any part of the territories administered by the Governor of Fort St. George in Council or by the Governor of Bombay in Council.”

ACT NO. II OF 1892.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.
(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 29th January, 1892.)

An Act to validate certain marriages solemnized under Part VI of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.

WHEREAS provision is made in Part VI of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, for the solemnization of marriages between persons of whom both are Native Christians, but not of marriages between persons of whom one only is a Native Christian; XV of 1872.

And whereas persons licensed under section 9 of the said Act have in divers parts of British India, through ignorance of the law, permitted marriages to be solemnized in their presence under the said Part between persons of whom one is a Native Christian and the other is not a Native Christian;

And whereas it is expedient that such marriages, having been solemnized in good faith, should be validated;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Commencement.
Definition.

1. This Act shall come into force at once.

2. In this Act the expression "Native Christian" has the same meaning as in the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872. XV of 1872

Validation of
marriages.

3. All marriages which have already been solemnized under Part VI of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, between persons of whom one only was a Native Christian, shall be as good and valid in law as if such marriages had been solemnized between persons of whom both were Native Christians: XV of 1872

Provided

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any marriage which has been judicially declared to be null and void, or to any case where either of the parties has, since the solemnization of such marriage and prior to the commencement of this Act, contracted a valid marriage.

4. Certificates of marriages which are declared by the last foregoing section to be good and valid in law, and register-books, and certified copies of true and duly authenticated extracts therefrom, deposited in compliance with the law for the time being in force, in so far as the register-books and extracts relate to such marriages as aforesaid, shall be received as evidence of such marriages as if such marriages had been solemnized between persons of whom both were Native Christians.

Validation of records of irregular marriages.

of 1872. 5. References in this Act to the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, shall, so far as may be requisite, be construed as applying also to the corresponding portions of the Indian Marriage Act, 1865.

Application of Act to marriages under Act V of 1865.

1865. 6. If any person licensed under section 9 of the said Act to grant certificates of marriage between Native Christians shall at any time after the commencement of this Act solemnize or affect to solemnize any marriage under Part VI of the said Act or grant any such certificate as therein mentioned, knowing that one of the parties to such marriage or affected marriage was at the date of such solemnization not a Christian, he shall be liable to have his license cancelled, and in addition thereto he shall be deemed to have been guilty of an offence prohibited by section 73 of the said Act, and shall be punishable accordingly.

Penalty for solemnizing irregular marriages.

ACT No. III OF 1892.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 11th March, 1892.)

An Act to amend the Rangoon Port Commissioners Act, 1879.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Rangoon Port Commissioners Act, 1879; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. For section 5 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted:—

“5. (1) If a Commissioner be appointed by virtue of his office, the person for the time being holding the office shall be a Commissioner until the Local Government shall otherwise direct.

(2) Commissioners appointed by name shall hold office for two years, and may thereafter be re-appointed; but the Local Government may at any time accept the resignation of any such Commissioner.”

2. (1) To section 60, clause (d), of the said Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“but no Commissioner who is prohibited as hereinafter provided from voting or taking part in any proceedings shall be counted in the quorum so far as regards such proceedings.”

- (o) deserts the service;

shall

shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to three months' pay, or with both.

7. (1) A District Magistrate, Commandant or Second-in-Command, or an officer not being below the rank of subadar commanding a separate detachment or an outpost or in temporary command at the headquarters of a district during the absence of the District Magistrate, Commandant and Second-in-Command, may, without a formal trial, award to any Military Police-officer who is subject to his authority any of the following punishments for the commission of any petty offence against discipline which is not otherwise provided for in this Act, or which is not of a sufficiently serious nature to call for a prosecution before a Criminal Court, that is to say—

(a) imprisonment to the extent of seven days in the quarter-guard or such other place as may be considered suitable, with forfeiture of all pay and allowances during its continuance;

(b) punishment drill, extra guard, fatigue, or other duty, not exceeding thirty days in duration, with or without confinement to quarters.

(2) Any one of these punishments may be awarded separately or in combination with any one or more of the others.

