LOCAL CATTLE IN SELECTION SHIPPED

November Was Particularly Gloomy Month; Cold Wave Spreading on Prairies
The first shipment of cattle from British Columbia to the Hawaiian Islands left Vancouver on Saturday morning for San Francisco, where it will board the SS. Lurline from Kahalui, Island of Maui. The shipment consisted of eighteen pure-bred Jerseys and two pure-bred Jerseys, and is composed of selected animals of the finest breeding and showyard type from the leading herds of the Province of British Columbia.

SUNSHINE FAR BELOW AVERAGE LAST MONTH

November was a particularly gloomy month, according to the weather figures submitted by F. Napier Denison, superintendent of the Gonzales Observatory. During the thirty days there were only 51 hours and 24 minutes of sunshine, which is 25 hours below the average. On 13 days no sunshine whatever was recorded.

Holsteins From Saanich Farms Go to Hawaiian Islands

During the thirty days there were only 51 hours and 24 minutes of sunshine, which is 25 hours below the average. On 13 days no sunshine whatever was recorded.

One of the Jerseys was obtained from Dr. W. Swenerton, of Vancouver, and the other came from the herd of B. H. Bull & Son. The entire order was selected by Professor J. A. McLean, of the University of British Columbia, and every animal has been chosen with the utmost care. The request for this Canadian stock is a direct outgrowth of the visit which Professor McLean made to the Territory of Hawaii last summer for the purpose of judging the livestock at their exhibition.

During the thirty days there were only 51 hours and 24 minutes of sunshine, which is 25 hours below the average. On 13 days no sunshine whatever was recorded.

This shipment opens a new and large field for British Columbia dairy farms and in all probability is simply a forerunner for a good trade which awaits the livestock breeders of British Columbia. If they fully prepare themselves to meet it, John York and his son William accompany the lot, the son going only to San Francisco, while the father goes to the ultimate destination.

David Lister, of St. Aidan's, will give the preparatory address. The session will receive into full communion a number of new members. Following the preparatory meeting the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed next Lord's Day morning. Among the visiting preachers expected to visit St. Paul's during the month of December are Dr. Buchanan, of Central India, and Col. John Pringle, Moderator of the General Assembly.

Metropolitans and Wests Tied in Intermediate League

Intermediate.

Wests, 2; Yarrows, 2.
Saanich Rovers, 4; Firemen, 1.
Metropolis, 5; Army and Navy, 2.

The expected happened in most instances in the soccer league games Saturday, and the points won and lost make little difference in the league standing, with the exception that the Army and Navy Veterans stepped up a couple of notches. The Navy men also improved their goal average considerably by scoring eight at the expense of the G. W. V. A. aggregation, which has suffered as the result of changes that have been made in the team during the last few weeks. The race between Metropolitans, Wests and Yarrows for top position on the intermediate chart continues to be interesting. Saturday's struggle left the Mets and Wests tied in every column with Yarrows only one point behind. The tables read—

North Wards	8	7	0	1	15	4	15

Cross Margin.

The Wards had to show a lot of soccer generalship to maintain their unbeaten record against the speedy Foundation players and only won by the margin of one goal in a two to one battle. The Wards were without the services of Angus McInness, who was sick and Smiler Pettigrew, who was out of the game with a fractured jaw sustained in last week's battles. There was a large crowd of soccer fans out to see the game and they were not disappointed. In the first half of the shipbuilders found the net for the only goal of the game, and appeared to have the edge over the champions. Taylor, who made his first start in the center forward position during the first stanza dropped back to his old position at back and Joe Da. filled the pivot position for the rest of the game. Allie McDougall left the half back line for the ring wing vacancy, and McKenzie and Taylor formed the back division for the second half. The changes saved the situation for the Wards. The rushing front line was unable to break down the resistance that McKenzie and Taylor offered and McDougall after ten minutes play gave Dakers a pass which he immediately banged into the net. Soon after he found the net for the winning goal.

Wests and Yarrows.

A fast pace was set in the game between the Wests and Yarrows at Beacon Hill but the shipbuilders failed once to beat the suburban defence, and it was not until the last ten minutes of the game that Tucker James found the net for the only goal of the game and put the Wests ahead. It was an even battle throughout, although the young westerners lasted the pace better and were on top for most of the second half. Ord and Eravost's work in the back division saved their side from a bigger defeat.

The K. of C. men kept up the winning habit at the expense of the Comrades. Opening with whirlwind attack they got past Lomas a couple of times in the first five minutes of the game, and then scoring for the day was over. Play for the rest of the game was mostly midfield, the custodians and backs on both sides showing great aptitude in getting the ball away from the danger zone.

Rugby, Basketball, Grass Hockey and Ice Hockey Contests

Plans for the annual Victoria trip of the University of B. C. students are being made, and a list of all those who will cross over from Vancouver to support the 'Varsity athletes is being prepared. It is expected that there will be nearly one hundred rooters go over with the teams, and if so Victoria will certainly be treated to an exhibition of "pep" and energy in the rooters' squad. It is practically assumed that there will be a rugby game, at least two basketball games, and at least one hockey. The ladies' ice hockey, the ladies' hockey and the soccer squad make up the trip.

Calgary, Dec. 1.—Mickey Mackay, former Vancouver hockey star, made his debut as a Calgary amateur puck-chaser here Saturday afternoon when he turned out to practice with the Columbus Club team. SPURS STILL SHOW BRILLIANT FORM

Fog Interfered With Saturday's Old Country Soccer Games

London, Dec. 1.—Fog interfered with Saturday's football games. Two first league and one Southern League matches were abandoned. The matches provided several illustrations of varied form, which was the more striking as the clubs concerned met only a week ago. Burnley, heavily defeated on the previous Saturday by Bradford, reversed that form, with the result that the winners went to the head of the league standing. West Bromwich took second place with a similar experience of victory over Sheffield Wednesday, to whom they lost a week earlier. Both victories were gained away from home. Sunderland, playing a great game, defeated Newcastle and Aston Villa, maintaining its improved form, easily defeated Sheffield United.

Victoria Stages Great Comeback and Wins First Inter-City Game

After Being Behind Eight Points at End of First Half Representative Team Secures Sixteen to Eleven Victory

Outplayed for the greater part of the first half, and with a score of eight to nil in favor of Vancouver, the Victoria representative fifteen staged a wonderful comeback and eventually won by a score of 16 to 11—2 goals 2 tries to 1 goal 2 tries—in the first McKechnie Cup game at Oak Bay Saturday.

