RICH ORE FOUND IN MINE ON HILLTOP

SILVER-LEAD ORE ASSAYING $70 FOUND IN MINE DISCOVERED AND NOW BEING DEVELOPED BY BARTON; PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

Since it was first reported in these columns that galena or silver-lead ore had been discovered on a hilltop in the very edge of this city, there have been many who scoffed at the idea, the principal argument of the doubting being, evidently, that it was too near home to amount to anything, an argument of doubting Thomases since the world began. Recent developments at the mine now being worked by T. V. Barton, its discoverer, and his associates are such, however, that among those who are keeping up with the progress being made on the hill near the high school, scoffers are getting to be a minus quantity.

Within the last few days ore has been uncovered which in silver and lead assays about $70 to the ton. This is considered to be a wonderfully rich showing, and those fortunate enough to get into the developing company with Mr. Barton are congratulating themselves at their foresight.

The shaft at the mine is as yet only about ten feet deep, but there seems every prospect that as it goes deeper it will uncover ore that is even richer yet. So far the work has gone on with pick and shovel, but Mr. Barton and his men have now completed a derrick and windless which will enable them to handle the earth taken from the shaft as the pit grows deeper. The opening is well timbered and timbering will be carefully carried on as the shaft is sunk. The prospect that South San Francisco has more or less of a bonanza at its doorstep is daily growing brighter.

NEW MEAT MARKET TO OPEN IN THIS CITY

The store room under the Alpine Hotel on Grand avenue is undergoing alterations. D. Palany, the owner of the building, is having a new, modern front put in and a new floor laid. Large plate glass windows will be added in front, with marble around the base of the windows.

The place will open soon as a meat market, it having been leased by J. D. Heagerty for that purpose. Mr. Heagerty is a newcomer in this city, having arrived here Wednesday. He is an experienced meat market man.

The alterations on the building are being made by R. C. Stickle.

