BURGLARS MAKE HAUL

BREAK INTO HOME ON LOUISE STREET AND ROB THE BABY'S BANK

There was not much sense of decency in the heart of the burglars who broke into the home of Paul C. Butterfield, 815 South Louise street, Saturday evening. The family had gone for an outing and apparently had great faith in the inviolability of their house, as they left money and jewelry lying within easy reach of any sneak thief or burglar who might seek to enter.

Entrance was effected through the back screen door, but as the windows were all unlocked, there was a practical invitation to any sneak thief to help himself. The burglars, whoever they were, appear to have been somewhat singular in their proceedings. Though there was a great quantity of jewelry lying in full sight not a piece of it was touched. The thieves may have been acquainted with the premises, as there are indications that they knew where to look for what they sought. They first found $1.20 in a drawer; then further search brought the sum of 80 cents found in a pocketbook. The thieves then directed their attention to the baby's bank, which was broken open and its contents amounting to 40 cents abstracted. Not satisfied with this piece of meanness, the marauders then went to a tent in the rear of the house and took $12 from a drawer in a dresser there.

They also discovered a $10 gold piece in the drawer; one dollar in the shape of a bill and one dollar in silver. The jewelry here also was not touched.

It is thought that a clue has been discovered to the thieves, whose avoidance of the jewelry may lead to their detection.

SUMMER COURSE IN RHYTHMIC GYMNASTICS

Miss Ruby Dale will conduct a six weeks' summer course in rhythmic gymnastics in Butler's hall, 335 1/2 South Brand boulevard, July 7 to August 13. During the past year Miss Dale has been making a study of the eurhythmics of Jean Dalcroze, which has been attracting so much interest and attention in both the musical and educational world. Already convinced of the necessity of a certain amount of physical training in the musician's development, Miss Dale feels that in Dalcroze's system is found the combination of physical and musical training for which the world has been waiting. The exercises in this course will be graded from the kindergarten up and will be presented through music, thus developing in the pupil musical feeling and a familiarity with musical terms and symbols.

The lessons will be sufficiently physical in their nature to interest all children and yet sufficiently musical to be of great value to music students and those who expect to study music.

INDIAN RUG EXHIBIT

Mrs. R. Johnson and Miss McLean, who have spent many years among the Navajo and Hopi Indians, on the Arizona Indian reservation, have come to Glendale to take up their residence here. Mr. Johnson, who still remains on the reservation, has special facilities for obtaining many of the beautiful Navajo rugs and blankets for which those Indians are so justly famed. Mrs. Johnson and Miss McLean have brought with them a large quantity of the blankets and also Hopi Indian basket work and pottery.

This is so beautiful a collection of the genuine Indian articles—not the blankets made in Germantown, Pa.—that Mrs. C. W. Young of Rock Glen avenue has consented to allow her large residence to be used as an exhibit museum for the time being and will throw open her house to those anxious to see this rare work in its genuine native make. The exhibit will be on Wednesday between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m. All who are interested in Indian work are cordially invited to visit the collection.

WEDDING IN JUSTICE COURT

Justice Miller officiated at a wedding in his courtroom, 409 South Brand boulevard, Saturday night at 6:30, when William H. Barraclough and Frankie Henniker were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. The young couple will reside at 210 South Louise street.

STUNT PARTY

Miss Margaret Lusby will entertain the Queen Esthers of the First M. E. church and their girl friends with a "stunt party" Thursday evening at her home, 111 Cedar street.

RANDALL RECEPTION

BANQUET AND RECEPTION WILL BE TENDERED OUR CONGRESSMAN TONIGHT

Congressman and Mrs. Charles H. Randall will be guests of the many friends and admirers of Mr. Randall at an outdoor banquet this evening at 6 o'clock at the Glendale auditorium. Many impromptu addresses will be made and it is to be expected that oratory will run riot over the beautiful green lawn.

This occasion, however, will be but a forerunner of what is to follow at the reception at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium, for which the following program has been arranged:

Meeting called to order by Jasper N. McGillis of the reception committee, who will place the exercises in the hands of Mr. Mattison B. Jones.

Short address by Mr. Jones.