Victoria deserved to win and probably would have done so by a larger margin if they had been stronger at half-back, Vancouver sent over one of the best fifteens that has been seen in this city for some time, and if D. M. Grant had not strengthened his back line at the expense of his forwards before the score was too great, it is possible that Vancouver would have had the long end of the score. It was again proved that the seven forward formation could outplay their opponents' eight, and with Victoria's weak spot being at half Vancouver took all the advantage they could whilst it lasted. Had Victoria gone on the field with seven forward and a five-eighths in his correct position, namely: that of an extra man around the pack, it is more than likely that the Mainlanders would not have piled up as large a score as they did. The result of the game was in a large measure due to the Grant Bros. and Sholto Gillespie. Williams was safe at full back and generally found touch with his kicks. For a player of his experience and reputation, it is strange to find him waiting for the ball to bounce instead of going to meet it in orthodox style.

Visitors Aggressive.

From the kick-off Vancouver attacked and were soon dangerous, their halves getting the ball away smartly and the passing of the three was snappy. The tackling of the Victoria backs was, however, good and the play was held in the city's twenty-five until G. C. Grant found touch in the Vancouver half.

First a Gift.

Matson was responsible for the first of Vancouver score. In his opponent's twenty-five he made a long pass to his centre. Hunter gathered the ball and got clear away, scoring between the posts. Hunter should have been pulled down before he made ten yards. Several of the Victoria players made fond attempts to embrace him around the neck. The attempt to add the major points failed. The play from now on was fairly even. Matson picked from the loose at half way, and breaking through started a bout of passing that ended when D. M. Grant was found into touch near the flag. Vancouver now made a desperate attack and it was only the superb defence of the Grants that averted a score. However another try for the visitors soon came. Their forwards held well, and Terman went through the centre and touched down to the right of the posts. Gwyther converted. Victoria made a strenuous attempt to break through but half time came with the score 8 to nil in favor of Vancouver.

McRae Got Over.

In the first few minutes after the resumption the Victoria forwards charged down the full-backs kick and McRae, who gathered the ball, made a dive over the line for Victoria's first

MANY DELIGHTFUL GIFTS IN "BOOKLAND"

Christmas Shoppers Find Much to Please at David Spencer's, Ltd.

"When in doubt give books" is an axiom which might well be adopted by the Christmas shopper who is puzzled to know what to give for yuletide gifts. For young and old, man or woman, boy or girl, a book of the right kind is a delightful gift and one whose charm never wanes, for the interest occasioned by a book will remain fresh long after the passing of Christmas into the limbo of forgotten things.

A certain amount of care must be exercised in choosing the gift book, but shoppers will find their difficulties reduced to a minimum by a visit to "Bookland," that delightful centre at David Spencer's Limited. "Bookland" is situated on the lower main floor in the vicinity of "Toyland" and within its portals may be found book-love to suit all ages and all tastes. Fascinating in the extreme are the wonderfully-illustrated toy books for the kiddies, in which the ever-popular nursery rhymes and fairy tales may be had in various styles, including the untearable books for the very small reader. For the older boy or girl come books of adventure featuring hair-raising escapades or boyish school-boy pranks, and a whole bevy of books suitable for the schoolgirl. For the grown-ups there is a tempting array of the "best-sellers," De Luxe copies of the classics, works of the well-known poets, and all the treasures of book-love dear to the reader. Every book has been selected with care and with the aim of suiting all tastes and to meet every need.

Stationery is always a useful gift and at the adjacent stationery department will be found dainty notepaper suited for the penning of "billets-doux" or for the more formal letter. The Christmas stationery is very attractively boxed and is at prices to suit all purses. A special feature of Bookland is a pretty booth where all sorts of calendars and pretty novelties may be found.

Spectacular Play. The last score was the result of one of the greatest efforts seen on the local ground for some time. D. M. Grant made a beautiful forcing run and passed to Sholto Gillespie, who drawing his man passed inside to G. C. Grant. The last-named player crossing for a try with two or three of the Vancouver backs attached to his person. It was the finest piece of play of the day and carried the spectators off their feet. The placed kick failed. A few minutes later the final whistle blew. The teams lined up as follows: Fullback, Williams; three-quarters, D. M. Grant, S. Gillespie, E. Gillespie and J. Matson; halfbacks, G. C. Grant and McIlvride; forwards, Pendry, Ackland, Robinson, McCallum, McRae, Clark, Travis and Norris.

Vancouver—Fullback, Grant; three-quarters, Heyland, Macken, Grimmett and Morrison; five-eighths, Terman; halfbacks, Hunter and Marshall; forwards, Gross, Gwyther, Bayliss, Gourlay, Becker, Manley and Lord. J. H. Gillespie, referee.

Cambridge had really a hard struggle, but it is to their credit that they penetrated the Services' defence three times, while the latter points resulted from a goal and a penalty.

WALLACE REID IN
STORY OF THE FOREST

"Valley of the Giants" at Royal Victoria Theatre This Week

A rugged tale of the Redwoods, of giants of the forest, of giants among men, a tale which presents the grim clash of the lumber camps where no quarter is asked and no mercy given, that is "The Valley of the Giants" which stars Wallace Reid at the Royal Victoria theatre commencing to-night, and continuing until Thursday. The story is by Peter B. Kyne, an author skilled in painting the great outdoors. Mr. Reid plays the part of Bryce Cardigan, son of James Cardigan, a pioneer California lumberman who had founded a city and opened up the lumber industry.

with their lives, if necessary, this sacred valley. The young man returns from college and finds his father in financial straits and nearly blind. It is Bryce's object to prevent the sale of the property to Colonel Pennington, a scheming land owner and business rival of Cardiganham. From this on the story takes a jump that quickens up the pulse of the audience, that keeps them more interested to the end of the play. It is a picture that throbs with red blood, yet, it is warm with a romance, sweet as any story ever told.
 In addition to this, the programme contains a two reel Sunshine Comedy "Hungary Lions in a Hospital" which keeps the audience in a roar of laughter.

GIRL FIGHTS WITH ROUGHS OF DISTRICT

Anita Stewart Stars in Two Parts at the Dominion Theatre

Anita Stewart is shown in practically two characters in "Mind the Paint Girl," a First National feature which will be shown at the Dominion theatre all week.

First she appears as the little slum girl, who sweeps out her father's shop and runs errands and does any handy work to help make ends meet for her parents, who are very poor. As the shop girl, she is shown in more or less ragged calico dresses, with her hair hanging down her back and hats of impossible style. Ignorant and untutored, yet she has a strong heart and battles her way among the roughest of the neighborhood who are very much in love with her pretty face, and try to steal kisses as chance presents itself.

