

APPLIED POLITICS

READ BY MRS. MATTISON JONES
AT DISTRICT FEDERATION CONVENTION

Madam President and Ladies of the Convention:
I noticed in one of our daily papers that I would take "Applied Politics" today. I don't intend to take such a dose as that, but am going to give it to you to take. Among other things, I wish you to take two hundred directions on the study of political science, which you will find in this convention hall, prepared by our general federation chairman of political science. These folders contain a splendid outline for club study of our government, and I hope every club president here will take one of these home to her own club and make use of it. There are just enough for each club to have one of them, so that is why I ask the president to secure one.

Now, brace up and get ready for this application. I don't think you will require an anesthetic.

What is "Applied Politics?" It is the art of putting into action the principles of government.

What is politics? Politics comes from the Greek word Polis, meaning city or state.

"It is that branch of ethics," says one writer, "which has for its subject the proper mode of governing a state in order to secure its prosperity, peace and safety, and to attain as perfectly as possible the ends of civil society."

What is Political Science? The same writer says, "Among the questions which Political Science embraces are, the principles on which our government is founded, the hands in which the supreme power may be most advantageously placed, the duties and obligations of the governing and governed portions of society, the development and increase of the resources of the state, the protection of the rights and liberties of the citizens, the preservation of their morals, and the defense of the independence of the state against foreign control or conquest."

These two definitions show just about as much difference between Politics and Political Science, to the average woman, as the description of an old negro servant gave of two babies.

The mothers of these babies were very jealous as to which was the most beautiful baby, and one day the darky unfortunately told one mother her baby was the pretty one, whereupon the other mother demanded an explanation. The old darky looked her baby over and then said:

"Well, about the only difference I can see in dese babies is, dis one am a little fatter dan de odder one, but dat one am a little stouter dan dis one."

However, this same writer finally explains that "while the philosophy of governing constitutes the science of politics, the art of politics is the application of that science to the individual circumstances of particular states." Then how and where should we as women begin to apply the art of politics?

The answer is, first obtain a working knowledge of the art of politics, then apply it to any condition which affects the home for the home is the seat of government.

When we, as women, realize that all political reforms should work for the betterment of conditions which either directly or indirectly affect the home, and when we learn how to secure these reforms, then, we shall see the efficient voting which is the only effective moralizer of politics. Years ago our women's clubs were looked upon as freakish affairs by the husbands, sons and brothers—and some even called them "tea-fights."

Nevertheless, we all know that in the past few years an organization of tremendous political power has come into existence consisting of over one million federated club women. A wonderful power if used rightly! From the little, isolated federated club, through the entire district, state and general federation many of the same problems are reviewed and studied in an almost endless chain! Over 30,000 of these federated sisters are our own California women who may not only study these same issues, but vote upon them as well.

The time is past when it was considered unsafe for women to vote, lest they might elect a woman to every office from governor down to constable; but the time has not yet come when our federated women, as a unit, are willing to stand up and do their duty as citizens for the protection of the home, state or nation. Some one has said, "It is the heart and not the brain that to the highest doth attain," so women who have the welfare of their homes and other women's homes at heart, should

A SACRED SPOT

MANY WILL HAVE LONELY FEELING WHEN TABERNACLE COMES DOWN

(By Publicity Committee)
Program of week:
Wednesday night, West Glendale Methodist night and banquet for the young women and girls.

Thursday, open for special feature.
Friday afternoon, women's meeting, "The Ideal Woman."

Saturday, 2:30, children's chorus and service.
Sunday, 2:30, special service for men and boys, "Chickens Come Home to Roost."

Continuance of lecture on "Isms" Tuesday afternoon, "Christian Science Under the Lens." Great exposure.

