XIII. 29 G. 3. c. 12. WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a Duty upon Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other exciseable Liquors; and for establishing a Method for granting such Licences in Scotland; and for allowing such Licences to be granted at a Petty Session in England, in a certain Case therein mentioned; a Stamp Duty of twenty Shillings is imposed on Licences for selling Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors by Retail, to be raised, levied, collected, and paid throughout Great Britain, in Manner thereby directed; and by another Act, passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty, intituled, *An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Admissions into Corporations or Companies, and for further securing and improving the Stamp Duties in Great Britain, the Provisions in the former Act, for issuing the said Licences, and for raising, levying, collecting, and paying the Duties thereupon, are altered and amended; and by another Act, passed in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty upon Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other exciseable Liquors, an additional Stamp Duty of ten Shillings and Sixpence is granted on the said Licences; and by another Act, passed in the thirty-second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend so much of two Acts, made in the twenty-sixth and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, as relates to the licensing of Alehouses, Keepers and Victuallers; and for better regulating Alehouses, and the Manner of granting such Licences in future; and also of granting Licences to Persons selling Wine to be drunk in their Houses, the said Duty and an additional Duty are extended to Persons selling Foreign Wines or British-made Wines or Sweets by Retail to be drunk in their Houses or Places adjoining thereto; and by another Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Prevention of selling Ale and other Liquors by Persons not duly licensed, so much of the said Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as is therein recited applicable to the pecuniary and corporal Punishment of Persons selling Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors in that Part of Great Britain called England, and Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, is repealed; and by another Act, passed in the forty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Stamp Duties on Cards and Dice; on Probates of Wills; on certain Indentures, Leases, Bonds, or other Deeds; and on Ale Licences; an additional Stamp Duty of ten Shillings and Sixpence is made payable throughout Great Britain on Licences for selling Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors by Retail, by which last mentioned Act the said Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, is extended to Scotland; and it is enacted, that, from and after the first Day of November One thousand eight hundred and one, every Person in Scotland who should keep an Alehouse, Tippling House, or victualling House, or should sell Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors by Retail, except in Fairs, without being licensed thereto according to the Directions of the several Acts now in force, should be liable to the Penalty of twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, which Penalty and Forfeiture should be recovered and applied as by the said Act is directed; An Act for vesting the capital Messuage, with the Appurtenances, situate in Kevin Street, in the City of Dublin, called The Palace of the Archbishop of Dublin at Saint Sepulchre's, in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and for applying the Purchase Money, together with another Sum therein mentioned, in Manner and for the Purposes therein mentioned. [29th June 1804.]

Recital that Archbishop of Dublin in Right of his See is seised of the Palace thereof.

Amount of Di-lapidations
thereon.

‘ W H E R E A S the Right Honourable and most Reverend Father in God Charles Viscount Somerton Lord Archbishop of Dublin, is seised in Right of his See of Dublin, of a capital Mansion House, with the Offices, Gardens, and Appurtenances, situate in Kevin Street, in the Liberty of Saint Sepulchre's, adjacent to the City of Dublin, called or known by the Name of The Palace of the Archbishop of Dublin at Saint Sepulchre's: And whereas since the Death of the most Reverend Robert late Archbishop of Dublin, his Grace's immediate Predecessor, an Account hath been adjusted between the Representatives of the said Robert and the said Charles now Lord Archbishop of Dublin, of the Dilapidations incurred on the said Mansion House, Offices, and the Premises thereunto belonging, and the same hath been ascertained to amount to the Sum of nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds twelve Shillings and seven-pence, Irish Currency, and no more: And whereas the said Mansion House hath of late Years been suffered to go into very great Decay, and cannot be rendered fit for the Habitation of an Archbishop of Dublin without considerable Expence:

And whereas the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Dublin having come to an Agreement with the Representatives of the most Reverend Robert late Archbishop of Dublin, has accepted the Sum of nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds twelve Shillings and seven-pence, to be paid by such Representatives for Dilapidations of such Mansion House and Offices, notwithstanding such Representatives have demanded of the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Dublin the Sum of eight hundred and eighty-five Pounds seven Shillings and ten-pence, as three-fourths of one thousand one hundred and eighty Pounds ten Shillings and five-pence Farthing, for which the said Representatives allege that Certificates were obtained under two Acts of Parliament passed in the tenth Year of King William the Third, and the twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First, notwithstanding the said House and Offices have been left in a very ruinous and neglected Condition, and which Sum of nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds twelve Shillings and seven-pence is entirely inadequate to the Expence necessary to put the said House and Offices in complete Repair, and render the same fit for the Residence of an Archbishop of Dublin: And whereas the Piece of Ground whereon the said Mansion House and Offices now stand is of considerable Extent, and the same, with the Buildings now standing thereon, have been estimated to be of the Value of seven thousand Pounds, Irisb Currency, and the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Dublin not having hitherto resided therein, and being desirous of obtaining some other House for the Residence of himself and his Successors, and the said Piece of Ground being capable of being applied advantageously for the publick Service, it has been proposed, on Behalf of his Majesty, that the same should be purchased for the publick Service at the Price of seven thousand Pounds: And whereas in pursuance of such Proposal an Agreement has been made between the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, on Behalf of his Majesty, and the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Dublin, and reduced into Writing, and signed by three Lords of the said Treasury and the said Lord Archbishop, and bearing Date the fourteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and four, for the Purchase and Sale of the said Mansion House, Offices, and Ground, in case they should be enabled so to do by the Authority of Parliament; and reciting, that upon proper Surveys taken and Calculations made thereon, it hath appeared and been agreed on between them, that a clear Sum of seven thousand Pounds, Irisb Currency, would be a full Price and adequate Consideration for said Mansion House, Offices, and Grounds, and other Purposes herein-mentioned: But inasmuch as this Purchase and Sale cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, it was also agreed, That one Moiety of the Expences of obtaining an Act of Parliament, authorizing such Sale, and directing the Application of the said Purchase Money; should be paid out of the said seven thousand Pounds, and that the other Moiety should be paid by his Majesty's Treasury on Behalf of his Majesty, in addition to the said seven thousand Pounds: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted,