Full of ambition to get out of the sordid neighborhood and to win to the better things of life, she takes the opportunity of her father's death to move. Then she applies for a place on the stage. After much discouragement, she finally gets a place in the chorus. Then through the accidental spilling of a bucket of paint, she gets an inspiration, and suggests the song, "Mind the Paint," to a composer. She is given the opportunity to sing it and makes the hit of the season.

Then as the famous music hall girl and the world at her feet, she is presented in beautiful gowns of every description, gowns that every woman will want to study to see the latest in styles and the perfection of their artistry.

Opening Scenes of "Love's Young Dream" to Be Filmed To-day

The secrets of motion picture production will be laid bare to-day at the Pantages with the presentation of "Making the Movies," the unique act headlining the new bill, which opened with this afternoon's matinee performance, and movie fans will be initiated into the whys and wherefores of the various details incidental to making a photoplay as they watch the filming of the opening scenes of "Love's Young Dream," the scenario which will be filmed in a typical motion picture studio on the Pantages stage throughout this week.

At each performance a different scene will be enacted and the completed photoplay will be shown on the Pantages screen next week, so that the actors and actresses aspiring to fame in filmdom will see themselves afterwards in their respective roles of hero, sweet young heroine, the designing villain, the nut comedian and the vampish whom she so ardently admires. An added feature of this act will be the panoramic view of the audience to be taken at each performance.

This feature is not, however, the only big one on the bill. Verna Mercereau, the famous danseuse, and her company of four girls and a male dancer will present a series of extraordinary terpsichorean efforts. The numbers they perform are classic with a few of the more modern dances and the stage settings are said to be gorgeous.

 There are four other acts of exceptional merit on the bill. Brady and Mahoney, just returned from "The Cruise of the Doughnut," will relate their adventures on the trip. Their singing is described as being "away above the average."
 "At the Old Cross Roads" is the title of the rural comedy-sketch to be presented by Harry and Etta Con-

ly. The little playlet is rich in entertainment and the fun runs fast and furious from the moment that Harry returns home with a cheap engagement ring and a motorcycle instead of expected diamond solitaire and a motor car. The settings for their offering are unusually effective.
 William Dix, the man who makes the guitar talk, is also on this week's programme. He sings to his own accompaniment and is extraordinarily nimble on the guitar.
 The Gallons, a clever team of jugglers, who can crowd more action into seven minutes than the ordinary juggler does in fifteen, will present a number of new tricks and some that are presented in such a different way that they seem altogether new.

 Louise Lovely, the blond beauty whose likeness to Mary Pickford is sometimes startling, is leading lady for Lew Cody in "The Butterfly Man." The final scenes of this, Cody's second feature, which is being directed by Ida May Park, are now being shot. The play is adapted from the story of the same title by George Barr McCutcheon.

NOTABLE FEATURES OF DOUBLE HEADER

Three Comedians at Columbia in "Tillie's Punctured Romance"

Manager Clark of the Columbia is offering a fine programme of picture attractions this week, and patrons of this theatre will be assured of a couple of hours of genuine entertainment and fun.

"Tillie's Punctured Romance," a five-part comedy-drama produced by Mack Sennett and presenting Charlie Chaplin, Marie Dressler and Mabel Normand, the screen's three foremost comedians, will be shown on the Columbia screen, together with a Western picture, "The Haters," featuring William S. Hart, supported by Charles Ray, and as an added attraction for the three days commencing to-day the fifth episode of "The Iron Test," co-starring Antonio Moreno and Carol Holloway.

Carol Holloway is seen in full action in "The Iron Test," the spectacular new Vitagraph serial in which she is featured with Antonio Moreno. She performs some of her most daring feats of horsemanship and in every scene takes hair-raising chances. Among the things she does to give the fans excitement is to walk a tightrope across a chasm. She takes some of her biggest risks in the episode to be shown this week.

"THREE MUSKETEERS" MOST AMBITIOUS OF HINCKS PRODUCTIONS

Most Capable Cast Yet Assembled Will Portray Famous Characters

With a cast picked from among the very best dramatic talent available in the city, R. N. Hinck's Princess Players will stage their most ambitious production beginning next Friday night.

"The Three Musketeers," Dumas' literary triumph and perhaps the greatest romantic novel ever written will be staged by Mr. Hinck in a way that will show to the fullest advantage the humor, pathos, adventure and dashing action of the play. The story of the "Three Musketeers" is too well known to need explanation. It is a play which can be seen a half dozen times and be enjoyed; a play which runs through the whole gamut of human character from the King to the poorest villager, a play which combines real men and women in a really exciting plot with the humor, the dialogue, the atmosphere of bygone days that only Dumas could create. Neither in book nor play is there an idle moment. Never for a moment are the characters at rest.

Louis XIII's Court, dominated by the Great Cardinal, give the author plenty of scope for duels, intrigues, double dealing and the action that made up the life of France when rapiers and jack boots were in position. In the characters of the Three Musketeers and their even more famous colleague D. Artagnan, Dumas made four men who, with his Cardinal Richelieu, the evil genius of the court, and Milady whose trickery sways the destinies of all the other characters, will live in literature as long as books are printed. For all these parts Mr. Hinck has picked the right players.

Major Bullock-Webster was simply born for the part of D. Artagnan, that swashbuckling, half good, half bad and entirely loveable gallant, never too busy to save a lady or kill an enemy, at times crafty and scheming, at others frank and open—the embodiment of all that was good and part of what was bad in the romantic period before Louis XIV. ascended the throne of France.

Equally sound has been Mr. Hinck's judgment in casting Archie Fea as Athos, the most melancholy and righteous of the roistering crew. To Capt. Turnbull, Mr. Hinck has wisely given the most loveable of all parts—the mighty Porthos, hero of a hundred fights and conqueror of as many hearts. The third of the musketeers Aramis, craftiest of the trio, is to be played by J. W. Davis, who is well suited for the part. Richelieu, the papal spider who spins the web which almost ensnares D'Artagnan, is played by M. Hinck himself who, his many friends and admirers will agree is in every way fitted for the importance of the role. The part of cardinal's spy, the Comte de Rochefort has been assigned to the cleverest of Mr. Hinck's villain's, S. G. Clark. A. M. D. Fairbairn will play the Duke of Buckingham, while W. Taylor will sit on the throne of France as Louis XIII.