Astonishing indeed was the attendance at both services of Tuesday at the Brown and Curry tabernacle. The last week of the great revival is commencing like a fresh start and the longer people stay the more they want to stay. In the coming years thousands will have a queer feeling as they pass the lot corner of Maryland and Third, perhaps something akin to the memory of a camping expedition. And there will be a lonely feeling when the old tabernacle comes down. Visions of the mighty preacher and sweet singer of Israel will haunt the spot. There on the sawdust floor hundreds have kneeled and in whole surrender yielded their lives to God and likely some day in a far away country a faithful missionary will turn toward the sacred spot in beautiful Glendale where the life was laid upon the altar for service. Speak softly, for as the hour draws near for the time of the end, angels are busy and the Holy Spirit is striving with the many who will yet press into the kingdom.

"We would see Jesus—sense is all too blinding.
And Heaven appears too dim, too far away.
We would see Thee—to gain a sweet reminding
That Thou hast promised our great debt to pay."

At the afternoon service of Tuesday Pastor Hartsell led in prayer, asking for abundant blessing upon the faithful evangelists.

Christian Science came in for a brilliant expose. "Is it Christian?" asked the evangelist. "Is it scientific?" "Does it heal?"

In process of answering these queries it was conclusively shown that every vital Christian doctrine is denied by Christian Science, especially the atonement. O yes, they say this is a lie, but when you ask them to define their statements of doctrine they end in the ether of speculation.

No real scientist can be a Christian Scientist for the apparent reason that all known laws of matter are denied in the false hypothesis of the absurdities of Christian Science.

As for their healing, it was shown from prominent cases that the alleged cures are frauds and only in cases of "roof trouble" have results followed of any appreciable good.

It was very interesting and pathetic to people of balanced intelligence to behold the strange delusions of the last days held up to the light of God's word.

Rev. Soper of the Casa Verdugo M. E. church led in the evening prayer with grace and dignity.

"Sowing the Tares," written by a convict and dedicated to a brother convict, was sung by Mr. Curry with tremendous effect.

The sermon which followed drove home the lessons of sowing and reaping with convicting power. Gal. 6:7 was the text.

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

We sow expecting to reap. We reap what we sow. We reap a multiplied harvest. Each of the foregoing propositions was demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt and illustrated with thrilling experiences from the lives of men and women personally known to the famous evangelist.

Many responded to the brief invitation to follow Christ. Had time permitted many more would have followed. There were those who stated to personal workers that before the campaign closes they intend to take a stand for Christ. Now is the accepted time and to delay is to imperil the soul.

Tonight Evangelist Brown will deliver his interesting address on "The Unpardonable Sin." There are many interested in this important Bible theme. Come early for a good seat.

On Thursday night there will be a special treat. A gospel team from Long Beach will be on hand to assist Mr. Brown in the service. It is expected that the local carpenters' union will report in a body. Turn to hymn number 132.

NEWS OF HIGH SCHOOL LIST OF BILLS ALLOWED

LOCAL BOY WILL APPEAR IN CONCERT—SPRING VACATION SOON

Cecil Crandall, a local violinist, will give a concert at the high school auditorium on the evening of Friday, March 19. He is being brought out by his teacher, Mr. Arnold Krauss. Mr. Crandall has devoted two years in the exclusive study of music and has been greatly praised for his ability, both as a violinist and composer. He will be assisted in the concert by Mrs. Dixon of Los Angeles, who will appear in a number of songs. Mrs. Schulman will be the accompanist. The complete program will appear later.

In connection with Mr. Crandall's recital it might be stated that he left his high school course in the local school two years ago to finish his musical education. He has served as concert master of the high school orchestra for the past three years and has always graciously assisted Mrs. Gibson's organization in all of its concerts. His many high school friends wish him success in his chosen work.

Spring vacation at Glendale Union high school will come a week early this year in order to conform with the city schools' vacation time. The last week's work of the third semester will be continued over the vacation in the change. Vacation will start Friday, March 26.

Work has been started in preparation for the annual oratorical contest, which is to be held the second week after the spring vacation at the high school.

The senior German class, under the direction of Miss Helen M. Darsie, are preparing the little comedy entitled "Der Meisterschaft," to be presented one afternoon in the near future. Miss Darsie says she has so much dramatic talent in her class that two casts are preparing the play and she will only decide at the last moment which cast to use.

