REMEDIAL MARRIAGE BILL IN QUEBEC

Legislature to Legalize Thousands of Unions

Law Passed in 1829 Must Be Changed

Quebec, Jan. 20.—Because a law passed in 1829 providing that only clergymen who were British subjects might perform marriage ceremonies in the Province of Quebec was never amended, thousands of people in this province who were married in good faith before clergymen are not legally wedded. Remedial legislation, it is understood, will be put through the Legislature this session to deal with the matter.

In 1829 Quebec was known as Lower Canada and was governed by the Constitutional Act of 1791. When Confederation came in 1867 no change was made in the statute regarding marriages. Since that time nobody ever bothered about the matter until a few days ago, when matters were brought to a head by the Unitarian clergyman in Montreal being refused a register for 1922 because he "was not a British subject."

Prompt Action. Quebec was immediately communicated with and the situation is now to be dealt with by the Government. The officials who refused the Unitarian clergyman said that they did so on instructions from Charles Lacombe, Registration Assistant Attorney-General of the province, who was obliged to interpret the law from a legal standpoint.

The law applies to Protestants as well as Roman Catholics. SUPPORTING LEAGUE. Hamilton, Jan. 20.—Mayor Copley announced that a local branch of the League of Nations Association had been organized and charter members appointed.

POWERS LOOK TO CHINA AND JAPAN TO AGREE

Washington, Jan. 20.—The Shantung question must, and probably will, be settled between China and Japan, and can not be taken up by the International Conference, Senator Underwood, of Alabama, one of the American delegates, declared in the Senate today during a discussion of the controversy.

Ministers Return to Ottawa to Meet Monday

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—(Canadian Press)—Premier King returned to Ottawa this morning from Toronto and is expected to be joined here within the next day or so by members of the Cabinet who, having received acclamations yesterday, are freed from further attendance in their constituencies. Hon. Charles Stewart and Hon. J. H. King are both expected to arrive from the west within the next week or so.

Dr. King, it is stated, has been offered the portfolio of Public Works, and on his arrival here he will confer with Premier King as to his acceptance. Following the conference, Dr. King with Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, and the subsequent offer to open East Kootenay for the incoming Minister, it is expected that the announcement of the by-election will be made shortly after Dr. King reaches Ottawa.

Gazetted. Ottawa, Jan. 20.—(Canadian Press)—By Saturday next all the members of the new Parliament, with the exception of ten, will have been gazetted. Gazetting of members from their constituencies has been held up either by accounts or by the difficulty in getting returns. The names of the ten constituencies are as follows: Comox-Alberni, B.C.; Skeena, B.C.; Vancouver South; West Edmonton; Macleod, Alberta; Battleford, Sask.; Victoria, Ont.; Drummond and Arthabaska, Quebec; Yamaska, Quebec, and the Yukon.

Icebreaker. Ottawa, Jan. 20.—(Canadian Press)—The fate of the contract for an icebreaker issued by the Meighen administration to the Canadian Vickers, Montreal, which was held up by the new Government, will not be definitely settled before Monday or Tuesday of next week, it was learned this morning. The necessity of the Ministers being in their constituencies for the nominations has slightly delayed several matters, but it is understood that the icebreaker problem will be one of the first questions dealt with when the Cabinet meets on Monday.

As an alternative to the construction of the proposed vessel the Government is considering the advisability of purchasing from the French Government the ship sold to the Russian Government in the early years of the war.

The City Comptroller. Mr. Pringle asked the Comptroller a list of questions when the probe commenced, and these Mr. Raymur answered briefly and to the point after he had been sworn.

"You say that it is impossible to pay for sinking funds and interest borrowing from the bank?" Mr. Pringle asked.

"Most decidedly," Mr. Raymur answered as he went on to explain the present system of borrowing money early in the year to pay running expenses until the taxes were collected later. "Before the war we credited money reserves for sinking funds, as distinguished from ordinary revenue," Mr. Pringle asked.

"Certainly," the Comptroller replied.

The Diversion Clause. Mr. Pringle then produced copies of the British Columbia Municipal Act and various amendments to it and asked Comptroller whether he was familiar with them. These amendments provide that all moneys collected by any municipality for sinking fund purposes shall be used for the purposes for which they were collected and shall be five years; and that a City Treasurer may absolve himself from responsibility in this connection by showing that he has written to the Council warning against improper disposal of sinking funds. After the Finance Committee read all these provisions carefully, Mr. Raymur stated that he was familiar with them.

"The Act is a little confusing," Mr. Pringle remarked. "What methods were taken after you were aware in 1919 of the amendments to the Act relating to segregation of sinking funds?" Mr. Pringle asked.

"The same course was followed as before," Mr. Raymur answered.

"Please explain for record the distinction between the diversion of sinking funds and the diversion in sinking funds," the Senator proceeded.

"As I understand it, diversion is when money actually in the sinking funds is taken out and deliberately spent on something else," Mr. Raymur stated.

Questions On Auditing. "Previous to 1919 what was the method of auditing?" was Mr. Pringle's next question.

"I would prefer to allow the auditor to explain that," said the Comptroller.

Mr. Pringle: Prior to 1919 was your attention drawn to the question of

FEDERAL AID FOR VETERANS

Ottawa Measure of Assistance For the Needy Requirements to Be Considered by Cabinet

Toronto, Jan. 20.—"No war veteran must starve." These were the instructions of Hon. H. S. Bland, Minister of Soldiers' Re-establishment, to representatives of War Veterans' Association who interviewed him this week in search of relief for destitute members of their organizations. They have been acted upon since Tuesday, with the result that veterans who could not be assisted by relief organizations are now being taken care of.

The temporary measures, however, will not be extended beyond Saturday, according to present arrangements, but there is every likelihood that some system of doles will be decided upon for these men for the remainder of the winter.

Relief. At the present time veterans are being taken care of by the House of Industry and the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, but there was another large class who were not eligible for relief from these sources and when Hon. James Murdock and Dr. Bland heard of their predicament they told the representatives of the organizations who visited them to distribute relief and the Federal Government would stand the expense until a Cabinet meeting could be held to consider upon something of a definite character.

TORONTO TRUST COMPANY REPORTS A RECORD YEAR

The liquid position of the National Trust is strong, as shown by its call on the Board of Directors, and the company has a surplus of $1,937,303.

ALLEGED CHINESE VEGETABLES SOLD

Farmers' Institutes of District Amet Criticism of Victoria Public at Meeting

Advisability of the convention organizing a district association, and endeavoring to federate with other organizations on the Island, to secure uniform action where the problems are general was urged on the annual conference of the Farmers' Institute for District A (Vancouver Island), by C. E. Whitney Griffiths, Dr. Warnock, representative of the district on the central advisory board of the province.

Mr. Griffiths expressed the hope that the Farmers' Institutes would lay down a policy for the improvement of agricultural conditions which would draw to the support of the Island, and that the whole matter was in the hands of the Dominion Government.

The report favored another effort to secure progress credit loans for settlers, expressed satisfaction at the continuation of the stumping powder policy, and stated that the Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Dr. Warnock, had in hand the issue of clearing of specific areas by arrangement with groups of settlers.

Allegation Against Market. Members decided to send a message to the Victoria City Council protesting against the selling of Chinese produce alleged to be going on in the public market.

Delegates asserted that the practice of selling Oriental vegetables and other stuff was practically being winked at by the civic authorities. F. C. Blake of Metchoin said that the practice has become so common that if one man protests against it, such as he has done, he has four or five times as many interested in the market against him as those who will back him up to have the law carried out.

It was alleged that quantities of Chinese stuff are brought into the market and sold as the produce of white farmers.

Oriental. South Saanich delegates brought forward a resolution opposing the entrance of Orientals into the public schools of Victoria. The same delegates advocated using pressure on the Government in the matter of getting the Federal Government to take over all education so as to equalize taxation and reduce it.

"We have not yet realized that six per cent of the birth rate of British Columbia is Japanese," said Mr. Van der Byl of Metchoin.

"I think it poor business when wholesale vegetable dealers have to go to Chinamen to find out the selling price of vegetables," said Mr. Blake. Mr. Whitney-Griffiths asked whether the whole Oriental question as it affects farmers is not in the hands of the Government.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA; POPE BENEDICT XV.

Rome, Jan. 20.—Pope Benedict XV. is still showing resistance against the progress of his malady.

ROME, JAN. 20.—Pope Benedict's condition was grave this evening, but the pneumonia had not spread further, it was announced.

The Pontiff's temperature was given at this hour as 101, pulse 104, respiration 60.

Rome, Jan. 20.—Dr. Battistini, in confirming the gravity of the Pope's condition and declaring the only hope was in supernatural intervention, said His Holiness was threatened with suffocation owing to the excessively high respiration.

Rome, Jan. 20, 6 p.m.—Pope Benedict at this hour is still showing resistance against the progress of his malady.

Rome, Jan. 20, 5:10 p.m.—The condition of Pope Benedict remains stationary, it was stated at the Vatican late this afternoon. Camphor injections are being frequently resorted to. His Holiness recognizes those around him.

Paris, Jan. 20.—The Papal Nunciature here received a telegram from Rome shortly after 5 o'clock this afternoon saying that Pope Benedict was sinking rapidly.

At Noon. Rome, Jan. 20.—Pope Benedict's life hangs in the balance to-day and few are surprised by the news that at noon that His Holiness was in a dying condition.

During the early hours of this morning, towards 4 a.m., there was a sudden change for the worse and the bronchial affection from which His Holiness had been suffering for several days spread to his lungs.

The Pontiff asked for and received the Last Sacrament, insisting upon this "if only to give a good example," he said, despite attempts by his attendants to dissuade him.

Not Hopeless. The Pope's physicians were in consultation at the Vatican at an early hour and the morning bulletin afterward indicated an extremely serious condition. Dr. Battistini, however, stated that while the condition of His Holiness was grave, it was not hopeless.

About 11 o'clock in the forenoon, however, the Pope's condition became aggravated and the administration of oxygen was begun. At 1:30 o'clock the Eucharist was solemnly prayed to him.

Meanwhile prayers were being said in all the churches and Catholic institutions of a Christianization of the Holy Spirit, and great crowds began to assemble in St. Peter's.

A Surprise. To-day's sudden change for the worse in the Pontiff's condition seemed to have come as a great surprise even to those who had been observing him most closely. Last evening he received some strengthening injections, and the doctors then stated they were satisfied with his condition, expressing hope that an extension of the inflammation to the lungs had passed and saying that the crisis appeared to be overcome.

Oxygen Administered. One of the most disturbing conditions that developed early 65-day session of the Pontiff's mind was that he was passing away after 10 o'clock this morning, as the Pontiff was then able to expectorate slightly. This aroused more hope among the watchers, but towards 11 o'clock he became worse again, and oxygen then was administered.

Upon leaving the papal apartment, the Cardinals who administered Extreme Unction said the Pope's mind was perfectly clear, but that his condition was so grave that only a miracle could save him.

Physicians' Statement. Rome, Jan. 20.—An official bulletin issued this morning on the condition of Pope Benedict read: "His Holiness has been ill for four days, with influenza and bronchitis. It is stated that the inflammatory process has spread to the right lung. The patient passed an agitated night and had no sleep. This morning the dyspnea is intense.

"The temperature was 104, the pulse 102 and the respiration 58. (Signed) 'BATTISTINI, CHERUBINI, BIGNAMI, MARCHIAFAVA.'"

Difficult Breathing. Rome, Jan. 20.—The condition of Pope Benedict this morning was described as grave. The inflammation, which had been confined to the bronchial tubes had extended to the right lung. The Pontiff's respiration is becoming difficult.

Professor Bignami was called at 3 a.m. when the change in condition became marked. He returned again at 10 o'clock with Prof. Marchiafava and they went into consultation with Dr. Battistini and Dr. Cherubini. Afterwards a bulletin signed by all was issued, reading:

"His Holiness passed a sleepless agitated night. The inflammation has reached the right lung. Respiration is difficult. Temperature 100, pulse 102, respiration 64."

Change for Worse. It was about 4 o'clock this morning that the change for the worse in the Pope's condition occurred. It was especially due to catarrh which had spread to both lungs, to inability to expectorate and to pulmonary inflammation. It was stated, Professor Cherubini, who had been waiting to expectorate at the Vatican, was immediately summoned. He found the Pope mentally depressed and panting for breath. Realizing the patient's serious condition, Dr. Cherubini administered sedatives and expectorants, but the beneficial effects anticipated did not manifest themselves. In view of the gravity of the situation, Dr. Cherubini sent an urgent call to Professor Bignami.

