E. A. APGAR,
State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

THE SCHOOL LAW.

AN ACT to establish a system of Public Instruction.

Approved March 21, 1867.

ARTICLE I.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the general supervision and control of public instruction in the State of New Jersey shall be vested in a State Board of Education, which board shall consist of the Trustees of the School Fund, the Trustees of the State Normal School, appointed as hereafter provided, together with the treasurer thereof.

State Board of Education, how composed.

2. And be it enacted, That the State Board of Education shall have power, and it shall be their duty :

Powers and duties.

I. To frame and modify at pleasure such by-laws as may be deemed expedient for their own government, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and to prescribe and cause to be enforced all rules and regulations necessary for carrying into effect the school laws of this State ;

II. To consider the necessities of the public schools, and recommend to the Legislature, from time to time, such additions and amendments to the laws as are deemed necessary for perfecting the school system of the State ;

III. To appoint the State Superintendent of Public Instruction ;

IV. To appoint the County Superintendents of the several counties of the State, subject the approval of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the several counties, at their first meeting after the appointments by the State Board, but in all cases where no action is taken by any Board of Chosen Freeholders, approving or disapproving, then the appointments made by the State Board shall be valid without such approval ;

V. To prescribe all rules and regulations for holding teachers' institutes ;

VI. To order all necessary repairs to the grounds, buildings and furniture of the State Normal School, and to keep said buildings and furniture insured, and the comptroller shall draw warrants for the payment of the same, upon the certificate of the president of said board ;

VII. To authorize the payment by the State Treasurer, upon the warrant of the State Comptroller, of all the necessary incidental expenses incurred by the State Superintendent in the performance of his official duties ;

VIII. To decide all appeals from the decisions of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Compensation.

3. And be it enacted, That the members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but the State Treasurer shall pay the necessary expenses of the said members, upon the warrant of the State Comptroller.

Annual report.

4. And be it enacted, That the board shall report annually to the Legislature in regard to all matters committed to their care.

ARTICLE II.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

State Superintendent, how elected, term of office and salary.

5. And be it enacted, That the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be elected by the State Board of Education, by ballot, and shall hold office during the pleasure of the board, not to exceed the term of three years, receiving annually a salary of two thousand dollars ; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent his re-election.

Location of office.

6. And be it enacted, That he shall be required to have his office in the State House, in Trenton.

To carry out the instructions of the Board.

7. And be it enacted, That it shall be his duty to carry out the instructions of the board, and to enforce all rules and regulations prescribed by them.

Officer ex officio.

8. And be it enacted, That he shall be ex-officio secretary of the Board of Education, president of the State Association of School Superintendents ; and a member of the State Board of Examiners, and of all county and city boards of examiners.

Supervision of schools.

9. And be it enacted, That he shall have the supervision of all the schools of the State receiving any part of the State appropriation, and shall be the general adviser and assistant of the County Superintendents ; he shall, from time to time, as he shall deem for the interest of the schools, address circular letters to said Superintendents, giving advice as to the best manner of conducting schools, constructing school houses, furnishing the same, and procuring competent teachers.

10. And be it enacted, That the State Superintendent, under the direction of the Trustees of the School Fund, shall apportion to the several counties the State school moneys to which each may be entitled, which apportionment shall be made in the ratio of the number of children between the ages of five and eighteen in the said counties, as ascertained by the last annual report of the State Superintendent; he shall furnish to the State Comptroller, and to the County Superintendent, and the County Collector of each county, an abstract of such apportionment, and shall draw his order on the State Comptroller for the amount to which each county is entitled, in favor of the County Collector of said county.

11. And be it enacted, That he shall have power, and it shall be his duty to direct and cause the County Superintendent of any county, or any Board of Trustees or other school officers, to withhold from any officer, or district, or teacher, that part of the State appropriation derived from the revenue of the State, until such officer, district or teacher shall have complied with the provisions of this act and its supplements relating to his, its or their duties, and with all the rules and regulations made in pursuance thereof by the State Board of Education; he shall forbid the payment of said part of the State appropriation to any district in which the school or schools have not been kept according to law, or in which a public school has not been kept for at least five months during the year next preceding the demand for payment.

12. And be it enacted, That he shall prepare and cause to be printed suitable forms for making all reports and conducting all necessary proceedings under the school laws of this State, shall transmit them to the local school officers and teachers; he shall cause all school laws to be printed in pamphlet form, and shall annex thereto the forms for making reports and conducting school business.

