City For Conference

London, July 13.— (Canadian Press)—Premier Meighen, who hanxious to return to Canada at once, is pressing for a decision as soon as possible between Washington and London as the scene for the proposed conference on Pacific problems. He is strongly inclined to favor Washington, particularly as the capital of the United States would be more suitable to his own convenience, but he recognizes there are strong arguments on the side of London.

"Resolved, that we, as loyal subjects of His Majesty King George V., do hereby assert that the Self-Determination League for Ireland should find no place in this Dominion of Canada, and we call upon all British loyalists from the Atlantic to the Pacific to protest strongly against the seditious and treasonable utterances of this League, fostered by the Pope of Rome and his satellites."

The resolution was seconded by the Worshipful Brother A. Anderson and was carried amid great enthusiasm.

Other Metions.

A number of other resolutions followed, all of methods and processing the company of the commission for Reduction of Armaments appointed by the League of Nations will probably hold only a brief session in that commission, is understood to favor an immediate adjurtment, although such action would be upon the initiative of the Council of the League. Great Britain had only determined on the trial of Commander Patsig, in charge of the submarine which torpedoed the hospital ship and who fied the country, but the prosecutor after examining the evidence ordered the trial of Dittmar and Boldt. Thirteen British and fifty-two German witnesses, including Admiral von Trotha, forber chief of the German Admiralty, will appear. The British commission which is watching the trial, is headed by Sir Ernest Pollock. A larger crowd than any who had attended the war crimes trials was present to-day. In Uniform.

Lieut, Dittmar appeared in uniform, while Lieut, Boldt was dressed in civilian clothes. Both of them were members of the Red Cross. Asked what was his answer to the charge. Dittmar sullenly refused to make reply, finally saying he had pledged his word to Commander Patsig never to speak about the charges. Boldt pleaded not guilty, adding that he was obliged to obey the commander, whose word was law, referring to the torpedoing of the vessel, but he was silent regarding the charge of firing on the lifeboats.

Second Officer Chapman, of the Landovery Castle, gave an impressive account of the sinking of the hospital ship and the subsequent conduct of the submarines. He said he was ordered, under threats of instant death, aboard the submarine, although he pleaded to save his comrades, who were left to drown.

The explosive was discovered by city detectives after Joseph Berger. Who is serving a sehtence in a Cleveland prison for safe blowing, admitted in a letter to his wife that he had concealed the material in the bank. "I will not be out of here for many years," the convict wrote, according to the police, and "I've been worrying every day for fear something might happen to explode that nitroglycerin. The nitroglycerin and the dynamite are in a lady's handbag. Somebody is liable to get careless, and if they do there's enough high explosives to wreck a whole city block. Thousands of innocent people would be killed.

The Chief Executive of the Fukon Territory, George P. from the agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Skagway, Alaska, which reads:

"The embargo on all liquors through the United States has again been imposed. Only shipments which arrive on the steamer arriving here July 13 will be allowed to go foyward. Future shipments of beverages containing more than one-half of one per cent. alcohol will not be accepted unless they are accompanied by a permit from the United States Prohibition Enforcement Board."

Unless this permission can be obtained, the Yukon will be cut off from its liquor supply, because all transportation routes into the Yukon cross United States territory.

In February, 1320, the Yukon Territory voted down the sale of liquor within its boundaries. Both the proposals for saloons and Government agencies were defeated. The Government agencies were defeated. The Government agencies were defeated. The Government agencies were then at the foot of the list, receiving about one-third of the total vote cast. The ticket was then split into three parts between saloons, Government agencies and "bone drys."

Paris, July 12.—An increase in the exportations of wines and liquors from France in the first quarter of this year as compared with the same period of 1913 is a surprising discovery.

In the meantime France has lost two of her biggest customers for wines and brandles, Russia and the United States.

Of the brandles and liquors Germany took about half. Argentina, Turkey and the United Kingdom followed in that order.