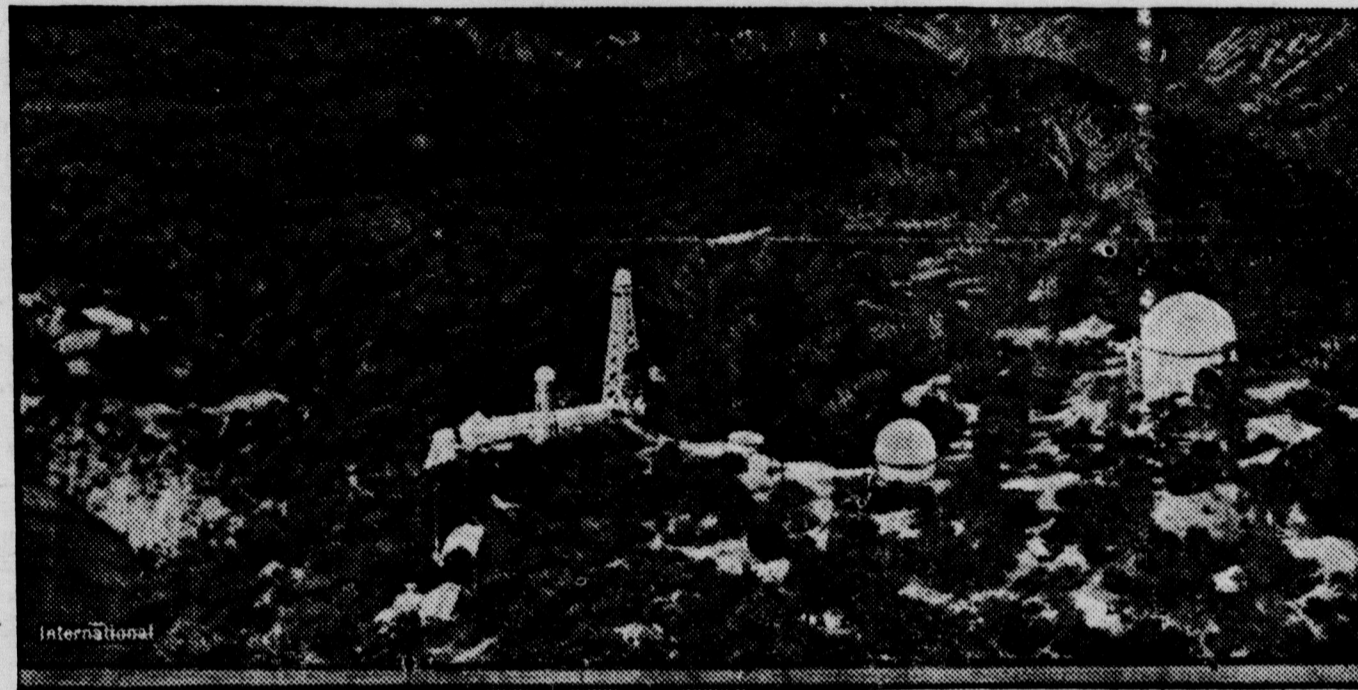

Mr. Palany is also having the house that was located on the alley at some distance in the rear of the store building moved up and made a part of the other structure. Mr. and Mrs. Palany will conduct the Alpine Hotel above the store room.

SAMPLE BALLOTS TO BE HAD AT CITY HALL

City Clerk W. J. Smith has announced that there will be no sample ballots mailed to the voters for the municipal election this year, the law requiring these having been changed. The clerk will secure sample ballots for the benefit of those wishing them, however, and these may be secured by calling at the city hall.

J. J. McDonald was a caller in town recently.

MOUNT WILSON OBSERVATORY FROM THE SKY

The famous observatory on the top of Mt. Wilson, photographed for first time from an airplane. The observatory is over 5,000 feet above sea level, and is the home of the largest telescope in the world.

SCHOOL ELECTION DRAWS BIG VOTE

Nearly 600 Votes Cast; School Tax Wins by 27 Votes; Conrad Is Returned as Trustee.

The election held in this city last Friday at the Grand avenue school building called out the largest number of voters of any school election ever held here. The spirited contest between C. C. Conrad and B. H. Truax over the school trusteeship was doubtless the principal reason for the large turnout, although many were also interested in the proposition to levy a special tax to raise $9600 to purchase a lot and build a new school house in the north part of town. There were 572 votes cast at the election. Of these, 483 voted on the special tax. By a majority of 119 Mr. Conrad was returned as school trustee, his vote being 340 to his opponent's 221. The school tax won by a majority of 27 votes.

The exact location of the new school building is not definitely settled, but a site at the northwest corner of Linden and Armour avenues is being considered. A two-room school to accommodate the scholars from the first to the fourth grades, inclusive, will, in all probability, be constructed. When work will start on the building has not been announced.

Miss Lolita Kelley returned home Wednesday from San Jose, where she is attending school. She will spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley.

MEXICAN ACCUSES POUNDMASTER WELCH

Manuel Talash, a Mexican, living near the corner of Armour and Linden avenues, sprang a sensation in Judge J. J. Dowd's court Tuesday night when brought up for allowing his cattle to run loose on private property. The Mexican declared that he paid $25 to Poundmaster Jack Welch of this city for the privilege of allowing the cattle to run at large or to picket them here and there. Mr. Welch was not present at the hearing. The case was continued for two weeks by Judge Dowd. The man maintains that he paid the money March 2d of this year. He was arrested by Deputy Marshal B. H. Truax on the misdemeanor charge of pasturing his livestock on private property without any permit.

RATE FIGHT IS RENEWED BY CHAMBER

CONTEST TO GET SO. S. F. PUT IN S. F. SWITCHING LIMITS IS REOPENED BEFORE STATE RAILROAD COMMISSION.

The South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce has renewed its petition to the Railroad Commission to remove the discrimination in the switching rates of the Southern Pacific Company between San Francisco and South San Francisco by extending the switching limits so as to include all tracks at the latter point, and to maintain a rate of $2.50 per car for switching carload traffic of all kinds irrespective of its origin and destination between industry tracks and wharves in this city and interchanged tracks with the Santa Fe and Western Pacific in San Francisco.

A former petition of the Chamber asking this relief was filed in 1917, but was dismissed by the commission during federal control of the railroads. In the meantime the Interstate Commerce Commission had granted relief in so far as interstate commerce was involved by requiring the Southern Pacific to establish the same switching rates between South San Francisco and San Francisco as were in effect in Oakland or Los Angeles switching limits.

The complaint alleges that the director of traffic of the United States Railroad Administration instructed the Southern Pacific Company on November 29, 1919, to grant the same relief with respect to intrastate commerce, but that the railroad company refused to comply with the order.

The time for the hearing has not been announced.

