GHS 'Y' Clubs Awarded Plaque In Assembly

Gainesville Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs were awarded a first place plaque for presenting at the recent Youth Assembly the best bill dealing with motor vehicles.

The bill provides for semi-annual inspection of all motor vehicles in order to keep off the public roads and highways any that might contain mechanical defects. This bill successfully passed both House and Senate.

Provost Speaks To Science Classes

Clinton Provost gave an account to Mrs. June Woodruff and Coach Brown Flournoy's science classes last Wednesday afternoon of the trip which he and his brother Charles took to the West Indies.

The purpose of this trip was to study Witchcraft and the various customs of the Voodoo. To illustrate his points the speaker gave some of the native songs and dances and told weird stories of their customs; for example, the dances which the Voodoo girls did on hot coals, calling on their gods and goddesses as they danced to the sounds of the drums. Also an interesting account was given of an eight year old girl that was hanged and a marine that was skinned alive.

Although some of them go to a Christian church, they still cling to their old customs of Voodooism.

Through the efforts of the delegates, Joy Price, Bill Hoffman, Ann Rogers, Sonny Crosby, Shirley Higgins, Charlotte Flettner, Bobby Reynolds, and Sam Dayton, were the "Y" Clubs able to secure the plaque. Joy Price was chairman of the committee on motor vehicles, of which Charlotte Flettner was secretary and Miss Ruth Goudelock, advisor. Mrs. Leon Hughes was advisor to the boys.

The delegates spent the three days, Thursday afternoon, Friday and Saturday, speaking, listening, hurrying, making friends, and being late.

So little time was allowed for eating during the day, that the delegates were forced to satisfy their appetites after the adjournment at 5:00 P. M. at which time they made up the day's loss!

Much enjoyed by all was the semi-formal ball given in the Hurst Room of the Fix Theater Friday night from 8:00 - 11:00. Spice was added to the music of the orchestra by the infiltration of Tech boys who knew how to put the music to good use.

"SPEC" TOWNS SPEAKS AT FOOTBALL BANQUET

The annual GHS football banquet for the 1952 season was held last night in the high school cafeteria with Coach Forrest Towns featured as guest speaker.

Roast turkey headed the menu prepared by Miss Tyner and her Home Ec. girls. Gravy and dressing, French beans, cranberry sauce, stuffed celery, carrot curls, rolls, cake, ice cream, and milk or coffee were also served to the Red Elephants and their guests.

Coach Clayton Deavers announced the lettermen, and the squad elected next year's captain. The guests were introduced by Superintendent C. J. Cheves. Dr. Jacobs announced the winner of the "Blocking Trophy," and Mr. Orenstein of Gem Jewelry Company presented a watch to the most valuable player of 1952.

Jack Jackson, who writes Georgia high school sports for the Atlanta Journal, spoke briefly and then introduced the principal speaker, Coach Forrest (Spec) Towns. Coach Towns is the present track coach at the University of Georgia. He competed in the Olympics in 1936, and he has won more championships and medals than any other athlete in the Southeastern Conference. He ranks with such all-time athletes as baseball's Ty Cobb.

This feast ended another year of football festivities.

Seniors Arrange Florida Vacation

Good tidings of great joy! The Seniors are finally assured of a class trip. Final arrangements have been completed for the five day trip to Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Seniors will leave early in June, spending one day on the trip down, three days at Daytona Beach, and one day on the trip back. The Silver Beach Apartments, which are a few short blocks off the Boardwalk, will be headquarters for the class trip.

Mysterious Visitor Rambles Again

According to the famous old North Carolinian saying, "There's a mouse in the house and there's no doubt about it." At GHS we seem to have a "stranger" in the house and there's no doubt about it.

During his several visits to GHS, he has slept in the Home Ec lab and ransacked the teacher's desks. Also he slept in the Red Elephants bus, where he left the Home Ec. pillow slip and some blankets.

Although nothing of any consequence has been reported missing as yet, if anything does disappear, the "stranger" will, of course, be blamed for it.

These remarks were gathered from the comments of several teachers. One said, "I didn't mind coming in and finding all my junk out on the floor as much as I wished that the "stranger" had taken the trouble to sort it out and throw away all the unnecessary mess."