YOUTH STRUCK NELSON WOMAN

July 12 Was Observed in Police of That City Looking For Thug

> Nelson, July 12.— After dropping into the home of Mrs. Plorence Mc-Gee, a boarding house keeper, for a brief rest, after washing his hands in her bathroom and making two cigarettes from her tobacco, yesterday a youthful stranger, claiming to be from Trail, assalled his hostess with a fish-plate used in connecting rails, as she sat at her sewing machine, inflicting a circular gash on her head. The woman parried the second blow with her arm, and her assailant then ran out of the house at top speed toward the water front. The entire police force is searching for the young thug, who is described as about twenty, slim, five feet seven in helght, smooth shaven, with light hair and a Scottish accent. in her bathroom and making two

IN SASKATCHEWAN

Yorkton, Sask., July 12.—Confronting an audience of more than 1,000 farmers and other electors in the Mackenzie constituency of Saskatchewan, Hon. T. A. Crerar and Dr. Michael Clark, M. P., leaders in the new Progressive movement in Canadian politics, met with a good reception at Yorkton yesterday aftermon. Mr. Crerar's address consisted of a careful examination of the financial problems of the country arising out of the war expenditures, the railway mess," as the honorable gentleman called it, and the generally high cost of Governments, Federal, Provincial and municipal.

BRANCH LINES BUILT BY C. P. R.

Winnipeg, July 13.—The main por-Monday's vote does not necessarily alter the status quo, but it is understood that a majority of the members of the Territorial Legislature had previously agreed on a system of Government agencies and control if the plebiscite should not favor a "bone dry" law.

Yesterday's plebiscite was conducted by the Federal Government. The "drys" claim the people did not thoroughly understand the issue.

The recent British Columbia vote is believed to have influenced the Weyburn-Lethbridge line, it was stated yesterday by D. C. Coleman, Western vice-president of the company, on his recurrence of the western from an inspection trip. He hopes to see the conclusion of work on the Acme-Drumheller line by Fall; and by that time he expects to see completed eighteen miles more of the Weyburn-Lethbridge line, west of Altawan.

FOREST FIRES IN NEW BRUNSWICK

St. John, N. B., July 12.—Strong westerly winds springing up revived the forest fires at Westfield, on the St. John River, and last night they were again sweeping toward the Summer cottages at Hillandale.

Grand Bay is again covered with smoke and it is impossible to see more than fifty yards ahead. Fire fighters, who thought the danger had passed and had been relieved of their work, were again called out last night to give battle to the blaze in that district.

berni Burned, Loss. $75,000

Port Alberni, July-12.—The Gilroy-McKay Lumber Company's sawmill here was completely destroyed by fire which broke out shortly after 7 o'clock last night. The loss in the plant alone is estimated at $75,000 and, in addition about a million and a half feet of lumber was burned. Fanned by a fresh wind, the fire, the cause of which is unknown, spread rapidly through the mill, quickly consuming it. Fire fighters from Port Alberni and Alberni rushed to the scene but their attempts to check the flames were unavalling. They concentrated their efforts for the most part in preventing nearby residences from catching free.

The Canadian Voyageur was berthed at the mill loading 550,000 feet of lumber for points on the Atlantic Coast. Fortunately the cargo for the boat was in the water and was not injured. Several carload lots of lumber on the Esquimait and Nanaimo Railway track burned and a spark, bursting into flame, threatened to consume a house close by. It was possible, however, to extinguish the outbreak in the house.

The mill was erected in 1918 on the Port Alberni waterfront by R. L. Fraser, of Vancouver, and was purchased last November by W. A. Gilroy. Associated with him were T. G. McKay, of the Gwilt Lumber Company, Ltd., Courtenay. The mill had a capacity of 46,000 feet a day and was substantially constructed.

NOT BUYING THEIR COAL IN SUMMER

Freight Rates

July reight rates on coal have not stimilated the shipment of Alberta coal months, proving no inducement to the householders to get their Winter supply in early. The reduction has been received with no more enthusasm than a man would receive a

It is apparent, freight officials state, that people will not store their Winter's supply of coal in the Summer months. Attractive prices seem to offer little incentive, people everywhere being of the opinion that money in hand at this time is worth more than coal in the basement. Shipment of coal at the present time, they point out, would not only keep the mines working toward the limit of their capacity, but would also assist the railways and relieve much of the congestion that is bound to be the outcome of this lack of coal buying.

SPEAKS WITH CHARACTERISTIC VEIN

Centralia, July 13.—That there has been a gain in the last four years of $25,000,000 per annum in the tourist business, which he terms the greatest industry of the Pacific Northwest, was the statement of Herbert Cuthbert, secretary of the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association, in an address Monday before the Centralia Chamber of Commerce.