13. And be it enacted, That he shall decide, subject to appeal to the State Board of Education, and without cost to the parties, all controversies or disputes that may arise under the school laws of the State, or under the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education, the facts of which controversies or disputes shall be made known to him by written statements by the parties thereto, verified by oath or affirmation, if

Superintendent to apportion State school moneys to the counties. (See Sec. 4 of free school law.)

When and how school moneys are to be withheld. (See Sec 1 and 11 of free school law.)

* Schools to be kept open five months.

Superintendent to furnish school officers with instructions, blanks and forms.

To decide disputes.

* The free school law requires the schools to be kept open nine months each year. See Sec. 1.

required, and accompanied by certified copies of all documents necessary to a full understanding of the question in dispute; and his decision shall be binding until a different decision shall be given by the State Board of Education.

To collect books and apparatus.

14. And be it enacted, That he shall preserve in his office such school books, apparatus, maps, charts, works on education, plans for school buildings, and other articles of interest to school officers or teachers, as may be procured without expense to the State.

To file and preserve school documents.

15. And be it enacted, That he shall file all school reports of this State, and of other States which may be sent to his office, and shall keep a record of all the acts connected with his official duties, and preserve copies of all the decisions given by him.

To provide a seal for his office.

16. And be it enacted, That he shall provide a seal with suitable device for use in his office, by which all his official acts and decisions may be authenticated.

To make an annual report.

17. And be it enacted, That he shall report to the State Board of Education, at its annual meeting in December of each year, a statement of the condition of the public schools, and of all the educational institutions receiving support from the State, which report shall contain full statistical tables of all items connected with the cause of education that may be of interest to the school officers or people of the State, together with such plans and suggestions for the improvement of the schools and the advancement of public instruction in the State as he shall deem expedient.

To deliver the property in his office to his successor.

18. And be it enacted, That he shall, at the expiration of his term of office, deliver to his successor his official seal, together with all property, books, documents, maps, records, reports, and other papers belonging to his office, or which may have been received by him for the use of his office.

ARTICLE III.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.

County Superintendent, how appointed, term of office.

19. And be it enacted, That the State Board of Education shall appoint for each county one person, as provided in the fourth provision of section two, of suitable attainments, as the County Superintendent of public schools for that county, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board, not to exceed the term of three years; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent his reappointment.

20. And be it enacted, That the yearly salary of the County Superintendent shall be at the rate of ten cents for each child in the county between the ages of five and eighteen, as ascertained in the last annual report of the State Superintendent, which salary shall be paid by the county collector, on the warrant of the State Superintendent; provided, that the salary shall in no case be less than five hundred dollars, nor more than twelve hundred dollars; and provided, that in case any city shall have a City Superintendent of schools, who is not also the County Superintendent, the children belonging to such city shall not be counted in determining the salary of the County Superintendent; and the supervision of the schools of said city, which would otherwise belong to the County Superintendent, shall devolve upon the City Superintendent.

Salary of County Superintend-
ent.

21. And be it enacted, That the County Superintendent shall apportion annually among the several townships of his county, and to the city or cities therein, not included in said townships, under the direction of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, the school moneys belonging to said county, in the ratio of the number of children between the ages of five and eighteen, as ascertained by the last preceding annual report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

School
moneys, how apportioned
to townships
and cities.
(See Sec. 5 of
free school
law.)

22. And be it enacted, That he shall further apportion among the several school districts of each township, the State appropriation to which they are entitled, together with the township appropriation, in the ratio of the number of children between the ages of five and eighteen, as reported by the district clerk.

How apportioned to school districts. (See
Sec. 5 of free
school law.)

23. And be it enacted, That he shall issue orders on the county collector in favor of each township collector, and of each city treasurer, for that portion of the State appropriation to which said township or city is entitled; and shall file with each township collector and the clerk of each school district, in any township, a copy of the apportionment of the township school funds made by him for said township, within twenty days after making said apportionment.

County Su-
perintend-
ent to issue orders for school
moneys. (See Sec's 5 and 6
of free school
law.)

24. And be it enacted, That he shall examine and license teachers, fix the boundaries of school districts, divide and unite districts, form new districts, provide for graded schools, and discharge other duties of general supervision and superintendence over the public schools of the county, in accordance with the regulations prescribed from time to time by the State Board of Education.