"The Premises of the old Palace, on Payment of its estimated Value, vested in his Majesty, free from Incumbrances, § 1.—Monies received under this Act, shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland, and be applied under the Direction of the Court of Chancery there, in purchasing Ground for erecting a suitable Residence for the Archbishop of Dublin, and a Court House for the Beneficial of the Liberty of Saint Sepulchre's, § 2.—Leafhold Interest in Premises, the Reversion whereof shall be in the Archbishop, may be purchased and the Fee Simple thereof vested in him, § 3.—The new Buildings shall be in the See House of the See of Dublin, and Court House of the Manor of Saint Sepulchre, and so be described in all Writings, &c. § 4.—Court of Chancery may order Payment of Expences in passing and executing the Act, § 5.—Monies paid into the Bank shall be placed out at Interest, § 6.—The Court of Chancery may dispose of Surplus Monies for Use of Archbishop of Dublin, § 7.—In case the Sum paid into the Bank is not sufficient for the Purposes of the Act, Court of Chancery may order how the same shall be made up, § 8.—Succeeding Archbishops' Proportions of Expence in case of an Insufficiency as raised under the Act, § 9.—Cautiers' Receipts sufficient Discharges, § 10, 11."

XII. Saving always to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, (other than and except the King's most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the said Charles Lord Archbishop of Dublin and his Successors in the said See of Dublin, and all Persons claiming or to claim by, from, or under them or any of them) all such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand, of, in, to, or out of the said Mansion House and Premises so authorized to be sold as aforesaid, or any Part or Parts thereof, as they, either, or any of them respectively, had before the passing of this present Act, or might have had or enjoyed in case this Act had not been made.—"Publick Act, § 13."

An Act to amend the Laws for regulating the Linen Manufacture of Ireland.

[10th July 1804.]

WHEREAS by the several Laws for regulating the Linen and Hempen Manufacture in Ireland, the Trustees thereof are empowered to appoint one Inspector General to go from Time to Time through the various Parts of Ireland, or to appoint one such Inspector General to go through the various Parts of the Province of Ulster, one other to go through the other three Provinces; and also to appoint, in case they shall judge it expedient, two Persons jointly to execute the Office of such Inspector General: And whereas, in pursuance thereof, they have appointed two Persons to execute the Office of Inspector General for the Province of Ulster, and two other Persons to execute the Office of Inspector General for the other three Provinces; but they have lately deemed it unnecessary to have two Inspectors General for the Province of Ulster; and it is necessary and expedient, for the better Execution of the Trust reposed in the said Trustees, that the Inspection of the Linen and Hempen Manufacture in Ireland should be new arranged: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if the said Trustees shall think fit to appoint one Inspector General to go from Time to Time through the various Parts of Ireland, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees to appoint one other Person to be Provincial Inspector General for the Province of Ulster, and one other for the Province of Connaught, and one other for the Provinces of Leinster and Munster, during their Will and Pleasure; and every Provincial Inspector so appointed shall perform the Duties, and have all and singular the Powers and Authorities, and be subject to all the Rules and Regulations prescribed by Law for an Inspector General, and shall likewise carry into Execution, within his Province or District, all Orders respecting the said Manufacture which shall from Time to Time be given to him by the Inspector General, and shall from Time to Time make such Enquiries and Returns, respecting the said Manufacture, and the Execution of his Office, as shall be desired by the said Inspector General; and the Person so appointed Inspector General shall perform the Duties, and have all and singular the Powers and Authorities, and be subject to all the Regulations prescribed by Law for an Inspector General.

Trustees of Linen Manufacture may appoint one Inspector General and also Provincial Inspectors General of Linen in certain Counties.

No additional Expence shall be incurred for Provincial Inspectors General.

II. Provided always, That no further or additional Expence shall be incurred by the said Trustees, either by Increase of Salary or otherwise, for such Inspector General of all Ireland, than they are enabled by Law to incur for the First Inspector General of the Provinces of Leinster, Munster, and Connaught; nor any further or additional Expence for the Provincial Inspector of Connaught, than they are enabled by Law to incur for the Second Inspector General of the said three Provinces; nor any further or additional Expence for the Provincial Inspector of Ulster, than they are by Law enabled to incur for the First Inspector General of Ulster; nor any further or additional Expence for the Provincial Inspector of Leinster and Munster, than they are enabled by Law to incur for the Second Inspector General of Ulster; so as that the whole Expences to be incurred for the Inspector General of Ireland, and three Provincial Inspectors as aforesaid, shall not exceed in any one Year the Expences now allowed by Law to be incurred for the two Inspectors General for Ulster, and the two Inspectors General for Leinster, Munster, and Connaught; and that all Inspectors General, and Provincial Inspectors, to be appointed from Time to Time pursuant to this Act, shall be appointed in like Manner, and under the like Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as any Inspector General may now by Law be appointed.