"Twenty-five million dollars is a lot of money," Mr. Cuthbert explained, but of money," Mr. Cuthbert explained,

"Twenty-five million dollars is a lot of money," Mr. Cuthbert explained, "especially when it is all profit, and there has never been a time in the history of the State of Washington when this money was so welcome as at the present time. Our directors, who are prominent and successful business men in the various communities throughout the Pacific Northwest, believe that the tourist industry has increased in revenue from seven and a half millions to thirty-five millions since the organization of the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association in 1917, and that this money has found its way into the pockets of almost every business directly or indirectly in every city throughout this region."

Mr. Cuthbert showed how this money is expended through hotels, restaurants, altomobile supply shops and garages and in the retail stores, getting directly into circulation in every community. He pointed out that the raw material of this industry, which is the scenery of the Pacific Northwest is inexhaustible.

"I say to you that if the revenues have been increased from $7,500,000 to $35,000,000 in four years, that by more intensive methods of development, it can be increased from $55,000,000 to $70,000,000 or to $140,000,000.

A SUNNY PROSPECT.

While the President of the United States is committed to a policy which will not permit the unorganized majority, and him to be on speaking terms until he is ready to accept the with the League of Nations he has taken the very course which constitutes the fundamental principle of the organization to which his predecessor devoted so much thought and sincerity. And if his proposal is allowed to materialize to the fullest possible extent it will simply mean that the United States has identified itself with a League of Nations combined together for the purpose of removing the chief causes that prompted the formation of the body to which he and the people whom he represents have decided to have nothing to do. With the world arrived at this stage of understanding, and in possession of a double-barrelled gun ready to shoot an influential charge into the first obstreperous state which displays a too animated desire to kick over the traces, the active membership of the United States in the original body will not cause the concern that it did prior to the disarmament discuson. And in view of the fact that the British and Japanese Governments have agreed that their understanding shall be brought into conformity with the covenant of the League of Nations, by the elimination of the clause which might not be taken to contemplate even "the unreasonable suspicions of the United States," mankind seems to be on a fair way towards re-lief from most of the essentially anxious conditions which the old-fashioned usages of diplomacy imposed upon it in a world that is shuffling off to make room for a new one.

Metropolitan Methodist Church last

the lives of the growing generators to-day.

His Honor Lt.-Governor Lt.-Col. Walter C. Nichol, presided and opened the meeting with a brief introduction of Dr. Robertson. The presidents of many public organizations were on hand, including B. C. Nicholas, Canadian Club; Lester Patrick, Rotary Club; Mark W. Graham, Klwahls Club; Father Anselm Wood, R. Ross Sutherland, President of the Local Association; G. H. Scarrett, District Commissioner, and others.

A Great Movement.

A Great Movement.

A Great Mevement.

Dr. Robertson, who spoke with a rich vein of humor, delivered an intensely interesting appeal to all to realize the work that was being carried on by the Boy Scout movement all over the world. The Boy Scout in 1907, after instant popularity given to a book he had written for army secuts. A scouting book for boys followed, and the interest in this latter was so wide and keen that the Scout movement had resulted. Since that date the Scouts had grown and prospered in every nation and to-day was one of the strongest organizations with a world wide scope, Dr. Robertson said.

"Be Prepared." on said. "Be Prepared."

"Be Prepared."

The motto of the Scout was "Be Prepared"—to do one share for the benefit of civilization as a whole, he pointed out. To do one's duty to God and the King—to serve other people at all times, and to be cheerful under all circumstances. Dr. Robertson said the scouting code was one of honor that taught the boys they were to be trusted, and that their word must be assure as the oath of another.

that taught the boys they were to be as sure as the oath of another.

Scout training was founded on psychological principles, continued Dr. Robertson, that through the grades of Tenderfeet, Second Class and First Class Scouts taught boys to be self-reliant, and honorable. The great factor in civilization was the personal service of the individual, and this was taught to the boys, who grew up with the idea that they owed a debt to civilization that they owed a debt to civilization that they could only pay by doing their dety at all times and in all ways. This was the spirit of scouting, stated the speaker, and it was the great spirit of the movement that had made it world wide, and of the highest use in the training of the younger generations.

movement had been found to be entirely successful.

