The Bank papers attribute the success of the Democratic party in New Jersey, to the Hicksites. The following reflections of the New York Evening Post upon the subject are quite apposite:

"We sincerely deprecate all attempts to mingle religion with politics. Men who perfectly agree on religious questions may differ all the world wide on political subjects; and, on the other hand, men who are as opposite as the poles in religious belief, may fully agree together in political doctrine."

It is stated that Judge Deval, of the Supreme Court of the United States, has determined to resign his seat on the bench in consequence of the infirmities of old age.

The following significant hint is worth culture of declamation upon the necessity of constructing a rail-road from this city to Nashville. Where will our citizens awake from their fatal torpor?

"The Whiting 'Times of Thursday last says:—Many of the wags from Baltimore are now seeking a base for their political operations at the present time, because the expense of transportation. Were the necessary improvements between this and Baltimore completed—the immense amount of their articles of produce, their horses, their cattle, their sheep, their swine, would go to the Baltimore market."

LETTERS.—Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin has constituted the Mayor and Aldermen of Boston his trustees for the distribution of the annual interest of $323, 66, 00 sterling, among his boys and his girls who may be recommended by the trustees of the Coffin School at Nantucket as most deserving. This sum he has invested in perpetuity in the British funds for his object.

Mr. Forsyth, the Secretary of State, who arrived recently in New-York, on his way to Savannah, (Ga.) was tendered by the democratic citizens of the former city, a public dinner. He declined the honor in the following terms:

"Washington, Oct. 18, 1854. Gentlemen.—I truly sympathize in your kind and generous intention to designate the honor of a public dinner offered to me, in honor of my countrymen, in the name of the democracy of New-York. If my considerations of a general character, founded upon my connection with the administration of the late President, forbids the acceptance of the proposed distinction, the very short time that I shall still remain here, would suggest upon me the necessity of declining any public recognition of me. The recent arrival of a public dinner, on the great occasion that have amounted within the week ending 10th October, 1854. Remaining uncollected, 662,800.

Amount coined from 1st Aug. to 11th Oct. Du. from 11th to 18th Oct. Total amount of new gold coinage, 81,900,700.

From the St. Croix (Ma.) Courier, Oct. 8. LAMENTABLE SHIPWRECK. With feelings of deep pain, we lay before our readers this morning an account of one of the most lamentable shipwrecks ever known on this side of the Atlantic.

It is melancholy to see a vessel so richly laden with the produce of the earth, and so full of life, to be wrecked on the coast of this State, and to see the crew and passengers so miserably perished.
