All Americans Can Serve

Every man, woman and child in this country, who wants to serve the country, can serve it and serve it in a very simple and effective way, says Secretary McAdoo.

That service is to lend your money to the government. Every 25 cents loaned to the government is a help at this time and practically every man, woman and child, by making some trifling sacrifice, some denial of a pleasure, or giving up some indulgence, can render the government that support.

Vivisection Fund Is Discontinued

The use of Red Cross funds for vivisection purposes is to be discontinued, according to advices from General Manager Harvey D. Gibson. However, research work along these lines will continue by means of contributions from an individual whose name is not given. The Red Cross funds already expended for this purpose will be refunded by the same party.

It is further announced that the action was in deference to the attitude of a considerable number of the workers and did not in any way place the organization for or against the question.

Miss Norma Ryland is the house guest here of Miss Friant. Miss Ryland's nephew, Reis Ryland, well known in the signal corps at the Monterey Presidio, has been commissioned a lieutenant.

Folks are still talking about "A Night Off." It was a fine show, and we hope the Arts and Crafts will put on another comedy soon.

J. Smeaton Chase and wife, who were here last year, will be here today from southern California, to occupy the Cherington house several months. Mr. Chase is a well-known author.

The Locan house, just over the line from Carmel, on the P. I. tract, has been rented to George C. Davis and family for six weeks during June and July. Mr. Davis is a San Francisco realty broker.

Mrs. R. G. Maxtone-Graham and her daughter, Mrs. Hare, with her two children, arrived here last week. Mrs. Graham is to remain but a short time, but Mrs. Hare will stay until the fall.

Mme. Anne Dare will occupy the Comins studio-bungalow from June 1. She has offered her services in assisting to produce the Forest Theatre children's play in July.

Mrs. William Gavin and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Stoddard are here from San Jose for several weeks. They love to take trout out of the Carmel.

A Thoroughly Interesting Volume

Michael Williams' book, "The High Romances," has come to hand (MacMillan, $1.60). We have read it. An adequate review would require more space than the Pine Cone can devote to it.

All that interesting portion of the work dealing with the author's childhood and early manhood leads up to the real object of the volume—the author's complete satisfaction in his membership in the Roman Catholic Church. For him it was a long, hard, persistent search after the truth, and readers of the book will rejoice that our fellow-Carmelite has at last found the soul food which he so ardently craved.

Musical Notes

The Beudeko Violin School has twelve students, five of whom are doing intensive work, and the others take lessons after school.

All the warring nations of Europe, during three years of torrents of fire, steel and blood, have found that music was one of the things that have kept the men at the front and the people at home capable of enduring the greatest strain that human beings have ever been expected to bear. Great Britain is expending large sums to bring back her musicians, speakers and actors to help preserve the public equilibrium at home.

America is making elaborate provisions for the amusement of the soldiers in camp and abroad. Second only in importance is it that we who stay at home depend upon music, reading, lectures and the theatre to keep our spirits at the topmost point to bear any ordeal that may come to us.

Frederick Jacoff, who spent some time in Carmel last year, has enlisted in an army band. His suite, "California," comprising four movements, one having a fiesta at Monterey as motif; another is said to have been written on a hill overlooking the valley of the Mission San Carlos. The suite was rendered by the San Francisco last winter.

Four other musicians who have from time to time performed here, are with the colors. Robert Lippert, pianist is in Georgia, hoping soon to go across. Allan Bier, who has interpreted Dubussey for us, is also a soldier bold. Frederick Preston Search, concert cellist and composer, is first musician at More Island. And the ultra-modern school has as its representative Henry Cowell.