Three-minute addresses of welcome by the following: Hon. O. A. Lane, mayor; Mr. J. W. Usilton, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Mr. A. T. Cowan, president of the Glendale Merchants' association; Mr. J. C. Sherer of the Republican party; Mr. Frank L. Muhleman of the Democratic party; Prof. A. B. Heacock of the Progressive party; Prof. A. M. Brooks of the Prohibition party; Mr. R. Gilhousen of the Socialist party; Mrs. R. W. Meeker, representing the women constituents.

Solo, Prof. Laichinger.

Reading, an original production by Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan.

Introduction of Mr. Randall.

Address, Congressman Charles A. Randall.

Closing address, Mr. Jones.

After the close all present will be given an opportunity to shake hands with Mr. Randall.

EAGLE ROCK HOLD-UP

Chief Herald had a long watch Monday night for a set of hold-up people who were supposed to have got away in the direction of Glendale after having held up the Eagle Rock street car on the L. A. railway line and robbed the passengers. The sheriff's office at Eagle Rock telephoned the chief about 11 p. m. informing him that an automobile driven by a man who had held up the street car was somewhere in the vicinity.

Strict watch, however, revealed the fact that whoever held up the street car had been clever enough to get away with the spoil. The street car people were taken completely by surprise when the robber held a gun in the face of the conductor and ordered the passengers to hold up their hands while he relieved them of their money and jewelry.

It is believed that the robber got a large amount of money by his hold-up. The police are of the opinion that more than one party was concerned in the robbery and they are on the lookout for a man about five feet eight inches in height, with a sandy mustache.

GLENDALE SINGERS

Mrs. Greely Koltz, Mrs. McMullin, Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Landmann, Mrs. Cowan and Miss Lydia Payro were the Glendale contingent of singers belonging to the Lyric club who took part in the joint concert given at the Shrine auditorium on Monday evening. The concert was taken part in by the Lyric, the Ellis and the Orpheus clubs and was a great success. The ladies of the Lyric club sang Charles Wakefield Cadman's "The Wish" with great smoothness and sweetness. The composer, who was in the audience, was greeted with much enthusiastic applause. The violin and cello obligato was particularly pleasing. The Orpheus club sang "The Retreat" with great effect and the Ellis club distinguished itself in "The Sands o' Dee." Mr. J. B. Poulin wielded the baton for the Ellis and Lyric clubs. Joseph P. Dupuy guided the Orpheus.

ONE O'CLOCK LUNCHEON

Mrs. Charles H. Temple, Orange and Third, gave a charming 1 o'clock luncheon Friday in honor of Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, 341 South Central avenue. The table was beautifully decorated. A train of little cars "going east" ran in and out among the baskets of lavender colored flowers, beautifully trimmed with white tulle bows. The placecards were girls with traveling suitcases, the favors being little suitcases. The lavender and white colors were everywhere. The guests were Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. W. T. Thompson, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. Henry Goodwin, Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mrs. Charles Evans, Mrs. W. E. McFadden and the hostess, Mrs. Temple. This affair was in honor of Mrs. Hunchberger's coming visit to New York.

THE WEEKLY SESSION

CITY TRUSTEES CONVENE AND TRANSACT WEEKLY GRIND OF OFFICIAL BUSINESS

The bill of fare was not a very elaborate one at the trustees' meeting Monday evening. It had just come to that point in the city's history that most important business had been completed and the trustees were not ready to take up prospective important business.

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting communications were taken up for consideration. A communication was read from an association of fire chiefs of the state of California asking that Glendale be represented at their next convention by the fire chief and one of the trustees of the city. The communication was received and placed on file.

A communication requesting that a permit to sell milk be granted to Earl White of West Fifth street was referred to the milk inspector.

The city clerk reported that since last April he had collected merchants' license fees to the amount of $263.89.

The city manager, T. W. Watson, recommended that the city of Glendale become a member of the Internal Waterways of California association. He said that under this association internal improvements were made in waterways, in some instances including wash propositions such as Glendale had to contend with. As it is at present, the majority of the members reside in the northern part of the state, so that it is possible for them to vote upon questions to suit themselves and to the detriment of this section of California. He thinks it behooves the citizens of the southern part of the state to take more interest in the internal waterways and therefore recommended that the city of Glendale take out a membership in the association, the cost of said membership will be $5. The next convention will be held in Los Angeles.

