

Flower Show Today—Saturday; Open Afternoon and Evening

THIS POPULAR NARBERTH AFFAIR IS BEING HELD IN ELM HALL. GO AND SEE THE FINE FLOWERS GROWN BY OUR OWN HOME FOLKS—ENTRIES CLOSE AT 1 P. M.

To-day—Saturday—is the day of our annual Narberth Flower Show.

The show is being held in Elm Hall. It is open from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

The Narberth Flower Show is admittedly one of the finest floral exhibits held not only on the Main Line, but in any of Philadelphia's suburbs. Roses and peonies are the big features, but there are also classes for many other varieties.

This year an admission of ten cents will be charged for entrance to the show. Tickets may be bought at the door or they may be had from any of the school children. Buy your tickets from the school children. For every ten that they sell they will be given one which they, in turn, can sell and make a profit for themselves. In other years the Flower Show has been held in the Y. M. C. A., and there has been no rental expense. This year it is necessary not only to rent Elm Hall, but to meet other expenses connected with the exhibit. We feel that our residents will gladly buy the small nominal admission fee of ten cents.

American Legion Celebrates Memorial Day

The first Memorial Day since the return of the boys from the service, both Over There and Over Here, was most fittingly and beautifully celebrated by Narberth Post, No. 356, of the American Legion.

On Sunday morning the ceremonies were initiated by a special service at All Saints' Church, which the locum tenens, the Reverend Gibson Bell, had invited the post to attend as honor guests. The simple but impressive ritual, and the very real spirit of devotion and patriotism which permeated the lovely little ivy-grown chapel, made a very profound impression upon every one who had the good fortune to attend. During the services it was announced that the morning's offering would go to swell the Memorial Fund, a graceful thought, and one that should be appreciated by the community at large.

On Monday morning a firing squad and many of the Legion members journeyed to Mount Peace Cemetery to fire a salute over the last resting place of Earl Smith, the only one of our boys who lies in American soil. Here for the first time the chaste and lovely memorial service of the Legion was read for the first time, and a memorial marker was placed upon the grave. There is so little we can do for those who are sleeping the last long sleep. They are the conquerors of the world. It is they

THE FIRESIDE

Buy your tickets for the Narberth Flower Show from the school children.

On Friday evening, June 11, the members of the American Legion will entertain the members of its Ladies' Auxiliary in Elm Hall.

Mrs. Gertrude Henderson, of 311 Dudley avenue, is making a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCardell, of Princeton, N. J.

Have you put down on your date pad Commencement Thursday evening, June 17th? Remember everybody is welcome. No tickets of admission.

Have you seen the display posters of the "Yokohama Maid"? This hand-made product of the Art Department is typical of the uniqueness of the operetta.

If you miss the "Yokohama Maid" this Saturday evening you miss the last school entertainment under the management of the present administration.

We desire to correct our statement appearing in last week's issue of Our Town to the effect that the Misses Sarah and Linda Morrow had gone to Reading, Pa. The Misses Morrow are in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Frank Crist and family wish to extend their sincere appreciation for the expression of sympathy from their many friends of Narberth in the loss of husband and father.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Bowker, Jr., of 102 Woodside avenue, have as their house guest Mrs. Bowker's aunt, Mrs. Arthur Grenville Sweeting, of Nassau, The Bahamas.

A visit to the Flower Show at 7.00 o'clock will put you in a good frame of mind to enjoy the flowery setting of the Japanese operetta on the hill at 8 o'clock.

Effort will be made to accommodate comfortably all patrons of the operetta at the School on Saturday evening. But why not buy a reserved seat ticket and make sure of a good seat?

In addition to the many classes of roses and peonies in the Narberth Flower Show, there are also classes for both the light blue and dark blue larkspur or delphinium, columbine, canturbury bells, sweet William, foxglove, plain and Spanish iris, sweet peas, corn flower, lilies, pansies, hardy Scotch pinks, pyrethrum, and poppies.

Four $5.00 gold pieces will be awarded as first prizes in the special children's classes in the Narberth Flower Show, to be held next Saturday at Elm Hall. There will be four second prizes of ten Thrift Stamps each, and four third prizes of five Thrift Stamps each.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Baker, of Staten Island, N. Y., motored over to spend the week-end with J. Earle Clarke, 331 Dudley avenue. An auto trip to Atlantic City was an enjoyable feature of their visit.