Athletics at the local school are looking prosperous, if such a term can be used. The surveying class has started work on the new field and track lay-out. Track athletes are busy keeping in form and the baseball fans are beginning to demonstrate what sort of curves they can throw out of the catcher's reach.

Friday evening at 8 o'clock the people of Glendale will again enjoy a lively debate, the third and last of the year. Coach W. D. Root announces all new talent for this event and George Dyer and Howard Stickney will affirm on the peaceful element of the Monroe Doctrine, with Lincoln high the negative team. Stickney has had inter-class experience and Dyer promises to ably support his partner. Mr. Root will take Paul Brooks and Donald Cowlin over to Santa Ana, where they will make their initial bow in the league debating game. Cowlin was a senior class debater in the recent inter-class series, while it is reported that Paul Brooks has assimilated ten books of facts on the subject. Success to them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Harrison of 245 South Kenwood street had as dinner guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lennox of Van Nuys and Mrs. Miss Catherine Lennox on Tuesday. We suppose the real attraction is the new grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, who arrived recently.

P. T. A. NOTES

MISS EDNAH RICH TO BE GUEST OF GLENDALE WORKERS ALL DAY THURSDAY

Miss Ednah A. Rich, president of the Santa Barbara state normal school, is to be in Glendale all day tomorrow, Thursday, March 11th. In the morning Miss Rich is to be the special guest of the intermediate school faculty, and will be entertained by the domestic science department at luncheon. In the afternoon she will address the high school student body at the high school auditorium. Miss Rich possesses a peculiar charm as a speaker, and appeals particularly to the young people, in whom she is vitally interested.

At 3:15 Miss Rich will address the parents of the community and their guests. The high school orchestra, whose music is such a pleasing feature of the high school activities, has kindly consented to open the program with a selection. Miss Rich's topic for discussion is, "How We May Increase the Efficiency of the Home," and should be of special interest to parents of the future home-makers. Miss Rich is capable of giving excellent advice in this respect, for she has made a life study of home conditions.

The P. T. A. Federation, under whose auspices Miss Rich has been secured, has invited as special guests, the Tuesday Afternoon club, the Thursday Afternoon club of Tropico, the Twentieth Century club of Eagle Rock, the P. T. A. of Tropico and Eagle Rock, and particularly our own teachers. Anyone not affiliated with any of these organizations is welcome to attend. There is no charge for admission.

After the lecture, the audience will adjourn to the beautiful and finely equipped quarters of the high school domestic science department, which has been very kindly placed at the disposal of the ladies. Here tea will be served by the following ladies in charge of Mrs. H. A. McPherson: Mmes. A. R. Chappell, W. D. McRae, L. L. Frazee, C. E. Howell, Blake Franklin, S. C. Packer, C. Loretta Morehouse, J. W. West, A. S. Chase, M. E. Kinnaman.

On Wednesday, March 17th, at the high school auditorium, at 3:15, the federation will celebrate Founder's Day. This is in the nature of a memorial to the grand woman who founded the Congress of Mothers, Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst of California, who has done so much toward looking after the interests of the girl students at the University of California at Berkeley, and Mrs. Theodore W. Birney, who has passed into the Beyond.

The program will consist of a number by the high school glee club, a reading by Mrs. C. W. Heinen, and addresses by Mrs. C. H. Ritchie, president of the first district, California Congress of Mothers, and Mrs. C. F. Sawyer, president of the Long Beach P. T. A. federation. Mrs. Ritchie will speak on "The Congress of Mothers—Its Accomplishments," and Mrs. Sawyer will address the audience on "Character Building." This latter fine address has been given again and again through Southern California, and we are fortunate to have Mrs. Sawyer to give it to Glendale.

Tea will be served in the domestic science rooms at the close of the program. All are invited.

Members of the Glendale Choral club will be guests of their director, Prof. J. B. Poulin, at a concert to be given by the Lyric club of Los Angeles at Trinity auditorium Friday evening.