For preventing Frauds in Linen sent to Great Britain, the

III. And whereas it would tend to raise the Credit, and extend the Sale of the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, if a more speedy and satisfactory Redress were given to the Purchasers of Irish Linens, for Damages occasioned by bad Bleaching, or fraudulent or negligent Lappers, or Seal-makers: And whereas Irish Linens sent

' sent to Great Britain may not be discovered or suspected to be damaged, or fraudulently bleached, or lapped, or until after their Arrival there, and such Linens cannot be sent to Dublin to be examined without much Loss and Delay: And whereas no Redres can be given under the present Laws, by the Trustees of the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, for such Damages, nor can any Punishment be inflicted by them on any Sealmaster, or Lapper, in respect of the same unless such Linen shall be examined there: be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or any twelve or more of them, assembled at the Linen Hall in the City of Dublin, to empower their Agent in London, by Writing under their Hands, to receive any Complaints which shall be made there against any Lapper, or Sealmaster in Ireland, for fraudulent, unfound, damaged, or unmerchantable Linens; and the said Agent shall immediately transmit to the Secretary of the said Trustees a Copy of each and every such Complaint so by him received, setting forth the Number of Pieces complained of, and an Account of the Marks and Seals on each Piece, and such Secretary shall enter the same in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and shall cause Notice thereof to be forthwith served personally upon each Lapper or Sealmaster, whose Mark or Name shall be stated in such Complaint to be upon such Piece or Pieces of Linen, either at the House in the City of Dublin, appointed by such Sealmaster, or Lapper, for the Purpose of receiving Notices of Complaints, or in failure of such Appointment, upon the Inspector, in whose District the Parish in which such Sealmaster or Lapper shall reside, or be described in his Appointment to reside, shall be situate, to be by him posted up in some conspicuous Place in such Parish; and in every such Notice a Day, not sooner than twenty Days nor later than forty Days from the Day of such Notice being served, shall be specified, whereon the Complaint therein set forth shall be heard before the Agent of the said Trustees in the City of London.

IV. And be it further enacted, That Proof of the Service of every such Notice, verified upon Oath, setting forth a Copy thereof, describing the Nature of such Service, shall be sent without Delay by the said Secretary to the said Agent, who shall forthwith desire the Attendance of such Number of Merchants, Drapers, Bleachers, or other Persons, skilled in the Linen Manufacture, as he shall think proper, such Number not being more than five nor less than three in the City of London, on the Day so appointed in such Notice for the hearing of the Complaint, and to examine each Piece of Linen complained of, and give their Opinion upon Oath (which Oath any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where such Examination shall take place, is hereby empowered to administer) as to the State and Quality of such Linen, and whether the Sealmaster, or Lapper, has acted improperly, negligently, or fraudulently, in stamping or sealing such Linen; and the Opinion of such Persons so sworn, or the Majority of them, delivered in Writing, and signed by the Persons giving such Opinion, shall be transmitted by such Agent to the said Trustees, and shall be and be deemed and taken to be conclusive Evidence to the said Trustees, of the State and Quality of the Linen so complained of, and of the Conduct of the Lapper, or Sealmaster, in respect thereof, except in Cases of Appeal made in Manner herein-after mentioned; and the said Trustees shall thereupon proceed to determine the said Complaint according to such Opinion, by dismissing the same, or fining the Sealmaster, or Lapper, in such Sum or Sums not exceeding the Sum or Sums allowed by Law, as they the said Trustees shall think proper for his Punishment, and for or towards recompensing the Party injured.

V. Provided always, That such Persons so called upon to give their Opinion as aforesaid, may, if thereunto required by the said Agent, declare likewise upon Oath (which Oath any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace as aforesaid is hereby empowered to administer) their Opinion of the Amount of the Damages sustained by or occasioned to the Complainant, by means of the bad State of the Linen, or the Misconduct of the Sealmaster or Lapper; and that it shall and may be lawful for either of the Parties complained of or complaining, to object to any Person called upon to give his Opinion, and if it shall appear to such Agent upon Oath (which Oath any such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid is hereby empowered to administer) that such Person is particularly interested for either Party, or concerned in the Linens complained of, he shall be set aside, and another called on in his room.

VI. Provided always, That no Complaint as aforesaid shall be received or proceeded upon under this Act, on account of any Linens damaged by Mildew (not being inside Mildew) unless such Complaint shall be made within six Calendar Months after such Linen shall have arrived at the Place of Landing in Great Britain.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person so complained of under the Provisions of this Act, shall think himself or herself aggrieved by the Opinion so given of the State and Quality of the Linen, and the Conduct of the Sealmaster, or Lapper, in respect thereof, it shall be lawful for such Person to lodge an Appeal against such Opinion with the Secretary of the said Trustees, upon his or her first giving Security to the said Trustees in double the Amount of all Fines or Penalties, to which such Person may be liable in respect thereof, for Payment of the same, together with all Damages and Expenses which shall attend the Removal of the Linen, so complained of and examined, to Dublin, and the Loss by Delay, or otherwise, which shall appear to accrue to the Complainant, in case such Opinion so appealed from shall be confirmed; and the said Trustees shall forthwith proceed to hear the said Complaint in the same Manner as if it had been originally made to them, at any Time not sooner than twenty Days after the receiving such Appeal, due Notice being first given to the Complainant of the Time so appointed, and on such Hearing, the Opinion so appealed from shall be laid by the said Trustees before such Persons as shall be sworn to examine into the said Complaint; and Opinions given under the Authority of this Act shall be regularly filed and preserved by the said Trustees, and be open to the Inspection of every Person and Persons desirous of seeing the same.