To license teachers, to change
school districts, to provide for graded schools.

To appoint trustees to fill vacancies.

25. And be it enacted, That he shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to appoint trustees for any district which for any cause fails to elect at the regular time; to appoint trustees to fill vacancies; to appoint the first trustees for any new district; provided, however, that when a new district is organized, such of the trustees of the old district as reside within the limits of the new one shall be trustees of the new one, and the vacancy in the old district shall be filled by his appointment.

To withhold school moneys. (See Sec's 1 and 11 of free school law.)

26. And be it enacted, That he shall have power to withhold that part of the State appropriation derived from the revenue of the State from any district in which the inhabitants fail to provide a suitable school building and outhouses, or in which the existing buildings shall be pronounced by him and a majority of the trustees unfit for use; and for that purpose he may serve a notice on the township collector to withhold the payment of the same from such district.

To appoint students for Agricultural College.

27. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the County Superintendent, at such time and place as the State Superintendent may appoint, to examine such candidates for State scholarships at the Agricultural College, as may present themselves, and the candidates shall be subjected to such examination as the faculty of the said college and State Superintendent shall prescribe; and the candidates who shall receive certificates of appointment to the Agricultural College in any one county, shall be those who obtain on such examination the highest average for scholarship; and the number of certificates thus granted shall in no case exceed the number of State scholarships to which such county is entitled.

To give advice.

28. And be it enacted, That in all controversies arising under the school law, the opinion and advice of the County Superintendent shall first be sought, and from him appeal may be made, if necessary, to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

State Association of School Superintendents.

29. And be it enacted, That the County and City Superintendents shall together constitute an association, to be called "The State Association of School Superintendents," which association shall meet at such times and places as the State Board of Education may appoint, and at such other times as they may agree upon.

To make an annual report.

30. And be it enacted, That each County Superintendent and each City Superintendent, on or before the first of October of each year, shall make an annual report to the State Superintendent, in the manner and form prescribed by him.

ARTICLE IV.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

31. And be it enacted, That an annual meeting for the election of school trustees shall be held in each district on the first Monday in September of each year, at the district school house, if there be one, and if there be none, at a place to be designated by the district clerk, who shall post notices thereof, specifying the day, time, object and place of such meeting, in at least three public places in the district, one of which shall be at the school house, if there be one, at least five days previous to the time of meeting; the voters shall be legal voters of the district, and a plurality of votes shall elect; and no person shall be eligible to the office of trustee, unless he is a resident in the district.

Trustees,
when and how elected.

32. And be it enacted, That in all districts in which elections have been previously held, one trustee shall be elected for the term of three years, and if there are vacancies to be filled, a sufficient number shall be elected to fill them for the unexpired terms.

Term of office.

33. And be it enacted, That in new districts acting under trustees appointed by the County Superintendent, three trustees shall be elected, for one, two and three years respectively; the term of office of any trustee which would otherwise expire in April of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of September of the same year.

Trustees,
how elected
in new districts.

34. And be it enacted, That each Board of Trustees shall, within ten days after the annual election, meet at the school house, or at some other convenient place, and proceed to elect one of their number clerk of the board, who shall be known and referred to as "district clerk;" and on their failure to do so, the County Superintendent shall appoint said clerk.

District
Clerk, when and how elected.

35. And be it enacted, That he shall record, in a suitable book, all proceedings of the board, and of the annual school meetings, and of special school meetings; and pay out, by orders on the township collectors, in the manner prescribed by law, all school moneys of the district, whether received from the State, township or district; he shall keep a correct and detailed account of all expenditures of school moneys in his district, and report the same to the County Superintendent, and also

Duties of the District
Clerk.

Report to County Superintend-
ent.

to the township committee; at each annual school meeting he shall present his record book and his accounts for public inspection, and shall make a statement of the financial condition of the district and of the action of the trustees.

District census of children, how and when made.

36. And be it enacted, That he shall take annually, in the month of August, between the first and twentieth day of said month, an exact census of all children residing in the district between the ages of five and eighteen, not including the children who may be inmates of poor houses, asylums or alms houses, and shall specify the names and ages of such children, and the names of their parents or guardians; (all children who may be absent from home, attending colleges, boarding schools and private seminaries of learning, shall be included in the census list of the city, town or district in which their parents or guardians reside, and not be taken by the district clerk of the city, town or district where they may be attending such institutions of learning); and that he shall make a full report thereof, verified by him under oath or affirmation that the same is correct and true, on the blanks furnished for that purpose, to the County Superintendent, on or before the first day of September next after his appointment, and keep a copy of the same for the use of the School Trustees, and shall receive for his services such compensation as the Board of Trustees may allow.