Miss Eva Hart will star as Milady, Dumas' great and wholly bad adventuress. In assuming this role, Miss Hart is taking on an absolutely new type of character. Those who have seen the preliminary rehearsals of the production declare, however, that as the vampire she is even more successful than as the guileless heroine. Anne of Austria, the other important female part, is in the capable hands of Miss Hickman.

The players appear as follows: Louis XIII of France, W. Taylor; Cardinal Richelieu, R. N. Hinck; The Duke of Buckingham, A. M. D. Fairbairn; De Treville, Captain of the King's Guard, F. H. Allwood; Comte de Rochefort, a spy of the Cardinal, S. G. Clark; The Three Musketeers, Athos, Archie Fea, Porthos, Capt. W. Turnbull, Aramis, J. W. Davis; Philippe D'Artagnan, a soldier of Fortune, Major Bullock-Webster; Monsieur Bonichoux, a merchant, R. Day; Pougnet, an innkeeper, G. Boyle-Weistad; Jacques, landlord; Anne of Austria, Queen of France, Miss Hickman; Constance, her waiting maid, Miss M. Butler; Manette, Miss Harvey; Lady de Winter "Milady," a spy of the cardinal, Miss Eva Hart.

VIOLA DANA IN "FLOWER OF THE DUSK"

Romano Presents Myrtle Reed Story For Three Days

"Flower of the Dusk," the charming romantic play, adapted from the novel of the noted authoress, Myrtle Reed, will be the feature at the Romano to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday, with the charming little star, Viola Dana, as the heroine.

The story shows the beautiful love of a young girl for her blind father, whose "flower of the dusk" she is. To keep him in ignorance of their poverty she does fine needlework and so supplies him with many little luxuries to which he has always been accustomed. To what length the devotion of this little lame girl goes in her love and sacrifice for her beloved father, and of his lasting love for his dear wife, the charming play shows with powerful intensity.

Then comes the fragrant romance of the young lovers—brought up together from childhood, but only gradually realizing the great love that is dawning for them. The story lives, one of heart-compelling pathos, but in, at the same time, full of dramatic intensity for which the pen of Myrtle Reed is famous. The cast of players supporting Miss Dana is a noted one and includes such names as Guy Coombs, Howard Hall, Jack McGowan, Alice Martin, Bliss Milford, Margaret McWade, Augustus Phillips, Eleanor Hickman, Charles Sutton, Maggie Breyer and Mrs. L. Fore.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhoea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unenameled tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhoea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhoea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.

And in preventing Pyorrhoea—it guards against other ills.

Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

Little Ben Alexander, of "Hearts of the World," Starred at Variety

"The Turn in the Road," a Brentwood Film Corporation production, which will be the photodramatic attraction at the Variety this week, is a beautiful story beautifully told.

The theme is one that is as old as the world and as universal as man, carrying a message of love, pathos, and human emotion that makes the production one of absorbing human interest.

Paul Perry, son of a money-mad father, married the lovely daughter of a minister of the orthodox religion. When his wife died in childbirth Paul lost faith in the "God to Whom the will of man should meekly bow," as he had been taught, and became a wanderer.

He went in quest of the true God, but sank to the depths of degradation in his search. After many years of unavailing search he returned to his old home to learn from the lips of his own child the truths the world could not teach him.

Into the story is woven the self-sacrifice and unflinching love of a girl—his dead wife's sister—who had devoted her life to the care of his little boy and taught him that "God is love."

Little Bob, his son, by his child-like faith, melted the money-hardened heart of old Perry, incidentally saving his life from a gang of workmen who had been driven to desperation by his iron-fisted domination.

"The Turn in the Road" was written by King W. Vidor and produced under the personal direction of the author.

Harry Pollard, who has been Harold Lloyd's chief comedy foil, is to be starred in a series of Pathé-Royal comedies. Owing to the long illness of Lloyd, Pollard will have the advantage of starting his stellar career of having beautiful Mildred Davis as his leading lady. The new series are expected to be released in a few weeks.

JAMES GLEASON IN "A PRINCE THERE WAS"

Comedy Will Appear Here for Two Nights Next Week

In the new comedy "A Prince There Was," which George M. Cohan has adapted from Darragh Aldrich's story "Enchanted Hearts," and which will be seen at the Royal Victoria theatre Monday and Tuesday, December 8 and 9, the leading role is taken by James Gleason, who plays the part of Charles Martin, the Prince.

Mr. Gleason is exceptionally well equipped to present this character—so successfully—for he is descended from a long line of distinguished theatrical forebears. His father, William L. Gleason, was for years the stage director for Charles Frohman, and went on the stage soon after the close of the Civil War. He played with all the great stars of his day. Mr. Gleason's mother, known professionally as Mina Crolius Gleason, played child parts when a little girl, and later became a member of the famous Boston Museum Stock Company, playing with all of the great stars whose names are associated with this favored institution. As the Prince of the play Mr. Gleason is doing the finest work of his career. The play has been running for over a year in New York and Chicago and in the part of Charles Martin which dominates the action of every scene after the fashion which every Cohanized creation so successfully achieves. Mr. Cohan has provided Mr. Gleason with a fine characterization which only the famous George M. can always produce.

Mr. Gleason, who served in the Tank Corps during the war, has had a wonderful career. Carried on the stage when but two months old, his first star part was a child lead when but seven years of age—in a melodrama called "Stricken Blind." For several years he has been associated with Oliver Morosco and last season was seen in "It Happens to Everybody," and "A Dislocated Honey-moon."

Mr. Gleason's home is in California and when asked his idea of a hero after his return from France, he replied, "I have three ideas about heroes and they are equal, one to the other and to the whole, but collectively they are the late Col. Roosevelt, General John J. Pershing and George M. Cohan."

THE $2,000 BONUS.

To the Editor:—May I make use of your columns to proffer the following suggestion as one solution of the Government's difficulties in connection with providing funds for the proper re-establishment of all soldiers via the "$2,000 bonus" route:

1. The amounts payable to each returned man or the widows and orphans or dependants will be substantially the same as is being asked at the present time.

2. It shall be treated not as a charity, neither shall it be considered as a fee for services rendered but rather as an attempt to remove the handicap that military service has placed on the soldier and as an honest effort on the part of those who remained at home properly to re-establish the men who volunteered to protect the freedom of this country. To do this:

3. Let the Government issue coupons to the value of $2,000, $1,500, $1,000, etc. under the scale proposed by the G. W. V. A. Each coupon to be split up into amounts of, say, $100.