Mr. Russell, president of the Municipal League, presented a petition calling the attention of the board of trustees to the importance of taking steps to call an election that the voters may have a chance to decide whether they wish to change from a fifth to a sixth class city government. Mr. Russell emphasized the fact that unless immediate steps are taken to have the election called, conditions are such that an election for the change of the class of government of a city cannot be held until 1919.

Mr. Russell was informed by the city trustees and the city attorney that the usual course would be taken and that the recommendations made several weeks ago concerning the procedure necessary to the holding of such an election would be carried out. The communication was therefore received and placed on file.

City Attorney W. E. Evans reported that he had received a communication from the Pacific Electric officials stating that it is their intention to put the comfort stations in the railway depot in Glendale in good condition if they are not already in such condition.

A communication was received from the county health officials, of which George T. Paine is one of the officers, asking if it is the intention of the city of Glendale to furnish antitoxin, which is necessary to be used in diphtheria cases. The question was referred to the city health officer.

J. C. Beldin being present, was asked if he wished to address the board. He said he had come to the trustees' meeting thinking that the merchants' license ordinance was to come up for consideration, and in reference to this question Mr. Beldin said he was absolutely opposed to merchants or any other one to pay a license for the right to do business or the right to sell merchandise. Mr. Beldin stated that he thinks it is fair to allow every man to have a chance of making a living without paying a special tax to carry on the work in which he is engaged.

On motion a resolution was adopted ordering that Second street be improved from Central to Columbus. The resolution ordering the work is published elsewhere in this issue.

A motion prevailed allowing $50 to be used to defray the expense of arranging plans for the opening of Brand boulevard from Tropic to Los Angeles.

The demands previously referred to the finance committee were approved and on motion warrants were ordered drawn on the treasurer for the various amounts.

The merchants' license ordinance was taken up for consideration. The clerk was informally instructed not to enforce the ordinance July 1, as it pertains to licenses to be paid by merchants. The trustees spent a half hour considering the license ordinance and when the new ordinance is ready for adoption it will likely have eliminated from it all sections

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

PUBLIC LIBRARY OPEN TOMORROW FROM 9 TO 10 A. M. FOR STORY TELLING

Mrs. Danford, the popular librarian of the Glendale public library, who recently inaugurated a story hour for children, met with so much success at the opening gathering that her plans are likely to develop wonderfully. The fact that eighty-six children were present at the first meeting demonstrated clearly that the new departure fills a want in the life of the community. The children were intensely interested in the stories and profited greatly by the wise teaching of the librarian.

Tomorrow the second hour of the series will be given. It is expected that there will be an even larger attendance. Miss Scott, Mrs. Danford's assistant, will take part in the entertainment. Miss Scott is quite a favorite with the children. It is, of course, understood that no parents will be admitted to the meeting. Mrs. Danford believes that this arrangement is better as it prevents the children from having their attention divided by their interest in their parents. The influence of the story-telling hour is greatly a personal influence and wherever the right personality has been placed in charge, the children have profited greatly.

The work to be taken up tomorrow is Nathaniel Hawthorne's famous story, "The Great Stone Face," which should prove vastly interesting.

WILMA LOUISE PARKER

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Parker of 412 North Louise street have the sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances in the loss of their sweet little baby daughter, Wilma Louise, who came such a short time ago to brighten their home and who departed for her eternal home Monday, June 28, at about 1 o'clock, at the age of only seven months and twenty-one days. Bronchial pneumonia was the cause of the baby's death.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from St. Mark's Episcopal church, the Pulliam Undertaking company in charge of the funeral arrangements. Burial will be in Rosedale cemetery, Los Angeles.

MRS. NANCY DUNNING

Mrs. Nancy Bass Dunning, for forty years a resident of this valley and known to many people here, passed away at her home on Fourth street, Burbank, Monday evening, June 28. She leaves to mourn her death three sons, who are members of the Glendale Elks' lodge.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church in Burbank on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Scovern-Letton-Frey Undertaking company of Tropic are in charge of the funeral arrangements.

MORRIS FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mrs. Bertha Morris, who passed away at her home in Burbank on Sunday, were held this afternoon at the Christian church in that city in charge of the Scovern-Letton-Frey company of Tropic.