8. A person sentenced under this Act to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months shall, when he is also dismissed from the Bengal Police Force, be imprisoned in the nearest or such other jail as the Local Government may, by general or special order, direct; but, when he is not also dismissed from that force, he may, if the convicting officer or District Magistrate so directs, be confined in the quarter-guard or such other place as the convicting officer or District Magistrate may consider suitable.

9. (1) Nothing in this Act shall prevent any person from being prosecuted under Act V of 1861, or under Minor punishments.

Place of imprisonment.

Saving of prosecutions under other laws.

under any order or rule made under that Act or under any other enactment for the time being in force for any act or omission punishable hereunder, or from being liable if so prosecuted to any other or higher penalty than is provided for that act or omission by this Act :

(2) Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

Conferment of magisterial powers on Police-officers.

10. Notwithstanding anything in Act V of 1861 or in any other enactment for the time being in force, the Local Government may invest any Police-officer not below the rank of Commandant with the powers of a Magistrate of any class for the purpose of enquiring into or trying any offence committed by a Military Police-officer and punishable under Act V of 1861 or this Act.

Disciplinary and other powers of Commandants and Seconds-in-Command of Military Police otherwise than in respect of Military Police. Privileges of Commandants and Seconds-in-Command of Military Police as Police-officers. Power to make rules.

11. Subject to such rules as the Local Government may make in this behalf, a Commandant or Second-in-Command of Military Police shall have, with respect to Police-officers appointed to the Bengal Police Force under section 7 of Act V of 1861, who are not Military Police-officers, the same disciplinary powers as a District Superintendent of Police has with respect to them under that section.

12. A Commandant or Second-in-Command of Military Police shall be entitled to all the privileges which a Police-officer has under sections 42 and 43 of Act V of 1861, section 125 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, and any other enactment for the time being in force. I of 1872.

13. The Local Government may, as regards the Military Police, make such orders and rules consistent with this Act as it thinks expedient.

THE SCHEDULE.

STATEMENT.

(See sections 2 and 3.)

AFTER you have served for three years in the Bengal Military Police, you may, at any time when not on active service, apply for for your discharge, through the officer to whom you may be subordinate, to a Commandant of Military Police or to the District Magistrate of the district in which you may be serving, and you will be granted your discharge after two months from the date of your application unless your discharge would cause the vacancies in the Bengal Military Police to exceed one-tenth of the sanctioned strength; in that case you must remain until this objection is waived by competent authority or removed. But when on active service you have no claim to a discharge, and you must remain and do your duty until the necessity for retaining you in the Bengal Military Police ceases, when you may make your application in the manner hereinbefore prescribed. In the event of your re-enlistment, after you have been discharged, you will have no claim to reckon for pension or any other purpose your service previous to your discharge.

ACT No. VI OF 1892.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 29th July, 1892.)

An Act to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, and the Code of Civil Procedure.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, and the Code of Civil Procedure; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Addition of new section after section 5, Act XV of 1877.

Limitation for certain appeals or applications for review of judgment.

1. After section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, the following section shall be added, namely:—

“5A. Whenever it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court that an appeal or an application for a review of judgment was presented after the expiration of the period of limitation prescribed for such appeal or application owing to the appellant or applicant having been misled by any order, or practice, or judgment of the High Court of the Presidency, Province, or District, such appeal or application, if otherwise in accordance with law, shall for all purposes be deemed by all Courts to have been presented within the period of limitation prescribed therefor.”

Addition of new section to Chapter XXII of Code of Civil Procedure.

Applications for execution of decrees not affected.

2. To Chapter XXII of the Code of Civil Procedure the following section shall be added, namely:—

“375A. Nothing in this Chapter shall apply to any application or other proceeding in any suit subsequent to the decree.

“Explanation.—An application to the Appellate Court pending an appeal is not an application subsequent quent to the decree appealed from within the meaning of this section."

3. After section 582 of the said Code the following section shall be added, namely:—

Addition of new section after section 582 of said Code.

