C A P. XXX.

An Act for granting to His Majesty several additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain.

[5th April 1805.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's publick Expences, and making a permanent Addition to the publick Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several additional Rates and Duties of Excise herein respectively mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout Great Britain, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities mentioned and described in the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties of Excise, as they are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedule; and that there shall be made, allowed, and paid, for or in respect of Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities, for or in respect whereof any Duty of Excise is by this Act imposed, to the several Persons entitled to the same, the several Drawbacks of Excise as the same are also respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule marked (B.) hereunto annexed, and also all such special Allowances as are particularly directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act; and the same respectively shall commence and take Effect from the respective Day or Days mentioned in the said Schedule, in Cases where any special Date or Dates is or are inserted therein, and in Cases where no such Date is inserted, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five.

"Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise. § 2."

III. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed shall be accounted for, cleared off, paid, satisfied, and discharged, by the Person or Persons liable to the accounting for, clearing off, Payment, Satisfaction, or Discharge thereof, at such Time and Times, and in such Manner, as the Duties of Excise chargeable upon the like Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities respectively, or upon any Person for or in respect thereof, were by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, to be accounted for, cleared off, paid, satisfied, or discharged.

"Duties and Drawbacks shall be proportionate to actual Quantity. § 4. [as § 5 of 43 G. 3. c. 81.] Duties may be added to Price where Goods are delivered in pursuance of Contract after April 5, 1805. § 5.— Duties and Drawbacks shall be levied and managed as former Duties of Excise. § 6. Duties shall be carried to British Consolidated Fund. § 7. Separate Accounts shall be kept of Duties, and annually laid before Parliament, and Duties shall be applied to defray Charge of any Loan of this Session. § 8."

IX And

The Duties specified in Schedule (A.) and the Drawbacks in Schedule (B.) shall be paid and allowed.

Duties shall be paid by the Person liable to pay like Duties of Excise.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Countervailing Duty imposed by an Act passed in the Thirtieth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, of Nine-pence for every Dozen of Quart Bottles of common Green Glass, imported into Great Britain from Ireland, shall, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, be deemed and taken to be a Duty of Excise, and shall be computed upon each and every Dozen of reputed Quarts; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

X. And whereas certain Persons make or manufacture Glass Wares, who are not under the Survey of the Officers of Excise, to the Detriment of the Revenue, and the Injury of the entered Manufacturers of Glass; and Doubts have arisen, whether such Persons are liable to the Survey of the Officers of Excise; for Remedy thereof, be it declared and further enacted, That each and every Person who shall make or manufacture any Sort or Kind of Glass, or Glass Wares, by melting any Metal, Materials, Cullet, or old or broken Glass, in any Pot, Crucible, or other Utensil, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Glass, and shall be subject to all and every the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Penalties, to which Makers of Glass are now by Law subject and liable; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

“ An Act may be altered or repealed this Session. § 11.”

Countervailing Duty imposed by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. [Art. 6. Stat. A.] on Glass Bottles shall be deemed a Duty of Excise.

Who shall be deemed Makers of Glass.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for allowing a certain Proportion of the Militia in Great Britain voluntarily to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces and Royal Marines.

[10th April 1805.]

[See as to Ireland
Cap. 38. of this Session.]

41 G. 3. c. 90,
91.

His Majesty may appoint Regiments of the Regular Forces and Divisions of the Maine in which Militia Men may enlist.

Number allowed to enlist:

One Sergeant and Corporal for every Twenty Privates.

Where more than One Battalion, the Secretary of State shall ascertain

Commanding Officer shall ascertain Number willing to enlist; and if it be Four Fifths of the Number allowed, no more shall be enlisted.

Commanding Officer may select not exceeding Half of the Number serving in the Regiment of Militia, and the Men to be enlisted under this Act shall be from the Remainder.

His Majesty may appoint Officers to approve or reject the Men, but none shall be rejected who are 5 Feet 4 Inches, and under 35
Years of Age, and not disabled.

Commanding
Officer of every Regiment out of which the Proportion of Four Fifths shall not enlist, shall read His Majesty's Order,

WHEREAS it is highly important that the most effectual Measures should be taken for augmenting His Majesty's Regular Forces and Royal Marines, for the vigorous Prosecution of the present War: And it is therefore expedient immediately to allow for many of the Militia now serving in Great Britain, as may exceed the original Quotas specified in Two Acts, passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in relation to the Militia of England and Scotland respectively, to be reduced; and to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of such of them as may voluntarily offer to enlist in His Majesty's Regular Forces and Royal Marines, under certain Provisions and Restrictions: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to name and appoint such and so many Regiments of His Majesty's Regular Forces and Divisions of the Royal Marines, as His Majesty shall think fit, to receive Volunteers from the Militia in Great Britain under this Act, out of any Regiment of Militia named in any such Order; and it shall be lawful for any Number of Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men of any such Regiment of Militia, not exceeding the Proportions herein-after mentioned, to enlist in the Manner and under the Regulations herein mentioned, into any Regiment and Division as aforesaid, to enlist in any such Order of His Majesty shall be named to receive Volunteers from such Regiment of Militia.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Number of private Men to be enlisted out of the Militia of any County, whether the same shall consist of more than One Battalion or not, or whether the Militia of Two or more Counties shall be included in only One Battalion, shall not, in any Case exceed the Number of private Men then serving in the Militia for such County, after deducting the original Quota of the Militia thereof; and the Number of Sergeants and Corporals to be enlisted out of the Militia of any County, shall not in any Case exceed the Proportion of One Sergeant and One Corporal for every Twenty private Men enlisting; and in case the Militia of any County shall consist of more than One Battalion, His Majesty's Secretary of State shall ascertain the Number of private Men that may be allowed to enlist out of each of such Battalions, by the Proportion which the Number of private Men serving in each Battalion bears to the whole Number of private Men actually serving in the Militia of such County, and shall signify to the Commanding Officers of each of such Battalions, the Number of private Men that may be allowed to enlist out of their respective Battalions.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of any Regiment of Militia, on the Receipt of any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Secretary of State, specifying the Regiment or Division as aforesaid, into which his Men may enlist, and the Number of Men to be allowed to enlist out of his Regiment, to ascertain the Number of Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men willing to enlist into the Regiment or Division as aforesaid, out of his Regiment; and if the Number of such private Men, who shall upon Intestition be approved as herein-before is mentioned, shall amount to Four Fifths of the Number allowed to enlist, forthwith to deliver them to the Officer appointed to receive such Volunteers; and in such Case no further Number of private Men shall be allowed to enlist out of such Regiment.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of any Regiment of Militia, if he shall think fit, by Ballot or otherwise, at his Discretion, to select any Number of private Men, not exceeding in Number One Half of the private Men actually serving in such Regiment at the Time of receiving His Majesty's said Order, or in case such Regiment shall consist of the Militia of Two or more Counties, then not exceeding in Number for each County One Half of the private Men actually serving in such Regiment for each County, to serve as Part of the Original Quota of the Militia to which the County shall remain liable, and also to select a like Proportion of Sergeants and Corporals then serving therein; and the Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men so selected by such Commanding Officer, shall not be allowed to enlist into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, under this Act; and in every such Case the Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men, to be enlisted under this Act, shall be enlisted only out of the Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men remaining after such Selection as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint such General or Field Officers, specially authorized by His Majesty, or the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces for that Purpose, to inspect, approve, or reject the Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men, who shall be desirous of enlisting under this Act; and such Officers may approve of or reject such Sergeants, Corporals, or private Men to reject any Sergeants, Corporals, or private Men, desirous of enlisting into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, who shall be of the Height of Five Feet and Four Inches or upwards, and under the Age of Thirty-five Years, and not disabled by Lameness or other bodily Infirmary.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Commanding Officer of every Regiment of Militia, out of which such Proportion of Four Fifths shall not have enlisted, and been delivered to such Officer as aforesaid, shall, within Seven Days after receiving His Majesty's Order in that Behalf, cause such Regiment, if no Selection shall have been made as aforesaid, and if such Selection shall have been made, then the remaining Part of the Men then serving in such Regiment, to be drawn out, and such Commanding Officer, or some Commissioned Officer by his Direction, shall read to the Regiment or Men, so drawn out, His Majesty's Orders, and shall cause the same to be given out in Orders, and shall, in such Manner as His Majesty shall direct, explain to the Men the Terms upon which any Man serving in the Militia may enlist into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, under this Act; and shall on the Day next succeeding the Reading of His Majesty's said Order, cause his Regiment, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, to be drawn out in such Manner as the Commanding Officer shall direct, and such Commanding Officer shall cause the Names of the Men who shall then voluntarily declare their Intention of enlisting into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, to be written down; and if the Number of such Men shall exceed the Proportion allowed to enlist, such Excess shall be reduced by Ballot to the Number authorized to enlist into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid.

Men

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Number of private Men in any Regiment of Militia, or in such Part thereof as shall not have been selected as aforesaid, who shall (when so drawn out as aforesaid) voluntarily declare their Intention to enlist into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, shall not amount unto the Proportion authorized to enlist, then and in such Case a Book shall be opened by the Commanding Officer, and it shall be lawful for any other of such Men, at any Time within Ten Days after such Regiment of Militia, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, shall have been drawn out, to enlist into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, and the Name of every such Man shall be entered in the said Book, and be transmitted by such Commanding Officer to the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant of the County; and in Case the full Number of Men shall not be enlisted within such Period of Ten Days as aforesaid, the Regiment, or such Part thereof as shall not have been selected as aforesaid, shall at the Expiration of such Period be again drawn out, and such Orders, and the Terms of enlisting as aforesaid, be again read and explained, and such Proceedings be had for enlisting of Men into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, as herein-before directed, within the Ten Days then next ensuing; and all such Men so enlisting shall, if approved, be entitled to such and the like Bounty as if they had declared their Intention to enlist when the Regiment, or any Part thereof, was first drawn out as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if the full Proportion of the Militia of any County, authorized to enlist under this Act, shall not have enlisted to serve in any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, then and in such Case the Vacancies that shall thereafter arise in such Militia shall be supplied according to the Provisions of Two several Acts, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act for establishing and maintaining a permanent additional Force for the Defence of the Realm, and to provide for augmenting His Majesty's Regular Forces, and for the gradual Reduction of the Militia of England, and An Act for establishing and maintaining a permanent additional Force for the Defence of the Realm, and to provide for augmenting His Majesty's Regular Forces, and for the gradual Reduction of the Militia of Scotland, respectively, until the Militia of such County shall be reduced to the original Quotas specified in the said Acts of the Forty-second Year aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That any Sergeant or Corporal enlisting as such under this Act, may be reduced to the Rank of a private Soldier in any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, in Case of any Misdemeanour, or for any such sufficient Cause, after his having so enlisted, as would, according to the Usage and Practice prevailing in any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, occasion the Reduction of a Sergeant or Corporal to the Rank of a private Soldier.

X. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the Number of Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men to be enlisted from any Regiment, shall have been ascertained in Manner by this Act directed, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment is hereby required to discharge all such Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men so to be enlisted from the Militia; and every such Sergeant, Corporal, and private Man so discharged as aforesaid, shall, if approved by the Officer to be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, immediately thereupon belong to the Regiment, or Division into which he shall declare his Intention to enlist, and shall be immediately enlisted and attested for General Service for such Regiment or Division, and shall (as soon as conveniently may be) be transferred to some Officer of such Regiment or Division, or such Officer as His Majesty may have appointed to receive Men enlisted under this Act, and shall have and be entitled to the Allowance of the Bounty of Ten Guineas, of which Three Guineas shall be paid to such Man on His Approval by such Officer, at the Depot, Rendezvous, or Place of Assembly for such Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men, (which said Depot, Rendezvous, or Place of Assembly, shall not be nearer to the Head Quarters of the Regiment from which the said Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men shall have been discharged, than Six measured Miles), and the Remainder as soon as he shall arrive at the Head Quarters of the Regiment or Division into which he shall have enlisted, together with Subsistence, Pay, and Cloathing, to be paid and furnished in like Manner in every Respect, and subject to, and under the like Laws, Rules, and Regulations, as are provided and used for the Regiment or Division as aforesaid, into which he shall have enlisted.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant, or in his Absence the Vice Lieutenant or any Three Deputy Lieutenants, authorized by His Majesty to act as Lieutenant of any County aforesaid, shall, within Ten Days after the receiving of any Order for that Purpose from His Majesty, signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State, transmit to His Majesty's Privy Council an accurate Account in Writing of the Number of Persons that shall have been discharged from the Militia of their respective Counties, and enlisted in any Regiment or Division as aforesaid under this Act; which Accounts shall, in all Cases where the same may be necessary, be transmitted by the Commanding Officers of such Militia to such Lieutenants, Vice Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid for that Purpose.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Non-commissioned Officer, Corporal, or private Militia Man, shall be entitled to enlist under this Act who shall be in Confinement under any Sentence of any Court Martial, or with a view to being tried by any Court Martial, until he shall have suffered the Sentence of such Court Martial; and that no Non-commissioned Officer, Corporal, or private Militia Man, shall be entitled to his Discharge or to enlist under this Act, who shall have been in Confinement, or who shall have been sentenced to any Punishment by any Court Martial, for any Offence committed between the Twenty-first and shall explain to the Men the Terms of Enlistment, and cause the Names of the Volunteers to be written down, and if they are reduced by Ballot.

But if the Number who shall be enlisted shall not be the due Proportion, Men may within Ten Days enlist, whose Names shall be transmitted to the County Lieutenant, and if the full Number shall not then be enlisted, the Proceedings for enlisting them shall be had within Ten Days. If the full Proportion of any County shall not enlist, future Vacancies shall be supplied according to 44 G. 3. c. 56. 45 G. 1. c. 65, until the Militia be reduced to its original Quota. Sergeants and Corporals may be reduced to the Rank of private Soldiers.

As soon as the Number to be enlisted from any Regiment is ascertained, they shall be discharged, and shall, if approved, be attested for General Service in the Regiment in they have declared their Intention to enlist, and shall be entitled to the Bounty of Ten Guineas, &c.

County Lieutenants, on Order from His Majesty, shall transmit to Privy Council an Account of the Number of Men discharged, as transmitted to him by any Officer. No Person in Confinement entitled to be enlisted shall have suffered the Sentence of a Court Martial, &c.

Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five and the Time of his so offering to enlist, unless he shall obtain the Consent of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia in which he shall be serving at the Time of his being desirous of enlisting as aforesaid.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Serjeant or Corporal of Militia shall be permitted to enlist as such into His Majesty's Artillery.

No Sergeant, &c. shall enlist into the Artillery as such.
Adjutant's Clerks, &c. shall not enlist without Consent of Commanding Officer.

XIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the Militia, who shall be usually employed as Adjutant's Clerk, or Regimental Clerk, or as a Drummer, or as a Musician in the Band of the Regiment of Militia to which he shall belong, or shall be usually employed as an Armourer in any such Regiment, shall be entitled to his Discharge, or to enlist into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid under this Act, unless he shall obtain the Consent for that Purpose of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia in which he shall be then serving.

Commanding Officers may refuse to discharge Men upon assigning sufficient Cause.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of any Regiment of Militia to refuse to discharge any Non-commissioned Officer, Corporal, or private Militia Man, who shall desire his Discharge for the Purpose of being enlisted under this Act, upon assigning in Writing to the General Officer commanding in the District within which such Regiment of Militia shall be quartered, or to the Adjutant General of His Majesty's Forces, where there shall not be any such General Officer as aforesaid, such Cause for his Refusal as shall be deemed sufficient by such General Officer or Adjutant General, as the Case may be.

Persons discharged refusing to enlist, or not being approved, shall continue to belong to their Regiment.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person discharged from the Militia for the Purpose of being enlisted into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, under this Act, shall notwithstanding refuse to enlist pursuant to any Declaration of being desirous to enlist to made by him as aforesaid, or shall not be approved by the Officer appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, then and in every such Case such Person shall continue to belong to the Regiment of Militia from which he shall have been so discharged for the Purpose of enlisting as aforesaid, notwithstanding any such Discharge.

As shall not authorize the enlisting or persuading to enlist any Man not duly discharged.

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize any Officers appointed by His Majesty to enlist and receive Militia Men under this Act, or any Commanding Officer or other Officer, or Non-commissioned Officer of any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, or other Person, to enlist or persuade to enlist, or receive any Militia Men other than such as shall have been duly discharged by the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia to which the Person desirous of enlisting shall belong.

His Majesty may issue Orders to Lieutenants of Counties and Commanding Officers for executing this Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State at any Time, from Time to Time during the Execution of this Act, or any Part thereof, to give such Orders and Directions to the Lieutenants, or in the Vacancy of the Office, or Absence of any Lord Lieutenant, to the Vice Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants authorized to act as Lieutenant, or to the respective Colonels or Commanding Officers of any Regiments of Militia as his Majesty shall from Time to Time think expedient and necessary for the Execution of this Act; and the several Lieutenants, Vice Lieutenants, and Deputy Lieutenants, and Colonels and Commanding Officers aforesaid, shall proceed forthwith, in pursuance of His Majesty's Orders, to do all such Acts as shall be necessary for the Purpose of carrying such order into Execution, and for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act.

His Majesty may make a new Arrangement of the Establishments of the Regiments of Militia.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, whenever He shall think proper, after the passing of this Act, to cause the Militia of any County or Counties to be formed into such and such Number of Regiments, Battalions, or Companies, as His Majesty shall deem expedient, or to unite any Number of Companies of Militia of any Counties, Ridings, or Places, not having respectively a sufficient Number of Men to form a distinct Battalion or Company, Regard being had to the Reduction that shall have taken place in the Militia of such County or Counties by the Enlistment of Men into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, under this Act, and conforming in every such Case, as near as the Proportion of Men left after such Reduction as aforesaid will admit, to the original Establishment of the Militia of such County or Counties, Riding or Place, with respect to the Regiments, Battalions, or Companies of which the same was composed, under the said Two Acts of the Forty-second Year aforesaid.

No Person shall be drafted from the Regiment in which he enlisted unless first discharged therefrom.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be enlisted to serve in any Regiment or Division so named and appointed as aforesaid, shall serve in the Regiment or Division in which he shall originally have enlisted to serve, and in no other Regiment or Division whatever; and no Person enlisting in any such Regiment or Division, shall, on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, be drafted into or serve in any other Regiment or Division, whether such Person shall consent to his being so drafted or not, unless in every such Case, the Person so consenting to serve in any other Regiment or Division, other than the one for which he shall have so enlisted as aforesaid, shall have been first wholly and absolutely discharged from all Service whatever in any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, and shall thereafter have voluntarily enlisted into such other Regiment or Division as aforesaid.

On Production to the County Lieutenant of Certificates of Men having been enlisted, their Names shall be discharged from the List of Men serving for the County, and the Certificate of the Number to be raised amended.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Production to the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant, or Three Deputy Lieutenants of any County, of a Certificate under the Hand of any Justices of the Peace of any County in Great Britain, or of any Magistrate of any Borough, Town, or Place therein, of any private Man belonging to the Militia having voluntarily enlisted and been attested as aforesaid, and of a like Certificate under the Hand of any Officer appointed by His Majesty to receive such Men, of such Man having been attested for any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, (which Certificates every such Justice or Magistrate and Officer respectively is hereby required to give gratis), such Lieutenant, Vice Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, is and are hereby required to cause the Person named in such Certificate to be discharged from the List of Militia Men serving for such County, and the Certificate of the Number of Men to be raised for the Militia of such County, to be amended by striking out such Number of Men as shall be enlisted from the Militia of such County by virtue of this Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if by reason of any enlisting under this Act the private Men that shall remain serving in any Hundred or other Division, Parish or Parishes of any County shall exceed, and in any other Hundred or Division, or Parish or Parishes shall be less, than the Men required to serve for such respective Hundreds, Divisions, or Parishes, according to the Apportionment made of the original Quota of such County, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of such County to regulate the supplying of all Vacancies that shall hereafter arise in respect of Men serving for Parishes having such Excess by the Parishes having less than their due Proportion, until the Men serving for each Parish shall correspond with the Apportionment made of the original Quota.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Adjutant of every Regiment of Militia shall, within One Week after the Whole of the Men allowed to enlist out of his Regiment under this Act shall have enlisted, or after the Expiration of the Period in which Men shall be allowed to enlist from his Regiment, transmit to the respective Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings for the County to which the Regiment belongs, or where the Men of more than One County shall be so serving, then to the Clerks of such respective Counties, an accurate Return of all the Sergeants and Corporals, and also of the private Men serving for their respective Subdivisions, who shall have enlisted under this Act, specifying therein the Christian and Surname of each Sergeant, Corporal, and private Man, and in every Case of a Private Man, whether such Man shall be a balloted Man, Substitute, hired Man, or Volunteer, and the Parish or Place for which he was serving at the Time of such enlisting; and the said Clerks shall, immediately upon the Receipt of such Returns, transmit to the Treasurer of the County, if in England, an Account of the Sergeants and Corporals that shall have been so enlisted, and to the respective Overseers of the Poor, if in England, and the Treasurers of the Kirk Session, if in Scotland, an Account of the Men serving for their respective Parishes or Places who shall have enlisted under this Act: And all Allowances payable to the Wives and Families of any such Sergeants, Corporals, and private Men, by virtue of Two Acts of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for providing Relief for the Wives and Families of Militia Men in England and Scotland respectively, in respect whereof any Reimbursement shall be directed by the said Acts, shall be reimbursed according to the Directions of the said Acts, up to the End of the Period for making up Accounts of such Allowances, previously to which such enlistings shall have taken Place, unless Notice shall have been given to the Overseers or Treasurers of the Kirk Session, entitled to claim any such Reimbursements, to discontinue such Allowances, in which Case such Allowances shall be reimbursed only up to the End of the Week next preceding such Notice being given.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any County, the Number of Men actually serving for which County shall be less than the original Quota thereof.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Matters, and Things in this Act contained, relating to Counties and to Regiments respectively, shall extend to all Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places in Great Britain, and to all Battalions, Corps, and Companies, as fully and amply as if they were severally and respectively repeated in every such Provision, Direction, and Clause relating to any such Matter or Thing.

“Act may be altered or repealed this Session. § 26.”

C A P. XXXII.

An Act for granting to Foreign Ships put under His Majesty's Protection the Privileges of Prize Ships under certain Regulations and Restrictions; and for allowing Aliens, in Foreign Colonies surrendered to His Majesty, to exercise the Occupations of Merchants or Factors during the present War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

[10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS, in consequence of Articles of Capitulation, whereby certain foreign Colonies or Settlements, or Parts thereof, have been or may hereafter be surrendered to His Majesty during the present War, certain foreign Ships and Vessels may have been put or may be put under His Majesty's Protection: And whereas the said Ships and Vessels, not being taken and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, cannot, by the Laws now in force, be registered as Prize Ships, and be entitled to the Privileges and Advantages of such Ships: And whereas it is just and expedient that Ships or Vessels which shall have been or may be so put under His Majesty's Protection should be admitted in like Manner as Prize Ships to the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships or Vessels, under certain Regulations and Restrictions; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all foreign Ships and Vessels which, in consequence of any such Capitulation, shall have been or may be so put under His Majesty's Protection at the Time of or in consequence of the Surrender of any foreign Colony or Settlement, or Part of any foreign Colony or Settlement, to His Majesty, shall and may be registered in like Manner as Ships taken and condemned as lawful Prize may, by the Laws now in force, be registered, and shall by virtue thereof become entitled to the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships or Vessels, under the Regulations and Restrictions herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that no such Ship or Vessel shall be so registered but upon producing a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Person who commanded in chief by Sea or by Land at the Time when such foreign Colony or Settlement, or Part of foreign Colony or Settlement, was surrendered to His Majesty; or in case of the Death or Departure of any such Officer before such Certificate shall have been so given, then, upon a like Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of the Person who shall command in chief by Sea or by Land at such Colony or Settlement, or Part of such Colony

Where, by enlisting, the Men remaining shall exceed or be less in Divisions of any County than their original Quotas, the Lieutenant Adjutants of the Militia shall transmit Returns of the Men who have enlisted under this Act, to the Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings, who shall transmit to the County Treasurer in England an Account of the Sergeants and Corporals, and to the Overseers, &c. an Account of the Privates so enlisted.

Allowances to Families under c. 47. and § 9. 45 G. 3.

Act shall not extend to Counties where their Quotas.

Provisions relating to Counties and to Regiments extended to Stewartries, Battalions, &c.

Foreign Ships put under His Majesty's Protection by any Capitulation may be registered as Prize Ships, and be entitled to the Privileges of British Vessels under the Regulations herein contained.

Colony or Settlement, testifying that such Ship or Vessel was put under the Protection of His Majesty at the Time of or in consequence of such Surrender; and upon Oath being made and subscribed before the Person or Persons authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificate of Registry respectively, (which they are hereby respectively empowered to administer), by the Owner of such Ship or Vessel, if such Ship or Vessel is owned by or belongs to One Person only, or in case there shall be Two joint Owners, then by both of such joint Owners, if both shall be resident within Twenty Miles of the Port or Place where such Register is required, or by One of such Owners if One or both of them shall be resident at a greater Distance from such Port or Place, or if the Number of such Owners or Proprietors shall exceed Two, then by the greater Part of the Number of such Owners or Proprietors if the greater Number of them shall be resident within Twenty Miles of such Port or Place as aforesaid, not in any Case exceeding Three of such Owners or Proprietors, or by One of such Owners if all shall be resident at a greater Distance, declaring, in the Form and Manner herein-after directed, that such Ship or Vessel is wholly owned by natural-born British Subjects, or by Aliens that have been naturalized or made Denizens, or by Persons who have become British Subjects by virtue of some Capitulation or Conquest as aforesaid, and have taken the Oath of Fidelity and Allegiance to His Majesty, in consequence of such Capitulation or Conquest, or by any or either of the before-mentioned Descriptions of Persons and none other: Provided also, that such Registry shall not be made, nor Certificate of such Registry be granted, for any Ship or Vessel that has been or may be put under His Majesty's Protection in the Settlements of Demerary and Berbice on the Continent of South America, but in the Port of Scarborough in the Island of Tobago; and that the said Port of Scarborough shall, for the Purpose of such Registry, be deemed and taken to be the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Oath before directed to be taken shall be in the Form and Manner following:

I A. B. of (Place of Residence and Occupation) do make Oath, that the Ship or Vessel (Name) of (Port or Place) whereof (Master's Name) is at present Master, being (Kind of Built, Burthen, et cetera, as described in the Certificate of the surveying Officer) was (when and where built, or if Prize, Capture and Condemnation, or if put under His Majesty's Protection, when and where); and that I the said A. B. (and the other Owners Names and Occupations (if any) and where they respectively reside, videlicet, Town, Place, or Parish and County, or if Member of and resident in any Factory in foreign Parts, or in any foreign Town or City, being an Agent for or Partner in any House of Trade, or Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in Great Britain, or Ireland, the Name of such Factory, foreign Town or City, and the Names of such House or Copartnership) am (or are) sole Owner (or Owners) of the said Vessel, and that no other Person or Persons whatever hath or have any Right, Title, Interest, Share, or Property therein or thereto; and that I the said A. B. (and the said other Owners if any) am (or are) truly and bona fide a Subject (or Subjects) of Great Britain; and that I the said A. B. have not (nor have any of the other Owners, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief) taken the Oath of Allegiance to any foreign State whatever (except under the Terms of some Capitulation, describing the Particulars thereof) or that since my taking (or his or their taking) the Oath of Allegiance to (naming the foreign States respectively to which he or any of the said Owners shall have taken the same) and prior to the passing of an Act in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled, An Act for the further Encrease and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, I have (or he or they hath or have) become a Subject (or Subjects) of Great Britain, (either by His Majesty's Letters Patent as a Denizen (or Denizens) or naturalized by Act of Parliament, as the Case may be) (naming the Dates of the Letters of Denization or the Act or Acts of Parliament for Naturalization respectively); or (as the Case may be) I have (or he or they hath or have) become a Denizen (or Denizens or naturalized Subject or Subjects, as the Case may be) of Great Britain by His Majesty's Letters Patent, or by an Act of Parliament passed since the First Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six (naming the Times when such Letters of Denization have been granted respectively, or the Year or Years in which such Act or Acts of Naturalization have passed respectively); or that I A. B. and the other Owners, if any, having become British Subject or Subjects by virtue of a Capitulation or Conquest (describing the Particulars thereof as to Place, State, and Parties) have (or he or they hath or have) taken the Oath of Fidelity and Allegiance to His Majesty the King of Great Britain (describing the Times when, the Place where, and before whom taken) in consequence of such Capitulation, and that no Foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any Share or Part or Interest in the said Ship or Vessel.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Ship or Vessel being registered and having a Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, and being navigated as British Ships are now or may hereafter be required by Law to be navigated, to import and export to and from any Place or Places whatsoever, such Goods and Merchandize respectively and none other, as may be imported and exported by any Ship or Vessel taken and condemned as lawful Prize; such Importations and Exportations to be made in like Manner, and under and subject to the like Duties, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, and subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as if the same were made by any Ship or Vessel taken and condemned as lawful Prize: Provided always, that such Ships and Vessels to put under His Majesty's Protection shall not be allowed to import or export any Goods whatsoever to or from any Port in Europe not in the Possession of His Majesty.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, at any Time, on the Arrival of any such Ship or Vessel in any Port of Great Britain, upon Application to him made, and upon Consideration of such Circumstances as shall satisfy His Majesty of the Expediency thereof, to authorize any such Ship or Vessel (without Payment of any Duty whatever for the said Ship or Vessel, or the Sails and other necessary Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereof) to be registered, and to have a Certificate thereof, as in the Case of a Prize Ship, in any-Port in the Kingdom of Great Britain,

Where Vessels put under His Majesty's Protection in Demerary and Berbice shall be registered.

Form of Oath of Owners for registering such Ships.

44 G. 3. c. 60.

Such Vessels may import and export as Prize Vessels; but not to or from any Port in Europe, not in Possession of His Majesty.

His Majesty may authorize such Vessels on their Arrival in Great Britain to be registered Duty free.

and such Ship or Vessel fo registered shall in such Cafe be entitled to all the Privileges and Advantages which belong by Law to Ships taken and condemned as lawful Prize.

V. And whereas by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted, that no Alien or Person not born within the Allegiance of our Sovereign Lord the King, His Heirs and Successors, or naturalized or made a free Denizen, shall exercise the Trade or Occupation of a Merchant or Factor in any Lands, Islands, Plantations, or Territories, to His Majesty belonging, or in His Possession, or which might thereafter belong unto or be in the Possession of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Asia, Africa, or America, upon pain of the Forfeiture and Loss of all his Goods and Chattels, or which are in his Possession; be it enacted, That every Person, although an Alien born, and neither naturalized nor made a free Denizen, who shall reside in any Island or Place which has surrendered, or which shall hereafter surrender to His Majesty, and be in His Majesty's Possession, and who shall have taken the Oath of Fidelity and Allegiance to His Majesty according to the Terms of the Capitulation under which such Island or Place shall have surrendered, shall be, and shall, from the Time of such Surrender, be deemed to have been entitled to exercise the Trade or Occupation of a Merchant or Factor in any such Island or Place, during so long Time as the same shall remain and be in the Possession or under the Protection of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to such Laws and Regulations as His Majesty's Subjects shall and may be liable to in the same Islands or Places.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to take away, abridge, vary, or alter, any of the Rights or Privileges belonging to and vested in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, by any Charter, Act of Parliament, or otherwise whatsoever, respecting Persons resident in or carrying on, or being concerned in any Trade to, from, or in any Place or Places within the Limits of the exclusive Trade of the said United Company; but all Persons resident, and all Trade to be carried on within the said Limits under the Authority of the said Capitulations or of this Act, shall be subject unto all and every the Prohibitions, Restrictions, Regulations, Licences, Duties, and Conditions, in all Respects as the Residence and Trade of any British Subject is now liable to by Law, and shall be subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things which any British Subject, and the Goods, Merchandize, and Trade of any British Subject, would be subject and liable to by Law for doing any Thing in Violation of the Rights and Privileges of the said United Company; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the respective Governors or Lieutenant Governors or Officers commanding in chief of the Settlements of Demerary and Berbice on the Continent of South America, or of any other Settlement or Place which may surrender to His Majesty's Arms during the present War, to administer the Oaths, grant the Certificates, and do all and every other Matters and Things in and about the Registering of the said Ships, which, under the Authority of an Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, may be done by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, and principal Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs in any of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, in America, respecting the registering of Ships there; and the said Governors, or Lieutenant Governors, or Officers commanding in chief at such Places respectively, shall appoint such Officers under them as they shall think proper, for surveying the Ships to be registered, and for doing all other Things relating thereto, which, in and by the said Act is to be done by certain Officers of the Customs therein mentioned.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue in force during the present War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act to make valid certain Licences granted by virtue of an Order in Council for allowing the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Merchandize from and to Spain in Neutral Vessels; and for indemnifying all Persons concerned in advising such Order, or granting or acting under such Licences. [10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS, before the Commencement of the present Hostilities with his Catholic Majesty, it was deemed expedient, by Order in Council, to recommend to His Majesty to grant Licences under His Sign Manual for permitting the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, from or to Ports and Places in France, Spain, and Holland, in Neutral Ships: which Order and Licences, so far as they related to permitting the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, from or to Ports or Places in Spain, were not authorized by Law, but were necessary, under the Circumstances that then existed; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, from or to any Ports or Places in Spain, made by virtue of any such Order in Council, or of any Licences granted in pursuance thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be good in Law; and all Persons concerned in advising, issuing, or carrying into Execution the same, shall be, and are hereby indemnified accordingly; any Thing in any Act now in force to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Aliens residing in any Place surrendered to His Majesty, may act as Merchants or Factors, taking the Oath of Allegiance.

Act shall not abridge the Rights of the East India Company.

Governors of any Settlement which may surrender during the War, may administer Oaths, grant Certificates, &c. agreeably to 26 G. 3. c. 60.

Continuance of Act.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act to permit the Importation of Goods and Commodities from Countries in America belonging to any Foreign European Sovereign or State in Neutral Ships, during the present War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace. [10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS by the Laws now in Force no Goods or Commodities whatsoever of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of America, can (except in certain Cases) be imported into this Kingdom but in British-built Ships, owned and navigated according to Law: And whereas it is expedient, under the present Circumstances, to permit certain Goods and Commodities to be imported under certain Restrictions in Foreign Ships belonging to Subjects of States in Amity with His Majesty; 'be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to grant Licence to any British Subject or Subjects to import into this Kingdom for his or their own Account, or for Account of a Subject or Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, from any Country in America belonging to any foreign European Sovereign or State, any Goods or Commodities of the Growth or Produce, whether manufactured or otherwise, of any such Country, not prohibited to be used or consumed in this Kingdom, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any State in Amity with His Majesty, and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Securities, as His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall approve, and subject to the same Duties as such Goods and Commodities would be subject to if imported in any British-built Ship or Vessel, and to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, respecting the Payment of the same; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that all Sugar and Coffee, imported in pursuance of this Act, shall be warehoused immediately on Importation, and shall not be taken out of Warehouse to be used or consumed in this Kingdom, but only for Exportation to Foreign Parts: Provided always, that no such Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons who shall not have exported or given such Security as shall be required for exporting from this Kingdom according to Law, to the Possessions in America belonging to the same European Sovereign or State, any Goods or Commodities bearing such Proportion in Value to the Goods so to be imported as His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, shall think reasonable and shall direct: Provided always, that if any Question shall arise in any Case whether any Thing which shall be done was authorized to be done by virtue of any such Licence, the Proof that such Thing was done under the Circumstances and according to the Terms and Conditions in such Licence to be expressed, shall lie on the Person or Persons respectively claiming the Benefit of such Licence.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force during the present War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to continue, until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and six, and amend an Act, passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for carrying into Execution the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, between His Majesty and the United States of America. [10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act, passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for carrying into Execution the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, was to continue in force so long as the said Treaty should continue in force, and no longer; which Treaty, or so much of it as relates to the Matters contained in the said Act, has now ceased and determined: And whereas it is expedient that the Liberty of Navigation and Commerce between the People of this Kingdom and the People of the United States of America, should continue for a limited Time, in the same Manner and under the same Limitations and Conditions as are specified in the said Act; 'be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, and every Thing therein contained, shall, notwithstanding the said Treaty has ceased and determined, be deemed and taken to be and to have been in full Force and Effect, and shall so continue in force until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and six.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the Importation into Great Britain from the said United States of America of any Articles enumerated in Table B. of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, every such Article shall be liable to the respective Duties imposed by the said Act, or by any Act or Acts passed subsequent thereto, except Wheat, Wheat Meal or Flour, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats, Oatmeal, Pease, Beans, Indian Corn, and Maize, the Duties to be paid upon which respectively shall be ascertained and regulated according to the Prices of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, and Oatmeal, in the Manner set forth and specified in the Table marked B. in an Act, passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Bounties and Duties payable thereon, or according to any other Act or Acts that shall hereafter be made for altering or amending the said Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; any Thing in the said Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may grant Licences to Subjects to import Goods in neutral Ships from Countries in America belonging to any Foreign European Sovereign or State.

Sugar and Coffee shall be warehoused for Exportation. Licences shall be granted only to Persons exporting Goods. Proof shall lie on Party licensed.

Continuance of A. 9.

37 G. 3. c. 97. for executing the Treaty with America, continued till June 1, 1806.

On Importation from America of Articles enumerated in Table B. of 43 G. 3. c. 68. they shall be liable to Duty under that or any subsequent Act, except Corn, the Duties on which shall be regulated under 44 G. 3. c. 109. Table B. &c.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act to enable the East India Company to appoint the Commander in Chief on the Bengal Establishment to be a Member of the Council of Fort William in Bengal, notwithstanding the Office of Governor General of Fort William, and the Office of Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, being vested in the same Person. [10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies should be authorized and empowered, if they shall think fit, to appoint the Commander of the Military Forces of the said United Company on the Bengal Establishment to be a Member of the Supreme Council of Fort William in Bengal, notwithstanding the Office of Governor General of Fort William aforesaid, and the Office of Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, shall be vested in the same Person; may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Directors of the said United Company specially to authorize and appoint the Commander of the Military Forces of the said United Company on the Bengal Establishment to be a Member of the said Supreme Council of Fort William aforesaid, notwithstanding the Office of Governor General of Fort William aforesaid, and the Office of Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, shall be vested in the same Person.

II. And be it enacted, That when any such Commander of the Military Forces of the said United Company on the Bengal Establishment shall be appointed a Member of the said Supreme Council, such Commander shall have Rank and Precedence at the Council Board next to the Governor General, but he shall not succeed to the Government of such Presidency on the happening of a Vacancy in the Office of Governor General, unless such Commander of the Military Forces of the said United Company on the Bengal Establishment shall have been provisionally applied to supply the same; but such Vacancy shall be supplied by the Counsellor next in Rank at the Council Board to such Commander of the Military Forces of the said United Company on the Bengal Establishment; any Thing contained in an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for continuing in the East India Company for a further Term the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; for appropriating to certain Uses the Revenues and Profits of the said Company; and for making Provision for the good Order and Government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; or any other Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Commander so to be appointed a Member of the said Supreme Council as herein-before is mentioned, shall be subject to Recall by the same Persons and in the same Manner, and shall have the same Powers, Franchises, and Authorities, in all respects as a Member of Council, as if he had been appointed thereto as Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India.

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act for increasing the Rates of Subsistence to be paid to Innkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers. [10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, certain Rates are established in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, for the payment of Inholders and others on whom Non-commissioned Officers and private Soldiers are quartered and billeted, who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer at their Quarters; and an option is given to such Inholders and others, to furnish certain Articles gratis, in lieu of Diet and Small Beer, at the Rates prescribed: And whereas the Rules prescribed for furnishing Soldiers with Necessaries are, in many Instances, become, from the high Price of Provisions, inadequate, and are productive of Distress to such Inholders and others: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, &c. [Nearly as 41 Geo. 3. (U. K.) c. 35.]

present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders signified by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary, to name and appoint such and so many Regiments of His Majesty's Regular Forces and Divisions of Royal Marines, as His Majesty shall think fit, to receive Volunteers from the Militia of Ireland under this Act, out of any Regiment of Militia named in any such Order; and it shall be lawful for any Number of the private Men of any such Regiment of Militia, not exceeding the Proportion hereinafter mentioned, to enlist in the Manner and under the Regulations herein mentioned, into any Regiment or Division as aforesaid, which in any such Order of His Majesty shall be named to receive Volunteers from such Regiment of Militia.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Number of private Men to be enlisted out of the Militia of any County of a Town or City in Ireland, shall not in any Case exceed Two Fifths of the Number of Men then actually serving in the Militia for such County; and in case the Militia of any County shall consist of more than One Battalion, the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall ascertain the Number of private Men that may be allowed to enlist out of each of such Battalions, by the Proportions which the Number of private Men serving in each Battalion bears to the whole Number of private Men actually serving in the Militia of such County; and shall signify to the Commanding Officers of each of such Battalions the Number of private Men that may be allowed to enlist out of their respective Battalions.

“ Commanding Officers shall ascertain the Number willing to enlist, and if it be Four Fifths of the Number allowed, no more shall be enlisted. [See § 3. of 45 G. 3. c. 31.] Commanding Officer may select not exceeding Half of the Number of Privates serving in the Regiment of Militia, and the Men to be enlisted under this Act shall be from the Remainder. § 4. [See § 4. of 45 G. 3. c. 31.] His Majesty may appoint Officers to approve or reject the Men, but none shall be rejected who are 5 Feet 4 Inches, and under 35 Years of Age, and not disabled. § 5. [See § 5. of 45 G. 3. c. 31.] Commanding Officer of every Regiment out of which the Proportion of Four Fifths shall not enlist, shall read His Majesty's Orders, and explain to the Men the Terms of Enlistment, and cause the Names of the Volunteers to be written down, and if they exceed the allowed Proportion, the Excess shall be reduced by Ballot. § 6. [See § 6. of 45 G. 3. c. 31.]”

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Number of private Men in any Regiment, or such Part thereof as shall not have been selected as aforesaid, who shall (when so drawn out as aforesaid), voluntarily declare their Intention to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces or Marines, shall not amount to the Proportion authorized to enlist, then and in such Case, a Book shall be opened by the Commanding Officer, and it shall be lawful for any other of such Men, within Ten Days after such Regiment, or Part thereof as aforesaid, shall be drawn out, to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces or Marines; and the Name of every such Man shall be entered in the said Book, and be transmitted by such Commanding Officer to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary; and in case the full Number of Men shall not be enlisted within such Period of Ten Days as aforesaid, the Regiment, or such Part thereof as shall not have been selected as aforesaid, shall, at the Expiration of such Period be again drawn out, and such Orders, and the Terms of enlisting as aforesaid be again read and explained, and such Proceedings be had for enlisting of Men into his Majesty's said Forces as herein-before directed; and if the Number of Men who shall then have enlisted under this Act, shall not in the Whole amount unto the Proportion authorized to enlist out of such Regiment, then it shall be lawful for any Men who may at any Time after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, have been enlisted or enrolled in such Regiment, for the further Period of One Calendar Month, to enlist under this Act; and the Names of all the Men so enlisted shall be entered in such Book, and transmitted by the Commanding Officer as before directed; and all such Men so enlisted shall, if approved, be entitled to such and the like Bounty as if they had declared their Intention to enlist when the Regiment, or any Part thereof, was first drawn out as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the Number of private Men to be enlisted from any Regiment shall have been ascertained in Manner by this Act directed, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment is hereby required to discharge all such private Men so to be enlisted from the Militia; and every such private Man so to be discharged as aforesaid, shall, if approved by the Officer to be appointed for the Purpose, immediately thereupon belong to the Regiment or Division as aforesaid, into which he shall declare his Intention to enlist, and may and shall be immediately enlisted and attested for General Service for such Regiment or Division, or such Officer as His Majesty may have appointed to receive Men enlisted under this Act, and shall have and be entitled to the Allowance of the Bounty of Ten Guineas, of which Three Guineas shall be paid to such Man upon his Approval by such Officer, and the Remainder as soon as he shall arrive at the Head Quarters of the Regiment or Division into which he shall have enlisted, together with Subsistence, Pay, and Cloathing, to be paid and furnished in like Manner in every Respect, and subject to and under the like Laws, Rules, and Regulations, as are provided and used for that Description of His Majesty's said Forces into which he shall have enlisted.

“ No Person in Confinement shall be entitled to enlist until he shall have suffered the Sentence of a Court of Martial; nor any who have been in Confinement, or sentenced to Punishment, after 21st March 1805, without Consent of the Commanding Officer. § 9. [See § 12 of 45 G. 3. c. 31.] Clerks, Drummers, Musicians, “Musicians, and Armourers shall not enlist without Consent of the Commanding Officer. § 10. [See § 14. of 45 G. 3. c. 3.] Commanding Officers may refuse to discharge Men, upon assigning sufficient Cause to the General commanding the District, or to the Adjutant General. § 11. If any Person discharged shall refuse to enlist, or shall not be approved, he shall belong to the Regiment from which discharged. § 12. An Act shall not authorize the enlisting or persuading to enlist, any Man not duly discharged. § 13. [See § 15, 16, 17 of 45 G. 3. c. 31.] No Person shall be drafted from the Regiment in which he enlists, unless first discharged therefrom. § 14. [See § 20. of 43 G. 3. c. 31.]

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order to be signified at any Time by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary, from Time to Time, during the Execution of this Act, or any Part thereof, to give such Orders and Directions to the Governors or Deputy Governors of Counties, or to the respective Colonels or Commanding Officers of any Regiments of Militia, as His Majesty shall, from Time to Time, think expedient and necessary for the Execution of this Act; and the several Governors and Deputy Governors, and Colonels and Commanding Officers aforesaid, shall proceed forthwith, in pursuance of His Majesty's Orders, to do all such Acts as shall be necessary for the Purpose of carrying such Order into Execution, and for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the several Colonels or Commanding Officers of the several Regiments of Militia, shall, within Ten Days after the receiving of any Order for that Purpose from His Majesty, signified as herein-before is mentioned, transmit to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary, an accurate Account, in Writing, of the Number of Persons that shall have been discharged from the Militia.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Matters, and Things in this Act contained, relating to Counties and to Regiments respectively, shall extend to all Divisions, Cities, and Places in Ireland, and to all Battalions, Corps, and Companies, as fully and amply as if they were severally and respectively repeated in every such Provision, Direction, and Clause, relating to any such Matter or Thing. “Act may be altered or repealed this Session. § 18.”

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five, and amend an Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty for better regulating the issuing and granting of Permits and Certificates for the Conveyance and Protection of certain exciseable Goods therein mentioned; and to prevent Frauds by Dealers in or Retailers of such Goods; so far as the same respects Permits for Spirits or Spirituous Liquors. [11th April 1805.]

“FOR the better regulating the issuing and granting of Permits and Certificates for the Conveyance and Protection of Spirits or Spirituous Liquors, and to prevent Frauds by Dealers in or Retailers thereof;” be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, any Quantity of Spirits or Spirituous Liquors, whether foreign or made in Ireland, exceeding One Gallon, that shall be carrying or conveying, or carried or conveyed, from any Part or Place in Ireland to any other Part thereof, whether from any Part of any City or Town to another Part thereof, or from one Town or Place to another Town or Place, may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Revenue, and shall be forfeited, unless the Carrier or Person conveying the same, or the Person in whose Possession the same shall be, shall, on Demand made by any Officer of Excise, produce a Permit or Let-pass under the Hand of a proper Officer of the Revenue, authorizing the Removal of such Goods; any Thing contained in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for better regulating the issuing and granting of Permits and Certificates for the Conveyance and Protection of certain exciseable Goods therein mentioned, and to prevent Frauds by Dealers in or Retailers of such Goods, or in any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding.

“Provisions of recited Act or of any Acts relating to Permits extended to this Act. § 2. Act may be altered or repealed this Session. § 3. Continuance of Act 29 Sept. 1805.” [See 45 Geo. 3. c. 108. § 1.]

C A P. XLI.

An Act for restraining the Negotiation of certain Promissory Notes and Inland Bills of Exchange in Ireland.

[17th May 1805.]

WHEREAS the Regulations at present in force respecting the Issue and Negotiation of Promissory Notes for small Sums, in Ireland, have not proved effectual; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to restrain the Negotiation of Promissory Notes and Inland Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum; and also two Acts, the one made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year, and the other in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for continuing and amending the said first recited Act; and also an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, for suspending the Operation of the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year, and for continuing and amending all the recited Acts; and also another Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to permit the Issue and Negotiation of certain Promissory Notes, under a limited Sum, by registered Bankers in Ireland, and to restrain the Issue and Negotiation of certain other Notes, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be, and the same are hereby repealed, save and except so far as relates to the recovering any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred under the said recited Acts, or any of them, at any Time on or before the passing of this Act.

II. Provided

With Acts

39 G. 3. c. 48.
40 G. 3. c. 64.
and also
44 G. 3. c. 87.
44 G. 3. c. 6. and
c. 91. repealed.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to render valid any Promissory or other Note or Undertaking in Writing, which may have been issued before the passing of this Act, and which, under the Provisions and Directions of the several Acts hereinbefore recited and repealed, or any of them, were or would have been null and void in case the said Acts had not been hereby repealed; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Promissory Notes or Undertakings in Writing, being negotiable or transferrable for any Sum or Sums of Money less than Twenty Shillings Irisb Currency, or on which any Sum less than Twenty Shillings Irisb Currency shall remain undischarged, which shall bear Date, or shall have been or shall be issued in Ireland at any Time after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be absolutely null and void, and not to be negotiable or transferrable, any Thing in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland at the Time of the passing of this Act, or any Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Person or Persons who shall have issued, or shall issue the same, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds Irisb Currency for every such Note or Undertaking so issued; and the Person or Persons who shall have given or taken, or shall give or take the same in Payment after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, shall forfeit Double the Amount of each such Note or Undertaking to any Person who shall sue for the same, and such Penalties shall be recovered before any One Justice of the Peace in Ireland, upon the Oath of One credible Witness, or on the Confession of such Offender; and in case the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall not be paid and satisfied upon such Conviction being made, it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Conviction and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner; and if such Offender shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels to satisfy such Penalties, every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, by Warrant of such Justice, for any Time not less than One Month, nor more than Three Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be sooner paid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That any Memorandum, Ticket, Token, Draft, Certificate, or Engagement, written, printed, or engraved on Paper, Card, Vellum, or Parchment, being negotiable or transferrable, or which shall have been or shall be given, negotiated, or transferred, with Intent to imply or to make a Promise or Engagement to pay Money or Value of any Kind, in Goods or otherwise, under the Sum of Twenty Shillings Irisb Currency, or on which a less Sum than Twenty Shillings Irisb Currency shall remain undischarged, shall be deemed an Undertaking in Writing to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

“An Act may be altered this Session. § 5.

C A P. XLII.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament for preventing the Counterfeiting of certain Silver Coin issued by the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, to Silver Pieces which may be issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, called Tokens; and to promote the Circulation of the said Tokens. [17th May 1805.]

“WHEREAS the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland are preparing and intend to issue, for the Convenience of the Publick, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, a Quantity of Silver Pieces denominated Tokens, of the Common Standard of Spanisb Pillar Dollars, containing on the Obverse Side thereof an Impression of His Majesty's Head, and the following Words and Letters, videlicet, “Georgius III. Dei Gratia,” and on the Reverse side thereof the following Words and Figures, “Bank Token Five-pence Irish 1805,” or “Bank Token Ten-pence Irish 1805,” each such Token for Five-pence containing in Weight One Thirteenth Part of the common Weight of a Spanisb Pillar Dollar, and each such Token for Ten-pence containing Two such Thirteenth Parts: And whereas for the Security of the Publick ‘it is expedient to prevent the counterfeiting of the said respective Tokens ;’ be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, make, coin, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be made, coined, or counterfeited, or willingly act or assist in the making, coining, or counterfeiting, any Piece of Metal, resembling or made with Intent to resemble or look like the said Tokens or either of them respectively, so as aforesaid intended to be coined or stamped and issued by the said Governor and Company of the Bank, or to pass as such, or if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, bring into Ireland, or into any Part of the said United Kingdom, any such false or counterfeit Token or Tokens as aforesaid, resembling or made with Intent to resemble or look like the said Tokens or either of them, or to pass as such Tokens respectively, knowing the same to be false or counterfeited, to the Intent to utter the same within the said United Kingdom, or within any Dominions of the same, every Person so offending, and being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for any Term of Years not exceeding Seven Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, utter or tender in Payment, or give in Exchange, or pay or put off to any Person or Persons any such false or counterfeit Token or Tokens as aforesaid, resembling or made with Intent to resemble or look like the said Tokens or either of them, so as aforesaid intended to be coined or stamped and issued by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or to pass as such Tokens respectively, knowing the same to be false or counterfeited, or if any Person or Persons shall have in his, her, or their Custody without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie upon the Party accused) any greater Number than Five of such false or counterfeit

This Act shall not make valid any Notes which would have been void by Acts repealed.

Promissory Notes for less than 20s. (I. C.) declared void.

Penalty for issuing them 20s., for negotiating them double Value.

All Memorandums, Tickets, &c negotiated for Money or Value under 20s. shall be deemed Undertakings in Writing.

[44 G. 3. c. 71.]

Persons counterfeiting Silver Tokens issued by the Bank of Ireland, or bringing into Ireland with an Intent to utter such Counterfeits, &c. shall be guilty of Felony and may be transported for Seven Years.

Persons tendering in Payment such Counterfeit Tokens, or having in their Possession more than Five (without lawful Excuse) shall be subject to the Penalties inflicted by 44 G. 3. c. 71.

Tokens as aforesaid, then and in either of the said Cases respectively, every such Person shall be subject and liable to such and the like Pains and Punishments, and to such and the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall be proceeded against in all Respects in such and the like Manner as is mentioned and directed in and by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prevent the counterfeiting of Silver Coin issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, called Dollars, and Silver Coin, which may be issued by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, called Tokens; and to prevent the bringing into the United Kingdom, or uttering, any counterfeit Dollars or Tokens, with respect to Persons uttering or tendering in Payment, or giving in Exchange, or paying, or putting off, or having in his, her, or their Custody, without lawful Excuse, the counterfeit Dollars and Tokens in the said recited Act mentioned.

Powers of recited Act 44 G. 3. c. 71. extended to this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Regulations, and Directions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, whatsoever in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament mentioned and contained, shall and may be applied in the apprehending, securing, proceeding against, and punishing of Offenders, under this Act, and in the Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures for Offences against this Act, and in the carrying of this Act into Execution in all Respects whatsoever, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Powers, Provisions, Regulations, and Directions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Such Tokens issued during Restriction on the Bank of Ireland, shall be received in Payment of the Revenue.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money which now are or shall become payable in Ireland for any Part of the Publick Revenue, shall be accepted by the Collectors, Receivers, and other Officers of the Revenue in Ireland, authorized to receive the same, in the said Silver Bank Tokens for Ten-pence or Five-pence respectively, which shall be issued during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments in Cash by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if offered to be so paid; and that the said Governor and Company may, whenever the said Restriction shall be removed, charge to the Account of the Teller of the Exchequer all such of the said Tokens of Ten-pence and Five-pence each, issued during the Continuance of the said Restriction, as may be received by the said Governor and Company in Payment or otherwise before or after such Removal.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act to amend the Laws for improving and keeping in Repair the Post Roads in Ireland, and for rendering the Conveyance of Letters by His Majesty's Post Office more secure and expeditious.

[17th May 1805.]

WHEREAS many Parts of the Roads in Ireland are too narrow, hilly, or otherwise inconvenient for the speedy Conveyance of His Majesty's Mails in Coaches or other Carriages: And whereas the Laws at present in force are insufficient for the effectually improving and amending the same: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That His Majesty's Postmasters General for Ireland shall and they are hereby required to procure and employ, as soon as they conveniently can after the passing of this Act, proper and sufficient Persons to survey and make Maps of the several Lines of Road from Dublin to the extreme Post Towns in Ireland, in such Directions, and through such Post Towns as His Majesty's Mails now travel to and from Dublin, or as the said Postmasters General shall deem most expedient that the said Mails should travel through; and also to survey and make Maps of the several other Roads in Ireland on which His Majesty's Mails are now carried, or on which the said Postmasters General shall deem it expedient that the said Mails should be carried from Post Town to Post Town; and also to survey and make Maps of all such Alterations in any such Roads, by cutting off Angles, or forming new Lines in lieu of the Whole or any Part or Parts of such Roads, as each such Surveyor so employed shall judge desirable for the Purpose of rendering the Way more level, or where it is sufficiently level, for the Purpose of shortening the Distance.

Where Road is inconvenient Surveyor shall mark out a new one according to the Level herein specified.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Surveyor so to be employed, in all Cases where the present Road or any Part thereof is not made in the most level or most convenient Direction, shall survey and make Maps of a new Line or Lines for a Road in lieu thereof; and that in no Part of any such new Line shall the Ascend or Descend of the Road when finished exceed the Rate or Proportion of One Foot in Height or Fall in each Thirty-five Feet of the Length thereof, if the same be practicable, without causing such a great Increase of Distance as to delay considerably the Carriage of the Mails; and if the same be not practicable, then such Surveyor shall find out and survey the most practicable Line which shall be nearest in its Ascend or Descend to such Proportion of Height or Fall.

Surveyor empowered to enter Lands and make Surveys, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such Surveyor so to be appointed by the Postmasters General of Ireland, for the Purposes of this Act, and for any other Person or Persons employed for that Purpose, to survey and measure any Line intended for a new Road, or for the Alteration of any existing Road under this Act, and to enter on any Lands or Grounds, and to do all other Matters and Things necessary in the Execution of their Duty and Employment under this Act, without being deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, and without being liable to any Obstruction whatever; provided such Person or Persons shall have a Certificate in Writing, under the Hands of the said Postmasters General, or under the Hands of any Two Justices of the Peace within the District, that such Surveyor or other Person or Persons is or are employed for that Purpose.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Part of any such new Line shall be proposed in any such Survey to be made through any House or Building, or Part of a House or Building, or through any Garden or Orchard made and planted before the passing of this Act, or through any Plantation inclosed and growing at the Time of the passing of this Act, every Surveyor shall in his Map of any such Survey mark the same distinctly, and also mark the most convenient and level Line which he can find for avoiding such Houfe, Garden, Orchard, or Plantation; and in all Cases where the making a new Piece of Road in the Line which he shall think most eligible for the Carriage of the Mails, shall appear to him materially to prejudice any inclosed Demefne or Lawn planted at the Time of the passing of this Act, or to bring the Road inconveniently near to the Dwelling or Manfion Houfe in any such Demefne or Lawn, every fuch Surveyor shall, in his Map of any fuch Survey, mark alfo the moft convenient and level Line which he can find for the Purpose of avoiding fuch Prejudice or Inconvenience.

V. And be it further enacted, That every fuch Surveyor fhall be fworn before he begins his Survey, to make the fame without Fear, Favour, or Partiality, to the beft of his Opinion and Judgement, according to the true Intent of this Act.

Surveyor fhall be fworn to act impartially.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Maps or Surveys fo to be made of the prefent Roads, and of the propofed Alterations therein, fhall be laid down on the fame Scale; and that for each Barony or Half Barony in the Line of any fuch Road, there fhall be made feperate and diftinct Maps of fuch Parts of the faid Roads as fhall go through or be propofed to go through any fuch Barony or Half Barony refpectively, on a Scale fufficiently large to give the moft minute Information; and that where in any Map or Survey it fhall be propofed, that any Afcent in any Part of the prefent exiting Road, exceeding the Proportion of One Foot in Height or Fall to Thirty-five Feet in Length, fhould be reduced, a Section thereof and of the propofed Reduction in Height, if any fuch be recommended, fhall be included in or annexed to fuch Map or Survey, ftating the Rate of Height or Fall to which the propofed Reduction will bring the Afcent on fuch Portion of the Road; and that wherever any Part of the exiting Road which fuch Surveyor fhall propofe to retain is not of the Width of Forty-two Feet in the Clear between the Ditches, Drains, or Fences, on each fide thereof, the faid Surveyor fhall particularly fpecify the fame in his Map or Survey, and mark the general Breadth thereof, and on which Side it can be widened moft conveniently.

Map of the Road and the Alterations propofed fhall be on the fame Scale, and feperate Maps for each Barony, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every fuch Surveyor fhall annex to each Map or Survey an Estimate of the whole Expence of making, forming, and graveling fuch Road through each Barony or Half Barony, and of making Fences to the faid Road where a new Line of Road fhall be propofed, and of widening to any Breadth not lefs than Forty-two Feet nor more than Fifty Feet, fuch Parts of any Road as may require widening, which fuch Surveyor fhall propofe to retain, and of effectually repairing all fuch Parts of the exiting Road as are to be retained, and of making Footpaths to the new Line, as well as to the Parts of the Road which are to be retained; and of reducing all fuch Afcents in any Road, as fuch Surveyor fhall propofe to reduce therein; and of building or repairing all fuch Bridges, Gullet Arches, or Pipes, and all fuch Walls neceffary to fupport the Road, or to protect Paffengers, as fuch Surveyor fhall deem requifite to be built or repaired.

Expence of making Road fhall be annexed to the Map.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That there fhall be annexed to every fuch Estimate, an Affidavit of the Surveyor, or of Two credible and experienced Perfons, that the Sum contained in the Estimate is a reasonable Charge, and is the leaft for which the Work can be effectually and fubftantially executed to the beft of his or their Judgment; and that every fuch Surveyor fhall alfo annex to his Map or Survey, an Affidavit fworn by him, that any Alterations in the exiting Road recommended by fuch Surveyor in fuch Map or Survey have been propofed by him as the moft advifable in his Judgment, agreeably to the Intent of this Act, between the Points therein ftated; due regard being had to the moft level and practicable Line, without occafioning fuch an Increase of Difftance as might be productive of Delay to the Carriage of the Mails.

Affidavits fhall be annexed to the Estimate and the Property thereof.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Surveys, Maps, and Estimates of the Roads, or fuch Parts thereof as come within the Provisions of this Act, from Dublin direct to the extreme Poft Towns, and from Waterford to Cork and Limerick, and from Donaghad to Londonderry, fhall be finifhed and completed in preference to the Surveys, Maps, and Estimates of any other Roads; and that whenever the Survey, Maps, and Estimates of any Road fhall be finifhed, the Poftmailers General fhall caufe Notice thereof to be pofted upon the Door of the County Court Houfe of each and every County, County of a Town or City, Barony or Half Barony, through any Part of which any new Line of Road fhall be propofed in fuch Surveys or Maps to be carried, fpecifying the Town Lands, and the Number of Perches therein, through each of which fuch Road is propofed to be carried, Twenty-one Days at the leaft previous to the Commiffion Day of the next enfuing Affizes to be held in fuch County of a Town or City, or in the County wherein fuch Barony or Half Barony fhall be fituate, or if in the County or County of the City of Dublin, previous to the Firft Day of the next prefenting Term; and the Map or Maps thereof, and of the whole of the Road, whether Old or New, through fuch County of a Town or City, Barony or Half Barony, together with the Estimates and Affidavits of the feveral Expences of repairing, widening, or making the fame, of making Fences and Footpaths, reducing Hills, filling Hollows, building or repairing Bridges, Gullet Pipes, Arches, or Walls, fhall at the fame Time be depofited with the Treafurer of fuch County of a Town or City, or of the County in which fuch Baronies or Half Baronies fhall be fituate, for the Infpection of all Perfons whom it may concern, and fhall be lodged and kept among the Records of fuch County, County of a Town or City refpectively, and be laid before the Grand Jury thereof at fuch next enfuing Affizes or prefenting Term.

Surveys of Roads from Dublin, &c. fhall be firft completed. Notice fhall be pofted on the Court Houfes of Places through which Roads fhall pafs, fpecifying Particulars before Maps and Estimates are laid before the Grand Jury.

X. And be it further enacted, That the feveral and refpective Surveyors who fhall have been refpectively employed by the Poftmailers General in making any Survey under this Act, fhall attend at fuch Affizes or prefenting Term refpectively, and fhall be examined upon Oath before the Grand Jury thereat as to fuch Matters or Opinions concerning any fuch Road refpectively, or any propofed Alteration thereof, and concerning the feveral Estimates relating to the fame, as fuch Grand Jury fhall think proper; and that upon fuch Examination fuch Grand Jury fhall proceed to confider the Whole of fuch Surveys, Maps, and Estimates; and if they fhall be of Opinion that the Road and the Alterations thereof, as pointed out and recommended in Surveyors fhall attend Affizes, and be examined by Grand Juries.

Grand Juries on approving Plans fhall prefent the Road accordingly.

Expence shall be raised on the County.

If Grand Jury disapprove the proposed Plan of any Road, a new Survey shall be made before the next Assizes, at which the Road may be presented accordingly.

Expence of forming Road shall be presented off the several Baronies, or off the County at large.
Expence of repairing Bridges, &c. off the County only.

Presentments shall be made, &c. as under existing Laws.
Where the Sum presented shall exceed 200*l.*, it may be advanced under Regulations of 15th Act 35 G. 3. c. 7.

If a general Overseer of any Road through a Barony is appointed by Grand Jury, the Affidavits for accounting may be made by his Deputies, and confirmed by him.

Grand Juries may appoint Sums to be raised at different Assizes.

Grand Jury may increase the Proportion of Sums to be raised.
All Sums shall be raised in Six Years.

any such Survey, is in the most convenient and practicable Direction between the Two Post Towns therein mentioned, they shall present the same to be the Road between such Two Post Towns; and at the same Time they shall present all the new intended Part thereof, to be laid out and marked and levelled, and shall present all Sums of Money necessary for laying out the same, including the Expence of marking and levelling, to be raised off the County at large.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Grand Jury shall upon any such Examination as aforesaid, be of Opinion that the Road between any Two Post Towns can be carried in a more convenient Direction, equally or more level, and not exceeding in Length or Expence the Road pointed out in any such Survey, it shall and may be lawful for such Grand Jury to state such their Opinion in Writing, with any Reasons or Observations which they may think proper to the Court, who shall cause the Clerk of the Crown to send an attested Copy thereof to the Postmasters General; and the said Postmasters General shall thereupon forthwith cause such Road to be re-surveyed, and such attested Copy to be given to such Person as they shall employ to re-survey the same before the then next Assizes or presenting Term; and such new Survey, together with the Maps, Estimates, and Affidavits herein-before required, shall be laid before the Grand Jury at such next Assizes or presenting Term; and it shall and may be lawful for such Grand Jury to present the Road in the Direction pointed out in either of the said Two Surveys, or partly as in the one, and partly as in the other of such Two Surveys, to be the Road between the Two Post Towns therein stated, as they shall judge best; and at the same Time to present all such Parts thereof as they shall approve for a new Line or new Lines of Road to be laid out, marked, and levelled; and in like Manner to present the Money necessary for laying out the same.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury who shall present any such Road to be laid out pursuant either to the Survey or the Re-survey thereof, or partly to the one and partly to the other, to present, to be raised off each Barony or Half Barony through which such Road shall pass, or off the County at large, if it shall appear to them expedient, the Whole of the Sums necessary for laying out, forming, gravelling, and fencing every Part of any such new Line of Road, and making Footpaths, and for repairing, gravelling, widening, fencing, or turning the Backs of the existing Fences to the Road, or making Footpaths to any Part of such Old Road as shall be retained; and to present to be raised off the County at large, the Whole of the Sums necessary for building or repairing all Bridges, Arches, Pipes, Gulleys, and Walls as aforesaid, and for lowering any Hill, or filling any Hollow, or reducing any Afcnt, or erecting Mile Posts or Mile Stones.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Presentments for raising Money for any of the Purposes aforesaid, shall be made upon like Affidavits, subject to like Regulations, and to like Mode of accounting for the Money raised thereby, as is or are now prescribed by Law, except so far as is otherwise herein directed.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Presentment by any Grand Jury under this Act, of any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of widening, altering, or repairing any Post Road, or of repairing or building Bridges, or building or repairing of Walls on any such Road, shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling, it shall and may be lawful to present and allow the Whole or any Part of such Sum so presented, to be paid in Advance to the Overseers appointed to conduct such Work so presented, upon such Conditions and under such Regulations as are contained in an Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Regulation of Presentments for the Purpose of levying Money to be expended in erecting Court Houses, Gaols, and other expensive Buildings; and that all Conditions, Orders, and Regulations, in the said recited Act contained, shall be extended and applied to all such Presentments as aforesaid, which shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Grand Jury shall appoint any One Person to be a general Overseer of the Whole of any Road or Work in or through any Barony or Half Barony, the Affidavits for accounting for the Expensiture of all Money relating to the same, made by any Overseer or Overseers whom such general Overseer shall appoint to act under him, shall be receivable by the Grand Jury and the Court, and shall be of like Effect as if such Overseer or Overseers, so appointed by such general Overseer, had been appointed by the Grand Jury: Provided always, that the Affidavit of such general Overseer shall be annexed to the Affidavit of any Overseer or Overseers appointed by him, stating that he has examined the Account of such Overseer or Overseers, and the Works executed, and that the Work is effectually done, and that he verily believes the Money stated in such Account to have been fairly and honestly expended upon such Work.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Grand Jury shall think the Whole of any Sums necessary to be raised for the Purpose aforesaid, too great to be raised at One Assizes or presenting Term, or that the Whole of any such Sums cannot be properly expended so as to be accounted for at the ensuing Assizes or presenting Term, it shall be lawful for any such Grand Jury, in the presenting of any such Sums, to set forth what Portion of the whole Sum to be raised on any Barony or Half Barony, or on the County, shall be respectively raised thereon in each Year, and at what Assizes or Term, until the Whole shall be raised and levied; and the Treasurer of the County shall from Time to Time, without further Authority or Presentment in that Behalf, insert in his Warrant at each Assizes or Term so directed, the Portion or Portions so set forth of the Sum so presented; and the same shall be raised and levied in like Manner, from Time to Time, and with like Remedy in case of Non-payment, as all other Money directed by such Warrant is by Law to be levied.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury at each or any subsequent Assizes or presenting Term, to increase any such Portion to such Amount as they shall deem proper, and to order such increased Proportion to be raised on the County or Barony or Half Barony respectively: Provided also, that the entire Sum so presented for completing any such Road entirely through such County, Barony, or Half Barony, shall be directed to be raised in such Portions as shall cause the Whole of the same to be levied within Six Years at the most from the Time when such Survey or Re-survey, as the Case may be, shall have been laid before the Grand Jury: Provided also, that it shall not be lawful for the Court at any Assize or presenting Term from and after the Time that any such Survey or Re-survey, as the Case may be, shall be laid before the Grand Jury, to Fiat Presentments for raising any Money off any Barony or Half Barony, or off any County of a Town or City in which any such Post Road, or any Part thereof, shall be situated, to be expended in making, repairing, or widening other Roads therein, to a greater Amount in the Whole than the Sum which shall be directed or presented originally, or in the Way of Increase thereof, to be raised at such Assizes or Term for such Post Road, until such Post Road therein shall be completely finished.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if more Money shall be expended in any One Year on any such Road, together with the Bridges, Pipes, Arches, Gulleys, and Walls thereof inclusive, and duly accounted for, than the Treasurer shall have received from the Baronial or other Collectors, it shall be lawful for such Treasurer, and he is hereby required to pay from Time to Time to the Person who shall have accounted for the same, or his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, the full Sums allowed in such Account out of the Monies presented for the Purpose, so soon as he shall receive the same, without any other Order, Warrant, or Authority on that Behalf.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Occupier of any Ground, or of any House or Building into which any old Road is to be widened, or through which any new Road is to be made, under the Authority of this Act, or any Person having an Interest in any such Ground, House, or Building, to traverse the Presentment for making or widening such Road, for Damages, either at the same Assizes or presenting Term in which such Presentment shall have been made, or at the next subsequent Assizes or presenting Term, if he or she shall have given Notice in Writing to the Treasurer of the County, Twenty-one Days at the least previous to the Commission Day of such subsequent Assizes, or previous to the First Day of such subsequent presenting Term, of such his or her Intention; and every Traveller entered at the Assizes or presenting Term whereat such Presentment shall have been made shall be tried then, or at the next subsequent Assizes or Term; and every Traveller entered at the Assizes or presenting Term subsequent to that whereat such Presentment shall have been made; and of which such Notice shall be given, shall be tried at such subsequent Assizes or presenting Term; and the Jury which shall try any such Traveller shall true Verdict give, whether any and what Damages shall accrue by the Presentment to the Traveller or Travellers; and upon the Damages so found being paid to such Traveller or Travellers, or deposited with the County Treasurer for the Use of such Traveller or Travellers, it shall be lawful for the Overseer or Overseers appointed to carry the Presentment in question into Effect to proceed in the Execution thereof without the Interruption of any Person whatsoever; and it shall be lawful for any Grand Jury as aforesaid to present such Sum or Sums of Money so found for Damages, or any Part thereof, to be raised off the Barony, Half Barony, County of a City, or County of a Town, in which the Ground or House or other Buildings shall be situate, on account of which such Damages shall have been awarded to the Traveller or Travellers; to which Presentment no Traveller shall be allowed.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Traveller shall be received to any Presentment made under the Authority of this Act, except for Damages.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize any Grand Jury to present any Money to be raised for or in respect of any Turnpike Road, except as is herein-after provided and enacted.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if the Whole or any Part of the Road between one Post Town and another, which shall be ordered to be surveyed under the Authority of this Act, shall be a Turnpike Road, the Survey thereof directed to be made in Manner aforesaid, together with the Maps, Estimates, and Affidavits relating thereto, shall, when completed, be laid before the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, to whose Controll and Management such Road shall be committed by Law, who shall proceed without Delay to obtain the Consent of the Owners or Occupiers of the Ground into which any Part of such Turnpike Road shall be proposed to be widened, or through which any Alteration thereof shall be proposed to be made, or to cause the Damages which may accrue to such Owners or Occupiers, by Means of such widening or Alteration, to be ascertained by the Verdict of a Jury, according to such Powers as are given to them by Law for such Purpose; and such Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, shall lay all such Verdicts before the Grand Jury at the next ensuing Assizes, or any subsequent Assizes, which shall be held for the County in which such Part of the Road shall be situated; or at the next presenting Term, or at any subsequent presenting Term, if the same be situate in the County of Dublin, or in the County of the City of Dublin; and it shall be lawful for each such Grand Jury to present the Sum or Sums specified in such Verdicts to be raised upon the County at large, and paid to the several Persons respectively in whose Behalf such Verdicts shall be given.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That when all the Sums mentioned in such Verdicts shall be paid to the Persons entitled thereto, or shall be deposited with the County Treasurer for the Use of such Persons, it shall be lawful for the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, of such Turnpike Road, to proceed to widen such Road, or to lay out and make such new Line of Road as the Case may be, without the Interruption of any Person whatever.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That any Sum of Money presented to be raised under the Authority of this Act, by the Grand Jury or Grand Juries of the County of Dublin, shall and may be allowed by the Court, although it shall exceed or cause an Excess in the Whole on each or any Barony beyond the Sums which are allowed by Law to be raised by Presentment on such Barony.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, after receiving from the Postmasters General such Survey as is herein directed, to Till Post Roads are completed, no Sums shall be raised for other Roads exceeding those for Post Roads.

Excess of annual Expenses beyond Receipts by Treasurer shall be paid out of Money presented.

Owners of Ground or Houses required for widening or altering Road may traverse Presentments at the same or subsequent Assizes, on Notice.

Damages shall be ascertained by a Jury, and raised off the Barony by Presentment not traversable.

No Traveller except for Damages. No Presentments for Turnpikes, except as after mentioned.

In case of Post Roads being Turnpike Roads, Surveys, &c. shall be laid before the Trustees, who shall obtain Consent of Parties, or Verdict of Juries, and thereupon Grand Juries shall present Sums off the Counties.

On Payment of the Money, Trustees may proceed on Roads.

Money presented in Dublin County shall be allowed, though exceeding the legal Proportion. Future Expenses of Turnpike expend altered shall not exceed 31l. per Mile per Annu.

In case of Presentments to be raised by yearly Portions (See l. 16, 17.) Lord Lieutenant may order the Treasurer to make Advances to the County Treasurer.

County Treasurer shall pay Sums from Presentments to Collector of Revenue till Advance is repaid.

No Money shall be ordered to be advanced till all Damages to Parties are presented, &c.

Money advanced to Treasurer shall be applied according to Presentments.

On Account of Expenditure delivered by Overseer on Oath to the Treasurer, the latter may weekly advance Sums necessary to pay such Expenditure.

Security by Overseers to account as ensuing Affizes.

On Overseers giving Security, their Deputies may receive Advances from County Treasurer.

On Failure of due Repayment of Advances by County Treasurer to Collector, the Sum shall be raised by Presentment off the County, &c.

expend more Money in any one Year than after the Rate of Thirty-two Pounds a Mile Trij Measure, on any Part of the Road, which according to such Survey is not to remain the Road, but to be altered by a new Line of Road being substituted in its Place.

XXVI. And whereas the Benefits propoed by this Act, for the secure and expeditious Conveyance of the 'Mails, must necessarily be delayed until the Whole of the Sums to be raised by Presentments shall be levied, 'unless Provision be made for an Advance of Money in the mean Time;' be it therefore enacted, That whenever the Grand Jury of any County shall have presented any Line of Road, marked or recommended in any Survey or Map, agreeably to the Provisions of this Act, to be the Road between any two Post Towns, and shall have presented the Sums necessary for making and completing the same, but shall have directed that such Sum or Sums shall be raised only by yearly Portions, the Clerk of the Crown shall forthwith transmit a Copy of such their Presentment and Direction to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or to his or their Chief Secretary; and it shall and may be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to order the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland to advance and pay out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, from Time to Time, as such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors shall in his or their Discretion order and direct, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of what shall remain of such Presentments unlevied at the Time of making such Order, to the Treasurer of such County, to be applied for the Purpose of accomplishing the Works for which such Presentment or Presentments shall have been made; and all such Money so advanced and paid to any such Treasurer of the County, shall be received and accounted for by him, in like Manner as any other Monies received by the Treasurer for the Use of the County; and all Securities given by such Treasurer, or in his Behalf, shall extend equally to such Money as to any other Money in his Hands.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Treasurer of a County receiving any such Money or Monies, shall pay to the Collector of His Majesty's Revenues in the District wherein the County Town is situated, all such Sums as he shall receive from Time to Time from the Baronial or other Collectors, by virtue of the Presentments on Account of which such Money shall have been advanced, until he shall have discharged the whole Sum so advanced, but without Interest for the same.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the Time being, to order any Money to be so advanced, unless it shall appear to him or them, by the Certificate of the Clerk of the Crown, or other sufficient Document, that the Whole of the Sums necessary to pay all Damages demanded by any Person or Persons, on account of any such Road going into or through any Ground, House, or Building, have been presented to be raised and paid, or have been otherwise settled for.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Money so advanced and paid to any Treasurer of a County under this Act, shall be applied by him towards the Purpose of the Presentment or Presentments, on account whereof it shall have been advanced or paid to or received by such Treasurer, and to no other Purpose; and that when and so often as any Overseer appointed by the Grand Jury, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such Treasurer, an Account of the Expenditure of any Money in pursuance of any such Presentment, or of any Expences actually paid or incurred in the Execution of the Work for which such Presentment shall have been granted, specifying the Names of the Persons to whom the same shall have been paid, or shall be due, and for what Work or other Service, and when, together with the Number of Horses and Men employed, and the Wages per Day, or if the Work shall have been contracted for, the Nature of the Contract; such Account to be verified by the Oath of such Overseer; it shall and may be lawful for such Treasurer, and he is hereby required to advance and pay to such Overseer, from Time to Time, not oftener than once in each Week, (out of such Monies as such Treasurer may so have received by Order of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland) the Amount of the Expence so sworn by such Overseer to have been actually paid or incurred: Provided always, that such Overseer, if appointed by the Grand Jury, shall have first given Security to such Treasurer, with Two Sureties approved of by One of the Governors of the County, or by any Two Justices of the Peace, named by the Grand Jury for the Purpose, by Bond and Warrant to confess Judgement thereupon, conditioned, that such Overseer shall duly account, at the next Affizes or presenting Term, for all Sums which shall be advanced to him by the Treasurer on account of any such Presentment in respect to the Road or other Work of which he is Overseer.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any general Overseer for the Whole of any Road or Work, to be appointed by any Grand Jury, shall have given Security (approved of in Manner before mentioned) that any Overseer or Overseers appointed by him for the Work, specifying his or their Names, shall duly account in Manner before-mentioned; every such Overseer so appointed by such General Overseers and named in such Security, shall, on his producing such Account as aforesaid, verified by himself upon Oath, together with the Order of the general Overseer, be entitled to receive Advances of Money from the Treasurer of the County, from Time to Time, in Manner and for the Purposes herein-before mentioned.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if by Neglect or Failure of raising the Sums which shall be directed as aforesaid to be raised by yearly Portions, or from any other Cause, any Delay shall happen to arise in the Repayment, by the Treasurer of the County to the Collector of the District, in Manner and at the Times herein directed, of the Whole or any Instalment of the Money advanced to such Treasurer, by Order of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury, and they are hereby required, at the Affizes or presenting Term at which any such Instalment ought to be repaid, or at the next or any subsequent Affizes or presenting Term, to present such Sum as shall be behind and not repaid, to be raised off the County, County of a City or Town, Barony or Half Barony respectively, as it shall have been before presented, and to be paid forthwith to the Collector of the District; and if such

Sum

Sum shall be afterwards raised and paid to the Treasurer, in pursuance of the former Presentment, the Treasurer shall set it down to the Credit of the County, Barony, or Half Barony, as the Case may be, in the next Warrant which he shall issue

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Court at any Assizes to fiat any Presentment for raising Money for the Repair of any Road in such County, except a Poll Road, unless such Presentment as last aforesaid be first made and allowed.

XXXIII. And whereas the Tolls arising upon Turnpike Roads may not afford Funds sufficient for carrying out in Execution such Improvements or Alterations of the respective Roads as may be recommended or pointed out in any Survey to be made in Manner directed by this Act; and it may be necessary for the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, of such Turnpike Roads respectively, to borrow Money in Aid of their Tolls for the Purpose; be it therefore enacted, That any Three or more of the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, in whom the Care or Management of any Turnpike Road in Ireland is vested by Law, shall and may, and they are hereby empowered to raise and borrow any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of the Sum necessary to carry into Execution the Whole of such new Line or Lines of Road, with Footpaths thereto, and reduce such Hills, and fill up such Hollows and to build or repair such Bridges, Arches, Pipes or Gulleys, or Walls, as shall be marked or recommended in any such Survey as shall be delivered to them, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, and according to the Estimates thereto annexed; and that for all Sums so to be borrowed, Bills entitling the Bearers to the Amount of the Sums therein specified shall be issued and signed by the Treasurer for the Time being, and signed by and sealed with the Seals of Three or more of such Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of any such Road respectively, and that such Bills shall bear such Interest from the Date thereof as shall be agreed upon between such Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners respectively, and the Lender or Lenders, not exceeding the Rate of Six Pounds for One hundred Pounds by the Year; and that for such Sum so to be borrowed by such Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners respectively as aforesaid, there shall be paid Half-yearly, by the Treasurer for the Time being, by and with the Order and Direction of Three or more of such Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners respectively, on such Days and Times after the respective Dates of such Bills, as shall be mentioned and appointed in the said Bills, to the Holders thereof, out of the Produce of the Tolls of any such Road respectively, such Interest as shall be so agreed upon, in full to the said Days so mentioned and appointed for the Payment of such Interest, without any Fee or Charge whatsoever, and free from all Deductions, Defalcations, and Abatements, until the Principal Sums therein mentioned be respectively paid at one Payment; and that all such Bills as shall be so issued and signed by the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of any such Road respectively, shall be numbered in Arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number One, until the Whole thereof shall be numbered; provided, that no such Bill shall be issued for less than Fifty Pounds, nor for more than One hundred Pounds.

XXXIV. And, in order to facilitate the borrowing of such Sum or Sums of Money, by increasing the Means of discharging the Principal, and insuring the punctual Payment of the Interest; be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, of any such Turnpike Roads, to raise and increase all or any of the Tolls payable on such Roads respectively, in such Proportion as they shall think fit, not exceeding an Increase of One-half of the present Amount on any one Article; and that all Powers, Authorities, Penalties, and Regulations for collecting and enforcing the Payment of the present Tolls, shall extend equally to all such increased Tolls, any Thing in any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall be satisfied that the Tolls to arise upon any Turnpike Road of which a Survey shall have been made pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, are likely to produce or allow a clear annual Income, over and above all Charges for prior Incumbrances, considerably more than equal to the regular Discharge of all Interest for such Sums as may be necessary to be borrowed by the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of such Turnpike Roads, for the Purposes of this Act, and to the Payment of a further Sum, after the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Sum to be borrowed, to be applied as a Sinking Fund for the Redemption thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or any Three or more of them, by the Direction of such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, at any Time after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and six, to raise by Loan, on Debentures carrying an Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, such Sum or Sums as shall be certified by the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of any such Turnpike Road, to be necessary to be borrowed by them for executing the Purposes of this Act, and as shall be specified in such Directions of such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and that the same, when raised, shall be remitted and paid to such Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, or shall be paid to their Order, in such Manner and under such Restrictions for ensuring its due Application to the Purposes of this Act, as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall direct.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Tolls which shall, on the Day such Money shall be borrowed, or at any subsequent Time, be vested in the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, of any such Turnpike Road, shall be subject to the Payment at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, of the Interest payable on such Debentures, and to the further Sum of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Principal Sum borrowed; which said Sum of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum shall, by the Commissioners for reducing the National Debt of Ireland, be duly and regularly applied, together with the Interest of all Principal Sums which shall be redeemed therewith, to the Redemption of the Sums so borrowed; and when the Whole of the Sums so borrowed shall be redeemed thereby, and all Interest thereon paid and satisfied, the said Tolls shall be discharged from all Demands on account thereof.

No Fiat for any but Poll Roads to be issued, and allowed.

Trustees of Turnpikes empowered to borrow Money necessary for Purposes of this Act, on Credit of their Tolls.

Trustees of Turnpikes may increase Tolls for Payment of Money under this Act.

If the Lord Lieutenant shall be satisfied of the Sufficiency of the Income of any Turnpike Road to pay Interest and a Sinking Fund, the Treasury of Ireland may raise Money on Debentures, and pay same to Trustees of such Road.

The Tolls shall be liable to the Payment at the Exchequer of the Interest on such Debentures, and a per Centum per Annum till the Principal is redeemed.

On failure of Payment of Interest, &c. the Lord Chancellor may appoint a Receiver, or sequefter the Tolls.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Interest shall at any Time be behind or unpaid by the Trustees or proper Officer of any Turnpike Road, for Money borrowed under the Authority and for the Purposes of this Act, for the Space of Seven Days after any of the Days appointed for the Payment of such Interest, or if the Trustees or other proper Officer of any Turnpike Road, shall omit or neglect to pay at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, a Sum equal to the full Amount of all Interest which may become due on any Debentures for Money raised, and which shall have been fo remitted or paid to the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of such Road, or their Order, Twenty-one Days at the least before such Interest shall be payable at the Treasury, together with the further Sum after the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum as aforesaid, the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland, may, upon Petition and Affidavit of the Party claiming a Right to such Interest, or upon the Motion of His Majesty's Attorney General of Ireland on Behalf of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, appoint a Receiver to receive fo much of the Tolls of such Road as may be necessary to pay such Interest respectively, and such further Sum after the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum; together with the Receiver's Fees, and all reasonable Costs attending such Application; or may make such Order for sequeftering the Tolls for the Payment thereof, as to such Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners, may appear just and fitting in that Behalf.

Parts of Turnpike Roads discontinued may be sold by Trustees unless presented within Eight Months as a publick Road by Grand Juries, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, shall alter the same in pursuance of this Act, they shall cause a Map of such Parts of the existing Road as shall in consequence thereof be discontinued by them, to be deposited with the Treasurer of the County in which such Parts shall be situated; and if the Grand Jury of such County shall not within Eight Months after such Map shall be so deposited, present such Parts to be left open as a publick Road, and present to be raised off the Barony or Half Barony, or Baronies or Half Baronies, in which such Road shall be situated, (and which every Grand Jury is hereby empowered to do), such Sum or Sums of Money as the Materials of the said Road, and of all Bridges and Arches thereon, shall amount to, on a Valuation to be made thereof upon Oath of Three Persons, One to be named by the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of such Road, One other by such Grand Jury, and the Third to be chosen by the other Two; every Part of such Road which shall not be so presented to be kept open, shall be and is hereby declared to be vested in the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of such Road, and shall and may be let or sold by them, or as many of them as are competent do any Act respecting such Road; and all Materials thereon, or in any Bridges, Arches, or Pipes, upon or across the same, may be taken down, and applied by them to the Use and Advantage of the Road under their Care; and all Money arising from the Sale or Setting of such discontinued Road, shall be applied in Aid of the Tolls under their Management.

Oaths under this Act may be administered by One Justice. Penalty of Perjury.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, within his Jurisdiction, to administer any Oath or Oaths prescribed or required by this Act; and that if any Person who shall take any such Oath shall wilfully and knowingly swear falsely therein, every such Person, being duly convicted thereof, shall suffer the Pains and Penalties to which Persons guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury are or shall be subject to by any Law in force in Ireland.

Postmasters General may pay Expenses of Surveyors, &c. out of Postage Duty.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Postmasters General in Ireland to pay all such Sums as may be necessary for satisfying the Surveyors and other Persons to be employed for the making the Surveys directed by this Act, and for the Attendance of the Surveyors on any Grand Juries, or on any Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road respectively, and for all Expenses incurred by them in the Execution of this Act, out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duty on the Postage of Letters in Ireland.

Powers of all former Acts respecting Roads applied to this Act.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That all Powers and Provisions contained in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to any Post Road, Presentment Road, or Turnpike Road, which shall be widened, altered, or improved under and by virtue of this Act, shall be applied where necessary in the Execution of this Act, as fully and effectually as if such Powers and Provisions were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, so far as such Powers and Provisions are applicable to and are not repealed or altered by this Act.

An Act for repealing so much of an Act made in the Thirty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, as exempts Slate, the Value whereof shall not exceed Twenty Shillings per Ton, brought Coastwise within Great Britain, from the Duty thereby granted.

[5th June 1805.]

WHEREAS Slate of the Production of Great Britain, brought Coastwise from any Port or Place within Great Britain to any other Port or Place therein, the Value of which, as it is on Shipboard at the Port or Place where the same shall be intended to be landed, shall not exceed Twenty Shillings per Ton, is not chargeable with Duty: And whereas it is expedient that the Exemption from Duty on such Slates should be discontinued: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Slate so brought as aforesaid, whether the same shall be under the Value of Twenty Shillings per Ton or not, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Duties, as well temporary as permanent, as by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, and by several other Acts passed subsequent thereto, are imposed on Slate the Production of Great Britain; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Slate brought Coastwise whether under the Value of 20s. per Ton or not shall be subject to the Duty now payable on Slate, under 43 G. 3. c. 68. &c.

An Act for making perpetual certain additional Duties of Excise on Wine imported into Great Britain, granted by Two Acts passed in the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Years of His present Majesty; and to allow a Drawback of the said Duties to Admirals, Captains, and other Commissioned Officers, for Wine consumed on board His Majesty's Ships of War. [5th June 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, until Twelve Months after the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, certain additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, certain additional Duties of Excise on Wine imported into Great Britain were granted unto His Majesty, until Twelve Months after the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace; and by another Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, until Twelve Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties of Excise on Wine imported into Great Britain, certain further additional Duties of Excise on Wine imported into Great Britain were granted unto His Majesty until Twelve Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace: And whereas it is expedient that the said Duties granted by the said recited Acts should be made perpetual: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said respective additional Duties of Excise on Wine by the said recited Acts granted, and the Drawbacks thereby respectively allowed, and all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures therein respectively contained and mentioned in relation to such Duties and Drawbacks respectively, shall be and the same are hereby made perpetual.

II. And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to allow the Drawback of the Duties of Customs and Excise upon Wines consumed by Admirals, Captains, and other Commissioned Officers on board Ships of War in actual Service, and to allow such Ships to be supplied with Tobacco Duty-free, a Drawback of the whole Amount of the Duties of Customs and Excise paid on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain is allowed on any Sort of Wine intended for the Use of Admirals, Captains, or other Commissioned Officers employed in His Majesty's Service, for their actual Consumption, on board such of His Majesty's Ships as they shall serve in, yearly and every Year, in the Proportions therein mentioned, and under the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, contained in the said recited Act; and it is thereby provided, that the said Drawback should not be allowed upon any Wines but such as should be delivered into the Charge of the Collectors and Comptrollers of His Majesty's Customs at certain Ports therein enumerated: And whereas by several subsequent Acts the Provisions of the said recited Act relating to the said Allowances of the Drawbacks on Wines were extended to other Ports in Great Britain: And whereas other and additional Duties of Customs and Excise have been granted on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain since the passing of the said recited Acts; and Doubts have arisen whether a Drawback of the whole Amount of the Duties of Customs and Excise, now payable on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain, can be allowed on Wines intended for the Use of Admirals, Captains, and other Commissioned Officers employed in His Majesty's Service; and it is expedient that a Drawback of the whole Amount of such Duties should be allowed: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, a Drawback of the whole Amount of the Duties of Customs and Excise now paid or hereafter to be paid on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain, shall be allowed on any Sort of Wine intended for the Use of Admirals, Captains, or other Commissioned Officers employed in His Majesty's Service for their actual Consumption on board such of His Majesty's Ships as they shall serve in, in like Manner, and under the like Provisions and Restrictions, as Drawbacks of any former Duties paid on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain are directed to be allowed by the said recited Act of the Thirty-third Year aforesaid, and the said several Acts subsequent thereto.

33 G. 3. c. 48.

Drawback of all Duties of Customs and Excise paid on Wine imported shall be allowed on Wine for the Stores of Officers on board His Majesty's Ships.

An Act to continue, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and amend an Act, made in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, for appointing Commissioners to enquire and examine into any Irregularities, Frauds, or Abuses which are or have been practised by Persons employed in the several Naval Departments therein mentioned. [5th June 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire and examine into any Irregularities, Frauds, or Abuses, which are or have been practised by Persons employed in the several Naval Departments therein mentioned, and in the Business of Prize Agency; and to report such Observations as shall occur to them for preventing such Irregularities, Frauds, and Abuses, and for the better conducting and managing the Business of the said Departments, and of Prize Agency in future, which was to continue in force for the Space of Two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient, that the said Act should be continued and amended; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be, and the same is hereby continued from the Expiration thereof until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Recited Act continued until the End of next Session.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in the said Act contained shall be construed to compel the said Commissioners to enquire into any Abuses, Frauds, or Irregularities that have existed, and no longer Commissioners not compellable to inquire into Abuses no longer existing.

Duties on Publick Offices or Employments, and on Annuities, Pensions, &c. [See s. 160, &c.]

‘ And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Duties should, from the Time herein-after limited, be assessed, raised, levied, and paid, under the Provisions of this Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted;’ and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon all Assessments of the said recited Duties to be made for any Year, commencing after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, the following Rules, Regulations, Penalties, Clauses, Matters, and Things, shall be observed, practised, and carried into Execution; and all the Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said recited Act for the raising, levying, and paying the said Duties, shall respectively cease and determine; save and except always as to the recovering, paying, and accounting for any Arrears of the said Duties, which, on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, shall have been assessed by virtue of the said recited Act, and of the several Acts herein-after mentioned, and which shall then remain unpaid or not accounted for; and the said Arrears shall be and continue to be recoverable, paid, and accounted for, by virtue of the said several Acts respectively, any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Regulations of former Act discontinued as to Assessments for any Year after 5th April 1805, except as to Arrears.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Duties, arising in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall be assessed, raised, levied, and collected under the Regulations of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the same; and the said recited Duties, arising in Scotland, shall be assessed, raised, levied, and collected under the Regulations of an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Acts so far as relate to Scotland; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in such Acts, (except where other Provisions are made in this Act), shall be severally and respectively duly observed, practised, and put in Execution throughout the respective Parts of Great Britain as aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and respectively applied to such Parts of Great Britain as aforesaid; and all and every the Regulations of such Acts, except as aforesaid, shall be applied, construed, deemed, and taken to refer to this Act, in like Manner as if the same had been enacted therein; and the said several Duties to be levied, shall be under the Direction and Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes for the Time being, appointed or to be appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors.

The Duties in England shall be assessed under the Regulations of 43 G. 3. c. 99. In Scotland under 43 G. 3. c. 150.

Powers of said Acts shall be applied in the respective Parts of Great Britain, except as otherwise provided for by this Act.

III. ‘ And whereas Difficulties have arisen in charging the said recited Duties on the fractional Parts of the Profits or Gains charged by the said recited Act;’ be it further enacted, That upon every fractional Part of Twenty Shillings, of the Annual Profits or Gains aforesaid, the like Proportion of Duty, at the Rate before recited, shall be charged; provided no Rate of Duty shall be charged of a lower Denomination than One Penny.

No Duties on fractional Parts lower than 1d.

IV. ‘ And whereas it is expedient to appoint Commissioners for the General Purposes of this Act, from and amongst the Persons appointed Commissioners for the Execution of an Act, passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty, by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to act in the Execution of this Act, so far as relates to the Powers hereby vested in such Commissioners;’ be it further enacted, That the several Persons appointed, or to be appointed to be Commissioners for putting in Execution the said Land Tax Act, in the respective Parts of Great Britain therein mentioned, being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the Execution of the said Act, shall meet at such Place within each County, Shire, or Stewartry, and within each Riding of York and Division of Lincoln, and within each City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, and Place, for which they are respectively appointed Commissioners of the said Land Tax Act, as shall have been the usual and common Place of holding the General Meetings of Commissioners under the said

Commissioners for the Purposes of the Act shall be annually chosen from the Commissioners of Land Tax, (38 G. 3. c. 5.) at General Meetings convened by Sheriffs. [See 45 G. 3. c. 48.]

Land

Land Tax Act; of if such General Meeting shall not have been usually held in any such County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, then at the usual Place where the Quarter Sessions shall be usually held therein, in the Week after the Close of Easter, or next after Easter in every Year; which Meetings shall be convened by the respective Sheriffs of Counties in England and Wales, and by the respective Sheriffs Depute or Substitute of Counties or Shires in Scotland, and by the respective Chief Magistrates of all Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places in Great Britain, and shall be held between the First Day of March and the Fifth Day of April yearly, in every Year, after Notice given to such Officers by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and at each such General Meeting the said Commissioners of Land Tax, or the major Part of them then present, shall choose and set down in Writing the Names of such of the Commissioners appointed as aforesaid, who shall respectively be qualified as herein-after is required, and who shall be fit and proper to act in the several Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or Wards, within the said Counties, Ridings, or Shires, Stewartries, or Divisions, or in the several Parishes or Wards of the said Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places within the same, observing always in forming such Districts the same Limits which shall have been settled for the Districts under the said Land Tax Act; and the Names of such Persons who shall be so chosen, shall be set down in the Order in which the major Part of the Commissioners then present shall judge fit they should respectively be appointed Commissioners in their respective Districts; and any Seven, or any less Number than Seven not being in any Case less than Three, of the Persons so set down, and in the Order in which they shall be so set down, in such List, shall be Commissioners for the general Purposes of this Act, and of the Duties granted by the said recited Act, and they are hereby required to take upon themselves the Execution of this Act as aforesaid, and of the said Duties, as such Commissioners for general Purposes; and any Seven, or any less Number than Seven not being in any Case less than Three, of the Persons so set down next in Order to the List of Names before mentioned, shall be Commissioners to supply Vacancies as the same may arise, in the Manner herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that if the Commissioners appointed as herein is first mentioned, shall not find amongst themselves, and set down the Names of Seven Persons to act, and Seven others to supply Vacancies for each District, within such County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, City, Liberty, or Place, it shall be lawful for them to appoint any Person or Persons residing within such District, who shall respectively be qualified as herein-after is required, and who in their Judgment shall be fit and proper Persons to be Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid, until the Number of Seven in each such List shall be completed, although such Persons shall not have been appointed to act as Commissioners in the Execution of the said Land Tax Act: Provided also, that if at such Meeting the Commissioners shall not find and set down Fourteen Persons of the Descriptions before mentioned to act as Commissioners, and to supply Vacancies in each such District, it shall be lawful for them to select such Number of Persons as shall be requisite, from the Persons acting in or for any adjoining or neighbouring District of the same County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place, in order that there shall be no Failure in the Execution of this Act as aforesaid; and the Names of such respective Persons who shall have been so chosen as aforesaid, shall be transmitted to the Tax Office in the Order in which they shall have been set down in such Lists: Provided always, that where Seven Persons qualified as herein after is required, shall be chosen to act as Commissioners for any District as aforesaid, no other Person shall interfere as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, so long as such Seven Persons shall continue to act, except in the Districts herein-after mentioned: Provided also, that where any Commissioner or Commissioners appointed to execute the said Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, for granting the said recited Duties, and acting as such at and immediately before the passing of this Act, shall signify to such Meeting, either personally or by Writing, his or their Consent to continue to act as such Commissioner or Commissioners, then and in such Case the said Commissioners of Land Tax present at such Meeting, shall be confined at such Meeting to the Appointment of such and so many Persons to be Commissioners for the Purposes of this and the said recited Act, or to supply Vacancies, as shall be necessary to complete the Number required by this Act, above the Number so consenting to act as aforesaid: Provided also, that such General Meetings as aforesaid, shall and may for the present Year be holden at any Time before the Tenth Day of October next after the passing of this Act.

First Meeting before 10th October.

The District of Bedlingtonshire deemed Part of Morpeh Ward in Northumberland.

In Default of holding a General Meeting the Commissioners may continue to act without further Appointment.

How Vacancies shall be supplied.

‘ V. And whereas the District of Bedlingtonshire, situate in the County of Northumberland, near to Morpeth Ward in the said County, is Part of the County Palatine of Durham, and hath hitherto been charged together with Chester Ward, in the said County, to the great Inconvenience of the Inhabitants thereof; be it further enacted, That upon all Assessments to be made under this Act, the said District of Bedlingtonshire shall be charged under this Act as Part of Morpeth Ward, in the said County of Northumberland; provided that any Person or Persons residing in the said District of Bedlingtonshire, being duly qualified according to this Act, may act as a Commissioner or Commissioners, together with the Commissioners chosen and acting for Morpeth Ward aforesaid, in all Matters and Things relating to Bedlingtonshire.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if in any County, Riding, or Division, or any City, Town, or Place, any Default shall happen in holding such General Meeting for any Year, then and in every such Case the Commissioners already appointed under the said recited Act or this Act, and acting as such immediately before and at the Time when such Meeting ought to be held, shall and may continue to act as such Commissioners without any new Appointment, and it shall be lawful for them to supply any Vacancies then existing in such Manner as they are hereby authorized to fill up Vacancies.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when any One or more of the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act shall die, or decline to act, or having begun to act, shall decline to act any further therein, then and in every such Case, the remaining Commissioners shall choose One or more of the Person or Persons on the List to supply Vacancies, who shall be appointed the Commissioner or Commissioners in the Place of the Commissioner or Commissioners for refusing or declining to act or dying, provided the Person so to be appointed shall have been chosen to supply such Vacancy in the same Manner as the Person so refusing or declining to act or dying; and the several Commissioners of Land Tax shall, at such their General Meetings, as often as Occasion shall require, select and add new Names to the Persons before chosen to supply Vacancies who shall respectively be a Commissioner or Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, as and when any such Vacancy shall happen: Provided always, that if the List for supplying Vacancies, to be made and renewed as aforesaid, shall at any Time be defective, so that the due Number of Commissioners cannot be supplied therefrom, the same shall be filled up and renewed from Time to Time by the acting Commissioners for the District where such Failure shall have happened, until such General Meeting shall be held as aforesaid.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That within and for each of the Cities and Towns herein-after mentioned, videlicet, London, Bristol, Exeter, Hull, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Norwich, Birmingham, Liverpool, Leeds, Manchester, King's Lynn, and Great Yarmouth, it shall be lawful for the Persons herein-after mentioned to choose Eight Persons to be Commissioners, and Eight Persons to supply their Vacancies, to act together with the Persons chosen or appointed, or to be chosen as before directed, Eight of whom shall be chosen to act as Commissioners, and Eight others to supply Vacancies as herein directed, in each such City and Town; and that in and for the City of London Two Commissioners, and Two to supply their Vacancies, shall be named by the Mayor and Aldermen of London, out of Eight Persons, Four of whom shall be Aldermen, to be returned to them by the Common Council; Two other Commissioners, and Two to supply their Vacancies, by the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England; One other Commissioner, and One other to supply his Vacancy, by each of the Companies herein-after mentioned, videlicet, the Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the Governor and Directors of the South Sea Company, the Governor and Directors of the Royal Exchange Insurance Company, and the Governor and Directors of the London Assurance Company; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrates and Justices of the Peace acting in and for the City of Norwich, to choose Eight Persons to be Commissioners, and Eight Persons to supply their Vacancies, not more than Four of the said Eight Commissioners, and not more than Four of the said Eight Persons to supply their Vacancies, to be chosen from out of the said Magistrates and Justices, and the remaining Four Commissioners, and Four Persons to supply their Vacancies, to be chosen from the Inhabitants of the said City; and in and for each of the other Cities and Towns before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Magistrates and Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said City or Town, or the County, Riding, Division, Shire, or Stewartry where the said City or Town is situate, to choose Eight Persons to be Commissioners, and Eight Persons to supply their Vacancies, as herein is mentioned; and the Persons so chosen by the Commissioners appointed as aforesaid, together with the other Persons respectively chosen as herein is particularly directed, shall be Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, and to supply their Vacancies as the same may arise, within and for the several Districts in which such Cities and Towns respectively shall be situate, or which shall be formed by such Cities and Towns respectively, and for such other Places which have usually been affected in the same District with such Cities and Towns respectively towards the Aid by a Land Tax; and the Names of all Persons so chosen as last aforesaid, shall be returned to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That for the City of London One Person shall and may be chosen to act as a Commissioner therein, and One other to supply his Vacancy, by each of the Companies herein-after mentioned; videlicet, the Directors for conducting and managing the Affairs and Business of the West India Dock Company and London Dock Company respectively for the Time being; and the Person so chosen as last aforesaid, shall be added to the other Commissioners chosen for the said City, and shall, together with such other Commissioners, be Commissioners for the Purposes of the said recited Act and this Act, and to supply their Vacancies as the same may arise, within and for the said City, and their Names shall be returned in like Manner: Provided always, that the Persons already named by the respective Corporations, Companies, and Persons aforesaid, in pursuance of the said recited Act, and acting as Commissioners at the Time of passing of this Act, shall continue to be Commissioners for the Purposes of the said recited Act and this Act, so long as such Persons are willing to act therein, without any new Appointment.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case there shall not be a sufficient Number of Commissioners chosen or appointed for the Purposes of the said recited Act and this Act, or to supply Vacancies, capable of acting according to the Qualification required by this Act, for any City, Borough, Town, or Place, then and in every such Case any Person qualified to act for the County at large, or Riding, Shire, or Stewartry, in which or adjoining which such City, Borough, Town, or Place, shall be situate, may be chosen to act as a Commissioner for such City, Borough, Town, or Place.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person residing in any County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place, and qualified as herein-after mentioned, who shall be willing to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said Acts, in any District where a Commissioner or Commissioners shall be wanting, may be chosen in Manner aforesaid to be such Commissioner, although such Person shall not have been appointed to act in the Execution of the said Land Tax Act; any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if in any District there shall be a Neglect in appointing Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Act and this Act, as hereby is directed, or the Commissioners so appointed shall neglect or refuse to act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners appointed to execute the said Land Tax Act, being respectively qualified as directed by this Act, and they and every of them, not in any Case exceeding the Number of Seven, on Notice of such Neglect and Want of Appointment by any Inspector or Surveyor of the said Duties duly authorized to give such Notice by Writing under the Hands of Three or more of the Commissioners Within certain Places other Commissioners may be chosen in Addition, to act with the Commissioners before chosen. In London.

Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall, and they are hereby strictly enjoined and required, to take upon themselves the Execution of this Act, and to do and execute all Matters and Things, which Commissioners chosen in pursuance of this Act are hereby required and empowered to do; and if in any District there shall be a Want of such last mentioned Commissioners, the Commissioners of any adjoining District in the same County, Riding, or Division, Shire or Stewartry, being respectively qualified, as directed by this Act, shall, on like Notice as aforesaid, execute this Act as such Commissioners, by themselves, or in Concurrence with any Person or Persons willing to act as Commissioners of the District where this Act shall require to be executed: Provided always, that where Commissioners shall not be appointed in each District, and returned to the Tax Office as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to cause such Notices as aforesaid to be given to Two or more of the Persons on whom the Right of executing this Act shall devolve, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act before mentioned.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners, to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act in Manner aforesaid, shall and may appoint a Clerk, and Assistant if necessary, for the Duties to be assigned by them in each District, who shall execute their Office according to the Regulations of this Act, and the Acts herein mentioned, respectively.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Person to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, for any County at large within England (the County of Monmouth and the Dominion of Wales excepted), or in or for any of the Ridings of the County of York, or the County or Divisions of Lincoln, or in or for the Cities of London or Westminster, unless such Person be seised or possessed of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Great Britain, of the Value of Two hundred Pounds per Annum or more, of his own Estate, being Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold for a Term whereof not less than Seven Years are unexpired, over and above all Ground Rents, Incumbrances, and Reservations payable out of the same respectively; or unless such Person shall be possessed of Personal Estate of the Value of Five thousand Pounds; or of Personal Estate or an Interest therein producing an annual Income of Two hundred Pounds; or of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and Personal Estate or an Interest therein being together of the Annual Value of Two hundred Pounds, estimating in every such Case One hundred Pounds Personal Estate as equivalent to Four Pounds per Annum, and an Interest from Personal Estate of Four Pounds per Annum, as equivalent to One hundred Pounds Personal Estate; or unless such Person be the eldest Son of some Person, who shall be seised or possessed of a like Estate of Thrice the Value or more, as is above required as the Qualification of a Commissioner in Right of his own Estate for such County at large, Riding, or Division.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as such Commissioner as last aforesaid, for the County of Monmouth, or for any County in Wales, or for any other City, Town, or Place, being a County of itself, or for the Liberty or Franchise of Ely, or for any Cinque Ports, unless such Person be seised or possessed of an Estate of the like Nature, and of Three Fifths of the Value as is herein required, for the Estate of a Commissioner acting for any County at large in England as aforesaid; nor for any other City, Borough, Cinque Port, Liberty, Town, or Place, not being a County of itself, nor for any of the Inns of Court, and Inns of Chancery, or Liberty of the Rolls, unless such Person be seised or possessed of an Estate of the like Nature, and of One Half of the Value as herein required for the Estate of a Commissioner, acting for any County at large in England; or unless such Person be the eldest Son of some Person, who shall be seised or possessed of some Estate of Thrice the Value or more, as is above required as the Qualification of a Commissioner in Right of his own Estate for the same County, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Liberty, Inn of Court, or Chancery, Town, or Place.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person to be appointed as aforesaid shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in Execution of this Act, for any Shire or Stewartry in Scotland, who is not enfeoffed in Superiority or Property, or possessed as Proprietor or Life Renter of Lands in Scotland, to the Extent of One hundred and fifty Pounds Scots per Annum, valued Rent; or unless such Person shall be possessed of Personal Estate of the Value of Three thousand Pounds; or of Personal Estate or an Interest therein producing an annual Income of One hundred and twenty Pounds Sterling; or be enfeoffed or possessed as aforesaid of Lands and Personal Estate or an Interest therein being together of the annual Value of One hundred and twenty Pounds Sterling; estimating in every such Case One hundred Pounds Personal Estate as equivalent to Four Pounds per Annum, and an Interest from Personal Estate of Four Pounds per Annum as equivalent to One hundred Pounds Personal Estate; or unless he shall be the eldest Son of some Person who shall be enfeoffed or possessed of a like Estate, of Twice the Value or more, as is required as the Qualification of a Commissioner in Right of his own Estate for such Shire or Stewartry.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as such Commissioner as last aforesaid, for any City or Borough in Scotland, unless such Person be enfeoffed or possessed of an Estate of the like Nature, and of Three Fifths of the Value herein required for the Estate of a Commissioner acting for any Shire or Stewartry in Scotland; or unless such Person be the eldest Son of some Person enfeoffed or possessed of some Estate of Thrice the Value or more, as is above required, as the Qualification of a Commissioner in Right of his own Estate for the same City or Borough.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any Qualification of a Commissioner in the District of the Palaces of Whitehall and Saint James Westminster, for any Officer who shall have heretofore acted, or may hereafter act as a Commissioner for putting in Execution the said Land Tax Act in the said Districts, other than the Possession of their respective Offices, nor in any Shire or Stewartry in Scotland for any Provost, Bailiff, Dean of Guild, Treasurer, Master of the Merchants Company, or Deacon Convener of the Trades for the Time being of any Royal Burgh in Scotland, nor any Bailiff for the Time being of any Borough of Regality or Barony in Scotland, nor the Factors for the Time being being on the several forfeited Estates annexed to the Crown by an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, who shall be respectively appointed Commissioners for executing the said Land Tax Acts in any Shire or Stewartry in Scotland.

25 G. 2. c. 41.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no more than One Moiety of any Estate, consisting of Lands or Tenements, as the Qualification of a Commissioner, shall be required to be situate in the County, Riding, Division, Shire, or Stewartry, for which such Person shall be a Commissioner: Provided also, that the Proof of such Qualification shall lie on the Person acting in the Execution of this Act, in such Manner as is directed in any Act herein mentioned with respect to Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Land Tax Act.

A Moiety of the Qualification in Lands may be in the County. Proof of Qualification.

XX. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be deemed, by the Commissioners for the general Purposes of this Act to be expedient, that certain of the Powers herein contained should be executed by Commissioners other than the Persons to be chosen or appointed as aforesaid, such additional Commissioners shall be chosen by the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act acting in the same District; for which Purpose the said Commissioners, being duly qualified as required by this Act, shall, with the Consent of the major Part of them assembled at any Meeting to be held for that Purpose, set down in Writing Lists of the Names of such Persons residing within their respective Districts, as shall, in the Opinion of such Commissioners, be fit and proper Persons to act as such additional Commissioners, which Lists shall contain the Names of so many of those Persons as the said Commissioners shall, in their Discretion, after taking into Consideration the Size of each District, and the Number of Persons to be assessed therein, think requisite for the due Execution of this Act; which Lists being respectively signed by any Two or more of such Commissioners, shall be a sufficient Authority for such additional Commissioners, being respectively qualified as herein-after is mentioned, and they are hereby authorized, to take upon themselves the Execution of this Act, according to the Provisions thereof: Provided always, that the Persons appointed to supply Vacancies in any District, may be chosen and act as additional Commissioners, until their Services shall be required as Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Acts.

Method of choosing additional Commissioners. (See as to their Qualification, § 21.)

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as such additional Commissioner who shall not be seized or enfeoffed, or possessed of an Estate of the like Nature, and of Half the Value as is herein required for the Estate of a Commissioner for the Purposes of this Act, in the same District, and who respectively are hereby authorized to name and appoint such additional Commissioners: Provided also, that where no additional Commissioners shall be named and appointed in any District, then and in such Case the Commissioners, appointed for the Purposes of this Act, shall execute the same in such District, in all Matters and Things authorized to be done by additional Commissioners by this Act.

Qualification of additional Commissioners.

In Default of a naming addition of Commissioners, District may act.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if in any City, Liberty, Franchise, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, for which separate Commissioners have been appointed to act in Execution of the said Land Tax Act, there shall not be found a sufficient Number of Persons qualified as directed by this Act to act as Commissioners for general Purposes, or as additional Commissioners, then and in such Case it shall be lawful to appoint as such Commissioners, or additional Commissioners, any Persons residing in such City, Liberty, Franchise, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, who shall be liable to be assessed under this Act for annual Profits, however arising, to the Amount of Two hundred Pounds, or upwards.

Commissioners of the For the Service of Commissioners in Cities, &c. not having Persons qualified.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Year when a new Appointment of a Commissioner or Commissioners shall take place, he and they shall execute the said Act and this Act as well with respect to Arrears of Duties assessed in any former Year under the said Act or this Act, as to the Assessments to be made in such Year in which they shall be appointed; and shall have the like Powers to levy and collect such Arrears as they have to assess, levy, and collect the Duties assessed by them; for all which Acts such Appointment shall be a sufficient Authority, subject to the Regulations of this Act.

Commissioners empowered to levy Arrears as well as Duties.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Acts, Matters, and Things which may be done by any Commissioners herein named, or authorized to be appointed as aforesaid, shall and may be done by any Two or more of them, or by the major Part of such Commissioners where more than Two shall be present; and no Fee, Reward, Salary, Pay, or Compensation, shall be demanded, allowed, paid, or taken by any such Commissioner on any Pretence whatever.

Two Commissioners may act. None to have Fee or Reward.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid shall have named such additional Commissioners, they shall cause Notice thereof in Writing, signed by Two or more of them, to be delivered by the Assessors of the respective Parishes or Places where such additional Commissioners reside, with the Day of the First Meeting of the said additional Commissioners, and the Place of such Meeting, to be appointed by such Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, and which shall not be later than Ten Days after the Date of such Notice; and the said respective Assessors shall, without Delay, cause the respective Persons so named to be summoned by Notice in Writing, either given personally, or left at their respective Places of Abode, to assemble at the Time and Place mentioned in such Notice, for the Purpose of qualifying themselves to act in the Execution of the Powers vested in them by this Act; and the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, or any Two or more of them, shall administer the Oath or Affirmation to such additional Commissioners required by this Act to be taken by them, and shall then and there appoint a Day for the said additional Commissioners to bring in their Certificates of Assessment in the Manner herein directed; and the Clerk to the Commissioners in each District shall also be appointed Clerk to the additional Commissioners appointed for the same District, and shall attend the said additional Commissioners at their Meetings as their Clerk.

Additional Commissioners shall have Notice to take upon themselves the Execution of this Act.

and shall be sworn. [See § 226. Stat. F.] Commissioners Clerk shall attend additional Commissioners.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the general Purposes of this Act, whenever in their Judgement the same shall be requisite, to divide such additional Additional Commissioners may be divided into Committees.

Commissioners into distinct Committees, and to allot to each Committee distinct Parishes, Wards, or Places, in which such Committee shall separately act in the Execution of this Act: provided that the Meetings of such Committees shall be appointed at such Times as that the Clerk to such Commissioners may attend every Meeting.

Number of additional Commissioners in each Committee or District shall not exceed Seven nor be less than Two.

XXVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for more than Seven Persons to act together as additional Commissioners for the same District, not being formed into several Divisions as aforesaid, nor any greater Number to act together in the same Committee; and that where more than Seven Persons shall attend as such additional Commissioners at any Meeting, either for the Whole of any District or for any Division thereof, the Seven Persons first in their Order on the List signed by the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act then present shall act, and the rest shall withdraw from such Meeting: Provided also, that not less than Two additional Commissioners shall be competent to form any Meeting either for any District or Division thereof, and that any Two of them, or the major Part of them then present, shall be competent to do any Act authorized by this Act.

A greater Number of Commissioners for general Purposes may be chosen instead of additional Commissioners.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, whether they shall have been chosen as aforesaid, or shall act by virtue of their Appointment of Commissioners for executing the said Land Tax Act, to be expedient that a greater Number than Seven Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, possessing the Qualification required for such Commissioners, should be appointed for any District, instead of appointing Commissioners possessing only the Qualification required for additional Commissioners as before mentioned, it shall be lawful for them to appoint such greater Number, not in any Case exceeding the Number of Seven, observing with regard to such Appointments the same Rules as in the first Appointment of Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, but nevertheless without adding thereto any Persons to supply their Vacancies; and in every Case of appointing such increased Number of Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, at their first Meeting after such Appointment, and they are hereby required to choose indifferently by Lot such Number of their own Body, not less than Three or more than Seven, to execute the Office vested in additional Commissioners by this Act; and the Persons so chosen shall be additional Commissioners for executing this Act, and the Powers hereby vested in additional Commissioners, and they are hereby required to execute this Act accordingly; and the remaining Commissioners not so chosen by Lot shall execute the Powers vested in the Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid: Provided that where no such additional Commissioners shall have been appointed specially to execute the Powers vested in additional Commissioners, the Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act, whether chosen as aforesaid or not, shall divide themselves in such Manner that Two Commissioners at the least shall be appointed to execute the Powers vested in additional Commissioners by this Act; and if in such Case there shall not be Two remaining Persons at least qualified to act as Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid in such District, then and in such Case the Persons qualified to act in the Execution of this Act as Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid in any adjoining District of the same County, Riding, Division, Shire, or Stewartry, or such Number of them as shall be requisite, shall execute this Act and the Powers hereby vested in Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, in and for such first mentioned District.

Part of them shall execute the Office of additional Commissioners; or Commissioners shall divide themselves, so that Two may act as additional Commissioners; and their Number may be supplied from any adjoining District.

Commissioners for general Purposes shall execute Matters with respect to the Duties under all the Schedules, except such as are directed to be done by Special or other Commissioners.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, shall execute this Act in all Matters and Things relating to the Duties in Schedules marked (A.) and (B.) of the said Act, except such Allowances in respect thereof as are directed to be made in Number Five of Schedule (A.) by other Commissioners for special Purposes as herein-after mentioned; and also all Matters and Things relating to the Duties in Schedule (C.) of the said Act, except such of the Duties as are directed to be assessed, and also except the granting such Exemptions as are directed to be granted, by such Commissioners for special Purposes, or by other Commissioners herein-after directed to act in respect of any particular Description of Duties to be assessed under Schedule (C.) and also all Matters and Things relating to the Duties in Schedule (D.) of the said Act, except such Matters and Things as are directed to be done by the additional Commissioners or Persons acting as such; and the said Commissioners for general Purposes shall also execute this Act in all Matters and Things relating to the Duties in Schedule (E.) not executed by the Commissioners authorized to be appointed for those Duties: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Person chosen a Commissioner for general Purposes from acting as such by reason of his acting or having acted as an additional Commissioner, except only as to such particular Assessments wherein he shall have acted as such additional Commissioner.