What Does "War Time" Mean To You

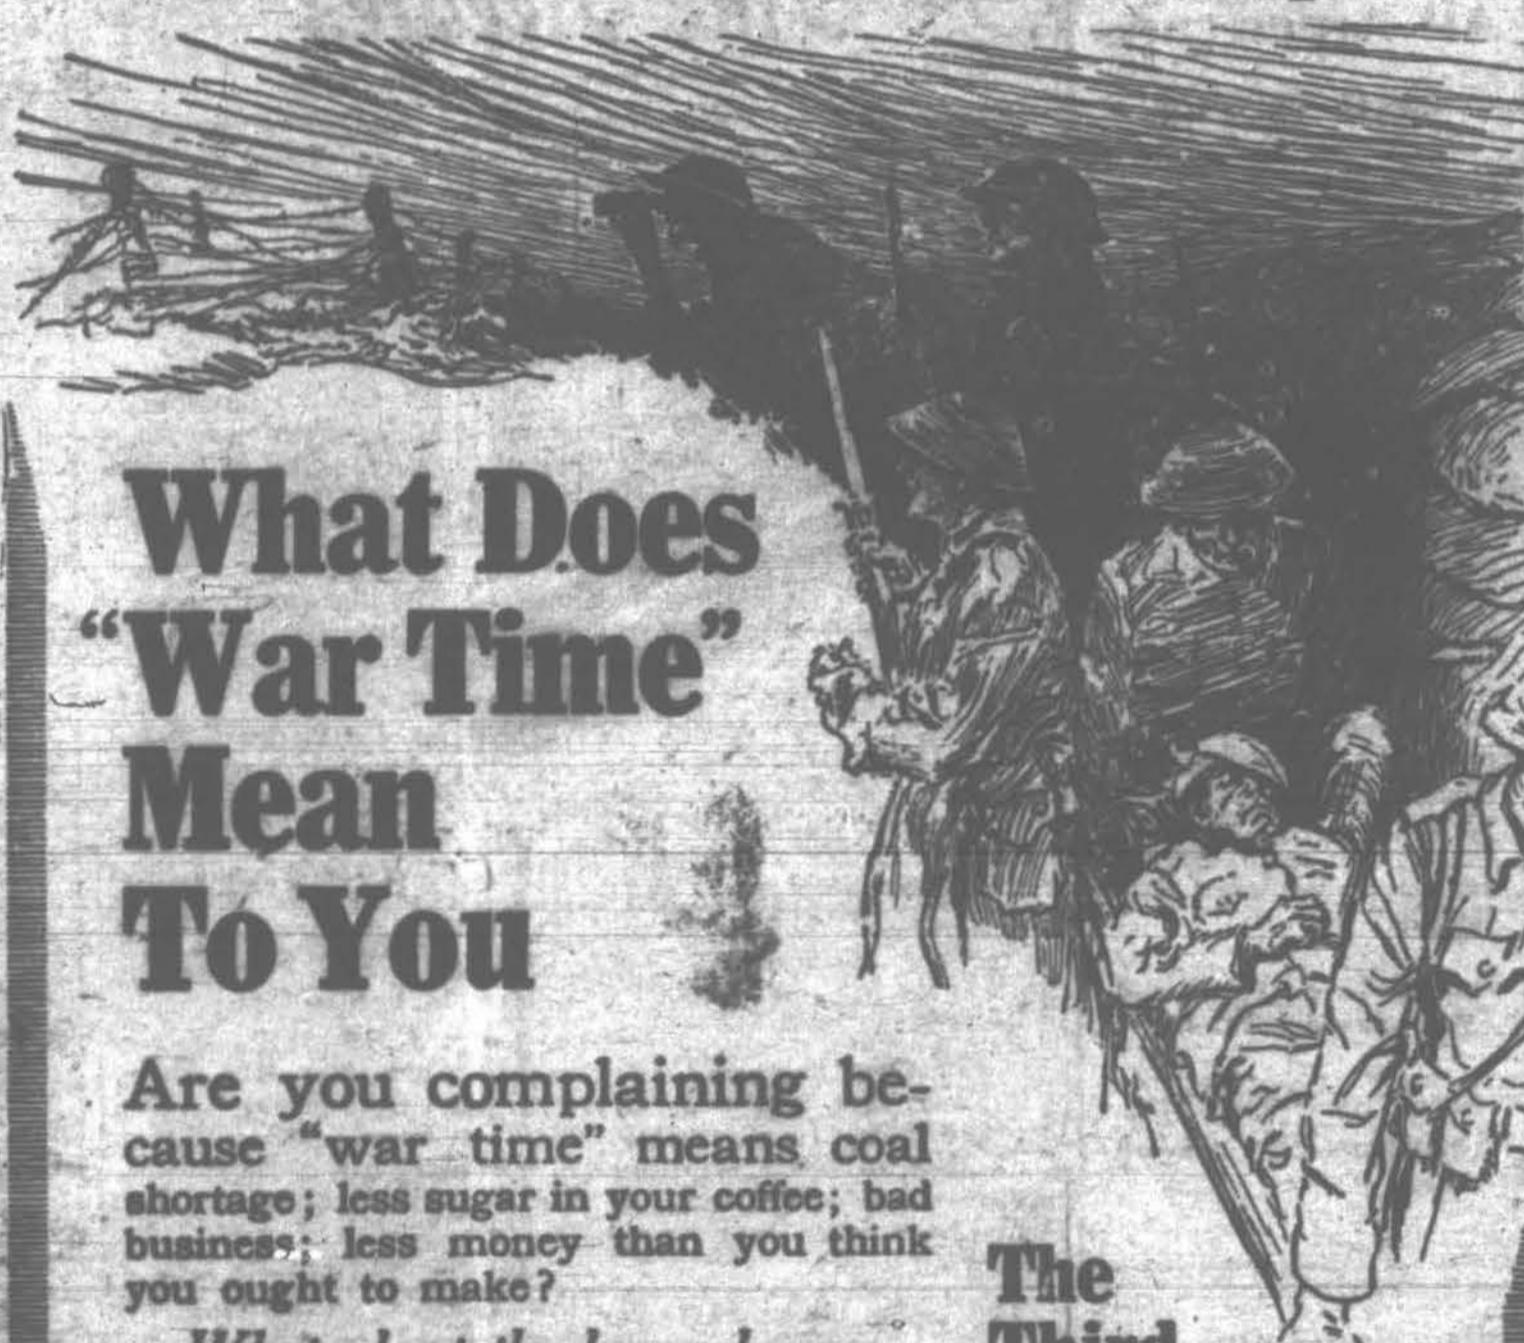

Are you complaining because "war time" means coal shortage; less sugar in your coffee; bad business; less money than you think you ought to make?

What about the boys who are fighting for you in France?

For you—a little economy and deprivation. For them the trenches; the pitiless storms of rain and sleet; the ceaseless deafening bombardment of the guns; hunger, cold and fever; wounds and death.

That you may dwell in peace, plenty, and security, they sacrifice everything, give everything, brave everything, and face a nameless grave with a smile and a song.

What are you doing, or giving, or sacrificing for them?

The Third Liberty Loan

is your opportunity to prove the patriotism that is in your heart and on your lips.

Your opportunity to show yourself worthy of the heroism, the devotion, the self-renunciation of your soldiers and sailors.

Your opportunity to share, in some small degree, the sufferings of those who stand ready to make the supreme sacrifice for you.

All you can do is little enough. You simply lend your money. Do it, and be glad that you can do so much and more.

WEEKLY GREETING

We are pledged to the hill as a nation to put this war through without flinching until we win the peace of overwhelming victory. We are pledged to secure for each well-behaved nation the right to control its own destinies and to live undominated and unharmed by others so long as it does not harm others. —Roosevelt.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS

Governor Stephens has come out for the federal prohibition amendment; J. O. Hayes declares for the Rominger bill, while W. J. Martin of wet Salinas, who wants to represent us in the legislature, is running "on his record." His wet or dry record?

No credence whatever should be accorded the statement being mouthed about town to the effect that the local board of trustees intend to bond the municipality for street improvements. They have not nor ever did have any such plan.

Just because you have bought a Liberty Bond, it does not follow that you should let up in your Red Cross work, or in your efforts to produce and conserve food. Nor does your possession of an interest-paying bond entitle you to abuse those who are conducting the war.

Who shall deny the American fighting man his cigarette? Not Uncle Sam. It is reported that the government has taken over for the Army and Navy two immense concerns where the "makin's" are prepared.