VIII. And whereas by an Act, passed in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Linen and Hemp Manufactures, it is enacted, That every Person keeping or occupying a Bleach Yard shall mark or stamp, or cause to be marked or stamped, in legible Letters with Lamp Black, or Vermillion, or Stone Blue and Size, his or her Christian Name and Surname and Place of Abode, with the Addition of the Word Bleacher, on

An Act to obviate certain Inconveniencies which have been experienced in the Accountant General's Office in the Court of Chancery, in the Execution of an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for granting a Contribution on the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices. [20th July 1804.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, until the sixth Day of May next after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, a Contribution on the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices, the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery was made answerable, or intended to be made answerable, for the doing all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, were required, or intended to be required, to be done by him: And whereas not only by reason of the Nature of the Office of the said Accountant General, but also of the Extent and Course of the Business of the said Court, it is highly inconvenient if not impracticable, (due Regard being had to the Interest and regular Payment of the Suitors of the said Court), that the said Accountant General should do such Acts, Matters, and Things, and more especially if not authorized so to do by the Order or Orders of the said Court, directing how and in what Manner, and at what Times the same should be done: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Accountant General shall not be answerable for or required to do any of the Acts, Matters, or Things, for the doing whereof he is or was intended to be answerable, or is or was required to do by the said recited Act, unless he shall be required to do the same, by some Order or Orders of the said Court made for that Purpose, and it shall be lawful for the said Court to make any Order or Orders, either General or Special, touching all or any of such Acts, Matters, or Things.

II. And whereas by an Order of the said Court, bearing Date the eighth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and three, it was ordered as follows: "Upon hearing his Majesty's Attorney General, praying the Directions of this Court, in respect of the Manner in which the Accountant General of this Court should retain the Duty upon Dividends of Stock payable under the Orders of this Court, in conformity to the Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, until the sixth Day of May next after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, a Contribution on the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices, it appeared to this Court, that by the said Act, as to such Dividends as by the said Orders of this Court, made or to be made, are payable to Persons or Parties, in such Orders respectively named, the Accountant General is not required by the said Act to retain any Duty thereupon, the Persons or Parties to whom the same are payable appearing to this Court to be liable to be otherwise assessed for the same, as Part of the Income of such Persons or Parties, and this Court doth thereupon order that the Accountant General do draw for the Sums mentioned in such Orders respectively; but it appearing to this Court that in all Cases in which any Orders have been or shall be made for laying out any Dividends due or payable on or after Midsummer Day last, except the Dividends on Bank Stock, South Sea Stock, and East India Stock, in the Purchase of any Stock, that the Duty imposed by the said Act ought to be retained

43 G. 3. c. 122, (See § 77, 78.)

Accountant General shall be answerable only under Order of Court of Chancery.

Order of Court, dated Nov. 8, 1803, respecting the detaining of Duty on Dividends, recited.

Accountant General shall apply Sums retained under such Order, as the Court shall direct.

Accountant General not liable to any Afflictment or Penalty, under recited Act, except on not complying with Order of Court.

Officers of Chancery and the Bank shall obey the Order of the Court.

Compensation may be made by the Treasury, for Trouble occasioned in the Office of the Accountant General.

retained out of the Dividends ordered or to be ordered to be laid out, this Court doth order that the Accountant General shall, until further Order, in all such Cases draw only for so much of the Sums directed by such Orders respectively to be drawn for as shall be the Amount of the same respectively, after deducting the Sum of one Shilling in the Pound, the Duty imposed by the said Act, and that the Sum so to be deducted shall remain in the Bank notwithstanding any Orders as aforesaid, subject to this Court's further Order: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Accountant General shall apply such Sums as have been or shall be retained by virtue of the said Order, to the Use of his Majesty in such Manner as the said Court shall, by any Order or Orders General or Special, direct, and which Order or Orders the said Court is hereby authorized to make for the Purpose of carrying into Effect the Provisions of the said Act as nearly as may be according to the Judgement of the said Court.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, nothing in the said recited Act contained shall be deemed or taken to render or to have rendered the said Accountant General in any Manner whatsoever, or to any Intent whatsoever, answerable for, or to be or to have been liable to any Afflictment, Charge, Penalty, or Demand whatsoever, for or in respect of the doing or having done, or the omitting or neglecting to do, or the having omitted or neglected to do any Act, Matter, or Thing which the said Accountant General was required to do or made answerable for, or was intended to be required to do or made answerable for, by the said recited Act, except so far as the said Accountant General shall have refused or neglected to obey or comply, or shall refuse or neglect to obey or comply, with any Order or Orders heretofore or hereafter to be made by the said Court as aforesaid, in respect of any Acts, Matters, or Things required by the said Act to have been done, or to be done by the said Accountant General.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, to the Intent more effectually to enable the said Court to carry into Effect any Order or Orders thereof, touching any Acts, Matters, or Things, required by the said recited Act, or which the said Court is hereby enabled to make, the said Accountant General, and all other Officers of the said Court of Chancery, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, are respectively hereby required duly to perform and execute all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as by them respectively shall, in or by any Order or Orders of the said Court, be required to be performed or executed, touching any Acts, Matters, or Things, required by the said recited Act.

V. And whereas it is reasonable that Compensation should be made for the Trouble and Expence which may be occasioned in the Office of the Accountant General by the Execution of the several Matters required to be done by the said recited Acts or this Act, and that the same should not be made out of the Money belonging to the Suitors of the said Court; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Great Seal, or the Master of the Rolls, for the Time being, to certify to the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time, what Sums shall appear to them respectively to be reasonable to be allowed, and to what Person or Persons in respect of such Trouble or Expence as aforesaid; and that it shall be thereupon lawful for the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to give such Directions as may be necessary for the Payment thereof, or any Part thereof, out of any of the Sums of Money charged or chargeable under the said recited Act or this Act, and to be raised out of any Dividends of Funds under the Management of the said Court of Chancery; and which Directions all Persons concerned are hereby authorized and required to obey.