"582A. If a memorandum of appeal or application for a review of judgment has been presented within the proper period of limitation, but is written upon paper insufficiently stamped and the insufficiency of the stamp was caused by a mistake on the part of the appellant or applicant as to the amount of the requisite stamp, the memorandum of appeal or application shall have the same effect and be as valid as if it had been properly stamped: Provided that such appeal or application shall be rejected unless the appellant or applicant supplies the requisite stamp within a reasonable time after the discovery of the mistake, to be fixed by the Court."

Validation of certain memoranda of appeals or applications for review of judgment.

4. To section 647 of the said Code the following shall be added, namely:—

Addition to section 647 of said Code.

"Explanation.—This section does not apply to applications for the execution of decrees, which are proceedings in suits."

5. The provisions of this Act shall apply to every appeal and review of judgment heard after the passing hereof, notwithstanding that the judgment appealed from or under review may have been passed, or the petition of appeal or application for review presented, before the passing of this Act.

Holidays and vacations.

(2) Such list, when it has received such approval, shall be published in the official Gazette, and the said holidays and vacations shall be observed accordingly.

ACT NO. VIII OF 1892.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 22nd October, 1892.)

An Act to remove doubts as to the levy and collection of tolls upon the Lansdowne Bridge over the Indus at Sukkur in the Presidency of Bombay, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS by an Act passed by the Governor of Bombay in Council, intituled "an Act for enabling Government to levy tolls on public roads and bridges in the Presidency of Bombay," the Act of the Governor General in Council "for enabling Government to levy tolls on public roads and bridges" was repealed as far as it affected the Presidency of Bombay; of 1875.

Bom. Act 1

VIII of 18

And whereas the bridge on the line of the North-Western Railway over the Indus at Sukkur in the said Presidency of Bombay, commonly known as "The Lansdowne Bridge," was made and is repaired at the expense of the Government of India;

And whereas, in consequence of such repeal as aforesaid, doubts have arisen whether or not there is any subsisting authority competent to impose and levy tolls for the use of the said bridge, and it is expedient to remove such doubts;

It is enacted as follows:—

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Lansdowne Bridge Act, 1892.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Levy of tolls.

2. Notwithstanding the repeal of the lastly hereinbefore

VIII of 1851. hereinbefore mentioned Act, the Governor General in Council may cause such rates of toll, not exceeding the rates mentioned in the schedule annexed to that Act, as he may think fit to be levied in respect of the said Lansdowne Bridge, and may place the collection of such tolls under the management of such persons as may appear to him proper : and all the provisions of the said last mentioned Act shall apply to such tolls and the collection and recovery thereof in the same manner as if such provisions were herein re-enacted verbatim.

3. All tolls heretofore levied or collected upon the said Lansdowne Bridge under the authority of the Governor General in Council or of the Governor of Bombay in Council shall be deemed to have been duly levied and collected under the authority of the said Act as if the same had not been repealed.

Validation of past levy
of tolls.

4. Where any public road or bridge has or shall have been made and repaired at the expense of the Government of India and no other adequate provision shall have been made for the levy and collection of tolls thereon, the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, apply this Act to such road or bridge, and thereupon all the provisions of this Act shall apply to such road or bridge as if the same had been herein named in addition to the said Lansdowne Bridge.

Application of Act to public roads and bridges.

ACT No. IX OF 1892.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 25th October, 1892)

An Act to further provide for the Administration of Towns in Lower Burma.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further provide for the administration of towns in Lower Burma; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Title, extent
and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Lower Burma Towns Act, 1892.

(2) It extends to the whole of Lower Burma; and

(3) It shall come into force on such day as the Local Government may, by notification in the Burma Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

Definition.

2. In this Act "town" means an area declared by the Local Government, by notification in the Burma Gazette, to be a town for the purposes of the Act:

Provided that no such declaration shall be made with respect to any military cantonment, or part of a military cantonment, without the previous consent of the Governor General in Council.

Wards and blocks and headmen and elders.

3. (1) The Deputy Commissioner may, by order in writing, divide any town into wards and any ward into blocks.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner may, by a like order, appoint any person, with the consent of such person, to be the headman of a ward or the elder of a block.