(County Superintendent authorized to administer oath in Sec. 13 of free school law.)
(See Sec. 12 of free school law relative to reports.)

Schools, how supplied and kept in repair

37. And be it enacted, That he shall keep the school buildings in repair; he shall provide the necessary fuel, and obtain for the schools such supplies of crayons for blackboards, for the use of the pupils, as are necessary in carrying out the course of study prescribed therein; which repairs and supplies shall be paid for out of the moneys raised by the district.

Name of School District.

38. And be it enacted, That every school district shall be known by the name and number assigned to it by the County Superintendent, in accordance with the general regulations of the State Board of Education, and the Trustees thereof shall be a body corporate, to be called and known by the name of "The Trustees of School District Number —, in the county of —," and shall be capable of suing and being sued in all courts and places whatever, and of purchasing, holding and conveying real and personal property for the use and benefit of the schools of such district, and may have a corporate seal.

Title and powers of Trustees.

39. And be it enacted, That the Board of Trustees of any school district shall have power, and it shall be their duty:

I. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, mechanics and laborers, and to fix, alter, allow and order paid their salaries and compensations;

Duties of Trustees.

To employ teachers, etc.

II. To make and enforce rules and regulations not in conflict with the general regulations of the State Board of Education, for the government of schools, pupils and teachers;

To enforce rules of State Board.

III. To erect school buildings, and purchase, lease or sell school lots, as they may be directed by a two-third vote of the district;

To erect school buildings, etc.

IV. To rent, furnish, and repair school buildings, and keep the same insured;

To rent school buildings, etc.

V. To purchase personal property, and to receive, lease and hold in fee, in trust for their district, any and all real or personal property, for the benefit of the schools thereof;

To purchase school property.

VI. To enforce the regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education; and, in connection with the County Superintendent, to prescribe the course of study to be pursued, and a uniform series of text books to be used in the school or schools under their charge;

To prescribe the text books.

VII. To suspend or expel pupils from school;

VIII. To provide books for indigent children;

IX. To require all pupils to be furnished with suitable books, as a condition of membership in the school;

X. To require every teacher to keep a State school register;

XI. To call a special meeting of the legal voters of the district, at any time when, in the judgment of said Trustees, the interests of the school may require it; which meeting shall be called in the manner provided in section eighty of this act for calling the annual district meeting; and no business shall be transacted at said special meeting except such as has been set forth in the notices by which said meeting was called;

To call special district meetings. (See Sec. 7 of free school law.)

XII. To permit a school house to be used for other than school purposes, when a majority of the Trustees present shall so agree, at a meeting regularly called for that purpose.

XIII. To make an annual report, on or before the first of September, to the County Superintendent, in the manner and form prescribed by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

To make an annual report. (See Sec. 12 of free school law.)

Township Board of Trustees.

40. And be it enacted, That the District Trustees of each township shall together constitute an association, to be called "The Township Board of Trustees;" said Board shall meet at such times and places as the County Superintendent may appoint, for the purpose of hearing from him communications and suggestions in regard to the management of the schools, and of submitting to him questions for advice or opinion relating to the same.

ARTICLE V.

TEACHERS.

Teacher to keep a School Register.

41. And be it enacted, That every teacher of a public school shall keep a school register in the manner provided therefor, and no salary shall be paid to such teacher until said register is exhibited to the district clerk, or other officer authorized to make payment, and until said officer finds, by examination, that the register has been properly kept for the time for which salary is demanded, and enters upon the register a certificate to that effect.

To present
School Register to District Clerk.

42. And be it enacted, That every teacher who shall leave a school before the close of the school year, shall, at the time of leaving, make to the County Superintendent a report of the school for all that portion of the current school year that the school has been in his or her charge, and shall, at the same time, give a duplicate of said report and surrender the school register to the district clerk, and any teacher who may be teaching any school at the close of the school year, shall, in his or her annual report, include all the statistics from the school register for the entire school year, notwithstanding any previous report for a part of the year; no school money shall be paid to any teacher for the last month of his or her services until the report herein required shall have been made and received, and the register exhibited; provided, that in graded schools, in which there are more teachers than one, the principal teacher alone shall be responsible for the school report and register.