A Consultation. Professor Bignami the evening before had remarked upon the absence of a cough checking expectation and consequently was not surprised by the developments. After a brief inspection of the patient he left to bring Professor Marchiafava, with whom he shortly afterward consulted in the Vatican.

Communion. His Holiness received communion, administered by Papal Sacristan Zampini. The Eucharist was solemnly carried to Pope Benedict at 11:30 o'clock and in the presence of eighteen Cardinals the Holy Sacrament was placed in the Palatine Chapel. Prayers were said in the Catholic schools. All business at the Vatican was suspended.

Prayer. London, Jan. 20.—Cardinal Giorzi, the Apostolic Plenipotentiary, was summoned to Pope Benedict's bedside at 8 o'clock this morning, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Rome, to recite the prayer for the dying.

TROOPS MOVED FROM IRELAND

Ships Carry Soldiers and Police to England

Dublin, Jan. 20.—All the auxiliary police except two battalions have now left Ireland. These two will leave to-morrow.

To-day the evacuation of the army in Ireland began in earnest. Ships were waiting at Dublin to convey the troops which were scheduled to arrive for embarkation during the course of the day by seven special trains—three from Curragh, two from Tipperary and two from Maryborough. Two special trains were ordered to convey troops from Killworth Camp to Cork for embarkation.

Eight military aeroplanes with pilots and wireless left for England this morning.

Craig in London. Belfast, Jan. 20.—Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, left Belfast last night for London, where he will meet Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, to-day or to-morrow to discuss outstanding questions concerning the Government of Northern Ireland.

BULGARS DEPORT RICH RUSSIANS

Premier Found Sofia Becoming Too Gay

Sofia, Jan. 19.—Sofia, long believed by European travelers to be the most moral, respectable and staid old town in the Balkans, is becoming too gay to suit Bulgaria's stern Premier, Alexander Stamboulsky.

The peasant Premier has just given warning that the city folk are becoming demoralized by contact with evil Western influences. Among the worst offenders, he said, were wealthy Russian "refugees" who were squandering their money and substance in riotous living and scandalous excesses. To put a stop to this he ordered the deportation of these rich and dissolute aliens.

The theatres, the open restaurants and hotels are thronged nightly.

A TORONTO DEATH. Toronto, Jan. 20.—Frederick Roper, Secretary-Treasurer of the Dominion Telegraph Company and well-known trustee and auditor, died yesterday afternoon, aged 80.

GROWERS FIGHT CODLING MOTH

Fruit Men Determined to Eradicate Pest

Compulsory Spraying is Discussed

"Codling Moth and Superheating" was the subject of an interesting address by R. C. Thieme, chief of the division of Field Crops and Garden Insects, Ottawa, before the convention of B. C. Fruit-Growers here to-day.

The varying temperatures in refrigerator cars, proper disinfecting of orchard boxes and general procedure in handling fruit were discussed.

A hearty vote of appreciation of the assistance rendered to the growers by the Canadian Pacific Railway in furnishing improved system of transportation and a staff to assist the growers, was passed.

Compulsory Spraying. Compulsory spraying and the raising of a fund to purchase spraying machines for use of the members was discussed.

In regard to the establishment of a fund to fight the codling moth and to provide for compensation, President Barnes reported that the committee which interviewed the Government in the matter had received a very sympathetic hearing, and it was felt that the whole matter was in a very superior position.

Premier Oliver attended this afternoon's session and addressed the convention.

Northwest Association. A report of the Northwest Fruit-Growers' Convention at Spokane last Fall was given by Secretary A. F. Bars, Mr. Bars referred to the very friendly feeling of the American growers toward Canadians and the spirit of co-operation that prevailed.

"Out of 6,000 to 8,000 growers, Washington has 600 members in their association," he explained, "and in comparison British Columbia stands in a very superior position."

Standardization of the fruit industry in the Pacific Northwest and uniformity of legislation and publicity was probably the most important policy agreed upon at that convention, said Mr. Bars, who reported that he had advised that the inclusion of British Columbia in the movement for the time-being at least should be only in an advisory and co-operative capacity.

Secretary Bars gave a resume of the present convention's work, and referred to the excellent representation of delegates from all districts in the Province. There were only four districts out of the twenty-five from which directors were not in attendance, he said.

Better Price. By illicitly dealing in beaver the white fur men who were in possession of pelts could get a better price than the Government would give, Charles Korsch, fur buyer and Government beaver permit holder, told the Commissioner. Confiscation after refusal to sell at Government prices was the only method whereby these skins could be taken away from the illegal possessors of the pelts, he declared in answer to Mr. Donaghy. Had Constables McIntosh and Clark gone round with Gescheit during his trips to the North the Indians would have been afraid and fur buying would be more difficult, he testified.

Market Commissioner Grant referred to the splendid spirit of co-operation which existed among the growers, and he expressed the wish that the prairie selling agents of British Columbia products would observe more of the same spirit.

GERMAN ENGINEERS WANTED FOR WORK IN AUSTRALIA

London, Jan. 20.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Ministers of the State of Victoria are dissatisfied with the refusal of the Federal Government to permit the landing of six German engineering experts to supervise the erection of coal briquetting machinery at Morwell, says a Reuter dispatch from Melbourne. The machinery, it is added, was recently purchased in Germany.

TRADE LICENSES

Some Provincial Legislative amendments will be necessary, in the opinion of the Victoria branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, before the Trades License By-law can be amended to make it more effective against small retailers. The matter was considered by the branch yesterday.

Merchants having suggestions to make are invited to hand them to V. Leal, the secretary, 317 Bayward Building.

EVIDENCE ALLOWED AT GAME INQUIRY

A. D. Keen Testifies at Vancouver; Also W. E. Ditchburn

Vancouver, Jan. 20.—After a legal battle round the question of admitting evidence of Arthur D. (Cowboy) Keen, special constable and moving picture operator employed under contract with the Game Board, at this forenoon's session of the Game Board inquiry, Commissioner Shaw finally decided to allow the examination.

J. N. Ellis, K. C., for the Government, had objected on the ground that the matter of moving pictures was not covered by Magistrate Shaw's commission.

When Inspector Hird's little red book was handed over by Brenton S. Brown to Dr. Baker's son in the district office of the game he was present, Keen testified. Later Dr. Baker came in and went into a back room with young Baker and Dugald Donaghy, his counsel. When young Baker came out he said that he "had looked at Inspector Hird's book," the movie man declared.

Approval. That in view of the large number of beaver skins in the hands of the Indians he approved of Dr. Baker's scheme of buying for the Government the beaver skins in the hands of the Indians was the evidence of W. E. Ditchburn, Chief Inspector of Indian Agencies for British Columbia.

"I would like to explain the real reason why there were so many pelts getting on the market in September, 1920," said Mr. Ditchburn. "When in the North I was informed by two fur buyers that the Indians had been told by Stuart Henderson, a barrister of Victoria, that they could go ahead and kill all the beaver they liked without paying any attention to the British Columbia Game Act."

Pneumonia Reduces Pope Benedict to a Weak Condition

Strong arms, clear heads and brave hearts—this was the receipt for success which Rotarian Dr. Charles E. Barker, health advisor to ex-President Taft, gave to the students of the Victoria High School and young people of Victoria generally when he delivered an address on "How to Make the Most Out of Life" in the High School auditorium this morning. Quickly winning the confidence and then the admiration of the students, Dr. Barker talked intimately to them as boys and girls; told them of the troubles they would encounter in life; showed them how they could train their minds to bring real education and then success, and their bodies to give them constant health; and, finally, in frank, plain words, warned the girls of the school to behave at all times with dignity and never to indulge in "spooning" and similar youthful delights.

Having illustrated the value of physical fitness by the case of President Roosevelt, Dr. Barker said, after quoting Garfield:

"Now for the clear head," Dr. Barker proceeded. "Don't tell anybody, but when I was a boy I was a poor student. If there are any of you in my class I have good news for you, for I have found out that Garfield was not speaking just about lessons when he talked about a clear head. He meant that if you are going to succeed you will have to learn to think clearly. I have known scores of great men and women who were poor students. They couldn't get up their lessons, but they learned to think clearly.

"What is education anyway?" the Doctor demanded. "Is it just the study of books and gaining of diplomas? No. Here is Thomas Huxley's definition of education, and if you really understand it and study to realize that idea of education will be educated even if you don't get a diploma. 'The chief purpose of education is to train the mind and the will to do the work you have to do when it ought to be done whether you like it or not.' A man who can do that will succeed. A man who can't will fail.

Methods of Study.

Then Dr. Barker gave the students a graphic description of the usual method of High School study. Taking a test book he imitated the average High School boy trying to concentrate on Latin and allowing his thoughts to stray off to motion pictures, heroes and athletics. He showed also how High School girls, vainly endeavoring to learn a French lesson, are continually thinking of Wallace Reid and a dozen other picture heroes they have seen the previous evening.

"Unless you are willing to stand by your principles through thick and thin you'll fail," he said, speaking to the boys. "Would you cheat in an examination? Would you violate the rules of an athletic game when the umpire's back is turned. That is a pretty good test. If you would do something will refuse flatly and stick to it. It comes by habit. Why not start to-day?"

"Now just a few moments for the girls," Dr. Barker remarked as he wound up his address. "All the cowards are not boys, girls. Would it interest you to know that there are girls whom I know who made awful mistakes when they were at High School and ruined their characters because they got into their heads that in order to be popular with the boys they had to allow them to be familiar with them?"

Lester Patrick, President of the Rotary Club, introduced the speaker, who was thanked by Principal Herfield and Bert Bull, members of the Rotary Boys' Work Committee, accompanied the President.

A resolution was passed at last night's meeting, enabling those members who through no cause of their own, were unable to pay their dues for 1931, to be put in good standing by paying a quarter's dues in advance for the ensuing year.

The report of the special committee appointed at the last meeting, to report on constitutional matters was presented by Comrade A. Murdoch. The report was adopted, and the committee discharged with thanks.

Doing Good Life's Biggest Pleasure, He Tells Clubs at Luncheon

"The men and women who get the most out of life are the men and women who have found out how to make this old world better," Dr. Charles E. Barker, International Health Authority, declared in an address on "Service" before a joint luncheon of the Canadian Rotary, Kiwanis and Gyro Clubs in the Empress Hotel to-day.

"The man who is a member of a Rotary, Kiwanis, Canadian or Gyro Club and who is not doing his best to make the Club a success, who is not putting his shoulder under the burdens of the organization has no right to membership and should resign to allow someone in who will do this work, he declared. "Toistoy said that the only thing we get out of this world are the things we give away. Some of you are going to carry out mighty little.

"The greatest value of civic clubs such as those represented here to-day is that they teach their members that the greatest game of all is the game of service.

"The greatest example of civic service," Dr. Barker declared at another point in his address, "was Jesus Christ who went about doing good, and a live member of a civic club to-day must follow that example."

Dr. Barker, who is speaking here under the auspices of the Rotary Club, will address a meeting of men in the Pantages Theatre to-night. All boys over fourteen years of age also will be welcomed. Admission will be free.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Listen!

Have you heard about Peps? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Peps contains certain medicinal ingredients, which when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence healing.

IRELAND AND CANADA.

In a statement on the Irish agreement Mr. Lloyd George declared that in this document Ireland was placed on an equality with the other Dominions of the Empire and that she had every right that Canada has "in law, fact and constitutional practice."

Difficulty is being encountered in defining this status for the purpose of an actual constitution. We know what Canada's position in law is in relation to the United Kingdom, but her real status, or her status in fact and practice, is not contained within the four corners of the British North America Act.

The obstacle to be surmounted, therefore, involves more than the mere application to the new Dominion of our Confederation pact. It means a constitution which will express all the developments which have marked this Dominion's progress to equal status with the Mother Country during the last fifty years, as well as the various declarations on this point from leading British and Dominion statesmen during the last five years.

Hence, the very process of determining the status of Ireland, "the same as that of Canada, in law, fact and constitutional practice," to quote Mr. Lloyd George, will give Canada the definition of her own status in precise constitutional terms, which she does not now possess.

NORTH YORK.

Whatever the electors of North York may think about the obvious breach of constitutional precedent involved in the contest occasioned by Mr. King's accession to the office of Prime Minister it can be taken for granted that the Conservative candidate will get little comfort from his course of action. Handicapped with an appropriate admission from Mr. Meighen himself and automatically placed at a decided disadvantage by the verdict of the nation it is amazing that Mr. Armstrong should elect to gratify his whim at such a cost.

AMERICA AT GENOA.