INTERESTING MEETING

CIVICS COMMITTEE OF TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB HAS A FINE PROGRAM

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held by the Tuesday Afternoon club in Masonic Temple on Tuesday. The rooms were elaborately decorated by Mrs. Chas. Homer Temple and Mrs. Jno. Hunchberger with the beautiful feathery golden acacia.

The program was in charge of the civics committee, of which Mrs. Frank Grosvenor is chairman, who presented Mrs. C. H. Ritchie on Civics and Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, who spoke on "The Solidarity of Women."

Mrs. Barrett spoke of the international meetings of women in Rome and London which she has recently attended, where queens and crown princesses met on the same footing with herself and women from all parts of the globe, in the consideration of questions of international interest to women of every walk in life, demonstrating the solidarity of women. Her special work is along the lines of preventive measures, especially of rescue work among women.

Mrs. Ritchie, district chairman of civics, gave the following paper: "The state chairman of civics has divided the work into three general groups as follows: First, 'The Immigration Question.' Se says, study this question. Have speakers on immigration days. Do what you can to impress the community with the importance of the immigration problem. Co-operate with others doing settlement work. To this end I would add: Make a special study of immigrant women. She will need all your help in adjusting herself to new environments, as well as our protection.

Second, 'Beautify for 1915.' This has been gone into so thoroughly by the press and the club that it needs little attention, but please remember it is necessary to be beautiful every other year, as well as 1915. Therefore, do not relax when this year is over. Clean and plant all the time that your community may be a thing of beauty and a joy every year. Work for more and uniform tree planting. We need it all over California. If you have a main thoroughfare or county road through your town, see to it that they are planted in a manner to give a lasting impression of your vicinity. We are neglecting the stately pepper trees these days. Remember it when you are street planting.

Third, 'Public Welfare Work.' Investigate food and sanitary conditions in your community. Work for city ordinances that will better these conditions and see to it that they are enforced. Co-operate in juvenile court work. Work with the Parent-Teacher association for better school conditions, public play grounds and social centers. Try to suppress unnecessary noises. Swat the fly and don't forget the mosquito, and where it breeds.

Under this head I would lay special stress on the necessity of a thorough study of your city ordinances. You cannot be equipped for first class work unless you have a thorough knowledge of the laws under which you live. I find that city councils are very quick to respond to the will of the voters if the matter has been sanely discussed, prepared and presented. But make haste slowly on a foundation of common sense. Every organization of women should have a juvenile court committee and let it be known to your police as well as your club. This committee's business should be to do all in its power to adjust matters of juvenile delinquency and keep the children out of the juvenile court. While we have a fine juvenile court, it is the last place we wish to have the children go, and it is our duty to the rising generation that we keep them clear of the stigma that always remains on a child when taken to court. Make the boy and girl good citizens while they are young and you will have little need of fighting for good laws and ordinances in the next generation. Good citizens make good cities."

Miss Ruby Dale, a recent member of the club and a very talented musician in Glendale, gave a beautiful piano solo, and Mrs. Wm. Herman West, another of the club's talented members, gave the song "With Verdure Clad" from Hayden's "Creation," most beautifully. She responded to an encore with "The Last Rose of Summer."

At the close of the program delicious home made cake and tea were served by Mrs. L. C. Rice, Mrs. M. P. Harrison, Mrs. Frank Muhleman, Mrs. Glenwood Jones, Mrs. John Hunchberger, Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Miss Ruth Byram, Mrs. P. A. Kranz and Mrs. Sara Pitcher.

PERSONALS

Mrs. R. P. Foss of 1460 Salem street has been quite ill at her home for several days, but hopes soon to be about again.

Mrs. Jas. Bonty and son George of Los Angeles spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Eastman of 621 Burchett street.

H. W. Page of 1638 Oak street is building a large brooder house and will go quite extensively into the poultry business.

W. R. Wyley, secretary to Supt. Hibbard of the Santa Fe general office in Los Angeles, has moved his family to 1559 Penn street, Glendale.