C A P. LXXXVIII.

An Act for explaining and amending several Acts relating to Hackney Coaches employed as Stage Coaches, and for indemnifying the Owners of Hackney Coaches who have omitted to take out Licences, pursuant to an Act made in the Twenty-fifth Year of his present Majesty.

[20th July 1804.]

82 G. 3, c. 49,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Policies of Insurances, and for reducing the Allowance to be made in respect of the Prompt Payment of the Stamp Duties on Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other excisable Liquors, and for explaining and amending several Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs; so far as the same relates to Hackney Coaches, it is recited, that a great Number of Persons, licensed by the Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches to use and keep for Hire Hackney Coaches, regularly used and employed the same as itated Stages to and from different Towns and Places in the Neighbourhood of the Cities of London and Westminster and the Borough of Southwark, as well within the Bills of Mortality as without, which was of great publick Utility and Convenience; and it is also recited that a Doubt had arisen whether, by the Laws then in force relating to Hackney Coaches, such Persons being licensed in the usual and general Form were not compellable to do the ordinary Work of Hackney Coaches, and to carry Fares for Hire to any Parts or Places within the Cities of London or Westminster, or within the Distance of ten Miles thereof, which would be attended not only with great Inconvenience to the Inhabitants of such Towns and Places, but might also be a great lessening to his Majesty's Revenue arising from Hackney Coaches; it was by the same recited Act declared, that, from and after the passing thereof, the said Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches, or any other Person or Persons having Authority to put any of the Laws in Execution concerning licensed Hackney Coachmen, their Renters, or their Drivers, should not be compelled or compellable to fine or punish any licensed Hackney Coachman, his Renter, or Driver, for refusing to carry a Fare out of the ordinary Course of his Stage Work or Duty, who should regularly use and employ his Coach so licensed as a Stage Coach to and from any of the Towns or Places in the Neighbourhood of the said Cities of London and Westminster, and who should also, by painting in legible Characters on the Door of such Coach, or by a Board to be painted in legible Characters on the Door of such Coach, plainly denote and distinguish the same to be a Stage Coach to and from any such Town or Place; any Thing in the said therein recited Act, or in any other Act relating to Hackney Coaches, to the contrary notwithstanding; And whereas an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Licences taken out by Persons letting Horses for the Purpose of travelling Post, and on Horses let to Hire for travelling Post and by Time, and on Stage Coaches, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and also additional Duties on Horses let to Hire for travelling Post and by Time: And whereas certain Duties in the same Act specified in lieu of the Duties by the said recited Act repealed were thereby granted on Persons who should keep any Carriage in the said recited Act described, and among others the Sum of five Shillings to be paid annually for a Licence for that Purpose, and also one Penny for every Mile such Carriage should travel; and such Duties were thereby placed under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties: And whereas it was thereby further enacted and declared, that nothing therein contained should extend or be construed to extend to any Horses used in Hackney Coaches licensed pursuant to several Acts of Parliament made for that Purpose, where the Horses drawing such Hackney Coaches should be employed to go no greater Distance than ten Miles from the Cities of London or Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof: And whereas a certain Penalty of ten Pounds for each Offence is by the said last recited Act imposed on Persons who should keep any such Carriages as therein described to be employed as publick Stage Coaches without having first obtained a Licence according to the Provisions of the said Act: And whereas an Act passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty on Stage Coaches, whereby an additional Duty of one Penny per Mile was charged on the Owner or Owners of every Coach or other Carriage therein described to be employed as publick Stage Coaches: And whereas a great Number of Persons, licensed by the said Commissioners to use and keep for Hire Hackney Coaches, regularly use and employ the same as itated Stages to and from different Towns and Places in the Neighbourhood of the Cities of London and Westminster, some of which Towns and Places are within and others without the Weekly Bills of Mortality: And whereas it is also of great Convenience to the Persons residing in the said Cities of London and Westminster, and the Towns, Villages, and Places in the Neighbourhood thereof, to be conveyed to and from the same at an easy Expence by Means of such licensed itated Stages under proper Regulations: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether, under and by virtue of the several Acts herein-before recited, or either of them, the Owners of Hackney Coaches, licensed by the Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches, are liable, when employed or let out as Stage Coaches for conveying Passengers for Hire to and from different Places, to the annual Duty of five Shillings for a Licence, and the several Duties of one Penny and additional Duty of one Penny, in the said recited Acts respectively mentioned, for every Mile such Carriage shall travel, or to any or either of such Duties: And whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and it be enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches for the Time being, with the Approbation and under the Authority of the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, for any three or more of them, for the Time being, to license, authorize, and empower such and so many of the Owners of Hackney Coaches licensed or to be licensed by the said Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches, as shall from Time to Time appear to the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, on the Representation of the said Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches, to be necessary, to ply for Hire, and to use and employ, as publick statted Stages, such their licensed Hackney Coaches to and from any such Towns, Villages, or Places in the Neighbourhood of and to such Distances from the said Cities of London and Westminster and the Borough of Southwark, as well with in as without the Weekly Bills of Mortality, under and subject nevertheless to such Regulations and Restrictions as shall be required by the said Lords Commissioners in that Behalf: Provided always, that the Owners or Renters of such licensed Hackney Coaches do plainly denote and distinguish such their respective Coaches to be statted Stages to and from such Town, Village, or Place for which they shall be respectively licensed as aforesaid, by painting the same in legible Characters on the Door or other conspicuous and open Part of such their several and respective Coaches.