Another said, "He was rambling around in places he had no business to be."

A third was so astonished at the conduct of a supposed GHS student, that she only said, "I was very amazed to see things of this sort going on around here. I have never known anything like it to happen before in Gainesville in all my years of teaching."

Only one thing was really reported missing: 5 pecans. The teacher said, "I was glad for the "stranger" to have the nuts, if he was really hungry, but he evidently doesn't have very good manners, because he didn't even bother to clear away the shells."

If the "stranger" is looking for publicity, he is getting it, a very unfavorable type. Several students have been heard to say that they hope they don't know this "vandal" very well, as it would surely break up many a friendship.

If the "stranger" will call in the office for his cap that he left by the note "The Stranger" on one teacher's desk, he will no longer be a stranger.

SENIORS CHOOSE SCHOOLS AS RESULT OF COLLEGE DAY

As a result of the "College Day" held here, many seniors have made their choice for the college they wish to attend next year.

Some of these students and their choices are as follows:

Ann Rogers, Randolph Macon; Patti Palmour, Brenau-Sweetbriar; Rosemary Wood, Wesleyan; Shirley Tolbert, North Georgia College; Harry Brown, Tech; Ronald Bolden, Tech.

Phillip Hulsey, Tech; Shirley Whelchel, Randolph-Macon; Lavinia Whatley, Agnes Scott; Sue Oliver, Agnes Scott; Joy Price, Mary Washington; Joann Pope, Mary Washington; Becky Byrd Kelly, Sweetbriar.

Margie Meeks, Radcliff; Charles Robocker, North Georgia College; Sonny Crosby, Tech or Mercer; Eleanor Brannon, Mercer; Joy Saine, Sullins; Joe Herrin, Tech.

Patsy Williams, Brenau; Bobby Howard, Georgia; Bert Doss, Georgia; Billy Vardeman, Auburn Ennis Moore, North Georgia; Jack Arams, Tampa University.

Bob Reynolds, Massachusetts Institute Technology; Bill Collins, North Georgia College; Ann Barrett, Brenau, Georgia Baptist; Louie Davis, Mercer; Shirley Wiggins, Emory; Noel Doster Mercer.

Barbara Bell, Brenau or Georgia University; Ronald Burgess, Georgia; Jack Prather, North Georgia College; Joyce Tyner, North Georgia College; Bill Hoffman, Tech; Madge Martin, Brenau; Betty Kesler, North Georgia College.

Watch for the choices of the other seniors in our following issues.

Teen-Age Book Club Is Formed At GHS

A teen-age book club was recently organized at Gainesville High School for the purpose of giving interested students access to books of their special interest.

The minimum number of ten met to form the club; but one has been added, and several have expressed a desire to join in at the next meeting.

Only one officer, secretary, is chosen for this organization. Emma Peck was elected to this office, and Mrs. June Woodruff and Miss Nellie Johnson will serve as sponsors.

Mixed Chorus Gives Concert

The Gainesville High School mixed chorus made its first appearance to the GHS students today at the morning chapel. The program consisted of the following eight songs with a few students doing solo parts: "The Heavens Are Telling," "Luther's Cradle Hymn," - Margie Joiner, soloist; "We Three Kings of Orient Are," "O, Holy Night" - Patsy Whitmire and Roy Barnes, soloist; "Silent Night," "Carol of the Bells," "Carol Noel," and "Are You Sleeping."

The new girls ensemble, consisting of Patsy Whitmire, Beverly Brown, Margie Joiner, Rosemary Wood, Marie Westbrook, Janet Jewell, Jeannine Payne, Madge Martin, and June Hardy, also sang two selections.

Christmas - Similarities And Differences

by Charlotte Flettner

Now, many thoughts are all connected with that one, so well-known word-Christmas. It is the day of Christ's birth. He came into the world that we would have peace. It is a feast of love, and for one time in the year the people come closer together. They think of their friends and neighbors, and they carefully prepare Christmas presents to show their affection for their loved ones. It is time when all people are happy and where the family meets under the lighted Christmas tree.