Commissioners of Taxes, &c. shall act for special Purposes. Treasury may appoint Assistant Commissioners.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes for the Time being, together with such other Persons to be appointed as herein-after mentioned, shall be Commissioners for the special Purposes of this Act: And it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the Royal Sign Manual, or the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, from Time to Time, to appoint such and so many other Persons not exceeding Three, to be Assistant Commissioners for such special Purposes, as he or they respectively shall think expedient; which said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes and Assistant Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, shall have full Authority to execute the several Powers given by this Act to Commissioners for special Purposes, either in relation to the Allowances specified in Number Five, Schedule (A.) of this Act, or in relation to the special Exemptions granted from the Duties mentioned in Schedule (C.) of this Act, or to the assessing such Persons who shall neglect to make a Return of the Profits on which the said last mentioned Duties arise, or who shall pay the said Duties into the Bank of England; and also in relation to the examining, auditing, checking, and clearing the Books and Accounts of Dividends delivered to the Inspector under the Authority of this Act, and the Certificates of Assessment and Exemptions transmitted by the respective Commissioners for general Purposes from their respective

Their Powers.

Recited Duties in Schedule (A.) and Rules, deemed Part of this Act.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties contained in the Schedule marked (A.) as herein recited, shall be assessed and charged under the following Rules; which Rules shall be deemed and construed to be a Part of this Act, and to refer to the said Duty, as if the same had been inserted herein under a special Enactment:

SCHEDULE (A.)

No. I. General Rule for charging and assessing the Duties under Schedule (A.) of the said recited Act:

Annual Value shall be ascertained by this Rule, except as after that.

The Annual Value of Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, charged under Schedule (A.) of the said recited Act, shall be understood to be the Rent by the Year at which the same are let at Rack Rent, if the Amount of such Rent shall have been fixed within the Period of Seven Years preceding the Fifth Day of April next before the Time of making the Assesment; but if the same are not so let at Rack Rent, then at the Rack Rent at which the same are worth to be let by the Year; and the Duties thereon shall be charged annually on and paid by the Occupier or Occupiers for the Time being of such Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages; which Rule shall be construed to extend to all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or Heritages, of whatever Nature, and for whatever Purpose occupied, and of whatever Value, except the Properties mentioned in Number II. of this Schedule.

No. II. Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, chargeable under Schedule (A.) which are not to be charged according to the preceding Rule.

Certain Properties charged on the Profits.

The Annual Value of all the Properties herein-after described, shall be understood to be the full Amount for One Year, or the Average Amount for One Year of the Profits received therefrom, within the respective Times herein limited.

Tythes in Kind. Ecclesiastical Dues.

First.—Of all Tythes if taken in Kind, on an Average of Three preceding Years.

Second.—Of all Dues and Money Payments in lieu of any Tythes (not being Tythes arising from Lands) and on all Tithes in Scotland, on the like Average.

The said Duty in each Case to be charged on the Rector or Vicar, or other Person entitled to such Tythes or Payments.

- Third.—Of all Tythes arising from Lands, if compounded for, and of all Rents and other Money Payments in lieu of Tythes arising from Lands, on the Amount of such Composition, Rent, or Payment, for One Year preceding, to be charged on the Occupiers of such Lands respectively. Tythes compounded.
- Fourth.—Of Quarries of Stone, Slate, Limestone, or Chalk, on the Amount of Profits in the preceding Year. Quarries.
- Fifth.—Of Mines of Coal, Tin, Lead, Copper, Muncie, Iron, and other Mines, on an Average of Five Years, subject to the Provisions contained in this Act. Mines.
- Sixth.—Of Iron Works, Salt Springs or Works, Alum Mines or Works, Waterworks, Streams of Water, Canals, Inland Navigations, Docks, and Fishings, Rights of Markets and Fairs, Tolls, Ways, Bridges, and Ferries, on the Profits of the Year preceding. Iron Works, &c.
- The Duty in each of the Three foregoing Rules to be charged on the Person or Persons, Corporations or Companies, carrying on the Concern, and exclusively of Lands and Buildings of every Description used or occupied in or concerning the same.
- Seventh.—Of Manors and other Royalties, including all Dues and other Services, or other casual Profits (not being Rents or other Annual Payments reserved or charged) on an Average of Seven preceding Years, to be charged on the Lord or Lady of such Manor or Royalty, or Person renting the same. Manors.
- Eighth.—Of Fines received in Consideration of a Demise or Demises of Lands or Tenements (not being Parcel of a Manor or Royalty demisable by the Custom thereof) on the Amount so received within the Year preceding, by or on Account of the Party or Parties; provided that in case the said Party or Parties shall prove, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for general Purposes in the District, that such Fines, or any Part thereof, have been applied as productive Capital, on which a Profit has arisen or will arise, otherwise chargeable, under this and the said recited Act, for the Year in which the Assesment shall be made, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to discharge the Amount so applied from the Profits liable to Assesment under this Rule. Fines.
- Ninth.—Of all other Profits arising from Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, not in the actual Possession and Occupation of the Party to be charged, or not before enumerated, on a fair and just Average of such Number of Years as the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act shall, on the Statement of the Party to be charged, judge proper, (except such Profits as may be liable to Deduction in pursuance of the Ninth or Tenth Rules in Number III. herein-after mentioned), to be charged on the Receivers of such Profits. Other Profits from Lands.

No. III. Rules and Regulations respecting the said Duties.

- First.—All Properties chargeable to the Duties in Schedule (A.) shall be charged in the Parish or Place where the same are situate, and not elsewhere. To be charged in the Parish.
- Provided that the Profits arising from Canals, Inland Navigations, or Streams of Water, or from any Roads or Ways of a publick Nature, and belonging to or vested in any Company of Proprietors or Trustees, whether Corporate or not Corporate, may be stated in one Account, and charged in the City, Town, or Place, at or nearest to the Place where the general Accounts shall have been usually made up; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Proprietors, or Trustees, having paid the Duties so chargeable, to deduct a just Proportion thereof from the Interest payable to the Creditors of the said Canals, Navigations, or Roads, or to pay such Interest in full without making any such Deduction, and they shall not be liable thereupon to the Penalty herein-after contained. Except Canals and Roads.
- Provided also, that the Profits arising from any Manor or Royalty as aforesaid, which shall extend into different Parishes, may be assessed in one Account in the Parish where the Court for such Manor or Royalty shall have been usually held: Provided also, that the Profits arising from all Fines received by the same Person, Body Politick or Corporate, or Company, may be assessed in one Account where the Person or Persons to be charged under the Regulations of this Act shall reside. Manors.
- Second.—All Lands occupied by the same Person, shall be brought into each Account required to be delivered by such Person, whether the same shall be occupied by such Person as Owner or Tenant, or as Tenant under distinct Owners, or shall be situate in the same or in different Parishes or Districts; but the Charge thereon shall be in each Parish or District, in proportion to the Value of the Property situate therein; of which Proportions the Occupier or Occupiers shall be required to deliver an Account in each Parish; and a separate Account shall be given of Lands in the same Occupation belonging to distinct Owners. Lands in the same Occupation shall be charged according to the Parishes.
- Provided always, that Lands held under the same Demise, or in the Occupation of the same Person as Owner, although situate in different Parishes, may be charged in either Parish, at the Discretion of the respective Commissioners, if the said Commissioners shall be satisfied that the Proportion in each Parish, either in respect of Quantity, Rent, or Value of the said Lands, cannot be ascertained, and the Whole of the said Lands shall be chargeable under the same Commissioners. Lands in different Parishes may be charged in either.
- Third.—For any Dwelling House which, with the Buildings or Offices belonging thereto, shall be under the annual Value of Ten Pounds, in the Occupation of a Tenant, the Assesment thereupon may, if the Commissioners for executing this Act shall think fit, be made on the Landlord, but so as not to impach the Remedy of Recovery of the Duty from the Occupier in Default of Payment by the Landlord. Houses under 10; charged on Landlords.
- Fourth.—If any Mine enumerated in the Fifth Rule, No. II. of this Schedule, has, from some unavoidable Cause, been decreased, and is decreasing in the annual Value thereof, so that the Average of Five Years will not give a fair and just Estimate of the annual Value thereof, it shall be lawful, after due Proof before the Commissioners for general Purposes in the District where such Mine shall be situate, to compute such annual Value on the actual Amount of such Profits and Gains in the preceding Year ending as aforesaid, subject to such Abatement on Account of Diminution of Duty within the current Year as is herein provided in other Cases. Mines failing.

Mines failed.

Fifth.—If any such Mine shall, from some unavoidable Cause, have wholly failed, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, on due Proof thereof, wholly to discharge any Affessment made thereon.

Duties may be ascertained according to Length of Possession.

Sixth.—In charging any of the Properties enumerated in the Rules under No. II. as before mentioned, it shall appear, that the Account required by the said Rules, or any of them, cannot be made out, by Reason of the Possession or Interest of the Party to be charged thereon, having commenced within the Time for which the Account is directed to be made out, it shall be lawful for the said Party or Parties, and all Persons concerned in executing this Act, to estimate the Profits of One Year in proportion to the Time elapsed since the Commencement of such Possession or Interest.

Houses occupied by Foreign Ministers.

Seventh.—The Duty to be charged under this Schedule, in respect of any House or Tenement occupied by any accredited Minister from any foreign Prince or State, shall be charged and paid by the Landlord or Person immediately entitled to the Rent of the said House or Tenement.

Official Houses.

Eighth.—The said Duty to be charged, in respect of any House, Tenement, or Apartment, belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs, or Successors, in the Occupation of any Officer of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in Right of his Office or otherwise, (except Apartments in His Majesty's Royal Palaces), shall be charged on and paid by the Occupier of such House, Tenement, or Apartment, upon the annual Value of each House, Tenement, or Apartment so occupied.

Occupier may recover from Landlord according to the Rate, by deducting the Duty out of the Rent.

[See l. 193.]

Ninth.—The Occupier or Occupiers of any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, being respectively Tenants of the same, and paying the said Duties, shall deduct so much thereof as a Rate of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the Rent payable to the Landlord or Landlords for the Time being, would, by a just Proportion, amount unto, which Sums shall be deducted out of the First Payments thereafter to be made on Account of Rent; and the Receivers of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and all Landlords, both mediate and immediate, their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to their respective Interests, and their respective Receivers or Agents shall allow such Deductions and Payments upon Receipt of the Residue of the Rents under the Penalty herein contained; and the Tenants paying the said Affessments shall be acquitted and discharged of so much Money, as if the same had actually been paid unto the Person or Persons to or for whom his or their Rent shall have been due and payable; and the Occupier or Occupiers of Lands charged on the Amount of any Composition, Rent, or Payment for Tithes arising therefrom, and paying the said Duties, shall be entitled to make the like Deductions from such Composition, Rent, or Payment, on paying the same.

Landlords, &c. may recover from others, having Interest at the like Rate. [See l. 193.]

Tenth.—Where any such Dwelling Houses, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are subject or liable to the Payment of any Rent Charge, Annuity, Fee Farm Rent, Rent Service, Quit Rent, Feu Duty, Teind Duty, Stipends to licensed Curates, or other Rent or annual Payment thereupon reserved or charged, the Landlords, Owners, or Proprietors, by whom any Deductions or Payments shall have been allowed as aforesaid, and the Landlords, Owners, and Proprietors being respectively Occupiers, and charged to the said Duties, shall abate and deduct, and detain and keep in their Hands out of every such Rent Charge, Annuity, Fee Farm Rent, Rent Service, Quit Rent, Feu Duty, Teind Duty, Stipend, or other Rent or annual Payment aforesaid, so much of the said Duties or Payments on Account of the same, as a like Rate of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings on such Rent Charge, Annuity, Fee Farm Rent, Rent Service, Quit Rent, Feu Duty, any Teind Duty, or Stipend, or other Rent or annual Payment aforesaid respectively, shall, by a just Proportion; amount unto, and the Receivers of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and all and every Person and Persons, who are or shall be anyways entitled unto such Rents, Duties, Stipends, or annual Payments, their Receivers, Deputies, or Agents, are hereby required to allow such Deductions and Payments, according to such Rates, upon the Receipt of the Residue of such Monies as shall be due and payable to them for such Rents, Duties, or annual Payments, without any Fee or Charge for such Allowance, and under the Penalty herein contained; and the Landlord, Owner, Proprietor, and Occupier respectively, being charged as aforesaid, or having allowed such Deductions or Payments, shall be acquitted and discharged of so much Money as the Deductions or Payments shall amount unto or for, as if the same had actually been paid unto such Person or Persons to whom such Rent Charge, Annuity, Fee Farm Rent, Rent Service, Quit Rent, Feu Duty, Teind Duty, Stipend, or other Rent or annual Payment aforesaid, shall have been due and payable.

Mortgagees in Possession liable.

Eleventh.—Where any Mortgagee, or Creditor in any Heritable Bond or Wadset, shall be in the Possession of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments mortgaged or secured, such Mortgagee or Creditor shall be chargeable as Occupier when in the actual Occupation of the same; and when not in the actual Occupation of the same, shall be liable to such Deductions as any other Landlord would be; and upon the Settlement of Accounts between such Mortgagee or other Creditor as aforesaid, and the Mortgagor or Debtor, the Duty payable in respect of the Amount of the Interest payable upon such Mortgage or other Debt as aforesaid, shall be taken and allowed as so much Money received by such Mortgagee or other Creditor as aforesaid, on Account of such Interest.

with the like Rate on such Modus or Composition Real, shall not exceed One Eighth Part of such Duties as aforesaid: Provided also, That any Person being Lessee and Occupier of Tythes or Teinds, other than the Occupier of the Lands from whence such Tythes or Teinds shall arise, shall be charged in respect of the Occupation, at the Rate of Three-pence for every Twenty Shillings of the Annual Value thereof, estimated as aforesaid.

No. VI.—Rules for charging the said last-mentioned Duties.

To be paid by the Occupier.

First.—The said last-mentioned Duties shall be estimated according to the general Rule contained in Schedule (A.), and shall be charged annually on and paid by the Occupier or Occupiers for the Time being, his, her, and their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns.

Who deemed

Second.—Every Person having the Use of any Lands or Tenements, shall be taken and considered, for the Purposes of this Act, as the Occupier of such Lands or Tenements.

Affirmations that be in force for One Year.

Third.—The said last-mentioned Duties shall, on each Affirmation thereof, be in force for One Year, and shall be levied on the Occupier or Occupiers for the Time being, without any new Affirmation for that Year, notwithstanding any Change in the Occupation thereof; provided every Tenant on quitting the Occupation shall be liable for the Arrears at the Time of so quitting, and for such further Portion of Time as shall then have elapsed, to be settled and levied by the respective Commissioners, and repaid to the Occupier or Occupiers by whom the same shall have been paid; and the Executors or Administrators of any Tenant who shall die before the End of such Year shall be liable in like Manner as the Testator or Intestate would have been if living at the Time of quitting such Occupation: Provided also, that every Tenant quitting before the Time of making the Affirmation, shall be liable for such Portion of the Year as shall have elapsed at the Time of his so quitting, to be adjudged and settled by the respective Commissioners.

How paid on Change of Occupation.

No. VII.—Rules for estimating the annual Value of Properties before described in Schedules (A.) and (B.) or either of them.

Money Payments, by Landlord on Account of Occupier, shall be deducted from the Rent.

First.—Where any Landlord shall be subject to any Covenant or Agreement to pay and satisfy out of the Rent reserved on any Lands or Tenements, all or any Parochial Rates, Taxes, or Affirmations, which by Law are a Charge on the Occupier, or any Rent or other annual Payment to be made in lieu of Tythes or Teinds, or any Composition for Tythes or Teinds, then and in every such Case the Rent shall be estimated for the Purposes of this Act, exclusive of such Rates, Taxes, or Affirmations, or of such Rent or Payment in lieu of Tythes or Teinds, or Compositions for Tythes or Teinds, to be computed on the Amount thereof bona fide paid by such Landlord, in and for the Year preceding the Year of Affirmation.

Money Payments by Tenant on Account of Landlord, shall be added to the Rent.

Second.—Where any Tenant of Lands or Tenements shall be subject to any Covenant or Agreement to pay and satisfy all or any Aids, Taxes, Rates, or Affirmations by Law chargeable on or payable by the Landlord or Landlords, then and in such Case the Amount thereof which shall have been bona fide paid by such Tenant in and for the Year preceding the Year of Affirmation, shall, in making the Estimate for the Purpose of charging the Duty in respect of Occupation, be added to the Rent reserved, in case the same shall have been let within the Period of Seven preceding Years, and if not so let, the Estimate shall be made according to the general Rule in Schedule (A.) without Regard to such Payments.

How Rent according to Price of Corn or Grain, shall be ascertained.

Third.—Where the Amount of Rent of Lands reserved in Money shall depend, in the Whole or in Part, on the Price of Corn or Grain, the Estimate for the Purposes aforesaid shall be made on the Amount, payable according to the average Prices or Fairs fixed in the Year preceding the Year of Affirmation, and in the same Manner by which such Rents have usually been ascertained between the Landlords and Tenants; but where a Whole or Part of the Rent shall be reserved in Corn or Grain, then the said Estimate shall be made on the like average Price or Fair, computed on the Quantity delivered in the Year of Affirmation; or where such Computation cannot be made, the Estimate aforesaid may be made on the annual Value of such Lands, estimated according to the said general Rule as the Case may require.

How Rent according to Produce, shall be ascertained.

Fourth.—Where the Amount of Rent reserved on Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, shall depend on the actual Produce thereof, either in respect of the Price or Quantity of such Produce, the Estimate for the Purposes of charging the Duties in Schedule (A.) shall be made on the Amount or Value of such Produce in the Year preceding the Year of Affirmation, according to the Prices fixed, and according to the Quantity produced in the Year of Affirmation, by the same Rules and in the same Manner by which such Rents have usually been ascertained between the Proprietors and their Lessees or Tenants.

In Scotland the Estimate to be made according to the general Rule.

Fifth.—Every Estimate of such Property in Scotland shall be made without Reference to the Cefs or Tax Roll, or valued Rents heretofore used in Scotland, or any Stent thereon, and shall be made according to the general Rule contained in the Schedule (A.) to the best of the Belief and Judgement of the Commissioners, Assessors, and others employed in charging the said several Duties.

Notice shall be given to Occupier, to return the Value.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Assessor or Assessors of every Parish, Ward, or Place in Great Britain, and he and they is and are hereby required to give to or leave Notice in Writing with every Occupier or Occupiers of any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, to be charged under either of the said Schedules marked (A.) or (B.) situate within the District of such Assessor or Assessors, and every other Person or Persons possessing or entitled to the Profits of any Property before described, situate as aforesaid, his or their Agents or Factors, or at the last or usual Place of Abode of them or any of them, or on the Premises to be charged with the said Affirmation, requiring him, her, or them, to prepare and produce to the said Assessor or Assessors, within Twenty-one Days next ensuing the Day of giving such Notice, an Account in Writing, in such Form as shall be directed under the Authority of this Act, of the annual Value of such Property, estimated according to this Act, and as the Case may require; and upon every Account so delivered, it shall be lawful for the said Assessor or Assessors to make an Estimate of the said Property on the Amount of the Sum ascertained by such Account, if the said Assessor or Assessors shall be satisfied with such Amount; but if the said Assessor or Assessors shall not be satisfied therewith, or if no such Account shall have been returned, or if the Occupier or Occupiers, or other Persons aforesaid, shall not be resident within the Limits of the District of such Assessor or Assessors, then the said Assessor or Assessors shall make an Estimate to the best of his or their Judgement, of the annual Value of the said Property of which no sufficient Account shall have been delivered; and in so doing it shall be lawful for such Assessor or Assessors, and he and they, in every Case relating to Lands or Tenements to be estimated according to the said general Rule, where the annual Value thereof cannot be otherwise ascertained, is and are hereby required to make such Estimate according to the following Rules; videlicet,

Or in default, Assessor may estimate the same, according to certain Rules, viz.

No. VIII.

First.—Where the last Rate made for the Relief of the Poor in any Parish or Place shall be made throughout by a Pound Rate on the annual Value, as the same would be estimated according to Schedule (A.), the Estimate thereon to be made under this Act shall be made on the same Sums respectively as in such Rate.

On Poor Rate, if that is rated on full Value.

Second.—Where the said Rate shall be made throughout by such Pound Rate, or any proportionate Part of the annual Value as aforesaid, the Proportion thereof shall be observed as in the said Rate, but the Estimate thereon to be made under this Act shall be made at the same Sums respectively as they would have been estimated at if the said Rate had been made on the full Amount of such annual Value.

Or increased to full Value if made on proportionate Sums.

Third.—Where Properties of different Kinds shall be rated in the said Rate, according to different Proportions of the Value thereof as aforesaid, or shall be rated therein at different Rates of such Value, but nevertheless the Properties of the same Kind shall be rated in a due Proportion to each other, both as to the Value and Rate of Charge, in every such Case the Rule of rating Lands both as to the Value and the Rate of Charge, shall, in making the Estimate under this Act, be observed throughout, as well with respect to such Lands as to the other Properties therein rated, so far as relates to such Rates as shall be made either on the full Value of the Properties, or on any proportionate Part thereof.

If in different Proportions, the Rate for Lands shall be the Guide.

Fourth.—In all Cases not falling within the Three last preceding Rules, but nevertheless where the Properties shall appear to the Assessors to be rated in the said Rate, in the same Proportion to each other, though the Proportion of such Rate to the Value of the Property rated be not known, and the Assessors are able to ascertain the Rack Rent of any Property which shall have been so let within the Period of Seven Years preceding, within the Limits of the Parish or Place where the said Assessors shall act, they shall make an Estimate of such Property on the Amount of such Rent, and the Estimate so made shall form the Basis on which the Estimates of other Properties, of which the Rack Rent shall not have been ascertained, shall be made; and they shall make their Estimates of all other Property in Sums bearing the same Proportion, as near as the same can be computed, to the Amount of such first Estimate, as the Sums at which such other Property is valued at in such Rate bear to the Sum charged in the said Rate on the said Property first estimated; and in Cases where the same Rule of Proportion shall not have been observed in rating different Kinds of Property, then the Assessors shall make an Estimate, as above directed, upon each of such Kinds of Property, for the Purpose of forming a Basis on which the Estimates of other Properties of the same Kind may be made.

Where the Proportions of Poor Rate are not known, Estimate shall be made on Rack Rent, &c.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Messuage or Tenement, together with the Offices, Gardens, and Lands occupied therewith, or any Lands separately occupied, shall be under the annual Value of Ten Pounds, and the Assessor or Assessors shall be able to estimate the said Value, either by the Rules before mentioned, or from his or their own Knowledge, or otherwise, it shall be lawful for such Assessor or Assessors to make an Estimate of such Property accordingly, to the best of his or their Judgement, without giving such Notice as aforesaid, unless the Surveyor or Inspector shall object to such Estimate, and shall require such Notice to be delivered.

Assessor may estimate Messuages, &c. under 10l. without Notice.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Tenant at Rack Rent shall produce to the Assessor or Assessors the Lease or Agreement, if in Writing, under which he or she holds any Premises, to be charged as aforesaid according to the general Rule, and in case it shall appear by such Lease or Agreement that the same shall have been let within the Period of Seven preceding Years, and no other Consideration in Money than the Rent reserved shall be contained in such Lease or Agreement, it shall be lawful for such Assessor or Assessors to make their Estimate according to such Rent, any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithstanding; but such Assessor shall not be binding in case it shall appear to the Commissioners, that the said Lease or Agreement doth not express the full Consideration for the Demise, or the Rent bond fide paid for the same, or is made in any other Receipt with Intent to conceal the annual Value of such Premises, or to diminish the Estimate to be made thereon; Provided always, that regard shall be had to the Cases before-mentioned, where the Amount of the reserved Rent shall be increased by reason of any Covenant or Agreement by the Landlord to discharge the Tenant's Taxes, Rates, Assessments, or Duties before mentioned, or where the same shall be decreased by reason of any Covenant or Agreement by the Tenant to discharge the Landlord's Taxes, Rates, or Assessments, and to the Deductions to be made on Account of any Aid or publick Rate or Assessment before described.

Assessors may make their Estimates of Lands, on the Production of the Lease by the Tenant, according to the reserved Rent.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That no Deduction from the Assessment on any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, shall be allowed in any Case, unless an Account in Writing, signed by the Occupier or Occupiers thereof, or by the Party claiming such Deduction, stating the Nature and Amount thereof, shall have been delivered to the Assessor or Assessors within the Time and pursuant to the Notice delivered by such Assessor or Assessors, or to the respective Commissioners within such further Time as they shall think fit to allow on sufficient Cause being shewn to them.

No Deduction shall be made for Lands, unless an Account be delivered in Writing.

Tenants at Rack Rent, under a parol Demise, or not able to produce Leases, may deliver an Account of the Value.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Tenant at Rack Rent, under any parol Demise from Year to Year, within the Period mentioned in the said general Rule, or any Tenant who, by Reason of any Mortgage or other Contract, shall not have the Custody or Possession of, or the Power over any Lease or Agreement in Writing under which he holds the Premises demised within the said Period, and who shall give reasonable Proof to the Commissioners why he is unable to produce the same, shall deliver to the Assessor or Assessors an Account in Writing, signed by him or her, of the actual Amount of the annual Rent referred on such Demise, such Account so delivered shall be deemed a Compliance with this Act, in all Cases where he may be called upon, under the Authority of this Act, to produce such Lease or Agreement, and it shall be lawful for such Assessor or Assessors to make their Estimate according to such Rent, any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithstanding; but such Assentment shall not be binding, in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners that the said Account doth not express the full Consideration for such Demise, or the Rent bond fide paid for the same, or is made in any other Respect with Intent to conceal the annual Value of the Premises held under such Demise, or to diminish the Estimate to be made thereon.

Penalty on Tenants delivering false Accounts of the Value of Premises, 20l. and Double Duty. See for l. 59.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That every such Tenant who shall wilfully deliver any such Account which shall be false, or who shall wilfully produce any Lease or Agreement with a fraudulent Intent to conceal the annual Value of the Premises therein comprized, or to diminish the Estimate to be made thereon, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and shall be liable to be charged in Double the Duty hereby charged, computed on the annual Value of the Premises held under such Demise, estimated according to this Act; and the said Commissioners are in such Case hereby required to make an Assentment accordingly.

All Tenants in Scotland shall produce their Leases on Notice; or an Account of their Rent.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That every Tenant of Lands, Tenements, or Heritages, in Scotland, shall, within Ten Days after the Assessor or Assessors shall have left at his or her usual Place of Abode, or at any Dwelling House on the Premises to be charged with the Assentment, a Note in Writing to the Effect after mentioned, (which such Assessor or Assessors are hereby required to deliver in every Instance) shall produce to such Assessor or Assessors, the Tack or Lease, or other Agreement or Articles in Writing, under which he or she holds such Lands or Tenements, or where the same shall not be in the Power, Custody, or Possession of such Tenant, or there shall be no such Tack, Lease, or Agreement or Articles, then he or she shall leave with such Assessor or Assessors, or at his or their Dwelling House, within the Time before mentioned, a Note in Writing, of the actual Rent annually reserved and payable, and of any other valuable Consideration given, or to be given, to the Landlord or Landlords of such Lands and Tenements, as a further Consideration for such Tenancy, under the Penalty of Treble the Duty hereby chargeable thereon, in case of any wilful Neglect to comply with such Notice; and it shall be lawful for such Assessor or Assessors, to make his or their Estimate on the Production of such Lease, or Agreement or Articles, according to the Rent therein referred and made payable; and in case of Non-production of such Lease or Agreement, or Articles in Writing, then upon the Rent referred or made payable, according to the Account thereof delivered as aforesaid, if he or they shall be satisfied that the said Lands, Tenements, or Heritages, have been bond fide let at the reserved Rent notified to him or them as aforesaid, without other valuable Consideration; but in case such Assessor or Assessors shall not be satisfied with the Notification given to him or them, or in case no such Notification shall be given, then such Assessor or Assessors shall make the Estimates as directed in the foregoing Clause.

Penalty Treble Du y.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That the said several Duties shall be assessed on all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whether occupied at the Time of Assentment or not; and so far as respects the Duties chargeable under Schedule (A.) in case any Lands charged to the said Duties in any Part of Great Britain shall be unoccupied, and no Distress can be found on the same at the Time such Duties shall be payable, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Collectors of the Parish or Place where the said Lands are situate, for the Time being, at any Time after, to enter upon the said Lands when there shall be any Distresses thereupon to be found, and the Distress and Distresses to seize and sell, under the like Powers as they might have distrained on the same Lands if in the Occupation of any Person or Persons charged to the said Duties at the Time the Duties became due: Provided always, that the said Duties, or either of them, shall not be levied on any Houses which shall have been or shall become unoccupied for such Year or Portion of the Year as the same shall be unoccupied, but the Assentment thereupon for such Year or Portion of the Year as aforesaid, shall, upon Appeal, be discharged or diminished by the Commissioners, on due Proof of the Time in which such House has remained unoccupied.

All Properties shall be assessed; if Lands become unoccupied, Distress may be taken inwards, for Duty under Schedule A.

But such Assentment shall not be levied for Houses, while unoccupied.

Duties charged on Tythes, may be levied by Distress.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That where by any Assentment the Duties hereby granted shall be charged on Tythes or Teinds, and the same shall not be paid within the respective Times limited by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Officer to distrain upon such Tythes or Teinds, or any other Goods or Chattels of the Owner of such Tythes or Teinds, wherever the same can be found, and to seize, take, and sell so much thereof as shall be sufficient for the levying the said Assentment, under and subject to the Powers granted by the said recited Acts respectively in other Cases.

Mode of levying the Duties on Compositions for Tythes, Manors, or Royalities, Markets, Fairs, Tolls, Fisheries, &c.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That when any Assentment shall be charged on any Composition for Tythes or Teinds, or any Rent or Payment in lieu of Tythes or Teinds, the Occupier of the Lands and Premises charged with such Compositions, Rents, and Payments, shall be answerable for the Duties so charged; and where any Assentment shall be charged on the Profits of Manors, or Royalities, or of Markets or Fairs, or on Tolls, Fisheries, or any other annual or casual Profits not distrainable, the Owner or Occupier, or Receiver or Receivers of the Profits thereof, shall be answerable for the Duties charged thereon; and in every such Case the Collector shall distrain upon such Persons respectively, by any of the Ways and Means prescribed by the said recited Acts respectively.

Assessors shall make Estimates

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the respective Assessors acting in the Execution of this Act, shall make their Certificates of Valuation or Estimates on all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or Heritages, within the the Limits of those Places for which they are set, and shall set down the full and just annual Value of all such Lands and Premises, estimated in each particular Case according to the Directions of this Act, together with the Names and Surnames of the Occupiers and Proprietors thereof, and shall at the same Time deliver to the said Commissioners all Returns which shall have been made to them, as well of such annual Value as of any Deduction claimed to be made therefrom, such Returns being first progressively numbered.

L. And be it further enacted, That for and in Consideration of the extraordinary Care and Pains requisite in making and adjusting the First Year's Estimate on Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, under this Act, the Assessor or Assessors, not being also the Collector or Collectors, shall have such Allowance not exceeding Two-pence in the Pound, and the Assessor or Assessors, being also Collectors, shall have such Allowance not exceeding One Penny in the Pound, upon all Sums assessed in the Parish or Place for which they are appointed Assessors, as the Commissioners for general Purposes as aforesaid, shall certify to the Receiver General they are respectively entitled unto, which Sums so paid the Receiver General shall be allowed in his Accounts; provided that where any Assessment shall be increased by the Commissioners to the Extent of One-Third of the Sums assessed, or the Commissioners shall from other Causes be of Opinion that such Assessor or Assessors shall not faithfully have performed his or their Duty in the Execution of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in their Discretion, to refuse the granting of any such Certificate, or to fix the Allowance before limited to such lesser Sum as in their Judgement they shall think such Assessors are justly entitled unto.

LI. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Assessors for any Parish, Ward, or Place, shall not be able to make their Estimates according to the Provisions of this Act, or shall be obstructed therein, it shall be lawful for them to make Application to any Two or more of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act, for the District where such Assessors shall be appointed, or to any Surveyor or Inspector of the said Duties, who shall severally instruct such Assessors in making their Estimates, and assist them in the Execution of this Act, according to the Powers and Authorities vested in them respectively by this Act.

LII. And be it enacted, That the Assessors to be appointed for the aforesaid Duties in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall at the Time of bringing in their Certificates of Valuations or Estimates, if required so to do, by any Surveyor or Inspector of the said Duties, give Notice to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place where they shall act, to produce or cause to be produced to the Commissioners for executing this Act, in relation to the said Duties, the Book or Books, or a true Copy thereof, in which shall have been entered the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish or Place, and also a true Copy of the last Rate made for the Relief of the Poor in such Parish or Place, who shall without fail deliver the same to the said Commissioners for their Use; and the said Assessors shall declare in Writing, signed by them, whether the said Rates are made on the full Value of the Properties therein, or in any and what proportionate Part thereof, to the best of their Knowledge and Belief; and the said Commissioners shall, in case the said Surveyor or Inspector shall allege and shew to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the said Estimates, or any of them, have not been made according to the Directions of this Act, examining the said Assessors, and also the Overseers of the Poor for the same Parish or Place, or any of them, being duly summoned for that Purpose, on their Oaths or solemn Affirmations, touching the Proportions between the said Rates, and the Value of the Properties charged therein, and whether the Properties, or any and which of them have been valued therein, at the Amount, or at any and what Proportion of the annual Value thereof respectively, and what ought to be the just Proportion between the Rates on the different Properties therein charged, if the Amount of the Values thereof, and the same Proportion between the Rates, had been observed throughout the Rate; and also what Property shall have been omitted to be rated, and which of the Properties in the Parish or Place shall be entitled to be assessed, on an Average of the Profits, according to this Act; and the said Commissioners shall carefully examine the Estimates made by the said Assessors, with the last Rate made for the Relief of the Poor, in order that they may the better ascertain whether the said Estimates have been made on all the Properties situate in each Parish, and according to the Directions prescribed by this Act, and from the Result of the said Inquiries may rectify the same Estimates, in any Particulars which in their Judgement may be requisite, before they make an Assessment thereon, as herein is directed, and in so doing may pursue, if they think fit, the Rules in Number VIII. of this Act before mentioned, relating to the said Rates for Relief of the Poor.

LIII. And be it enacted, That for the better Information of the Commissioners appointed to carry this Act into Execution, and the Persons to be appointed Assessors as aforesaid, and also the Surveyors and Inspectors, and the better to enable them to perform their Duty, the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, and the Assessors, Surveyors, and Inspectors herein mentioned, or any One or more of them, or any Person or Persons authorized by them or any of them throughout England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall have Liberty, from Time to Time, and at all reasonable Times, to inspect and take Copies of, or Extracts from, any Book or Books kept by any Parish Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, of or concerning the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor, or any other public Taxes, Rates, or Assessments, in any Place within the Limits for which they shall be appointed; and if any Person or Persons in whose Custody or Power any of the said Books shall be, shall refuse or neglect to permit the said Inspection, or the Copies or Extracts to be made as aforesaid, or to attend the said Commissioners with their Books, when required so to do in pursuance of this Act, then and in every such Case, every Person who shall so refuse or neglect, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Five Pounds.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Assessors in each Parish or Place in Scotland, and they are hereby required, to take to their Assistance the Schoolmaster in such Parish or Place, for the Purpose of making such Valuation of the Lands and other Premises within their respective Limits; and at the Time of bringing in their Certificates they shall make Oath of the Truth of their Valuation, and that the fame was made according to the best of their Skill and Judgement, and shall submit to be examined on such Oath before the said Commissioners, in all Matters and Things concerning the said Valuation, which the said Commissioners shall require for their Information.

LV. And be it further enacted, That in Cafes where the Occupier or Occupiers, or other Person or Persons chargeable, upon due Notice, under this Act, shall omit to produce an Account in Writing as aforesaid, of the Amount of the annual Value of the Property in his or their Occupation, estimated according to the general Rule in Schedule (A.), or such other Rules in the said Schedule as are applicable to such Property, or shall have delivered an Account with which the Commissioners for general Purposes shall be dissatisfied, the several Assessors, Inspectors, and Surveyors authorized to act in the Execution of this Act, and every of them, throughout Great Britain, having first obtained an Order in that Behalf, signed by any Two or more of the said Commissioners, shall, after Two Days Notice to the Occupier or Occupiers thereof, have full Power, at all reasonable Times of the Day, to view and examine all or any Lands or other Property chargeable, in order to make such Survey thereof as herein-after is mentioned, or otherwise to ascertain the annual Value at which the same ought to be charged by virtue of this Act, and for so doing shall have Liberty to enter upon any Lands or Grounds, whether inclosed or not, and to value the same, and to measure and survey the same, if they cannot otherwise ascertain the annual Value thereof.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That within a reasonable Time after the respective Surveyors and Inspectors shall have had the Examination of the Estimates delivered by the Assessors in any Part of Great Britain, the said Commissioners shall proceed to take the same into Consideration; and in case the Surveyor or Inspector shall not have objected thereto, and the said Commissioners shall be satisfied that the said Estimates have been made truly and without Fraud, so as to enable them to charge the several Properties contained therein, with the full Duty which ought to be charged upon them respectively, the said Commissioners shall compute and ascertain, or cause to be computed and ascertained, the Amount of the Duty so chargeable, at the respective Rates prescribed by the said Schedules, namely, of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the annual Value so estimated, in respect of the Property charged under Schedule (A.), and of Nine-pence or Sixpence for every Twenty Shillings of such Value, in respect of the Occupation of Property charged under Schedule (B.), according to the respective Parts of Great Britain aforesaid, in which the said Properties respectively are situate, and shall make Assessments upon the respective Occupiers of, or other Persons being in the Receipt of the Profits of such Properties, of the several Sums so computed, at the respective Rates before mentioned.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Surveyor or Inspector shall have objected to such Estimates, and shall apply for a Revision thereof, suggesting in Writing to the Commissioners any Error, Mistake, or Fraud in making such Estimates, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, according to the best of their Judgement, to rectify such Estimates, so that the Duty to be computed as aforesaid thereon may be fully charged, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and to make their Assessments according to such rectified Estimates, at the respective Rates, and in Manner before mentioned.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the Assessments for any Parish or Place under Schedules (A.) and (B.) shall be made, the Commissioners shall cause Notice thereof, and of the Day for hearing Appeals therefrom, to be given in such Manner as they shall judge expedient; either by affixing a Copy of such Assessment on the Church Door, or any other publick Place in the Parish, together with a Note of the Day of Appeal, or by delivering such Copy to the Assessor or Assessors of such Place, with such publick Notice as aforesaid, of the Delivery and of the Day of Appeal, or by delivering to each Party charged the Amount of his or her Assessment, together with a Note of the Day of Appeal, at least Fourteen Days before the Day of Appeal so fixed.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, liable to any of the Duties before mentioned, and being required so to do in pursuance of the Directions contained in this Act in such Case, shall wilfully neglect to deliver to the Assessor or Assessors requiring the same, a true, perfect, and complete Return or Account of all the Matters and Things for which such Returns or Accounts may lawfully be demanded in pursuance of this Act, within the respective Times herein limited, he or she so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, over and above any Duty chargeable by this Act.

LX. And be it further enacted, That the Surveyors or Inspectors appointed or to be appointed as herein mentioned, shall be and they are hereby empowered to inspect and examine all and every the Returns made by any Person or Persons chargeable to the said Duties, or any of them, according to the Directions of this Act, and in case any of them shall be dissatisfied, either with the Returns so made, or the Estimate of the Assessor or Assessors thereon, or shall discover any Error or Omission in such Estimate, or that any Deduction hath been allowed not authorized by this Act, they shall charge the same, according to the best of their Judgement, in the full Amount at which the same ought to be charged; and the said Surveyors and Inspectors shall also be at Liberty to inspect and examine all and every the Assessments of the said several Duties, or any of them, made under the Authority of the respective Commissioners before mentioned, as well before as after the Commissioners shall have signed and allowed the said Assessments, and before such Allowance, to correct and amend such Assessments, if he or they shall think fit; and every Person in whose Custody such Returns shall be, shall and is hereby required, upon the Request of any such Surveyor or Inspector as aforesaid, to deliver the same into his Custody for the Purposes of this Act, taking his Receipt for the same; and every Person in whose Custody any such Assessments shall be, shall and is hereby required, upon the Request of such Surveyor or Inspector as aforesaid, to produce the same, and such Surveyor or Inspector is hereby authorized to take Charge of the same, until he shall have taken such Copies or Extracts from the same, as may be necessary for his and their better Information; and if any such Surveyor or Inspector shall, after any such List or Lists, and Assessment or Assessments, shall be so respectively made out, and signed and allowed as aforesaid, find or discover upon his Survey or Examination, or otherwise, that any Person who ought to be charged with the said Duties, or any of them, shall have been omitted to be charged therewith, or shall have been under-rated, or that any Person liable to the said Duties, or any of them, and being required to do hath neglected or refused to make a Return according to the Directions of this Act, or that the Assessor or Assessors have neglected to require a Return in any Case where a Return ought to have been required from any Person or Persons, according to the Intent of this Act, or that any Deduction hath been allowed not authorized by this Act, so that he or she shall not have been charged to the Amount which ought to have been paid by him or her, then and in every such Case the said Surveyor or Inspector shall certify the same in Writing under his Hand, together with an Account of every Default, and the full Amount of the Duty which ought to be paid by way of Surcharge *, or any Two or more of the said respective Commissioners for putting in Execution this Act, in relation to the Duties on which such Surcharge shall be made, in order to have such Default or under Rate rectified in the said Affidavit; and such Commissioners are, upon the Delivery of any such Certificate, and upon Oath being first made that such Notice as herein-after is directed † was given to or left in Writing at the Dwelling House or other Place of Abode of the Person so furcharged, hereby required to sign and allow the said Surcharges, and to cause the said Affidavits to be rectified, and the said Duties to be levied accordingly, all which Examinations and Surcharges the said Inspectors and Surveyors are hereby empowered to make from Time to Time until a full and complete Affidavit shall have been made of all the Properties directed to be charged by this Act.

may furcharge by Certificate and Allowance of Commissioners.

† [See f. 61.]

LXI. And be it further enacted, That no Affidavit or Surcharge made or to be made by any Assessor or Assessors, Surveyor or Surveyors, Inspector or Inspectors, by virtue of this Act, shall be impeached or affected by reason of any Mistake or Variance in the Christian or Surname, or either of them, of any Person liable to any of the Duties payable by this Act, nor by reason of any Mistake in the Description of any Lands or other Premises charged in Schedule (A.) or (B.) or the Rate of the Duty furcharged, whether such Mistake or Variance shall appear in the Notice and Certificate to be delivered or made in such Case, or in either of them, but that all such Affidavits and Surcharges shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, notwithstanding any such Mistake or Variance, provided the Notice of Surcharge be delivered to or left at the Abode of the Person intended to be so furcharged, according to the Directions of this Act; and the Duties intended to be described shall be chargeable on such Person or Persons.

No Affidavit or Surcharge by Assessor, &c. shall be impeached for Mistake in Names, &c. if Notice is given to the Party furcharged.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person to whom such Notice of Surcharge shall be given as aforesaid, at any Time previous to the Time appointed for hearing Appeals next after the Delivery of such Notice, to make out and deliver to the Surveyor or Inspector who shall have delivered the Notice of Surcharge, a true, perfect, and complete Schedule of the annual Value, as the same ought to be estimated according to this Act, of all the Property charged thereby, and which ought to be assessed by and under the Commissioners of and in the District where such Surcharge shall be delivered, in such Form as shall be directed under the Authority of this Act, and as the Case may require, so that he or she may, from such Schedule so delivered, be charged to the said Duties the full Sum at which he or she ought to be charged by virtue of this Act in such District: Provided always, that to every such Schedule there shall be annexed an Affidavit in Writing to the Effect herein-after mentioned; and if the said Surveyor or Inspector shall be satisfied with such Schedule and Affidavit, then he shall certify such Return and Affidavit to Two or more of the said Commissioners respectively, with the Amount of the Duty to be charged, who shall thereupon cause the Affidavit to be made according to such Certificate, and the same Rate of Duty as set forth in the Schedules marked (A.) and (B.) to be charged on the Person making such Return, without further Trouble or Delay; but if upon Examination of such Schedule or such Affidavit, the said Surveyor or Inspector shall see just Cause to object thereto, he shall thereupon certify such Return and Affidavit, together with the Cause of his Objection, to Two or more of the said Commissioners respectively, who shall thereupon cause the Affidavit to be made according to such last mentioned Certificate, in the Amount of the Duty at which such Person shall be furcharged; and from which Surcharge no Abatement shall be made on any Pretence, unless on Appeal as herein-after is directed; of which Certificate Notice shall be given by the Surveyor to the Person to be charged thereby.

To avoid Surcharge, Party may make a Return after Surcharge, with an Affidavit annexed. [See f. 61.]

On Surveyor's Certificate of Satisfaction, Duty shall be charged, or otherwise Surcharge shall take place without Abatement, except on Appeal. [See f. 63, 64.]

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Affidavit shall allege and declare in Substance, and to the Effect as follows; that is to say, That the Return to which this Affidavit is annexed is a full, perfect, and complete Return of all Matters and Things required of the said Deponent by this Act, to the best of his or her Judgment, which Affidavit may be taken before any One or more of the Commissioners acting for the Place where the Surcharge shall be made, or where the Party furcharged shall reside, and shall be signed by the Party making the same: Provided always, that an Appeal may be made from any Affidavit or Surcharge as aforesaid, and heard and determined under the Regulations of the said recited Acts respectively, and that such Appeal may be made in the like Cases as are mentioned in the said recited Acts respectively.

Form of Affidavit in such Case.

Appeal against Surcharge as under 43 G. 3. c. 99. and 150.

LXIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves respectively over-charged or over-rated by any Certificate of any Inspector or Surveyor as aforesaid, or by any Affidavit to be made by virtue or in pursuance of such Certificate, it shall be lawful for him, her, or them; respectively, to appeal to the said Commissioners in such Manner as he or they are authorized to appeal from any original Affidavit or Surcharge by the Regulations of the said recited Acts respectively.

Appeal against Certificate of Inspector; [See f. 63.]

LXV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Hearing of any such Appeal, or the Appeal against any original Affidavit or Surcharge, the Appellant shall in all Cases produce before the said Commissioners a true, perfect, and complete Schedule as directed by this Act as aforesaid, and as the Case may require, and if required to do shall verify the same upon his or her Oath or Affirmation.

On Appeal a Schedule shall be produced, on Oath if required.

LXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if upon Appeal any Dispute shall arise touching the annual Value of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, and the Commissioners shall deem it necessary that a Valuation thereof should be taken and made by any Person or Persons of Skill, it shall shall be lawful for them to direct the Appellant to cause such Valuation to be made, the Cost and Charges whereof shall abide the final Determination of the said Commissioners, and it shall be lawful for them to make an Assessment according to such Valuation, and to require the same to be verified on the Oath or Affirmation of the Person or Persons making the same; but in case the Appellant shall not proceed with Effect to cause such Valuation to be made as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall proceed to an Assessment, according to the best of their Judgement, on such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages: Provided always, that it shall be competent to the said Commissioners, in every such Case where the Valuation so made shall exceed the Value put upon the same Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, by the Appellant, to direct the Costs and Charges attending the same to be paid by him; but if they shall be of Opinion that such Costs and Charges have not been incurred through any Default of the said Appellant, they shall direct the same to be paid by the Collector or Collectors of the Parish or Place, who, on the Certificate of any Two or more Commissioners present at the Time of the Determination, shall pay the same, and the Sums so paid shall be allowed to such Collector or Collectors in his or their Accounts with the Receiver General, on delivering to him, or his Deputy such Certificate, together with the Receipt and Voucher for such Payment.

In case of Dispute on the Poor Rate, a Valuation of all the Land in the Parish may be taken.

On Appeal, Commissioners may relieve Occupier showing Lease, or proving his annual Rent.

LXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if the Dispute shall arise touching the Valuation or relative Value of the Properties throughout any Parish or Place, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to direct a Survey and Valuation to be taken of all the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Heritages, in such Parish or Place, and to give such Directions respecting the Payment of the Costs and Charges attending the same, either by the several and respective Occupiers thereof, in proportion to their respective Interests, or by the Collector, out of the Monies in his Hands of the Duties granted by this Act, as shall appear to the said Commissioners to be just.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if on such Appeal the Occupier of any such Premises held under any Demise at Rack Rent, shall produce and shew to the said Commissioners the Lease, Tack, or Agreement, if in Writing, or shall prove by any lawful Evidence to be produced on the Part of such Occupier, in case there shall be no such Lease or Agreement in Writing, the annual Amount of the Rent at which such Premises are let, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in case such Demise hath been made within the Period of Seven Years mentioned in the said general Rule, and they shall be satisfied that such Lease or Agreement doth express the full Consideration for the Demise, or that the Rent bona fide paid for the same hath been duly shewn to them in Evidence, and that such Demise is made wholly on Consideration of such reserved Rent, without any Intention to conceal or diminish the annual Value of such Premises, or other fraudulent Intention whatever, to abate and deduct from such Assessment so much as in their Judgment will reduce the Rate to a just Rate on such Rent.

Where Lands are assessed at less than the Value, the Assessment may be increased.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the said Commissioners, that any Lands or Tenements shall have been assessed at an annual Value less than the actual Rent at which the same shall be let, or if not let at less than the Rent at which the same might be let, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to enlarge and increase such Assessment to such Sum as a like Rate on such Rent would amount unto, as well with respect to the Rate on the Property as the Rate on the Occupation of such Lands and Tenements.

Surcharges, if confirmed, to be in double Duty, unless remitted by Commissioners.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That upon every Surcharge allowed upon Appeal by the said Commissioners, upon the Certificate of the Surveyor or Inspector, as directed by this Act, the Assessment shall be made in double the Rates of Duty prescribed in the Schedules marked (A.) and (B.) on the Amount of the Duty so surcharged, which Sum shall be added to the Assessment, and collected and levied therewith: Provided always, that upon every such Appeal, if the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that there was any reasonable Cause of Controversy on the Part of the Appellant on the subject Matter of Appeal, and that the Party hath not been guilty of any wilful Default, Neglect, or Omission, nor wilfully done any Act with Intention to defraud the Revenue, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners who shall have determined the said Appeal, although they shall confirm or allow the Surcharge, at the same Time to remit and strike off the Whole or any Part of the double Duty; and the Assessor, Surveyor, or Inspector so making such Surcharge, shall be and is hereby entitled to, and shall have and receive for his own Use, from the Receiver General to whom the Duties shall be paid, the Overplus of the Sum so charged above the said Rate of Duty, as prescribed in the said Schedule, and which shall not be so remitted or struck off as aforesaid, which Overplus the Commissioners for executing this Act, who shall have confirmed such Surcharge, or any Two or more of them, shall at the same Meeting certify under their Hands, to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes in England, and the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and the Certificate of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and Barons, or any Two or more of them respectively, shall be a Warrant to the said Receiver General to pay the same.

Inspectors and Surveyors making vexatious Surcharges, &c, liable to Penalty of 50 l. and punishable under Acts 43 G. 3. c. 99. 130.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Inspector or Surveyor shall wilfully make any false and vexatious Surcharge, or wilfully deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners for executing this Act any false and vexatious Certificate of Charge, every such Inspector or Surveyor shall forfeit to the Party aggrieved any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster for Offences committed in England, and in the Court of Great Sessions for Offences committed in Wales, and in the Courts of Session or Exchequer for Offences committed in Scotland, with full Costs of Suit: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained, nor any Suit by the Party aggrieved in pursuance of this Act, shall be construed to affect, impeach, or defeat any Action or Information brought or to be brought against any Surveyor or Inspector in pursuance of the said recited Acts respectively, for any corrupt, vexatious, or illegal Practices in the Execution of his Office; and it shall be lawful for the Judge before whom such Inspector or Surveyor shall have been convicted of such Offence, by Indorsement on the Poſtea, or for the Court before whom such Person shall be convicted, to mitigate the Penalty at his or their Discretion.

Penalty may be mitigated.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty contained in the Schedule marked (C.) as herein recited, shall be affixed and charged under the following Rules, which Rules shall be deemed and construed a Part of this Act, and to refer to the said last mentioned Duty, as if the same had been inserted herein under a special Enactment.

Recited Duties in Schedule (C.) and Rules, deemed Part of this Act.

SCHEDULE (C.)

The Duty contained in Schedule (C.) as herein recited, shall be paid by the Person or Persons entitled under the said Annuities, Dividends, and Shares, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, according to their respective Interests; and shall be affixed by the respective Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act in their respective Districts where the Parties shall reside, or before the Commissioners hereby authorized to be appointed for special Purposes, for such of the said Duties as shall have been fully paid into the Bank of England, or shall not have been affixed by the respective Commissioners in their Districts, as the Parties shall chuse; and shall extend to all public Annuities whatever, except the Stocks of public Companies otherwise charged by this Act, and except as herein-after is excepted.

Duty on public Annuities and Dividends, &c. payable by the Parties, &c.

To what such Duty extends. [See f. 73—77. and f. 31.]

LXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge the Stock or Dividends of any Friendly Society established under or by virtue of an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement and Relief of Friendly Societies, provided the Property therein shall be duly claimed and proved by any Agent or Factor on the Behalf of any such Society, or by any Member thereof, before the Commissioners authorized to be appointed for special Purposes by this Act.

Stock of Friendly Societies established under an Act, 33 G. 3. c. 54. exempted.

LXXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge any Corporation, Fraternity, or Society of Persons established for charitable Purposes only; nor to charge the Profits arising from any such Annuities, Dividends, or Shares, which, according to the Rules or Regulations established by Act of Parliament, Charter, Decree, Deed of Trust, or Will, shall be applicable by the said Corporations, Fraternities, or Societies, or by any Trustee or Trustees, to charitable Purposes only, and in so far as the same shall be applied to charitable Purposes only; provided the Application thereof to such Purposes shall be duly proved before the Commissioners for special Purposes to be appointed under this Act, by any Agent or Factor, on the Behalf of any such Corporation, Fraternity, or Society, or Trustee or Trustees, or by any of the Members or Trustees.

Stock of charitable Institutions exempted. [As to British Museum, see f. 170.]

LXXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That neither this Act, nor any Thing herein contained, shall be construed to extend to such Part of the public Annuities as have been or shall be transferred to the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by virtue of an Act, intituled, An Act for vesting certain Sums in the Commissioners at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied to the Reduction of the National Debt; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, from Time to Time, cause to be transmitted to the Commissioners for special Purposes to be appointed under this Act, an Account of the total Amount of Stock as shall have been transferred to the said Commissioners.

Funds in the Name of Commissioners of the National Debt, under 26 G. 3. c. 31. exempted.

LXXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to such Part of the said public Annuities as are or shall be transferred to the Accounts in the Books of the Bank of England, in the Name or under the Description of the Lord High Treasurer of England, or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, from Time to Time, cause to be transmitted to the said Commissioners for special Purposes, an Account of the total Amount of Stocks as shall have been transferred to the said respective Accounts.

Stock in the Name of the Treasury, exempted.

LXXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to the Profits arising from any Annuities, Dividends, and Shares, bona fide belonging to any Person not being a Subject of His Majesty, and not being resident in Great Britain, during such Time as the same shall continue the Property of such Person, provided that such Property shall be duly claimed and ascertained in the Manner herein-after mentioned.

Stock of Foreigners exempted. [See f. 90.]

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person and Body Politick and Corporate, Company, or Society of Persons, who shall be entitled under any Shares of such Annuities, (except Annuities belonging to the Bank, East India, and South Sea Companies, herein directed to be charged by the Governors and Directors of the said Companies respectively, and also except the Annuities payable to the Proprietors at the Exchequer, hereby directed to be charged by the Commissioners for Pensions), shall by force of such general Notices as are herein-after mentioned, and without any particular Notice for that Purpose, within the Time limited in such general Notices, in order to their being affixed before the respective Commissioners in their Districts, (except where a Declaration shall be delivered in order to their answering the full Amount of Duty, and paying the same into the Bank of England, under the Regulations herein prescribed for the Conduct of Commissioners for special Purposes to be appointed under this Act<sup>1</sup>), deliver or cause to be delivered to them or to their Clerk, at such Place or Office as shall be appointed for that Purpose, the like Lists, Declarations, and Statements, as Persons are herein-after required to deliver in respect of their Profession or Trade<sup>2</sup>; in which Lists, Declarations, and Statements respectively, they shall separately and distinctly specify the Amount and Description of the capital Stock from which such Profits arise, and the Amount of such Profits, either for the Period of One Year or One Half Year, as the Parties shall declare themselves willing to be affixed, and the Description of the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names the same are vested, and to whom the same belong, and of any other Person or Corporation, Company or Society, for whom such Person shall act in any of the Characters herein-after described; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, to whom such Statement shall be delivered, if they shall be satisfied therewith, unless the Party shall declare in such Statement his or her Intention to pay the Duty into the Bank of England, to make an Assessment on the Profits contained in such

Statement, to be levied at the Rate before mentioned, as and when the Dividends thereon become due on the Amount of the Dividends then payable Half Yearly, so long as such Stock shall remain unaltered, according to the Provisions of this Act; and it shall be competent to such Commissioners, in their respective Districts, to allow such Exemptions from or Abatements of the said Duty, as are herein-after authorized to be allowed on the Account of Income or Maintenance of lawful Children.

Notice shall be given of Increase or Decrease of Stock.

Penalty Treble Duty in Default of Notice of Increase.

Special Commissioners shall charge those who neglect to make Returns of Property in publick Funds.

Persons declaring their Intention to pay the Duty on Dividends into the Bank, shall deliver an Account of their Stock, &c. into Office of Special Commissioners.

Commissioners in Districts shall transmit to Special Commissioners (before Affessment) Certificates of the Amount of Returns of Dividends.

Accounts of Dividends shall be delivered to Inspectors, &c. by Corporations, &c.

Trustees, &c. (except Officers in Courts) having the Control of Property, shall pay the Duty.

LXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever the Capital Stock so to be accounted for, or the Profits arising therefrom, shall be increased or diminished, the like Statement, except where a Declaration shall be made of intended Payment into the Bank of England, shall from Time to Time be given to the respective Assessors, Surveyors, or Inspectors of such Increase or Diminution as is before required, in order that the Assesment thereon may be altered or amended, which Notice shall contain the Time from which such Profits have been increased or diminished; and in case such Profits shall be increased, and due Notice thereof as aforesaid shall not be given, so that an Assesment may be duly made on such Increase, the Person making such Default shall forfeit Treble the Duty by which such Assesment ought to have been increased; and no Assesment shall be altered, unless Notice of the Decrease of such Profits shall be given in Manner aforesaid, before the Time when the Assesment thereon became payable; and every such Return shall be renewed from Year to Year, or in Default thereof the Parties shall remain charged for that Year to the Amount contained in the former Assesment, subject to Treble Duty in default of such Notice as aforesaid.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That every Person, Corporation, Company, or Society whatever, entitled unto any Shares in such publick Annuities, except as aforesaid, who shall not within the Time herein limited for Delivery of such Statements, make a Return thereof, to be charged in their respective Districts, according to the Directions of this Act, shall be charged and assessed to the Duties contained in the said last mentioned Schedule, by the Commissioners for special Purposes to be appointed under this Act, which said Commissioners shall from the best Information they can obtain, whenever it shall be necessary, make an Estimate of the Profits of each Person, Corporation, Company, or Society, who shall not already have been assessed by the Commissioners in their respective Districts for the accruing Profits, and shall make an Assesment thereon at the Rate prescribed by this Act; and the said Commissioners for special Purposes shall have the like Authority in all Cases where such Returns shall have not been made under the said recited Act, in or for any Year preceding the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five; and the Sum so assessed shall be recoverable as a Debt to His Majesty on Record, in like Manner as is directed by this Act in other Cases.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall declare his or her Intention to pay the Duty on the said Dividends into the Bank of England, shall, as and when such Dividends become due, deliver into the Office of the Commissioners for special Purposes, the like Account and Description of the Stock whereon such Dividends have been received, as is before required to be delivered by Persons paying the Duty where they respectively reside, together with the Receipt or Certificate of such Payment; which Account, being checked and examined in the said Office, shall entitle such Person to receive, and to every such Person shall be granted, an Acquittance for such Payment, and for the Duty chargeable on the Dividends so accounted for, without Fee or Reward.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Commissioners to whom any Statements of the Profits arising from such Annuities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in any District, shall, as soon afterwards as can conveniently be done, and before any Assesment thereon shall be made, cause to be transmitted to the said Commissioners for special Purposes, to be appointed under this Act, a Certificate of the Amount of the Profits arising as last aforesaid, which shall have been returned to them as assessable to or exempted from the said Duty under their Cognizance, which Certificates shall respectively contain the Names and Places of Abode, or other Descriptions of the respective Persons by whom such Returns shall have been made, and the particular Stock of Annuities on which such Profits shall arise; and all such other Particulars as are herein required to be returned by the respective Parties to be assessed to or exempted from the said Duty; and shall also, upon Demand by them, transmit to the said last mentioned Commissioners, all Certificates of Exemption from, or Abatements of the Duties contained in the said Schedule marked (C.) which shall have been granted by them under the Authority of this Act, in order that such Exemption or Abatement may be fully allowed, and the Party be discharged from any or a greater Assesment on that Account, as the Case may require, and to prevent an Assesment in Default being made by the Commissioners for special Purposes, according to the Powers vested in them by this Act.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in order to the due Assesment of Persons entitled to Dividends or Shares of Annuities payable out of the publick Revenue, all Persons and Corporations to whom the Payment thereof shall be intrusted, shall from Time to Time deliver an Account of all such Dividends and Shares to such Inspector or Surveyor as shall be authorized for that Purpose, under the Hands of Three or more of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, upon Demand thereof, in like Manner as the Statements of the Income of such Persons and Corporations are required to be delivered.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who as Trustee, Guardian, Tutor, Curator, or Committee, or as Attorney, Agent, or Factor of any Person or Persons, whether under Incapacity or not, and whether residing in Great Britain or not, and the Chamberlain, Treasurer, or other Officer of any Corporation, Company, or Society in Great Britain, and every other Person who shall in respect of any Office be in the Receipt of Dividends or Annuities aforesaid, (except the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, and the proper Officer of any other Court of Equity, or other Court in Great Britain, having the Direction and Controul of any Property vested in the said publick Annuities), shall be answerable for the doing all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as shall be required to be done, in order to an Assesment being duly made in each Case; and it shall be lawful for every Person herein-before described, by and out of such Dividends, whenever the same shall be received, to retain so much and such Part thereof, from Time to Time, as shall be sufficient for the Satisfaction and Discharge of such Duty, and every Person before described shall be and they are hereby respectively indemnified against all and every Person and Persons, Corporations, Companies, and Societies whatever, for all Payments on Account of the said Duty which they shall respectively make in pursuance of this Act.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for Special Purposes, to be appointed under this Act, shall have Authority, and they are hereby required to make, from Time to Time, Application to any Court having the Direction or Controul of Property arising from the said publick Annuities, for such Directions and Orders as may be necessary to secure a due Assessment of all such Property as aforesaid; and the Order of such Court shall be binding upon the Acts of the said Commissioners, as well as upon the respective Parties interested in such Property, as far as relates to the Assesment to be made under this and the said recited Act, and the Officers of such Court shall act in obedience to such Order in like Manner, and such Order shall be of the like Effect as if made in a Cause depending in such Court.

LXXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which the Title to any Property under the Controul or Direction of any Court of Equity or other Court, in any Suit depending or otherwise, or the Proportions thereof shall be uncertain, either by reason of any Contingency to which the same may be subject, or by reason of any Dispute concerning the same, or for any other Cause, at the Time of the Duty being charged thereon, and the same shall be paid according to the Directions of this Act, either by the Receiver or Receivers of the Profits, or by any Officer of such Court, and if it shall appear upon the Settlement or Ascertainment of such Property, that the annual Income arising therefrom, or from any Proportion thereof, belonging to any Person, together with all other Income of the same Person, shall not have amounted to One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to order such Relief as the Party would have been entitled unto at the Time of making the Assesment if the Title to such Property had been then ascertained, and to direct Repayment of the Sums which shall appear to them to have been overpaid, in such Manner as to them shall seem just and expedient.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Regulations and Penalties respecting the Duties in Schedule (D.) of delivering Lists or Declarations, or ascertaining or accounting for the Duties therein mentioned, or for assesseing or overcharging the same, shall be used, practised, and applied in respect of the Duties contained in the said Schedule marked (C.); and the Sums assesseed by the said Commissioners in respect of the said last-mentioned Duties, shall be paid and discharged by the like Rules and Regulation, and under the like Penalties, as are herein-after provided in respect of the Duties contained in Schedule (D.) as herein recited.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Subject of His Majesty shall, after Receipt of any publick Annuity as aforesaid, or any Share therein, or any Dividend thereof, either at the Bank of England or South Sea House, neglect to be assesseed for the same, and to pay the Duty thereof, for the Space of One Calendar Month thereafter, or shall depart from that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, into any other Part of the said United Kingdom, without being assesseed, and satisfying and paying the Duty payable on the Share or Dividend so received, such Duty shall be recoverable as a Debt on Record to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with full Costs of Suit, and all other Charges attending the same; and the like Process shall thereupon issue at the Instance of His Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, or the Advocate of Scotland, against such Person, his or her Estate, Goods, Chattels, and Effects, according to the Laws of that Part of the said United Kingdom wherein such Person shall reside; and such Proceedings shall be thereupon had for the Recovery of the said Sum, and all Costs and other Charges attending the same, as may lawfully be had in such Parts of the said United Kingdom respectively, for the Recovery of Debts due to His Majesty arising within the same, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Attorney, Agent, or Factor, except Bankers, shall receive any such Annuities, Shares, or Dividends, without paying the Duty chargeable thereon, or delivering to the Commissioners for special Purposes, to be appointed under this Act, a true Account of the several Sums so received, and the Names and Residences of the Principals for whom he so acts, every such Attorney, Agent, or Factor, so neglecting, except as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Duty so payable.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, having made his or her Declaration to pay the Duty on the Dividends arising as aforesaid into the Bank of England, shall neglect to pay the same into the Bank of England, and to deliver into the Office of the Special Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, the Receipt of such Payment, together with such Account as is herein-before required, every such Person shall forfeit Treble the Duty payable on such Dividends, which Duty shall be recoverable as a Debt on Record, with all Costs and Charges, in the Manner directed in the preceding Clause of this Act.

XC. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where the Stock of any Persons shall stand in the Books of the Company of the Bank of England, or South Sea Company, in the Name of any Trustee, Agent, or Factor, for such Persons as aforesaid, such Trustee, Agent, or Factor, except the Accountant General or Officer of a Court, having the Direction and Controul of the Property as aforesaid, shall be answerable for the said Duties, unless he shall prove, on Oath, before the Commissioners for special Purposes, to be appointed under this Act, to their Satisfaction, that such Annuities, Dividends, and Shares, bona fide belong to Persons not Subjects of His Majesty, and not resident in Great Britain, in which Cases the said Commissioners are hereby required strictly to examine as to the Persons to whom such Annuities, Dividends, and Shares belong, and the respective Places of their ordinary Residences, and all other Circumstances necessary for their Information, and Special Commissioners may apply to Courts having Controul of Property, for Orders respecting the same, Sums paid pending disputed Duties, may be repaid by Order Treasury to Parties, whose Shares entitle them to Abatement.

Duties on Duties, shall be assesseed and levied as Duties in Schedule (D.) [See § 93.]

Deductions which shall not be allowed.

Repairs, &c. on a Three Years Average.

to require from the Cashier or Cashiers, or other Officers belonging to the respective Offices where such Dividends shall be payable, such Information respecting the same as the said Commissioners shall think necessary, and to grant to the Party making such Application a Certificate of such Exemption: Provided also, that where the Stock of any Person shall stand in the Name or Names of such Person, or of any other Person not resident in Great Britain, it shall be lawful for the Attorney, Agent, or Factor, having Authority by virtue of any Letters or Powers of Attorney, to receive the Dividends arising from such Stock, to make such Application as aforesaid to the said Commissioners for special Purposes, and on due Proof of the several Circumstances before required, the said Commissioners shall grant such Certificate as before directed, in order that such Exemptions may be duly carried into Effect.

XC1. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Stock for which any such Exemption shall have been obtained, or any Part thereof, shall be transferred or assigned to any Person or Persons, Corporation, Company, or Society whatever, the said Exemption shall cease: Provided always, that where the Whole of such Stock or Interest therein shall not be so transferred or assigned, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners on such Proof as is herein-before required, on like Application for that Purpose, to grant a like Certificate for the Purpose of exempting the Remainder of such Stock, and so from Time to Time, so long as any Part of the said Stock shall continue to be entitled to the said Exemption.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, with Intention to defraud His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, falsely or fraudulently make any Claim to be exempted either in his or her own Behalf, or any other, from the Duty contained in the said Schedule marked (C.) contrary to the Intent of this Act, every such Person shall forfeit to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and if such Claim shall be made by any Person in his or her own Behalf, he or she shall moreover be liable to be assessed in Treble the Duty to be charged on the said Annuities and Shares, at the Rate prescribed by the said recited Act.

XCIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty contained in the Schedule marked (D.) as herein recited, shall be assessed and charged under the following Rules, which Rules shall be deemed and construed a Part of this Act, and to refer to the said last-mentioned Duty, as if the same had been inserted herein under a special Enactment.

SCHEDULE (D.)

The said last-mentioned Duties shall extend to every Description of Property or Profits, which shall not be chargeable or charged to either of the said Duties contained in Schedules (A.) (B.) or (C.) and to every Description of Employment of Profit, not chargeable or charged to the Duty herein-after mentioned contained in Schedule (E.) and not specially exempted from the said respective Duties, and shall be charged annually on and paid by the Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, Fraternities, Fellowships, Companies, or Societies, whether Corporate or not Corporate, receiving or entitled unto the same, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, respectively.

RULES for ascertaining the said last-mentioned Duties in the particular Cases herein mentioned.

First Case.—Duties to be charged in respect of any Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, in the Nature of Trade.

First.—The Duty to be charged in respect thereof shall be computed on a Sum not less than the full Amount of the Balance of the Profits or Gains of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, upon a fair and just Average of Three Years, ending on such Day of the Year immediately preceding the Year of Assessment on which the Accounts of the said Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, shall have been usually made up, or on the Fifth Day of April preceding the Year of Assessment, and shall be assessed, charged, and paid, without other Deduction than is herein-after allowed: Provided always, that in Cases where the Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, shall have been set up and commenced within the said Period of Three Years, it shall be lawful to make the Computation for One Year on the Average of the Balance of the Profits and Gains from the Period of first setting up the same: Provided also, that in Cases where the Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, shall have been set up and commenced within the Year of Assessment, it shall be lawful to make the Computation according to the Rule in the Sixth Case of this Schedule.

Second.—The said Duty shall extend to every Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, Fraternities, Fellowships, Companies, or Societies, and to every Art, Mystery, Adventure, or Concern, carried on by them respectively in Great Britain or elsewhere, as aforesaid, not charged under Schedule (A.)

Third.—The Amount of Duty charged under Schedule (B.) on any Tenements or Buildings whatever, occupied and used wholly and exclusively for the Purpose of Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern aforesaid, shall be deducted from the Duty charged on the Profits of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, under this Schedule marked (D.) on due Proof thereof before the Commissioners for executing this Act.

Fourth.—In estimating the Balance of Profits and Gains chargeable under Schedule (D.) or for the Purpose of assessing the Duty thereon, no Sum or Sums shall be set against or deducted from, or allowed to be set against or deducted from, such Profits or Gains, on Account of any Sums expended for Repairs of Premises occupied for the Purpose of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, nor for any Sum expended by them for the Supply or Repairs, or Alterations of any Implements or Utensils employed for the Purpose of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, beyond the Sum usually expended for such Purposes, according to an Average of Three Years preceding the Year in which such Assessment shall be made; nor on Account

Account of Losses not connected with or arising out of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern; nor on Account of any Capital withdrawn therefrom; nor for any Sums employed or intended to be employed as Capital, or in Improvement of Premises occupied for the Purpose of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern; nor on Account or under Pretence of any Interest which might have been made on such Sums if laid out at Interest; nor for any Debts except such Debts, or such Parts thereof as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners respectively to be irrecoverable and separate; nor for any Average Loss beyond the actual Amount of Losses after Adjustment; nor for any Sum recoverable under an Insurance or Contract of Indemnity.

Fifth.—In estimating the Amount of the Profits and Gains arising as aforesaid, no Deduction shall be made on Account of any annual Interest, or any Annuity, or other annual Payment, payable out of such Profits or Gains, except the Interest of Debts due to Foreigners not resident in Great Britain.

Second Case.—The Duty to be charged in respect of Professions, Employments, or Vocations.

First.—The Duty to be charged in respect thereof shall be computed at a Sum not less than the full Amount of the Balance of the Profits, Gains, and Emoluments of such Professions, Employments, or Vocations, (after making such Deductions and no other as by this Act are allowed), within the preceding Year, ending as in the First Case, to be paid on the actual Amount of such Profits or Gains, without any Deduction, subject to the like Provisions as are made in the First Case, in respect of the Period of Average in the Cases of setting up and commencing such Profession, Employment, or Vocation, within the Period herein limited. The Third, Fourth, and Fifth Rules in the First Case shall also extend to the Profits arising under the Second Case.

In estimating the Balance of the Profits or Gains to be charged according to either of the First or Second Cases, no Sum or Sums shall be set against, deducted from, or allowed to be set against or deducted from, such Profits or Gains, for any Disbursements or Expences whatever, not being Money wholly and exclusively laid out or expended for the Purposes of such Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, or of such Profession, Employment, or Vocation; nor for any Disbursements or Expences of Maintenance of the Parties, their Families, or Establishments; nor for Rent, or Value of any Dwelling House or domestick Offices, or any Part of such Dwelling House or Offices, although used for the Purposes of such Trade or Concern, nor for any other domestick or private Purposes, distinct from the Purposes of such Profession, Employment, or Vocation.

Third Case.—The Duty to be charged in respect of Profits of an uncertain annual Value not charged in Schedule (A.)

First.—The Duty to be charged in respect thereof shall be computed at a Sum not less than the full Amount of the Profits or Gains arising therefrom within the preceding Year, ending as in the First Case, to be paid on the actual Amount of such Profits or Gains, without any Deduction.

Second.—The Profits on all Exchequer Bills, and other Securities bearing Interest payable out of the publick Revenue, and on all Discounts, and on all Interest of Money not being annual Interest, payable or paid by any Persons whatever, shall be charged according to the preceding Rule in this Case.

Fourth Case.—The Duty to be charged in respect of Interest arising from Securities in Ireland, or in the British Plantations in America, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions out of Great Britain, and Foreign Securities.

The Duty to be charged in respect thereof shall be computed on a Sum not less than the whole and just Sum and Sums (so far as the same can be computed) which have been or will be received in Great Britain in the current Year, without any Deduction or Abatement.

Fifth Case.—The Duty to be charged in respect of Possessions in Ireland, or in the British Plantations in America, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions out of Great Britain, and Foreign Possessions.

The Duty to be charged in respect thereof shall be computed at not less than the full Amount of the actual Sums annually received in Great Britain, either for Remittances from thence payable in Great Britain, or from Property imported from thence into Great Britain, or from Money or Value received in Great Britain, and arising from Property which shall not have been imported into Great Britain, or from Money or Value so received on Credit, or on Account in respect of such Remittances, Property, Money, or Value, brought or to be brought into Great Britain, computing the same on an Average of the Three preceding Years, as directed in the First Case, without Deduction or Abatement.

Sixth Case.—The Duty to be charged in respect of any annual Profits or Gains not falling under any of the foregoing Rules, and not charged by virtue of any of the other Schedules contained in this Act.

The Nature of such Profits or Gains, and the Grounds on which the Amount thereof shall have been computed, and the Average taken thereon (if any) shall be stated to the Commissioners; and the Computation shall be made on the Amount of the full Value of the Profits and Gains received annually, or according to such Average as aforesaid as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of the Person or Persons in Receipt of the same or entitled thereto.

Persons carrying on Two or more Concerns, may let the Loss sustained in one against the Profits acquired in the other.

Temporary Absences shall be charged as Residents,

* [See § 99.]

Temporary Residents shall not be charged until after Six Months Residence.

[And see as to Irish Officers of State, &c. f. 107.]

Persons returning to Great Britain before 5th April after Exemption claimed, shall be charged.

Corporations shall be charged with Duties payable by them through their Officers.

Trustees and Guardians shall be charged to the Duties on account of Infants, &c.

Receivers charged for Persons not residing in Great Britain.

Receivers shall be charged for Trust Property under Control of Court of Chancery, &c.

How married Women, trading as sole, or living with their Husbands, shall be charged.

XCV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain any Person or Persons carrying on, either solely or in Partnership, Two or more distinct Trades, Manufactures, Adventures, or Concerns, in the Nature of Trade, the Profits whereof are made chargeable under the Rules of Schedule (D.), from deducting or setting against the Profits acquired in One or more of the said Concerns, the Excess of the Loss or Losses sustained in any other of the said Concerns, over and above the Profits thereof, in such Manner as may be done under this Act, where a Loss shall be deducted from the Profits of the same Concern; and the respective Commissioners shall have Authority to allow such Deductions as in other Cases, and to assess such Person or Persons accordingly.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That any Subject of His Majesty, whose ordinary Residence shall have been in Great Britain, and who shall have departed from Great Britain, and gone into any Parts beyond the Seas for the Purpose only of occasional Residence, at the Time of the Execution of this Act, shall be deemed, notwithstanding such temporary Absence, a Person chargeable to the Duties mentioned in this Act, as a Person actually residing in Great Britain, and shall be assessed and charged accordingly (in Manner herein-after directed*) upon the whole Amount of his or her Profits or Gains, whether the same shall arise from Property in Great Britain or elsewhere, or from any Allowance, Annuities, or Stipends, except as herein is excepted, or from any Profession, Employment, Trade, or Vocation in Great Britain or elsewhere.

XCVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall, on or after the passing of this Act, actually be in Great Britain for some temporary Purpose only, and not with any View or Intent of establishing his or her Residence therein, and who shall not actually have resided in Great Britain for the Period of Six successive Calendar Months, shall be charged with the said Duties as a Person residing in Great Britain, in respect of the Profits or Gains received from or out of any Possessions in Ireland, or any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or any Foreign Possessions, or from Securities in Ireland, or any other of His Majesty's Dominions or Foreign Securities; but nevertheless every such Person shall, after such Six Months Residence therein, be chargeable for the same from the Commencement of the Year, in case such Person shall have been resident in Great Britain, or if not so resident, then from the Period of six or her having come into Great Britain.

XCVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any Person who shall depart from Great Britain after claiming such Exemption, and shall again return to Great Britain before the Fifth Day of April next after such Claim made, shall be chargeable to the said Duties as a Person residing in Great Britain, for the Whole of the Year in which such Claim shall have been made.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Bodies Politick, Corporate, or Collegiate, Companies, Fraternities, Fellowships, or Societies of Persons, whether Corporate or not Corporate, shall be chargeable with such and the like Duties as any Person or Persons will, under and by virtue of this Act, be chargeable with, and that the Chamberlain, or other Officer acting as Treasurer, Auditor, or Receiver for the Time being of every such Company, Corporation, Fraternity, Fellowship, or Society, shall be answerable for doing all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as shall be required to be done by virtue of this Act, in order to the assessing such Corporations, Companies, Fraternities, Fellowships, or Societies, to the Duties granted by this Act, and paying the same.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That the Trustee or Trustees, Guardian or Guardians, Tutor or Tutors, Curator or Curators, Committee or Committees, of any Person or Persons being Infants, or married Women, Lunatics, Idiots, or Infane, having the Direction, Controul, or Management of the Property or Concerns of such Infants, married Women, Lunatics, Idiots, or infane Persons, whether such Infants, married Women, Lunatics, Idiots, or infane Persons, shall reside in Great Britain or not, shall be chargeable to the said Duties, in like Manner as and to the same Amount, as would be charged if such Infants were of full Age, or such married Women were sole, or such Lunatics, Idiots, or infane Persons, were capable to act for themselves; and any Person or Persons not resident in Great Britain, whether Subjects of His Majesty or not, shall be chargeable in the Name or Names of such Trustee or Trustees, Guardian or Guardians, Tutor or Tutors, Curator or Curators, Committee or Committees, or of any Agent or Agents, or Receiver or Receivers, having the Receipt of any Profits or Gains arising as herein mentioned, and belonging to such Person or Persons, in the like Manner, and to the like Amount as would be charged if such Persons were resident in Great Britain, and in the actual Receipt thereof; and every such Trustee, Guardian, Tutor, Curator, Committee, Agent, or Receiver, shall be answerable for the doing all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as shall be required to be done by virtue of this Act, in order to the assessing such Persons to the Duties granted by this Act, and paying the same.

C. And be it further enacted, That the Receiver or Receivers appointed by the Court of Chancery, or by any other Court in Great Britain, having the Direction and Controul of any Property in respect whereof a Duty is charged as last mentioned, whether the Title to such Property shall be uncertain or not, or subject to any Contingency or not, or be depending, or be not ascertained by reason of any Dispute or other Cause, shall be chargeable to the said Duties, in like Manner and to the like Amount as would be charged if the said Property was not under the Direction and Controul of such Court, and the Title thereto was certain, and not subject to any Contingency whatever; and every such Receiver shall be answerable for doing all such Matters and Things as shall be required to be done by virtue of this Act, in order to the assessing the Duties granted by this Act, and paying the same.

CI. And be it further enacted, That any married Woman acting as a sole Trader by the Custom of any City or Place, or otherwise, shall be chargeable to such and the like Duties, and in like Manner, except as herein-after is mentioned, as if she was actually sole and unmarried: Provided always, that the Profits of any married Woman living with her Husband shall be deemed the Profits of the Husband, and the same shall be charged charged in the Name of the Husband, and not in her Name, or of her Trustee or Trustees: Provided also, that any married Woman living in Great Britain separate from her Husband, whether such Husband shall be temporarily absent from her or from Great Britain, or otherwise, who shall receive any Allowance or Remittance from Property out of Great Britain, shall be charged as a Feme Sole, if entitled thereto in her own Right, and as the Agent of the Husband, if she receive the same from or through him, or from his Property or on his Credit.

CII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Trustee who shall have authorized the Receipt of the Profits arising from Trust Property, by the Person or Persons entitled thereunto, or by his, her, or their respective Agent or Agents, and which Person or Persons shall actually receive the same under such Authority, nor any Agent or Receiver (being respectively Bankers, or acting as such, and receiving Property as such Bankers, or Persons acting as such, and not as Trustees) of any Person or Persons being of full Age, and resident in Great Britain (other than married Women, Lunatics, Idiots, and insane Persons) who shall return a List in the Manner herein-after required of the Names and Residences of such Persons, shall be required to do any other Act for the Purpose of assessing such Persons, unless the Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act, in respect of the Assessment to be made on such Persons, shall require the Testimony of such Trustees, Agents, or Receivers, in pursuance of the Directions herein-after given.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person being Trustee, Agent, or Receiver, Guardian, Tutor, Curator, or Committee of or for any Person or Persons, shall be assessed as herein-after mentioned, in respect of such Person or Persons, or where any Chamberlain, Treasurer, or other Officer of any Corporation, Company, Fraternity, or Society shall be so assessed in respect of such Corporation, Company, Fraternity, or Society as aforesaid, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for every Person or Persons who shall be so assessed, by and out of the Money which shall come to his or her Hands as such Trustee, Agent, or Receiver, Guardian, Tutor, Committee, or Curator as aforesaid, or as such Chamberlain, Treasurer, Clerk, or other Officer, to retain so much and such Part thereof, from Time to Time, as shall be sufficient to pay such Assessment; and every such Trustee, Agent, or Receiver, Guardian, Tutor, Committee, or Curator, Chamberlain, Treasurer, Clerk, or other Officer, shall be, and they are hereby respectively indemnified against all and every Person and Persons, Corporations, Companies, Fraternities, or Societies whatsoever, for all Payments which they shall respectively make in pursuance and by virtue of this Act.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That the Computation of the Duty to be charged in respect of any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, or any Adventure or Concern, whether carried on by any Person singly, or by any One or more Persons jointly, or by any Corporation, Company, Fraternity, or Society, shall be made exclusive of the Profits or Gains arising from Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, occupied by joint Partners for the Purpose of such Profession, Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern; and the Computation of Duty arising in respect of any Profession, Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, carried on by Two or more Persons jointly, shall be made and stated jointly and in one Sum, and separately and distinctly from any other Duty chargeable on the same Persons, or either or any of them; and that the Return of the Partner who shall be first named in the Deed, Instrument, or other Agreement of Copartnership (or where there shall be no such Deed, Instrument, or Agreement, then of the Partner who shall be named singly or with Precedence to the other Partner or Partners, in the usual Name, Style, or Firm of such Copartnership, or where such precedent Partner shall not be an acting Partner, then of the precedent acting Partner) and who shall be resident in Great Britain, and who is hereby required to make such Return on Behalf of himself, and the other Partner or Partners, whose Names and Residences shall also be declared in such Return, and shall be sufficient Authority to charge such Partners jointly: Provided always, that where no such Partner shall be resident in Great Britain, then the Statements shall be prepared and delivered by their Agent, Manager, or Factor, resident in Great Britain, jointly for such Partners, and such joint Assessments shall be made in the Partnership Name, Style, Firm, or Description: Provided also, that if the said Partners shall declare the Proportions of their respective Shares in such Profession or Concern, in order to a separate Assessment, it shall be lawful to charge them separately and respectively at the Rate which such Proportions shall be chargeable with by virtue of this Act; but if no such Declaration be made, then such Assessment shall be made jointly according to the Amount of the Profits and Gains of such Partnership: Provided also, that any joint Partner in such Profession or Concern which shall have been already returned by such precedent Partner as aforesaid, may return his Name and Place of Abode, and that he is such Partner, without returning the Amount of Duty payable in respect thereof, unless the Commissioners respectively shall think proper to require further Returns, in which Case, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to require from every such Partner the like Returns, and the like Information and Evidence, as they are hereby entitled to require from the Partner making the Return of Duty.

CV. And be it further enacted, That if amongst any Persons engaged in any Profession, Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern in Partnership together, any Change shall take place in any such Partnership, either by Death or Dissolution of Partnership, as to all or any of the Partners, or by admitting any other Partner therein before the Time of making the Assessment, or within the Period for which the Assessment ought to be made under this Act, or if any Person shall have succeeded to any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, or any Adventure or Concern within such respective Periods as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners, and they, and also the Party or Parties interested, and every Officer acting in the Execution of this Act, shall compute and ascertain the Duty payable in respect of such Partnership, or any of such Partners, or any Person succeeding to such Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, or Adventure, or Concern, according to the Profits and Gains of such Business derived during the respective Periods herein mentioned, notwithstanding such Change therein, or Succession to such Business as aforesaid, unless such Partners or Partner, or such Person succeeding Trustees of full Age residing in Great Britain may deliver Names and Residences only.

All Trustees and all Officers of Corporations may retain the Duties out of Trust Property.

Trade shall be charged on Individuals separately from Duty on Lands, &c.

Partners shall be charged jointly unless they declare their respective Shares.—The Return shall be made by the first acting Partner resident in Great Britain, or if none resident, by an Agent.

Returns by joint Partners in some Cases.

On Change in Partnerships Duty shall be charged on the Profits of the Business antecedent to the Change; unless in case of specific Diminution. [See p. 143.]

to

to such Business as aforesaid, shall prove, to the Satisfaction of the said respective Commissioners, that the Profits and Gains of such Business have fallen short or will fall short, from some specific Cause to be alleged to them, since such Change or Succession took place, or by reason thereof.

Profits of Possessions in Ireland, &c. shall be assessed in Great Britain where the Party is resident.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That the Duty to be assessed by virtue of this Act, in respect of the Profits or Gains arising from Possessions or Securities in Ireland, upon any Person resident in Great Britain as aforesaid, may be stated to and assessed by the respective additional Commissioners acting for the respective Places where the Persons receiving or entitled unto the same shall reside, under the Regulations herein-after mentioned; and if the same shall be received by any Agent, Attorney, or Factor, such Agent, Attorney, or Factor, shall make such Return of the Name and Place of Abode of the Person entitled thereto, as is herein required to be made of other Persons of full Age resident in Great Britain, or if not of full Age, shall be answerable for doing all Acts, Matters, and Things, as shall be required by this Act to be done, in order to the assessing such Profits to the said last-mentioned Duties, and paying the same.

Officers of State, &c. for Ireland, though residing in Great Britain, shall be chargeable as Subjects residing out of Great Britain.

CVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the respective Persons holding Offices in Ireland, or serving in Parliament, who shall or may be exempted from any Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall, under the like Circumstances under which such Exemptions are to be claimed, be chargeable to the Duties under this Act, in like Manner only as Subjects of His Majesty residing out of Great Britain. [See § 93, & 43 G. 3. c. 161. Schedule L.]

Profits of Foreign or Colonial Possessions or Securities may be assessed in London, Bristol, Liverpool, or Glasgow, according to Importations or Remittances.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty to be assessed by virtue of this Act, in respect of the Profits or Gains arising from Foreign Possessions or Foreign Securities, or in the British Plantations in America, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, may be stated to and assessed by the respective Commissioners acting for the respective Places herein-after mentioned, videlicet, London, Bristol, Liverpool, and Glasgow, according to the Regulations herein-after mentioned, as if such Duty had been assessed upon the Profits or Gains arising from Trade or Manufacture carried on in such Places respectively, and such Duty shall be stated to, and assessed and charged by the Commissioners acting for such of the said Places at or nearest to which such Property shall have been first imported into Great Britain, or at or nearest to which the Person who shall have received such Remittances, Money, or Value from thence, and arising from Property not imported as aforesaid, shall reside; and, in Default of the Owner or Proprietor thereof being charged, the Trustee, Agent, or Receiver of such Profits or Gain shall be charged for the same, and shall be answerable for the doing all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as shall be required by this Act to be done, in order to the assessing such Profits to the Duties granted by this Act, and paying the same, whether the Person or Persons to whom the said Profits belong shall be resident in Great Britain or not.

For levying the Duties in Schedule (D.) additional Commissioners, [See § 25.] shall summon Assessors, and administer Oath to them, [See § 226] and give them their Warrants and Instructions.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That for the ordering, raising, and levying the Duties contained in Schedule (D.), the additional Commissioners authorized to be named or selected as aforesaid, shall, at the first Meeting to be held under this Act, or at a Meeting to be appointed for that Purpose, or any Two of them present at such Meeting, direct their Precept or Precepts to such Person and Persons as the Commissioners for general Purposes shall have appointed Assessor or Assessors for the Execution of this Act, or in case no such Appointment shall have been made, then to the Assessor or Assessors for the Land Tax, the Duties on Houses and Windows, or any other Duties charged by Assessment in their respective Districts, requiring them to appear before the said additional Commissioners at such Time and Place as they shall appoint; and shall at such their Appearance administer to them the Oath required to be taken by this Act, and issue to them their Warrants of Appointments as Assessors in the Execution of this Act, signed by Two or more of the Commissioners for general Purposes, and such Instructions duly filled up as shall be necessary for carrying this Act into Execution.

Assessors shall fix general Notices on Church Doors, &c. requiring Persons to deliver Lists within 21 Days. [See § 123 &c.]

CX. And be it further enacted, That the Assessors to be appointed to execute this Act shall, within the Time and in the Manner directed by the Precept of the additional Commissioners under this Act, cause general Notices to be affixed on the Door of the Church or Chapel, and Market House or Cross (if any) of the City, Town, Parish, or Place for which such Assessors act, and if such City, Town, Parish, or Place, shall not have a Church or Chapel, or Market House or Cross, then on the nearest Church or Chapel to such City, Town, Parish, or Place, requiring all Persons, who are by this Act required to make out and deliver any List, Declaration, or Statement, to make out and deliver to the respective Commissioners or to their Clerk, at their respective Offices to be described in such Notice, all such Lists, Declarations, and Statements accordingly, within such Time as shall be limited by such Precept, and which shall not in any Case be later than Twenty-one Days from the Date of such Precept; and such general Notices shall, when the same shall be made as aforesaid, be deemed sufficient Notice to all Persons resident in such City, Town, Parish, or Place, and the affixing the same in Manner aforesaid shall be deemed good Service of such Notice; and the said respective Assessors shall cause the said Notices to be from Time to Time replaced (if necessary) for the Space of Ten Days before the Time required for the Delivery of such Lists, Declarations, and Statements as aforesaid; and every Person wilfully tearing, defacing, or obliterating any such Notice so affixed, during the said Space of Ten Days, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered as any Penalty may be recovered under the said recited Acts respectively.

Such general Notice sufficient.

Penalty on defacing same not exceeding 20 l.

Assessors shall deliver Notices at the Houses of Persons chargeable, who shall deliver Statements to additional Commissioners. [See § 125, 123.]

CXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Assessors shall, within the like Time after receiving the Precept of the Commissioners under this Act, give Notice to every Householder, or Occupier of any Apartment where the Dwelling House shall be let in different Apartments, and to every Lodger, Inmate, or other Person chargeable to the said Duties, and residing within the Limits of the said Places where such Assessors shall act, or leave the same at his or her Dwelling House or Place of Residence, requiring every such Person to prepare and deliver, in Manner herein-after directed, all such Lists, Declarations, and Statements, as they are respectively required to do by this Act, within such Time as shall be limited by such Precept within the Period before-mentioned; and if any Person residing within any Parish or Place at the Time such general Notice as aforesaid shall be given, or to whom such Notice shall be personally given, or at whose Dwelling House or Place of Residence the same shall be left, shall refuse or neglect to make out such Lists, Declarations, or Statements, as may be applicable to such Person, and as the Case may require, and deliver the same in Manner herein-after directed, within the Time limited in such Notice, then such additional Commissioners shall forthwith issue a Summons under their Hands, or the Hands of any Two or more of them, to all such Persons making Default as aforesaid, in order that the Duty and Penalty for such Refusal or Neglect may be duly levied.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That every such List, Declaration, or Statement of the Profits to be charged under Schedule (D.) shall be delivered to the Assessor or Assessors of the same Parish or Place, or One of them; except Statements containing the Amount of Profits estimated as aforesaid in such Cafes where the additional Commissioners acting for such Parish or Place shall have caused to be inserted in the Notice that an Office is open for the Receipt of Statements of Profits, and a proper Person appointed to receive the same, and the Time and Place of Attendance, in which Cafes the Delivery of such Statements shall be made at such Office to the Person there appointed, and not elsewhere; provided that the Delivery of all Lists and Declarations, not being such Statements of Profits, shall be made to the Assessor or Assessors as hereby directed; and if any Dispute shall arise whether any Statement of Profits hath been delivered into such Office, no other Proof thereof shall be admitted than the Production of a Receipt under the Hand of the proper Person to whom the same ought to have been delivered, and such Person is hereby required to give such Receipt accordingly gratis, and on unstamped Paper.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, when required so to do by any Notice given in pursuance of this Act, shall, within the Period to be mentioned in such Notice, prepare and deliver to the Assessor or Assessors of the Parish or Place where such Person shall reside, a List in Writing, containing, to the best of his or her Belief, the proper Name and Names of every Lodger or Inmate resident in his, her, or their Dwelling House, and of other Persons in his or their Service or Employ, whether resident in such Dwelling House or not, and the Place of Residence of such of them as are not resident in such Dwelling House; and also of any such Lodger or Inmate who shall have an ordinary Place of Residence elsewhere, at which he or she is entitled, under the Regulations of this Act, to be assessed, who shall be desirous of being so assessed at such Place of ordinary Residence, which Lists shall be signed by the respective Parties delivering the same, and shall severally be made out in such Form as shall be directed under the Authority of this Act.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be in the Receipt of any Money or Value, or the Profits or Gains arising from any of the Sources mentioned in Schedule (D.) chargeable by this Act, or of belonging to any other Person or Persons, in whatever Character the same shall be received (except Bankers or Persons acting as such as aforesaid) shall, within the like Period, prepare and deliver, in Manner before directed, a List in Writing, in such Form as aforesaid, signed by him or her, containing the Name and Names, and Place or Places of Abode of each and every Person to whom any such Property shall belong, together with a Declaration whether such Person is of full Age, or a married Woman living with her Husband, or resident in Great Britain, or an Infant, Idiot, Lunatick, or insane Person, or a married Woman for whose Payment of the Duty hereby charged on her, the Husband is not accountable by this Act; in order that such Person, according to a Statement to be delivered as herein mentioned, may be charged either in the Name of the Person delivering such List, if the same shall be so chargeable, or in the Name of the Person or Persons to whom such Property shall belong, if of full Age and resident in Great Britain, and the same be so chargeable by this Act; and every Person acting in such Character jointly with any other Person or Persons, shall deliver a List of the Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode of the Person or Persons joined with him or her at the Time of delivering such List, and to the same Persons to whom such List shall be delivered.

CXV. And be it further enacted, That every Person chargeable under the said Schedule marked (D.) shall, when required so to do, whether by any general or particular Notice given in pursuance of this Act, within the Period to be mentioned in such Notice as aforesaid, prepare and deliver to the Person or Persons appointed to receive the same, and to whom the same ought to be delivered, a Statement in Writing, to be made out in such Form as before directed, signed by him or her, containing the Amount of the Balance of the Profits or Gains arising to such Person or Persons respectively, from all and every of the Sources charged by the said recited Act, according to the said Schedule marked (D.); which Amount shall be estimated for the Period, and according to the respective Rules contained in the Schedule of this Act marked (D.); to which Statement shall be added a Declaration, that the same is estimated on all the Sources contained in the said Schedule, describing the same, after setting against, or deducting from such Profits or Gains, such Sums, and no other, as are allowed by this Act; and every such Statement shall be made, exclusive of Profits or Gains of any Property, or any Office or Employment of Profit, which ought to be charged by virtue of any other of the Schedules contained in this Act, and also exclusive of the Profits and Gains arising from Interest of Money, arising out of the Property of any other Person or Persons, for which such other Person or Persons ought to be charged by virtue of this Act; Provided that in every such Return, where the Party shall be liable unto, or shall be answerable for the Duties contained in the Schedule marked (C.) it shall be lawful for him, her, or them, and he, she, and they is and are hereby required, in a separate Statement to be made out as aforesaid, to deliver an Account of the Amount of Duty wherewith he, she, or they ought to be charged by virtue of the said Schedule, in Manner before directed.

Persons neglecting to deliver Lists, &c. shall be summoned by Commissioners that the Penalty [see f. 218] may be levied.

Lists and Statements shall be delivered to Assessors, or to Office for the Purpose.

Persons shall deliver in Lists of the Names of Lodgers, Inmates, and Servants.

Persons acting for others (except Bankers) shall deliver in Lists, in order to the Duty being duly charged on the Parties liable.

* See f. 102.

Trustees, &c. shall state Name, &c. of their Co-Trustees.

Statements shall be delivered pursuant to Notice [see f. 210, 211] by Parties of the Amount of Profits chargeable under Schedule (D.) with a Declaration of the Manner of estimating. Such Statement shall be exclusive of other Profits, &c.

* See f. 192. Duties under Schedule (C.) [See f. 72, 78.] may be stated separately.

Trustees of incapacitated Persons shall deliver Statements.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person, who shall act in any Character as aforesaid for any other Person or Persons who by reason of any such Incapacity as aforesaid cannot be charged by virtue of this Act, shall also, within the like Period, deliver to the Person or Persons appointed to receive the same under this Act, and to whom the same ought to be delivered, in the same District in which such Person or Persons ought to be charged on his or their own Account, a Statement in Writing, signed by him, her, or them, and to be made in such Form as before directed, of the Amount of the Balance of Profits and Gains to be charged on him, her, or them, on Account of such other Person or Persons, estimated during the Period and according to the Rules contained in the said Schedule, together with such Declaration of the Manner of estimating the same as aforesaid: Provided always, that where Two or more such Persons shall be liable to be charged for the same Person or Persons, one Statement only shall be required, and such Statement shall be delivered by them jointly, or by One or more of them, on Behalf of him, her, or themselves, and the rest of the Persons so liable; and it shall be lawful for them, or any of them, to give Notice in Writing to the additional Commissioners acting in each District, where they or any of them shall be called upon for such Statement, in what Parish or Place, or Parishes or Places they are respectively chargeable by this Act, on their, or his or her own Account, and in which of the said Parishes or Places they are desirous of being so charged on the Behalf of such other Person or Persons for whom they so act in any of the Characters before-mentioned, and they shall be assessed accordingly by one Assessment, in such Parish or Place, provided any one of such Persons shall be liable to be charged on his or her own Account in such Parish or Place; and if more than one Assessment shall be made on such Persons, or any of them, on the same Account, they and every of them shall be relieved from such double Assessment, by like Applications to the Commissioners, as are allowed in other Cases by this Act.

One Statement only requisite from joint Trustees.

Relief to Trustees on double Assessments. [See f. 149.]

Officers of Corporations shall deliver Statements, the Estimates for which shall be made for Dividends paid.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That every such Officer before described of any Corporation, Fraternity, Fellowship, Company, or Society, not otherwise to be charged as aforesaid, shall also, within the like Period, prepare and deliver in like Manner a Statement of the Balance of the Profits and Gains to be charged on such Corporation, Fraternity, Fellowship, Company, or Society, computed according to the Directions of this Act, together with such Declaration of the Manner of estimating the same as aforesaid; and such Estimate shall be made on the Amount of the Balance of the annual Profits and Gains of such Corporation, Fraternity, Fellowship, Company, or Society, before any Dividend shall have been made thereof to any other Person or Persons, or publick Bodies having any Share, Right, or Title in or to such Profits or Gains, and all such other Person or Persons, and publick Bodies shall allow out of such Dividends a proportionate Deduction in respect of the Duty so charged; provided that nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to require in such Statement the Inclusion of Salaries, Wages, or Profits of any Officer of such Corporation, Fraternity, Fellowship, Company, or Society, otherwise chargeable under this Act: Provided also, that the Statements of the several Companies of the Bank, East India and South Sea, shall be made exclusive of the Dividends and the Profits attached thereto, and to be divided amongst the Proprietors of the respective Stocks belonging to such Companies.

But not including Officers' Salary. Exemption as to Bank, &c. [See f. 31.]

Penalty on Person neglecting to deliver in Lists, &c. and double Duty.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who ought by this Act to deliver any List, Declaration, or Statement as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect so to do within the Time limited in such Notice, or under any Pretence shall wilfully delay the Delivery thereof, every such Person shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and Double the Duty at which such Persons ought to be charged by virtue of the said recited Act and this Act; such Penalty to be recovered as any Penalty may be recovered by the said recited Acts respectively; and the increased Duty to be added to the Assessment; but nevertheless subject to such Stay of Prosecution or other Proceedings, by a subsequent Delivery of such List, Declaration, or Statement, in the Cases following; videlicet, If any Trustee, Agent, or Receiver, or other Person hereby required to deliver such List, Declaration, or Statement, on Behalf of any other Person or Persons, shall deliver an imperfect List, Declaration, or Statement, declaring him or herself unable to give a more perfect List, Declaration, or Statement, with the Reasons for such Inability, and the said Commissioners shall be satisfied therewith, the said Trustee, Agent, or Receiver, or other Person as aforesaid, shall not be liable to such Penalty, in case the Commissioners shall grant further Time for the Delivery thereof, and such Trustee, Agent, Receiver, or other Person, shall, within the Time so granted, deliver a List, Declaration, or Schedule, as perfect as the Nature of the Case will enable him or her to prepare and deliver.

Exemption in favour of Trustees, &c.

Statements shall include the whole Charge under Schedule (D.) and may also include that under Schedule (C.) Duties shall be charged in one Division except in case of different Concerns. Statements by Trustees, Officers, &c. shall include all Duties chargeable.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Statement shall include all and every Source and Sources chargeable, in respect of the said Duties contained in Schedule (D.) herein recited, on the Person or Persons delivering the same, on his or their own Account, or on Account of any other Person or Persons, and may also include therein the Amount to be charged on such Persons in respect of the Duties contained in Schedule (C.) and every Person shall be chargeable in respect of the Whole of such Duties in one and the same Division, and by the same Commissioners (except in Cases where the same Person or Persons shall be engaged in different Concerns relating to Trade or Manufacture in divers Places, in each of which Cases a separate Assessment of the Duties contained in Schedule (D.) aforesaid, may be made in respect of each Concern, as the Case may require) at the Rate prescribed by this Act; and every such Statement on the Behalf of any other Person or Persons, for which such Person or Persons shall be chargeable as acting in any of the Characters before described, or on the Behalf of any Corporation, Fellowship, Fraternity, Company, or Society, shall include all and every Source and Sources chargeable as last aforesaid; and every such Statement on the Behalf of any other Person or Persons shall be delivered in the same Division where such Person or Persons shall be chargeable, on his, her, or their own Account, and such other Person or Persons shall be charged by the same Commissioners by whom the Person or Persons delivering such Statement is or are chargeable, except where different Persons chargeable on their own Account in different Districts, shall be joined and shall act together in any of the said Characters, Characters, in which Case one Assesment shall be made in respect of such Trust Property in one of the said Districts only, as herein-before is directed, and the different Persons acting together in such Character as aforesaid shall or may be charged on their own Account on other Districts, and as the Case may require.

Where Statements by Tradesmen &c. shall be delivered, and the Charge made.

In what Districts the Duties shall be charged.

CXX. And be it further enacted; That every Person being a Householder, (except Persons engaged in any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture), shall be charged to the said last-mentioned Duties by Commissioners acting for the Parish or Place where his or her Dwelling House shall be situate; and every Person engaged in any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, shall be chargeable by the respective Commissioners acting for the Parish or Place where such Profession shall be executed, or such Trade or Manufacture shall be carried on; and every Person not being a Householder, nor engaged in any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, who shall have any Place of ordinary Residence, shall be charged by the Commissioners acting for the Parish or Place where he or she shall ordinarily reside; and every Person not herein-before described, shall be charged by the Commissioners acting for the Parish or Place where such Person shall reside at the Time of beginning to execute this Act, by giving such general Notices as are herein mentioned; and every such Charge made in such Parish or Place shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding the subsequent Removal of the Person so charged from the Parish or Place: and in order that the Place where the said last mentioned Duties are to be charged may be ascertained, every Person is hereby required, on the Delivery of any List or Statement as aforesaid, at the same Time to deliver a Declaration in Writing, signed by him or her, declaring in what Place he or she is chargeable, and whether he or she is engaged in any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, or not, and if he or she shall be so engaged in any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, the Place or Places where the same shall be carried on, and the particular Profession or Professions, or Trade or Trades, in which he, she, or they shall be engaged in such Place Declaration shall be delivered by the Party of the Place in which he is chargeable, &c.

CXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Person, not being engaged in any Profession, Trade, or Manufacture, having Two or more Houses or Places at which he or she shall be ordinarily resident, shall be charged at such of the Parishes or Places wherein the said Dwelling House is situate, in which he or she shall be ordinarily resident at the Time of beginning to execute this Act, in relation to the said last mentioned Duties, by giving such general Notices as are herein mentioned, or in which he or she shall first come ordinarily to reside after giving such general Notices.

How Persons not engaged in Trade having Two Residences, shall be charged.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That every Person shall, if required by the respective Commissioners, deliver at each Parish or Place, if he or she shall reside, or exercise any Profession, or carry on Trade, in different Parishes or Places, the like Lists, Declarations, and Statements, as he or she is hereby required to deliver in the Parish or Place where such Person ought to be charged, but shall not be liable to any Double Charge by reason thereof; and all Lists, Declarations, and Statements hereby required to be made, shall or may be delivered sealed up, if superscribed with the Name and Place of Abode of, or the Place of exercising the Profession or carrying on Trade by, the Person by whom the same shall have been made, to the respective Persons, and in Manner herein directed.

Statements shall be delivered at each Place of Residence, &c. and may be delivered sealed up, &c. [See f. 112.]

CXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Assessor or Assessors shall make out an alphabetical List, and deliver the same to the Clerk of the said respective additional Commissioners, containing the Names of all Persons to or on whom such last-mentioned Notices have been delivered or served in pursuance of this Act, distinguishing the Persons who have duly made their Returns, and the Persons who have omitted to make such Returns, and also the Persons who shall have been returned as in the Service or Employ of any Master, and as having a Residence out of the Limits of such Assessor or Assessors, to the End that the said Commissioners may judge of the Conduct of such Assessors in executing this Act; and if such Assessor or Assessors shall have neglected to give Notice to any Person to whom the same ought to be delivered, the said additional Commissioners may at any Time afterwards direct such Notices to be delivered to or served on such Persons by such Assessors respectively; and may also from Time to Time direct the like Notices to be delivered to or served on any Person or Persons coming to reside in any Parish or Place after the Expiration of such Notices; and if such Directions shall not be given, the Inspector or Surveyor for the District may at such Times as aforesaid cause Notices to be delivered.

Assessors shall make out a List of Notices. [See f. 110, 111.]

New or additional Notices may be delivered.

CXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Assessors, or One of them, for every Parish or Place, shall personally appear before the said additional Commissioners at their First Meeting, or such other Meetings as the said Assessors shall be appointed to attend, and shall then and there produce to the said additional Commissioners a List of the Names of all the Persons to whom such Notices as last aforesaid have been delivered in pursuance of this Act, and shall also make Oath or solemn Affirmation before them, that the several Notices required to be delivered to Householders and Occupiers, and also to Lodgers and Inmates by this Act, have been duly served in the Manner required thereby, upon all Householders and Occupiers, and upon all Inmates and Lodgers within the Limits of the Places for which such Assessor shall have been appointed, to the best of his Knowledge; and that general Notices to the Effect mentioned in this Act have been duly affixed, in the Manner required by this Act, on such proper Places within the City, Town, or Place for which such Assessor shall act, as by this Act is required; and that the List delivered by him contains the Name of every Person within the said Limits, to whom such Notices ought to be delivered, according to the Directions of this Act, within the Knowledge of such Assessor; and every Assessor who shall neglect to appear before such Commissioners, and to make such Oath or Affirmation, or who shall not return the Name or Names of any Person or Persons whose Name ought to be included in any such List as by this Act is required, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered as any Penalty may be recovered under the said recited Acts respectively.

Assessors shall verify the Delivery of Notices, and the affixing of general Notices. [See f. 110, 111.]

Penalty on Assessor for Neglect 20l.

CXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks to the said respective Commissioners shall, with all convenient Speed, abstract the Returns of Statements delivered to such additional Commissioners, or at their delivered to Commissioners, in Books to which Inspectors, &c. may have Access, &c.

Office, into Books to be provided for that Purpose, and according to such Forms as shall be transmitted to them from the Office of Taxes: such Abstracts to contain the Names of Persons making such Returns arranged alphabetically, according to the Wards, Parishes, and Places in which they shall reside, and the several Amounts of Profits returned by them respectively, to be laid before and delivered to the said additional Commissioners: and all such Returns shall be numbered and filed in the Office of the said Commissioners, and carefully kept, so long as the Accounts of the said last-mentioned Duties for such Districts, or any Part thereof, shall remain unpaid to His Majesty; to all which Book and Books any Inspector or Surveyor, who shall have taken the Oath herein prescribed before the Commissioners acting for the same Districts respectively, shall have free Access at all reasonable Times, and shall take such Copies thereof, or of such Parts thereof, or Extracts from the same, as he shall deem necessary in order to the due Execution of this Act.

Additional Commissioners shall consider Statements and make Affidavits on such as appear satisfactory. [See l. 137]

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective additional Commissioners shall appoint Meetings within their respective Districts, for taking all Statements, then and from Time to Time to be delivered to them, into Consideration, within a reasonable Time after the Inspector or Surveyor shall have had the Examination of such Statements; and in case the said Commissioners respectively shall be satisfied that any such Statement hath been bonâ fide made according to the Provisions of this Act, and so as to enable the Commissioners to charge the Person or Persons returning the same, with the full Duties with which he, she, or they ought to be charged on Account thereof, or more; and in case no Information shall be given to the said Commissioners of the Insufficiency thereof, or no Objection shall be made thereto by the Inspector or Surveyor, which he is hereby empowered to make for sufficient Cause, the said Commissioners shall direct an Affidavit to be made of the Duties chargeable on such Statement by virtue of this Act.

When such Statement is satisfactory to Surveyor, &c. he may file a Certificate in Commissioners for their Opinion, and Affidavit shall be made accordingly.

CXXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where the Surveyor or Inspector shall apprehend the Determination made by the said Commissioners to be contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall then declare himself dissatisfied with such Determination, it shall and may be lawful for such Surveyor or Inspector to require the said Commissioners to state specially, and sign the Cause upon which the Question arose, together with their Determination thereupon, which Cause the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present, are hereby required to state and sign accordingly, and to cause the same to be by him transmitted to the Commissioners for general Purposes for the same District, who are hereby required, with all convenient Speed, to return an Answer to the Cause so transmitted, with their Opinion thereon subscribed thereto; according to which Opinion so certified, the Affidavit which shall have been the Cause of such Appeal shall be altered or confirmed.

In default of Statement, additional Commissioners may make an Affidavit according to their Judgement.

CXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Instance in which any Person shall have made Default in the Delivery of any Statement, such Person not having been otherwise charged to the said last-mentioned Duties, or if the said additional Commissioners shall not be satisfied with the Statement delivered by any Person or Persons, or any Objection shall be made thereto by the Inspector or Surveyor (which he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to do in Writing, setting forth the Cause and Causes thereof, whenever he or they shall see sufficient Cause) or the said additional Commissioners shall have received any Information of the Insufficiency of any Statement, the said additional Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, shall make an Affidavit on such Person in such Sum as, according to the best of their Judgement, ought to be charged on such Person by virtue of the said recited Act and of this Act; which Affidavit shall be subject to an Appeal, according to the Directions herein-after contained.

Subject to Appeal. [See l. 133]

Additional Commissioners may refer Statements to Commissioners without making Affidavit.

CXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever the additional Commissioners shall think it proper to refer any Statement to the Commissioners for general Purposes, without making any Affidavit thereon, it shall be lawful for them so to do on delivering to them the Cause in Writing relative to such Statement, as the same shall appear to them, with any Matter in question between them either as to Law or Fact, and the said Commissioners for general Purposes shall proceed to inquire into the Merits of such Statement, in like Manner as they would have been hereby authorized to do in case the said additional Commissioners had made an Affidavit on such Statement, and the Party charged had appealed against such Affidavit.

Inspectors, &c. may examine Affidavits, which may be amended on their Certificate.

CXXX. And be it further enacted, That the Inspector or Surveyor, being sworn as aforesaid, shall and may at all reasonable Times inspect and examine any Affidavit which shall be made as last aforesaid, before the Delivery thereof to the Commissioners for general Purposes; and in case he shall discover any Error in the same, which in his Judgement shall require Amendment, he shall certify the same to the said additional Commissioners by whom the Affidavits shall have been made; and the said additional Commissioners, upon sufficient Cause being shewn to them, shall amend the same as in their Judgement the Cause shall require.

Surveyor, &c. shall file his Objection to Affidavits in Writing, and give Notice to the Party, as under 45 G. 3. c. 99. 150. [See ante l. 126]

CXXXI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the Surveyor or Inspector shall object to the Amount of the Duty charged by any Affidavit by additional Commissioners, which he is hereby empowered to do in each and every Case upon sufficient Cause, he shall state such Objection to the additional Commissioners of the District in Writing as before directed, who, or any Two or more of them, shall thereupon certify the same to the Commissioners for general Purposes in the same District, together with the Reasons for making such Affidavit, and any Information they shall have obtained respecting the same; and the said Surveyor or Inspector shall also give such Notice thereof to the Party affected, as he is required to do by the said several recited Acts respectively in Cases of Surcharge, in order that the Party so charged may be at liberty to appear before the said Commissioners for general Purposes, according to the Directions herein contained, in support of such Affidavit.

Additional Commissioners

CXXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Commissioners shall cause Certificates of the Affidavits to be duly made out for each Ward, Parish, or Place, within their respective Districts, containing the Names

Names and Surnames of the Parties charged, and the Sums which they respectively ought to pay by virtue of this and the said recited Act, and shall cause such Certificates to be entered in Books provided for that Purpose, according to such Forms as shall be transmitted to them by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and they or any Two or more of them, shall sign the same, and deliver the same, so entered and signed, to the Commissioners for general Purposes in the same District, under Cover sealed up; and shall also cause all Statements, Lists, and Declarations, returned to them by any Party or Parties, or by the Assessors, to be delivered at the same Time to the said Commissioners for general Purposes.

shall make up and deliver Certificates of Assessments, rated, to Commissioners.

CXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think him or herself aggrieved by an Assessement made by the additional Commissioners as aforesaid, or by any Objection to such Assessement made by any Surveyor or Inspector as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him or her respectively to appeal to the Commissioners for general Purposes, in the same District where such Assessement was made, on giving Ten Days Notice thereof to the Assessor, Surveyor, or Inspector; and all Appeals to be made in pursuance of this Act shall be heard and determined by the respective Commissioners acting for general Purposes, for the same District where the Cause of Appeal arose, and not otherwise.

Persons aggrieved by Assessements, &c. may appeal to Commissioners.

CXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for general Purposes shall appoint a Time for receiving Appeals, as soon after the Assessements shall be returned to them by the additional Commissioners as conveniently can be done; and the Assessors shall cause Notice thereof to be given, by affixing the same on the Church Door, Market House, or Cross, in the Parish or Place where they act; and the Meetings of the Commissioners for that Purpose shall be held from Time to Time within the Time limited by the said Commissioners, with or without Adjournment; and no Appeal shall be received after the Time limited by the said Commissioners, except on the Ground of Diminution of Income, as herein mentioned: Provided always, That if any Person shall be prevented from Absence, Sickness, or other reasonable Cause, to be allowed by the said Commissioners, from making or proceeding upon his Appeal, within the Time so limited, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to give further Time for that Purpose, or to admit the same to be made by any Agent, Clerk, or Servant, on the Behalf of such Appellant.

Time for receiving Appeals shall be fixed by Commissioners, and Notice given by Assessors. No Appeal shall be received after, except for Diminution of Income, [See s. 147] Sickness, &c.

CXXXV. And be it further enacted, That in order that all Appeals upon such last mentioned Assessements may be determined in due Time, the said Commissioners shall cause a general Notice to be stuck up in their Office, or left with the Clerk of the Commissioners, and also to be affixed on the Door of the Church or Chapel of such Parish or Place, or of some adjoining Parish or Place in Cases requiring the same by reason of any such Place having no Church or Chapel, limiting the Time of hearing all Appeals, and which shall be limited to be heard within a reasonable Time after the Cause of Appeal shall have arisen; and no Appeal shall be heard after the Time in such Notice to be limited, unless the Appeal shall be made on Behalf of any Person or Persons who shall be absent out of the Realm, or prevented by Sickness from attending in Person in the Time so to be limited, in which Cases it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to postpone such Appeals from Time to Time, or to admit other Proof than the Oath or Affirmation of the Party, of the Truth of the several Matters required by this Act to be proved by the Oath or Affirmation of the Party: Provided always, that any Surveyor or Inspector may object to any Assessement before or during the Time for hearing Appeals, but not afterwards, except in the Cases herein-after mentioned, where any Person shall not have been assessed in respect of any particular Source or Sources of Profit or Property.

General Notice of Time limited for hearing Appeals; and fixed on Church Doors.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That upon the receiving Notice of any Appeal against any Assessement made as last aforesaid, and also in every Case where the Commissioners for general Purposes, or the major Part of them present, shall see Cause to allow the Objection of such Surveyor or Inspector to such Assessement, the said Commissioners shall direct their Precept to the Person or Persons appealing, to return to them, within the Time limited in such Precept, a Schedule containing such Particulars as the said Commissioners shall demand under the Authority of this Act, for their Information; either respecting the Particulars of the Property of such Person or Persons; or respecting the Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern, in the Nature of Trade, carried on by such Person or Persons, or the Profession, Employment, or Vocation exercised by such Person or Persons; and the Amount of the Balance of the Profits and Gains of such Person or Persons to chargeable, distinguishing the particular Amounts derived from each separate Source before mentioned; or respecting the Particulars of the Deductions from any of such Profits or Gains made in such Statements or Schedules; and which the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to demand at their Discretion, whenever the same shall appear to them necessary for the Purposes mentioned in this Act, and so from Time to Time until a complete Schedule, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, of all the Particulars required by them, shall be delivered; and every such Precept, being delivered to or left at the last or usual Place of Abode of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be directed, shall be binding upon such Person and Persons according to the Exigency of such Precept; or in case such Person or Persons shall have removed from the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners, or cannot be found, or his, her, or their Place of Abode shall not be known, then upon fixing such Precept on the Door of the Church of the Place where the Commissioners shall meet in the Execution of this Act, or fixing up the same in their Office, such Precept shall also be binding upon such Person or Persons according to the Exigency thereof, and such Person or Persons shall make the Return required by the said Commissioners within the Time limited in such Precept, under the Penalty in this Act contained, and subject to such Charge as the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make in such Case, to which Schedule any Inspector or Surveyor, sworn as aforesaid, shall have free Access at all reasonable Times, and shall take such Copies thereof, or of any Parts thereof, or Extracts from the same, as he shall think necessary for the due Execution of this Act.

Surveyors, &c. shall not object afterwards.

In all Cases of Appeal, and when Objection made by Surveyor, &c. is allowed, Commissioners shall require by their Precept a Schedule from the Party.

Service of such Precept.

Penalty for not returning Schedule. [See s. 59, 144.] Inspectors, &c. shall see Schedules.

CXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Inspector or Surveyor, sworn as aforesaid, within a reasonable Time to be allowed by the said Commissioners for general Purposes after he shall Surveyor, &c. shall have Schedule, and give Notice to the Party.

* [See f. 133.]

Commissioners over-riding Objections, or satisfied with Affirmation or Schedule, may confirm or alter the Affirmation accordingly.

May require Verification of Schedule on Oath.

Party may amend Schedule before Oath.

After such Verification, Affirmation shall be final.

Commissioners may put Questions in Writing to Parties touching Affirmation, or Schedules, Parties or their Agents may return Answers, or may attend Commissioners, and object to Questions, or refuse to answer.

Commissioners may call upon the Party to verify their Answers or Examination on Oath.

have had the Examination of such Schedules, to object to the same, or any Part thereof, and to state such Objections in Writing, and the Cause or Causes thereof, to the best of his Knowledge or Information, which shall be allowed and signed by Two or more of the said Commissioners for general Purposes; and the said Surveyor or Inspector shall in every Case of objecting to such Schedule, deliver a Notice in Writing of such Objection to the Party or Parties to be charged, or leave the same at his, her, or their last or usual Place of Abode respectively, under Cover, sealed up and directed to such Party, in order that such Party or Parties may be at liberty to appeal from the same to the said Commissioners as herein is directed: Provided always, that no Affirmation shall be confirmed, or any Alteration therein be made, until the Appeal upon such Objection or Affirmation shall be heard and determined, according to the Directions of this Act.

CXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if upon receiving the Objections of such Surveyor or Inspector to any Schedule, the said Commissioners or the major Part of them present at any Meeting for the Purpose of taking such Objections into Consideration, shall see Cause to disallow such Objections, or if upon hearing of any such Appeal as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall be satisfied with the Affirmation made by the additional Commissioners, or after Delivery of a Schedule they shall be satisfied therewith, and shall have received no Information of the Insufficiency thereof, the said Commissioners for general Purposes shall direct such Affirmation to be confirmed or altered according to such Schedule, as the Case may require, and shall direct an Affirmation to be made of the Duties chargeable on the Statement or Statements contained in such Schedule; provided, that in every Case where they shall think proper that the said Statement on which the additional Commissioners made their Affirmation, or the Schedule delivered to the Commissioners for general Purposes should be verified, they shall direct the Assessor or Assessors to give Notice thereof to the Person or Persons to be charged with the said Duties, and to appear before them to verify the same in the Manner herein-after mentioned; and every such Person to whom such Notice shall be given, shall and he is hereby required to appear before the said Commissioners for general Purposes, and on Oath or solemn Affirmation as aforesaid, to verify the Contents of his, her, or their Statement or Schedule, and to sign and subscribe the same with his or her proper Name; and which Oath or Affirmation shall be, that the Contents of such Schedule are true, to the best of his or her Judgement or Belief, and that the same contains the just Balance of the Profits and Gains arising from the Source or Sources therein contained, after making such Deductions as are therein stated, and that no Deduction or Deductions whatever than such as are therein stated, have been made from the Profits or Gains accounted for, and to such Amount only as is therein stated: Provided always, that such Person shall be at liberty to amend such Statement or Schedule, before he or she shall be required to take such Oath or Affirmation; and after such Oath or Affirmation, and in every Case where such Schedule shall not have been objected to as aforesaid, and the said Commissioners shall be satisfied therewith, they shall make an Affirmation according to such Statement or Schedule on the Amount therein stated, at which the Duty therein shall have been computed; and every such Affirmation made, after Verification of such Schedule, shall be final and conclusive as to the Matters contained in such Schedule.

CXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever the said Commissioners for general Purposes shall be dissatisfied with any Affirmation returned by the additional Commissioners to them, or with any Schedule delivered to them, or shall require further Information respecting the same, or either of them, or any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to put any Question or Questions touching such Affirmation, or the Contents of such Schedule, or any of them, or touching any of the Matters which ought to be contained therein, or any Sums which shall have been set against or deducted from the Profits or Gains to be estimated in such Affirmation or Schedule, and the Particulars thereof in Writing, and to demand an Answer accordingly from such Person or Persons, signed by him, her, or them, and so from Time to Time whenever the said Commissioners shall think the same necessary, and shall from Time to Time issue their Precept or Precepts, requiring true and particular Answers to be given to such Questions, of which Three Days Notice at least shall be given to him or them; and every such Person shall make true and particular Answers in Writing, signed by him or her, to such Questions, within the Time limited by such Precept, or shall, within the like Period, tender him or herself before the said Commissioners for general Purposes, to be examined by them visà voce to such Matters; and every Person required to make such Answers, or appearing before the said Commissioners to be examined as a Party, or as the Clerk, Agent, or Servant of such Party as herein-after is mentioned, shall be permitted to give his or her Answers either in Writing as aforesaid or visà voce, without having taken any Oath or Affirmation, and shall be at liberty to object to any Question, and peremptorily to refuse answering the same; and the Substance of such Answer or Answers as he or she shall give visà voce shall, in his or her Presence, be reduced into Writing, and read to him or her, and he or she shall be at liberty to alter any Part thereof, and also to alter or amend any Particular contained in his or her Answers in Writing, or in any Schedule or Declaration, before he or she shall be called upon to verify the same in the Manner herein directed; and every such Schedule shall be altered or amended as shall seem requisite after such Enquiry or Examination.

CXL. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for general Purposes, in every such Case as aforesaid, whenever the said Commissioners shall think the same necessary, to require such Person or Persons upon whom any Affirmation hath been made by the additional Commissioners, with which the said Commissioners for general Purposes are dissatisfied, or from whom such Schedules or Answers in Writing as aforesaid have been received, to verify the same, and upon Appearance of such Person or Persons to permit him or them to alter or amend the same, and thereupon to admit him to such Person or Persons the Oath or Affirmation herein-after mentioned, and also to require any Person or Persons who shall have been examined visà voce before them, to verify his, her, or their Examination on such Oath or Affirmation, which Oaths or Affirmations any One or more of the said Commissioners is and are here empowered to admit; and and which Oaths or Affirmations respectively shall be, that the Contents of the said Statements or Schedules are true to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and contain a full and true Account of the Balance of all the Profits and Gains of the Deponent or Deponents chargeable by this Act, to the best of his or her Knowledge and Belief, and of all and every Deduction made from his or her Profits or Gains in adjusting such Balance; or that the Contents of all such Answers in Writing, as shall have been returned to the said Commissioners by him or them, as the same are then stated, or that the Contents of his or her Examination, as the same have been reduced into Writing, are true; and every such Oath or Affirmation shall be subscribed by the Party taking the same.

CXLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for general Purposes to summon in like Manner any Person or Persons, whom they shall think able to give Evidence or Testimony respecting the Affirmation made or to be made on any such Person or Persons, to appear before them to be examined, and to examine all such Persons who shall so appear before them on Oath or Affirmation (except the Clerk, Agent, or Servant of the Person or Persons to be charged, or other Person confidentially intrusted or employed in the Affairs of such Party or Parties to be charged, and who shall respectively be examined, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Restrictions, as are herein-before provided for the viâ voce Examination of any Party or Parties, touching the Affidavits to be charged on him, her, or them*); which Oath or Affirmation any One or more of the said Commissioners is and are hereby empowered to administer, and which Oath or Affirmation shall be, that the Testimony or Evidence to be given by him, her, or them, shall contain the whole Truth and nothing but the Truth, in respect of the Matter in question, concerning which such Evidence or Testimony is to be given; and every such Oath or Affirmation shall be subscribed by the Person taking the same.

CXLII. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners for general Purposes, or any Two or more of them, or the major Part of them present, after hearing all such Appeals as shall be depending before them, or upon any Objection made by the Inspector or Surveyor to any such last-mentioned Affidavit or Schedule, whether such Inquiry or Examination as aforesaid shall have taken place or not, shall agree to make an Affidavit according to the Statement or Statements contained in the said Schedule, as the same shall have been returned or altered, or amended upon Appeal as aforesaid, they shall direct an Affidavit to be made of the Duties chargeable on the Statement or Statements contained in the said Schedule, at the Rate or Rates contained in the said Act before recited; and if the said Commissioners shall think proper to require a Verification of the said Schedule, they shall give Notice thereof in Manner aforesaid, to the Party or Parties to appear before them, to verify the said Schedule, and such Verification shall be made by the Party or Parties in such Manner, and such Affidavits thereupon shall be made as herein-before directed, which Affidavits shall be final and conclusive as aforesaid; but nevertheless in every Instance, where any Person shall have neglected or refused to return such Schedule, according to the Exigency of the Precept of the Commissioners, or if any Clerk, Agent, or Servant of such Party as aforesaid, being summoned, shall have neglected or refused to appear before the Commissioners to be examined, or if such Party, his or her Clerk, Agent, or Servant as aforesaid, shall have declined to answer any Question put to him or her by the said Commissioners, in Writing or viâ voce, or where the Schedule delivered shall have been objected to as aforesaid, and such Objection shall not have been appealed against within such reasonable Time as is directed by this Act, or where any Person, being required so to do, shall have neglected or refused to verify his or her Statement or Schedule, or his or her Answers or Examination in Writing, or where the Commissioners shall agree as aforesaid to allow the Objections, or any of them, made by such Surveyor or Inspector, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required in every such Case, according to the best of their Judgement, to settle and ascertain in what Sums such Person ought to be charged, and to make an Affidavit accordingly, which Affidavit shall be final and conclusive.

CXLIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the said Commissioners for general Purposes shall have made any increased Affidavit upon the Amount contained in the Statement or Schedule of the Party to be charged, or shall, at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, discover that any Increase ought to be made, whether upon the Surcharge of the Surveyor or Inspector, or from his or their Information or otherwise, it shall be lawful for them to charge such Person or Persons in a Sum not exceeding double the Amount by which the Duties shall have been increased; (that is to say), where the Party or Parties shall have refused or neglected to deliver any Statement or Schedule, then in a Sum not exceeding double the Amount of the Sum which, according to the Rate prescribed in Schedule (D.)* such Person in the Judgement of the said Commissioners ought to be charged at, to be added to the Affidavit, and applied as directed by this Act in other Cases of increased Affidavits; and in case a Statement or Schedule shall have been so delivered, then in a Sum not exceeding double the Amount beyond the Amount contained in such Statement or Schedule, unless such Person or Persons shall in every such Case make it appear, that the Omission complained of did not proceed from any Fraud, Covin, Art, or Contrivance, or any gross or wilful Neglect.

CXLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person required so to do by the respective Commissioners for general Purposes, shall refuse or neglect to make out and deliver any Schedule to the Person or Persons to whom the same ought to be delivered in pursuance of this Act, or shall refuse or neglect to appear before the said Commissioners, to verify upon Oath or Affirmation before such Commissioners any Statement or Schedule by him or her delivered, within the Time or Times limited or to be limited by such Commissioners respectively in pursuance of this Act, every such Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and double the Duty at which such Person ought to be assessed, to be recovered as any Penalty may be recovered under the said recited Acts respectively.

Commissioners may summon Witnesses and examine them on Oath.

* [See f. 139.]

Commissioners agreeing to make an Affidavit on the Schedule [See f. 136.] may do so; but on neglect to return Schedule, or to verify the same, [See f. 138.] or to answer Questions, [See f. 139.] or where Objections of Surveyor, &c. [See f. 137.] shall be allowed Commissioners shall make an Affidavit according to their Judgement, which shall be final.

Where an Affidavit shall be increased, Commissioners may charge the Party in a Sum not exceeding double the increased Duties. * [f. 93.]

Penalty on Persons neglecting to deliver Schedules, or attend Summons of Commissioners. 20s. and double Duty.

Parties may deliver additional Schedules; or having omitted to deliver Statements or Schedules, may deliver same at any Time before Proceedings had Proceedings before Commissioners, &c. for Penalties may be stopped if no Fraud intended, and Time allowed to deliver perfect Statements.

Made of alighting Amount of Charge on Property in other Districts.

How Abatement on account of specific Diminution of Income, shall be allowed.

How Abatement shall be allowed when Persons shall cease to exercise any Trade, &c. or shall die before the End of the Year.

* [See p. 147.]
Persons succeeding to Trade of Party charged shall be liable, &c.
[See p. 105.]

CXLV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, who shall have delivered a Statement or Schedule, shall discover any Omission or wrong Statement therein, it shall be lawful for such Person to deliver an additional Statement or Schedule rectifying such Omission or wrong Statement, and such Person shall not afterwards be subject to any Proceeding under this Act, by reason of such Omission or wrong Statement; and if any Person shall not have delivered a Statement or Schedule within the Time limited by the Commissioners for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for such Person to deliver a Statement or Schedule, in Manner herein directed, at any Time before a Proceeding shall be had to recover the Penalty herein mentioned, and no Proceeding shall be afterwards had for recovering such Penalty; and if any Proceeding shall have been actually had before the Commissioners for recovering such Penalty, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners before whom such Proceedings shall be commenced, on due Proof to their Satisfaction that no Fraud or Evasion whatever was intended, to stay such Proceedings, either on the Terms of paying or without paying the Costs then incurred, as the Commissioners shall think fit; and if any Proceedings shall have been commenced in any Court, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to certify, that in their Judgement no Fraud or Evasion was intended by the Party making such Omission; and it shall be lawful for any Judge in such Court, on a summary Application, to stay such Proceedings on such Terms as aforesaid, as he shall think fit; or if such Person shall have delivered an imperfect Statement or Schedule, and shall give to the Commissioners a sufficient Reason why a perfect Statement or Schedule cannot be delivered, the said Commissioners being satisfied therewith shall give further Time, and so from Time to Time, for the Delivery of such Statement or Schedule, and such Persons shall not be liable to any Penalty for not having delivered such Statement or Schedule as from the Nature of the Case he or she was enabled to give, and so from Time to Time as long as the Commissioners shall grant further Time as aforesaid.

CXLVI. And be it further enacted, That if in the Course of any Inquiry before the said respective Commissioners for the Purpose of granting any Exemption or Allowance authorized by this Act, they shall think it necessary to ascertain the Amount of the Charge on any Person or Persons out of the Limits of the City, Town, or Place, for which they shall act, then and in such Case the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall, on a Certificate or Certificates thereof, transmit such Certificates to the respective Commissioners acting for the Division or Place, or Divisions or Places, where such Person has been assessed or charged to such other Duties; and the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall, on Receipt of such Certificates respectively, inquire into the Amount of the Sum or Sums with which such Person or Persons have been charged to such Duties within the Limits of the Division or Place where such last-mentioned Commissioners act; and the said last-mentioned Commissioners, having satisfied themselves of such Sum or Sums, shall transmit a Certificate thereof under the Hands of any Two or more of them, to the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to be laid before the said Commissioners making such Inquiry as aforesaid, to the End that such Person or Persons may be justly charged, and such Exemptions or Allowances may be granted as directed by this Act.

CXLVII. And be it further enacted, That if within or at the End of the Year current at the Time of making any Assessment under this Act, or at the End of any Year when such Assessment ought to have been made, any Person charged to any of the Duties contained in Schedule (D.) whether he shall have computed his Profits or Gains arising as last aforesaid on the Amount thereof in the preceding or current Year, or on an Average of Years, shall find, and shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for general Purposes, by whom the Assessment was made, that his or her Profits and Gains, during such Year for which the Computation was made, fell short of the Sum so computed in respect of the same Source of Profit on which the Computation was made, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, or the major Part of them on Proof before them, to cause the Assessment made for such current Year to be amended in respect of such Source of Profit, as the Case shall require; and in case the Sum assessed shall have been paid, to certify, under their Hands and Seals to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or the Receiver General to whom the same shall have been paid, the Amount of the Sum overpaid upon such first Assessment; and on Production of such Certificate, it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to direct their Cashier or Cashiers, and for the said Receiver General, to repay such Sum as shall have been so overpaid, out of any publick Monies in the Hands of such Cashier or Cashiers, or of such Receiver General, who respectively shall, if necessary, replace the same out of the first Monies that shall come to their Hands respectively of the Duties granted by this Act, for which Payments the Certificate of the said respective Commissioners shall be a sufficient Authority.

CXLVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person, charged to the said last-mentioned Duties, whether the Computation thereon shall have been made on the Profits of One Year or an Average, as herein allowed, shall cease to exercise the Profession, or to carry on the Trade, Employment, or Vocation, in respect whereof such Assessment was made, or shall die before the End of the Year current at the Time of making such Assessment, or shall from any other specific Cause be deprived of or lose the Profits or Gains on which the Computation of Duty charged in such Assessment was made, it shall be lawful for such Person, or the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Persons, to make Application to the Commissioners for general Purposes of the District, within Three Calendar Months after the End of such Year; and on due Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause the Assessment to be amended or vacated, as the Case may require, and to give such Relief to the Party charged, his or her Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as shall be just; and in Cases requiring the same to direct, in Manner before mentioned *. Repayment to be made of such Sum as shall have been overpaid on the Assessment amended or vacated: Provided always, that where any Person shall have succeeded to the Trade or Business of the Party charged, no such Abatement shall be made, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that the Profits and Gains of such Trade or Business have fallen short, from some specific Cause to be alleged to them and proved, since such Change or Succession took place, or by reason thereof; thereof; but such Person so succeeding to the same shall be liable to the Payment of the full Duties thereon, without any new Assessment.

CXLIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons shall have been or shall be assessed in one District to the last mentioned Duties, whether charged on such Person or Persons on his, her, or their own Accounts, or, in any of the Characters herein-before described, on the Behalf of any other Person or Persons, and shall have been or shall be again assessed in another District for the same Cause and on the same Account, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to apply to the Commissioners for general Purposes, acting in or for the Division or Place for which such Persons shall have been so assessed as aforesaid, for the Purpose of being relieved from such double Assessment; and the Commissioners acting for the Division or Place within which such Person or Persons shall have been first assessed to the said Duties, shall, upon Application, give, or cause to be given, a Certificate under the Hands of any Two of such Commissioners, of the Amount of the Assessment there made, which Certificate shall be given gratis; upon the Production of which Certificate to the Commissioners for general Purposes acting for such other District, within which such Person or Persons shall have been assessed for the same Cause, and on the same Account, such last-mentioned Commissioners shall cause the double Assessment made in such District, or such Part thereof for which such double Assessment shall be made, to be vacated, so that such Person or Persons may not remain charged by more than one Assessment for the same Cause and on the same Account.

CL. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act for any District, as Commissioners for the general Purposes of this Act, shall be charged and assessed to the Duties contained in Schedule (D.) if liable thereto, by the additional Commissioners for the same District; and the additional Commissioners acting for the same District shall be charged and assessed to the said Duties by each other respectively, and according as they ought to be charged; and that any Two of the said respective Commissioners acting for any District, shall respectively be competent to assess any other Person acting as such Commissioner for the same District, in like Manner, and with and under the like Powers, as if such Person had not acted as such Commissioner; and the said several Commissioners shall respectively divide themselves in such Manner as that every such Commissioner shall be assessed by Two other Commissioners, and the Appeal therefrom (if any) may be determined by Two Commissioners for general Purposes, neither of whom shall be concerned or interested in the Determination thereof, either for himself or herself, or in any Character before described, for any other Person or Persons; and the said additional Commissioners shall respectively establish such Regulations amongst themselves, for charging and assessing each other in Manner aforesaid, as may most effectually secure a fair and impartial Assessment upon every Commissioner, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; provided that any Commissioner, whose Statement or Schedule shall be under Consideration, or shall be concerned or interested therein, either for himself or for any other Person or Persons, in any Character before described, shall have no Voice, and shall not be present, except upon an Appeal for the Purpose of being examined visu voce by the Commissioners then having his Assessment or Schedule under Consideration, but shall withdraw during the Consideration and Determination thereof.

CLI. And be it further enacted, That all Assessments made upon Profits or Gains under Schedule (D.), made by the Commissioners for general Purposes, shall be entered in Books, with the Name and Names or the Description of the Person or Persons, Corporations, Companies, or Societies of Persons, to be charged therewith, and their respective Places of Abode set opposite thereto, and which Entries shall respectively be numbered progressively, or lettered, or distinguished by Numbers or Letters, as the said respective Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act shall think proper; and that when and as soon as the said respective Commissioners shall have caused to be made any such Entry in such Book, they shall deliver to the Person or Persons charged by such Assessment, or to some Person or Persons there attending on his, her, or their Behalf, in case such Person or Persons shall have declared his, her, or their Intention to pay the Duty so assessed into the Bank of England, or to the Receiver General or his Deputy, within the Time limited by this Act for Payment thereof, and the said Commissioners shall be satisfied with such Declaration, a Certificate under the Hands of Two or more of such Commissioners, specifying the Amount of the Sums to be paid within One Year, upon such Assessment; and every such Certificate shall be numbered or lettered with the same Number or Letter, as the Entry in the Book of the said Commissioners to which such Certificate shall relate shall be marked and numbered or lettered, without naming or otherwise describing the Person or Persons charged thereby; which Certificate shall, on Production thereof, be a sufficient Authority to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and to the respective Receivers General and their Deputies in England, and the Receiver General in Scotland, and his Deputy or Deputies, from Time to Time, to receive from any Person or Persons, bearing and producing such Certificate or Certificates, the Amount of the Sums therein contained, in such Proportions thereof as by this Act are made payable, by Instalments, and at the Times by this Act appointed for Payment thereof, or in Advance; and on the Payment of the Sums contained in any such Certificate, or any Proportion thereof, the said Governor and Company, and the said Receivers General and their respective Deputies, shall give Certificates for the same, acknowledging the Receipt of the Sum paid on Account of the Certificate of the said respective Commissioners, by the Number and Letter marked thereon, as before directed.

CLII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Commissioners shall not have received a Declaration of the intended Payment into the Bank of England, or to the Receivers General or their Deputies respectively as aforesaid, of the Duty to be charged under Schedule (D.), or shall not be satisfied with such Declaration, they shall deliver a Duplicate of the Assessments to the Collector or Collectors, with the Names and Descriptions of the Parties charged therewith, together with their Warrants for collecting the same, in such Form and under the like Powers as they are authorized to collect the Duty under any of the other Schedules recited or contained in this Act; and if, after the Receipt of any such Declaration, the Duties shall not be duly satisfied and paid, the said Commissioners shall cause the Names of the Defaulters, and the Amount Commissioners shall enter their Assessments in Books, and send Accounts to the Tax Office.

CLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for general Purposes, and also the additional Commissioners acting in relation to the Duties contained in Schedule (D.) shall, in their respective Books of Assessment, enter and cause to be entered the several Amounts of the Sums assessed by them, and they shall from Time to Time make out, or cause to be made out, and shall transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Accounts of the Amount of Duty assessed by them, distinguishing the Amount charged on each Person, which Accounts shall severally be made out with the Particulars required by this Act; and they shall also from Time to Time make out or cause to be made out, and shall transmit or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Lists containing the Name, Description, and Place of Residence of all and every Person or Persons assessed by them respectively, as soon as the same conveniently can be done, which Lists shall be made out according to an alphabetical Arrangement of the respective Parishes or Places of Residence in their respective Districts.

Duplicates of Assessments shall be sent to Remembrancers and Receivers General.

CLIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever such Assessments shall be completed in any District, the respective Commissioners for general Purposes acting therein, shall cause to be delivered a Duplicate on Parchment, under their Hands and Seals, fairly written, containing the whole Sums assessed by them, into the King's Remembrancer's Office of the Exchequer in England and Scotland respectively, and the said Commissioners shall also deliver a like Duplicate unto the respective Receivers General in England and Scotland respectively.

Appointments of Deputies to Receivers in Towns, &c.

CLV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Receiver General, at the Request of any Commissioner acting for general Purposes, in relation to the said last-mentioned Duties, in or for any City or Town in Great Britain, (except within the City of London, or within Ten Miles of the same), and with the Approbation of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to appoint a fit and proper Person resident in such City or Town, who shall give Security to the Satisfaction of the said Receiver General, to be his Deputy for the Receipt of such of the said last-mentioned Duties arising within such City or Town, or within the District where such City or Town shall be situate, as shall be assessed under a Letter or Number pursuant to a Declaration of the Party's Intention to pay the Duty to such Receiver General or his Deputy as aforesaid, Regard being had in such Appointment to the Population and Extent of such City or Town, for which Deputy the said Receiver General shall be answerable; and it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners to allow to the Deputy so appointed, such Salary and Reward for his Attendance and Trouble therein, as shall be agreed upon between such Commissioners and the Person to be appointed such Deputy, and as shall be approved of by the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, not exceeding the Rate of One Penny Halfpenny of the Sum received by such Deputy, and paid over to such Receiver General, which Allowance such Deputy is hereby empowered to detain out of the Payments made on Account of each Instalment, as they shall be paid; and such Deputy shall, on some Day in every Week to be named in the Bond to be entered into by him, pay or remit to such Receiver General the whole Amount of the Duties then in his Hands, and shall faithfully account for the same to such Receiver General.

Duties payable (under l. 156.) may be paid into the Bank, or to the Receiver, &c. and in Default may be levied as other Duties under the Commissioners for Taxes. * [See p. 199.]

CLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners for general Purposes, to issue out and deliver to the respective Receivers General, except where a Deputy Receiver shall be appointed as herein is directed, and to such Deputies where such Appointments have been made, Duplicates of the Assessments made by them, containing the Sums assessed on each Person to whom a Certificate hath been delivered, by Letter or Number, together with the Number or Letter set opposite thereto in their respective Books before-mentioned, without naming such Persons, with their Warrants for their receiving the said Duties charged by such Commissioners respectively, as the same shall become payable as aforesaid; and all such Sums shall be paid to the respective Receivers General or Deputy Receivers, where such shall have been appointed, or into the Bank of England; and such Part thereof as shall not be so paid to them, shall be levied and collected as herein-after is mentioned; and in Default of the same being so levied, shall be recoverable as a Debt upon Record to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Manner before directed in other Cases.

CLVII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties payable on such last-mentioned Assessments, shall be paid either into the Bank of England, or to the Receivers General, or to the Deputy of such Receiver General, where such shall be appointed, at the Election of the Party charged, by such Instalments as by this Act directed*, before the respective Days appointed for such Payments, according to the Regulations of this Act, or by Three or Two Instalments, or in One Sum in full, as the Parties shall choose; and the Certificates hereby required to be given on such Payments, shall be delivered to the respective Commissioners, or to One or more of them, or to their Clerk at their Office, before the Times when the same are hereby made payable, taking his or their Receipt for the same, which Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Money so paid, in Satisfaction of so much of the Assessment as shall be mentioned in such Certificate to be so paid; and if any Person shall neglect to pay the same at the Time and in the Manner hereby directed for Payment of such Duties, or having paid the same shall neglect to deliver the Certificate required to be given in such Payment, as herein-before directed, it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners for general Purposes, and they are hereby required to deliver a Duplicate of all Sums assessed on any Person or Persons who shall have made Default in paying, or accounting for the Payment of the same, together with their Warrant to such Collector or Collectors as they shall appoint to levy the Sums in Arrear and unpaid, and which Duplicate shall be made out, and which Sums shall be levied according to the Regulations of the said recited Acts respectively.

Payments of such Duties shall be CLVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Cashier of the Bank of England shall, on the Receipt of any of the said last-mentioned Duties, enter the same in the Books to be provided for that Purpose, and all such Sums Sums shall be entered under the Name, Letter, or Number contained in the Certificate*; and every such Account kept at the Bank of England, shall be entered under the Head of "The Account of the Commissioners acting for the of" as the Case may require; and the Deputy Receivers and Collectors shall, on the like Receipt, cause the same to be wrote off in their respective Duplicates; and the said Cashier or Cashiers, or Deputy or Deputies to such Receivers, or Collector or Collectors, shall, whenever he or they shall be required by the respective Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, deliver to them a true Account of all Sums paid at the Bank of England, or to such Deputies or Collectors respectively, on Account of the Duties charged by them respectively, and shall also transmit to the Office of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, whenever required by them so to do, a true Account of the Sums so paid.

CLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, to pay or cause to be paid in Advance to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or to their Cashier or Cashiers, or to the Receiver General, or Deputy of any Receiver General appointed under this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money charged as last aforesaid, and to require a Certificate or Certificates acknowledging such Payment; and it shall be lawful for the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank of England, and for such Receiver or Deputy Receiver as aforesaid, on Production of the Notice or Certificate of such Affessment, at the Time of Payment of the said Duty in Advance (the Sum so paid not in any Case to be less than the Sum which appears by such Certificate to be payable by Two Instalments) to make an Allowance at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, out of the Sum or Sums so paid in Advance, calculated upon such Sum or Sums for the Period or Periods by which each respective Sum shall be paid sooner than the Period prescribed by this Act for Payment thereof; and in every such Case the said Cashier or Cashiers, or Receiver or Deputy Receivers as aforesaid, shall give the Person paying the same a Certificate of such Payment, specifying therein the Number of Instalments thereby discharged, and the Amount of the Allowance for such prompt Payment, and referring thereby to the Notice or Certificate of Affessment then produced, and the Name, Number, or Letter therein mentioned †; and all such Allowances shall be made by the said Cashier or Cashiers, out of the Duties to be paid in at the Bank of England, at the Time of passing the same; and all Certificates made out by the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England as aforesaid, or by any Receiver or Deputy to any Receiver General appointed as herein mentioned, being delivered at the respective Offices of such Commissioners, shall be received by them as Cash in discharge of the Assessments, and shall be allowed to them in their Accounts.

CLX. And be it further enacted, That the Duty contained in the Schedule marked (E.) as herein recited, shall be assessed and charged under the following Rules, which Rules shall be deemed and construed a Part of this Act, and to refer to the said last mentioned Duty, as if the same had been inserted herein under a special Enactment.

SCHEDULE (E.)

Rules for charging the said Duties.

First.—The said Duties shall be charged on the Person or Persons respectively having, using, or exercising such Offices or Employments of Profit, or to whom such Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends shall be payable, for all Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits whatsoever, accruing by reason of such Offices, Employments, or Pensions, after deducting the Amount of Duties payable or chargeable on the same, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, where the same have been really and bona fide paid and borne by the Party to be charged; and each Assesment in respect of such Offices or Employments shall be in force for One whole Year, and shall be levied for such Year without any new Assesment, notwithstanding a Change may have taken place in such Office or Employment, on the Person or Persons for the Time having or exercising the same; provided the Person quitting such Office or Employment, or dying within the Year, his or their Executors or Administrators, shall be liable for the Arrears due before or at the Time of his so quitting such Office or Employment, or dying, and for such further Portion of Time as shall then have elapsed, to be settled by the respective Commissioners; and his or their Successor or Successors shall be repaid such Sums as he or they shall have paid on Account of such Portion of the Year as aforesaid; and each Assesment in respect of such Annuity, Pension, or Stipend, shall be in force for One whole Year, unless the same shall cease or expire within the Year, by Lapse, Death, or otherwise, from which Period the Assesment thereon shall be discharged.

Second.—The said Duties to be assessed by the respective Commissioners, for all the Offices in each Department in the Place where the said Commissioners shall execute their Offices, although certain of the Offices in the same Department may be executed elsewhere, and shall be due and payable from the respective Officers and their respective Successors for the Time being.

Third.—The said Duties shall be paid on all publick Offices and Employments of Profit, of the Description herein-after mentioned within Great Britain; videlicet, Any Office belonging to either House of Parliament, or to any Court of Justice, whether of Law or Equity, in England or Scotland, Wales, the Duchy of Lancaster, the Duchy of Cornwall, or any Criminal or Ecclesiastical Court, or Court of Admiralty, or Commissary Court or Court Martial; any publick Office held under the Civil Government of His Majesty, or in any County Palatine, or the Duchy of Cornwall; any Commissioned Officer serving on the Staff, or belonging to His Majesty's Army in any Regiment of Artillery, Cavalry, Infantry, Royal Marines, Royal Garrison Battalions or Corps of Engineers, or Royal Artificers; any Officer in the Navy, or in the Militia, or Volunteers; any Office or Employment of Profit held under any Ecclesiastical Body, whether Aggregate or Sole, or under any publick Corporation, Company, or Society, whether Corporate Such Duties may be paid in Advance into the Bank, or to Deputy Receiver; and a Discount allowed on any Two Instalments.

‡ [See s. 155.]

Recited Duties in Schedule (E.) and Rules, deemed Part of this Act.

Said Duties shall be charged on all Salaries, Fees, or Profits, including Duties chargeable under other Acts, and shall be in force for One Year.

All Arrears shall be paid by Persons quitting their Office, or dying, &c.

Said Duties shall be assessed for all Offices in each Department where Commissioners act.

Description of Offices to be charged.

or not Corporate; any Office or Employment of Profit under any public Institution, or on any public Foundation, of whatever Nature or for whatever Purpose the same may be established; any Office or Employment of Profit in any County, Riding, or Division, Shire or Stewartry, or in any City, Borough, Town Corporate, or Place, or under any Trusts, or Guardians of any Fund, Tolls, or Duties, to be exercised in such County, Riding, Division, Shire or Stewartry, City, Borough, Town Corporate, or Place, and every other public Office or Employment of Profit of a public Nature.

Profits may be estimated on preceding Year, or on an Average of Three Years.

Fourth.—The Perquisites to be assessed under this Act shall be deemed to be such Profits of Offices and Employments as arise from Fees or other Emoluments, and payable either by the Crown or the Subjects in the Course of executing such Offices or Employments, and shall and may be estimated either on the Profits of the preceding Year, or of the fair and just Average of One Year, of the Amount of the Profits thereof in the Three Years preceding such Years, in each Case respectively ending on the Fifth Day of April in each Year, or such other Day of each Year on which the Accounts of such Profits have been usually made up.

Duties on such Salaries, &c. as are payable at any public Office, may be stopped there.

Fifth.—In all Cases where any Salaries, Fees, Wages, or other Perquisites or Profits, or any Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, shall be payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer, or at any public Office, or by any Officer of His Majesty's Household, or by any of His Majesty's Receivers or Paymasters, or by any Agent or Agents employed in that Behalf, then and in every such Case, the Duties chargeable under this Act, in respect of such Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits, or in respect of such Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, shall and may, in case of Nonpayment thereof, be detained and stopped out of the same, or out of any Money which shall be payable upon such Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits, or upon such Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends or for the Arrears thereof, whenever the same shall happen, and be applied to the Satisfaction of the Duties on such Offices or Employments, or on such Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends respectively (not being otherwise paid) in the Manner directed by this Act; and whenever the same to be payable shall be assessed by Commissioners for general Purposes in their respective Districts, they shall transmit an Account of the Amount of the Duty assessed, to the Exchequer or Office where the same are payable, in order that the Amount so assessed may be there stopped and detained.

Said Duties on other Salaries, &c. may be stopped by Persons employed to pay the same.

Sixth.—In all Cases where the Salaries, Fees, Wages, Allowances, or Profits of any Officer or Officers chargeable to the said Duties, shall not arise out of any of the Offices mentioned in the foregoing Rule, but shall arise from any other Office or Employment of Profit chargeable to the said Duties, and the Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits shall be payable at such Office, by any Officer or Officers thereof, or by any Receiver or Receivers of the same respectively, or by any Agent or Agents employed in that Behalf, the Duties chargeable under this Act, in respect of such Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits, shall be detained and stopped out of the same, or out of any Money which shall be paid upon such Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits, or for Arrears thereof, whenever the same shall happen, and be applied to the Satisfaction of the Duties (not otherwise paid) in the Manner directed by this Act.

How Offices charged with Sums to others shall pay Duties.

Seventh.—Such Portion of the said Duties on Offices or Employments of Profit, or on Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, as are charged with any Sum or Sums of Money payable to any other Person or Persons, shall be deducted out of the Sums payable to such other Person or Persons, as a like Rate on such Sums respectively would amount unto; and all such Persons, their Agents and Receivers, shall allow such Deductions and Payments upon Receipt of the Residue of such Sums.

Duty charged upon a Principal for Salaries paid his Deputy shall be deducted out of such Salary.

Eighth.—Such Portion of the said Duties charged on any Office or Employment of Profit executed by any Deputy or Clerk, or other Person employed under the Principal in such Office, and paid by such Principal out of the Salary, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits of such Principal, shall be deducted out of the Salary or Wages, so payable, as a like Rate on such Salary or Wages would amount unto; and all such Deputies, Clerks, and other Persons so employed, shall allow to their respective Principals such Deductions and Payments, upon the Receipt of the Residue of such Salaries or Wages.

Official Deductions out of Salaries shall be allowed.

Ninth.—In estimating the Duty payable for any such Office or Employment of Profit, or any Pension, Annuity, or Stipend, all official Deductions and Payments made upon the Receipt of the Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, and Profits thereof, or in passing the Accounts belonging to such Office, or upon the Receipt of such Pension, Annuity, or Stipend, shall be allowed to be deducted, provided a due Account thereof be rendered to the said Commissioners, and proved to their Satisfaction.

Pensions payable out of Revenue shall be charged by Commissioners there.

Tenth.—In all Cases where any Annuities or Pensions shall be payable out of any particular Branch of the Public Revenue, and at the Office of that Branch of Revenue, the Commissioners acting for that Department shall have Authority to assess and levy the same as a Salary or Wages payable thereout.

Commissioners for the Duties on Offices in Courts or public Departments, shall be appointed by the Judges or principal Officers.

CLXI. And, for the ordering, raising, levying, and paying of the said Sums of Money hereby made payable thereon, be it further enacted, That the Lord High Chancellor, Judges, and all and every the principal Officer or Officers of each Court or public Department of Office under His Majesty throughout Great Britain, whether the same shall be Civil, Judicial, or Criminal, Ecclesiastical, or Commisariat, Military or Naval, shall have Authority to appoint Commissioners from and amongst the Officers of each Court or Department of Office respectively; and the Persons so appointed shall be Commissioners for executing this Act as aforesaid, and the Powers therein contained, in relation to the Offices in each such Court or Department respectively: Provided always, that in relation to each Department of Office, not being One of His Majesty's Courts Civil, Judicial, or Criminal, or an Ecclesiastical or Commisariat Court, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall, whenever they think it expedient, settle and determine in what particular Departments Commissioners shall not be appointed, and in such Case shall settle and determine in what other Department of Office, the Officers of that Department wherein Commissioners shall not be appointed shall be assessed; and also whenever there shall be any Default in the Officers of any Department, or in any Court aforesaid, in appointing appointing Commissioners, the said Commissioners of the Treasury and Barons of the Exchequer respectively, shall, within the Time herein limited, appoint fit and proper Persons, as directed by this Act, to be Commissioners for executing this Act in the several Courts or Departments of Offices aforesaid, for which they shall be appointed from and amongst the Officers in the several Departments respectively, uniting for the Purposes of this Act in Cases requiring the same Two or more Offices under the same Commissioners; but nevertheless with distinct Officers from each Office so united for assessing and collecting the same, as directed by this Act; and where any Dispute shall arise touching the Department in which any Office is executed, the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and Barons of the Court of Exchequer respectively as aforesaid, shall determine the same: Provided also, that where the Commissioners of One Department shall execute this Act in relation to any other Department, the Assessors and Collectors for such other Department shall be appointed from the Officers of such other Department, with all the Powers and Privileges appertaining to such Appointments: Provided also, that where no Appointment shall be made of Commissioners, before the Expiration of the Time limited by this Act, the Commissioners for executing this Act, in relation to the Duties on Lands and Tenements, shall in their several Districts also execute this Act in relation to the said Duties on Offices and Employments of Profit exercised within the same Districts respectively; and the Appointment of such Commissioners shall be notified to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and to the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and the Want of such Notification in due Time shall be deemed full Proof of the Want of such Appointment.

CLXII. And be it further enacted, That the Speaker and the Principal Clerk of either House of Parliament, the Principal or other Officers in the several Counties Palatine and the Duchy of Cornwall, or in any Ecclesiastical Court, or in any inferior Court of Justice, whether of Law or Equity, or Criminal or Judiciary, or under any Ecclesiastical Body or Corporation, whether Aggregate or Sole, throughout Great Britain, shall appoint Commissioners from and amongst the Persons executing Offices in either House of Parliament, or in their respective Departments of Office, and the Persons so appointed, or any Three or more of them, not in any case exceeding Seven, shall be Commissioners for executing this Act, and the Powers therein contained, in relation to the Places, Offices, and Employments of Profit in each House of Parliament, and in each such Department respectively; which Appointments shall be made, and the Names of the Commissioners shall be transmitted to the Office for Taxes or to the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, within the Time herein limited: Provided always, that where no such Appointment shall be made of such last mentioned Commissioners before the Expiration of the Time limited by this Act, the Commissioners for executing this Act, in relation to the Duties on Lands and Tenements, shall, in their several Districts, on due Notice of such Default in the Manner herein directed, also execute this Act in relation to the Duties on such Offices or Employments of Profit exercised within the same Districts respectively.

CLXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, or the Bailiffs and capital Burgesses, or the Principal Officers or Members by whatever Name they shall be called, of every Corporate City, Borough, Town, or Place, and of every Cinque Port throughout Great Britain, or any Three or more of them, not in any Case exceeding Seven, shall be Commissioners for executing this Act, and the Powers therein contained, in relation to the publick Offices or Employments of Profit in such City, Corporation, and Cinque Port, and in every Guild, Fraternity, Company, or Society, whether Corporate or not Corporate, within such City, Corporation, or Cinque Port, and for all Offices or Employments of Profit, (not being publick Offices or Employments of Profit under His Majesty), in such County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Liberty, Franchise, Town, or Place, whether in the Appointment of the Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, or the Justices or Magistrates, or Sheriff of such County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Liberty, Franchise, Town, or Place, or of any Trustees or Guardians of any Trust or Fund in such County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place; and that for all Parochial Offices in any County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place, (except Corporate Offices in Cities, Corporate Towns, Boroughs, or Places, or Offices in Cinque Ports as aforesaid), the Commissioners for executing this Act in relation to the Duties on Lands and Tenements, shall, in their several Districts, also execute this Act in relation to the said Duties on Offices in such County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Liberty, Franchise, Town, or Place, and such respective Commissioners shall and may exercise any of the Powers contained in this Act, in relation to any of the Duties herein mentioned, for causing due Returns to be made from the respective Officers within their respective Jurisdictions, and for compelling the Assessors to make their Certificates of Assessments, and returning the same, and for the due Collection of and accounting for the said Duties, and to act therein in all respects as fully and effectually as any other Commissioners are hereby empowered to act in relation to the said other Duties; provided the Monies collected of the said Duties under the respective Commissioners acting for such Offices in Corporate Cities, Boroughs, Towns, or Places aforesaid, or in the Cinque Ports, or in the several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Liberties, Franchises, Towns, and Places, shall be paid to the Receiver General of the County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry, and not otherwise, and that the like Duplicates shall be delivered of such last mentioned Duties as in other Cases where the same are directed to be paid in like Manner*.

CLXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Appointment of Commissioners for executing this Act, in relation to the Duties on Offices and Employments of Profits as aforesaid in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall respectively be notified to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, with respect to the First Assessment under the same, and within One Calendar Month after the Fifth Day of April in any future Year; and in Default thereof, the Appointment of such Commissioners shall devolve on the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or on the Commissioners of the District, as the Case may happen: Provided always, that such Appointment by the Commissioners of the Treasury shall take place within One Calendar Month after the Notification of such Default Officers may appoint Commissioners.

Several Offices may be united.

All such Commissioners, after taking the Oath, (see Schedule (F.) l. 226.) shall appoint Clerks, Assessors, and Collectors from the Officers in the Departments. Assessors shall make Certificate as aforesaid from the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and in case of no Appointment as last aforesaid, to be notified in like Manner, the Execution of this Act shall devolve on the Commissioners before mentioned appointed for the District in relation to the Duties on Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments: Provided also, that such Appointments by the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland shall take place in every Case of such Default as aforesaid, from the Space of One Calendar Month after the respective Periods before limited; and in case no such Appointment shall be made by the said Barons within One Calendar Month after such Default, then the Execution of this Act shall devolve on the Commissioners before mentioned, appointed for the District in relation to the Duties on Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments.

CLXV. And be it further enacted, That such Appointments shall be until other Commissioners shall be appointed, and which Appointments may be renewed annually on or before the Fifth Day of April in each Year during the Continuance of this Act: Provided always, that the Commissioners already appointed under the said recited Act, or to be appointed under this Act, may continue to act from Year to Year, so long as they are respectively willing to act, without any new Appointment, unless it shall be deemed expedient under the Powers of this Act, that any Department for which Commissioners have been appointed should be assisted under the Commissioners of any other Department.

CLXVI. And be it enacted, That every Person to be assailed for his Office or Employment, shall be deemed to have exercised the same at the Head Office of the Department under which such Office or Employment shall be held, and shall be rated for such Office or Employment as if exercised at such Head Office, although the Duties of such Office or Employment shall be performed, or the Profits, or any Part thereof, arising from such Office or Employment, shall be payable elsewhere within or out of Great Britain; and all Assessments made on any inferior Officer or Officers, wherever they shall exercise their Office or Employment, shall be rated accordingly in the same District where such Head Office shall be established.

CLXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Office shall be deemed to belong to, and to be assailed by or under the principal Officers of that Department by or under whom the Appointment to such Office was made; provided that where such Appointment shall be made by any inferior Officer in any Department, then such Office shall be assailed by the same Commissioners by whom such inferior Officer shall be chargeable for his Office: Provided also, that where any such Appointment shall be held under the Great Seal or Privy Seal, either of England or Scotland, or shall be made under the Royal Sign Manual, or where any such Appointment shall be under the Hands or Seals of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the same shall not be exercised in the Department of the Treasury, then the Officer holding the same shall be assailed in that Department where the Office shall have been executed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the Right herein before given * to Commissioners of the District of assailing Offices before described within their respective Jurisdictions, although such Offices or any of them may not be held under their Appointment, or the Profits of such Offices may not be payable by them, or their Order.

CLXVIII. And be it further enacted, That for the better Execution of this Act, so far as the same relates to the Duties hereby granted on Annuities or Pensions payable by His Majesty, contained in Schedule (E.) and for the ordering, raising, levying, and paying of the several Sums of Money hereby made payable thereon, the principal Officers in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in England, and the Remembrancer, Auditor, Receivers, and Clerks of the Pipe in the Exchequer in Scotland or their respective Deputies, shall be Commissioners for executing this Act, and all the Powers herein contained, in relation to the said last mentioned Duties, or shall respectively appoint Commissioners from and amongst the Officers of those Departments for such Purposes.

CLXIX. And be it further enacted, That in respect of the Duties hereby granted on Annuities payable at the Exchequer, commonly called Exchequer Annuities, whether for Lives or Years, or depending on Survivorship, the same Commissioners who shall act in relation to Pensions payable by His Majesty at the said Exchequer, shall also be Commissioners for ordering, raising, levying, and paying the several Sums made payable on such Exchequer Annuities, and shall have Authority to exercise all and every the Powers of this Act in relation to Publick Annuities, and to retain and keep the Duty payable thereon in like Manner as is herein before directed with regard to Bank Stock or South Sea Stock.

CLXX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the like Allowances shall be granted to the Trustees of the British Museum, in respect of any Charge under Schedule (A.) to be made on the Lands and Tenements vested in such Trustees, as are granted to Colleges and other Properties mentioned in No. V. of that Schedule; and the like Exemptions shall be allowed in respect of any Dividends of Stock vested in such Trustees, or any of them, or in any other for their Use, as are granted to charitable Institutions by this Act; and no Salary or Payment made or to be made out of His Majesty's Exchequer to such Trustees, for the Use of such Institutions, shall be charged at the said Exchequer; provided all Salaries of Officers or Persons employed under the said Trustees shall be charged on the said Officers respectively.

CLXXI. And be it further enacted, That the several Commissioners authorized to act in the Execution of this Act, in relation to the Duties on Offices or Employments of Profit, and on Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, as soon after their respective Appointments as conveniently can be done, in their respective Departments, shall meet at some convenient Place in order to qualify themselves by their taking the Oath prescribed by this Act, and shall have Power to elect a Clerk, and an Assessor or Assessors, and a Collector or Collectors of the said Duties to be assailed by them, from and amongst the Officers in their respective Departments, and in the respective Departments under their Cognizance; which Assessors shall, within a Time to be fixed by the respective Commissioners, deliver to them their Certificates of Assesment in Writing under their Hands, to be verified upon their Oath or solemn Affirmations, and not otherwise, of the full and just annual Value of all Offices and Employments of Profit chargeable under this Act, in the Department for which they shall be appointed Assessors, and of all Pensions, Annuities, and Stipends, estimated according to this Act, (after deducting deducting the Sum and Sums payable thereout respectively by virtue of any former Act or Acts, where the same have been really and bona fide paid and borne by the Party to be charged) with the Names and Surnames of the several Officers and Persons entitled to Pensions, Annuities, or Stipends, and the several Sums of Money they ought to pay by virtue of this Act at the Rate of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of such Value, without Abatement or Deduction, and without Concealment or Favour; upon Pain of Forfeiture for every Neglect in the Premises of any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds, which said Assessors are hereby strictly enjoined and required with all Care and Diligence to charge and assess themselves, and all other Officers, Clerks, and Persons employed in their respective Departments of Office, and with respect to the Duty on Pensions to charge and assess all Persons entitled unto any such Pensions, and respectively to make their Assessments according to the Provisions of this Act; and every such Assessor shall have free Access to all Documents and Papers whatever in their respective Offices, touching the Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, and Profits of any Officer, Clerk, or Person aforesaid, belonging to their respective Offices, and touching the Amount of the respective Pensions, and shall be at liberty, whenever the same may be necessary, to require Returns from the Parties themselves according to the Provisions of this Act, that they may be enabled to make a true Assessment in pursuance thereof.

CLXXII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Person holding such Offices or Employments, or being entitled unto any Pension, Annuity, or Stipend as aforesaid, shall claim an Abatement under this Act, or to be discharged wholly from such Assessment, the Commissioners shall nevertheless set down in such Assessment the Names of such Persons, and the full and just annual Value of such Offices, Employments, Pensions, Annuities, or Stipends; and the Claims to such Abatements shall be preferred and examined, and the Merits thereof shall be heard and determined under the Regulations of this Act with respect to other Assessments.

CLXXIII. And be it enacted, That where any Office or Employment of Profit chargeable by this Act is or shall be executed by Deputy, such Deputy shall in all Cases where he shall receive the Profits thereof, be answerable for and shall pay such Assessment as shall be charged thereon, and deduct the same out of the Profits of such Office or Employment; and where the Salaries, Fees, Wages, Emoluments, or Profits of any Officer or Officers in any such Office, shall be receivable by any One or more of the said Officers for the Use of such Officer or Officers, or as a Fund to be divided amongst such Officers, in certain Proportions, the Officer or Officers receiving such Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits, shall be answerable for the Duties charged thereon, and shall pay the same, and deduct the same out of the Funds provided for such respective Offices or Employments; before any Division or Apportionment thereof; and in case of Refusal or Nonpayment thereof, shall be liable to such Distresses as by this Act is prescribed * against any Person having the Office or Employment, and to all other Remedies and Penalties respectively herein contained.

CLXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officers or their respective Deputies, and the Receivers and Paymasters in every publick Department of Office, and in every other Office for which Commissioners are hereby intended to be appointed for raising the Duties hereby charged on such Offices respectively, and any Agent or Agents by whom any Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits, shall be payable, shall, upon Request to them made by the respective Assessors for the said respective Duties, deliver gratis true Lists or Accounts of all such Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, and Profits received by them, and belonging to such Offices respectively, and of all Pensions payable to them respectively, for the better Guidance of the said Assessors in charging the same; and if the said Assessors shall be dissatisfied with such Accounts, it shall be lawful for them to require any Officer whose Office shall not be truly valued in such Account, to prepare and produce to them, within the like Period of Time as is limited for the Returns of other Accounts by this Act, a List or Account of the Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, and Profits of the Office exercised by him, which Returns such Officer shall be obliged to make under the Penalties and Forfeitures contained in this Act for not making other Returns hereby required; and from the Documents and Papers in their respective Offices, the said respective Assessors shall make their Certificates of Assessment upon the Persons holding such Offices, or entitled unto such Pensions respectively, according to the annual Value thereof, at the Rate in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall, in like Manner as is before directed with respect to Assessors for any Parish or Place, bring in their said Certificates to the respective Commissioners for their Allowance, who shall forthwith set their Hands to the same, which Assessments shall be in force for One Year, commencing and payable at the like Periods as the Assessments in Parishes are made payable; and the said respective Commissioners for the Duties on Offices shall cause the like Duplicates to be made thereof, and delivered to Collectors, with like Warrants to collect the said Duties, as is before directed to be given to Collectors for any Parish or Place; and the said Collectors of the said Duties on Offices shall have the like Authority to demand and levy the said Duties, as is herein given to Collectors of any Parish or Place: Provided always, that in all Cases where any Salaries, Fees, Wages, Perquisites, or Profits of any Publick Office be detained and stopped out of the same, or out of any Monies which shall be paid thereupon, and the Amount of the Monies so detained or stopped of the said Duties on Offices or Employments of Profit as aforesaid, shall be wrote off in the Books of the Collectors of the said Duties, in Satisfaction and Discharge thereof, or of so much thereof as shall be so detained; and the proper Officers in the respective Offices shall keep true Accounts of all Monies stopped, and (upon Request) shall give Copies of such Accounts to the proper Collectors of such Monies; and the Money so detained of the Duty on Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, shall be accounted for and paid in the Manner herein-after directed.

CLXXV. And be it further enacted, That the particular Department in which any Assessment shall be made of the said Duties on Offices and Employments of Profit, or on Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, shall be answerable for the Amount of the Duties which shall be charged on the respective Officers of such Department, or on the Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends, payable by such Department, or the Officers thereof, and for the said of Assessment on Outh.

Penalty for Neglect tocol. to 20l.

Assessors shall have Access to Documents, &c. and may require Returns from Parties. [See p. 111.]

The full Value of Offices, &c. shall be stated, though Abatements, &c. are allowed. [See p. 130 &c.]

Deputies in Receipt of the Profits, and Receivers for distributing to others, shall be answerable for Duties.

[* See p. 176.]

Assessors shall be furnished with Lists of Salaries, &c. by the proper Receivers, &c. and may require Returns from the Parties. [See p. 111, 115.]

See p. 118, 144. Assessors shall deliver Certificate of Assessment to Commissioners, who shall allow the same, and grant Warrants for levying the Duties. [See p. 195.]

Where Duties are stopped, the Amount shall be written off in Collectors Books, &c.

Department of Office shall be answerable for Deficiencies.

said Duties being duly detained and stopped at such Offices, or their being demanded and levied according to the Directions of this Act, as any Parish or Place is hereby made answerable for the Duties charged by virtue of this Act, in such Parish or Place; and the Arrears of such Duties as may arise from the Default or Failure of any Collector appointed to collect and levy the same, or of any Officer or Person whose Duty it shall be to detain and stop the said Duties, shall be raised and levied of the particular Collectors, Officers, and other Persons who shall have collected, detained, or stopped such Duties, and shall not have paid over the same as by this Act is directed, under the Powers contained in the said recited Acts respectively, in the Case of a Collector therein mentioned; and that in Default of recovering the same as aforesaid, the said Arrears shall be assessed on the same Officers respectively, and on the Annuities, Pensions, and Stipends respectively, on which the said Duties shall have been charged; by duly apportioning the same amongst the several Officers and Persons assessed in the Assessment for the same Department, in the same Year in which such Re-assessment shall be made, according to the Amount of each Person's Assessment therein as nearly as the Case will admit, and by the like Rules, Methods, and Directions by which the original Assessment was made, and under the like Powers as are herein or in the said recited Acts respectively given in other Cases of Re-assessment.

re-assessed.
[See / 196, 197.]

Where Duties on Offices cannot be stopped, on Non-payment the Amount shall be certified to Commissioners of the District where the Parties reside, who shall levy the same, as under l. 195.

CLXXVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person having, using, or exercising any Office or Employment of Profit which shall be charged to the Duties by this Act granted thereon, and the said Duties cannot be detained and stopped in the Hands of the proper Officer or Officers, or in the Hands of any Agent or Agents employed to pay the Monies due in respect of the said Office or Employment, or the same Monies shall have been paid over to the Person or Persons having, using, or exercising the said Office or Employment, and such Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay the Sum or Sums of Money charged upon him or them, any Two or more of the Commissioners for raising the Duties on the said Offices shall and may, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, certify such Neglect or Refusal, and the Sum payable by virtue of this Act, to the Commissioners for executing this Act in relation to Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the Parish or Place where such Officer or Officers shall reside; and any Two or more of such Commissioners are hereby authorized and required, upon Receipt of such Certificate, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower the respective Collectors of the said Duties, or the Collectors of the Parish or Place where such Officer or Officers reside, to levy the same by such Ways and Means as they are authorized to levy the Duties charged by them respectively, in pursuance of this Act, and such Collectors are hereby authorized to execute such Warrant accordingly, and which shall be executed under the like Powers and in like Manner as is herein-after directed, and as if such Officer or Officers was or were charged to the said Duties in such Parish or Place; and the Monies arising thereby shall be paid to the Collectors charged with the said Duties on such Office or Employment.

No Qualification
except their Offices required of certain Commissioners.

CLXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Qualification shall be required of any of the Officers or Persons herein described to be Commissioners for the Duties on Offices, or on Employments of Profit, or on Pensions, Stipends, Annuities, Interest, or Dividends contained in the several Schedules, who shall act as such Commissioners by virtue of their several Offices, other than such Offices respectively, any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers acting for Duties on Offices liable to Penalties as other Officers.

CLXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Assessors and Collectors appointed to raise and assess, or levy, collect, and pay the Sums of Money to be charged on Offices or Employments of Profit, or on Annuities, Pensions, or Stipends payable by His Majesty by virtue of this Act, and also the Surveyors and Inspectors acting in relation to the said Duties, shall respectively be subject to the Penalties and Forfeitures for refusing or neglecting the Performance of their Duty, or for being guilty of any Fraud or Abuse in executing the same, as are inflicted on such Officers respectively by the said recited Act for the like Offences.

Duty shall be deducted when the principal Sums are payable.

CLXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such of the said Duties granted by this Act, and the Contributions hereby authorized which may be detained or stopped, and deducted out of the Sums in respect whereof they shall be charged or deducted, shall be respectively detained at such Times in each Year as the said Sums shall be payable to the Person or Persons entitled thereto.

Exemptions and abatements upon Proof that Income is less than 60l.; or from thence to 150l. per Annum.

CLXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Person charged to the Duties hereby granted in respect of any Profits or Gains hereby charged, or liable to the Payment thereof in respect of any Sum or Sums arising from the Profits hereby charged, shall, upon proving as herein-after is mentioned, that the aggregate annual Amount of his, her, or their Income is less than the Sum of Sixty Pounds, be exempted from the Payment of the said Duties, and from all Deductions or Payments on Account thereof, or by reason of this Act, in Manner herein after mentioned, without any Alteration or Discharge of the Assessment; and that in all Cases where such aggregate annual Amount shall be Sixty Pounds or more, and shall be less than One hundred and fifty Pounds, such Persons shall be entitled to such Allowance as may be necessary to reduce the Payment in each Case respectively, in the Proportion stated in the following Table; {that is to say};

TABLE of the ABATED RATES of DUTY.

Where the said aggregate annual Amount shall be Sixty Pounds or more, and less than Seventy Pounds, the Sum of	Three-pence.
Where the said aggregate Amount shall be Seventy Pounds or more, and less than Eighty Pounds, the Sum of	Four-pence.
Where such aggregate annual Amount shall be Eighty Pounds or more, and less than Ninety Pounds, the Sum of	Five-pence.
Where such aggregate Amount shall be Ninety Pounds or more, and less than One hundred Pounds, the Sum of	Six-pence.
Where such aggregate Amount shall be One hundred Pounds or more, and shall be less than One hundred and ten Pounds, the Sum of	Seven-pence.
Where such aggregate Amount shall be One hundred and ten Pounds or more, and shall be less than One hundred and twenty Pounds, the Sum of	Eight-pence.
Where such aggregate Amount shall be One hundred and twenty Pounds or more, and less than One hundred and thirty Pounds, the Sum of	Nine-pence.
Where such aggregate Amount shall be One hundred and thirty Pounds or more, and less than One hundred and forty Pounds, the Sum of	Ten-pence.
Where such aggregate Amount shall be One hundred and forty Pounds or more, and less than One hundred and fifty Pounds, the Sum of	Eleven-pence.

For every Twenty Shillings of such Amount.

And every Claim to such Exemption or Abatement shall be claimed and proved, and the Proceedings thereupon shall be had before the respective Commissioners for general Purposes in the District where such Claimant shall reside, pursuant to and under the Powers and Provisions by which the Duties in Schedule (D.) are herein directed to be ascertained, charged, levied, collected, and paid, but nevertheless subject to the Directions hereinafter contained.

Claim to Abatement shall be proved before the Commissioners.

CLXXXI. And, in order that such Exemption or Allowances, as may be claimed in respect of any Assessment or Assessments, made at the Rate of Duty as expressed in Schedule (B.), may be estimated in a just Proportion to the other Duties charged by the other Schedules contained in this Act; be it further enacted, That for the Purposes of granting such Exemptions or Allowances, the Income arising from the Occupation of Lands or Tenements, if in England, Wales, or Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall be estimated at Three Fourths of the annual Value thereof, and if in Scotland, at One Half of such annual Value; and after such Estimate, such Person shall be entitled to such Exemption as aforesaid, or to such Allowances as will reduce the Payment on the Whole of his, her, or their Income respectively, in the Proportions stated in the foregoing Table.

How Income from Lands, &c. shall be estimated under Schedule (B.) (c. 18.) to allow Abatements.

CLXXXII. And be it further enacted, That every Person having more than Two Children born in lawful Wedlock, and bona fide maintained at the Expence of such Person, shall, for every Child above Two, be entitled to the respective Abatements following; (that is to say), where the aggregate annual Amount of the Income of such Person is Sixty Pounds or upwards, and under Four hundred Pounds a Year, there shall be allowed for each Child above Two, a Sum after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum on such aggregate annual Amount, and in proportion to the Duty chargeable on that Amount, to be ascertained by such Tables as have been or shall be transmitted to the respective Commissioners for that Purpose; and where such annual aggregate Amount shall be Four hundred Pounds, and under One thousand Pounds per Annum, an Abatement after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, for each such Child above Two; and where such aggregate annual Amount shall be One thousand Pounds, and under Five thousand Pounds, an Abatement after the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum for each such Child above Two; and where such aggregate annual Amount shall be Five thousand Pounds or upwards, an Abatement after the Rate of One Pound per Centum for each such Child above Two; provided that such Claimant shall, within such Time as herein-after is directed, deliver a Declaration in Writing, containing the whole Number of such Children, and their respective Names and Places of Residence, and which of them are a Part of the Family, or reside elsewhere as aforesaid: Provided also, that the Children by any former Marriage, either of the Husband or Wife, or of the Husband or Wife deceased, shall equally entitle such Person to the Benefit of such Abatements as his or her own Children.

Abatements for Persons having more than Two Children. Where the annual Income is 60s. and under 400s. for each Child above Two, 4s. per Cent.; 400s. and under 1,000s. 3s. per Cent.; 1,000s. and under 5,000s. 2s. per Cent.; 5,000s. and upwards, 1s. per Cent. [See C. 18.]

CLXXXIII. And, in order that due Provision may be made for granting the said Exemption or Allowances in the Three preceding Clauses, be it further enacted, That every Person claiming such Exemption or Allowances as aforesaid, in respect of the Duties assessed upon him or her shall, within the Time limited by this Act for making Returns of the Duty chargeable as directed by this Act, or within such further Time as the respective Commissioners shall, for special Cause assigned, allow, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Assessor or Assessors of the Parish or Place where such Claimant shall reside, and not elsewhere, a Declaration in Writing, signed by him or her, of his or her Intention to claim such Exemption or Allowances, which Declaration shall be in such Form as may be directed under the Authority of this Act, declaring therein the particular Source or Sources from whence such Income shall arise, and the particular Amount arising from each Source, and also every Sum of annual Interest, or other annual Payment reserved or charged thereon, whereby the Income shall or may be diminished, to which Declaration every Surveyor or Inspector shall have Access to take Copies of or Extracts from, under the like Powers as in other Cases; and in every Case where the Surveyor or Inspector shall not object to such Declaration within Forty Days, or such further Time as the Commissioners, on just Cause, shall allow to him to make such Objection, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant such Exemption or Allowances, as the Case may require, in the Manner herein-after directed, without altering the Assessment; but in case the Surveyor or Inspector shall object thereto in Writing, Declarations shall be made by Persons claiming Abatements to the Commissioners who may allow the same.

suggesting that he hath reason to believe that the Income of such Person is not truly declared therein in any Particular or Particulars, or not conformable to the Assessment or Assessments thereupon, then and in such Case, unless the major Part of the Commissioners present at the Time of taking such Objection into Consideration shall see Cause to disallow such Objections, the Merits of such Claim shall be heard upon Appeal, subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Penalties, as other Appeals under this Act are directed to be heard and determined †.

CLXXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every such Claim shall be made to the Commissioners of the District where the Claimant shall reside; and if such Claimant shall be out of Great Britain, an Affidavit, stating the several Matters required by this Act, taken before any Person having Authority to administer an Oath in the Place where such Claimant shall reside, in any Matter relating to any Part of the Public Revenue of Great Britain, may be received by the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, in relation to the Assesment on which such Claim shall be founded.

CLXXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Person claiming such Exemption or Allowance in respect of any Deductions to which such Persons may be liable, out of any annual Payment from which Deductions are herein authorized to be made, which shall be payable to such Claimant, shall, within the like Period and in like Manner as aforesaid, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners in the District where such Person shall reside, a further Declaration of his or her Intention to make such Claim; and every such last-mentioned Declaration shall specify the annual Amount of every such Payment, and the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whom the same is payable, which last mentioned Claim shall be proceeded upon in like Manner as is before directed †; provided that no such last mentioned Claim shall be allowed, unless the Claimant shall produce to the said Commissioners, being duly summoned by them for that Purpose, the Deed, Instrument, or Security, under which such Payment as aforesaid shall be to be made, or shall otherwise prove, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that the same is due and payable by virtue of a Charge, Reservation, or Contract, as herein-after mentioned; and in case any such last mentioned Claim shall be allowed as aforesaid, the Commissioners acting for such District or Department shall grant to such Claimant a Certificate, to be made out in such Form as may be directed under the Authority of this Act; and in every Case where such Claimant shall derive his or her Income, for which such Exemption or Allowance is made, from annual Payments from different Persons, a separate Certificate, in the Form before prescribed, shall be delivered for each of such separate Payments, in a due Proportion to the Amount of each Payment respectively, in order that each such Certificate may be separately applied as herein directed; and if any Person or Persons shall be guilty of any Fraud or Contrivance in making such Claim, or in obtaining any such Exemption or Allowance, or shall fraudulently conceal or untruly declare any Income or Amount of Income, or shall make a second Claim for the same Cause, he, she, or they so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and Treble the Duty chargeable in respect of all the Sources of Income of such Person or Persons, and as if such Claim had not been allowed.

CLXXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the Claim shall be confined to the Allowance for Children maintained at the Expence of the Claimant, it shall be deemed a sufficient Compliance with the Directions of this Act, if the Income shall be stated in One Sum, without specifying the particular Sources from whence such Income shall have arisen or shall arise, unless the Commissioners shall be dissatisfied with the Amount so stated, and shall require the same to be proved; in which Case they shall proceed as in other Cases of Claims to Allowances under this Act.

CLXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Exemptions and Allowances granted under the Authority of this Act, shall be granted according to the following Rules, and as the same are applicable to the Case in question; which Rules shall be deemed a part of this Act, as if the same had been enacted herein under a special Enactment.

First.—In all Cases where Claims shall be preferred on the Ground of the Amount of Income, or for Children, and shall be made in respect of the Charge on Property or Profits of the Claimants situate or arising wholly in the same Parish or Place where the Claimant shall reside, the Commissioners shall cause an Entry thereof to be made in their Books, with the Names of the Claimants, and the Amounts of their respective Incomes, as proved, and the Amount of the Sums allowed to each Claimant, distinguishing the Allowances on the Ground of Income from the Allowances for Children; and whenever all such Claims shall have been determined, they shall sign One Schedule of all such Allowances, with Reference to the particular Assessments from which such Allowances are to be taken, and deliver the same to the Collector or Collectors of the Parish or Place where such Claimants are charged, without altering the Assessment, which Schedule shall be received by such Collector or Collectors as Cash.

Second.—In all Cases where any such Claim as aforesaid shall be made in respect of the Charge on Property or Profits of the Claimants situate or arising in different Parishes or Places in the same District, and by the same Commissioners, or partly on such Property or Profits, and partly in respect of any annual Payment arising out of Property or Profits charged upon any Person or Persons other than the Claimant, and the Assessment on such Claimant in any One Parish or Place in the District where such Claim shall be made, shall be sufficient to answer the Amount of the Allowance made to such Claimant, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to allow the whole Sum in such One Parish or Place, and to proceed therein, as in the First Rule, as if the whole Property or Profits of the Claimant had arisen in such One Parish or Place; and where One such Assessment shall not be sufficient, they shall apportion the Allowance between Two or more such Assessments, in such Manner as they shall think fit, without Regard to the Proportion in which such Property or Profits in each such Parish or Place shall have been assessed, and so as to give Relief to the Party in the most convenient Manner, and shall make their Entries of Discharge in the Books of the respective Parishes accordingly;

accordingly; and where such Claim shall be made in respect of the Charge on Property or Profits of the Claimant situate or arising in different Parishes or Places situate in different Districts of Commissioners, then the Commissioners by whom the Claim shall have been allowed, shall grant a Certificate for such Part of the Allowance as shall be to be made out of that District where the Claim was so allowed; all which Certificates shall be delivered to the Collectors of the respective Parishes where the Assessments to which such Certificates relate shall have been made; and the Collector or Collectors shall receive such Certificates as Cash, and shall act in all Respects as if the Amount of the Allowance in each Parish or Place had been in Proportion to the Assessment therein; and shall be returned to the Commissioners of the same District in the Manner directed by the Seventh Rule herein-after set forth, in order that the said Commissioners may enter the same in their Books in Discharge of the Sums so certified, and as if the same Allowances had been granted by them in the Manner directed in other Cases falling within the said First and Second Rules.

or in different Districts.

Third.—In all Cases where any such Claim as aforesaid shall be made in respect of any annual Payment, arising out of Property or Profits charged upon any Person or Persons other than the Claimant, either wholly or in Part, and which cannot be satisfied out of any Assessments made on the Claimant according to the Second Rule, a Certificate, signed by the Commissioners granting the Allowance, shall in each Case be delivered to such Claimant in respect of such annual Payment, specifying the Amount of Income of the Claimant, the Amount of such annual Payment, and by whom payable, and the Amount of the Allowance in respect of such annual Payment, which shall in every Case be the Sum by which the Duty of One Shilling on every Twenty Shillings of such annual Payment is diminished by such Allowance.

Where Claim is made in respect of Income from Property charged on others, a Certificate shall be granted to regulate the Diminution.

Fourth.—Every Certificate granted according to the Third Rule, shall be delivered to the Person from whom the annual Payment mentioned therein shall be payable at the Time of such Payment, and shall be an Authority to the Claimant to demand the Amount of such Allowance, together with the Residue of such annual Payment, without further Deduction thereout than such Sums, if any, as shall after such Allowance remain chargeable in respect of such annual Payment.

Such Certificate shall be delivered to the Party making the Payment;

Fifth.—Every Certificate granted under the Third Rule, and delivered to the Person mentioned therein as liable to such annual Payment, shall be transferred to the Collector or Collectors of the Parish or Place where such Person shall reside, by Indorsement under the Hand of such Person, and shall be received from such Person by such Collector as Cash, on Account of the Person indorsing the same.

and by him to the Collector.

Sixth.—Every Certificate granted under the Authority of this Act, and delivered to any Collector or Collectors as aforesaid, either by the Commissioners or the Person named therein, shall be applied in Discharge or Satisfaction of so much of the Duty charged on and then payable by the Person delivering the same, or on whose Account the Allowance was granted; and in case the Assessments on such Persons shall have been fully paid and satisfied before the Delivery of such Certificates, or in case such Assessment shall be insufficient, or no such Assessment shall have been made on such Persons in the Parish where such Certificates shall be delivered, the said Collector or Collectors shall pay, to the Persons on whose Account such Certificates were granted, or by whom the same was transferred by Indorsement, the Amount of the Allowances granted thereby, or so much thereof as shall be necessary.

All Certificates shall operate by satisfying the Assesment unpaid, or to entitle the Bearer to Re-payment.

Seventh.—Every Certificate transferred to any Collector or Collectors by Indorsement, shall be numbered progressively by him or them, and, before the Accounts for that Year shall be closed, shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Commissioners of the District by the respective Collectors, taking the Clerk's Receipt for the same; who shall enter the same in a Book to be provided for that Purpose in their Order as numbered progressively; and the said Commissioners shall cause a Schedule thereof to be carefully prepared for each Parish or Place in their District, which shall be signed by them, and delivered to the Receiver General in discharge of so much of the Assessments in such Parishes or Places respectively; all which Schedules, made and signed under the Authority of this Act, shall be allowed in the Accounts of the respective Receivers General.

Certificates shall be delivered to Commissioners by Collector, who shall receive a Schedule of Discharge.

CLXXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the Income returned shall be under Sixty Pounds, and shall arise as herein-after described, the Exemption in respect thereof shall be granted according to the following Rules; which Rules shall be deemed a Part of this Act as if the same had been enacted herein under a special Enactment.

Exemption in respect of Income under 60s.

Whenever the Assessor or Assessors of any Parish or Place shall have received any Declaration of Claim to an Exemption, wherein the Income shall wholly arise from Profits within the same Parish or Place, as less than Sixty Pounds per Annum, he or they shall forthwith deliver the same, if in England, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor or One of them, and if in Scotland, to One of the Elders of the said Parish or Place; and such Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor and Elder respectively, shall forthwith call a Vestry or Meeting of the principal Inhabitants of such Parish or Place, to inquire into the Truth of such Declarations on their Oaths (which Oaths the said Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor and Elder respectively is hereby authorized and required to administer to any Number of such Vestry or Inhabitants, not in any Case exceeding Seven) diligently to inquire and make true Presentments of the Amount of Income of the respective Claimants to the best of their Judgement and Belief; and the said Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor and Elder respectively, may examine such Claimants, and may require the Attendance of any competent Persons to give Evidence, and may examine such Persons touching the Income of such Claimants, and after such Inquiry the Jury shall ascertain by their Verdict, or the Verdict of the major Part of them, the full and just Amount of the annual Profits and Gains of every such Claimant; and in and by their Verdict in Writing under their Hands shall return the several Amounts to the Assessor or Assessors aforesaid, as also the several Amounts of any Interest or other annual Payment to which such Claimants are liable Manner of exempting Income under 60s. by Parish Inquisitions.

Commissioners may select Seven in large Parishes to make the Inquisition.

Joint Tenants, &c. may severally claim Abatements;

but so as not to diminish the Rate on Farms in one Demise, &c.

Claims may be made by Attorneys on Account of others.

Claims to Abatements shall be verified on Oath if required; being previously amended.

Duty charged on all annual Interest not otherwise charged, and the Payment thereof provided for by the Mode of Deduction, by the Party paying such Interest.

who shall deliver the same to the respective Commissioners for general Purposes of the same District: Provided always, that the said Commissioners, before the Allowance of such Claims, shall examine the Assessor or Assessors, who shall respectively attend the Commissioners for that Purpose at such Time and Place as they shall appoint, touching the Inquiry and Returns so made; and if the said Commissioners shall be satisfied with the Returns so made, they shall cause the Estimates to be entered in their Books as returned in such Verdict, and make an Assessment thereon at the Rate prescribed in the said recited Duties and this Act, and afterwards grant such Exemptions or Allowances as they may grant under the Authority of this Act, on the Amount of each Person's Income returned in such Verdict; but in case the said Commissioners shall be dissatisfied with any Return by such Verdict, they shall hear and determine the Merits of such Claim as an Appeal, of which the Party shall have due Notice: And whenever the Vestry, or substantial Inhabitants of any Parish or Place, shall be so numerous as to require the Selection of Seven Persons to be summoned to the Meeting for the Purpose of such Inquiry as aforesaid, such Selection shall be made at the Discretion of the Commissioners for general Purposes acting for the District where such Parish or Place is situate, and the Expediency of such Selection shall be determined by them in every Case, of which they shall give Notice to the officiating Minister; and none other of the Vestry, or of the Inhabitants of such Parish or Place, shall be sworn upon such Inquiry.

CLXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That Coparceners, Joint Tenants, or Tenants in Common of the Profits of any Property whatever, and any Tenants of Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, being in the actual Occupation thereof in Partnership, and entitled to the Profits thereof in Shares, and any Partners carrying on Trade, or exercising any Profession together, and entitled to the Profits thereof in Shares, may severally claim such Exemptions or Abatements, according to their respective Shares and Interests; and such Claims being duly proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners to whom the same are made, may be proceeded upon as in the Cases of several Interests: Provided always, that the Profits arising shall not in any Case be charged separately to the Duty in respect of the Occupation of Lands so as to diminish the Rate chargeable on the Whole of the Profits of Lands comprized in one and the same Demise; nor where Lands shall be let without relinquishing the Possession by the Lessor; or where the Lessee shall not be exclusively in the Possession and Occupation of the Lands so let: Provided also, that the Profits arising from any Trade or Profession carried on in Partnership, shall not be charged separately so as to diminish the Rate chargeable thereon, on Occasion of the Claim of any Partner therein, other than the ostensible acting Partners in such Trade or Profession.

CXC. And be it further enacted, That any such Claim or Appeal may be made by any Attorney, Agent, or Factor, on Account of others, in any Case where satisfactory Proof shall be made before the Commissioners, that the Party claiming such Exemption or Abatement is unable to attend in Person; or such Claim may be made by the several Persons acting in any of the Characters herein-before described, in such Manner as they may act for others, for the Purpose of being assessed on their Account in the first Instance, as herein-before directed.

CXCI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case of a Claim of Abatement as aforesaid, if the Commissioners for general Purposes shall think proper to require a Verification of the Declaration to be so delivered as aforesaid, or of the Statement delivered by the Party, or therein contained, or any Part thereof, they shall give Notice thereof to the Person or Persons claiming such Abatement to appear before them, to verify such Declaration or Statement; and every Person to whom such Notice shall be given shall, and he and he is hereby required to appear before the said Commissioners, and on Oath or solemn Affirmation, to be administered by One or more of the said Commissioners, to verify the Contents of his or her Declaration or Statement; and which Oath or Affirmation shall be, that the Contents of such Declaration are true, to the best of his or her Judgement or Belief; and which Oath or Affirmation shall be signed and subscribed, with the proper Name of the Party taking the same: Provided such Person shall be at Liberty to amend such Declaration or Statement, or any Part thereof, before he or she shall be required to take such Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid.

CXCII. And be it further enacted, That upon all Annuities, yearly Interest of Money, or other annual Payments, whether such Payments shall be payable within or out of Great Britain, either as a Charge on any Property of the Person or Persons paying the same, or as a Reservation thereof, or as a personal Debt or Obligation by virtue of any Contract, or whether the same shall be received and payable Half-yearly, or at any shorter or more distant Periods, there shall be charged for every Twenty Shillings of the annual Amount thereof the Sum of One Shilling, without Deduction, according to, and under and subject to the Provisions by which the Duty in Schedule (D.)* may be charged; provided, that in every Case where the same shall be payable out of Profits or Gains charged by virtue of this Act, no Assessment shall be made upon the Person entitled to such Annuity, Interest, or other annual Payment, but the Whole of such Profits or Gains shall be charged with Duty on the Person liable to such annual Payment, without distinguishing such annual Payment; and the Person so liable to make such annual Payment, whether out of the Profits or Gains charged with Duty, or out of any annual Payment liable to Deduction, or from which a Deduction hath been made, shall be authorized to deduct out of such annual Payment at the Rate of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the Amount thereof, except where the Party to whom the Payment is to be made shall produce a Certificate of Exemption or Abatement, as herein-before is mentioned, authorizing a Deduction at a lower Rate, or exempting the Payment on such Deduction; and the Person or Persons to whom such Payments are to be made, as are liable to Deduction, shall allow such Deduction accordingly upon the Receipt of the Residue of such Money, and the Person charged to the said Duties, or being liable to or having made such Deduction, shall be acquitted and discharged of so much Money as such Deduction shall amount unto, as if the Amount thereof thereof had actually been paid unto the Person or Persons to whom such Payment shall have been due and payable; but in every Case where any annual Payment as aforesaid shall, by reason of the same being charged on any Property or Security in Ireland, or in the British Plantations, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or on any Foreign Property or Foreign Security, or otherwise, be received or receivable without any such Deduction as aforesaid, or where any such Payment shall be made from Profits or Gains not charged by this Act, or where any Interest of Money shall not be referred, or charged or payable for the Period of One Year, then and in every such Case there shall be charged upon such Interest, Annuity, or other annual Payment as aforesaid, the Duty before mentioned, according to and under and subject to the several and respective Provisions by which the Duty in Schedule (D.) may be charged, and according to the Rules in the Case applicable thereto.

Except on Foreign Securities, &c.

CXCIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall refuse to allow any Deduction authorized to be made by this Act out of any Rent or other annual Payment mentioned in the Ninth and Tenth Rules of Schedule (A.) or out of any Annuity, yearly Interest of Money, or other annual Payment mentioned in the preceding Clause, according to the Directions of this Act, or shall accept any Rent, Annuity, yearly Interest of Money, or other annual Payment aforesaid, without such Deduction being made, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall be liable to be charged for such Payment at Treble the Rate of Duty contained in this Act.

Penalty on Persons refusing to allow Deductions 50l. [See p. 192.]

CXCIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said respective Commissioners, acting for the Purposes of this Act in the District where any Person making the Application shall reside, that any Interest of Money, Annuity, or other annual Payment, shall be annually paid out of the Profits and Gains, bonâ fide accounted for and charged by virtue of this Act, at the Rate and according to the Rules specified in Schedule (D.) without any Deduction on Account thereof, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to grant a Certificate thereof, under their Hands or the Hands of any Two of them, in such Form as shall be directed under the Authority of this Act, which Certificate shall entitle the Person so assessed, upon Payment of such Interest, Annuity, Allowance, or Stipend, to abate and deduct so much thereof as a like Rate on such Interest, Annuity, Allowance, or Stipend, would amount unto; and all Persons to whom such Interest, Annuity, Allowance, or Stipend shall be paid, shall allow such Deductions and Payments upon Receipt of the Residue of such Interest, Annuity, Allowance, or Stipend; and the Person or Persons paying the same shall be acquitted and discharged of so much Money as a like Rate thereon would amount unto, as if the same had actually been paid unto the Person or Persons to whom such Interest, Annuity, Allowance, or Stipend, shall have been due and payable; provided no such Certificate shall be required where such Payments are to be made out of the Profits or Gains arising from Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, as before mentioned, or of any Office or Employment of Profit, or out of any Annuity, Pension, Stipend, or any Dividend or Share in such publick Annuities as are herein mentioned, but such Deductions may be made without having obtained such Certificate.

Deductions on Payment of Interest or Annuity out of Profits charged under Schedule (D.) (c. 93.) may be made by virtue of a Certificate from the Commissioners.

CXCV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, executing this Act in relation to the aforesaid Duties, or any of them, and they are hereby respectively required, for the Districts for which they act, within One Calendar Month after the First Day of hearing Appeals, all Appeals then made being first determined, to issue out and deliver to the respective Collectors Duplicates of the aforesaid Duties, charged at the respective Rates mentioned in the respective Schedules herein recited, without Alteration on Account of any Exemption or Allowance made or to be made therefrom, together with their Warrants, as directed by the said recited Acts respectively, for the speedy and effectually levying and collecting the said Duties as the same shall become payable, by Quarterly or Half-yearly Installments, in the respective Parts of Great Britain as herein directed*, distinguishing the Amount charged on each of the said recited Schedules; and such Part thereof as cannot be levied and collected according to the Powers of this Act, in the Parish or Place where the same are charged, shall be recoverable as a Debt upon Record to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with full Costs of Suit, and all Charges attending the same; and when so recovered, the said Duties shall be paid to the Receiver General, in Aid of the Parish or Place answerable for the same.

Duties shall be levied by Warrant of Commissioners, after Appeal Day; and if not levied shall become Debts on Record.

CXCVI. And be it further enacted, That the Parish or Place in which any Assessment shall have been made, or shall be made, of the aforesaid Duties, shall be answerable for the Amount of the Duties which shall so have been or be charged in such Parish or Place, and for the said Duties being duly demanded of the respective Persons charged therewith, according to the Regulations contained in the said recited Acts respectively, by the Collector or Collectors appointed for such Parish or Place, and also for such Collector or Collectors duly paying the Sums by him or them received to the Receiver General of the said Duties, according to such Regulations.

Parishes shall be answerable for Collectors.

CXCVII. And be it further enacted, That any of the Arrears of the said Duties arising from the Default as aforesaid, or by the Failure of any Collector, for which any Parish or Place as aforesaid shall be answerable, shall be assessed within or upon such Parish or Place as soon after such Default shall be discovered as conveniently can be done, and shall be charged on the Amount of the Assessment which shall be made for the same Duties in the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April preceding the Time of making such Re-assessment, by duly apportioning the Amount of such Arrear amongst the several Persons assessed in that Year, in the Assessment of the same Duties on which such Arrear shall have accrued, according to the Amount of each Person's Assessment therein, as nearly as the Case will admit, and by the like Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which the original Assessment was made, to be raised and levied in such Manner as any Assessment may be by virtue of this Act raised and levied, under the Regulations of the said recited Acts respectively.

Arrears shall be re-assessed.

Commissioners shall adjust Times of Payment if the appointed Days are elapsed, and Sums to be paid not being less than the Amount of Two Instalments Quarterly.

Assessments shall be for One Year, payable by Quarterly Instalments, in England, and Half-yearly in Scotland. [See s. 128.]

Duties under Schedule (C.) shall be paid Half yearly. [See s. 72, &c.]

Notices shall be given from Time to Time to Residents who have not been before charged.

To declare in what Place they have been charged, or deliver a Statement for the Purpose of being assessed. Penalty on Party refusing 20l. Assesment of such Party. Penalty on Persons removing out of a Parish without returning Statement or discharging Assesment, or not leaving sufficient Goods to satisfy the Arrears, 20l. On Certificate of Tax Office Arrears shall be levied by Distress in the District where the Party resides, and any Deficiency shall be recoverable as a Debt of Record.

CXCVIII. And be it further enacted, That if it shall happen that this Act cannot be executed previous to the Time appointed for the Payment of the first or any subsequent Instalment of the said last-mentioned Duties, or within the Year of Assesment, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for general Purposes, who shall have made or allowed any Assesment after the Period appointed for any such Payment, which they are hereby declared to be competent to do whenever the same shall be necessary, to settle and adjust at what Time and in what Proportions the Instalment or Instalments of which the Time or Times for Payment shall then have elapsed, shall be paid, in such Manner as to them shall appear just and reasonable, Regard being had to the Number of Days appointed for the Payment of Instalments then to come (if any) in the Year of making the Assesment; provided, that on or before every Quarterly Day of Payment as herein mentioned, after the making such Assesment, in the same or any subsequent Year, the said Commissioners shall direct at least the Amount of Two Quarterly Payments to be made, until all Arrears, either for that or any former or subsequent Year, shall have been completed.

CXCIX. And be it further enacted, That every Assesment, to be made under this Act within the Year appointed for making the same, shall be deemed to be for the Current Year, and shall be in force for such Year; and every Assesment made after the Expiration of any Year in which the same ought to have been made, through the Default of any Person, shall be deemed to be for the Whole of the Year current when the Assesment ought to have been made, and such Year shall commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, for the first Assesment, and for every subsequent Assesment during the Continuance of this Act, from the Fifth Day of April in such Year; and the said Duties which shall be charged in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, except where the same shall be detained and stopped at the respective Offices, shall be payable by Four Quarterly Instalments, at the Times following; videlicet, on or before the Twentieth Day of June, for the First Quarterly Instalment; on or before the Twentieth Day of September, for the Second Quarterly Instalment; on or before the Twentieth Day of December, for the Third Quarterly Instalment; and on or before the Twentieth Day of March, for the last Quarterly Instalment, in each Year; and in Scotland, the said Duties shall be payable by Two Half-yearly Instalments; videlicet, on or before the Twentieth Day of September, for the First Half-yearly Instalment; and on or before the Twentieth Day of March, for the last Half-yearly Instalment; the Payment thereof for the first Year's Assesment to be regulated, as to the Proportion of the Sums and Times of Payment, by the respective Commissioners, pursuant to the Directions herein-before contained: Provided always, that in respect of the Duties contained in Schedule (C.) the Duties thereon shall be payable Half yearly, and at such Times as the Dividends, in respect whereof they shall be charged, are payable.

CC. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall come into any Parish or Place wherein such Person or Persons shall not have been charged to the said last mentioned Duties, contained in any of the said Schedules, for the said Year, the Assessor or Assessors, or Collector or Collectors, or any Inspector or Surveyor, shall give or leave Notice in Writing, to or for every such Person so residing within the Limits for which such Assessors, Collectors, Inspectors, or Surveyors, respectively act, to make out and deliver within Fourteen Days next ensuing the Day of giving such Notice, a Declaration in Writing, signed by him or her with his or her own proper Name, which shall specify the Name of the Parish or Place, County or Counties, wherein such Persons shall have been assessed as aforesaid for such Year, and also to produce the Certificate of such Assesment, or in Default thereof, to deliver a Statement for the Purpose of being assessed in such Parish or Place; and if any such Person as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to make out and sign, and deliver such Declaration or Statement as aforesaid, within the Time before-mentioned, or shall make any false or untrue Return therein in any Particular thereof, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and when in any Case it shall not appear in the Assesment of any Parish or Place for that Year, that any Person or Persons residing or being therein, shall have been assessed to the said Duties in the same Parish or Place, then and in such Case it shall be lawful to the respective Commissioners acting for the said District, and they are hereby required to proceed in Manner before directed to assess such Persons to the said several Duties, or either of them, in like Manner in every Respect as if such Person had been resident in such Parish or Place at the Time of the Publication of Notices as directed by this Act, unless such Person shall prove to their Satisfaction, that he or she hath been duly charged in some other Parish or Place, and hath paid or satisfied the Duties so charged; and if any Person or Persons, before or after Notice given to return a Statement as aforesaid, shall remove out of such Parish or Place without returning such Statement, or before an Assesment shall be made on him, her, or them, with Intent to evade an Assesment; or if any Person or Persons being assessed to the said Duties, shall remove out of the Parish or Place where he, she, or they shall have been assessed to the said Duties, without first paying or discharging all the said Duties charged upon him, her, or them, which shall then be due and payable, or without leaving in such Parish or Place sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon the said Duties in Arrear may be raised and levied, and the same shall remain in Arrear and unpaid for the Space of Twenty Days after the Time appointed by this Act for Payment thereof; every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay (over and above the said Duties so left unpaid as aforesaid) the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and in every such Case, and also in every Case where any Person or Persons shall reside, in any other Parish or Place than the Parish or Place where the Charge shall be made on him, her, or them, in pursuance of this Act, and the same shall be certified to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes to be in Arrear and unsatisfied, in the Whole or in Part, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to certify to the Commissioners of the District within which such Person or Persons shall reside, the whole Amount of the Assesment made upon such Person or Persons; and such last-mentioned Commissioners shall thereupon issue a Warrant of Distress for the Recovery of the whole Duty that shall then have been assessed on such Person or Persons, together with the Costs and Charges attending the same; and if Goods or Chattels cannot be found whereon whereon such Distress can be fully made, then and in every such Case the Whole of such Arrear of Duty, and Costs and Charges as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as cannot be levied and collected by Distress as aforesaid, shall be recoverable as a Debt upon Record to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, together with all Costs and Charges attending the same.

CCI. And be it further enacted, That if any Difference shall arise between Tenant and Landlord, or any other Person or Persons to whom any Interest, Rent, Rent Charge, Annuity, Fee Farm Rent, Rent Service, Quit Rent, Feu Duty, or other Rent or annual Payment, shall be payable, touching the Sums to be deducted thereout on account of the Duties hereby charged having been paid, or between the Occupier for the Time being and any former Occupier of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, touching the Proportion of Duty to be paid or allowed by either Party, the respective Commissioners for general Purposes, or any Two or more of them in their several Districts, shall have Authority, and they are hereby required to settle the Proportions of such Payments and Deductions as shall be according to the Directions of this Act; and the Judgement and Determination of such Commissioners shall be final.

CCII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Contract, Covenant, or Agreement between Landlord and Tenant, or any other Persons, touching the Payment of Taxes and Assessments to be charged on their respective Premises, shall be deemed or construed to extend to the Duties by this Act charged thereon, nor to be binding contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, but that all such Duties shall be charged upon and paid by the respective Occupiers, subject to such Deductions and Repayments as are by this Act authorized and allowed; and all such Deductions and Repayments shall be made and allowed accordingly, notwithstanding such Contracts, Covenants, or Agreements.

CCIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who ought to be charged by virtue of this Act, shall, by fraudulently changing, or having changed his or her Place of Residence, or by fraudulently converting, or having converted his or her Property, or any Part thereof, or by fraudulently releasing, assigning, or conveying, or having fraudulently released, assigned, or conveyed the same, or any Part thereof, or by making and delivering any such Statement or Schedule as aforesaid which shall be false or fraudulent, or having any Property chargeable as last aforesaid, shall fraudulently convert or shall have fraudulently converted the same or any Part thereof, by altering or having altered any Security with relation to such Property, or by fraudulently rendering or having rendered the same, or any Part thereof, temporarily unproductive, in order that such Person may not be charged for the same or any Part thereof, or by any Falsehood, wilful Neglect, Fraud, Covin, Art, or Contrivance whatsoever, already used or practised, or to be used or practised, shall not be charged and assessed according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every such Person shall, on Proof thereof before any Two or more of the said respective Commissioners for general Purposes acting for the District wherein such Person shall be chargeable, be charged and assessed Double the Amount of the Charge which ought to have been made on such Person (if no such Charge shall have been made); and if any such Charge shall have been made, which shall be less than the Charge which ought to have been made on such Person, then such Person shall be assessed and charged over and above such former Charge Double the Amount of the Difference between the Sum with which such Person shall have been charged, and the Sum with which he or she ought to have been charged, to be added to such Assessment and applied as in other Cases as aforesaid.

CCIV. And be it further enacted, That if by any Error, an Assessment or any Part thereof, shall be made under this Act upon the Profits or Gains arising from any Property, or from any Office or Employment of Profit which shall have been otherwise charged under this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners acting for general Purposes in relation to the Duties contained in Schedule (D.) on due Proof thereof to their Satisfaction, to cause such Assessments, on such Part thereof as shall be so doubly assessed, to be vacated; and which Proof shall be either by a Certificate of the Assessment made on such Property, or on such Office or Employment, under the Hands of Two or more of the Commissioners by whom such last-mentioned Assessment shall have been made, and that the same is included in such last-mentioned Assessment, or by other lawful Evidence given on those Facts on the Oath or Oaths of any credible Witnesses or Witnesses; And whenever such Commissioners shall certify to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, that such Double Assessment hath been made, and is not vacated, and that Payment hath been made of both Assessments, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to order and direct the Receivers General who shall have received the Sums so doubly assessed, to repay the same to the Party, which Order shall be an Authority to such Receiver General to repay the same, and such Repayment shall be allowed in his Accounts.

CCV. And be it further enacted, That in the Computation of Duty to be made under this Act in any of the Cases before-mentioned either by the Party making the same, or by the respective Commissioners, it shall not be lawful to make any other Deductions therefrom than such as are expressly enumerated in this Act, nor to make any Deduction which by any of the Rules contained in the said Schedules or in this Act, are directed not to be allowed or made, nor to make any Deduction on Account of any annual Interest, Annuity, or other annual Payments, to be paid to any Person or Persons out of any Profits or Gains chargeable by this Act, except the Interest of Debts due to Foreigners not resident in Great Britain, in regard that a proportionate Part of the Duty so to be charged is allowed to be deducted on making such Payments; nor to make any Deduction from the Profits or Gains arising from any Property herein described, nor from any Office or Employment of Profit, on Account of Diminution of Capital employed, or of Loss sustained in any Trade, Manufacture, Adventure, or Concern.

CCVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons, chargeable with the Duties hereby made payable as aforesaid, shall be under the Age of Twenty-one Years, or where any Persons so chargeable Commissioners shall settle Differences between Landlord and Tenant, &c. as to Deductions.

No Contracts between Landlord and Tenants, &c. shall be binding contrary to this Act.

Penalty on Persons fraudulently changing their Residence, or converting Property, or delivering false Statements; double Duty.

Relief for double Assessments by including in Schedule (D.) Property otherwise chargeable.

No Deductions shall be allowed but such as are authorized by this Act.

Parents and Guardians liable for Infants, shall and Executors for Persons dying.

shall die, in every such Case the Parents, Guardians, or Tutors of such Infants respectively, upon Default of Payment by such Infants, and the Executors and Administrators of the Persons so dying, shall be and are hereby made liable to and charged with the Payments which the said Infants ought to have made, or the Persons so dying were chargeable with; and if such Parents, Guardians, or Tutors, or such Executors or Administrators, shall neglect or refuse to pay as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to proceed against them in like Manner as against any other Person or Persons making Default of Payment of the said Duties; and all Parents, Guardians, or Tutors, making Payment as aforesaid, shall be allowed all and every Sum and Sums paid for such Infants, in his, her, or their Accounts; and all Executors and Administrators shall be allowed to deduct all such Payments out of the Assets of the Persons so dying.

Penalty on Persons guilty of Perjury.

CCVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person upon any such Examination on Oath or Affirmation, or in any Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation authorized by this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, or shall wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties, as by any Law now in being Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Indictments may be tried where the Affidavit was exhibited.

CCVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Indictment or Information for Perjury committed in any such Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation as aforesaid, whether the same shall be taken or made within Great Britain or without, shall and may be laid, tried, and determined in the County where such Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation, shall be exhibited to the Commissioners in pursuance of this Act.

Punishment of Persons guilty of forging or altering Certificates Receipts, &c. Felony punishable by 14 Years Transportation.

CCIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or knowingly or wilfully act or assist in forging, counterfeiting, or altering any Certificate or Certificates of the said Commissioners, acting in the Execution of this Act, authorizing or purporting to authorize any Allowance, Abatement, or Exemption under this Act, or the Receipt of any Sum or Sums contained in any Certificate or Certificates of the said Commissioners, after the same shall have been delivered by the said Commissioners, or any Certificate or Receipt which the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, or any Receiver General or his Deputy, are or is by this Act authorized to give on the Receipt of any Money payable under this Act, or shall utter any such forged, counterfeited, or altered Certificate, or any such Receipt, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, or any Person whomsoever, then and in every such Case all and every Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for the Term of Fourteen Years.

Evidence may be received, of Persons being Commissioners or Officers, without producing Commission.

CCX. And be it further enacted, That if upon the Trial of any Indictment, Information, Action, Suit, or Prosecution whatsoever, or in any Proceedings relative thereto, under and by virtue of this and the said recited Act, any Question shall arise whether any Person be a Commissioner or Officer of or for the said Duties, or commissioned or appointed to act as such, then and in every such Case, Proof may be made and admitted, that such Person was reputed to be or had acted as such Commissioner or Officer, or acted under such Commission or Appointment at the Time and Times respectively, when the Matter or Matters in controversy upon such Trial or Trials, or other Proceedings, shall happen to have been done or committed, or omitted to have been done or performed, without producing or proving the particular Commission, Appointment, Nomination, or other Authority, whereby such Commissioner or Officer was constituted and appointed; and that in every such Case such Proof shall be deemed and taken by all Judges, Justices, or Commissioners, before whom any such Trial or Proceedings shall be had, to be good and legal Evidence, unless by other Evidence the contrary shall be made to appear; any Law or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Voluntary Contributions may be received at the Bank of England.

CCXI. And whereas His Majesty's Subjects residing out of Great Britain, and others, may be desirous of voluntarily contributing towards the Purposes of this Act; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, Body Corporate or Politick, and at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, to pay or cause to be paid to the said Governor or Company, or to their Cashier or Cashiers, or other Person or Persons to be authorized by them, any Sum or Sums of Money as and for a voluntary Contribution, for the Purpose of carrying on the War, and in such Case to require a Certificate or Certificates for the same, acknowledging the Payment of such voluntary Contribution; which Sums to be paid as aforesaid, for which such Certificates shall be required, shall be deemed and taken to be voluntary Contributions of such Persons, Body Politick or Corporate respectively, towards effecting the Purposes of this and the said recited Act, and shall be applied as the other Monies paid into the Bank of England by virtue of this Act may be applied.

Bank shall open Account with the Treasury.

CCXII. And be it further enacted, That the Governors and Directors of the Bank of England shall open an Account in their Books with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, for each Year during the Continuance of this Act, under the Title of The Commissioners of the Treasury on Account of Contributions granted and allowed by Parliament for the Year and shall carry to the Credit of such Account all the Monies authorized by this Act to be paid to the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England, or to their Cashier or Cashiers, or other Person or Persons to be authorized by them, within each such Year, during the Continuance of this Act.

Power to return Money erroneously paid, on Certificate of Tax-Office.

CCXIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons shall have paid, or shall hereafter pay into the Bank of England, or to any Receiver General, any Sum or Sums of Money on Account of the Duties herein recited, and it shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, that such Sum or Sums, or any Part thereof, was so paid by Mistake, and is not included in any Assessment or Charge made of the said Duties, and that the same, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ought to be repaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Three or more of them, to certify the same to the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, and to such Receiver or Receivers General respectively; and the Certificate of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall be an Authority Authority to such Cashier or Cashiers to repay such Sum of Money to or for the Party who shall have so paid the same, and shall be a Discharge to such Cashiers and Receivers General respectively, for such Repayment.

CCXIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Allowance mentioned in Number V. Schedule (A.) shall be granted by the Commissioners for Special Purposes to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, to certify the same to the Receiver General of the County or Place, where the Property in respect of which such Allowances shall have been granted is situate, and the Certificate of such Commissioners shall be an Authority to every such Receiver General to pay the Amount so certified to the Party entitled thereunto, and shall be a Discharge to such Receiver General for such Payment.

Special Commissioners may certify Allowances under Schedule (A.) No. 5. (f. 37.) to pay the same.

CCXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act charged to or liable to the Payment of any of the Duties by this Act granted, to pay or cause to be paid to the said Governor and Company, or to their Cashier or Cashiers, or other Person or Persons to be authorized by them, any Sum or Sums of Money on Account of such Duties, and to require a Certificate of such Payments; and all Sums so paid, not exceeding the Amount of such Duties, shall be deemed and taken to be on Account of such Duties, and in Advance of the same; and the Excess of the Sums paid above the Amount of the said Duties shall be deemed and taken to be voluntary Contributions towards the Purposes of this and the said recited Act; and the Certificates to be given upon the said Payments shall, upon Delivery thereof to the respective Commissioners, or at their Office, be an Acquittance and Discharge for so much and such Parts of the said Duties as the Person delivering the same shall indorse thereon.

Party charged with Duties may pay Money into the Bank, which may be applied to Duties and Voluntary Contributions. [See enclosing ed. p.]

CCXVI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Payment of any such Sum of Money as aforesaid into the said Bank of England, the Cashier or Cashiers, or other Person receiving the same, shall give such Certificates as aforesaid, signed by them respectively, for the Whole of the Sums so paid, or separate Certificates, in like Form, for such Portions thereof as shall be required, which Certificates shall severally be cut off indorsed from the Counter Cheques thereof, which Counter Cheques are to remain with the said Governor and Company; and every such Certificate shall be denominated in the Body thereof to be on Account of Payments made into the said Bank, in Discharge of the Duties assessed by virtue of this Act, the Excess of the said Duties being to be considered as a voluntary Contribution.

One Certificate, or separate Certificates, shall be given at the Bank, as required, on such Payment.

CCXVII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Delivery of any such Certificate as last aforesaid to the said Commissioners, or at their Office, in Discharge of the Whole of the said Duties assessed or charged upon the Person or Persons delivering or causing to be delivered such Certificate, or any Part thereof, the said Commissioners, or their Clerk, shall, if required, indorse in Writing on the Back of the Certificate to be given by them or him in such Case, the Amount of the Number of Instalments of the said Duties to be discharged by such Payments, which Receipts of the said Commissioners or their Clerks as aforesaid shall be received, without further Proof, as Evidence of such Payments in all Courts and Places and before all Persons whatever.

On Delivery of Certificates to Commissioners their Clerk shall give a Receipt, which shall discharge the Duties, &c.

CCXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Monies which shall by virtue of this Act be received by any Deputy or Deputies to any Receiver General, or by any Collector or Collectors to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be paid under the Regulations of the said recited Acts respectively, to the Receiver General appointed or to be appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and at such Times and in such Manner as is directed by the said recited Acts respectively.

Monies received by Deputy Receivers or Collectors shall be paid to Receivers General.

CCXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Monies stopped at the Receipt of the Exchequer in pursuance of this Act, shall be paid over to the proper Officer in the said Receipt, to be applied to such Services as the other Monies paid into the said Receipt may be applied; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank of England shall from Time to Time pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, all such Monies as shall be paid into the said Bank in pursuance of this Act, within One Week after such Payment shall be made, for which Payment no Fee shall be demanded or taken at the said Receipt of the Exchequer.

Monies stopped at the Exchequer, &c. shall be paid over to the proper Officer.

CCXX. And be it further enacted, That every Collector shall have Three-pence in the Pound for what Money of the several Duties aforesaid he shall pay to the Receiver General his Deputy or Deputies; and that for the careful writing and transcribing the said Assessments, Warrants, Eftreats, and Duplicates in due Time, and for the due, speedy, and effectually executing all Matters and Things directed to be performed under the said Commissioners, the Clerk of the respective Commissioners who shall perform the same within the respective Times limited by this Act, shall, by Warrant under the Hands of Two or more of the Commissioners, have and receive from the respective Receivers General, their Deputy or Deputies, Three Halfpence in the Pound of all such Monies of the said several Duties as shall be assessed in or by virtue of such Warrants or Certificates, which is hereby appointed and allowed to pay the same accordingly, provided this Act be carried into Execution in due Time, and in an effectual Manner, for the District in which he shall be appointed the Clerk, and all Warrants or Eftreats to be made, and the Duplicates to be delivered to the Receiver General, and into the Office of the King's Remembrancer as aforesaid, within the Times limited by this Act, and not otherwise; and no Person, except the Assessor or Assessors to such Clerk (if any) shall, under any Pretence whatever, be entitled to any Part of the Reward hereby given to such Clerk, which Compensations shall be apportioned and settled by the respective Commissioners; nor shall such Clerk, under any Pretence whatever, demand, take, or receive any Fee, Gratuity, or Perquisite, for any Matter or Thing to be done by him, by virtue and under the Authority of this Act, from any Person or Persons other than the Receiver General, his Deputy or Deputies, in Manner aforesaid: Provided always, that no such Compensation shall be made to any Collector in respect of any Sum or Sums detained or stopped under the Authority of this Act, or paid into the Bank of England, or in respect thereof, or in respect of any Sums paid by the respective Parties into the said Bank, nor to any Receiver; other than such Sum or Sums as shall be directed to be paid to such Collectors or Receivers, by the Warrant of Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, for their Pains and Care in executing this Act.

None shall share in such Pounds except the Assessor. Clerks shall not have any Fees, &c. No Pounds or Sums stopped, or paid into Bank, &c.

Payment of Duties shall not confer a Settlement.

Penalties shall be recovered as under 43 G. 3. c. 99, 150. Monies arising from Duties shall be paid into the Exchequer, applicable to the Services of each Year.

Treasury may settle Allowance for Surveyors incident to Expenses, &c.

No Person or Corporation shall be exempt by virtue of any Letters Patent.

Provisions applied to any particular Schedule extended to all other Schedules.

Schedule (F.) deemed Part of this Act.

CCXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Payment of any of the Duties made payable by this Act, by any Person or Persons in any Parish or Place, shall not entitle the Person or Persons so paying such Duties, to a Settlement in such Parish or Place.

CCXXII. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall and may be sued for, recovered, and applied, in such Manner and Form as is directed by the said recited Acts respectively, in regard to the pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures thereby imposed.

CCXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said respective Duties and Contributions (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenues, and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties and Contributions, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatever; and the said Monies so paid into the said Receipt shall from Time to Time, as the same shall be paid into the said Receipt, be issued and applied to such Services as shall then have been voted by the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in the present Session of Parliament, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and five, or shall be voted by the said Commons for the Service of any subsequent Year; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, now or for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, arc or is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and apply the same accordingly: Provided always, that out of the Monies from Time to Time arisen or to arise or for the said Duties made payable by this Act, it shall be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, now or for the Time being, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, to settle and appoint such Salaries and Allowances for the Service, Pains, and Labour of the Surveyors, Inspectors, and other Officers to be employed in the Execution of this Act, and otherwise in relation thereto, and also to discharge such incident Charges and Expenses as shall necessarily attend the Execution of this Act, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall think fit and reasonable in that Behalf.

CCXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Letters Patent granted by His Majesty or any of His Royal Progenitors, or to be granted by His Majesty to any Person or Persons, Cities, Boroughs, or Towns Corporate, within this Realm, of any Manner of Liberties, Privileges, or Exemptions from Subsidies, Tolls, Taxes, Assessments, or Aids, shall be construed or taken to exempt any Person or Persons, City, Borough, or Town Corporate, or any of the Inhabitants of the same, from the Burden and Charges of any of the said Duties, and all non obstantes in such Letters Patent made or to be made in Bar of this Act, are hereby declared to be void and of none Effect; any such Letters Patent, Grants, or Charters, or any Clause of non obstante, or other Matter or Thing therein contained, or any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Provision in this Act contained, and applied to the Duty in any particular Schedule, which shall also be applicable to the Duty in any other Schedule, and not repugnant to the Provisions for charging, ascertaining, or levying the Duty in such other Schedule, shall in charging, ascertaining, and levying the same, be applied as fully and effectually as if the Application thereof had been so expressly and particularly directed; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Schedule herein-after mentioned, marked (F.) shall be deemed a Part of this Act, as if the same had been inserted herein, under a special Enactment; provided that the several Oaths therein mentioned shall be deemed and understood and taken to refer only to the Duties contained in Schedules (C.) or (D.) and to such other Duties as are directed to be charged under the same Provisions and Regulations.

C A P. L.

An Act for regulating Licences for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, by Retail, and for discouraging the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors in Ireland.

[5th June 1805.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force in Ireland, for regulating the Sale of Spirituous Liquors by Retail, and for discouraging the immoderate Use of them, have been found insufficient, and it is expedient to repeal the same, and to enact one new Law, with such Provisions as may be necessary; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty intitled, An Act for regulating the issuing of Licences for the Sale of Wine, Ale, Beer, Cyder, and Spirituous Liquors by Retail, and for preventing the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors; and also several Acts made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for continuing and amending the said recited Act of the Thirty-seventh Year; and also for much of an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act for making further Regulations for the better Collection and Security of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs and Excise in Ireland, and for preventing Frauds therein, as relates to the Manner of granting and issuing such Licences, shall, from and after the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five, cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed and made null and void, except so far as may concern the prosecuting, suing for, and recovering of any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, for any Offence against the said Acts or any of them, committed before the said Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five.

Fifth Act,
37 G. 3. c. 45.
(amended by 38 G. 3. (1.)
c. 73. 39 G. 3.
(1.) c. 40
40 G. 3. (1.) c. 54.
41 G. 3.
(U. K.) c. 48.)
and fo much of 44 G. 3. c. 103.
as relates to the Manner of granting Licences, repealed.

Magistrates at General Sessions in April shall fix a Time and Place for Special Sessions in each Barony, to order
Licences.

If Special Sessions is not to be appointed or held, Licences shall be ordered at General Sessions in July.

In Towns and Cities (except Dublin) Licences may be ordered at Sessions either in April
July, or both.

Particulars of Names, &c. shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace by Party to be licensed.

II. And whereas it is expedient that the Power of granting Licences for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, by Retail, in Ireland, should be vested in the Magistrates of the several Counties, whose especial Duty it is to attend to the Peace of the Country, and to the Morals and Sobriety of the People; be it further enacted, That, at the General Sessions of the Peace, which shall be held yearly in each County in Ireland in the Month of April, before any Civil Bills shall be proceeded upon, a Time and Place shall be appointed by the Court, at which Special Sessions of the Peace are to be held in each Barony or Half Barony of the County before the First Day of July following, for the Purpose of fixing upon Persons proper to be entrusted with the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, by Retail, within such Barony or Half Barony, and of ordering Licences to be issued accordingly, which the Justices assembled at every such Special Sessions are hereby authorized and required to do.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case such Special Sessions shall be omitted to be so appointed for all or any of the Baronies or Half Baronies in the County, or in case there shall not be a sufficient Attendance of Justices on the Day appointed for any such Special Sessions, or in case no Licence as aforesaid shall be ordered to be issued thereat for any Barony or Half Barony, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, and they are hereby required at the next succeeding General Sessions in July, to fix upon Persons proper to be entrusted with such Sale within each and every such Barony or Half Barony, and to order Licences to be issued accordingly in the same Manner as Justices might have done at a Special Sessions held within such Barony or Half Barony, under the Provisions of this Act; and every Act done at such General Sessions in July, shall be as valid to all Intents and Purposes, for the Execution of this Act, as if done at a Special Sessions held in such Barony or Half Barony.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in each County of a Town or City (Dublin, and the District of Five Miles beyond the Circular Road and the Wall of the Phenix Park only excepted) it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace thereof at the General Sessions either in April or July, or at both in each Year, to fix upon proper Persons to be entrusted with the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder therein, and to order Licences to be issued accordingly, which the Justices assembled at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to do.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Licence as aforesaid shall be ordered or issued to any Person, unless the Person applying for such Licence shall have delivered in Writing to the acting Clerk of the Peace his Christian and Surname, and Place of Abode, specifying the House, Town or Township, Parish, Barony or Half Barony, and if in the County of a Town or City, the Road, Street, Square, Lane, or other Description of Place where such Person desires to be licensed to sell in, and the Names and Places of Abode of the Persons whom such Person requiring such Licence proposes as Sureties, not being Distillers or Publicans.

VI. And

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices at every such Special or General Sessions as aforesaid, shall, previous to ordering any Licence as aforesaid to be issued, inquire, and they are hereby authorized and directed to inquire in open Court, and upon Oath if they shall see Occasion, into the Character of each Person so applying for a Licence, whether such Person be of good Fame, sober Life, and orderly Conduct, and whether the House wherein such Person proposes to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, by Retail, is conveniently situated for the Purpose, and capable of and convenient for the Sale of Victuals, and the Accommodation of Travellers or Persons resorting thereunto for Food and Provisions, and they shall also inquire whether the Sureties proposed by each such Person are good and sufficient for the Sums they are to be bound in; and their Approbation of any such Person, and of the Sureties offered, and of the Place and House or Houses whereat such Person desires to be licensed shall be immediately entered in open Court in the Crown Book thereof, by the acting Clerk of the Peace, and be signed by at least Two Justices attending at such Sessions.

VII. And, in order more effectually to provide for proper Situations only being selected for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, and to guard against a greater Number of Houses being licensed than shall be compatible with the Morals and Sobriety of the People; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of each County or County of a Town or City to inquire into, and determine, at each Spring Assizes, the Number of Houses which, consistent with a due Attention to the Morals and Sobriety of the People, it may be expedient to allow to be licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder by Retail, for One Year, from the Twenty-ninth Day of September next ensuing, within each Barony or Half Barony of such County, or within such County of a Town or City, specifying the Townland, Town, or Village, and the Number of publick Houses to be allowed in each Townland, or in each Town or Village, or within a District not less than a Mile around such Town or Village, or in each County, or the Parish or Parishes, and the Number of publick Houses to be allowed in each if in a County of a Town or City; and they shall cause such their Determination to be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace, who shall produce and read the same aloud in open Court at the General or Special Sessions, as the Case may be, before any Order shall be made thereat for issuing any Licence; and no Order shall be made for the issuing of any Licence, nor shall any Licence if issued be valid for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, in any Place not specified for the Purpose, in such Determination, or in greater Number than shall be therein specified; if such Determination shall have been made: Provided always, that if no such Determination shall be made by the Grand Jury, it shall be lawful for the Justices at any such Sessions as aforesaid to order such Number of Licences to be issued, and for such Places as in their Discretion they shall think expedient, and compatible with the Morals and Sobriety of the Inhabitants.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case at any Special or General Sessions as aforesaid, no Order shall be given for issuing Licences in Manner herein prescribed, or in case no Order shall be given thereat for issuing Licences in any particular Barony or Half Barony, it shall and may be lawful for the Clerk of the Peace to issue Licences for One Year, from the Twenty-ninth Day of September in that Year, for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, to the same Persons, and at and for the same Houses or Places as shall have been licensed in the Year ending on such Twenty-ninth Day of September, provided such Persons respectively, together with their Sureties, or such other Sureties as shall be approved of by Two Magistrates, shall enter into a Bond in the Amount, and conditioned as is enacted respecting the Bond herein mentioned; and it shall and may be lawful for such Clerk of the Peace also to issue a like Licence to any Person or Persons whom any Two Magistrates of the County, residing within Five Miles of the Habitation of such Persons, shall certify under their Hands and Seals to be a proper Person for being entrusted with the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, at such Place as shall be mentioned in such Certificate, and on Security to the Amount, and conditioned in like Manner, and approved of in such Certificate, being first entered into and delivered to him: Provided always, that every such Licence be conformable to the Determination of the Grand Jury if any such shall have been duly made.

IX. And be it further enacted, That upon any Order made by the Justices of the Peace pursuant to this Act for issuing a Licence, if the Person applying, and the Sureties approved of for such Person, shall attend in Court, their Security may be immediately taken, that of the Person applying in the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and that of the Sureties each in Twenty-five Pounds in a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Condition of every which Bond shall be, that the Person to be licensed shall keep a Victualling House, Inn, or Tavern, during the Time such Licence shall be in force, and shall be constantly provided with strong Beer, Ale, or Porter, and Victuals of good and sound Quality for Sale by Retail, and shall supply all Travellers who shall require it with such Victuals, and Beer, Ale, and Porter, at reasonable Rates, and shall not sell Spirituous Liquors to be consumed in his or her House or Premises on or during a Sunday, nor Wine, Ale, Beer, Porter or Cyder, on a Sunday before Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, except to Travellers, nor before Sunrise any Morning, nor after an unreasonable Hour any Evening, nor to any Tradesman, Artificer, or Labourer resorting to his or her House for the Purpose of receiving Wages, or of entering into any Combination, and shall not knowingly or wilfully entertain any Persons assembling for the Purpose of entering into an unlawful Association or Combination therein, or Persons in Arms who are not by Law qualified to carry the same; and that such Person do to be licensed respectively shall not at any Time receive into his or her House, or permit or suffer to be sold therein or thereout any Spirituous Liquors which shall not, to the best of his or her Knowledge and Belief, have fully paid His Majesty's Duties, and which shall not have been duly and legally attended with proper Permits to such Person from the Distillery or Stores of a licensed Distiller or Factor.

Justices shall enquire into the Character and Sufficiency of the Party, and of the House and Sureties, and their Approbation shall be entered in the Crown Book.

Grand Juries at Spring Assizes shall determine the Number of Houses to be licensed in each Barony.

If no Determination by Grand Jury, Justices may order Licences at their Discretion.

If Licences not ordered at Special or General Sessions, they may be granted by Clerk of the Peace, under certain Restrictions.

Conditions of Bonds to be entered into by Parties licensed, and their Sureties if ready, in open Court.

Distillers or Publicans shall not be Sureties.

Clerk of the Peace may issue Licence on Stamps.

Form of Licence.

Collectors shall deliver Accounts thereof at the Stamp Office and to the Clerk of the Peace.

Licences to sell Beer or Spirits at Encampments from Month to Month.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Distiller or Publican shall be allowed to become Surety, or shall be accepted as such in any Bond to be taken on the issuing or granting any such Licence as aforesaid; and if any Publican or Distiller shall become Surety, or enter into any such Bond as Surety, the Licence granted in consequence thereof shall be void and of none Effect.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case such Security shall not be entered into in open Court, the same may be entered into before any Magistrate at any Time before the Twenty-ninth Day of September next ensuing the ordering of any Licence, and upon such Security, whether entered into in open Court, or before a Magistrate, being delivered to the acting Clerk of the Peace, he shall file the same, and preserve it among the Records of the County, and it shall thereupon be lawful for such Clerk of the Peace, and he is hereby required, to give or cause to be given to the Person in whose Behalf such Security shall have been entered into, immediately on Demand, a Licence in the Form following; that is to say:

‘ A. B. of _____ is hereby licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, by Retail, at _____ in the Parish [or, if the Place is extrapariocchial, the Township] of _____ until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and _____

Which Licence shall be of force for One Year from the Twenty-ninth Day of September in the said Year until the Twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year next ensuing; and every such Licence shall be on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, stamped with such Stamp or Stamps as is or shall be required by Law for the same, for the issuing whereof, and filling up the same, and also for filling up such Bond as aforesaid, if he be required so to do, every such Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to demand and receive the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence Britis Currency as a Fee, together with the Amount of the Stamp Duties on such Bond, if he shall have paid for and supplied the same before he shall sign or deliver such Licence; and if such Clerk of the Peace shall have paid for and supplied the stamped, Vellum, Parchment, or Paper for such Licence, at the Desire of the Person applying for a Licence, he shall be entitled to demand and receive the Amount of the Stamp Duty thereon, and also the further Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence like Currency for his Expence in procuring the same, if such Stamp Duty shall not exceed Eleven Pounds like Currency, and of Five Shillings if such Stamp Duty shall exceed Eleven Pounds like Currency.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall apply in Manner herein-before directed for any Order for issuing a Licence as aforesaid, and the Justices assembled at the Sessions shall refuse to grant such Order, or if the Clerk of the Peace, in Cases where no such Order is requisite, shall refuse to issue a Licence to any Person entitled under the Provisions of this Act to receive the same, and the Person so applying shall think himself or herself aggrieved by such Refusal, it shall and may be lawful for every such Person to appeal to the next General Sessions of the Peace to be held in such City, Town, or County in Ireland; and in case the Justices at such Sessions shall think such Person proper and qualified to be licensed, and shall approve of the Sureties to be named by such Person, it shall be lawful for them to order a Licence to be issued forthwith, under the like Securities, Terms, and Regulations respectively, as are herein-before directed.