II. And whereas all or most of the Owners or Keepers of Hackney Coaches licensed by the said Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches used and employed as Stage Coaches to and from the said Cities of London and Westminster and the Borough of Southwark, and the Suburbs thereof, have omitted to take out the annual Licence required, by the said recited Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to be taken out by those keeping Coaches or other Carriages employed as publick Stage Coaches or Carriages; and Doubts have arisen whether by such Omision they have not rendered themselves liable to the Penalty in the said recited Acts mentioned; be it therefore further enacted and declared, That no Owner or Keeper of any such Hackney Coach or Coaches, who shall have been licensed by the said Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches, shall be, or be deemed, construed, or taken to be subject or liable to the said Penalty, although he, she, or they, shall have kept, used, and employed any such Hackney Coach as a publick Stage Coach for the Purpose of carrying Passengers for Hire to and from different Places within the Distance of ten Miles from the said Cities of London and Westminster, and shall have let out such Coach for such Purpose as aforesaid, without having first obtained a Licence under the Hands of two of the Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or some Person duly authorized by them; and all Persons against whom any Prosecution or Proceeding shall have been or shall be laid for any such Penalty, or in relation thereto, shall be and are hereby indemnified; any Thing contained in the said recited Acts or any other Act now in force, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Cap. vi.

An Act to enable John Boydell Esquire, one of the Aldermen of the City of London, and Josiah Boydell, his Nephew and Partner, to dispose of their Collection of Paintings, Drawings, and Engravings, together with their Leasehold Premises in Pall Mall, called the Shakspere Gallery, by way of Chance. [23d March 1804.]

WHEREAS John Boydell Esquire, one of the Aldermen of the City of London, in the early Part of his Life conceived a Plan for bringing the Arts of Painting and Engraving to Perfection in this Country, and being flattered by the great Success attending his Prosecution of it, did, in order to the pursuing thereof, resolve, in Conjunction with his Nephew and Partner Josiah Boydell, to form a School of Painting

Painting and Engraving, not doubting, by its Superiority of Excellence, it would eventually become a National Concern and Honour: And whereas in furtherance of this laudable Design, the said John and Josiah Boydell have, at a very considerable Expence, promoted and encouraged the Arts of Painting and Engraving, and for several Years past given great Encouragement to the Artists therein, and thereby materially contributed to the securing to this Country a Pre-eminence in those Arts over all other Nations: And whereas the said John and Josiah Boydell in the Course of this Pursuit, besides various other large Works, have published in a most splendid Manner the Plays of Shakspeare, ornamented with Engravings from Pictures by English Artists; and as a Repository for such Pictures, and the exhibiting the fame with their other Works, they have erected a Building in Pall Mall in the Parish of Saint James, within the Liberty of Westminster, called The Shakspeare Gallery, at a considerable Expence; and in completing that Establishment, in Addition to their former and other Works, have so extended their Concerns, and increased the Size, Value, and Expence of their Collection of Paintings, Drawings, and Engravings, that they are become of too great Magnitude for them to retain: And whereas it may not at this Time be deemed expedient to purchase the same as a National Concern for the Use and Benefit of the Publick, and the said Collection cannot easily be disposed of by the common Mode of Sale, but at a very great Loss; and that, unless some Encouragement under the Sanction of Parliament, be given to the aforesaid John and Josiah Boydell, to enable them to dispose of their said Collection to the best Advantage, their Endeavours to serve the Publick will prove highly detrimental and injurious to themselves: In order therefore that the said John and Josiah Boydell may be enabled to dispose of their said Collection of Paintings, Drawings, and Engravings, and also of the said Building called The Shakspeare Gallery, to the best Advantage; may it please your Majesty (at the humble Petition of the said John and Josiah Boydell.) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said John and Josiah Boydell, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of the said Collection, and the several Pieces composing the same, together with all and singular their Estate and Interest in the said Building and Premises called The Shakspeare Gallery, by way of Chance, without being liable or subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament, against any Sale or Sales by way of Lottery, or by Lots, Tickets, Numbers, or Figures; and that such Sale or Sales so to be made by the said John and Josiah Boydell, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of the said Collection, Estate, and Premises, and of the several Pieces composing the same Collection, subject only to the Terms, Provisions, and Restrictions herein-after mentioned, shall be good and valid; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

“ Sum to be raised limited to 69,300. and the Number of Tickets 22,000; Price of each three Guineas, § 2.
 “ —Notice shall be given in the Gazette, of the Intention to sell; and a List of the Articles allotted as Prizes, “ shall be published in the London Newspapers, § 3.—Trustees appointed, in whom the Collection, &c. is “ vested, § 4. 5.”