VINCENZINI RELIEVED OF PURSE IN THEATER

It cost J. Vincenzini somewhat over $100 to see the movies last Sunday night, the amount over being the cost of his ticket. Vincenzini was relieved of the $100, presumably by somebody sitting near him, as it disappeared from his pocket during the performance. It was in a hip pocket of his trousers, and its rightful owner cannot figure how the other fellow got it, but anyway it's gone. No clue as to the pickpocket has been obtained.

CHAUTAUQUA TO BE HELD IN THIS CITY

Educational and Entertainment Events to Be Given Here for Three Days.

For the first time in its history South San Francisco will have a Chautauqua this summer. This was settled Wednesday when G. D. Hast, an advance agent for the Radcliffe Chautauqua System, visited this city and made preliminary arrangements. There are twenty names on the list of guarantors who have signed up to secure this great educational feature for this city.

The exact date that the Chautauqua will appear here has not yet been decided, but will be announced within a week or ten days. The programs given will extend over a period of three days, and each day there will be a concert and lecture in the afternoon and a concert and lecture in the evening. Some of the country's best musical and lecturing talent will appear here, making a series of educational and entertainment features such as the residents of this city have never had an opportunity to see and hear in their own town before.

Within the next few days the committee of guarantors will organize for a campaign to assure the success of the venture. The following names are on the list as guarantors: E. C. Peck, J. S. McGovern, Mrs. A. A. Whitten, Rev. Daniel Stevens, G. W. Holston, H. A. Cavassa, B. H. Truax, F. S. Dolley, F. A. Cunningham, H. Scampini, H. Haaker, Robert Speed, W. H. Coffinberry, Henry Knoth, E. E. Cunningham, A. P. Scott, Peter Lind, J. Elkerenkotter, W. J. Smith, D. L. Smith, and Rev. Edward H. Molony.

FALLS FOUR FEET; DIES OF INJURIES

David Peacock, an employee of the Moran Packing Company, died at the South San Francisco Hospital Tuesday of injuries sustained at the plant Saturday, when he fell from a scaffold and struck on his back. A peculiar feature of the case is that the man fell only about four feet. A kidney was ruptured and the man died of internal hemorrhages.

LADIES' AID TO HOLD FOOD SALE

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold its monthly food sale at Carmody's grocery store Saturday. Many different varieties of food will be on sale.

"PACKINGTOWN" NOTES

Who will be the winners in the finals of the big pedro tournament being conducted in the Welfare Club rooms? is now the burning question among the inner circles of "card sharks" and pedro specialists who some way or another manage to otherwise honestly earn their daily bread in the service of the Western Meat Company. A complete "expose" is being prepared for "Packingtown Notes" by our special secret service men who are attending the games; provided, however, they, too, do not get contaminated before the sessions finally come to a close.

William Smith, switchman on the South San Francisco belt railway, was married on March 20th to Miss Helen Clark of San Diego. Congratulations, Smith, and best wishes to you and your wife from the boys at the plant.

Arrangements are already under way for the annual picnic of the Western Meat Company employees, which will be held this year some time in July. Something entirely novel in the picnic line is going to be introduced, so watch for future announcements.

Oscar Shanks of the construction department of Swift & Co., Chicago, was a visitor at the plant the latter part of last week.

R. W. Burge and Maurice Koop were elected directors of the Welfare Club at the last meeting of the executive committee, to succeed F. Olsen and J. H. Kelley.

H. A. Chatham from the general office of Swift & Co., Chicago, is a visitor at the packing house. Mr. Chatham is in charge of Swift & Co.'s interests for all Western points. As a guest of J. O. Snyder, he took an airplane ride on Monday afternoon from the local aviation field, which included all the known "stunts" performed by aviators.

Richard Boller, engine room oiler, is confined to his home seriously ill. Joe Gianelli has returned to work again after a month's absence due to an injury.

A big pool tournament is being arranged to commence at the conclusion of the pedro contest. The game will be "call shot," and $20 worth of merchandise will be awarded to the three winners. Entries are open to all members of the Welfare Club in good standing without further costs.

TOKEN OF GRATITUDE FROM FAR-OFF ITALY

From far-away Italy has come an echo of gratitude for the token of appreciation given by South San Francisco to the relatives of the men of the service from this city who gave their lives in the great war and also for the "Golden Scrolls" presented by the state. The following letter has been received by E. E. Cunningham from the father of Eugenio Franceschetti, the first South San Francisco boy to meet his death on the fields of France:

Bagnolo (Grosseto), Italy,
February 25, 1920.