To hold a
teacher's certificate.

43. And be it enacted, That no teacher shall be entitled to any salary unless such teacher shall be the holder of a proper teacher's certificate, in full force and effect.

School
month,
holidays, etc.

44. And be it enacted, That in every contract, whether written or verbal, between any teacher and Board of Trustees, a school month shall be construed and taken to be twenty school days, or four weeks of five school days each; and no teacher shall be required to teach school on Christmas day, the first day of January, the fourth day of July, and such days of fasting or thanksgiving as may be appointed by the President of the United States or the Governor of this State; and no deduction from the teacher's time or wages shall be made by reason of the fact that a school day happens to be one of the days referred to in this section; any contract made in violation of this section, shall have no force or effect as against the teacher.

45. And be it enacted, That every teacher shall have power to hold every pupil accountable, in school, for any disorderly conduct on the way to or from school, or on the play grounds of the school, or during recess, and to suspend from school any pupil for good cause; provided, that such suspension shall be reported by the teacher to the Trustees as soon as practicable; and if such action is not sustained by them, the teacher may appeal to the County Superintendent, whose decision shall be final. Pupils held accountable.

46. And be it enacted, That in case of the dismissal of any teacher before the expiration of any contract entered into between such teacher and Trustees, the teacher shall have the right of appeal to the County Superintendent, and if the County Superintendent shall decide that the removal was made without good cause, said teacher shall be entitled to compensation for the full time for which the contract was made; but it shall be optional with the Trustees whether he or she shall or shall not teach for the unexpired term. Dismissal of teacher.

ARTICLE VI.

PUPILS.

47. And be it enacted, That pupils of the public school shall comply with the regulations established in pursuance of law for the government of such schools; shall pursue the course of study and use the series of text books prescribed by the Trustees and County Superintendent, and shall submit to the authority of the teachers; continued and wilful disobedience, or open defiance of the authority of the teacher, the use of habitual profanity or obscene language, shall constitute good cause for suspension or expulsion from school; any pupil who shall in any way cut, deface, or otherwise injure any school house, fences, or outbuildings thereof, shall be liable to suspension and punishment; and the parents of such pupil shall be liable for damages to the amount of injury, on complaint of the teacher, the amount to be determined by the trustees, and collected by the district Pupils to submit to the authority of the teacher.

clerk, by an action in debt therefor, in any court having jurisdiction, in his name as district clerk, together with the costs of said action.

ARTICLE VII.

BOARDS OF EXAMINERS.

State Board of Examiners, its duties, and how constituted.

48. And be it enacted, That there shall be a State Board of Examiners, consisting of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Principal of the State Normal School; they shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to hold examinations of teachers, and to grant State certificates or revoke the same, under such rules and regulations as the State Board of Education may prescribe, and a certificate thus granted shall entitle the holder, without further examination, to teach in any part of the State, so long as the certificate remains valid by the terms thereof, and in any school not of a higher grade than that for which the certificate represents him as qualified.

County
Board of Examiners, its duties and how constituted.

49. And be it enacted, That there shall be in each county a County Board of Examiners, which shall be composed of the County Superintendent, who shall, ex officio, be chairman, and of a number of teachers, not to exceed three, to be appointed by him, who shall hold office for one year from the time of their respective appointments; but no person shall be appointed as County Examiner unless he holds either a State or a first grade county certificate; the County Superintendent shall fill vacancies that occur from absence or other causes, but if he cannot find any teacher in his county qualified under the provisions of this section willing to serve, he shall conduct the examination himself; the Board shall meet at such times and places as may be designated by the chairman, and shall hold a session at least as often as once in every three months, and at the place and during the session of any teachers' institute held in the county; each member of the board, except the County Superintendent, shall be paid for his services, in addition to his travelling expenses, a sum not exceeding three dollars for each session of said board, to be paid by the County Collector, on the order of the County Superintendent; provided, that this compensation shall be paid only for the regular quarterly examinations; and that whenever said board shall hold sessions at any other time, no compensation shall be allowed from the county; but in cases of such special examinations, said board may charge each applicant an examination fee not exceeding two dollars; the County Board of Examiners shall have power to conduct examinations and to grant certificates of different grades, in accordance with the general regulations on the subject prescribed by the State Board of Education, and the highest grade of certificate thus granted shall entitle the holder, without further examination, to teach in any part of the State so long as this certificate remains valid, and in any school not of a higher grade than that for which the certificate represents the holder as qualified; any county certificate lower than the highest grade will only entitle the holder to teach a school of a corresponding grade in the county for which such certificate was granted.