These books of coupons will be administered by a committee composed of two members appointed by the Soldier's Civil Re-Establishment Bureau and a third member elected by the returned soldiers of the district in which this S. C. R. is already established. A soldier, then, wishing to make use of this gratuity will appear before the committee, and state the amount he immediately requires and the purpose for which he requires it. The returned man with an eye to the future will handle this money carefully—it may constitute his entire capital—and you will find that in the majority of cases only a part will be used at once while a balance will invariably be left for a rainy day. Men continuing their studies or wishing to take up a new branch of study will, in all probability only draw such an amount each month as will meet their requirements.

I very much doubt if 25 per cent. of the returned soldiers will wish to draw the whole amount—and in the majority of those cases it will be with the object of entering into a "one-man" business or a partnership where a small amount of cash is required. There would also be quite a number who would not require to use this money at all at the present time, and could probably leave it with the Government until the due date of the coupons—say 1925.

In the case of those who had already bought farms under the Land

Settlement scheme the gratuity could apply in part on the loan or in further improvements.

In this scheme which I have attempted roughly to outline the amount of actual cash required for immediate distribution would not be large and, although the Government's liability would be the same, yet it would be spread over a considerable period of time.

When the terms of the war service gratuity, land settlement scheme and civil re-establishment were made known in England and France, the soldiers were unanimous in their praise. The amounts appeared most generous—but is it? In comparison with the evident prosperity of those who were able to stay in Canada and carry on in comfort and safety the amount of the W. S. Gratuity as it stands is insufficient, and the payment of this bonus will barely remedy the inequality.

In my own case I have a splendid business opportunity offered me which I must refuse as it entails the investment of $700—which I haven't got! Prior to enlistment I had this amount, but during my absence overseas my wife found it necessary to use this to "keep the home fires burning," and the profiteers from absolute starvation, and she has succeeded—in both cases. But that is apart from the question.

The whole point is that a little capital ready at hand when the opportunity offers would solve the difficulties of the majority of our returned men. Under the coupon system this would be available for them while not financially embarrassing the nation.

SILVER POSITION OF WORLD TO-DAY

Hon. William Sloan Shows Province Has Great Opportunity

A careful investigation into the silver position of the world to-day has been made by Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines. He says, in an address to the Canadian Mining Institute: "It is common knowledge that the world is starving for silver. Much has been written on the subject and mining men of the Province no doubt know a good deal about it. Certainly recent developments, particularly throughout the Kootenays, in the Boundary and in the Northern districts, indicate that the operators are awake and that the resources are to be drawn on to an unprecedented extent in order to meet the exceptional demands of the present at the exceptional prices quoted. But do they realize fully what the remarkable advance in quotations on silver means? It has been predicted by a prominent English economist that the demand for silver will continue strong for years, and that for a long period silver will command $1.30 an ounce. An estimate of the world's requirements for the next thirty years indicate that there probably will be an annual deficit of 463,000,000 ounces. India's Demand. "Some interesting conclusions reached by an American authority are as follows: 'As the Orient was willing to accept silver in place of gold for commodities furnished by the Allies during the war, it was the interest of the United States and the Allies that foreign trade balances should, so far as possible, be settled in silver rather than in gold.' It was better also than by stabilizing exchange or raising credits. The latter expedients only defer the final settlement in gold. The settlement of the Oriental balances in silver during the war represented a definite settlement, calling for no further adjustment.

"Normally India had an adverse trade balance of about $90,000,000 before the war, but by the end of 1917 the balance is said to have grown to nearly $400,000,000 in her favor. London could not satisfy the Indian demand and so Lord Reading was sent over in 1917 to induce the United States Government to come to the aid of Great Britain with our store of silver dollars, the only supply in the world left available. "According to official figures India has absorbed since April, 1914, 1,200,000,000 silver rupees, about 464,165,000 ounces or roughly $400,000,000.

"The writer then goes on to illustrate how serious the situation is viewed in Great Britain by quoting the budget speech of Sir James Mellon, the financial member of the Indian Government. He concludes: "Seventy-five per cent. of the annual silver production has been going to India—the sink, as it is called—for there it stays and disappears from view. As one silver authority put it: 'It is the market for the other 25 per cent. production that is expected to govern the price of the whole 100 per cent. If you will tell me what the Indian Government is going to do about the price of silver now I could give you some idea of where the price of silver is going.' "India has always been an emigma of silver. But it is more so than ever to-day."

Mexico's Position. "It is interesting in this connection to refer to the condition of Mexico, a large producer of metal. Only a few days ago it was announced from Mexico City that strict limitations had been placed on the export of silver from Mexico, it being directed by the Treasury Department that 50 per cent. of all such bullion should be sold to the Government and that in no case should the producing companies export more than 50 per cent. of their output. The explanation given was the shortage of silver coins, which, because of their intrinsic value, at present prices, were being hoarded and sold for bullion. "This from Mexico, it seems to me, is of special interest to us. It affords us a striking insight on the change that has been wrought, in the course of a few months, by the rise in silver values. We can all remember when the Mexican dollar was quoted, outside Mexico, at about half its face value. We also can all remember the activities of the Chinese in our coast cities, not long ago, in buying up gold at a premium and shipping it to the Orient. I can remember, personally, while in the Orient, receiving in exchange for a twenty dollar gold coin no less than thirty-seven Mexican silver dollars. But could it be done now? No, conditions are changed. Based on late reports of the price of silver and exchange rates the Canadian in the Orient would get about eighteen silver dollars for his twenty dollars. The operators of British Columbia silver mines never were in a happier position, never before had such an opportunity. At present prices silver almost bears the relation of 16 to 1 to gold. That, you will recall, is the old by-metallic standard, so long a political issue in the United States.

The Silver Campaign. "In 1875 the price of silver was $1.24, from which point it persistently dropped until in 1902 the average year's price was 85 cents per ounce and in 1915 it fell to 49.7 cents. This continued drop resulted in a panic among the silver miners of the West and a demand was made that silver and gold both be constituted standards of value on the basis of 16 ounces of silver to one ounce of gold, which was the equivalent to fixing the price of silver by law at $1.30 an ounce. This was the chief plank in the platform of Bryan in his campaign. Silver, however, was left to the fluctuations of supply and demand, many mines dying as a result. "Among the many strange changes brought about by the war has been the wonderful increase in the value of silver, until to-day, as I have said, it has almost reached the sixteen to one parity with gold and prominent economists assure us that the parity of the $1.30 an ounce is about assured for at least five years to come, based on the inexorable law of supply and demand.