Lawn Fete

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, AFTERNOON AND EVENING, UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB.

The grounds at the corner of Elmwood and Essex avenues (by the station) are loaned to the Club by Mr. Caldwell for the fete. The purpose of the fete is to dispose of a variety of useful and fancy articles left from the recent bazaar. Of course there will be a booth for ice cream and strawberries, cones and lemonade, under the able supervision of Mrs. Edgar Taylor. Home-made cakes will be as good as ever.

The Juniors, under the direction of Mrs. Foote, will make and sell lovely candy bouquets. An artist will cut silhouettes for those who wish to know just how they look to other folks.

If arrangements can be made, there will be straw rides to amuse the children and fortune telling to entertain the grown-ups.

We hope every body and his grandmother will come to the fete and enjoy it.

Wedding Bells

Last Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peebles, 109 Iona avenue, their daughter, Mary D. Peebles, was married to Mr. Edmond C. Turner, a prosperous young business man of New York City. The bride, charmingly gowned in white, entered the beautifully decorated rooms with her father, and was attended by the maid of honor, Miss Mildred C. Clark. Mr. W. Loxley Peebles, brother of the bride, was the best man. Only the immediate relatives of the two families, with a few intimate friends, were present. The officiating clergyman was Rev. John Van Ness, pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, of which the bride is a member.

After the ceremony, a bountiful wedding dinner was served, after which the happy bride and groom departed, amidst a shower of rose leaves, upon their honeymoon, part of which will be spent in Atlantic City. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Turner will make their home in New York City.

Picnic Day

This is picnic day, and a jolly one it will be.

Think of it, a picnic where you need not take a lunch basket along—just enjoy the fund, and lots of it has been arranged for, and when the appetites become accelerated, everyone will gather round the big tables of good things to eat like one big family.

Sounds most too good, doesn't it? It is to be the biggest picnic the Narberth Presbyterian Sunday School ever held, and they have invited the entire congregation to come along and help enjoy the day. George's Hill, Fairmount Park, will be the picnic ground. This is convenient to Fifty-second Street Station, and the 10.47 A. M. train will be the picnic train today.

EXECUTIVE BOARD—THE WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB.

President, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor; First Vice-president, Mrs. C. P. Fowler; Second Vice-president, Mrs. A. B. Ross; Recording Secretary, Mrs. N. Anderson; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. A. ## ARDMORE TO RESUME STREET DANCING.

With the coming of the "good old summer time," it is announced by the committee of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce having the street dancing in charge that this popular entertainment will be resumed next Thursday evening. The Chamber of Commerce Band has again offered its services gratuitously. The dancing "floor" will be in the square in front of the Merion Title Building. The pleasure is free to all.

Boy Scouts Give Fine Minstrel Show

NARBERTH LADS PROVE THEMSELVES TO BE CLEVER BLACK-FACE COMEDIANS—BIG AUDIENCE FILLS ELM HALL AND ENJOYS SONGS, JOKES AND SCOUT PLAY.

If the manager of Dumont's Minstrels is looking for some first-class talent, we recommend that he get in touch with the Narberth Troop of Boy Scouts, for these Narberth boys demonstrated that they are "minstrel men" of the first order last Friday evening at the entertainment given in Elm Hall.

The Scouts certainly made good and provided no end of fun and amusement for the big audience that packed the hall. The program started with a minstrel show, which was followed by stereopticon views illustrating many phases of Scout work in this country and abroad; a review of the year's work done by the Narberth Troop, and then the boys gave a clever little Scout play entitled "A Scout Is Loyal," and the evening wound up with a dance.

But it was the minstrel show that was the big feature of the evening, and also the big hit. When the curtain went up the audience saw the usual semi-circle arrangement of performers, and they were in black-face all right, but instead of the customary full-dress costumes, the boys were disguised as cannibals, and a wild looking lot of "wild men" they certainly were, with their horns, and spears and skins of wild animals and other trappings of the famous "wild man of Borneo."