A Great Lecture

Rev. George W. White will give his famous lecture on "Toussaint L'Ouverture, the Black Napoleon," at the Carmel Church Tuesday evening next. The editor of the Pine Cone heard this lecture—no oration—twelve years ago, it dramatic and inspiring. Do not miss it.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

To the Boys of Uncle Sam

Oh I'd like to take a gun, Boys, And go off to the war; It's hard to be a woman, left alone upon the shore.

Oh I'd like to take a gun, Boys, And fight as men may do; Instead of making jam, I'd like To "lick" the Kaiser too.

But I will knit your scarfs, Boys, There's much I'd do for you, Even though I'd like to take a gun And smash the Kaiser too.

I will say a little prayer, Boys, In darkness of the night, And pray to God in heaven for You brave ones who must fight.

And no matter where you go, Boys, How far away you roam, Remember someone's praying here that you'll come safely home.

Decks Cleared For Action

Second Red Cross Drive Begins on May 20

The Second Red Cross War Fund drive is on. The decks are being cleared of the debris from the Liberty Loan battle, which was a glorious victory, and the new action will begin Monday, May 20th, and last until the 27th.

In the first Red Cross War Fund battle there was considerable confusion, the natural consequence in all first engagements. For the May battle all the plans have been carefully laid. Each executive knows what he has to do and where to do it. In the first battle there was much wasted energy. In this, there will be little or none, so carefully has the campaign been planned by men whose time could not be bought.

Such service can not be thought of in terms of money. Men everywhere are giving their time gladly for the sheer love of service and the joy they feel in helping their fellow-men. There will be no rewards, no promotions, no glory, no publicity—nothing but the glad feeling of sacrifice and the exaltation that comes from seeing one's work bear fruit.

Arm-chair Patriots

Now is the time for the arm-chair soldiers of the nation to come to the front. You are needed. You are not asked to give to the Red Cross, standing up to your knees in half frozen mud, with bullet and shell tearing up the ground about you. Your clothes are dirty and clean; you have a comfortable room and a real bed to sleep in, not a dug out or a fire-step. No matter how much you give, the soldier and the sailor are giving more. Beside the ever present hazard to life and health, he is giving his full time, his business opportunities, his association with family and friends, and his chance for future ease and comfort. In a word, he is sacrificing his whole future that you may stay in your arm-chair.

There is no such thing as passive patriotism. It must be active and earnest. If, because of age or infirmity, you cannot or are not allowed to, give yourself, then give to the Red Cross in money and service, that the hurts of others who do go and suffer may be bound up and eased physically and every other way. In giving to the Red Cross do not think of it in any way as a sacrifice. It is a privilege.

Men's Part In This Drive

In this district last year women almost entirely were the call-ers. This year it is asked that the men undertake the greater part of this work.

A conference of Red Cross chairmen and all persons interested, is called for Tuesday, May 7, at 10 a.m., at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco. Some of our men should attend, and pick up some of the overflowing enthusiasm of one of these conferences. We need it here. After the return of the local chairman from this meeting,

OFFICIAL FOOD NEWS

U. S. Food Administration
for California

RALPH P. MERRITT, Commissioner

Save more wheat—and more, and more!

Necessity tightens its grip. What was sufficient for yesterday, is not enough for today. The long drain on Uncle Sam's wheat bin this winter has begun to tell.

Today, the wheat crisis abroad has grown still more acute. This is the fag-end of the cereal supply,—the last few months before the new harvest. The Allies' home supply is at its lowest. Their need for outside help is at its highest. The Allies cannot hope to meet the military crisis on the first line trench unless we assure them help in the food crisis that threatens their rear guard of brave men, women and children left behind to build ships, make munitions and prepare clothing for those at the front.

This is the reason the call has come that we must save still more wheat to give the Allies. Instead of reducing our wheat consumption one-third as we have been urged to do, we must now reduce it one-half.

This means that each person must limit his or her consumption of wheat products to one and one-half pounds per week.