VI. “ And whereas the said John and Josiah Boydell have laid out and expended the Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds and upwards in their Stock of Copper Plates; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons who may become possessed of any of the Paintings or Drawings in the said Collection whereof the said John and Josiah Boydell shall have any Copper Plate at the Time of such Lottery, to engrave, etch, work, or copy the same for Sale, or cause or suffer or permit the same to be engraved, etched, worked, or copied, or to cause or suffer or permit any Drawing to be made of any such Painting for the Purpose of making or having made, or permitting to be made, any Engraving or Etching therefrom, within such respective Periods of Time as they the said John and Josiah Boydell, are by Law now entitled to the Copy Right of, in, and to the same Works respectively, unless with the Consent in Writing of the said John and Josiah Boydell, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, for that Purpose, first had and obtained in the Manner prescribed and directed by the several Acts now in force concerning the same; and that all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the several Acts made and now in force for securing the Property of Prints to Inventors and Engravers, shall be and remain in full Force as to any Persons offending against such Acts, as fully and effectually as if this Act had not been made; and that the said John and Josiah Boydell, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding whatsoever, that may be commenced, instituted, or had for the enforcing any of the Provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, against any Person who shall have offended therein, shall be deemed and taken to be the Proprietors of such Painting or Paintings, Drawing or Drawings, Copper Plate or Copper Plates, as aforesaid, for the Purpose of recovering any such Penalties or Forfeitures, or of enforcing any of the Provisions of the said several Acts, or any of them.

“ The Collection, &c. shall be divided into Prizes, to be determined by the Drawing of the first sixty-two “ Tickets in any such State Lottery consisting of 22,000 Tickets, or upwards, drawn before June 1, 1805, as “ shall be chosen by said John and Josiah Boydell by 42 Days Notice in the London Gazette, § 7. (See the Schedule.)—Messrs. Boydell may have the Prizes drawn by a separate Lottery with Consent of the Treasury, “ before 1 September 1805, § 8.—Messrs. Boydell may receive the Money arising from the Exhibition till the “ Prizes are determined, § 9.—Publick Act, § 10.”

XI. ‘ And whereas the said Fund called The Orphans’ Fund, was established by and for the Purposes mentioned in an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, ‘ An Act for the Relief of Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London; and the Receipts and Disbursements of the said Fund are under the Management and Direction of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City; and by several Acts passed in the twenty-first and twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of King ‘ George the Second, in the seventh and eighteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and the said
 ‘ recited Acts of the thirty-fifth, thirty-ninth and fortieth, and forty-second Years of the same Reign, or by
 ‘ some of them, the said Fund has been continued and augmented, and divers Sums of Money charged thereon
 ‘ for defraying the Expences of several publick Works: And whereas a Part of the said Orphans’ Fund consists ‘ of the clear Annual Sum of eight thousand Pounds, by the said Act of the sixth and seventh Years of ‘ the Reign of King William and Queen Mary charged for ever upon all the Estates and Revenues of the ‘ Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, except as therein excepted, and a further Part
 ‘ of the said Orphans’ Fund consists of the Sum of Sixpence for every Chaldron of all Coals or Culm usually ‘ sold by the Chaldron imported into the Port of London, or Members thereof, and of a like Duty of Sixpence
 ‘ for every Ton of such Coals sold by the Ton and so imported; and the said Act directed that the said Im‘ position of Sixpence should continue from the twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand seven hundred,
 ‘ for the Term of fifty Years; and by the before-mentioned Act of the twenty-first Year of the Reign of ‘ King George the Second the same was further continued for a Term of thirty-five Years, from the Expiration ‘ of the said Term of fifty Years; and from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand seven ‘ hundred and fifty, the Estates and Revenues of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens were by the ‘ same last-mentioned Act charged towards the said Fund with the Yearly Sum of two thousand Pounds, over
 ‘ and above the said yearly Sum of eight thousand Pounds; and by the said Act of the seventh Year of the ‘ Reign of his present Majesty the said Imposition of Sixpence for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals or Culm
 ‘ was continued for a further Term of forty-six Years from the Expiration of the said Term of thirty-five

 ‘ Fund, with the full Yearly Sum of one thousand five hundred Pounds, over and above the said several yearly
 ‘ Sums of eight thousand Pounds and two thousand Pounds: And whereas the Surpluses of the said Orphans’
 ‘ Fund have been from Time to Time applied, according to the Directions of the several Acts made and passed
 ‘ concerning the same, and thereby the Capital Debt due to the Orphans and other Creditors of the said City

 ‘ July last, reduced to the Sum of seven hundred and eighty-five thousand three hundred Pounds, and (com‘ puting the future Surpluses on an Average of the last six Years,) the whole might be expected to be paid ‘ off and discharged by the fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, if no further Charge or ‘ Incumbrance should be made thereon: And whereas, if the said Imposition of Sixpence for every Chaldron
 ‘ of Coals or Culm, and the said yearly Sum of one thousand five hundred Pounds, charged on the Estates and ‘ Revenues of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens be further continued to the fifth Day of July one ‘ thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, the Surplus of the said Fund will (it is computed) be sufficient to ‘ pay off the said further Charge of one hundred thousand Pounds, as well as the whole of the Debt and ‘ Sums of Money before charged thereon, within the Time for which the said Fund would be so continued as ‘ last-mentioned; be it therefore further enacted, That, for and towards rendering the said Fund sufficient and ‘ effectual to pay off and discharge, not only the Principal and Interest of the Debt remaining due to the Orphans
 ‘ and other Creditors of the said City of London, but likewise of the Monies charged thereon by this present
 ‘ Act; and also to pay and redeem the Annuities which will be payable in respect of the Monies so hereby ‘ charged on the said Fund, and raised or borrowed on the Credit thereof, the said Imposition of Sixpence for ‘ every Chaldron or Ton of Coals or Culm, fo by the said Act of the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of King
 ‘ William and Queen Mary granted during a Term of fifty Years, and by the said Act of the twenty-first Year
 ‘ of the Reign of King George the Second further continued for a Term of thirty-five Years; and by the said
 ‘ Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty further continued for a Term of forty-six Years, ‘ shall be and the same is hereby continued for a further Term of five Years and three Quarters of a Year from
 ‘ the Expiration of the said Term of forty-six Years; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions,
 ‘ and Provisions, contained in the same three Acts, or either of them, for the collecting, levying, and recovering
 ‘ of the said Imposition, and all the Penalties thereby imposed, and Regulations therein respectively made for