Italy's apprehension lest the United States should refrain from active participation in the Genoa Conference will be shared by Great Britain and all the European countries that propose to send representatives. Ambassadorial attendance with merely a watching brief is satisfactory only from the point of view that it guarantees a detached interest.

and it would be simpler to reconcile her attitude towards her outstanding accounts if she were to take this opportunity of dealing with them in the manner that such a gathering should permit. By sending official delegates to Genoa the United States would also be in a position to express an opinion upon European expenditures and their bearing upon European indebtedness.

MR. PATTULLO'S PLAN.

It has been suggested by a contemporary that Mr. Pattullo should explain in detail how and when unemployment conditions will be modified by an extensive immigration policy. We have not seen Mr. Pattullo's effort to supply the precise information and we do not expect that he will rise to any bait of this kind.

T. B. AND THE V. O. N.

Statistics just issued from Ottawa indicate that during the first six months of last year there were two thousand five hundred and ninety deaths from tuberculosis in one form or another in Canada outside of Quebec.

Very little amplification is necessary in order to place these two items of public news and interest in their proper perspective. The official figures from Ottawa indicate the enormous toll which a preventable and curable disease continues to exact from the woefully meagre population of this country.

In the place of a local branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society which had to disband in the face of public apathy—is to be commended for its decision to undertake this new mission in addition to its other works of mercy.

A FORLORN HOPE.

If British Columbia and her public affairs remain at the mercy of a Liberal Government for a few years more Mr. E. H. Pooley is of the opinion that there will be nothing left to cheer him and he will be compelled to translate himself to China or Timbuctoo.

the average individual will wonder why Mr. Pooley should stipulate any period before putting his threat into effect if only for the reason that nowhere in this vast Dominion is there a trace of a Conservative Government. On the other hand Mr. Pooley can rest assured that he would find a much stronger Tory element in Timbuctoo or in China than he will ever find again in his native country.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It is reported that Dublin Castle will be converted into a museum. Are some of the old officials to constitute the "specimens?"

Mayor Marchant says he is not in favor of "blue" laws for Sunday observance. But standing on the head might easily twist the canons of public propriety.

Did President Millerand think Mr. Lloyd George might ask him something about the inner history of the Briand resignation when he virtually refused to permit him to call the other day?

Those who had come to the fixed belief that the Irish question never could be settled will have to go in for a slight renovation of ideas about Mr. Lloyd George and the authority which the British public is prepared to extend on occasion.

There will be a lot of shaking of heads and exclamations of horror if Lenine should elect to represent the Soviet Government at Genoa in person. Why not urge him to go in order that those who know little about him could get an idea of what manner of man this Russian dictator actually is?

Two news items of the last two days are of interest. One is this: "Germany pays first thirty-one million gold Marks in accordance with the terms agreed to at Cannes." The other is "Germany introduces a bill into the Reichstag to provide for the demolition of many of her great fortresses in different parts of the country."

RAYMUR DEFENDS FINANCE ACTIONS

TOOK NO VOTE ON BIRTH CONTROL

Farm-Women of Alberta Debated Subject

Year's Discussion by Branches of Organization

Calgary, Jan. 20.—A proposal that the convention urge removal "of all barriers due to legal restrictions, tradition, prejudice or ignorance which now prevents parents from access to such scientific knowledge on the subject of birth control as is possessed by the medical profession" was warmly discussed yesterday by the United Farm Women of Alberta and finally was sent back to the local branches to be considered during the coming year.

Mrs. M. S. Roper, of the Alia branch, which sent the motion to the convention, spoke in its support, declaring quality rather than quantity was needed. She suggested that there was injustice to the child who was brought into a world where there was insufficient food for it, overwork, ill-health and lack of educational opportunities.

The meeting seemed to be fairly evenly divided in its sentiment on the subject and no vote was taken. Many speakers protested that the issue was one of conscience, and the view was expressed that it was contrary to biblical teaching to attempt birth control.

The opinion that a medical certificate should accompany the marriage license was cheered. A resolution was passed expressing opposition to any policy of Government sale of liquor for beverage purposes.

Mr. Whitney-Griffiths said that Chinese peddle groceries and all sorts of wares through the country districts of Vancouver Island and farmers keep them in business by patronizing them heavily. DOMINION BANK FIGURES REPORTED

Strong Position at End of Business Year

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The Dominion Bank has come through a very trying year in an exceptionally strong position, as shown by the report of the business for 1921.

The net profits, after making provision for all assets of a doubtful character, amounted to $1,016,262, as against $1,113,511 in the previous year. After paying all taxes amounting to $108,109, providing for a dividend of twelve per cent and a bonus of one per cent, to the shareholders totalling $789,909, contributing $69,990 to the pension fund of the bank and writing $150,000 off the bank premises account, $715,000 was carried forward in profit and loss account, the largest surplus in this account in the history of the bank.

The immediate available assets of the bank amounted to $48,109,367, or more than fifty-one per cent, of the bank's whole indebtedness to the public.

The bank's total assets are now $121,335,842, as against $133,263,993 a year ago. The annual meeting will be held next Wednesday, January 25.

FRUIT-GROWERS HEAR ADDRESSES

Various Factors in Industry Are Dealt With

"Transportation Problems," as affecting the industry of the fruit-grower, the advantages of organized berry marketing, "Profit in Berries," the serious consequences of fire blight and the efforts being made to exterminate the disease and the subject of spoilage of apples after harvest were the topics discussed by speakers at yesterday afternoon and evening sessions of the B. C. Fruit-Growers' Association at the Empress Hotel.

Transportation. G. E. McIntosh, transportation specialist of the Dominion Fruit Branch, said that it was only right that railways should be allowed a fair margin over operating and maintenance cost and in this connection it was noted by the speaker that the reductions ordered in freight and passenger rates would reduce railway companies' earnings to approximately $25,000,000. The heaviest consumers of B. C. fruit are between the Rockies and Port Arthur, he said, and therefore the railway rate question was a vital one to the fruit industry.

All the refrigerator cars in Canada would be required if it were necessary to handle all the Province's fruit crop at one time. There are a greater number of refrigerator cars in service than ever before and 700 new cars have been ordered. The total production of the Province in fruit and berries was estimated at $8,000,000 annually, it was pointed out.

Marketing Conditions. The progress made in marketing conditions and other benefits following the organized system of berry marketing was emphasized by H. M. Siddle, of Sardis, and J. Manson, of Hazelton, while Professor A. F. Barsz spoke on "Profit in Berries." This was rather a misnomer, said Mr. Barsz, who proceeded to show that many growers were in the habit of imagining they were making profits, but they did not figure on interest on their investment.

Interest on his original investment is one of the items the average producer never thinks of when computing what he should get for his product. The man who buys in at 200 an acre of course has a big advantage over the man who pays 1,000 an acre. Interest on the investment runs into big money, and it must be remembered that if that money were invested in bonds or other channels it would yield a good interest.

"There are a good many growers selling their product at less than the cost of production," declared Professor A. F. Barsz.

Fire Blight. "The ravages of fire blight is one of the worst afflictions which the fruit-grower has to contend with. Particularly in the dry belt," said J. F. McLarty who was appointed by the Government at the instigation of the fruit-growers to investigate.

"Stem application of the pruning knife and a careful cleaning-up and burning of the branches Spring and fall is the only way to keep down this dread disease, which is one of the most difficult to deal with. The bacteria will live in the branches for considerable length of time after cutting. It is most persistent and clinging in between the cells of the branches, particularly in their growth stages, quickly breaks them down and kills the branch," Mr. McLarty added.

The grafting of resistant varieties does help to save the orchards and is slowing up of the growth by proper application of water and other growth promoting agencies will also help in fighting the disease. Cutting should always be well below the diseased area, said Mr. McLarty.

Kills Whole Orchards. "Fire blight is a bacterial disease which kills the blossoms in the spring and in time the entire tree if not radically treated," said W. D. Hunter, District Horticulturist for Kananagan.

"It gets into the cells and the ranch dies and the disease is very infectious and is spread by insects of various kinds. It is responsible for great losses annually in the interior of the province. Mr. Hunter explained how his staff was trying to eradicate the disease. His district includes about 20,000 acres of orchards and in addition to the regular staff of seven or eight men, it is necessary at times to employ four or five extras. "Each man is made responsible for his own district and a close inspection of the orchards is made," he explained.

Fire blight is the name given to the disease because the tree when infected has the appearance of having been burned over. Whole orchards have been wiped out by the disease, was stated.

CEDAR CREEK IS RICH CAMP

Such Is Opinion of A. B. Campbell, Referring to Cariboo Discovery

When an old Klondike miner describes a gold discovery as one of the best it may be assumed that the prospects are encouraging. At the Dominion Hotel now is A. B. Campbell, of Harper's Camp, on Horsefly River, Cariboo, and he is an enthusiast for the discovery made last Summer by two prospectors on Cedar Creek, not far from Harper's Camp.

Preliminary work was done on this creek in the sixties, when prospectors worked most of the creeks in the Cariboo, and then the claims were abandoned. Now the new locators, one of whom is wintering in Vancouver, while his partner remains in Harper's Camp, located several hundred feet above the lower stream, and the claims have proved rich. Men from Harper's Camp, including Mr. Campbell, who has a store there, and his brother have taken up adjacent leases, but Mr. Campbell says nothing has been done upon the leases. All he can guarantee with knowledge is that the land opened up by the locators is rich, as good as anything he saw in the Klondike. He declares two men could take out $1,000 a day working in pay dirt as rich as that opened already before Winter set in.

He advises against men going in until May, as the snow is still deep, and the land covered with heavy timber. The claims may be reached by automobile road, within two miles of the property, and it is to secure funds for a cut-off that he is now in Victoria, to meet the Ministers of Public Works and Mines. Mr. Campbell intends to open a store in the new camp, having purchased supplies when in Vancouver for that purpose. It is expected that the discovery claims will be bonded this Spring and inspection to that end having been arranged for March next. Mr. Campbell arrived in the City yesterday with his wife.

PLANS REFORM IN PROPERTY SALES

Real Estate Board Considers Great Advance in Methods of Service to Owners

A good deal of interest is being aroused among the members of the real estate profession in Victoria in connection with the proposed multiple listing system. The Real Estate Board has already considered this matter at a recent meeting, and a final meeting of the members will be held on Tuesday evening next. It is expected that at least a large group of the members, if not the whole board, will avail themselves of this opportunity to make a direct contact in the methods of dealing with the sale of property.

Under this scheme, an owner wishing to dispose of a property with the least possible delay, instead of listing it individually with a number of firms gives it to one firm exclusively for a definite period. This firm, besides agreeing to advertise and make their best efforts to dispose of the property, also guarantees to list the property, with full particulars, through the secretary to all members of the multiple listing group. The owner thus brings his property before a number of agents, while dealing only with one, through whom all negotiations are carried out. If the firm receiving the listing should sell the property it receives the full commission; if another member of the group should sell it, the commission is divided between the latter and the listing firm, the group treasury receiving a small percentage also towards the expenses of the system.

The adoption of this system will enable the real estate firms comprising the group greatly to improve their service to the public, either as owners or purchasers. The feminine voting strength of the United States is nearly $0,000,000.

PERMANENT WORK IS RECOMMENDED

Mayor of Nanaimo Makes Suggestion to Council

Nanaimo—The City Council for the year 1921 ceased to exist when Mayor Busby adjourned its last meeting sine die. It was the fifty-second meeting of the forty-seventh Council of Nanaimo.

After the usual business had been completed the Mayor stated that the end had been reached of another term of office. "In closing," he stated, "I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the board for its support during the year 1921, and I feel that we have finished the year's work satisfactorily to the people. I think that during the past year we have given a very good account of our stewardship. Our financial statement is in good shape and we have accomplished some good work. "It was the first year that we had some permanent work done out of the general revenue, and I would recommend to the incoming Council that any money coming from the Government should be earmarked for further permanent work. "We shall not have the same board for the coming year. Our waterworks and streets committees are all leaving us and in some respects this is to be regretted, for there are some people who are able to grasp the work more quickly than others, but I do not see why we should not be able to do as good work. In expressing sympathy with the retiring members I am certain they all worked in the interest of the people of Nanaimo and while we could not always see eye to eye, I am convinced they all did what they thought was for the best, and I extend to them my heartfelt wishes for 1922 and trust that while they are leaving us they will not forget us, and while the work of the City Council is not always easy, if they cannot extend to us their congratulations they can at least extend to us their sympathies."

Aldermen Rowan, Hart, McGuckie, and Planta, replied to the Mayor and all gave a short account of the results of the election as it appeared in the annual report, and congratulated the members returned on Thursday last.