By War Not Law. "Thus, what was refused by the Law of Nations has been effected by the War of Nations and what the silver producer hoped for in 1875 has been handed him in 1919 and this applies particularly to the present silver miners of British Columbia. I would advise them to produce to the limit. By doing so they will be realizing on their metal at top prices, helping their country, assisting the world in her crisis, and, I trust, placing the mining industry on a sound and permanently prosperous basis. And here I may observe that the general opinion that our silver is almost exclusively produced from galena (silver-lead) ores is not altogether correct. Our statistics for 1918 show that about twenty-five per cent. of our silver was derived from copper ores carrying silver, so that my appeal is directed, not only to the operator in galena, but as well to the copper operator. "The effect of all that I have referred to as to the world's condition in regard to silver has been strikingly manifest ever since the government restraining hand was removed about the end of last April. From January until the end of April the quotation for silver remained at slightly of $1.01 an ounce. Then the fixed price was removed. The law of supply and demand began to function and what happened? In May the price jumped to $107.13 an ounce, in June it went to $1.10 and over. In July there was a slight slump, $106.38 being quoted, but in August it recovered reaching the $1.11 point, and during September and October its climb continued, the former month finding it at $1.14.50 and the latter $1.19.05, so the upward tendency appears to be steady."

Referring to activities at present Mr. Sloan said: "There is no doubt that development is proceeding in East and West Kootenay, in the rich mineral zone which we know as the boundary, and elsewhere on a scale which people living on the Coast, for the most part, do not realize. A short time ago, while traveling through the Slokan, I was surprised and gratified to note the activity of mining men and the tone of enthusiasm and optimism apparent on all hands. I had the pleasure of going underground at Silverton and personally saw new bodies of ore just opened up that have much promise. Then there is the Alice Arm District. These northern mineral zones cannot be passed over in a general-reference to our possibilities and to recent happenings. I visited the former during the summer going in by Stewart and Hyder and was astonished at the progress which already has been made in the development of the various mineral prospects. All mining men know of the Premier, the news of the richness of those ore.

ness of whose ore caused the revival of mining industry and prospecting in that part. I had the pleasure of inspecting that property and brought south with me some samples of the ore. We assayed it at the Provincial Bureau of Mines and the returns fully justified what is being said of this ore, going in gold $12 1/2 per ton, in silver 352.2 ounces to the ton, and in copper 2.6 per cent. A few carloads of such ore means a fortune. I do not wish to be understood in these figures as giving an average value. This I think will be classed as high grade.

"I understand that a large interest in this property has been acquired by a well-known American Mining Corporation which proposes proceeding with development on a large scale. This is good news. It will mean much for the District. The Big Missouri, Mineral Hill and others are being developed and are expected to begin production before long. There are a number of other good prospects which, I believe, are potential mines on which similar work is underway. Prospectors were in the hills last season in larger numbers than for years and more are going back as soon as the snow disappears. Stewart, from a forlorn and abandoned village now is a busy and an active little mining center. The Provincial Government, awake to the possibilities of the District has authorized financial assistance in the construction of necessary roads in order to help the pioneer miners in the opening up of these deposits. Much the same may be said of the Alice Arm District. This district experienced a revival last year when the railway to tap the Dolly Varden and other mining properties was completed. While the road was in operation for only a few months, I am informed that over a quarter of a million dollars in silver values was taken from the Dolly Varden. Next summer the railway, no doubt, will be in better shape. Other properties close to the road are being developed and will be producing, so that in this section also the future is bright."

Women As Brave As the Men

THEIR STRUGGLE SHOWS A REMARKABLE SPIRIT.

Talk of the bravery of men, but where can you find a finer spirit than among the half-sick women who are fighting and struggling to do their duty against the terrible odds of ill-health, and who will not give up. One woman in every three is struggling against weakness. Most of them are not exactly sick, but, oh, how miserable!
 The burden and misery of it all has its foundation in the blood which is thin and watery. The red cells are too few. The very stream of life is reduced in vitality. Weakness and inevitable ill-health are the certain result.
 Every ailing or weak woman can quickly regain her health in this very simple way. By filling the system with the nutrition that comes from rich red blood, a quick change for the better will result. To accomplish this, take two chocolate-coated Ferrerozine Tablets after each meal. You'll feel better immediately for the simple reason that Ferrerozine renews the blood. It gives you vim, vigor, endurance, restores a tired worn-out system, very quickly.
 You'll feel like new all over once you get Ferrerozine working through your blood. It puts color into faded cheeks, brightens the eye, quickens the step, brings back that wonderful feeling of youth.
 One of the finest things Ferrerozine does is to make you eat lots and digest it as well. With keen appetite, sound sleep, strong nerves and lots of nourishing blood you're bound to regain robust health. Any sickly girl or ailing woman that Ferrerozine won't make well must be incurable. There is a secret power in Ferrerozine and it is worth a trial at all events. Fifty cents per box, six for $2.50. At all dealers in medicine, or by mail from The Catarrhose Co., Kingston, Ont.

SUWA MARU WAS HAMPERED BY GALE

N. Y. K. Liner Reached Port To-day After Stormy Passage From Far East

Almost incessant gales were met with by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Suwa Maru during her passage across the Pacific. Terminating her sixteenth voyage from the Orient the Suwa Maru reached the Outer Docks at 8:30 o'clock this morning with a valuable cargo approximating 9,000 tons and 350 passengers. The Suwa Maru included a consignment of 4,425 bales of raw silk and 728 cases of silk goods, totaling a valuation of $7,500,000. Other cargo carried by the liner is valued at $1,500,000, giving a grand total of $9,000,000 as the valuation of the inward cargo.

In addition to her valuable cargo the liner brought in ninety-seven saloon, fifty second-class, nine intermediate and 200 steerage passengers. The through mail shipment carried by the Suwa amounted to 1,300 bags, and ninety bags of mail matter was put ashore here.

Colonel M. Pietro, F. Smith and G. A. Clayton, saloon travelers, seventeen second class and forty-two steerage came ashore at this port. Through passengers included Dr. R. Baker, who is returning to the United States from a flying visit to the Orient; William Fulton, representative of a Glasgow manufacturing firm; Colonel F. Mapelli, an Italian army officer, bound from Shanghai to Italy; A. Yamada, director of the Japan Cotton Company, and T. Tsumura, London manager of the Japan Import and Export Company.

Heavy Local Cargo
Canadian cargo brought by the Suwa Maru amounted to 1,866 tons.

all of which is being discharged at this port. The local freight is made up of 56,981 packages, and includes 48,636 cases of Japanese tea. The through cargo to be landed at Seattle amounts to 6,620 tons.