P. E. O. SISTERHOOD

Chapter A-H, P. E. O. of Tropic, met at the home of Mrs. Bancroft Thursday last. The regular business meeting opened at 12 noon, after which luncheon was served. Miss Eula Richardson and Mrs. Griswold were the guests of honor. Miss Richardson delighted the society by reading extracts from her "Diary Abroad." The reading told a great deal about the places visited by Miss Richardson during her foreign travel. She also exhibited a large number of souvenirs gathered during her tour. This meeting closed the work of the sisterhood for the present year.

NATURALIZED FIFTY YEARS AFTER HIS FIRST VOTE

Recently George Sharnock of Monrovia was naturalized as an American citizen, fifty years after casting his first vote, which was for Abraham Lincoln. Since that time he has voted for eleven presidential candidates and at many city, county and state elections. Sharnock was the oldest man in the naturalization class to appear before Presiding Judge J. M. York.

REBEKAH LODGE NO. 257

Carnation lodge, No. 257, Order of Rebekahs, will hold a social meeting in the Odd Fellows hall tonight at 8 o'clock. There will be an interesting program and refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited.

A SPECIAL INDUCEMENT

BIG EXTRA VOTE OFFER WILL GIVE CHANCE TO PRODUCE BIG RESERVE

Bonus Vote Offer

An extra inducement is offered to candidates who begin work at once. Fifty thousand extra votes will be given with every club of six new subscriptions turned into the Evening News office for the Glendale Evening News or the Tri-City Progress between Wednesday, June 30, and Thursday evening, July 15. These votes are in addition to the regular votes issued. All new subscriptions already turned in by candidates will count on this offer.

This generous extra vote offer will enable any candidate to pile up a great reserve fund of votes, and will positively be the largest extra vote offer made during this contest.

These subscriptions must be paid in advance, as must all those on which votes are secured, and may run for any length of time—from six months to several years. No new subscription for less than six months will count on this offer. However, if you have already turned in a new three months' subscription, in order to get the subscription extended for another three months, or on the other hand, if you find it possible to get but a three months' subscription from a prospective subscriber, the first part of this offer, it may be possible to procure another three months' subscription the last week of the extra offer. Every subscription for the Tri-City Progress must be for one or more years.

An accurate count will be kept at The News office of all subscriptions sent in by each candidate.

It is not necessary to send in all these subscriptions at one time. Rather they should be turned in as they are secured, and all will be properly registered. All new subscriptions over the necessary six will be given extra votes in proportion, and if you secure two clubs you get two extra bonus certificates for fifty thousand votes, etc.

This extra vote offer gives all an unequalled chance to build a reserve fund of votes, and to build an immense reserve of votes during this time will be an excellent means of circumventing surprises that may be sprung by other candidates later on. As it is not necessary to deposit votes in the ballot box as soon as they are received, you can hold your own votes. No votes are published in the standings of contestants until they are deposited for that purpose. Neither can votes be transferred from one candidate to another during the campaign.

While the rush in securing subscriptions during this special offer is on, it should not be overlooked that the votes will be forfeited on every old subscription that is turned in as new. To mark them correctly in the first place avoids the troublesome consequences. By inserting the full name, the street and number and the town or city in which the subscribers live, another trouble is avoided. If the address or any part of this essential information is omitted, it is obvious the paper cannot be delivered until a correction has been made. By making sure before the stub is brought or sent to the Evening News office that it is fully and properly filled out, these annoyances will be eliminated.

New candidates who contemplate entering while the splendid extra vote offer enables them to make rapid progress to the top, must do so as soon as possible in order to gain full advantage of this big free vote offer.

SMALL FIRE IN TROPICO

The Glendale fire department was called out this morning on an alarm from Tropic and hastened to the scene, making the run in record time. Arrived at the house whence the alarm came, it was found that it was the residence of Mr. John Hobbs, county tax assessor. A blazing pan of grease had set fire to the window curtains and threatened the destruction of the house. By the time the fire engine arrived on the scene, however, the fire had been extinguished with practically no damage done.

FEDERATED BROTHERHOOD

A meeting of the executive committee of the Federated Brotherhood was held last Friday evening. The Congregational, Christian, Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopal churches were represented. The meeting was called to order by Pres. Tower. O. L. Kilborn was chosen secretary. It was decided to hold the next meeting and banquet on the third Thursday evening in September.