Council of Women. Mrs. J. S. Dunn was elected president of the Local Council of Women at the annual meeting, the other officers elected being: First Vice-President, Miss Dobson; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Foster; Third Vice-President, Mrs. Bulman; Fourth Vice-President, Mrs. J. E. Towler; Fifth Vice-President, Miss J. Ingham; Sixth Vice-President, Mrs. Carnely; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. F. Reynolds; Recording Secretary, Mrs. T. Spencer; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank Morgan.

A Presentation. A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Selby Street, by the Willing Workers of the Baptist Church. The chief item of the evening was a presentation to Mrs. McDonald on her retirement from the class owing to ill health. The presentation took the form of an address and a silver plated butter tub, for which Mrs. McDonald expressed the heartfelt thanks and best wishes for the class in future.

Whist Drive. At a whist drive held by the Forsters, the successful players and winners of prizes were: Ladies, first, Mrs. J. Beattie, second, Mrs. McCormack; third, Mrs. T. Lewis, Gents, first, W. McGill; second, J. W. Cook; third, W. Bailey. The scores in all cases were very high.

Football. A request has been received by the officials of the Nanaimo Football Club from Kenny, the football player for his transfer from this club. It is presumed that Cumberland is requiring the services of this ex-professional player in order to make sure of the Island League and also for the purpose of making a strong bid for the McBride Shield, which competition will open in the very near future. The new list for the Nanaimo City team is fast nearing completion. Additional men have been set to work on the grounds and it is hoped to have them ready in two weeks.

Former Resident Visits. Sidney, Jan. 20.—Among the visitors to Sidney during the week was Mr. Rant, of the firm of Jones & Rant. Mr. Rant was a frequent visitor to Sidney in the pre-war days being manager of the big farm which the firm had on lease from the B. C. Electric Railway. Mr. Rant went overseas with the Second C. M. R. in June, 1918, which corps he joined as a private, getting a Lieutenantcy and later winning his captaincy for good work accomplished. He was twice decorated, once with the D. C. M., and later with the Military Cross. He was in action with his regiment at the Somme, and before Cambrai and in other parts of the line, being wounded twice. He received his discharge in February, 1918. He now lives near Esquimalt, and was in Sidney looking after a contract which he and his partners have secured of putting up new fences on the Cana-

FARMERS OF METCHOSIN MET

Various Matters Discussed by Institute Members

Metchosin—Important matters were discussed at a meeting of the Metchosin Farmers' Institute this week. The president, C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, was unable to be present through sickness and as desired by A. Wale, vice-president, J. H. G. Pierce was elected to the chair.

The report of the Special Committee was heard and adopted. Regarding the by-laws governing the Institute, the committee reported that it found the by-laws had not received the careful consideration to which their importance entitled them. For instance, one of the aims and objects of the Institute was to "improve the conditions of rural life so that settlement may be permanent and prosperous." In direct contradiction to this one by-law stated that "No matter of a political or sectarian nature may be discussed." A resolution to the effect that those words be deleted was moved, seconded and passed unanimously.

Other matters of importance were discussed and resolutions drafted by the directors and submitted to the meeting were without exception passed unanimously. Another line of the business to be brought before the convention of Institute was given by R. I. Van der Byl, secretary, for the benefit of the delegates appointed to the institute to attend, namely, C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, R. I. Van der Byl, H. G. Pierce, E. P. Ashe and J. C. Blake. The ratemakers' meeting as proposed by the Institute to be held at Colwood Hall, will take place about January 28.

Mr. Newton, of the Department of Agriculture, addressed the meeting on field crop competitions and growing products for Fall fair to be held at Metchosin this year. R. I. Van der Byl reported regarding the rural daily delivery, that nothing definite could possibly be settled yet, but that the request of the residents through the institute are under consideration.

Concert. After the meeting adjourned an excellent concert programme was presented by the Metchosin Concert Party, which proved very attractive and was appreciated by an unusually large audience. Artists taking part were: G. F. Pierce, director; D. Ellwood, W. G. Milsted, Mr. Gibbs, Ned Ashe, Mrs. Brand, of Langford, Miss Rising, Mrs. H. R. Brown and Vera Ashe. The programme concluded with a screaming farce by Ned and Vera Ashe, assisted by W. G. Milsted which elicited hearty laughter and applause. Miss Eileen

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications. (Advt.)

Dumbleton again kindly acted as accompanist in her usual finished style. Refreshments were served by members of both the Farmers' and Women's Institutes and dancing commenced to music supplied by two young Victoria ladies. Such excellent music had not been heard for some time at Metchosin and numerous requests were made for a return of the musicians at an early date. The whole affair was a splendid success. Enjoyable Event. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shawyer gave a very enjoyable bridge party at their home. Songs and recitations were given between games by Mrs. J. Pearce, Mrs. F. Comley, Mr. Harry Vernon and Miss E. Rising. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. F. Pearce and Rev. F. Comley and the booby prizes by Mr. F. Fatt, who played lady, and Mr. Harry Vernon. A

Enjoyable Function at Empress Last Night Will Benefit Needy

Three hundred people waltzed and fox-trotted to the music of Ozard's orchestra last night at the dance held at the Empress Hotel by the Canadian Pacific Railway Social Club in aid of the Friendly Help Society. The dance was a tremendous success, due largely to the untiring efforts of the dance committee, composed of James Phillips, chairman; Frank G. Mulliner, C. Griffiths, J. Neild and the Misses Cave and Anderson.

It is expected that the Friendly Help will benefit to the extent of $700. Dancing commenced at 9 o'clock and the happy throng of dancers reluctantly left the ball room floor at 2 a.m.

The supper arrangements were perfect. The dancers entered the dining room in relays and partook of the dainties with the utmost in comfort. All the very latest dance music was supplied by Ozard's orchestra to the numerous couples.

It was during the night by Frank G. Mulliner, the newly elected chairman of the dance committee, that the Canadian Pacific Railway Social Club proposed to hold every two weeks during the balance of the winter season. The Club has been influenced in its decision by the great success of previous functions of this character. James Phillips has relinquished his duties as head of the dance committee, but Frank Mulliner is expected to prove a capable successor.

ST. MATTHIAS'S MISSION PROSPERS: ANNUAL VESTRY

St. Matthias's Mission, Episcopalian, held its annual meeting of parishioners on Saturday evening, in the church on Earsman Street, Fowl Bay. A large number of the members of the church attended. Reports and financial statements were presented and approved by the meeting. The past year's activities were reviewed by the incumbent, Rev. A. W. Collins, who asked the earnest co-operation of the parishioners in his efforts to make the Mission entirely self-supporting in the near future. The financial report showed the church to be in a satisfactory condition, an especially gratifying feature being a reduction of $600 in the debt during the past year. The members of the Women's Auxiliary, under the leadership of Mrs. Hartley, were heartily thanked and congratulated on the very great assistance given by them in the finance and work of the church. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Rector's warden, Mr. Willis; people's warden, Mr. Willis; committee, Messrs. Fowler, Langley, Walker, Ross, Hunter, Hooper, Patterson and Lowe.

The first woman burgomaster of Belgium, recently appointed by King Albert, is Miss. Seignants, who has been chosen to the office in a little village near Ypres.

HOME AND SCHOOL MUST UNITE IN INTERESTS OF CHILD

Hon. Dr. MacLean Among Speakers at Federation of P.-T. Associations

The need of cohesion between home and school interests as an elemental basis in the upbringing of the youth of the country was stressed by a number of speakers at the Victoria High School last evening, when the Federated Parent-Teachers' Associations held its first annual gathering. The attendance was large and included representatives of a number of local bodies interested in the welfare of boys and girls as well as members of the School Board, teaching staff and the general public.

Describing the aims and objects of the Associations, the chairman, F. E. Winslow, stated that these bodies will live to the pressing need for economy in civic finances felt that it was more to be done to the physical well-being of the children by a general improvement of play facilities in the shape of school grounds.

He deprecated the apathy of the general public upon school matters as instanced at the recent civic election, when difficulty had been experienced in finding candidates for school trustees.

Scholarships Needed.
 The need for a system of scholarships or endowments administered under a public or governmental body to ensure that the best brains of Canada's youth be given the highest education and retained for Canada's benefit was urged by Lindley Crease, K. C. The speaker deplored the weakness in the present system under which brilliant youths after being developed to the highest point of education in the Dominion found no scope for the employment of their talents and were forced to other countries, to Canada's loss and the other country's gain.

As a result of the development of the natural resources of the Dominion was too often left in the hands of experts of other than British nationality, instead of being developed by the brains of Canadians.

Joint Responsibilities.
 Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, enumerated the joint responsibilities of parent, teachers and student in outlining the reasons for the apparent failure of some children to make progress in their studies. The home might be at fault, irregular or hasty meals, insufficiency of sleep or too much entertainment, physical defects capable of remedy but neglected, often were the causes of failure at school.

On the other hand declared the Minister, there were instances where the teacher was largely responsible for the backwardness of pupils. He had known of teachers who thought that the attainment of a degree meant the end of their study; others gave too much time to social affairs, while others, on the other hand, were too reserved and omitted to get in touch with men and women of broader viewpoint; still others were merely "time-server," depending entirely on the dry facts of the text books instead of supplementing these studies by careful preparatory reading.

Education's Cost.
 A common criticism was to the effect that education costs too much, but the Minister reminded his hearers that education was not so costly as the lack of education.

Congratulating the Parent-Teachers' Association on their work and the strengthening of their common bond of child welfare he warned them to keep their organizations free of politics and to continue their efforts to improve all points of contact between the child, the school, the home and the community.

Junior Citizens' Leagues.
 A suggestion for the formation of Junior Citizens' Leagues as a channel for the proper expression of the "gang" spirit which all too often finds outlet in mischief and delinquency was advanced by J. W. Gibbon, of the Department of Education. Such leagues could be formed with the nucleus of the present boys and girls' organizations which have come into existence outside the schools.

With careful and judicious planning these organizations could be made to foster in the youths of the country an interest in school matters combined with an interest in the home, the development of moral fibre and all those qualities tending to the making of the best citizenship, asserted the speaker.

Thought vs. Memory.
 Miss Helen Stewart pleaded for thinking teachers, thinking parents and thinking students. Conditions in the world emphasized the one fact that despite the vast sum spent on education, too much time had been given to the development of memory rather than to creative thought; too little attention had been given to the developing of leaders.

Education means more than the memorizing of facts from a text-book and the giving back of those facts; it means that the youth of the country must be given access to the best books as the source of material for serious thought, according to the speaker.

She appealed to parents and teachers to co-operate in equipping every school with an adequate library of the highest standard, for the use of both student and teacher.

The lighter side of the entertainment in the form of songs and instrumental numbers was furnished by Mrs. Godson, Miss Mary Middleton, Messrs. B. Morrison and Butterworth, who gave vocal selections, and Masters Harold Bassett and Alfred Wood in a violin duet. Mr. Diworth was at the piano.

THE STORY OF CAROL KENNICOTT
By SINCLAIR LEWIS

Vida sketched what she termed "practical things that will make a happier and prettier town, but that do belong to our life, that actually are being done." Of the Thanatopsis Club she spoke; of the rest-room, the fight against mosquitoes, the campaign for more gardens and shade-trees and sewers—matters not fantastic and nebulous and distant, but immediate and sure.

Carol's answer was fantastic and nebulous enough. "Yes... Yes... I know. They're god. But if I could put through all those reforms at once, I'd still want startling, exotic things. Life is comfortable and clean enough here already. And so secure. What it needs is to be less secure, more eager. The civic improvements which I'd like the Thanatopsis to advocate are Strindberg plays, and classic dances—exquisite legs beneath tulle—and (I can see him so clearly!) a thick, black-headed, cynical Frenchman who would sit about and drink and sing opera and tell bawdy stories and laugh at our proprieties and quote Rabelais and not be ashamed to kiss my hand!"

"Huh! Not sure about the rest of it but I guess that's what you and all the other discontented young women really want; some stranger kissing your hand!" At Carol's gasp, the old squirrel-like Vida darted out and cried, "Oh, my dear, don't take that too seriously. I just meant—"

"I know. You just meant it. Go on. Be good for my soul. Isn't it funny: here we all are—me trying to be good for Gopher Prairie's soul, and Gopher Prairie trying to be good for my soul. What are my other sins?"

"Oh, there's plenty of them. Possibly some day we shall have your fat, cynical Frenchman, (horrible, sneering, tobacco-stained object, ruining his brains and his digestion with vile liquor) but, thank heaven,

Sloan's Liniment (Pain's Enemy)

for a while we'll manage to keep busy with our lawns and pavements! You see, these things really are coming! The Thanatopsis is getting somewhere. And you— "Her tone italicized the words—" to my great disappointment, are doing less, not more, than the people you laugh at! Sam Clark, on the school-board, is working for better school ventilation. Ella Stowbody (whose eloquencing you always think is so absurd) has persuaded the railroad to share the expense of a parked space at the station, to do away with the vacant lot.