At the conclusion of his talented address Dr. Robertson was accorded a formal vote of thanks at the hands of Mr. Ross Sutherland, chairman of the local association. Dr. Robertson will address the Canadian Club at luncheon on Friday on the relationship of Scouting to Business in this age.

Hom S. F. Tolmie, S. P. As would be expected from the doctor, he does not take kindly to the conventional dress of English society functions, and says so in the following terms:

The Embargo Question.

"This understanding of cattle and the feeding facilities of the country make the embargo on Canadian cattle very difficult to understand. Why is it which was there behind it? It must be well-known to English breeders that our cattle do not suffer from infectious purmonia or any other kind of the country of the embargo has present of our years. It was to be an increasing trade with Britain; but in the matter of cattle, at any rate, we meet with an entirely undeserved rebuff. The store cattle from the Canadian ranches could be fattened in this country with advantage. It would be a profitable business. We even make you a present of the hide, hoofs and offal, and the coming of Canadian cattle would be advantageous to those handling it, as well as the consumers of meat. It is at present impracticable for Canada to fatten her own cattle, so this country should profit by the fact.

Conversation drifted on to other subjects. Dr. Tolmie has vivid and refreshing impressions of Ascot. As a society function it interested and amused lim, but the races—the horses—were a pure delight. No less vivid and freshare his views of the gathering at the international Pole Match at Hurlingham. The Embargo Question Scouts had suffered terrible losses during the late war, stated the speaker, and one and all had behaved with a bravery that was a lasting and glorious memory to the principles of self-sacrifice of their training. A motto of the organization was that Oroce a Scout, always a Scout, and the influence of good companionship and honorable surroundings that affected the life of the growing lad fected the life of the growing lad fected the life of the growing lad fected the life of the growing lad focus with him as a blessing throughout his whole life.

The normal boy spent 1,000 hours of the year in school, and 4,400 more hours of wakefulness. It was measured to utilize a few of these spare hours, and in that time to install the habits of honor and self-respect, and in this the scouting movement had been found to be entirely successful.

A letter from Mrs. R. B. McMicking accepting the office of honorary a regent was read. Her report that the per capita tax payable to the National Chapter in Toronto was ill given by Mrs. R. S. Day. Her report that the per capita tax payable to the national organization was to be raised from 25 cents to 50 cents gave rise to much discussion, a general protest being raised against the additional levy. An interesting wedding took place in Vancouver yesterday at St. James Church, when the Rev. Father Harker officiated at the wedding of Miss Helen Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin Whitehead, 773 Thurlow Street, to Capt. Leonard Boultbee, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Boultbee. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was simply but becomingly attired in a smart suit of soft moire silk in a shade of old Ivory heavily embroidered in white. A hat to match with a light tracery of silver and pearls and finished with veil completed the costume, while she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Elizabeth Whitehead, who wore a charming frock of shrimp pink geergette daintily embroidered in a deeper shade. Her leghorn hat had a crown and rape of the same colored georgette, with clusters of roses and grapes in pastel shades. Her flowers were mauve and pink sweet peas. Mr. R. E. McHaffe performed the office of best man, and Mr. Harper played the wedding music, A tasteformed the word of paims and white roses formed simple but effective decorations at the church. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Boultbee left for an automobile tour on Vancouver Island, and will later visit Seattle before returning to make their home in Vancouver. Owing to recent illness in the bride's family the wedding was a quiet one, but many friends gathered in the church to witness the ceremony.

Philharmonic Society.

Among the letters of introduction was one to the late Thomas R. Smith, manager of the Hudson's Bay Co. here, a personal friend of Sir George Grove, and who had been financial manager of the Royal College of Music, and a violin enthusiast. In conjunction with Mr. Smith Mr. Austin got together the leading musical people of Victoria and among the organizations then formed were the Philharmonic Society, an orchestra, an operatic club, which from time to time gave musical productions. The Operatic Society among other light operas gave "H. M. S. Pinafore," the "Pirates of Penzance," "Robin Hood," the chorus and orchestra giving such works as Georyas "Festival Mass," Mozart's "Twelfth Mass," and later at the end of the Boer War, when Handel's "Messiah" was rendered throughout the Empire as a Te Deum a festival was given when the great oratorio was produced by a large body of singers and instrumentalists. This festival was held in the old Drill Hall.