Southeast and northwest gales of varying velocity were reported by Captain R. Shimidzu, an "average seaman" being the terse comment of the general commander of the Suwa Maru. The liner was a day behind schedule in clearing Yokohama, and she bumped into heavy weather soon after leaving the Japanese coast. The voyage was completed in thirteen days. The Suwa Maru will be at the Outer Docks all day and on completing the discharge of her local freight will steam for Seattle.

CANORA DAMAGED GUIDE DOLPHINS AT OGDEN POINT

Initial Attempt to Berth Steel Car-ferry Marked by Mishap

In attempting to dock at the Ogdén Point ferry slip this morning the Canadian National Railway's steel car-ferry Canora bumped into and damaged the guide dolphins. Recently alterations were completed to the Outer Harbor ferry slip to permit the handling of railroad cars by the Canora and from the new Government pier at Ogdén Point. The docking of the Canora this forenoon was carried out in the nature of an experiment, but the experiment was unfortunately attended by serious consequences.

In backing into the slip the stern of the big car ferry collided with the dolphins and partially wrecked them. No damage was sustained by the Canora, which, after the unsuccessful attempt to navigate the fairway, took up a mooring alongside Pier No. 2. A northerly wind was blowing at the time of the mishap. The ferry slip is in an exposed position, particularly when a southwester is blowing. It is claimed by mariners that the slip would have more protection from high winds were it located between the two Government piers.

Last week-end the Canora was overhauled by Yarrows, Ltd. in the Esquimalt graving basin. She will now resume her sailings between Patricia Bay and Port Mann. It is the intention of the Government to utilize the Canora for the transfer of cars to and from the Ogdén Point piers.

ADAMANTLY WILL BUILD FAST BOATS

Stockholders Ratify Proposal of Officials to Expand Steamship Service

Expanding its capitalization by $25,000,000 the Pacific Alaska Navigation Company, holding company for the Pacific Steamship Company and subsidiary interests, will build two palatial passenger liners, at a cost of approximately $4,000,000, to establish 24-hour service between Seattle and San Francisco, besides enlarging the company's general scope of operations in the Orient, it became known Saturday.

Ratified by stockholders. Recommendations embodying the above features were made by local officials of the company to the stockholders. Word of the ratification of the plan has been received here.

The two passenger liners, which are intended to equal, if not surpass in luxury, anything afloat in the Pacific, probably will be built in Seattle, it is announced.

Plan Long Cherished.
Placing of two such vessels on the route between Seattle and San Francisco has been the idea of H. F. Alexander, president of the Pacific Steamship Company, for a long period, even before the present steamship magnate became actively associated in the operation of vessels out of Puget Sound. This idea was conceived long before the placing of the speedy turbines, Great Northern and Northern Pacific, on the route between Flavel, Ore. and San Francisco by the Great Northern railway interests, but was deferred because of the extremely high construction costs, which have mounted since still higher, and only now commence to show a possible decline to normal market conditions.

Work May Start Soon.
That at least one of these liners will be commenced very shortly, was intimated by A. F. Haines, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Steamship Company, when he asserted that the increase in capital stock of the holding company was among other things designed for this purpose.

TWO MORE VESSELS FLOATED AT SEATTLE

U. S. Shipping Board and Privately-owned Ship Launched Saturday

Seattle, Dec. 1.—Two more steel carriers, one for the United States Shipping Board and the other the Skinner & Eddy plant steamship completed for private American ownership at this port, were launched into the waters of Elliott Bay and confluence Saturday.

Both ceremonies were significant in that the launching brought to a grand conclusion the construction of the two shipyards much closer to the conclusion, as the steamship Manham, sent down the ways by the Seattle North Pacific Company, left but one hull on the ways at that plant, while the siting of the Robin Hood at the Skinner & Eddy plant leaves but three ships in the stocks to be completed at this institution.

The first launching occurred at the Seattle North Pacific yard, where Mrs. Alison E. Woodruff, wife of the assistant general manager of the plant, ended the sponsor's role.

Large Carrier.
The Manham is a 9,000-ton dead-weight carrier, the ninth of her type constructed at this shipyard.

At the Skinner & Eddy plant the launching marked the slipping of the first big steel freighter built at a local plant on owner's account, for the steamship Robin Hood, a 10,400-ton deadweight carrier, is designed for, built by and to be operated by the Skinner & Eddy Corporation.

First of New Fleet.
She is the first of four such vessels under construction by this firm, and is 439 feet 9 1/2 inches long, 55 feet beam and has a molten depth of 36 feet. When completed she is to have a load speed of thirteen knots per hour.

Sponsor for this vessel was little Miss Jasmine Eddy, the pretty seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Eddy, Mr. Eddy being vice-president of the Skinner & Eddy Corporation.

Little Miss Eddy was heartily congratulated upon her elegant portrayal of the role.

HALF MILLION FOR SYDNEY TERMINALS

Sydney, N.S. Dec. 1.—An expenditure of over $500,000 is to be made by the Dominion Government at Sydney in the construction of the new terminals for this port. Officials are in the city taking some necessary soundings near the old Government wharf and running some levels in the vicinity of Victoria Park. The department at Ottawa has practically all the necessary data on hand for the construction of the terminals.

The Panama Canal drydock effected quick repairs to the vessel and she sailed yesterday for San Francisco.

FIRST GERMAN SHIP TO DOCK SINCE WAR

Assistance Offered Teutons on Barque Paul by Torpedoed Britisher

Halifax, Dec. 1.—The first German vessel to enter Halifax harbor since the war is the barque Paul, owned in Hamburg and commanded by Captain Wolf Krueger, who during the war was a pilot of a German seaplane operating in the North Sea. She arrived yesterday, bringing an interesting story of battles with the sea.

The Paul left Hamburg thirty-two days ago in ballast for Philadelphia and had a succession of fierce storms. She was reported in distress a week ago, and it was current talk that passing ships refused to render any assistance beyond taking off the crew in case they proposed to abandon the vessel. No one would take her in tow.

After the storm, the captain says, the Furness liner Southwestern Miller hove in sight and the Paul asked for a tow. The Miller replied she would take the barque in tow, but after coming alongside sailed away without sending further word to the disabled barque. The next steamer to pass was the Furness liner Manchester Merchant, in charge of Captain Musgrave, who during the war had his ship torpedoed by the Germans and when his crew took to the boats, the enemy submarine rose to the surface and fired on the helpless sailors. Notwithstanding this bitter experience, Captain Musgrave, realizing the plight of the German barque, did all in his power to help them.