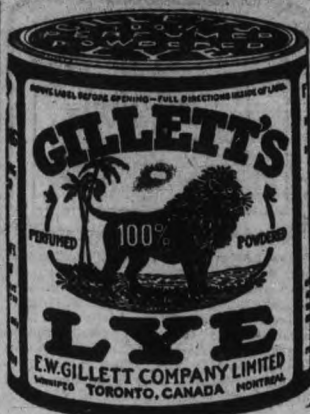

"You sneer so easily. I'm sorry, but I think there's something essentially cheap in your attitude. Especially about religion. "If you must know, you're not a sound reformer at all. You're an impossibility. And you give up too easily. You back up on the new city hall, the anti-flying campaign, club papers, the library-board, the dramatic association—just because we didn't graduate into Ibsen the very first thing. You want perfection all at once. Do you know what the finest thing you've done is—aside from bringing Hugh into the world? It was the help you gave Dr. Will during baby-welfare week. You didn't demand that each baby be a philosopher and artist before you weighed him, as you do with the rest of us. "And now I'm afraid perhaps I'll hurt you. We're going to have a new schoolbuilding in this town—in just a few years—and we'll have it without one bit of help or interest from you!"

"Professor Mott and I and some others have been dinging away at the moneyed men for years. We didn't call on you because you would never stand the pound-pound-pounding year after year without one bit of encouragement. And we've won! I've got the promise of everybody who counts that just as soon as war-conditions permit, they'll vote the bonds for the schoolhouse. And we'll have a wonderful building—lovely brown brick, with big windows, and agricultural and manual-training departments. When we get it, that'll be my answer to all your theories!"

"I'm glad. And I'm ashamed I haven't had any part in getting it. But— Please don't think I'm unsympathetic if I ask one question: Will the teachers in the hygienic new building go on informing the children that Persia is a yellow spot on a map, and 'Caesar' the title of a book of grammatical puzzles?"

Vida was indignant: Carol was apologetic; they talked for another hour, the eternal Mary and Martha—an immortal Mary and a reformer Martha. It was Vida who conquered.

The fact that she had been left out of the campaign for the new schoolbuilding disconcerted Carol. She laid her dreams of perfection aside. When Vida asked her to take charge of a group of Camp Fire Girls, she obeyed, and had definite pleasure out of the Indian dances and ritual and costumes. She went more regularly to the Thanatopsis. With Vida as lieutenant and unofficial commander she campaigned for a village nurse to attend poor families, raised the fund herself, saw to it that the nurse was young and strong and amiable and intelligent.

Yet all the while she beheld the burly cynical Frenchman and the diaphanous dancers as clearly as the child sees its air-born playmates; she relished the Camp Fire Girls not because, in Vida's words, "this Scout training will help so much to make them God Wives," but because she hoped that the Sioux dances would bring subversive color into their dinginess.

She helped Ella Stowbody to set out plants in the tiny triangular park at the railroad station; she squatted in the dirt, with a small curved trowel and the most decorous of gardening gauntlets; she talked to Ella about the public-spiritedness of fuchsias and carnations; and she felt that she was scrubbing a temple deserted by the gods and empty even of incense and the sound of chanting.

Passengers looking from trains saw her as a village woman of fading prettiness, incorruptible virtue, and no abnormalities; the baggage man heard her say, "Oh yes, I do think it will be a good example for the children"; and all the while she saw herself running garlanded through the streets of Babylon.

Planting led her to botanizing. She never got much farther than recognizing the tiger lily and the wild rose, but she rediscovered Hugh.

"What does the buttercup say, mummy?" he cried, his hand full of straggly grasses, his cheek gilded with pollen. She knelt to embrace him; she affirmed that he made life more than full; she was altogether reconciled... for an hour.

But she awoke at night to hovering death. She crept away from the hump of bedding that was Kennicott; tiptoed into the bathroom and, by the mirror in the door of the medicine-cabinet, examined her pallid face.

"Want she growing visibly older in ratio as Vida grew younger and younger? Wasn't her nose sharper? Wasn't her neck granulated? She stared and choked. She was only thirty. But the five years since her marriage—had they not gone by as hastily and stupidly as though she had been under ether! would time not sink past till death? She pounded her fist on the cool enameled rim of the bathtub and raged mutely against the indifferent gods:

"I don't care! I won't endure it! They lie so—Vida and Will and Aunt Bessie—they tell me I ought to be satisfied with Hugh and a good home and planting seven nasturtiums in a station garden! I am I! When I die the world will be annihilated, as far as I'm concerned. I am I! I'm not content to leave the sea and the ivory towers to others. I want them for me! Damn Vida. Damn all of them! Do they think they can make me believe that a display of potatoes at Howland & Gould's is enough beauty and strangeness?"

When America entered the Great European War, Vida sent Raymie off to an officers' training-camp—four years after her wedding. Raymie was diligent and rather strong. He came out a first lieutenant of infantry, and was one of the earliest sent abroad.

Carol grew definitely afraid of Vida as Vida transferred the passion which had been released in marriage to the cause of the war; as she lost all tolerance. When Carol was touched by the desire for herolism in Raymie and the desire to express it, Vida made her feel like an impertinent child.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

WEE-BIT Part II

WEE-BIT lay awake one night wondering what such a small creature as he was could do to make a living, when he heard a sound of weeping outside his window.

He jumped out of bed and ran to look out. In a tree of golden pears close to his window he saw a little man dressed in green and red wiping his eyes as he sat on the end of a limb.

WEE-BIT felt like a giant, the little man was so much smaller than himself. "What is the matter, my poor fellow?" he asked.

"Oh, I am in terrible trouble," answered the little man. "The Ogre has sent me to pick all of these pears to-night for his breakfast and I cannot carry one, so how am I ever to carry all of them?"

"I'll help you," said WEE-BIT. "I can easily pick all of those pears before morning and I will carry them for you to the Ogre. Where does he live?"

"I will show you if you really mean to help me," said the little man. "He is asleep and I am sure you can carry the pears to his cave and get away again before he awakes."

WEE-BIT went to work and before long he had all the pears in a basket and had brought from the cellar and was following the little man through the woods.

When they reached a mountainside the little man gave three taps with a stone. A door which WEE-BIT had not seen swung open and they entered.

A little man was sitting under a tree as he saw the bird fly by.

The door closed with a loud bang and WEE-BIT wondered how he should get out if the Ogre did wake up and find him inside his home.

All the way along the long passage it was so dark all he could see was the red cap of the little man as it bobbed ahead before him. At last the little man brought WEE-BIT to a place where it was light.

The little man now stood still and put a tiny finger on his lips. "Hush!" he warned. "He is asleep. Hear his snoring!"

Then he led WEE-BIT into a room where on a huge bench-like bed he saw the Ogre asleep and because he was so surprised at the size of the creature, WEE-BIT did not look where he was walking.

One of the Ogre's boots lay on the floor before the couch. WEE-BIT himself WEE-BIT had stumbled over it and fell sprawling on the floor, the basket and the pears rolling in all directions.

The little man ran under the bed and sat trembling there and the Ogre, with a roar, jumped up and looked about rubbing his eyes. "What is that?" he asked, and then he saw WEE-BIT, who was on his feet and picking up the pears.

"See what I have brought to you," said WEE-BIT, not knowing what else to say. "There isn't a pear left on the tree."

The Ogre took one of the pears and put it into his big mouth. "There is that miserable, lazy Goblin!" he inquired.

WEE-BIT felt sorry for the little fellow. He came out from under the bed on his hands and knees, too frightened to stand up.

"You lazy little creature," said the Ogre, taking another pear into his mouth, "you must have someone get them for you. You will remain in my power! Begone!"

The Ogre did not seem to have the least trouble in talking with a whole pear in his mouth and as he ate it talked to WEE-BIT telling him to go into the next room and bring to him a long leather bag which he would find on a chair.

Now the Ogre's chairs were much taller than little WEE-BIT, so when he entered the room he looked in amazement at all the huge furniture he saw and more than all at a big kettle boiling over a pile of stones though there seemed to be no fire.

"What is that in that pot?" thought WEE-BIT, forgetting the errand on which he had been sent by the Ogre.

NEW COUNCIL TAKES REINS OF OFFICE IN ESQUIMALT

Auditor Compliments District on Its Management

The newly elected Esquimalt Council met in their inaugural session last evening, and will hold their meetings next Monday and every alternate Monday from that date. Reeve Lockley congratulated the councillors on their election, his council now comprising Councillors Mesher, Bridle and Pomeroy (re-elected), and Councillors Porter, Young and Wilson newly elected. Of the latter, Councillor Porter has been at the board before.

Ward Two Unrepresented. Reeve Lockley stated that what he feared had happened, and as a result of the abolition of the ward system Ward Two had now no representation on the council. P. W. Tribe, who was the only candidate seeking election from this district, failed to be returned by a very narrow margin. The Reeve called on the councillors to see that they preserved an open mind on the whole of the district, and that neither section were neglected. He advised them also to forget election troubles and work for the district as a whole, and not merely for their supporters.

Councillor Mesher, on behalf of the council assured the Reeve of their support and unbiased opinions in the work of the year to come. Councillor Bridle seconded Councillor Mesher's motion, adding that he hoped "there would be peace and harmony in the council" this year.

Liquor Profits Share. The first business touched on by the council was a surprise, being in fact a letter from the provincial secretary, dated in the response to their queries, Esquimalt could dispose of the whole of their liquor profits as they saw fit for the benefit of the district.

As it stated in the act that half the liquor profits were to be devoted to hospital purposes, and Esquimalt has no hospital, the Council has been in doubt. A letter from the Royal Provincial Jubilee Hospital Board, of directors asking for one-half each of the former Council anxiety, so that the carte blanc extended by the Government yesterday was a relief to the new Council.

The Jubilee Hospital Board is to be notified that Esquimalt has secured permission to make use of all its share of the liquor profits.

Zone System of Industries. A request from a resident about the foundry shop of a very near neighbor, but a few feet separating the respective house and foundry plant, provoked the zone question again, and the Council decided to investigate fully the possibility of establishing industrial zones at a later date. Meanwhile the foundry operator is to be requested to refrain from using his gasoline engines on Sundays.

The Council last night authorized the transfer of a soldier's house to another soldier, if everything were in order, and the change was satisfactory to the department, meanwhile stating that the cost of such transfer would not be born by the Council.

Garbage Committee. A garbage committee composed of Messrs. Mesher, Porter and Wilson was formed to investigate the whole garbage question with Engineer Bourne, and bring in a full report at the next meeting. Notice is mentioned that he would move to advertise for a municipal solicitor at the next session, was given by Councillor Pomeroy. Councillor Pomeroy also requested that if the police board found it necessary to take on another constable that it would be an Esquimalt ratepayer.

Tax Collection. The auditors' report, as presented to the meeting by J. S. Floyd showed that the finances of Esquimalt were in good order, with a surplus in their sinking fund of over $2,900. Of $122,022.96 levied in taxes and rates $104,132.10 had been collected. This was a general collection of 31.34 per cent., sewer rate collection of 86 per cent., with most of the arrears and delinquent taxes paid in to date. The auditor expressed his pleasure at the state of the Esquimalt municipal books, and Municipal Clerk Pullen, for the excellent state of their record in every department.

Reeve Lockley postponed the appointment of committees until Monday next.

Says Not Influenced.—A denial that he refused to answer questions on the examination for discovery yesterday, at the advice of his counsel, J. B. Clearhue, was issued by Police Commissioner North to-day. Mr. North stated that he did refuse to answer some questions, but that he did so entirely on his own decision, and was not interfered with by his counsel. The examination for discovery in the first of the slender suits came to an abrupt termination when Frank Higgins, K.C., for the plaintiffs, failed to secure answers to two questions he put to Mr. North. Plaintiffs are now seeking to compel Mr. North to answer, the matter to come on for hearing in the courts on Monday.

TIMELY HEALTH HINTS FOR READERS
 Reliable Home Treatment For Cases of Colds or Grippe
 "Never neglect a cold" is a safe rule in every home. If it were followed many cases of severe illness would be avoided. The time to start treatment for a cold is right when it starts—the moment the first signs—sneezing, running at the nose, feverish condition, etc.—appear.
 Start taking Grip-Fix (which you can get at any drug store) at once. In a single night your cold will be conquered, and even if it has reached the grippe stage, 24 to 36 hours' treatment will be effective. Coming in capsule form, it is both convenient for home use and prompt in action. The ingredients, which are probably just what your physician would recommend, are plainly printed on each box.
 Be sure you get the genuine Grip-Fix. It has been sold all over Canada for many years. It is a reliable remedy for home use. On sale by all druggists, 35c. per box. Vancouver Drug Co., Limited, special agents. (Adv.)