But maybe those cannibals couldn't sing! The choruses were excellent and the solo numbers equally fine. Every boy is deserving of praise for the way he took his part, and it is difficult to single out any particular one as "the best." Although the applause of the audience—generous at all times—was particularly strong after Joseph Snyder sang "Sweetie" and W. Foss Mitchell set the audience roaring with "Oh, By Jingo."

Carl Kremer acted as property man, and Scout Master Patten was orchestra leader and musical director.

The characters in the Scout play were taken by the following: Scout Master, Assistant Scout Master W. L. Peebles; Bear Patrol, Scouts William Parker, Edward Gillilan, Robert Gillilan; Fox Patrol, Scouts Wells Wanamaker, Ben Prager, Joseph Prager; Kangaroo Patrol, Scouts Alexander Burt, Russel Sharp, Alfred Odorne; Tiger Patrol, Scouts Carl Metzger, Christopher Heron, Paul Erdman.

The play was well acted throughout and was decidedly instructive as well as entertaining.

All and all it was an excellent entertainment and reflects a great deal of credit on Scout Master Patton and Assistant Scout Master Peebles and every single one of the Scouts.

If you missed this Scout entertainment, you missed a good show. "Be prepared"—as the Scouts say, and the next time the boys announce that they are going to give a minstrel show or any other kind of an entertainment, get your tickets early and be on hand when the doors open.

After the show, those flowers that are not claimed by their exhibitors will be distributed among the Narberth Churches and the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

VISIT THE PLANT EXCHANGE.

One new and interesting and very worth-while feature of this year's show will be a Plant Exchange. If you have more young plants of any varieties than you need for your garden take them up and bring them to the Exchange. Others will do the same. There will be no fee attached to this Exchange, but by means of it many of our folk will be able to obtain varieties of flowers

Merion Civic Association

PRESIDENT BOK AND OTHER OFFICERS ELECTED AT ANNUAL MEETING—WORK ON TRIBUTE HOUSE TO START SOON.

Edward W. Bok was re-elected President of the Merion Civic Association at the seventh annual meeting held at Merion Wednesday night. Ira Vaughan, E. A. Van Valkenburg and E. C. Dearden were re-elected Vice-presidents and William H. Folwell, Treasurer.

Immediately following the session there was a meeting of the Merion Community Association. Joseph B. McCall, who presided at this meeting, reported that plans for the Merion War Tribute House are progressing satisfactorily.

The report read by President Bok stated that the present membership is the largest in the history of the association, which has reached a total of 412, an increase of 65 members since last year.

Mr. Bok stated that during the year several complaints had been received regarding the milk and cream served to Merion. Samples thereof were given to Dr. David Wilbur Horn, and it was found that they were not up to standard. Fines were imposed. It was said that as a result of these tests, the milk and cream now served are superior to that served in other communities.

The Board of Directors of the Civic Association for the year were elected as follows: Edward W. Bok, chairman; Mrs. T. W. Andrews, Thomas Dun Belfield, Mrs. J. J. Boericke, John F. Braun, William J. Conlen, Mrs. R. C. Cornish, Edward C. Dearden, William De Kraft, Henry Delaplaine, James A. Emmons, William H. Folwell, Robert J. Hughes, Walter T. Karcher, Joseph B. McCall, Frank C. Pequinot, Mrs. W. H. Pugh, Jr., E. A. Van Valkenburg, Ira Vaughan, Mrs. Herbert T. Herr, J. D. C. Henderson, Walter S. Humphreys, Jonathan Jenks, George Nass, Jr., Thomas T. Rieger and W. H. Thomas.

DAYLIGHT SAVING MINUTES.

Narberth Still Has the Ordinance and the Minutes, Too.

Down Narberth way they passed an ordinance, back during the cold, wintry months, providing for the establishment of daylight saving in that brisk and progressive borough, beginning March 26.

It may be interesting to note that Narberth, along with New York, still has daylight saving as a legally established proposition.

But in Narberth they are not working at it.

It happens thuswise: During the several months subsequent to the passage of an ordinance providing for daylight economizing, much water traipsed under the bridge. Folks discovered that a national daylight saving plan might work, but that such enactments by purely local authorities presented all kinds of complications and difficulties.