Mr. Austin extended his musical activities to Vancouver and New Westminster, and was assisted by George J. and F. W. Dyke, Rev. Father Fay, Evan Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. De Wolf Smith, the Misses Clute, Owen and Arthur Malins and others. In both of these Mainland cities similar organizations were started and many successful performances were given.

Misses Old Spirit.

Mr. Austin says in an interview with The Times: "On looking yound Victoria and visiting old friends I miss the old community spirit, when such societies flourished, and find with the exception of that fine old organization, the Arion Club, that this beautiful city has no permanent musical organization, the Arion Club, that this beautiful city has no permanent musical organization and seems confent. To give just as the spirit moves an occasional musical performance. In discussing these conditions with friends I have been told that it was deeply to be regretted, but that conditions since the dear old pioneer'days have changed. But I cannot believe this possible with Victoria or Vancouver either. Why, in New York, Brooklyn and a host of other places there abound innumerable amateur societies, all doing untold good for music. Mixed choruses, orchestras, operatic sociéties, men's and ladies' choirs are everywhere. I think the most needed development there is the most needed development there is the musical spirit and the co-operation and working together of both amateur and professional musicians. Is it not possible to get together a strong committee of leading citizens and a good leader? In thus developing these musical interests the people are not only educated to enjoy good music, but it is made possible the bringing to Victoria the best of the world's artists. I exject to come to the coast in the near future and hope the citizens of this city will grasps the situation and get together and try to 'restore the old gladsome community spirit that once prevailed so abundantly." Praise Work of Arthur Line-ham in New Project for De-velopment of Province

The regular session of the Victoria Real Estate Board was held last even-ing in room 313, Pemberton Building, with President Alfred Carmichael pre-siding. Secretary H. D. Patterson read several communications in rela-tion to the routine business of the Board.

read several communications in relation to the routine business of the Board.

The members expressed great satisfaction at the support that had been accorded to the project of Arthur Lineham, one of their members, for the development of the Province through the stimulation of the tourist traffic within its borders. Mr. Lineham, it was stated, will address the Victoria Chamber of Commerce on Friday next, the Vancouver Chamber of Commerce, and the Tacoma convention of Interstate Real Estate Boards at Paradise Inn, Mount Rainier, in the near future.

Several resolutions were dealt with by the Board, one being in the nature of an amendment to the constitution which makes all past presidents members ex-officio of the executive. Major Cuthbert Holmes moved the resolution and was seconded by Mr. Bridgman, the meeting, passing the measure without discussion.

A resolution asked the Victoria members to adopt exclusive listings for real estate operation. It was explained that the practice of exclusive listings was the coming vogue in the great estate operation. The principles of its operation were a radical change, but would be found to cut out much repetition and produce results. The Board took no action, leaving the matter for further discussion, but the members present expressed themselves favorably with the idea.

In the course of some general discussion that followed it was stated that Victoria from the real estate point of view was decidedly on the mend, and that the days of depression if not entirely over were very much ampeliorated. There was a great fulure before, the city with its wonder-ful nearity little it was generally held.

Sun Smiled Brightly For Police Sports at Willows This Afternoon

Many Visitors and Competitors Were Over From Seattle and Vancouver For Annual Track Meet.

In spite of the fact that there were many other attractions to draw the Wednesday half-holiday crowd, the Victoria police sports at the Willows Park proved a magnet this afternoon, and the guardians of law and order were favored with the only thing they believed necessary to make the sports a success, and that was suitable weather. By two o'clock the crowd began to arrive, and the grand stand quickly began to fill. There was a good contingent from Vancouver and Seattle, and the wives and families of the members of the local force were therein full strength for one of the great days of the year, and the athletic event of the season as far, as they are concerned.

This is his first year as a senior club manager, but if he shows as much ability handling a senior team as he has intermediates, with whom he has won three pennants, a successful future for this youngster is assured. He has secured several new players, including Georgie Copas, who will most likely fill in at short. Cal Richards, who caught for Norm Forbes, the flashy Elk heaver, last year, has also signed a K. of C. contract and from advance notices this hoy is a real expert on the mound.

