and it is also by the Rules, Orders, and Directions, to the said Act annexed (among other Things) directed that the Commissioners of the Customs should not at any Time be more than Seven, or less than Five in Number: And Whereas since the passing of the said herein-before recited Acts, divers Rates and Duties upon the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, into and from Ireland, and upon certain Articles, Matters, and Things, have from Time to Time been granted and charged by divers Acts of Parliament in lieu and full Satisfaction of the Impolls, Subsidies, Customs, Duties, Rates, and Charges, under the said herein-before recited Acts; An Act to provide for the more effectual Examination of Accounts of the Expenditure of the Publick Money in the West Indies, and for the better Discovery of Frauds and Abuses therein,

[3d July 1806.]

Powers given to Commissioners by 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 22. shall cease and determine.

[25 G. 3. c. 52.]

His Majesty may appoint Five Commissioners for enquiring into the Abuses and examining the Accounts of Persons concerned in the supply of Provisions, or in the Expenditure of the Publick Money in the West Indies and on the Continent of South America, during the present War, &c.

Treasury may appoint Officers and Clerks to Commissioners, and allow them Salaries, &c. Salaries shall be paid out of British Consolidated Fund to the Commissioners.

Commissioners appointed under this Act shall have the same Powers and be subject to the same Regulations as Commissioners for auditing the Publick Accounts.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to authorize His Majesty to appoint Commissioners for the more effectual Examination of Accounts of Publick Expenditure for His Majesty's Forces in the West Indies, during the present War, divers Provisions were made for the more speedy and effectual Examination of the said Accounts during the then existing War: And whereas it was by the said Act provided, amongst other Things, that nothing therein contained should prevent the Commissioners for auditing Publick Accounts, appointed under an Act, passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for better examining and auditing the Publick Accounts of this Kingdom, from investigating or passing or making up any of the said Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies, but that on the contrary, the Commissioners to be appointed under the said first mentioned Act, should act in Aid only of the said Commissioners for auditing Publick Accounts: And whereas it is expedient that some further and more effectual Provision should be made for the more speedy and effectual Examination of the said Accounts of Expenditure in the West Indies, and also for discovering and preventing Abuses in the several Departments concerned therein: It is therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the several Powers and Authorities by the said recited Act of the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, given to or vested in the Commissioners appointed under the same Act, shall cease, determine, and be no longer executed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to appoint Five Commissioners under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for enquiring into all Frauds and Abuses that have been at any Time since the First Day of January One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, or that may hereafter during the Continuance of the present War, and until the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace with all the Powers with whom His Majesty is at present at War, or may hereafter be engaged in War during the Continuance of the present War with France, be committed by any Persons whatever concerned in the Management or Custody of the Publick Stores or Provisions, or in supplying or furnishing, advancing, applying, or expending any Money, Bills, Provisions, Stores, or other Articles, for the Publick Service, or in negotiating Bills, or in contracting for the Hire, or in hiring or letting of any Vessels for the said Service, or in any other Way whatever concerned in the Expenditure of Publick Money in any of the Ilands in the West Indies or on the Continent of South America, and for examining the Publick Accounts of all Commissaries, Deputy Commissaries, Deputy Paymasters, and all other Officers and Servants in the Military and Civil Branches of the Army, or of the Ordnance or Engineer Departments, and of all other Persons whatever, who have been or shall or may be concerned in the Expenditure of the Publick Monies, or in supplying or furnishing, advancing, applying, or expending any Money, Bills, Provisions, Stores, or other Articles for the Publick Service, or in negotiating Bills, or in the contracting for the Hire, or in hiring or letting of Vessels for the said Service, or who have had or shall or may have the Management or Custody, Receipt or Issue, of any Part of the Publick Stores or Provisions in any of the Ilands in the West Indies or on the Continent of South America, from the said First Day of January One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, until the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months from the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid, from and out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, to such One of the said Commissioners who shall be first named in the said Commission, an annual Salary not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds, and to each of the other Commissioners, an annual Salary not exceeding One thousand Pounds; and that when any of the said Commissioners shall be sent out to the West Indies or to the Continent of South America, in Manner herein after mentioned, such additional Salary may be allowed and paid out of the said Fund to such Commissioner or Commissioners so to be sent out, as the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, may think fit, so as that the additional Salary payable to every such Commissioner so sent out, shall not exceed the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, interline, erase, or alter, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, interlined, erased, or altered, any Certificate directed or required to be granted by any Order of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors in Council now in force, or hereafter to be made touching Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection, or shall publish as true any such forged or counterfeited, interlined, erased, or altered Certificate, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, interlined, erased, or altered, or shall knowingly and wilfully utter and publish any such Certificate, with Intent to obtain the Effect of a true Certificate to be given thereto, knowing the Contents of such Certificate to be false, he or she shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Consuls and Vice Consuls of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall, and are hereby empowered to administer Oaths in all Cases respecting Quarantine, in like Manner as if they were Magistrates of the several Towns or Places where they respectively reside.

X. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases wherein by virtue and in pursuance of this Act, or any other now in force or hereafter to be made touching Quarantine, any Examinations or Answers shall be taken or made upon Oath, the Person who shall be authorized and required to take such Examinations and Answers, shall, and shall be deemed to have full Power and Authority to administer such Oaths; and if any Person who shall be so interrogated or examined shall wilfully swear falsely to any Matter, concerning which such Person shall depose or make Oath on such Examination or in such Answer, or if any Person shall procure any other Person to do so, he or she so swearing falsely or procuring any other Person so to do, shall be deemed to have been

WHEREAS it is expedient to permit the Importation of Salted and Pickled Salmon and Salted Dry Cod Fish from the Island of Newfoundland and the Coast of Labrador into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to allow on such Importation a Bounty on every Quintal or Hundred Weight of such Fish to be imported: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful to import from the Island of Newfoundland, or the Coast of Labrador, into the said United Kingdom, any Salted or Pickled Salmon, or Salted Dry Cod Fish, having been taken and cured at the said Places, or either of them, by British Subjects, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon the Importation of such Fish into the said United Kingdom, there shall be paid and allowed to the Importer or Proprietor thereof, a Bounty of Three Shillings for every Quintal or Hundred Weight of such Fish, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; which Bounty shall be paid and allowed upon the following Conditions, that is to say, upon the Master and Mate of every Ship or Vessel in which such Fish shall be imported, making Oath at the Port of Importation before the Collector or other principal Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, that all the said Fish imported in the said Ship or Vessel was taken and cured by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the Fishery at the Island of Newfoundland, or on the Coast of Labrador, as the Case may be, and upon such Fish being duly entered and regularly landed in the Prefecture of the proper Officer or Officers appointed for that Purpose.

III. And Whereas by the Laws now in force a certain Description of Tiles, made for the Purpose of draining Lands, are exempted from the Duties chargeable on Tiles: And Whereas it is expedient to allow Tiles of other Descriptions to be made for such Purpose free of the Duties of Excise: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatsoever to make for the sole Purpose of draining wet or marshy Lands, free of the Duties of Excise, Tiles bent into a semi-elliptical Form, the Width of which, measured on the Inside thereof, shall not in any Part exceed Six Inches, and the Height of which when so bent as aforesaid, taken from the Outside of the Crown of the Arch thereof in a perpendicular Line to the extreme Edge thereof, shall in all Cases exceed the Width measured as aforesaid, but with a Foot or Projection from the Bottom of the Arch where the same shall be found necessary, not exceeding Two Inches in Breadth, for the Purpose of keeping up the said Tiles in loose or friable Soils; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

AN
INDEX TO THE STATUTES
THE UNITED KINGDOM,

From the Time of the UNION between GREAT BRITAIN and IRELAND
41 GEORGE III. (U. K.) to 46 GEORGE III. both inclusive.

THIS INDEX has been framed by incorporating into the Index of the preceding Volume of the Acts of the United Kingdom (which contained the Years 41, 42, & 43 Geo. 3.) the Acts passed in the 14th 15th & 46th Years: It therefore refers to ALL the Acts passed since the Union, which are printed and to be judicially noticed, as well Local and Personal, as General; and serves to shew how the various Acts are connected with, or bear upon each other: particularly where several Acts have been passed on the same Subject, or where former are repealed by subsequent Acts.

The Acts which relate to IRELAND or SCOTLAND exclusively, are classed under those General Heads; but arranged in Subdivisions according to their several Subjects, with References to and from other Parts of the Index.

Other Acts respecting particular Places are to be looked for according to their several Subjects, by referring to the following General Heads under which the Acts are arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of Places, viz. Bridges, Canals, Churches, Gaols, Harbours, Paving, Poor;—the Acts under the Title Inclosures and Turnpikes are classed in Alphabetical Order of the Countries in which the Inclosure takes place, or the Road begins.

All the Acts relating to Individuals or Corporations are arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of the Persons, under the general Title, Personal Acts.

The Publick Local and Personal Acts are referred to in the Roman Numerals by which their Series is distinguished in the respective Sessions.

References are also made from one Head to another; and from the various Heads, under which the Subject may be looked for, to the Head under which the Statute is actually entered.

It is intended that the Index to each future Volume of the Statutes shall continue to be arranged on the same Plan; so as to afford from Time to Time a Consolidated Index of all the Acts passed since the Union.