COLUMBIA

"Hands Off," in which Tom Mix, famous western star of the dancingariat and screaming gun, appeared at the Columbia Theatre last night is a drama that is calculated to please a great majority of picture lovers. It is a William Fox production. The director, George E. Marshall, has taken William McLeod Ruffin's story and by adding a thrill here and there—where the action required Mix to be on the screen—has succeeded in turning out a photoplay of extraordinary force and attractiveness.

Action is what has made photoplays popular and action plus Mix personality is what puts over "Hands Off." There is a bank robbery, an attempted lynching, plenty of gun play and some daring riding. But the real big punch of the picture is the stampede of a wild horse herd through the streets of a town, where in Mix outrides the herd and saves the little relative of the heroine from the hoofs of the flying animals.

Mix has the role of a Texas Ranger. He sets out to rid the district of a gang that has caused considerable trouble for the family of Ramona Wadley—played by Pauline Curley—a very youthful leading lady; and before he succeeds in doing it the audience is treated to about every thrill in the gamut of western melodrama. The cast of players and characters is of unusual excellence. Beside the charming and talented Miss

DOMINION

When George Arliss started work on "Disraeli," which is the feature at the Dominion Theatre, Director Henry Kolker has gone over the possibilities of the play with a great deal of care and it was clearly understood that the costumes were to indicate the very essence of fashions in England about sixty years ago—the mid-Victorian period. Everything started off fine and nobody seemed to be making the slightest mistake, but there was an indefinable something that bothered Kolker and his assistant director Harmon Weight, believe that something was slipping a cog every now and then.

In a "breathing spell" before opening on a new set, the director and his assistant "conferred" on the point. What was wrong, if anything? After giving everything the double O they happened across a simple little detail; so simple, in fact, that unless it were detected it might prove a glaring error and the error was corrected. It was a detail of costume but as luck would dominate, the player concerned had not been called before the camera up to that moment.

"It is a strange thing," Mr. Kolker commented at lunch that day with course Huff sitting nearby. "When I am doing a period play, I feel very distinctly when something is wrong. My mind may be preoccupied for the time but I go back to it again and puzzle over the mystery until I am able to detect it. It was that way throughout my stage career. Here we try to maintain the mid-Victorian period and in some unaccountable manner a simple little detail goes almost unnoticed for a time until we fall over it."

"Experience teaches one how to dress," commented Miss Huff. "After years of experience a player comes to know the costumes of the past—unnoticed by the audience. As Mr. Kolker points out, one feels one is wrong and that wrong must be righted before we feel comfortable. I had to play a rough part one time and I was miserable until I had discarded silk underwear and substituted the thing a kid would wear. It's the same in costumes of three hundred years ago."

CAPITOL
When Lewis Sargent, a young actor, was called upon to shave for a scene in "Just Around the Corner," a Paramount-Compton picture now playing at the Capitol Theatre it developed he had no beard! Frances Marion, the director, decided that the only way out of the difficulty was to pull out some of his eyebrows, so the young actor had to submit to a pair of tweezers applied to his brows fifteen or twenty times until an adequate supply of "whiskers" was had. "And to think," he said, "that thousands of women willingly have their eyes 'plucked'!"

The story of "Just Around the Corner" was written by Fannie Hurst and the locale is the East Side of New York, the atmosphere in which Miss Hurst's story "Humoresque" was cast.

VARIETY
A new kind of sleuth figures in "Partners of the Night," now at the Variety Theatre. And there is only one kiss in the plot. In fact a certain queer brand of cigars plays a more important role than kisses usually do. The story begins at an Atlantic liner coming in to port, and the plot is well under way when New York is reached. In New York the sky is the limit, and gambling figures in this story. There is a bank and a gambling den and police headquarters where an especially fine type of police commissioner is in charge. Under him is a crook who tries to queer the hero and frame up the chief. Meanwhile the young detective Clifford follows the trail of a woman and two men. Is he in love with a thief? He doesn't know. That night in the apartment house with the three motor cars waiting outside was full of complications. The big moments follow fast. Sympathy increases where you would least expect it. Things begin to look bad for Clifford. The frame-up of the crook at headquarters loses Clifford his job. Another frame-up is planned for the commissioner.

BOARD WIELDS PRUNING KNIFE IN SECRET SESSION

Police Annual Estimates Approximate $87,000 For the Year

With Mayor Marchant in the chair, the Board of Police Commissioners met in private session to discuss estimates last night, sitting in the office of the Chief of Police. The session lasted from eight o'clock until just before midnight, and something of the nature of a split developed on the question of police salaries, with the Mayor and Commissioner Staneland standing in favor of extensive cuts and Commissioner North opposed to any reduction of the salaries of last year.

Though the Press was excluded during the discussion, it is estimated that drastic pruning was effected. Mayor Marchant and Commissioner Staneland, it is declared, propounded policy that would shave some $11,000 from the annual police estimates, bringing them down to the neighborhood of $84,000 for this year, in place of some $95,000 of former years. Finally $8,000 was saved bringing the figure to some $87,000.

Commissioner North is understood to have been in agreement with the majority of the Board on most points. The estimates were considered with perfect unanimity in the Board until it was moved that the $7.50 increase voted to the police by the Hall-North regime last year should be cut off. Commissioner North was on his feet. It is asserted in confidence that the increase then considered necessary, and pointed out that the increase had, in effect, gone before the people in the last election—it being one of the policies of the Hall-North regime which was, he stated, ratified by the election of Mr. Staneland.

Mayor Marchant, he it is asserted, had dropped fully ten per cent since that increase had been granted and that the cut of $7.50 from each man of the department would not be felt.

Salary Issue.
Commissioner North demurred further, and contended that the $7.50 had only been won from the Council after a hard fight, wherein $15 a month increase had been asked and that it would not be fair "to give it to the men to-day and take it away to-morrow."

Mayor Marchant and Commissioner Staneland stood firm, it is asserted, for the City, while as a compromise Commissioner North suggested that as $7.50 cut was too much to take from the men of the department he would propose a $4 cut. This was not accepted and the cut was put into effect at $7.50, the amount of the increase last year, with Commissioner North being recorded in the negative. The discussion of this phase of the estimates alone occupied over an hour with Commissioner North fighting every step of the ground, against the will of the majority.

Mr. Heatley's Salary.
The next item was the discussion of a salary for Sergeant Heatley who is slated for promotion, with effect from February 1 as "Inspector Sergeant," with rank of second in command. Sergeant Heatley was formerly in receipt of some $142 a month, but the Board last night decided, it is said, to increase his salary to $170 a month, the figure formerly received by Deputy Chief

Strength
Strength of muscle does not indicate strength of nerves. On this account many people who look healthy enough suffer from nervous troubles and cannot understand what is ailing them. Sleeplessness and irritability are among the early symptoms. Indigestion and tired feelings soon follow.

Read this letter from an Ontario man:
Mr. W. L. Gregory, Charles St. E., Ingersoll, Ont., writes:
"I had been troubled for quite a while with indigestion. At times there would be a twitching of the nerves of my stomach; and I also found it difficult to get a good night's sleep. I am a moulder, and owing to the nature of my work my system became run-down. I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found great benefit from the medicine. They did me a great deal of good. I have not been bothered at all with indigestion since, and can sleep much better. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, as I think it splendid for anyone run-down and needing a tonic."

THE "MAPLE LEAFS"
The favorite fourth division "Maple Leafs" will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre on January 23 and 24, presenting their new 1921 version of the merry musical revue, "Camouflage."

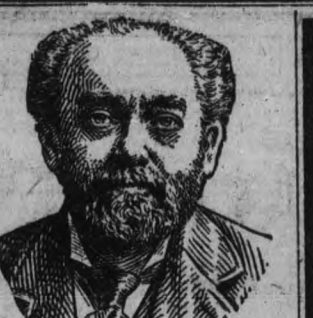

The "Maple Leafs" are now on their second coast-to-coast tour of the Dominion and are meeting with even greater success this season with their latest offering, which is under the direction of Capt. M. W. Plunkett. Several of the boys have just concluded an engagement as a headline act on Shubert vaudeville in the United States, and it was Captain Plunkett's original intention of dividing the show into two vaudeville acts for the entire season, but with the "Dumbbells" playing so much of their time across the line, the demand for another soldier show in Canada was so insistent that another trans-continental tour of the "Maple Leafs" was arranged.

Ben Allen, Pat Rafferty, Morley Plunkett, Jack Challes, Harry Ashton, Bob Anderson, Jack Kelly, Jimmy Graham, Ben Patch, of Victoria, and Hattie Williamson, all favorites of last season are still with the company, which has been further augmented by the addition of a male quartette and several individual acts.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND
"I am raising a fund for poor children," stated the philanthropic gentleman, seated at the desk of his office.
"Yes, that is why I called," stated the visitor, "you see I am raising poor children for the fund."

"THE WALL FLOWER"
Colleen Moore is to make an appearance shortly in "The Wall Flower," a Goldwyn production which is to be released about the first of the year.
Just about the time that William Duncan, Vitagraph's Western star, figured he would require a long location trip to secure water scenes, the flood-gates of Heaven broke loose in Southern California, and Mr. Duncan had a number of raging torrents from which to choose his Western atmosphere in "Man Hunters," which he is now producing.

A Successful Man

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines was Dr. R. V. Pierce. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line.

Over fifty years ago this noted physician gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equaled for the weakness of women. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all thru treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backbone, headache, weakening pains, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it in both tablet and fluid form.

Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Branch Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., for trial package tablets.

Palmer, when the latter was second to the Chief.
Discussion next turned to salaries and rank to be given to the Ex-Deputy Chief Palmer, and Ex-Sergeant Walker. Commissioner North held that they had been "appointed constables" and that their salary should be in accordance with that rank Mayor Marchant and Commissioner Staneland were understood to be in favor of promoting both to rank of desk sergeant and including Jailor Hall in this move. In the end, they were appointed desk sergeants at a salary of $150, and Thomas Hall as "junior desk sergeant," with $135 a month.

T. Harry Bamford was appointed at a salary of $100 a month as stenographer in the detective department. The appointee is a returned man and a native son, being given preference over some seven applicants.
The next question before the board was a figure for salaries for the four new men recently taken on the force, two as specials, and two as probationers. It was decided to let two out, and to employ the others at the usual rates for probationers, the selection to be left to Chief Fry.

It was decided that with Detective Sergt. O'Leary that Detectives Phipps and Rogers would be permanent, and that three plain clothes men transferred from the uniform side would be attached to the department every two or three weeks, in rotation, to give the necessary additional aid required in this direction.
The board also decided to recommend that the City Council ratify the purchase of a Ford touring car for the use of the department. After revising the estimates, the Board provided $1,000 to meet unlooked for contingencies.

Crucial Rugby Game For McKechnie Mug

Vancouver Meets 'Varsity To-morrow and Win for Former Will Give Victoria Chance to Tie Up Series—Both Teams Are Keen

Vancouver, Jan. 20.—Varsity and Vancouver rugger are all set for the most important game of the McKechnie Cup series to-morrow afternoon. If the collegians hang up another victory they will clinch the provincial honors and the silverware, so the "rep" squad is keen to lower the colors of the student players.

If the Vancouver men turn the trick, a three-cornered tie becomes a possibility.

Victoria's wonderful improvement in form in the second and third game of the provincial series has made the race an exceedingly interesting one. The Varsity squad got away to a good start in the opener when they downed the Vancouver fifteen 7-3. The Vancouverians came back strong when they defeated Victoria, here 20-8, due to an injury to Tommy Heyland which left the Capitals with but fourteen men.

Capitals Counted On.

Then the Islanders began to show form and the result of the third game was a 3-0 victory over Vancouver. In the fourth game of the series, the collegians pulled out a good lead by defeating Victoria 14-5, having much the best of the play, and they will give the students a good run in the final game here.

The collegians have eased up on the training this week as they ground at Eighteenth and Heather are a crowd hard. Each member of the squad has been running and all are in excellent condition. From present indications it looks as if the Varsity squad will be at full strength.

Rugby in Victoria will be restricted to two games to-morrow. The Old Boys and Royal Naval College will meet at Oak Bay in the Senior League. These teams are well matched in regard to weight and speed, and the game should be fast and very even.

In the Intermediate League the Wanderers and J. B. A. will play off for the championship of the league, and when the Wanderers defeated the Bays last Saturday the race was tied up. The play-off has been arranged for to-morrow at Granmore Road.