All over the world in each Christian country, the people celebrate Christmas, whether it is under the hot sun on the beach of Florida or in a little snow covered home in Germany. The meaning of this high holiday is the same everywhere; just the customs, which are brought over by tradition, are a little different.

In Germany the Christmas time starts with the Advent Time. We count the four Sundays before Christmas, and on each one we light another candle on our Advent-wreath made of Christmas greens (fir free-branches). When all four candles are lighted, we know that the Yule season is, as you Americans say, "just around the corner." On the first of December the small children often get from their parents an Advent-calendar with 24 little windows with pictures underneath. Every day they open another window and can hardly wait 'till they are allowed to tear off the biggest and last one, which means, "Today is Christmas Eve."

Advent time is very exciting, including all the secret work on presents and the smell of Christmas cookies, made by mother, which are tempting to all.

On the night of December 5, St. Nicholas comes to the children; and if they have been bad, they will get nothing but whippings.

Now at last Christmas Eve is here, the night for which old and young people have been excitedly awaiting.

The tree is decorated secretly by the parents with candles and bells.

Late in the afternoon, after it is dark, a bell rings; and that is the signal for the children to come into the room to see the lighted tree, hear the story of Christ's birth, sing Christmas carols and enjoy their presents. Then the whole family goes together to the Christmas Church service.

The remaining two Holidays, December 25 and 26, are used to visit relatives and to exchange presents.

Christmas is a time of understanding. Let us all remember when we are enjoying our Christmas festivals that our brothers and sisters all over the world are celebrating too; let us carry the joyful light of Christmas through the year, and work together to realize the true meaning of this Christian holiday, understanding and peace.

That Old Goat - Exams

"Exams after Christmas!" What a terrifying thought!

These three words would drive one to madness!

Why should this fiendish scheme, exams, ever have been devised? Why should the spirit of Christmas be marred by a nightmare full of questions without answers? Why should the peaceful Yuletide dreams of parties and presents, of gaily lighted trees, of candy and turkey, and cake be suddenly interrupted by the ghosts of English, Latin and Algebra?

You ask, in desperation, "After the sounds of laughter have died away and the Christmas bells are silent; after the dancing is over and the gifts are laid aside - what then?"

There comes that haunting reply from nowhere - those three words that stab like a dagger through the heart - "Exams after Christmas." You recall that holiday dinner, the most lavish of the year, and your heart goes out to the cell-weary prisoner as he sits down to his last meal on earth. You will try to be brave, but you know that on January 5 as you walk down the school corridor toward your home room, you will feel the presence at your side of that poor, condemned soul as he walks that last long mile to the execution chamber. There is no hope, no reprieve, no turning back. (The die is cast.)

True, Christmas comes but once a year, but exams go on forever.

REAL MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

What does Christmas mean to you? Do you think of it as a time of feasting and pleasure, or a time to be thankful for the gift of God's grace? We know that Christmas is Jesus' birthday, and we should have a happy time sharing this good news with others and think of ways to remember Him at Christmas.

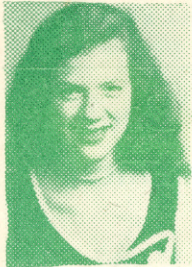

Let's let the first ingredient in our Christmas recipe be a cup of thoughtfulness for our families around Christmas. The next is a sprinkling of kindness to others. Why not call the next ingredient courtesy? Maybe we should add one more ingredient to the Christmas recipe. It is hard to describe, but it could be called right choice. Sometimes it is hard to know what to do. We should be faithful to our church as it celebrates the birthday of the King. We want to have fun during the holidays from school, but we also want to spend them wisely. Be careful of your choices!

WHAT WILL IT BE?

by Ann Rogers

Attending a Youth Assembly is a truly great opportunity, which I wish all youths could have.

Sitting behind my big mahogany desk in the House of Representatives, I could not help but experience many strange sensations.

First I had a feeling of deep pride that our country and our state has a democratic form of government in which we the people may choose the persons we wish to supervise our way of life. Then I thought what a great honor it must be to be elected to the House of Representatives, and what a great responsibility one would have. I wondered if some great statesman had sat in the desk in which I was now sitting.