(3) The Deputy Commissioner may, by a like order, for reasons to be stated therein, suspend or dismiss the headman of a ward or the elder of a block.

4. (1) Every

4. (1) Every headman of a ward shall communicate forthwith to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station or to the nearest Magistrate any information which he may obtain respecting—

Report of certain matters by headmen and elders.

- (a) the permanent or temporary residence of any notorious receiver or vendor of stolen property in his ward ;
- (b) the resort to any place within, or the passage through, his ward of any person whom he may know or reasonably suspect to be a dacoit, robber, escaped convict or proclaimed offender ;
- (c) the commission of, or attempt or intention to commit, within his ward, any of the following offences, namely :—
  - (i) murder ;
  - (ii) culpable homicide not amounting to murder ;
  - (iii) dacoity ;
  - (iv) robbery ;
  - (v) offences against the Indian Arms Act, 1878 ; and
  - (vi) any other offence respecting which the Deputy Commissioner, by general or special order, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, may direct him to communicate information ;
- (d) the occurrence in his ward of any sudden or unnatural death, or of death under suspicious circumstances.

XI of 1878.

(2) Every elder of a block shall communicate forthwith to the headman of his ward any information which he may obtain respecting any of the matters specified in sub-section (1) which may exist or occur in his block, and, in the absence of the headman of his ward, he shall communicate the information forthwith to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station.

5. (1) The

duties of headman and elders.

5. (1) The headman of a ward shall be bound—
- (a) to assist the police in the investigation of every offence respecting which he is required by the last foregoing section to communicate information ;
  - (b) to search for and use his utmost endeavours to arrest any person whom he may have reason to believe to have been concerned in the commission or attempted commission of any such offence, and to recover, if possible, any property taken by any such person ;
  - (c) to arrest any person found lurking within the limits of the ward who cannot give a satisfactory account of himself ;
  - (d) to forward, as soon as may be, to the nearest police-station, any person arrested by him or made over to his custody, together with any weapon or other article likely to be useful as evidence ;
  - (e) to prevent to the best of his ability the commission of any offence regarding which he is required by section 4, sub-section (1), to communicate information, and to arrest the person designing to commit such offence if it appears to him that the commission of such offence cannot otherwise be prevented ;
  - (f) to collect or aid in collecting, to the utmost of his ability, any revenue or other money due to the Government or to a municipal committee from residents of the ward or persons holding land therein ;
  - (g) to report to such officer as may be appointed by the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf all trespass or encroachments upon, and injuries to, State land and public property which may occur within his ward, and of which he may reasonably and fairly be expected to have cognizance ;
  - (h) if

- (h) if so ordered by the Deputy Commissioner, in accordance with such rules as may be made in this behalf by the Commissioner with the previous sanction of the Local Government, to register all births and deaths which take place within the ward, and any other vital statistics which may be prescribed by such rules ;
- (i) to take such measures for the prevention of fires and public nuisances and for the general sanitation of the ward as may be prescribed by any rules made in this behalf by the Commissioner with the previous sanction of the Local Government ;
- (j) to report all cases of small-pox, cholera and cattle-disease which occur within his ward and of which he may reasonably and fairly be expected to have cognizance, and to supply, to the best of his ability, any local information which any Magistrate, officer of police or municipal officer may require ; and
- (k) generally to assist all officers of the Government and municipal officers in the execution of their public duties.

(2) The elder of a block shall be bound to assist the headman of his ward in the performance of the duties prescribed in sub-section (1) :

Provided that in making a declaration under section 2 with respect to any town the Local Government may direct that any of the foregoing clauses shall not apply to that town.

6. If any headman of a ward or elder of a block neglects, without reasonable excuse, to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this Act or any rule made thereunder, he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Penalty for neglect of duty by headman or elder.

7. (1) Every person residing in a ward shall, on the requisition of the headman, be bound to assist him in the execution of his public duties.

Obligation on residents of ward to aid headman.

(2) If

(2) If any such person refuses or neglects to comply with any lawful requisition of the headman, he shall, in the absence of reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Finality of orders.