Mixed Audiences at Boxing Bout Barred in Future

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 20.—Boxing bouts in Cleveland under a new ruling by Mayor Keher will be for men only, or for women only.

"In no case," the Mayor said, "will a bout be permitted before a crowd of both men and women. Violation of the rule will mean revoking the license of the club. If women must see boxing bouts let them arrange to have them witnessed entirely by members of their own sex."

Ladysmith Will Make First Visit Here in Years

Miners, Who Went East After Canadian Soccer Championship Last Spring, Will Meet Wests Here To-morrow Afternoon—Other Games

Provided there is not a sudden drop in temperature which would convert the Royal Athletic Park into a skating rink, the Island League fixture between Ladysmith and Victoria West will be played to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Charlie Faulkner will referee.

The Wests are hoping that the weather will continue mild and that all the snow will have disappeared from the surface of the park by the hour the game is to start. The city champions are anxious not to lose the chance of getting back at the miners and revenge the defeat which they suffered at their hands last week-end.

If the mercury does a skidding act during the night and goes down to take a lot at the bottom of the bulb the game will be entirely out of the question. The officials of the league do not want to run the risk of having players injured and they will wire Ladysmith to stay at home if there is any sign of a freeze-up.

The Wests took a weakened team to Ladysmith last week-end and suffered a 4-1 defeat. Jack Youson, manager of the Wests, admits that his team was not quite up to the calibre of the miners but he says that the score should not have been as great against them.

"I feel quite confident that with our regular line-up we can trim them," said Jack this morning. "We want to get at them again and if conditions are favorable to-morrow you'll find us showing the miners a merry chase."

This game will be the classic football fixture to-morrow. This is the first time that Ladysmith has visited Victoria to play a regular league game for several seasons. The miners have one of the best teams in the country and last Spring went to Toronto to play in the finals for the Connaught Cup, emblematic of the football championship of Canada. They were beaten only by the excessive heat in the East.

The Mets, the other Victoria representative in the Island League, are slated to go to Nanaimo, but conditions on the Malahat are said to be against motoring so it is possible that this game will be cancelled. The up-Island teams are drying out their engagements but the locals find it necessary to motor in order to make the connections.

South Wellington and Cumberland will play in the third Island League game on the former's grounds.

The Wests will take the field as follows: Shand; White and Copas; Baker, Chester and Thomas; Sherratt, Allan, Peden, Muir and Clark-son.

Three games are slated for the Combination Football League to-morrow afternoon. The Thistles, who are breezing along and fine shape and have so far not met with one defeat, are to meet the Metropolis at the Stadium. The former Second Division eleven is going out with the sole object of tumbling the Scotches, but this is a very big order.

The Sons of Canada will oppose the Garrison at Work Point. This should prove another good tussle. The Garrison playing on their home grounds will be exceptionally strong.

Railroaders Expect Win.

The third game will be between the C. P. R. and Wilson's Engine. The railroad men expect to pick up this game, believing that the new men they have landed will bring them many wins before the season closes. Wilson's, however, are confident that they have the ability and speed to come through.

The Metropolis will line up as follows: Greig; Dowds and McIlvride; Gillingham, Hae and Dryborough; Biggam, Tostevin, Tobby, Essler and Hayward. Players are to meet at clubrooms at 2 o'clock.

The Thistles will line up as follows: Hewitt; Burton and Rickinson; Falchen, Roe and Potter; Wright, Howden, Sandison, Allen, Mulcahy, Reserves, Munro and Pitts.

High School Juniors—Kathy Wellburn, Blossom Barnett, Evelyn Crimmins, Jessie Platt and Jeanette McQueen.

St. Saviour's—Jessie Lightwood, Mildred Grant, Emily Anderson, Francis Andros and Audrey Griffin.

FEMINE GOLFERS TO BUILD LINK OF OWN IN NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 20.—Feminine golf devotees here have launched the organization of a club and acquired an option on a site for a course which women only will be permitted to play. Eastern women for the most part are behind the project. Miss Marjorie Hollins, of Westport, N. Y., United States woman golf champion, is chairman of the organization committee.

Miss Hollins will leave next week for England, where it is understood she will confer with Miss Cecil Leitch, who is taking a deep interest in the new club. They intend to visit the courses which offer the best examples of links construction for women's championships. Because of her work in connection with organization of the new club, which expects to have its course ready for use next season, Miss Hollins has announced that she will not play in the British Women's championship tournament this year.

Wants to Make Personal Appeal for Lifting of Suspension; Judge Is Sick

Chicago, Jan. 20.—"Babe" Ruth has decided that he went too far in violating the rules of organized baseball by playing post-season games, and is attempting to persuade Judge K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, to get him punishment of suspension until May 20 and a fine of more than $3,000.

Ruth, who is appearing at a theatre here this week, telephoned Judge Landis' office in an effort to arrange a personal interview with him, but the judge, was confined to his home with a bad cold.

It has taken Babe Ruth a long time to publicly repent. When he committed the breach of baseball laws by barnstorming, he would see who was the biggest man in baseball Landis or Ruth? He seemed to care little for Landis, and believed in fact of his popularity that Landis would not dare hand out a heavy sentence. Stories came over the wire that many of Babe's supporters were ready to organize a new league with the barn-bino as the central figure.

Just Dawning On Him.

They went to the matt. In regard to size Ruth was bigger than Landis, but what an awful headlock the judge got on the Babe. It has taken the homerun king all this time to realize what happened. It all begins to dance before his eyes. The fine of $3,000 means nothing to Ruth, but the suspension has cropped him like a tiger's tooth. It means that he can't break his homerun record unless he reveals something new in sweating powers. This will reduce the Babe's drawing ability at the gate, and prevent him from demanding the big increase which he was expecting in his salary for 1922. Ruth's contract expired with the Yankees last Fall, and he is due for a new one this year. If he would be able to play the whole season he would be in a better position to hold for a huge increase, but now he is more or less lassooed.

MOOSE JOHNSON MAY NOT BE WITH TEAM BUT EDDIE OATMAN WILL FILL HIS POSITION ON DEFENCE; MILLIONAIRES ARE ANXIOUS TO WIN GAME IN ORDER TO RETURN HOME AS LEADERS OF P. C. H. A.

Victoria must battle hard to-night to retain the leadership of the P. C. H. A., because Lloyd Cook is bringing over his husky warriors primed with a fixed determination to unsettle the Arics.

Victoria is now sailing along with a one-point advantage and by winning to-night they will be assured of the leadership for another week, even if they lose to the Millionaires next Monday night on the Mainland.

The Aristocrats will more than likely take the ice to-night minus the services of Moose Johnson. However, if he does not show up Eddie Oatman will be used at right defence so that the team will not suffer any. The club M.O. announces that Eddie's game leg is now healed and able to stand part of a game if not a full one.

Over in Seattle on Wednesday night Johnson told Lester Patrick that he was going to Portland. It is not known whether the veteran will be returning for the game to-night, but if he does not the Aristocrats will breeze along without his services for the first time in many seasons.

Take No Chances.

The Arics know what they are up against to-night and intend to take no chances. With Oatman and Clem Loughlin on the defence the fat boys on top of Fowler, and Harry Meeking can be depended upon attending to the needs of either Jack Adams or Mickey Mackay in their centre ice rushes. Even if a man swings by Meeking the little rover wheels quickly and catches his man before he has time to shoot.

The Aristocrats will turn loose the old attacking division. Wilf Loughlin will be at left wing, Dundardale on right and Frederickson in centre ice. Tim Halderon will start the game on the fence but will see plenty of service. In the event of the Moose not showing up Lester Patrick will crawl into his playing togs and be ready to relieve any of the defence men who find themselves tired.

Cookies Are Hot.

The Millionaires are crazy about grabbing off the league leadership. They always like to promenade on the ice in their own front yard as the top dogs and they intend to go back home ready for Monday night's game as the king-pins in the race.

The Arics are determined to have the Arics will have something to say about the way the things go.

The Aristocrats are making a great name for themselves as finishers. They usually wind up their games with sensational bursts of speed. The last two games in Seattle they have won in really dramatic fashion with a furious attack and even if the boys happen to be lagging by a goal or two at the end of the second period they start to break away from the group that they are leading and rush back into the lead. The Millionaires have a fast crowd of skaters but they are not as well conditioned and able to stand the gaff longer.

Going After Goals.

The players on both teams are reported in good shape. Skinner and Harris who were casualties in the game last Monday night have fully recovered and are anxious to go after goals to-night.

There will be a merry race for the scoring averages. As a result of the wild jamboree over in Vancouver on Monday night Adams and MacKay boosted their averages and are now two points out in front of Frederickson.

The teams will likely be as follows, provided Johnson does not arrive:

Victoria	Position	Vancouver
Powder	Goal	Lehman
C. Loughlin	Defence	Duncan
Meeking	Defence	Cook
Dundardale	Rover	MacKay
Frederickson	R. Wing	Skinner
W. Loughlin	Centre	Adams
Halderson	Utility	Harris

"DON" HEYLAND, STAR ATHLETE, HAS PASSED

One of Best Wing Three-quarters This Province Ever Produced, Dies

"Don" Heyland, one of the finest wing three-quarters ever developed in British Columbia, passed away at the Royal Jubilee Hospital yesterday morning after a lingering illness. He was one of the best hundred and two-hundred yard runners in this city. He was a member of the High School rugby team which captured the Thompson Cup, emblematic of the Provincial High School championship, several years ago.

One of the First to Go.

When war broke out "Don" volunteered for active service, although still in his teens. He left with the first draft from the 50th Gordon Highlanders and transferred to the 1st Canadian Scottish. He was wounded in 1917 and did not return to the firing line. After the Armistice he returned to Victoria and took up rugby as his chief sport. He played three-quarter on the Foundation team, which won the McKechnie Cup in 1918. On resuming his studies at the University of British Columbia "Don" went in for the game on the Mainland and he played for "Varsity" and was picked on the Vancouver rep team. He was without doubt one of the headiest, fastest and cleanest wing three-quarters ever turned out.

Two years ago he had a recurrence of a disease which he contracted overseas, and although he put up a valiant fight he succumbed.

"Don" was a brother of Tommy Heyland, the famous local rugby and soccer player.

In a recent match The Colonist Printers rolled what is said to be the highest score ever made on this alley. ### METS PLAY NANAIMO.

The Mets, the other Victoria representative in the Island League, are slated to go to Nanaimo, but conditions on the Malahat are said to be against motoring so it is possible that this game will be cancelled.

RICKARD BREAKS BOYCOTT WILL PUT ON GOOD FIGHTS

New York, Jan. 20.—All's quiet along the New York frontier now the static war is over. And Tex Rickard emerges a victor.

The grand army of Bolshevik managers and muzzama-crazed mitt sengers has finally surrendered. The boys finally came to realize that the warfare they were conducting was harming none but themselves. And when that great awakening came they suddenly ceased in their endeavor to wreck the fight game in Gotham and now are besieging Rickard with pleas of: "Lemme fight for you."

Britton Breaks and Signs.

Jack Britton, king of welters, and Dan Morgan, his doughy manager, were among those that opposed Rickard. As a reward, Jack has drawn the first championship fight within the Garden, which will give him more money than he has earned since he decided he'd fight no more for Rickard.

And then Johnny Wilson, plus Marty Killies, his manager, capitulated. Johnny agreed to fight Harry Greb, under Rickard's promotion, along in February. But after Johnny thought it all over he perhaps concluded that fighting Greb was equivalent to surrendering his championship title.

So Johnny hurled that contract. Right away the State Athletic Commission of New York suspended him indefinitely. Other State Commissions placed the ban on Johnny. That realization that he was up against the alternative of fighting Greb and probably losing his title—or fighting nobody nowhere.

Therefore, the chances are that Johnny and Marty will reconsider—and light Greb for his own sake and for the sake of Dan McKerrick—likewise Scott Monteith—who were among the earliest of the prominent managers who gave battle to Rickard, laid down their arms some time ago.

Leonard Came Back.

The last of the Mohicans was Billy Gibson. When all other managers were by one, decided that fighting for Rickard was far more lucrative than fighting him, Gibson, ably aided and abetted by Benny Leonard, chortled: "Nix, nix; we never will surrender. Never, never, oh, never again will I permit Leonard to fight under Rickard's promotion."

Gibson perhaps meant it when he said it, but in the era which followed he got to thinking about affairs of finance. He remembered that Leonard got $35,000 for one fight in the Garden and $40,000 for another. Likewise, he recalled that ever since he and Leonard boycotted the Garden they've earned no real money. It is a well-established fact that a champion can get more money for fighting one fight in Madison Square Garden than he can through quarrelling a half dozen times elsewhere during the winter months.