To the Hon. E. E. Cunningham, Secretary of the Committee, South San Francisco—Dear Sir: I have duly received the "In Memoriam" of my dear son, Eugenio, which you kindly sent me. I can hardly tell you how grateful I am to you and to the good people of South San Fran-

TO THE VOTERS OF SO. SAN FRANCISCO

Ladies and Gentlemen: Since the announcement of my candidacy for re-election to the office of city clerk, I have heard considerable comment on the fact that I am holding two offices, and that this should militate against me for re-election.

Let me be perfectly frank with you. The office of city clerk, combined with the office of tax collector, pays the incumbent $145. The office of justice of the peace pays $100, in addition to which the county pays $40 per month for the rent of the justice court room in the Metropolitan building. This statement may be verified by any one who would take the trouble to call up the county clerk.

Now, with the present high cost of living, I ask the voters of South San Francisco, Do you think this is too much salary to pay to any one whom you will expect to give honest service to the city of South San Francisco? In other words, Can you expect a man to raise a family under present conditions with a smaller income, or do you think a man could honestly and with regard to the people raise a family and devote his time to the community on either salary alone?

I submit this thought to the honest consideration of the people; the conscientious answer to it will remove one of the biggest objections to my re-election. On the other hand, aside from the question of my holding two offices, the main question before the voters of South San Francisco is, as far as they are concerned, the question of fitness for the office, and the feeling of confidence that the man to whom they give their votes will do his work capably and with entire satisfaction to the community. I ask you confidently, Does not my twelve years of service in the office answer the question as to my fitness? and as regards your assurance that the work will be capably done, Is not the past a safe prophesy of the future?

Is there any one who can say a word against my work up to the present date? If not, why change?

It's your interest that is to be considered, is it not?

I know it is perfectly legitimate for any citizen to aspire for any office in the gift of the people and I shall not say one word against my opponent, but I put it to you, plainly and frankly, Do you think a man should be turned out of office just because he has made good? Do you think he should be punished for having conscientiously and faithfully served the people?

I feel I am not presumptuous in leaving the answer to this question to the dictates of your conscience.

Respectfully yours,

W. J. SMITH.

Incumbent candidate for city clerk. cisco for the honor they have paid to my much-regretted son. Please be so good as to convey to his excellency the governor, the honorable members of the committee, and to all those who took active part in the celebration, my thanks, the gratitude of my family and of this village where my dear Eugenio was born and passed his youngest years.

With kindest regards, believe me, dear sir,

Yours truly,

AUGOSTINO FRANCESCHETTI.

A cameraman nearly destroyed the prestige of President Ebert of the German republic when he first took office by snapping a picture of him in a bathing suit. Maybe we can get at the real issues in the coming campaign if we make the candidates furnish similar photographs of themselves.

Longfellow said: "In this world a man must be either an anvil or a hammer." If that is the case, we are all forgers.

When Dr. Cook returned from the vicinity of the North Pole, claiming its discovery, he was met at Copenhagen by an American newspaper reporter, to whom he told his story. After the recital was over, the reporter asked:

"What proofs have you, doctor?"

"What proofs do you want?" the doctor countered.

A town in Massachusetts which has been dry for 285 years voted wet the other day. Maybe the government could induce people to save by passing a law against thrift.

"Pa," said a little boy facing his father, "which is your right hand?" Encyclopedia Pa indicated the appendage.

"Which is my right hand?" the young question mark continued. Pa indicated it. Follows a period of cogitation. Then:

"Gee, pa; you must be made wrong."

Capital and labor seem to be mixed on the question of right hands.

Arthur Brisbane says one way to eliminate stupidity is to make it expensive. The man who sells his Liberty Bonds unnecessarily is stupid, and his stupidity costs him money.

A child and a fool imagine twenty years or twenty dollars can never be spent.

T. R. WOULD HAVE USED LIONS IN CONGRESS

A number of men were dining at the White House one day during a period when President Roosevelt was having a particularly difficult time with Congress. Among them were Carl Akeley, the big game hunter, and a certain Congressman from Illinois.

Akeley had been telling how one evening in the heart of Africa he had seen sixteen lions coming out of one cave. The president's eyes shone.

"By George!" he exclaimed. "I wish I could turn those lion loose in Congress."

"But, Mr. President," interposed the Congressman, "aren't you afraid they might make a mistake?"