XIII. ‘ And for the better and more convenient Supply of stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper for such Licences,’ be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for managing his Majesty’s Stamp Duties in Ireland shall cause a Distributor or other proper Person to attend at every Special or General Sessions whereat such Licences may be ordered, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, at such other convenient Place or Places, and at such Time or Times as the Justices attending at such General or Special Sessions shall appoint, in Writing by Notice to the said Commissioners, or on Failure of such Notice, at such convenient Places in each County as the said Commissioners shall judge proper, with a sufficient Quantity of Paper, Vellum, or Parchment, duly stamped, for the Purpose of being delivered to any Person who shall require the same, upon Payment of the Stamp Duty thereon, and of Two Shillings and Sixpence Britis Currency for the Trouble of each Distributor or other Person attending therewith, if the Stamp Duty thereon does not exceed Eleven Pounds like Currency, and of Five Shillings like Currency, if such Stamp Duty shall exceed Eleven Pounds like Currency.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person so licensed shall be desirous to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, in any Hut, Tent, or Booth, or in any Street, Road, or open Place, at any Fair, and shall apply for Licence to do so to any Magistrate of the County or County of a Town or City, resident within Five Miles of such Fair, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to endorse upon his Licence a Liberty so to do, with the Consent of the Proprietor of the Tolls of such Fair, specifying the Day or Excise of the District wherein such Fair shall be held, such Duty as shall be payable therefore for each Fair Day at which such Person shall be authorized by any such Endorsement to sell as aforesaid; and upon such Collector certifying such Payment upon the Foot or Back of such Licence; and every Collector certifying such Payment shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, an Account thereof at the End of each Month, and shall send a similar Account to the Clerk of the Peace.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of His Majesty’s Militia or Regular Forces commanding any Encampment of Troops shall recommend any Person to be licensed for the Sale of either Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Ale, Beer, or Cyder, or all or any of them, it shall be lawful for any Two Magistrates within their Jurisdiction to give an Order for the issuing a Licence to such Person so recommended to sell such Articles as aforesaid, specified in such Recommendation at such Encampment, for One Month, and to order the same to be renewed from Month to Month during the Continuance of such Encampment, and no longer.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every such Licence, or Renewal thereof, shall be issued by a Distributor of Stamps, on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, stamped with a Stamp of the Amount of the Duty payable thereon, for supplying which he shall be entitled to demand and receive a Fee of One Shilling British Currency, and that a Certificate of every such Licence, and of every Renewal thereof, shall be delivered by such Distributor to the acting Clerk of the Peace within One Month after the same shall have been issued, and shall be by him entered along with the Licences issued by him.

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no such Licence so issued on the Recommendation of the Commanding Officer of an Encampment, shall be of force after such Officer or any other Commanding Officer thereat shall revoke the same, and give Notice in Writing of such Revocation to either of the Two Justices who signed the Order for licensing, or to the Stamp Distributor who shall have issued the Licence.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person licensed under the Provisions of this Act shall affix or cause to be affixed on some conspicuous Place on the Outside of his House, not more than Three Feet distant from the Top of the front Door thereof, and also on the Outside of the Place at any Fair where such Person shall be allowed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, his or her Name at full Length painted on a Board in white Letters One Inch long at the least, upon a black Ground, or in black Letters of like Length upon a white Ground, and the Words "Licensed to sell Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail," in Letters of like Size and Colour, and shall preserve and keep up the same during the Time such Person shall continue to sell therein Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail, or in Default thereof shall forfeit a Sum equal to the Amount of the Stamp Duty paid or chargeable upon his or her Licence so to sell Spirituous or other Liquors.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller, Bailiff, Gaoler, Turnkey, Constable, Sheriff, Sub-Sheriff, Sheriff's Officer, Peace Officer, Keeper of any Turnpike Gate, Commissioned or Non-commissioned Yeoman Officer, Officer of Customs or Excise, nor any Person exercising by himself, or any Person for his Use or Benefit, the Trade or Business of a Grocer, or who shall be licensed as a Grocer, or in whose House or in any Building occupied by him or her, or any House or Building adjoining thereto, and which shall communicate with such House or Building, the Trade or Business of a Grocer shall be carried on, or who shall not be a Victualler, Inn-keeper, or Tavern-keeper, shall be capable of receiving a Licence to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, by Retail, nor any Person who shall not previously subscribe the Oath of Allegiance, and likewise take and subscribe an Oath that he is not, a United Irisbman, nor acted as such, nor is a Member of or connected with or belonging to any Society or Meeting formed or appointed for any treasonable, seditious, or unlawful Purpose, and that he or she will not permit or suffer to be sold in any House, Building, Out-house, Tent, Field, or other Place, for his or her Account or Profit during the Continuance of the Licence, any Spirituous Liquors which shall not have been duly and legally permitted and attended with proper Permits to him or her, and which shall not, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, have paid the full Duties due thereon to His Majesty; and every Licence which shall be issued to any Person declared by this Act not to be capable of receiving the same, or to any Person or Persons in Trust, or to the Use or Benefit of such Person or Persons so declared incapable, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be void to all Intents and Purposes, and the Person whose Licence shall so become null and void shall be deemed an unlicensed Retailer of Spirituous Liquors, and be subject to such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities as Retailers of Spirituous Liquors without Licence are subject to.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be deemed a Victualler, Inn-keeper, or Tavern-keeper, within the Meaning of this Act, who shall not furnish or sell Victuals to be consumed in the House of such Person.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Licence as aforesaid shall be granted to any Person who shall not be charged with and pay Duty for Two Fire Hearths at the least, nor unless the House of such Person shall be charged and pay Tax in respect of some Windows or Lights therein.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to subject any Apothecary or Druggist to any Penalty for selling Cordial or Medicinal Waters, in the Way of his Business as an Apothecary or Druggist, or to oblige him to have a Licence for so doing.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder in Ireland, shall assign the House or Place in which such Person shall have been licensed to sell such Liquors to any Person, or shall die, the Assignee of such Person assigning his Interest, or the Executors or Administrators of the Person so dying, or his or their Assignee who shall become possessed of such House, or Place, may lawfully sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder therein, until the Expiration of the Term for which the Licence shall have been granted, provided such Executors or Administrators, or such Assignee, shall have obtained the Certificate of the Two next resident Justices of the Peace, or any Two Justices resident within Five Miles thereof, that he, she, or they is or are a proper Person or Persons to be licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder by Retail, and shall, together with Two sufficient Sureties approved of by such Justices, have executed such Bond as is herein before required on granting a Licence.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace shall neglect to attend at any Sessions of the Peace, General or Special, at which any Act is to be done towards carrying any Part of this Act into Execution, unless prevented by Sickness or sudden Accident, sufficient in the Opinion of the Court to justify his Absence, and verified by Oath, or shall neglect to provide a proper and sufficient Person, in case of such his necessary Absence therefrom, to act there for him, and for whom he shall be answerable, it shall be lawful for the Justices, or for any Justice attending, if there shall be only one, to fine such Clerk of the Peace for every such Neglect or Omission in the Sum of Twenty Pounds British Currency, which Fine shall be immediately extracted into the Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

Clerks of the Peace may appoint Deputies.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Clerk of the Peace to appoint One or more sufficient Deputy or Deputies to act for him in the Execution of this Act, each resident within the County of which he shall be Clerk of the Peace, and for whom such Clerk of the Peace shall be answerable, and the act of each and every such Deputy or Deputies shall be deemed the Act of the Clerk of the Peace

by

by whom he or they is or are appointed, and shall subject such Clerk of the Peace to all Penalties and Disabilities for any Acts, Matters, or Things done, or neglected to be done by any of them, as if such Act had been done, or neglected to be done by such Clerk of the Peace; and every such Deputy shall be deemed the acting Clerk of the Peace in the Absence of the Clerk of the Peace.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Clerk of the Peace, or acting Clerk of the Peace, shall at any Time neglect to attend in the Execution of his Duty under this Act at any Sessions, General or Special, it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer of the County, then there present, to do all such Acts and Acts as are by this Act required to be done by such Clerk of the Peace, at such Sessions, General or Special, and to take such Fees for the same as such Clerk of the Peace is by this Act authorized and empowered to take.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That no Presentment shall be made by any Grand Jury, or stated by any Judge of Assize for any Money to be paid to any Clerk of the Peace for any Purpose whatsoever, either for Salary, Fees, or otherwise, unless such Clerk of the Peace shall lay before the Grand Jury an Affidavit made by him, that he has not taken or received since the passing of this Act any greater or other Fee or Fees for any Thing done by him in the Execution thereof than what are allowed to him expressly by the same, every which Affidavit shall be laid before the Judge of Assize, and read in open Court, before the Judge shall fix the Presentment, and it shall then be delivered to the Clerk of the Crown, to be kept among the Records of the County.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall sell any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder by Retail, unless such Person shall be licensed so to do in Manner herein directed; and if any Person shall sell any such Liquors by Retail, without having obtained such Licence as directed by this Act, or having obtained such Licence the same shall have become void, every such Person being duly convicted thereof before any One Magistrate for the First Offence, and before any Two Magistrates for the Second or any subsequent Offence, either by his or her Confession, or the Oath of any One credible Witness, shall for the first Offence, if committed within the City of Dublin, or within the Circular Road, or within the District of the Metropolis of Dublin, or in any Place beyond the Circular Road and the Wall of His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, not distant more than Five Miles therefrom, or within the Cities of Cork, Waterford, or Limerick, or within the rest of the Counties of the said Cities, forfeit the Sum of Thirty Pounds, British Currency, and for the Second and every further Offence Forty Pounds British Currency; and if such Offence shall be committed in any other Place in Ireland, every such Person shall for the First Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds British Currency, and for the Second and for every further Offence Thirty Pounds British Currency; and in Default of Payment of the said Forfeitures or Penalties respectively, for the First Offence the Person offending shall be committed to Gaol for a Space not exceeding Four Calendar Months, nor less than Two Calendar Months, and in Default of Payment of the said Forfeitures or Penalties respectively, for the Second or any further Offence shall be committed to Gaol, there to remain for the Space of Six Calendar Months: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to Sellers of bottled Beer, Ale, Porter, or Cyder, who shall send the same Abroad, and not sell any to be consumed in their own Houses.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be convicted of a Second Offence against this Act, such Person shall be incapable of receiving a Licence to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, by Retail, and that every Licence for that Purpose granted or to be granted to any such Person shall be void; and any such Person afterwards selling any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, by Retail, in Ireland, shall be subject to the same Penalties as Persons selling Spirituous Liquors or other Liquors, by Retail, without Licence, are subject to.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, High or Chief Constable, Peace Officer, or Officer of Excise or Stamps, to enter in the Day-time into any House, Shop, Store Room, or other Building, or Booth or Shed, Hut, Tent, or Stall, whereon or before which shall be affixed any Board importing that Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder are sold therein, and to demand a View of the Licence for such Sale; and if no sufficient Licence shall be produced on such Demand, the Occupier of such Shop, Store Room, House, or other Building, Booth, Shed, Hut, Tent, or Stall, shall be deemed an unlicensed Retailer, and forfeit accordingly as such, unless he or she shall, within Twenty-four Hours after a Magistrate shall make such Demand, or within Twenty-four Hours after Complaint shall be made to any Magistrate of the Refusal to produce such sufficient Licence, produce the same to the Magistrate who shall have made such Demand, or shall summon him or her on such Complaint.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, Chief or High Constable, or Officer of the Revenue of Customs or Excise or Stamps, to search for and make Seizure of any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, which he shall find in any House or other Building, or any Booth, Shed, Hut, Tent, or Stall, whereon or before which such Board shall be affixed; and if the Occupier of the same shall fail to produce a Licence in force, authorizing him or her to sell Spirituous Liquors, all Spirituous or other Liquors therein, and also all Spirituous or other Liquors which shall be in any House belonging to or occupied by any Person who shall have been a Second Time convicted of selling Spirituous or other Liquors without Licence, and also all Spirituous or other Liquors exposed to Sale at any Fair, Patron Market, Hurling Match, Horse Race, or any Place of public Meeting, except in Houses licensed for that Purpose, and except where a Special Licence shall be given in respect to any Sale thereof at any Fair or Encampment as is herein provided, together with all Vessels containing the same, and all Vessels used for measuring and drinking the same, shall be forfeited and may be seized; and every Person selling or exposing to Sale any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, at any such Fair, Patron

In Absence of acting Clerk of the Peace the Treasurer of the County may act.

Affidavit of Clerk of the Peace that he has not received undue Fees shall be made, before Presentment for him.

Persons twice convicted shall be incapable of being licensed, and shall be liable to Penalties.

Magistrate may enter any Place, and demand Sight of Licence.

Magistrates or Revenue Officers may seize Spirits exposed to sale at any Place of public Meetings, except licensed Houses.

Market, Horse Race, Hurling Match, or other Place of public Meeting, except in Houses or Places licensed for that Purpose, shall, upon View of any Magistrate, or upon being convicted thereof before any Magistrate, be subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as a Person selling Spirituous Liquors without Licence.

Magistrates may destroy Spirits hawked or sold by Persons not licensed.

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other Peace Officer, or any Officer of the Revenue of Customs or Excise or Stamps, in Ireland, to seize and take away, or to destroy or cause to be seized, taken away, and destroyed, all such Spirituous Liquors which shall be hawked about or exposed to Sale in any Street, Pathway, Road, Field, or in any Booth, Tent, Stall, Shed, or Bulk, or by any Person not licensed to sell the same in such Place, and the Vessels containing the same, and all Vessels and Utensils used for measuring or drinking the same found therewith; and it shall be lawful for any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for the City or Place in Ireland wherein such Offence shall be committed, in his or their own View, or on Confession of the Party, or by Proof of such Offence by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to convict any Person so offending, and to order him, her, or them to be put in the Stocks for the Space of One Hour; and the Justice or Justices by whom such Person shall have been so convicted, shall, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, commit the Offender or Offenders to Gaol, there to remain for any Time not exceeding one Calendar Month from the Day of such Commitment.

Magistrates may summon Persons charged with Offences against this Act.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace in Ireland, to summon any Person charged with having sold Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, by Retail, without Licence, or charged with any other Offence against this Act, to appear before him, and if the Charge be for selling of any such Liquors without Licence, to require, by the Summons to be issued, the Person summoned to bring with him or her, and to produce a Licence for selling Spirituous Liquors; and in case such Person shall not appear, upon Proof made of the Service of such Summons, or if such Person shall appear, and shall not produce a Licence authorizing him or her to sell by Retail Spirituous Liquors, then such Justice or Magistrate shall examine such Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath as shall appear before him, which Oath such Justice or Magistrate is hereby empowered to administer; and if Proof shall be made before such Justice or Magistrate, or if it shall appear by the Confession of the Party, that such Person did sell any of such Liquors by Retail within Six Months previous to the issuing of such Summons, then such Justice or Magistrate shall convict the Person charged with having sold such Liquors without Licence, of such Offence; and every Conviction shall be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, according to the Nature of the Case; that is to say;

Conviction.

County of } A. B. is convicted on his or her own Confession [or, on the Oath of ] of having sold Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, as the Case may be, in the Parish [Townland, or Town, as the Case may be] of _____ in this County, on the _____ Day of _____ without being duly licensed thereto. Given under my Hand and Seal, this _____ Day of _____ Magistrates shall thereupon issue Warrants.

And such Magistrate or Justice shall thereupon issue a Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to levy such Fine or Penalty as the Person so convicted shall be subject to in respect of the Offence of which he or she was so convicted, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Person, and to commit the Body of such Offender to Gaol in such Cases as by this Act the Offender may be so committed; and the Informer or Prosecutor shall be deemed a competent Witness to prove the Offence.

Magistrates may summon Witnesses, who not appearing, or refusing to give Evidence, shall forfeit 20s.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, or other Magistrate, to summon any Person to appear before him to give Evidence of the selling of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, by any Person not having a Licence to retail Spirituous Liquors; and if any Person who shall be summoned as a Witness for the Purpose aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to appear to such Summons, or appearing shall refuse to give his or her Testimony, every such Person shall, for every such Neglect or Refusal, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds British Currency, for the Use of the Poor of the Parish in which such Person shall dwell; and in case of Non-payment thereof, such Justice or Magistrate shall issue a Warrant under his Hand and Seal to levy such Sum, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person; and for Want of Effects sufficient to answer such Sum, shall issue a like Warrant to commit to the House of Correction or County Gaol the Person so offending, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of One Calendar Month.

Sessions.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by the Determination of any such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, it shall and may be lawful for such Person to appeal to the next Sessions of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, for the County, City, or Town in Ireland where such Person was convicted, and not afterwards; and the Determination of the Justices at such Sessions shall be final and conclusive, and no Certiorari shall be allowed for the Removal thereof: Provided always, that no such Judgement or Conviction shall be reversed for any Informality, Imperfection, or Defect in Form.

Appeal of unlicensed Person shall not stay Execution, unless on Bond to pay the Fines, &c.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act as an unlicensed Retailer of Spirituous Liquors, no Appeal to be brought by any such Person shall stay or prevent the Execution of any Warrant or Process for the Seizure of any Goods or Chattels of, or of Committal of such Person, unless such Person shall, with Two sufficient Sureties, have entered into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in a penal Sum equal to Double the Amount of the Fine so incurred, conditioned to pay the Fine imposed on such Person in case the Judgement or Conviction for the same shall be affirmed, with all Costs attending such Appeal, which Bond shall be entered into before the Clerk of the Peace, before such Appeal shall be lodged or received.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace in Ireland shall certify to the Clerk of the Peace, by sending the Record of the Conviction, that Proof has been made before him, that any Condition in any of the Bonds herein-before required to be entered into by any Person licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Ale, Beer, and Cyder, has been violated, specifying such Condition and the Violation thereof, such Clerk of the Peace shall thereupon transmit such Certificate, together with a Copy of the Conviction, and the Bond of the Person offending, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Stamp Duties in Ireland; and the said Commissioners shall forthwith put or cause such Bond to be put in Suit.

Justices shall certify to Clerks of the Peace when Condition of Bonds are violated, &c.

XLVI. And, for preventing drinking at unseasonable Hours, and the harbouring of suspected Persons in Houses where Spirituous Liquors shall be sold; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, Chief or High Constable, to enter any such House, and to remove all Persons drinking therein between the Hours of Twelve at Night and Sunrise in the Morning, on any Day of the Week, or drinking therein at any Hour whatever on Sunday; and if any Person selling Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail, shall not, on Demand of Entrance by knocking or otherwise, so as to be heard within, admit such Magistrate, Chief or High Constable, into such House, or after Admittance shall obstruct any of them in removing Persons drinking therein, such Person, upon Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of any Magistrate, upon Oath, or upon View thereof by such Magistrate, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds British Currency, to be paid to the Informer or Prosecutor; and in Default of Payment thereof, the Person so offending shall be committed to Gaol until such Fine shall be paid.

Magistrates or Constables may remove Persons drinking after a certain Hour. Penalty on Persons obstructing Magistrates, &c.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace before whom any Person licensed for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder, shall have been a Second Time convicted of entertaining Persons in his or her House, not being Inmates of such House, at unreasonable Hours, shall certify under his Hand and Seal to the Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties in Ireland, that such Person has so been a Second Time convicted, and upon Receipt of such Certificate, the said Commissioners shall cause the Bond entered into by such Person to be put in Suit; and such Certificate shall, if produced on any Trial relative to such Bond, be conclusive Evidence of the Breach of the Condition of such Bond.

Magistrates shall certify Persons twice convicted to Stamp Office.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall have any Remedy for, or recover any Sum of Money on Account of, any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, sold knowingly to an unlicensed Retailer of Spirituous or other Liquors in Ireland, nor shall any such unlicensed Retailer have any Remedy for or recover from any Person any Sum of Money on Account of any Spirituous or other Liquors sold by such unlicensed Retailer; and all Promissory Notes, Bonds, or other Writings given as a Security for the Payment of Debts contracted for any such Spirituous or other Liquors to be sold to an unlicensed Retailer of Spirituous Liquors, or so sold by an unlicensed Retailer, are hereby declared to be null and void.

Money for Liquors sold to or by unlicensed Persons, not to be recoverable.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That all Forfeitures under this Act, exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, touching which no special Provision is hereby enacted, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Ireland, by any Person who will sue for the same, in which Plea, or Information, in any Court of Record in Ireland, by any Person who will sue for the same, in which Monies no Effoign, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance, shall be allowed; and that all Monies recovered thereby shall be applied as to One Half thereof, after deducting all the Expences of prosecuting and recovering the same, to the Use of the Person suing for the same, and as to the other Half thereof, to the Use of the Infirmary of the County, or County of a Town, or City, wherein such Forfeiture shall have been incurred; and if in the District of the Metropolis, to the Use of the Governor of the Hospital and Free School of King Charles the Second in Dublin, commonly called The Blue Boys Hospital.

Recovery and Application of Penalties exceeding 20l.

L. And be it further enacted, That all Fines imposed by virtue of this Act, for any Neglect of Duty in any Office, shall be estraigned into His Majesty's Exchequer by the Justices or Justice imposing the same; and that all Convictions for any Offence against this Act, respecting which no special Provision is enacted, shall be made in a summary Way before any One Justice of the Peace, upon Confession of the Party, or Proof upon the Oath of any One credible Witness; and that the Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture under such Conviction, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, or if not paid, the Offender shall be committed to Gaol by such Justice, for any Time not exceeding the Rate of One Month for every Five Pounds of the Sum which such Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture may amount to; and that all Sums which shall be levied or paid on Account of any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures under this Act, not particularly applied by this Act (except such as shall be estraigned into His Majesty's Exchequer) shall be applied, after deducting all Expences for levying the same, as to One Half thereof to the Informer, and as to the other Half, to the Poor of the Parish wherein the Conviction shall be made.

Recovery and Application of other Penalties.

LI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture shall be adjudged against any Person in pursuance of this Act, for selling Spirituous Liquors without Licence, the same shall not be abated or mitigated.

Fine for selling Spirits without a Licence shall not be abated.

LII. And be it further enacted, That all Justices of the Peace for any County in Ireland, adjoining to or within which any County of a City is situated, shall be empowered, and they are hereby authorized and enabled to act in such County of a City (save and except the City and County of the City of Dublin) as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were Magistrates within such County of a City, so far only as shall relate to convicting and levying the Penalties inflicted by this Act on all Persons who shall sell Spirituous or other Liquors without Licence in Ireland, contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Justices of Counties may convict Offenders in Cities (except Dublin.)

LIII. And be it further enacted, That no Fee or Reward shall be taken by any Magistrate or his Clerk, or other Person acting under him, for any Thing done or ordered by them in the Execution of this present Act, other than what is herein particularly authorized, under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Five Pounds British Currency, to be recovered by Civil Bill by any Person suing for the same.

Penalty on Magistrates or other Persons taking Fees, &c.

LIV. And

Penalties on Magistrates neglecting to perform the Provisions of the Act, 50l.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in Ireland, who shall neglect or refuse in any Instance to carry this Act into Execution, upon a proper Application made to him, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds British Currency for every such Neglect or Refusal, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Ireland by the Person who shall have made such Application, in which no Effoign, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance shall be allowed; the Money recovered by such Action to be applied as to One Half thereof to the Use of the Person suing for Justice of Peace or Magistrate shall reside, for the Use of the Poor therein.

Penalty on Persons buying a less Quantity of Spirits than Four Gallons, or of Beer less than one Quarter of a Barrel in Houses, not having a painted Board, 2l. &c.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall buy or obtain for any Consideration given or to be given, any Spirituous Liquors in less Quantity than Four Gallons in any House in Ireland, not having affixed thereon such Board so painted, and in such Manner as is prescribed by this Act, or if any Person shall buy or obtain for any Consideration given or to be given, any Beer, or Ale in less Quantity than One Quarter of a Barrel, in any House not having affixed thereon such Board so painted, and in such Manner, unless such House be the House of a Seller of Bottled Beer, Ale, or Porter, who shall send the same abroad, and shall not sell any to be consumed in his or her House; every such Person shall for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof before any Magistrate upon the Oath of One credible Witness, or by his own Confession, or on the View of such Magistrate, forfeit the Sum of Two Pounds British Currency; and in case of Non-payment thereof, shall be committed to Gaol, there to remain for One Calendar Month or until the said Penalty shall be paid.

Penalty on Dealers selling Spirits to unlicensed Retailers, 10l.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, or other Dealer in Spirits in Ireland, shall knowingly sell any Spirits to an unlicensed Retailer, or to any Person for the Use of an unlicensed Retailer, such Distiller or Dealer in Spirits shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds British Currency.

Distillers shall not recover from unlicensed Retailers, &c.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller or wholesale Dealer in Spirits, or any other Person shall be entitled to maintain any Cause, Action, or Suit for, or to recover, either in Law or Equity, any Sum of Money or Demand for or on Account of any Spirits sold to any Person selling Spirits by Retail without Licence in Ireland; and in case such Distiller or wholesale Dealer in Spirits, or other Person, shall sell any Spirits to such unlicensed Retailer, knowing him to be such, such unlicensed Retailer may recover back all such Money as he shall have paid for any such Spirits to sold by Civil Bill or otherwise from such Distiller or wholesale Dealer.

No Money shall be recovered for Spirits unless the Debt incurred to 20s. contracted at one Time, &c.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be entitled unto or shall maintain any Cause, Action, or Suit for, or recover either in Law or Equity, any Sum of Money or Demand, for or on Account of any Spirituous Liquors sold in Ireland, unless such Debt shall have been really and bonâ fide contracted at one Time to the Amount of Twenty Shillings British Currency at the least, nor where any Part of the Liquors sold or delivered shall have been returned, or agreed to be returned directly or indirectly, nor shall any particular Article or Item in any Account or Demand for Spirituous Liquors sold be allowed or maintained, where the full Value of the Liquors delivered at one Time and mentioned in such Article or Item shall not be Twenty Shillings British Currency at the least, and that without Fraud or Covin: And in case any Person shall take or receive any Pawn or Pledge from any Person by way of Security for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money owing by such Person for Spirituous Liquors, every such Person so offending, and being convicted thereof, before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings British Currency for every Pawn or Pledge so taken in or received by him or them; and the Person or Persons to whom any such Pawn or Pledge shall belong shall have the same Remedy for recovering such Pawn or Pledge, or the Value thereof, as if it had not been given as a Pledge.

No Pawns shall be received for Liquor;

Penalty 40s. &c.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person in Ireland shall agree to pay or shall pay any Journeyman, Workman, Servant, Labourer, or other Person, employed by or working under him or her, or under his or her Direction, so much Money for Wages and such a Quantity of Spirituous Liquors in lieu of the Wages, or any Part thereof, which shall be ordinarily and usually paid for the Work which such Journeyman, Servant, Labourer, or other Person shall be employed in, or shall agree to pay or shall pay such Wages partly in Money and partly in or by Spirituous Liquors, or shall set off, stop, or deduct all or any Part of the Wages or Hire due to any Journeyman, Workman, Servant, or Labourer for any Spirituous Liquors delivered or sold to or drank by him, every such Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings British Currency; and every Person giving, or procuring Credit to be given for Spirituous Liquors sold or drank as aforesaid, shall forfeit Five Pounds British Currency.

Giving Credit for such Spirits, 5l.

Penalty on Persons paying Workmen at publick Houses, 10l.

LX. And be it further enacted, That no Person in Ireland employing Journeymen, Workmen, Servants, or Labourers, shall by himself or by any other Person pay any Journeyman, Workman, Servant, or Labourer employed by him, the Whole or any Part of the Wages due to such Journeyman, Workman, Servant, or Labourer, in or at any House in which any Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Ale, Beer, or Cyder shall be sold by Retail; and every Person so offending shall for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds British Currency; and all Payments of all Wages made in Manner aforesaid shall be null and void.

Magistrates may annual Licences.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace in Ireland, or the Superintendent Magistrate in the City of Dublin, to annul any Licence granted to any Person or Persons for retailing Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder in Ireland; and if any Person whose Licence, shall be so annulled, on whom a Notice of the same being annulled, signed by such Magistrates or Magistrate, shall have been served, shall retail any such Spirituous or other Liquors, every such Person shall be subject to the same Penalties as Persons selling Spirituous or other Liquors without having obtained a Licence for that Purpose are liable to under this Act.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That in every Conviction made of any Person having sold Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, without being licensed thereto under the Authority of this Act, the same Parish, or, in case it be extraparochial, the Townland or Town in which the House or Place where the same shall have been sold shall be situated, shall be stated in such Conviction; and such Parish, Townland, or Town, in case aforesaid, shall be subject to a Fine of Twenty Pounds British Currency; over and above all Fines incurred by the Persons convicted of selling without Licence as aforesaid, save only in Cafes where such Conviction shall have been made of such illegal Sale upon the Information of any Inhabitant or Inhabitants of such Parish or Townland.

Penalty on Townland when Parties are convicted of unlicensed Sales, &c.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever and so often as any Conviction of any Person for selling Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, or Cyder, without any Licence according to this Act, shall be had or made by or before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, such Justice or Justices shall forthwith cause Notice of such Conviction to be posted up in some conspicuous Place in the Parish or Townland or Town, in which the Offence shall be committed, and shall also cause a like Notice of such Conviction to be served on Two Landholders therein; and such Justice or Justices shall also return such Conviction to the Clerk of the Crown at or before the next ensuing Assizes or presenting Term, and the said Clerk of the Crown shall lay every such Conviction before the Court at the said ensuing Assizes or presenting Term, and if it shall appear to the Court that such Notice of such Conviction was posted up and served in Manner and if it shall not appear to the Court that the Conviction was made on the Information of any Inhabitant or Inhabitants of such Parish, Townland or Town, it shall be lawful for the Court, in case any Person shall appear to controvert the Fact of the Parish, Townland or Town, mentioned in such Conviction, being the Parish, Townland or Town wherein the Offence was committed, to try the Fact in the same Manner as in the Trial of a Traveller to the Presentment of a Grand Jury; and if a Verdict shall be given agreeable to the Conviction, or if no Person shall appear to controvert as aforesaid, the Court shall direct the Treasurer of the County to order the Fine of Twenty Pounds thereby incurred, to be levied off the Parish, Townland or Town, in case aforesaid mentioned in such Conviction, by the Collector of the Grand Jury Cels in like Manner, with like Powers, Authorities, and Remedies, in case of Non payment thereof, or of any Part thereof, as are provided in respect to any Money to be levied under the Presentment of a Grand Jury; and all Money which shall be so levied shall be paid by the said Treasurer to the Governors of the County Infirmary therein, to be by them applied in Aid of their other Funds towards supporting the same, or towards building or maintaining One or more Wards for Lunatics or Insane Objects.

C A P. LI.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain additional Stamp Duties, for amending the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties, and for indemnifying Persons who have acted as Notaries Publick without being d-ly licensed, in Ireland.

[27th June 1805.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies granted to Your Majesty, and for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted & be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, there shall, throughout that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for and upon the several Articles, Matters, and Things expressed in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) herunto annexed, the several and respective Rates, Impositions, Duties, Charges, and Sums of Money in the said Schedules respectively mentioned and set forth, and that there shall be made, allowed, and paid for and in respect of the Articles mentioned and described in the Schedule marked (C.) herunto annexed, the Allowances and Sums of Money mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule marked (C.), which said Schedules shall be deemed and taken as Part of this Act to all Intents and Purposes.

The Duties specified in Schedules (A.) and (B.) and the Allowances specified in Schedule (C.) shall be paid.

II. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties in the said Schedules mentioned and set forth (save and except the Duties on Licences to sell Spirituous and other Liquors at Encampments, and for every Day such Spirituous or other Liquors shall be sold at Fairs, and on Licences to Braziers and others for making of Stills, and on Licences to Persons to deal in or retail Stamps) shall be in lieu and instead of all former Duties on the several Articles mentioned in the said Schedules.

The said Duties (except on Spirit Licences, &c.) shall be in lieu of former Duties.

“ Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners for Stamps in Ireland, § 3.”

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons possessed of, or who shall be possessed of, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper stamped or marked with any Stamp or Mark to denote any of the Duties now payable by Law on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, upon which any Duty is by this Act imposed greater than the Duties now payable thereon, at any Time to bring such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, to the said Commissioners at their Head Office in Dublin, who are hereby authorized and required, upon Request of such Person or Persons, to order either that such Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall be stamped with a Duty denoting such greater or higher Duty, (the Person or Persons requesting the same paying the Difference of Price between the said respective Stamps), or that any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper which shall be brought for the Purpose by the Person requesting the same, shall be duly stamped and marked with Stamps denoting such Duties as the Person or Persons requesting the same shall require in exchange for such stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, as shall be offered for Exchange (the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be given paying the Difference, if any, between the said respective Stamps): Provided always, that the Stamps marked on such Vellum, Parchment, and Paper to be offered for Exchange shall be cancelled.

Persons in Possession of Stamps denoting the Duties now payable, may have them exchanged for others, paying the Difference of Price.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times hereafter counterfeit or forge, or cause or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Type, Mark, or Stamp, to resemble any Type, Mark, or Stamp already kept or used, or hereafter to be kept or used at the Head Office of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties in Dublin, for denoting the charging or marking on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or other Matter directed to be stamped with any of the Duties charged thereon by this Act or by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland; or if any Person or Persons (save and except such Person or Persons as shall be lawfully entitled to have and use the same for the Purpose of stamping Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, in pursuance of this Act) shall have in his, her, or their Possession any Type, Die, Mark, or Stamp, to resemble any Type, Die, Mark, or Stamp already kept or used, or hereafter to be kept or used at the said Head Office for denoting, charging, or marking on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or other Matter directed to be stamped, any of the Duties charged thereon by this Act or by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland; or shall counterfeit, mark, or impress, or cause or procure to be counterfeited, marked, or impressed, on any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, any Mark or Device used or kept at the Head Office aforesaid, for denoting the charging or marking on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or other Matter or Thing directed to be stamped, any of the Duties charged thereon by this Act or by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland; or shall utter, vend, or sell, or cause to be uttered, vended, or sold, or shall have in his or her Possession with intent to sell the same, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with any counterfeit Device, Mark, or Impression thereupon, to resemble any Mark or Device, used or kept at the Head Office aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid, knowing such Device, Mark, or Impression to be counterfeited; then and in any of the said Cases, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall, for the first Offence, be transported for the Term of Seven Years, and for any subsequent Offence shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Penalty on Persons forging Stamps or having forged Stamps in their Possession, &c. First Offence Punishable by Seven Years Transportation. Se. and Offence Felony without Clergy.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Allowances by this Act granted and made payable shall be paid and payable according to the Amount thereof in British Currency; and that in all Cases where any Duties of Stamps in Ireland, or any Allowances in respect thereof are directed to be ascertained by the Amount of any Sum in respect whereof such Duties are imposed or such Allowances are made, such Amount as well as the Rate of Duty or Allowance in respect thereof, shall be taken in British Currency, except where the Duties under this Act shall be payable in British Currency; as also all the Cases, Duties, or Amount of Stamps, &c.

Amount of any Sum in respect of which any Duty is imposed, shall be expressed, estimated, or calculated in Irisb Currency, in which Case such Duty shall be paid in Irisb Currency.

“ Money arising by the Duties shall be paid into the Exchequer of Ireland, and carried to the Irisb “ Consolidated Fund, § 7.”

Duty of 7l. on Indentures of Apprentices to Attornies payable in like Manner as like Duty is payable by 43 G. 3. c. 21.

VIII Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Sum of Seven Pounds in the said Schedule (A.) mentioned and imposed on any Indenture, Deed, Article, or Contract, for binding any Person as a Clerk or Apprentice to an Attorney, shall be accounted for, paid, and applied in such and the like Manner as the Sum of Seven Pounds mentioned in an Act made in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty several Duties herein mentioned, to be levied by the Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties in Ireland, is by the said Act directed to be accounted for, paid, and applied.

Powers, &c. of 43 G. 3. c. 21. and other Acts in force in Ireland relating to Stamps (except where hereby altered) extended to this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisions, Rules, Methods, Articles, Clauses, Penalties, Distribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things prescribed in and by the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland relating to the Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, and not hereby altered or repealed, shall be of Force and Effect with relation to all Duties hereby granted, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing the several Duties hereby granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been hereby re-enacted with relation to the Duties hereby granted.

The Allowance of 10l. per Cent. under 23 G. 3. c. 21. f. 39. repealed.

X. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said last recited Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, as directs, that any Person who shall purchase and pay for Paper, stamped with any of the Duties mentioned in Schedule (B.) to the said Act annexed and printed, with the Forms of the Articles and Instruments mentioned in the said Schedule, shall be allowed at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum for every such Sum or Sums, to be paid as aforesaid, shall from and after Ten Days after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

No Discount under 43 G. 3. c. 21. f. 37. for Duty on Licences amounting to 21l. or more.

XI. And whereas by the said last recited Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Commissioners of Stamps shall allow and pay to every Person bringing Parchment, Vellum, or Paper, to be stamped, the Duty whereof shall amount to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, or upwards, or buying Parchment or Paper stamped to a like Amount, after the Rate of Three Pounds for every One hundred Pounds, (except as in the said Act is mentioned); be it enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, no such Allowance shall be made for or in respect of any Stamp Duty on any Licences, the Duty on which shall amount to the Sum of Eleven Pounds or upwards, any Thing in the said Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Civil Bill Processes shall be signed, &c. by Affiant Barristers.

XII. And, for the better guarding against the Forgery and re-issuing of Stamps, used in Processes for Recovery of Small Debts, by way of Civil Bill in Ireland, be it enacted, That all Civil Bill Processes hereafter to be issued, and all Copies thereof, shall be signed, dated, and appointed for each particular Cause and Session, by the respective Affiant Barristers in every County in Ireland; and that every such Affiant Barrister shall, for signing, dating, and appointing every such original Process, and all the Copies thereof, receive from the Plaintiff or Person issuing or requiring such Process the Sum of Sixpence British Currency in the Whole and no more; and that every Plaintiff obtaining a Decree shall be entitled to recover against the Defendant such Sum of Sixpence in Addition to the other legal Costs heretofore recoverable by Law, and that any Person using any such Process or Copy or Copies thereof for any other Purpose than that for which such Process or Copy was so signed, dated, and appointed, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and punishable as for a Misdemeanor at common Law.

43 G. 3. c. 21. f. 12<sup>a</sup>. exempting Orders for Payment of Money to Bearer from Duty, repealed; as to such Orders not paid within Two Days, [See Schedule (A.) post, Art.]

XIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act made in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, as exempts any Draft or Order for the Payment of Money on Demand payable to Bearer, drawn upon any Bank or Banker, or Person acting as a Banker within Ten Miles of the Place where such Draft or Order shall be actually drawn and issued, from any of the Duties by the said recited Act charged and made payable, shall, from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to charge with Duty any such Draft or Order which shall be paid before the Expiration of Two Days next after the Date thereof, and which shall not be negotiated, or of which Payment shall not be required at any Time after the Expiration of such Two Days next after the Date hereof.

“ Persons having neglected to take out Licences to act as Notaries, indemnified if taken out before Twenty- “ fourth June 1805, § 14.”

Insurances on Houses, or other Property, or on Lives, &c. &c. in Ireland by Persons appointed by Corporations or Companies in Great Britain subject only to the Irish Duty. Commissioners of Stamps may grant Licences to Persons to retail Stamps.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Insurances for insuring Houses, Furniture, Merchandize, or other Property from Loss by Fire, and all Insurances upon any Life or Lives for the Benefit of any Person or Persons in Ireland, which shall be made or effected by any Persons resident in Ireland, and appointed by the Corporation of Royal Exchange Assurance in London, or by the Corporation of London Assurance, or either of them, or by any Company in Great Britain for insuring Property on Lives, as the Agents of such Corporations or Companies respectively, shall be subject and liable only to the Duties imposed on such Insurances by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, and to no other Duties whatsoever, although the Policies by which such Insurances shall be made shall be under the Common Seal of the said Corporations or Companies respectively, and although the same shall be completed in the Whole or in Part previous to their being sent to such Agents in Ireland; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties in Ireland, or any One or more of them, and they are hereby required to grant to any Person or Persons requiring the same (not being a Distributor of Stamps appointed by the said Commissioners) a Licence to deal in and retail Stamps, which Licence shall be in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March next ensuing the Date thereof, and shall be duly stamped: Provided always, that every Person requiring such Licence shall enter into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, (which Bond the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to take for His Majesty's Use) in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, conditioned that such Person shall not sell nor offer to sell, or have or keep in his or her Possession any forged or counterfeit Stamp: Provided also, that all Persons so licensed shall be subject and liable to all such Rules and Regulations as are contained in the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign with respect to Persons licensed to utter, vend, or sell Stamps under and by virtue of that Act as to the uttering, vending, or selling thereof.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Clerk of the Peace or other Person, who, by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, is allowed to provide any Stamp or Stamps for any Licence, Bond, or other Matter or Thing, subject to Stamp Duty, shall and may provide the same, and receive the Amount of the Stamp Duty thereon, together with such Fee as such Clerk of the Peace or other Person is by Law entitled unto, without having obtained any Licence for that Purpose, and shall not on account of providing any such Stamp, or receiving Payment for the same, be deemed a Vender or Retailer of or Dealer in Stamps, or liable to any Penalty for so doing, any Thing in this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clerks of the Peace, &c. may provide Stamps without taking out a Licence to retail them.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Body Politick or Corporate, Corporation or Company, in Ireland, which, from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, shall admit any Person or Persons into any such Corporation or Company by themselves, or by some Person or Persons employed by or under them, previous to the Admission of any such Person into any such Corporation or Company, to demand and receive for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, of and from the Person to be admitted, the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed on the Entry, Minute, or Memorandum of the Admission of such Person into such Corporation or Company; and if any Town Clerk or Clerk, or other proper Officer of any such Body Politick or Corporate, Corporation or Company, shall neglect or refuse to make an Entry, Minute, or Memorandum of such Admission, upon the proper Stamp, in some Book, Roll, or Record of such Corporation or Company, within One Month after any Person shall be admitted into such Corporation or Company, such Town Clerk or other Officer shall for such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds British Currency.

Penalty on Officers admitting Persons into Corporations without receiving the Stamp Duties payable thereon, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Town Clerks, Clerks, and other publick Officers, who shall from Time to Time have in their Custody any publick Books, Files, Records, Remembrances, Dockets, or Proceedings, the Sight or Knowledge whereof may tend to the securing of any of His Majesty's Stamp Duties in Ireland, or to the Proof or Discovery of any Fraud or Omision in relation thereto, or to any of them, shall, at any reasonable Time or Times, permit any Officer or Officers, thereunto authorized by the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the said Duties, or the major Part of them, to inspect and view all such Books, Files, Records, Remembrances, Dockets, and Proceedings as aforesaid, and to take thereof such Notes and Memorandums as shall be necessary for the Purposes last mentioned, without Fee or Reward, upon Pain that such Clerk, Town Clerk, or other Officer or Officers who shall refuse or neglect to do so, upon Demand made by such Officer or Officers so authorized as aforesaid, shall, for every such Refusal and Neglect, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds British Currency.

Books and Records of publick Officers may be inspected by Persons appointed by the Commissioners of Stamps.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, out of any Revenue by them collected, to pay to any Persons licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder by Retail in the Cities of Dublin, Cork, Waterford, and Limerick, such Bounties as such Persons shall, by the Certificate of the Commissioners of Excise, appear to be entitled unto in respect of having sold Strong Beer or Ale by Retail within the Year ending the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five, or any subsequent Year, in such Quantities and Proportions as may be specified in any Act made or to be made in the present Session of Parliament for regulating Licences for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale, and Cyder by Retail, and for discouraging the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors in Ireland, or by any other Act or Acts hereafter to be made for the like Purpose.

Commissioners empowered to pay Bounties to Spirit Retailers for selling Beer in certain Proportions. [S<sup>r</sup> 45 G. 3. c. 50. f. 67.]

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Attorney or Solicitor in Ireland, who shall not have actually paid the full Amount of the Stamp Duty imposed by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland on any Warrant to appear for any Plaintiff or Defendant, or to prosecute or defend any Action or Suit, or to confels Judgement thereon, or on any Writ, Proccfs, Pleading, Rule, Order, Record, or Proceeding whatsoever in any Action or Suit at Law or in Equity, shall charge to the Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action or Suit, or shall receive from such Plaintiff or Defendant, or from any other Person, the Amount of any such Stamp Duty, and shall not have actually made use of or issued or filed the Warrant, Writ, Proccfs, Pleading, Rule, Order, Record, or other Proceeding duly stamped as required by Law, for which such Charge shall be made, or such Amount shall be received, such Attorney or Solicitor shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by any Person who shall sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any Court of Record in Ireland, in which no Effoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparcell shall be allowed.

Penalty on Attorneys not paying the Duty on Warrants of other Proceedings in Suits, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace in Ireland, within whose Jurisdiction any Offence shall be committed against this Act, or against the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or against any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for granting Stamp Duties to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and such Justice is hereby authorized and empowered in all Cases (except where a Suit shall have been begun or be pending in any superior Court respecting such Offence), upon any Information or Complaint, to summon

the Party so accused and also the Witnesses on either Side, and to examine into the Fact, and upon Proof thereof made, either by the Confession of the Party or Person committing such Offence, or by the Oath of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses, to give Judgement for such Penalty, in case the same shall not exceed Twenty Pounds; and in case such Penalty shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, then to fine such Offender in the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and to give Judgement for the same as a Penalty incurred for such Offence, and thereupon to issue his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for levying such Penalty on the Goods of such Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof in case they shall not be redeemed within Six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any; and where Goods sufficient cannot be found to answer such Penalty, such Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and empowered to commit such Offender or Offenders to Prison for such Time as he shall judge to be proper, not less than One Month nor more than Three Months, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid; and it shall not be lawful for such Justice to mitigate such Penalty or Sum of Twenty Pounds in any Way whatsoever, any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Person or Persons shall find himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by the Judgement of such Justice of the Peace, then and in such Case he, she, or they, upon giving Security to the Amount of the Penalty, together with such Costs as shall be awarded in case such Judgement shall be affirmed, may appeal to the Justices at the next General Quarter Sessions of the County or District in which such Offence shall have been committed which shall happen after Fourteen Days next after such Conviction shall have been made, of which Appeal Notice in Writing shall be given to the Prosecutor or Prosecutors Ten Days previous to the First Day of such Quarter Sessions; and such Justices shall summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgement of such Justice of the Peace shall be affirmed, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices as aforesaid to award the Person or Persons so appealing to pay such Costs occasioned by such Appeal as to them shall seem meet; and no Certiorari shall in any Case be granted to examine or remove any such Determination or Conviction, either before or after such Appeal.

Penalty on Witnesses neglecting to attend, or refusing to give Evidence, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be summoned as a Witness or Witnesses to give Evidence before such Justice of the Peace, or before the said Justices at the Sessions, and shall neglect or refuse to appear (such Witness or Witnesses Expenses being first paid and tendered), without a reasonable Excuse, to be allowed by such Justice of the Peace or Justices at Sessions respectively, or upon appearing shall refuse to be examined upon Oath or give Evidence before such Justice of the Peace or Justices at Sessions respectively, and shall not make reasonable Excuse for such Refusal, to be allowed by such Justice of the Peace or Justices at the Sessions respectively, then such Person or Persons shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be levied and recovered in such Manner as other Penalties not exceeding Twenty Pounds are by this Act directed to be levied and recovered.

Penalties above 20l. may be recovered as under former Acts, if Offender is not punished under this Act, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Person from suing for or recovering any Penalty exceeding Twenty Pounds under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland for regulating the Stamp Duties in Cases where the Offender shall not have been convicted before a Justice, and fined in a Sum of Twenty Pounds under this Act: Provided also, that any Person having been so convicted and having paid such Sum of Twenty Pounds, may plead the same in an account of the same Offence for which he shall have been so convicted.

Penalties may be mitigated by Stamp Office under Order of the Treasury of Ireland.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, by Order of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, to mitigate any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture under this Act, or under any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland for imposing Duties on Stamps; any Thing in the said Acts or any of them to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty on Justices neglecting to carry this or any Stamp Act into Execution, 50l.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in Ireland, who shall neglect or refuse in any Instance to carry into Execution this Act, or any Act for imposing Stamp Duties in Ireland, upon a proper Application made to him, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds British Currency for every such Neglect or Refusal, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Ireland, by the Person who shall have made such Application, in which no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance shall be allowed; the Money recovered by such Action to be applied as to One Half thereof to the Use of the Person suing for the same, and the other Half to be paid to the Minister, Rector, or Churchwarden of the Parish wherein such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate shall reside, for the Use of the Poor therein.

And be it further enacted, That every Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman, who shall sell or expose to Sale any Gold or Silver Plate, shall take out, in Manner aforesaid, a separate and distinct Licence for so doing; and every Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman shall take out a separate and distinct Licence for each and every Person who shall be employed, whether Servant or other Person, in Company or otherwise, with such Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman, to carry any Boxes, Bundles, or Parcels of Goods, Wares, or Merchandise separate or distinct for the Purposes of selling or trading with the same; and also that every Hawker, Pedlar, and Petty Chapman subject to a Licence for an Horse or Beest or Beasts of Burthen, shall take out and pay for a separate and distinct Horse Licence for each Horse or other Beest of Burthen; and every Person, whether Servant or otherwise, for whom a separate and distinct Foot Licence shall not be taken out in Manner aforesaid; and every Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman who shall not take out a separate Licence for selling or exposing to Sale Gold or Silver Plate, or a separate Horse Licence, with such Stamp thereon as is required, for each and every Horse or Beest of Burthen which he or she shall make use of or drive, shall be subject and liable to all and every the Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act inflicted upon Hawkars, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and others trading without Licence.

Travellers with Metal Goods liable only to 4s. Duty, though having more than One Horse.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person who shall carry about any Pots or Griddles made of Cast Iron or Cast Metal, or shall expose the same to Sale in any Fair, Market, or other Place, (so as such Person shall not at the same Time carry or expose to Sale other Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, than such Pots and Griddles), shall be subject, for his or her Licence, to a greater or higher Stamp Duty than Forty Shillings, though such Person or Persons shall or may travel with One or more Horse or Horses or other Beest or Beasts of Burthen.

Each Foot Licence shall extend only to One Hundred Weight, and a Horse Licence to Eight Hundred Weight.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no more Goods, Wares, or Merchandise shall, by virtue of this Act, be hawked about for Sale as aforesaid, than One hundred Weight for each Foot Licence, nor than Eight hundred Weight for each Horse or other Beest of Burthen Licence, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and that if any Person shall respectively carry or cause to be carried more than the foregoing respective Weights, such Person shall forfeit for each Hundred Weight, exceeding the above, the Sum of Twenty-eight Shillings, and so in Proportion for any lesser Quantity.

Penalty on lending Licences, Forfeiture of Licence and Goods.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Licence to any Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, or other trading Person shall be lent to any Person, or used by any Person other than the Person to whom the same shall be granted, such Licence from thenceforth shall be void and of no Effect, and all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise found in the Possession of the Person using the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Justice of the Peace or any Officer of Excise or Stamps.

Penalty of 100l. under 45 G. 3. c. 20. f. 10. of unlicensed Persons, may be mitigated by One Justice to 10l.

XV. And whereas it is by the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament enacted, that any Person or Persons who shall use, exercise, or follow any Trade, Business, Occupation, or other Calling, on the Licence for using, exercising, or following whereof a Stamp Duty is payable, without having previously taken out such Licence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds: And whereas the said Forfeiture may in many Instances be too great; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace before whom any Person shall be convicted, upon the View of such Justice, or by the Information of any one credible Witness upon Oath, to fine such Person so offending in any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, and to levy the same, in case of Non-payment thereof, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender: Provided always, that no Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information for the said Offence shall be depending at the Time; and provided also, that after any such Adjudication by a Justice of the Peace, no Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall be brought for the said Offence.

Licence to Wholesale Dealers in Spirits.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Licence to any Person to sell Spirits in Quantities not less than Two Gallons, shall be granted in like Manner as Licences to Factors, or Persons not being Distillers, selling Spirits on Commission; provided that no such Licence shall be granted, unless the Person or Persons applying for the same shall have entered into Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, with Two Sureties in the Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds each, approved of by the Person issuing such Licence, and which Bond the Person issuing such Licence is hereby empowered to take for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, that such Person so to be licensed shall not knowingly receive or sell, or permit to be received or sold for his or her Use or Benefit, any Spirits which shall not have paid the full Duties chargeable thereon, or knowingly sell or deliver any Spirits to any Person selling Spirits by Retail, unless such Person shall be duly licensed thereto.

Penalties, &c. shall be payable in British Currency, and recovered as under Irish Excise Act, 14 and 15 C. 2. c. 8. &c. with like Remedy of Appeal, § 17.—Penalties not exceeding Ten Pounds may be recovered before One Justice.

Justice.—Penalties above Ten Pounds may be recovered at Suit of any Person by Civil Bill, &c. § 18.—
 “Proceedings of Justices not removable by Certiorari, § 19.”
 [See for Form of these latter Clauses, 45 G. 3. c. 53; § 63, 64, 65.]

C A P. LIII.

An Act for the Collection of the Malt Duties in Ireland, and regulating the Trade of a Maltster.

[27th June 1805.]

FOR the better collecting and securing His Majesty's Revenue payable upon Malt made in Ireland, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person keeping any Malthouse, and making Malt for Sale, and every Brewer or Distiller making Malt in Ireland, shall yearly, before such Person shall commence making Malt, take out a Licence duly stamped according to Law for so doing from the Commissioners of Inland Excise in Ireland, or some Person or Persons appointed by such Commissioners for that Purpose, for each and every Cistern or Kiln in each and every Malthouse which such Person shall have or keep, which Licence shall be in force until the Twenty-ninth Day of September next after the Date thereof; and that every Person making Malt for Sale, and every Brewer and Distiller making Malt without having taken out such Licence, or without having a Licence for that Purpose of force, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered and applied as is provided by an Act, made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Stamp Duties, in Ireland.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That Persons in Partnership, carrying on the Business of making Malt, shall not be obliged to take out more than One such Licence for the same Malthouse, Cistern, or Kiln; and that no Licence shall authorize or empower any Person or Persons to whom the same shall be granted to make Malt in any other Malthouse or Place than the Malthouse or Place which shall be described in such Licence.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Person requiring any such Licence shall, before such Licence shall be granted, make out, sign, and deliver a Return or Account in Writing to the Collector of the District in which the Malthouse of such Person shall be situated, specifying and describing therein the Name and Place of Abode of such Person, and the Place where such Malthouse is situated; and also the several Steeps, Cisterns, Couch Frames, Utting Vats, and other Vessels and Utensils in such Malthouse, and the Kiln or Kilns therein, and the several Floors belonging to such Malthouse, with the Number of square Feet contained in each and every Floor or Kiln in such Malthouse, and the Number of Cubic Feet contained in each Steep, Cistern, Couch Frame, Utting Vat, or other Vessel or Utensil for melting Corn, and the Quantity of Barley which each such Steep, Cistern, Couch Frame, Utting Vat, or other Vessel or Utensil shall be capable of containing, and also the several Malt and other Stores, and the Lofts and Rooms therein belonging to such Person; and every such Person shall cause to be painted with Oil Colour in black upon a white or light-coloured Ground, or in white upon a black or dark Ground, on the Outside of the Door of every such Store or other Place wherein Malt shall be kept or stored, in legible Letters and Figures, at least Three Inches in Length, the Words “Malt Store,” and the Number thereof, beginning with Number One; and every Collector who shall receive such Return or Account shall register the same, without Fee or Reward, in a Book to be by him kept for that Purpose; and if any Malt, exceeding Two Barrels, shall be found in any Store, or in any Loft or Room therein, upon the Door of which such Letters and Figures as aforesaid shall not be and remain to be painted and legible as aforesaid, the Person or Persons in whose Store, Loft, or Room the same shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the Dimensions of any Floor in any Malthouse of which such Return or Account shall have been so made as aforesaid, shall exceed by Eighty square Feet the Number of square Feet which shall have been mentioned in such Return or Account as being the Dimensions of such Floor, the Maltster or Person who shall have made such Return shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and a new and correct Return shall be forthwith given by such Maltster or other Person.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Licence shall be granted to any Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale, Brewer, or Distiller, to make Malt in any Malthouse which shall contain more than One Steep or Cistern for the steeping or wetting of Corn; or the growing, working, or drying Floor or Floors in which shall not contain Two thousand six hundred square Feet in the Whole at the least; or the Kiln Floor or Floors in which shall not contain Three hundred and twenty-four square Feet in the Whole at the least; nor unless the Steep or Cistern in any such Malthouse in Dublin, or any other Place in Ireland, where the Maltster is under this Act to be charged with Sixty-four Barrels of Malt in the Year for every One hundred square Feet of growing, working, or drying Floor, shall be of Dimensions sufficient to contain not less than Four Buishels and a Half of Barley at the least, for every One hundred square Feet of growing, working, or drying Floor or Floors in such Malthouse; nor unless the Steep or Cistern in such Malthouse, if in any other Place in Ireland, shall be of Dimensions sufficient to contain not less than Four Buishels of Barley at the least for every One hundred square Feet; nor shall any Licence be granted to make Malt in any Malthouse, unless there shall be a square Couch Frame for every Steep or Cistern therein, of the Depth of Two Feet at the least, and not more than Three Feet, and capable of receiving the same Quantity of Grain as the Steep or Cistern to which it belongs, and no more; nor unless such Couch Frame shall be constructed of Materials of such Strength as shall be sufficient to preserve the Dimensions of such Couch Frame when charged with Grain; nor unless such Couch Frame, or such Part thereof as shall be constructed of Wood shall be of the Substance of One Inch at least in Thickness, and braced on the Outside at every Three Feet in Length with a Ledge of Wood Six

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons for making of Malt, unless the Person or Persons requiring the same shall, with Two sufficient Sureties, have entered into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in a Penalty of Twenty-five Pounds for every One hundred Feet square contained in the working and drying Floor or Floors in each and every Malthouse to be kept by such Person or Persons, conditioned that such Person or Persons shall duly pay all Duties for all such Quantities of Malt as such Person or Persons shall make in his, her, or their respective Malthouses; and also for all such Quantities of Malt as by Law such Person or Persons is or are or shall be chargeable with during the Time such Licence shall be of force.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and all Regulations therein contained, shall extend and be construed to extend to any Person under the Age of Twenty-one Years, in whose Name or for whose Use or Benefit any Malthouse shall be managed or carried on, and such Person shall be liable to all Duties of Excise on Account of such Malthouse, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if such Person were adult and of full Age.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take out a Licence for any Malthouse in which the Trade of a Maltster shall not, during the Continuance of such Licence, be carried on in the Name or Names, and for the Benefit and Advantage of such Person or Persons, such Licence shall be void, and the Person or Persons to whom such Licence shall be granted, and every Person interested in the Profit of such Malthouse, shall respectively forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, in their Discretion, to refuse to grant any Licence to any Person or Persons to make Malt, and also to withdraw any such Licence in case such Person or Persons licensed shall have been convicted of any Fraud or Offence against the Laws which shall subject such Person to a Penalty of Twenty Pounds or upwards; and it shall and may also be lawful for such Commissioners of Excise to refuse to grant a Licence to any Person to make Malt in any Malthouse which shall have been so occupied by any Person so convicted: Provided always, that every Refusal be laid before the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, and by them, or any Three of them, approved and confirmed.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall have or keep or make use of any Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, Utensil, or other Vessel, for the wetting or steeping of Corn or Grain to be made into Malt, or any Couch Frame, or any growing or working Floor, or any Kiln, Floor, Room, or other Place for making or keeping of Malt, or keeping of Corn or Grain making into Malt, not set forth, or in any other Place than shall be set forth in the Account by this Act required to be made and delivered by any such Maltster or Maker of Malt; or shall alter or enlarge such Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, Utensil, or other Vessel, or any Couch Frame, Floor, Kiln, Room, or other Place, without having given Six Days Notice in Writing to the Collector or other superior Officer of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Malthouse, and without an Account thereof being made and delivered in Manner aforesaid, every such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every such Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, Utensil, or other Vessel, Couch Frame, Floor, Kiln, Room, or other Place, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Corn or Grain making into Malt, or any Corn or Grain steeping or wetted, shall be found in any Place whatsoever not licensed or registered pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, or if any Corn or Grain shall be found steeping or steeped in any Place except in some Cistern or Utting Vat in any Malthouse licensed or registered under this Act, or if any Corn or Grain shall be wetted or sprinkled with Water in the Couch Frame or on the Floor, all such Corn or Grain, together with any Vessels or Packages in which such Corn or Grain may be found, shall be forfeited, and the Person or Persons in whose Possession the same shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Bushel of such Corn or Grain.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise, at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, to enter into every House, Malthouse, Kiln, Store, Mill, and other Place whatsoever, of or belonging to or made use of by any Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale, or by any Person dealing in Corn or Malt as a Factor or otherwise, or by any Common Brewer, Distiller, or Vinegar Maker, making Maltsters shall begin to work on the 26th of the Month (except Sept. 30) and shall not discontinue without Notice.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no other Day shall be mentioned in such Notice than the Twenty-sixth Day of some Month in the Year, save and except only in the Month of September, of which Month the Thirtieth Day only shall be mentioned in any such Notice, and that no Maltster or Maker of Malt shall commence or recommence working except on such Twenty-sixth or Thirtieth Days respectively; and that every Malthouse shall be presumed to be kept regularly at work from the Day mentioned in any Notice to be given by any Maltster or Maker of Malt, for the commencing or recommencing to work, until such working shall be discontinued in Manner herein-after mentioned; that is to say, every such Maltster or Maker of Malt may from Time to Time discontinue working on giving a Notice in Writing of his Intention for to discontinue working to the Collector of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt Six Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned therein for to discontinue to work: Provided, always, that the Day mentioned in such Notice for to discontinue or ceasing to work shall be the Twenty-fifth Day of some Month in the Year, and shall not be less than Two Calendar Months distant from the Day mentioned in the Notice given by such Maltster or Maker of Malt for commencing to work in Manner aforesaid (except the Day mentioned in such Notice shall be the Twenty-fifth Day of November, in which case Notice thereof from the Twenty-ninth Day of September shall be deemed sufficient Notice), and not less than One Calendar Month distant from the Day mentioned in any Notice, for recommencing to work in Manner aforesaid; and any Notice which shall be given contrary to the Directions herein-before mentioned and specified, shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void.

After Notice of Discontinuance by Maltster the Officer shall attend to see that the working is discontinued.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That at the Time specified in any such Notice of Discontinuance, it shall and may be lawful for any Excise Officer in charge of the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, and he is hereby required to go to the said Malthouse, and there to search and see whether the working of such Malthouse is discontinued in pursuance of such Notice; and if such Officer shall be prevented from so doing by any Person at such Malthouse, or in consequence of the Malthouse being locked, and no Person appearing to give Entrance to such Officer, or otherwise, or if at any Time after the Day mentioned in such Notice of Discontinuance, and before the Day mentioned in any Notice for recommencing to work, any Corn or Grain shall be found wetted or steeped in such Malthouse, or in the Procefs of being made into Malt (except under the Proviso herein-after mentioned) such Maltster shall continue to be charged with and pay Duty as if he had not given any Notice of Discontinuance; and such Notice of Discontinuance shall be deemed void and of no Effect.

Amount of yearly Charge on Maltster for every 100 Square Feet of drying Floors.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every such Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall, between the Twenty-ninth Day of September in every Year, and the Twenty-ninth Day of September following, during the Continuance of the Licence of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, be charged with and pay Duty of Excise for a Quantity of Malt, after the Rate of a certain Number of Barrels of Malt for every One hundred Feet square of working or drying Floor or Floors which shall be contained in each Malthouse in which such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be licensed to make Malt; that is to say, every Maltster or Maker of Malt whose Malthouse shall be situate in the City of Dublin, or within the Circular Road surrounding the said City, and within the District of the Metropolis, or within the Cities of Cork, Waterford, or Limerick, or within the Liberties of any of the said Cities, or in the Town of Belfast, or within One Mile thereof, or of the publick Lamps therein, shall, in respect of such Malthouse, be charged within such Period after the Rate of Sixty-four Barrels of Malt for every One hundred such square Feet; and every Maltster or Maker of Malt, whose Malthouse shall be situate in any other Place in Ireland, shall, in respect of such Malthouse, be charged within such Period after the Rate of Forty-eight Barrels of Malt for every One hundred such square Feet, and so in Proportion for any greater Number of square Feet; and also for as much more Malt as such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall actually make within the said Period.

In Dublin, &c. 64 Barrels.

In the Country 48 Barrels.

Charge of such Duty by Eight Monthly Returns shall be made the Officer;

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Charge of such yearly Duty of Sixty-four Barrels and Forty-eight Barrels respectively, shall be made in Manner following, that is to say; every such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be charged for not less than Eight Calendar Months in every Year, and for every such Calendar Month such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be charged with and pay Duty for Eight Barrels of Malt or Six Barrels of Malt respectively, being One Eighth Part of the said respective Quantities of Sixty-four Barrels of Malt and Forty-eight Barrels of Malt as aforesaid, for every One hundred square Feet of such working or drying Floor or Floors, and so in Proportion for any greater Number of square Feet; and every Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall, over and above the respective Quantities aforesaid, be also charged with and pay Duty for as much more Malt as could be produced, after the Rates in this Act mentioned, on any Corn or Grain actually wetted by such Maltster or Maker of Malt within every such Period of One Calendar Month: And the Surveyor or Gauger in charge of the Malthouse of any such Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall within Ten Days after the Expiration of the first Period of One Calendar Month next after the Day mentioned in any Notice for the commencing or Recommencement of the working of any Malthouse in Manner directed by this Act, and so in like Manner within Ten Days after the Expiration of every other or subsequent Period of One Calendar Month while such Malthouse shall continue working, or shall be presumed to continue working, or shall be chargeable as continuing to work, make a Return to the Collector of the District of the Quantities of Malt with which such Maltster or Maker of Malt is hereby chargeable for such Period of One Calendar Month, and of the Duties thereon, and also of such further Quantity of Malt as might be produced after the Rates in this Act mentioned, from any Corn or Grain actually wetted by such Maltster in such Period of One Calendar Month, and of the Duty thereon; and every such Officer shall and he is hereby required to leave a true Copy of such Return in Writing under his Hand with every such Maltster or Maker of Malt, or at such Malthouse, upon pain of forfeiting Twenty Pounds for every Neglect or Omission in so doing, and such Return of such Officer shall be a Charge upon every such Maltster or Maker of Malt for such Calendar Month: And such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return and Charge to have become due and payable, within Thirty-one Days after the End of the Copy of Officer's Return, Penalty 20l.

Payment by Maltster Monthly,

Month

Month for which such Return and Charge shall have been made, unless such Malt shall be sooner removed from the Malthouse or Place where the same shall have been made or kept, in which Case the said Duties shall be paid for all such Malt as shall be intended to be removed, before any Permit for removing, carrying, or conveying the same shall be granted; and every Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every Default in Payment of any such Duty, forfeit Twenty Pounds together with a Sum equal to double the Amount of the Duty so returned and charged: Provided always, that the Time between the Twenty-ninth Day of September and the Twenty-fifth Day of October shall be deemed a Calendar Month within the Meaning of this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every such Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall, under the proper Hand of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, or under the proper Hand of some Person for whom such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be responsible, within Ten Days after the Expiration of every such Month, at the Excise Office of the District in which the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be situate, make true Entry of the Quantity of Malt for which such Maltster or Maker of Malt is under this Act chargeable with Duty for the Month next preceding, and shall within Twenty-one Days next after making such Entry, pay and clear off the Whole of the Duty payable for such Quantity of Malt, upon pain of forfeiting Twenty Pounds for every Omission, Neglect, or Default of such Entry or Payment, together with a Sum equal to double the Duty which such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall by Law be chargeable with for such Month: Provided always, that if any Malt shall be removed from the Malthouse or Place where the same shall have been made or kept before the Expiration of the said respective Periods of Ten Days or Twenty-one Days, all Duties due and payable for the same shall be fully paid and satisfied before any Permit for removing or conveying the same shall be granted.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That as often as any Dispute or Difference shall arise between any Officer of Excise and any such Maltster or Maker of Malt, touching the Amount of Duty charged by the Return of such Officer upon such Maltster or Maker of Malt, for or in respect of such Quantity of Malt, pursuant to this Act, such Officer shall verify by Affidavit made before the Collector of the District, or some Justice of the Peace, that such Return made by him is true and fair according to the best of his Skill and Knowledge, and thereupon such Return shall be a Charge upon such Maltster or Maker of Malt disputing the same: Provided always, that no Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be allowed to controvert or dispute any Return or Charge of Duty made by any Officer, unless such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall have made a regular Monthly Return of the Quantity of Malt made by such Maltster or Maker of Malt, and paid the Duty chargeable on the same, and shall in such his Monthly Return have made his Objection to the Return or Charge of such Officer.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Payment by any Maltster or Maker of Malt of any Sum of Money less than the Amount of Duty returned or to be returned by any Officer of Excise to be payable by such Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall not exempt such Maltster or Maker of Malt from the Payment of the Difference between the Amount of Duty so returned by such Officer and the Sum so paid by such Maltster or Maker of Malt; and that if such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall not pay such Difference within the Time limited for Payment of the Duty on Malt, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Difference between the Amount of Duty so returned by such Officer and the Sum so paid by such Maltster or Maker of Malt.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Quantity of Malt charged upon any Maltster or Maker of Malt in any one Year, ending on the Twenty-ninth Day of September, shall not amount to the full Quantity of Sixty-four Barrels of Malt, or Forty-eight Barrels of Malt respectively, for which such Maltster or Maker of Malt is by this Act chargeable with Duty within any Year, according to the Rates aforesaid, the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of the Malthouse of any such Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall within Twenty Days after such Twenty-ninth Day of September make a Return to the Collector of the District in which such Malthouse shall be situate, of such Quantity of Malt, and of the Duties thereon, as, with the Quantities comprised in former Returns of Malt against such Maltster or Maker of Malt in the Year ending on such Twenty-ninth Day of September shall amount to the full Quantity of Sixty-four Barrels of Malt or Forty-eight Barrels of Malt respectively for which such Maltster or Maker of Malt is by this Act made chargeable with Duty, according to the Rates aforesaid; and such Return shall be a Charge on such Maltster or Maker of Malt, who shall pay the Duties appearing by such Return to have been incurred and become due within One Month after such Return, or in Default thereof shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Amount of the Duties which shall be so returned.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall on the Twenty-fifth Day of September in any Year, or on the Day mentioned in any Notice for discontinuing to work in Manner aforesaid, have any Corn or Grain on any Floor or Floors in the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt in Process of Malting, or being made into Malt, it shall and may be lawful for such Maltster or Maker of Malt to proceed in completing the Process of making such Corn or Grain into Malt, until such Malt is dried off: Provided always, that such Process shall be completed within Sixteen Days after the said Twenty-fifth Day of September or after the Day mentioned for discontinuing working in any such Notice, as the Case may be, and that no such Corn or Grain shall be or shall have been wetted on or after the Twenty-third Day of September, or on or after the Day on which any such Notice of Discontinuance shall have been given to any Officer as aforesaid, as the Case may be; and that such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be subject and liable to all other Regulations in this Act contained with respect to which Malt, and with respect to any Charge of Duty on the same, as such Maltster or Maker of Malt would have been in case the Process of making such Malt had been completed before such Twenty-fifth Day of September, or before the Day mentioned for discontinuing working in such Notice, as the Case may be.

Penalty 20l and Double Duty.

29th Sept. to 25th Oct. otherwise counted One Month.

More than 20l turns and Paym. to be M. Maltster, Penalty 20l. and Double Duty.

No Malt to be removed before Payment of Duty.

In case of Dispute Officer shall verify his Return by Affidavit.

Maltster shall not dispute Charge unless he has made his own Return, and paid Duty.

Payment by Maltster of his own Calculation shall not exempt him from Payment according to the Officer's Return. Penalty 20l. &c.

Charge of Officers to make up yearly Amount.

Penalty on Non-payment, 20l. &c.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer of Excise shall have at any Time committed any Error in any Return to be made by him under this Act, by including or charging in such Return a greater or less Quantity of Malt, or a greater or less Amount of Duty than ought to have been returned or charged by him against any Maltster or Maker of Malt, according to the Directions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, or for the Examiner of the Accounts of such Officer, and they are hereby respectively required, to rectify the same as speedily as may be convenient, within Six Months after such Return shall have been made, and to report the same to the said Commissioners of Excise; and if it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt, and the Amount of Duty charged in any such Return against any Maltster or Maker of Malt was greater than the same ought to have been, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby required to make an Allowance forthwith to such Maltster or Maker of Malt of the Amount of Duty so overcharged; and if it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt, and the Amount of Duty charged in any such Return against any Maltster or Maker of Malt, was less than the same ought to have been, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby required to give Notice to such Maltster or Maker of Malt, of the Amount of the Deficiency of the Duty in consequence of such erroneous Return; and if such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall not within One Month after such Notice show sufficient Cause to such Commissioners of Excise why such Charge should not be made, and such Deficiency paid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to order a Return to be made to the Collector of the District in which such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall reside, of the Amount of such Deficiency, and the Duty specified on such Return shall be a Surcharge on such Maltster or Maker of Malt; and if such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall not upon Demand pay the full Amount of such Duty so furcharged, or such Part thereof as shall be established by the said Commissioners, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and a Sum equal to Double the Amount of Duty which shall be so returned and furcharged; provided that no such Return shall be a Surcharge on any Maltster or Maker of Malt, unless it shall have been made, and the Amount thereof demanded, within Nine Months after the Date of the original Return.

Penalty on Nonpayment of Surcharge, 10 l. and Double Duty.

Commissioners may grant
Abatement of Duty on Malt in respect of any Malthouse licensed after 1st November in any Year.

XXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be desirous of obtaining a Licence for any Malthouse, at any Time between the First Day of November in any Year and the Twenty-ninth Day of September in the succeeding Year, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to reduce the Quantity of Malt for which such Maltster or Maker of Malt is by this Act chargeable with Duty for and in respect of such Malthouse respectively, during the Continuance of such Licence, to such Quantity of Malt as may reasonably be made in such Malthouse between the Time that such Licence shall be so granted and the Twenty-ninth Day of September then next ensuing; provided that such Deduction shall be in the Proportion to the Part of the Year which shall have elapsed from the Twenty-ninth Day of September preceding the taking out of such Licence to the Time of taking out the same as Eight Calendar Months are to Twelve Calendar Months, and that the Person taking out any Licence for such Malthouse, shall in all other respects be subject and liable to all other Rules and Regulations in this Act contained.

Notice of
of working for the whole Remainder of the Year, may be given by Maltster, and he may discontinue accordingly.

XXXI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be desirous to discontinue working for the Remainder of any Year, at the End of the Period of Two Calendar Months in the Year after he shall have commenced working, or at the End of any Period of One Calendar Month after such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall have recommenced working in Manner aforesaid respectively, it shall and may be lawful for such Maltster or Maker of Malt to discontinue working accordingly, on giving a Notice in Writing of his Intention so to discontinue working for the Remainder of the Year, to the Commissioners of Excise, and also to the Collector of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, Fourteen Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned in such Notice for so discontinuing to work for the Remainder of the Year; and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Four of them, upon Application to them made by any such Maltster or Maker of Malt for that Purpose, to declare the Licence granted to such Maltster or Maker of Malt to be ended and determined from and after the Day mentioned for so discontinuing working, and the same shall be ended and determined accordingly; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to reduce the Quantity of Malt for which such Maltster or Maker of Malt is by this Act chargeable with Duty during the Continuance of such Licence, to such Quantity of Malt as such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall by this Act be chargeable with Duty for during so many Calendar Months only as such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall have actually continued working, together with such further Quantity of Malt as could be made from any Corn or Grain actually steeped or wetted by such Maltster or Maker of Malt during such Months, according to the Rates in this Act specified; and if at any Time after the Day mentioned in any such Notice of any such Maltster or Maker of Malt, for so discontinuing to work for the Remainder of the Year, any such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall wet any Corn or Grain, or if after the Expiration of Sixteen Days after the Day mentioned for so discontinuing to work, any Corn or Grain shall be found wetted or steeped, or in the Process of making into Malt, in the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be chargeable and charged with, and pay Duty under this Act, as if he had not given such Notice of Discontinuance as aforesaid; and it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to license any Person to keep the said Malthouse, or to make Malt for Sale therein, or to use any Cistern or Kilt contained in such Malthouse for the Remainder of such Year, nor during the Term of One Year next ensuing the Twenty-ninth Day of September after such Offence shall be committed.

Penalty on Maltster working after Notice of Discontinuance,
200 l. &c.

Commissioners
may grant
Abatement of Duty in case of Accident.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Three Commissioners of Excise to reduce or abate the Quantity of Malt wherewith any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be chargeable in the Year by virtue of this Act, according to the Number of Calendar Months as aforesaid, upon Proof upon Oath to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that some Fatality, such as Fire, or any other Unavoidable

Accident

Accident or Misfortune, shall have prevented such Maltster or Maker of Malt from working such Number of Calendar Months, and also to make any proportionate Allowance to any Maltster or Maker of Malt out of the Duties on Malt, in consideration of any Damage or Loss by Fire, Water, or other Fatality or unavoidable Accident, by which the Whole or any Part of any Malt made by such Maltster or Maker of Malt may have been damaged or destroyed: Provided always, that such Reduction, Abatement, or Allowance, be in all Cases first approved of by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer in Ireland; and that no such Reduction, Abatement, or Allowance, shall be made to any Person who shall have made any Insurance against Loss to be sustained by any such Accident, without regard being had to the Amount receivable under such Insurance.

Subject to Approval of the Treasury.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Maltster or Maker of Malt, whose Malthouse shall be situated in a City or the Suburbs of a City, or in any Place within One Mile of the Residence appointed for a Gauger by the said Commissioners of Inland Excise, shall at least Twenty-four Hours before every Time of putting any Corn or Grain into any Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel used for the Purpose of steeping or wetting of Corn or Grain, and every Maltster or Maker of Malt, whose Malthouse shall be situated in any other Place in Ireland, shall at least Forty-eight Hours before so doing, give a Notice in Writing to the Gauger of the Walk in which such Malthouse shall be situated, of the particular Hour or Time of the Day when such Maltster or Maker of Malt intends to put such Corn or Grain into such Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel, and to begin to wet the same accordingly; and in case any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall not begin to wet such Corn or Grain, and immediately proceed to cover the Whole thereof with Water at the Hour or Time mentioned in such Notice, or within Three Hours after the Expiration of such Hour and Time, then every such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall give a new and like Notice before such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall begin to wet any Corn or Grain; and no Maltster or Maker of Malt shall begin to wet any Corn or Grain, except between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon; and if any Corn or Grain making into Malt, of the wetting of which any such Notice or renewed Notice as is herein before required shall not have been given, or which shall have been begun to be wetted at any other Time than between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon, shall be found in any Malthouse, or on any Floor or other Place, belonging to any Maltster or Maker of Malt, every such Maltster or Maker of Malt for every Time such Corn or Grain shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Notice of wetting Corn for Maltings, &c.
Penalty, 50l.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That any Officer in charge of any Malthouse of any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall provide such Maltster or Maker of Malt with Books, containing printed Forms of Notices to be given of wetting Corn or Grain to be made into Malt, and such Notice shall set forth the Number of Bushels of Corn intended to be wetted, and the particular Hour and Time of the Day when the same is to be wetted, on each Leaf of which Book two Forms of such Notice, Duplicates of each other shall be printed; and every Maltster or Maker of Malt who shall be furnished with any such Book, shall before such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall proceed to wet any Corn or Grain, insert in the Blanks of such Form of Notice, and in the Duplicate thereof, such Words as the Form of such Notice shall require to render the same perfect, and after signing the same, shall cut off the outermost Notice, and cause the same to be delivered to the Officer to whom the Notice of wetting such Corn or Grain is to be given as herein before mentioned, and shall preserve the innermost Notice or Duplicate in the said Book, with the Blanks filled up, in the like Manner with that delivered to such Officer; and every such Notice and Duplicate thereof shall be numbered in Arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number One; and if any Corn or Grain making into Malt shall be found in any Malthouse, or in any Vessel or Utensil therein, the Notice of wetting of which shall not have been cut out of the said Book and served on the Officer of Excise, or if the same shall be cut out of the said Book and so served, and a Duplicate thereof shall not be kept in the said Book, or if the Duplicate thereof in the said Book shall not correspond with the Notice cut out of the same, then and in any of such Cases such Corn or Grain shall be deemed to be the Corn or Grain making into Malt, wetted without Notice; and the Maltster or Maker of Malt in whose Malthouse the same shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Regulations as to printed Forms of Notices in Books to be provided for the Purpose.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That every such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall constantly keep such Book of Notices in the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, for the Examination of every Officer of Excise, and if on Demand of any Officer of Excise at such Malthouse, the said Book shall not be produced to such Officer, or if such Officer shall not be permitted to inspect and examine, or shall be prevented by any Person from inspecting and examining the same, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Penalty on Neglect, &c. 10l.

Book may be inspected by Officers.

Penalty on refusal, 10l.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Maltster or Maker of Malt who shall be furnished with such Book of printed Notices as aforesaid, shall, on every Twenty-fifth Day of December, Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty-fourth Day of June, and Twenty-ninth Day of September, or within Ten Days after each of the said Days, deliver to the Collector of the District in which the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be situated, the said Book, with all the Forms of the Notices which shall remain therein, and also the Duplicate of all such Notices as shall have been cut from the said Book, and served as aforesaid, or in Default thereof, shall for every Neglect forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Maltster shall deliver such Books quarterly to the Collector,
Penalty, 10l.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That Papers, to be called Specimen Papers, shall be provided and furnished to every such Maltster or Maker of Malt by any Officer of Excise visiting the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, in order that every Officer of Excise may enter thereon his Visit, at such Malthouse, and the Gauges depending on such Visit, and every such Maltster or Maker of Malt, who shall from Time to Time be furnished with any such Specimen Paper shall cause the same to be fixed on a Board conveniently made for that Purpose, and to be hung or put up in such Malthouse in some publick and conspicuous Place, and shall preserve and keep the same so put up in such place according to the Direction of the Surveyor of the Walk for that Purpose in Writing on the Front of such Specimen Paper, and in such Manner

Specimen Papers shall be provided and used in Malthouses.

Penalty, 10l.

that any Officer of Excise visiting such Malthouse may view such Specimen Paper, and make Entries thereon; and if any such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall not put up or keep and preserve such Specimen Paper in Manner herein directed, unavoidable Accident excepted (of which Accident, Notice in Writing shall be served upon the Surveyor and Gauger of the Walk within Two Hours after the same shall have happened if such Malthouse shall be situated within any City or Market Town, and if such Malthouse shall not be situated within any City or Market Town, then within Twelve Hours after such Accident shall have happened) such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Inserting Dates of Notice in Specimen Papers, Penalty, 10l.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Maltster or Maker of Malt shall, before serving any Notice of commencing to wet any Corn or Grain to be made into Malt, insert in Writing in the said Specimen Paper the Date of such Notice, and the particular Time mentioned therein for wetting the Corn or Grain, together with the Quantity thereof to be wetted; or in Default thereof the Corn or Grain of the Notice of wetting of which such Entry as aforesaid shall not be inserted in the said Specimen Paper, shall be deemed Corn or Grain wetted to be made into Malt without Notice, and shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and the Maltster or Maker of Malt in whose Malthouse the same shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Officers shall charge the Duty by Gauge only according to the Winchester Bushel,
Penalty, 20l.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of Excise shall charge the Duty on all Malt, and on all Corn or Grain making into Malt, by the Gauge only, and that in gauging such Malt, Corn, or Grain, such Officer shall compute the Bushel thereof according to the Bushel known by the Name of the Winchester Bushel, containing Eight Gallons of Two hundred and Seventy-two cubical Inches and a Quarter each, and that Four such Bushels shall be accounted a Barrel; and if any such Officer shall charge any Duty on any such Malt, Corn, or Grain, in any Manner other than by such Gauge, or shall enter in any Stock Book any Charge of Duty thereon, other than by such Gauge, such Officer shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Charge on Maltster in certain Proportions for the Content of the Cistern.

XL. And be it further enacted, That every Maltster and Maker of Malt shall for every Time any Quantity of Corn or Grain (except Peas or Beans) shall be wetted to be made into Malt, be charged with Duty for a Quantity of Malt after the Rate of Sixteen Bushels of Malt for every Twenty Bushels of Corn which the Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel in which such Corn or Grain shall be wetted shall be capable of containing, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity of Corn which such Steep or Cistern shall be capable of containing; and that when any such Corn or Grain shall be thrown out of such Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel, and the same shall be gauged by the Officer within Thirty Hours after the same shall be so thrown out, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall in like Manner be charged with a Duty for a Quantity of Malt after the Rate of Sixteen Bushels of Malt for every Twenty Bushels of such Corn or Grain, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity of such Corn or Grain.

Corn in Steep shall be kept covered with Water Forty Hours; unless under particular Notice for any Time not less than Thirty Hours; if not so kept Corn shall be charged as Malt.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall not wet or steep any Corn or Grain in the Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel, so as that the same shall be covered with Water, and continue so covered in such Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel, for the full Space of Forty Hours before the Water shall be drawn from the same, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be charged for a Quantity of Malt equal to the whole Quantity of such Corn: Provided always, that if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall intend to continue any such Corn covered with Water for any Time less than Forty Hours, and not less than Thirty Hours, it shall and may be lawful for such Maltster or Maker of Malt to do, on specifying such his Intention in the Notice to be by him given to the Officer of the wetting such Corn or Grain, and the Number of Hours such Corn or Grain is to continue covered with Water; and in such Case such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be charged for all Corn or Grain so wetted, and which shall continue wetted, for any Space of Time less than Forty Hours, and not less than the Number of Hours mentioned in such Notice, as if the same had continued wetted Forty Hours; and if any such Corn or Grain shall not be continued to be covered with Water for the Number of Hours in such Notice mentioned before the Water shall be drawn from the same, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be charged for a Quantity of Malt equal to the whole Quantity of such Corn or Grain so wetted.

Cistern within Seventy-two Hours.
Penalty, 20l.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Corn or Grain shall be found in any Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, Wetting Place, or other Utensil, in the Malthouse of any Maltster or Maker of Malt, after Seventy-two Hours from the Hour mentioned in any Notice for the wetting of such Corn or Grain in such Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, Wetting Place, or other Utensil, such Corn or Grain shall be considered as new Corn or Grain to be made into Malt, and shall be charged with Double Duty; and such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Corn thrown out of the Cistern shall remain
Twenty-Four Hours in Couch Frames, and Ten Days on Floors,
Penalty 10l.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Corn or Grain, making into Malt in the Malthouse of any Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall not immediately, or within Two Hours after the same shall be thrown out of any Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other Vessel, be put into a Couch Frame, and there remain Twenty-four Hours at least before it shall be thrown out of such Couch Frame; or if any such Corn or Grain, after the same shall be thrown out or ought to have been thrown out of such Couch Frame, shall not remain on the Floor or Floors for the full Space of Ten Days at the least before the same shall be put on the Kiln, then and in either of such Cases such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Excise Officers may take Malt out of the Couch Frame and lay it on the Floor.

XLIV. And, for the further and better preventing of Frauds by the pressing of Malt in the Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or Couch Frame; be it further enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall tread, press, or otherwise force together in the Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or Couch Frame, any Corn or Grain steeping or steeped in order to be made into Malt, every such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer of Excise, by himself or by any Person or Persons by him employed for that Purpose, in the Presence of any Maltster or Maker of Malt, or his, her, or their Servant (if such Maltster or Servant shall think fit to be present at such Operation) to throw or remove all Corn or Grain making into Malt from or out of any Couch Frame, and to lay the same level; and if any Increase shall be found in the Gauge or Quantity of such Corn or Grain on the Removal and laying the same level as aforesaid, exceeding the Rate of One Bushel in every Twenty Bushels over and above the Quantity which the same appeared to be by the previous Gauge thereof taken in the Couch Frame or Cistern, then and in every such Cafe, Proof being made of such Increase as aforesaid, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Five Shillings for each and every Bushel of such Corn or Grain contained in such Couch Frame: Provided always, that if no increase shall be found exceeding the Rate aforesaid, such Officer shall pay to every Person employed in removing and replacing such Corn or Grain, the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence British Currency.
the

Penalty on a bushel increase 5s. per Bushel,
&c.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That no Maltster or Maker of Malt shall mix or cause to be mixed any Corn or Grain of one wetting or steeping, or any Part thereof, with any Corn or Grain making into Malt of any other wetting or steeping, or any Part thereof; or shall mix or cause to be mixed any Corn or Grain in any Couches or Floors, or any Part thereof, with any Corn or Grain of any other wetting or steeping, or any Part thereof, before the same shall be put on the Kiln for drying; and that no Maltster or Maker of Malt, or other Person whatsoever in Ireland, shall mix or cause to be mixed any unmalted Corn or Grain with Malt made of any Corn or Grain whatsoever, or shall sell or expose to Sale any such Mixtures respectively as aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting in each and every such Cafe the Sum of Ten Pounds for every such Offence respectively.

Penalty on mixing different Wettings, or mixing unmalted
Grain with Malt, 10l.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt, or other Person whatsoever, shall hide or conceal, or cause or permit or suffer to be hidden or concealed, any Malt within any Malthouse, or in any Store or Place thereto belonging, or in any other Place whatsoever; or shall fraudulently convey away, or cause or procure or permit or suffer to be conveyed away, any Malt out of any Malthouse or Stores from the View of any Gauger or other Officer, or shall cause or procure, or permit or suffer to be conveyed away from the Steep, Cistern, or Utting Vat, or other wetting Place or Utensil, any Steeping or Part of any Steeping of Corn or Grain making into Malt, or shall mix such Corn or Grain making into Malt, or such Corn or Grain so conveyed away, with or amongst any other Corn or Grain making into Malt, or in any Couch or Couches, Floor or Floors, of other Corn or Grain making into Malt, which are then in Operation, and which shall have been gauged or charged with Duty; or if any Maltster or Maker of Malt, or other Person whatsoever, shall fraudulently convey away or cause or procure or permit or suffer to be conveyed away from the Steep, Cistern, Utting Vat, or other wetting Place, any Steeping or Part of any Steeping of Corn or Grain making into Malt, so that no Gauge of such Corn or Grain so conveyed away can be taken by the Officers; or if any Person shall harbour, hide, or conceal any Malt, or any Corn or Grain making into Malt; then and in each of the said Cafes every such Maltster or Maker of Malt, or other Person so offending, shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; and all such Malt, or Corn or Grain making into Malt with all Bags and Sacks containing the same, shall be forfeited and may be seized; and if any Person having Malt in his or her Possession, shall not on Demand made by any Officer of Excise shew all the Malt, or Corn or Grain making into Malt, in his, her, or their Possession, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for every Tunn such Person shall so conceal or not shew such Malt, or Corn or Grain making into Malt; and all Malt, or Corn or Grain making into Malt, which shall not be so shewn, or shall be so concealed, shall be forfeited, and may be seized.

fraudulently concealing or removing Malt, 10l. and forfeiture of Malt.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Officer of Excise shall take any Gauge of any Corn or Grain making into Malt on the Floor of any Malthouse of any Maltster or Maker of Malt, within the Space of Seventy two Hours after the Time such Corn or Grain was or ought to have been thrown out of the Couch Frame, such Officer shall charge such Maltster or Maker of Malt with a Quantity of Malt after the Rate of Fifteen Bushels of Malt for every Twenty Bushels of Corn or Grain; and if such Gauge shall be taken after the Space of Seventy-two Hours, and within the Space of One hundred and twenty Hours after the Time such Corn or Grain was or ought to have been thrown out of the Couch Frame, such Officer shall charge such Maltster or Maker of Malt with a Quantity of Malt after the Rate of Fourteen Bushels of Malt for every Twenty-one Bushels of Corn or Grain; and after the Space of One hundred and twenty Hours from the Time such Corn or Grain was or ought to have been thrown out of the Couch Frame, such Officer shall charge such Maltster or Maker of Malt with a Quantity of Malt after the Rate of Ten Bushels of Malt for every Twenty Bushels of such Corn or Grain, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity of such Corn or Grain in any of the Cafes aforesaid.

Made of charging for Malt on the Quantity of Corn on the Floor.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Corn or Grain making into Malt shall not have been put on the Kiln within Twenty-one Days from the Day mentioned in the Notice for the wetting thereof, all such Corn or Grain shall be considered as Malt, and the Maltster or Maker of Malt in whose Malthouse the same shall be found shall be charged with Duty for the same, after the Rate of one Bushel of Malt for every Bushel of such Corn or Grain; and such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Corn shall be put on the Kiln, 21 Days after wetting, or be charged with Duty as Malt.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That no Officer of the Revenue shall grant any Permit for the Removal of any Malt from the Malthouse or Stores of any Maltster or Maker of Malt, unless such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall produce to such Officer the Receipt of the Collector of the District in which such Malt shall have been made, for the Duty on such Malt, nor unless such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall suffer such Officer to indorse on such Receipt the Quantity of Malt for which such Permit is required, and the Date of such Permit; and every such Officer is hereby required to make such Indorsement accordingly.

Permits shall not be granted for Malt, except on Evidence of Payment of Duty.

L. And be it further enacted, That in all Cafes where any Duties payable under this Act by any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be unpaid at the Time when such Duties are by this Act made due and payable, it shall be lawful for the Collector of Excise of the District in which the Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall be situate, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to empower any Person or Persons to take and distress all Malt, and all Corn or Grain in any Malthouse, Store, or other Premises of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, registered under this Act, and to cause the same to be sold by publick Auction: and if, after the

Collector of Excise may distrain for Duties.

Payment of all Duties due from such Maltster or Maker of Malt, together with the Costs and Expences of such taking and distraint, there shall be any Surplus of the Produce arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall be forthwith tendered and paid to such Maltster or Maker of Malt, or his Representatives: Provided always, that when any Malt shall be so taken and distrained, it shall and may be lawful for such Maltster or Maker of Malt, or his Representatives, at any Time or Times before the Day appointed for the Sale thereof, to obtain Permits for conveying all or any Part of such Malt, upon his or their paying to the Collector towards discharging the Duties to due and payable, the real Value of such Malt as he or they shall desire to remove, and the same may be removed accordingly; and a proper Permit or Permits shall, on due Application, be given for the same, in like Manner as if no such Distress had been made.

Malt, C<sup>m</sup>, or Grain in any Malthouse made liable to Payment of Duties.

L.I. And be it further enacted, That all Malt, and all Corn or Grain whatsoever making or to be made into Malt, which shall be found in any Malthouse, Storehouse, or other Tenement used or occupied, or which shall have been used or occupied by any Maltster or Maker of Malt, shall be liable and subject to, and is hereby charged with all Debts due to the Crown, and all Duties of Excise which shall be in Arrear, and owing by any Person for any Malt made within such Malthouse, and shall also be subject to the Payment of all such Penalties as shall have been incurred by any Person who shall have occupied or used such Malthouse, for any Offence against this Act, or any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to Maltsters or Makers of Malt; and it shall be lawful in all Cases to levy such Debts, Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures by Distress and Sale of such Malt, or Corn or Grain, as it would be lawful to do in case the Person owing such Debts and Duties, or incurring such Penalties and Forfeitures, was at the Time the real Proprietor of such Malt, or Corn or Grain.

No Malt shall be made of Wheat or Oats, Penalty 10s. per Barrel and Forfeiture.

L.II. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to make Malt of Wheat or Oats, and that all Wheat and Oats making into Malt, and all malted Wheat and Oats, mixed or unmixed with any other Corn or Grain, ground or unground, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Justice of the Peace, or any Officer of Excise; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Barrel so found, and the Malt so seized shall be sold.

Maltster discontinuing Business shall give Notice to Officer to take Account of Stocks, who shall grant a Certificate for the Purpose of sounding Permits for Malt thereon, &c.

L.III. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Person shall at the Expiration of any Licence granted under this Act, discontinue the Trade and Business of a Maltster or Maker of Malt, such Person shall, within Twenty-one Days after the Expiration of such Licence, make a Return to the Collector of the District in which the Malthouse of such Person shall be situate, of all such Quantity of Malt as shall be in the Possession of such Person at the Time of making such Return; and it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, and he and they is and are hereby directed and required, as soon as conveniently may be after the Expiration of such Licence, to enter into every Malthouse, Store, or other Place belonging to such Person, and to gauge and take an Account of all Malt remaining therein, and to make a Return thereof to the Collector of the District in which such Malthouse shall be situate; and every such Officer shall at the Time of taking such Account give to such Person a Certificate of the true Quantity of Malt so remaining in such Malthouse, Store, or other Place, as shall appear to have been charged with Duty; and when any such Person shall apply for a Permit for the Removal of the Whole or any Part of such Malt so remaining, such Person shall produce to the proper Officer for granting such Permit the aforesaid Certificate; and such Officer shall at the Time of granting such Permit, indorse on such Certificate the Date and Number of the Permit, and the Name of the Person to whom, and the Place to which the Malt therein mentioned is intended to be conveyed, and the Quantity thereof, and sign his Name thereto; and every such Person to whom such Certificate shall have been granted, shall on every Twenty-fifth Day of December, Twenty-fifth Day of March, Twenty-fourth Day of June, and Twenty-ninth Day of September, or within Ten Days after each and every of the said Days, return to the proper Officer such Certificate, with all Indorsements thereon; and every such Officer shall upon receiving such Certificate, give a new Certificate for all such Malt as shall then be remaining on Hand, of the Quantity for which such former Certificate had been given; and if any such Person shall neglect to deliver up any such Certificate at any of the Times aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One Hundred Pounds.

Renewal of Certificates Quarterly, Penalty

L.IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise, from Time to Time, and at all Times to enter into the Malthouse and Stores of any such Person so discontinuing the Trade or Business of a Maltster, and to gauge and take an Account of all Malt found therein, and to demand a View of such Certificates as aforesaid, with the Indorsements made thereon; and if such Person shall not upon such Demand produce such Certificates with the Indorsements thereon, then all such Malt shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and such Person shall for every such Neglect forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Officers may enter Malthouses and take account of Malt under Certificate, &c.
Penalty on not producing Certificate 10s.

Penalty on Brewers or Distillers mixing
Malt made, with Malt bought by them, 10s.

L.V. And be it further enacted, That no Brewer or Distiller who shall make Malt, shall mix or cause to be mixed any Malt made by him or her with any Malt made by any other Person; and that every such Brewer and Distiller, shall keep all Malt made by him or her in Stores or Rooms separate and distinct from the Stores or Rooms in which he or she shall keep any Malt made by any other Person; and that every such Brewer and Distiller, in whose Stores any Malt made by him or her shall be found mixed with any Malt made by any other Person, or not kept in separate and distinct Stores or Rooms, shall for every Time such Malt shall be so found, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

No Maltster shall sell Malt not made by himself (except Brewers or Distillers) 10s.

L.VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall deal in or sell any Malt, except such Malt as shall have been made in some Malthouse of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, duly licensed, such Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit the Sum of One Hundred Pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any licensed Brewer or Distiller, who shall have a Licence for making Malt under this Act, from receiving Malt duly permitted from others to be consumed in the Brewery or Distillery of such Brewer or Distiller only; nor to prevent such Brewer or Distiller who shall discontinue the Business

Business

Business of a Brewer or Distiller, from selling or disposing of any Malt the Duties on which shall have been previously paid or secured.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That every Person making Malt in Ireland, for his or her own private Use, and not for Sale, shall make a Return to the Collector of the District of his or her Name and Place of Abode, and of the Malthouse or other Place in which such Person intends to make any Malt, certifying that the Malt intended to be made is to be used by such Person for brewing Beer or Ale for his or her private Use and Consumption, and not for Sale; and the Collector to whom such Return shall be made shall make an Entry or Registry thereof, and shall give a Copy of such Entry or Registry to the Person making such Return, and such Person shall not be required to take out any Licence for making of Malt under this Act, nor be subject to any Penalty for neglecting to take-out such Licence; but every such Person shall be chargeable and charged with the Duty for all Malt actually made by him or her, and shall be subject and liable to the Visits of any Officer of Excise, and to such of the Rules and Regulations in this Act contained, as the Commissioners of Excise shall, by and with the Approbation of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, from Time to Time think necessary for the securing the Payment of the Duty on the Quantity of Malt actually made by such Person; and if any such Person shall make any Malt for Sale, or shall sell any Malt, or any Beer or Ale brewed by him or her, or shall dispose of any such Malt, Beer, or Ale, or of any Corn in the Process of making into Malt, for Gain or Profit, or in the way of Barter, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of the Excise to enter into the Houses, Outhouses, Mills, Storerooms, or other Houses whatsoever of any Person or Persons having Malt in his, her, or their Possession, and to demand a Permit, signed by the proper Officer, for all Malt that shall be found therein, except such Malt as shall be made by any Maltster or Maker of Malt, or by any Person making Malt for his or her own private Use and not for Sale, and found in the Malt Stores of such Maltster or Maker of Malt, or other Person duly registered according to this Act; and if on Demand made by such Officer as aforesaid, a Permit or Certificate (as the Case may be) of force, for such Malt shall not be produced within a reasonable Time after such Demand, then all such Malt shall be forfeited, together with any Sacks, Bags, or other Packages in which the same shall be contained, and the same may be seized; and every Person in whose Possession as aforesaid any Malt shall be found without such Permit or Certificate, shall, for every Barrel of such Malt so found in the Possession of such Person, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That an Account shall be taken and kept by any Officer of Excise of the Stock of Malt of every Factor and other Person dealing in or storing Malt, and of the Stock of Malt of every Brewer and Distiller; and that every such Person shall before receiving any Malt give an Account in Writing signed by such Person to the Collector of the District in which the Stores of such Person shall be situated, of all Stores or Places intended to be used for keeping or storing Malt, and a Description of the Situation thereof, and of every Floor, Loft, and Room therein, and the Measure in Feet and Inches of the Length, Breadth, and Height of each such Store, Floor, Loft, and Room, and shall cause to be painted with an Oil Colour, Black or White, on the outside of every Door of every such Store, Loft, and Room, in legible Letters and Figures at least Three Inches in Length, the Words "Malt Store," and the Number thereof; and if any Malt exceeding the Quantity of Five Barrels shall be found in or on any Store, Floor, Loft, or Room of any such Person of which such Account shall not have been given, or upon the Door of which such Letters and Figures shall not be painted and remain so painted and legible, or in or on any Store, Floor, Loft, or Room, the Dimensions whereof shall exceed by Four Inches in Length, Breadth, or Height, the Dimensions mentioned and contained in any such Account, all Malt found in any such Stores, Lofts, or Rooms, shall be forfeited and may be seized, and the Person in whose Stores, Lofts, or Rooms the same shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

LX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any greater Quantity of Malt shall be found in the Possession of any Person having discontinued the Business of a Maltster, or of any Factor or Dealer in Malt, than by the Stock Account of any Officer of Excise ought to be in the Possession of such Person or of such Factor or Dealer, all such increased Quantity shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, and the Person in whose Possession the same shall be found shall forfeit for every Barrel thereof the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That in every Cafe where the Stock of Malt in the Possession of any Maltster or of any Factor or Dealer in Malt, or of any Brewer or Distiller, shall be less than the Quantity of Malt which by the Stock Account kept by any Officer of Excise ought to be in the Possession of such Maltster, Factor, Dealer, Brewer, or Distiller, every such Person shall for every such Time such Decrease shall appear, forfeit the Sum of Fifteen Shillings for every Barrel of Malt which shall so appear to be deficient.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Malt, exceeding in the Whole the Quantity of Six Stone, shall be conveyed in Sacks or Packages, by Land or by Water, from Place to Place in Ireland, or shall be found on any Carriage or Bess, or on board any Boat or other Vessel, and that there shall not be marked outside of every Sack or other Package containing such Malt, on both Sides thereof, and at or near the Middle of such Sack or other Package, the Word "Malt," in Black Roman Letters not less than Three Inches in length, or if any Part of any such Sack or Package on which the Word "Malt," shall be so stamped and marked, or if the uppermost Sack or Package where there shall be more Sacks or Packages than one, on the same Carriage or in the same Boat or Vessel, shall not be placed so as to appear in publick View without altering the Position of such Sack or other Package, then and in every such Cafe such Malt, with the Sacks or Packages containing the same, and also the Bess and Carriage, or Boat or Vessel, containing, carrying, bearing, or drawing the same, with all Tackle thereto respectively belonging, shall be forfeited, and may be seized.

LXIII. And

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, shall be paid and recovered in British Currency; and shall and may be sued for, recovered, levied, and applied in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and with such Powers and Authorities as are prescribed, directed, and appointed, in and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the settling of the Excise or new Imposts upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted, or by any other Law or Laws in force in Ireland relative to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise; as fully and effectually to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, as if the same were particularly mentioned and expressed and re-enacted in this Act, with like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties who shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved or injured, as in and by the said Act of Excise, or any Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise is provided.

LXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any one Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction, where any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture not exceeding Twenty Pounds shall be incurred under this Act, to hear and determine the same, and to convict the Party offending on his or her own Confession, or on the Oath of any one credible Witness; and in all such Cases one Moiety of the Penalty or Forfeiture shall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish in which the Offence shall have been committed, or the Conviction made, at the Discretion of the Justice; and such Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and required upon Information made on Oath in that Behalf, within Three Months after the Offence committed, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses or Witnesses upon either Side, and if upon the Confession of the Party accused, or Examination of any Witnesses or Witnesses on Oath, which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered to administer, such Party shall be convicted of the Offence alleged against him, then it shall be lawful for such Justice, and he is hereby required to award and issue out a Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to any Constable of the County, for levying the Penalty or Forfeiture incurred on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof in case the same shall not be redeemed within Six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus (if any) after deducting the Expence of such Sale; and for want of sufficient Distress it shall be lawful for such Justice, and he is hereby required, to commit such Offender to Gaol for any Time not exceeding Three Months, or until such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be paid; and if any Person shall find himself or herself aggrieved by the Judgement of the said Justice, then such Person shall and may complain or appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for the County, and such Justices are hereby empowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the Complaint or Appeal; and in case the Conviction of the Party shall be affirmed, such Justices shall issue Warrants for levying the Penalty or Forfeiture as aforesaid, and also for levying on the Goods of the Appellants, such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings as the said Justices shall appoint for the Costs of such Appeal, to be paid to the Informer; and where any such pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, the same may be sued for and recovered by any Person who shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, or by Civil Bill in any of the Courts of Record in Dublin, or at the Quarter Sessions of the Justices of the Peace, or at the Assizes in any County or County of a Town or City in Ireland; and it shall be lawful for the Court before whom any such Penalty shall be recovered, to order the Offender to be committed to Gaol, there to remain for any Time in the Discretion of such Court, or until such Fine or Forfeiture be fully paid and satisfied.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That no Conviction made or alleged to be made by any Justice of the Peace, nor any Proceeding before such Justice, or before any Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions nor any Sentence or Order given or made, or alleged to be given or made, by any such Justice or Justices under or by virtue of this Act, shall be removed by Writ of Certiorari out of the County, City, Town, or Place wherein such Conviction or Proceeding shall have been had or made, into any Court whatsoever; and that no Writ of Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon such Conviction, Order, or Sentence so made or given in pursuance of this Act; but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had and made thereupon, any such Writ of Certiorari or Allowance thereof notwithstanding.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to abate any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture which may be set, imposed, or adjudged on any Information in the Excise Offices of the respective Districts or otherwise howsoever, against any Person or Persons, or Thing or Things, for any Offence whatsoever under this Act, without the Direction of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland for the Purpose; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, with the Approbation or Direction of the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or for the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, in all Cases to direct that the Whole or any Part of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture incurred under this Act, shall be paid to the Officer or Officers making any Seizure or giving Information of any Offence under this Act, to be applied for the Use of such Officer or Officers, and in such Proportions and under such Regulations as such last-mentioned Commissioners respectively shall from Time to Time direct and appoint; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in Ireland, who shall neglect or refuse, in any Instance, to carry this Act into Execution, upon a proper Application made to him, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds British Currency, for every such Neglect or Refusal, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Ireland, by the Person who shall have made such Application; in which no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparlance shall be allowed; the Money recovered by such Action, to be applied as to One Half thereof, to the Use of the Person suing for the same, and the other Half to be paid to the Minister, Rector, or Churchwarden of the Parish wherein such Justice of Peace or Magistrate shall reside, for the Use of the Poor therein.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect upon and from the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five.

Commencement of the Act, 29th Sept. 1805.

C A P. LIV.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the Ninth Year of King George the First for amending the Laws, relating to the Settlement, Employment, and Relief of the Poor, so far as the same respects Contracts to be entered into for the Maintenance and Employment of the Poor [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the Amendment of the Laws relating to the Settlement, Employment, and Relief of the Poor, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, with the Consent of the major Part of the Parishes or Inhabitants, are authorized, in the Manner therein mentioned, to purchase or hire a House or Houses, and to contract with any Person or Persons for the lodging, keeping, maintaining, and employing of the Poor, and for taking the Benefit of their Work, Labour, and Service, for their better Maintenance and Relief; and where any Parish, Town, or Township should be found too small, in such Case to unite Two or more such Parishes, Towns, or Townships, for those Purposes, with the Consent of the major Part of the Parishes or Inhabitants, and with the Approbation of a Justice of the Peace: And whereas great Inconvenience has arisen from Contracts for the Lodging, Maintenance, and Employment of the Poor of such Parishes, having been entered into pursuant to the said Act, with Persons not being resident within such Parishes respectively, nor of sufficient Responsibility to ensure the faithful Performance of such Contracts: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Contract to be entered into and made by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, with any Person or Persons, for the lodging, keeping, maintaining, or employing of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes where Two or more are united, and for taking the Benefit of their Work, Labour, and Service, for their better Maintenance and Relief, by virtue or in pursuance of the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the First, or of any other Law or Statute whatsoever, shall be valid, binding, or effectual, unless the Person or Persons with whom the same shall be entered into respectively shall and during the Continuance of such Contract be resident within the Parish so contracting, or within the particular Parish in which such Poor shall be lodged and maintained, or who, in the Case where Two or more Parishes are united, shall be so resident as aforesaid in one of such Parishes, or in the Parish in which such Poor shall be lodged and maintained; and unless one or more responsible Householders, resident in such particular Parish or in one of the said Parishes, and to be approved of by the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or united Parishes, as the Case may be, shall, at or before the Time of signing such Contract, by their joint and several Bond, with a Penalty in not less than the Amount of One Half of the Assessment to the Pious Rate of such Parish or united Parishes for the Year next but one preceding the Year in which such Contract shall be entered into, give Security to the said Churchwardens and Overseers as the Case may be, for the true and faithful Observance and Performance of such Contract on the Part and Behalf of the Person or Persons so to be contracted with as aforesaid; nor unless such Contract shall be approved of and signed by Two Justices of the Peace acting for such County, City, Riding, or District, in which such Parish or united Parishes, or One of them, shall be situated.

II. And be it further enacted, That all such Contracts as aforesaid, which shall be entered into otherwise than according to the Regulations and Restrictions herein-before contained, shall be absolutely null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and every such Contract which shall be entered into conformably to the Directions of this Act, by any Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, with any Person or Persons who shall remove from and cease to reside in the particular Parish or in One of the united Parishes wherein such Poor shall be lodged and maintained, before the Expiration of the whole Term or Time for which such Contract shall be intended to have Continuance, shall also from the Time of such Removal cease and determine: Provided always, that the Removal of such Person or Persons as aforesaid shall not vacate the Security entered into by any Householder or Householders as aforesaid, for the true Observance and Performance of the Contract of such Person or Persons so having contracted and removing, but that the same shall continue in full force for the Indemnification of the Churchwardens and Overseers of such Parish or united Parishes against any Loss or Expence incurred in consequence of such Non-performance of such Contract and of such Removal: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Parish, Township, or Place where the Poor are maintained under any special Act of Parliament: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to make void any Contract that shall have been entered into before the passing of this Act with any Person or Persons for the lodging, keeping, maintaining or employing of the Poor of any Parish, by virtue or in pursuance of the said Act of the Ninth Year of King George the First aforesaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

G. 1. c. 7. f. 4.

No Contract for maintaining the Poor shall be valid, unless the Person with whom the same is made shall be resident in the Parish contracting, or where the Poor shall be maintained; nor unless One Householder shall be Surety for the due Performance of the Contract.

All other Contracts shall be void; as also on the Removal of Contractor; but such Removal shall not vacate the Security.

Exemption as to special Acts; and Contracts already entered into.

C A P. LV.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, for better examining and auditing the Publick Accounts of this Kingdom; and for enabling the Commissioners, in certain Cases, to allow of Vouchers although not stamped according to Law. [27th June 1805.]

25 G. 3. c. 52. f. 17, 18.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for better examining and auditing the Publick Accounts of this Kingdom, it is enacted, that the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other publick Officer, paying into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for publick Services by way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days after the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money, issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons for the publick Service within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners for auditing the publick Accounts, who are required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who immediately on Receipt of such Accounts is required to put the several Sums so issued in charge against the Parties, in like Manner as with respect to Persons receiving Money by way of Imprest or on Account of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer; and it is thereby further enacted, that no Account shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof in the Manner and within the Times above mentioned, unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Period within which Accounts of Sums of Money issued to Sub-accountants may be transmitted to the Commissioners for auditing the publick Accounts, and that the said Commissioners should be enabled in certain Cases to allow of Vouchers for Monies paid although the same may not have been stamped according to Law: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other publick Officer, who, since the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and four, hath paid, or who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for publick Services by way of Imprest or on Account, within Twelve Calendar Months after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and five, and within Twelve Calendar Months after the Thirty-first Day of December in every future Year, to transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons for the publick Service within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners for auditing the publick Accounts, who shall, within Six Months after the Receipt of such Account, take the same into Consideration; and if it shall appear to them that the Persons to whom publick Monies shall be so stated to have been issued or paid, or any of them, ought to be made Sub-accountants, and be set insuper in the declared Account of such Principal, they shall forthwith transmit a Schedule or Certificate thereof to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately put the Sums so issued or paid in charge against the said Party or Parties, and the said Sums shall be allowed in the Accounts of the respective Accountants issuing the same, in like Manner as if such Accounts had been transmitted within the Period prescribed by the said Act.

Period within which Accounts of Money issued to Sub-Accountants may be transmitted by Paymaster General, &c. to Auditors Office enlarged, to 12 Months after 31st Dec. yearly.

Auditors Office shall take such Accounts into Consideration within Six Months, &c.

Vouchers for Accounts preceding Dec. 31, 1804, may be allowed though not stamped.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for auditing the publick Accounts, in their Examination of any Accounts for any Periods preceding the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and four, to admit and allow of Receipts and Vouchers for any Monies expressed therein to have been paid, although such Receipts or Vouchers shall not have been stamped according to Law.

C A P. LVI.

An Act for further continuing, until the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and nine, an Act, made in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, for enabling the Commissioners of the Treasury to let to Farm the Duties on Horses let to Hire for travelling Post, and by Time. [27th June 1805.]

27 G. 3. c. 26.

28 G. 3. c. 51. (Schedule B.)

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, for the Time being, to let to Farm the Duties granted by an Act, made in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, on Horses let to Hire for travelling Post, and by Time, to such Persons as should be willing to contract for the same; and the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, were empowered, either by themselves or by His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, thereunto duly authorized to let to Farm the several therein recited Rates and Duties to such Persons as should be willing to farm the same, for any Term not exceeding Three Years, at a Rent not less than the gross Amount which the same should appear to have produced within the Year ending on the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, under certain Rules, Directions, Regulations, and Restrictions, expressed in the said Act: And whereas the Powers of the said Act were continued by several subsequent Acts until the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and six: And whereas the Duties in the said Act mentioned have, by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth ' Year of His present Majesty's Reign, been repealed, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof: And whereas it appears to be expedient that the Provisions and Powers of the said Acts should be further continued: May it therefore please Your Majesty, &c.

" From August 1, 1805, the Treasury may, either by themselves or the Commissioners for Stamps, let to Farm the Duties on Post-Horses in each District, so as they are put up at a Rent not less than the Amount produced within the Year ending August 1, 1787: § 1.—But Contracts shall not continue longer than February 1, 1809, § 2.—Contracts shall be void in Case of Failure of making Deposits or finding Security: § 3.—Powers of recited Act, 27 G. 3. c. 26, extended to this Act. § 4.—Act maybe altered or repealed: this Session. § 5."

 the Port of Nassau in the Island of New Providence, One of the Bahama Islands; and the Port of Road Harbour in the Island of Tortola &c., were opened for the Importation of certain Goods and Merchandize under certain Regulations and Restrictions: And whereas it is expedient that such of the Provisions of the said Acts relating to the Importation or Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize to or from the aforesaid Ports, or any of them, or to the Admission of any Ships or Vessels into the said Ports, or any of them, or to any Duties payable on such Importation, Exportation, or Admission, as are now in force, should be consolidated into One Act, and that such of the said Laws as are now temporary should be made perpetual; and that, in Addition to the aforesaid Ports, the Port of Saint Ann in the Island of Jamaica, the Port of Pitt's Town, in Portland Harbour in Crooked Island, another of the Bahama Islands, the Port of Kingston in the Island of Saint Vincent, and the principal Port in the Island of Bermuda, should be opened under certain Regulations and Restrictions: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, Wool, Cotton Wool, Indigo, Cochineal, Drugs of all Sorts, Cocoa, Log Wood, Fustick, and all Sorts of Wood for Dyers Use, Hides, Skins, and Tallow, Beaver, and all Sorts of Island of Saint Vincent, and the principal Port in the Island of Bermuda, in any Foreign Sloop, Schooner, or other Vessel whatever, not having more than One Deck, and being owned and navigated by Persons inhabiting any of the said Colonies or Plantations in America, or Countries on the Continent of America, belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any Island in the West Indies, or of any Country on the Continent of America, belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, may be imported from any of the said Islands or Countries into any of the said Ports herein-before enumerated, in the like Foreign Ships and Vessels, and be again exported from thence to any Part of the United Kingdom, under the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, and subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as are in this Act mentioned and contained with regard to the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize herein-before enumerated.

III. And be it further enacted, That all such Tobacco so imported into any of the said Ports, shall, when imported into any Part of the United Kingdom from any of the said Ports, pay the same Duties of Customs and Excise, and none other, as Tobacco, the Growth or Production of any of His Majesty's Plantations in the West Indies, or of the Territories of the United States of America, and be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and be liable to the same Forfeitures and Penalties for the Breach thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, from and after the passing of this Act, to import into the said Port of Nassau in the Island of New Providence, and into the said Port of Pitt's Town in Portland Harbour in Crooked Island, and into such other Port or Ports in the said Bahama Islands, and into the principal Port in the Island of Bermuda, and into such Port or Ports in the Islands called Caiques as shall be approved by His Majesty in Council, Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation, in such Foreign Ships or Vessels, and subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are prescribed in this Act with respect to the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize herein-before enumerated.

V. And be it further enacted, That Sugar and Coffee which shall be imported into the Port of Nassau in the Island of New Providence, or the Port of Pitt's Town in Crooked Island, or into such Port or Ports in the said Bahama Islands, or into the principal Port in the Island of Bermuda, or into any such Port or Ports in the said Islands called Caiques, as have been or may hereafter be approved by His Majesty in Council, may be imported into and again exported from any of the said Ports, without Payment of any Duties of Customs whatsoever; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That on the Importation of any Sugar or Coffee into any Part of the United Kingdom from the said Port of Nassau in the Island of New Providence, or the said Ports of Pitt's Town in Crooked Island, or such other Port or Ports in the Bahama Islands, or the Island of Bermuda, or any such Ports in the said Islands called Caiques, such Sugar or Coffee shall respectively be deemed to be not of the British Plantations, and shall be liable to, and shall pay Duty of Customs and Excise as such, and may be warehoused in like Manner, and shall be subject to the Regulations of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the Time of Importation of such Sugar or Coffee, so far as they relate to Sugar or Coffee not of the British Plantations.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, except such as are herein-before enumerated, shall be imported in any Foreign Ship, Sloop, Schooner, or Vessel whatever, from any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or any Countries on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, into any of the before-mentioned Ports upon any Pretence whatever, upon Pain of forfeiting the same, together with the Ship, Sloop, Schooner, or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, and the Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture of such Ship, Sloop, Schooner, or Vessel; and in every such Case the same shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs or Navy, who are or shall be authorized or empowered to make Seizures in Cases of Forfeiture, and shall and may be prosecuted in such Manner as herein-after directed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, from and after the passing of this Act, to export from any of the said Ports to any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or any Countries on the Continent of America, belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, in any Sloop, Schooner, or other Vessel whatever, not having more than One Deck, and being owned and navigated by Persons inhabiting any such Colony, Plantation, or Country, Rum of the Produce of any British Island, and also Negroes which shall have been brought into the said Islands respectively in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law; and all Manner of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which shall have been legally imported into the said Islands respectively, except Masts, Yards, or Bowsprits, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, and also except such Iron as shall have been brought from the British Colonies or Plantations in America; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful to export in any British Ship or Vessel, owned and navigated according to Law, from any of the said Islands in this Act enumerated, to any British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, any Goods or Commodities whatever of the Manufacture of Europe; and also any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which shall have been legally imported into any of the said Islands, from any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or any Country on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Doubts shall arise whether any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize intended to be so exported, shall have been legally imported into the said Islands respectively in this Act enumerated, the Legality of such Importation shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, before such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be suffered to be shipped for Exportation.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Wool, Cotton Wool, Indigo, Cochineal, Drugs of all Sorts, Cocoa, Log Wood, Fustick, and all Sorts of Wood for Dyers Use, Hides, Skins, and Tallow, Beaver and all Sorts of Furs, Tortoise Shell, Mahogany and all other Woods for Cabinet Ware, of the Growth or Production of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, or Countries on the Continent of America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, shall be allowed to be exported from any of the said Islands in this Act enumerated, to any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, under the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, particularly mentioned and provided in an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging and increas'ing of Shipping and Navigation; and in another Act of Parliament made in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the planting of Tobacco in England, and for regulating the Planting Trade; and in another Act of Parliament made in the Twentieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to allow the Trade between Ireland and the British Colonies and Plantations in America

America and the West Indies, and the British Settlements on the Coast of Africa, to be carried on in like Manner as it is now carried on between Great Britain and the said Colonies and Settlements; or in any of the said Acts, with respect to the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, therein enumerated or described.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Goods or Commodities whatever, of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the East Indies, or other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, shall upon any Pretence whatever be exported from any of the Ports enumerated in this Act, to any other British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, upon Pain of forfeiting such Goods or Commodities, together with the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be so exported, and the Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture of such Ship or Vessel.

No East India Goods shall be exported from the said Ports to any British Colony in under Forfeiture.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Foreign Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, arriving at or in any of the aforesaid Ports, shall have on board any Goods or Commodities whatever, of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the East Indies, or other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, such Goods or Commodities shall be forfeited, together with the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be brought, and all her Guns, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, whether such Goods or Commodities shall be intended to be landed or not, or whether Bulk shall have been broken or not.

Foreign Ships arriving at any of the said Ports with East India Goods laden with the Goods.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Duty of Gunpowder, nor any Fee or Reward whatever, shall be demanded, taken, or received, by any Officer or Officers whatever in the said Islands respectively in this Act enumerated, for any Entry, Coquet, Clearance, or Passport, for any Foreign Ship or Vessel, or for any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported into or exported from the said Islands respectively in such Foreign Ships or Vessels; under the like Pains and Penalties, as are inflicted upon Officers exacting or receiving greater Fees than are allowed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force for regulating the Fees of the Officers of the Customs in His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America.