As I looked around the room and heard the various opinions being expressed, some of which I thought were good, others bad, I wished the founders of our state might look in on us that day. They would no doubt be proud to see so many youths interested in the state's affairs and offering ways in which the state might be improved and the people therein benefitted.

Last of all I thought to myself, "There is so much that I and others like me should do to fulfill your duty of being a good citizen. And I would like to pass this on to you as a challenge. Let's try to learn all we can in school and take advantage of all our opportunities; let's keep informed about our state, national, and world affairs; let's always consider both sides of a question and think of other people's interests as well as our own. Let's do all this (and more) so that when our turn comes to man the "Ship of State" we may steer her wisely toward a safe harbor where, by faith, understanding and love, men live peacefully with their brothers.

RESOLUTIONS FOR A NEW YEAR

by Harry Brown

It's time to start thinking about your New Year's resolutions again. I don't mean that in the usual sense. Most of us make a long list of resolutions; then at the end of the list we resolve not to keep any of them next year.

That kind of New Year's resolution never does any good.

We should all try this year to make resolutions that will help us live a better year. I am going to list a few of my ideas for resolutions that should help us to be better students.

First, we resolve to study harder and do our best to raise our grades to a true indication of our ability.

Second, we resolve to be cooperative with our teachers and realize what we owe them.

Third, we resolve to help take care of our campus and building and to have more pride in their condition.

Fourth, we resolve to be more cooperative in obeying the rules of our school. We may resent them or we may not understand them, but they are for our own good, and we should obey them.

Fifth, we resolve to be ladies and gentlemen at all times. Courtesy and tact will be our greatest assets in later life.

With these resolutions, we should be better students and better people. Just remember, making them doesn't help you; it's the keeping them that counts.

Peace on Earth Good Will Toward Men

by Shirley Whelchel

The old maxim "If you wish for peace, prepare for war" seems to be the slogan all over the world today as nation after nation hurries into a vast rearmament program totaling billions of dollars. Is this the way to peace? Will nations ever settle their difficulties by killing each other?

As we come into this yuletide season, we should be thankful that our nation has never known what war of invasion is like. We in America have not known what it is like to have our homes destroyed by bombs, and our loved ones killed by enemies right in front of our eyes. Other nations would not have to face these disasters either if there were peace in the hearts of people all over the world.

There are only two possible methods by which men can live together in the world. One is the way of force; the other is the way of love. Force has failed. How long will it be before men can peacefully live together? The only way to do this is to have love in our hearts for our fellow man.

We should seriously think about what Christmas really is and why we celebrate it.

Being the future citizens of America, we, the high school students, should do something to promote peace and good will throughout our school and community not only at Xmas time but always. In doing this we would be following in the footsteps of Christ, because he was put on this earth to promote peace and good will in the hearts of men everywhere.

This is what the angels meant when they said:

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Tigers Down GHS Despite Comeback

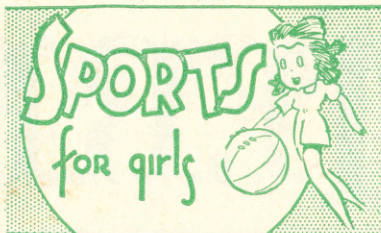

Despite a brilliant comeback in the second half, the Red Elephants lost their first court game to the Dawsonville Tigers, Friday December 12, by a score of 48-38. The Elephants concentrated on setting up plays, passing the ball around and waiting for the breaks, while Dawsonville sank enough points to lead 17-6 at half time. Coach Clayton Deavers had his team practice shooting during the half, a strategy that paid off during the second half. The Gainesville team however, sank only two out of 27 attempted foul shots during the first half. The home team started rolling in the second half with A. B. Sailors leading the way, and by the end of the third quarter the score was 33-15. Gainesville scored more points in the third quarter than in the first two. In spite of this comeback, the Dawsonville team was able to hold its lead until the final buzzer sounded. Sailors was high for the Elephants with 9, followed by Lackey with 6, and Prather and Franklin with 5 each.