Roosevelt snapped his teeth together. "Not if they stayed long enough!"

WAXES FACETIOUS IN OFFICER'S DEFENSE

Editor Enterprise, South San Francisco—Sir: Relative to the proposed investigation dealing with the alleged dereliction of duty on the part of the night watchman, I wish to say a few words.

I assume "Skinny" McGraw is the watchman referred to. I use the word "Skinny," because I have never been formally introduced to the gentleman and know him by no other title.

The specific charge against "Skinny" is, as I understand it, but a variation of the general charge leveled against all "cops" in every age and land since this sad world and the need for "cops" began.

"He is never around when trouble is brewing."

I suppose "Skinny" lacks the Hawkshavian sense to scent "trouble brewing" and forestall it, or, perhaps, like myself he shuns all shapes and types and manners of brew, in accordance with the spirit of the eighteenth amendment.

But this I know, that whether "Skinny" is around where trouble is or not, he is always around to intercept me and cause me trouble whenever I come home late.

On three or four occasions during the last four months I found it necessary to take the 1:20 a. m. bus from the city and to walk home from Leipsic crossing. The first time I came home thusly, Mr. McGraw accosted me in the name of the law upon our main avenue. He wanted to know directly and without quibble or equivocation, why I was out that hour of the morning, whence I had come and whither I was drifting, my name and age and race, married or single, where I lived, worked and had my "beans," whether I patronized bootleggers or chewed tobacco in private life. In fact, so many questions did he hurl at me, that finally I got up on my dignity and demanded to know if I looked like a suspicious character. Whereupon he told me calmly that there were so many box-car gangs, ice-box gangs, chicken-coop gangs, booze-cellar gangs, automobile-bandit gangs and various other smaller fry engaged in felonious and burglarious enterprise up and down the peninsula, it behooved him to exercise the right of challenge between "taps" and "reveille." That, in short, it was his duty to question me. Then he let me go.

But every time I have come home late since then, he meets me and gives me a searching look which plainly denotes a lingering suspicion in his mind.

I guess he entirely forgets his own romantic days and that a young man may oftentimes be out in the wee sma' hours without any evil intent.

Now, though, I believe with Gilbert and Sullivan that "Taking one consideration with another, the policeman's lot is not a 'appy one." And while it is my least desire to cause one of them additional unhappiness, I nevertheless suggest that "Skinny" be mildly disciplined for the humiliation he has caused me through his vigilance and that the other charge be dropped.

What will the outside world say when they learn that South San Francisco has just woke up to the fact that "a cop is never around when he's needed"? Think of the ridicule B. L. T. and every other calumnyist in the country will pour on us if we prefer the charge. We will be laughed at all the more if it is discovered we have only one "cop." Therefore, I respectfully submit that the only way around the difficulty is to appoint an assistant cop, and I take great pleasure in nominating for the office our esteemed fellow-citizen, popularly

TANK CORPS MEMBERS TO FORM ORGANIZATION

Now comes the Tank Corps. Spirit, morale, esprit de corps, and a hundred other appellations have been used to describe the family spirit of the Tank Corps, but they all fall short, according to the recruiting officers at the army recruiting office, 660 Market street.

To insure the perpetuation of the spirit that made the Tank Corps the best fighting force of its kind in all the allied armies, the headquarters of the Tank Corps at Camp Mead, Md., now proposes to form a national organization of former members of the corps. It is suggested that all ex-tankers in each community get together and form a post of the American Legion. After the formation of enough posts to accommodate the 21,000 former members of the corps, a national organization would be formulated with which the posts would affiliate.

Plans are now being made by ex-tankers in San Francisco for the formulation of a local post. The army recruiting office has offered to render any assistance desired and any information necessary will be gladly given, according to Lieutenant-Colonel Mearns, the recruiting officer.

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1920.

CHRIST, EASTER, AND US.

Easter Sunday! We all know it was the day on which Christ arose from the dead and ascended into heaven. Let us of this town make it the day on which we will all arise to the occasion and go to church.

What a day it would be if every person in this town—every man, woman, and child—would go to church on Easter Sunday! Probably such an event has never been recorded in this country since the days of the Pilgrim Fathers.

The editor was expected to write a learned and rhetorical editorial on the glories of Easter Sunday. Instead he is making a humble but practical suggestion to the people of this community.