No Duty of Gunpowder, or Fee, shall be taken by Officers for Entry, &c. of Foreign Ships under this Act. [See to G. 3. c. 37 § 2.]

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be respectively prosecuted, sued for, recovered, and divided, in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies or Islands in America, in the same Manner and Form, and by the same Rules and Regulations in all Respects, in so far as the same are applicable, as any other Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament made for the Security of the Revenue of the Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, or for the Regulation of Trade or Navigation, and which were in force immediately before the passing of this Act, may be respectively prosecuted, sued for, recovered, and divided, in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies or Islands in America.

Penalties and Forfeitures may be sued for, as under former Acts relating to Customs.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all such Clauses, Provisions, Articles, Matters, and Things, in any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained, as relate to the opening and establishing any Ports in the Islands herein-before mentioned, or any of them, for the more free Importation and Exportation of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in this Act enumerated, shall from and after the passing of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Former Acts relating to the Opening of the said Ports repealed. [See § 1. of this Act.]

C. A P. LVIII.

An Act to repeal an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty, for the better Regulation of the Office of Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, and the more regular Payment of the Army; and for the more effectually regulating the said Office. [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS several of the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, and the more regular Payment of the Army; and to repeal an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces," have been found inconvenient: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Army
Paymaster General

II. And be it further enacted, That the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces for the Time being, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed. And by all Memorials to be by him presented to the Treasury for Money for Army Services, shall pray, that such Sum as he requires may be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on his Account, specifying in every such Memorial, the Sum he requires, and for what particular Service or Services; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by their Letter, from Time to Time shall direct the Auditor of the Exchequer to issue to the said Governor and Company, on Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces (naming such Paymaster General for the Time being), the Sum for which such Letter shall be drawn upon the unsatisfied Order at the Exchequer in favour of the said Paymaster General, for which the Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company shall be a sufficient Discharge; and all Sums for which such Letters of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be drawn, shall be issued from the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and not to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, and shall be placed to the Account in the Books of the said Governor and Company, intitled, "The Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces," inserting the Name of such Paymaster General for the Time being.

23 G. 3. c. 59. rep. act.

Paymaster General, in his Memorials to the Treasury, shall specify the Sum required, and for what particular Service; and such Sum shall be issued to the Bank of England and by them put to the Paymaster's Account.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Fees whatever shall be paid at the Exchequer or Treasury, by reason of the Transactions aforesaid, beyond the Amount of what hath been usually paid upon Imprests and Accounts hitherto made, according to the former Custom of transacting Business between the Exchequer, Pay Office, and Bank severally.

Only customary Fees shall be paid at Exchequer or Treasury.

Paymaster or his Deputy shall draw on the Bank for all Army Services; specifying the particular Head of Service.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces for the Time being, by himself or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons in his Office duly authorized by the said Paymaster General, shall draw upon the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for all Army Services whatever, by Drafts signed by him or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons so authorized; and shall specify in every Draft, the particular Head of Service to which the Sum therein mentioned is to be applied; and no Draft of the said Paymaster or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient Voucher to the said Governor and Company, unless the same shall specify the Service for which it is drawn, and shall be actually paid by the said Governor and Company; and the Monies to be issued to the said Governor and Company on Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, shall not be paid out of the Bank, unless for Army Services, in pursuance of Drafts in which shall be specified the Heads of Service to which the Sums therein mentioned are to be applied, and which Drafts so drawn shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay such Money to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts or to the Bearer thereof.

Paymaster on his Fifth Memorial to the Treasury every Month, shall insert the Amount of his Balance in the Bank, and the Charges thereon.

V. And, in order that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may have frequent Knowledge of the Balance of Cash in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Paymaster General, and thereby be enabled to judge of the Propriety and Necessity of further Issues, and to prevent the unnecessary Accumulation of Publick Money in the Hands of the said Governor and Company; be it enacted, That in the First Memorial presented every Month, or oftener if required, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, by the Paymaster General for the Time being, for a Supply of Money for Army Services, such Paymaster General, or the Accountant in his Office, shall insert in the Body of such Memorial, the Sum Total of the Balance of Publick Money on Account of the Paymaster General in the Hands of the said Governor and Company, together with an Account of all the Claims, outstanding Drafts, and other Demands, with which such Balance is chargeable, and is to be applied.

Manner of making up the Paymaster General's Accounts annually to 25th December.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Paymaster General for the Time being shall, during his Continuance in Office, make up an annual Account of the Ordinary and Extraordinary Services of the Army, to be intitled, "The Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces," the First annual Account after the passing of this Act, to commence on the Twenty fifth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and four, and to end on the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and five, and every succeeding Account to commence on the Twenty-fifth Day of December, and to end on the Twenty-fourth Day of December following: Provided always, that in the Event of the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Paymaster General in the Course of the Year, the Accounts shall be made up in the Manner following; (that is to say), The Accounts for the Pay of all Regiments, Troops, and Companies, shall be made up to the Twenty-fourth Day of the Month of which the Substitution of the Army shall have been paid in Advance previous to such Death, Resignation, or Removal; the Accounts for the Pay of the General and Staff Officers, Garrison, and other regular voted Services, shall be made up so as to include all Payments which shall have been actually made on Account thereof, previous to such Death, Removal, or Resignation; and the Accounts of the Extraordinary Services of the Army shall be made up to the Day of such Death, Removal, or Resignation; and in every such Case the succeeding Paymaster General shall open a new and distinct Account or Accounts for all Army Services, the Payments for which shall not have been completed by his Predecessor or Predecessors; and all Payments necessary to complete such Services shall be made in the Name of the Paymaster General for the Time being, who shall cause the same to be entered in such new and distinct Account or Accounts, until all Payments for such Services shall be completed.

On Death or Removal.

Regiments.

Staff, &c.

Extraordinaries.

On Death or Removal of Paymaster, Balance in the Bank shall vest in his Successor.

VII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, the Balance of Cash for which he shall at that Time have Credit on his Account as Paymaster General with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed, actually vest in such Successor, in Trust for the Service of the Army, and be forthwith carried over and placed to the Account of such Successor of such Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, to be applied to the said Service, in pursuance of the like Drafts as aforesaid; and the succeeding Paymaster General shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form his Memorials and Requisitions to the Treasury, and to issue his Drafts as aforesaid, for all unsatisfied Charges and Demands on Account of Army Services which shall have accrued in the Time of any preceding Paymaster General.

Accounts of the Paymaster General shall be transmitted to the Auditors' Office.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Accounts of the Paymaster General for the Time being, shall be transmitted, with proper Vouchers, to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, who shall and they are hereby directed and required, with the least possible Delay after the Receipt thereof, to examine or cause to be examined the said Accounts, and if found satisfactory, to present or cause to be presented the same to the proper Officer or Officers for Declaration; and when the same are declared, a Quietus or Acquittance in the usual Form shall be made out to the Paymaster or Paymasters General whose Accounts shall have been so declared, his or their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators.

Accounts of Army Services beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, shall be kept separate from other Accounts, and transmitted and audited accordingly.

IX. And whereas it may frequently happen that the clearing Warrants for Accounts of Regiments, Troops, or Companies, serving at any Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, cannot, by reason of the great Distance of such Places, be made out till long after all the other Accounts of Army Services are settled and prepared for Examination, whereby much unavoidable and inconvenient Delay might arise in the Examination of such settled Accounts; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, for the Time being, to make out and keep the Accounts for all Regiments, Troops, and Companies, and other Army Services, in Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, separate and distinct from all other Accounts for Army Services, and to transmit such other Accounts for Army Services, whenever the same shall be prepared for Examination, to the Commissioners for auditing auditing the Public Accounts, without regard to the Accounts for any such Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn; and whenever the said Accounts for Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn can be made up and prepared for Examination, in like Manner to transmit the same to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts; and the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts are hereby authorized and required to examine, or cause to be examined, such Accounts for general Army Services, when so transmitted to them, although the Accounts for Regiments, Troops, and Companies, and other Army Services, at any such Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn, shall not be included therein; and in like Manner to examine, or cause to be examined, the said last mentioned Accounts whenever the same shall be transmitted to them; and if such respective Accounts shall be found satisfactory, to present, or cause to be presented, the same respectively for Declaration; and when the same respectively are declared, a Quictus or Acquittance in the usual Form shall be made out to the Paymaster General whose Accounts shall have been so declared, his or their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, for the Amount of such respective Accounts, in like Manner as if in the same respectively had been included the Whole ordinary and extraordinary Services of the Army for the Year.

"All Accounts of Paymasters General in Arrear, from 24th April 1782 to 24th December 1804, shall be made up forthwith, in order to their being passed before the Auditors Office, who shall examine the same, &c. without Delay.—Paymasters in Arrear shall not be hereby exonerated from any legal responsibility, § 10.—Memorials for Money required to complete the Services for any Period previous to 25th December 1804, shall specify that it is required for those Services, and such Sums shall be issued and paid accordingly, § 11."

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces for the Time being shall keep an Account with the Bank of England of all Monies issued or directed to be paid to him for the Service of the Army; and the Paymaster General, observing the Rules and Regulations hereby prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money which he shall not actually receive, or which shall not be actually drawn for by him or his Deputy, or other Person or Persons authorized by him as aforesaid; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies which shall be actually received by them for the Service of the Army.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Books of Accounts, and all Vouchers whatever, kept in the Office of Paymaster General, shall belong to the said Office, and shall not be at the Disposal of the Paymaster General to take and dispose of the same as his private and proper Books of Account and Vouchers: Provided that nothing herein shall extend to prevent any Person who hath exercised the Office of Paymaster General, or his or their Executors or Administrators, by himself or themselves, or by any Person or Persons authorized by him or them, from taking Copies or Extracts thereof, until an Acquittance in the Exchequer shall be made out for such Paymaster, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators; nor the Transmission of the Vouchers in due Time to the Commissioners for auditing the public Accounts.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Perquisite, Emolument, or Reward whatsoever, whether arising from the Use of the public Money, or in any other Manner, (other than and except the Salaries and Allowances herein after mentioned), shall be taken in the said Office, for any Business, Matter, or Thing to be done therein; and in lieu thereof the Officers, Clerks, and Servants in the said Office, shall receive annual Salaries, payable quarterly, without Deduction, and not otherwise; and a List of the said Officers, Clerks, and Servants, together with an Account of the Salaries paid to them from Time to Time, shall be entered in a Book, intitled, "The Salary Book," and deposited in the Office of the said Paymaster General, and Copies thereof lodged in the Treasury and Bank of England; and if any Person belonging to, or who shall hereafter belong to the said Office, shall take or accept any Fee, Perquisite, Emolument, or Reward, (other than and except the Salaries and Allowances above mentioned), he shall be dismissed from his Office or Employment, and be rendered incapable of serving His Majesty in any Employment whatever, for the Space of Three Years: Provided always, that no Augmentation shall at any Time be made to the Salaries of any such Officers, Clerks, or Servants, without the Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; and that when any such Augmentations shall take place, an Entry thereof shall forthwith be made in the Book so to be kept, and new Duplicates thereof shall be transmitted to the Treasury, and to the Bank of England.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to deprive the Paymaster General of the usual Allowances for himself or for Contingencies, nor to prevent him from administering or applying the said Contingencies according to the usual Course of Office.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away, diminish, or alter the Power of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, to appoint, remove, or change at his Pleasure all or any of the Officers and Clerks employed in his said Office; or, with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, signified in Writing, to increase the Number of such Clerks, in case the Circumstances of the Business of the said Office should render such an Increase necessary; which said additional Officers and Clerks shall, upon their respective Appointments, be subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Pains, and Penalties, to which the Officers and Clerks now existing in the said Office are by this Act made liable.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary at War shall and he is hereby required to form or cause to be formed Estimates for the several annual Services of the Army, (that is to say); an Estimate of the Charge of the Pensions to be paid to the Widows of Commissioned Officers; an Estimate of the Charge of the Clothing of the Non-commissioned Officers and private Men of His Majesty's Forces; an Estimate of the Charge of Agency, including the Allowance made to the Agent of the Subsistence of Non-effective Men, Paymaster shall keep an Account with the Bank, and shall be answerable only for his actual Receipts, &c.

Books of Accounts, &c. in Paymaster's Office, shall belong to the Office; Paymaster may take Copies thereof.

Agents shall make up Accounts of their respective Regiments, annually to the 25th December, and transmit them to Secretary at War and Paymaster's Office. Penalty 100*l*.

Secretary at War shall examine and settle such Accounts within Three Months, called Warrant Men; an Estimate of the Charge of the In and Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, and of the Expences of the said Hospital; an Estimate of the actual Pay of the Commissioned Officers and Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men of His Majesty's Forces, on the several Establishments; an Estimate of the Charges of the Allowance made to Field Officers and Captains, and for the Use of Riding Masters, Rough Riders, and Expences incident to the same; an Estimate of the Extra-Allowance for Farriery; an Estimate of the Allowance for Great Coats; an Estimate of the Charge of the Allowance to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, the Secretary at War, the Comptrollers of Army Accounts, the Commissary General of the Musters, the Judge Advocate, their respective Deputies, Clerks, and the Contingent Expences of their respective Offices, Exchequer Fees, and all other Services, formerly paid out of the Deduction of Twelve Pence in the Pound and One Day's Pay, and not otherwise provided for by this Act; as also, Estimates of all such other Charges for Army Services, as it may from Time to Time be necessary or expedient to submit to Parliament; and the said Secretary at War shall and he is hereby required to transmit Copies of the said Estimates, as soon as the same shall have been agreed to by the House of Commons, to the Office of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces shall, and he is hereby directed and required, as soon after the Twenty-fourth Day of June and the Twenty-fourth Day of December in every Year as Money shall be issued for that Purpose, to issue to such Person or Persons as have regular Assignments from the several Colonies and other Officers commanding Regiments, Corps, Troops, or Companies, for the Monies formerly called Nett Off-Reckonings, for the Cloathing of the Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men of His Majesty's Regular and Fencible Forces; provided the Paymaster General shall at such Time have been furnished with proper Establishments of the several Regiments and Corps for which said Monies are then to be issued: Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the making any Alteration in the Privileges, Profits, or Emoluments which the said Colonies or other Officers commanding Regiments, Corps, Troops, or Companies now derive, either from the Cloathing of the Non-effective Men called Warrant Men, or Hautboys of their respective Regiments, Troops, and Companies, but the said Colonies and other Officers shall continue to have enjoyed and received the same Privileges, Profits, and Emoluments as they would otherwise enjoy and receive from the Nett Off-Reckonings, and from the Non-effective Men called Warrant Men, or Hautboys of their respective Regiments and Corps, Troops and Companies, had this Act not been made.

XIX. And, for the better Prevention of the issuing from the Exchequer any more Monies than shall be necessary for the Purposes recited in this Act; be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Secretary at War shall, and he is hereby directed and required, from Time to Time, to transmit to the Office of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, Accounts of the Sums necessary to be issued for the several Services of His Majesty's Regular and Fencible Forces and embodied Militia, according to the effective Strength and the actual Expenditure thereof, distinguishing each Corps severally; and the said Paymaster General shall, and he is hereby directed and required, to form his Memorials and Requisitions to the Treasury, and to issue his Drafts on the Bank as aforesaid, according to the said Accounts.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the several Allowances now borne or hereafter to be borne on the Regimental Establishments shall be made; namely, the Allowances to Captains of Troops and Companies, and to certain Field Officers not having Troops or Companies; the Allowance for the Use of the Riding Masters and Rough Riders, and for immediate Expences relating to the same; the extra Allowances for Farriery, and the Allowances for Great Coats; for which said Allowances the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces shall, and he is hereby directed and required to form his Memorials and Requisitions, and to issue his Drafts as aforesaid, as soon after the Twenty-fourth Day of June and the Twenty-fifth Day of December in every Year, as the same can conveniently be done, in equal Payments, and to charge the same to the Account of each Corps as aforesaid.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Agents of all Regiments, Troops, and Companies of His Majesty's Regular and Fencible Forces, and embodied Militia shall and they are hereby directed and required to make up annual Accounts of every Regiment, Troop, and Company for the preceding Year, ending the Twenty-fourth Day of December in every Year; the Accounts of the Forces and Militia serving in Great Britain to be made up within Six Months after the Expiration of the Year, and the Accounts of the several Corps on Foreign Service within Nine Months after the Expiration of the Year, unless the Pay Lists from thole on Foreign Service shall not have been received and settled, so as to enable the Agents to make up such Accounts; and in the said Accounts the several Imprests or Monies received, including every Receipt which ought to be brought to the Credit of the Publick, in the Accounts of the respective Corps, and the several Disbursements or Monies paid, including Agency, shall be properly distinguished under the several Heads of Service; and the Balance which shall be due to or from the Publick on account of every Regiment, Troop, and Company shall be struck; and such Agents shall transmit the said Accounts within the Times limited as aforesaid, together with proper Vouchers, agreeably to the present Standing Regulations, or any future Regulations which His Majesty shall be pleased to establish, to the Office of the Secretary at War, and a Copy thereof to the Office of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces; and on Failure herein, or in any other of the Regulations prescribed to Agents by this Act, every Agent so offending shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every Offence, to be recovered by any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same; and the Secretary at War, or such other Person or Persons as shall be duly authorized by His Majesty for that Purpose, shall, and he or they is or are hereby directed and required to examine and settle, or cause to be examined and settled, the aforesaid annual Accounts, within Three Months after the Receipt of the said Accounts respectively, and when settled, to transmit Certificates of the several Charges Charges allowed in the said Accounts, to the Office of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, with Warrants signed by His Majesty, directing and authorizing the said Paymaster General to form Memorials and Requisitions, and to issue his Drafts as aforesaid, for the Balance or Nett Monies due to each Regiment, Troop, and Company of His Majesty's Regular Forces, and embodied Militia, for Clearings, and to charge the same to the Account of the said Regiment, Troop, and Company; and the said Warrants shall authorize and direct the Paymaster General to make the Excess which shall arise upon the several Establishments, after deducting therefrom the Monies so disbursed and paid as aforesaid, a Saving, and to carry it to the Credit of the Publick, and to charge every Deficiency which shall arise from the several Establishments not being able to discharge the Disbursements paid on Account as aforesaid, to the general Account of Contingencies, or to such other Fund as may be applicable thereto.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That whenever a Balance shall in any Agent's Account so to be transmitted as aforesaid, be admitted to be due to the Publick, and also whenever it shall appear from the Warrants so transmitted to the Paymaster General, that a Balance is due to the Publick from any Agent on any of his Accounts aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Paymaster General for the Time being, to require such Agent forthwith to pay such Balance into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, of which Payments, Certificate shall be granted to the Parties making the same, by the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, and the said Certificate shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Parties for the Sums expressed therein; and in case such Agent shall for the Space of One Calendar Month after being required so to do, refuse or neglect to pay such Balance into the Bank of England as aforesaid, the Amount of the Balance so admitted to be due by such Agent, or so appearing due from the said Warrant, shall from the Time of such Requisition be deemed and considered to be a Debt to His Majesty on Record, and be recoverable as such by His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, with full Costs of Suit, and all other Charges attending the same, by the like Process as by the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom wherein such Agent shall reside, any Debt to His Majesty arising within the same may be recovered.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be Agent for more than One Regiment, Troop, or Company, by reason whereof it may happen that a Balance may be due from such Agent to the Publick on Account of some or One of such Regiments, Troops, or Companies, and a Balance may be due from the Publick to such Agent on Account of others of them, every such Agent shall and he is hereby required annually to transmit to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, together with the Copy of his annual Accounts hereby required to be transmitted, a general Abstract thereof, including all the Regiments, Troops, or Companies for which he is Agent, in order that it may appear to the Satisfaction of the Paymaster General, whether, upon the Whole of such Accounts, a Balance shall be due to or from the Publick; and in every Case in which such Abstract as by this Act is required shall be transmitted, it shall not be lawful for the Paymaster General to require such Agent to pay into the Bank of England, a Sum greater on the Whole on the Account of such Balances which may be due from him on Account of the respective Regiments, Troops, or Companies for which he is Agent, than shall appear to be in his Hands upon the Whole of the said Accounts: Provided always, that so long as any such Balance shall remain due from such Agent to the Publick on the Whole of the said Accounts, no Monies shall be issued by the Paymaster General to such Agent, on Account of any Regiment, Troop, or Company.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Monies whatever which may at any Time become payable by any Person or Persons whomsoever to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, shall be paid into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces; and Certificate of such Payments, which shall be sufficient Discharges to the Persons paying such Money, shall be granted in like Manner as is herein directed in Cases of Balances paid by Agents into the Bank of England; * and all Monies when so paid into the Bank of England, as well by Agents or any other Person or Persons, shall be placed to the same Account, and be drawn for in the same Manner, as if the same had been issued from the Exchequer in pursuance of any Memorial presented by the Paymaster General, according to the Directions of this Act.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War, and also for the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, whenever they shall think fit, to require any Agent or Agents to make up in the Course of any Year such Account or Accounts as the Secretary at War, or the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, may have Occasion for, and also to require any Person or Persons who shall have been an Agent or Agents, but who shall have ceased to be such, or the Representatives of such Agent or Agents, to make up and transmit such Accounts for the Whole or any Part of the Periods during which he or they shall have been an Agent or Agents, and which shall not have been finally settled, as the Secretary at War or Paymaster General may have Occasion for; and any such Agent or Agents, or Person or Persons having been an Agent or Agents, or the Representatives of any such Agent or Agents, refusing Obedience to such Requisition or Requisitions, or neglecting for the Space of Three Calendar Months after the same shall have been made to obey the same, shall for every Offence be liable to the like Penalty, and to be recoverable in the like Manner as is herein-before provided in case of Failure to transmit such annual Accounts as aforesaid: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to exonerate the Colonel or Commandant of any Regiment, Troop, or Company, or the Representatives of any such Colonel or Commandant, from any Responsibility to which he or they is or are or may be liable, for any Failure or Deficiency of the respective Agents of such Regiments, Troops, or Companies.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to the making any Alteration in the present Mode or Regulation of the Two Regiments of Life Guards, the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards, or the Three Regiments of Foot Guards, but the same shall continue in the Practice of the same Mode and Regulations as they would otherwise have done had this Act not been made.

C A P. LIX.

An Act for amending an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, so far as relates to Freeholds under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds; and for making further and other Regulations relating thereto. [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, and for repealing the several Acts therein mentioned, it is enacted, that no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, by virtue of a Freehold under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, unless such Freehold shall have been in his actual Occupation, either by his residing thereon, or tilling or grazing the same to the Amount of Forty Shillings yearly Value thereof, at the Time of his registering the same pursuant to the Provisions of the said Act, and also for Six successive Calendar Months at the least previous to the Date of such Registry and the Telle of the Writ for holding the Election, unless such Freehold shall have come to such Person by Devise, Descent, Marriage, or Marriage Settlement, and was demised at the Time it so came, and continued at the Time of such Election to be held under him by virtue of such Devise: And whereas the aforesaid wholesome Provisions of the said recited Act may be evaded by pretended Grants or Agreements for Leases for a Life or Lives, though no Lease shall have been executed, or such Life or Lives been nominated: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person who, from and after the passing of this Act, shall register a Freehold under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, not arising from a Rent Charge, shall register it in Manner and Form prescribed by said recited Act, or any Law or Laws now in force; (that is to say), he shall at a Sessions of the Peace for the County, County of a Town, or City, wherein his Freehold lies, held Twelve Months at the least previous to the Telle of the Writ for holding the Election at which he shall tender his Vote, produce in open Court the Deed, Lease, or Instrument under which his Freehold arises, and take and subscribe the following Oath, or, if a Quaker, the following Affirmation:

35 G. 3. c. 29.
1.30, &c. 49, &c.

Person possessing a Freehold under 20l, not arising from a Rent Charge, shall register the same, as hereby directed, on Oath.

Form of Oath.

I A. B. of _____ in the County of _____ [or, of the County of the City, or, Town of _____ as the Case may be], do swear [or if a Quaker, affirm], That I am a Freeholder of the County of _____ and that I have a Freehold therein, arising from [an House or Houses, Land, or both, or other Hereditaments, as the Case may be], of the clear yearly Value of Forty Shillings at the least above all Charges payable out of the same, lying and being at _____ [naming the Townland or Townlands, or other Denomination by which the Place is generally known, and Barony or Half Barony, or Baronies or Half Baronies wherein it is situate], in this County [and if in a City or Town, or County of a City or Town, naming the same, and the Street, and Square, Rows, Alley, Lane, or Place]; and that the said Freehold does not arise from a Rent Charge; and that the same arises by virtue of the Deed, Lease, or Instrument which I now produce, bearing Date the _____ Day of _____ in the Year _____ for the Life or Lives of A. B. and C. D. [or in case the said Freehold be not for Life or Lives, then stating the Nature of his Tenure, as the Case may be], at the yearly Rent _____; and that I am in the actual Occupation thereof, by residing thereon, or by tilling, or by grazing, or by both tilling and grazing [as the Case may be], to the Amount of at least Forty Shillings yearly Value thereof; and that the said Freehold is not let or agreed to be let to the Person or Persons who executed the said Deed, Lease, or Instrument, or to the Heirs or Assigns of such Person or Persons, or to any one in Trust for him, her, or them, nor do I intend to let the same to such Person or Persons, or any of them; and that I have not agreed to let it for the Term for which I hold it; nor have I procured it fraudulently, or in Exchange for a Freehold in any other County. So help me GOD?

Freeholds not arising by Deed, &c. shall be truly described in the Oath.

Oath shall be recorded.

Deed, &c. so produced, shall be marked and registered.

Persons shall not vote for such Freehold unless registered 12 Months.

And if the Freehold in right or virtue whereof any Person shall desire to qualify himself to vote, shall not arise by virtue of a Deed, Lease, or Instrument, the Person desiring to register it shall describe the same in the Oath or Affirmation so to be taken by him, according to the true State and Nature of his Tenure; in which Case the Words in the foregoing Oath, importing that the same arises by virtue of Deed, Lease, or Instrument, shall be omitted, and such Description inserted in the Place thereof.

II. And be it enacted, That every such Oath or Affirmation shall be read aloud in open Court, and be signed by Two at least of the Justices presiding there; and shall be then delivered by the Court to the acting Clerk of the Peace, to be filed and kept amongst the Records of the County, County of a City, or Town, wherein such Freehold shall lie.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Deed, Lease, or Instrument produced by any Person making the Affidavit or Affirmation aforesaid, shall be indorsed at the Time in open Court by the acting Clerk of the Peace, with his Name and the Day of the Month and Year; and the Clerk of the Peace shall then and there compare the Deed, Lease, or Instrument with the Affidavit of Registry; and he shall within Ten Days from the Date thereof, enter in the Book of his Registry the Date thereof, the Names of the Parties, and the Name or Names of the Life or Lives for which the same is held.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and nine, no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election to be held in Ireland for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, by virtue of a Freehold under the clear yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, who shall not have so registered his Freehold Twelve Calendar Months, at the least before the Teste of the Writ for holding the Election at which he shall offer his Vote; and that every Person who shall offer to vote as a Freeholder, in right of a Freehold under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, shall, before he shall be admitted to poll at any Election, if required by the Sheriff, or any Elector, declare upon Oath from whom he holds or derives his Freehold, if he holds it under any Person or Persons; and if the same be situate in a City, Town Corporate, or Market Town, and describe the Street or Part of the City or Town in which the same is situate, and who are his next resident Neighbourhood, and when the same was granted, and for what Life or Lives, and whether such Life or Lives, or any of them, is or are in being at the Time of such Election; and whether he is the Person who actually registered the Freehold under which he desires to vote; and the said Declarations, in all such Cases, shall be entered in the Poll Book taken by the Sheriffs, or their Deputies, at such Election; and he shall, if so required by any Elector, before he be admitted to poll, take the following Oath:

On voting they shall state Particulars of Freehold; on Oath; if required.

I A. B. of _____ in the County of _____ [or, of the Town or City of _____], do swear [or, if a Quaker, do affirm], That I am a Freeholder of this County; and that I have a Freehold therein arising from a House or Houses, Land, or both, or other Hereditaments [as the Case may be], of the yearly Value of Forty Shillings at the least, above all Charges payable out of the same, lying and being at _____ in the Barony or Baronies, Half Barony or Half Baronies of _____ in this County [and if in a City or Town, or County of a City or Town, naming the same, and the Street, Square, Row, Alley, Lane, or Place]; and that the said Freehold does not arise from a Rent Charge.

Form of Oath.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Candidate or Elector shall desire the Words following to be added, and that the same arises by virtue of a Deed, Lease, or Instrument [or otherwise, as the Case may be], bearing Date the _____ Day of _____ in the Year _____ for the Life or Lives of _____; and that the said _____ one of the aforesaid Additional Form of Oath, if required.

Lives, is still alive to the best of my Knowledge and Belief [unless he is himself one of the Lives, in which Case he shall swear, that I am one of the Lives therein, instead of the Words, that the said _____ one of the aforesaid Lives, is still alive, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief;] [or in case the said Freehold be not for Life or Lives, then stating the Nature of his Tenure,] or the Words following, and that I have been in the actual Occupation thereof for Twelve successive Calendar Months, between [naming the Day he registered the same], and [naming the Date of the Teste of the Writ for holding this Election], by rearing thereon, or by tilling, and by grazing, or by both tilling and grazing [as the Case may be], to the Amount of at least Forty Shillings yearly Value thereof [as the Case may be]; or the Words following, and that the said Freehold is not let, or agreed to be let, to the Person or Persons who executed the said Deed, Lease, or Instrument, or to the Heirs or Assigns of such Person or Persons, or to any one in Trust for him or them; nor do I intend to let the same to such Person or Persons, or any of them; and that I have not let it, or agreed to let it, for the Term for which I hold it; and that I have not been polled before at this Election; and that I am, to the best of my Belief, of the Age of Twenty-one Years; the same shall, or so much thereof as shall be so desired, shall be added to the said Oath or Affirmation, before the Person offering to vote shall be admitted to poll.

Oath at Election shall be in Conformity with (Sec. 1.)

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Blanks in the said Oath or Affirmation shall be filled up in Conformity to the Oath or Affirmation which the Person going to take the same shall have taken at the Time of his registering such Freehold.

Provisions of former Acts extended to this.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all the Provisions, Clauses, Conditions, Regulations, and Penalties of the said recited Acts, or any Acts amending the same, with respect to Freeholds, under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, and which are not hereby altered or repealed, shall be applied, construed, deemed, and taken to extend to Freeholds under the Value of Twenty Pounds, the Registry whereof is by this Act directed and required, as fully and effectually as if the same were hereby and herein specifically enacted and applied thereto.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall fraudulently and knowingly grant any Interest importing to be a Freehold, which really is not so, with Intent to enable any Person to vote, such Grant shall be good and valid against the Grantor thereof for every Purpose but enabling the Grantee to vote, valid against the Grantor.

Grants of fraudulent Freeholds, shall be void against the Grantor.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if such Grantor shall be possessed only of a Term of Years therein, and shall demise the same, or any Part thereof, for a Life or Lives, with Intent to induce the Lessee therein to register such as a Freehold, or to vote as a Freeholder thereof, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any Court of Law.

Penalty on fraudulent Grantors 100l.

X. And, for the better securing the Performance of the Duties hereby and by the said in Part recited Act, or by any other Act or Acts directed to be performed by the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, in respect to the Registry of Freeholds; be it further enacted, That the several Clerks of the Peace or their Deputies, of the several Counties of Ireland, shall at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, next after the passing of this Act, or at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof next after his Appointment, take and subscribe an Oath in the Form following; and which Oath, the Justices presiding at the said Session are hereby directed and empowered to administer;

Oath of Clerk of Peace for Performance of Acts.

I A. B. Clerk or Deputy Clerk of the Peace for the County of _____ [as the Case may be], do swear, That I will faithfully and honestly, and without Favour or Affection, perform and discharge the several Duties directed to be performed by the Clerks and Deputy Clerks of the Peace, by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for regulating the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, and for repealing the several Acts therein mentioned;

35 Geo. 3. c. 29.

' mentioned; and by an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, [here set forth the Title of this Act]; and that I will not demand or receive any Fee or Fees, for discharging any of the said Duties, which I am not entitled to by Law. ' So help me GOD.'

And which Oath the said Clerks and Deputy Clerks of the Peace are hereby required to deliver to the Treasurer of the County, to preserve amongst his Records of the County.

Copies of Registers shall be given by Clerk of Peace, (See Schedule.)

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said several and respective Clerks and Deputy Clerks of the Peace shall from Time to Time, as directed by the said in Part recited Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, give to every Freeholder who shall require the same, a full, true, and correct Return of the Names of all such Persons as shall register their Freeholds according to the Directions of this Act and of the said Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and shall certify at the Foot thereof that the said Return so made is true and correct, according to the Schedule hereunto annexed.

Persons having registered Freeholds before 1 Aug. 1805, under existing Acts, may vote at any Election previous to 29 Sept. 1809, on producing their Deed.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Person who shall have registered his Freehold before the First Day of August next ensuing, pursuant to the Laws in force for that Purpose, from voting at any Election for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament, the Tests of the Writ for holding which shall bear Date before the Twenty-ninth of September One thousand eight hundred and nine; but every Person who might by the Law in force vote at any such Election, shall and may vote thereat as fully and freely, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not been made, subject to all and singular the Clauses, Conditions, Oaths, and Regulations, as required by him or any Elector, the Deed, Leaf, Article, or Agreement under which he shall have registered such Freehold, duly executed prior to such Registry.

Adjournments and Lapse of Sessions.

XIII. And, for the greater Convenience of registering Freeholds, be it enacted, That every Adjournment of a Sessions of the Peace, and every Adjournment of an Adjournment, shall be deemed a Sessions of the Peace within the Meaning of the said Act and this present Act; and in case there shall have been no Adjournment of such Sessions, or no Adjournment of an Adjournment of such Sessions, and that such Sessions shall in that case lapse, a Sessions shall be holden at which the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy shall and is hereby required to attend, for the Purpose of registering of Freeholders, the First Monday in the next Month, at the Place where the last General Sessions of the Peace shall have been held for the Purpose of registering Freeholders; and every Adjournment of every such Sessions to any City or Market Town within the County shall be deemed and taken to be a Sessions within the Meaning of the said Act or this present Act.

Penalty on Perjury and Subornation as under existing Acts.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in taking any Oath or Affirmation herein-before appointed or authorized to be taken at any Registry, or before any Returning Officer or Officers, shall thereby commit wilful Perjury, and be thereof convicted, or if any Person shall unlawfully and corruptly procure or suborn any other Person to take any such Oath or Affirmation, whereby he or such Person or Persons shall commit such wilful Perjury, and shall be thereof convicted, he or such Person or Persons so offending shall incur such Pains and Penalties as are inflicted by any Act or Acts for the more effectual preventing and further Punishment of Perjury and Subornation of Perjury.

An Act to amend an Act made in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty, for granting Bounties for taking and bringing Fish to the Cities of London and Westminster, and other Places in the United Kingdom. [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting Bounties for taking and bringing Fish to the Cities of London and Westminster, and other Places in the United Kingdom, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury were empowered, for the Purpose of encouraging and promoting a Supply of fresh Fish, to give and grant certain Premiums, Sums of Money, and Bounties, to Persons taking and bringing Fish to the Markets of any City, Town, or Port in the United Kingdom, and to apply any such Sum or Sums of Money they should think necessary, in the Payment of any Expenses incurred in the promoting and encouraging an Increase of the Supply of Fish; provided that such Bounties, Premiums, and other Sums of Money, should not in the Whole exceed the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act, the Sum of Six thousand Pounds has been paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer of Ireland for the Purposes of the said Act, but the greater Part thereof has not yet been applied to the said Purposes; and it is expedient that the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, should be enabled and empowered to direct the Disposal of so much of the said Sum of Six thousand Pounds as remains unapplied, for the Encouragement of the Fisheries and Navigation on the Coasts of Ireland in Manner herein after mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to give and grant the said Sum, or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of assisting any Person or Persons in enlarging, improving, or rendering more secure any Harbour or Harbours on the said Coasts, fit and proper for the Reception of Fishing Vessels or other Vessels arriving on the said Coasts, for the Purpose of purchasing Fish caught or cured upon the said Coasts, as the said Lord Lieutenant shall in his Discretion see fit, and in Manner herein after directed, and to and for no other Use or Purpose whatsoever.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall, on any Application made for that Purpose, be of Opinion that it is fit and proper that any Harbour or Harbours should be so enlarged or improved on any Part of the said Coast, and any Person or Persons shall be desirous of making, enlarging, or improving the same, with the Assistance of such Sums of Money as may be given or granted as aforesaid, a Plan and Survey of such Harbour shall be laid before the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary, and also an Estimate of the Expence of making, enlarging, or improving the same, which Survey and Estimate shall be verified by the Oath of the Party making the same; and if such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall approve of the said Plan or Survey and Estimate; and if and so soon as a Sum equal to One Moiety of the Expence so estimated for making, enlarging, or improving any such Harbour, shall be paid or secured to be paid to the Satisfaction of the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary, and also Security given to the Satisfaction of the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or his or their Chief Secretary, that the Person or Persons paying the said Sum, or securing the same to be paid, will further bear and defray all such further Expenses beyond such estimated Expence as shall be necessary to complete the enlarging or improving of the said Harbour, according to such Plan and Estimate, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to order and direct the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, to issue and pay a Sum of Money equal to One Moiety of the Expence so estimated, to be paid and applied for the Purpose of making, enlarging, or improving such Harbour, in such Sums and at such Times, and in such Manner and Proportions, and under such Rules, Regulations, Terms, and Conditions, and to annex any such Forfeitures for Breach of such Rules, Regulations, Terms, and Conditions, as to such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall seem best suited to the promoting the beneficial Purposes of this Act; and the enlarging and improving such Harbours, shall be forthwith proceeded on and completed agreeably to such Plan and Survey, or to such other Plan as may, upon subsequent Consideration, be approved of by the said Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, so that the Execution thereof shall not exceed the said estimated Expence.

Expence exceeding Estimate, shall be paid by Parties.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the actual Expence of enlarging or improving any such Harbour shall exceed the estimated Expence, all such Excess of Expence shall be defrayed by the Person or Persons who shall have given the Security herein directed.

An Act to prevent in Great Britain the illegally carrying away Bark; and for amending Two Acts passed in the Sixth and Ninth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, for the Preservation of Timber Trees, Underwoods, Roots, Shrubs, Plants, Hollies, Thorns, and Quicksets. [27th June 1805.]

Recital of Act
6 G. 3. c. 48.
[4.] against Spoiling Woods.

“WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for the better Preservation of Timber Trees, and of Woods and Underwoods, and for the further Preservation of Roots, Shrubs, and Plants, it was enacted, that all and every Person and Persons, who, from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty-six, should go into the Woods, Underwoods, or Wood Grounds of any of His Majesty's Subjects, not being the lawful Owner or Owners thereof, and should there cut, lop, top, or spoil, split down, or damage, or otherwise destroy any Kind of Wood or Underwood, Poles, Sticks of Wood, Green Stubs, or young Trees, or carry and convey away the same, or should have in his, her, or their Custody any Kind of Wood or Underwood, Poles, Sticks of Wood, Green Stubs, or young Trees, and should not give a satisfactory Account how he, she, or they came by the same, and should be thereof convicted before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, on the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnessess, should for the first Offence forfeit and pay, immediately on Conviction, any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, together with the Charges previous to and attending such Conviction, to be ascertained by the said Justice or Justices who should convict the Offender or Offenders; and if any Person or Persons should commit any of the Offences aforesaid a Second Time, and should be thereof again convicted in Manner aforesaid, he, she, or they should forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, together with the Charges previous to and attending such Conviction, to be ascertained as aforesaid; and if any Person or Persons should commit any of the Offences aforesaid a Third Time, that then such Person and Persons, being duly convicted thereof according to Law, should be deemed and adjudged an incorrigible Rogue or Rogues, and should be punished as such: And whereas by another Act passed in the Ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, for the better Preservation of Hollies, Thorns, and Quicksets, in Forests, Chafes, and private Grounds, and of Trees and Underwoods in Forests and Chafes, it was enacted, that, from and after the First Day of July One thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, the said Clause made in the said Act of the Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and all and every the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Punishments thereby inflicted, and all other Provisions, Clauses, Matters, and Things relating thereto, should extend, and should be deemed, taken, and construed to extend, and should be applied and put in Execution in relation to all His Majesty's Forests and Chafes within this Realm, and to all and every Person or Persons who should, without legal Right or Authority, by Night or Day, cut down, destroy, take, carry, or convey away any Hollies, Thorns, or Quicksets, growing or being upon any of His Majesty's said Forests or Chafes, or within the Woods or Wood Grounds of any of His Majesty's Subjects, or who should have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession any such Hollies, Thorns, or Quicksets, and should not give a satisfactory Account how he, she, or they came by the same, and should be thereof convicted before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the Manner prescribed and directed by the said Act, and such Justice or Justices is or are thereby authorized to administer Oaths, and proceed in the like Manner for the Conviction and Punishment of every Offender in the Premises, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Provisions in the said Act had been therein particularly repeated and applied to the Offences therein before specified: And whereas great Quantities of Bark have of late been taken and carried away from out of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Chafes, by Persons not having legal Right or Authority to take and carry away the same, and it is proper to prevent such Evil Practices and Abuses for the future; and it is expedient also to extend the Provisions of the said Acts, to all Woods

4 Woods and Wood Grounds belonging to His Majesty, as well in Right of His Duchy of Lancaster, as other wife; Therefore be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the aforesaid Clauses in the said recited Acts, and all and every the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Punishments thereby inflicted, and all other Provisions, Matters, and Things relating thereto, shall extend, and be deemed; taken, and construed to extend, and shall be applied and put into Execution, in relation to all Woods and Wood Grounds, belonging to His Majesty in Great Britain, as well in Right of His Duchy of Lancaster as otherwise, and whether such Woods or Wood Grounds shall be within any of His Majesty's Forests or Chases or not, and also to all and every Persons and Person who shall, without legal Right or Authority, by Night or Day, take, carry, or convey away any Bark, being in any Forests or Chases, or Woods or Wood Grounds, belonging to His Majesty, as well in Right of His Duchy of Lancaster as otherwise, or within the Woods or Wood Grounds of any of His Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain, or who shall have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession any Bark, and shall not give a satisfactory Account how he, she, or they came by the same, and shall be thereof convicted before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in the Manner prescribed and directed by the said first-recited Act; and such Justice or Justices is or are hereby authorized to administer Oaths, and proceed in the like Manner for the Conviction and Punishment of every Offender in the Premises, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Provisions in the said first-recited Act had been therein particularly repeated and applied to the Offences herein-before specified.

Provisions of recited Acts extended to all Woods belonging to His Majesty, and to Persons taking away Bark from Woods of His Majesty or any of His Subjects, or having it in their Possession.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Conviction and Convictions of all and every Offenders and Offender against this Act shall be certified by the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the same shall be made, to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be filed amongst the Records of the said Sessions; and that such Conviction shall be fairly written on Parchment or Paper, in the following Form of Words, or (as the Case shall happen), in any other Form of Words to the like Effect; that is to say, Conviction shall be certified to the Sessions.

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year _____ of _____ A. B. was, upon the Complaint of _____ of _____ convicted before _____ of the Justices of the Peace for _____ pursuant of an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for [as the Case shall be.] Given under _____ Hand and Seal, the Day and Year above written.

Form of Conviction.

Which said Conviction shall be good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be quashed, set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient, for want of any Form or Words whatsoever, nor be liable to be removed by Certiorari into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, but shall be deemed and taken to be final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

No Certiorari.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall commit any of the said Offences specified in the said recited Acts or this Act more than Three Times, and shall be thereof convicted before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in the Manner prescribed and directed by the said first recited Act, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, committed subsequent to the Third Offence, be deemed and adjudged an incorrigible Rogue or Rogues, and shall be punished as such.

After more than Three Offences, Offenders shall be punished as incorrigible Rogues.

An Act for making perpetual and amending several Laws for encouraging the making of Sail Cloth in Great Britain, and securing the Duties on Foreign Sail Cloth imported; and for making perpetual several Laws for permitting the Exportation of a certain Quantity of Corn and Grain to Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; and for regulating the Fees of Officers of the Customs, and of Naval Officers in the British Colonies in America, and of the Officers of the Customs in Newfoundland. [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS the several Laws and Parts of Laws hercin-after mentioned have been found beneficial and are near expiring; and it is expedient that the same should be made perpetual; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much and such Parts of an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail Cloth in Great Britain; and which was to continue in force for Seven Years, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which was further continued by several subsequent Acts of Parliament; and lastly, by an Act made in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, was continued until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; as relate to the Bounty of One Penny for every Ell of British-made Sail Cloth or Canvas exported out of Great Britain by way of Merchandise, and also so much and such Parts of the said recited Act as relate to the Penalty thereby imposed for every Ell of British-made Sail Cloth brought back or reloaded in Great Britain, shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual.

II. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the Ninth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for further encouraging and regulating the Manufacture of British Sail Cloth, and for the more effectual securing the Duties now payable on Foreign Sail Cloth imported into this Kingdom; which was to continue in force from the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and thirty-six for the Term of Five Years and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which was further continued by several subsequent Acts of Parliament until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and by another Act made in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty was amended and further continued until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which by Two subsequent Acts made in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign was further continued until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be and the same, as so amended, is hereby made perpetual.

III. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual securing the Duties now payable on Foreign-made Sail Cloth imported into this Kingdom, and for charging all Foreign-made Sails with a Duty, and for explaining a Doubt concerning Ships being obliged at their first setting out to Sea to be furnished with One complete Set of Sails made of British Sail Cloth, and which was to continue in force for the Term of Seven Years from the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and forty-six, and which was further continued by several Acts of Parliament, and lastly by an Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, (except in so far as any of the Provisions thereof relate to the Duties granted by the said Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne upon Foreign Sails imported into Great Britain, and which have by subsequent Laws been repealed and other Duties granted in lieu thereof), shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual: Provided always, that all and every the Provisions of the said Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, which relate to the said Duties granted by the said Act of her late Majesty Queen Anne, shall, in so far as the same are applicable, be applied and put in force in relation to any Duties now payable in respect of Foreign Sail Cloth imported into Great Britain.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Act made in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to permit the Exportation for Two Years of a certain Quantity of Corn, Grain, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Pulse, to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, from other Ports in England, as well as the Port of Southampton, under certain Restrictions, and which Act will expire on the Twenty-seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five, shall be and the same is hereby made perpetual.

V. And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as relates to regulating the Fees of the Officers of the Customs, and of the Naval Officers of the British Colonies in America, which was to be in force from the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy for the Term of Two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which by Four Acts made in the Twelfth, Fourteenth, Nineteenth, and Twenty-third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, was further continued until the Ninth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and also so much of an Act made in the Sixteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign as relates to the Fees of the Officers of the Customs in the Island of Newfoundland which was to continue in force so long as the Act of the Tenth Year of His present Majesty, and which was revived and continued by an Act of the Thirty-fourth Year of the

An Act for vesting in the Barrack Master General for the Time being, his Heirs, hold or occupiers of the Barrack Service; and authorizing him to sell the same, with the Consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

[27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which have at various Times been purchased for the Service of the Barrack Department, or which are now held by or vested in the late Barrack Master General, or the present Barrack Master General, or any other Person or Persons for the Use of the said Service; and also that all Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which may hereafter be purchased for the said Service, should be vested in the Barrack Master General for the Time being, and his Successors in the said Office, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and for the Purposes of the said Service, or for such other Publick Service or Services as His Majesty may from Time to Time direct: And whereas it may become expedient, from Time to Time, to sell such of the said Messuages, Lands, and Hereditaments now vested in the Barrack Master General, or any other Person or Persons, or which may hereafter be purchased for the Service of the said Department, as may not be required for such Service, or for any other Publick Service or Services: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and singular the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which have been conveyed to or are now vested in Lieutenant General Oliver De Lancey late Barrack Master General, or Lieutenant General George Hewitt now Barrack Master General, or any other Person or Persons in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Service of the Barrack Department, and all Erections and Buildings which now are or which shall be hereafter erected and built thereon, together with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, (other than and except such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as may be of Copyhold Tenure), and, from and after the Purchase and Conveyance, Grant or Demise thereof, all other Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which shall at any Time or Times hereafter be purchased by the Barrack Master General for the Time being, for the Service of the Barrack Department, and all Erections and Buildings, which now are or which shall be hereafter erected and built thereon, with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, shall be and become and remain and continue vested in the Barrack Master General for the Time being, and his Successors in the said Office, according to the Nature and Quality and Estate and Interest of and in the same Hereditaments and Premises respectively; and that upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present and every future Barrack Master General, all such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments respectively (other than and except as aforesaid) shall become vested in and be held by the succeeding Barrack Master General, and so in perpetual Succession according to the Nature and Quality and Estate and Interest of and in the same respectively, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Service of the Barrack Department, or for such other Publick Service or Services as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall from Time to Time please to direct.

All Premises (except Copyholds) conveyed to the late and present Barrack Master General, &c. for the Barrack Department, and all other Premises hereafter to be purchased for that Department, shall be vested in the Barrack Master General for the Time being, in Trust for His Majesty, for publick Purposes.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Barrack Master General for the Time being, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them (such Consent and Approbation to be certified by One of the Secretaries to the said Lords Commissioners, by Writing under his Hand and Seal) to sell and dispose of any of the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be vested in the said Barrack Master General for the Time being, with their respective Appurtenances, either by publick Auction or private Contract, and in due Form of Law to convey, assign, and make over the same to any Person or Persons who shall be willing to purchase the same respectively.

Barrack Master General with Consent of the Treasury may sell such Premises.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Monies to arise and be produced by the Sale of any of the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be sold under the Provisions of this present Act, shall be paid by the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof into the Bank of England, and shall be there placed to the Account of the Barrack Master General for the Time being of His Majesty's Forces, or to such other Account in the Bank of England as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall direct; and the Receipt of any One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England for such Monies shall effectually discharge the Purchaser or Purchasers, by whom or on whose Account the same shall be so paid into the Bank of England.

Money arising by such Sales shall be paid into the Bank, under Direction of the Treasury.

An Act to amend the several Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes. [27th June 1805.]

‘WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the several Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes in the Particulars herein mentioned: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Account of the Monies received and paid by any Receiver General of the said Duties, or any of them, or by his Deputy or Deputies in England, which shall hereafter be transmitted to the Office for Taxes according to the Usage thereof, shall be verified on the Oath or Oaths of such Receiver General, or his Deputy or Deputies, to the best of his or their Knowledge or Belief, which Oath may be administered by any Commissioner acting in the Execution of any of the Acts relating to the said Duties in the District where he shall so act; and such Oath shall be deemed to be of the like Force and Effect, to infer Pains and Penalties, as any Oath to be administered by Commissioners in any Matter relating to the Execution of the said Acts; saving always, to the Barons and Officers of His Majesty’s Court of Exchequer in England, and the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, their Power respectively to administer such Oaths according to ancient Usage.

Receiver General’s Accounts, in England, may be verified on Oath before Commissioners of District.

Duplicates of all Assessments directed to be sent to the Remembrancer [See 43 G. 3. c. 99, f. 49, &c.] shall be sent to Tax Offices, &c. Penalty for Neglect, 50l.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Duplicates of the Assessments directed by the said Acts to be sent and delivered by the respective Commissioners to the King’s Remembrancer in England, to be kept in His Majesty’s Exchequer, shall hereafter be sent by them to, and delivered at the Office for Taxes, for the previous Inspection of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, who may cause Copies thereof, or any Part thereof, to be taken, and who shall afterwards transmit such Duplicates to the King’s Remembrancer for the Purposes mentioned in the said Acts; and if such Duplicates shall not be so delivered within the Time required by the respective Acts in that Behalf, the Clerk to the Commissioners who shall wilfully offend against the Provisions of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as any Penalty may be recovered and applied by any Act relating to the said Duties.

43 G. 3. c. 161. [f. 73.]

III. ‘And whereas by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof; for granting new Duties in certain Cases therein mentioned; for repealing the Duties of Excise on Licences, and on Carriages constructed by Coachmakers, and granting new Duties thereon, under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and also new Duties on Persons selling Carriages by Auction or on Commission; it is provided, that notwithstanding any Cafe transmitted to His Majesty’s Judges at the Instance of an Appellant, the Insultment on the Assessment, as determined by the Commissioners, which shall become due, precedent to the Opinion being certified, shall be levied as if no such Cafe had been transmitted; and it is expedient that, upon Reversal of such Determination, Power should be given to restore the Sums overpaid; be it further enacted, That, upon Proof given to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, of Payment of any Assessment which shall or ought to be reversed according to the Opinion of One of His Majesty’s Judges, obtained and certified in pursuance of the said Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required to direct the Receiver General to whom the Receipt of such Monies shall appertain, to repay out of any Monies in his Hands so much as shall appear to the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes to have been overpaid on such Assessment, and the Order of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall be a sufficient Authority to such Receiver General for such Payment, and the same shall be allowed in his Accounts.

Tax Offices may empower Receiver General to repay Money over paid on Assessments.

Tax Office may empower Receiver to set in super and charge Counties for Arrears of Land Tax in certain Cases. [See 42 G. 3. c. 116 f. 178.]

IV. ‘And whereas Receivers have in some Instances been prevented, and may hereafter be prevented, without any wilful Neglect or Default on their Part, from passing their Land Tax Accounts in the Exchequer within the Periods prescribed by Law, by reason whereof they would be unable to set in super, or charge the respective Counties, Divisions, or Places, for which they are Receivers for any Monies which may be in arrear, and unpaid, and would become answerable for such Monies in arrear; and it is expedient to provide Relief in such Cases; be it therefore enacted, That whenever it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Three or more of them, that the Receiver of any County, Division, or Place in England, hath been prevented by reason of correct and proper Duplicates of Land Tax not having been transmitted to him, or for any other Cause, not arising from his own wilful Neglect or Default from passing his Land Tax Accounts in the Exchequer, either for the Year ending the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, or for any subsequent Years, within the Periods prescribed by Law for passing Accounts of Land Tax by Receivers, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, by Writing under their Hands, to authorize and empower such Receiver to set infuser or charge such County, Division, or Place, for any Monies granted by virtue of an Act, passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, which shall be in arrear and unpaid; and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Receiver to set infuser and charge such County, Division, or Place, for the Monies for in arrear and unpaid, in like Manner in all Respects, and such and the like Process may and shall thereupon issue for the Recovery thereof, as if such Accounts had been declared and passed in the Exchequer, within the Period prescribed by Law for passing Accounts of Land Tax by Receivers.

An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and for the better and more effectually manning His Majesty's Navy during the present War.—[27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and for the better and more effectually manning His Majesty's Navy; for regulating the Payment of Prize Money; and for making Provision for the Salaries of the Judges of the Vice-Admiralty Courts in the Island of Malta, and in the Bermuda and Bahama Islands: And whereas since the passing of the said Act, and the issuing of the several Orders and Proclamations therein mentioned, divers injurious Proceedings have also been had in certain Countries, styling themselves, The Italian and Ligurian Republics, and in Spain, in Derogation of the Honour of His Majesty's Crown, and the just Rights of His Subjects: And whereas His Majesty, by His Order in Council, dated the Seventeenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, was pleased to order that general Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of Countries styling themselves The Italian and Ligurian Republics: And whereas His Majesty, by His Order in Council of the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, was pleased to order, that general Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well His Majesty's Fleet and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that should be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or general Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall, and lawfully may, seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the said Countries, or the King of Spain, or to any Persons being Subjects of the said Countries, or of the King of Spain, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Countries, styling themselves The Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain: And whereas His Majesty hath, by His Royal Munificence, been graciously pleased, by His Proclamation dated the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, to declare His Intention to give the Benefit of all Prizes taken during the present War to the Captors thereof, being in His Majesty's Service, or duly commissioned: And whereas it is expedient to make further Regulations as to Prize Agents, and the Business of Prize Agency, and it will greatly tend to the better Execution of the Provisions of the said Act, and of such other Provisions as may be necessary, for regulating the Distribution of Prize Money, that the Whole thereof should be consolidated into One Act, and for that Purpose that the said recited Act should be repealed: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, save and except as to all Acts, Matters, and Things done, or required to be done under the same, or in pursuance of any of the Clauses or Provisions thereof; which shall be, and are hereby declared to be as good, valid, and effectual, and remain in full Force, to all Purposes, as if the same had been done under and in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act.

41 G. 3. c. 160.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, on board any Ship and Vessel of War in His Majesty's Pay, shall have the whole Interest and Property of and in all every Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandize, in the said Act described, which they have taken since the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, or the Sixteenth Day of June respectively; and of and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandize, in the above-mentioned Orders of Council described, which they have taken since the Seventeenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, and the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, respectively; or shall hereafter take during the Continuance of the present War, after the same shall have been adjudged lawful Prize to His Majesty, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty in any of His Majesty's Dominions, which shall be duly authorized to take Cognizance of such Captures, to be divided in such Proportions and after such Manner as His Majesty, by His Proclamation of the Seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, hath already ordered and enacted, or as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to order and direct, by Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued for those Purposes; and the Commanders, Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and Soldiers on board His Majesty's hired armed Ships, shall have such Interest in all Ships and Goods which they have taken since the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, or the Sixteenth Day of June in the same Year, and Seventeenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, and the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, respectively; or shall hereafter take during the present War, and to be divided and distributed in such Manner as His Majesty hath been pleased to order and direct by the said Proclamations of the Seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, and the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, or as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, may order and direct, by any Proclamation or Proclamations hereafter to be issued.

Arms, Ammunition, &c. taken in any Forts and on board Vessels in Creeks defended thereby, shall also be divided as Prize.

His Majesty may apportion Prizes between the Navy and Army when acting in conjunction.

In Default of sufficient Commodore in Chief may settle the Division. How Shares shall be distributed.

Shares of Run Men and Shares not claimed within Six Years, forfeited to Greenwich Hospital, unless Disability is removed.

Head Money, i. e. Bounty of 5l. shall be paid to the Officers and Crews of British Ships of War for every Man on board at the Beginning of the Engagement of any Enemy's Ships taken or destroyed.

Oath or Certificate of Number actually on board.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board every Ship and Vessel of War in His Majesty's Pay, being armed, officered, and employed in His Majesty's Service, who shall take any Fortresses upon the Land, or any Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandize, and Treasure, belonging to the State, or to any publick trading Company of the Enemies of the Crown of Great Britain upon the Land, or any Ship or Vessel, or Merchandize laden on board the same, in any Creek, River, Haven, or Road, belonging to and defended by the said Fortresses upon the Land, shall have the sole Interest and Property of and in all and every such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandize, and Treasure, after final Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, duly authorized as aforesaid (which Courts are hereby required to proceed thereon as in other Cases of Prize), to be distributed by His Majesty in such Proportions and Manner as herein-before is mentioned: Provided always nevertheless, that in conjunct Expeditions of the Navy and Army against any such Fortresses upon the Land, in which His Majesty shall have been pleased to give any Instructions or Directions for the Division and Distribution of Property taken thereat, the Flag and General Officers, and Commanders and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, acting on such conjunct Expeditions, shall have such proportionable Interest and Property as His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, shall think fit to order and direct, in all and every the Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandize, and Treasure, belonging to the State, or to any publick trading Company of the Enemies of the Crown of Great Britain, which shall be found in any such Fortresses; and also in all and every Ship and Ships, Vessel and Vessels, with their Arms, Ammunition, Tackel, Apparel, and Furniture, and all and every the Merchandize and other Effects on board, which shall be captured in any Road, Haven, River, or Creek, belonging to and defended by such Fortresses, after final Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize.

IV. Provided likewise, and be it enacted, That if no Instructions shall have been given by His Majesty for the Division of the Ships, Goods, and Merchandize to be captured in any Expedition against any Fortresses on the Land, it shall be lawful for the respective Commanders in Chief of the Fleet and of the Army employed, to make Agreements in Writing for the Division of the Ships, Goods, and Merchandize to be taken, between the said Fleet and Army, which Agreements, being approved and confirmed by His Majesty, shall be binding on all Persons, and the Share assigned to the Fleet by such Agreement shall be distributed therein, according to His Majesty's Proclamation; and the Share assigned to the Army shall be distributed amongst the Officers and Soldiers in the Proportions correspondent thereto: Provided nevertheless, that the Interest and Property hereby given to the Army employed on such conjunct Expeditions shall not extend or be deemed or construed to extend to entitle the said Army to share in the Distribution of any Ships or Vessels, Goods, Merchandize, or Effects captured in the Voyage to or from such Fortresses: Provided also, that the Shares of Prize of all such Officers and Seamen who shall be marked on the Books of any Ship or Vessel in the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as having run therefrom, and also the Shares of all such Officers and Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, as well on board hired armed Ships as on board His Majesty's Ships of War, which shall not be legally demanded within Six Years after the same have been paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, by virtue of any Law then in force, shall be forfeited to and to the Use of the said Royal Hospital; unless, with respect to such Officers and Seamen as shall be marked "Run," such Mark shall be taken off by Order of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or by Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; and unless, with respect to the Shares of such Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, which shall not be claimed within the Time above limited in that Behalf, reasonable Cause shall be shewn, and allowed by the Directors of the said Hospital for the Time being, or any Five or more of them, or by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, why such last-mentioned Shares were not claimed in due Time.

V. And, as a further Encouragement to the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, on board His Majesty's Ships of War, as also of Privateers, to attack any Ships of War or Privateers belonging to the Enemy; be it enacted, That there shall be paid by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, upon Bills to be made forth by the Commissioners of the Navy, to be paid according to the Course thereof, without Fee or Reward, unto the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who shall have been actually on board any of His Majesty's Ships, or Ships of War, or hired armed Vessel or Vessels, or of any Privateer or Privateers at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any Ship or Ships of War or Privateers belonging to the Enemy since the Second Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, and during the present War, Five Pounds for every Man who was living on board any Ship or Vessel so taken, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed at the Beginning of the Attack or Engagement between them; the Numbers of such Men to be proved by the Oath of Three or more of the Chief Officers or Men who were belonging to the said Ship or Vessel of War, or Privateers of the Enemy, or belonging to any of them at the Time of her or their being taken as Prize, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, or in case so many as Three shall not survive the Engagement, upon the Oaths or Oath of such of them as shall survive, before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of the Port within any of His Majesty's Dominions, whereunto any Prize, or Officers or Men of such Ships as were taken, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, shall be brought, or before the British Consul or Vice-Consul residing at any Neutral Port to which such Prize, or Officers or Men shall be brought, which Oaths the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any such Port, or Consul or Vice-Consul, are hereby respectively empowered and required to administer, and shall, without Fee or Reward, forthwith grant a Certificate thereof, and also of the Deponents or Deponent, (if less than Three), having likewise made Oath, and to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, no other Person or Persons belonging to the Enemy's Ships or Ship survived the Engagement, which Certificate shall be directed to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; and upon the Production thereof to them the said Commissioners, together with an authentic Copy of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation of such Ship so taken, or where such Certificate cannot be had and obtained, then upon producing only a Copy of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, whereby the Number of Men on board such Ships of the Enemy shall appear to have been proved, as if such Ships be sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, on producing only a Certificate from the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, or Consul or Vice-Consul as aforesaid, the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint for that Purpose, shall, according to the Course of the Navy, within Fifteen Days make out Bills for the Amount of such Bounty, directed to the Treasurer of the Navy, payable to and to be divided amongst the Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on board His Majesty's Ships of War, or hired armed Ships, in Manner, Form, and Proportion as by His Majesty's Proclamation for granting the Distribution of Prizes already issued or to be issued for that Purpose, is or shall be directed and appointed, and amongst the Owners, Officers, and Seamen of any private Ship or Vessel of War, in such Manner and Proportion as by any Agreement in Writing they shall have entered into for that Purpose, shall be directed: Provided nevertheless, that in all Cases where such Oath and Certificate cannot be administered and granted at the first Port whereunto any Prize, or Officers or Men of such Ships as have been or shall be taken, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, shall be brought, such Oath or Oaths relating to any Prize or Prizes that shall be taken, or to any Ships of His Majesty's Enemies that shall be sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed as aforesaid, shall and may be administered and taken by and before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any Port within any of His Majesty's Dominions, or by or before the British Consul or Vice-Consul residing at any Neutral Port whereunto any Prize or Prizes, or Officers or Men of any Ships belonging to His Majesty's Enemies as here or shall be taken, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, shall at any Time afterwards be brought, Proof being first made by Affidavit before such Person or Persons of the Inability of making such Oath or Oaths, and obtaining such Certificate at the said first Port, and the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, Consul or Vice-Consul, shall thereupon grant such Certificate and Certificates as are herein-before directed, which Certificate and Certificates shall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were granted by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, Consul or Vice-Consul, of the Port to which such Prize or Prizes, Officers or Men as aforesaid shall be first brought, any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that where such Oath of the Number of Men on board any Ship or Ships so taken, burnt, sunk, or otherwise destroyed, cannot be had by reason of the total Destruction of the Officers and Crew of such Ship or Ships; then and in every such Case the Number of Men on board such Ship or Ships at the Beginning of the Attack or Engagement shall be ascertained by such Evidence as under the Circumstances of the Case, shall, by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or by the Judge of any other Court duly authorized, be deemed sufficient Proof thereof: Provided likewise, that in any Cases in which Doubts shall arise whether the Party or Parties claiming Head Money are entitled thereto, the same shall be summarily determined by the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or by the Judge of any other Court of Admiralty in which the Prize shall have been adjudged, subject nevertheless to an Appeal to the Lords Commissioners of Appeal in Prize Causes.

VI. And he it further enacted, That the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty hereby granted to the Commanding Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others of His Majesty's Ships of War, or hired armed Ships, for taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying any Ships of War or Privateers belonging to any of His Majesty's Enemies, shall be made payable to such Person or Persons as shall be authorized and appointed Agents for Appraisements and Sales of such Prizes in respect of which such Bounty shall be payable, the same Bounty to be distributed and divided by the said Person or Persons so authorized and appointed amongst the Captors, in such Manner, Form, and Proportion as aforesaid; the several Shares of such Captors as shall run from His Majesty's Service, and of such as shall not be legally demanded within the Times prescribed for the Demand of Prize Money, shall be applied to the Use of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, subject to the same Provisions and Exceptions as in the Case of Prize Monies; and that the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty hereby granted to Privateers, for taking, burning, sinking, or otherwise destroying any Ships of War or Privateers belonging to any of His Majesty's Enemies, shall be made payable to such Person or Persons as shall be nominated and appointed by the Owner or Owners, Officers and Seamen of such Privateer or Privateers, who shall have taken, burnt, sunk, or otherwise destroyed the same, or the major Part of them, to be divided in such Manner and Proportions as shall have been agreed on by them as aforesaid.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, or Boat, taken as Prize, or any Goods therein, shall appear and be approved in any Court of Admiralty having a Right to take Cognizance thereof, to have belonged to any of His Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, or of any of the Dominions and Territories remaining and continuing under His Majesty's Protection and Obedience, which were before taken or surprized by any of His Majesty's Enemies, and at any Time afterwards again surprized and retaken by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any Privateer, or other Ship, Vessel, or Boat under His Majesty's Protection and Obedience, that then such Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Goods, and every such Part and Parts thereof as aforesaid, formerly belonging to such His Majesty's Subjects, shall in all Cases (save in such as are hereafter excepted) be adjudged to be restored, and shall be, by the Decree of the said Court of Admiralty, accordingly restored to such former Owner or Owners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, he or they paying for and in lieu of Salvage (if retaken by any of His Majesty's Ships or hired armed Ships) One Eighth Part of the true Value of the Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Goods respectively to be restored, which said Salvage of One-eighth shall be answered and paid to the Flag Officers, Captains, Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers in His Majesty's

Time being shall, with all convenient Speed, after every and any such Commission or Letter of Marque shall be so revoked, cause Notice thereof in Writing to be forthwith sent to the Owner or Owners of the Ship or Vessel named or described in such Order of Revocation, or to his, her, or their Agent or Agents, Surety or Sureties, or some or one of them; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Channel, the said Order of Revocation shall be effectual to supersede and annul the said Commission or Letter of Marque at the Expiration of Twenty Days from and after such Notice given as aforesaid, or sooner if Notice shall be actually given in Writing by the Secretary of the Admiralty to the Captain or Commander thereof; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Northern Seas, at the Expiration of Thirty Days; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be to the Southward of Cape Finisferre, or in the Mediterranean, at the Expiration of Six Weeks; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in North America, or the West Indies, at the Expiration of Three Months; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the East Indies, at the Expiration of Six Months from and after such respective Notices shall be given as aforesaid; that any Commander or Commanders, Owner or Owners, Agent or Agents, Surety or Sureties, of any such Ship or Vessel whereof such Commission or Letter of Marque issued or to be issued forth as aforesaid, shall be so revoked as aforesaid, may complain thereof to His Majesty in Council within Thirty Days next after the Secretary to the Admiralty for the Time being shall cause Notice thereof to be given as aforesaid; and the Determination of His Majesty in Council touching every such Complaint shall be final: Provided always, that in case any such Order of Revocation shall be superceded, such Commission and Letter of Marque shall be deemed and taken to have continued in force, and all Prizes taken by virtue thereof shall belong to and be the Property of such Owners and Captors, in such Manner as the same would have been in case such Order of Revocation had not been made: Provided also, that no Person shall be liable (before he shall have received personal Notice of such Order of Revocation) to be punished for doing any Matter or Thing which he might have lawfully done under the Authority of such Commission or Letter of Marque, in case such Order of Revocation had not been made.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects to ransom, or to enter into any Contract or Agreement for ransoming any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or any Merchandise or Goods on board the same, which shall be captured by the Subjects of any State at War with His Majesty, or by any Persons committing Hostilities against His Majesty's Subjects, unless in the case of extreme Necessity, to be allowed by the Court of Admiralty.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Contracts and Agreements which shall be entered into, and all Bills, Notes, and other Securities, which shall be given by any Person or Persons for Ransom of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Merchandise or Goods on board the same, contrary to this Act, shall be absolutely null and void in Law, and of no Effect whatsoever.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, contrary to this Act, ransom, or enter into any Contract or Agreement for ransoming any such Ship or Vessel, or any Merchandise or Goods on board the same, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case at any Time or Times any Commander or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or of any hired armed Ship in His Majesty's Service, or of any private Ship or Ships, or Vessel or Vessels of War commissioned as aforesaid, shall agree with the Commander or Commanders, or other Person or Persons of or belonging to any neutral or other Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, or their respective Cargo or Cargoes thereof, or any Part thereof, for the Ransom of any such Ship, Vessel, or Cargo, or any Part thereof, after the same shall have been taken as Prize, and shall, in pursuance of such Agreement or Agreements, actually quit, set at Liberty, or discharge any such Prize or Prizes, instead of bringing the same into some Port or Ports belonging to His Majesty's Dominions, that then all and every of the Commander or Commanders of such Ship or Vessel of War, or hired armed Ship, or such private Ship or Ships, or Vessel or Vessels of War, who shall agree for any such Ransom, and shall quit, set at Liberty, or discharge any such Prize or Prizes in Manner aforesaid, unless in case of extreme Necessity, to be allowed by the Court of Admiralty, shall forfeit and suffer such Penalty or Fine as the Court shall adjudge, not exceeding the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and the Commander of such private Ship shall likewise forfeit his Letter of Marque.

XX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Ship or Vessel, or any Goods or Merchandise shall be taken or retaken and restored by the Commander or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Privateer, or other Ship, Vessel, or Boat under His Majesty's Protection and Obedience, clandestinely, or by Collusion or Connivance, or by Consent (unless the same shall be afterwards allowed and approved of by the Court of Admiralty) of such Commander or other Person, without being brought to Adjudication, the Ship and Vessel, and Goods and Merchandise so taken or retaken, and also the Ship's Tackle, Furniture, Apparel, Arms, and Ammunition, shall upon Proof thereof, to be made in any Court of Admiralty having legal Cognizance thereof, be declared and adjudged to be good Prize to His Majesty, and any Bond given by the Captain or Commander of such Vessel or Boat shall be and is hereby declared to be forfeited to His Majesty; and in case any such Ship or Vessel, or any Goods or Merchandise as aforesaid shall be taken or retaken, and restored by any Commander, Captain, or other Officer having the Command of any Ship or Vessel of War belonging to His Majesty, clandestinely, or by Collusion or Connivance, or by Consent (unless the same shall afterwards be allowed and approved of by the Court of Admiralty) of such Commander, Captain, or other Officer, shall forfeit the Sum of One thousand Pounds, and the said Goods and Merchandise, and the Ship, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Guns, and Ammunition so taken or retaken, and restored in Manner aforesaid, shall be, and are hereby directed to be adjudged in all Courts of Admiralty having legal Cognizance thereof, as good Prize to His Majesty.

XXI. Provided

XXI. Provided nevertheless, and be it hereby enacted, That if a Ship be retaken before she has been carried into an Enemy's Port, it shall be lawful for her, if the Recaptors consent thereto, to prosecute her Voyage, and it shall not be necessary for the Recaptors to proceed to Adjudication till Six Months, or till the Return of the Ship to the Port from which she failed; and it shall be lawful for the Master, the Owners, or their Agents, with the Consent of the Recaptors, to unlade and dispose of their Cargoes before Adjudication; and in case the Vessel shall not return directly to the Port from whence she failed, or the Recaptors shall have had no Opportunity of proceeding regularly to the Adjudication within Six Months, on Account of the Absence of the said Vessel, the Court of Admiralty shall, at the Instance of the Recaptors, decree the Restitution to the former Owners, paying Salvage, upon such Evidence as to the said Court shall, under the Circumstances of the Case, appear reasonable, the Expence of such Proceeding not to exceed the Sum of Fourteen Pounds.

XXII. And whereas good and necessary Laws are in force within several of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, for preventing the carrying off from the said Colonies or Plantations any Servant or Slave without the Consent of the Owner, or the carrying off from thence any other Person or Persons whomsoever, until such Person shall have taken out his Ticket from the Secretary's Office within such respective Colony or Plantation, in such Manner, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as in and by the said several Laws is declared and provided; be it therefore enacted, That all Commanders of private Ships of War, or Merchant Ships having Letters of Marque, shall, upon their going into any of the Ports or Harbours in the said Colonies or Plantations, be subject, and they are hereby declared to be subject, to the several Directions, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures in and by such Laws made and provided; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Captain or other Commander of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or hired armed Vessels in His Majesty's Service, having Transports or Merchant Ships or Vessels under Convoy, shall wilfully desert or fall away from them in pursuit of and with the View of capturing any Ship or Vessel of the Enemy (other than Ships or Vessels armed and fitted for War only, and which shall be seen hovering about or bearing down upon such Convoy), or having captured a Prize, shall wilfully desert the Convoy for the Purpose of carrying his Prize into Port; or if the Commander of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, having His Majesty's Dispatches on board, shall fall out of his proper Course in pursuit and with the View of making Prize of any Ship or Vessel of the Enemy, and shall be duly convicted thereof by Sentence of a Court Martial, such Commander shall forfeit the Share of all and every such Prize to His Majesty, for the Use of Greenwich Hospital.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if the Captain of any Merchant Ship under Convoy shall wilfully disobey Signals or Instructions, or any other lawful Commands of the Commander of the Convoy, without Notice given, and Leave obtained for that Purpose, he shall be liable to be arraigned against in the High Court of Admiralty at the Suit of the King in His Office of Admiralty, for Disobedience to the Officer of the Convoy, and upon Conviction thereof shall be fined, at the Discretion of the said Court, in any Sum not exceeding Five hundred Pounds, and shall suffer such Imprisonment, not exceeding One Year, as the Court shall adjudge.

XXV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall entitle any private Ship or Vessel having a Commission for War, and which shall receive general Orders and Instructions from and put herself under the Convoy of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, to share in any Prize or Prizes taken by such Ships or Vessels of His Majesty, or by such private Ship or Vessel having a Commission for War or Letter of Marque, whilst the said Commissioned Ship or Vessel shall remain under the Care and Protection of such Convoy, unless such private Ship or Vessel shall have received Orders from the Commander of the convoying Ship to chase or otherwise act hostily against the Enemy, and shall have been actually aiding and assisting in such Captures.

XXVI. And whereas in all private Ships or Vessels of War, or Merchant Ships or Vessels for which Commissions or Letters of Marque shall be taken out, and likewise hired armed Vessels taken into His Majesty's Service, it is expedient, for the better disciplining and Government of such Ships and Vessels, that all Persons who enter themselves on board the same should be under proper Regulations, and pay Obedience to the lawful Commands of the Captains and Chief Commanders of the said Ships and Vessels; be it therefore enacted, That all Offences committed by any Officer or Seaman on board any Vessel having taken a Commission or Letter of Marque during the present Hostilities, or on board any hired armed Vessel in His Majesty's Service, shall be tried and punished in such Manner as the like Offences are tried and punished when committed by any Person belonging to His Majesty's Fleet: Provided always, that all Offenders who shall be accused of such Crimes as are cognizable by a Court Martial, shall be confined on board such Privateer or Merchant Ship or Vessel carrying Letters of Marque, in which such Offence shall be committed, until they shall arrive at some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or can meet with such a Number of His Majesty's Ships of War abroad as are sufficient to make a Court Martial; and upon Application made by the Commander of such Ship or Vessel carrying Letters of Marque, or hired armed Vessels in His Majesty's Service, to the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or to the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, or to the Commander in Chief or Senior Officer of His Majesty's said Ships of War abroad, the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, or such Commander in Chief or Senior Officer abroad, are hereby authorized and required, in the usual Manner, to call a Court Martial for trying and punishing the said Offences.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to exempt any Ships, Goods, Wares, or Merchandize which shall be taken as Prize, and Ships retaken before carried into the Enemy's Ports may prosecute their Voyages.

Commanders of Ships built, who in American Colonies, to the Laws against carrying off Persons without the requisite Consent.

Commanders with Convoys, or Dispatches, falling out of their Course, to take Prizes, shall forfeit their Shares.

Penalties on Captains of Merchant Ships disobeying Signals of the Commander of the Convoy, cool, and Impudent. Privateers while under Convoy, shall not share Prizes, unless ordered to act.

Officers committed on board Privateers shall be tried and punished as Offences committed in the Fleet.

Prizes shall be liable to Duties; and but which may be remitted.

Navy or Victualling Board may purchase Naval Stores found on board Foreign Ships, taken as Prize.

Prize Vessels condemned deemed British-built, being registered under 25 G. 3. c. 60.

Penalty for breaking Bulk, or embezzling any Part of Prizes, Forfeiture of Shares and Treble Value.

Captures brought into His Majesty's Dominions abroad shall be under the Care of the Officers of the Customs, there.

Penalty for Breach of Instructions relative to Prizes, or Offences by Captors against the Law of Nations.

His Majesty may appoint Salaries for Judges of Vice-Admiralty Courts at and brought or imported into this Kingdom, or any of His Majesty's Dominions, from the Payment of any Customs or Duties, or from being subject to the Restrictions and Regulations to which the same are now, or shall hereafter be liable by virtue of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Lords, Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Commissioners of the Customs, in such Cases wherein Goods unfit for the Market of this Kingdom have been brought as Prize into the Ports thereof, and have been fold from Necessity under an Order of the High Court of Admiralty, to remit the Whole or any Part of the said Duties, upon a Certificate from the Judge of the said Court, that the Goods not being intended for the Markets of this Kingdom, have been fold from Necessity under its Order; and that the Proceeds of such Sale, after Payment of Duties, will be insufficient to satisfy just and reasonable Claims.

XXVIII. And whereas great Numbers of Ships of Foreign Nations may pass the Seas laden with Naval Stores, intended to be carried to the Ports of France, or of other Countries at War with His Majesty, whereby His Majesty's Enemies may not only be enabled and encouraged to fit out and arm Privateers to destroy the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, but may also be supplied with Materials to build and fit out Ships of War to annoy and invade His Majesty's Dominions: And whereas Divers Ships of Foreign Nations laden as aforesaid, may be taken and brought into the Ports of Great Britain, and the Purchase of such Naval Stores laden on board such Ships of Foreign Nations, for the Service of His Majesty, may in many Cases be expedient, without proceeding to the Condemnation thereof; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy or Victualling for the Time being, or their Officers or Agents, during the Continuance of the present War, to purchase on the Account, or for the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors only, all or any such Naval Stores found on board any such Ships of Foreign Nations, which have been, or shall or may hereafter be brought into any of the Ports of this Kingdom by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or by any private Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels having a Commission or Letters of Marque, and that the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs for the Time being shall and may permit and suffer such Naval Stores to be purchased as aforesaid, to be entered and landed within any of the Ports of this Kingdom; any Thing in an Act of Parliament passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation or in any other Statute made subsequent thereto contained, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Prize Ships or Vessels which shall be legally condemned, or shall be fold under any Decree of the High Court of Admiralty, shall, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, be considered as British-built Ships or Vessels, being first duly registered according to the Provisions of the said recited Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and shall be deemed and taken as such, and shall be entitled to have and enjoy all and every the same Rights, Liberties, Privileges, and Advantages, in all Respects whatsoever, with British-built Ships and Vessels, and shall be subject and liable to all and every the Rules and Regulations that British-built Ships or Vessels are subject and liable to; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Commander or Commanders, Officer or Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, or others, shall break Bulk on board, (except in case of Necessity, to be allowed by the Court of Admiralty), or embezzle any of the Money, Jewels, Plate, Goods, Merchandize, Tackle, Furniture, or Apparel of or belonging to any Prize or Prizes, such Commander, Officer, Seaman, Marine, Soldier, or other Person, shall for every such Offence forfeit his Whole Share in such Prize to His Majesty for the Use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, and so to be adjudged on Proof thereof by the Court of Admiralty, in which such Proof shall be made, and shall also forfeit Treble the Value of all such Money, Jewels, Plate, Goods, Merchandize, Tackle, Furniture, or Apparel, as he or they shall embezzle.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all such Captures as aforesaid, which shall be brought into any of His Majesty's Dominions abroad, in order to be proceeded against to Condemnation in any of His Majesty's Courts of Vice Admiralty, being thereto duly authorized, shall, without breaking Bulk, stay there, and be under the joint Care and Custody of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and where there is no Comptroller, then of the Naval Officer of the Port or Place where the same shall be brought, and the Captors or Claimants thereof, or their Agent or Agents, subject to the Direction of such Court of Vice Admiralty, until the same shall by final Sentence have been either cleared and discharged, or adjudged and condemned as lawful Prize, or that such Interlocutory Order as aforesaid shall have been made for the releasing or delivering the same; and upon the final Condemnation or Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize, shall be immediately delivered unto the Captors thereof or their Agents.

XXXII. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or the Judge of any other Court lawfully commissioned to take Cognizance of Prize, upon due Proof of the Breach of any of His Majesty's Instructions relating to Prizes, or of any Offence against the Law of Nations committed by the Captors in relation to any Prize, or to the Persons taken on board the same, to condemn the Prize to His Majesty's Use and Disposal, save as herein above is directed with respect to breaking of Bulk or Embezzlement; and where the Prize hath been taken by a Ship having a Commission or Letter of Marque, to revoke the same, and to pronounce the Bond to be forfeited, and to compel Payment of the Penalty secured thereby, subject nevertheless to an Appeal to the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Causes.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Order in Council, from Time to Time to fix and ascertain proper and adequate Salaries for the Judges of Vice-Admiralty Courts established or to be established in the Dabarna and Bermuda Islands, and likewise at the Island of Malta in the Mediterranean, not exceeding the Sum of Two thousand Pounds per Annum for any of such Judges;

Judges; and such Salaries shall be issued, payable, and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain; and further, that such Salaries shall be charged and chargeable, and paid and payable in like Manner in every Respect, and under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are contained in an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Judges of the Courts in Westminster Hall, and also the Lords of the Session, Lords Commissioners of Justiciary and Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland; and for enabling His Majesty to grant Annuities to Persons in certain Offices in the said Courts of Westminster Hall on their Resignation of their respective Offices.

“ His Majesty may allow such Judges on their Resignation 1000*l.* per Annum after Six Years Service, or in “ case of permanent Infirmary, § 34.—Profits of Judges shall not exceed 2000*l.* beyond their Salaries.— “ Account thereof shall be transmitted to Navy Board, § 35.”—[See 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 96.]

XXXVI. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect any of the Regulations contained in an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of His Majesty's Prize Courts in the West Indies and America, and for giving a more speedy and effectual Execution to the Decrees of the Lords Commissioners of Appeals, but that all the Regulations of the said Act shall be carried into full force and effect, except so far as the same, or any of them, are by this Act altered or varied, or in respect of which other Provisions are made.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to restrain His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from giving such further Rules and Directions from Time to Time to his respective Courts of Admiralty and Vice Admiralty, for the Adjudication and Condemnation of Prizes, and for regulating the Fees of the said Courts, and amending and altering the Table of Fees therein, as by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with the Advice of His or their Privy Council, shall be thought necessary or proper.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That a Table of Fees, authorized as aforesaid, shall be suspended in some conspicuous Part of the Court in which the several Judges of the Vice-Admiralty Courts shall hold their Courts; and that no Judge or Surrogate, Register or Deputy Register, nor any Marshal or Deputy Marshal, of or belonging to any of His Majesty's Courts of Vice-Admiralty, shall, either directly or indirectly, by himself or themselves, or by any Agent or Agents, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, receive or take any Fee beyond those specified in the Table aforesaid; and that every Judge or Surrogate, Register or Deputy Register, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, who shall be guilty of such Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon Information or Indictment in Manner aforesaid), shall from thenceforth absolutely forfeit his respective Office and Employment of Judge or Surrogate, Register, Deputy Register, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, in or belonging to the same Court.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the demanding or receiving any Sum or Sums of Money, other than the Fees aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Extortion, and a Misdemeanor at Law, and shall be proceeded against and punished as such under and by virtue of this Act.

XL. And be it further enacted, That no Judge, Register, or Deputy Register, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, or any other Officer whomsoever, of or belonging to any Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, nor any Person or Persons practising either as Advocate, Proctor, or otherwise, in any such Court or Courts, shall be concerned or interested directly or indirectly as Owner, Part Owner, Shareer, or Adventurer in any private Ship or Ships, or Vessel or Vessels of War whatsoever having any Commission or Commissions, or Letter of Marque as aforesaid; and in case any such Judge, Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, Deputy Marshal, or other Officer, Advocate, or Proctor whatsoever, shall, notwithstanding this Act, be directly or indirectly concerned or interested as aforesaid, such Judge, Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, Deputy Marshal, or other Officer respectively, shall, for every such Offence, (being thereof lawfully convicted in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain or at any General Session of the Peace in any of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, absolutely forfeit his Office and Employment in and belonging to any such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, of what Kind or Nature soever such Office or Employment may be, and shall also forfeit and pay to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and every such Advocate or Proctor respectively, shall for such last-mentioned Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted in Manner aforesaid), be from thenceforth absolutely disqualified, and rendered incapable of practising either as an Advocate or Proctor in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty wheresoever.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That no Register or Deputy Register, nor any Marshal or Deputy Marshal of or belonging to any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty whatsoever, shall, either directly or indirectly, by himself or themselves, or by any Agent or Agents, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, act or be concerned in any Manner, either as an Advocate or Proctor in any Cause, Matter, or Business whatsoever, that shall be depending in any such Court or Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, to which such Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, or Deputy Marshal shall then belong; and that every Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, or Deputy Marshal, who shall be guilty of such Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon an Information or Indictment in Manner aforesaid), shall from thenceforth absolutely forfeit his respective Office and Employment of Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, or Deputy Marshal, in and belonging to the same Court.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That no Proctor or other Person practising as Proctor in any Court or Courts, being employed by any Captor or Captors, Claimant or Claimants, shall be concerned, by himself or his Partner, or by any Person or Persons, directly or indirectly, on Behalf of the adverse Party or Parties, in the Suit or Matter wherein he may be employed, nor shall receive any Allowance from the Bills, nor in any Manner whatsoever participate in the Profits of the Proctor or other Person conducting or employed in the Cause of the adverse Party or Parties; and in case any Proctor or other Person practising as Proctor in any Court or Courts, shall, notwithstanding this Act, be directly or indirectly concerned or interested as aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon Information or Indictment in Manner aforesaid) absolutely forfeit his Office or Employment in or belonging to any such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty of what Kind or Nature soever, and shall forfeit and pay to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and such Proctor or other Person respectively shall for such last-mentioned Offence, being thereof lawfully convicted in Manner aforesaid, be from thenceforth absolutely disqualified and rendered incapable of practising as a Proctor or otherwise, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty wherefoever.

Regulations
respecting the Condemnation of Prizes.

XLIII. 'And, for the more speedily proceeding to Condemnation or other Determination of any Prize of Ship or Vessel, Goods, or Merchandize, already taken, or hereafter to be taken as aforesaid, and for lessening the Expences which have been usual in such Cases' be it further enacted, That the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England, and of any other Court of Admiralty which shall be authorized thereto, or such Person or Persons who shall be then commissioned for that Purpose, within Five Days after Request made to him or them for that Purpose, shall finish the usual preparatory Examination of the Persons commonly examined in such Cases, in order to prove the Capture of the lawful Prize, or to enquire whether the same be lawful Prize or not, and that the proper Monition usual in such Cases shall be issued by the Person or Persons proper to issue the same, and shall be executed by the Person or Persons proper to execute the same, within the Space of Three Days after Request in that Behalf made; and in case no Claim of such captured Ship, Vessel, or Goods, shall be duly entered in the usual Form, and attested upon Oath, giving Twenty Days Notice after the Execution of such Monition; or if there be such Claim, and the Claimant or Claimants shall not within Five Days from the Time of entering such Claim, give Security in the Sum of Sixty Pounds Sterling, to pay Costs to the Captor or Captors, in case the Judge shall decree Costs to be due, that then the Judge of such Court of Admiralty shall, upon producing to him the said Examination, or Copies thereof, and producing to him upon Oath all the Papers and Writings which shall have been found, taken in, or with such Capture, or on board any other captured Ship or Vessel regarding the same, or upon Oath made that no Papers or Writings were found, proceed with all convenient Speed to Sentence, either to discharge or acquit such Capture, or to condemn the same to be good and lawful Prize, according as shall appear to him upon Perusal of such preparatory Examinations, and all the Papers and Writings found, taken in, or with such Capture, or on board any other captured Vessel regarding the same, if any, such shall be found, or to allow further Time for a Claim to be entered, or Security given; and in case any such Claim shall be duly entered and Security given thereupon, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, and there shall appear no Occasion to enter into any other Examination, that then the Judge shall within Ten Days, if possible, after such Claim made and Security given, proceed to Sentence as aforesaid touching such Capture; but in case upon entering such Claim, and the Attestation thereupon, or the producing of such Papers and Writings as aforesaid, regarding such captured Ship or Vessel, or Goods, and upon the said preparatory Examinations, it shall appear doubtful to the said Judge whether such Capture be lawful Prize or not, and it shall appear to him to be necessary, according to the Circumstances of the Case, for the clearing and determining such Doubts to have an Examination of Witnesses on Pleadings given in by the Parties and admitted by the Judge, or such other Mode of Enquiry as the said Judge may think requisite, that then the said Judge shall forthwith cause such Capture to be appraised by Persons well skilled in the same, to be named by the Parties, and approved and appointed by the Court, and sworn truly to appraise the same, according to the best of their Skill and Knowledge; for which Purpose the said Judge shall cause, if he shall think fit, the Goods found on board to be unladen, and an Inventory thereof being first taken, if the Judge shall think necessary, by the Marshal of the Admiralty or his Deputy, shall cause them to be put into proper Warehouses, with separate Locks, of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and where there is no Comptroller, then of the Naval Officer, and the Agents or Persons employed by the Captors and Claimants, at the Charge of the Party desiring the same; and shall after such Appraisal, and within the Space of Fourteen Days after the making of the said Claims, proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Claimants to pay the Captors the full Value thereof according to such Appraisal, in case the same shall be adjudged lawful Prize, and shall also proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Captors to pay such Costs as the Court shall think proper, in case such Ship, Vessel or Goods shall not be condemned as lawful Prize; and after such Security duly given, the said Judge shall make an Interlocutory Order for releasing or delivering the same to such Claimant or Claimants, or his or their Agents, and the same shall be actually released and delivered accordingly.

Appraisalment of the Capture before Trial;

and Delivery to Claimants on Security.

On reversal of Sentence Net
Proceeds of the Capture shall be deemed their Value.

Six small Privateers taken from the Enemy may be included in One Adjudication.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree reverting the Force of a Definitive Sentence, of such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, shall be finally reversed after Sale of any Ship or Goods, pursuant to the Directions in this Act contained, the Net Proceeds of such Sale (after Payment of all Expences attending the same) shall be deemed and taken to be the full Value of such Ship and Goods, and that the Party or Parties appellante, and their Securities, shall not be answerable for the Value beyond the Amount of such Net Proceeds, unless it shall appear that such Sale was made fraudulently or without due Care.

XLV. 'And, for the Encouragement of the Capture of such armed Ships, belonging to the Enemy,' be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Captors to include in one Adjudication any Number, not exceeding Six, of such small armed Ships, having a Commission or Letter of Marque from the Enemy, not exceeding Seventy Tons each, and which shall have been taken within the Space of Three Months preceding the Application to the Court of Admiralty for such Adjudication.

XLVI. And

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all Books, Papers, and Writings found in any Ship or Vessel taken as Prize, shall, without Delay, be brought into the Registry of the Court of Admiralty, upon Oath, wherein such Ship or Vessel may be proceeded against in order to Condemnation, but that only such Books, Papers, and Writings shall be made use of and translated, as shall be agreed or inflicted upon by the Proctors of the several Parties, Captors, or Claimants; or in case of no Claim, by the Captor or his Proctor, or Agent or Register, to be necessary for ascertaining the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and Cargo thereof.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That no Claim on Behalf of any asserted joint Capture shall be admitted before Condemnation, unless Security be given at the Time of entering the same, that the Party shall contribute to the actual Captor his Proportion of all Expence that shall attend the obtaining the Adjudication, as well in the first Instance as upon the Appeal, and likewise his Proportion of all Coists and Damages that may be awarded against the actual Captor on account of the Seizure and Detention; and after final Condemnation, no Allegation setting forth such asserted Interest shall be admitted unless the Party shall have previously paid his Proportion of all such Expences as shall have attended the obtaining such final Condemnation, and unless he shall have shewn sufficient Cause to the Court why such Claim was not asserted at or before the Return of the Motion: (Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to the asserted Interest of any Admiral or Flag Officer claiming to share in any Prize by virtue of his Flag.)

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Registers of every Vice-Admiralty Court shall, on the Twenty-sixth Day of December and Twenty-fifth Day of June in every Year, transmit to the Register of the High Court of Admiralty a List of all the Prizes that have been adjudged in their Courts respectively, together with the Names of the capturing Ships and their Commanders, and the Agents of the Captors, and a Copy of the decretal Part of the Sentences upon the same, which Lists shall be hung up for publick Inspection in the Registry at Doctors Commons, together with similar Lists of the Prizes adjudged in the High Court of Admiralty, and in the Court of Appeal, and a similar List shall in like Manner be transmitted to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy.

XLIX. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Captor or Captors, Claimant or Claimants, shall not rest satisfied with the Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in the High Court of Admiralty of England, or in any Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty in any of His Majesty's Dominions, duly authorized to proceed in Prize Causes, it shall and may be lawful for the Party or Parties thereby aggrieved to appeal from the said High Court of Admiralty, or from any of the said Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, to the Commissioners appointed under the Great Seal of Great Britain for receiving and determining Appeals in Causes of Prize, such Appeals to be interposed and received in the like Manner as Appeals to the Commissioners in Prize Causes have been usually interposed and received from the said High Court of Admiralty, and good Security to be likewise given by the Appellant or Appellants that he or they will effectually prosecute such Appeal, and also pay such Coists as shall be awarded in case the Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, of such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, be affirmed, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that the Execution of any Definitive Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, appealed from as aforesaid, shall not be suspended by reason of such Appeal, save as is herein-after provided, in case the Party or Parties appellate shall give sufficient Security, to be approved of by the Court in which such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be given, to restore the Ship, Vessel, Goods, or Effects, concerning which such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be pronounced, or the full Value thereof, to the Appellant or Appellants, in case the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree so appealed from shall be reversed.

L. And be it enacted, That in case any Person, who was not a Party in the first Instance of the Cause, shall intervene in or interpose an Appeal from a Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in any Admiralty Court, such Person, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall at the same Time enter his or her Claim, otherwise such Appeal shall be null and void.

LI. And whereas great Inconveniences have arisen by Appeals in Prize Causes not being prosecuted in a reasonable Time, and from secret Appeals, or Protocols of Appeal, being entered before a Notary Publick, without any Notice given to the Court or Parties appellate, or their Proctors: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That every Person being a Party or not a Party in a Prize Cause, in the High Court of Admiralty in England, or in any Vice-Admiralty Court, and against whom a Sentence shall hereafter be given, or any Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a Definitive Sentence pronounced, and who shall appeal therefrom, shall prosecute such his Appeal by taking out the usual Inhibition, within Twelve Months after the Time such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be given; and that after the Expiration of the said Term of Twelve Months, without any Inhibition having been taken out, no Appeal shall be allowed to be prosecuted by any Person, being a Party or not a Party, in the said High Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, nor shall any Inhibition be granted at the Prayer of such Person or his Proctor, but the said Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall stand confirmed as to such Person: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Appeals, in all Cases in which it shall appear that a Distribution has not taken place, to permit an Appeal to be prosecuted after the Term of Twelve Months elapsed, where, upon special Cause shewn, they shall deem such Permission fit and reasonable to be given.

LII. And be it enacted, That in case any Appeal shall be interposed from a Sentence, or Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in any Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, concerning any Ship or Vessel, or Goods or Effects, which have been, or now are, or shall hereafter be seized and taken as Prize, that then and in such Case, the Judge of such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty shall and may, at the Request, Coists, and Charges either of the Captor or Claimant (or of the Claimant only, in case where the Privilege is reserved in favour of the Claimant by any Treaty or Treaties

All Books, &c. found on board Captives, shall be brought into Registry of Admiralty Court.

Claims of asserted joint Capture shall not be admitted but on Security or Payment of Share of Expences, &c.

Except for Flag Officers.

Registers of Vice-Admiralty Courts shall transmit to Doctors Commons and Greenwich Hospital, Lists of Prizes adjudged.

Appeals may be made to Commissioners for hearing Prize Causes.

Appellants not Parties in the first Instance shall enter their Claims on their Appeal.

Appellants shall take out Inhibitions within Twelve Months; unless on special Cause.

On Appeals, Captives shall be appraised, and on Security for the Value, be delivered, or the Effects sold, and the Money deposited.

subsisting between His Majesty and Foreign Powers), make an Order to have such Capture appraised, unless the Parties shall otherwise agree upon the Value thereof, and an Inventory to be made, and then take Security for the full Value thereof accordingly, and thereupon cause such Capture to be delivered to the Party giving such Security, in like Manner as is herein-before enacted, notwithstanding such Appeal; and if there shall be any Difficulty or sufficient Objection to the giving or taking Security, the Judge shall, at the Request of either of the Parties, order such Goods and Effects to be entered, landed, and sold by public Auction, under the Care and Custody of the proper Officers of the Customs, and under the Direction and Inspection of such Persons as shall be appointed by the Claimants and Captors; and the Monies arising from the Sale shall be brought into Court, and, by the Register, Deputy Register or Deputy Registers, of the said Court, be deposited in the Bank of England, or (in case the Captors and Claimants shall agree thereto) in some public Securities at Interest, in the Names of the Register and of such Trustees as they the said Captors and Claimants shall appoint, and the Court shall approve; and if such Security shall be given by the Claimants, then the Judge shall give such captured Ship or Vessel a Pass under his Seal, to prevent its being again taken by His Majesty's Subjects in its destined Voyage.

Pass for captured Vessels.

Directions for appointing Prize Agents.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That all Appraisements and Sales of any Ship or Ships, Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, as shall be taken by any Ship or Ships of War, shall be made by Agents appointed by the Flag Officers or Flag Officer, Captains or Captain, Officers or Officer, Ships Companies or Company, and others entitled thereto; that is to say, that if the Flag Officers or Flag Officer of any Fleet or Squadron of Ships as shall take any such Prize or Prizes, or the Majority if more than One, shall appoint One or more Person or Persons, Agent or Agents as aforesaid, then the Captains and Commanders, or Captain and Commander entitled thereto, or the Majority of them if more than One, may appoint the like Number to act for them; and all the Officers and others described in His Majesty's said Proclamations, and usually designated the Commissioned and Warrant Officers, may appoint a like Number to act for them; and all the Remainder of the Crew, usually designated the Petty Officers, and the Seamen or Marines, may appoint a like Number.

Agents shall register their Powers of Attorney.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who shall be so nominated and appointed Agent or Agents as aforesaid, for any Prize or Prizes taken by any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels of War, or for receiving the Bounty herein-after granted, shall exhibit and cause to be registered in the said High Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, in the respective Courts of Vice-Admiralty in America, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions where the said Prize and Prizes, and every of them, shall be proceeded against, his or their respective Letter or Letters of Attorney, appointing him or them Agent or Agents for the Purposes aforesaid; and if any Person or Persons so appointed Agent or Agents as aforesaid, shall, without sufficient Cause to be approved by the Court, omit or delay so to do for the Space of Twenty Days after the Month has been taken in the said High Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, or in any Court of Vice-Admiralty in America, or other His Majesty's Dominions, for the Care and Distribution of which he or they shall be appointed Agent or Agents, such Person or Persons so omitting or delaying shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and shall be disqualified for acting as Agent for any such Prize or Prizes.

Penalty for non-compliance and Disability.

Penalty on Agents permitting others to have any Share, &c. in Commission, and on Person receiving any such Share, &c. and Double the Sum received.

LV. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons, except the Person or Persons to be nominated and appointed Agent or Agents, and who shall actually discharge the Duties of Agent, shall, under any Colour or Pretence, receive any Part, Share, or Proportion of any Commission in respect of such Agency Business, or any Emolument, Advantage, or Benefit out of any such Commission; and all and every Person or Persons so nominated and appointed Agents or Agent, who shall give to, or allow to be taken by any other Person on his Behalf, or for his Use, Benefit, or Advantage, or the Use, Benefit, or Advantage of any Part of his Family, any Part, Share, or Proportion of any such Commission, or any Emolument, Advantage, or Benefit thereout, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and also Double the Amount or Value of what shall have been so given, or allowed to be taken, or shall have been so taken and received as aforesaid.

Registers of Courts of Admiralty shall enter Powers of Attorney, and transmit Copies Half Yearly to Greenwich Hospital, Penalty 500l.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Register or Registers of His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty, and of all other Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Dominions, shall from Time to Time duly enter or register, or cause to be entered or registered, in One or more Book or Books to be by him or them kept for that Purpose only, all Letters of Attorney that shall be exhibited or delivered to them after the passing of this Act, by any Agent or Agents for any Prize or Prizes taken or to be taken by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or hired armed Ships, or by any Agent or Agents for the Receipt and Distribution of any Bounty Bill or Bills, within Fourteen Days after the same shall be so exhibited or delivered to such Register or Registers, at his or their respective Offices, which Registry shall contain the Days of Delivery and Entry, the Dates of the Letters of Attorney, the Names and Places of Abode of the Agents, the Names of the Prizes taken, or of the Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy taken, burnt, sunk, or otherwise destroyed, together with the Names of the Ships or Vessels by which such Prizes shall have been taken, or by which such Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy shall have been taken, burnt, sunk, or otherwise destroyed, together with the Date of the Condemnation (if any Condemnation shall have passed thereon), and of the Appeal, (if any, interposed); and the Register or Registers shall, on the Twenty-sixth Day of December and the Twenty-fifth Day of June, or within Forty Days thereafter in every Year, transmit or deliver unto the Treasurer of the said Hospital, or to the lawful Deputy of such Treasurer for the Time being, a true Copy or Transcript, under his or their Hand or Hands, of all such Entries as aforesaid within the preceding Half Year; and if such Register or Registers shall neglect or refuse to make, or keep such Entries, or to transmit or deliver such Copies thereof as aforesaid, within the respective Times herein-before limited for that Purpose, he or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds: Provided always, that if any Agent or Agents shall be appointed after the Time any Sentence of Condemnation in any of the said Courts of Admiralty shall be given, such Agent or Agents shall, under the aforesaid Penalty, register, or cause to be registered in Manner aforesaid, his or their respective Letters or Letter of Attorney, appointing him or them Agent or Agents as aforesaid, within the Space of Twenty Days after the Date of the said Letter or Letters of Attorney.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That every Agent, when he shall register the first Letter or Letters of Attorney, which, in pursuance of this Act, he shall register after the passing thereof, shall at the same Time give Security, with Two Sureties, by a joint and several Bond, in the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, to the Court of Admiralty in which such Letter or Letters shall be registered, for the due Execution of his Trust in all Matters of Prize Agency that shall be committed to his Care during the present War; and if he shall neglect or refuse to do so, such Letter or Letters of Attorney shall be null and void, and he shall be for ever disabled from acting as an Agent in Matters of Prize.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Register or Registers of all and every the Court and Courts of Vice-Admiralty in any of His Majesty's Plantations in America, or elsewhere in any of His Majesty's Dominions, shall yearly and every Year, upon the Twenty-third Day of October, or within Three Calendar Months next after the same, make out and transcribe true Copies of all and every such Letter and Letters of Attorney as shall be so registered in the said Court or Courts, to which the Judge and Judges of the said Court and Courts shall affix his and their Seal of Office, and then the said Register or Registers shall transmit the same to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, to be there registered, and to be inspected by any Person, gratis; the Charges of which Copies, and affixing the Seal or Seals thereto, and transmitting the same to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, shall be paid by the said Agent or Agents at the Time of making such Registry as aforesaid; and in case such Register or Registers shall neglect or refuse to transcribe and transmit such Copy and Copies of the said Letter and Letters of Attorney in Manner aforesaid, (if any Ship or Ships in that Time shall fall from that Port or Place, to any Port or Ports in Great Britain), such Register and Registers for neglecting or refusing shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

LIX. And, for the better and more effectual making such Letters of Attorney Evidence of the Agency of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be made, be it further enacted, That true Copies of such Letter or Letters of Attorney, and of Transcripts, under Seal, transmitted by the said Register or Registers of the Court and Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Plantations in America, or elsewhere within His Majesty's Dominions, and registered by the said Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, shall from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, be good and sufficient Evidence of the Agency of the Person or Persons to whom such Letter of Attorney is or shall be made, and from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, shall be admitted without further or other Proof thereof, to be legal Evidence in all His Majesty's Courts of Record of Law or Equity; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LX. And be it further enacted, That upon every Capture there shall be sent by the Captain or Commander of the captured Ship, or some Person under his Authority, to the Agent or Agents for such Capture a List of the Persons entitled to share therein, which Prize List shall be subscribed by the Lieutenant, and all the signing Officers then on board the Ship, and shall contain the Names, Ages, and Descriptions of the Persons entitled to share therein, the Names being arranged in the same Order in which they stand in the Muster Books, which said Names and Descriptions shall be taken from the Description Book belonging to the said Ship, and an Alphabetical List or Index of the Names of all such Persons shall be prefixed to such Prize List, and the same shall be examined with and corrected by the Muster Books of such Ships, by which such Captures shall be made, deposited in the Navy Office, and shall be certified by Two of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; and in case no such Prize List as aforesaid shall be sent to such Agent or Agents, he or they shall apply to the Commissioners of the Navy for a List of the Persons entitled to share in such Capture, and such last mentioned List shall thereupon be made out from the Returns in the Office of the said Commissioners of the Navy, who shall cause the same to be made out, and certify the Truth thereof under their Hands, or under the Hands of any Two or more of them; and any Person or Persons who shall alter the Name or Rating of any Person or Persons in any List which shall have been so certified as aforesaid, or erase or take away any Name therefrom, or add any Name thereto, after the same shall have been so certified as aforesaid, with Intent to defraud any Person or Persons, or Corporation whatsoever, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds: Provided always, that in case it shall appear at or before Distribution, that any Error has been committed in the Prize List, or in the Muster Books transmitted to the Navy Office, nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Correction of such Error; nor in case of the Omission of any Name on the Distribution List, such Omission having been made through Error, to charge the Agent further than with Payment of the Sum due, together with all Expences of the Party in recovering the same: Provided also, that if any Agreement shall have been made with any Person or Persons not entitled under His Majesty's Proclamation, or the Prize Act, to share in any Capture, the Agent, or Hospital, making Distribution according to such Agreement admitted and acknowledged by the Persons entitled under the said Proclamation or Act of Parliament, shall not be liable to any Penalty on that Account.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That whenever a Distribution shall have been made upon any Prize List, and certified as herein directed, the Agent or the Hospital making the same shall not be liable to any Penalty, Suit, or Action, otherwise than before mentioned, in consequence of any Error or Omission in the said List.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases of Condemnation in any Vice-Admiralty Court, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the Judge to compel the Agent, at the Requisition of the Captor, to give Security at the Time of Condemnation for the faithful Distribution of the Proceeds, or for the remitting thereof to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or to such Persons LXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases of Condemnation in the High Court of Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to compel the Agents, by Process of Monition and Attachment, to vest the Proceeds of the Property condemned in such public Securities as the Captors shall elect, there to remain and accumulate for the Benefit of the Parties entitled till the Time of Appeal shall be lapsed, subject nevertheless to the further Directions of the Court, upon the Application of the Captors; and in all Cases of Condemnation in any Court of Vice-Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to direct the Property captured, or the Proceeds thereof, to be forthwith transmitted to Great Britain, there to be vested in such public Securities after being lapsed, (if not already converted by Sale), as the Captors shall elect; until the regular Time of Appeal shall have lapsed, subject nevertheless to the Directions of the High Court of Admiralty, upon the Application of the Captors.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all Cases wherein any Sentence of Condemnation pronounced in the said Court is appealed from, at the Time of serving the Inhibition thereon, or at any Time thereafter during the Pendency of the said Appeal, and without Prejudice to such Appeal, to assign the Agent or Agents, or other Persons in whose Hands the Proceeds of the Prize may have come, at the Prayer of either Party, or of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies for such Purpose, to bring into and leave in the Registry the Net Proceeds of the Sales of such Prize, deducting therefrom so much as in the Discretion of the Judge shall be requisite to be left in the Hands of the Agent or Agents, for the Expenses of defending the said Appeal; and the Proceeds so brought in shall be deposited, in case the Parties shall agree thereto, in some public Securities at Interest, in the Names of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar, and of such Trustees as the Parties shall appoint, and the Court shall approve; and in case either Party shall refuse his Consent thereto, the Party praying the same shall have such Proceeds laid out and invested in public Securities for his Use and Benefit, he giving good and sufficient Security to the Court to answer to the other Party for any Loss or Deficiency that may be occasioned thereby, in case such other Party shall be ultimately pronounced to be entitled to the Property.

LXV. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Lords Commissioners of Appeals are authorized and empowered in any Case of Appeal before them, to order at their Discretion the Proceeds of any Prize, the subject of such Appeal, or any Part or Parts thereof, to be paid by the Agent or Agents for such Prize, at the Requisition of the Captors or Claimants, into the Court, to be laid out or disposed of at the Discretion of the Court on any Application made for that Purpose either by the Captors or Claimants.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Agent resident in the United Kingdom shall, within Six Weeks after any Condemnation in the High Court of Admiralty, transmit a Notice of such Condemnation to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, together with an Account of the State of the Property condemned at the Time of such Transmission, on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, unless a reasonable Cause be shewn to and approved by the Court of Admiralty.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Prize Agent shall, after the Sale of any Prize is completed, and before the Time of the First Payment of the Prize Money to be distributed, or at any Time thereafter, at the Direction of the Court, exhibit in the respective Court of Vice-Admiralty in which the Prize shall have been condemned, or in the High Court of Admiralty, and if such Prize shall have been condemned in any Court of Vice-Admiralty abroad, shall, as soon as the same can be done, transmit to the High Court of Admiralty in England an attested Copy of the detailed Accounts of the Sales of such Prize, duly verified upon Oath, together with attested Copies of all Vouchers required by the Court, which Copies, so transmitted to the said High Court of Admiralty, shall be deposited in the public Registry thereof, and all Parties interested therein shall have Liberty to object to the Charges and Articles therein contained; and the said Court shall confirm or disallow the Accounts, upon hearing the Objections, and shall make such further Order touching the said Accounts, and the Distribution of the Proceeds, as the Case may require; and any Agent who shall neglect or refuse to bring in a Copy of his Accounts at the Time hereby directed, or who shall proceed to distribute without having exhibited and transmitted a Copy of the said Accounts, duly verified upon Oath in Manner aforesaid, or who shall refuse or neglect to obey any Order of any Court of Admiralty, for the Distribution of the Proceeds of any such Prize or Prizes, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and shall moreover be subject to the Proceeds of the Court of Admiralty, by Monition and Attachment, until he shall have obeyed the Order of the said Court; and it shall be lawful for the said Court to pronounce the Bond given with the Letter or Letters of Agency to be forfeited, and to levy the Penalties secured thereby from the Sureties in the said Bond.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Agent shall, Ten Days before he exhibits his Account of Sales in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, cause Advertisements to be twice inserted in the London Gazette, notifying to all Persons concerned that the Account of Sales of such Prize or Prizes will be brought into the Registry of the said Court.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Per Centage for Agency shall be charged upon the Net Proceeds of any Prize or Prizes, Bounty Bills or Salvage.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That no Agent shall be compellable to distribute any Proceeds of any Prize, except in the Cases in this Act mentioned, until after the Time of Appeal has lapsed, and every such Agent shall, as far as he is able, complete the Distribution of such Proceeds within Three Months from the Time of commencing the same.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all Cases, either in the present War or in any former War, in which the regular Time of Appeal is elapsed, or in which the Appeal hath been determined, or for any Judge of any Court of Vice-Admiralty abroad, in any such Case as aforesaid, to which any Certificate from the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty shall be transmitted of the Time of Appeal being elapsed, without further Prosecution, together with an Order of Distribution thereon, to make an Order for Production and Verification of Accounts, and for the Distribution of the Proceeds, and to enforce the same by the Process of the said Court by Motion and Attachment upon the Agent or Agents in whose Hands the Proceeds may be lodged, or any other Person whomsoever to whom such Proceeds may have been committed, and likewise by further Process against the Sureties of the said Agent or Agents; and all Courts of Vice Admiralty in America or elsewhere, are hereby empowered, directed, and required, to enforce upon all Persons within their Jurisdiction all such Orders, and all other Orders of the High Court of Admiralty, whether relating to Prizes, or to any Matter or Thing relating thereto, within their respective Jurisdictions.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That if the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or of the Vice-Admiralty Court, in which any Prize shall have been condemned, shall certify that the Ship or Vessel so condemned failed under the Flag and Pass of the Enemy, or under any Commission of War granted by the Enemy, then and in such Case, on the Application or by the Direction of the Captain or other Commander of the Ship or Vessel making such Capture, the Proceeds shall be distributed, and an Order of the Court may be obtained at his Prayer, on the Agent or Agents, to distribute the Proceeds of such Prize before the Time of Appeal lapses, subject nevertheless to the Liability of the Captor to answer any Appeal that may be instituted thereafter during the Time limited by Law for Appeals.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That after the Sale or Sales of any Prize or Prizes which have been or shall be taken from the Enemy by any of His Majesty's Ships of War or hired armed Ships, publick Notification, in Manner herein-after mentioned, shall be given by the Persons or Agents appointed as aforesaid, for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors aforesaid; that is to say, if the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned in His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, then the Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, appointed or to be appointed in pursuance of this Act for the Appraisalment and Sale of such Prize or Prizes, shall insert and publish, or cause to be inserted and published, such Notification, under his or their Hand or Hands respectively in the London Gazette; and if in any Court of Vice-Admiralty, then in some Gazette or Newspaper of publick Authority, of the Island or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, and if there shall be no Gazette, or such other Newspaper published there, then in some or One of the most publick Newspapers of such Island or Place; and if no Newspapers are there published, then by affixing Notice to the Church, or some other publick Building directed by the Governor of such Island or Place; and all Persons or Agents publishing, or causing to be published, every such Notification respectively, shall deliver to the Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher for the Time being of His Majesty's Customs, residing at, or belonging to the Port or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, or the lawful Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, and if there shall be no such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, then such Person or Agents as aforesaid shall deliver to the principal Officer or Officers of the Port or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, or to the lawful Deputy or Deputies of such principal Officer or Officers, Three of those Gazettes or other Newspapers in which such Notification shall be so inserted and published; and if there should not be any publick Newspapers in any such Island or Place, then such Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, shall give Three such Notifications in Writing, under his or their respective Hand or Hands, to the said Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, or the Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher; or where there shall be no such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, to such principal Officer or Officers, or his or their Deputy or Deputies aforesaid; and every such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, and principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies, shall subscribe his or their Name or Names on some conspicuous Part of each of the said Gazettes, Newspapers, or written Notifications respectively, and by the first Ship which shall sail (after his or their Receipt of such Gazettes, Newspapers, or written Notifications respectively) from such Port or Place to any Port in Great Britain, shall transmit or send to the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or the Deputy of such Treasurer for the Time being, One of the said Gazettes, Newspapers, or written Notifications, with his or their Name or Names so subscribed to and upon the same respectively, to be there registered, and another of the said Gazettes, Newspapers, or written Notifications, directed to the Treasurer of the Navy, or His Majesty's Paymaster of the Navy in London, and shall faithfully preserve and keep the other of the said Three Gazettes, Newspapers, or written Notifications, with his or their Name or Names thereon subscribed as aforesaid, in his or their Custody; and that in every such printed or written Notification as aforesaid, the said Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, shall insert or specify the Name or Names of the Prize or Prizes about to be distributed, and of the Ship or Ships by which the same shall have been captured, and also the precise Day of the Month and Year in which such Capture or Captures shall have been made, and also his or their Place or Places of Abode, Christian and Surname or Surnames at full Length, and the precise Day of the Month and Year appointed for the Payment of the several and respective Shares of the Prize or Prizes to the Captors; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in Great Britain, shall be published in the London Gazette Three Days at least before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes, shall be paid to any such Person or Persons entitled thereto; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned, or to be condemned in any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall be delivered to the said Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, or principal Officer or Officers as aforesaid respectively, or such respective Deputy or Deputies, One Day at least before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion of any LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That, together with the Gazette, Newspaper, or written Notification to be delivered to the Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, or to their lawful Deputy or Deputies, or to the principal Officer, or his Deputy or Deputies, there shall be delivered by the Agent or Agents a written Notification of the Amount of an Individual Share in each Class, which Notification shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, and a similar Notification shall in like Manner be delivered, and afterwards transmitted to the Treasurer of the Navy, or the Paymaster of the Navy in London; and if the Prize shall have been condemned in the High Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, a written Notification to the like Effect shall be transmitted by the Agent or Agents immediately upon Publication of Notice for Payment in the London Gazette, to the Treasurer of the Navy, or the Paymaster of the Navy in London, and to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Prize Agent shall, for Three Months after the Distribution has commenced of the Proceeds of any Prize condemned in England, or Bounty hereby granted, keep an Office open Two Days at least in every Week, during the usual Hours of Attendance, for the Payment of Shares remaining due, which Days, together with the Place where such Payments are to be made, shall be specified in the Notification of Payments published in the Gazette, on pain of forfeiting for every Neglect therein Five hundred Pounds; and at the Conclusion of such Three Months he shall suspend all further Payment to the Captors.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Agent appointed or to be appointed, for Appraisement or Sale of any Prize or Prizes taken or to be taken from the Enemy by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or hired armed Vessels, or for the Distribution of any Bounty Money, shall neglect or refuse to publish, give, or deliver any Notification herein directed or required to be published, given, or delivered or shall not give, publish, or deliver any such Notification before the Payment of any Part of such Prize or Bounty Money, and within the Times herein limited, or in the Manner herein appointed, or shall not specify or set forth in such Notification the Matters and Things herein directed to be specified and set forth, every such Person or Agent shall for such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds, at the Discretion of the Court in which the same shall be sued for, and if any Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher of His Majesty's Customs, or principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to receive or to attest, or shall not transmit or send any such Gazette, Newspaper, or written Notification as aforesaid, in such Manner as is before directed, every such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Notifications in all such Gazettes, Newspapers, and in Writing respectively as aforesaid, which shall be so transmitted and attested by such Collector, Comptroller, or Searcher, or principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, and registered at the said Royal Hospital, on Proof of the Hand-writing of such Collector, Comptroller, Searcher, principal Officer or Officers, or Deputy or Deputies, from Time to Time, and at all Times, shall be good and sufficient Evidence in all His Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity, and Admiralty, that the Person or Persons whose Name or Names is or are therein set forth and specified as the Agent or Agents of the Prize or Prizes therein respectively mentioned, is or are such Agent or Agents.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Person and Persons, Agent and Agents, already appointed or to be appointed by the Flag Officers or Flag Officer, Captains or Captain, Officers or Officer, Ships Companies or Ships Company, and others, of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or hired armed Ships, for the Distribution of any Bounty Bill or Bills Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, shall insert and publish or cause to be inserted and published under his given or granted by virtue of this Act, shall insert and publish or cause to be inserted and published under his or their Hand or Hands in the London Gazette, Three Days at least before the Payment or Distribution of any such Bill or Bills, publick Notification of the precise Day of the Month and Year appointed for the Payment of such Bounty Money, and shall insert in every such Notification the Place or Places of his or their Abode, and the Christian and Surname of the Agent at full Length.