Draft Resolutions to Submit to Game Conservation Board

Resolutions drafted with the object in mind of preserving the fish and game of Vancouver Island were drawn up at a meeting of the Victoria and District. Nanaimo and Cowichan Fish and Game Associations held at Duncan, presided over by Lieut. Col. C. E. Collard, C. B. The resolutions, which deal with suggested bounties and open seasons among other matters, will be submitted to the Game Conservation Board, the chairman of which has frequently announced that he will welcome suggestions from sportsmen of the Province at any time.

The following are the resolutions which were passed upon by a representative meeting.

The following resolutions were passed:

1. Resolved, 'that this convention go on record as favoring the tag system for deer.

2. Resolved, that this convention strongly recommend that game wardens should be provided with proper transportation facilities to perform their duties.

5. Resolved, that statutory provision be made covering the time, manner and purpose of corgying or conveying or using for all purposes and all places, firearms in this Province.

Lieut.-Colonel C. E. Collard, C. B., who was elected to the chair, in his opening address extended a hearty Copas, who will most likely fill in at short. Cal Richards, who caught for Norm Forbes, the flashy Elk heaver, last year, has also signed a K. of C. contract and from devance notices this boy is a real expert on the mound.

Strank Moore will most likely field his regular lineup, with Zacerelli starting on the mound and the old reliable Alex Potts behind the bat. This is sure to be a good game and a large attendance is looked forward to.

Such a state of affairs was most irritating to the farmers, most of whom would otherwise, be well disposed towards the hunter.

The feeling of all members of the various Associations is, it is needless to say—bitterly opposed to this class of "sportsman," who brings only disrepute and a bad name to these, who are honestly trying to see that the game of the country is not wiped out and that those, who procide the sport, receive fair and decent treatment.

It is obvious that among the sportsmen who ally themselves with any Association, which has for its object the preservation of game and the education of its members to hunt in a sportsmanlike and gentlemanly

This season it is proposed to increase the number of men on the properties to possibly fifteen or twenty who will work on the Surprise and other claims as well as the Belleview.

Vancouver Woman Suffered Agonies From Rheumatism Is Now in Fine Health

"I just can't begin to tell all that Tanlac did for me," said Mrs. A. Reid, 326 Sixth Avenue West, Vancouver, B. C.
"For several years I had been in a badly run-down condition. I had no appetite, and was so weak my housework was a burden to me. I suffered agonies at times with rheumatism in the back of my neck, and for days at a time I couldn't turn my head, as my, neck was so stiff. I fell off in weight and became thoroughly discouraged over my condition.
"Tanlac benefited me in every way and soon I was eating anything 2I wanted, and nothing disagreed with me. My strength and energy came back, and I could do all my housework with case. It was a year ago that I took Tanlac, and I have been in the very best of health ever since."

work with case. It was a year ago that I took Taniac, and I have been in the very best of health ever since."

There is not a single part of the body that is not benefited by the healthful work of Taniac, which begins its action by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole body. In other words it relieves rheumatism and other constitutional troubles by removing the cause. Taniac is a powerful reconstructive tonic, and contains certain ingredients which purify the blood and renovates the entire system. Next it enables the stomach to thoroughly digest its food, thereby permitting the assimilable products to be converted into blood, bone and muscle.

The Worker's Thoughts

Dr. Rudolph Steiner's Analysis of "Class Consciousness

We are faced with demands for new

In the earlier days of humanity's evolution the social instincts of themselves found the proper function within the community for each of the three branches of life in a way that corresponds to human nature as human nature was at that period. In the present stage of human development we are faced with the necessity of working out this differentiation by deliberate and conscious social effort.

There is a phrase current among the workers that may well make a remarkable impression upon any one who can read the more deeply-seated motives of human endeavor, and that is: The modern worker has become "class conscious." He not longer obeys, to some extent instinctively and unconsciously, impulsions received from classes other than his own. He recognizes himself as belonging to a class apart and is determined that the connection which practical life establishes between his own and the other classes shall be turned to account in such a way as to further his interests.

turned to account in such a way as to further his interests.

The class consciousness of the worker is stocked with ideas which owe their character to the scientific trend of modern times.

