TURKS RECOGNIZE FOREIGN ADVISERS

To Accept Recommendations Affecting Foreigners Arrested in Turkey

No Agreement Yet On Concessions in Anatolia

Lausanne, June 5.—The long-standing controversy over judicial guarantees for foreigners in Turkey has been adjusted by the Near East Conference, thus removing one of the stumbling blocks in the path leading to the peace treaty.

The Turks agree to the appointment of four foreign advisers who will be authorized to follow the proceedings in all cases and make recommendations to the Turkish Ministry of Justice. These advisers must be informed of all arrests and domiciliary searches.

Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, refused today to accept any of the Allied proposals that their concessions in Anatolia be safeguarded in the peace treaty. He professed to be without authority to deal with the question, and a private meeting between him and the leading Allied delegates in an effort to adjust this question proved fruitless.

VANCOUVER CLUB BY-LAW IS TESTED

Effort to Dissolve All But Newly Licensed Clubs

Solicitors of Clubs Say Measure Has Loopholes

Vancouver, June 5.—Officials of the Vancouver civic license and police departments will start a drive to-morrow to put out of business all but the seventy-one clubs for which licenses were granted by the City Council last Friday.

Chief license inspector Charles Jones said he expected to receive reports from the police to-day regarding the non-licensed clubs which have continued to operate.

Some of the proprietors of the clubs which were refused licenses are hesitating as to the advisability of closing their doors, according to reports.

Those which remain open to-morrow, however, will run the risk of incurring a fine of $100 under the by-laws. Stewards, managers and owners will all be liable for this amount, in the new by-law stipulates.

The new club by-law, under which more than seventy clubs in operation in the city have been refused licenses, is to undergo an acid test soon when the opposition forces of the city and the clubs clash over the legality of the measure, according to solicitors for the club men, who declare the by-law is full of loopholes and that they will attack the validity of the measure in their effort to secure recognition for their clients.

Solicitors last night were a bit shy at stating just what technicalities would be raised in the test of the measure, but declared there were big loopholes and that they would use them as basis for their cases.

PROGRESSIVE M. P.'S FACTORY VISITORS

Gather Information in Eastern Canadian Industrial Centres

Still Unconvinced Manufacturers Need Protection

Montreal, June 5.—Although admitting that the future development of the Dominion is in a desperate condition, the Progressive members of the House of Commons who have been visiting industrial centres in the East will carry home with them their own ideas on political matters, unconvinced that Canadian industries require any protection whatever, according to a statement by Alfred Speakman, member for Red Deer, Alberta.

Mr. Speakman's declaration was made in the course of a luncheon rendezvous, a considerable number of Western members by Sir Charles Gordon and officers of Montreal Cottons, Ltd., at Valleyfield yesterday.

LOWER TAXES FOR FARMERS

Relief Measure for Agriculturists Now Before British Commons

London, June 5.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Another important measure, part of the Government's programme for the relief of distress among agriculturists, came before the House of Commons yesterday.

Neville Chamberlain, president of the Board of Health, moved second reading of the Agricultural Rates Bill. He said agriculture was in a desperate condition. Wages had gone down to a deplorably low level and unless something was done to assist the industry there was fear that much of the arable land would go out of cultivation altogether or go to grass, which would be disastrous not merely to agriculturists, but to the city dwellers, who were in no condition to sustain further addition to the lists of unemployed.

The bill provides that the occupiers of agricultural lands which now pay half-rates, the other half being paid by the state, should in future pay only one-quarter of their taxes. The difference thus created would be met by grants from the Exchequer.

The relief that would thus be afforded agriculture is estimated at £2,500,000 yearly.

Both Liberals and Labor members were opposed to the bill, but it was given second reading by a vote of 286 to 127.

PROGRESS MADE WITH BANK ACT

Committee of Commons Continues Work On Measure

No Official Information Regarding New Merger

Ottawa, June 5.—(Canadian Press)—Discussion of non-contentious clauses of the Bank Act was continued at the session of the Commons Committee on Banking and Commerce this morning.

G. G. Coote, Progressive, Macleod, moved an amendment to Clause 101, which provides for the purchase of the assets of a bank. It provides further that the agreement of sale and purchase must be approved by the shareholders of the purchasing as well as the selling bank. The amendment carried, although Hon. W. S. Fielding said this was a purely technical matter though not mentioned in the Act.