“Where Notifications of Payments, have been or shall be given before the Time or without the Requisites directed by § 75, &c. such Notifications may be given, as to Prizes condemned in Great Britain before 26th July 1805; in Europe or America before 25th December 1805; or elsewhere before 25th June 1806.”
—§ 79.<sup>79</sup>

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That at the End of Four Months after the first Distribution of the Proceeds of any Prize, every Agent shall pay over all Shares and Balances then remaining unpaid, to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or such Person or Persons as he shall appoint and depute to receive the same; and shall likewise make out and transmit to the said Treasurer, or his Deputy or Deputies, a true Statement and Account in Writing under his Hand, of the Produce of all such Prize or Prizes as aforesaid, together with an Account of the Payments of the several Shares to the Captors, which shall have then been really and truly by him paid, and shall verify such Statement and Account on Oath, which Oath the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, is and are hereby authorized and required to administer; and such Agent shall, at the same Time, deliver to the said Treasurer, or his Deputy, an authentic authentic Duplicate of the Distribution or Prize List on which the Payments have been made; and also that every Person or Persons authorized by this or any other Act to receive Bills for the Bounty hereby granted, shall, within the like Space of Four Months next after the Day appointed for the first Payment or Distribution of such Bills for the Bounty as aforesaid, in like Manner transmit or deliver to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, a true Statement and Account in Writing under his Hand, of the Proceeds, Payments, and Distribution of such Bills, and verify the same as aforesaid, and in like Manner deliver a Duplicate of the Distribution List of such Bounty Money; and every Agent, and Person authorized to receive Bounty Money, who shall refuse or neglect, as herein directed, to pay such Shares and Balances within Thirty Days after the Expiration of such Four Months, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, over and above a Sum equal to the Sum then remaining in his Hands; and every Agent, or Person authorized to receive a Bounty, who shall, at the End of the said Thirty Days, have neglected or refused to transmit and verify an Account as above directed of the Proceeds of such Prize or Bounty, and of the Distribution thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and be liable to the Proceeds of the Courts until the said Duty be complied with and performed.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, and they are hereby directed and required, with all convenient Speed after any Account of the Produce of any such Prize or Prizes, and of the Payments of the several Shares thereof, to the respective Captors as last herein-before directed, shall have been rendered by any Agent or Agents to such Treasurer, to extract from such Accounts the Names of the several Persons whose Shares of such Prize or Prizes shall, at the Time of rendering such last mentioned Accounts, have been paid over by such Agent to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, together with the Amount of each such Share, and the Name or Names of such Prize or Prizes, and of the Ship or Ships of War by which they shall have been respectively captured; which Extracts shall be forthwith transmitted by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, to the Officer for Prizes in the Navy Pay Office, and shall there be open to the Inspection of all Persons interested therein, on every Day (Sundays excepted) within the usual Hours of Business at the said Navy Pay Office, for which Inspection no Fee or Gratuity whatever shall be due or payable.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That after the Balances shall have been so paid over to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, the said Treasurer, or his Deputy or Deputies, and the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, or his Chief Clerk, shall keep an Office open from Nine of the Clock in the Morning to Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, on every Day in the Week (Sundays excepted) for the Purpose of paying and refunding, and shall jointly pay and refund such Shares, when demanded, according to the Regulations herein-after contained.

LXXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Flag Officer, or Commissioned or Warrant Officer, shall direct by any Order in Writing, that his distributive Share or Balance shall not be paid over to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, the same shall remain in the Hands of the Agent, subject to all such further Orders as such Officer may give respecting the same.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Deduction shall be allowed on any Account in the Payments of unclaimed or forfeited Shares and Balances paid over to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, for any Sums not appearing upon the Prize List of Distribution to have been thereon paid and acknowledged, unless satisfactory Vouchers from the Parties, or their lawful Attorneys are produced for the same.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons belonging to any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or to any Merchant Ship employed in His Majesty's Service, who shall run away, or withdraw him or themselves from the Ship or Vessel by which any Prize or Prizes shall be taken from any of His Majesty's Enemies, or otherwise from His Majesty's Service, before or after Notification shall be given by the Persons or Agents appointed as aforesaid, of the Day appointed for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors of the said Prize or Prizes, shall have or be entitled to have or claim, any Interest in or Benefit from the said Share or Shares of the said Prize or Prizes, or the Bounty Money aforesaid, or any Part thereof that shall then remain unpaid; but such Share and Shares of such Prize or Prizes and Bounty Money, shall go and be paid to the Use of Greenwich Hospital, subject to the Privileges and Exemptions herein-before mentioned.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Agent or Agents for Prizes or Bounty Money shall be liable to be sued, or arrested by any Person or Persons who shall be made run from His Majesty's Service in the List, to be duly certified, of the Names of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, or others, who shall be actually on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War, at the taking of any Prize or Prizes, unless the Person or Persons so made run shall, before any Action brought, obtain a Certificate of his or their R. or R's being taken off, and the Forfeiture of his or their Shares of such Prizes and Bounty Monies being discharged by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or any Three or more of them, and shall produce such Certificate to the said Agent or Agents respectively, and unless the said Agent or Agents, on the producing of such Certificate or Certificates, shall refuse to pay the said Prize or Bounty Money, in case the same be due and payable, according to the Directions in His Majesty's Proclamation, within Three Months after any such Demand made, and such Certificate produced.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Agent, acting as such for any Prize in any of His Majesty's Settlements, Colonies, or Plantations abroad, or in any Place out of the United Kingdom, shall make up his Account, and deliver up, and verify the same in the Vice-Admiralty Court, in which such Prize shall have been commanded, in such Manner as the said Court shall require, within Six Months after the Commencement of the Distribution of the Proceeds of such Prize, and shall, under the Direction of the Court, on the Application of the Deputy of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital there resident, and in such Manner as shall be specified in any Order made for that Purpose, remit all unclaimed Balances and Shares, and all Shares of Run Men, to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital in England, or pay the same over to the Deputy Treasurer for the Purpose of being remitted, at the Election of the Deputy, so as that the same may be paid to the said Treasurer within Six Months after exhibiting his Accounts in such Court as aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting his Bond of Five thousand Pounds * : Provided always, that if the Condemnation of any such Prize shall have passed in the East Indies, then the Agent shall cause the same to be remitted, so as that the same may be paid to the Treasurer within Twelve Months after the verifying such Account as aforesaid.

[* See p. 57.]

Liffs of Prizes accounted for to Greenwich Hospital shall be transmitted to Persons appointed to receive Claims, for publick Inspection.

Where the Ship is absent, the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital may cause Money to be lodged in the Banks, &c. to accumulate for Benefit of the Captors.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That Lists of all Prizes accounted for to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, condemned in the High Court of Admiralty, or in any Court of Vice-Admiralty, shall be transmitted Six Times in every Year from the Office of the Clerk of the Cheque at Greenwich Hospital, to the several Persons appointed by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, to receive Applications and Claims for Prize and Bounty Monies, which Lists so transmitted, shall be open to Inspection by any Person or Persons who shall desire to inspect the same, on every Day (Sunday excepted) between the Hours of Ten and Four, for which Inspection, no Fee or Gratuity whatever shall be due or payable.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, having made any Capture or Captures, shall not be in any of the British or Irish, or North Seas at the regular Time of Distribution, so as to enable the Officers and Men thereof to be able to receive the same, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the said Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, to cause the Proceeds of such Capture or Captures to be paid to him or them, within One Month after the regular Period of Distribution, and when so paid to be forthwith lodged in the Bank, or invested in publick Security of Exchequer Bills, in the Names of the said Treasurer, the Secretary, and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, till the Return of the Ship or Ships, by which the Capture or Captures shall have been made, for the Benefit of the Captors; and on the Return of any such Ship or Ships, to cause such Proceeds, with all Accumulations thereon, under the Authority of the Directors of the said Royal Hospital, to be distributed within Three Months thereafter: Provided always, that if any Person or Persons entitled to share in such Prize and Bounty Monies, by reason of any Change of Ship or other Cause, shall apply for such his or their Share or Shares of any such Prize or Bounty Money, to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his Deputy, it shall be lawful for such Treasurer or his Deputy, to order and direct a sufficient Part of any such Securities to be sold and paid to such Person or Persons entitled as aforesaid, or to pay the same out of any other Monies in his Hands on Account of Prizes or otherwise, and to retain, for the Benefit of Greenwich Hospital, such Proportion as shall have been so paid, together with all Interest thereon, when such Securities shall afterwards be sold for Distribution.

Remedies given to Captors for enforcing Distribution of Prizes, &c. may be used by the Hospital.

XC. And be it further enacted, That all Powers and Remedies given by this Act to, or that may by Law be used or enforced, or Actions that may be brought by any Captors to compel Agents to exhibit their Accounts, and verify the same, and bring in Proceeds and enforce Distribution, or for any other Purposes relating to Prize Agency, may and shall be used, exercised, enforced, and put in Execution on Behalf of the Captors, by the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or by any Deputy or Deputies appointed by him as such in Matters relating to Prizes, in as full and ample a Manner as by the Captors themselves.

“ In Cases of Captures made before 1st January 1805, Agents shall distribute the Proceeds under 43 G. 3. c. 160. and transmit Accounts to Greenwich Hospital within Two Months, and pay all Shares of Run Men “ within One Month after passing the Act, § 91.”

Form of a Letter of Attorney for receiving Prize Money.

XCII. And whereas Petty Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, in His Majesty's Naval Service, have heretofore been, in many Instances, defrauded of their Prize and Bounty Monies, or large Proportions thereof, in consequence of their having improvidently, and without sufficient Consideration for the same, executed Powers of Attorney, and other Instruments, by which they have transferred their Interest not only in all such Prize and Bounty Money, which, at the Time of executing such Powers of Attorney or Instruments, might have been due to them, but also all Prize and Bounty Money to which they might thereafter become entitled; for Remedy whereof, and for preventing a Continuance of such Frauds and Impositions, be it enacted, That all Shares of Prize and Bounty Money due and to become due to Petty Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, shall be paid by the Agent or the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, and the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, or his chief Clerk, to the Persons entitled thereto, or Persons authorized by any Order to receive the same, which Order shall specify the Name of the particular Prize or Prizes for Distribution (should the Distribution be for more than One Prize), or if the Capture shall have been upon the Land, of the Place or Fortrefs out of which the Prize Money shall have arisen, together with the Name of His Majesty's Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels of War, by which such Prize or Prizes was or were taken, and shall contain a full Description of the Person giving such Order, signed by the Captain and one other signing Officer of the Ship in which the Party shall be then serving, or if discharged from the Service, then such Order, with such Description as before mentioned, shall be witnessed by the Minister and Churchwardens of the Parish in which such Party may reside, which Order being admitted and paid, shall remain with the Agent or Agents of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy, paying the same, and shall be in the following Form:

‘ or } Date.
‘ Place }

* At One Day's Sight, pay to A. B. or his Order, the Sum of [in Writing] being the Amount of my Share of Prize or Bounty Money for the Capture of Provided always, That, from and after the Expiration of Three Years next after any Prize or Bounty Money shall be paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, all such Shares of the said Prize and Bounty Monies as shall then remain unclaimed in the Hands of the said Treasurer or the said Commissioners and Governors of the said Royal Hospital, shall be paid and refunded to the Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, claiming and making Title to the same, and their legal Attornies and Representatives, in such and the same Manner as has been heretofore adopted by the Directors of the said Royal Hospital, or in such other Manner as the said Directors may at any Time hereafter judge more convenient and proper.

Prize Money unclaimed for Three Years.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That for the Stamp Duty on such Instrument or special Power of Attorney not more than the Sum of One Shilling shall be paid for each Person subscribing the same.

Stamp Duty on such Instrument, 1s.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the Time being to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as he may think fit to be his Deputy or Deputies, for receiving Applications and Claims for Prize and Bounty Monies at such Ports or Places within the United Kingdom, as he shall from Time to Time think necessary, whose Duty it shall be to prepare such Petitions and Applications, and transmit the same, together with the Certificates, to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Hospital may appoint Deputies for receiving Claims at Out-Ports.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons claiming any Share or Shares, or Balance or Balances of any Prize or Bounty Monies paid into Greenwich Hospital, to apply to any such Person to be appointed by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital as aforesaid, and upon producing to him such Certificates of Service in His Majesty’s Navy as such Claimant or Claimants may have in his, her, or their Possession, to sign a Petition or Petitions, Application or Applications, to the Directors of the said Hospital, to be prepared by such Person or Persons in Manner aforesaid, praying that such Share or Shares, Balance or Balances may be paid or refunded to such Claimant or Claimants, which Petition or Petitions, Application or Applications, together with the said Certificates, shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, who shall report thereon the Sum or Sums due to the Claimant or Claimants, with the Circumstances under which the same was or were paid into the Hospital, and refer the said Petition or Application, Petitions or Applications to the Navy Office, that the Service of the Claimant or Claimants may be ascertained, and returned to the said Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, or his chief Clerk, who, if such Service shall be found to correspond with the Certificates produced and transmitted, or Statement made by the Person or Persons claiming such Prize or Bounty Monies, shall certify the same to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, who shall thereupon, with the Approbation of One or more of the Directors of the said Hospital, send a Remittance Bill or Remittance Bills for the Amount, in the Manner and Form herein-after mentioned, or shall pay or remit the same in such other Manner as the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, with such Approbation as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time judge more expedient.

Mode of refunding Shares of Prize Money paid into Greenwich Hospital, on Application to such Deputies. [See f. 94. and also f. 80. &c.]

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Person claiming any Share or Balance of Prize or Bounty Money paid into Greenwich Hospital under the Authority of this Act, and residing and being in any Port or Place of the United Kingdom at which there shall be no such Deputy to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the Purposes last aforesaid, to apply for such Share or Balance, by Letter or otherwise, to the Treasurer, Secretary, or Clerk of the Cheque at the said Royal Hospital, and such Claimant or Claimants shall thereupon, if necessary, be furnished by such Treasurer, Clerk of the Cheque, or Secretary, with blank Petitions and Forms to be filled up and attested by the Minister, Churchwardens, or Elders of the Parish in which such Claimant or Claimants shall reside, which Petitions, when filled up, shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, together with any Certificates of the Service of such Claimant or Claimants, in the Navy, which such Claimant or Claimants may have in his or their Possession, and when the same shall have been returned from the Navy Office upon such Attestation and Certificates, and a Certificate shall have been obtained from the Navy Office of the Service of such Claimant or Claimants, corresponding with the Certificates which shall have been produced by him or them as aforesaid, such Share or Balance, Shares or Balances, shall be forthwith paid to such Claimant or Claimants, on Application at the Mode of refunding Shares to Persons resident in Parts where there is no such Deputy.

Money, which shall be at any Time paid and refunded by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital or his Deputy, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, shall be free and exempt from and not liable to any Duty of Stamps whatsoever; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Remittance Bills which shall be drawn upon and paid by the Receiver General of the Land Tax for any County, Riding, or City, Collector of the Customs for any Port or Collector of Excise for any Collection in the United Kingdom, upon being produced and delivered at the Office of the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, shall be immediately repaid by such Treasurer or his Deputy to such Receiver General of the Land Tax, Collector of the Customs, or Collector of Excise, or to their respective Orders.

XCIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any such Receiver General, Collector of the Customs, or Collector of the Excise, to whom the Duplicate of any of the Bills herein-before directed to be made out, shall be tendered for Payment, shall not then have in his Hands sufficient Money sufficient to answer the same, and shall therefore refuse or delay the immediate Payment thereof, such Receiver General, Collector of the Customs, or Collector of the Excise, shall immediately indorse on the Back of the said Duplicate the Day of its being so tendered to him, and the Cause of his Refusal or Delay to pay the same, and shall appoint thereon for the Payment of such Bill some future Day, within the Space of Two Months at the farthest from the Day of its having been first tendered to him as aforesaid, which Duplicate, with the Indorsement thereon, shall be immediately delivered back to the Person presenting the same; and if upon Complaint made to the respective Commissioners appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to manage the said several Duties of the Land Tax, Customs, or Excise, it shall appear that such Receiver General, Collector of Customs, or Collector of Excise, hath unnecessarily and willfully refused or delayed the Payment of such Bill, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Three or more of the said Commissioners to convict and fine any such Offender, under their respective Direction, in any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, according to the Nature or Degree of the Offence, which Conviction shall be made by the said respective Commissioners; and such Fine shall be levied and recovered in such and the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as any Conviction may be made, and any Penalty may be levied or recovered for any Offence against any Law by which any Customs or Excise is imposed or laid; and the said Fine, when levied, shall be paid to the Informer or Informers against such Offender.

C. And be it further enacted, That no Person paying any Share or Balance of Prize Money remitted from Greenwich Hospital, shall receive any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward, from or on Account of any Payment thereof, or of any Act, Matter, or Thing done, relating to the procuring or paying the same to any Claimant, or any Person on his Behalf, under any Pretence whatever, on pain of forfeiting, for every such Offence, One hundred Pounds.

CI. And be it further enacted, That all Letters or Packets addressed to the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the Time being, upon any Business or Affairs relative to such Prize Matters, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be free from the Duty of Postage, and also that all Letters or Packets sent by the said Treasurer, or by the Secretary of the said Royal Hospital for the Time being, or by the Officer for Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office, upon any Business relating to such Prize Matters in Manner and Form herein-after directed, shall be sent free from the said Duty of Postage; and all Letters and Packets relating to Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office that shall be forwarded by the said Treasurer or Secretary, or by such Officer for Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office as aforesaid, shall be under Cover, with the Words "Pursuant to Act of Parliament, Forty-fifth George the Third," printed upon the same; and the said Treasurer or Secretary of the said Royal Hospital or Officer for Prize Matters in the Navy Pay Office, as the Case may be, shall write his Name under the same; and they and each of them are and is hereby strictly prohibited from inclosing or sending under such Covers any Writing, Paper, or Parcel whatsoever, excepting such as relate to the Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, or to such Prize Matters respectively.

CII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Treasurer or Secretary, or Officer for Prize Matters as aforesaid, shall presume to send or convey under any of the Covers aforesaid, any Writing, Paper, or Parcel, other than those relating to the Business or Affairs of the said Royal Hospital, or such Prize Matters as aforesaid, the Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That all Captains and Commanders of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War, or hired armed Ships, shall, from Time to Time, as soon as the same can be done, transmit to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, Accounts in Writing of all Prizes taken, with the Name of the Port to which the Capture was sent, with the Name and Place of Aboard of the Agent or Agents, whether it is a single or joint Capture, and if joint, the Names of the several Ships alleged to be aiding in such Capture, with the Date of the Capture, and the Place where the same was made.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That the Prize Money to the Representatives of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines deceased, shall be paid only to their Representatives, or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, upon Production of the Cheque to be granted by the Inspectors of Seamen's Wills.

CV. And be it further enacted, That all Expences incurred in executing this Act, and the Sums paid in remunerating the Officers of the Navy Office, Navy Pay Office, or of Greenwich Hospital for their Care, Pains, and Trouble in executing the Regulations thereof, shall be subject to the Discretion of the Commissioners of the Navy, as far as the same relate to Officers or Persons employed in the Navy Office, or otherwise under the Orders of such Commissioners, to the Treasurer of the Navy, as far as the same relate to Officers or Persons employed in the Navy Pay Office, and of the Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital, as to all Officers and Persons employed or belonging to Greenwich Hospital, and shall be paid by them out of the Interest of unclaimed Shares, and Shares of Run Men, invested in Government Securities, or if necessary, out of the principal Sums in the Hands of the Treasurer of the said Hospital, on Account of such Shares of Penalty for not delivering Accounts, 100*l*.

Penalty for Frauds in stating Accounts, 500*l*.

Unclaimed Shares of Soldiers shall be paid to the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, &c.

Sessions shall be held for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas twice a Year.

CVI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Fees heretofore paid by the said Royal Hospital at the Navy Office, for tracing the Services of Persons claiming Shares of Prize or Bounty Money, shall cease, and be no longer due or payable.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That no Person employed by Greenwich Hospital, in executing the Regulations of this Act, shall act as an Agent for Prizes, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the Business thereof, under the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That on the Application of any Party interested in the Proceeds of any Prize, or of any Person on Behalf of the Treasurer of the Navy or Greenwich Hospital, and an Affidavit of any such Party, or any other Person, of his or her Belief that there are Proceeds of any Prize, or Papers or Books relating thereto, in the Possession of any Agent or Person or Persons, whether the said Prize or Prizes shall have been taken in the present or in any preceding War, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, to compel the Production of the same, and the bringing in of such Proceeds, and the answering to such Interrogatories touching the same, as the Court shall approve; and if it shall appear that the Party hath been cited without sufficient Cause, he shall be allowed his Costs against the Party making such Affidavit, or at whose Instance he hath been unduly summoned.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That any Captor, Agent, or other Person, who shall acquire or retain the Proceeds of any Prize contrary to the Provisions of this Act, except for reasonable Cause, to be allowed by the Court in which such Prize shall be adjudged, or by the High Court of Admiralty, shall pay Interest thereon at the Rate of One Pound per Centum per Month, for such Time as the same shall so be in their Custody or Possession, besides all other Penalties imposed by this Act.

CX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Oath to any of the Matters herein-before required to be verified on Oath, or suborn any other Person to do, such Person or Persons shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury; and that if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any Commission for War or Letter of Marque, or any Warrant for making out the same, or any Certificate required or directed by this Act to be given for obtaining the same, or shall publish or make use of any such Commission for War, or Warrant for making out the same, or any Certificate as aforesaid, knowing the same to be counterfeited, erased, altered, or falsified, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons hereby directed to transmit or deliver all or any of the Accounts before mentioned, who shall neglect or refuse to transmit or deliver all or any such Account or Accounts to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, or his said Deputy or Agent, within the Time before limited and appointed, in Manner and Form as herein-before mentioned, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall pay the Expence of any Application to any Court to compel the Production and Delivery of the same.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Fraud, Collusion, or Deceit shall be wittingly or willingly made, used, committed, permitted, or done or suffered in making, stating, or balancing such Accounts, then every Person or Persons who shall be thereof duly convicted, and his and their Aiders and Abettors, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That all unclaimed Shares of Soldiers serving in any conjunct Expedition with His Majesty's Naval Forces, as described in this Act, shall be paid to the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, for the Use of the said Hospital, within Six Months after Distribution commenced; subject nevertheless to be refunded to any Individual entitled to the same, and establishing his Claim thereto, within Six Years from such Payment to the said Treasurer; and that it shall be lawful for the said Treasurer to compel the Agents for the Army, to exhibit and verify their Accounts, and pay over such Balances, in like Manner as the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital is herein empowered to compel the producing and verifying of Accounts and Payment of unclaimed Shares from the Naval Prize Agents; and the High Court of Admiralty shall exercise the same Powers and Authorities for discovering and compelling the Payment of all Shares of Soldiers for remaining unpaid, in this or any former War, in like Manner as the said Court is enabled to do by this or any other Act, respecting the unclaimed Shares of Mariners serving in His Majesty's Ships of War.

CXIV. And, for the more speedy bringing of Offenders to Justice, and to prevent the Inconveniences occasioned by the Want of frequently holding a Session of Admiralty for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas; be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, shall be held twice at the least in every Year at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, (except at such Times as the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the City of London and County of Middlesex shall be appointed to be there held), or in such other Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, and at such Times in each Year, as the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall by any Letter or Order in Writing under their Hands, directed to the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England, for the Time being, appoint.

CXV. And

CXV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful, not only to and for any One or more of the said Commissioners, for the Time being, named in the Commission of Oyer and Terminer for trying of Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, but also to and for any One or more of the Justices of the Peace, for the Time being, of any County, Riding, Division, or Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered, from Time to Time, to take any Information or Informations of any Witnesses or Witnesses in Writing, upon Oath, touching any Murder, Piracy, Felony, or Robbery done or committed, or charged to have been done or committed in or upon the Sea, or in any Haven, River, Creek, or Place where the Admiral or Admirals hath or have Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction; and thereupon (if such Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, shall see Cause, by any Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to cause the Person or Persons accused in such Information or Informations to be apprehended and committed to the Gaol of the County or Place where the same Information or Informations shall be taken, there to remain until discharged by due Course of Law.

CXVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That such of the Commissioners or Justices of the Peace, who shall cause any such Person or Persons to be committed as is last mentioned, shall, and he or they is or are hereby respectively required, at the same Time to oblige all and every such other Person or Persons to whom such Commissioner or Commissioners, or a Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall judge necessary, to prosecute and give Evidence against the Person or Persons who shall be so committed as aforesaid, to enter into One or more Recognizance or Recognizances to His Majesty in a sufficient Penalty for his, her, or their appearing at the then next Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be held for the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, there to prosecute and give Evidence against the Person or Persons who shall be committed as aforesaid; and if any Person shall refuse to enter into such Recognizance to prosecute or give Evidence as shall be required, he, she, or they so refusing, shall be committed by any such Commissioner or Commissioners, Justice or Justices, to the Gaol of the County or Place in which the Person so refusing shall be, until the next Sessions of Admiralty shall be held, or such Persons shall enter into such Recognizance as shall be required as aforesaid; which Recognizance or Recognizances, together with the Information or Informations taken touching the Offence or Offences wherewith the Person or Persons to be committed as aforesaid shall be charged, the said Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the same shall be taken, shall, and they are hereby respectively required to transmit, with all convenient Speed, to the Register, for the Time being, of the High Court of Admiralty of England, to be by him forthwith laid before the Judge, for the Time being, of the same Court, and afterwards to be kept among the Records of that Court.

CXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Marshal of the Admiralty for the Time being, and his Deputy or Deputies, and all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Stewards, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Keepers of Gaols and Prisons, and all other Officers whatsoever for keeping of the Peace, (as well within Liberties as without), shall, and they and every of them are hereby respectively authorized and required, from Time to Time, diligently to execute, perform, and obey all such Precept and Precepts, Warrant and Warrants, and other Order and Orders, as shall at any Time or Times hereafter be made, directed, issued, or given to them or any of them respectively, by One or more of the said Commissioners named in the Commission of Oyer and Terminer, or Justices of the Peace, by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, touching any of the Matters or Things herein contained.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where the Offence of taking a false Oath, or suborning any Person to do, any of the Offences by this Act made cognizable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain shall be committed out of this Realm, the same may be alleged to be committed, and may be laid, enquired of, tried, and determined in any County in England, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been actually done or committed within the Body of such County.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, wherefoever the same shall arise or become forfeited, may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or Motion and Attachment thereon, in His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty, unless in Cases where any other Mode is by this Act particularly directed, and all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, which shall arise or become forfeited in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions abroad, may be recovered in any Court of Record of His Majesty in the Colony, Territory, or Place where the same shall arise or have become forfeited, or in any of His Majesty's Vice-Admiralty Courts having Jurisdiction there.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which any Agent or Person is by this Act made subject to the Forfeiture of any Sum of Money equal to any Money remaining in his Hands, or to the Amount of any Balances or Shares, such Sum or Sums of Money shall, on Recovery thereof, go and be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who shall have been aggrieved by the Misconduct of such Agent or Person; and all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, other than as aforesaid, other than such as are by this Act directed to be otherwise applied and disposed of, shall go and be applied to the Use of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, and shall be sued for in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors thereof.

CXXI. "Recital of 31 G. 2. c. 10. § 24. and also 9 G. 3. c. 30. § 6. making the perfonating Seamen, &c. or forging a Letter of Attorney, or uttering the same, to obtain Wages or Prize Money, Felony without Clergy." And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Punishment inflicted by the said Two last recited Acts of Parliament, on Persons guilty of the several Offences therein mentioned, extends to such Offences when committed with an Intention to defraud any Corporation; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, whofoever willingly and knowingly shall personate or falsely assume the Name or Character of, or procure any other to personate or falsely to assume the Name or Character of any Officer, Seaman, Justices, as well as Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, may take Information of Offences at Sea, and commit Offenders for Trial.

Such Justices, &c. may require Recognizances for Witnesses to appear ensuing Admiralty Sessions; or on refusal commit them; and shall transmit Information, &c. to Register of Admiralty.

Marshal of the Admiralty, &c. shall execute Warrants.

Offences committed out of the Realm may be tried in any English County.

Recovery of Penalties.

Application of Penalties and Forfeitures; by Agents, to Party grieved; by others, to Greenwich Hospital.

Offences of person using Seamen, &c. or forging any Letter of Attorney, or taking a false Oath to obtain Probate, &c. or uttering any forged Letter of Attorney, Will, &c. to receive any Wages or Prize Money with Intent to defraud any Corporation shall be Felony without Clergy.

Seaman, or other Person entitled or supposed to be entitled to any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, for Service done on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or the Executor or Administrator, Wife, Relation, or Creditor, of any such Officer or Seaman or other Person, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, due or supposed to be due or payable for or on account of the Services of any such Officer or Seaman, or other Person as aforesaid, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Assignment, last Will, or any other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive any such Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, which shall be due or be supposed to be due to any such Officer or Seaman, or other Person as aforesaid, or shall willingly and knowingly take a false Oath, or procure any other Person to take a false Oath to obtain the Probate of any Will or Wills, or to obtain Letters of Administration, in order to receive the Payment of any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, which shall be due, or be supposed to be due to any such Officer, Seaman, or other Person as aforesaid, who shall have really served, or shall be supposed to have served on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; or if any Person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, utter or publish as true any false, forged, or counterfeited Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, or Assignment, last Will, or any other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, due or supposed to be due to any Officer or Seaman, or other Person, who shall have really served or shall be supposed to have served, or shall hereafter serve or be supposed to have served on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, with Intent to defraud any Corporation whatsoever, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeited, every such Person being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

Limitation of Actions Three Years.

CXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons whatsoever, for any Matter or Thing whatsoever done or committed under or by virtue or in the Execution of this Act, unless such Action shall be brought within Three Years next after doing or committing of such Matter or Thing, save as to Matters or Things arising out of Captures in any former War: Provided also, that if any Action or Suit shall be hereafter commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Matter or Thing done under, by virtue, or in the Execution of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or suffer Discontinuance, or forbear further Prosecution, or if Judgement shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, such Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, for which he, she, or they shall have the like Remedys where Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Continuance of Act during the War, except as to Matters in Judgement, &c.

CXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force during the present War, and no longer; save and except as to all such Matters and Things as shall be depending in Judgement in the High Court of Admiralty, or other Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Dominions abroad, or Court of Appeal, or in any Court of Record in Great Britain, at the Time when the present War shall cease; and also save and except as to all such other Matters and Things which shall be brought into Judgement before the said High Court of Admiralty, or other Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Dominions abroad, or Court of Appeal, or in any Court of Record in Great Britain, in consequence of any Capture or Captures made during the present or any former War, or of any Offence or Offences committed contrary to this Act; and also save and except as to the Power by this Act given to His Majesty, to grant to any Judge of any Court of Vice-Admiralty any such Annuity as aforesaid, and in such Cases, and on such Conditions as aforesaid, in respect whereof this Act shall continue in full force until such Matters, and every Thing dependant thereupon, shall be finally adjudged and determined; and also save and except the Regulations contained in this Act regarding Letters of Attorney and Orders of Petty Officers and Seamen, Non-commissioned Officers of Marines and Marines; and also save and except as to the Clauses and Provisions herein contained, by which the Punishment attached to the Crimes of perjoaking Seamen, and of Forgery when committed with Intent to defraud any Person or Persons, is extended and made applicable to such Offences when committed with Intent to defraud any Corporation or Corporations; and also save and except all Regulations regarding all Powers and Interests given to the Treasurer of the Navy, and the Commissioners and Governors and other Officers of Greenwich Hospital, all which shall continue in force until repealed by any subsequent Act of Parliament.

C A P. LXXIII.

An Act to enable the Commissioners of the Treasury to contract with certain Proprietors of Stock created by Two Acts, passed in the Thirty-seventh and Forty-second Years of His present Majesty, for granting other Annuities in lieu thereof, or to pay the same off at the Period therein mentioned.

[27th June 1805.]

“ [See 45 G. 3. c. 8.—The Period for Parties signifying their desire to take Annuities in 5 per Cent. Consols and 3 per Cent. Reduced, (in lieu of 5 per Cent. Annuities under 37 G. 3. c. 10., &c.) extended to 16 Sept. 1801; in which case Parties shall be entitled to said 5 per Cent. Consols, &c. from 10 October 1805, § 1.—“ Or, on failure, Treasury may raise Money to pay off Annuities on said 10 October.” ]

C A P. LXXIV.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries.

[27th June 1805.]

“ Number of Tickets 90,000, in Three Lotteries § 1. 2.—Treasury may retain Money necessary for Payment of the Fortunate Tickets, and One-third of the Surplus shall be applied to the Services of Ireland, § 3.”

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of Nine hundred thousand Pounds, in case the Number of Tickets shall amount to Ninety thousand, shall be distributed and divided into Prizes to be drawn in the said Lotteries in such Manner as shall be appointed and directed by the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, which said Sum of Nine hundred thousand Pounds shall be payable out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament for Great Britain and Ireland; provided always, that if the whole Number of Tickets which shall be stipulated to be drawn in such Three Lotteries shall not amount unto Ninety thousand, then such Sum only as the Sum of Ten Pounds, for each and every Ticket so stipulated to be drawn, would in the Aggregate amount unto, shall be distributed and divided into Prizes, and be payable as aforesaid; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, is or are hereby required and authorized, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand or Hands, to cause the Sum so to be distributed and divided into Prizes to be issued and paid out of the said Aids or Supplies to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them distributed and paid to and amongst the respective Proprietors of the several Fortunate Tickets within Two Months after the Conclusion of the Drawing of each of the said Lotteries, or as soon as Certificates can be made out for the Sums due in respect of the same.

[In other respects this Act is similar to 44 G. 3. c. 93. See that Act and the References there.]

C A P. LXXV.

An Act to remove Doubts touching Appointments to certain Offices in the Court of Chancery made during the Vacancy of the Office of Register and Keeper of the Register and Registers in that Court.

[27th June 1805.]

“ WHEREAS it is expedient to remove all Doubts touching the Validity of any such Appointments as are herein-after mentioned; be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Appointments and Nominations which, from Time to Time, during any Vacancy of the Office of Register and Keeper of the Register and Registers in the Court of Chancery of that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, shall be made by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of such Part of the United Kingdom, under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners respectively, of any Person or Persons to be a Sub-Register or Sub-Registers, Deputy Register or Deputy Registers, or Filer or Keeper of the Reports, and Certificates and Books of Entries of Orders and Decrees, or to be an entering Clerk or entering Clerks for entering Orders made in the said Court, or to hold any Office or Offices, Place or Places, the Nomination or Appointment to which might have been made by the Person or Persons holding the aforesaid Office of Register and Keeper of the Register and Registers in case such Office had not been vacant, shall be and be deemed and taken to be Appointments and Nominations, valid and effectual in the Law, of all and every such Person and Persons to such Office and Offices, Place and Places respectively, to which he or they respectively shall be so nominated and appointed.

Appointments, during the Vacancy of the Office of Registrar, &c. by the Lord Chancellor, &c. of Persons to be Sub-Registers, &c. shall be valid.

C A P. LXXVI.

An Act to amend an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of His Majesty's Crown in Ireland, and for granting to His Majesty a Civil List Establishment under certain Provisions and Regulations.

[2d July 1805.]

“ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of His Majesty's Crown in Ireland, and for granting to His Majesty a Civil List Establishment, under certain Provisions and Regulations, the High Treasurer, Vice Treasurer or Vice Treasurers of Ireland, or such Person or Persons as should be authorized thereto, were empowered to pay any Sum of Money to the Principal Secretary, to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for Secret Service, in detecting, preventing, or defeating treasonable or other dangerous Conspiracies against the State; and it was by the said recited Act enacted, that it should be sufficient to acquit and discharge such Secretary, to make Oath in Manner as in the said Act is directed: And whereas in consequence of the Union between Great Britain and Ireland the said Chief Secretary is frequently absent from Ireland upon urgent and necessary Business, and the said recited Provisions of the said Act have on account thereof been found inconvenient, and certain Sums of Money may have been, or may be issued and paid for such Secret Service, by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer in Ireland, to the Under Secretary for Civil Affairs in the Office of the said Chief Secretary; and it is expedient that the Payment, Issuing, and Application of such Sums should be confirmed and regulated by Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with

15th Civil List Act, 33 G. 3. c. 34

Irish Treasury may pay Money for Secret Service to the Under Secretary for Civil Affairs.

the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or for the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Treasurer, to pay any Sum of Money to the Under Secretary for Civil Affairs for the Time being, in the Office of the said Chief Secretary, for Secret Service, in detecting, preventing, or defeating treasonable or other dangerous Conspiracies against the State, in any Place in Ireland; and that it shall be sufficient to acquit and discharge any such Under Secretary, to whom any such Money may have heretofore been or shall hereafter be paid and issued, for such Under Secretary to make Oath before One of the Barons of the Exchequer in Ireland, in the Form following:

Oath to be taken by such Under Secretary.

I A. B. do swear, that the Money paid to me for Secret Service, for the Purposes of detecting, preventing, or defeating treasonable or other dangerous Conspiracies against the State, has been bona fide applied to such Purposes and no other, and that the Application of such Money has been approved by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland.

So help me GOD.

And that the Payment, Issuing, and Application of all and every Sum and Sums of Money, which may have heretofore been or shall hereafter be paid and issued to the said Chief Secretary, or to such Under Secretary, and of the Application of which, Oath shall be made as aforesaid, shall be good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Dividends shall be issued at the Bank of England to any Bodies Politick or Corporate or Companies, or Feesees or Trustees for charitable or other publick Purposes, in respect of any Bank Annuities, which shall have been purchased with any Monies which have arisen, or shall arise, from the Sale, Mortgage, or Grant of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, belonging to any such Bodies Politick or Corporate or Companies, or Feesees or Trustees for charitable or other publick Purposes, for the Redemption of Land Tax, unless and until the Bodies Politick or Corporate or Companies, or Feesees or Trustees for charitable or other publick Purposes, applying for such Dividends, shall have obtained and shall produce to the Cashier of the Bank of England, a Certificate, under the Hands of any Two of the said Commissioners appointed, or to be appointed, under the Great Seal, certifying that it hath appeared to them, by the Production of the Contract for the Redemption of the Land Tax, or by the Affidavit.

Affidavit of the Agent, or some other Person acting in Behalf of such Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, or Feoffees or Trustees for charitable or other publick Purposes, that they have redeemed, or are proceeding, or intend bonâ fide, and with reasonable Diligence, to redeem the Land Tax charged on their Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or so much and such Part of the said Land Tax, as it had been proposed to redeem by the Monies arising from the Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, which by the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, had been authorized to be made for that Purpose.

on Certificate of Special Commissioners.

III. And be it further enacted, That after the passing of this Act, the Clerks to the Commissioners of Land Tax; acting in and for the several Hundreds, Wards, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions in England, and the Clerks to the Commissioners of Supply of the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, or Burghs, in Scotland, shall, and they are hereby required, in all Cases where no Alteration shall have been made in the Assessment of Land Tax for the preceding Year, within Six Days after the Appeal against any such Assessment shall have been determined, in case any Appeal shall be made, or in case no Appeal shall be made against such Assessment, then within Six Days after the Expiration of the Time fixed for hearing Appeals, to transmit to the Commissioners appointed, or to be appointed, by His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to act in the Execution of the said recited Act, for the County, Stewartry, Riding, or Place, a Certificate, signed by any Two or more of the said Commissioners of Land Tax, or Supply, that no Alteration hath been made in the Assessment of Land Tax of the preceding Year; and it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Acts, at any Time after the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, and before the Receipt of such Certificate as aforesaid, or before the Receipt of the Copy of any altered Assessment of Land Tax, by the said recited Act required to be transmitted to the said Commissioners, to contract and agree with any Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, or other Person or Persons applying to redeem any Land Tax, comprised in any such Assessment, unless a Certificate to the Amount of such Land Tax, signed by Two of the said Commissioners of Land Tax, or Supply, shall be produced and shewn to them, by or on the Behalf of the Bodies or Persons so applying to redeem such Land Tax; and in case the said Clerk to the Commissioners of Land Tax, or Supply, shall refuse or neglect to transmit such Certificate within the Period aforesaid, he shall, for every such Refusal or Neglect, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered in like Manner as any Penalty may be by the said recited Act be recovered.

Clerks to Commissioners of Land Tax shall transmit to Commissioners under 42 G. 3 c. 116. a Certificate, that no Alteration has been made in the Assessment of Land Tax of the preceding Year: Commissioners shall not contract with any Person for Redemption of Land Tax, till such Certificate (or a Copy of the Assessment if altered) be produced. [30-42 G. 3. c. 116. § 73.] Time given for fulfilment of Deeds.

IV. And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for the Enrolment and Registry of Deeds, which have not been duly enrolled or registered pursuant to the Directions of the said recited Act, and of the several other Acts passed relating to the Redemption of Land Tax; be it therefore further enacted, That all Deeds required by the said recited Act, or any other Acts relating to the Redemption of Land Tax, to be enrolled or registered, shall be valid and effectual, although the same shall not have been or shall not be enrolled or registered within the Periods prescribed by the said Acts respectively, provided the same shall have been enrolled or registered before the passing of this Act, or shall be enrolled or registered within Six Calendar Months after the passing thereof.

An Act to indemnify all Persons concerned in advancing Forty-thousand Pounds to Messieurs Boyd, Benfield, and Company, in One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, out of Monies issued for Naval Services. [2d July 1805.]

WHEREAS the Sum of Forty thousand Pounds was, on or about the Ninth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, advanced by the Right Honourable Henry Lord Viscount Melville, then the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Treasurer of the Navy, to certain Merchants in the City of London, then carrying on Trade under the Firm of Boyd, Benfield, and Company, out of Money which had been issued from the Exchequer, and placed at the Bank of England to the Credit of the Treasurer of the Navy, for Navy Services: And whereas the same was advanced on unquestionable Securities, which have been regularly discharged, and the Whole of the said Sum of Money has been repaid and applied to Navy Services: And whereas the Right Honourable William Pitt, then First Lord Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury, and Chancellor of His Majesty's Exchequer, did agree to the advancing of the said Sum of Money to Messieurs Boyd, Benfield, and Company: And whereas the Measure of advancing Forty thousand Pounds to Messieurs Boyd, Benfield, and Company, was adopted for the Purpose of averting Consequences which might have proved highly injurious to the Financial and Commercial Interests of this Kingdom, and, although not conformable to Law, appeared at the Time to be called for by the peculiar Exigence of publick Affairs: And whereas it is therefore expedient that all Persons concerned in advancing or advising, or consenting to the advancing the said Sum of Money, or acting under any Direction relating thereto, should be indemnified: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Right Honourable Henry Lord Viscount Melville, and the Right Honourable William Pitt, and all other Persons concerned in advancing or advising, or consenting to the advancing the said Sum of Forty thousand Pounds, or acting under any Directions relating thereto, shall be and are hereby indemnified for and on Account of the same, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if the same had been done in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament.

Recital of the Advance of 40,000l. to Messrs. Boyd, Benfield, and Co. out of Money placed at the Bank for Navy Services.

Lord Melville and R. Hon. W. Pitt, &c. indemnified for advancing the said Sum of 40,000l.

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the Losses of such of His Majesty's loyal Subjects as had been Sufferers in their Property during the Rebellion in Ireland: And whereas an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for more effectually carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Thirty-eighth Year, and also for providing a Fund for rewarding Persons who had rendered Service by Discovery of Traitors: And whereas an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending and continuing the said Two last recited Acts, and for authorizing the Payment of certain Sums to Persons who had suffered in their Persons, and to the Widows and Orphans of others who lost their Lives in the Rebellion, and to Persons who exerted themselves in discovering the said Rebellion, and were exposed to Danger, or sustained Injury in consequence thereof: And whereas certain Claims made for Compensation under the said Acts, to the Number of about One hundred and forty, still remain undetermined by the Commissioners appointed under the said Acts respectively, in consequence of the respective Claimants having neglected to come before the said Commissioners to prove the Truth of their respective Cases, although they have been repeatedly required to do so, as well by Advertisements in the publick Papers as by Notices distributed and posted in the usual Manner throughout Ireland: And whereas the Commissioners appointed under the said Acts, have no Power under the said Acts either to reject any Claim which has been regularly lodged with them, merely on account of the subsequent Neglect of the Claimant in the Proof thereof, or to close or terminate their Commission while any Claim that has been duly lodged with them shall remain unheard or undetermined; by which Means a considerable Expence may be unnecessarily continued to the Publick; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners under the said recited Acts, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, immediately after the passing of this Act, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, by Advertisement to be Three Times published in Two of the Dublin Newspapers, and also, if they think the same necessary, by Notices to be published and distributed in like Manner as Notices have by the said Commissioners heretofore been published and distributed, to fix and appoint a certain Period, to be mentioned in such Advertisements and Notices, such Period not being less than One Month from the Day of the Third Insertion of the said Advertisements, within which Period all Persons claiming any Benefit, Compensation, or Reward, under the said recited Acts, or any of them, shall be required and allowed by the said Commissioners to come before the said Commissioners, and to prove their respective Claims; and that from and after the Expiration of the said Period, no such Claim or Proof shall be admitted or received, but all Claims then pending and undetermined shall be barred and foreclosed for ever.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every Right or Rights, Claim or Claims whatsoever, of or for any Benefit, Compensation, or Reward, under the said Acts, or any of them, which shall not have been heard and finally determined by the said Commissioners before the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and six, shall be and the same is and are hereby barred and foreclosed for ever; and that on the said First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and six, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under the said recited Acts, or any Three of them, to reject all and every Claim and Claims not before that Time heard and finally determined; and to declare that such Claims are barred and foreclosed for ever, and to close and terminate their Commission accordingly.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and six, all Powers and Authorities given to the said Commissioners under and by virtue of the said recited Acts or any of them, or under or by virtue of any Commission issued by Authority of the said recited Acts or any of them, and all Benefits and Advantages whatever to such Commissioners, shall cease and determine, and all such Commissions shall become absolutely void and of no Effect; any Thing contained in the said recited Acts or any of them, or in any such Commission, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

inform themselves by such Means as in the said Act are mentioned, of the clear improved yearly Value of every Benefice with Cure of Souls, Living, and Curacy, and of the true and clear improved yearly Value of the Maintenance of every Parson, Vicar, Curate, and Minister officiating in any such Churches or Chapels as are therein mentioned, and how such yearly Values arose, with the other Circumstances thereof, and be fame to certify to the said Governors, for their better Information in the Premises; in which said Act is contained a Proviso, that where by Certificates returned into Her said Majesty's Court of Exchequer in all Willsmisters, pursuant to an Act made in the Fifth Year of Her Reign, intituled, An Act for discharging in all Livings from their First Fruits and Tenths, and all Arrears thereof; and one other Act made in the Sixth Year of Her Reign, intituled, An Act to enlarge the Time for returning the Certificates of all Ecclesiastical Livings not exceeding the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds, and for other Purposes, or either of them, or made good by the said recited Act of the First Year of King George the First, the yearly Value of any Livings not exceeding the clear yearly Value of Fifty Pounds, were particularly and duly expressed and specified, such Certificates should ascertain the yearly Values of such Livings, in order to their being augmented by the said Governors, and no new or different Valuation thereof should be returned to the said Governors by virtue of the said recited Act: And whereas since the Time that such Certificates were returned into the Exchequer, in pursuance of the said Acts of the Fifth and Sixth of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, many Livings in such Certificates mentioned, and thereby returned as not exceeding the clear yearly Value of Fifty Pounds, for the Purpose of being discharged from First Fruits and Tenths, are by subsequent Improvement of their Glebes and Tithes, and by Inclosures and other Means, become of much greater Value; and in order that the Bounty of her said late Majesty may be applied as was originally intended, for the Augmentation of small Livings, in Places where the same are not already sufficiently provided for, and that Her Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Relief of the Poor Clergy may be more speedily and effectually carried into Execution, it is become expedient that the Governors of the said Bounty should be empowered to receive new Valuations of such Livings as were so returned into the Exchequer: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the respective Bishops of every Diocese, and the Guardians of Spiritualities Sede vacante, shall be and are hereby empowered from Time to Time as they shall see Occasion, and as may best serve the Purposes of the said Bounty to the Poor Clergy, by such Ways and Means as in the said Act of the First Year of His Majesty King George the First, are mentioned in that Behalf, to inform themselves of the clear improved yearly Value of such Benefices with Cure of Souls, Livings, and Curacies as were returned into the Exchequer in pursuance of the said Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, within their several Dioceses, or within any Peculiar or Places of exempt Jurisdiction within the Bounds and Limits of their respective Dioceses, or adjoining or contiguous thereto, although the same be exempt from the Jurisdiction of any Bishop in other Cases, and how such yearly Values arise, with the other Circumstances thereof; and the same or such of them, whereof they shall have fully informed themselves, from Time to Time with all convenient Speed to certify to the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, for their better Information in the Premises; and the said Governors are hereby authorized and empowered, with respect to the Augmentation of such Livings, so formerly certified into the Exchequer as aforesaid, to act upon and be guided by such new Certificates of the Value and other Circumstances thereof, made in pursuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as they are in and by the said first herein-before mentioned and in part recited Act, enabled to do with regard to such Livings as were not so certified into the Exchequer, and as if the Restraint of the said Proviso therein had not been made, the same Proviso or any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Certificates as were returned into the Exchequer for the Purpose of ascertaining what Livings were to be discharged from First Fruits and Tenths, shall not, so far as the same relate to the First Fruits and Tenths, be affected or altered in any Manner whatsoever by any Thing in this Act contained.

III. And in order to facilitate the Intentions of all such Persons as may be disposed to contribute to the Augmentation of such Livings and Curacies as are within the Meaning of the Laws now in force, respecting the said Bounty; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons having in his, her, or their own Right, any Money, Goods, Chattels, or other personal Effects, at his, her, or their Will and Pleasure, to give or grant to, or vest in the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne and their Successors, to be by them disposed of according to Law, all or any Part of such Money, Goods, Chattels, or other personal Effects, without any Deed or Deeds, either enrolled or not enrolled, in like Manner as he, she, or they could or might have done, either by Deed or Deeds enrolled or otherwise, before the passing of this Act, any Statute or Law to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

IV. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall in any Manner alter or affect the Law now in force respecting the Gift or Conveyance of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by any Deed or Deeds; or the Disposition thereof, or of any Goods, Chattels, or other personal Property, by Will or Testament.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Bounties and Duties payable thereon: And whereas it is expedient that some of the Provisions of the said Act, as to the regulating the Importation and Exportation by the Average taken in the said Act is directed should be repealed, and others thereof amended: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, to such of the said Act as requires that the Importation and Exportation of Corn, Grain, Malt, Meal, Flour, and Biscuit, into and from England and Wales, and into and from Scotland, shall be regulated, as to England and Wales, by the Average Prices of the Whole of the Twelve Maritime Districts thereof, and as to Scotland by the Average Prices of the Whole of the Four Districts in Scotland, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and from the said Fifteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation and Exportation of Corn, Grain, Malt, Meal, Flour, and Biscuit, into and from every Part of Great Britain, shall be regulated by the aggregate Average Price of the Whole of the Twelve Maritime Districts of England and Wales in the said Act mentioned; such Average Price to be ascertained from such Returns, and in such Manner as is directed by an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported; and by another Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend an Act made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported,' for ascertaining the Average Prices of Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour.

II. And be it nevertheless further enacted, That no Corn, Grain, Malt, or Flour, shall, after the Commencement of this Act, be allowed to be exported from any District of Great Britain, or be laden on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported when the Prices of such Corn or Grain respectively, in such District, ascertained in Manner aforesaid, shall have been in the preceding Week at or above the Import Rates.

III. And whereas it is expedient that the Period for which Permissions by Orders in Council to import Corn, Meal, or Flour, now by Law continue in force, should be extended as to all Corn, Meal, or Flour imported under any such Permission from Quebec or the other British Colonies and Plantations in North America; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Permission granted by any Order in Council under the said recited Acts of the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His Majesty's Reign respectively, or either of them, for the Importation of any Sort of Corn, Meal, or Flour, from Quebec or the other British Colonies and Plantations in North America, shall continue in force for Six Months at the least, from the Date of the Order in Council made for that Purpose, any Thing in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. LXXXVII.

An Act to authorize the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to permit certain Articles to be warehoused in different Ports in Great Britain, upon giving Security for the Payment of Duties upon the Articles therein mentioned. [10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses, without Payment of Duty, His Majesty, by His Order in Council, is empowered to permit certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, enumerated and described in the Tables to the said Act annexed, or such other Articles which by virtue of the said Act may be added to such Tables, and which may be deemed proper and fit to be landed and lodged in Warehouses, or otherwise secured according to the Directions of the said Act, at any Port of Great Britain, without Payment at the Time of the First Entry of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof; provided it shall be made to appear that such Port is, with respect to the Trade and Commerce carried on therein, and from the Nature of its Situation, a Port to which it would be just and reasonable to extend the Advantages by the said Act granted, and also that the Docks, Wharfs, and Warehouses shall have been built and erected within such Port complete, fit, and proper in every respect for the Landing and Reception of any such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, and wherein the same may respectively be safely imported and landed, and securely deposited according to the Nature thereof, and wherein the same may remain under the Regulations of the said Act: And whereas it may be expedient

44 G. 3. c. 109.

§ 2. of recited Act repealed. Importation and Exportation of Corn, &c. into and from Great Britain, shall be regulated by the Average Prices of the 12 Maritime Districts in England and Wales, as ascertained by the Returns required by 31 G. 3. c. 30. [See §. 31] and 33 G. 3. c. 62.

No Corn, &c. shall be exported when the Price in the preceding Week. Import Rates.

43 G. 3. c. 132a [See §. 10.]

Treasury, (on being satisfied that it is just and reasonable,) may direct that Goods described in Tables (A.) and (B.) of recited Act, (except Tobacco,) and also Wine from the West Indies, may be landed and warehoused without Payment of Duty, at any Ports in Great Britain, although Docks, Wharves, and Warehouses, are not built at such Port.

Bonds shall be given that the Goods shall enter be duly exported, or that the Duties shall be paid.

Warehouses shall be secure against Fire, to entitle Parties to Exemption from Duty in case of Accident.
[See 43 G. 3. c. 122. f. 16.]

to extend the Benefit and Accommodation to Trade granted to the Port of London by the said recited Act, as far as the Security of the Revenue will permit, to other Ports in Great Britain, although such Docks, Wharfs, or Warehouses as by the said Act are required, may not have been built and erected within such Ports; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, that any Port in Great Britain is, with respect to the Trade and Commerce carried on therein, and from the Nature of its Situation, a Port to which it would be just, reasonable, and safe to extend the Advantages granted by the said recited Act, although such Docks, Wharfs, and Warehouses as are required by the said recited Act may not have been made, erected, or built within such Port; it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to order and direct that any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Tables to the said Act annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) (Tobacco excepted), and also Wine imported from the West Indies, may be landed and lodged in Warehouses, or otherwise secured, under the joint Locks of the Merchant and the Customs, and also of the Excise, in Cafes where that Revenue is concerned, at such Port, without Payment at the Time of the First Entry of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and thenceforth all and every the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Restrictions, Acts, Matters, and Things, relating to the landing, warehousing, keeping, inspecting, taking account of, or otherwise securing of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize under the said Act, and of the Duties due and payable thereon, shall, in so far as the same are applicable, and except where the same are altered or varied by this Act, extend and be construed to extend to the Port or Ports named in such Order, in like Manner in every respect, and as fully and amply, as if such Port or Ports had been or should be entitled to the Advantages given or granted by the said recited Act.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That before any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be allowed to be warehoused under any such Order as aforesaid, without Payment at the Time of the First Entry of the Duties of Customs due on the Importation thereof; the Proprietor, Importer, or Confignee of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall enter into Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with One sufficient Surety to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the Port where such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be landed, in Double the Amount of the full Duties due and payable on the Importation of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, with Condition that such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize shall be either duly exported, in the Manner and under such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by the said recited Act are directed, in respect of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or that the full Duties of Customs, due and payable on the Importation of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be paid to the Collector or proper Officer of the Customs, within the Space of Twelve Months from the Date of the First Entry thereof.

III. And whereas it is by the said recited Act provided, that no Duty of Customs or Excise whatever shall be demanded or paid for any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize warehoused in pursuance of the said Act, which shall be destroyed by Fire; be it further enacted, That no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize allowed to be warehoused in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, which shall be destroyed by Fire, nor the Importer, Proprietor, or Confignee thereof, shall be exempt from the Payment of any of the said Duties of Customs or Excise, which may be due thereon, unless every Fire Place or Stove in the Warehouses or Buildings, in which the same shall be deposited, shall be bricked up or destroyed, and such Warehouses or Buildings shall in all other respects, to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, and also of the Excise, in all Cafes where that Revenue is concerned, be rendered secure from Fire; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. LXXXVIII.

An Act for repealing the Duties of Customs on Cochineal Dust and Granilla imported into Great Britain; and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof. [10th July 1805.]

43 G. 3. c. 68.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and by other Acts passed subsequent thereto, certain Duties of Customs were imposed on Cochineal imported into Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient to lower the said Duties, so far as the same relate to Cochineal Dust and Granilla, imported (other than by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies) into Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, the Duties of Customs now payable by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year aforesaid, upon Cochineal Dust and Granilla, imported (other than by the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies) into Great Britain, shall cease and determine, save and except as to any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures relating thereto, which shall be incurred at any Time before the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five; and instead and in lieu thereof there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon all Cochineal Dust and Granilla Duties on Cochineal Dust and Granilla imported (except by the East India Company) in lieu of former Duties.

Granilla imported (other than as aforesaid) into Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs following; (that is to say),

For each and every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Cochineal Dust, the Sum of One Penny Farthing :

And for each and every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Granilla the Sum of Three-pence Half-penny.

II. And be it further enacted, That the additional Duties of Customs which, by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year aforesaid, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War and until the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and on the Tonnage of Ships and Vessels in Great Britain; and also of an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War, and for Six Months after the Expiration thereof by the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize into Great Britain, and on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, brought or carried coastwise within Great Britain; and also of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties within Great Britain, on certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into or brought or carried coastwise; are payable on Cochineal Dust and Granilla imported (other than as aforesaid) into Great Britain, for and in respect of every One hundred Pounds of the Produce and Amount of the Duties of Customs due and payable thereon by virtue of the said first recited Act of the Forty-third Year aforesaid, shall, from and after the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, be payable for and in respect of every One hundred Pounds of the Produce and Amount of the Duties of Customs due and payable on Cochineal Dust and Granilla imported (other than as aforesaid) into Great Britain by virtue of this Act, any Thing in the said recited Acts or any of them contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

" Duties shall be levied, &c. as former Duties, § 3.—Excess of former Duty beyond the Amount of " Duty payable by this Act shall be returned to Persons having paid the same since 5th July 1803,— " § 4."

C A P. LXXXIX.

An Act to alter and extend the Provisions of the Laws now in force for the Punishment of the Forgery of Bank Notes, Bills of Exchange, and other Securities, to every Part of Great Britain.

[10th July 1805.]

" WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing and further Punishment of Forgery, Perjury, and Subornation of Perjury, and to make it Felony to steal Bonds, Notes, or other Securities for Payment of Money; and also by an Act, passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the forging or Acceptance of Bills of Exchange, or the Numbers or principal Sums of accountable Receipts for Notes, Bills, or other Securities for Payment of Money, or Warrants or Orders for Payment of Money or Delivery of Goods; and also by an Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty General Rates and Duties upon Offices and Pensions, and upon Houses, and upon Windows or Lights, and for raising the Sum of Five Millions by Annuities and a Lottery, to be charged on the said Rates and Duties; and also by an Act, passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for establishing an Agreement with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for advancing the Sum of One million six hundred thousand Pounds towards the Supply for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty-two; and also by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the Forgery of Bank Notes, Bank Bills of Exchange, and Bank Post Bills, certain Provisions were made and enacted for the preventing and punishing the Forgery of Bank Notes, and other Notes, Bills, and Instruments, in these Acts respectively mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that such Provisions should extend and be in force in every Part of Great Britain, with such Alterations and Amendments therein as are hereby made; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered, or willingly act or assist in the false making, forging, counterfeiting, or altering any Deed, Will, Testament, Bond, Writing obligatory, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note for Payment of Money, Indorsement or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note for Payment of Money, Acceptance of any Bill of Exchange, or any Acquittance or Receipt either for Money or Goods, or any accountable Receipt for any Note, Bill, or other Security for Payment of Money, or any Warrant or Order for Payment of Money or Delivery of Goods, with Intention to defraud any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate whatsoever; or shall offer, dispose of, or put away any false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Deed, Will, Testament, Bond, Writing obligatory, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note for Payment of Money, Indorsement or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note for Payment of Money, Acceptance of any Bill of Exchange, Acquittance, or Receipt, either for Money or Goods, accountable Receipt for any Note, Bill, or other Security for Payment of Money, Warrant or Order for Payment of Money or Delivery of Goods, with Intention to defraud any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, knowing the same to be false, forged, counterfeited, or altered, then every Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted according to the due Course of Law, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

C A P. XC.

An Act to empower His Majesty to retain upon Full Pay and Allowances Officers of the Militia during the War, notwithstanding the Reduction. [10th July 1805.]

Encl

WHEREAS it may be expedient to retain a Number of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals of the several Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia within Great Britain, notwithstanding the Reduction which shall have taken place therein, in pursuance of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act for allowing a certain Proportion of the Militia in Great Britain voluntarily to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces and Royal Marines, and notwithstanding the Number of such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals, shall in consequence of such Reduction exceed the Proportion of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals, prescribed for the said Regiments, Battalions, or Corps respectively, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to direct any Number of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals, actually serving in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, at the Time that any Reduction of the Number of the private Men of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, shall have taken place, or shall take place by the Discharge of Men, for the Purpose of enlisting into the Regular Forces and Royal Marines, under the above recited Act, to be retained during the Continuance of the present War, or for so long Time during the Continuance thereof as His Majesty shall think fit, as Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals, respectively, of such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, although by reason thereof the Number of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals respectively, of any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, shall by such Reduction of the Number of Private Men therein as aforesaid, exceed the Proportion of Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals, respectively prescribed for any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, by any Act or Acts now in force; and all such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals, so retained as aforesaid, shall be entitled to such Pay, Emoluments, and Advantages as other Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Corporals respectively are by Law entitled unto, any Thing in any Law or Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

45 G. 3. c. 31.

His Majesty may direct any Number of Officers, &c. serving in the Militia at the Time of the Reduction of Privates, to be retained, although the Number may exceed the Proportion prescribed for any Regiment, &c.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers so retained who shall exceed the Proportion of Officers respectively prescribed for any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, shall, being duly qualified according to any Act or Acts relating to the Militia of England and Scotland in that Behalf, succeed to Vacancies which may occur in such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps respectively according to their respective Ranks, and beginning with the eldest Officer of each Rank respectively.

Such Officers shall succeed to Vacancies.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where the Establishment of Field Officers of any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, shall, previously to such Reduction thereof as aforesaid, have consisted of One Colonel, Two Lieutenant Colonels, and Two Majors, and by reason of such Reduction, One Colonel, and One Lieutenant Colonel only, and Two Majors, shall be allowed on the Establishment thereof, and One of such Majors shall at any Time after such Reduction have died or resigned, then and in such Case, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order, signed as aforesaid, to direct that the Lieutenant Colonel, who in consequence of such Reduction would have been retained as a Supernumerary Lieutenant Colonel under the Provisions of this Act, shall remain and continue upon the Establishment of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, with the full Rank of Lieutenant Colonel, but nevertheless with the Pay, Emoluments, and Advantages of Major, any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

An Act for appointing additional Commissioners for the better examining and auditing certain of the Publick Accounts of Great Britain. [10th July 1805.]

85 Geo. 3. c. 52.

His Majesty may appoint Three Commissioners as an additional Board for examining and auditing Publick Extraordinary Accounts under Direction of the Treasury.

Oath of Commissioners.

Two a Quorum.

Treasury may appoint Officers and Clerks.

Powers of Commissioners of Publick Accounts under 25 G. 3. c. 52. &c. extended to Commissioners under this Act.

Accountants and other Persons concerned in Accounts under Examination subjected to the Provisions of said Act 25 G. 3. c. 52.

Commissioners shall not be Members of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Publick Accounts of Great Britain have so much increased since the Commencement of the late War, that the Commissioners appointed under an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for auditing the Publick Accounts, have not been able to enter upon the Examination of a considerable Part of such of the said Accounts as have been already delivered into their Office, and others have not yet been rendered by the Parties accountable to the Publick; and it is therefore expedient, in order to prevent the great Inconvenience which will arise from any further Delay in the Examination and auditing of the said Accounts, that an additional Board of Commissioners should be appointed for the Purpose of examining and auditing such of the said Accounts as are herein-after specified; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to nominate and appoint Three Persons to be an additional Board of Commissioners for examining and auditing, according to a Selection to be made from Time to Time by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, such of the extraordinary Accounts of the publick Expenditure of Great Britain as the said Commissioners appointed under the said Act of the Twenty-fifth Year aforesaid shall not have begun to examine; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, are hereby authorized and empowered, to order and direct any such Accounts of the publick Expenditure of Great Britain since the Commencement of the late War, or any other publick extraordinary Accounts, the Examination of which shall not have been begun upon, as they shall think fit, to be examined and audited by the said Commissioners to be appointed under this Act, who shall forthwith proceed to examine and audit the same accordingly; any Thing in the said Act of the Twenty-fifth Year aforesaid to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners so to be appointed as aforesaid, before they shall enter upon the Execution of the Powers vested in them by this Act, shall take an Oath before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, which he is hereby authorized and required to administer, the Tenor whereof shall be as followeth; (that is to say,)

I A. B. do swear, That according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially, and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act, intituled, An Act for [Here insert the Title of the Act.]

And any Two of the said Commissioners may do any Act, Matter, or Thing, which by this Act all such Commissioners are authorized and empowered and required to do.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall be and they are hereby authorized to appoint such Officers and Clerks, and other Persons, as shall appear to them to be necessary from Time to Time, for making up and preparing for Declaration such of the Publick Accounts of Great Britain as shall from Time to Time be laid before the said Commissioners to be appointed under this Act, for the Purposes of being examined and audited by them; and to allow such Salaries or Rewards to such Officers, Clerks, and other Persons, as they shall judge proper.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act shall be and they are hereby invested with such and the same Powers and Authorities, and shall be subject to the Performance of the same Duties, and liable to the same Control in every Respect, in relation to the Examination and auditing of all Accounts which shall be so directed to be examined and audited by them; and shall have the same Power of examining, on Oath, or otherwise, any Person or Persons touching the Receipt and Expenditure of Money forming the Charge and Discharge of each Account respectively, and touching all other Matters and Things necessary for the due Execution of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by this Act, as the Commissioners appointed by virtue of the said Act of the Twenty-fifth Year aforesaid, for auditing the Publick Accounts, are now under the said Act, or by any other Law, or any Usage or Custom, invested with, or are subject and liable to in relation to the Examination and auditing of any of the Publick Accounts of Great Britain; and the Examination and auditing of any such Accounts by the Commissioners to be appointed under this Act, and all Matters and Things ordered, directed, or done by them in relation thereto, or to any Accountants, Sub-accountants, or other Person or Persons concerned therein, or examined touching the same, in pursuance of this Act, shall be as valid and effectual in all Respects, and to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, as if the same Accounts had been examined, and the said Acts, Matters, and Things done by the Commissioners appointed under the said Act of the Twenty-fifth Year aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Accountants, Sub-accountants, and other Persons, concerned in any Accounts under Examination before the Commissioners to be appointed under this Act, or to be examined by the said Commissioners touching the same, shall, and they are hereby required to demean themselves in such Manner in all respects, and to do all such Matters and Things, as by the said Act of the Twenty-fifth Year aforesaid is directed and required in like Cases, and shall be subject and liable to such Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as by virtue of the said Act they would have been subject and liable to, for any Breach, Non-performance, Failure, or Neglect thereof; or for wilfully and corruptly giving false Evidence, in case such Accounts had been under Examination before the Commissioners appointed under the said Act.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared, That no Commissioner to be appointed by virtue of this Act shall, during his Continuance in such Office, be capable of being elected or of sitting as a Member of the House of Commons.

An Act to amend Two Acts of the Thirteenth and Forty-fourth Years of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Execution of the Criminal Laws, and more easy apprehending and bringing to Trial Offenders escaping from one Part of the United Kingdom to the other, and from one County to another.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Execution of the Criminal Laws in the Two Parts of the United Kingdom; and by another Act, passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to render more easy the apprehending and bringing to Trial Offenders escaping from one Part of the United Kingdom, to the other, and also from one County to another; Provision is made for the apprehending of Offenders in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, so that such Offenders may be apprehended in one of the said Parts of the United Kingdom for Offences charged to have been committed within either of the other Parts of the same: And whereas there is no Provision made in the said Acts for admitting such Persons to Bail, who may be so apprehended for Offences which by Law are bailable: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case any Person or Persons shall be apprehended in one of the said Parts of the United Kingdom for an Offence which was committed, or charged to have been committed, in either of the other Parts of the same, under any Warrant indorset in such Manner as is in that Respect provided by virtue of either of the said recited Acts, such Person or Persons shall and may be taken before the Judge or Justice who indorset the said Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices of the County, Stewartry, City, Liberty, Town or Place where the same was indorset; and in case the Offence be bailable in Law, and such Offender or Offenders shall be willing and ready to give Bail for his, her, or their Appearance, according to the Exigence of the said Warrant, such Judge or Justice or Justices by whom such Warrant was indorset, or before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be brought, shall and may proceed with such Offender or Offenders, and take Bail for him, her, or them, according to the Exigence of the said Warrant, in the same Manner as the Judge or Justice who originally issued the same should or might have done; and such Judge or Justice or Justices taking Bail as aforesaid shall take the Recognizance or Bail Bond of the said Offender or Offenders, and of his, her, or their Bail, in Duplicate, and shall deliver one of such Duplicates to the Constable, or other Officer or Officers, or Person or Persons for apprehending such Offender or Offenders as aforesaid, who are hereby required to receive the same, and to deliver or cause to be delivered such Recognizance or Bail Bond to the Clerk of the Crown, or Clerk of the Peace, or other proper Officer for receiving the same, belonging to the Court in which by such Recognizance or Bail Bond such Offender or Offenders shall be bound to appear, and such Recognizance or Bail Bond shall be as good and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, and of the same Force and Validity, as if the same had been entered into, taken, or acknowledged before a Judge or Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Stewartry, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, where the Offence was committed; and the said Judge or Justice or Justices taking Bail as aforesaid, shall transmit the other of such Duplicates to the Court of Exchequer of such Part of the United Kingdom in which such Bail shall be taken, there to be kept of Record; and it shall and may be lawful for the Court, in which any Person is bound to appear shall forfeit his, or her said Recognizance or Bail Bond, to transmit a Certificate, testifying the Forfeiture thereof, under the Seal of the Court, or under the Hand and Seal of one of the Judges or Justices of the same, to the Court of Exchequer, in that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Recognizance or Bail Bond shall have been taken; and it shall and may be lawful for such Court of Exchequer to proceed upon such Certificate to levy the Sum so forfeited, in the same Manner in which they may proceed upon any Recognizance or Bail Bond, taken and forfeited within the same Part of the United Kingdom, and treated in due course into the said Court: Provided always, that if such Offence be not bailable in Law, or such Offender or Offenders shall not give Bail for his, her, or their Appearance, according to the Exigence of such Warrant, the said Judge or Justice or Justices before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be brought, shall remand him, her, or them to the Custody of the Constable or other Officer or Person who shall have apprehended such Offender or Offenders, and such Constable, Officer, or other Person shall proceed to convey such Offender or Offenders into that Part of the United Kingdom wherein the Offence was committed, by such Ways and Means as are provided by the said recited Acts respectively.

II. And whereas it may happen by reason of the Difference in the Law prevailing in the said different Parts of the United Kingdom, that the Judge or Justice or Justices before whom any Offender or Offenders shall be brought, under such Warrant so indorset, may not know whether the Offence mentioned in such Warrant be or be not bailable; for the better Information therefore of such Judge or Justice or Justices in that Particular, be it further enacted, That in case any Person suing out such Warrant shall shew, by Affidavit or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Judge or Justice granting such Warrant, that it may be necessary to execute such Warrant in a Part of the United Kingdom different from that in which such Warrant is issued, and it shall appear also to the Judge or Justice granting such Warrant, that it is granted for an Offence for which it would not be lawful for any Judge or Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender or Offenders might be brought, by reason of the Indorsetment of such Warrant as directed by the said recited Acts, to admit such Offender or Offenders to Bail, such Judge or Justice granting such Warrant shall, upon the Face of such Warrant, write the Words "not bailable;" and in all Cases in which such Words shall not have been so written, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge or Justice or Justices, before whom any Offender or Offenders may be brought under such Warrant so indorset, to admit such Offender or Offenders to Bail.

13 G. 3. c. 31.

44 G. 3. c. 92.

Parties apprehended in one Part of U. K. for Offences charged to be committed in any other Part thereof, shall be admitted to Bail, and Duplicates of the Bail Bond shall be delivered, one to the Officer apprehending, and the other to the Court of Exchequer, &c.

Parties not bailable, nor bailed, shall be remanded to Custody as under recited Acts.

The Judge, &c. granting the original Warrant, shall write "not bailable;" or the Face of Warrants for Offences not bailable, &c.

Service of Subpœna on Parties or Witnesses in any Part of the United Kingdom shall be valid to compel Appearance in any other Part.

III. And whereas it is fit to provide for the Appearance of Persons to answer in Cases where Warrants are not usually issued, and to give Evidence in Criminal Prosecutions in every Part of the United Kingdom; be it further enacted, That the Service of every Writ of Subpœna, or other Process, upon any Person, in any one of the Parts of the United Kingdom, requiring the Appearance of such Person to answer or give Evidence in any Criminal Prosecution in any other of the Parts of the same, shall be as good, and effectual in Law as if the same had been served in that Part of the United Kingdom where the Person so served is required to appear; and in case such Person so served shall not appear according to the Exigence of such Writ or Process, it shall be lawful for the Court out of which the same issued, upon Proof made of the Service thereof, to the Satisfaction of the said Court, to transmit a Certificate of such Default under the Seal of the same Court, or under the Hand of One of the Judges or Justices of the same, to the Court of King's Bench in England in case such Service was had in England, or in case such Service was had in Scotland, to the Court of Justiciary in Scotland, or in case such Service was had in Ireland, to the Court of King's Bench in Ireland; and the said last mentioned Courts respectively shall and may thereupon proceed against and punish the Person so having made Default, in like Manner as they might have done if such Person had neglected or refused to appear in obedience to a Writ of Subpœna or other Process issued out of such last mentioned Courts respectively.

Expence of Attendance on Writs of Subpœna shall be tendered to Witnesses.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That none of such last mentioned Courts shall in any Case proceed against or punish any Person for having made Default by not appearing to give Evidence in obedience to any Writ of Subpœna or other Process for that Purpose, unless it shall be made to appear to such Court that a reasonable and sufficient Sum of Money to defray the Expences of coming and attending to give Evidence, and of returning from giving such Evidence, had been tendered to such Person at the Time when such Writ of Subpœna or other Process was served upon such Person.

Judges shall not indorse Warrants under recited Acts, unless an Indictment, &c. found, or for some Capital Crime or Felony.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Judge or Justice to indorse by virtue of either of the said recited Acts or this Act any Warrant, unless the same shall appear to have issued, if in England or Ireland upon some Indictment found or Information filed, or if in Scotland upon some Libel or Criminal Letters raised and passed under the Signet of the Court of Justiciary, against the Person or Persons named in such Warrant, or unless the same shall appear to have issued in respect of some Capital Crime or Felony mentioned in such Warrant; any Thing in this and the said recited Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Before Warrants are acted upon, Proof shall be given of the Sealing, &c. thereof.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared, That in all Cases in which any Warrant or Certificate shall, by virtue of either of the said recited Acts or this Act, be required to be acted upon in any Part of the United Kingdom, other than that in which the same was originally issued, it shall not be lawful for any Court, or any Judge or Justice to proceed to enforce or act upon the same, until it shall be proved upon Oath to such Court, Judge, or Justice, that the Seal, Signet, and Signature upon the same, are the Seal, Signet, and Signature respectively of the Court, Judge, or Justice, whose Seal, Signet, and Signature, the same respectively shall purport to be.

An Act shall not affect Prosecutions depending on the 44 G. 3. c. 92.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall, with respect to any Prosecution depending before the passing of this Act, be deemed or taken by any Court to alter or affect in any Manner the Construction of the said Act of the Forty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, if any Question should arise whether such Prosecution be authorized by the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act.

An Act to amend so much of an Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating certain of the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Duties in Scotland under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, as relates to the Appointment of Assessors and Sub-Collectors, and the Notices required to be delivered to Persons assessed to the said Duties.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Acts, so far as the same relate to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland: And whereas certain Inconveniences have been found to arise from the Appointment of Assessors under the Provisions of the said Act, it is expedient that the same should be amended in the Particulars after mentioned: may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case the Commissioners appointed to put into Execution the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts for granting Duties to be assessed under the Regulations of that Act, shall not, at their usual annual Meeting held on the Thirtieth Day of April in each Year, appoint Assessors for each Parish or other small District, within the Shire, Stewartry, City, or Borough, for which they the said Commissioners act, or where such Assessors, if appointed, shall not signify to the Surveyor of the Shire or District their Acceptance of the Appointment within Thirty Days thereafter, that then and in every such Case it shall

II. And whereas in the said Part of Great Britain called Scotland, certain Inconveniencies and Delays have been found to arise from the Notices required by the said Act to be given by Collectors of the Assessment made on the Parties within the District for which such Collectors are appointed; he it therefore enacted, That, instead of such Notices being sent or delivered to the respective Parties, it shall be sufficient for the Assessor, or if no Assessor is appointed, then for the Surveyor, to affix to the Church Door of each Parish within his District a List, containing the Names and Descriptions of all and every Person within each respective Parish assessed to the said Duties, together with the Article or Articles, and the Sum or Sums of Money for which they are respectively assessed, which List being so affixed shall be deemed and held to be an effectual Notice to the Parties for all the Purposes of the said recited Act, as fully as if the same had been delivered to such Parties separately, and the said respective Surveyors shall cause the said Notices of Assessment from Time to Time to be replaced, if necessary, for Three successive Sundays; and every Person wilfully removing, tearing, defacing, or obliterating any such Notice so affixed, shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, which Penalty shall be recovered in Manner directed by the said recited Act, as to the Penalties therein mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall have Power and Authority in any District or Districts, where the Commissioners appointed as aforesaid shall recommend the Appointment of a Sub-Collector or Sub-Collectors, to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as the Commissioners shall so recommend, and for whom the said Commissioners shall be answerable, to be Sub-Collector or Sub-Collectors for such Districts, or such Parts of Districts as to the said Barons shall seem necessary or expedient, which Sub-Collector or Sub-Collectors shall have Power and Authority to collect and receive from any Person or Persons within such Districts or Parts of Districts, paying the same to him or them the Sum or Sums of Money for which they are respectively assessed; provided the Sum payable on each Assessment does not exceed Twenty Shillings; and the said Sub-Collectors shall send or remit the said Duties so collected or received by them without Delay, or at furthest on or before the First Day of the next Month after receiving the said Duties, to the Collector of the County within which such District or Part of a District is situated, and the said Collector is hereby required to grant to them a proper Receipt for such Monies, and shall be in charge for the Monies so received, which Receipts are to be transmitted by the said Sub-Collectors to the Remembrancer of Exchequer at Edinburgh, and for their Trouble in collecting and receiving such Duties, each Sub-Collector shall have such Allowance or Reward as the said Barons of the Court of Exchequer, on a due Consideration of the Circumstances of the Case, shall think just and reasonable, not exceeding Three Halfpence in the Pound, which Sums to be so allowed shall be paid by the Collectors of the respective Counties upon an Order from the said Barons.

An Act for continuing the Premiums allowed to Ships employed in the Southern Whale Fishery. [10th July 1805.]

“ Premiums allowed to Ships under Regulations of Acts 35 G. 3. c. 92. and 38 G. 3. c. 57 § 1. [See 42 G. 3. c. 18. § 1.]—Eight Ships clearing out between 1st January and 31st December 1806, (and Two succeeding Years), which shall fail to the southward of the Equator and fifth, and shall first return before 1st December in the subsequent Year with the greatest Quantity of Oil, shall all receive a Premium of £300. § 2.—
“ Four other Ships, clearing out within the said Time, which shall fail to the southward of 36 Degrees South Latitude, and return in not less than 14 Months, but before 31st December Twelvemonth after sailing, shall receive £400 each. § 3. [See 42 G. 3. c. 18. § 2, 3.]”

IV. And be it further enacted, That for Ten other such Ships or Vessels which shall be so fitted and cleared out between the First Day of January and the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and six, and between the First Day of January and the Thirty-first Day of December in each of the Two succeeding Years, and shall double Cape Horn, or pass through the Streights of Magellan into the South Seas, and carry on the said Fishery during the Space of Four Months to the Westward of Cape Horn in those Seas, or shall double The Cape of Good Hope, and carry on the said Fishery during the Space of Four Months to the Eastward of One hundred and five Degrees of East Longitude from London, and shall not return to some Port of Great Britain till after the Expiration of Sixteen Calendar Months from the Day on which they cleared out, but before the Thirty-first Day of December in the Second Year after their clearing out, there shall be paid and allowed Six hundred Pounds to any one of such Ships or Vessels which shall so sail and arrive within the Times herein last-mentioned with the greatest Quantity of Oil and Head Matter taken together, being not less in the Whole than Thirty Tons, and being the Produce of any Whale or Whales or other Creatures being in those Seas, and taken and killed by the Crew of such Ship or Vessel in the said Voyage, either Outward or Homeward; and there shall be paid and allowed Five hundred Pounds to each of Nine of such Ships and Vessels last before before mentioned, which shall so fail and arrive within the Times herein last before mentioned, with the next greatest Quantity of Oil and Head Matter taken together, being not less in the Whole than Thirty Tons, and being the Produce of any Whale or Whales or other Creatures being in those Seas, and taken and killed by the Crew of such Ship or Vessel in the said Voyage, either Outward or Homeward.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Apprentice belonging to any Ship or Vessel fitted out on the said Fishery, who shall not have completed Two Voyages, and whose Age shall not exceed Twenty-one Years, shall not be impressed from the said Service; and Special Protections shall be issued by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to protect such Apprentices from being impressed into His Majesty's Service.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Ships which shall clear out for the Southern Whale Fishery, and shall return to any Port in Ireland with a Cargo of Oil, the Produce of the said Fishery, within the Period limited by this Act, shall be entitled to all the Benefits and Advantages arising from Bounties, Remission of Duties, or otherwise, granted by the said recited Acts of the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, in the like Manner and to the same Extent as if such Ships had returned to any Port in Great Britain.

Certain Apprentices in Fisheries shall receive Protections.

Benefits of Acts 35 and 38 G. 3. extended to Ships returning from the Fishery to Ports in Ireland.

C A P. XCVII.

An Act to indemnify all Persons who have been concerned in issuing an Order of Council and Directions for extending the Time of certain Ships continuing to perform Quarantine.

[10<sup>h</sup> July 1805.]

"Recital of Order in Council, dated December 1, 1804, requiring Performance of Quarantine, by certain Ships. Persons concerned in issuing or acting under such Order indemnified as if the same had been issued under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 80. [See 45 G. 3. c. 10. § 11, 12.]—§ 1.—Actions commenced shall be stayed. § 2."

C A P. XCVIII.

An Act for increasing the Drawback on Linens exported from Great Britain to the West Indies.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS it would tend to the Benefit of the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom, if the Drawback of the Duties of Customs allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of certain Species of Foreign Linen to any Island under the Dominion of His Majesty in the West Indies, in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somers Islands are included, were increased; be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, there shall be paid and allowed, on the due Exportation from Great Britain to any Island under the Dominion of His Majesty in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somers Islands are included), of the several Species of Linen enumerated and described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), and which shall be duly entered for Exportation accordingly, after the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, instead and in lieu of the Drawbacks now respectively allowed on any such Goods so exported, the Whole of the Duties of Customs which shall have been paid on the Importation into Great Britain of any such Linen, except only the respective Sums mentioned in the said Table, and declared therein to be the Sum to be retained, and not to be drawn back on any such Linen so exported, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that the several and respective Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs hereby granted shall be paid and allowed in such and the like Manner, and under all the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the former Drawbacks on any such Goods were paid and allowed; and that all the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures applicable thereto, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, shall be extended to the Purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

Instead of the Drawbacks now allowed on Exportation of certain Foreign Linens to the British West India Islands, and the Import Duty shall be allowed except the Sums mentioned to be retained in annexed Schedule. [See 43 G. 3. c. 68 Schedule A. Linen.]

C A P. XCIX.

An Act for regulating and encouraging the Trade, for the Improvement of the Revenue, and Prevention of Smuggling to and from the Ile of Man. [10th July 1805.]

20 G. 3. c. 42. WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for granting to His Majesty several additional Duties upon certain Goods imported into the Ile of Man, and for better regulating the Trade and securing the Revenues of the said Ile: And whereas a Report was made by certain Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to investigate certain Points relating to the Ile of Man, which Report was, by Command of His Majesty, laid before both Houses of Parliament: And whereas an Act, founded on the said Report, was passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's

38 G. 3. c. 63. Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Trade and Manufacture of the Ile of Man, for improving the Revenue thereof, and for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling to and from the said Island; and which Act was to continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and one,

41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 34. and was, by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, amended and further continued until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and two: And whereas the Provisions of the said temporary Acts have fully answered the Purposes thereof, and been found highly beneficial, and have therefore been continued by subsequent Acts until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five: And whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have, under the Powers vested in them by the said Acts, allowed the Importation of Spirits in different Proportions than are specified in the said recited Acts, and of greater Quantities of some of the other Articles imported into the said Ile under Licence: And whereas it is expedient that the Regulations of the said Acts should now be made permanent, and the Duties granted by the several Acts be consolidated, and that the Commissioners of Customs in England and Scotland respectively should be authorized to license the Importation into the said Ile, of the Quantities of licensed Articles heretofore imported under the Authority of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, under the said Acts; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, or any Four of them, and they are hereby required (if the same shall be lawfully demanded under the Authority of this Act so to do), to grant their Licences, to be in force until the Fifth Day of July succeeding the granting of such Licences, for the Importation into the Port of Douglas, in the Ile of Man, but to no other, in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, and not of less Burthen than Fifty Tons, of the Quantities of Wine, Brandy, and Geneva, following, from any Port or Place whatever; (that is to say), One hundred and Ten Tons of Wine, Ten thousand Gallons of Foreign Brandy, and Ten thousand Gallons of Foreign Geneva, and no more; and of the Quantities of Rum, Tea, Coffee, and Tobacco following, from England and Scotland respectively; (that is to say), Forty thousand Gallons of Rum from England, and Twenty thousand Gallons of Rum from Scotland, Fifty thousand Pounds of Bohea Tea, Five thousand Pounds of Green Tea, and Six thousand Pounds of Coffee, and Sixty thousand Pounds of Tobacco from England, and no more, in any One Year; such Tobacco to be exported only from Ports in England where Tobacco is allowed by Law to be imported and warehoused.

[See s. 17. as to additional allowances.]

II. And be it further enacted, That on the Importation, under any Licences, of any Wine, Brandy, Geneva, Rum, Tea, Coffee, or Tobacco, into the said Port of Douglas, in the Ile of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the respective Duties following, and no more; (that is to say),

For every Tun of French Wine, containing Two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, the Sum of Sixteen Pounds:

For every Tun of other Wine, containing Two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, the Sum of Twelve Pounds:

For every Gallon of Foreign Brandy, the Sum of Three Shillings:

For every Gallon of Foreign Geneva, the Sum of Three Shillings:

For every Pound Weight of Bohea Tea, the Sum of Sixpence:

For every Pound Weight of Green Tea, the Sum of One Shilling:

For every Pound Weight of Coffee, the Sum of Fourpence:

For every Pound Weight of Tobacco, the Sum of Sixpence:

And so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; any Thing in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And

Commissioners of Customs may grant annual Licences for Importation from any Place into the Port of Douglas of certain Quantities of Wine, Brandy, and Geneva; and from Great Britain certain Quantities of Rum, Tea, Coffee, and Tobacco, in British-built Vessels of not less than 50 Tons Burthen.

Duties on Importation into the Ile of Man.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Rates and Duties shall be paid in ready Money, without any Discount or Allowance, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for, under the Authority and Direction, and under the Management and Controul of the Commissioners of Customs in England for the Time being, in like Manner and Form, and by the same Rules, Regulations, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, not hereby altered, and as far as the same are applicable, as Duties of Customs in England are raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the same) the said Rates and Duties shall from Time to Time be brought and paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenue; and such Part thereof as shall remain after the necessary Expences attending the Government of the said Ile of Man, and the Administration of Justice there, are from Time to Time defrayed, and the Payment of Bounties or Charges from Time to Time payable thereout, shall go to and make Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Receiver General of the Duties of Customs in the said Island for the Time being, shall as soon after the Expiration of each Quarter of every Year, ending on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, respectively in each Year as the same can be done, make out an Account of the gross Produce of the Duties of Customs payable and arising within the said Island in the preceding Quarter, in such Form as shall be directed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, for the Time being, and shall transmit and certify a Duplicate of such Account to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, and another Duplicate so certified to the Auditor for the Time being of the Exchequer, and another thereof to the Most Noble John Duke of Atholl, or to the Person entitled for the Time being to any Annuity out of the Consolidated Fund, to be calculated on any Amount of such Duties under any Act of this Session of Parliament, or to any Person or Persons appointed by him or them, by Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, to receive the same; and if any such Receiver General shall refuse or neglect to make out such Account, or to transmit such Duplicates as aforesaid, for the Space of One Month after the same can be done, such Receiver General shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and the further Sum of Two hundred Pounds for each and every Month succeeding such first Month, for which he shall omit or neglect to make out such Account, or to send such Duplicate so certified as aforesaid, and to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Effoign or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or in any Court in the said Island, and every such Penalty shall go and be applied to the Use of the said John Duke of Atholl, or the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to such Annuity as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided and kept by the Receiver General of the Duties of Customs in the Ile of Man for the Time being, a Book or Books in which the Duties of Customs arising and payable within the Ile of Man, under any Act or Acts in force relating to such Duties, and under this Act, shall be entered separate and under distinct Heads, specifying the respective Amount of the Duties of Customs on the several Articles licensed under this or any former Act, and the Amount of Duties on Goods, Wares, or Merchandize paying Duties, according to the Value thereof, and if any of the said Duties, or any Part or Proportion of any such Duties, shall at any Time hereafter be repealed, altered, or varied, then and in such Case the Average Produce of the Duties, or Proportion of Duties so repealed, altered, or varied, for the Three Years preceding the Fifth Day of January immediately preceding such Repeal, Alteration, or Variation of such Duties as aforesaid, shall be entered distinctly and separately in such Book or Books as aforesaid; and if any new Duties shall be granted in lieu of any Duties so repealed, altered, or varied, then and in such Case the Duties or such a Proportion thereof as shall be equal to any Duties so repealed, or to such Proportions of any such Duties as shall be so altered or varied, shall also be entered distinctly and separately in such Book or Books.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Wine shall be imported into the Ile of Man in any Cask or Package less than a Hoghead, and no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall be imported into the Ile of Man, (except in Casks, which shall contain One hundred Gallons each at least,) on Forfeiture of all such Wine, Brandy, or Geneva, and of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, with all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture: Provided also, that no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall be imported into the Ile of Man as aforesaid of a greater or higher Degree of Strength than that of One to Nine over Hydrometer Proof, or on Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy or Geneva.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Wine, Foreign Brandy, or Geneva, shall, upon any Pretence whatever, be removed or carried Coastwise in the said Ile of Man, or shall be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel in order to be so removed or carried Coastwise, unless in the Package in which the same was originally imported into the said Island, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture thereof, together with the Ship or Vessel on board of which the same shall be shipped or laden, and all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture: Provided also, that no Wine shall be removed from one Part of the said Island to another, except in the original Cask or Package in which the same shall have been imported into the Island, or in Bottles, on Forfeiture of all such Wine, together with the Horses, Carts, and Carriages, employed in the removing of the same.

VIII. And whereas it is necessary for the Improvement of the said Island, and expedient, to allow a certain Number of live Sheep to be exported from England to the Ile of Man; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Four of them, to grant their Duties shall be paid in ready Money, without Discount, and be collected and recovered as former Duties, and carried to British Consolidated Fund.

Receiver General of Customs in the Island shall quarterly draw up an Account of the Produce of Duties of Customs, and transmit Duplicates thereof to the Lords of the Treasury, the Auditor of the Exchequer, and the Duke of Atholl. [See 45 Geo. 3. c. 12.] Penalty to be paid per Month to the said Duke.

Said Receiver General shall enter all Duties of Customs in a Book to be kept for that Purpose.

Size of Casks for importing Wine or Foreign Brandy or Geneva, Strength of Foreign Brandy, &c.

No Wine, Brandy, &c. shall be carried Coastwise, unless in the original Package. Nor any Wine removed but in such Packages or in Bottles.

For granting Licences for Exportation of Sheep from England to the Island.

Licences, to remain in force for Three Months from the Date thereof, for the Exportation, in such Proportions as to Numbers as to the said Commissioners shall appear to be expedient, from the Ports of Whitehaven, Liverpool, or Bristol, in Great Britain, into the Port of Douglas or Ransey in the Ile of Man, but to no other, any Number of live Sheep not exceeding One hundred in the Whole in any One Year; and such Sheep shall and may be exported accordingly under the Rules, Regulations, Securities, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, so far as the same are applicable, as are contained in an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, among other Things, for preventing the Exportation of live Sheep and Wool, in relation to the Exportation of Wool, to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit or falsify any Licence or other Document required or directed to be applied for, made, or given under this Act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any Licence or other Document so counterfeited or falsified, such Person or Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit Five hundred Pounds.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatever, shall be demanded or taken by the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas, or by any other Officer or Person in the said Island, for or in respect of any Applications made in the said Island for any Bond Licences, nor on Account of any Return or Certificate of the due Landing of Articles imported by Licence, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Foreign Brandy or Geneva, or Wine, shall be imported by Licence into the Ile of Man in pursuance of this Act, the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported shall deliver up to the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Douglas the Licence or Licences by virtue of which such Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, shall be imported; which Licences, by Indorsement signed by the British Consul at the Port of Shipping, or, if no British Consul, by Two known British Merchants, shall specify the Species and Quantity of Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, with the Marks, Numbers, and Denominations of the Casks or Packages containing the same to shipped on board such Ship or Vessel; and the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall produce to all Commanders of His Majesty's Cutters or Vessels, or Officers of the Customs or Excise, who shall demand the same, such Licences so indorsed as often as he shall be so called upon, until so delivered up to the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas as aforesaid, on Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine.

XII. And whereas it is expedient to allow a Drawback of the Duty on British Hops on the Exportation thereof to the Ile of Man; be it therefore enacted, That on the Exportation of any British Hops to the Ile of Man, there shall be allowed the Drawback of the whole Duty paid thereon; and that on Hops imported into the said Ile of Man from Great Britain, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, a Duty of One Penny Farthing per Pound Weight on all Hops so imported, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

XIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of an Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for the better securing and further Improvement of the Revenues of Customs, Excise, Inland and Salt Duties, and for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of the Ile of Man, and for allowing the Importation of several Goods the Produce and Manufacture of the said Island under certain Restrictions and Regulations, should extend to Cotton Yarn and Cotton Cloth, being the Manufacture of the Ile of Man; be it therefore enacted, That any Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth, being the Manufacture of the Ile of Man, shall be imported into Great Britain without Payment of any Duty of Customs whatever, subject nevertheless in other Respects to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are required by the before-quoted Act on the Importation of any Goods of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Island.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth shall be imported or brought from any Port or Place whatever into the said Ile of Man, except from Great Britain, on Forfeiture thereof.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Bounty shall be allowed or paid for or upon the Exportation from Great Britain to the Ile of Man, of any Manufacture of Silk whatever.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed, for or upon any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatever, exported from this Kingdom to the Ile of Man, nor any Debtenture made out for such Drawback or Bounty, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Officer or Officers appointed or to be appointed to attend the landing or Examination of such Goods at the Port or Place in the said Island where the same shall be landed, and also the Hand and Seal of the Collector or Comptroller of such Port or Place, which Certificate shall specify that such Goods have been duly entered and landed at such Port or Place in the said Island.

XVII. And whereas it may be expedient, under certain special Circumstances, to permit for a limited Time the Importation into the Ile of Man of a larger Quantity of the several Articles allowed to be imported into the said Island by Licence, under the Authority of this Act; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, to issue their Orders to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, to grant their Licence for the Importation into the Ile of Man of such additional Quantity of the several Articles which are allowed to be imported into the said Island by Licence only, as the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, on the Necessity of the Case being proved to their Satisfaction, shall in their Judgements deem fit and reasonable for the Use and Consumption of the Inhabitants of the said Island.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects, at any Time before the Fifth Day of August in this Year, and afterwards in subsequent Years, between the Fifth Day of May and the Fifth Day of July in each Year, both inclusive, to make Application in Writing to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port of Douglas, in the said Island, for the Importation into the said Island of the several Articles allowed by Law to be imported by virtue of Licence; and every such Application shall specify the Date thereof, and the Name, Residence, and Occupation of the Person applying, and the Description and Quantity of the Articles in respect of which such Application is made; and all such Applications, with the Particulars aforesaid, shall, on the Delivery thereof, be entered in a Book to be kept at the Custom House of the Port of Douglas aforesaid for that Purpose, and the Book containing such Entries shall be open at such Custom House for publick Inspection during the Hours of Business; and on the Fifth Day of August in this Year, and on the Fifth Day of July in each subsequent Year, the said Book shall be closed, and the Collector and Comptroller shall make out, with all convenient Speed, not exceeding Fourteen Days, a true Copy of all such Entries, and certify the same to be a true Copy, and shall deliver or transmit by the earliest Conveyance such Copy to the Governor, if then in the said Island, or if the Governor shall not then be in the Island, to the Lieutenant Governor of the said Island for the Time being, specifying therein the Applicants resident and the Applicants not resident in the said Island, and such Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall thereupon allot the whole Quantities of each Article in respect whereof such Application shall be made, in the first Place, among the Applicants resident in the said Island, and in case the Whole of such Quantities shall not have been applied for by Residents, then the Residue among the non-resident Applicants, in such Proportions as he shall judge most fair and equitable, and shall cause a Report thereon to be drawn up in Writing, and sign and transmit the same to the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and shall cause Duplicates of such Report to be signed to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise respectively; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to grant Licences (to continue in force for any Period until the Fifth Day of July next ensuing the granting thereof) for the Importation of the several Articles and Quantities thereof allowed by Law to be imported into the Isle of Man, which Licences the said respective Commissioners of Customs are hereby authorized and required to grant for such Periods as shall be specified or allowed in any such Order, and to divide any Quantity of any Articles in respect whereof any Application shall have been made into two or more Licences to the same Person, where Application shall be made for that Purpose, and the same shall appear to be expedient; and such Licences shall without Delay be transmitted to the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas, for the Purpose of taking Bond under the Provisions of this Act previous to the Delivery thereof to the different Applicants; any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to allow Prize Spirits and Wine to be imported into the said Island from Great Britain, in Whole or in Part, of the Quantities of the said Articles which are allowed to be imported by Licence as aforesaid; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That previous to delivering any Licences to the Persons who have applied for the same, the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas shall take their Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with sufficient Security, for the Importation of such Articles in respect whereof the said Licences are granted, on or before the Fifth Day of July succeeding the Delivery of such Licences, with such Condition for the Forfeiture of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the whole Amount of the Duties on the Articles specified in the said Licences, as the respective Commissioners of Customs, under any Directions from the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall think fit; and on the Refusal or Delay of any such Persons applying for Licences as aforesaid to give Bond as herein directed, the said Collector and Comptroller shall return such Licence to the Commissioners of Customs who transmitted the same; and thereupon the said Collector and Comptroller shall give publick Notice thereof, in order that other Persons may apply for Licences in lieu of any such Licences returned as aforesaid; and Applications may be made, and Licences granted thereon, in like Manner as in this Act directed for the granting of Licences until Bond shall have been given for the Importation of the Whole of the Quantities allowed to be imported under this Act; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July, all Duties granted by and now payable under any Act or Acts now in force on the Tonnage of any Ships or Vessels entering inwards or outwards, in any Port of Great Britain or Ireland from or to the Isle of Man, shall wholly cease and determine.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That on the Exportation of the several Articles in this Act mentioned from Great Britain, and on the Importation of the same respectively into the Isle of Man, pursuant to this Act, all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force relating to such Goods respectively so imported or exported, and to the Payment, Recovery, and Appropriation of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture relating thereto, shall, and all the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts, or Law in force, in relation to the Isle of Man, shall, so far as they are not hereby altered or varied, or in respect of which no other Provisions are made by this Act, be and are hereby declared to be in full Force, and to extend to this Act, and shall be construed therewith, and as Part thereof, so far as the same respectively apply, as fully as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Applications for Importation under Licences shall be made yearly between 5 May and 5 July: and shall be a portioned as directed by the Governor, &c.

Treasury may allow Importation of Prize Spirits and Wine into the Island.

Persons applying for Licences shall enter into Bond for the Importation of Articles accordingly.

Tonnage Duty repealed, as to the said Island, (See 43 G. 3. c. 68. Schedule (A.) Table III.)

All Regulations in force relating to Import or Export of Goods extended to this Act.

 WHEREAS the Regulations by Law established for securing the Duties on Spirits made in England for Exportation to Scotland, and made in Scotland for Exportation to England, have been found insufficient to answer the good Purposes thereby intended; and it is therefore expedient to make further Regulations for securing those Duties; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and five, no Person shall make or distil in England any Spirits for Exportation to Scotland, or in Scotland for Exportation to England, in any House or Place entered or not entered, within the Distance of One Mile from any House or Place entered for keeping British Spirits for Sale in Quantities of Two Gallons or upwards, or within the like Distance from any House or Place which shall then be, or within One Year immediately preceding shall have been, entered for making or distilling Spirits for Exportation to Foreign Parts, or for making or distilling Spirits in England for the Consumption of England, or in Scotland for the Consumption of Scotland; nor shall any Person make or distil in England any Spirits for the Consumption of England, or in Scotland for the Consumption of Scotland; or make use of any House or Place for the keeping of British Spirits for Sale in Quantities of Two Gallons or upwards, within the like Distance of One Mile from any House or Place entered, or which shall within One Year immediately preceding have been entered, for making or distilling Spirits for Exportation from any One of the said Parts of the United Kingdom to the other of them; on Pain of forfeiting in every such Case the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, together with all and every Still, Mash Tun, Cooler, Wash Batch, and other Utensils; and also all the Spirits, Wort, Wash, or other Materials fit or proper for Distillation, which shall be found in any such House or Place as aforesaid, entered or used contrary to the Directions of this Act; and all and every such Still, Mash Tun, Cooler, Wash Batch, and other Utensils, and Spirits, Wort, Wash, or other Materials, may and shall be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Person not being such Distiller of Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, nor concerned or interested in any such Distillery, from entering and making use of any House or Place for keeping British Spirits for Sale in Quantities of Two Gallons or upwards, within any Distance not less than One hundred Yards of any House or Place which shall be, or which, within One Year immediately preceding, shall have been, entered for distilling or making Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively; nor shall any Thing in this Act extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent or hinder any Distiller or Distillers in England or Scotland respectively for Exportation as aforesaid, from making Entry of any House or Place for distilling Spirits for such Exportation, within any Distance not less than One hundred Yards of any House or Place which shall be, or which, within One Year immediately preceding, shall have been entered for keeping British Spirits for Sale in Quantities of Two Gallons or upwards, provided such Distiller shall not have any Concern or Interest in the Trade or Business carried on in any such House or Place entered for keeping British Spirits for Sale as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Distiller of Spirits in England for Exportation to Scotland, nor for any Distiller of Spirits in Scotland for Exportation to England, to make Entry of, or keep, use, or employ any Wash Still of less Content or Capacity than Three thousand Gallons, including the Head, nor any Low Wine Still of larger Content or Capacity, including the Head, than One Fourth Part of the Content or Capacity of the Wash Still used or employed by such Distiller.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any such Distiller of Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, to keep, use, or employ any Still for distilling Spirits for Exportation as aforesaid, except such as shall be of the following Proportions; (that is to say), the Diameter of such Still to be taken in the widest Part thereof shall not exceed the Altitude thereof, ascertained in a perpendicular Line from the Centre of the Bottom of such Still to the Centre of the Collar or Lip of the same, exclusive of the Head, in a greater Proportion than One Half of such Altitude, nor shall the Diameter at the Bottom of such Still exceed the Altitude thereof, nor shall the Bottom of such Still be otherwise curved than inwards or towards the Body thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every entered Wash Still belonging to such Distiller of Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, shall every Time the same shall be worked be presumed to be charged with Wort or Wash in the Proportion of Four Parts in Five of the Content or Capacity of such Still including the Head thereof, according to the Average Rates herein after specified, (that is to say), for such Time or Times as such Wash Still shall be worked the same shall be presumed to be charged as aforesaid, at the average Rate of not less than Six Times in each Week; and such Wash Still shall not be charged or worked oftener than Six Times in each Week on an Average of the Time for which such Still shall be worked in any One Year, reckoning from the First Day of October; and if any Distiller shall charge his or her Wash Still oftener than Six Times a Week on an Average during the Continuance of such Entry in any One Year, he shall for every Working beyond such Average be charged with and pay Duty at and after the Rate of Twenty Shillings per Gallon, computed at the Produce of Eighteen Gallons of Spirits at the Strength of One to Tea over Hydrometer Proof, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which such Wash Still would require to charge it Four Parts in Five of its Contents; such Duty to be appropriated and applied in

No Spirits shall be distil'd in England or Scotland for Exportation to either respectively, within One Mile of any House erected for Sale of British Spirits by Wholesale or for distilling Spirits for Foreign Exportation or Home Consumption. Penalty 500l. and Forfeiture of Still, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively shall be permitted to make Entry of any House or Place for the making or distilling of Spirits for Exportation as aforesaid, to commence working at any other Period than the First Day of October in each Year, and that every Wash Still after the working thereof shall have commenced shall be presumed to be kept regularly at work for the Space of Three Calendar Months successively at the least, to be computed from the Day of beginning to work the same; and no Person or Persons who shall have begun to work any such Wash Still as aforesaid shall be at liberty to discontinue or to withdraw the Entry of any such Wash Still, after the working thereof shall have commenced and been begun, until the Expiration of the said Term of Three Calendar Months, to be computed as aforesaid; and if any such Distiller shall be desirous to discontinue the working of any such Wash Still as aforesaid, at the End of the said Term of Three Calendar Months, or at any subsequent Period previous to the First Day of October then next ensuing, he or she shall and is hereby required to give to the proper Officer of Excise Fifteen Days previous Notice in Writing of such his or her Intention to discontinue the working such Wash Still.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no such House or Place entered for making Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland as aforesaid, shall be entered or used for distilling or making Spirits for the Consumption of that Part of the United Kingdom in which the same is situated, within the Year (reckoning from the First Day of October) in which any such House or Place shall have been entered or used for making or distilling Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, nor until all the Worts and Wash remaining shall have been actually distilled into Spirits, and the Whole of the Spirits so made or distilled for Exportation to England or Scotland as aforesaid, actually and bonâ fide exported to England or Scotland as the Case may require.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller for Exportation to England or Scotland as aforesaid shall produce, and duly export to England or Scotland, as the Case may require, at least Eighteen Gallons of Spirits at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be brewed or made by such Distiller, and if any such Distiller shall neglect or refuse to produce, and duly export to England or Scotland, as the Case may require, at least Eighteen Gallons of the Strength aforesaid, or shall not produce and so export as aforesaid a Quantity of Spirits at the said Strength, equal to the Quantity which ought to be produced by regularly working his or her Wash Still, charged in the Proportion and worked the average Number of Times herein-before required, such Distiller for every such Neglect or Refusal as aforesaid shall, for the whole Quantity of Spirits which shall appear to be deficient, be charged with and pay Duty for the same at and after the Rate of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of such Spirits so deficient, such Duty to be appropriated and applied in such Manner as the Duties on British Spirits imposed by the said Act of the Forty-third Year aforesaid, are directed to be appropriated and applied.

VIII. Provided always, That if it shall at any Time be made appear by sufficient Proof upon Oath, to the Satisfaction of the respective Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland as the Case may require, that the average working of the Wash Still, according to the Directions of this Act, was absolutely interrupted and prevented by unavoidable Accident or Necessity, (the Nature and Extent of such Accident or Necessity being fully and clearly proved), and that the whole Quantity of Wort or Wash actually brewed or made had been fairly and bonâ fide produced to the Sight, and duly taken account of by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners of Excise to grant such Relief from the Payment of the aforesaid Duty, for so much of any such Deficiency occasioned by such Interruption or Prevention of working the Wash Stills, as in their Judgment shall appear reasonable and just.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall take, remove, or carry away, or aid or assist in taking, removing, or carrying away any Spirits from any House or Place entered for making or distilling Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, or from any Warehouse, Storehouse, Cellar, Room, or other Place in which any Spirits so made or distilled shall be lodged or deposited (except for the sole Purpose of conveying or having the same conveyed or exported directly to England or Scotland, as the Case may require), every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, over and above all Penalties or Forfeitures to which the Proprietor or Maker of such Spirits might or may be liable; and it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise and all other Persons acting in his or their Aid, to stop, arrest, and detain all and every the Person or Persons so taking, removing, or carrying away, or aiding or assisting in taking, removing, or carrying away any Spirits as aforesaid, and to convey the said Person or Persons, before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Stewartry, Division, City, or Liberty respectively, wherein such Person shall be so stopped, arrested, or detained as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace, on Confession of the Party or on Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to convict the Person or Persons so stopped, arrested, or detained as aforesaid, and the Person or Persons so convicted, shall immediately on such Conviction pay the said Sum of One hundred Pounds into the Hands of the Officer of Excise who shall have conveyed such Offender before such Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be applied in Manner herein-after directed; and on such Offender or Offenders refusing or neglecting to pay the said Sum of One hundred Pounds, the Justice or Justices so convicting as aforesaid shall, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction for the said County, Riding, Stewartry, Division, City, or Liberty, respectively, there to remain, and to be kept to hard Labour for the

No House entered for distilling or making Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland shall be used for distilling for internal Consumption. Such Distillers shall produce 18 Gallons of Spirit for every 100 Gallons of Wort, or pay 20s. for each Gallon deficient.

43 G. 3. c. 69.

In Cases of Accident, Commissioners of Excise may give relief.

Penalty on Persons removing or assisting in removing Spirits otherwise than for such Exportation, not over 12 Months Imprisonment.

Space

Space of Twelve Calendar Months, to be reckoned from the Day of such Conviction; and the Person or Persons so committed shall not be discharged until he, she, or they shall have paid the said Sum of One hundred Pounds, or until the Expiration of the said Twelve Calendar Months.

Officers of Excise shall keep an Account of Quantities distilled, and return the same to the Collector of Excise.

X. And be it further enacted, That the principal or superior Officer of Excise, who shall be appointed or employed to survey or inspect the Operations of any Distiller distilling or making Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, shall keep an exact and true Account of all Wort or Wash, brewed, or made, or distilled into Spirits by every such Distiller as aforesaid, whose Operations he shall be appointed or employed to survey or inspect, and also of the actual Quantity of Spirits, computed at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, which shall be distilled, made, or produced by such Distiller as aforesaid, and shall also calculate the Quantity of Spirits computed at the said Strength which such Distiller ought to produce, according to the Quantity of Wort or Wash brewed or made by such Distiller, reckoning Eighteen Gallons of such Spirits for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash; and such Officer shall also calculate the Quantity of Spirits, computed at the Strength aforesaid, which ought to be produced according to the Proportions in which such Distiller is herein-before presumed to charge his or her Wash Still each Time of working the same, and also according to the average Number of Times in each Week which each Wash Still is hereby presumed to be worked; and such Officer shall once in every Six or Seven Weeks make out and return to the proper Collector of Excise, or such other Person as the respective Commissioners of Excise shall direct to receive the same, an Account of such real Quantities of Wort, Wash, and Spirits as aforesaid, and also of such calculated and computed Quantity of Spirits as aforesaid.

A Sample shall be taken from each Cask, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of Excise who shall attend the warehousing or making up of British Spirits distilled or made for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, to take a Sample not exceeding Half a Pint English out of every Vat, Cask, or other Utensil in which such Spirits shall be made up and stored, which Sample after the Strength shall have been ascertained, shall be labelled with the Number of such Vat, Cask, or Utensil, and the Day and Year when taken, and shall be sealed and securely kept under the joint Locks of the proper Surveyor or Supervisor and Officer until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months after the Spirits to which such Samples refer shall have been duly certified to have been exported and landed in England or Scotland as the Case may require; and at the Expiration of such Three Months every such Sample shall be sold under the Direction of the respective Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland, and the Produce thereof, after deducting the Charges of keeping and selling the same, shall be applied as follows, (that is to say) a Sum after the Rate of Three Shillings per Gallon shall be paid to the Distiller or Distillers from whose Stock the same was taken, and the Residue shall be paid into the Exchequer, and be appropriated and applied as Duties arising from British Spirits are by the said Acts of the Forty-third Year aforesaid directed to be appropriated and applied.

43 G. 3. c. 69.

Distillers once in Six or Seven Weeks shall make out an Account of Quantities distilled and exported, and return the same verified on Oath to the Collector of Excise.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively as aforesaid, shall once in every Six Weeks or Seven Weeks make out and deliver to the proper Collector of Excise or other Person appointed or employed by the respective Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland to receive the same, an Account of the Quantity of Worts or Wash brewed or made by such Distiller within such Six Weeks or Seven Weeks, and of the Quantity of such Wort or Wash actually distilled into Spirits within the same Period, and also of the Quantity of Spirits computed at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof which have been actually distilled or made by such Distiller within such Period, together with an Account of such Spirits computed at the Strength aforesaid, which shall have been sent, shipped, or exported within the same Period to or for England or Scotland as the Case may require, and every such Distiller shall make Oath to the Truth of such Account before such Collector or other Officer of Excise as aforesaid, (which Oath such Collector or other Person is hereby required and empowered to administer); and if any such Distiller as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to make out and deliver such Account as aforesaid, or to verify the same on Oath, he, she, or they shall for every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty 200l.

Distillers shall give Bond with Two Sureties for the Performance of the Regulations of this and other Acts.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Person shall begin to prepare or brew any Wort or Wash to be distilled or made into Spirits for Exportation to England or Scotland respectively, every such Person shall give Bond with Two sufficient Sureties to be approved of by the respective Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland, or other Person or Persons appointed or employed by them respectively for that Purpose, (which Bond the said respective Commissioners of Excise or other Persons as aforesaid are hereby authorized and required to take in His Majesty's Name), himself or herself in the Penalty of Twenty Shillings, and the Sureties in the Bond jointly and severally in the Penalty of Five Shillings for every Gallon of the Content or Capacity of the Wash Still or Wash Stills including the Head or Heads thereof, kept, used, or employed by such Distiller, conditioned for his or her duly and truly observing, conforming to, performing, and executing all and every the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions contained in this Act; and in Default of entering into such Bond, every Entry made by any such Distiller as aforesaid shall be and the same is hereby declared null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

Entry shall be made only for 16 October yearly.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be allowed to make Entry of any Houfe or Place in England for distilling Spirits for Exportation to Scotland, nor in Scotland for Exportation to England, at any other Period or Time than on the First Day of October in each Year; nor shall any Licence be granted for distilling Spirits as aforesaid, to commence at any other Day or Time than the First Day of October, any Law or Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalties of Perjury on false Oaths.

XV. And be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall be convicted of wilfully taking a false Oath in any of the Cases in which an Oath is by this Act required to be taken, shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XVI. And

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such Ways, Means, or Methods (except where otherwise specially directed by this Act) as any Pain, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, levied, or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively; and that One Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform, discover, or sue for the same.

Recovery of Penalties.

XVII. And Whereas it will be for the Accommodation of the Trade to permit the Distillers in Scotland to make Entry and take out Licences for distilling Spirits for the Consumption of Scotland to commence on the First Day of October in each Year, instead of the Tenth Day of November in each Year; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for any Distiller or Distillers in Scotland to make Entry of their Works, and take out a Licence or Licences to commence on the First Day of October in each Year instead of the Tenth Day of November; and the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized and required to permit such Entry and to grant such Licence accordingly, any Thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no such Licence shall be granted to commence and take effect on any other Day than the First Day of October in each Year, nor for any longer or shorter Period than for One complete Year.

Distillers in Scotland for Home Consumption may make Entry and take out Licences on 1st Oct her instad of 10th November yearly.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, relating to the Distillation of Spirits, save and except so far as any such Act or Acts, or the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, or Authorities therein contained or granted, are repealed, revoked, altered or controuled by this present Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Former Acts (except where hereby altered) shall continue in force.

An Act for charging additional Duties of Customs on Straw Plating, and on Straw Hats or Bonnets, imported into Great Britain. [10th July 1805.]

43 G. 3. c. 68.
Schicauite (A.)

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, and by several Acts subsequent thereto, certain Duties of Customs were imposed on Plating or other Manufactures of Straw to be used in or proper for making Hats or Bonnets, and also on Straw Hats or Bonnets imported into Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient, in order to afford every Encouragement to the Manufacture of Straw platted in Great Britain, to increase the Duties now payable on Foreign Plating and other Manufactures of Straw used or proper for making Hats or Bonnets, and also on Foreign Straw Hats and Bonnets imported into Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in Addition to the Duties granted by the said first recited Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon all Foreign Plating and other Manufactures of Straw, used or proper for making Hats or Bonnets, and also upon all Foreign Straw Hats and Bonnets imported into Great Britain, the several new and additional Duties of Customs following; (that is to say), Additional Duties on Straw Plating and Straw Hats or Bonnets imported into Great Britain. Duties.

For each and every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Plating or other Manufactures of Straw to be used in or proper for making Hats or Bonnets, an additional Duty of Seven Shillings:

For each and every Dozen of Straw Hats or Bonnets, each Hat or Bonnet not exceeding Twenty-two Inches in Diameter, an additional Duty of One Pound Sixteen Shillings:

And for each and every Dozen of Straw Hats or Bonnets, each Hat or Bonnet exceeding Twenty-two Inches in Diameter, an additional Duty of Three Pounds Twelve Shillings:

Additional per Centage Duties, on the Produce of the Duties granted by this Act, shall be paid according to Rates in 43 G. 3. c. 70.
44 G. 3. c. 53. and,
45 G. 3. c. 29.

And there shall also be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from and after the said passing of this Act, for and in respect of every One hundred Pounds of the Produce and Amount of the aforesaid Duties of Customs by this Act granted, such and the like further or additional Duties of Customs, as well temporary as permanent, as by another Act passed in the Forty-third Year aforesaid, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War and until the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, and on the Tonnage of Ships and Vessels in Great Britain; and by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War and for Six Months after the Expiration thereof by the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandise into Great Britain, and on Goods, Wares, and Merchandise brought or carried Coastwise within Great Britain; and by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties within Great Britain on certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandise imported into or brought or carried Coastwise; were granted for and in respect of every One hundred Pounds of the Produce and Amount of the Duties of Customs by the said first recited Act of the Forty-third Year aforesaid granted on Foreign Plating and other Manufactures of Straw used or proper for making Hats or Bonnets, and also on Foreign Straw Hats and Bonnets imported into Great Britain.

‘ Witnesses, L. M. Secretary to the Commissioners of Excise.’

Provided always, That Persons in Partnership carrying on the Business of Distilling shall not be obliged to take more than one such Licence.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and all Regulations therein contained, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to any Person under the Age of Twenty-one Years, in whose Name or for whose Use or Benefit any Distillery shall be exercised, managed, or carried on, and such Person shall be liable to all Duties of Excise on account of such Distillery, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Person were adult and of full Age.

III. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of charging the Duty on Spirits, the Content of any Still shall be estimated according to the Quantity of Liquor which such Still, including the Head and every Appendage to such Head as high as the Steam can ascend, shall be actually capable of containing; and if any Still in the Distillery of any Distiller shall exceed by Four Gallons the Content specified in the Licence to such Distiller, as being the Content of such Still, every such Still so exceeding in Content shall be deemed an unlicensed Still, and shall be forfeited and may be seized, and the Person or Persons in whose Possession the same shall be found, or who shall have used the same, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Still for distilling of Spirits in Ireland shall be of the Proportions following: The Diameter of such Still, to be taken in the widest Part of such Still, and in that Place of such widest Part as shall be most remote from the Bottom of such Still, shall be to the Altitude of such Still ascertained in a perpendicular Line from the Centre of the Diameter so taken to the Bottom of such Still, in the Proportion of not more than Three to One, that is to say, for every Inch of such Altitude, such Diameter shall not exceed Three Inches, and so in Proportion; and that the Diameter of the Bottom of such Still, to be taken in an horizontal Line, shall not be equal to the greatest Diameter thereof taken as aforesaid, and shall not be less than Three-fifths of such greatest Diameter, nor shall the Bottom of any such Still be otherwise curved than inwards or towards the Body of such Still.

V. And be it further enacted, That before any such Licence shall be granted to any Person to have, keep, or make use of any Still or Stills, the Person applying for the same shall transmit to the Commissioners of Excise in Dublin, a Drawing or Representation of each and every Still for which such Person shall require a Licence, setting forth the Number, Content, Shape, Dimensions, and Proportions of such Still, measured and specified according to the Directions of this Act, for their Approbation; and in case such Commissioners shall disapprove of any such Still or Stills for not being conformable to such Directions, or otherwise, it shall and may be lawful for them, and they are hereby empowered to refuse granting a Licence for the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person requiring such Licence shall also make out, sign, and deliver to the Collector of the District, an Account in Writing, to be entered and registered in the Office of Excise of the District in which such Still or other Utensil for distilling is to be kept or used, containing his, her, or their Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode; and the Place where the Distillery containing such Still or other Utensil is or shall be situated, and the Number of Stills, Still Heads, and Worms, intended to be kept there, and the Number of Gallons which the Body of each such Still is capable of containing, and also the Number of Gallons which each such Still is capable of containing, together with the Head thereof, and every other Appendage thereto included; and shall also in like Manner make out, sign, and deliver an Account in Writing, to be so entered and registered as aforesaid, of all Coppers, Vats, Keeves, Backs, Coolers, Vessels, and other Utensils whatever, to be used in such Distillery, and also of the several Stores, Apartments, and Places wherein any Part of the Business of such Distillery is to be carried on, or wherein any Materials for distilling of Spirits, or any Spirits are to be kept or stored; and in such written Account, the Person making the same shall distinguish every such Still, Still-Head, or Worm, and also every such Copper, Vat, Keeve, Back, Cooler, Vessel, and other Utensil, and also every such Store, Apartment, and Place, by separate Numbers relating to each Article, in arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number 1.; and upon every such Still, Still-Head, or Worm, and upon every such Copper, Vat, Keeve, Back, Cooler, Vessel, and Utensil, and also upon the outside of the Door of every such Store, Apartment, and Place, shall paint, or cause to be painted, with Oil Colour in Black or White, and shall keep thereon so painted, the Number thereof respectively in Conformity with such Account; and that the Surveyor of Excise within whose Survey such Distillery shall be situate, shall at the Bottom of every such Account, before the same shall be delivered to or received by the Collector, certify the Truth of such Account, by signing his Name thereto; and thereupon the Collector of Excise of the District shall file or enter and register such Account in the Office of Excise of the District, and shall grant a Certificate of such Account and Registry, by giving a Copy thereof signed by him; and such Account and Registry, and every such Certificate thereof, shall be Evidence on any Question that shall or may arise, or on any Information in consequence of or touching any of the Provisions of this Act.

