My dear friend

I am deputed by my wife to ask you & your son to come and take tea with us at 8.30. on Monday next - (this day week) to meet the Stamp Agents and a few old friends. We much hope your engagements will enable you to accept this suggestion, and that you will prefer to a formal dinner party.

I enclose you a ticket also for the annual meeting of the Central Committee of the National Society for Women's Suffrage, in the hope that you will be able to attend it on Thursday next at 3 p.m. -

I, as one of the ^{Executive} Committee am requested to solicit the advantage of your presence - You decide, we know to avoid public meetings: this is not a public meeting - but a mere meeting of a rather numerous Committee in an ordinary sized drawing room. You desire not to be called upon for any public speeches; in this gathering there will be no need for any speech; tho' should you be moved to say a few encouraging word they will be heartily appreciated.

This same card will admit you son, to whom believe me kind regards.

Our annual ^{public} meeting, to which we had hoped to have welcomed you, took place about the day you arrived in England, & went off satisfactorily - Good Aughton in the chair.

I am dear Mr Garrison Yours with great respect & affection

W. H. Ashurst