The fact that directly and clearly illumines the actual social situation is not that the worker is tied to the Now, within the capitalist system of modern times something has become a commodity about which the worker to-day feels: "This must not be a commodity. In the instincts, in the sub-conscious feeling of the modern worker, there is a repugnance at having to sell his labor power to an employer as one sells goods in the market. It is repugnant to him that, just as goods in the market are subject to the law of supply and demand, so his labor market is valued by supply and demand. Let. it be understood what a powerful effect this derstood what a powerful effect this has as one of the fundamental driv-ing impulses of the whole social movement in the modern labor world.

ferent organization will only make labor power a commodity in a different way. The true aspect of the labor question will not be seen until it is recognized, that within the economic life the production of commodities take place according to laws determined by interests whose dominion must not be extended to cover human labor power.

Says on Eve of Conference

Following the announcement that a special City Council committee would meet with representatives of various public organizations to morrow to discuss the advisability of changing the form of Victoria's civic government, Mayor Porter this morning came out in favor of the city manager system of conducting civic affairs.

"Whether it, will prove possible to change the present system of a Mayor and a Council remains to be seen, but my investigations have led me to the conviction that a city manager would be able to run the city more efficiently and more satisfactorily to all concerned than is possible at present," the Mayor stated. "This city manager, I think, should be an absolutely competent man who understands business so that roculd introduce sound up-to-date business methods into the management of the city, Just as a managing director runs a business and our public affairs, I believe, would be put into far better shape han they are in now.

"The policies which the business manager would carry out would be fixed by a council elected by the people, of course, but that elected council should confine itself absolutely to policies and principles. It should leave the city manager free to work out all details, not interfering with him in any way whatever, That would have to be clearly understood, for interference in routine matters or political influence of any kind would be fatal to the scheme. To-morrow's meeting of the special Council committee, appointed at the suggestion of the Mayor to investigate possible changes in the present civic system, will be preceded by a discussion of the question at the Rotary Club luncheon. The meeting of the city committee on the matter will be held under Alderman Todd in the City Hall in the afternoon, Repres city committee on the matter will be held under Alderman Todd In the City Hall in the afternoon. Canon Vernon pointed out that personal purity was the law for both sexes, and he ranked the fallen man on a par with the fallen woman. Canon Vernon then dealt with the problem of adequate housing and town planning as in reality a great moral and therefore religious problem. To-morrow he will speak on the Church and the work of the people.

His sharply-pointed nose is just the thing for thrusting into loose soil. His forelegs are set far forward, and instead of ordinary paws he has two powerful, shovel-shaped hands.

The eyes are hidden under a thick covering of fur, which protects them from stones and dirt. If the ears stuck out from the head like those of other animals they would be apt to get torn as the mole forced his way through his marrow passages, for this reason they are flush with the surface of the head.

We find a still more wonderful kind of movement in the leaves of certisin plants. If you look at the common clover at night, you will find that its leaves are folded downwards instead of being spread out flat—in fact, the leaves are asleep! The beet, lupin, and mimosa all take their rest at night. The last can feel pain, for if we pinch one of the leaves, those near it will curl up immediately.

The more we investigate, the more convinced we become that plants have some kind of consciousness. A leaf placed on the top of an oven shows, as it is killed by the heat, all the spasmodic movements of a dying animal.—Tit-Bits.

Angry voices were heard as the midnight express was about to start. "I tell you," cried the attendant, blocking the carriage door, "this is a sleeping carriage, and you can't tread in it without a special tickit." "Begorra, I had a ticket!" "Where is it?" "I've lost it," replied the Irishman who was causing the disturbance. "If you've really had the misfortune to lose your ticket, perhaps you can remember your betth?" There was an interval of silence Paddy evidently employing his thinking powers. "Och, be jabers, that's aisy!" he exclaimed at last. "I was born on the twenty-sixth of October, 1892."—Til-Bits.

A Famous Agent of Economy

Not so long ago the elasticity of the family budget was in many cases entirely unequal to the strain put upon it and the question of ways and means of making "ends meet" was sufficient to drive the average head of a home or of a business into a nervous breakdown. The solution was-the classified advertisements!

nitary, speaking on this subject in 1916, said: "I have travelled all over the world, and I have never known any nation or people so wasteful as people of our own country. In no other country do people fling away God's gifts as they do in England."

That indictment was probably true, but if the terrible events of the past few years have done nothing else they have, at any rate, taught us to avoid waste and make the very best use of even the most unlikely materials. It is amazing what is done in this way nowadays. Here are a few striking instances of how wealth is obtained from waste.