One Licence for Partners.

Minors, being Distillers, made liable to this Act.

Mode of estimating Contents of Still.

Penalty on Still exceeding Content licensed, 10l.

Still shall be made in certain Proportions.

Description of Still required to be licensed shall be sent to the Commissioners of Excise.

To obtain such Licence, the Party shall make out Account to be entered in the Excise Office, containing the Particulars of his Name, and the Contents of his Still, Coppers, and Stores, of which Entry the Collector shall give a Certificate.

Wash, for the Purpose of distilling, is by this Act chargeable; and in case any Pot-Ale or Liquor brewed or made from Corn, malted or unmalted, shall be found in the Possession of such Distiller, not duly declared by him, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Nine Gallons of such Pot Ale or other Liquor: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for every such Distiller to have in his Dwelling House a reasonable Quantity of Beer and Ale for the Use of himself and his Family.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall have or keep or make use of any Still, Still-Head, Worm, Copper, Keeve, Vat, Cooler, Back, or other Vessel or Utensil whatever for the making of or in distilling of Low Wines, Singlings, or Spirits, or for the brewing, making, or fermenting any Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, (wherewith to distill Low Wines, Singlings or Spirits) not set forth or not numbered as set forth, or in any other Place than shall be set forth in the Account by this Act required to be made and delivered by such Distiller, and filed, entered, and registered as aforesaid, on requiring his Licence; or if any Distiller shall have, keep, or make use of any other Still, Still Head, Worm, Copper, Keeve, Vat, Cooler, Back, Vessel, or other Utensil, than shall have been set forth in such Account, Entry, or Registry, without having given Four Days Notice in Writing to the Collector or other Superior Officer of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of his or her Distillery, and without an Account thereof being made out, signed, delivered, entered, and registered in Manner aforesaid, such Distiller shall forfeit for every such Still, Still-Head, Worm, Copper, Vat, Keeve, Back, Cooler, Vessel, or other Utensil, the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Still or Still Head, or Worm of a Still, shall be found in the Possession of any Person whomsoever (except a Brazier, or Person following the Trade of making or repairing Stills) the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, Justice of the Peace, or Peace Officer, or by any licensed Distiller, unless a Licence to the Person in whose Possession the same shall be found for keeping such Still, Still-Head, or Worm, shall be produced, and delivered to be read at the Time when such Officer of Excise, Justice of the Peace, Peace Officer, or licensed Distiller, shall find such Still, Still-Head, or Worm; and every Person in whose Possession any such Still, Still-Head, or Worm, shall be found, without such Licence being so produced, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds for each such Still, Still-Head, or Worm respectively, and all other Vessels and Utensils for distilling, or commonly made use of in the Process of Distillation; and all Spirits, Low Wines, Singlings, Wash, Pot Ale, Malt, or Corn, and all Materials for making Spirits, found in the Possession of any such Person as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and may be seized in Manner aforesaid, and such Vessels or Utensils may be destroyed, and such Wash or Pot Ale may be spilled, or otherwise disposed of, as herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that if any Still, Still Head, or Worm, shall be found upon the Road conveying by a proper Permit to any Distiller duly licensed or from such Distiller to any Brazier, or Maker or Mender of Stills duly licensed, or from such Distiller to any Excise Office, it shall not be forfeited or seizable as aforesaid, nor shall the Person conveying the same be liable to any Penalty on Account thereof.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any such Seizure as last aforesaid shall be made by any Justice of the Peace, Peace Officer, or licensed Distiller, by virtue of this Act, such Justice of the Peace, Peace Officer, or licensed Distiller, shall, within Six Days after such Seizure, give Notice thereof in Writing to the Collector of the District, or to the next resident Officer of Excise, who shall take into his Custody, and secure the Matters and Things so seized, in like Manner as if the same had been seized by him.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases of such Seizure it shall and may be lawful for the Officer of Excise who shall have seized any such Articles, or in whose Custody the same shall be, to sell all Pot Ale, Wash, Singlings, or Low Wines, so seized, to any licensed Distiller, provided the Sum to be paid for the same shall amount to a Sum not less than the Duty chargeable on the Spirits which by Law ought to be produced from such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines respectively; and in case such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines, shall be so sold, the Purchaser thereof shall pay to the Collector of the District in which he shall reside, the Duty chargeable on the Spirits which by Law ought to be produced from such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines, and he shall pay the remaining Part of the Purchase Money of such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines (if any) to the Officer who shall have sold the same.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Person using or keeping more than one Still (not being a Brazier, or Person following the Profession of making or repairing Stills) shall have, keep, or use any Stills, the Diameter of the Neck of any one of which, taken at the Bottom of such Neck, shall not be Two Inches wider or narrower at the least than the Diameter of the Neck so taken of any other Still or Stills kept or used by him, so as that all the Stills kept by such Person shall differ in the Diameter of the Neck by the Breadth of at least Two Inches from each other, under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Twenty Pounds and all or either of such Stills.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller shall keep or have any greater Number of Worms of Stills than the Number of Stills which he or she shall have been licensed to keep, nor shall use in distilling of Spirits any greater Number of Worms than one Worm with any one Still, without the Consent of Three of the said Commissioners of Excise first obtained in Writing under their Hands for that Purpose; and if any greater Number of Worms of Stills shall be found in the Distillery of or in any other Place belonging to or occupied by any Distiller, than the Number of Stills which such Distiller shall be licensed or allowed as aforesaid to keep, every such Worm of a Still so found, and also every Still with which more than one Worm shall be used, or to which there shall be more than one Arm, shall be forfeited and may be seized, and the Distiller in whose Possession any such Worm or Worms, or Still, shall be found, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Persons having any Still or Utensil not registered 20l. and Forfeiture.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall use any Copper in his Distillery for any other Purpose than boiling or warming Water, every such Copper shall be forfeited, and such Distiller shall also forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and if any Apparatus shall be found in the Possession or in the Distillery of any Distiller, which might render such Copper or Coppers capable of being used in Distillation, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall set every Still used or kept by him in Brick or Stone with Mortar, and shall from Time to Time provide such Fastenings or Locks and Keys to the Head and Cocks of the Stills, and to the Furnace Door thereof, and shall keep the same in good and sufficient Order, in such Manner as shall be approved of by the Surveyor of Excise in charge of such Distillery, or shall pay for such Fastenings, Locks, and Keys, as shall be provided by such Surveyor; and if any such Distiller shall use or keep any Still not so set in Brick or Stone, or shall neglect to provide, repair, or pay for such Fastenings, Locks, and Keys, within such Time as shall be required by such Surveyor, every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall make use of or keep in any Distillery, any Copper or Vessel for warming or boiling Water for brewing Pot Ale, the Diameter whereof at the Mouth shall be less than the Diameter thereof in any other Part of such Copper or Vessel, or shall have or keep any such Copper or other Vessel set or placed in any Manner other than in such Situation as that the Still, or Place where such Still shall be set or shall stand, shall be in a direct Line between the Place where such Copper or other Vessel shall be set or stand, and the Place where the Worm Tub shall be set or shall stand, every such Copper or Vessel shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and the Distiller in whose Distillery any such Copper or Vessel shall be found set or placed in any Situation other than as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each such Offence.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall in any Distillery make use of any Cooler which shall not be screwed down or otherwise fastened to Beams firmly fixed at both Ends in the Walls of the Building, or in some other firm and substantial Manner, or shall alter the Level or Dipping Place of any Cooler or Back in such Distillery, or the Beams that support the same, after it shall have been so fixed as aforesaid, or shall suffer the same to be altered without having previously given Four Days Notice thereof to the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of such Distillery; or if such Distiller shall use any Cooler, through or across the Centre of which there shall not be erected, and constantly kept fixed Lengthways, from One End to the other, a firm Frame or Stage of Wood, at least Eighteen Inches in Breadth, and of Thickness sufficient to prevent the frame from bending, wherefrom the Officer of Excise may gauge the Liquor in such Cooler, or if there shall not be a firm Hand Rail of the Length of such Stage, conveniently placed in respect thereto, every Distiller so offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller shall have, keep, or make use of any Back, Cooler, or other Vessel in the Distillery of such Distiller, for fermenting any Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, or for containing any Low Wines or Singlings, which shall be of less Content than the full Charge of the Still, or (if there shall be more than One Still) of the largest Still in such Distillery; and if any such Back, Cooler, or other Vessel, shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller, which shall be of a less Content than aforesaid, such Back, Cooler, or other Vessel shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and such Distiller shall for every such Vessel forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at the Time of the passing of this Act, any Distiller shall not be provided with Backs, Coolers, Vessels, or Casks, according to the Regulations of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise, by Order under the Hands of any Three of them, to allow such Distiller to use the Backs, Coolers, Vessels, or Casks in his Possession, for such Time as such Commissioners shall think necessary, or until such Distiller shall have provided himself with Vessels or Casks of the proper Dimensions, according to the Regulations of this Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall keep all Spirits distilled, and all Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, and Low Wines, in the Distillery of such Distiller, or in some Store or Stores in or adjoining to such Distillery, registered in Manner herein-before mentioned; and all Spirits, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines, which shall be found in any Store or Stores not so registered, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and the Distiller or Distillers to whom the same shall belong shall for every Gallon of such Spirits, and for every Nine Gallons of Wash or Pot Ale, and for every Three Gallons of Singlings and Low Wines, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Spirits stored in the Store or Distillery of any Distiller shall be kept in Casks of the Content of not less than One hundred Gallons each; and if any Cask shall be found in any such Store or Distillery containing Spirits which shall be of a less Content, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Cask.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, to enter into every House, Distillery, Still House, Out House, Store, and Place whatsoever, or of belonging to or made use of by any Distiller in Ireland, and to gauge, measure, and take an Account of every Still, Still Head, Copper, Keeve, Vat, Cooler, Back, or other Vessel or Utensil, of or belonging to or kept by any such Distiller, and to gauge and take an Account of all Spirits which shall be from Time to Time made and distilled, and of all Malt and Corn, and of all Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines and Materials whatsoever, for making or distilling Spirits, which shall be from Time to Time made use of by such Distiller, and of all such Spirits and Materials for making or distilling of Spirits, as shall be in any House, Distillery, Store, or Place belonging to such Distiller, and to make Returns thereof in Manner herein-after mentioned.

XXX. And

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise, or his Assistants, shall be hindered, obstructed, or prevented by any Distiller, or by any Servant or Person acting in the Employment of such Distiller, from entering into any Distillery, or any House, Out-house, Store, or other Place whatsoever of such Distiller, or if any such Officer or his Assistants, having entered, shall be hindered, obstructed, or prevented by such Distiller, or by any Servant or Person acting in the Employment of such Distiller, from gauging any Vessels, or taking any Account of the Stock of Malt, Corn, or Spirits of such Distiller, or of any Liquor or Ingredients preparing for or used, or ready to be used in distilling in such Distillery, or from seeing the whole Process of Distilling completely finished, or from taking an Account of the Liquors distilled, or in Process of distilling, or from doing any Part of his Duty in the Execution of this Act, or of any other Act which may be in force respecting Distilleries, such Distiller shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Distillers, &c. obstructing Excise Officers, 201.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall place and keep all Casks and Vessels in which any Spirits shall be stored or kept, or which shall be made use of in distilling, in convenient Situations, with their Dipping Place uppermost, and easy of Access, in such Manner as any Officer of Excise in Charge of the Distillery shall reasonably direct, for the more readily and effectually taking the Gauge thereof, or in Default thereof every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each Cask or Vessel not so placed.

Casks shall be placed properly for gauging, Penalty 201.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, on Demand of any Officer of Excise made at the Distillery of such Distiller, shall not furnish or cause to be furnished a strong and safe Ladder, with Steps Four Inches broad at the least, or shall not have provided an Hand Rail, or a Rope in the Nature of an Hand Rail, conveniently placed with respect to such Ladder, of Length sufficient to enable such Officer to ascend to any Cooler in such Distillery, or shall not fix such Ladder at the Dipping Place of any such Cooler, or at any other Part thereof where such Officer shall require, or shall on any Visit made by any Officer of Excise, neglect or refuse to supply every such Officer, on Demand, with sufficient Lights for the Purpose of searching and gauging all the Stock on Hand belonging to such Distiller, as well by Day as by Night, every Distiller so offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Distiller shall furnish Officers with Ladder and Lights, Penalty 101.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer of Excise shall not be admitted into any Distillery, after having demanded the same, and declared his Name and Business, and after having waited for the Space of Half an Hour after such Demand made at the House of the Distiller, or the Gate or Entrance Door, or any Window of the Distillery of such Distiller, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on refusing Admission to Officers, 1001.

XXXIV. And whereas Distillers frequently have made use of Places adjoining their own Houses or Distilleries, for the Purpose of clandestinely brewing, distilling, or concealing their Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines, or Spirits; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That if the Owner or Occupier of any House, Store, or other Place adjoining to or in the Neighbourhood of the Dwelling House or Distillery of any Distiller, or if any Servant of the Owner or Occupier of any such House or Place, shall not, on Demand of any Officer of Excise made in the Day Time, admit such Officer of Excise, or shall not allow him to enter and search such House, Store, or Place, for Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines, or Spirits, such Occupier of such House, Store, or other Place, shall in every such Case forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Owners of adjoining Houses shall admit Officers to search for Spirits, Penalty 501.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if no Person shall attend or appear in such House, Store, or Place as aforesaid, to give Entrance to such Officer, it shall be lawful in the Day Time for such Officer and his Assistants, or in the Night Time for such Officer and his Assistants in the Presence of a Constable or other Peace Officer, who is hereby authorized and required to be aiding and assisting therein, to break open and enter such House, Store, or Place, and make Search therein for any Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines, or Spirits, which such Officer may have reasonable or probable Cause to suspect to be fraudulently concealed therein: Provided always, that if upon Search no such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines, or Spirits, shall be found, such Officer shall repair all the Damages done, or make reasonable Satisfaction for the same to the Owner or Occupier of such House, Store, or Place.

If no Person appears to give Entrance to Officers, the House may be broken open.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if the House, Store, or Place broken open, and entered, shall communicate with the Distillery of any Distiller, or any Part of the Premises thereunto belonging, and if such Distiller, or some Person on his Behalf, shall not on Demand made, give Entrance into such Distillery to any Officer requiring the same, every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Officers may enter Distillery from adjoining Houses.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise to visit in the Day Time any Sugar House in Ireland, belonging to any Sugar Baker, and there to take an Account of all Melasses-Wash, and Sugar-Wash, and upon any Decrease afterwards found therein, such Sugar Baker shall forfeit a Sum equal to the Duty which would be payable by Distillers upon Spirits distilled from such Wash, unless due Proof shall be made that the same had been sold to a licensed Distiller, or otherwise disposed of in the Business of a Sugar Baker; and all Sugar-Wash, and Melasses-Wash, found at any Sugar Bakers Twenty-four Hours after it shall be taken from the Cistern, and not declared to the Officer of Excise, shall be forfeited and may be seized.

Officers may visit Sugar Houses and take Stock.

Wash at Sugar Bakers not declared, shall be forfeited.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Customs or Excise in Ireland, shall directly or indirectly, ask, take, or receive any Bribe, Gratuity, Recompence, or Reward, for the Neglect or Non-performance of his Duty under this Act; every such Officer so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and such Officer shall and may be indicted for such Offence either at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions held in the County in which such Offence shall be committed; and in case any Indictment shall be found at such Assizes or Quarter Sessions against such Officer, he shall plead thereto, without having Time to traverse the same; and it shall be lawful for the Court before whom such Officer shall be tried and convicted, to inflict such Punishment on such Officer as may by the Laws and Statutes in force in Ireland be inflicted on Persons guilty of Misdemeanors; and such Officer so convicted shall thenceforth be incapable of holding any Office or Employment whatsoever, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, His Heirs, or Successors, or under any Authority derived from His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors.

Distillers shall not distil on Sundays, &c. Penalty 10*l*.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall have or keep, or permit or suffer to be kept, any Fire under any Still or Copper in his Distillery, or if any Still or Copper in such Distillery shall be found to contain any Worts, Wash, Singlings, or Pot Ale, between the Hour of Twelve at Night of any Saturday, and the Hour of One in the Morning of the next succeeding Monday, such Distiller shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and all Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines, so found in any such Still or Copper, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

Distillers shall give Notice of Time of brewing and distilling. Penalty 10*l*.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall, before commencing to brew any Worts, Wash, or Pot Ale, and also before commencing to work any Still or Stills in any Year, and so in like Manner before he or she shall recommence so to work any Still, after any Discontinuance thereof in such Year, give Six Days Notice in Writing to the Collector of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, setting forth the Day and Hour when such Distiller intends to commence so to brew or to work any Still respectively, or to recommence so to work any Still as is herein-after provided; and any Distiller who shall brew any Worts, Wash, or Pot Ale, or who shall work any Still or Stills without having given such respective Notices, shall for each such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Distillers shall commence working on a Monday.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no other Day than Monday, shall be mentioned in any such Notice for commencing or recommencing to work a Still, and that no Distiller shall commence or recommence to work any Still in pursuance of any such Notice except on a Monday; and that every such Still shall be presumed to be kept regularly in Work from the Day mentioned in such Notice for the commencing or recommencing to work such Still, until the working thereof shall be discontinued in Manner herein-after mentioned; that is to say: Every such Distiller may from Time to Time discontinue the working of any such Still, on giving a Notice in Writing of such Intention to discontinue such working, to the Collector of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of the Distillery, Six Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned therein for discontinuing the same, requiring by such Notice, that the Still or Stills, the working of which is so intended to be discontinued, may be locked on the Day expressed in such Notice: Provided always, that no other Day than Saturday be mentioned in any such Notice for discontinuing to work any Still or Stills, and that such Saturday shall be the Close of a Period of Weeks in the Year, whereof the common Divisor or Aliquot Part shall be Four, and shall be not less than Eight Weeks distant from the Time of commencing to work such Still in any Year, nor less than Four Weeks distant from the Time of recommencing to work the same after any Discontinuance in such Year.

Mode of discontinue working of Distiller on Notice at the End of the first Eight Weeks, or at the End of any subsequent Period of Four Weeks.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That at the Time specified in any such Notice of Discontinuance, it shall and may be lawful for any Excise Officer in charge of such Distillery, and he is hereby required, to strap down and fasten the Head of every such Still, the working of which is so intended to be discontinued, by locking the same, and to lock the Door of the Furnace Grate, and to stop and lock the Discharging Cock or Pipe of any such Still; and if such Officer be prevented from so doing by any Person at such Distillery, or in consequence of the Distillery being locked, and no Person appearing to give Entrance to such Officer or otherwise, or if any such Still shall in any Event not be locked in Manner hereby directed, such Distiller shall continue to be charged with, and pay Duty, as if he had not given such Notice of Discontinuance as aforesaid; and such Notice shall be deemed void and of no Effect.

Officers shall secure Still, or on Failure the Distiller shall be charged as for a working Still.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time subsequent to Twenty-four Hours after any Still shall have been locked, or by any of the Provisions of this Act ought to have been locked, or after the Time mentioned in such Notice as aforesaid of discontinuing the working of such Still, such Still, or the Works in which it is set, shall be found warm, the Distiller or Distillers in whose Possession the same shall be so found shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on Still found warm after Discontinuance, 100*l*.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller who shall have discontinued the working of any Still in Manner aforesaid, shall intend to set at work again such Still so discontinued, such Distiller shall deliver a Notice in Writing of such Intention to the Collector of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller Six Days at least before the Day on which such Distiller shall intend to recommence the working of such Still, specifying the Day, agreeable to the Provisions of this Act, and the Hour, on which he intends so to recommence working such Still, (which Day shall be a Monday, and shall not be less than Four Weeks distant from the Time of the last Discontinuance of the working of such Still); and One of such Officers to whom such Notice shall be given shall attend, and open the Locks and Fastenings of such Still accordingly, and shall charge such Distiller with Duty as herein provided from the Day mentioned in the Notice for the Re commencement of the working of such Still.

Notice of Re commencement of working.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Person shall, at the Expiration of any Licence granted under this Act, discontinue the Trade and Business of a Distiller, or shall at any Time during the Continuance of his Licence discontinue working for the Remainder of any Year in Manner herein-after mentioned, such Person shall, within Seven Days after the Expiration of such Licence, or after so discontinuing to work, cause the Works, in which any and every Still in the Distillery of such Distiller were set, to be taken down, and shall displace and remove any and every such Still and Stills, and shall also displace and remove clear out of the Worm Tub the Worm belonging to any and every such Still respectively; and shall, within Seven Days then next following, send or convey any and every such Still, and the Heads and Worms belonging to the same respectively, to the Excise Office of the District in which such Distillery shall be situate, there to be kept for Twelve Calendar Months, unless the same shall within the said Twelve Calendar Months be re-delivered to the Proprietor thereof on his being licenced under this Act, or shall be disposed of by such Proprietor to some licenced Distiller, which it shall be lawful for such Proprietor to do; and in case any such Still, or Head or Worm of a Still, shall remain at the said Excise Office for the Space of more than Twelve Calendar Months, it shall be lawful for the Collector of the District to break up and render useless any and every such Still, Still Head, and Worm, and to cause the Materials thereof to be sold; and the Produce thereof, after deducting all Expences of such Sale, and a reasonable Sum for the Warehouse Room for the same during the said Twelve Months, shall be paid by such Collector to the Proprietor thereof; and in case any Still, Still Head, or Worm, shall be found in the Distillery, or in any other Place in the Occupation of any Person who shall have so discontinued the Business of a Distiller, at any Time after the End of Fourteen Days after the Expiration or Determination of any Licence to such Distiller, every such Still, Still Head, and Worm, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and the Person in whose Possession the same shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of this Act, the Officer of Excise keeping an Account of Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, in any Distillery, shall charge the Distiller upon any Decrease of Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, produced from Corn, for a Quantity of Spirits, after the Rate of One Gallon of Spirits for every Nine Gallons of Wash or Pot Ale, and of One Gallon of Spirits for every Three Gallons of Singlings or Low Wines so decreased; and when and as often as any Still in such Distillery shall be charged with such Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings respectively, such Officer shall charge the Distiller for a Quantity of Spirits after the like Rate, according to the Content of such Still, estimated as herein-before mentioned: And on any Decrease of any Wash or Low Wines produced from Sugar, Melasses, or decayed Wines, such Officer shall charge the Distiller for a Quantity of Spirits after the Rate of One Gallon of Spirits for every Six Gallons of Wash, and One Gallon of Spirits for every Two Gallons of Low Wines so decreased; and when and as often as any Still in such Distillery shall be charged with any such last-mentioned Wash or Low Wines respectively, such Officer shall charge the Distiller for a Quantity of Spirits after the like Rate, according to the Content of such Still as aforesaid; deducting from such Content in all Cases One Twelfth Part thereof for Liberty for such Still to work: And such Officer shall make a Return of the Quantities of Spirits, and of the Duties thereon accordingly, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty so charged and returned.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Decrease shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act appear or be found by any Officer of Excise, in any Wort, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, in the Distillery of any Distiller, more than or beyond the Proportion of Decrease justified by the Charges of the Still or Stills in such Distillery, according to the Directions of this Act, such Distiller shall be and is hereby charged with Double Duty for such Quantity of Spirits as might be produced according to the Rate before mentioned, from so much Wort, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, as shall exceed such Proportion of Decrease respectively, and the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of such Distillery is and are hereby required in such Case to make such Charge, and return the same to the Collector of the District accordingly.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That notwithstanding any Discontinuance of working, under the Provisions herein-before mentioned, every Distiller shall, during the Continuance of this Act, and during the Continuance of his Licence in each Year, be charged with and shall pay Duty for a Quantity of Spirits in respect of each and every Still belonging to such Distiller, according to the Content thereof, and according to a certain Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines for each such Still, and according to a certain Number of working Weeks and Days, as herein-after mentioned; (that is to say): Every such Distiller shall be charged for each and every such Still for not less than Thirty-two working Weeks or One hundred and ninety-two working Days during the Continuance of such Licence; and that for every Four working Weeks or Twenty-four working Days, while any such Still shall continue or be presumed to continue working, or shall be chargeable as working under this Act, such Distiller shall be charged with and shall pay Duty for such Quantity of Spirits as might be produced (according to the Rate herein-before mentioned) from the several Numbers of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines herein-after severally set forth, for and in respect of each and every Still, being of the several Contents following; that is to say:

- From Fifty Charges of Low Wines or Singlings for every Still under Seven hundred and fifty Gallons Content, and not less than Five hundred Gallons Content:
- From Forty-eight such Charges for every Still under One thousand Gallons Content, and not less than Seven hundred and fifty Gallons Content:
- From Forty-four such Charges, for every Still under One thousand two hundred and fifty Gallons Content, and not less than One thousand Gallons Content:
- From Forty-two such Charges, for every Still under One thousand five hundred Gallons Content, and not less than One thousand two hundred and fifty Gallons Content:
- From Forty such Charges for every Still under One thousand seven hundred and fifty Gallons Content, and not less than One thousand five hundred Gallons Content:
- From Thirty-nine such Charges for every Still under Two thousand Gallons Content, and not less than One thousand seven hundred and fifty Gallons Content:
- From Thirty-eight such Charges for every Still under Two thousand two hundred and fifty Gallons Content, and not less than Two thousand Gallons Content:
- From Thirty-seven such Charges for every Still under Two thousand five hundred Gallons Content, and not less than Two thousand two hundred and fifty Gallons Content:

From Thirty-four such Charges for every Still under Two thousand seven hundred and fifty Gallons Content, and not less than Two thousand five hundred Gallons Content :

From Thirty-five such Charges for every Still under Three thousand Gallons Content, and not less than Two thousand seven hundred and fifty Gallons Content :

From Thirty-three such Charges for every Still of Three thousand Gallons Content or upwards.

Officer shall make Return accordingly
every 4th Week, and Distiller pay Duty thereon.
Penalty 20l.
and Double Duty.

And that every Distiller shall, over and above the respective Quantities aforesaid, be charged with and pay Duty for as much more Spirits as might be produced, according to the Rate herein-before mentioned, from all Pot Ale, Wash, Low Wines, or Singlings, which such Distiller shall actually distil within every such Period of Four working Weeks, or Twenty-four working Days : And the Surveyor or Gauger in charge of any Distillery, shall, in his Return to the Collectors of the District for the last Week of the first Period of Four working Weeks or Twenty-four working Days next after the Day mentioned in any Notice for the Commencement or Resumption of the working of any Still, in Manner directed by this Act, and so in like Manner in his Return for the last Week of every other or subsequent Period of Four working Weeks, or Twenty-four working Days, while such Still shall continue or be presumed to continue working, or shall be chargeable as working under this Act, make a Return and Charge upon such Distiller of such Quantities of Spirits, and the Duties thereon, as, with the Quantities comprized in the Returns of Spirits distilled by such Distiller during the Three preceding Weeks, shall amount to the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is hereby chargeable with Duty for such Period of Four working Weeks or Twenty-four working Days ; and also of such further Quantity of Spirits as might be produced according to the Rate herein-before mentioned, from all Pot Ale, Wash, Low Wines, or Singlings, which such Distiller shall actually distil within such Week, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return and Charge to have become due and payable, within Seven Days after such Return and Charge shall have been made, or shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty so returned and charged.

Officers in each Year shall make Return to complete the Amount of Spirits chargeable in the Year, exclusive of any Surplus in Monthly Charge.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in case the Quantity of Spirits charged upon any Distiller in any Year, ending on the Twenty-ninth Day of September, shall not amount to the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is by this Act chargeable with Duty within such Year, being for the Period of Thirty-two working Weeks or One hundred and ninety two working Days, according to the Rates aforesaid, (exclusive of all Spirits made, or Duty charged in any Return for any Period of Four working Weeks, for any additional Quantity which might have been produced in such Period according to the Rates herein-before mentioned, from all Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, which such Distiller shall have actually distilled within such Period), the Surveyor or Gauger in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller shall, within Twenty Days after such Twenty-ninth Day of September, make a Return to the Collector of the District in which such Distillery shall be situate, of such Quantities of Spirits, and of the Duties thereon, as, with the Quantities comprized in former Returns of Spirits against such Distiller within the Year ending on such Twenty-ninth Day of September, (exclusive of such additional Quantities as aforesaid) shall amount to the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is by this Act made chargeable with Duty for the Period of Thirty-two working Weeks, or One hundred and ninety-two working Days in such Year, according to the Rates aforesaid (exclusive of such additional Quantities as aforesaid) ; and such Return shall be a Charge on such Distiller, who shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return to have become due and payable within Seven Days after such Return shall have been made, or shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty so returned and charged : Provided always, that if any Distiller shall be desirous of obtaining a Licence for any Still or Stills at any Time between the First Day of November in any Year, and the Twenty-ninth Day of September in the succeeding Year, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to reduce the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is by this Act chargeable with Duty for and in respect of such Still or Stills, during the Continuance of such Licence, to such Quantity of Spirits as may reasonably be distilled in such Still or Stills between the Time that such Licence shall be so granted, and the Twenty-ninth Day of September then next ensuing ; provided that such Reduction shall be in the Proportion to the Part of the Year which shall have elapsed from the Twenty-ninth Day of September preceding the taking out such Licence, to the Time of the taking out the same as Thirty-two Weeks is to Fifty-two Weeks ; and that the Person taking out any Licence for such Still or Stills, shall in all other Respects be subject and liable to all the Rules and Regulations in this Act contained.

Distillers may discontinue working for the Remainder of a Year on Notice.

L. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Distiller shall be desirous to discontinue working for the Remainder of any Year, at the End of the First Period of Eight Weeks in the Year after he shall have commenced working, or at the End of any Period of Four Weeks after such Distiller shall have recommenced working in Manner aforesaid respectively, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller to discontinue working accordingly on giving a Notice in Writing of his Intention so to discontinue working for the Remainder of the Year to the Commissioners of Excise, and also to the Collector of the District, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, Fourteen Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned for so discontinuing to work for the Remainder of the Year : And in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three of them, upon Application to them made by such Distiller for that Purpose, to declare the Licence granted to such Distiller to be ended and determined from and after the Day mentioned for so discontinuing working, and the same shall be ended and determined accordingly ; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to reduce the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller shall by this Act be chargeable with Duty, during the Continuance of his Licence, to such Quantity as such Distiller shall be chargeable with during so many Periods of Eight Weeks or Four Weeks only, as such Distiller shall have actually continued working, or shall have been chargeable as continuing to work, together with such further Quantity of Spirits as might be produced from all Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, which such Distiller shall have actually distilled during such Periods, according to the Rates in this Act specified: And if at any Time after the Day mentioned in any such Notice of any such Distiller, for so discontinuing to work for the Remainder of the Year, any such Distiller shall brew any Worts, Wash, or Pot Ale, or shall distil any Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines, or shall work any Still or Stills in such Distillery, or if after the Day mentioned for so discontinuing to work, any Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, shall be found, or any Still or Stills shall be discovered working in the Distillery of such Distiller, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and shall be chargeable and charged with, and pay Duty under this Act, as if he had not given such Notice of Discontinuance as aforesaid; and it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to licence any Person to keep the said Distillery, or to have, keep, or make use of any Still or Stills therein, for the Remainder of such Year, nor during the Term of One Year next ensuing the Twenty-ninth Day of September after such Offence shall have been committed.

Penalty on Distiller working after such Notice, 500*l.* &c.

LII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Three of the said Commissioners of Excise to reduce or abate the Quantity of Spirits wherewith any Distiller shall be chargeable in any Year by virtue of this Act, according to the Number of Weeks or Days as aforesaid, upon Proof upon Oath, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that some Fatality, such as Fire, or any other unavoidable Accident or Misfortune, shall have prevented such Distiller from working such Number of Weeks or Days: Provided always, that such Reduction or Abatement be first approved of by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland.

Abatement of Duty to Distiller in case of Accident.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller shall intend to commence to brew or mash any Corn, such Distiller shall, Four Hours at least before so commencing to mash any Corn, give Notice to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, (by an Entry to be made in a Book to be provided by such Officer for such Distiller, and to be kept in such Distillery,) of the particular Hour and Time when such Distiller so intends to brew or mash any Corn, and the Number of Bushels of Corn, malted or unmalted, or Meal, intended to be used in every such brewing or mashing, and also the Time when such brewing will be completed, and the Worts be off; and if such Distiller shall intend to make any second mashing of the same Materials, with any Addition thereto of any further Quantity of Corn, malted or unmalted, such Distiller shall give a like Notice: And such Book shall be carefully kept by such Distiller, and the said Entries being made therein, the said Book shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Expiration of every Period of Four working Weeks or Twenty-four working Days, be delivered by such Distiller to such Officer; and in case any Corn, malted or unmalted, shall be mashed or brewed in the Distillery of any Distiller, without such Notice being given by Entry to be made in such Book, all Wort, Wash, and Pot Ale, brewed from such Corn, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Distiller shall give Notice to Officers of every Mashing, Penalty 20*l.*

LIII. And be it further enacted, That every brewing of Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, from Corn, shall be separately run off into or placed on Coolers, and shall be therein gauged and measured by the proper Officer, within a reasonable Time before the same shall be let into any fermenting Back; and that all Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale from Corn shall be distilled in the Order in which the same was brewed; and that no newer Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, shall be distilled while there is any older Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale on hand, and not distilled; and that if any such Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller which shall not have been to run off into, and placed on Coolers, and gauged accordingly, or which shall have been brewed longer than any such Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, as shall have been then actually distilled, or distilled, such Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and such Distiller shall also forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Wash shall be drawn off in Coolers, and distilled in the Order in which it was brewed, Penalty 20*l.*

LIV. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller shall put into nor keep in any Back, Cooler, or other Vessel, which shall be capable of containing the full Charge of the Still, or (if there shall be more than One Still) of the largest Still in the Distillery of such Distiller, at any One Time, a smaller Quantity of Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, than the full Charge of some One Still in such Distillery; nor shall at any One Time put more or less than One Brewing of Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, into any One such Back for fermenting the same; nor shall mix in any One such Back, Two or more different Brewings of Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, or any Part thereof; nor shall put any Low Wines or Singlings into any Vessel, until every other Vessel in such Distillery in which any Low Wines or Singlings shall have been previously put, shall be completely filled with Low Wines or Singlings; and if any Back, Cooler, or other Vessel in the Distillery of any Distiller shall be found containing any Wort, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, contrary to the Regulations of this Act, such Distiller shall for every Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Each brewing shall be kept separate, Penalty 20*l.*

LV. And be it further enacted, That no Allowance shall be made in the gauging or taking Account of the Contents of any Back, Vat, or other Vessel, for or in respect of any Grouting or Ground Corn or Meal, or other Composition, Matter, or Thing, added to the Worts, Wash, or Pot Ale, in such Back, Vat, or other Vessel, whilst such Worts, Wash, or Pot Ale, are in the Course of Preparation for being distilled; any Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Allowance for Grouting.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That all Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, made from Corn, which shall not be distilled at the Expiration of Six Days, including the Day of brewing and the Day of distilling, and all Sugar Wash and Wash made of Melasses, which shall not be distilled at the Expiration of Twelve Days, including the Day of breaking down the Melasses or Sugar with Water, and the Day of distilling, and all Wash made of Sweet Waters which shall not be distilled at the Expiration of Six Days, including the Day of receiving and the Day of distilling the same, shall be considered as Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, not included in any former Charge against the Distiller; and such Distiller shall be charged with Duty in respect of such Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, according to the Directions of this Act.

Wash shall be distilled within a limited Time.

Distiller shall not have Corn Wash and Sugar Wash in his Possession at the same Time.

Penalty 500l.

Distiller shall give Notice of receiving Sugar Wash.

Penalty 500l.

Penalty on Distiller having any Mixture of Corn and Sugar Wash in his Possession 1000l.

If Contents of Still are not declared, they shall be charged as Singlings.

What still be considered as Feints, and how to be disposed of.

Stock of Distiller shall be shown and declared to Officer on Demand.
Penalty 1000l.

Regulations as to declaring Stock of Spirits.

Penalty 200l.

Penalty 100l.

Officer shall make a weekly Return on the Distiller, who shall pay the Duty accordingly.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, during the Time that such Distiller shall have any Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale from Corn on Hand or undistilled, or until he has drawn off and distilled all Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale from Corn, shall receive, have, keep, or make use of any Melasses, Melasses Wash, Sugar Wash, or Sweet Water, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and all Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale from Corn, and all Melasses, Melasses Wash, Sugar Wash, or Sweet Water, which shall be found at one and the same Time in any Distillery, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall, Twenty-four Hours at the least before Receipt of any Quantity of decayed Wines, Melasses, or Melasses Wash, Sugar Wash, or Sweet Water, or any Wash not made of Corn, into the Distillery of such Distiller, give Notice in Writing to the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of such Distillery, of the particular Quantity and Kind of all such decayed Wines, Melasses, or Wash not made of Corn, and of the Species thereof, and of the Time when such Distiller intends to receive the same; and if any decayed Wines or Melasses, or any Kind of Wash not made of Corn, shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller without such Notice having been given as herein required, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized or spilled by any Officer of Excise, and such Distiller shall forfeit Fifty Pounds.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Pot Ale or Wash in which there shall be any Mixture of Corn and Melasses, or Sugar, or of Corn Wash and Melasses Wash or Sugar Wash, or Sweet Water, shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller, or in any Place adjoining thereto, or in the Possession of any such Distiller, or if any Spirits shall be found distilling or distilled from any such Mixture, such Distiller, as often as the same shall be so found, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and, upon the Trial of any Information for the said Penalty, such Distiller shall be convicted, unless due Proof shall be made by such Distiller that the Pot Ale or Wash in respect of which such Information shall be brought, did not contain any Mixture of Corn and Melasses or Sugar, or of Corn Wash and Melasses Wash, or Sugar Wash, or Sweet Water, or that the Spirits were not distilling or distilled from any such Mixture, as the Case may be.

LX. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise shall find any Still at Work, and the Distiller, or any Person employed by such Distiller, shall refuse to declare what such Still then contains, it shall be lawful for such Officer of Excise to charge the Distiller as if such Still contained Singlings or Low Wines, and such Distiller shall pay the Duties by this Act chargeable accordingly.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That no Liquor shall be declared as Feints, or taken as such in any Distillery which shall be of a greater Strength than Eighty-five per Centum under Proof; and that in case any Liquor declared as Feints shall be found of a greater Strength, the same shall be charged as Singlings or Low Wines; and that no Liquor called Feints shall be distilled or otherwise disposed of, than by being spilled, or by mixing the same with Pot Ale or Wash in the Presence of an Officer of Excise, at the Option of the Distiller; and that if any Decrease shall at any Time be found in the Quantity of such Feints more than is justified by the Quantity to mixed with Wash or Pot Ale, or so spilled as aforesaid in the Presence of an Officer, such Distiller shall be charged for a Quantity of Spirits in Proportion of One Gallon of Spirits to Three Gallons of such Decrease of Quantity in such Feints.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That as often as any Officer of Excise shall have entered into the Distillery, Warehouse, Store, or any other Place belonging to any Distiller, such Distiller, or some Person employed on Behalf of such Distiller, shall, on Demand of any such Officer, show or cause to be shown to such Officer all the Stock on Hand of Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines and Spirits, belonging to such Distiller, and shall give or cause to be given to such Officer a Declaration of the same; that is to say, that the Stock so shown is all the Stock of Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines and Spirits of or belonging to such Distiller: And if such Distiller, or some Person on his Behalf, shall not, on Demand made by any such Officer, forthwith show or cause to be shown such Stock, or make such Declaration as aforesaid; or if such Distiller, or any Person showing such Stock or making such Declaration, shall make any false or untrue Declaration of such Stock, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit One hundred Pounds; and if any Officer or Officers of Excise shall upon Search discover any Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines or Spirits, in any Distillery, or in any other Place belonging to any Distiller, which shall not have been duly shown or declared, or which shall be in any Place or Store belonging to such Distiller, not registered under this Act, then all such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Low Wines or Spirits, shall be forfeited, and such Distiller or Distillers shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits, and for every Nine Gallons of Wash or Pot Ale, and for every Three Gallons of Singlings or Low Wines so found and discovered.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller, or Servant or Person in the Employment of such Distiller, who shall show the Stock of such Distiller to any Officer of Excise, shall count all the Casks of Spirits, and declare the Number thereof to such Officer taking an Account of the same; and in case such Distiller, Servant, or other Person, shall refuse or neglect so to do, such Distiller shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if after such Declaration as aforesaid, any of the Casks which shall have been declared to contain Spirits, shall be found to be empty, or to contain any other Liquor or Thing save only Spirits, or if more Casks than One shall be found not to be full, or if a greater Number of Casks shall be found than have been declared, every such Cask, and the Contents thereof, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and such Distiller shall forfeit for every Cask so found, not corresponding with such Declaration, the Sum of Ten Pounds.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of any Distiller, or any other Officer of Excise appointed or authorized so to do, shall, Once in every Week, make a Return or Report in Writing to the Collector of the District in which such Distillery is situate, or to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Excise shall appoint to receive the same, of the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is under this Act chargeable with Duty, and of the Duty thereon for the Week ending on the Saturday next preceding; and every such Officer shall, and he is hereby required, to leave a true Copy of such

Return

Return in Writing under his Hand, with every such Distiller, or at such Distillery, upon Pain of forfeiting Twenty Pounds for every Neglect or Omission in so doing, and such Return or Report of such Officer shall be a Charge upon every such Distiller for the Week fo ending on such preceding Saturday; and such Distiller shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return to have become due and payable, within Seven Days from such preceding Saturday, or shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty so returned and charged.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That such Distiller shall, under the proper Hand of such Distiller, or under the Hand of some Person for whom such Distiller shall be responsible, Once in every Week, at the Excise Office of the District in which the Distillery of such Distiller shall be situate, make true Entry of the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is under this Act chargeable with Duty for the Week ending the Saturday next preceding; and shall, at the Time of making such Entry, pay and clear off the Whole of the Duty payable for such Quantity of Spirits, upon Pain of forfeiting Twenty Pounds for every Omission, Neglect, or Default of such Entry or Payment, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty which such Distiller shall by Law be chargeable with for such Week.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That as often as any Dispute or Difference shall arise between any Officer of Excise and any Distiller, touching the Amount of Duty charged by the Return of such Officer upon such Distiller, for or in respect of any Quantity of Spirits pursuant to this Act, such Officer shall verify, by Affidavit made before the Collector of the District, or some Justice of the Peace, that the Return made by him is true and fair, according to the best of his Skill and Knowledge, and thereupon such Return shall be a Charge upon the Distiller disputing the same: Provided always, that no Distiller shall be allowed to controvert or dispute any Return or Charge of Duty by any Officer, unless such Distiller shall have made a regular weekly Return of the Quantity of Spirits by him distilled, and paid the Duty chargeable on the same, and shall in such his weekly Return have made his Objection to the Return or Charge of such Officer.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer of Excise shall at any Time have committed any Error in any Return to be made by him under this Act, by including or charging in such Return a greater or less Quantity of Spirits, or a greater or less Amount of Duty than ought to have been returned or charged by him against any Distiller according to the Directions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, or for the Examiner of the Accounts of such Officer, and they are hereby respectively required, to rectify the same as speedily as may be convenient, within Six Months after such Return shall have been made, and to report the same to the said Commissioners of Excise; and if it shall appear that the Quantity of Spirits and the Amount of Duty charged in any such Return against any Distiller, was greater than the same ought to have been, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby required, to make an Allowance forthwith to such Distiller of the Amount of Duty so overcharged; and if it shall appear that the Quantity of Spirits, and the Amount of Duty charged in any such Return against any Distiller, was less than the same ought to have been, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby required to give Notice to such Distiller of the Amount of the Deficiency of the Duty in consequence of such erroneous Return; and if such Distiller shall not, within One Month after such Notice, shew sufficient Cause to such Commissioners of Excise why he should not be charged with and pay such Deficiency, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to order a Return to be made to the Collector of the District in which such Distiller shall reside, of the Amount of such Deficiency; and the Duty specified in such Return shall be a Surcharge on such Distiller; and if such Distiller shall not, upon Demand, pay the full Amount of such Duty so surcharged, or such Part thereof as shall be established by the said Commissioners, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and a Sum equal to Double the Amount of Duty which shall be so returned and surcharged; provided that no such Return shall be a Surcharge on any Distiller, unless it shall have been made, and the Amount thereof demanded within Nine Months after the Date of the original Return.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Payment by any Distiller of any Sum of Money less than the Amount of Duty returned or to be returned by any Officer of Excise to be payable by such Distiller, shall not exempt such Distiller from the Payment of the Difference between the Amount of Duty so returned by such Officer, and the Sum so paid by such Distiller; and that if such Distiller shall not pay such Difference within Seven Days next after such Return of such Officer, such Distiller shall for every such Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Difference between the Amount of Duty so returned by such Officer, and the Sum so paid by such Distiller.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the Stock of Spirits in the Stores or Possession of any Distiller, Factor, or other Person dealing in or storing Spirits in Ireland, not being licensed to sell Spirits by Retail, shall be less than the Quantity of Spirits which, by the Stock Account kept by the Officer of Excise, ought to be in the Stores or Possession of such Distiller, Factor, or other Person, every such Distiller, Factor, or other Person, for every Time such Decrease shall appear, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits which shall be so deficient.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That in the Distillery of every Distiller there shall be safely kept such Minute Books as shall be delivered to such Distiller by the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of such Distillery, in which Book such Officers shall from Time to Time make true Entries of the Times when they shall respectively visit such Distillery, and of all such other Particulars relative to the State and Condition of such Distillery, as such Officers shall find necessary and expedient, or as shall be directed by any superior Officer; and such Distiller shall, within Three Days after the Twenty-fifth Day of December, the Twenty-fifth Day of March, the Twenty-fourth Day of June, and the Twenty-ninth Day of September respectively in every Year, deliver such Books to the Surveyor of Excise then in Charge of such Distillery: And in case any Distiller to whom such

Penalty 200l.

Book shall be tendered by any Officer of Excise, shall refuse to receive the same, or having received the same shall wilfully tear, deface, obliterate, or alter such Book, or any Entry therein, or cause the same to be torn, defaced, obliterated, or altered, or shall make or cause to be made any Entry therein, or in case such Distiller, or any Person employed in such Distillery, shall at any Time, when required by any Officer of Excise, neglect or refuse to produce such Book, or shall neglect to deliver such Book at the Times aforesaid, to the Surveyor of Excise, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty on sending out Spirits in less Quantities than 30 Gallons; or at Night without Notice, &c.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall send out any Spirits in any less Quantity than Thirty Gallons, or without being accompanied by a legal Permit, or if any Spirits shall be delivered or carried out of any Distillery between Sunset and Sunrise, without Notice first given to the Officer of Excise, who shall from Time to Time be in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, to the Intent that such Officer may be present to gauge such Spirits, every such Distiller shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds; and all such Spirits, and the Casks or Vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

Collector empowered to distrain for Duties.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Duties payable under this Act by any Distiller, shall be unpaid at the Time when such Duties are by this Act made due and payable, it shall be lawful for the Collector of Excise of the District in which the Distillery of such Distiller shall be situate, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to empower any Person or Persons to take and distrain all Spirits, and all Stills, Still Heads, and Worms, and all Coppers and other Vessels and Utensils for distilling used in any such Distillery, and all Malt, Corn, and other Materials for distilling, and to cause the same to be sold by publick Auction; and if after the Payment of all Duties and Arrears of Duties due from such Distiller, together with the Costs and Expences of such taking and distraining, there shall be any Surplus of the Produce arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall be forthwith tendered and paid to such Distiller or his Representatives: Provided always, that when any Spirits shall be so taken and distrained, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller or his Representatives, at any Time or Times before the Day appointed for the Sale thereof, to obtain Permits for conveying all or any Part of such Spirits, upon his or their paying to the Collector, towards discharging the Duties to be due and payable, the real Value of such Spirits as he or they shall desire to remove; and the same may be removed accordingly, and a proper Permit or proper Permits shall, on due Application, be given for the same, in like Manner as if no such Distress had been made.

All Utensils in a Distillery shall remain liable to Payment of Duties and Penalties.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Stills, Still Heads, and Worms, and all Coppers and other Vessels and Utensils for distilling, having been used in any Distillery, by what Title or Conveyance soever the same shall be claimed, or into whose Hands soever the same shall afterwards come, shall be liable and subject to, and are hereby charged with all Debts due to the Crown, and Duties of Excise, which shall be in Arrear and owing by any Person for any Spirits distilled or made within such Distillery, and shall also be subject to the Payment of all such Penalties as shall have been incurred by any Person who shall have occupied or used such Distillery, for any Offence against this Act; and it shall be lawful in all Cases to levy such Debts, Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by Distress and Sale of such Utensils, as it would be lawful to do in case the Person owing such Debts and Duties, or incurring such Penalties and Forfeitures, was at the Time the real Proprietor of such Utensils.

Bounties to Distillers using large Stills; viz.
16 per Cent. for Stills of 1000
Gallons, and 8 per Cent. for Stills of 500
Gallons; or according to the heat Still used.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of this Act, every Distiller in Ireland who shall make use of any Still, the Body whereof, without the Head or any other Appendage thereto, shall contain One thousand Gallons or upwards, shall be allowed and paid by the Collector of Excise of the District, out of any Money in his Hands, a Bounty after the Rate of Sixteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the Amount of the Duties on Spirits paid by such Distiller; and every Distiller in Ireland who shall make use of any Still, the Body whereof, without the Head or any other Appendage thereto, shall contain Five hundred Gallons, and shall not contain One thousand Gallons, shall be allowed and paid in like Manner a Bounty after the Rate of Eight Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the Amount of the Duties on Spirits paid by such Distiller: Provided always, that if any Distiller shall have or make use of more than One Still, such Distiller shall be allowed a Bounty on the whole Amount of the Duties paid by such Distiller, after the Rate payable in respect of the Still of the smallest Size.

Braziers shall take out annual Licences.
Penalty 100l

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Brazier or Worker in Bras, Copper, Tin, or Metal of any Kind, in Ireland, before he shall make any Still, Still Head, or Worm, shall take out a Licence from the said Commissioners of Inland Excise in Ireland, to follow the Business of making and repairing Stills, expressing his Name and Place of Abode upon Paper or Parchment, signed by One Commissioner, and stamped according to Law, to be in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March next following the Issue thereof, and shall annually take out a similar Licence on every Twenty-fifth Day of March, so long as he shall continue to follow such his Trade; and if any such Brazier or Worker shall make at any Time or in any Place, or repair any Still, Still Head, or Worm, without having obtained such Licence, he or she shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and all Tools, Utensils for working Metals, Tin or Copper Plates, Stills, Still Heads, or Worms, and all Pieces thereof, or Preparations for making the same, which shall be found in his or her Possession, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

Security shall be given, and Action made by Braziers.

LXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Licence shall be granted to any Person until he shall enter into Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, with Two sufficient Sureties in the Sum of One hundred Pounds each, conditioned that he will from Time to Time make a true Return, verified by Affidavit, to the nearest Officer of Excise, of the Name and Place of Abode of every Person for whom he shall make or repair any Still, Still Head, or Worm, together with the Number of Gallons each such Still shall contain, Twenty-four Hours at the least after making or repairing the same, and before he shall suffer the same to be taken or delivered out of his House, Shop, or Place of Work; and that he shall also, within Three Days after the End of each Quarter of a Year, from the Quarter Day next following following after the Commencement of his Licence, make a Return to the Collector of the District wherein he shall work of the whole Number of Stills, Still Heads, and Worms, made or repaired by him in the preceding Quarter of a Year, with the Name and Place of Abode of every Person for whom he shall have made or repaired the same, and the Number of Gallons each such Still so made or repaired shall contain, or that he has not made or repaired any Still, Still Head, or Worm, in the Course of the preceding Quarter of a Year.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Brazier or other Person making any Still whatsoever, shall, before disposing of the same, stamp on the Breast of such Still, over that Part thereof where the Cock of such Still shall be placed, and also on the Head of such Still respectively, the Name and Place of Residence of such Maker, and also the Name and Place of Residence of the Person to whom the same shall be disposed of, at full Length, in Roman Letters, and the Year of our Lord in which such Still shall be disposed of, in Figures, and the Number of the Gallons also in Figures which such Still and Head respectively shall be capable of containing, such Letters and Figures to be sunk in the Metal of such Still, and not less than Half an Inch long, under Pain of forfeiting for every Default therein the Sum of Ten Pounds; and if any such Still shall afterwards be enlarged, the Brazier or Person enlarging the same, shall in like Manner stamp the Number of Gallons such Still or Still Head respectively shall be capable of containing after such Enlargement thereof, under a like Penalty of Twenty Pounds.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Brazier or other Person dealing in Brads, Copper, Tin, or other Metal, shall make or have in his or her Possession, and if any Distiller, shall have, keep, or make use of any Still, the Proportion of the Diameters and Altitude whereof shall be contrary to this Act, every such Still shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, and the Person or Persons making, keeping, or using the same, or having the same in his or her Possession, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Brazier or other Person dealing in Brads, Copper, Tin, or other Metal, shall make or have in his or her Possession any Still, the Content of the Body whereof, without the Head or any Appendage thereto, shall be less than Five hundred Gallons, other than and except any Still of Twelve Gallons Content only, nor unless such Person shall have previously obtained a Licence from some One Commissioner of Excise for making or keeping the same; and in case such Still shall be of Twelve Gallons Content, setting forth that the same is for the Use of some Chymist, Apothecary, or other Person duly licensed to use the same; and if any such Still shall be found in the Possession of any Brazier or other Person as aforesaid, who shall not produce a Licence for making or keeping the same, such Brazier or other Person shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and such Still shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That no Brazier or Manufacturer of Metal, or other Person in Ireland, shall send or convey any Still, Still Head, or Worm, to any Person whomsoever, unless a Permit granted by an Officer of Excise for the Removal of such Still, Still Head, or Worm, shall have been obtained by such Brazier, Manufacturer, or other Person, and such Permit shall contain in the Body thereof the Name of the Brazier or Manufacturer thereof, or other Person sending the same, and of the Person or Persons to whom and the Place to which such Still, Still Head, or Worm, is intended to be sent, and also the Content in Gallons of such Still, and the Head thereof respectively; and every such Still, Still Head, and Worm, which shall be found conveying or conveyed, and for the Conveyance of which such Permit shall not be produced, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Person whatever, and the Brazier, Manufacturer, or other Person sending or conveying the same, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Person to whom any such Still shall be conveyed shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Arrival of such Still, deliver up the Permit under which such Still shall have been conveyed, to the proper Officer of the Walk in which such Person shall reside, and such Officer shall thereupon grant a Certificate to such Person in lieu of such Permit; and if any such Still shall be found in the Possession of any Person after the Expiration of Forty-eight Hours from the Arrival thereof, without such Certificate, such Still shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Still, Still Head, or Worm, or other Utensil for distilling of Spirits, shall be found in the Possession of any Person, not being a Brazier, or not being duly licensed to have or keep the same, and in case any Spirits exceeding the Quantity of Four Gallons (except such Spirits for which a Permit or Certificate shall be produced) or any Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, or Singlings, shall be found in the Possession of any Person not duly licensed under this Act, such Person shall for every such Still, Still Head, Worm, or other Utensil for distilling of Spirits, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and for every Gallon of such Spirits, and for every Nine Gallons of such Wash or Pot Ale, and for every Three Gallons of such Low Wines or Singlings, the Sum of Twenty Shillings: And all such Stills, Still Heads, Washes, or other Utensils, and all Spirits, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, and Singlings so found, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit to be harboured, kept, or concealed, or shall give any Aid or Assistance, or Reward to any Person or Persons to harbour, keep, or conceal, any Spirits, Low Wines, Singlings, Wash, or Pot Ale, which shall have been unlawfully made or distilled, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, and all such Spirits, Low Wines, Singlings, Wash, and Pot Ale, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person in Ireland shall make use of any Still, Still Head, or Worm for distilling, or shall make or distil any Low Wines, Singlings, or Spirits, or shall brew, make, or ferment any Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, wherewith and with the Intent to distil Low Wines, Singlings, or Spirits, without having a Licence in force pursuant to Law for distilling, every such Person shall be deemed LXXXV. 'And Whereas the Penalties heretofore imposed on Townlands and Places wherein any unlicensed Still or other Utensil for distilling of Spirits were seized, have been found ineffectual to prevent such unlicensed Stills, and it is expedient to make other Provisions in order to prevent all Fraud, Collusion, and Conivance with respect to the using such unlicensed Stills, and to preserve the Morals of the People from being injured by the immoderate Use of Spirits distilled thereby: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, and he is hereby required, upon Information upon Oath to him given, that any unlicensed Still or other Utensil for distilling of Spirits has been found, or is used in any Place within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, to examine into the Truth of such Information; and if he shall find Reason to believe that such Still has been so used or found, he shall bind over the Person or Persons giving such Information to appear at the next ensuing Assizes or presenting Term, to give Evidence, if necessary, in support of such Information: And such Justice shall cause Notice of such Information to be served on any Two Inhabitants of the Parish (or if such Still shall be found or used in any Extra-parochial Place, then on Two Inhabitants of the Townland) in which it shall appear by such Information that any such unlicensed Still or other Utensil was found or used Seven Days at the least previous to the Commission Day of the next ensuing Assizes, or first Day of the next presenting Term, if in the County or County of the City of Dublin; and such Justices shall, at or before such next ensuing Assizes or presenting Term, deliver to the Clerk of the Crown all such Informations to be made before him, and all Examinations taken by him thereon respectively, and such Clerk of the Crown shall lay the same before the Court at the said respective Assizes or presenting Term: And in case any Person liable to pay any Grand Jury Cefs in such Parish or Townland respectively shall appear at such Assizes or presenting Term, to controvert the Fact of finding or using such Still, or the Fact that any such Still was unlicensed, or that the Parish or Townland mentioned in any such Information was the Parish or Townland wherein such Still was so found or used, it shall be lawful for the Court at the same Assizes or presenting Term, and such Court is hereby required to try the Fact or Facts so controverted, in the same Manner as the Trial of a Traveller to any Presentment of a Grand Jury; and if a Verdict shall be given agreeable to the Information to be made to such Justice of the Peace, or if no Person shall appear at such Assizes or presenting Term to controvert the Facts as aforesaid, such Court shall fine such Parish or Townland in the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall direct the Treasurer of the County, County of a Town or City, to issue his Warrant for levying the said Sum of Fifty Pounds off the Parish or Townland respectively, in which it shall appear by such Information that such Still was found or used; which said Sum of Fifty Pounds shall be levied by the Collector of the Grand Jury Cefs, in like Manner, and with like Powers, Authorities, and Remedies, in case of Non-payment thereof, or of any Part thereof, as are provided by Law in respect to any Money to be levied under any Presentment of a Grand Jury; and one Moiety of every such Fine or Sum of Fifty Pounds as shall be levied off any Parish or Townland in the County of the City of Dublin, or the Liberties therunto belonging, or in the County of Dublin, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the said County and County of the City of Dublin to the Society for discountenancing Vice and promoting Virtue in the said City, for the Use of the said Society; and one Moiety of such Sum of Fifty Pounds as shall be levied in any other Parish, or Townland in Ireland, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County, County of a Town or City, in which such Parish or Townland is situate, to the Treasurer of the publick Infirmary or Hospital of such County, for the Use of such Infirmary or Hospital; and the other Moiety of such Sum of Fifty Pounds shall in all Cases be paid by the Treasurer of such County, County of a Town or City, to any Officer of Excise or Customs who shall have given such Information to such Justice of the Peace as herein-before mentioned, and who shall appear at such Assizes or presenting Term pursuant to his Recognizance to prosecute the same; or in case the Informer shall not be an Officer of Excise or Customs, such last-mentioned Moiety shall be paid by such Treasurer according to the Directions of the Court, either to such Informer, or to such Justice of the Peace, to be by such Justice applied in rewarding the Person or Persons from whom he received such Information, or otherwise, towards the suppressing of all unlicensed Stills within his Jurisdiction, in such Manner as to such Justice shall seem most fitting and expedient.

Application of said Penalty.

Distillers may warehouse Spirits within Ireland, without Payment of Duty, under certain Regulations.

LXXXVI. 'And Whereas the allowing Spirits made or distilled from Corn in Ireland, to be warehoused there for Exportation without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable in Ireland thereon, may tend to promote the profitable Export thereof; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Distiller or Maker of such Spirits in Ireland, to warehouse his Spirits for Exportation without Payment of such Duty of Excise, according to the Provisions of this Act, and subject to such Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners of Excise in Ireland shall, from Time to Time, direct or order in any of His Majesty's Stores or Warehouses at the Ports of Dublin, Drogheda, Dundalk, Newry, Belfast, Galway, Limerick, Londonderry, Cork, Youghal, Waterford, Wexford, Sligo, Wexford and Kinsale, or at any other Port in Ireland, in which, or in the District in which such Port shall be situated, Stills of not less than Five hundred Gallons in Content shall be hereafter licensed by the said Commissioners: Provided always, that no Spirits of a Strength less than a Strength equal to One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, by Clarke's Hydrometer, or by such other Hydrometer as shall be approved of by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, shall be so warehoused; and that all such Spirits shall be contained in Casks of not less than than One hundred Gallons Content, and that there be marked on the Head of each Cask in Letters or Figures cut therein, the Number of Gallons of Spirits in such Casks, and the Strength of the Spirits contained therein.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Distiller shall intend to warehouse Spirits for Exportation, he shall give Notice in Writing to the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall be placed over the Distillery of such Distiller, and also to the Storekeeper at the Port of Exportation, of such his Intention, in which Notice shall be set forth the Number and Content in Gallons of each Cask which such Distiller so intends to warehouse, and the Day and Hour of the Day on which such Distiller intends to commence the Removal of such Spirits to the Warehouse, which Day shall not be more distant than Six Days, nor nearer than Three Days from the Time of such Notice: Provided always, that no Removal of any Spirits for such Purpose shall be allowed without Permits according to Law, and containing all such Particulars as shall be directed by the Commissioners of Excise; nor shall any such Removal commence at any Time of the Day before the Hour of Nine in the Morning, or after the Hour of Three in the Afternoon.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officer of Excise shall attend at the Stores of every such Distiller, at the Time mentioned as aforesaid in such Notice, and such Officer shall continue there until the Whole of the Spirits for which such Notice has been given, shall be removed out of the Stores of such Distiller, under Permits, as aforesaid; and that immediately after the Removal of such Spirits, such Officer shall take Stock on such Distiller, and shall set forth in the Stock Book the Decrease occasioned by the Removal of all such Spirits: And in case the Whole or any Part of the Spirits for the Removal of which a Permit shall be granted as aforesaid, shall not be delivered into His Majesty's Stores within the Time prescribed in the Permit or Permits for conveying the same (except in Cases of unavoidable Necessity, proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three of them) the Distiller of such Spirits, for the Removal of which out of his Stores, a Permit shall have been granted as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Gallon not so delivered, and shall also forfeit a Gallon of Spirits for every Gallon so deficient in delivery; and it shall be lawful for the Officer of Excise to seize and take out of the Stores of such Distiller a Gallon of Spirits for every Gallon which shall be so deficient; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to withdraw and annul any Licence before that Time granted to such Distiller, if they shall think fit to do.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That immediately on the Arrival of such Spirits under proper Permits, at His Majesty's Stores, the proper Officer shall gauge and take an Account of every Cask, and the Strength of the Spirits contained therein, and shall enter an Account thereof in a Book to be by him kept for the Purpose; and thereupon the Storekeeper shall deliver to the Distiller, or Person requiring the same for the Use of such Distiller, a Receipt for such Spirits, specifying the Number of the different Casks, with their Gauge, and the Quantity and Strength of the Spirits contained in them, with the Day of the Month and Year when such Spirits were stored, and any Marks which may be put on such Casks by such Distiller for distinguishing the Spirits to be his Property.

XC. And be it further enacted, That such Receipt shall be delivered over within a reasonable Time by every such Distiller to the Officer of the Walk where such Distiller shall reside, or carry on the Business of a Distiller, and such Officer shall immediately return to such Distiller a Copy thereof signed by himself; and upon the Delivery of such Receipt, and not before, it shall be lawful for such Officer to deduct from the Number of Gallons of Spirits with which such Distiller shall have been charged or chargeable, the Number of Gallons so warehouse'd, and to return the Charge against the Distiller to the Collector of Excise for the remaining Number of Gallons, which shall be a charge against such Distiller accordingly; and every such Officer shall annex to such Return the Storekeeper's Receipt, as his Voucher for having made such Deduction as aforesaid.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That such Spirits which shall be to be warehouse'd, shall not be taken or carried out of the Warehouse on any Account whatsoever, otherwise than in Manner and pursuant to the Provisions and Directions herein-after mentioned and contained.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That so often as any Person warehouseing Spirits in Ireland, shall be desirous of shipping for Exportation any Quantity of such Spirits, such Person shall deliver to the Storekeeper, Five Days at least before the Time when he intends to ship such Spirits, a Note in Writing, requiring such Storekeeper to deliver such Casks as such Person may intend to export, specifying the Number of Casks, and the Quantity of Spirits intended to be shipped, as set forth in the Receipt given to such Person by the Storekeeper, at the Time when such Spirits were admitted into the Warehouse, and mentioning the Time when such Person proposes to ship such Spirits, and the Name and Destination of the Ship or Vessel; and it shall be lawful for the Officer attending the Warehouse from which such Spirits are to be taken, before the Delivery thereof from such Warehouse, to mark every Cask of such Spirits with such Mark as the said Commissioners of Excise shall direct; and if any Spirits so intended for Exportation shall, after having been received in His Majesty's Stores, and before their actual Exportation, be altered in Quality, Quantity, or Strength, except by Decrease occasioned from Leakage, Waste, or Accident, all such Spirits, and the Casks containing the same, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise.

XCIII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Spirits shall be delivered out of any such Warehouse for Exportation, the Person or Persons intending to export the same shall, with one or more sufficient Surety or Sureties, give Bond to His Majesty in Double the Value of such Spirits, and of the Excise Duty which would be due and payable thereon, if such Spirits were taken out for Home Consumption, conditioned that such Spirits shall (the Dangers of the Seas or Enemies excepted) be exported to and landed at such Port as shall be specified in such Bond, without Alteration in Quality or Quantity, except what Distiller shall give Notice to Officers and Storekeepers of the Time he intends to warehouse any Spirits.

Officer shall attend at Distillers Stores during Removal.

Penalty on not delivering Spirits pursuant to Permit 10s. per Gallon, &c.

On warehouseing Spirits, Storekeeper shall give Distiller a Receipt for the same.

Distiller shall deliver such Receipt to Officer, who shall then deduct the Spirits so warehouse'd from the Distiller's Stock, and charge the Remainder only with Duty.

Spirits warehouse'd shall not be taken out but under this Act.

Taking Spirits out of Warehouse for Exportation.

Before Spirits shall be delivered out for Exportation, Bond shall be given to export them to the Port specified.

may be occasioned by Leakage, Waste, or Accident, and shall not be landed in any other Place, nor reloaded in Ireland.

On production of a Certificate that Bond has been given, for such Spirits as shall be mentioned therein, shall be delivered with a Permit to the Officer attending the shipping of the Spirits for Exportation.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exporter of such Spirits, or some Person on behalf of such Exporter, producing to the Storekeeper of the Warehouse, and to the Officer attending the same, a Certificate from the proper Officer, that such Bond and Security hath been given, the Storekeeper of such Warehouse, and Officer attending the same, shall deliver such Spirits as shall be mentioned in such Certificate to be exported; and such Storekeeper shall cause the said Spirits to be sent under the Care of a proper Officer, at the Expence of the Owner, to the Quay where the Ship or Vessel shall be stationed, there to be delivered into the Custody of the shipping Officer on such Quay, and shall at the same Time deliver a Permit for the Quantity so sent, in which Permit shall be also mentioned the Date when the Spirits were warehoused; and all such Spirits shall remain in the Care and Custody of the shipping Officer on the Quay until shipped or exported; and all such Spirits shall be shipped in the same Casks in which they were originally warehoused, with the Marks, Numbers, and Note of the Contents thereon, except in Cases of damaged or leaky Casks, which may be changed with the Leave of the Commissioners of the Customs, or of the chief Officer of the Port, and like Marks shall be cut on the Head of each new Cask as had been cut on the leaky or damaged Casks; and all such Spirits shall be shipped only in such Vessels as by Law Spirits of Irisb Manufacture may be shipped for Exportation, subject to all Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties, in respect of reloading or unshipping the same, as are or may be contained in any Act or Acts respecting Spirits shipped from Ireland for Exportation to Great Britain or elsewhere, and as are not contrary to the Provisions of this Act.

How Spirits may be taken out for Home Consumption on Payment of Duty.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person so warehousing Spirits for Exportation, shall desire to take the same, or any Quantity thereof, not less than Five hundred Gallons, out of His Majesty's Warehouse for Home Consumption, it shall and may be lawful for such Person so to do, on paying to the Collector of Excise for the District the full Amount of the Duty payable on such Spirits, for the Quantity which each and every such Cask contained, at the Time of its being warehoused, together with a Sum after the Rate of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year on the Amount of the said Duties, from the Expiration of Sixty Days after the Day of storing such Spirits, till the Time of taking the same out for Home Consumption; and upon the Production of the Collector's Receipt for such Duty to the Storekeeper, it shall be lawful for him to discharge the Casks mentioned in the Collector's Receipt, and to deliver a Permit for the Conveyance of the same to the Owner thereof, or to such Place as such Owner shall direct or require.

Warehoused Spirits may be removed from Port to Port.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That Spirits so warehoused may be removed, at the Desire of the Owner thereof, from His Majesty's Warehouse at any one Port, to the like Warehouse at any other Port as aforementioned, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners of Customs shall order in respect thereof.

Warehouses may be visited by Proprietors.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Proprietor of any such Spirits, so to be lodged in any Warehouse as aforesaid, in the Presence of the Storekeeper or other Officer, who are hereby required to attend at all reasonable Times for that Purpose, not oftener than once a Week, to view, examine, and shew for Sale such Spirits, or any Part thereof, and to examine the State of the Casks, and to prevent Leakage or Damage therein.

If Spirits are not exported within Four Months, &c. they may be sold for Payment of Duties.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Spirits shall remain in His Majesty's Warehouses, after having been received therein under the Provisions of this Act, for more than Four Calendar Months, or such further Time as the said Commissioners of Customs, or any Three of them, shall appoint, on special Application made to them, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to direct that such Spirits shall be publicly sold, giving Seven Days publick Notice thereof; and the Produce arising from such Sale shall be applied in the first Place to the Discharge of all the Duties thereon, computing such Duties on the Number of Gallons which each and every Cask contained at the Time of its being warehoused, without any Allowance for Waste or Leakage, together with a Sum after the Rate of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, on the Amount of the said Duties, from the Expiration of Sixty Days after the storing of such Spirits, until the Sale thereof; and the Remainder, after deducting all Expences of warehousing and Sale, shall be paid over to the Owner of such Spirits.

Drawback in lieu of Malt Duty, on Spirits exported.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That on the Exportation of any such Spirits, which shall have been warehoused in Manner aforesaid, no Drawback or Allowance whatever shall be given or paid, other than and except a Drawback of nine-pence Three Farthings Irisb Money upon every Gallon of such Spirits, as and in lieu of the Duty paid on the Malt used and consumed in the making of such Spirits (or other than and except such other Drawbacks which shall or may by Law from Time to Time hereafter, as Occasion may require, be granted, given, or allowed) unless and until all Duties of Excise due and payable on the same in Ireland, shall be first fully paid and satisfied; which Drawback is hereby required to be paid and satisfied on such Export, subject to all Rules and Regulations in force in Ireland respecting Drawbacks.

No Drawback shall be paid on Spirit not warehoused, entered for Exportation to Great Britain, except on Proof of Duty without Allowance, or such Allowance shall be refunded.

C. And be it further enacted, That in case any Spirits made or distilled from Corn in Ireland, which shall not have been warehoused in one of His Majesty's Warehouses under the Provisions of this Act, shall be entered for Exportation to Great Britain, no Drawback shall be paid or Debenture made out for paying the same, unless due Proof shall be first made by due Course of Permits, tracing such identical Spirits from the original Distillery to the Port or Place of Exportation, and by such other Evidence as shall be required, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Customs, or any Three of them, that each and every Gallon for which such Drawback shall be claimed has paid the full Duties due and payable thereon, by any Law in force in Ireland, without any Allowance out of or on Payment of such Duties, and that the Distiller of such Spirits has not received any Allowance or Bounty on account of the Size or Contents of any Still or Stills used by such Distiller; or unless all such Allowances or Bounties as may have been allowed to or received by such Distiller in respect of the Amount of the Duty on such Spirits, on account of the Size or Contents of any such Still or Stills, shall be refunded or repaid to or for the Use of His Majesty, in such Manner as such Commissioners Commissioners of Customs may from Time to Time order and direct in that Behalf; and if such Allowance or Bounty shall not be refunded and repaid on Exportation to Great Britain, such Allowance or Bounty shall be deemed a Part Payment in Advance of the Drawback payable by Law, and the remaining Part only of such Drawback shall be paid on such Export; any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, or any Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any such Spirits which shall not have been warehoused under this Act, shall be entered for Exportation to Great Britain, the Person entering such Spirits for Exportation shall state or cause to be stated in the Entry thereof, whether any Allowance has been made out of or on Payment of the Duties payable on such Spirits, or any Bounty claimed or paid in respect thereof, on account of the Size or Content of the Still or Stills used by the Distiller of such Spirits, or on any other Account, or under any other Pretext whatsoever, and the Amount of such Allowance or Bounty; and if such Person shall neglect so to do, or shall make any false or untrue Statement with respect to any such Allowance or Bounty, all Spirits so entered for Exportation shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, and the Person entering the same for Exportation shall also forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalties payable in British Currency, and recoverable as under Irish Excise Act 14 & 15 C. 2. c. 8. &c. § 102.—Penalties under Ten Pounds may be recovered before One Justice, within Three Months, by Distress and Sale, or in Defect thereof Offender shall be imprisoned Three Months. Appeal to Quarter Sessions. Penalties above Ten Pounds may be recovered by Action, § 103.—Proceedings of Justices not removable by Certiorari, § 104.—Penalty on Magistrates who neglect to do as required by this Act, vol. § 105. [See § 63, 64, 65, and 68. of 45 Geo. 3. c. 53.]—Charge on Distillers in respect of Walth from 15th July till 20th September 1805; § 106. [as under § 46. of this present Act.]—Charge on Distillers in respect of Monthly Charges of Low Wines from 15th July till 20th September 1805, § 107. [as under § 48.]—Such Charges on Distillers from 15th July to 29th September 1805, shall be paid as under Acts in force at Time of passing this Act, § 108.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to amend the Acts now in force for securing the Collection of the Revenue upon Malt, and for regulating the Trade of a Distiller in Ireland, shall, from and after the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five, cease and determine during the Continuance of this Act.

CX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect upon and from the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and five, except in such Cases as any other Time is mentioned for the Commencement of any of the Provisions in this Act contained.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six.

C A P. CV.

An Act to continue until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, and amend several Acts for regulating the Collection of the Duties in Ireland, on Fire Hearths, on Dwelling Houses, on Coaches and other Carriages, on Male Servants, on Horses and on Dogs.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS the several Acts now in force in Ireland, for the Collection of the Taxes upon Houses according to the Number of Fire Hearths, and of Windows or Lights therein respectively; and also the Taxes upon Carriages; and upon Male Servants; and upon Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules; and upon Dogs; and upon Makers and Sellers of Carriages, are insufficient; and it is expedient to provide for the better enforcing and securing the Collection of the said Taxes; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to regulate the Collection of the Rates and Taxes in Ireland, in respect of Fire Hearths, Coaches, and other Carriages, and of Male Servants, and on Dwelling Houses inhabited according to the Number of Windows or Lights therein respectively, and to secure the due Payment thereof, shall, during the Continuance of this Act, cease and determine; except so far as relates to the recovering, collecting, paying, and accounting for any Taxes, or Arrears of Taxes, or any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, recoverable under or by virtue of the said Acts, and which shall or may have become due, or been incurred at any Time previous to the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer, appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Excise to collect or superintend the Collection of the said Taxes, or any of them, at any Time in the Day Time, between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and Sunset (with the Assistance of a Magistrate, Constable, or other Person acting as a Peace Officer) to enter into any House, and into every Out-house and Edifice appertaining thereto, and into the several Apartments therein, and take Information from his own View and Survey of the Number of Fire Hearths and other Places used for Firing and Stoves therein, and also of the Number of Windows or Lights therein; and such House or Edifice shall be charged accordingly with the Taxes in respect of the Fire Hearths, and of the Number of Windows or Lights therein: Provided always, that if any House or Edifice has been newly built, such Fire Hearths therein, as appear not to be capable of being used at the Time of such Survey, shall not be charged, or if any such House or Edifice shall be finished only in Part, such House or Edifice shall be rated only according to the inhabited Part thereof.

same Houfe: Provided alfo, that every Perfon keeping a Boarding School fhall make and fign an Affidavit thereof, ftating the Number of Windows or Lights in the Houfe and Buildings occupied by fuch Perfon for fuch Purpose, before fome Juftice of the Peace, and fhall deliver fuch Affidavit to the Collector of the Taxes in refpect of Window Lights, or on Failure thereof fuch Perfon fhall not be entitled to any Abatement of the full Duty chargeable on fuch Houfe and Buildings in refpect of the Windows or Lights therein.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the faid Taxes in refpect of Fire Hearths or Windows fhall not be charged on His Majesty's Cattle of Dublin, or on any Houfe within the Circuit thereof, or on any Houfe or Tenement provided for the Refidence of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or of the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or of the Under Secretaries in his Office; nor on the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Owner or Occupier of every Dwelling Houfe, in which, with the Out-houfe or other Edifice appertaining thereto, there fhall be Two or more Hearths or Places ufed for Firing or Stoves, or Seven or more Windows or Lights, fhall, when required by any Officer empowered to collect the faid Taxes upon Hearths and Windows, make due and immediate Declaration and Return of the greateft Number of Hearths, Firing Places, or Stoves, and of Windows or Lights refpectively, which were in his or her Houfe or Premifes on the Twenty-fifth Day of March next preceding; and fhall, within Fourteen Days after any additional Hearth or Window fhall be made or opened, deliver or caufe to be delivered to the Officer aforefaid, or in his Abfence, to the Collector of Excife of the Diftrict, a true Lift or Account in Writing, under his or her Hand, of every fuch additional Hearth and Window refpectively; and if any fuch Owner or Occupier fhall refufe or neglect to make or deliver fuch Declaration or Return, Lift, or Account, or fhall make any untrue or falfe Declaration or Return, Lift, or Account, fuch Owner or Occupier fhall for every fuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and fhall be chargeable with and pay Double the Tax which he or she ought otherwife by Law to be charged with, in refpect of Hearths or Windows as the Cafe may be; and if at any Time a greater Number of Hearths or Windows fhall be difcovered in any Houfe, Out-houfe, or Edifice appertaining thereto, than the Numbers refpectively expreffed in fuch Declaration or Return, Lift, or Account, it fhall be taken and received as fufficient Proof of a falfe or untrue Return, Lift, or Account, unlefs due Proof be made by fuch Owner or Occupier, that the Hearth or Window fo exceeding had been made or opened within Fourteen Days.

XV. And whereas Doubts may arife refpecting the yearly Rents which Tenements or Dwelling Houfes, not having more than Six Windows or Lights, may be worth, or the yearly Rents which may be paid by the Occupiers refpectively, or the Value of the Goods or Chattels fuch Occupiers may have over and above all their juft Debts, be it enacted, That in every Cafe wherein any Officer, or other Perfon authorized to collect the Taxes under this Act, fhall doubt or fhall fufpect the Truth of any Declaration made by the Occupier thereof, fuch Occupier fhall, within Six Days after Demand, deliver to fuch Officer or other Perfon a Certificate in Writing or Print, and figned by the Perfon from and immediately under whom fuch Occupier holds fuch Tenement or Dwelling Houfe, or of his or her known Agent, in the Form following:

‘ I A. B. do certify that I know C. D. of E. in the Parifh of F. and that he [or ſhe, as the Cafe may be] is Tenant to me, [or, to G. H. to whom I am Agent or Receiver,] and that the Houfe or Tenement at E., of which the faid C. D. is Occupier, is not worth the yearly Rent of Fifty Shillings, [or Five Pounds, as the Cafe may be,] nor doth the faid C. D. pay Rent to me, or to any other Perfon to my Knowledge or Belief, for the faid Houfe or Tenement, or any other Tenement or Land, to a greater annual Amount in the Whole than Five Pounds yearly, (Money paid for Corn Acres, Potatoe Land by the Crop in the Nature of Corn Acres, and for grazing, excepted), nor hath the faid C. D. to the beft of my Judgement, Knowledge, and Belief, Goods or Chattels to the Value of Ten Pounds over and above all his [or her, as the Cafe may be] juft Debts.

And at the Foot of every fuch Certificate fhall be annexed an Affidavit of the Occupier of fuch Tenement and Houfe, made before fome Juftice of the Peace, in Form following:

‘ I C. D. of E. in the Parifh of F., do fwear, that I hold and occupy the Houfe at E. aforefaid in which I dwell, of A. B., and that the faid Tenement and Houfe is not worth the yearly Rent of Fifty Shillings, [or Five Pounds, as the Cafe may be,] and that I have not any Goods or Chattels to the Value of Ten Pounds over and above all my juft Debts, and that I do not pay Rent for Houfe, or Houfe and Land, altogether to a greater annual Amount than Five Pounds yearly, (Money paid for Corn Acres, Potatoe Land by the Crop in the Nature of Corn Acres, and for grazing, excepted).’

And fuch Certificate and Affidavit fhall be conclufive with refpect to the faid Charge: Provided always that fuch Certificate and Affidavit fhall be delivered to the Collector, or other Perfon authorized to collect the faid Tax, within Eight Days after the firft Demand fhall be made of the faid Tax, during which Eight Days it fhall not be lawful to take any Diftreffs for the fame; and if, during the Year for which any new Charge fhall be made, the Perfon authorized to collect the faid Tax, fhall have Reason to believe that any Change of Circumftances may have rendered any fuch Occupier fubject to fuch Charge, he may demand that fuch Certificate and Affidavit fhall be renewed, and on Failure thereof he fhall and may proceed to levy the Tax.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Owner or Occupier of any Dwelling Houfe fhall be charged with the Tax in refpect of Fire Hearths and Windows for the whole Year, for fuch Number of Fire Hearths and Windows as fhall be in fuch Dwelling Houfe, or in any Out-houfe or Edifice appertaining thereto, on the Twenty-fifth Day of March in any Year; and that if any Perfon fhall, in order to evade the Payment of the Tax in refpect of Fire Hearths or on Windows or Lights, payable within fuch Year, flop up, deface,

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Person in Ireland having in his, her, or their Keeping or Possession any Carriage chargeable with Duty, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, belonging to any other Person (other than and except Coachmakers having Carriages in their Possession for Sale) shall shall be charged with and pay the Tax payable for such Carriage, in the same Manner as the Owner or Proprietor thereof is or ought to be charged or chargeable for the same.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person in Ireland having, keeping, using, or employing, or having had, kept, used, or employed, since the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, any Carriage with Two Wheels or Four Wheels, or any Male Servant, or any Dog, or any Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, upon or in respect of which any Tax or Duty is or may be imposed by any Act or Acts now or at any Time hereafter in force in Ireland shall, upon Demand, or within Ten Days after Notice served by the Collector of the Taxes on Fire Hearths, or by any Officer appointed by the said Commissioners of Excise, to collect or superintend the Collection of any of the Taxes in this Act mentioned, in the Parish or District in which such Person shall reside, deliver to such Collector or other Officer, a true List or Account in Writing under his or her Hand, of every such Carriage, and of every such Male Servant, and of every such Dog, and of every such Horse, Mare, Gelding, and Mule, which any such Person shall or may have had, kept, used, or employed, or shall or may have, keep, use, or employ, at the Time of such Demand, or at the Time of the Receipt of any such Notice, or at any Time after the said Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, or at any Time after the Twenty-fifth Day of March in any subsequent Year; and which List shall contain the Name and Surname of the Person delivering such List, the Name of his or her Residence or Place of Abode at the Time of delivering such List, and of the Place, Parish, Barony, and County in which such Residence is situate, and the Description of every such Carriage with Four Wheels, and every such Carriage with Two Wheels; and the Name and Surname of every such Servant, and the Capacity in which such Servant was or is or shall be employed, and the Kind or Description of every such Dog, and the Uses or Purposes for which every such Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule was or is, or shall be kept or used; and from Time to Time, as often as any such Person shall keep or have any additional Carriage, or shall retain or employ any additional Servant, or shall keep or use any additional Dog, or any additional Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, beyond the Number of the same respectively expressed in any such List, then every such Person respectively shall, within Fourteen Days after such additional Carriage shall be kept or come into the Possession of such Person, or after any additional Male Servant shall be retained or employed, or any additional Dog, or any additional Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, shall be kept or used by such Person, in like Manner deliver to the said Collector, or other Officer, a like List or Account of every such additional Carriage, Male Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, as the Case may be; and if any such Person shall neglect or refuse to deliver, in Manner aforesaid, any such List or Account as is herein before required, or shall make or deliver any untrue or false List or Account of the Matters and Things aforesaid, or any of them; or if at any Time any such Person shall keep, retain, employ, or use any greater Number of Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules, than shall be expressed and mentioned in such List or Account delivered by such Person pursuant to this Act, or shall keep, retain, employ, or use any Carriage, Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, not expressed and mentioned in such List, such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and shall be chargeable with and pay Double the Tax which such Person ought otherwise by Law to be charged with, in respect of any such Carriage, Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, as the Case may be, of which such Person shall have neglected or refused to deliver a List or Account in Manner required by this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages shall, from Time to Time, enter in a Book to be kept solely for that Purpose by such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages, the Number and Kinds of Carriages by him built and constructed for Sale, distinguishing the Number of Wheels of each; and if with Two Wheels, whether constructed to be drawn by Two Horses abreast or otherwise; and the Number fold, and the Names and Places of Abode of the Persons to whom fold, and the Days on which each Carriage was delivered or sent out of the Shop or Warehouse of such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages; and every Person selling Carriages by Auction or on Commission as aforesaid, shall keep a like Book, and in like Manner enter in the same the Number and Kinds of Carriages sold by such Person, distinguishing the Number of Wheels of each, and the Days on which such Carriages were sold, and to whom they were so sold respectively; all which Books shall, at all reasonable Times in the Day Time, be open to the Inspection of the Collector of the Tax on Fire Hearths, or any Officer appointed to superintend the Collection of the Tax on Fire Hearths in the District where such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person shall reside, and carry on his Business; and such Inspector, Supervisor, and Collector, shall have Power to enter into the House, Manufactory, Workshop, and other Buildings of every such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages, and Person selling Carriages as aforesaid, and take an Account of all Carriages there, and to satisfy himself of the Truth of such Entries in any such Houses respectively; and every such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages, and other Person hereby required to keep such Account respectively, shall, within Twenty Days after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, the Twenty-ninth Day of September, the Twenty-fifth Day of December, and the Twenty-fifth Day of March in each and every Year after the passing of this Act, deliver a true Copy in Writing of all and every Entry made in such Book or Books respectively, within the Quarter of a Year ending on such Day respectively, containing the several Matters and Things before directed, to the Collector of Excise of the District in which such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person shall reside; and when required to do by the Commissioners of Inland Excise, or Collector of Inland Excise in such District, every such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person, or his or her chief Servant, Workman, or Manager, shall make Oath (or being a Quaker, an Affirmation) of the Truth of such Account, according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and every such Copy of the Account to be delivered by such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person shall, to the best of his or her Knowledge and Belief, express the Christian and Surname of every Person required to be entered in such Account, and the Place or Places of his, her, or their usual Residence; and if any such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person shall neglect to Lists of Carriages, Servants, Dogs, and Horses, to be delivered by Owners to Officers, on Demand, Penalty 10l. and Double Tax.

Accounts shall be kept and delivered by Coachmakers and Sellers of Carriages, Penalty 10l.

keep such Account, or deliver such Copy thereof, or shall wilfully omit any Description which ought to be contained therein, or shall refuse to admit any such Inspector, Supervisor, or Collector, into the House, Manufactory, Workshop, or other Buildings of such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person, at a reasonable Hour, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages or other Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Duties on Coachmakers, &c. shall be paid to Health Money-Collectors.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the Collector of Excise of the District to whom such Account as aforesaid shall be delivered by any Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages, or by any Person selling Carriages as aforesaid, shall forthwith transmit to the several Collectors of the Duty on Fire Hearths within his District, an Account of all such Duties as shall be due from any Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages, or Persons selling Carriages, within the Walk of such Collectors of the Duties on Fire Hearths respectively; and such Collectors of the Duties on Fire Hearths shall demand, receive, and collect the said Duties accordingly, in such Manner, and with such Powers and Authorities as the Duties on Fire Hearths may be collected under or by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland.

Tax on Servants shall not extend to Servants in Husbandry.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Taxes in respect of Male Servants shall not extend to any Servant who shall be really retained or employed for the Purpose of Husbandry or Manufacture, or of any Trade or Calling, by which the Master or Mistress of such Servant shall earn a Livelihood or Profit, and who shall not at any Time be employed in any Capacity in respect of which a Tax is payable for any Servant.

By whom the Tax on Grooms, &c. let to Hire, and on Gardeners shall be paid.

XXVII. Provided also, That the Tax payable for every Coachman, Groom, or Postilion in Ireland, let out to hire by Way of Job, shall be paid by the Person or Persons by whom such Coachman, Groom, or Postilion, shall be let to hire respectively; and the Tax payable for any Gardener retained or employed by any Person who shall contract for the keeping of any Garden, shall be paid by the Person for whose Use and in whose Garden such Gardener shall be employed.

Exemption for Servants of Lord Lieutenants, &c.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Taxes payable for Male Servants shall not be charged in respect of the Servants of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being; nor in respect of any Butler, Cook, Gardener, or Porter of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, nor in respect of any Servants of the Royal Hospital near Kilmalnam, or of the Blue Coat Hospital or Lying-in Hospital in Dublin, or any Hospital or charitable Institution.

Exemptions for Servants of Officers in Army and Navy.

XXIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the said Taxes on Male Servants shall not be charged on any Officer serving in any Regiment of Horse or Dragoons, under the Rank or not receiving the Pay of a Field Officer, provided he retains no more than one Servant; nor on any Officer serving in any Regiment of Artillery, Infantry, or Marines, or Corps of Engineers, for any Servant who is actually a Soldier in the Regiment or Company to which such Officer shall belong; nor on any Officer in His Majesty's Navy under the Rank of a Master and Commander, in actual Employment, for any Servant who is borne upon the Books of the Ship to which such Officer shall belong.

Exemption of Servants of Half Pay Officers.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Officer on Half Pay from His Majesty's Navy, Army, or Marines shall be charged for the said Tax on Male Servants for One Male Servant only, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue of Inland Excise, on Application made to them by such Officer, and Proof made that he is an Officer on Half Pay as aforesaid, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, to make an Abatement of the whole Tax from the Charge against such Officer, with the Consent or Direction of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer in Ireland.

Lifts shall be delivered of all Carriages, &c. kept by any Person at different Places.

Penalty 10l.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall deliver any Lift or Account required by this Act as aforesaid, and who shall keep, use, or employ any Carriage, Male Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule in any other Place in Ireland than the Place where such Lift or Account shall be delivered, shall in every such Lift or Account set forth the whole Number of Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, and Mules kept and used by such Person in Ireland, in order that such Person may be charged for the same according to the Rate chargeable on the greatest Number retained in the Whole; and such Person shall specify the Places, with the Parish and Barony in which the same shall be situate, where each such Carriage, Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, shall be at the Time when such Person shall deliver such Lift, and shall make and sign a Declaration of the Parish or Place in which such Person intends to pay for all such Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules; and on Proof of Payment by any Person of the Taxes in respect of all such Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, and Mules in any one Parish or Place by Production of the Receipt, signed by the Collector to whom the Payment shall have been made, or of a Certificate by such Collector, such Person shall be acquitted from the Payment of the said Taxes respectively, in any other Parish or Place in Ireland; and if any Person shall neglect or refuse to set forth such Particulars as are hereby required in such Lifts or Accounts, such Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Returns by Housekeepers of Carriages, &c. kept by Lodgers. Penalty 10l.

XXXII. And whereas Difficulties may sometimes arise in discovering Lodgers or Inmates in Houses liable to pay the said Taxes in respect of Carriages, Male Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, and Mules, be it therefore enacted, That every Inhabitant Householder of any House in which any Lodger or Inmate shall reside, who shall keep or use any Carriage, Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule upon or in respect of which any Tax is or may be payable as aforesaid, shall deliver to any Officer appointed to collect or superintend the Collection of any of the Taxes aforesaid on Demand, or within Ten Days after the Notice served by such Officer, a true Lift or Account in Writing, under the Hand of such Inhabitant Householder expressing the Name and Surname of every such Lodger or Inmate, with an Account of every Carriage, Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, kept, retained, employed, or used by such Lodger or Inmate to the best of the Knowledge and Information of such Inhabitant Householder; and if any such Inhabitant Householder

Householder shall neglect or refuse to deliver such List as aforesaid, or shall wilfully omit or misrepresent any Description which ought to be contained therein, or shall make or deliver any undue or false List or Account, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted. That the Notices by this Act required to be given by any Officer in respect of the Taxes mentioned in this Act requiring any List or Account thereof, and the several Lists or Accounts to be delivered pursuant to such Notices by every Person subject to the said Taxes, or any of them, shall and may be in such Form or Forms adapted to the particular Lists or Accounts required as the Commissioners of Inland Excise in Ireland may from Time to Time order, direct, and appoint.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted. That in case any Person having or owning any House subject to the Tax in respect of Fire Hearths or Windows, or keeping, using, or employing any Carriage, or any Servant, or any Dog, or any Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule upon or in respect of which any Tax or Duty is or may be payable as aforesaid, shall be absent from Ireland, then a List or Account of the Fire Hearths and Windows in any House belonging to such Person, and of any and every Carriage or Servant, or Dog, or Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, kept, used, or employed by such Person made out and subscribed by the Agent, Steward, Housekeeper, or principal Servant of such Person to absent, and delivered as aforesaid, shall be of the same Effect as if such List or Account were made out and subscribed and delivered by the Person owning and occupying such House, or keeping, using, or employing any such Carriage, Servant, Dog, Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule respectively, as the Case may be.

XXXV. And be it further enacted. That in case any Question or Difference shall arise between any Person charged or chargeable with any Tax in respect of Fire Hearths Windows Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules, and any Officer charging the same or employed to collect or superintend the Collection thereof, such Question and Difference shall be heard and determined in the Presence of such Officer by any Justice of the Peace to whom Complaint shall be made; provided, that if such Officer or the Party charged with the Tax shall not be satisfied with the Determination of such Justice, it shall and may be lawful, as well for the Party charged as for the Officer, to appeal from such Determination to the next General Sessions of the Peace, and the Justices attending the same are hereby empowered and required to examine and inquire into any such Determination upon Oath, and to confirm or reverse the same, and pronounce Judgement thereon, which Judgement shall be final and conclusive as to the Matter in Dispute, and the Person charged with the Tax may be examined upon Oath, if such Person shall desire it, upon such Complaint.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted. That any Officer authorized to collect all or any of the aforesaid Taxes, is hereby respectively authorized and empowered to levy, collect, and receive the several Taxes on Houses, in respect to the Number of Windows and Lights therein, and on Carriages, and on Coach Makers, or Makers or Sellers of Carriages, whether in respect of carrying on the Trade of a Coach Maker, or Seller of such Carriages, or in respect of having made, built, or constructed, or of having sold any such Carriages; and the Taxes on Male Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, and Mules; in the same Manner, and with like Powers and Authorities, as the Taxes on Fire Hearths may by Law be levied, collected, recovered and received; and that every Person chargeable with and liable to pay the said Taxes respectively, or any of them, shall, on Demand made at the House of such Person by any such Officer, pay to such Officer the several and respective Rates, Duties, and Taxes, which such Person shall be so chargeable with and liable to, and which shall be then payable or in Arrear; and in case of Refusal, or Default in Payment thereof, or any Part thereof, after such Demand, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, at any Time in the Day Time, with the Assistance of a Constable or other Peace Officer, or if no such Constable or other Peace Officer shall appear or attend, then without such Assistance to make Entry into and upon the House, Office, or other Premises of the Person chargeable with the said Taxes, or any of them, and to levy the same and all Arrears thereof by Distress and Sale of any Goods of such Person, in or upon such House, Office, or other Premises; or, if no Goods shall be found in such House, Office, or Premises, sufficient to satisfy all such Taxes to be payable, and all Arrears thereof, then it shall and may be lawful for such Officer to levy the same by Distress and Sale of any Goods of such Person wheresoever such Goods shall be found, restoring to the Party the Overplus of such Money, as such Goods shall be sold for, over and above the Tax and Arrears thereof then due, and over and above the necessary Charges of taking such Distress; and every such Officer shall have a Book or Books prepared for the Collection of each of the said Taxes, or for any Two or more of them, as the Commissioners of Inland Excise may deem expedient, in which every Leaf shall be divided into three Columns, and upon each of the said Columns shall be printed or written the Name and Residence of the Person chargeable, and the Duty where-with, and on what Account such Person is chargeable; and upon the Middle, and also upon the extreme of the said Columns shall be printed or written over and above what shall be contained as above directed, these Words "Received the full Amount of the foregoing Duties," specifying the Time and Place; and each such Column shall be signed by the Collector when he receives the Duty.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted. That the said Columns shall be joined with oblique Lines, Flourishes, or Devices, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct; and the Extreme or Third of the said Columns shall be stamped with the Duty payable thereon, as for a Receipt; and it shall be separated or cut off by a Cut through the oblique Lines, Flourish, or Device, which joins it to the middle Column, and shall be delivered to the Person paying Duty on the Account specified therein, and shall be signed by the Person receiving such Duty; and the Middle of the said Columns shall be likewise cut off in like Manner, being first signed by the Person receiving the Duty therein stated, and who shall have signed the extreme or third Column, and shall be transmitted to the Collector of Inland Excise of the District, within the Week on which the Money shall have been so received; and the first Column shall remain in the Book to be kept by the Collector of the Tax, and produced by him at all Times for the Inspection of any superior Officer.

Form of Notices shall be as stated by Commissioners of Excise.

Returns on Behalf of Absentees may be made by their Servants.

Disputes shall be determined by Justices, with Appeal to Sessions.

Officers empowered to collect and distrain for Taxes.

Regulating the Receipts for Taxes under this Act.

No Fee for Receipts.

Collectors who do not make Returns shall be charged as herein.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That Receipts given by virtue of this Act shall be given without Fee or Reward of any Nature or Kind whatsoever.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Person appointed to collect the Taxes in respect of Fire Hearths, Windows, Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules, or any of them, shall not within Ten Days after Demand in Writing, signed by any Commissioner of Excise served on such Person, or left at his usual Place of Abode, whether he be then in Commission as an Excise Officer or not, return a full and distinct Account of his Collection of the said several Taxes, specifying such as he may have omitted to collect (if any such there be), then and in such Case the Number of Fire Hearths, Windows, Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules, in the Walk or Parish or Parishes, as the Case may be, wherein he shall have been appointed to collect, shall, for such Year as he shall so fail to deliver such Account for, be deemed equal to the Number of Fire Hearths, Windows, Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules, collected in such Walk, or Parish or Parishes, for the Year next preceding, or any other of the Three last Years, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners; and such Person shall be charged with such Sum as the Taxes payable in such Year would have amounted unto, according to the Number of Fire Hearths, Windows, Carriages, Servants, Dogs, Horses, Mares, Geldings, or Mules, respectively appearing to have been charged in such Walk, Parish or Parishes, in such Year, but according to the Rates payable in the Year in which such Account shall not have been so returned; and such Collector shall be liable to and shall pay the same, and his Sureties shall be answerable therefore to the Extent of the Sum contained in the Bond or other Security which such Sureties shall have entered into.

C A P. CVI.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, and amend, several Acts for regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland, and on Paper printed or stained in Ireland, to serve for Hangings or other Uses.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS the Laws in force in Ireland, for the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland, and on Paper printed, painted, or stained in Ireland, to serve for Hangings and other Uses, are insufficient, and it is expedient to amend the same, be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five, in lieu of any Duties chargeable under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, on any Maker of Paper in respect of any Engine used by him or her, the Duty chargeable on Paper, made by any Maker of Paper, and of the Papers called Paste Board, Mill Board, Scale Board, Glazed Paper, Paper for Hangings, Sheathing Paper, Button Paper or Button Board, in Ireland, who shall keep any Engine for the making of any of the said Papers, which shall not in the Inside exceed Twelve Feet in Length, Five Feet in Breadth, and Two Feet in Depth, shall for each and every Calendar Month, commencing from the said Twenty-fifth Day of July, and so in like Manner for each and every Calendar Month, commencing from the Twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and six, and in each and every subsequent Year, be not less than after the Rate following; that is to say, for each and every such Engine kept by such Maker of Paper the Sum of Thirty-two Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Eight-pence; and if such Engine shall be of greater Dimensions than as aforesaid, then not less than such Sum as shall be in the Proportion to the Size of such Engine of greater Dimensions as the said Sum of Thirty-two Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Eight-pence is to the Size of an Engine of the Dimensions herein-before described, as and for the Duty according to Weight of such Quantity of any of the Papers aforesaid, as may be produced from any such Engine within each Month.

Monthly Duty payable on Engines for making Paper according to their respective Dimensions, viz. 32l. 19s. 8d. &c.

Duty on Paper that be paid by Weight if it exceeds the Sum payable on the Engine.

Monthly Charge on Engine if employed only in making inferior Paper, 10l. 13s. 4d.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Duty chargeable by Weight on the Paper made with any such Engine within any such Month, shall, in either of the said Cases, exceed the Sum herein-before directed to be charged for any such Month in respect of any such Engine, then and in such Case such Maker of Paper shall be charged with and pay such Excess of Duty on the said Papers according to the Weight thereof.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Engine shall have been employed by any Maker of Paper, during the Whole of any Month, (commencing on the Twenty-sixth Day of one Month, and ending on the Twenty-fifth Day of the Month following), in making such Paper only as is chargeable with a Duty not exceeding One Penny for every Pound Weight thereof, and if no more than One Vat shall be used or employed with such Engine, and if such Vat so employed shall not exceed the Contents of a Vessel Six Feet in Length, Five Feet in Breadth, and Four Feet in Depth, such Paper Maker shall be charged with and pay for and in respect of such Engine for each Month the Sum of Sixteen Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four-pence; or if the Duty on such Paper, according to the Weight thereof, shall exceed the said Sum of Sixteen Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four-pence, such Maker of Paper shall be charged with and pay such Sum as such Duty shall actually amount unto, in lieu and instead of the Sum herein-before charged on and made payable by such Maker of Paper for such Month; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Maker of Paper shall intend to employ any Engine for the Whole of any Month (beginning and ending as aforesaid) in making Paper chargeable with a Duty not exceeding One Penny for every Pound Weight thereof, such Maker of Paper shall, Six Days at least before the Beginning of such Month, give Notice of such his Intention to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Manufactory of such Maker of Paper; and if such Maker of Paper shall make any such Paper without having given such Notice, or shall, during such Month, make any Paper with such Engine, chargeable with a Duty exceeding One Penny for every Pound Weight; or if any Maker of Paper shall, in any One Month, (beginning and ending as aforesaid), make with the same Engine any Paper chargeable with a Duty exceeding One Penny for every Pound Weight thereof, and also Paper chargeable with a Duty not exceeding One Penny for every Pound Weight thereof, then and in every such Case such Maker of Paper shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties and Sums of Money shall be charged and paid and payable in such Manner and under such Rules and Regulations, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures as are mentioned and contained in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to secure the Collection of the Duties on Paper made in Ireland, and to prevent Frauds therein; or in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for continuing and amending the said recited Act of the Thirty-eighth Year; or in any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the said Duties on Paper: And all Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in the said Acts or any of them contained, shall be applied in Execution of this Act as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted by this Act, except only so far as the same are altered by this Act.

VI. And, for the better regulating and securing the Duty payable on Paper printed, painted, or stained, to serve for Hangings and other Uses, be it enacted, That no Person shall print, paint, or stain any Paper in Ireland, to serve for Hangings or other Uses, without having taken out and having in force a Licence to manufacture Paper Hangings for Sale, duly granted and stamped according to Law.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Stainer or Person to whom any Licence shall be granted to manufacture Paper Hangings for Sale, at any Time after the passing of this Act, shall, before the obtaining such Licence, enter into a Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in a Penalty after the Rate of Twenty-five Pounds for each Table for stamping Paper Hangings, to be kept by such Person, conditioned for the Payment of all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be chargeable and charged by Law on such Person, for the Duties on Paper, printed, painted, or stained, under and by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to such Duties.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Stainer or Person to whom any Licence shall have been granted to manufacture Paper Hangings for Sale, at any Time before the passing of this Act, shall, within one Month after the passing of this Act, and every Paper Stainer, or other Person requiring such Licence at any Time after the passing of this Act, shall, before any such Licence shall be granted, make out, sign, and deliver to the Collector of the District, an Account in Writing, to be entered and registered in the Office of Excise in the District in which the Manufactory of such Person shall be situate, containing his or her Name, Place or Places of Abode, and the Place where such Manufactory is situate, and the Number of Tables for stamping, printing, painting, or staining Paper Hangings, to be kept or used by such Person; each of which Tables shall be of the Dimensions of Ten Feet Six Inches in Length, and Two Feet Six Inches in Breadth, and of no greater or other Length or Breadth; and such Person shall also in like Manner, make out, sign, and deliver an Account in Writing, to be so entered and registered as aforesaid, of the several Rooms and Places wherein any Part of such Business is to be carried on, or wherein any Materials for such Business are to be kept or stored; and in such written Account, the Person making the same shall distinguish every such Table, and also every such Room and Place, by separate Numbers relating to each, in arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number One; and upon some visible Part of every such Table, and also upon the Outside of the Door of every such Room, shall paint, or cause to be painted with Oil Colour, in a Black Chocolate Ground, or White, or in a Black Ground, and shall keep thereon so painted the Number thereof respectively, in conformity with such Account; and that the Surveyor of Excise, within whose Survey such Manufactory shall be situate, shall, at the Bottom of every such Account, before the same shall be delivered to or received by the Collector, certify such Account by signing his Name thereto; and thereupon the Collector of Excise of the District shall file or enter and register such Account in the Office of Excise of the District, and shall grant a Certificate of such Account and Registry, by giving a Copy thereof, signed by him, to the Party who delivered such Account; and before any such Licence shall be granted at any Time after the passing of this Act, such Certificate shall be produced to the Person empowered to grant such Licence; and such Account and Registry, and every such Certificate thereof, shall be Evidence on any Question that shall or may arise, or on any Information in consequence of or touching any of the Provisions of this Act, or any other Act in force respecting the Duties on Paper printed, painted, or stained to serve for Paper Hangings or other Uses.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Paper Stainer shall, from and after the Expiration of One Month after the passing of this Act, have or keep or make use of any Table for stamping Paper Hangings not set forth, or not numbered as set forth, or in any other Place than shall be set forth, in the Account by this Act required to be made and delivered by such Paper Stainer, and filed, entered, or registered as aforesaid; or if any Paper Stainer shall have, keep, or make use of any Table for stamping, printing, painting or staining Paper Hangings of any other Dimensions, or any other Table, than shall have been set forth in such Account, Entry, or Registry, without having given Six Days Notice in Writing to the Officer in charge of his or her Manufactory, and without an Account thereof being made out, signed, delivered, entered, and registered Paper Maker shall give Notice of employing Engine in making inferior Paper, and that employ same accordingly. Penalty 100*l*.

Regulation of Irish Acts, 28 G. 3. c. 29: 28 G. 3. c. 76. applied to the Duties on Paper under this Act.

Paper Stainers shall be licensed according to Law.

[See 45 G.

3. c. 20, and 1: Bond shall be entered into by Party licensed to be a Paper Stainer.

To obtain such Licence the Party shall make out Account, to be entered in the Excise Office, containing the Particulars of his Name, the Number of his Tables, &c, of which Entry the Collector shall give a Certificate.

Penalty on Paper Stainer having any Stamping Table not registered, &c. for each Table and Forfeiture.

in Manner aforesaid, such Paper Stainer shall forfeit for every such Table for stamping Paper Hangings the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and the said Table, and the Blanket or Covering thereof, and all Appurtenances thereto, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper in Ireland, shall keep any Paper fit or proper or capable of being used for or applied to the Uses or Purposes of Paper Hangings, or any Paper printed, painted, or stained, in any Warehouse, Room, or Place not entered and registered pursuant to this Act; and if any such Paper, whether marked with a Frame Mark or unmarked, or stamped or unstamped, shall be found in the Possession of any Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper in any such Warehouse, Room, or Place, then and in every such Case the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for every such Offence; and all Paper so found shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of the Excise.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, and if in the Night, in the Presence of a Constable or Officer of the Peace, to enter into every Manufactory, Workhouse, Warehouse, and Place whatsoever, of or belonging to or made use of by any Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper to serve for Hangings or other Uses, and to measure and take an Account of every Table for stamping, printing, painting, or staining Paper Hangings, of or belonging to or kept or used by any such Person, and of all Paper which shall be from Time to Time received and made use of by such Person; and of all Paper stamped, printed, painted, or stained by such Person; and of all such Paper, whether the same shall or shall not be printed, painted, or stained, as shall be in any Manufactory, House, Store, or Place belonging to such Paper Stainer, and to make the Returns by this Act required, in Manner herein-after mentioned.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Person, or any Servant or Person acting in the Employment of such Person, shall obstruct or hinder any Officer of Excise, from entering into the Manufactory or other Place whatsoever of such Person; or if any such Officer or his Assistants, having entered, shall be hindered, obstructed, or prevented by such Person, or Servant or Person acting in the Employment of such Person, from taking an Account, or from doing any Part of his Duty in the Execution of this Act, such Paper Stainer shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Person shall not have constantly fixed in his, her, or their Manufactory safe and convenient Steps, Stairs, or Ladders, to every Apartment or Place therein used for printing, painting, or staining of Paper, or keeping or storing the same, sufficient to enable any Officer of Excise, who shall enter such Manufactory, to have convenient and safe Access to the several Apartments and Places therein, or shall, on any Visit made by any Officer of Excise, neglect or refuse to supply every such Officer, on Demand, with sufficient Lights, for the Purpose of viewing and taking an Account of the Stock belonging to such Paper Stainer, as well by Day as by Night, every Person so offending, in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every such Person shall, before commencing to use or work any Table or Tables for stamping, printing, painting, or staining Paper Hangings, at any Time after the Twenty-fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five, and before the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and in like Manner before commencing to use or work any such Table or Tables in any subsequent Year, commencing from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of March, and so in like Manner before recommencing to use or work any such Table after any Discontinuance thereof in Manner herein-after mentioned, give Six Days Notice in Writing to the Officer in charge of the Manufactory, of such Person, setting forth the Day and Hour when such Person intends to commence to use or work any such Table respectively, or to recommence to use or work any such Table as is herein-after provided; and shall in such Notice specify the Number or respective Numbers by which such Table or Tables are distinguished in the Entry or Registry thereof, in Manner aforesaid; and any Person who shall print, paint, or stain any Paper at any Table, or who shall use or work any Table without having given such respective Notices, or any Table or Tables other than such as shall be specified in such respective Notices, shall, for each such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no other Day shall be mentioned in any such Notice than the Twenty-fifth Day of some Month in the Year; and that every Table shall be presumed to be used and kept regularly at work from the Day mentioned in any such Notice to be given by any such Person for the commencing or recommencing to use or work the same, until the using or working thereof shall be discontinued in Manner herein-after mentioned; that is to say, every such Person may from Time to Time discontinue using or working any such Table, on giving Notice in Writing of his or her Intention to discontinue using or working the same, to the Surveyor or Officer in charge of the Manufactory of such Person, Six Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned therein for so discontinuing to use or work any such Table: Provided always, that the Day mentioned in such Notice for so discontinuing to work, shall be the Twenty-fifth Day of some Month in the Year, and shall not be less than One Calendar Month distant from the Day mentioned in the Notice given by such Paper Stainer for commencing to work or use the same in Manner aforesaid; and any Notice which shall be given contrary to the Directions herein-before mentioned and specified, shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That at the Time specified in any such Notice of Discontinuance, such Person shall remove from off the Table, of the discontinuing the using or working of which such Notice shall have been given, the Blanket, Cloth, or other Covering thereof, and shall not replace the same until he shall again commence working or using the same, in pursuance of Notice, according to the Directions of this Act; and if at any Time after the Day mentioned in such Notice of Discontinuance, and before the Day mentioned in any Notice for recommencing to use or work such Table, such Table shall be found covered with any Blanket or Cloth, or shall be used for stamping, printing, painting, or staining Paper Hangings, such Paper, XIX. Provided always and be it enacted, That if the Duty chargeable by Measure on the Paper which shall be actually stamped, printed, painted, or stained, at such Table within any such Month, shall exceed the said Sum of Four Pounds Three Shillings and Four-pence, then such Paper Stainer shall be charged with and pay such Excess of the Duty on all such Paper according to the Measure thereof.

If Duty by Measure exceeds Monthly Duty, the Excess shall be charged.

XX. And be it further enacted, That within Ten Days after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the Day mentioned in any Notice for the Beginning or Recommencement of the working of any Table in Manner directed by this Act, and to in like Manner within Seven Days after the Expiration of every other Period of One Calendar Month, while any such Table shall continue to be used or worked, or shall be presumed to continue to be used or worked, or shall be chargeable as continuing to be used or worked, the Officer in charge of the Manufactory of such Paper Stainer shall make a Return to the Collector of the Excise of the District of the Sum of Money with which such Paper Stainer is hereby chargeable for such Period of One Calendar Month for and in respect of each and every such Table, and also of the Quantities in square Yards of Paper actually printed, painted, or stained, by such Paper Stainer within such Period of One Calendar Month, and of the Duty thereon, according to the Measure thereof; and every such Officer shall, and he is hereby required, to leave a true Copy of such Return in Writing, under his Hand, with every such Paper Stainer, or at such Manufactory, upon Pain of forfeiting Twenty Pounds for every such Neglect or Omission in so doing; and such Return of such Officer shall be a Charge upon every such Paper Stainer for such Calendar Month; and such Paper Stainer shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return and Charge to have become due and payable within Fourteen Days after the End of the Month for which such Return and Charge shall have been made; and every Paper Stainer shall, for every Default in Payment of any such Duty, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to double the Amount of the Duty so returned and charged.

and may be lawful for such Officer to charge such Paper Stainer with Duty for and in respect of all Paper so deficient and unaccounted for, as if the same was actually printed, painted, or stained.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That before any Paper Stainer shall print, paint, or stain any Piece of Paper, consisting of several Sheets of Paper palmed or joined together, or any Sheet of Paper where a single Sheet of Paper shall be printed, painted, or stained, such Paper Stainer shall produce and show such Piece of Paper or Sheet of Paper to the proper Officer of Excise, and such Officer shall take an Account thereof; and in case such Officer shall find that every Sheet thereof is marked or stamped in Manner aforesaid, he shall measure the same, and shall mark such Piece of Paper or Sheet of Paper (where a single Sheet shall be printed, painted, or stained) at both Ends thereof with a Frame Mark, denoting the Measure thereof, and with such other Number or Mark as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct; and in case any Paper Stainer shall print, paint, or stain, or begin to print, paint, or stain, any Piece of Paper or Sheet of Paper (where a single Sheet of Paper shall be printed, painted, or stained), before the same shall be measured or marked at both Ends thereof by the Officer of Excise, as by this Act is directed, the Paper Stainer in whose Possession the same shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Piece of Paper or Sheet of Paper so printed, painted, or stained, or begun to be printed, painted, or stained, without having been measured and marked as aforesaid; and every Piece or Sheet of Paper printed, painted, or stained, or begun to be printed, painted, or stained, which shall be found in the Possession of any such Paper Stainer, which shall not have been marked with such Frame Mark denoting the Measure thereof, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That as soon as any Paper shall be printed, painted, or stained with any Colour or with any Figure, the Officer in Charge of the Manufactory in which such Paper shall be so printed, painted, or stained, shall take an Account of the same, and shall stamp or seal every Piece of such Paper consisting of more Sheets than One joined together, (or every Sheet where any single Sheet shall be printed, painted, or stained) at both Ends of every such Piece or Sheet of Paper with a Stamp or Seal to denote that the Duties have been charged thereon, and shall sign thereto his Name, and the Year and Day of the Month when such Signature shall be made; and if any Paper Stainer shall remove, carry, or send away, or suffer to be removed, carried, or sent away, any Piece or Sheet of printed, painted, or stained Paper, before an Account shall be taken of the same, and before such Paper shall be stamped or sealed at both Ends thereof by the Officer in Manner aforesaid, to denote the charging of the Duties thereon, together with the said Officer's Signature of his Name dated as aforesaid, every such Paper Stainer shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and all such printed, painted, or stained Paper which shall be so removed without being stamped or sealed by the Officer, and signed and dated by him as aforesaid, to denote the charging of the said Duties, or which shall be found conveying or carrying away, or in the Possession of any Person, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Paper Stainer, within Six Hours after such Paper printed, painted, or stained Paper shall have been so stamped and charged with Duty, shall remove the same into some other Room, Store, or Place of or belonging to such Paper Stainer; and shall from Time to Time keep all Paper so printed, painted, or stained, and which shall have been so stamped and charged with Duty by the proper Officer, in some Room, Store, or Place, separate and apart from all printed, painted, or stained Paper which shall not have been so stamped and charged; and if any Paper Stainer shall neglect to do, such Paper Stainer shall for every Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cafes where any Duties payable on Paper printed, painted, or stained, or payable in respect of any Table for stamping Paper Hangings, shall be unpaid at the Time when such Duties are by this Act made due and payable, it shall be lawful for the Collector of Excise of the District in which the Manufactory of such Paper Stainer shall be situate, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to empower any Person or Persons to take and distrain all Paper, and all Materials and Utensils for the printing, painting, and staining thereof in the Manufactory, House, Out-house, or other Place of or belonging to such Paper Stainer, and to cause the same to be sold by publick Auction; and if after the Payment of all Duties and Arrears of Duties due from such Paper Stainer, together with the Costs and Expences of such taking and distraining, there shall be any Surplus of the Produce arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall be forthwith tendered or paid to such Paper Stainer or his Representatives.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Paper, whether printed, painted, stained, or not, and all Materials and Utensils for printing, painting, and staining of Paper, having been the Property or in the Custody of, or used by any Paper Stainer licensed as aforesaid, or having been used or stored in any Manufactory, Workhouse, Room or Place of any Paper Stainer, by what Title or Conveyance soever the same be claimed, or into whose Hands soever the same shall afterwards come, shall be liable and subject to and are hereby charged with all Debts due to the Crown and Duties of Excise, which shall be in arrear and owing by any Person for any Paper, printed, painted, or stained in such Manufactory, or by such Paper Stainer, and shall also be subject to the Payment of all such Penalties as shall have been incurred by any Person who shall have occupied or used such Manufactory for any Offence against this Act; and it shall be lawful, in all Cafes, to levy such Debts, Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures by Distress and Sale of such Paper and Materials as it would be lawful to do in case the Person owing such Debts and Duties, or incurring such Penalties and Forfeitures was at the Time the real Proprietor of such Paper or Materials respectively.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That every such Paper Stainer, or some Person employed by such Paper Stainer, shall, on Demand of any Officer of Excise at the Manufactory, House, Warehouse, Workhouse, or other Place of such Paper Stainer, show all the Stock of printed, painted, and stained Paper, and Paper marked for printing, painting, or staining, in such Manufactory or other Places; and shall declare to such Officer that the Stock of Paper so shewn is all the Stock of Paper of such Paper Stainer; and in default of such such Paper being shewn, and such Declaration made upon such Demand as aforesaid, such Paper Stainer shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and all printed, painted, or stained Paper, and Paper marked for printing, painting, and staining, which shall not be so shewn and declared, shall be deemed to have been fraudulently hidden or concealed by the Paper Stainer in whose Possession the same shall be found, and shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, and such Paper Stainer shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on concealing Paper liable to Duty 20l.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper in Ireland shall fraudulently hide or conceal, or cause to be hidden or concealed, with Intent to defraud His Majesty of the Duty thereon, any printed, painted, or stained Paper, or any Paper marked for printing, painting, or staining, then all such Paper shall be forfeited, and the Party so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence.

Penalty on Frauds by lengthening Paper 20l. &c.