And at last one wintry afternoon Billy Gibson and Benny Leonard and Tex Rickard sat down all by their little selves and began to hum: "Dear Old Pal O' Mine."

It's All Over.

They've since stored away their bludgeons, their machetes and their bowie knives; they've tossed into the sea the gate and the sawed-off shotgun. Peace prevails.

Soon—very, very soon—because he does need the money and the manager needs the money, too—Leonard who wasn't ever going to fight for Rickard again, is going to fight quite a few fights in Madison Square Garden.

Perhaps he'll take on Rocky Kansas for a February warm-up; tackle Charlie White in March. And, then if he emerges unthroned from those affairs, will bring the indoor boxing season of 1922 to a close by mingling with Lew Tindler.

FRANK BAKER MAY NOT BE ABLE TO GET PLACE

New York, Jan. 20.—Even if Frank Baker decides to return to the Yankees this season, despite reports that he has determined to retire, he will not be certain of winning back his place on the Yankees. The last word old post at third base received from Baker was that he was raring to play ball again but this was before he was married.

However, the Yanks have Mike McNally for the post, and as Baker seemed to be slowing up last season while Mike was approaching perfection there will be competition at third. Then also the Yanks has Glen Killinger, the great Penn State football star and all-round athlete and Norman McMillan, a strong hitter and fast fielder and base runner obtained from Rochester of the International League.

V. I. A. A. BASKETBALL

The senior men's basketball teams of the V. I. A. A. and St. Andrew's Church played last evening at the V. I. A. A. gymnasium, and resulted in a win for the former by 34-15. In the early part of the game the church boys took the lead, and it looked as if they would win with ease. Towards the latter part of the first half the V. I. A. boys started to play a better combination game, with the result that at half time they had a lead of two baskets. At the resumption of play the combination of the church team seemed to go to pieces, with the result that the V. I. A. boys forged ahead and won the game in an easy manner. The teams lined up as follows:

V. I. A. A.—Guards, C. English, J. Fairall; centre, W. Huxtable; forwards, N. Kennedy and Ted Dunn.

St. Andrew's—Guards, J. Barclay and Dave Barclay; centre, Bill Erickson; forwards, E. Squire and J. Cobley.

MOTH DESTROYS $160,000 FRUIT IN OKANAGAN

Delegates attending the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Convention in session here headed by their President, G. E. Barnes, went to the Parliament Buildings and told Premier Oliver and members of the executive that the codlin moth has infested an area of 1,000 acres in the Okanagan.

The loss to the growers, they said, will average about 80 cents a box on about 200,000 boxes, or $160,000 based upon the cost of production, or about $160 an acre.

Premier Oliver said that personally he could not see how the Government could provide compensation out of general revenue for loss sustained by the growers, but that the industry would have to bear the cost of the eradication of the pest and the loss sustained from its operation.

The Premier said that the question would be considered of making a grant this year to get the work started.

It was brought out in the discussion that to spread the total estimated loss of $160,000 over the total fruit area of 20,000 acres would amount to $8 an acre assessment for compensation.

"The Government has many obligations and in view of the many financial demands we are getting about as popular as a skunk at a party," the Premier said.

The Premier in reply to complaints at the present method of assessing fruit lands said that the growers had a good case to put before the Courts of Revision as condition of orchards affected by the pest should be good ground for assessment reduction.

The fruit men also told the Premier that with the advance in duty

BRITISH COLUMBIA GROWERS ARE ABLE TO HOLD THE PRAIRIE MARKET AND THAT DUMPING RESTRICTIONS AGAINST UNITED STATES FRUIT HAD PROVED VALUABLE TO THEM.

The Premier promised that the new taxation proposals as they affect assessment of growers' lands would be fully considered as agriculturists said they would be hard hit because of the certainty of poor returns this year coupled with the increased taxation.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and look, streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Advl.

SAANICH COUNCIL SITS IN WAITING FOR MORE ADVICE

Old Council Transacts Municipal Business; Election Tangle Discussed

Possibly the shortest session of the 1921 Municipal Council of Saanich took place last night at Royal Oak necessary routine business, occupying the greater portion of the hour devoted to official matters.

At the close of the meeting a letter from J. B. Clearhue, M. P. P., was presented to the Council. This stated that, at the request of a number of ratepayers of Saanich, he submitted his opinion upon the present election tangle.

After reviewing phases of the Provincial statutes forming part of the Municipal Elections Act and the Municipal Act, Mr. Clearhue summed up in opposition to any possibility that the 1922 Council, as selected by the ratepayers on Saturday last, could function without another election.

He then referred to allegations in circulation as to the authority of Reeve Watson during the past two years, believed his actions could be questioned, and said he had advised against the institution of proceedings, advising nevertheless that the Council should take steps to validate his actions.

Councillor Ormond demanded: "Who asked Mr. Clearhue for this opinion?" Clerk Cowper reminded the Council that it was submitted at the request of a number of interested ratepayers, while Reeve Watson remarked, "Certainly I did not." Councillor Ormond continued, "Well, I think he has an awful nerve," whereupon Councillor Vantreight remarked, "I guess some one paid him for it."

The letter was then ordered received and filed.

Wants Sewer By-Law.

Councillor Simpson asked, "What steps are being taken to validate the recent election?"

Reeve Watson replied that the matter was still in the hands of the municipal legal advisers, whereupon Mr. Simpson continued, "I was going to suggest that, if we must have a new election, it would be a good thing to submit a new sewer by-law to the people at the same time."

Councillor Ormond protested, "I think that would be an awful mistake. The public feeling is that the present candidates should be returned by acclamation if an election should prove necessary."

Councillor Kingwell interjected, "It's only a few want that."

While Councillor Simpson announced, "A new election cannot be a formality, it must be real in all its aspects." The adjournment was then successfully accomplished.

Councillors Kingwell and Simpson left the Council Chamber immediately, but the remainder of the 1921 Council together with prospective councillors Pim, Dooley and Macneil, remained for nearly an hour to discuss various phases of the impasse which has arisen through the

VETERANS GAIN EMPLOYERS' TRUST

Amalgamated Association Finding Work For Ex-Service Men

The results of the endeavors of the Amalgamated Veterans' Association in finding employment for ex-service men are highly satisfactory, and large numbers of men from that body are now handling the coal on the waterfront, which work has been monopolized by Asiatics. Slight difficulty was experienced at first in finding men for that class of work, but now that it is known that such work is obtainable there is no dearth of husky ex-service men who are only too willing to grasp the shovel and send the coal flying in a continual stream. Other work is coming in, and the employment committee is gaining the confidence of employers throughout the city who are now offering contracts of work of no small dimensions.

The next general meeting of the association will be held next Wednesday at the Trades and Labor Hall, when matters of vital interest will be discussed, including the value of unity of ex-service bodies for the common good of the people of Vancouver Island. A large attendance is requested.

Late subscriptions to the relief fund are as follows: W. H. Wisner, $100; Mrs. A. Saunders, $2, and a large quantity of magazines for ex-service men in hospitals donated from Mr. Beaven and G. B. Garnett. Communications from up-island comrades will be welcomed by E. F. Thorpe, secretary, 127 Pemberton Building, Victoria, who is delighted with the daily increasing membership.

LOUISIANA LIKES CANADA EXHIBIT

Shows Southerners Country's Possibilities

Agricultural Progress Impresses Visitors at Fair

Shreveport, La., Jan. 20.—"Canada's exhibit is a message of wonderful agricultural progress," said Governor Parker of Louisiana. "Everyone attending our state fair will be deeply impressed by the obvious resources of our northern neighbor."

Governor Parker had been examining the Canadian Government exhibit of wheat, oats, vegetables, fruits and dairy products, and the miniature farm typical of the rich mixed-farming stretches of the Prairie Provinces. He was interested in what Frank H. Hewitt and M. J. Johnson, government representatives had to say about minerals, fisheries, and timber and oil resources. But he was even more interested in the type of oats that recently won world championship honors at the International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago.

"Canada's educational exhibit," he said, "should become a permanent part of the Louisiana state fair."

Great credit is due Mr. Hewitt in getting together the exhibit, which displayed from so many angles the wonderful resources of Canada. The work of making the collection was one which required much time and labor on Mr. Hewitt's part and a remarkably expert knowledge of various phases of industry and agriculture.

H. M. Williams, representing the Industrial and Resources Department of the Canadian National Railways of which DeWitt Foster is superintendent with headquarters in Chicago second largest wheat grower in a second largest wheat grower in the world.

"Latest figures," Mr. Williams said, "place the crop at 329,825,300 bushels, 90 per cent of which was grown in the three Prairie Provinces. Canada is the second largest producer of oats with 510,093,000 bushels of which 60 per cent was grown between Winnipeg and the Rockies. As a barley producer Canada ranks fifth with 64,252,800 bushels. The Prairies yield 65 per cent. Farm animals on the Prairies number 6,928,317, of which 881,899 are milk cows. Dairy-ling is only second in importance to grain growing.

"Canada's rise as a dairying nation is reflected in the swelling production figures. Farmers in the rich districts along the Canadian National Railways and the quick, certain returns from dairy products. Blooded animals are replacing scrubs. The first Canadian dairy factory was established in 1864. To-day there are 3,300 dairy factories, and returns from the country's 3,550,000 milk cows is estimated at well over $200,000,000 a year, with an average gain of approximately $5,000,000 a year.

"Canada is deeply proud of her past record and confident of her future."

Confidence in Situation Feature of Annual Meeting of Royal Bank of Canada

Sir Herbert Holt, President, Points Out That Canada, After Accepting Every Obligation Arising Out of the Conflict, is Stronger Materially Than Before the War.

Edson L. Pease, Vice-President and Managing Director, Draws Attention to Helpful Part Played by Banks During Period of Exceptional Stress—Business Demoralization Averted in Canada by Banks.

Montreal, Jan. 20.—(Special)—A large gathering of shareholders was present at the annual general meeting of shareholders of the Royal Bank of Canada held at the head office here. Keen interest was displayed in the remarks of the president, vice-president, and general manager, especially so those of the latter, wherein he explained the close manner in which the affairs of the bank were scrutinized by the directors at Montreal at various points throughout the country, and by the bank's auditors.

Sir Herbert S. Holt, chairman, before his survey of the general situation, referred to the bank's position, saying: "I first desire to emphasize the General Manager's statement, and I have further to say that the Managing Director, the General Manager and Executive Officers of the Bank are officials of long experience and proved ability, and that the affairs of the Bank receive the unremitting attention of myself and your directors. I have no hesitation in stating that, in my opinion, the organization and system of supervision in this Bank are unexcelled."

Economy Strongly Urged.

Sir Herbert took a very hopeful view of the outlook in Canada, at the same time emphasizing the importance of economy, both in public and private life. Dealing with the general situation, Sir Herbert said:

"Canada, after accepting every obligation arising out of the conflict, is stronger materially than before the war. We have our debt and our railway and shipping problems, all of which will tax the wisdom of our statesmen, but on the other side of the scale we must place the growth of towns and cities, industrial expansion, the increase in savings, and the fact that most of our bonds are held in the Dominion. Compared with conditions in Europe, we are fortunate indeed."

"In conclusion, I wish to say that the scope and character of the existing depression in world trade, forbid us to hope for an early or easy return to prosperity. Yet I do not think that we in Canada need feel any great apprehension as to the future. The unprecedented decline in prices, which was the worst feature of the last year and a half, can hardly be repeated. I trust that the period immediately before us will be one of salutary economy, both in public and private life, the best preparation for renewed prosperity."

BRITISH RAILWAY INQUIRY IS HELD

Scottish Companies Asked Revision of Wages

London, Jan. 20.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The National Wage Board is now hearing the case for the railway workers in an appeal submitted by the Scottish railway companies for a revision of wages and hours.

Railwaymen testified that this appeal has already caused unrest and discontent throughout the Scottish railways. It is announced that when the eight-hour day becomes operative the companies showed no inclination to bring it into force and the men therefore took the law into their own hands and refused to work more than eight hours. One witness said the north British railway workers were prepared to negotiate with the companies regarding the length of the work day at railway stations.

There have been many dismissals since the railways were released from Government control.

SOUTH AFRICAN STRIKE LEADS TO NO DISTURBANCES

London, Jan. 19.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A remarkable feature of the strike of coal and gold miners which, in the case of the gold miners, has now continued nine days, is the moderation with which it is being conducted by both sides, say dispatches from Johannesburg.

Anticipating that the power supply will cease on Saturday, the newspapers are calling upon the Government to take the situation in hand to operate pumping stations and insure that the hospitals will get water.