Lubricating oil is reclaimed from the old rags with which engineers clean their hands and machinery. These rags were formerly burnt; now both oil and rags are used again.

Nature Never Wastes

now both oil and rags are used again.

Nature Never Wastes
Fat is extracted from offal and kitchen grease, linoleum is made from cork cuttings, new glass is made from old broken bottles and window panes, glue iss made from slippings of hide and skins, gas is made from plum stones and wood shavings, fertilizers are made from hair and feather waste.

In all this we are following the ways of Nature, who never really wastes anything.

As Lord Leverhulme has said:
"Nature knows no waste. The dust blown from the high-road settles in the nooks and crannies of walls and rocks, and is there capable of nourishing growing plants which, in turn, yield fruit or herbs for the use of men or creatures. The surplus yield of seeds not required for new repetitions of plants, trees or vegetables is not wasted; it is food for man or creatures.

Let us, at any rate, see to it that we are not among the wasters of the world's wealth, but among those who create and build up fresh wealth for the future.—Tit-Bits.

Manufacturers Look For Brisk Business in Fall: All Depends on Farmers
Toronto, July 13.—Travellers in the whitewear trade returning from outside points report brisk activity and are optimistic regarding the fall business, according to the majority of the local whitewear manufacturers. Although the present month is considered the quietest during the year, several firms are operating at 70 per cent. capacity compared with the corresponding month last year, when business conditions were considered stocks."

Depends on Crops.

"Business with the retailers throughout the country is good," declared an official of a local house. "Of course, everything depends on the crops. PILOTS INHURT IN AERO ACCIDENT

Victoria Seaplane Strikes Water Unevenly and Pon-toon Collapses.

After having completed all his tests for the Air Board certificates for himself and his machine, Norman terday to have the new Curtiss sea-

Jericho Beach, when it was taken up again with another pilot and Mr. Goddard.

In landing the second time one of the floats struck the water obliquely to the angle of flight and a compartment of one of the pontoons stove in.

The machine was towed to shore with the pilots uninjured, and little damage sustained to the machine. The fact that the pilots in the machine at the time of the accident refused to-give their names lead to wild rumors in which it was stated that both had been drawned. Captain Goulding, of the Air Board examination staff at Ottawa, now at the Empress Hotel stated last night, that after inquiries at Jericho Beach Air Station it was ascertained that the pilots were uninjured, and that little damage had been done to the Curtiss Machine of the Aerial Transportation Company, of which Goddard is a partner.

Vancouver, B. C., July 13.—
(Later)—Lieut. W. H. Brown, of the Jericho Beach station of the Canadian Air Force, and Norman A.
Goddard, of Victoria, narrowly escaped injury when a Curtis seaplane, piloted by Brown, fell into
flight this afternoon.
Fortunately the machine was being taxled at a low elevation when it overbalanced. Floats recently attached to the seaplane is believed to have upset the machine's balance.
The machine had been brought over from Esquimalt to-day by Lieut. Brown without mishap. Damage to the plane will be slight, the flooding of the engine being apparently the chief trouble.

PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY IN SESSION

The monthly meeting was held in the Cedar Room, Parliament Building, on Monday evening. There was a very good attendance, and two new members were elected. The criticism on the May portfolio was read and the pictures handed round. The pictures taken on the recent "Jaunts" to the Parliament Buildings, Butchart's Gardens and Prospect Lake, were circulated and it was decided to form an album of the best pictures taken on these and future jaunts. The special subject for the evening was a taik by A. H. Maynard on "Photography in Old Victoria and B. C." Illustrated by lantern slides most of which were made by the old wetplate process.

A great many of the original negatives were made by the same process and several of the slides showed the travelling dark-room, a bax like form mounted on wheels, where the plates were made, developed and finished on the spot.
One slide was shown of the first snap-shot ever taken in Victoria and the speaker brought the original Slides were shown of a trip up the Cariboo Trail the speaker made when a boy not yet in his teens, with his father.

The talk was full of anecdotes and

The talk was full of anecdotes and incidents which happened in the early days.

On conclusion a very hearty vote of thanks was accorded the speaker, who kindly promised to come again and give another talk at a future date.