Among the Narberthites this became apparent, but late in the month of March. However, the borough fathers of Narberth bestirred themselves, called a special meeting and an ordinance was introduced to repeal the daylight saving ordinance. Under the rules this measure had to be referred to a committee. It was done, the Councilmen talked a bit longer about the high cost of war and went home.

At a regular meeting early in April

DELIVERY SERVICE.

Three carriers' routes have been mapped out for Narberth, and if 85% or more of the residents report to the Postmaster BEFORE June 15th that they have provided a mail receptacle or cut a slot in the front door, the service will be established July 1.

It is required that the Postmaster report to the Department ON JUNE 15TH that at least 85% of the patrons have complied with the request. Should we fail to make a satisfactory report the establishment of the service would be postponed to some future date. A rule of the Department states that no circumstances will mail be delivered to a patron who fails to provide a receptacle.

When you have complied with this request tell us at the window or drop a note in the letter drop. No postage required.

EDWARD S. HAWS, Postmaster.

the ordinance passed first reading. At a subsequent special meeting it passed second reading.

And then it came up in the May meeting about a week ago. Much business of importance was transacted. Seven members were present, but after a while two went home and left the five to clean up the odds and ends, with Walton M. Wentz in the chair.

He called up the daylight saving repealer and a roll call ensued, which showed four Councilmen voting for repeal and one, A. Perry Redifer, not voting at all. Mr. Wentz inquired if Mr. Redifer had voted. Mr. Redifer said he had not voted. Mr. Wentz considered a moment and then ordered a second roll call, in which the four Councilmen present voted "Aye" and Mr. Redifer voted neither "Nay" nor "Aye," but dreamily contemplated the ceiling.

"How come?" "Whaffore?" inquired various Councilmen of Mr. Redifer.

"I don't want to vote. I won't vote," Mr. Redifer stated calmly. "I am tired of seeing this daylight saving bill cluttering up our minutes."

Under a rule of the Council the bill had to lay on the table until a fuller meeting of the body could muster at least five votes on the "Aye" side.

But, as Mr. Redifer remarked, "Nobody in Narberth is paying any attention to this daylight saving thing, anyway." But it is still "cluttering up the minutes."

MILK IN MERION.

On Wednesday night, at the annual meeting of the Merion Civic Association, Edward W. Bok, who was returned to its presidency, read his annual report. He reviewed the work of one of the liveliest civic bodies in existence during the year just passed, indulged in an expression of pleasure and satisfaction over the gift of the Merion War Tribute House and in general showed scores of ways in which the Merion Civic Association is making good on its plan of being "community right" first in order to help America become "State right and nation right."

In Mr. Bok's report two or three paragraphs stand out sharply. They deal with "The Milk Served in Merion."

In those three paragraphs, referring to bacteria tests made at the behest of the Association by Dr. David Wilbur Horn, of Bryn Mawr, are these lines:

"The results were, as your Directors had reason to suppose: high bacteria and in some instances, solid visible dirt were revealed, and, in four instances notice was served by the Township Board of Health upon the dealers and fines imposed."

And finally, this portion of the report says:

"Your Directors have deemed it wise to continue this monthly supervision with the result that the milk and cream now served in Merion are passing Dr. Horn's tests, and are superior to those served in any adjacent community."

If Narberth is to have free delivery service July 1st, at least 85 per cent. of the patrons must have a receptacle provided by June 15th and the postmaster notified. Under no circumstances will mail be delivered to a patron who fails to provide a receptacle. A slot in the door will answer.

FLIES.

Kill the flies or they will kill you.

If you kill a fly now, you will prevent its family of 999 contaminating your food later in the summer.

Flies spread disease; so keep them away from the baby.

Several fly swatters are a very good investment. Buy them from your local merchant.

Small pools and empty tin cans hold stagnant water and breed nests of mosquitoes. By eliminating the breeding places you can eliminate the mosquito.

Make sure your garbage pail is tightly covered, so that it will not draw flies.

AMERICAN LEGION CELEBRATES MEMORIAL DAY.

whose lives are completed and made perfect by the crown of a perfect sacrifice. All that we can do is to stand humbly by, and try to make ourselves worthy in some little way of all they have given.

On returning to Narberth, the Post participated in the parade organized for the fitting celebration of Memorial Day in Our Town.