50. And be it enacted, That in every city having a Board of Education governed by special laws, there shall be a City Board of Examiners, to consist of such members as said Board of Education of that city may appoint; said Examiners shall have power, subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the City Board of Education, to grant certificates of qualification, which shall be valid for all schools of that city; and no teacher shall be employed in any of the schools of that city unless possessing such certificate, or a State certificate, nor in any school of a higher grade than that for which said certificate represents the holder to be qualified; any City Board of Examiners may recognize the certificates of any other city, and, without examination, issue to the holders certificates of a corresponding grade.

City Board of Examiners, its duties, and how constituted.

ARTICLE VIII—SCHOOLS.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

51. And be it enacted, That there shall be a Normal School, or seminary, for the training and education of teachers in the art of instructing and governing the common schools of this State, the object of which Normal School or seminary shall be the training and education of its pupils in such branches of knowledge, and such methods of teaching and governing, as will qualify them for teachers of our common schools.

Normal School, its object.

52. And be it enacted, That there shall be a Board of Trustees of said Normal School, to consist of two trustees from each congressional district; the trustees already appointed shall continue in office severally for the terms for which they shall have been appointed, namely, five whose terms expire in eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and five whose terms expire in eighteen hundred and sixty-nine; and annually hereafter, in the place of those whose terms are about to expire, the Governor shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint one trustee of said school from each congressional district, to hold office severally for the term of two years and until their successors are appointed, so that there shall always be two trustees from each congressional district; and in case of any vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise, a successor for the unexpired term shall in like manner be appointed; the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be ex officio a member of said Board of Trustees.

Compensation.

53. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall receive no compensation for their services, but the expenses necessarily incurred by them in the discharge of their duties shall be defrayed out of the funds hereinafter appropriated for the support of said school.

Trustees to have supervision of the Normal School.

54. And be it enacted, That to the said Board of Trustees shall be committed the control and use of the buildings and grounds owned and used by the State for the use of the Normal School, the application of the funds for the support thereof, the appointment of teachers and the power of removing the same, the power to prescribe the studies and exercises of the school, and rules for its management, to grant diplomas, to appoint some suitable person treasurer of the board, and to frame and modify at pleasure such by-laws as they may deem necessary for their own government; and they shall report annually to the Legislature their own doings and the progress and condition of the school.

Annual report.

Number of pupils.

55. And be it enacted, That the number of pupils shall not exceed three for each member of the Senate and General Assembly; and each county shall be entitled to fill three times as many seats in the school as it has representatives in the Legislature; the applicants shall give, on admission, a written declaration, signed with their own hands, that their object in seeking admission to the school is to qualify themselves for the employment of public school teachers, and that it is their intention to engage in that employment in this State for at least two years.

Pupils, how admitted.

56. And be it enacted, That at the opening of each term of the Normal School, the principal, with his assistants, shall proceed to examine applicants, and to admit to the school such as appear to be possessed of the proper qualifications, to the number to which each county may be entitled.

57. And be it enacted, That in case any county is not fully represented, additional candidates may be admitted from other counties on sustaining the requisite examination. Vacancies, how filled.

Treasury.
(Changed to $65,000.)

71. And be it enacted, That from the revenue of the State the sum of sixty thousand dollars per annum shall be appropriated, in addition to the sum of forty thousand dollars from the annual income of the school fund, as mentioned in the preceding section of this act.

Trustees to divide State
appropriation.

72. And be it enacted, That the Trustees of the School Fund of this State shall have authority to divide the aforesaid sum of one hundred thousand dollars into two or more annual instalments, which shall be paid by the State Treasurer to the several county collectors, on the warrants of the State Comptroller.

Teachers'
Institutes.

73. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of defraying the expenses of teachers' institutes, the procuring of teachers and lecturers for said institutes, and other necessary expenses of the same, the State Superintendent of Public Schools may draw upon the Treasurer of the State for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for any one institute; and the said amount may be paid annually thereafter, in like manner, to one teachers' institute in any county, or in any two or more adjoining counties of this State, the same to be paid by the Treasurer out of the revenue of the State.