Mrs. J. E. Yancy, wife of a prominent Bakersfield capitalist, is a house guest of Mrs. W. M. Crawford of 916 South Central avenue for several days.

Peter Christenson of 505 Cherry street has bought the lot adjoining him on the north and moved onto it a small house he purchased at 1417 Hawthorne.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker of 227 Central avenue have as their guest this week their daughter, Mrs. Lyman of San Bernardino, who is up for a little visit.

One of the pretty affairs of the coming week will be the luncheon on Wednesday afternoon to be given by Mrs. C. H. Sanders of 1510 West Seventh street to twelve friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Bancroft of 119 South Brand boulevard, Tropic, entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart M. Street.

Miss Agnes Pratt, who has been staying with a friend, Mrs. P. H. Connors of 884 Damasco court, started Tuesday for Dexter, Mich., in response to a telegram announcing that her brother was dying.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Austin of Wisconsin, with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Perry of Los Angeles, were callers recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnston of 335 Everett street.

Mrs. Estella Fish of 1565 West Seventh street received word Monday of the death of her husband at Granite City, Ill., where she resided when she was forced to come to California for her health.

The Bible study class of the West Side division, S. D. A., met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Shafer, 1453 West Broadway. The class meets every Wednesday afternoon for study of the Bible and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Walter Phillips, wife and Miss Violet have moved to Los Angeles and their house at 1617 Colorado boulevard is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Goad, who recently returned from Indiana, where they were called a few months ago by the death of Mrs. Goad's mother.

Mr. John Morris returned Saturday from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Pomona. Mr. Morris' cousin came over and took him to Pomona in his machine and while there he enjoyed trips to Riverside and Lordsburg and other interesting points, which he very much appreciated.

On Monday evening Mrs. W. M. Crawford of 916 South Central avenue entertained at dinner in honor of the birthday of her father, Dr. J. H. Henry of Truckee, who is spending the month of March here. White lilies were used by the hostess in decorating the table, where covers were laid for five.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Parker from Mason City, Iowa, have been visiting at the home of Mr. S. G. Griffith, 1471 Salem street, for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Parker visit either in Florida or Southern California every winter, and now they are so delighted with Glendale that they are seriously considering coming here to make their home.

Miss Catharine Lewis is entertaining the Robinette club at her home today. The club is composed of a few clever girls of Glendale with beautiful voices and not a little originality and it is whispered that within the month a costume program is scheduled, full of delightful surprises for the public.

The art and travel section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet with Mrs. J. F. Hearnshaw of 1458 Lomita avenue a week from this coming Friday. Mrs. Hearnshaw is going to give the class a series of lessons in china painting, and the work will be a most interesting feature of the study for the year.

Mrs. Louise M. Blackman of 1550 Burchett street and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Baillie of the California apartments, are making the trip to Mount Lowe today, in the hopes of getting a good view of the surrounding country. The clouds are hanging so low, however, that it is feared the view will not be very clear.

Mrs. M. Viohl, mother of Mrs. J. F. Hearnshaw of 1458 Lomita avenue, and Mrs. C. H. Sanders of 1510 West Seventh street, have just returned from an extended trip to Chicago, covering a period of seven months. Mrs. Viohl, while she had a lovely time in the East, is very glad to get home to Glendale and says she feels as if she never wanted to leave again.

Mr. J. H. Culver and wife, who have been living at 871 South Louise for a year or more, returned last week to their old home in Fredonia, Kans., to look after property interests for some time.

Members of the Fraternal Brotherhood in Glendale met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Hunt, 121 West Fifth street, one evening last week for a social time. Members of the Glendale lodge are going to have these little get-together times often now and cultivate the social spirit more fully. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Benson in Los Angeles on the 22nd, and it is hoped that a large number will attend, as a pleasant time is promised.