The captain of the Paul spoke of Captain Musgrave as a splendid seaman who did all in his power, sending messages to his owners in Hamburg and his agents in New York and scattering messages broadcast over the ocean. The Manchester Merchant went on her way, and the Paul started for Cape Race. She had lost twenty-one sails and now had one lower top sail, one main sail and one foresail.

On November 25 the Paul ran into a calm, but suddenly a terrific electrical storm broke out, after this a coastal steamer passed so close that the captain says he almost could have "spit on her deck."

The Paul was showing distress lights but the coastal steamer passed by, taking no notice of the barque.

DAMAGE TO CARGO OF STEAMER SAN JUAN PLACED AT $100,000

PANAMA, DEC. 1.—Damage estimated at $100,000 was done to the cargo of hides and sugar of the Pacific Mail steamship San Juan, which was beset in the harbor at Cristobal recently on account of a hole that was stove in her bow by the point of her anchor.

The Panama Canal drydock effected quick repairs to the vessel and she sailed yesterday for San Francisco.

UNDAUNTED BY WRECK OF CASCO

Organizers of Ill-fated Expedition Will Try Another Northern Venture

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—A new expedition will sail from San Francisco next spring for the Northern Siberian coast to complete the work left unfinished this year by the sinking on Stenplember 8 of the schooner Casco, near Nome. It is announced by Leon S. McGirk, organizer of the original party.

The Casco, formerly used by Robert Louis Stevenson, came to grief in a storm off King Island about sixty miles north of Nome, Alaska, while headed south after a series of misadventures in the party's search for Siberian hidden riches in gold, furs and other valuable resources.

Associated with McGirk in the new project, which contemplates the purchase of an auxiliary power schooner, mining equipment and supplies is G. M. Harwood, first mate of the whaling schooner Belvedere, which sank in Arctic water on September 16.

Fourteen members of the Casco party were landed in the Siberian coast before the ill-fated schooner was wrecked and this party, McGirk said, is doing preliminary exploration work along the coast while awaiting the arrival next year of the schooner with machinery and other supplies.

GEORGINA CHARTERED.

The barquentine Georgina, now at Sydney, N. S. W., has been chartered by Comyn, Mackell & Co. to carry lumber from the Columbia River to Australia. The ship is expected to cross the Pacific from Australia in ballast.

Where blank occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot above the average level of lower low water.

Equivalents.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the dry dock at any tide, add 19.5 feet to the height of high water as above given.

CUBAN SUGAR FOR VANCOUVER COMING ON MONT CERVIN

Following discharge of cargo at Guadeloupe and Martinique, the French steamship Mont Cervin is bringing a cargo of sugar from Havana to Vancouver.

She is expected toward the latter part of the month. After discharging her cargo at the Vancouver sugar refinery the Mont Cervin will shift to Seattle and the Columbia River to load freight for the return voyage to Europe.

FREIGHTER TIOPA IS BREAKING UP

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 1.—The freight steamer Tiopa, which went aground in Lake Superior near Calumet, Mich., last Wednesday, is being towed to pieces and abandoned by her owner, according to advices received by underwriters here. The boat was bound from Duluth to Buffalo with a cargo of 100,000 bushels of wheat valued at approximately $250,000. The Tiopa is owned by the Masey Steamship Company, of Duluth.

READY TO SAIL.
The French 1,500-ton wooden steamer Schlestadt, which has been loading a cargo of lumber in the Inner Harbor, is expected to leave tomorrow for Europe. She is now berthed at the Outer Docks.

TERMS OF HALIBUT TREATY MADE KNOWN

Fishing Interests Informed in General Way of International Treaty Provisions

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1.—While the text of the new halibut and port privilege treaty, by which the United States and Canada are bound to joint regulation of the halibut industry is still an official secret, it not yet having been signed, the Department of State authorized Senator Jones to inform fishing interests in a general way of the treaty's terms. The instrument is to run for fifteen years with provisions for modifications and extensions. Its provisions are to be enforced under the direction of the international fisheries commission created by the recent salmon treaty which is now pending in the Senate. An annual closed season for halibut in the North Pacific from November 16 to February 15 is provided beginning in November, 1920. The closed season does not prevent Canadians nor Americans fishing in the North Pacific for other fish during the period, but it is provided that any halibut caught incidentally must be sold fresh at the landing port or canned or cured at such port.

Forbids Halibut Shipments.
Another provision prohibits the shipping from any port of fresh halibut during the closed season. The treaty binds both the United States and Canada to levy no customs duties on shipments of fresh fish, including frozen, fresh fish. Canada now has a duty of fresh fish and the United States none.

Under the treaty, American fishing vessels may enter Canadian ports and Canadian fishing vessels may enter American ports without license or fee to purchase bait and supplies, to repair fishing implements, to ship crews, to trans-ship their catches in bond, to land and sell their catches, to enter and clear, without tonnage dues or duties and to dress, salt and prepare their catches on board ship in port, subject to local regulations.

Subject to Immigration Laws.
Another provision subjects the persons employed on visiting fishing craft to the immigration laws of the countries visited. A fishing vessel passing through the territorial waters of the other country shall not be required to enter or clear at any port or to report to the customs officials. The treaty also provides for no fishing in Lake Champlain by Canadians so long as the state of New York regulations prohibit American fishing there.

Another provision is for reciprocal privileges to lobster fishermen of both Canada and the United States in the North Atlantic. Thus a Canadian may fish for lobster in waters opposite and adjacent to American waters subject to American restrictions and an American may fish off the Canadian waters subject to Canadian regulations.

WEEK-END CRUISE OF BOYS NAVAL BRIGADE

Sixty-three Members of Victoria Division in Week-end Cruise

Sixty-three members of the Boys' Naval Brigade left Victoria at seven o'clock Saturday morning on the H. M. C. T. Armentieres under Captain Ballies on another of the successful week-end cruises. The ship put in at Ladysmith at one o'clock, where the boys were taken on a route march. Leaving Ladysmith the tide was caught timely at Dods Narrows, and the ship berthed at Nanaimo at 4.20, where the boys were billeted with parents of the Nanaimo members of the brigade. A large crowd turned out to see a route march held in the evening, the Victoria division and the Bugle band leading. The boys were dismissed to the billets at nine o'clock.

The party left Nanaimo at 8.30 Sunday morning with thirty-six members of the Nanaimo sub-division on board. Mattis were read on board by the commanding officer. Talks on seamanship were given to the Nanaimo boys before they disembarked at Ladysmith. The G. T. P. docks at Victoria were reached at sunset Sunday afternoon. Arrangements are being made for a church parade of the Victoria division at St. Paul's, Esquimalt, Sunday morning.