MANAGER FOR CITY MANAGER

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Watson, 103 East Colorado street, Monday, June 28, 1915. This young lady will no doubt assume the management of the city manager at once.

NORTON ART CLUB

MRS. AYRES HOSTESS—MR. MORGAN RETURNS TO EL CENTRO—TROPICO NOTES

In a handsome black lace gown, draped over white satin and her white hair becomingly arranged about her pretty face, Mrs. Samuel A. Ayres received the members and guests of the Norton Art club at her home on North Central avenue, Tropic, Monday afternoon. That being the closing meeting until in October, a special program was rendered.

Mrs. S. L. McNutt, secretary of the club, read a brief history of the organization, giving its origin and its aims. The members have become better acquainted with each other and have enjoyed the many glimpses into art afforded them by study, lectures, pictures and the various ways of contributing to their researches.

Mrs. Edgar S. Ayres and Mrs. Hartley Shaw rendered several violin duets; especially pleasing was their clever interpretation of "Sounds from Home."

Miss Cora Hickman gave a reading on "Grecian Art."

Miss Jeanne McNutt very sweetly sang, Mrs. Edgar Ayres violin obligato.

Mrs. Chapman, president of the club, read a most interesting paper on "Andre Delsarto."

Mrs. Frank I. Marsh in most appropriate words presented Mrs. Chapman with a beautiful gold pin.

At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served. The club members and their guests included: Mrs. W. G. Chapman, president; Mrs. S. L. McNutt, secretary; Mrs. Samuel A. Ayres, hostess; Mrs. Frank I. Marsh, Mrs. Percy Priaux, Mrs. Edgar S. Ayres, Mrs. Frank Ashton, Mrs. J. W. Ashton, Mrs. Frye, Mrs. H. W. Meyers, Mrs. E. Bennett, Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. Merritt W. Ludden, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Charles E. Mosher, Mrs. S. E. Brown, Mrs. F. C. Richardson, Mrs. Hartley Shaw, Mrs. Ryder, Miss Alice Dewey, Miss Ida Meyers, Miss Elsie Anderson, Miss Cora Hickman, Miss Harriett Meyers and Miss Jeanne McNutt.

Miss Alice Dewey of Pasadena is the house guest of Mrs. Samuel A. Ayres of North Central avenue.

Mrs. Chas. L. Peckham of North Central avenue gave a dinner party at her home Sunday complimentary to her sisters, Mrs. L. O. Chandler of Elizabeth Lake and Mrs. C. L. Chandler of Tropic.

After a few days' visit at his home on Central avenue, E. J. Morgan has returned to his ranch near El Centro. The earthquake of a few days ago holds no terrors for him. Mrs. Morgan and son, Eric, will remain in Tropic during the summer months.

Mrs. Edward H. Weston and son, Chandler Weston, of West Park avenue, have returned from a delightful visit to Elizabeth Lake, where they were the guests of Mrs. Weston's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Chandler. Mrs. Chandler returned with Mrs. Weston and son and will be the house guest of her sister, Mrs. C. L. Chandler of West Park avenue for several weeks.

OUR FUTURE CITIZENS

Who will be the future citizens and lawmakers of our country? Who will help to decide its ways of peace and right living? Who is training the young that are filling our great cities today without money, without education, without any care for their souls? These and many other important questions pertaining to the problem of the neglected children in the streets will be discussed by Mr. William Percival, Jr., of Los Angeles, who has charge of the Daily Vacation Bible School association work. He also demonstrates his talk with excellent stereopticon views. Do not fail to hear him Wednesday evening, June 30, at 7:45 in the auditorium of the Glendale Presbyterian church.

CONDITIONS IN HAITI

Haiti, the black republic of the West Indies, is a striking example of how unfit the uneducated, untrained, superstitious, immoral negro is to rule himself.

In its desire not to stifle any republic in its efforts to exist, this country has unwittingly given opportunity to a series of black despots, masquerading as presidents of the republic of Haiti, to impose a series of oppressions on the unfortunate islanders.

Liquor, too, has played a sinister part in the history of the island. West India rum has been easy of purchase and many of the government officials have distinguished themselves by horrible crimes committed when under the influence of the fiery liquid.