And he is ready to take his place in the ranks of what would be the greatest procession ever known in American history—the spectacle of an entire community marching to church in honor of that good man who gave his life for them.

WILL YOU go?

WE HAVE BOTH.

A young man stood on a street corner, idling away a few moments of time. Across the way, on another corner, stood another young man, similarly occupied.

"There goes one of the sweetest women in town," remarked the first young man to a friend.

"Say, sport, that Jane's got some figure," said the second one to his friend.

It is all a matter of breeding and taste. We have them both in this town.

The tendency of prices, we note, is up one day and up higher the next.

The modern photographer, of course, removes all facial defects from the picture—but only from the picture.

There are no doubt some husbands who pause long enough to kiss their wives a second time—a few, no doubt.

And still, there are times when the works of the good worker are not always good.

There are some, we suspect, who object to the term "high cost of living." They only exist.

Charity, of course, should begin at home, but it is not always that we find charity in the home.

SUMMER TRAINING CAMP TO OPEN AT CAMP KEARNEY

Lieutenant-General Hunter Liggett, commanding general of the Western Department, has been advised by the secretary of war that the location of the summer camp for the instruction of members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, infantry and junior division units of that department, will be at Camp Kearney, near San Diego, Calif., according to information received by the Army Recruiting News Service, 660 Market street.

Members of the infantry and the junior division units of the R. O. T. C. from the Western Department and the states of New Mexico and Arizona, together with the R. O. T. C. students from the Hawaiian department, will be given training at this camp.

Training will begin on June 17th and will extend for six weeks. Basic training and advance training will be given; the latter is specifically for those students who came from colleges where advanced courses of the R. O. T. C. are given. The camp at Kearney will be under the immediate command of an officer to be designated as R. O. C. commander. Every arrangement will be made to provide for the health, comfort, and recreation of the students, and it is expected that close co-operation will be maintained with all the welfare organizations.

No, we have no objection to the other fellows "also running" for president, provided they are discreet and keep a safe distance in the rear of our choice.

GOV'T CONGRATULATES NEW BABIES' PARENTS

Every happy father of a new-born boy or girl in San Francisco nowadays gets a letter from the government congratulating him and his wife. The first paragraph of the letter reads:

"The government of the United States is vitally interested in the fact that you and your wife have been blessed with the advent of a child. This government is the society of American people, and it is fitting that it should be interested in its new members."

The letter of congratulation goes on to point out to the proud father his new responsibilities as the molder of an American citizen, stressing the importance of education and appealing to him to assure the education of his child by beginning the systematic weekly purchase of War Savings Stamps. One War Savings Stamp a week, the letter states, will amount to $1179.36 in five years.

Returns indicate that many parents have enthusiastically adopted the idea and banks and postoffices have been asked to co-operate closely in keeping interest stimulated in the proposition.

To Honor Discoverer of Ether.

Arrangements are being made in Charlton to honor the memory of one of the immortals of Massachusetts and of the world, who was born in that town. Charlton is planning to observe the centenary of the birth of William T. G. Morton, the discoverer of ether. A suitable memorial will be established and appropriate ceremonies arranged to commemorate the event.

The discoverer of ether or anesthesia, is accounted to be the greatest benefaction ever given to man, for in that discovery was the complete mastery of pain, and, in part, mental anguish.

Beware of Pets.

A series of experiments has convinced one of the professors of Upsala university that the danger to the community through the dissemination of disease germs by animal pets is serious. In one case a whole family was afflicted with tuberculosis through a pet cat. A Professor Petit in France voices the danger by appealing to owners of pets to take special precautions with animals whose health is not good. Diphtheria is more easily circulated by the feline tribe than any other disease.

Some Church Beatitudes

Blessed is the man who doth not peek out of the window first before deciding to go to church Sunday; yea, twice blessed is that man who does not find a hole in his umbrella or a button off somewhere at ten-twenty on the Sabbath.

Blessed is the man who loveth his church with his pocketbook as well as with his mouth; yea, twice blessed is he whose left hand doth not hide in his left pocket the bill which his right hand hath dug out on that side.

Blessed is the man who doth not always find that he hath an engagement on prayer-meeting night; yea, is he not indeed blessed whose mouth speaketh out of the abundance of the joy of living in his heart.

MANY MOTOR TO PITTSBURG

Several parties of local persons drove to Pittsburg, Calif., Saturday and Sunday to visit friends in that city. A number of former residents of South San Francisco are now living in Pittsburg among them C. E. Carlson, John Smith, Dick Harris, Ben Killeen, and Jack Lodge.