Mrs. Chas. E. Hutchinson of 200 Orange street gave a 12 o'clock luncheon today in celebration of her birthday. Pink carnations and ferns were prettily arranged on the table, at which covers were laid for Mrs. Noyes of Los Angeles, Mrs. White of Hollywood, Mrs. Snyder of Los Angeles, Mrs. Moody of Tropic and the hostess. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent by the ladies in needlework and chat, and they all wished Mrs. Hutchinson many happy returns of the day.

A most enjoyable card party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton of 1428 Arden avenue on Saturday evening. The living-room and den were bright with red geraniums and ferns, while daffodils graced the dining-room. Five hundred was the game and a delicious supper was served at 12 o'clock. All of the guests declared they had spent a most happy evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kimmel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Duane Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilber, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Brubaker, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rathbone, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Maranville, Mrs. Kate Bonty and the host and hostess.

OPPOSED TO SLANDER

Whatever appears in the columns of the Evening News in the way of literary contributions that has the flavor of slander or unfair fault-finding, is not sanctioned by the management of the Evening News. There is enough bad in everyone to bar him from too severely criticizing in public his neighbor.

The bee gets honey from the same flower from which the spider gets poison. As we mingle among our fellow men, why not be in a position to see the good they do, and neglect to notice the bad?

The ideal character should be placed as an example before the public. We should imitate that which is faultless and turn our back upon that which is not ideal.

MRS. BANCROFT HOSTESS

Mrs. Leigh Bancroft of 119 South Brand boulevard, Tropic, entertained the Tropic Bridge Luncheon club on Tuesday. The rooms were beautifully decorated in manzanita flowers, while the table was in yellow and white, fern leaf acacia blossoms being used very effectively.

Luncheon was at one, and the afternoon was spent in playing bridge, Mrs. Wm. Harvey winning the prize, a beautiful silver tea ball. Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. B. W. Richardson and Mrs. Harry Bowman, and club members present were Mrs. Charles Barker and Mrs. Harry Coleman of Pasadena, Mrs. Stuart Street, Mrs. Wm. Mabry, Mrs. Wm. Harvey and the hostess, Mrs. Bancroft.

The next meeting of the Tropic Bridge Luncheon club will be at the home of Mrs. Stuart Street of 205 Acacia avenue.

MRS. PENNINGTON

Mrs. Brusella Ann Pennington was born May 10, 1837, and died March 6, 1915, at the age of 77 years at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Taylor, on Sixth street, Burbank. The cause of her death was senility. She had resided with her daughter for ten years.

The Scovern-Letton-Frey company of Tropic were in charge of the funeral services, which were held at the late residence Monday at one o'clock. Burial was in Grand View cemetery.

ELECT DIRECTORS

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Cal., March 8 (Special).—Annual election of officers and reports for the year of the president and treasurer of the Pacific Press Publishing association were matters which received the attention of the members at their annual meeting here today. Nearly two million tracts were issued by the Pacific press for the Seventh Day Adventists of the western half of the continent during 1914, according to the manager's annual report, submitted today. C. H. Jones, the manager, said the total sales for the year amounted to $471,126, of which $337,537 was books; $131,149 tracts, and $2402 miscellaneous. Rapid growth has necessitated enlargements of the buildings and installation of new machinery.

Besides enlarging the home plant, the institution has sent printing machinery to China, Japan, Korea, the Philippines, India, South America and South Africa during the last six years using for this purpose $15,563.

H. G. Childs, treasurer of the publishing house, said in his annual report that the net gain for 1914 of $32,144 is larger than ever before in the history of the institution. Including the branches at Kansas City, Portland, Ore., and Calgary, Canada,

The banner which was won in Long Beach by Mrs. P. S. McNutt of the parliamentary law class, was formally presented to the Tuesday Afternoon club by Mrs. McNutt with a delightful little speech.

Mrs. W. E. Evans and Mrs. P. S. McNutt were each presented with a little gold pin in the shape of a key with the words "Parliamentary Law" on one side and "From the Tuesday Afternoon Club" on the other; these were given as a mark of their excellence in parliamentary law.

Mrs. A. L. Weaver gave a condensed report of the Long Beach convention held last week.