74. And be it enacted, That the State Comptroller, annually, after having received from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction a statement of the apportionment of the State appropriation among the several counties, shall draw his warrant on the State Treasurer, in favor of the county collector of any county, for the portions to which said county is entitled, whenever such county collector shall present an order for the same, drawn by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in favor of such county.

State Comptroller to draw warrant on State Treasurer.

75. And be it enacted, That the county collector of each county shall receive and hold in trust that part of the State appropriation belonging to his county, and shall pay out the same to the collectors of the several townships, and to the city treasurers of the cities of his county, only on the orders of the County Superintendent; provided, that in townships where there are less than two hundred children, between the ages of five and eighteen, the inhabitants may raise such a sum per child as will be sufficient to maintain their schools.

County Collectors to receive and hold in trust the State appropriation.

Townships with less than 200 children.

TOWNSHIP TAX.

76. (Repealed. See Sec. 14 of Free School Law.)

77. And be it enacted, That the several townships in this State are authorized and required to appropriate the interest of the surplus revenue received by them, and from other funds not raised by tax, such sums for the support of the public schools as they shall order and direct at their annual town meetings, in addition to the amount received from the State appropriation, and the amount which they raise by tax.

Interest of surplus revenue to be appropriated to schools.

78. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the township collector of each township to receive and hold in trust all school moneys belonging to the township or to any of the districts thereof, whether received from the State appropriation, from township or district tax, or from other sources, and to pay out the same only on the orders of the district clerks of the several districts of his township, which order shall specify the object for which it is given, and shall be signed by at least one other trustee beside said clerk, and shall be made payable to the order of, and be endorsed by the person entitled to receive it, and he shall, on the order of the township committee, pay over any balance of school funds

AN ACT to make free the Public Schools of the State, and supplemental to the act entitled "An act to establish a system of Public Instruction," approved March twenty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That for the purpose of maintaining free public schools, there shall be assessed, levied and collected, annually, on the inhabitants of this State, and upon the taxable real and personal property therein,

Free public schools to be maintained.

as exhibited by the last abstracts of ratables from the several counties, made out by the several Boards of Assessors, and filed in the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury, a State school tax of two mills on each dollar of the valuation contained in said abstracts, which tax shall be assessed, levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner in which other State taxes are assessed, levied and collected, and shall be in lieu of all township school taxes imposed by the act to which this is a supplement; but if the moneys received by any township from the tax imposed by this act shall not be sufficient to maintain free schools, for at least nine months in each year, then the inhabitants thereof shall raise, by township tax, such additional amount as they may need for that purpose, in the same manner as such taxes have heretofore been raised; and if the inhabitants of any township, at their annual town meeting, shall not provide for the raising of such necessary additional amount, then the County Superintendent of the county wherein such township is situated shall, unless the State Board of Education shall, for good cause shown, otherwise direct, shall withhold from such township all that part of the State appropriation derived from the revenue of this State, and shall apportion and distribute the same among such of the townships in said county as shall have complied with the requirements of this act.

State school tax of two mills,

Free schools to be maintained nine months,

Township tax required in case the State tax is not sufficient.

Penalty in case a township does not raise the amount required.

Comptroller to apportion the State tax for assessment.

Statement of apportionment to be sent to the collectors.

Collector to lay statement before board of assessors. Assessors to apportion and assess the tax.

Collectors to pay State tax to State Treasurer.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Comptroller aforesaid to apportion the said tax, and at the rate aforesaid, among the several counties, in proportion to the amount of taxable real and personal estate of said counties, respectively, as shown by the abstracts, respectively, as aforesaid; and it shall be his further duty to transmit, on or before the first day of May of each year, to the County Collector of each county, a statement of the amount of said tax apportioned to said county; and said County Collector shall lay said statement before the Board of Assessors of the townships and wards, within his county, at their next annual meeting to apportion the taxes among said townships and wards, and said Assessors shall thereupon proceed to apportion said school taxes as other taxes are apportioned, and to assess the same according to law.

3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the County Collectors of the several counties of this State, to pay to the Treasurer of this State the quotas due from their respective counties, of the taxes imposed by this act, on or before the first day of January, annually, next ensuing the assessment thereof.