Direct orders for the family should be formulated by every patriotic housekeeper. In place of bread for dinner, she should demand of her household that they eat more potatoes, or—for variety—rice, as a vegetable, or hominy grits.

Breakfast should begin the day not by the breaking of bread, but by the serving of oatmeal, cornmeal mush or prepared non-wheat products. And the housewife must serve these breakfast cereals, not apart from the eggs or coffee, but with them, so that the lack of bread will be met quite obviously.

At luncheon, any bread served should be quite wheatless, and if potatoes are served, bread can be easily omitted.

These are only a few of the ways that can be found by the housekeeper who wants to eliminate wheat entirely from her menu, and so make a high contribution to cause and country.

"How do we live?" writes a woman in Palma. "You can not form any number of you men are going to be called upon to act as a committee of solicitors, and sections of Carmel will be given out for a thorough house to house canvas during the drive week.

A War Food Rally, similar to the one of last year, will be held at the Forest Theatre on Sunday afternoon, May 19.

Your suggestions and careful thought on many matters are required.

I want the men of Carmel behind this drive.

G. F. BEARDSTEE,
Chairman Second War Fund Drive

Men. Butter ... at $3 a pound. Potatoes at $6 a sack. These are not exceptions. They are only examples. Our hearts break in contemplating all the misery that we see about us; but we are proud, nevertheless, to prove that we can endure it all without hesitating or wavering. We have too much to die, too little to live. We are becoming skeletons, but hope sustains." This hope is America and American food—especially wheat.

BARLEY BREAD

1 quart water
1 cup pearl barley
1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast
½ cup lukewarm water
5 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons corn syrup
7 cups flour

Mix as follows: Soak the barley in the 1 quart of water over night. Boil in the same water until soft, mash fine, then cool until lukewarm. Add (1) the yeast softened in the half cup of water, (2) the salt, (3) syrup, and (4) flour to make a stiff dough. Follow the directions for kneading, rising and baking given for potato bread.

BEAN BREAD

1 quart water
1 cup beans
1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast
½ cup lukewarm water
5 teaspoons salt

Mix as follows: Soak the beans over night. Drain off the water in which they were soaked and cook until soft in the 1 quart of water. Put through a ricer or a potato ricer, cool and when lukewarm, add (1) the yeast softened in the half cup of water, (2) the salt, (3) the molasses, and (4) the flour to make a stiff dough. Follow directions for kneading, rising and baking given for potato bread. The beans may be simply mashed and the pulp used in the bread if desired.

Save Wheat

Wheat saving is America's most vital food problem.

The United States Food Administration, in view of the critical wheat shortage, asks every Californian to observe the following amended rules:

Make every meal every day a "wheatless" meal. Eat no food of any kind containing wheat or wheat products unless absolutely necessary for health.

Substitute fresh and cured meats, meats of all kinds, including pork, potatoes, fresh vegetables, fruits, dairy products and other cereals, such as corn and rice.

The "meatless" and "porkless" diets have been suspended.

La Playa News Notes

Miss Grace Towne, who has been some time with us, motored back to Palo Alto last Sunday.

Where to quarter our coming guests, is now the question. How little we anticipated such an overflow when war's increasing demands prompted us to abandon our bungalow scheme. Week-end motor-ing parties are just waking up to the fact that unless reservations are early placed, they cannot get in at all.

Mr. Arland Decker is now the possessor of a car of his own. His numerous musical engagements now make it necessary to have rapid transit at his command.

News has reached us of the sudden death, in Baltimore, of Lady Webster, of Arbroath, Scotland. Sir John and Lady Webster, with their only son and daughter, have visited Mrs. Signor for the past three years. Two sons have already made the supreme sacrifice.

Mr. Pierson spent the week-end here, and with his wife tried out the new golf links.

The friends of Godfrey Fletcher are much pleased that his "Moss Landing" won a silver medal. A man qualified to judge, predicts a brilliant future for the young artist.

Recent arrivals:

Palo Alto—Mr. and Mrs. Reese T. Evans, Miss Margaret Reese, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Towne.