So turbulent have conditions become in Haiti that the United States government is giving its attention to the necessity for reconsideration of its relations to the black republic.

Indeed it is time that the United States took a hand in the situation. France has become latterly justly impatient with the series of outrages committed by the blacks and by their interference with the citizens of the French republic and their property and the French admiral in West Indian waters recently landed a party of marines to take care of French interests.

There seems to have been some slight oversight on the part of the Washington authorities in this matter, as some time ago President Wilson sent a commission to examine conditions and report on the island. The commission reported that affairs in the island were so bad that it might be necessary for the United States government to take drastic measures to set them to rights.

HUERTA'S LAST CONSPIRACY

Gen. Victoriano Huerta, ex-president of Mexico, who was politely told by President Wilson to get out of that country, is back again. He has not yet ventured into the maelstrom of the Mexican revolution, where short work would be made of him should he fall into the hands of Villa or his men, but he has been hovering about the Mexican border in the company of that "good patriot Orozco"

Black ruin stares Mexico in the face. Her fields are devastated. Her cities are deserted. Her seaports are no longer the scenes of busy commerce they were three years ago.

Another exploiting party headed by Huerta would be sufficient to complete the ruin of the country. It is therefore just what one would have expected of President Wilson that he should have had his eye on this bold disturber of the peace who has been long suspected of being desirous of stirring up a revolution in Mexico.

Huerta is one of the most objectionable of the Mexican pretenders to the presidency. He is hand-in-glove with the most reactionary of foreign capitalists and might be expected to mortgage his country for many a year to come and to make it still further a thorn in the side of the United States.

While continental dignitaries are throwing out hints that they are about to mediate between the combatants with a view to establishing a lasting peace, the agents of the combatants are feverishly urging on the output of ammunition and arms in the United States.

MEN AND ARMIES In Mexico 150,000 men are in armies and the other five million men are completely at their mercy. Why don't the five million take the 150,000 by the scruff of the neck and make them be good?

Because five million or twenty million, unarmed and undrilled men, can be bully-ragged by even such armies as the Mexican guerilla bands. Down in Mexico, as in every place else, there is a lesson illustrating the difference between the "potential" strength of the millions of "free-born Royal Bengal American citizens," undrilled, and the actual strength of an American citizenship army, trained to arms and capable for national defense.—Kansas City Star.

Circumstances and lawyers alter cases. Our idea of a martyr is a man who poses as a good example in a small town. You can't have an honest horse race until you have an honest human race.—Josh Billings.

EAGLE ROCK

Mrs. M. Hanks and daughter, Miss Helen, of Salida, Colorado, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. L. B. Stevens, and family, of East Eagle avenue.

Miss Laura Donnell of Eddy avenue will join the Christian Endeavor delegation from Los Angeles to attend the national convention at Chicago.

Miss Fischler is now nicely settled in her new bungalow on East Sycamore avenue.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church met last Friday at the home of Mrs. A. D. Crow of Harvard park. After the business meeting music and conversation helped to make the afternoon a most pleasant one. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Fifteen members from the Epworth League attended in a body the vesper service at the county hospital Sunday afternoon and took charge of the meeting. The pastor, Rev. Smith, delivered a very impressive sermon and Miss Evelyn Vince very sweetly sang "I'll Be a Worker for Jesus." After the service the young folks went over to the ward court and sang several selections, which delighted the inmates of the hospital.

Mrs. C. R. LaPorte of Palm street, who was confined to her home by illness, is able to be out again.

Thursday, July 1, there will be a kitchen shower at the Presbyterian church and every person who comes is asked to donate something that will go towards the furnishing of a kitchen such as dishes, cooking utensils, etc. Several dozen plates and cups have already been purchased by the Woman's Guild, but of course many other various kinds of dishes are needed. A lunch will be served at noon by the ladies and besides members of the church, friends are also invited to come.

Miss Ruth Crandall of Alcatraz drive, with relatives, motored to San Diego last week and attended the exposition. They returned Saturday night.

The L. B. Stevens family are now occupying the Allard house on East Eagle avenue.

Mrs. G. Whitaker of Stanley avenue sang a very pretty solo Sunday evening at the M. E. church and the choir also sang a very pretty anthem with her assistance.