GENEVIEVE INGERSOLL ENTERTAINS AT PARTY

Twelve of the young friends of Miss Genevieve Ingersoll were the guests at a party given by Miss Ingersoll at her home on Railroad avenue Wednesday evening. The time was spent in games and a delightful time was enjoyed by all present.

TO THE CITIZENS OF SO. SAN FRANCISCO

I notice a communication in The Enterprise of last week addressed to the good people of South San Francisco by Mr. W. J. Smith, wherein he attempts to justify his un-American desire to hold two public plums at one time—he evidently has had his ear to the ground and heard the rumblings of disapproval—upon the grounds that the combined salaries amount to but $245. This figure is a little inaccurate at that, for I find that one of his positions, namely, that of Justice of the Peace, pays a salary of $100 per month and also allows $40 per month additional for office rent. (See section 4249, Statutes and Amendments 1919, Sub. 17.)

Along this line of reasoning, might there not come a time when Mr. Smith would feel as though the aforesaid combined compensations of two political positions were not sufficient to support himself and family? (We are now presuming that Mr. Smith has absolutely no other source of income—the only deduction we can intelligently make from his plea to the public that he might be allowed these two political jobs for the proper support of his family.) Then why should he not ask for a third position—for instance, Supervisor of the First Township? There is to be an election in November of this year for that position, which carries a salary of $150 per month or thereabouts, and so on ad infinitum.

Under those conditions Mr. Smith would be sitting tight on the three great branches of our American government, to-wit: Legislative (Supervisor), Executive and Judicial. The latter two he now holds, not by an election of the people, as he resigned the office of City Clerk, that is a matter of record, but the same has not been accepted by the city fathers of South San Francisco for the reason, I understand, that there were numerous applications for the office and they deemed it wiser, as an election was to be held in the early part of this year, namely April 12th, that the people of South San Francisco make their own selection for City Clerk, which they certainly will do.

For the information of some of our citizens who are not familiar with the history of the office of Justice of the Peace of the First Township, I will state that the legislature of the state of California deemed this office of sufficient importance and the duties thereof so onerous that it allowed two Justices of the Peace to perform the work previously done by one—the presumption being that there was too much work for one man to perform—but this presumption is a grave mistake and has been knocked into a cocked hat by Mr. Smith, who apparently has time to burn. Instead of having another Justice of the Peace, as now, living in Daly City, his honor down here could handle the whole job of J. P., and incidentally, I presume, annex the additional $1680 now drawn down by the Hon. Ellis Johnson.

Mr. Smith is certainly making history in this great state of ours, for we find no record, after diligent search, where the position of a justice of the peace of a township and the city clerk of a city in the same political subdivision, with each position drawing down a fixed salary, has been held by one person. It might possibly appear to the mind of an outsider looking in that our wonderful city is hopelessly short of good material from whence to draw our city officials if the voters should give serious consideration to loading one man down with two jobs.

Let's be fair, voters.

I thank you,
DANIEL McSWEENEY.

California Needs More Electric Power!

THE PROGRESS OF CALIFORNIA IN WEALTH, POPULATION AND INDUSTRY WILL BE RETARDED IN PROPORTION AS HYDRO-ELECTRIC DEVELOPMENT IS DELAYED!

THEREFORE, LET IT BE THE VITAL CONCERN OF EVERY CITIZEN IN THE STATE TO DO EVERYTHING IN HIS POWER TO FURTHER THE DEVELOPMENT AND UTILIZATION OF OUR GREAT WATER-POWER RESOURCES.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

BY making your contribution to the enlightened thought and sentiment of the community in favor of extensive power development.

BY investing in Power Company securities, a safe and sound outlet for your surplus with assured income at the highest rate consistent with non-speculative investments.

BY giving moral support and encouragement to every legitimate enterprise that looks toward the development of electricity from the rivers that are now running to waste.

WHY YOU SHOULD HELP

BECAUSE you and your business will benefit through trade expansion that must and does follow the extension of electric service.

BECAUSE much of the money needed must be gotten from Eastern investors and confidence at home begets confidence elsewhere. Back up the industries that minister to your own welfare.

BECAUSE water-power resources are wasted only when unused. When it becomes necessary to generate electricity by means of fuel, other valuable resources that cannot be replaced are exhausted.
