Juries so assembled shall not agree respecting the Amount or Proportion of the said Sum or Sums which ought to be allowed, paid, or contributed in respect of such Place or Precinct, or concerning the Instalments by which, or otherwise concerning the Manner in which, the same ought to be allowed, paid, raised, levied, or apportioned, it shall be lawful for the said senior Judge of Assize who shall have presided as such at the Summer Assizes of the present Year to appoint, by Writing under his Hand, a Barrister, not having any Interest in the Question, to arbitrate between the Parties, and by his Award, under his Hand and Seal, to assess the Amount and Proportion, if any, of such

Year for Counties of Cities or Towns may be levied off such Cities or Towns as defined under the recited Acts.

For settling the Sums payable by Places detached from or added to such Cities or Towns.

If the Grand Jury fail to settle the Proportions, an Arbitrator may be appointed.

Sum or Sums which ought to be allowed, paid, or contributed in respect of such Place or Precinct, and to determine the Manner in which the said Sum or Sums ought to be apportioned between such Borough and such Precinct or Place respectively; and such Award shall be conclusive between the Parties; and such Arbitrator shall also assess the Costs of the Arbitration, and shall direct by whom, and in what Proportion, and out of what Fund, the same shall be paid; and the Sum or Sums awarded by such Barrister to be paid in respect of such Place or Precinct shall be raised and levied there-off by the Warrant of the Treasurer of the County to which such Place or Precinct shall have been annexed, and, when levied, paid over by him to the Treasurer of the County of the City of such Borough.

Existing Contracts to be presented for, according as they are to be executed in the County of a City or the County at large.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Contract has been entered into by the Grand Jury of any such County of a City or Town for making, widening, repairing, or keeping in repair the whole or any Part of any public Way or Ways of the former Liberties of such City or Town, the Grand Jury of the County of such City or Town shall from Time to Time present, to be raised off the County of such City or Town, and to be paid unto the Person or Persons who shall be entitled to receive the same respectively, such Portion of the Monies appointed by such Grand Jury to be paid to the Contractors in such Contracts named respectively as ought to be paid in that Behalf in respect of the Portion of the public Ways included within the Boundaries of the County of the City or Town as defined under the said recited Acts; and the Grand Jury of the adjoining County shall from Time to Time present, to be raised in like Manner as Grand Jury Cess off the Portion of the said Liberties not included within the Boundaries of the County of the City of the said Borough, such Portion of the Monies appointed to be paid to such Contractors as ought to be paid in that Behalf in respect of the Portion of such public Ways not included within the Boundaries of such County of a City or Town as defined under the said recited Acts; and where no Part of the Streets, Ways, Passages, or Roads in respect of which such Contracts shall have been entered into shall be included within the Boundaries of the County of the City of the said Borough, then the whole of the Sums payable thereunder shall be presented by the Grand Jury of the adjoining County, to be raised in like Manner as Grand Jury Cess off the Portion of the said Liberties not being within the County of the City of the said Borough; and in case of any Breach in the Performance of any such Contracts, it shall and may be lawful to sue upon such Contract, or proceed upon any Recognizance conditioned for the Performance thereof, or to make void such Contract, as effectually as might or could have been done if the said Act for annexing certain Parts of certain Counties of Cities to adjoining Counties had not been passed.