Chas. Lovejoy, who recently lived in the east end of the valley, was married last week to Miss Helen Cloud of Glendale place. Rev. Irving Lovejoy, father of the groom, with the assistance of Rev. Allen, performed the ceremony.

The Chambers children of Myrtle avenue celebrated their birthdays on Thursday of last week by inviting in some of their little friends. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Dainty refreshments were served to the following: Lee and DePaul Puthuff, Elsa May Miller, Margaret Anderson and the little host and hostesses, Carl, Lois and Alice Chambers.

Little Miss Helen Winifred House of East Palm street passed her eighth birthday last Thursday, June 24, and her mother gave a fine dinner in honor of the occasion. Games were enjoyed by the children until six o'clock, when all were seated in the dining-room around the table, which was loaded with delicious things to eat. A pretty pink and white cake with eight lighted candles delighted all. Covers were laid for the little guests: Misses Elsa May, scouter, Evelyn Vince, Hazel May, Laverna House and the little hostess, Miss Helen, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. House. Also Miss Olive Moe, who assisted Mrs. House in keeping the "kiddies" amused.

Rev. Lovejoy, who started the M. E. church of this city, but is now pastor of that church at Yuma, Ariz., rendered his well-known entertainment Sunday evening, "The Unprinted Volume of Life." Those who were not present certainly missed a treat, as it was very well delivered and so different from anything ever given in Eagle Rock before. Mr. Lovejoy has received much comment for this and has rendered it before many audiences in various counties. Next Sunday Rev. Crouch, who is a missionary among the Yuma Indians, will talk on his work there.

Miss Olive Moe will hold an all-day picnic in Eagle Rock park on Wednesday for her Sunday school class.

Fred Schlueter, the well-known bungalow builder, is back at his work again after enjoying ranch life for almost two years. He is now erecting a house for W. Brammer in the eastern part of the city. Mr. Schlueter and family have taken apartments in the Foster block.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Crow and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Kingdon and children, will leave in their auto to spend a few days camping in Bear valley.

POLITICS OR PROPHECY?

(By W. Leon Tucker)

The break between President Wilson and Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan came as a surprise to some, but as the expected to many. It seems the issue which divided them was the question of the preserving of peace and the protection of the people. The secretary's own statement is sufficient. Says he:

"The president and I agree in purpose; we desire a peaceful solution of the dispute which has arisen between the United States and Germany. We not only desire it, but we pray for it with equal fervor, but we differ irreconcilably as to the means of securing it."

That Mr. Bryan is an ardent and earnest advocate of world peace is not questioned by the American people, by whom Mr. Bryan is held in high regard and respect. The American people believe more in his principles, however, than they do in his politics. Mr. Bryan is unquestionably moved by good impulse, but we believe him to be ignorant of certain facts. In other words, we believe that he exercises a statesmanship ignorant of the scriptures and in this he is certainly not alone, for in so far as we can see, all world powers are ignorant of the word of God and know nothing of its divine outline of human and national history.

Politicians seem utterly ignorant of prophecy and diplomats of the divine book. It is given unto babes in Christ to know more than presidents in power and emperors in dominion. Be it far from us to speak contemptuously of any ruler, indeed we pray for such as have been exalted to such places of power, but it is ours to be privileged, now and then, to point out the divine plan as revealed in the holy book. It is hard to kick against the pricks of prophecy and of this we are sure, that there is no peace according to the program of prophecy in the political period now present. We firmly believe that the true science of government must be learned from the scriptures.

Mr. Bryan is right in declaring that the present war belongs to what he calls "old system." He says: "Force represents the old system—the system that must pass away. In the old system war is the chief cornerstone—war which, at its best, is little better than war at its worst. The new system contemplates a universal brotherhood established through the uplifting power of example."

Indeed, war is of the "old system," a system which was introduced into the world by satan, the usurper. Militarism has been the menace of the earth since the day that Lamech picked up a sword at the smithy of Tubalcain and sang a song of revenge (Gen. 4:22-24). War is the work of the "wicked one" and the whole world is in him. It is the old system of satan. There is no good war, nor any bad peace.