And right here, might we say a few words concerning the apathetic, not to say insulting, attitude of some (mercifully a very small minority) of our townfolk towards such civic demonstrations? In particular did we notice one young man who was engaged in the soul-stirring pastime of clipping a hedge—not the passing of the boys who had saved his country from a very real peril; not the gray hairs of the two honored heroes of the great conflict long past; not the very sight of the banner of his country itself, carried aloft in procession, could drag him from his absorbing tasks.

May we suggest that persons who take no interest in such demonstrations, who, no doubt, consider that the participants therein are trudging the streets on a hot day for their personal glorification, should withdraw into their homes for the relatively short time required for such a procession, if they do not care to greet it with a friendly smile and cheer.

The proceedings of the day were concluded by a very forceful and stirring address by Mr. Fletcher Stites, sound American to the core, and the planting of a tree to Earl Smith's memory, followed by a repetition of the salute and the playing of taps.

We again take the opportunity of expressing the ardent desire of the local Post of the American Legion to welcome into its midst any Service man who wishes to affiliate himself with it.

The next meeting will take place on Friday evening, June 11, at 8 o'clock, in the Fire House. COME OUT.

Mr. George H. Gifford was a visitor in Narberth during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Prescott have just returned from a several weeks' stay at their bungalow at Ocean City, where they entertained their daughter, Mrs. Harry Hartley, and family over week-ends. Miss Ruth Prescott also entertained several of her friends at week-end house parties. The Prescott bungalow will probably be opened again in September and October for the entertaining of their numerous friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Don Enfield and Don, Jr., of Washington, D. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wentz over the week-end. Mr. Enfield will be remembered as Miss Aelsah Wentz, who was such an efficient pianist and organist in Narberth about 3 years ago, and who gave several brilliant recitals under the direction of Ralph Kinder. Mr. Enfield is assistant to Congressman Reavis, of Lincoln, Nebraska, at Washington, and is also on the editorial staff of several of Washington's most prominent newspapers.

"BALA-CYNWYD" NEW NAME OF WOMAN'S CLUB

CHANGE WAS MADE AFTER SEVERAL YEARS OF DISCUSSION.

After several years' discussion, the name of the Woman's Club of Cynwyd was changed at the annual meeting of that organization held on Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, Cynwyd, to "The Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd."

A series of interesting reports were read by the various committee chairmen. Some of the interesting points brought out in these reports follow:

Ninety-two members were added to the roll of the club last year.

The building fund now exceeds $2,200. It has been decided to conduct the Tea Box for another year.

The Red Cross branch, managed by club women, made 150 sweaters, 300 pairs of socks and 50 garments last year.

The Social Service department found suitable homes for two children and distributed 157 garments, which had been made by the Needlework Guild. A contribution of $25 has been made to the Holiday House at Narberth.

Two violin solos by Miss Josephine Gemberling provided the music for the meeting in an unusually pleasing manner.

THE YOKOHAMA MAID,
An OPERETTA
By Pupils of Narberth High School
TO-DAY
at 8.00 P. M.
IN SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
"The past is a recommendation for the future."
It is not boastful to say poor programs or "disappointments" are not known up on the hill.
This Operetta, Japanese in setting and theme, will be unique.

School Calendar.

Saturday, June 5th, 8.00 P. M.—Operetta.
Sunday, June 13th, 7.45 P. M.—Baccalaureate, Union Service, as last year.
Tuesday, June 15th, 1.00 P. M.—Class Day.
Thursday, June 17th, 8.00 P. M.—Commencement.
On Monday afternoon the Eighth Grade Girls very ably entertained their mothers by an original play entitled, "The Coming Out of Eliza Ruggles." The faculty also enjoyed this production. After the program a social hour followed, when the "goodies" were served.
The Baseball Team won a game at Ambler on Tuesday, by a score of 9-7.

Tonight—Saturday—the operetta will afford a fine place to spend a few happy hours. See display announcement.
Commencement Week plans are completed:

Sunday, June 13th, at 8 o'clock, Baccalaureate exercises, Union services in Presbyterian Church. Dr. Gibson Bell, rector of All Saints' Church, at Wynnewood, will deliver the sermon.