VII. And, in order the better to enable the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Leicester, from Time to Time to assess and tax rateably, according to the Annual Rent or Value, all Estates within each and every Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place, and other Place within the said County of Leicester, for and towards the County Rate for the said County; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said County, at the End of twenty-one Years from the passing of this Act, and so from Time to Time at the End of every successive twenty-one Years, in all Time to come if they shall judge fit, at their Michaelmas General Quarter Sessions assembled, upon six Calendar Months' previous Notice being given in the London Gazette, and in some one Newspaper printed within or usually circulated in the said County, if any such there shall be, to make a new Rate and Assessment upon each and every Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place, and other Place within the said County, for and towards the County Rate for the said County, according to such Estimate or Return of the just and fair Annual Rent or Value of the Estates within such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place, and other Place respectively, as the said Justices shall be able to procure from the like Returns, which are by this Act required to be referred to as aforesaid, or from or by any such other Ways or Means as the said Justices shall deem necessary or expedient for procuring an Estimate or Return of the just and fair Annual Rent or Value of all or any of the Estates within each and every Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place, and other Place within the said County, and to order such Allowance and Compensation to be made to the Chief Constables and other Persons within the several Districts and Divisions in the said County, for their Expenses and Trouble in making, procuring, and collecting the same, as to the said Justices shall appear reasonable and proper; and that all such Allowance, Compensation, and other Expenses as shall be thereby incurred, shall be paid out of the County Rate for the said County of Leicester.

General Appeal

IX. And be it further enacted, That in any Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place, or other Place in the said County of Leicester, where no Rate is or shall be made and collected for the Relief of the Poor, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace for the said County, in their General Quarter Sessions assembled, to order and direct the Sum of Money which shall from Time to Time be assessed as or for the County Rate, upon such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place or other Place, to be rated and levied on the Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers of Lands therein, by such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers (to whom the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division shall give the Notice hereinafter mentioned for Payment of such Rate) in such and the same Manner as any Rate for the Relief of the Poor is by Law directed to be rated or levied, which Sum so rated and levied shall be paid by such one or more Inhabitant or Occupier, or Inhabitants or Occupiers, to the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division wherein such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place, or other Place doth lie, within the Space of ten Days after Demand thereof made in Writing, to be given to such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, or left at his, her, or their Dwelling House or Houses, by the said Chief Constable of such Hundred or Division, which Demand the said Chief Constable is hereby required to make at such Times as the said Justices of the Peace shall by their Order in Sessions direct; and in case such one or more Inhabitant or Occupier, or Inhabitants or Occupiers, shall neglect or refuse to pay the Sum or Sums so assessed, as or for a County Rate, after Demand made as aforesaid, such Chief Constable shall and is hereby empowered to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers for refusing or neglecting to pay the same as aforesaid, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County of Leicester, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Money assessed, and the Charges of the Distress and Sale, to the Owner or Owners thereof;

How Rate shall be levied where there is no Poor Rate.

and if such one or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, shall pay such Sum before the same shall be so by him rated and levied as aforesaid, he, she, or they, may afterwards rate and levy the same, or shall and may be allowed and reimbursed the said Sum of Money by a Rate made or to be made upon all and every the Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers of Lands, within such Parish, Township, Liberty, Precinct, Hamlet, extraparochial Place or other Place, which any two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County shall order and direct, and shall be subject and liable to the same Powers and Remedies for the Recovery thereof by Distress and Sale, in Cases of Non-payment, as are hereinbefore given to the Chief Constable.

X. And whereas it will be very inconvenient and oppressive to many Townships, Liberties, Hamlets, or Places in the said County of Leicester, that the Sum of Money which shall be assessed as for the County Rate under this Act, should be paid out of any Rate made for the Relief of the Poor, where such Poor Rate doth not apply separately and distinctly to the Parish, Township, Liberty, Hamlet, or Place; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace of the said County, at their General Quarter Sessions assembled, if they shall think convenient, to order the Sum of Money directed to be assessed as or for the County Rate on any such Parish, Township, Liberty, Hamlet, or Place, to be paid by and levied on the Churchwardens, Overseers, or Petty Constables of or for any such Parish, Township, Liberty, Hamlet, or Place, in such Manner as the same is herein directed to be paid and levied in Cases where no Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor; any Thing herein contained, or any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted and declared, That all the Powers and Authorities in and by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more easily assessing, collecting and levying the County Rates; and all other existing Laws relating to County Rates, shall be and continue in full Force and Effect (except where altered by this Act) with respect to the said County of Leicester; and that all such Powers and Authorities shall be used and exercised in the Execution of this Act.

“Expences of this Act to be paid out of the County Rate, § 12.—Limitation of Actions. Twenty-one Days Notice. Tender six Months. Venue in the County. General Issue. Treble Coits, § 13.”

XIV. Provided always nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any Jurisdiction to the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Leicester, over any Parishes or Places within the Borough of Leicester, which before the passing of this Act were subject to the Rates in the Nature of County Rates, imposed and assessed by the Justices of the Peace for the Borough of Leicester, but that the Jurisdiction of the said Justices of the Peace for the said County of Leicester, and of the said Justices of the Peace for the said Borough of Leicester respectively, shall remain unprejudiced and unaffected by this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.