XXXIV. And for the better preventing of Frauds by the lengthening or adding to any Piece or Remnant of a Piece of such printed, painted, or stained Paper, after such Piece of Paper shall have been stamped or sealed at both Ends thereof, as by this Act is required, be it enacted, That if at any Time any Piece, or Remnant of a Piece of Paper, printed, painted, or stained, not having such Frame Mark and Stamp thereon, as by this Act is required, or having such Frame Mark and Stamp at one End thereof only, and being of as great or greater Length than shall be expressed by such Frame Mark, or having such Frame Mark and Stamp at both Ends thereof, and being of greater Length than shall be expressed by such Frame Mark by the Length of Half a Yard or more, shall be found in the Possession of any Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper, or Trader or Dealer therein in Ireland, every such Piece of Paper or Remnant shall be forfeited and seized by any Officer of Excise, and the Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Paper, or Trader or Dealer therein, in whose Possession the same shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Stamps, &c. to be provided by Commissioners. Penalty for counterfeiting same, &c. 100l.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Excise shall from Time to Time provide proper Frames, and proper Numbers or Marks, as they shall think fit, to denote the Measure of all Pieces or Sheets of Paper, printed, painted, or stained, and proper Stamps or Seals to denote the charging of the Duties thereon, and any other Purposes of this Act, and shall cause such Frames, Numbers, and Marks, and such Stamps and Seals to be distributed to the respective Officers of Excise for the several Purposes aforesaid; and such Officers are hereby enjoined and required in using the same to do no Hurt or Damage, or the least Damage that may be, to the Paper to be marked or stamped; and the said Frames, Numbers, or Marks, and the said Stamps or Seals to be provided in pursuance of this Act, may be altered or renewed from Time to Time, as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time think fit; and if any Person shall at any Time counterfeit or forge any Frame, Number, or Mark used by any Officer in marking such Paper, or shall counterfeit or forge the Impression of the same upon any Paper to be printed, painted, or stained; and if any Person shall at any Time counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Seal to resemble any Stamp or Seal provided to denote the charging of the Duties on Paper printed, painted, or stained, or shall at any Time sell any such printed, painted, or stained Paper, with a counterfeit Stamp thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeited, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Stamps may be changed, and Paper restamped.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That as often as the Stamps, Seals, or Marks, for denoting that an Account has been taken of Paper for printing, painting, or staining, or the Stamps, Seals, or Marks for denoting the Measure of such Paper, or the Stamps, Seals, or Marks for the denoting the charging of the Duty thereon, or any of them, shall be altered or changed, Notice thereof shall be given by the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, in the Dublin Gazette for Three successive Days of Publication thereof; and that any Person who shall have in his or her Custody or Possession, any Paper for printing, painting, or staining, or any such Paper printed, painted, or stained, marked, sealed, or stamped with the several Stamps, Seals, or Marks, or any of them, before such Time in use, may, within such Time as the said Commissioners shall by the said Notice appoint, not less than Two Months from the Third Day of the said Publication of such Notice, require the Officers of Excise authorized to seal, or mark, or stamp such Paper, or such printed, painted, or stained Paper, to stamp the same; and every such Officer is hereby required, without Fee or Reward, within Twenty-four Hours after Demand, to stamp, seal, and mark the same with the new Stamps, Seals, or Marks, or any of them, which the said Commissioners shall have provided for the Purposes aforesaid.

Paper stamped with old Marks forfeited, after Time for re-stamping expired.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That, after the Expiration of the Time so to be appointed for the stamping, sealing, or marking such Paper for printing, painting, or staining, or any such Paper printed, painted, or stained, with such new Stamps, Seals, or Marks which shall have been provided, all such Paper found in the Possession of any Person without such new or altered or changed Stamps, Seals, or Marks thereon, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Revenue of Excise.

Penalty on removing Stamps, and taking them on unstamped Paper, 50l. and Forfeiture.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Paper Stainer or other Person in Ireland shall by any Means or Contrivance, affix to or upon any Piece of Paper or Sheet of Paper printed, painted, or stained, any Frame Mark, or any Stamp or Seal which shall have been before affixed or put on any Piece of Paper or Sheet of Paper printed, painted, or stained, then and in every such Case such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and every Piece and Sheet of such Paper whereupon such Frame Mark, Stamp, or Seal, shall be so fraudulently affixed or put, shall be forfeited and seized.

Stained Paper unstamped may be searched for and seized.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That upon Oath made by any credible Person, that such Person hath Reason to suspect or believe that any Paper printed, painted, or stained, for which a Duty chargeable thereon, or which ought to have been stamped as in this Act is directed, is in the Custody or Possession of any Person in Ireland, not being licensed to manufacture Paper Hangings for Sale, without having thereupon such Stamp or of Seal as is by this Act required to denote the charging the Duties thereupon, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace from Time to Time to issue his Warrant or order, and thereby to authorize and require any Officer or Officers of Excise, with the Assistance of a Constable or other Peace Officer in the Day Time, to search for the same, and to open Doors, Chests, Trunks, and Packages, and to seize such Paper printed, painted, or stained, not having such Stamp thereon; and such Paper printed, painted, or stained, found untagged in the Possession of any such Person, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise: Provided always, that no Remnant of any Piece of such printed, painted, or stained Paper, being of less Length than shall be expressed by the Frame Mark thereon being so found having such Stamp or Seal as by this Act is required at one End thereof, shall be forfeited by reason of not having such Stamp or Seal at both Ends thereof: And if any Person shall obstruct any Officer of Excise from entering any Place for the Purposes aforesaid, or in seizing or carrying away any Paper by this Act forfeited, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Exception as to Remnants.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for erecting and establishing Public Infirmaries or Hospitals in this Kingdom. [10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for erecting and establishing Public Infirmaries or Hospitals in this Kingdom, it was enacted, that the Grand Jury of each of the Counties therein named should at every Summer Assizes present a Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Fifty Pounds, to be raised on the Counties at large, and applied to the Support of the Infirmaries or Hospitals therein: And whereas the Sums so empowered to be raised have proved insufficient in many Counties; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of each and every County in Ireland to present to be raised on the County at large, a Sum not exceeding Five hundred Pounds in the Year, over and above and exclusive of the Sum which they may be empowered to present by the said recited Act, to be paid to the Corporation therein called The Governors and Governesses of the County Infirmary or Hospital, and applied by the said Corporation towards the Support and Maintenance of such the County Infirmary or Hospital in such County: Provided always, that a like Affidavit and Account as is required by an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for extending the Provisions of an Act passed in this Kingdom in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for erecting and establishing Public Infirmaries or Hospitals in this Kingdom', be first laid before such Grand Jury, previous to any such Presentment being made.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the respective Grand Juries of the Counties of Tipperary and Queen's County to present to be raised on the said respective Counties at large a Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds, over and above and exclusive of the Sums which they are respectively empowered to raise by Two Acts passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

III. 'And whereas the Distance of many Parts of each County from the Infirmary therein established, does not allow to the Poor of those Parts the Advantages of immediate Medical Aid and Advice which such Infirmary was proposed to afford; be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where the said Corporation shall certify to the Grand Jury of the County wherein such Corporation is established, that they have actually received, from private Subscription or Donation, any Sum or Sums of Money since the preceding Assizes, for the Purpose of establishing in any Town or Place therein a Dispensary for furnishing Medicine and giving Medical Aid and Relief to the Poor, it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury to present to be raised on the County at large, and paid to the said Corporation, a Sum equal in Amount to the Sum or Sums so received by such Corporation, to be applied by the Governors and Governesses thereof, or such Committee of them, not fewer in Number than five, as they shall appoint for the Purpose at any General Quarterly Meeting, together with the Monies so received by private Subscription or Donation, in providing Medicines and Medical or Surgical Aid and Advice for the Poor of such Town or Place and its Neighbourhood, in such Manner as they or the said Committee shall in their Discretion deem most advisable; and that all Monies so raised for such local Dispensaries, as well as all Monies so received from private Subscription or Donation for their Use, shall be accounted for upon Oath at each Summer Assizes before the Grand Jury and the Court.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall subscribe and pay towards the Establishment or Maintenance of any such local Dispensary, or towards the County Hospital or Infirmary, any Sum not less than One Guinea, shall be a Member of the Body Corporate for the Infirmary or Hospital of such County for One Year, from the Date of the Payment thereof to the said Body Corporate, so far as relates to the Management and Direction of such local Dispensaries; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. CXXI.

An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling. [12th July 1805.]

WHEREAS in Defiance of the several Laws of Customs and Excise, great Quantities of Goods are illegally imported into, and landed in the United Kingdom, as well by clandestine Means as by open Force, to the great Detriment of the Revenue, and the Subversion of all Civil Authority: And whereas it is become highly necessary that some further Provision should be made for the Remedy of these great Evils: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Vessel or Boat coming from Foreign Parts, and belonging wholly or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, or whereof One Half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty, (other than and except any Ship or other square-rigged Vessel), shall be found in any Part of the British or Irish Channels, or elsewhere on the High Seas, within One hundred Leagues of any Part of the Coasts of Great Britain or Ireland, or shall be discovered to have been within the said Limits, having on board any Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits, in any Cask or Package of less Size or Content than Six ty Gallons (except only for the Use of the Seamen belonging to and on board such Vessel or Boat, not exceeding Two Gallons for each Seaman); or any Tea exceeding Six Pounds in the Whole; or any Tobacco or Snuff in any Cask or Package whatever, containing less than Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight, (except loose Tobacco for the Use of the Seamen on board such Vessel or Boat, not exceeding Five Pounds Weight of Tobacco for each Seaman, and except such Tea or manufactured Tobacco or Snuff, as shall have been duly shipped for Exportation as Merchandize on board such Vessel or Boat, from some Port or Place in Ireland); then not only all such Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits, and all such Tea, Tobacco, or Snuff, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, but also every such Vessel or Boat, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

If Vessels of Subjects coming from Foreign Parts shall be found in any Part of the British or Irish Channels, or High Seas, within 100 Leagues of the Coasts of Great Britain or Ireland, having Spirits in Casks less than 60 Gallons.—Tea exceeding 6 lbs. or Tobacco in Packages of less than 450 lb. Weight (except for the Crew, &c.) the whole Goods and Ship shall be forfeited.

II. Provided

Penalty on Vessels taking such Articles on board on the High Seas, like Forfeiture.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Vessel or Boat, not coming from Foreign Parts, shall, on the High Seas, take on board from out of any Ship or other Vessel or Boat coming from Foreign Parts, any Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits, in any Cask or Package, of less Size or Content than as aforesaid, or any Tea whatever, or any Tobacco or Snuff, in any less Quantity than as aforesaid, every such Vessel or Boat shall be deemed and considered to be a Vessel or Boat coming from Foreign Parts within the Meaning of this Act, and not only all such Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits, and all such Tea, Tobacco, or Snuff, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, but also every such Vessel or Boat, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

Foreign Spirits shall be imported, carried, or exported Coastwise at Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, only in Ships of not less than 100 Tons, and Casks of 60 Gallons.—Tobacco in like Ships and in Packages of 450lb.—Wine in Ships of not less than 60 Tons and in Hogheads.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits, shall be imported into or exported from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, or either of them, or removed from any one to any other of the said Islands, or Coastwise from any one Part to any other Part of either of the said Islands, or shall be shipped in order to be so removed or carried, or shall be Water-borne for the Purpose of being so shipped in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, of less Burthen than One hundred Tons, nor in any Cask or Package of less Size or Content than Sixty Gallons; nor any Tobacco or Snuff in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, of less Burthen than One hundred Tons, nor in any Cask or Package containing less than Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight (save and except any such Spirits or loose Tobacco as shall be for the Use of the Seamen belonging to and on board any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not exceeding Two Gallons of the former, and Five Pounds of the latter for each Seaman, and also except such manufactured Tobacco or Snuff as shall have been duly exported as Merchandize from Great Britain or Ireland); nor shall any Wine be imported into or exported from the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, or either of them, or carried from any one of the said Islands to any other thereof, or Coastwise from any one Part to any other Part of either of the said Islands, or be shipped or Water-borne for the Purpose of being shipped in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, of less Burthen than Sixty Tons, or in any Cask or Package of less Content than a reputed Hoghead, on pain of Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirits, Tobacco, Snuff, or Wine respectively, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, and also every such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel thereof, which shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

Licensed Boats not exceeding 10 Tons having a certain Quantity of Spirits, &c. on board for the Supply of the 10c of Sark not taxable.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to subject to Forfeiture or Seizure under any of the Provisions of this Act, any Boat not exceeding the Burthen of Ten Tons, for having on board at any one Time any Foreign Spirits of the Quantity of Ten Gallons, or under, in Casks or Packages of less Size or Content than Sixty Gallons, or any Tobacco, Snuff, or Tea, not exceeding Fifty Pounds Weight of each, for the Supply of the said Island of Sark, such Boat having a Licence from the proper Officer of Customs at either of the said Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, for the Purpose of being employed in carrying Commodities for the Supply of the said Island of Sark, which Licence such Officer of Customs is hereby required to grant without taking any Fee or Reward for the same: Provided always, that every such Boat having on board at any one Time any greater Quantity of Spirits than Ten Gallons, or any greater Quantity of Tobacco or Snuff than Fifty Pounds Weight of each of the said Articles, unless such greater Quantity of Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff, shall be in Casks or Packages of the Size, Content, or Weight herein-before required, or having on board at any one Time any greater Quantity of Tea than Fifty Pounds Weight, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

All shall not prevent the Importation or Exportation at Guernsey, &c. of Wine in Bottles packed in Cases containing Six Dozen Quart Bottles; but, before Exportation to this Kingdom, Bond shall be entered into for duly landing thereof.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Importation into or Exportation from the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, or either of them, of any Wine in Bottles, shipped in Cases or Casks only, each containing at least Six Dozen reputed Quart Bottles: Provided always, that before any such Wine in Bottles shall be shipped for Exportation to or for Great Britain or Ireland, the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of the Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in or on board of which such Wine shall be so intended to be exported, together with One other sufficient Surety, shall give Bond in the Penalty of Forty Shillings per Gallon, that the Wine so shipped shall (the Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) be duly entered and landed at the Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland to or for which the same shall be declared at the Time of giving such Bond (which Bond and Declaration the proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs is hereby authorized and empowered to take); and such Officer is hereby required to furnish the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of the Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in which any such Wine may be, with a Certificate, specifying the Number of such Packages as aforesaid, and the Quantity of Wine contained in each, the Date of the Bond, and the Name of the Port or Place to or for which the same shall be so declared; and such Bond so given as aforesaid shall not be delivered up or cancelled until a Certificate, under the Hand of the proper Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or Ireland, of the due landing of the Wine mentioned therein, shall be produced to and left with the Officer taking the said Bond within Three Months after the Date of such Bonds.

Vessels having on board Spirits, Wine, or Tobacco in illegal Packages, and found hovering within Two Leagues of the Coasts of

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, having on board any Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or other Spirituous Liquors, in any Cask or Package which shall not contain Sixty Gallons at the least (except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not exceeding Two Gallons for each Seaman) or having on board any Wine in Casks or Packages of less Content than a reputed Hoghead (except such Wine in Bottles as by this Act is allowed, and provided such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, having Wine on board, shall not exceed Sixty Tons Burthen), or having on board any Tobacco or Snuff in any Cask or Package containing less than Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight (save and except loose Tobacco for the Use of the Seamen, not exceeding Five Pounds for each Seaman), shall be found at Anchor, or hovering, or shall be discovered to have been within Two Leagues of the Coasts of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Sark, or within Two Miles of the Coast of Alderney, such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not proceeding on her Voyage (Wind and Weather permitting) unless in case of unavoidable Necessity or Distress of Weather, of which Necessity or Distress the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall give Notice, and make Proof before the Chief Officer of the Customs of the nearest Port, or the Port in which such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall take Shelter, or to which such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, can go under all Circumstances of Wind, Tide, and Weather, immediately after the Arrival of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, within the Limits of such Port, then not only all such Goods and Packages, but also the Ship, Vessel, or Boat, on board which the same shall be found as aforesaid, with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and may and shall be seized as such by any Officer of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or of Customs or Excise.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person being a Subject of His Majesty, who shall be found or taken on board, or discovered to have been on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, liable to Forfeiture under any of the Provisions of this Act, or liable to Forfeiture under the Provisions of any other Act or Acts, for being found, or having been at Anchor, or hovering within any such Distances of any of the Dominions of His Majesty, with such Goods on board, as subject such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or Goods, to Forfeiture, and who shall not prove that he was only a Passenger on board such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, and every Person found aiding or assisting in unshipping to be laid on Land, or found carrying, conveying, concealing, or assisting in the carrying away, conveying, or concealing, any Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or Spirits, subject to Forfeiture under this Act, or any Law or Act relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, in the United Kingdom, shall forfeit for every such Offence either Treble the Value of the Goods that shall be found or taken from such Person or Persons, or the Sum of One hundred Pounds, at the Option and subject to the Election and Discretion of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise respectively, who shall direct any Prosecution or Suit to be commenced against any such Person, such Penalty of Treble the Value, or of One hundred Pounds, as the Case may be, to be recovered as any like Penalty may be recovered under any Act or Acts relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise in the United Kingdom, and One Half of every such Penalty of Treble Value, or of One hundred Pounds, shall go and be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons finding and taking, and detaining such Person, or informing for the same, and such Person shall also be liable to such other Punishment as may by any Law or Act of Parliament be insisted on any such Offender; and it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, Marines, Customs, or Excise, and he and they is and are hereby authorized, empowered, and required to stop, arrest, and detain every such Person, being a Subject of His Majesty, and to convey the said Person before One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near to the Port or Place into which such Ship, Vessel, or Boat shall be taken or carried, or near to the Place where any such Person shall be so taken or arrested; and it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace, and he and they is and are hereby required, upon Proof on Oath by One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, that such Person was so found or taken, or discovered as aforesaid, unless any such Person found or taken, or having been on board of any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall prove to the Satisfaction of such Justice that he was only a Passenger on board such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, to hold such Person to Bail, with Two good and sufficient Sureties, in the Sum of One hundred Pounds each, for the Appearance of such Person, to answer to any Indictment or Information that may be brought against him in that Behalf, and to pay such Penalty, and abide any Judgement for any such Offence; and in Default of any such Person finding such good and sufficient Bail as aforesaid, or until the same shall be found, to commit such Person to any Gaol or Prison, or House of Correction, to answer as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that if any such Person be found or discovered, and taken as aforesaid, shall be capable and desirous of entering and serving as a Seaman or Marine in any of His Majesty's Ships of War, it shall be lawful for the Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise, by whom such Person was taken, arrested, and detained as aforesaid, or for any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate before whom any such Person may be carried, and such Officer and Officers is and are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, instead of taking such Person before any Justice or Magistrate, and such Justice or Magistrate is hereby authorized, instead of holding any such Person to Bail, to carry and convey, or cause to be carried or conveyed such Person on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War, in order to his being entered and received as a Seaman or Marine; and such Person being so entered and received, shall not on any Account be discharged from His Majesty's Service during the Term of Five Years, and from thence until the Conclusion of any War in which His Majesty may be engaged at the Period of the Expiration of such Five Years, unless disabled within that Time by unavoidable Accident or bodily Infirmary; and any Officer of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, who shall presume, knowingly and wilfully, to discharge any Person so entered and received as aforesaid contrary to this Act, or shall by false Muster or Certificate, or in Consideration of a Gratuity of any Kind, or by any other collusive or evasive Ways or Means whatsoever, suffer or permit any such Person to avoid the actual Service hereby intended, every such Officer shall, on Conviction for any such Offence, either by any Court Martial, or on any Information filed by His Majesty's Attorney General, be cashiered: Provided always, that no Person so taken, arrested, or detained, and entering as a Seaman, shall be liable to forfeit any such Penalty of Treble Value, or One hundred Pounds as aforesaid, unless such Person shall thereafter desert His Majesty's Service, or quit the same without being duly discharged.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where, by reason of any Person so found and taken, arrested, or detained as aforesaid, entering to serve His Majesty, no Penalty or Forfeiture shall be recoverable, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs or Excise respectively, and they are hereby required, on Proof made to their Satisfaction of such Arrest, Taking, and Detention as aforesaid, and of such entering into His Majesty's Service as aforesaid, to reward the Person or Persons who would; if any Penalty or Forfeiture had been recoverable, have been entitled to any Part thereof, with such Sum not exceeding the Proportion to which such Person would have been entitled, as, under all the Circumstances of the Case, shall to such Commissioners respectively appear proper, and such Reward may and shall be paid by the said Commissioners respectively, out of any Monies in their Hands, arising from the Duties on Foreign Spirits, Tea, or Tobacco.

LX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take or use any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, belonging to any other Person or Persons, without his, her, or their Consent, for the Purpose of carrying or conveying any Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, or Spirits, or any Tobacco or Snuff, subject to Forfeiture under this Act, or any other Act or Acts relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise; every such Person so offending, and being thereof convicted before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who are hereby authorized to hear and determine the same, on the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, which Oath every such Justice is hereby empowered to administer, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Fifty and not less than Twenty Pounds, to be recovered as any like Penalty may be recovered under any Act or Acts relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise in the United Kingdom, and One Half of every such Penalty shall go and be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons informing of the same, and the other Half thereof to the Use of the Person or Persons to whom such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, shall belong: Provided always, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to exempt any such Offender from any such Punishment, or any such Action as he would by Law have been liable to, for taking or using such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, in case such Penalty had not been imposed by this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of His Majesty's Customs or Excise shall have the like Powers and Authorities for bringing to, going and remaining on board of, and examining and searching of all Ships, Vessels, and Boats made liable to Forfeiture under this Act, which shall be found in or discovered to have been in any Part of the British or Irish Channels, or elsewhere on the High Seas, within One hundred Leagues of any Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or which shall be found in or discovered to have been within any Port, Harbour, Creek, Haven, or Roadstead, or which shall be found to be hovering or have been within any such Distances as aforesaid of either of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, or Alderney, as are contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament for the giving to any Officers of Customs or Excise any Powers or Authorities, or do any Act in relation to any such Goods as aforesaid, or to any Ships, Vessels, or Boats within the Ports, or hovering or having been hovering on the Coasts of Great Britain or Ireland respectively; and all Powers and Authorities, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, given, contained, or continued in or by any Act or Acts now in force in the United Kingdom, for the Protection of the Revenues of Customs or Excise, and for the better Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to Ships, Vessels, or Boats hovering or found, or discovered to have been within certain Distances of the Coast of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, and also relating to any Goods laden or being on board any such Ships, Vessels, or Boats, and the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel thereof, shall be and the same is and are, so far as the same are applicable, and are not by this Act varied or altered, hereby extended and directed, and declared severally and respectively to extend, and shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be deemed and construed to extend and be in full Force, and be applied and put in Execution as to all Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Goods made liable to Forfeiture under the Provisions of this Act, in as full and ample a Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Act and Acts, and all the Clauses, Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Forfeitures, and Penalties, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall by Force or Violence assault, resist, oppose, molest, obstruct, or hinder any Officer of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or any Officer in the Service of the Customs or Excise, or any Person or Persons aiding or assisting in the due Execution of the Powers and Authorities by this Act given or granted, such Person or Persons being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall be transported for Seven Years, or sentenced to be imprisoned in any House of Correction or Common Gaol, and kept to hard Labour for any Term not exceeding Three Years, at the Discretion of the Court before whom the Offender shall be tried and convicted as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons shall maliciously shoot at or upon any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, belonging to His Majesty's Navy, or in the Service of the Customs or Excise, in any Part of the British or Irish Channels, or elsewhere on the High Seas, within One hundred Leagues of any Part of the Coasts of Great Britain or Ireland; or if any Person or Persons shall maliciously shoot at, maim, or dangerously wound any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise, or any Person or Persons aiding or assisting such Officer or Officers, whether attempting to go on board or being on board, or returning from on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or otherwise acting in the due Execution of his or their Duty under any of the Powers, Authorities, or Provisions of this Act, every Person so offending, and every Person aiding, abetting, or assisting therein, shall, being thereof lawfully convicted, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Offence made Felony by this Act, committed within any Port, Harbour, Creek, Haven, or Roadstead of either of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, may and shall be inquired of, examined, tried, and determined in the said Islands; and every Offence committed elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, may be inquired of, examined, tried, and determined in any County of the United Kingdom; and every such Offence committed within England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively, may be inquired of, examined, tried, and determined within any County of that Part of the said United Kingdom in which such Offence shall have been committed, in such Manner and Form as if the Offence had been committed in the County in which the same shall be inquired of, tried, and determined.

XIII. And whereas the Sale of condemned Spirits at the Out Ports of the United Kingdom, has in Consequences afforded much Facility to Smuggling, and been productive of much Inconvenience and Detriment to the Revenue; for Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, and other Spirits, which shall be seized at Sea in any Part of the Irish or British Channels, or Entrances thereof, or any of the North Seas to the Southward of the Firth of Forth, or in any Port, Harbour, Creek, Haven, or Roadstead of England or Wales, or of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, or on Land within Twenty Miles of any Port of England or Wales, by any Officer of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or any Officer acting under the Orders of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, shall, after Condemnation thereof, be forthwith conveyed to the Port of London; and all such Spirits which shall be seized elsewhere, or on or off any of the Coasts of Scotland or adjacent Islands, or in any Port, Harbour, Creek, Haven, or Roadstead of Scotland, by any Officer of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or any Officer acting under the Orders of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in Scotland, or on Land in any Part of Scotland, shall, after Condemnation, be forthwith conveyed to any Port or Place that shall have been appointed for that Purpose by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain, or any Three of them; and all Spirits which shall be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, near to the Coast of Ireland, or by any Officer acting under the Orders of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in Ireland, shall, after Condemnation thereof, be forthwith conveyed to any Place in Ireland that shall have been appointed for that Purpose by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Ireland, or any Three of them; and all such Spirits, as soon as conveniently may be after the Seizure thereof, shall be safely lodged and secured in some Warehouse or Warehouses belonging to the Customs or Excise, and within Forty-eight Hours after being so lodged and deposited shall, if it shall appear proper or necessary, be drawn off and put into large and substantial Casks; and all such Spirits, whether so drawn off or put, shall be gauged and taken account of, and the Strength of each Quantity ascertained by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, who is or are hereby required to attend and gauge and take an Account thereof upon receiving Twelve Hours Notice in Writing for that Purpose; and in case of Seizures made by the Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or Customs, One or more Officer or Officers of the Customs shall take and keep an Account of the Quantity and Strength of every Seizure of Spirits against the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, and such Account shall be fairly entered in Books prepared for that Purpose, and countersigned by the Officers of both Revenues; and in case of Seizures made by any Officer or Officers of Excise, an Account of the Quality and Strength thereof shall be taken by the Collector or Supervisor, and one other Officer not interested therein, and fairly entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and shall also be countersigned by the respective Persons taking such Account.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Tobacco and Snuff which shall be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise, and which after the Seizure thereof shall be lodged or deposited in any Warehouse in England, shall, after Condemnation thereof, be forthwith conveyed to the Port of London; and all Tobacco and Snuff which shall be so seized and lodged or deposited in any Warehouse in Scotland, shall, after Condemnation thereof, be forthwith conveyed to any Port or Place that shall have been appointed for that Purpose by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain, or any Three or more of them; and all Tobacco and Snuff which shall be so seized, and lodged, and deposited in any Warehouse in Ireland, shall, after Condemnation thereof, be forthwith conveyed to any Place in Ireland that shall have been appointed for that Purpose by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, or any Three or more of them.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorized to direct any Spirits that shall be seized and condemned as forfeited under any Law or Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, to be again distilled, if the same shall be deemed proper and necessary, for the Purpose of bringing the same to a proper Strength, and also to direct such Spirits either before or after any such Distillation, as they shall see fit, and also any Tobacco or Snuff that shall be so seized and condemned as aforesaid, to be delivered to the Care of the Commissioners for victualling His Majesty's Navy, or if in Ireland, to any Agent employed by them for the supplying of His Majesty's Navy, or to cause any such Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff, to be destroyed, as shall under all the Circumstances appear to them most conducive to the Protection of the Revenue; and it shall be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners respectively, from Time to Time to give such Directions for the Removal of any such Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff, and to make such Regulations for the ascertaining the Value of such Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff, or to fix any average Value thereof, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Rewards to which the Informers or Persons seizing the same respectively, would have been entitled if the same had been sold and distributed under any Act or Acts, or Regulation, now in force, in relation to the Distribution of any Share of the Produce of any Seizure, to or among any Officer of Customs or Excise respectively, and from Time to Time to direct the Amount (not being in any Case a less Amount, as far as the Mode of ascertaining the Value of any such Seizure will allow, than such Officer would have been otherwise entitled to), and the Time and Manner of paying the same; and also to regulate the Amount and Mode of Distribution of Rewards to any Commissioned, Non-commissioned Officer, or Private Men of His Majesty's Forces, or any Commissioned Officer, Petty or Warrant Officer or Seaman of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, as shall appear to be reasonable, and the Time and Mode of paying the same.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Powers, Authorities, Exemptions, and Exceptions, and all Privileges and Protections as to maintaining or defending any Suit or Action, and pleading therein, or any Costs thereon, in relation to any Acts, Matters, or Things done or that may be done by any Officer of Customs or Excise under this Act or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, for the Protection of the Revenues of Customs and Spirits seized shall be deemed in King's Warehouses, in London, or at Places appointed by Treasury in Scotland or Ireland, and an Account kept of Quantity and Strength.

Tobacco and Snuff that be conveyed to London; or to Places appointed by Treasury in Scotland and Ireland.

Treasury may order Spirits, Tobacco, and Snuff, to be directed to Victualling Office, &c. or to be destroyed, and to settle the Rewards to be given to Officers of Customs, Excise, Navy, or Army.

Powers and Privileges of Officers of Customs and Excise extended to Commissioned Officers of the Navy or Army.

Excise, or Prevention of Smuggling, and every Clause, Matter, or Thing, therein contained, relating to any Ships, Vessels, or Boats, made subject to Forfeiture by any Act or Acts now in force for the Prevention of Smuggling, or by reason of being found with any prohibited or uncustomed Goods on board within certain Distances of the Coasts of His Majesty's Dominions, or to any Goods laden on board any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or any Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, or Apparel thereof, or to any Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command, or any other Person on board of any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall extend, and be deemed, construed, and taken to extend, and shall apply and be in full Force, and put in Execution in all Cases and for all Purposes, and be used and exercised by all Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, and Marines, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Acts, and the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Protections, Exemptions, Exceptions, Clauses, Matters, and Things relating thereto, and contained and enacted therein, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, as to Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, and Marines respectively.

Ships seized by Officers of the Navy, &c. shall be delivered to Revenue Officers, Sailors and Penalties may be proceeded for under the Laws in force where seized, &c.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Goods, or other Articles seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, under the Provisions of this Act, shall forthwith be delivered to or lodged in the Custody of some Officer of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, who shall thereupon take an Account thereof, and give a Receipt for the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Ships, Vessels, Boats, Goods, and Articles seized under any of the Provisions of this Act, and all Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned, may and shall be managed, kept, detained, proceeded against, sued for, prosecuted, condemned, distributed, recovered, and applied, in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, according to the Laws now in force relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Customs and Excise in such respective Part of the United Kingdom, in so far as the same are or can be made applicable, and are not by this Act altered or varied.

C A P. CXXII.

An Act for charging additional Duties on the Importation of Foreign Plate Glafs into Great Britain.

[12th July 1805.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties on Plate Glafs, Crown Glafs, and Glafs called Sheet Glafs, imported into Great Britain, should be increased; may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of Customs of Two Shillings and Sixpence for each and every Foot superficial Measure of all Foreign rough Plate Glafs, and ground or polished Plate or Crown Glafs; and One Shilling for each and every Foot superficial Measure of German Sheet Glafs, imported or brought into Great Britain; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

Additional Duty of 2s. 6d. per Foot on Foreign Plate Glafs, &c. and 2s. per Foot on German Sheet Glafs imported.

Such Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, and be levied as former Duties, § 2."

Glafs shall be imported in Packages of 5 Cwt. and measuring 6 cubical Feet, marked 'Plate Glafs,' &c.

III. And whereas there is great Reason to believe that the fraudulent Importation of Glafs hath of late much increased, to the Injury of the Revenue and the fair Trader; for Remedy thereof it is hereby further enacted, That every Package containing any Plate or Plates of Glafs unframed, being Plate Glafs, Crown Glafs, or Glafs called Sheet Glafs, which shall be imported into this Kingdom, or which shall be brought in for the Purpose of Exportation, shall contain Five hundred Weight nett at least of such Glafs, and shall measure Six Cubical Feet at least, and be entirely filled with Glafs, without any other Cafe or Package whatever contained therein, and shall be marked or stamped on the Outside in Roman Letters, not less than Four Inches in Length, with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons to whom the same is consigned, and also with the Words "Plate Glafs," "Crown Glafs," or "Glafs called Sheet Glafs," respectively, as the Cafe may be, with the Number and Sizes contained in the said Package, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Glafs so imported or brought contrary to the Directions of this Act: Provided always, that this Act shall not extend to forfeit any Plate or Plates of Glafs being of the Length of Sixty Inches or upwards, on Account of the same not being imported or brought in Packages marked and described as aforesaid.

Except Plates of 60 Inches long, &c.

Masters of Vessels shall specify all Packages of Glafs in their Report.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every Ship or Vessel in which any such Glafs shall be imported, or which shall be brought into this Kingdom for the Purpose of Exportation, shall, in the Report of his Ship's Cargo, express every Package in which such Glafs shall be contained, as containing Plate Glafs, Crown Glafs, or Glafs called Sheet Glafs respectively; and in case any Package shall be found on board any such Ship or Vessel containing such Glafs, the Contents of which shall not have been reported as Glafs according to the Directions of this Act, such Package, together with the Glafs therein contained, shall be forfeited.

Glafs found inclosed in Packages containing other Goods forfeited, and Double Value.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any Crown Glafs, Plate Glafs, or Glafs called Sheet Glafs, shall be found inclosed in any Cafe or Package whatever containing other Goods, Wares, or Merchandise than such Crown Glafs, Plate Glafs, or Glafs called Sheet Glafs, or shall be found amongst Goods to be contained in any such Cafe or Package, all such Crown Glafs, Plate Glafs, or Glafs called Sheet Glafs, shall be forfeited, together with Double the Value thereof.

Forfeitures shall be recovered and applied as under existing Laws of Customs against illegal Importations, § 6. Limitation of Actions, 3 Months, General Issue, Treble Costs, § 7."

An Act for settling and securing a certain Annuity on John now Duke of Atholl, and the Heirs General of the Seventh Earl of Derby. [12th July 1805]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS the Ile of Man was granted in Sovereignty by King Henry the Fourth to Sir John Stanley, and was, by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King James the First, confirmed and assured to the right Heirs of James Lord Stanley, the Seventh Earl of Derby, the Ancestors of the most Noble John now Duke of Atholl: And whereas the said Ancestors of the said John now Duke of Atholl continued Lords of the said Island, with Sovereign Rights, until the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: And whereas an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, intitled, An Act for the Improvement of His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, and Inland Duties; in which Act, Provisions were contained for purchasing the Sovereign Rights and Privileges of the Lords of the said Island, and for paying the Compensation to be given for the same out of the Duties of Customs of England: And whereas an Act passed in the said Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for carrying into Execution a Contract made pursuant to the Act of Parliament of the Twelfth of His late Majesty King George the First, between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Duke and Dutcheſs of Atholl, the Proprietors of the Isle of Man, and their Trustees, for the Purchase of the said Island and its Dependencies under certain Exemptions therein particularly mentioned: And whereas under all the Circumstances of the Renunciation of the Rights, Royalties, and Privileges, when vested in the Family of the said John now Duke of Atholl, and by the said Act reverted in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, it appears to be just and reasonable that a further Compensation should be given: And whereas by virtue of a Deed of Restriction, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of November One thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, duly executed by the most Noble Charlotte Dutcheſs of Atholl, the said John Duke of Atholl became entitled to the immediate Possession of the Rights reserved to his Family in the Ile of Man, and hath ever since continued to enjoy the same: And whereas the Revenues arising from the Duties of Customs of the said Island, before the passing of the said Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, belonged to the Ancestors of the said John Duke of Atholl, and it is therefore just and proper that the annual Amount of the further Compensation to be given should be regulated from Time to Time by the Produce of the Revenues of the said Island: We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That One Annuity or Yearly Rent or Sum of lawful Money of Great Britain, equal to One-fourth Part of the Gross Annual Revenue arising from the Duties of Customs now payable and arising within the said Island on the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, into and from the said Island, shall be issuing and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sum and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may hereafter be charged upon or payable out of the said Fund); and the same shall from Time to Time be paid Quarterly, free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, in Manner and Form following; that is to say, to the said John Duke of Atholl and the Heirs General of the Seventh Earl of Derby; which said Annuity or Yearly Rent or Sum shall commence and take effect from the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, the First Payment to be computed from the said Fifth Day of January, and from thenceforth shall be paid and payable at the Four usual Days of Payment in the Year; that is to say, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, and the Fifth Day of January, in each and every Year.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at any Time hereafter any new or further or additional Duties of Customs shall be granted on the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, into and out of the said Island, the Annuity granted by this Act shall not be calculated on the Produce of any such new or further or additional Duties; and if any of the Duties of Customs, now payable and arising within the said Island, shall at any Time hereafter be repealed or altered or varied, or if at any Time hereafter any new Duties shall be granted in lieu of any Duties of Customs that may be repealed, then and in every such Case, the Annuity or Yearly Rent or Sum to be paid to the said John Duke of Atholl and the said Heirs General of the Seventh Earl of Derby, shall be calculated on the Average Produce of the Amount of the Duties of Customs so repealed, altered, or varied, as the same shall have stood at the Rates now payable for the Three Years ending the Fifth Day of January next preceding the Repeal, Alteration, or varying thereof as aforesaid.

Annuity shall be paid at the Exchequer without Fees, § 3.—Warrant for Payment of Annuity not to be determinable upon the Demise of His Majesty, § 4.—Officers of the Treasury and Exchequer shall execute the Act without Fees, § 5.—Receipt of Duke of Atholl, &c. shall be a Discharge.—Remedy for Recovery of Annuity, § 6.

7 Jac. 1. c. 4. pr.

12 G. 1. c. 18. § 25, 26.

5 G. 2. c. 26.

An Annuity equal to One-fourth of the Revenue of Customs now arising within the Ile of Man shall be paid out of Consolidated Fund to the Duke of Atholl, and the Heirs General of the Seventh Earl of Derby.

Provision in case of new Duties, or any Repeal or Alteration of present Duties.

An Act to amend an Act, passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing Inconveniences arising in Cases of Merchants, and such other Persons as are within the Description of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, being entitled to Privilege of Parliament and becoming Insolvent; and to prevent Delay in the entering Appearances in Actions, brought against Persons having Privilege of Parliament.

[12th July 1805.]

Recital of 4 G. 3. c. 33. f. 1.
enabling Creditors to sue out a Commission of Bankruptcy against Traders being Members of Parliament.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing Inconveniences arising in Cases of Merchants, and such other Persons as are within the Description of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, being entitled to Privilege of Parliament, and becoming Insolvent, it is enacted, That, from and after the Eleventh Day of May One thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, it should be lawful for any single Creditor, or Two or more Creditors, being Partners, whose Debt or Debts should amount to One hundred Pounds or upwards, and for any Two Creditors whose Debts should amount to One hundred and fifty Pounds or upwards, or any Three or more Creditors whose Debts should amount to Two hundred Pounds or upwards, of any Person or Persons deemed a Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader or Traders, within the Description of the Acts of Parliament relating to Bankrupts, having Privilege of Parliament, at any Time, upon Affidavit or Affidavits being made and filed on Record in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster by such Creditor or Creditors, that such Debt or Debts is or are justly due to him or them respectively, and that every such Debtor, as he or they verily believe, is a Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, within the Description of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, to sue out of the same Court, Summons, or an original Bill and Summons, against such Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, and serve him with a Copy thereof; and if such Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, should not within Two Months after personal Service of such Summons (Affidavits of the Debt or Debts having been duly made, and filed as aforesaid) pay, secure, or compound for such Debt or Debts to the Satisfaction of such Creditor or Creditors, or enter into a Bond in such Sum, and with Two such sufficient Sureties as any of the Judges of that Court out of which such Summons should issue should approve of, to pay such Sum as should be recovered in such Action or Actions, together with such Costs as should be given in the same, he should be accounted and adjudged a Bankrupt from the Time of the Service of such Summons, and any Creditor or Creditors might sue out a Commission against any such Person, and proceed thereon in like Manner as against other Bankrupts: And whereas the said recited Provision hath by Experience been found to be extremely salutary, but hath on some Occasions, where Bonds have been given in pursuance thereof, been rendered nugatory by the Difficulty and sometimes Impossibility of enforcing the entering Appearances in the Actions for the Payment of the Sums to be recovered, in which such Bonds have been given: And whereas it is fitting and becoming the Honour and Dignity of Parliament to adopt every Means to give Effect to the said recited Act, and all and every the Provisions thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when any Summons, or original Bill and Summons, shall be sued out against any Person or Persons deemed a Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader or Traders, within the Description of the Acts relating to Bankrupts, having Privilege of Parliament, and such Affidavit or Affidavits of the Debt or Debts duly made, and filed, as in the said recited Act mentioned, and such Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, shall enter into such Bond as in the said Act mentioned, to pay such Sum as shall be recovered in such Action or Actions, together with such Costs as shall be given in the same, every such Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, shall also within Two Months after personal Service of such Summons, cause an Appearance or Appearances to be entered to such Action or Actions, in the proper Court or Courts in which the same shall have been brought, and on default thereof he shall be accounted and adjudged Bankrupt from the Time of the Service of such Summons; and any Creditor or Creditors may sue out a Commission against any such Person, and proceed therein in like Manner as against other Bankrupts.

"If within Eight Days after passing this Act Appearances are not entered by Defendants to Actions previously brought, such Action may be discontinued and a new Action brought under this Act, to which the Pendency of the former Action shall not be pleadable, § 2."

On Procefs by Summons without Affidavits, Appearance may be entered for Defendant.

III. "And whereas the Mode of proceeding by Distringas is extremely dilatory and expensive, be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when any Summons, or original Bill and Summons, shall be sued out against any Person having Privilege of Parliament, and no such Affidavit shall be made and filed as in the said recited Act, and herein-before is mentioned, if the Defendant or Defendants shall not appear at the Return of the Summons, or within Eight Days after such Return, in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Affidavit being made and filed in the proper Court of the personal Service of such Summons, which said Affidavit shall be filed gratis, to enter an Appearance or Appearances for the Defendant or Defendants, and to proceed thereon as if such Defendant or Defendants had entered his or their Appearance.

Appearances may also be put in for Defendants having Privilege
of Parliament,

IV. "And whereas in many Cases, Persons having Privilege of Parliament are named as Defendants in Suits instituted in Courts of Equity against them, either alone or jointly with other Persons, for enforcing against them Demands and Duties cognizable in Courts of Equity, and in some Cases such Defendants, having Privileges of Parliament, have stood out to the Return of Procefs of Sequestration issued against them for enforcing Appearance, and such Procefs of Sequestration hath not been found sufficient to enforce such

'such Appearance;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Defendant having Privilege of Parliament shall, upon a Return of Process of Sequestration issued against him for not putting in an Appearance to any original or other Bill of Complaint instituted against him in a Court of Equity for enforcing Discovery and Relief, or Discovery alone (as the Case may be)* that then and in such Case such Court upon producing the Return of such Sequestration in Court may, on the Motion or other Application of the Plaintiff in such Cause, appoint a Clerk in Court to enter an Appearance for such Defendant to having Privilege of Parliament, and such Proceedings may be thereupon had in the Cause as if the Party had actually appeared.

in Courts of Equity, on Return of Process of Sequestration.
[* Query, whether to appear.]

V. And whereas in many Cases it is necessary on the Part of the Persons having legal Rights against Persons having Privilege of Parliament, to proceed by Bill in Equity against such Persons for having Privilege of Parliament, to obtain from them Discovery, on Oath, of Facts intended to be used or given in Evidence in Courts of Law against the Persons making such Discovery, and in Cases where such Persons having such Privilege as aforesaid, shall stand out Process of Contempt, Parties entitled to such Discovery against them have not sufficient Means of compelling or obtaining the same in all Cases; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when any Defendant, having Privilege of Parliament, shall have appeared to any Bill filed against him, seeking a Discovery upon Oath, or when an Appearance shall have been entered for such Defendant according to the Provisions aforesaid, and such Persons shall refuse or neglect to put in his Answer to such Bill within the Time for that Purpose allowed by the Rules and Orders of such Court, that then it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff in such Suit to apply to the Court for an Order, that such Bill shall be taken pro confesso against such Defendant, and upon such Application such Court of Equity shall make an Order, that such Bill shall be taken pro confesso, unless the Defendant shall, within Eight Days after being served with such Order, shew good Cause to the contrary.

In Default of Answer to Bill in Equity against Persons having Privilege of Parliament, Bill shall be taken pro confesso.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as any such Order shall have been pronounced by any such Court of Equity for taking such Bill pro confesso, that then such Bill in Equity so taken pro confesso shall be taken and read in any Court of Law or Equity, as Evidence of the Facts and Matters and Things therein contained, in the same Manner as if such Facts, Matters, and Things had been admitted to be true by the Answer of the Defendant put in to such Bill, and such Bill so taken pro confesso shall be received and taken in Evidence of such and the same Facts, and on Behalf of such and so many Persons, as the Answer of the Defendant to the said Bill could and might have been read and received in Evidence of, in case such Answer had been put in by the Defendant thereto, and had admitted the same Facts, Matters, and Circumstances, as in such Bill stated and set forth.

Such Bill shall be read in Evidence, as an Answer admitting the Facts.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when any Decree or Order shall have been pronounced in any Cause depending in the High Court of Chancery, or in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, or any Order shall have been made in the Matter of any Bankruptcy, or in the Matter of any Lunacy, against any Person being a Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, within the Description of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, having Privilege of Parliament, thereby ordering such Person to pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Person or Persons, or into the Bank, in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, in Trust, in any Cause depending in that Court, or in the Matter of such Bankruptcy or Lunacy, or to the Deputy Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, in Trust, in any Cause depending in that Court (as the Case may be), and the Person so ordered to pay such Sum of Money, so being a Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, within the Description of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, and having Privilege of Parliament, shall disobey such Order, the same having been duly served, then it shall be lawful for any Party or Person entitled to receive such Sum of Money under and by virtue of such Order or Decree, or interested in enforcing the Payment thereof, pursuant to such Order or Decree, in the Name of the said Accountant General or Deputy Remembrancer (as the Case may be) to apply to the Court by which such Decree or Order shall have been pronounced; or in the Matter of such Bankruptcy or Lunacy (as the Case may be) to fix a pre-emptory Day for the Payment of such Money, pursuant to the Terms of such Order or Decree, and such Day shall be accordingly appointed and fixed for that Purpose by an Order made in such Cause, or in the Matter of such Lunacy or Bankruptcy (as the Case may be); and if such Merchant, Banker, Broker, Factor, Scrivener, or Trader, within the Description of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, having Privilege of Parliament, being personally served with such Order at the least Eight Days before the Day therein appointed for Payment of such Money, shall neglect or omit to pay the same according to the Tenor of such Order, then such Person shall be deemed a Bankrupt from the Time of the Service of such last-mentioned Order; and any Creditor or Creditors may sue out a Commission against such Person, and proceed thereon in like Manner as against other Bankrupts.

Traders having Privilege of Parliament, disobeying Orders of Chancery, &c. to pay Money, shall be deemed Bankrupts.

VIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to subject any Person whatsoever, entitled to Privilege of Parliament, to be arrested, restrained or imprisoned during the Term of such Privilege; but that every such Person shall continue to be exempt therefrom in like Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Saving of Personal Liberty of Members during Privilege.

An Act to indemnify Persons who shall give Evidence against Henry Lord Viscount Melville, upon the Impeachment voted against him by the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, in respect of Acts done by such Persons in any Office or Employment held by them under the said Lord Viscount Melville, during the Time he held and enjoyed the Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy. [12th July 1805.]

WHEREAS the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, have voted and resolved, That Henry Lord Viscount Melville be impeached of High Crimes and Misdemeanours, and in pursuance of such Vote and Resolution have accordingly, at the Bar of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, impeached and exhibited Articles of Impeachment of High Crimes and Misdemeanours against the said Henry Lord Viscount Melville; And whereas in the Prosecution of such Impeachment, it may be necessary to examine as Witnesses Persons who held Offices or Employments in the Navy Pay Office under the said Henry Lord Viscount Melville, during the Time or respective Times he held the Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in respect of Acts done, and in respect of the Use and Application of the Publick Money during the Time they respectively held such Offices or Employments, and in case the Disclosure by such Persons of such Acts, or of such Use or Application of the Publick Money, should tend to expose such Persons to criminal Prosecutions, and such Persons might therefore by Law refuse to disclose the same: And whereas it is expedient, for securing and promoting the Ends of Justice, to indemnify, as they are herein-after indemnified, such Persons against any Criminal Prosecutions upon their truly and faithfully making such Discovery and Disclosure as is herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, &c. "Persons who have held Offices in the Navy Pay Office examined as Witnesses in the Impeachment against Lord Melville, and making a true and faithful Discovery and Disclosure shall be indemnified from Penalties and Prosecutions on Account of the Transactions of which they give Evidence, § 1." "Persons giving false Evidence or refusing to give Evidence shall not be indemnified, § 2."

An Act to vest the Townleian Collection of Ancient Sculpture in the Trustees of the British Museum, for the Use of the Publick. [12th July 1805.]

Recital of Act 26 G. 2. c. 22. appointing Trustees of the British Museum, and of Act 28 G. 2. ft. 2. c. 3. § 2. for conveying Montague House to the said Trustees.—Recital of the Will of Charles Townley, late of Townley in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Esq. and of the Disposition of his Collection of ancient Marbles by the said Will and a Codicil thereto.—Recital of Proposals for Purchase of the said Collection by the Trustees of the British Museum for 20,000l. Treasury of Great Britain empowered to issue 20,000l. to the Trustees of the British Museum for the Purchase of the said Collection of ancient Marbles, &c. § 1.—On Payment of the Purchase Money, the Collection shall vest in the Trustees of the British Museum, and shall be distinguished by the Name of the Townleian Collection, § 2, 3.—Edward Townley Standish Esq. added to the Trustees of the British Museum; and a Successor to be named by his Heirs, &c. § 4.—Such Trustee shall have the like Powers as the Trustees under the recited Acts, § 5.—Till Payment of the Purchase Money may be vested in Navy Bills, § 6."

C A P. CXXVIII.

An Act for allowing, under certain Restrictions, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and six, the bringing a limited Quantity of Coals, Culm, or Cinders to London and Westminster, by Inland Navigation. [12th July 1805.]

WHEREAS the bringing of Coals, Culm, or Cinders burnt from Coal or Culm, by Inland Navigation, nearer to London than certain Places (specified in various Acts of Parliament authorizing the making of certain navigable Canals communicating with the Thames, and the Cities of London and Westminster), is by the said Acts, or other Laws now in force, prohibited: And whereas it may be beneficial to permit, under certain Restrictions, a limited Quantity of Coals to be brought by the Grand Junction and Paddington Canals, towards the Supply necessary for the Cities of London and Westminster, and Places adjacent, upon Payment of the like Duties as are now due and payable on Coals, according to the Weight thereof, brought Coastwise into the Port of London: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, and they are hereby required, as soon after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five as the same can be done, to erect and maintain, or cause to be erected and maintained, a Stone or Post on or near to the Towing Path of the Grand Junction Canal, at or near the North East Point of Grove Park, as contiguous to the Wharf, now in the Possession and Occupation of the Earl of Clarendon (and on the South Side thereof), as the same can conveniently be placed, and as may appear to the said Commissioners to be eligible.

Commissioners of Customs shall erect a Stone or Post at a certain Spot on the Towing Path of the Grand Junction Canal.

Not more than 50,000 Tons of Coals shall be brought beyond such Stone for One Year.

II. And be it further enacted, That no greater Quantity of any such Coal, Culm, and Cinders, than Fifty thousand Tons in the Whole, shall be brought by Means of the said Canals nearer to London than the said Stone or Post, within One Year from the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five.

III. And to the Intent that all Persons may from Time to Time be apprized of the Quantity of Coals, Culm, or Cinders, which shall have been brought by Means of the said Canals, nearer to London than the said Stone or Post, be it further enacted, That the Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, to be appointed as herein-after mentioned, shall keep and enter in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, a just and true Account of the Quantity of Coals so brought as aforesaid, and shall daily affix in some conspicuous Place, at or near the said Stone or Post, in legible Characters, a true Statement of the total Quantity of Coals, Culm, and Cinders, which shall have been brought, between the said First Day of August and the Day on which such Statement shall be so affixed; and when and so soon as the whole Quantity of Fifty thousand Tons of Coals, Culm, or Cinders shall have been brought nearer to London than the said Stone or Post, the Commissioners of the Customs shall, and they are hereby required, to cause Notice to be published thereof in the London Gazette, and in some or One of the Provincial Papers of the several Counties through which the said Canal passes; and after such Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, no Boat, Vessel, or Barge, laden with or having on board any Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall pass the said Stone or Post; and if any Boat, Vessel, or Barge, laden with or having on board any Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall, after such Notice, pass the said Stone or Post, then and in such Case all such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be forfeited, and may and shall be seized by any Officer of the Customs who is hereby authorized and empowered to detain such Boat, Barge, or Vessel for that Purpose.

Officer shall keep an Account of Coals so brought.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Officer of Customs to permit any such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, to pass the said Stone or Post, towards the supplying of London or Westminster, or the Places adjacent, under this Act, in any Boat, Barge, or Vessel, in which any other Goods, Wares, or Merchandise shall be laden, nor until the Master or Person having charge of the Boat, Barge, or Vessel in which such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be laden, shall produce and deliver to such Officer as may be stationed at or near to the said Stone or Post by order of the said Commissioners of Customs, (who is hereby authorized and required to receive or demand the same), a Certificate, expressing the real Quantity of Coals, Culm, or Cinders, in such Boat, Barge, or Vessel; which Certificate every Person selling or shipping any Coals, Culm, or Cinders, towards the Supply of London and Westminster, or the Places adjacent, is hereby required to give to such Master or other Person having the Charge of such Boat, Barge, or Vessel, who is hereby required to deliver the same to the said Officer of Customs, who shall sign and enter and register the same in a Book to be kept by him for that Purpose; and the said Entry and Register of the Certificate shall be accepted and admitted as and taken to be full and complete Evidence in all Cases in which the original Certificate is not produced; and in case there shall be in such Boat, Barge, or Vessel, any greater Quantity of Coals than shall be expressed in such Certificate, or any other Goods, Wares, or Merchandise laden on board, then and in such Case the Coals, Culm, or Cinders on board of such Boat, Barge, or Vessel shall be forfeited, and may and shall be seized by any Officer of the Customs, who is hereby authorized and empowered to detain such Boat, Barge, or Vessel for that Purpose.

Coals shall not pass unless with Certificates of Quantity, which are to be registered.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons sending any such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, for Sale, towards the Supply of the Cities of London or Westminster, and Places adjacent, shall knowingly give any false Certificate or Certificates of the Quantity or Quantities of Coals on board of any Barge or Vessel, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Penalty on giving false Certificate, 50l.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall, upon any Pretence whatever, be laden on board any Boat, Barge, or Vessel, upon any Part of the said Canal between the said Stone or Post and the Termination of the said Canal at Paddington, or on any Part of the said Canal between the said Stone or Post and the Junction of the said Canal with the River Thames; and if any such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be so laden on board any such Boat, Barge, or Vessel, contrary to the Directions of this Act, the Person or Persons by whom or on whose Account the same shall be so laden, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for every Ton Weight of such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, and so in Proportion for any less Quantity; and such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be forfeited, and may and shall be seized by any Officer of the Customs, who is hereby authorized and empowered to detain such Boat, Barge, or Vessel for that Purpose.

Penalty on lading Coals beyond the Stone towards Paddington or the Thames, 5l. per Ton.

VII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, and collected, on all Coals, Culm, or Cinders brought along the Grand Junction or Paddington Canals, nearer to London than the said Stone or Post, the several and respective Rates and Duties of Customs following; (that is to say), the Sum of Seven Shillings and Sixpence, for and upon each and every Ton of Coals, Culm, or Cinders so brought; and an additional Duty of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of such first Amount of Duty; and also a further additional Duty of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of such first Amount of Duty; and also a further additional Duty of Two Pounds Ten Shillings on such first Amount of Duty as aforesaid; amounting in the Whole to the Sum of Nine Shillings and Sixpence Three Farthings for and upon every Ton of such Coals, Culm, or Cinders; and there shall be raised, levied, and collected for every Ton of such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, a further Duty of One Shilling and Three-pence; which last mentioned Duty shall, at the End of every Quarter, be paid to any Person or Persons to be appointed by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, to receive the same, or if no such Person shall be appointed, into the Chamber of the City of London, as and for and in lieu of the Duty called Orphans Duty, and all other Rates, Dues, and Duties which are payable to the Corporation of London, upon Coals, Culm, or Cinders imported into the Port of London; and all such several and respective Duties shall be demandable and demanded, and shall be payable and paid to the proper Officer to be appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs in England to receive the same, according to the full Quantity and Weight of Coals, such Weight and Quantity as aforesaid to be ascertained in such Manner as the said Commissioners of Customs shall direct, in case it shall appear necessary to the said Commissioners to direct the ascertaining the same in any other or different Manner than is now used or authorized or required by any Act or Acts in relation to any Coals carried Coalwife or brought into the Port of London.

Duties shall be under Management of Commissioners of Customs, who may appoint proper Officers, and cause Houses to be erected, &c.

Duties shall be levied, &c. as former Duties; unless hereby altered.

* VIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England for the Time being; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to appoint proper Officers to ascertain, raise, levy, collect, and account for the said Duties; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs to cause any Building or Buildings to be erected, which may be necessary for the Accommodation of the said Officers, and for the weighing or otherwise ascertaining the Quantities and Weights of any such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, and for the safe Keeping and Custody of any Coals that may be seized under or by any Officer of Customs, as to them, or any Four or more of them, may seem necessary for the carrying this Act into Execution, and ascertaining and levying and collecting the said Duties.

IX. An Act for amending an Act, passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the Thirty-first Year of His late Majesty, for the due making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Affize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread, so far as the same relates to the Affize and making of Bread, to be sold in the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange. [11th April 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for the due making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Affize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread, so far as the same relates to the Affize and making of Bread, to be sold in the City of London and Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange.' And whereas by reason of the great Increase that has-taken place in the several Articles used in the making and baking of Bread, since the passing of the said Act, it is become expedient that the Makers and Bakers of Bread for Sale, within the City of London and Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, should receive a greater Allowance for their Charges, Labour, Pains, Livelihood, and Profit, than is given to them by the said Act; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from Time to Time, when and so often as the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, shall set the Affize of Bread, in Execution of the said Act made in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Allowance made to the Baker, when the Affize shall be set from the Average Price of Wheat, shall be Sixteen Shillings per Quarter or Two Shillings per Bushel on Wheat; and when the Affize shall be set from the Average Price of Flour, such Allowance shall be Thirteen Shillings and Four-pence per Sack on Flour, being in each Case an Increase of Half an Affize to the Allowance given to the Baker by the said Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, in settling the said Affize, shall make such Addition by adding One Half an Affize to each of the Prices specified in the Table annexed to the said last mentioned Act, according to the Rules and Proportions contained in the said Table, as nearly as can be.

Allowance
increased.

II. And whereas an Act was passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting additional Duties on Salt in Great Britain, whereby the Price of that Article is materially increased, and the Bakers will be considerably injured if some further Allowance is not made to them on Account of such additional Duties; be it therefore further enacted, That while such additional Duties on Salt shall continue, but no longer, the Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, from Time to Time in settling the Affize of Bread, in Execution of the said Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and also of another Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to amend the said Act, and of this present Act, or of either of them, when and so often as they or he shall think proper to use or be guided by the Average Price of Wheat, shall, immediately before the setting of such Affize, add to what shall, by means of the then last general Return or Account of Wheat, appear to be the then Average Price per Quarter of Wheat, fit for making of Wheat Bread, the Sum of Sixpence on Account of the said new Duties on Salt, so as to increase such Average Price Sixpence per Quarter, and shall then, in settling the Affize of Bread, make use of such increased Average Price or Sum, in all Respects, as if the same were the real Average Price of Wheat; and that from Time to Time, when and so often as the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or Lord Mayor, shall, in settling the Affize of Bread, in Execution of the same Two Acts and of this Act, or of either of them, think proper to use or be guided by the Average Price of Flour, they or he shall immediately, before setting such Affize, while such new Duties on Salt shall continue, but no longer, add to what shall, by Means of the then last general Return or Account of Meal and Flour, appear to be the then Average Price per Sack of Flour, fit for the making of Wheat Bread, the Sum of Five-pence on Account of the said new Duties on Salt, so as to increase such Average Price Five-pence per Sack, and shall then, in settling the Affize of Bread, make use of such increased Average Price or Sum, in all Respects, as if the same were the real Average Price of Flour: Provided always, that the said additional Allowances of Sixpence on the Quarter of Wheat, and Five-pence on the Sack of Flour, by this Act granted, shall be independent of, and in Addition to, the several Sums granted in and by the said Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in Consideration of the new Duties then laid upon Salt.

Cap. lxi.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His late Majesty, for regulating the Proceedings in personal Actions in the respective Courts Baron of the Hundred of High Peak, and Manor of Castleton, in the County of Derby; and for extending the Powers of the said Courts. [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the Proceedings in Personal Actions in the respective Courts Baron of the Hundred of High Peak and Manor of Castleton, in the County of Derby: And whereas the King's most Excellent Majesty, in Right of His Duchy of Lancaster, is seized to Him, His Heirs and Successors, of and in the Hundred and Liberty of High Peak and Manor of Castleton, and of the Jurisdictions of the Two several Courts Baron within and appertaining to the said Hundred and Manor respectively: And whereas from Time immemorial Plea hath been held every Three Weeks, or fo often as requisite, in all Personal Actions arising within the Jurisdictions of the said several Courts Baron, where the Debt or Damage hath been under the Sum of Forty Shillings: And whereas under the Powers and Directions of the said recited Act, Justice hath in the most strict and impartial Manner from Time to Time been administered in the said several Courts Baron, to the great Benefit of the Inhabitants within the Jurisdiction of the same respectively: And whereas the Jurisdiction of the said Hundred and Manor is very extensive, and comprises a very populous manufacturing and increasing District in the County of Derby; and the Town of D.ily, where the superior Courts for the County are holden, is upwards of Forty Miles distant from the most populous Part of the said Hundred and Manor: And whereas on Account of the very great Expence attending the Recovery of small Debts of the Amount of Forty Shillings and upwards, in the superior Courts, many Creditors are discouraged from attempting to recover the Debts due to them, and many evil-disposed Persons, who have contracted such small Debts within the Jurisdiction of the said Hundred and Manor respectively, are enabled to refuse and delay, and do frequently refuse and delay the Payment thereof, to the manifest Injury of their just and lawful Creditors; and it would be of great Benefit and Advantage to the Inhabitants within the said Hundred and Manor respectively, if the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act were extended to the Recovery of Debts and Damages of a larger Amount than Forty Shillings, and also if the said Act were explained and amended and further Powers granted: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said several Courts Baron of the said Hundred of High Peak and Manor of Castleton respectively, and the Stewards and Deputy Stewards thereof for the Time being, to proceed and hold Plea within the Jurisdiction of the said respective Courts, not only in any Plaintiff, Suit, or Action, for any Debt or Damages not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, but also in any Plaintiff, Suit, or Action, for any Debt or Damages not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, which hath accrued, or shall or may at any Time or Times hereafter arise or accrue within the Jurisdiction of the same Courts respectively, and to proceed in every such Plaintiff, Suit, or Action, in the same or the like Manner and Form, and with and under such or the like Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Orders, and Directions as are authorized and directed, or have or might have been heretofore used or exercised in any Plaintiff, Suit, or Action for any Debt or Damages within the Jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively, not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings.

33 G. 2. c. 35.

Powers of the Court extended to Debts under Five Pounds.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in the said recited Act or in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend so as to enable the said Courts, or either of them, to determine the Right or Title to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or real Estates whatsoever, or to judge, determine, or decide on any Debt where the Title of the Freehold or Lease for Years of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Chattels real whatsoever shall be brought or come into Question, or to judge, determine, or decide on any Debt that shall arise by reason of any Cause concerning Testament or Matrimony, or any Thing concerning or properly belonging to the Ecclesiastical Court.

Courts shall not determine any Cause where the Title to the Land is brought into question.

III. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to authorize (except in the Cases hereinafter mentioned) the Imprisonment of any Person or Persons being a Debtor or Debtors, Defendant or Defendants, who shall be committed by the said respective Courts, or either of them, for any longer Space of Time from the Time of his, her, or their Commitment to Prison, than is or are herein-after limited; that is to say: Where the Debt, exclusive of Costs, does not exceed the Sum of Twenty Shillings, for more than Twenty Days; where the Debt does not exceed the Sum of Forty Shillings, for more than Forty Days; where the Debt does not exceed the Sum of Three Pounds, for more than Sixty Days; and where the Debt does not exceed the Sum of Five Pounds, for more than One hundred Days: Provided also, that all and every Person and Persons who shall be taken in Execution under or by virtue of any Process issued from or out of the said Courts respectively, and who, at the Time of being taken into Custody, or during his, her, or their Imprisonment, shall have more than One Execution against him, her, or them in the same Court, shall be imprisoned the limited Time for and in respect of each Execution; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Term of Imprisonment limited.

IV. And, in order the more effectually to prevent Persons summoned for Debts to the said Courts, or either of them, from the fraudulent Concealment of their Money or Goods; be it further enacted, That in case upon the Summons of any Person for any Debt or Debts before the said Courts, or either of them, Information of any such Practice shall be given, such Court and Courts shall have Power to hear Evidence as to such fraudulent Concealment, and in case it shall be proved to their Satisfaction upon the Oath of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses (which Oath the said Court or Courts is and are hereby empowered to administer) that any such Debtor has Money or Goods which he or she has wilfully and fraudulently concealed, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Courts, or either of them, to enlarge the aforesaid Time of Imprisonment for all Debts under Twenty Shillings to any Time not exceeding Thirty Days; and for Debts not exceeding Forty Shillings to any Time not exceeding Sixty Days; and for Debts not exceeding Three Pounds to any Time not exceeding Eighty Days; and for Debts not exceeding Five Pounds to any Time not exceeding One hundred, and twenty Days, which said Circumstance or Ground for further Detention shall be specified on the said Commitment; and the Depositions of the Witnesses shall be entered in a Book kept for the Purpose by the Clerk of the said respective Courts.

Debtors found guilty of a fraudulent Concealment of their Effects may be imprisoned for a longer Term.

to be put in Gaol Fees.

V. And be it further enacted, That each and every Person imprisoned by virtue of the said recited Act or of this Act, shall, on the Expiration of his or her Time of Imprisonment, be discharged and set at Liberty without paying any Sum or Sums of Money, Fee or Fees, or other Reward, or other Gratuity whatsoever, to the Keeper or Keepers, or Turnkey or Turnkeys of the said Gaol, or others, by way of Gaol Fees, or Discharge Fees, or on any other Pretence whatsoever; and if any Keeper or Keepers, Turnkey or Turnkeys of the said Gaol, or any other Person whomsoever, shall demand, take, or receive any Fee or Fees, Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever, upon the Discharge of any such Person or Persons so committed to his or their Charge or Custody as aforesaid, or shall keep or detain any such Person or Persons a Prisoner or Prisoners after the Time by this Act limited for his, her, or their Imprisonment, every such Keeper, Turnkey, and other Person, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds; and it shall and may be lawful to and for any Two Justices of the Peace for the said County of Derby to hear and determine every such Offence, and such Two Justices are hereby authorized and required upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made before them of any such Offence having been committed (in case such Information shall be exhibited or Complaint made within Three Calendar Months after the Offence committed) to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on each Side, and to examine into the Matter of Fact; and upon due Proof made thereof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or by the voluntary Confession of the Party accused, to give Judgment or Sentence for such Penalty or Forfeiture aforesaid, and in case such Penalty or Forfeiture shall not be forthwith paid, to issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals for levying such Penalty and Forfeiture, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, rendering the Overplus (if any) after deducting such Penalty and Forfeiture and the Costs and Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Owner or Owners thereof; and in case sufficient Distress shall not be found, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices to commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the County of Derby, for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless such Penalty and Forfeiture, and all Costs and Charges attending such Conviction, be sooner paid and discharged; and the Whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture, when paid or received, shall be paid to the Person or Persons informing or suing for the same.

Process shall not issue against the Person and Goods of the same Persons.

Notice of Proceedings against Officers.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

Warrant or Precept of Court Evidence of their Authority.

Treble Costs.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to or for the said Courts, or either of them, to issue any Process against the Body or Bodies of any Person or Persons, in any Case or Cases where the Party entitled to the Benefit of any Order, Judgement, or Decree, shall at the same Time have obtained any Warrant or Process against the Goods and Chattels of the same Person or Persons.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this or of the said recited Act, or on Account of any Order, Determination, Judgement, or Decree of the said Courts respectively, until Fourteen Days Notice shall be given thereof in Writing, to be left at the Office of the Steward or Deputy Steward of the said respective Courts, nor after Three sufficient Satisfaction or Tender thereof, hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, nor after Three Calendar Months next after the Cause of Action shall arise; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall or may plead the General Issue and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and that the Warrant or Precept under the respective Hands and Seals of the respective Stewards of the said Courts, or their respective Deputies, being duly proved in any Action or Suit, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of the Authority of the said Courts, and of all other Proceedings therein respectively, previously to the issuing of such Warrant or Precept; and in case the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Action or Suit shall not duly prosecute the same, or shall have a Verdict pass against him, her, or them, or shall be non-suited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit, the Defendant or Defendants shall in any of the said Cases be entitled to and be allowed to recover Treble Costs of Suit.

“ Company empowered to make Purchases and carry on the Works, § 27. &c.—All Purchases must be made “ within 7 Years, § 29.—Every Shaft connected with the Archway shall be raised above the Level of the “ highest Tide before forming any Drain or Work under the Thames, § 46.—Company empowered to take “ Tolls, § 55, &c.”

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons whosoever shall have free Liberty to pass through the said Archway or Archways, and to lead, drive, carry, or take through the same any Horses, Cows, Oxen, Sheep, Swine, or other Beasts, Birds, Coaches, Chaises, Waggons, Wains, Carts, or other Carriages whatsoever, in case such Archway or Archways shall have been made and opened for the Passage of Horses, Cattle, Beasts, and Carriages, upon Payment of such Tolls as shall be demanded by the said Company, not exceeding the respective Sums herein-mentioned, and subject to the Rules and Regulations which shall be from Time to Time made by the said Company, by virtue of the Powers herein granted; provided that no Person or Persons shall with or without any Horses, Cows, Oxen, Sheep, Swine, or other Beasts, Birds, Coaches, Chaises, Waggons, Wains, Carts, or other Carriages, without the Consent of the said Company, or their Directors, pass through the said Archway or Archways, at any other Times than between the Hours of Seven of the Clock in the Morning and Five of the Clock in the Evening, during the Months of November, December, January, and February, between the Hours of Five of the Clock in the Morning and Eight of the Clock in the Evening, during the Months of May, April, September, and October, and between the Hours of Four of the Clock in the Morning and Nine of the Clock in the Evening, during the Months of May, June, July, and August, in every Year; and the said Company shall, and they are hereby required to keep the said Archway or Archways well and sufficiently lighted up, for and during the Hours and Times so appointed for all Persons to pass through the said Archway or Archways upon Payment of the Tolls as aforefaid (save and except for and during such Time or Times as the said Archway or Archways, or any Part thereof, or any of the Works thereunto belonging, shall be repairing, or the Passage through the same shall be by any Accident impeded or prevented); and in Default thereof, the said Company shall forfeit and pay for every Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, or on the Case, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Effoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or any more than One Imparance, shall be allowed.

“ Provisions as to Compensation for particular Damages and Injuries, § 65. &c.”

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully or maliciously blow up; pull down, or otherwise damage or destroy the said Archway or Archways, or any Part thereof, or any Engine or other Works thereunto belonging, or shall wilfully or maliciously remove or take away any of the Materials or Works thereunto belonging, without the Authority of the said Company, or their Directors, or in any wife cause or procure the same to be done, every such Person so offending shall, upon being lawfully convicted thereof, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and the Court before whom such Person shall be tried and convicted, shall have Power and Authority to cause such Person or Persons to be transported for Seven Years, or in Mitigation of such Punishment may award such Sentence as the Law directs in Cases of Petty Larceny.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Acts and Offences done or committed within the said Archway or Archways, or within any Part or Parts thereof, situate, lying, and being, under the said River Thames, shall be deemed to have been done and committed within either of the said Counties of Surrey or Middlesex, and shall be enquired of, and examined into, and cognizable by the several Justices of the Peace in and for the said Counties respectively; and all Actions, Bills, Suits, Informations, and Indictments for such Acts and Offences may be brought, laid, tried, and prosecuted, in either of the said Counties of Surrey or Middlesex.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Archway or Archways, or any of the Works whatsoever to be made, or Land to be purchased or made use of by virtue of this Act, shall not be subject to the Controul, Direction, Survey, or Order, of any Commission of Sewers, or to any Law or Statute relating to Sewers whatsoever; or to the Controul, Direction, Survey, or Order of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, as Conservator of the River Thames and Waters of the Medway (except as herein-after mentioned), or to the Controul, Direction,

C A P. XIII.

An Act for settling and securing certain Annuities on Cuthbert Lord Collingwood, and the several other Persons therein defcribed, in Consideration of the signal and important Service performed by the said Cuthbert Lord Collingwood to His Majesty and the Publick. [22d March 1806.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

"WHEREAS Your Majesty, by Your most Gracious Message to Your most faithful Commons, has been pleased to declare that Your Majesty having taken into Your Royal Consideration the signal and important Service performed by Cuthbert Lord Collingwood, Vice Admiral of the Blue, in the ever-memorable and decisive Victory obtained by the Fleet under the Command of Vice Admiral Lord Vilcount Nelson over the Combined Fleets of France and Spain off Cape Trafalgar, in the Month of October One thousand eight hundred and five, and his highly meritorious Conduct after the Action, not only highly honourable to himself but greatly beneficial to the United Kingdom, Your Majesty was desirous to bestow some considerable and lasting Mark of Your Royal Favour as a Testimony of Your Majesty's Approbation of the said Service, and for this Purpose to give and grant unto the said Cuthbert Lord Collingwood, and to the Two next succeeding Heirs Male of the Body of the said Cuthbert Lord Collingwood, to whom the Title of Baron Collingwood shall descend, for and during their Lives, a nett Annuity of Two thousand Pounds per Annum: But Your Majesty not having it in Your Power to grant an Annuity to that Amount, or to extend the Effect of the said Grant beyond the Term of Your Majesty's own Life, recommended it to Your faithful Commons to consider of a proper Method of enabling Your Majesty to grant the same, and of extending, securing, and settling, such Annuity to the said Cuthbert Lord Collingwood, and to the Two next Persons on whom the Title of Baron Collingwood shall descend, in such Manner as should be thought most effectual for the Benefit of the said Cuthbert Lord Collingwood and his Family; We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, duly considering Your Majesty's most gracious Intention, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

"An Annuity of 2000*l.* commencing 21 October 1805, made payable Quarterly to Lord Collingwood and his Two next succeeding Heirs Male; and charged on the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain § 1-4.—Free from Taxes. § 5.—Inalienable. § 6.—In case of Lord Collingwood's Death without leaving Issue Male, a Life Annuity of 1000*l.* shall be paid to Lady Collingwood. § 7.—And another Life Annuity of 1000*l.* to his Daughter or Daughters. § 8."

C A P. XIV.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and seven, and to amend several Acts for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland. [22d March 1806.]

"WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating, until the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two, the Allowance of Drawback on the Exportation from Ireland of British Plantation Sugar, and for allowing certain Drawbacks on Sugar exported from Ireland; and for allowing British Plantation Sugar to be warehoused in Ireland: And whereas an Act was made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to continue and amend the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year aforesaid: And whereas an Act was made in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for discontinuing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar, from Ireland, and for allowing, until the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, other Drawbacks and Bounties instead thereof: And whereas the said recited Acts were continued by an Act made in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and were also continued and amended by an Act of the last Session of Parliament; and it is expedient that the said recited Acts should be continued and amended in Manner herein mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, so far as the same is not altered by the said recited Acts of the Forty-second and Forty-third Years, or by the said recited Act of last Session, or by this Act, and also the said recited Act of the Forty-second Year, so far as the same is not altered by the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year, or by the said Act of last Session, or by this Act, and also the said Act of the Forty-third Year, so far as the same is not altered Recited Acts, so far as not hereby altered, continued till March 25, 1807.

41 G. 3. c. 74.

42 G. 3. c. 60.

43 G. 3. c. 17.

44 G. 3. c. 10.

& 45 G. 3. c. 23.

altered by the said recited Act of last Session, or by this Act, and also the said recited Act of last Session so far as the same is not altered by this Act, shall be, and the same are hereby continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and seven.

Instead of the Schedule to 45 G. 3. c. 17. the Drawbacks and Bounties in the Schedule to this Act shall be paid with the additional Drawbacks and Bounties under 45 G. 3. c. 23. § 3.

When the Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar shall not have exceeded 70s. per Cwt. exclusive of Duties, the Drawback mentioned in the Schedule to this Act as corresponding to such Price shall be paid.

II. And whereas it is expedient, That the Schedule annexed to the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year should be repealed and another Schedule enacted in lieu thereof; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year annexed, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that instead and in lieu thereof, the Schedule to this Act annexed shall be deemed Part of the said herein-before recited Acts, and be construed therewith, and the Drawbacks and Bounties in the Schedule to this Act annexed, together with the additional Drawbacks and Bounties mentioned in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be paid and allowed under the Provisions of the said herein-before recited Acts, in like Manner in every Respect as if the said Schedule had been annexed to the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That if, in the first Publication of the Dublin Gazette, pursuant to the said recited Acts of the Forty-first and Forty-third Years after the Arrival in Dublin of the London Gazette, containing the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar for the Quarter of a Year preceding the Fifth Day of May, or the Fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, or the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seven respectively, or any or either of the said Days, ascertained and taken in Manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain, it shall appear that the Average Price of such Sugar, so ascertained and taken for the preceding Quarter of the Year, shall not have exceeded Seventy Shillings Sterling for an Hundred Weight, exclusive of the Duties paid or payable on the Importation thereof, then, and in every such Case, the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to this Act annexed, mentioned as corresponding to or with the Price of which such Notice in the Dublin Gazette shall have been given as aforesaid, together with such additional Drawback or Bounty as is mentioned in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall be paid or allowed on Exportation (except to Great Britain), until Notice published in the London Gazette of the Average Price for the Quarter of a Year preceding any other of such subsequent Days shall be given in the Dublin Gazette; and such Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed in like Manner in every Respect, and subject and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawbacks and Bounties were paid or allowed before the passing of this Act.

“Act may be altered this Session. § 4.” [See 46 G. 3. c. 62.]

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for enabling Subjects of Foreign States to enlist as Soldiers in His Majesty's Service; and to indemnify those who have advised His Majesty to land such Soldiers in this Kingdom. [22d March 1806.]

44 G. 3. c. 75.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling Subjects of Foreign States to enlist as Soldiers in His Majesty's Service; and for enabling His Majesty to grant Commissions to Subjects of Foreign States to serve as Officers or as Engineers, under certain Restrictions; and to indemnify all Persons who may have advised His Majesty to enlist any such Soldiers or grant any such Commissions as aforesaid: And whereas by the said Act His Majesty was empowered to enlist as Soldiers certain Foreigners, and to form them into Regiments, Battalions, and Corps, provided that there should not be within any Part of the United Kingdom more in the Whole than Ten thousand Men serving in such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, at any one Time: And whereas a large Number of Foreigners have been enlisted as Soldiers into His Majesty's Service in Foreign Parts, and it has become necessary and been found expedient to land such Foreign Soldiers in this Kingdom, whereby the whole Number of Foreigners now serving in this Kingdom amount to more than the Number of Ten thousand Men allowed by the said recited Act; and it is proper that those who have advised His Majesty to land the same in this Kingdom should be indemnified; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Foreign Soldiers as have been already enlisted into His Majesty's Service, over and above the said Number of Ten thousand Men, shall be deemed and taken to have been and to be legally and effectually enlisted; and all Commissions or Letters of Service as have been already granted by His Majesty to any Foreign Officers in Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, in which any such Men shall have been enlisted, shall be deemed and taken to have been and to be legally and effectually granted, and shall remain and continue in force in like Manner in all Respects as if such Soldiers had been enlisted, and such Commissions or Letters of Service had been granted, after the passing and under the Provisions of this Act; and every Person who may have advised His Majesty to enlist such Soldiers and to grant such Commissions or Letters of Service as aforesaid, and to land such Soldiers in this Kingdom, and to have above the Number of Ten thousand Men in the Whole of such Foreigners, serving at any one Time within the United Kingdom, is hereby fully indemnified.

Foreign Soldiers enlisted exceeding 10,000 under recited Act, shall be deemed legally enlisted; and Persons advising their being enlisted or landed indemnified.

His Majesty empowered to augment the Number to 16,000 Men.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, to augment such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, so already formed as aforesaid, and to form any other Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, and to that End to enlist as Soldiers to serve in any such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, any Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves as Soldiers to serve therein: Provided always, that there shall not be within any Part of the United Kingdom more in the Whole than Sixteen thousand Men of such Foreign Soldiers serving in such Regiments, Battalions, or Corps at any one Time.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions and Regulations in the said recited Act, so far as the same are applicable, shall be applied and put in force in respect of the Sixteen thousand Men so allowed to serve as aforesaid by this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in and made Part of this Act: Provided always, that all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, or private Soldiers, serving under the Provisions of this Act, shall be subject to all and every the Provisions and Regulations contained in an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters; and to all such Articles of War as have been, or shall be established by His Majesty in pursuance of the Power vested in him for that Purpose by the said last mentioned Act, or by any Act of Parliament which may hereafter be passed, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as any of His Majesty's regular Forces are now subject to the same.

“Act may be altered this Session. § 4.—Continuance of this Act during the War. § 5. [as 44 G. 3. c. 75. § 5.]” or stolen, &c.

Provisions of recited Act extended to this Act; such Foreign Soldiers shall be subject to the Mutiny Act.

‘ of Ireland for the Year One thousand eight hundred and six : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland for the Time being, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury of Ireland, or any Three or more of them now or for the Time being, if he or they shall judge it advisable, at any Time or Times after the passing of this Act, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, to prepare or make and issue, or cause to be prepared or made and issued, any Number of Bills entitling the Bearer to the Sum or Sums to be respectively specified therein, (not exceeding in the Whole the Amount herein after mentioned and directed,) and declaring such Sum or Sums to be payable or such Bills to pass current at the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer of Ireland, at such Time and Times as shall be directed by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and as shall be expressed in such Bills respectively; and such Bills shall bear an Interest not exceeding the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and the said Bills shall be numbered in Arithmetical Progression, beginning with Number One.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury in Ireland, to issue any such Bills under this Act, to any Amount exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency; and that such Bills shall be issued for so much only of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, as shall be actually paid by any Person or Persons into the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer of Ireland, at the Instance, or by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the Time being, and of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury of Ireland, or any Three of them now or for the Time being; and that the Interest on the said Bills, not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall commence from the issuing thereof respectively, and shall be paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, without any Fee or Charge, and free from all Deductions whatsoever, until such Person or Persons shall be respectively paid their Principal Money at One entire Payment.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That every such Bill so to be issued for the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, or any Part thereof as aforesaid, shall or may, on or after such Time or Times as shall be appointed by the said Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, or by the said Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, or any Three of them, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, if not sooner paid off, be received and taken by, and be current to any Receiver or Collector in Ireland, of the Customs, Excise, or any Revenue, Aid, or Tax, then or thereafter respectively to become due or payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Ireland, and shall be taken, pass, and be current at the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer of Ireland, from every such Receiver or Collector, for or in respect of the Customs, Excise, or any Revenue, Aid, or Tax by him collected or received at or after such Time or Times so to be appointed as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That as soon as any of the said Treasury Bills, which shall or may be issued in pursuance of this Act, shall be received by any Receiver or Collector, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, all Interest shall cease from the Day of such Receipt, and shall be no longer payable thereon; and the same, when paid by such Receiver or Collector into the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer of Ireland, shall be cancelled.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies to be received under or by virtue of this Act shall be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer at Dublin, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the said Treasury Bills, and all Interest thereon, or which shall become payable in respect of the said Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, shall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon, and shall be repaid or borne by or out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies which have been or shall be granted by Parliament for the Service of Ireland, in or for the Year One thousand eight hundred and six; or out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland to advance or lend to His Majesty, at the Receipt of His Exchequer in Dublin, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of Five hundred thousand Pounds Irish Currency, any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; so that no higher or greater Sum, by way of Interest, Discount, Gratuity, or other Consideration, shall be demanded or taken by the said Governor and Company, or by any Person on their Behalf, than at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for any Money so advanced.

‘ VIII. And Whereas, it is expedient to make Provision for Losses which may have been or may be sustained by Individuals, by means of Treasury Bills or Debentures, issued or which may be issued from His Majesty’s Treasury of Ireland, being stolen, lost, burned, or destroyed; be it enacted, That in all Cases whenever it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of any of the Barons of His Majesty’s Court of Exchequer in Ireland, by any Affidavit or Affidavits to be sworn before such Baron, who shall interrogate the Deponent or Deponents thereupon, that any such Treasury Bills or Debentures have been stolen, lost, burned, or destroyed, or that there is good Reason to believe that the same have been stolen, lost, burned, or destroyed, upon producing to the respective Officers of His Majesty’s Treasury in Ireland, appointed to make forth such Treasury Bills or Debentures, or to pay the same, a Certificate of such Baron thereof, together with the Affidavit or Affidavits from before him, which Affidavit or Affidavits shall be taken and Certificate granted by any of the said Barons without Fee, and upon Security being given to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to the good liking of the said Officers, to indemnify them and each of them against all other Persons for the Money specified in such Treasury Bills or Debentures respectively, and the Interest thereof, the said Officers, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Chief Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall make forth Duplicates of such Treasury Bills or Debentures, and shall pay and discharge the Money specified therein with the Interest accrued on the Original Treasury Bills or Debentures, and such Interest as shall accrue, in the same Manner as they would have paid and discharged the same on the Original Treasury Bills or Debentures, if the same had not been stolen, lost, burned, or destroyed.

Duty on Payment of such Yearly Compensation as shall be agreed on by the Irish Treasury.

Recital of 45 G. 3. c. 19. Schedule A. Title Windows. imposing a Duty of 3s. on certain Houses.

46 G. 3. c. 12.

Said Duty of 3s. repealed.

Excise and Taxes in Ireland, in lieu of former Duties of Excise and Taxes, a yearly Rate or Duty of Three Shillings was granted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon and out of every Tenement or Dwelling House not having more than Six Windows or Lights, except such Houses as shall not be worth the yearly Rent of Fifty Shillings, and the Occupier or Person paying Rent for which hath not any Goods or Chattels to the Value of Ten Pounds, over and above all his or her just Debts, and does not pay Rent for Corn Acres, Potatoe Land by the Crop in the Nature of Corn Acres, and for Grazing, not being to be deemed or considered Rent:) And whereas by an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, the several Rates, Duties, and Taxes granted by the said first recited Act, are continued until and upon the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and seven: And whereas it is expedient that the said herein-before mentioned Rate or Duty of Three Shillings should be repealed, and should be no longer payable: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That fo much of the said last recited Act as continues the said Rate or Duty of Three Shillings or Duty of Three Shillings shall cease and determine, and shall be no longer paid or payable, any Thing in the said recited Acts, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all Rules and Directions for ascertaining, securing, and collecting the said Rate or Duty of Three Shillings, and all Penalties for enforcing the Payment thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, contained in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same are applicable to the Duty hereby repealed.

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act to declare the Law with respect to Witnesses refusing to answer.

[5th May 1806.]

WHEREAS Doubts have arisen whether a Witness can by Law refuse to answer a Question relevant to the Matter in Issue, the answering of which has no Tendency to accuse himself, or to expose him to any Penalty or Forfeiture, but the answering of which may establish, or tend to establish that he owes a Debt, or is otherwise subject to a Civil Suit at the Instance of His Majesty, or of some other Person or Persons; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That a Witness cannot by Law refuse to answer a Question relevant to the Matter in Issue, the answering of which has no Tendency to accuse himself or to expose him to Penalty or Forfeiture, of any Nature whatsoever, by Reason only, or on the sole Ground, that the answering of such Question may establish or tend to establish that he owes a Debt, or is otherwise subject to a Civil Suit, either at the Instance of His Majesty, or of any other Person or Persons.

Witness cannot by Law refuse to answer on the Ground of subjecting himself to a Suit for Debt.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs upon Tea imported into Great Britain, and granting a Duty in lieu thereof; and for granting to His Majesty Additional Duties of Excise on Tea.

[5th May 1806.]

Most Gracious Sovereign, We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Publick Expenses, and making a permanent Addition to the Publick Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty, the additional Rates and Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several and respective Duties of Customs payable upon Tea imported into Great Britain, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease and determine; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering, allowing, or paying, any Arrears thereof respectively, which may, at the passing of this Act, remain unpaid, or to any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the passing of this Act: And that in lieu and instead of the said Duties, a Duty of Customs of Six Pounds, for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value, according to the gross Price at which such Tea shall have been sold at the Publick Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, upon all Tea imported into Great Britain.

Duties of Customs on Tea shall cease; and instead thereof a Custom Duty of 6l. per Cent. shall be paid on Tea sold at the East India Company's Sale.

Company's Sale.

Drawback of the whole Duty shall be allowed on Exportation. § 2.—The said Duty shall be paid on all Tea sold by the Company, after passing this Act; and on all Tea in the Company's Warehouses at the Time of the passing the Act. § 3.—The said Duty shall be under Management of the Commissioners of Customs, and the Duty and Drawback shall be levied and paid as former Duties and Drawbacks. § 4, 5.

VI. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of Tea, over and above all Duties of Excise already imposed for or in respect thereof by any Act or Acts of Parliament, the further Duty of Excise herein-after mentioned; that is to say, For and upon all Tea which, from and after the passing of this Act, shall be sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, under Two Shillings and Sixpence per Pound Weight, an Excise Duty of Thirty Pounds per Centum.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said several and respective Duties shall be computed upon the gross Prices at which such Tea shall be sold; to be paid by the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Tea to the said United Company, and to be paid by the said United Company to the respective Commissioners of Customs and Excise for the Time being.

“ Said Duty of Excise shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise; and on Exportation of Tea, the whole Duty shall be drawn back; and the Duties and Drawbacks levied and paid as former Duties and Drawbacks. § 8.—Prize Tea fold under the Act 33 G. 3. c. 34. shall be subject to the Duties imposed by this Act. § 9.—[N. B. The Act 35 G. 3. here alluded to is expired; but see 43 G. 3. c. 134.]—Duties shall be carried to the British Consolidated Fund. § 10.—Separate Account of the additional Excise Duty under this Act shall be kept for Ten Years, under 42 G. 3. c. 70. and the Money applied to the Charge of any Loan of this Session. § 11.—Act may be altered this Session. § 12.

Duties shall be paid by Purchaser to the Company, &c.

[5th May 1806.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the Supplies to defray the Expences of the just and necessary War in which Your Majesty is engaged; have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant to Your Majesty the several additional Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and six, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, (except as herein-after is provided), without any Discount whatever, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported or brought into Great Britain, from Parts beyond the Seas (except Sugar), and upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize exported from Great Britain; and upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize brought or carried Coastwise or from Port to Port within Great Britain; the several additional Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed marked (A.) and (B.); and that there shall also be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the said Duties of Customs, as the same are also respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the said Tables marked (A.) and (B.): any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

“Duties and Drawbacks on Sugar shall be paid and allowed, from 1st June 1806,” § 2.

not be received in Payment of Taxes, nor exchanged, before Six Months from the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

Action shall not lie for Refusal of Payment.

The said Bills shall be repaid out of the First Supplies in next Session.

The said Bills if not duly paid off, shall bear an Interest of 5 per Cent.

When the 7 per Cent. Consols shall be 80. per Cent. or more, the said Bills shall become payable, &c.

Additional Duties and Drawbacks of Customs in Tables A. and B. annexed shall be paid and allowed, from 10th May 1806 (except on Sugar)

Sold Duties not chargeable on certain Articles, nor on the Produce of Duties under 43 G. 3. c. 70. [See 44 G. 3. c. 53. & 45 G. 3. c. 29. see Table A.]

Duties on Goods imported by the East India Company according to Schedule B. (Cotton-Wool, Tea, and Wine excepted), &c.

Goods in Warehouse liable.

Additional Bounty on Exportation of refined Sugar, 15 l. per Cent. on Amount of former Bounties (except an additional Bounty under 43 G. 3. c. 70. See also 46 G. 3. c. 109.)

Time of Exportation on additional Bounty.

When the Average Price of Brown Sugar (ascertained under 32 G. 3. c. 43) at certain Periods shall be below certain Sums, the Treasury empowered to suspend Payment of Duty in Manner herein mentioned.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the additional Duties of Customs granted by this Act shall not be charged or payable on any Cotton Wool, Wine, Tea, or Tobacco; or on any Fir Timber Eight Inches Square and not exceeding Ten Inches Square, of the Growth of Norway, and imported directly from thence; nor any Deals above Seven Inches in Width, being Eight Feet in Length and not above Ten Feet in Length, and not exceeding One Inch and an Half in Thickness; nor on the Produce and Amount of the additional Duties of Customs, granted by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War and until the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and on the Tonnage of Ships and Vessels in Great Britain.

“ Duties shall be charged on Goods (except from the East Indies) not entered before May 10, 1806, unless the “ Duties shall have been secured by Bond, § 4. 5.—Duties shall be chargeable on Goods warehoused on or “ before May 10, 1806, but shall not be payable till taken out of Warehouse,” § 6.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the additional Duties of Customs granted by this Act upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, as the same are described and set forth in Figures in the Table herunto annexed, marked (B.), shall be due and payable upon all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, (Cotton Wool, Tea, and Wine excepted), as shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and six, be sold at the publick Sales of the said Company, and shall be paid or secured in such Manner and at such Times, and subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are prescribed and directed with respect to the Payment of any former Duties of Customs upon such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize respectively: Provided also, that the said additional Duties of Customs shall be due and payable on all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported by the said United Company, which shall remain in the Warehouse of the said Company on the said Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and six, and which shall not have been sold at the publick Sales of the said Company, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize may have been imported into Great Britain before the said Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and six.

“ Duties under this Act may be secured by Bond, as former Duties,” § 8.

IX. And whereas it is expedient on Account of the additional Duty by this Act imposed on Sugar imported into Great Britain, that an additional Bounty should be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of refined Sugar, produced from Sugar of the British Plantations, or from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and on which Sugar the Duties of Customs payable thereon at the Time of the Importation thereof shall have been duly paid; be it therefore enacted, That there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of any such refined Sugar, and which shall have been prepared from Sugar on which the Duties of Customs payable at the Time of the Importation of such Sugar shall have been duly paid, an additional Bounty to be calculated at and after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds in Money, on the Produce and Amount of whatever Bounty may be due and payable on any such refined Sugar respectively, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the Time of the Exportation thereof, exclusive of the Produce and Amount of the additional Bounty on such Sugar granted by an Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War and until the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and on the Tonnage of Ships and Vessels in Great Britain: Provided always, that the additional Bounty by this Act granted shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall be entered for Exportation before the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and six, and that the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall not have been actually shipped for Exportation within Six Weeks after the Expiration of this present Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, in Manner directed by an Act passed in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships, that the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken in Manner directed by the said last recited Act, for the Six Weeks preceding the First Day of June, or for the Two Months preceding the First Day of August, or for the Two Months preceding the First Day of October next after the passing of this Act, or for the Four Months preceding the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of May, and the Fifth Day of September respectively in every succeeding Year, shall be below Forty-nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized to suspend until the Publication in the Gazette as aforesaid, of the Average Prices of the succeeding Four Months, the Sum of One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty on Sugar by this Act granted; and if such Average Prices shall be below Forty-eight Shillings, then Two Shillings of the said Duty; and if such Average Prices shall be below Forty-seven Shillings, then the Whole of such Duty; and to continue any such Suspension if such Average Prices so published shall still remain below such Sums of Forty-nine Shillings, Forty-eight Shillings, or Forty-seven Shillings the Hundred Weight respectively, or to alter the Amount of any such Suspension of Duty, according to such Average Prices as aforesaid; and so from Time to Time so long as such Average Prices of Sugar shall continue to be below such respective Prices the Hundred Weight as aforesaid; and to take off such Suspension when such Average Prices so published shall be above Forty-nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, and again in like Manner to suspend the same, and every such Suspension, and also every Alteration or Termination of any such Suspension, shall be published published Three Times in the London Gazette, immediately after every such Suspension or Alteration, or Termination thereof.

“ This Act shall not affect the Acts of Union of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. § 11.

“ XII. And whereas an additional Duty of Customs on Sugar imported into Great Britain is by this Act imposed: And whereas it is just and reasonable in respect thereof, and pursuant to the Provisions contained in the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that additional Duties of Customs should be charged on all refined Sugars being of the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, sufficient to counterbalance the additional Duty on the Raw Material by this Act imposed; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and six, there shall be charged on any refined Sugar, being of the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, the several additional Countervailing Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed marked (C.)

From June 1, 1806, the additional Countervailing Duties specified in Table (C.) shall be charged on Irish refined Sugar imported into Great Britain.

“ Such Countervailing Duties shall be levied as former Countervailing Duties, § 13.—From June 1, 1806, additional Drawbacks or Bounties specified in Table (D.) shall be allowed on British refined Sugar exported to Ireland, § 14.—Such additional Bounty shall not be paid on Sugar entered for Exportation to Ireland before July 14, 1806, &c. or after Six Weeks from Expiration of this Act, § 15.—Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs, § 16.—Duties and Drawbacks shall be levied and paid as former Duties and Drawbacks, § 17.—Separate Accounts of the Amount of Duties under this Act shall be kept, and the Money applied to Service of the Year 1806, or any subsequent Year, § 18.—Limitation of Actions “ Three Months; General Issue; Treble Costs, § 19.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted by this Act shall continue in force during the present War, and for Six Months after the Expiration thereof, by the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace. “ An Act may be altered this Session, § 21.

Continuance of Duties.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall value or appraise any Estate or Property Real or Personal, or any Interest in Possession or Reversion, Remainder, or Contingency in any Estate or Property Real or Personal, or any Goods, Merchandize, or Effects of whatsoever Kind or Description the same may be, for or in Expectation of any Hire, Gain, Fee, or Reward or valuable Consideration to be therefore paid him, shall be deemed and taken to be an Appraiser within the Provisions of this Act to all Intents and Purposes.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall exercise the Calling or Occupation of an Appraiser, or act as such within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, without taking out a Licence in Manner herein-after mentioned, and every such Licence shall state the true Name, and Place of Abode of the Person taking out the same; and it shall be lawful for any Two or more of His Majesty's Commissioners appointed for managing the Duties arising by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or for any Person duly authorized by such Commissioners, or the major Part of them, to grant such Licences; and every such Licence issued between the Fifth Day of July and the Fifth Day of August in any Year shall bear Date on the Sixth Day of July; and every such Licence issued at any other Time, shall bear Date the Day on which the same shall be issued; and every such Licence shall continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Fifth Day of July then next following.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July in the Year One thousand eight hundred and six, no Person shall appraise or value any Estate or Property, or Effects Real or Personal, or any Interest in Possession or Reversion, Remainder or Expectancy in any Estate or Property Real or Personal for or in Expectation of Hire or Reward without being so licensed as aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall be duly licensed according to Law to act as Auctioneers shall and may act as Appraisers, without taking out any other Licence in pursuance of this Act, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Appraiser shall write or set down in Words or Figures every Valuation or Appraisal made by him, or any Person for him, and the full Amount thereof, and within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, deliver the same to his Employer so written or set down upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper duly stamped according to the Provisions of this Act, on Pain of forfeiting for any Neglect therein, or for delivering any Valuation or Appraisal, or the Amount of any Valuation or Appraisal, on any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper not duly stamped as aforesaid, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall employ any Appraiser to make any Appraisal or Valuation as aforesaid shall receive, or take, or pay, or make any Compensation for the making of any such Appraisal or Valuation as aforesaid, unless the same shall be written or set down in Words or Figures upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper duly stamped according to the Provisions of this Act, on Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to require any Stamp upon any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereon shall be written or set down any Valuation or Appraisal extending to more than One Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, other than and except the Piece upon which the aggregate Amount of the Value of the Articles contained in such Valuation or Appraisal shall be written or set down.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to charge with any Stamp Duty any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which any Valuation or Appraisal made in pursuance of any Order of any Court of Admiralty, Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Appeal, from any Sentence, Adjudication, or Judgement of such Court, shall be written or set down.

"Duties shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund. § 12.—Separate Accounts of Duties shall be kept and annually laid before Parliament, and the Amount applied to the Charge of any Loan of this Session. § 13."

C A P. XLIV.

An Act for carrying to the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, the Duties on Wine granted by Two Acts of the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Years of His present Majesty. [5th May 1806.]

“Recital of 45 G. 3. c. 45. whereby the Duties of Excise on Wine under 43 G. 3. c. 81. and 44 G. 3. c. 49. were made perpetual. Duties arising by the recited Act shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund. § 1.—
 “Accounts of the Duties shall be kept and annually laid before Parliament, and the Amount applied to the “Charge of any Loan of this Session. § 2.

C A P. XLV.

An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of the Treasurer of Ordnance. [5th May 1806.]

“WHEREAS the Regulations by Law established in the Offices of the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, and of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, for the Issuing and Payment of Publick Monies required for Army and Navy Services, have been found beneficial; and it is expedient that Regulations for the like Purposes should be established, by Law, in the Office of the Treasurer of the Ordnance; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Board of Ordnance, in every Memorial to be by them presented to the Treasury, for Money for Ordnance Services, shall pray that such Sum as shall be so required may be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Treasurer of the Ordnance, specifying in every such Memorial the Sum required, and for what particular Service or Services, and also stating in every such Memorial the Amount of the Assignments upon such Balance that are then outstanding; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, by their Letter, from Time to Time shall direct the Auditor of the Exchequer to issue to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Treasurer of the Ordnance, naming such Treasurer for the Time being, the Sum for which such Letter shall be drawn upon the unassigned Order at the Exchequer in favour of the said Treasurer; for which the Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company shall be a sufficient Discharge; and all Sums for which such Letters of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall be drawn, shall be issued to the said Governor and Company in like Manner as they have heretofore been issued to the Treasurer of the Ordnance; and all such Monies so to be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be placed to an Account to be raised in the Books of the said Governor and Company, and to be entitled, “The Account of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Ordnance,” inserting the Name of such Treasurer for the Time being.

Board of Ordnance in Memorials to the Treasury shall specify the Sum required, the particular Service, the total Balance in Hand, &c. and the Sum required shall be listed to the Bank, and put to the Account of the Board.

“Only Customary Fees to be paid at the Exchequer and Treasury. § 2.”

III. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the Ordnance for the Time being, by himself or his Deputy, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, make Payment on all Imprests and Debentures ordered for Payment by the Board of Ordnance, (except such as shall be issued for the Pay and Allowances to the Officers and Persons employed in the Service of the Board of Ordnance, subject to any Deductions for Duties or otherwise), by Drafts on the Bank of England, according to a Form of Draft hereafter to be agreed upon between the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England, and stating therein whether the same are for the Payment of Imprests or Debentures, or both, as the Case may be: Provided always, that the said Treasurer or his Deputy shall not have Power and Authority to draw on the said Bank of England, for the Payment of the total Amount of the Imprests and Debentures which shall at any Time be ordered for Payment by the Board of Ordnance, but for the Amount of such Imprests and Debentures only as shall be actually presented for Payment to the said Treasurer: Provided also, that every of the said Drafts shall have Figures inserted in the Margin thereof, corresponding to the Page in the Books kept by the said Treasurer wherein the Entry shall be made, of the particular Items or Charges composing the Amount of any Imprest of Imprests, Debenture or Debentures, for the Payment whereof such Draft shall be given.

The Treasurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy shall make all Payments by Drafts on the Banks, according to certain Forms. Treasurer shall draw only for Imprests, &c. actually presented for Payment. Drafts shall be numbered.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Board of Ordnance, from Time to Time to authorize and empower the said Treasurer or his Deputy to draw on the Bank of England, for such Sums as the said Board shall deem proper, for the Payment of Salaries and Allowances, subject to Deductions for Duties or otherwise as aforesaid, to the Officers of the said Board, and Persons employed under their Direction or Authority, and for such Sums as shall be necessary for Payments on his petty Account; and the said Treasurer or his Deputy is hereby directed to draw distinct and separate Drafts for each of the said Services, and to keep a separate Account thereof, and to state to the Board of Ordnance in his Applications for Leave to draw on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England on account of the said Services, the Balance remaining in his Hands on account of each of the said Services respectively; which Sums when issued by the Bank of England to the said Treasurer or his Deputy, shall be deposited by him in his Office at the Tower of London, or at such other Place or Places as the said Board of Ordnance shall direct, and shall not on any Account be withdrawn from thence, but for the actual Discharge of the Salaries, Allowances, and petty Payments aforesaid.

Board of Ordnance shall direct the Treasurer to draw on the Bank for Salaries and Allowances to Officers, and on his petty Account. Treasurer shall keep separate Accounts, and apply the Money according to y.

Treasurer of the Ordnance shall pay into the Bank all Monies received by him.

Drafts drawn, agreeable to this Act sufficient Authority for the Bank to pay them.

On Death or Removal of the Treasurer, the Balance in the Bank shall vest in his Successor.

Treasurer shall keep Account with the Bank, &c.

Felony on Forgery Drafts, &c. of Treasurer of Ordnance, &c. Felony without Clergy.

Provisions of this Act extended to Money issued from the Irish Exchequer for the Ordnance Service there.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money received by the said Treasurer for the Service, or on Account of the Ordnance, shall be immediately paid by him into the Bank of England, and placed to his Account there in Manner aforesaid; and such Money shall be issued, paid, and applied in such and the like Manner, and under the same Regulations and Restrictions, as the Money to be issued from the Exchequer for Ordnance Services is herein directed to be issued, paid, and applied.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Drafts drawn pursuant to the Directions of this Act, but not otherwise, shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank of England to pay the Amount thereof to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Bearer of them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to render the Bank of England accountable for or on Account of any Omision or Mistake in relation to any Figure required by this Act to be inserted in the Margin of any such Drafts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal, of the present and of every other Treasurer of the Ordnance hereafter to be appointed, the Balance of Cash for which he shall at that Time have Credit on his Account, as Treasurer with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the said Office, actually vest in such Successor in Trust for the Service of the Ordnance, and be forthwith transferred, carried over, and placed to the Account of such Successor, to be applied to the said Service in pursuance of the like Drafts as aforesaid; and the Board of Ordnance shall, and they are hereby directed and required to form their Memorials and Requisitions to the Treasury; and the Treasurer of the Ordnance for the Time being shall, and he is hereby directed and required, to issue his Drafts as aforesaid, for all unsatisfied Charges and Demands on Account of the Ordnance Services, although the same shall have accrued in the Time of any former Treasurer.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Treasurer of the Ordnance for the Time being shall keep the Account with the Bank, of all Monies issued on his Account for the Service of the Ordnance; and the said Treasurer, observing the Rules and Regulations hereby prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money which he shall not actually receive; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies which shall be actually received by them for the Service of the Ordnance.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging or counterfeiting the Name or Hand of the Treasurer of the Ordnance for the Time being, or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons duly authorized as aforesaid, to any Draft, Instrument, or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money in the Hands or Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Treasurer of the Ordnance; or shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Draft, Instrument, or Writing in form of a Draft, made by such Treasurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid, or shall utter or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with an Intention to defraud any Person whomsoever, every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be, and is and are hereby declared and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Monies which shall be issued from the Exchequer of Ireland, or received by the Treasurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy, in Ireland, for the Service of His Majesty's Ordnance, shall be paid to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, subject to the like Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the Monies issued by the Auditor of the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England on Account of the Treasurer of the Ordnance, are made liable to by the Provisions of this Act.

“Act may be altered or repealed this Session.” § 11.

C A P. III.

[See also c. 119. of this Session.]

An Act to prevent the Importation of Slaves, by any of His Majesty's Subjects into any Islands, Colonies, Plantations, or Territories belonging to any Foreign Sovereign, State, or Power; and also to render more effectual a certain Order, made by His Majesty in Council on the Fifteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, for prohibiting the Importation of Slaves (except in certain Cases), into any of the Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations on the Continent of America, or in the West Indies, which have been surrendered to His Majesty's Arms during the present War; and to prevent the fitting out of Foreign Slave Ships from British Ports.

[23d May 1806.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent the supplying the Islands, Colonies, and Territories, belonging to any Foreign Sovereign, State, or Power, with Slaves, by or on Account of any of His Majesty's Subjects,

Subjects, or by Means of their Ships, Capital, or Credit; and to prevent the fitting out of Foreign Slave Ships from British Ports: And whereas His Majesty by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and five, was pleased to order, "That it should not be lawful, except by special Licence as therein mentioned, for any Slave or Slaves to be landed upon any of the Coasts, or imported or brought into any of the Ports, Harbours, Creeks, or Roads, or within the Limits, Jurisdictions, and Territories of any of the Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations on the Continent of America, or in the West Indies, which have been surrendered to His Majesty's Arms during the present War, until further Order, upon Pain that all Slaves fo landed or brought contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of that Order, together with the Vessels bringing in the same, or from which the same should be landed, and their Cargoes, should become forfeited to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; but the said Order recited, that it might be expedient to permit the Annual Introduction of a limited Number of Slaves under due Regulations, for the Purpose of supplying any Waste that should take place in the Population on particular Estates, from extraordinary or unavoidable Causes, and thereby of keeping up the Cultivation of the Lands already cleared and cultivated; and it was therefore further ordered, that any Number of Slaves, not exceeding Three for every Hundred of the whole Number of Slaves in the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, and Plantations respectively (Returns whereof were to be made from Time to Time, in pursuance of Instructions to be transmitted by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State), might be imported in each Year (provided Casualties to that Extent should appear to have taken place in the preceding Year), under Licences to be previously granted by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, and Plantations, from any other of His Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies, into the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, and Plantations; such Licence, or a Copy thereof, to be produced by the Master of the Ship on which such Slaves are laden, as His Authority for having Slaves on board declined to the said Settlement, Islands, Colonies, and Plantations: Provided always, that until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seven, such limited Importation might be made from other Places than His Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies as aforesaid, and without its being necessary for the Master of the Vessel, if met with at Sea, to produce the said Licence, or a Copy thereof, as his Authority for having the Slaves defined as aforesaid on board, but subject nevertheless to such Licence being first had and obtained as aforesaid, before any Slaves should be permitted to be landed or sold from such Vessel in any of the said Settlements: And, after further reciting that special Instructions would be immediately transmitted by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to the Governors, Lieutenant Governors, or Officers administering the Government of the said Colonies, Settlements, and Plantations respectively, containing the Regulations proper for carrying that Order into effectual Execution, directing and empowering them to grant Licences for the Importation of such limited Number of Slaves as aforesaid, subject to such Regulations as in the said Instructions would be provided, it was thereby declared to be His Majesty's further Order, that such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or other Officer as aforesaid, should be, and they thereby were respectively authorized and empowered to grant such Licences, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Regulations as, in conformity to and in furtherance of the Object of such Instructions, might from Time to Time be required: And it was thereby further ordered, that the Prohibition therein before contained should not extend to prevent the importing or landing of any Slaves which should be imported into the said Colonies, Islands, and Plantations, by Licence first had for importing the same under the Hand and Seal of His Majesty's Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of the Colony, Settlements, or Plantations into which the said Slaves are to be imported, specifying the Ship or Vessel permitted to import the same, in Conformity with the Instructions to be received from One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, but that all Slaves, except such Slaves as may form Part of the Crew of any Vessels, or may be Household Servants to the Passengers therein, which should be landed without such Licence as aforesaid, and without conforming to such Regulations as should be contained therein, should, together with the Vessels bringing the same, or from which the same should be landed, and their Cargoes, become forfeited to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and in case any Vessel should contain more Slaves than the Number permitted to be imported in such Vessel by any such Licence or Licences, such Number of the most valuable of the Slaves on board such Vessel (other than such Slaves as might form Part of the Crew of such Vessel, or might be Household Servants to the Passengers) as should be equal to the Excess beyond the Number mentioned in such Licence or Licences, should be forfeited to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and should be selected and disposed of in such Manner as might be in that Behalf directed by any Instructions from One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be given to the respective Governors, Lieutenant Governors, or other Officers administering the Government of such Colonies, Settlements, and Plantations as aforesaid: And it was thereby further ordered and provided, that nothing therein contained should be extended or construed to extend to the landing, importing, or bringing in of any Slave or Slaves from or by any Vessel which by Strefs of Weather or by any other Peril should be driven on the Coast of any such Colonies, Settlements, or Plantations, or compelled to take refuge on such Coast, or within the Creeks and Harbours of such Colonies, Settlements, or Plantations, provided the Slave or Slaves which should be so imported, landed, or brought in as last aforesaid, should be exported to some Place or Places, other than any of the Colonies, Settlements, or Plantations to which the said Order applied, within Ten Days from the Importation, landing, or bringing in of the same, unless further detained by Strefs of Weather, or provided the same should within such Ten Days be sold under the special Licence of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of the Colony, Settlement, or Plantation where such Slaves might be, to such Person or Persons as under the Circumstances of his, her, or their Cases (which Circumstance should be inserted in such special Licence) might at the Date thereof be entitled to obtain a Licence or Licences to import such Recital of Order in Council, dated Aug. 15, 1805, for prohibiting the Importation of Slaves into American Colonies surrendered to His Majesty in the present War, except under special Licences.

• Number of Slaves as he, she, or they should in and by such special Licence or Licences be permitted to purchase: And it was thereby further ordered and declared, that One third of every Forfeiture which should accrue in consequence of that Order to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should be granted to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of the Colony, and One third to the Party who should inform and prosecute the same:” And whereas it is expedient that the Prohibition contained in the said Order of Council should be enforced and rendered more effectual by such auxiliary Regulations and Remedies as the Authority of His Majesty in Council was insufficient to provide: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seven, it shall not be lawful to export, transport, carry, convey, or send any Slave or Slaves (except in such special Cafes as are herein-after excepted) from any Part of His Majesty’s Dominions to any Island, Settlement, Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Place whatever, belonging to and under the Dominion of any Foreign Sovereign, State, or Power, the Provisions of certain Acts of Parliament made for establishing certain Free Ports in the West Indies, or any other Statute, Law, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Slave or Slaves shall, from and after the Day aforesaid, be so unlawfully exported, transported, carried, conveyed, or sent, or shall be embarked, put on board, or transhipped at or from any Part of His Majesty’s Dominions with Intent to be so unlawfully exported, transported, carried, conveyed, or sent, all and every such Slave or Slaves, together with every Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be so exported, transported, carried, conveyed, sent, embarked, put on board, or transhipped, together with all her Boats, Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted as herein-after is mentioned and provided.

From Jan. 1,
1807, no Slaves (except in Cafes after mentioned, see § 13.) shall be exported from His Majesty’s Dominions to Foreign Colonies, or Territories.

Penalty:
Forfeiture of Slaves and Ships.

British Subjects resident in His Majesty’s Dominions, shall not convey or be concerned in conveying Slaves from Africa or elsewhere (except from the West India
Islands in certain Cafes. See § 13.)
to Foreign Colonies or Territories.
Penalty.
Forfeiture of Slaves and Ships.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seven, it shall not be lawful to or for any of His Majesty’s Subjects, or any Person or Persons resident within this United Kingdom, or any of the Islands, Colonies, Dominions, or Territories thereto belonging, to export, transport, carry, convey, or send, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried, conveyed, or sent, or in any Manner to aid, abet, or assist in the exporting, transporting, carrying, conveying, or sending any Slave or Slaves from Africa or elsewhere (except from His Majesty’s West India Islands, in such special Cafes as are herein-after expressly excepted and provided for) to any Island, Settlement, Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Place whatever, belonging to and under the Dominion of any Foreign Sovereign, State, or Power, or to ship, embark, tranship, or put on board, or cause or procure to be embarked, shipped, transhipped, or put on board, or to aid, abet, or assist in the embarking, shipping, transhipping, or putting on board any Ship or Vessel whatever, at Africa or elsewhere, any Slave or Slaves (except as aforesaid) with the Intent to the exporting, transporting, carrying, conveying, or sending the same to any such Foreign Island, Settlement, Colony, Plantation, or Territory or Place: And if any Slave or Slaves shall be so unlawfully exported, transported, carried, conveyed, or sent or embarked, shipped, transhipped, or put on board with such unlawful Intent as aforesaid, all and every such Slave or Slaves, and every Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be so unlawfully exported, transported, carried, conveyed, or sent, or embarked, shipped, transhipped, or put on board, together with all her Boats, Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, so far as any of His Majesty’s Subjects, or any Person or Persons resident as aforesaid, have or hath any Property, Share, or Interest therein, shall become forfeited, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted as herein-after is mentioned and provided.

Slaves imported contrary to Order in Council, into any Settlement in America, &c. surrendered to His Majesty in the present War, shall be forfeited,
with the Ships.
Slaves exported from or taken on board at British Ports, or in British Ships, or on British Account, in Africa or elsewhere, with Intent to be imported into any such surrendered Settlement, &c.
shall be forfeited,
with the Ships.
His Majesty may revoke or alter
Council.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Slave or Slaves shall be landed upon any of the Coasts, or imported or brought into any of the Ports, Harbours, Creeks, or Roads, or within the Limits, Jurisdictions, and Territories of any of the Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations on the Continent of America, or in the West Indies, which have been surrendered to His Majesty’s Arms during the present War, without such special Licence for landing, importing, and bringing the same, as in and by the said Order in Council is mentioned, having been previously obtained, contrary to the Prohibitions contained in the said Order, all and every such Slave or Slaves, together with the Ship or Vessel by or from which the same shall be so landed, imported, or brought, and all her Boats, Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, shall become forfeited, and shall and may be seized, forfeited, and prosecuted as herein-after is mentioned and provided.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Slave or Slaves shall be exported from or embarked, shipped, transhipped, or taken on board any Ship or Vessel whatever, at any Island, Settlement, Colony, Plantation, or Territory under the Dominion of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or shall be exported from or embarked, shipped, transhipped, or taken on board at Africa, or on the Coast thereof, or elsewhere, in any British Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel owned or employed in Whole or in Part by any of His Majesty’s Subjects, or for or on account of any of His Majesty’s Subjects, in order and with Intent to be transported, carried, or conveyed to any or either of the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations on the Continent of America, or in the West Indies, which have been surrendered to His Majesty’s Arms during the present War, and to be there imported or landed, without such special Licence as aforesaid, contrary to the said Order in Council, all and every such Slave and Slaves, together with every Ship or Vessel in or by which the same shall be so exported, embarked, shipped, transhipped, or taken on board, and all her Boats, Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture shall become forfeited, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted as herein-after is mentioned and provided: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from revoking, annulling, varying, or altering the said Order in Council, or any of the Regulations or Instructions in regard to special Licences therein contained, mentioned, or referred to, as to His Royal Wisdom shall from Time to Time, during the Continuance of the present War, seem meet.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects, or any Person or Persons resident within this United Kingdom, or any of the Islands, Colonies, Dominions, or Territories belonging to, or in the Possession of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall unlawfully land, import, send, transport, carry, convey, embark, ship, tranship, or put or take on board, or cause or procure to be landed, imported, exported, sent, transported, carried, conveyed, embarked, shipped, transhipped, or put or taken on board, or shall be aiding, abetting, or assisting in the landing, importing, exporting, sending, transporting, carrying, conveying, embarking, shipping, transhipping, or putting or taking on board any Slave or Slaves, contrary to any of the Prohibitions in the said Order in Council, or in this Act contained, every such Person or Persons so offending, shall respectively forfeit and pay for each and every Slave so unlawfully landed, imported, exported, sent, transported, carried, conveyed, embarked, shipped, transhipped, or put or taken on board, the Sum of Fifty Pounds lawful Money of Great Britain: Provided always, that no Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred by any landing or importing, or transhipping or carrying of any Slave or Slaves, contrary to the said Order in Council, or to this Act, when it shall be clearly proved to the Satisfaction of the Court, before which any such Forfeiture, or any Suit for any such Penalty shall be prosecuted, that the prohibited Act entirely arose from Strefs of Weather, Peril of the Sea, or other inevitable Accident, the Burden of which Proof shall in all Cases lie on the Claimant or Defendant: Provided also, that nothing in this Act shall extend to prevent the Transportation to any Foreign Colony or Place of any Slave or Slaves that shall have been convicted by due Course of Law, in any British Island or Colony, of any Crime to which the Punishment of Transportation is or shall be annexed by the Law of such Island or Colony; but in every such Case a Copy of the Judgement or Sentence, certified by the Court before which the Offender was convicted, shall be put on board in the Ship or Vessel in which any such Convict shall be transported.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seven, it shall not be lawful to or for any of His Majesty's Subjects, or to or for any Person or Persons resident in this United Kingdom, or in any of the Colonies, Territories, or Dominions thereto belonging, to invest or employ any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Ship or Vessel, Goods or Effects to him or them belonging, in trading in or carrying Slaves from Africa or elsewhere, to any Settlement, Island, Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Place belonging to and under the Dominion of any Foreign Sovereign, State, or Power, or to any of the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations, which have been surrendered to His Majesty's Arms during the present War (except such limited and licensed Trade to the latter as is by the said Order in Council, and by this present Act allowed) or knowingly or wilfully to lend or advance any Sum or Sums of Money, or to become Security in any Manner for the Loan or Advance of any Sum or Sums of Money, Goods or Effects, for the Purpose of being employed or used in any such Trade or Carriage of Slaves, except as aforesaid, or to become Guarantee or Security for any Factor or Agent to be employed in the Sale of Slaves in or for the Use or Supply of any such Foreign Settlement, Island, Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Place, or (except such limited and licensed Trade as aforesaid) in or for the Use or Supply of any of the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations which have been surrendered to His Majesty's Arms during the present War, or otherwise to engage as a Partner, Factor, Agent, or otherwise, directly or indirectly, in the supplying with Slaves any such Foreign Island, Colony, Territory, or Place, or any of the said Settlements, Islands, Colonies, or Plantations which have been surrendered to His Majesty's Arms during the present War, except as before excepted; upon Pain that every Person or Persons who shall knowingly or wilfully so employ any Ship or Vessel, Goods or Effects, or to invest, employ, lend, advance, or secure any Sum or Sums of Money for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or to become Guarantee or Security for any such Factor or Agent as aforesaid, or otherwise to engage as Partner, Factor, Agent, or otherwise, in supplying Slaves as aforesaid knowingly and wilfully, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Prohibition, shall forfeit or pay for every such Offence Double the Value of all the Money, Ships, Vessels, Goods, and Effects so by him or them employed, lent, advanced, or secured, to be recovered and applied as is herein-after mentioned and provided; and every Mortgage, Bond, Bill, Note, or other Security made or given for securing the Payment of any such unlawful Loan or Advance, or for any other the unlawful Purposes aforesaid, shall be absolutely null and void: (except in the Case of a bona fide Purchaser or Holder of any such of the said Securities as are in their Nature negotiable, who may have purchased or obtained the same, without Notice that the same were made or given for or in Consideration of any of the unlawful Purposes aforesaid).