8. (1) No appeal shall lie from any order made under this Act or any rule made thereunder.

(2) But the Deputy Commissioner may revise any such order made by any officer subordinate to him, and the Commissioner may revise any such order made by the Deputy Commissioner.

(3) Save as provided by this section, every order made under this Act shall be final, and shall not be liable to be contested by suit or otherwise.

Power to make rules.

9. (1) The Local Government may, subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, make rules consistent with the foregoing sections for carrying into effect the purposes of this Act.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Burma Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

ACT NO. X OF 1892.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 25th October, 1892.)

An Act to provide for the levy of a rate on private estates under the management of the Government to meet the cost of supervision and management.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the levy of a rate on private estates under the management of the Government to cover the cost of all Government establishments in so far as they are employed in the supervision and management of such estates, other than establishments specially entertained for any particular estate or group of estates, and to meet all contingent expenditure incurred by the Government in connection with such supervision and management; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Government Management of Private Estates Act, 1892.

Title, extent and commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, inclusive of Upper Burma and British Baluchistan; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

Definition.

(1) "immoveable property" includes land, buildings, hereditary allowances, rights to ways, lights, ferries, fisheries or any other benefit to arise out of land, and things attached to the earth or permanently

fastened to anything which is attached to the earth but not standing timber, growing crops or grass ;

(2) "gross income" includes all receipts of every kind in produce or cash, except money borrowed, recoveries of principal and the proceeds of sale of immoveable property or of moveable property properly classed as capital ; and

(3) "private estates under Government management" include—

- (a) estates under the Court of Wards ;
- (b) encumbered estates under Government management ;
- (c) estates attached for default of payment of Government revenue ;
- (d) minors' estates placed under the guardianship of a revenue-officer of the Government by a Civil Court ;
- (e) estates managed by a Collector in pursuance of any order made under the Code of Civil Procedure ; and
- (f) all other estates made over to or taken under the management of a revenue-officer of the Government as such under any law for the time being in force or in virtue of any agreement.

XIV of 188

Power to levy rate.

3. It shall be lawful for the Local Government—

(1) to levy on all private estates under Government management a rate, not exceeding five per cent. on the gross income, calculated, as nearly as may be possible, to cover—

(a) the cost of all Government establishments in so far as they may be employed in the supervision or management of such estates other than establishments specially entertained for the supervision or management of any particular estate or group of estates, and

(b) all

(b) all contingent expenditure incurred in consequence of such supervision or management;

(2) from time to time to vary such rate; and

(3) to reduce or remit such rate in any special case or cases as may be equitable:

Provided that, in deciding the amount of the rate to be levied under this Act on any particular estate or group of estates, the Local Government shall consider the expenditure incurred on special establishments for such estate or estates.

4. In cases where an officer of the Government is employed to give legal advice or to audit accounts on behalf of any estate, the Local Government, if it considers the services rendered to be of a special nature, may, in its discretion, direct a special charge to be made against that estate on account of such services, irrespective of the rate leviable under the last foregoing section.

Power to levy special charges.

5. Nothing in this Act shall apply to the cost of establishments specially entertained or to expenditure of any description specially incurred in respect of any particular estate or estates.

Saving as to special expenditure.

6. All rates for general supervision or management levied by any Local Government before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been levied under this Act.

Validation of levy of past rates.

7. The Local Government may make any rules and issue any orders which may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect, and which are consistent therewith.

Power to make rules.

8. Where any Government establishment is employed in such supervision as aforesaid, the Local Government shall be the sole judge of the cost attributable to such employment, and its decision thereon shall not be questioned in any Court of Law or otherwise.

Exemption from jurisdiction of Courts.

9. Section

D 2

36 Govt. Management of Private Estates. [ACT X 1892.]

Repeal.

9. Section 17 of the Court of Wards Act, 1879 (passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council), and so much of Act III of 1881 (also passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council) as relates to section 17 of the said Court of Wards Act, 1879, are hereby repealed. Ben. IX 1879.