4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, under the direction of the trustees of the school fund, on or before the first day of January of each and every year, to apportion the moneys received from the tax imposed by this act among the several counties of this State, in proportion to the number of children included in the last published school census of the said counties, respectively; provided, that all the children residing in fractional districts, situated in two or more adjoining counties, shall be included in the census of that county in which the fraction containing the school house is situated; and it shall be his further duty, on or before the tenth day of January of each and every year, to draw orders on the Comptroller of the Treasury, and in favor of the County Collectors, for the payment of the money thus apportioned; and the said County Collectors shall apply for and be entitled to receive the moneys thus apportioned, as soon as the orders for the same are received; and provided further, that no portion of said moneys shall be apportioned to or be used for the support of sectarian schools.

Money for fractional districts to be held by one collector

6. And be it enacted, That all school moneys belonging to fractional districts shall be held subject to the order of the trustees by the collector of that township in which the fraction containing the school house is situated.

Cities and districts may raise school tax.

7. And be it enacted, That in addition of the tax imposed by this act, each city and school district may raise by tax such other sums of money as they may need for school purposes, in accordance with the authority granted them by the act to which this is a supplement, or by any special act applicable to such city school district; provided, that whenever any district school meeting shall be held pursuant to the provisions of section eighty of the act to which this is a supplement, or at the call of the trustees, as provided in the eleventh division of the thirty-ninth section of said act, it shall not be lawful for such meeting to order a greater sum of money to be raised by district tax than shall have been mentioned and designated in the notice of such meeting, set up in the manner required by law; and provided further, that whenever, in the judgment of the trustees of any district, it shall not be necessary to levy a district tax for school purposes, the district clerk thereof shall not set up the notices directed to be given in said section eighty of the act to which this is a supplement.

Notices of school meetings to state amount required.

Amount ordered not to exceed amount specified.

No meeting to be called unless necessary.

No district to be formed with less than 75 children.

Every city or town to constitute but one district.

No tuition fees to be charged.

All schools to be free.

School moneys, how used.

8. And be it enacted, That no school district shall hereafter be formed which shall contain less than seventy-five children, between five and eighteen years of age, and that after the passage of this act, each incorporated city or town shall constitute but one school district for all school purposes, and that such consolidated district shall hold all the property and be liable for all the lawful debts of the district so consolidated.

9. And be it enacted, That after the expiration of the present school year, it shall not be lawful to charge tuition fees for the support of public schools in this State, but that all such schools shall be free to all persons over five and under eighteen years of age, residing within the district, so long as such schools can be thus maintained with the public school funds.

10. And be it enacted, That not more than twenty dollars, annually, of the school moneys received by any school district, except such as may be raised within the district, shall be used for any other purpose than the payment of teacher's salaries and for purchasing fuel.

11. And be it enacted, That in case any school district or city shall use any of the school money apportioned to it for any other than public school purposes, such district or city shall forfeit, out of the next annual apportionment, a sum equal to twice the amount thus used; and it shall be the duty of the County Superintendent to re-apportion the money thus forfeited, among the other districts and cities of his county; provided, the State Superintendent may remit such penalty for cause.

School money, how used.

Penalty.

State Sup't may remit penalty.

12. And be it enacted, That in case of the failure of any District Clerk or City Superintendent to send his annual report to the County Superintendent of his county, in the form prescribed, on or before the first of September, such County Superintendent shall make up his report for such district or city, from the last published report of the State Superintendent; in making up such report, however, he shall deduct one-fifth from the school census; provided, however, that all such cases of delay or negligence shall be reported to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, whose duty it shall be to investigate the same and to restore the number deducted from the school census, in all cases when he receives satisfactory reasons for such delay or negligence.

Penalty in case district clerk or City Sup't fails to make report.

State Sup't may remit penalty.

13. And be it enacted, That the County Superintendent shall have power to administer all necessary oaths or affirmations to district clerks and other school officers, for which he shall receive no compensation.

County Sup't authorized to administer oath.

Repealer.

14. And be it enacted, That section seventy-six, together with such other parts of the act to which this is a supplement, and all other acts or parts of acts as are in conflict with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

15. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 6, 1871.

AN ACT to encourage the formation of Libraries in the Free Public Schools of New Jersey.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the Treasurer of the State, upon the order of the State Superintendent of Education, is hereby authorized and directed to pay over the sum of twenty dollars out of any money that may be in the public treasury, to every school district which shall raise by subscription a like sum for the same purpose, to