Mr. Bryan is also right when he says: "Every ruler now participating in this unparalleled conflict has proclaimed his desire for peace and denied responsibility for the war. They desired peace, but they sought it according to the rules of the old system."

Thus far we give Mr. Bryan credit for much wisdom. We believe that nations are driven, by a supernatural spirit, into strife. They are but the instruments of war, not the initiators. They do the work of one who wills and any peace sought under the "old system" will be sought in vain. The "old system" is sadly deficient because it is assuredly demoniacal. It is a satanic system and the head of the system must be unseated and imprisoned, and for the accomplishment of this, prophecy alone outlines the program.

Further says the great Commoner: "A tree is known by its fruit. The war in Europe is the ripened fruit of the 'old system.'"

The war in Europe is but the first fruits of the "old system." The worst is yet to come. The scriptures tell of such scenes of carnage and corruption as the world has not yet seen. Daniel's prophecy and the Apocalypse of John have faithfully prophesied and portrayed war in its final proportion. In these books we find that military commanders will be pursuing their bloody profession up to the time of the end.

Some are looking for a time of peace and prosperity in this world; so are we. Some are expecting all wars to cease and all armies disbanded; so are we. Some are expecting the transmutation of implements of destruction into instruments of husbandry; so are we. Some are expecting the clash of arms to be hushed forever and so are we, but upon no other basis than that laid down in the prophetic word, namely, the establishment of the kingdom of heaven upon the earth and the dominion of the earth invested in the dynasty of David, with David's son and Lord enthroned.

Further says Mr. Bryan: "As an humble follower of the prince of peace; as a devoted believer in the prophecy that 'they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.'"

This command of our Lord in Matthew 26:52, "For all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword," is not a prophecy. It would be well for Mr. Bryan to read again. There was a time when the kingdom of heaven was being preached that the disciples were told to "provide neither gold nor silver, nor brass in your purses, nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, nor yet staves" (Matthew 10:9, 10). But when this kingdom was rejected and the king also, Christ said unto them, "But now he that hath a purse let him take it, and likewise his scrip; and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one" (Luke 22:36).

Mr. Bryan evidently knows nothing of the change of divine dispensation. He is trying to bring a past dispensation into the present; also to bring a future dispensation into the present. Statesmanship is indeed blind to the scriptures.

Notice yet again another statement of the secretary which shows yet more ignorance of the word of God: "Some nation must lead the world out of the black night of war into the light of that day when 'swords shall be beaten into ploughshares.' Some day—why not now?"

It would be a thing most desirable if America could be the nation to "lead the world out of the black night of war into the light of day," but what if God had not so willed? What if this is perhaps not his plan? God has a chosen nation through whom he will establish peace in the world and that nation is not the United States nor is it any other people but his ancient and everlasting people, Israel; now dispersed, but soon to be gathered. They are the peace plenipotentiaries. They are the divine arbitrators and mediators, and the very scripture which Mr. Bryan quotes concerning "swords beaten into ploughshares," appears into pruning hooks," and of a time when "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, or learn war any more," very plainly declares that this is a condition maintaining in the day when the temple of the God of Jacob is established on ancient Mount Zion and law and legislation is going forth from Jerusalem.

Mr. Bryan, read Isaiah 2. Read it not to spiritualize its meaning, but with the understanding that in the Bible, God means what he says and says what he means.

Says Mr. Bryan: "Some day—why not now?"

Simply because God has not purposed these things to be accomplished "now," but "then." When God says "then," he does not mean "now." It is a matter of understanding God's will revealed in the word of prophecy. It is a question of receiving and believing and abiding in the sure statements of scripture.

Mr. Bryan's impulses are good, his ignorance is great. His heart is right and his hope is wrong. His purpose of peace is to be commended, his program of peace is to be condemned. He takes counsel not of Christ and the scriptures. He knows not that before this present regime is closed peace will be taken utterly from the earth (Revelation 6:4). A day is coming when a peace conference or council cannot be convened. Peace will be taken from the earth.

All that Mr. Bryan so righteously desires now will come with the king. It is true, Mr. Bryan, to use your own words:

"Some day the nations will place their trust in love, the weapon for which there is no shield. In love that is not easily provoked, that beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things and endureth all things."

But that love will be present only when the Lord is present, until then bade. Come quickly, Lord Jesus! Amen.