Tuesday, June 15th, at 1 P. M., Class Day exercises. Relatives and friends of the graduates are invited.

Thursday, June 17th, at 8 P. M., Commencement. Address by Arthur C. Baldwin, D. D., pastor of the Chestnut Street Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Weston, the impersonator of "Cho Cho," the famous health clown met the children of the elementary grades on Wednesday afternoon, and gave an interesting story in connection with the health campaign on health measures.

Senior Trip.

No Senior Class ever had a more enjoyable trip than did the Class of 1920 on their four-day trip to Harrisburg and Gettysburg. The student body and faculty gave us a lively send-off, and we left with spirits unbounded at ten o'clock Thursday morning.

Right here we want to extend our hearty thanks to Mr. McCarter and Mr. Hostenstein for their kindness and use of their cars, for up until eight o'clock Thursday morning it looked very much as though sixteen people and half that many bags, coats, etc., would have to be stowed away in Mr. Melehior's spacious sedan. However, we finally were comfortably seated in three nice cars and were off.

En route to Harrisburg we saw our County Court House, Ursinus College and the beautiful Hill School. Lunch time found us near Reading, and we picked out a shady spot and enjoyed a substantial luncheon, picnic style. Having covered considerable mileage of beautiful country, we arrived safely at Harrisburg in time to nicely prepare for dinner, which from observation proved to be the all important feature of the day, with possibly one exception—our principal's appetite. For some unknown reason his appetite wasn't up to par (?). We don't know whether doings in the big red car had a bad effect, however, and seen to it that the complete menu "went the rounds."

After dinner the class drove to Mr. Emmet's grave, planted flowers and returned to the hotel at nightfall. A later hour found fragments of the party at the movies.

From Chambersburg to Gettysburg, in spite of the rather rugged roads, which were hard to travel, the mountain scenery was wonderful, and on all sides we could see hills and valleys in the distance heavily coated in their spring beauty. This part of the trip was possibly the most tedious for the drivers, but that country is certainly beautiful all the way into Gettysburg.

Gettysburg College was in evidence as we approached the Eagle Hotel, and during the evening we were royally greeted, the college boys having won a game of baseball at Villa Nova that day and were "doing" the town in a noisy parade. The party scattered in the evening, some towards the pictures and some towards the college grounds to hear the "Sextette" and "Il Trovatore" (ask Solveig and Elizabeth). Ruth—well, she might know something about the Gettysburg College boys, or at least how well they dance. Well, our Chap thought they were all right, anyway, but how does she know?

Saturday morning we were ready and eager for the trip over the famous Battlefield, and heard a careful review of the three-day battle. The guide was well posted and his explanations were very interesting and clearly given. He having assisted in the survey of the field for the Government, was able to give us a very definite layout of each day's battle. We also visited the noted Jennie Wade house, and the cemetery where many of the soldiers are buried.

After a splendid dinner we left for Lancaster, and arrived there to see everybody out for their Saturday night stroll. Mr. Melehior says Lancaster milliners know how to make pretty hats, and he knows how to carry them carefully, too. You never can tell what these chaperones do when they are away from home. Well, he's all right, and we enjoyed the midnight feed he gave us on the evening of our last day. But in the wee small hours—if only the boys could have been chained in their rooms and the water system in the hotel turned off—some of us might have had a fairly good night's rest.

Sunday morning we visited the old Cloister at Ephrata, the only curiosity of the kind in America. Those Seven Day Baptists certainly had constantly before them the straight and narrow way when they walked through those halls, and the low doorways ahead of them symbolizing humility. No flowery beds of ease permitted for them—16-inch boards and a wooden block was comfort enough, so their leader taught. The clock, made in 1735, still chimes on the hour in the tower, and at the time this colony was occupied the sisters went to the tower at midnight to sing and pray for an hour, when the old clock awoke them from what they evidently thought a comfortable sleep.

We left Lancaster at about 3.30, headed for our home town, and arrived about 6.30, wonderfully benefited by the trip, which, under the careful supervision of our principal, came through on almost scheduled time and without a hitch anywhere. The Class Committee will vouch for the competency of the chaperones, and we all agreed that it's a real pleasure to be included in such a congenial party as this proved to be.

Narberth High School Field Day

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