Beta Club Holds Annual Banquet

by Lucille McCrary
The Beta Club held its annual banquet for the induction of new members on Monday evening, at the Avion restaurant. There were sixty members present, the sponsor, J. A. Webster, and five visitors: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Callison, Mrs. Allan Webster, and Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Johnson, Sr. Mrs. Johnson, better known to all the GHS students as "Miss Sue," was the guest speaker. The program consisted of two songs by Patsy Whitmire and Jeannine Payne and the talk by "Miss Sue," who used as her theme, "Boy-Girl Relations." The decorations featured the emblem, colors and motto of the club. There was a backdrop of a large Beta Club emblem, and the table was decorated with yellow flowers. The program further carried out the decoration motif.

Winder Sinks Lady Elephants

by "Speedy"
The GHS girls, playing their second game of the season, went down to a fast moving girls team from Winder.

GHS was behind only 5 points at the half, but Winder roared back the last half to take the game by a score of 53 to 26.

Speedy Tolbert and Jane Hardy ran a close race for top scoring honors. Speedy sank 14, and Jane followed with 12. Mary Reese, a converted guard, exercised her great speed by snatching rebounds throughout the game.

Jefferson's scoring was widely distributed.

Betty Gilreath, Cecile Bruce, and Jo Anne Adams played a good game at guard for GHS. Betty Gilreath went out on fouls early in the third quarter, and JoAnne Adams went out in the fourth. Bruce, who stole the ball from the opponents many times throughout the game, stayed in 'till the finish.

Elephants Defeat Jefferson 43 to 38

by Ward Robocker
Gainesville sports fans got their first look at this season's basketball squad when they defeated Jefferson December 3 by a score of 43 to 38. The game was close all the way with Gainesville coming from behind in the final quarter to win.

The Gainesville five looked very good considering the time they had to practice. The team was harp on ball-handling and on the backboards. Center Lou Lackey was high point man for the locals with 13 points. Jack Prather was close behind with 11 points, followed by Johnny Vardeman with 7.

Gainesville's defense stole the ball so many times Jefferson didn't know who had it most of the time. The refense tightened up in the last quarter and almost bottled up the Jefferson offense.

Coach Deavers said after the game that the team will play even better opponents from now on, most of whom have been playing for a month or more.

GHS QUINTET DOWNS TO TUNE OF 44 TO 32

by Sonny Sykes
The big Red Elephant hoopsters recently took the Winder Bulldogs to 44 to 32 for the second straight victory of the season. The Elephants led the fast Winder basketesters all through the contest. Jumping Jack Prather led the Big Red by ripping the nets for 15 points, followed by Lou Lackey, who had 8. Johnny Vardeman and Julian Franklin hit the hoop for 6 apiece, while Billy Vardeman tallied 5 points. Tom Robertson and A. B. Sailors managed to get 2 apiece. The GHS five out-shown Winder as they passed the ball smoothly and set up plays with more confidence. According to the coaches, "The team seems to have much spirit as they improve after each game, and each practice improves their shooting as they hit the bucket more frequently."

NEW BOOKS

by Albert Hardy
The Gainesville High School recently added thirty-three new books to the library. They are as follows:

Elephant Athletes Win Scholarships

by Sonny Sykes
Two GHS athletes, Bert Doss and Bobby Howard, and a former GHS athlete, Harold Pilgrim, were recently awarded scholarships to the University of Georgia for their superior athletic records. Harry Wing is attending Florida University on a scholarship, also.

In an interview with Coach Deavers, he stated, "For many a scholarship is a way for an education through football, especially for hardworking boys like Bert Doss, Bobby Howard, Harold Pilgrim, and Harry Wing, some of whom might not have had an opportunity for an education if it were not for football. I'm sure these boys will live up to the high standards which they have obtained from Gainesville High and make us all proud of them."

It was announced Sunday that Bobby Howard and Bert Doss were named on the Class A All-State team. Gainesville, Rockmart and Valdosta High Schools were the only ones to place two or more players on the team.

of stories of all different kinds: pioneering, love, sports, adventure, etc. I think I am going to read some. How about you? Come on!