J. T. Shaw, Independent, Calgary, referred to a newspaper report which stated that La Banque Nationale was to be merged with another bank, the name of which was not given. He asked Mr. Fielding if the Finance Department was aware of any such merger.

The Minister said he had no such information.

"Could such a merger take place without the department knowing about it?" asked a member.

"No," replied Mr. Fielding. "They must come to the department."

Larger powers for the Minister in calling for returns from banks are granted in amendments to Section 112, moved by Mr. Fielding and passed by the committee.

The double liability clause was next considered. An amendment by J. J. Hughes, Kings, P. E. I., which provided for a quadruple liability for directors or executive officers of a bank was taken up. Mr. Hughes said evidence given before the committee showed there were practically no failures in bank directors and executive officers were faithful and trustworthy. It seemed unjust that an ordinary shareholder who had practically no voice in the operation of the bank should be liable to the same extent as those in charge.

Mr. Fielding objected on grounds that it would be extremely difficult to get good men to act as directors if the amendment were carried.

The amendment was withdrawn.

BRITISH AND DOMINION GOVERNMENTS MAKING PLANS

Representatives to Meet in London in October

London, June 5.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The complete programmes for the Empire conference which will be held in London in October have not yet been received from the Dominions, but it is learned that Australia has intimated that she will raise the question of tariff preference.

It has been definitely settled that the conferences will be held as near October 1 as can be arranged, and the Economic Conference and the Imperial Conference will sit concurrently. It is expected the Economic Conference will report to the Imperial Conference where the status of Indians in Kenya will not be relegated to the October conference as was recently reported. It is recognized that this matter must be dealt with before the date.

The Colonial Office, the Board of Trade and the other departments concerned are already busy on preparations for the conference.

To Represent India

Allahabad, India, June 5.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A former law member of the Indian Government, has accepted the invitation of the Viceroy, the Earl of Hardinge, to represent India at the Imperial Conference to be held in London next October.

Speaking for the West," said Mr. Speakman. "I may say that we shall carry back with us our own ideas on political matters. I can say, yet, I am sorry to say, that these industries, those great natural resources, require any protection whatever."

He added an explanation of this statement that he felt that with the great natural water powers and efficient management, the manufacturers of Canada, with their high mental calibre, would be able to hold their own against the world.

Wish to Know Attitude.

Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Trade and Commerce, said the Liberals had burned their fingers over reciprocity in 1911 and now wanted to move cautiously and find out just what the country wanted.

Sir Charles Gordon urged that the cotton industry was not a highly protected one, quoting figures to prove his claim. He declared that immigrants did not all want to go on farms, and would go to the United States if not provided with industrial work in Canada.

VICTORIA TOMATOES INVAD PRAIRIES

Co-operation of Local Horticulturists Provides New Industry

Initiating a new export trade for Victoria District, the Victoria Horticulture Association is to-day making up the first carload of hothouse tomatoes for shipment to the Prairies to-night.

This expansion of the greenhouse industry is possible as a result of the organization carried out last year and the co-operation of all the hothouse operators in the vicinity of the city.

The carload comprises 1,200 crates, and nets Victoria growers about $5,000. Shipment is made when the fruit are on the green side, and five days' journey to Regina, the central distributing point, provided the necessary ripening period.

An interesting feature of this new industry is the economy in shipment as compared with small fruits; no pre-cooling is necessary and shipments are made in ordinary freight cars instead of the refrigerators necessary for berry shipments.

A second car of tomatoes will be sent forward next week, and should the prairie cities absorb the fruit with the speed anticipated, the Victoria Horticulture Association will be in a position to ship three carloads of tomatoes per week for about six weeks.

NEW REGISTRATION IN QUEBEC URGED

Montreal Methodist Conference Suggests Changed Birth Record System

Brockville, Ont., June 5.—Believing that the births of thousands of Protestant children in the province of Quebec have not been registered under the present system, the Montreal Methodist Conference yesterday adopted a resolution petitioning the Government of that Province to bring into effect a more uniform system of civil registration and compelling the registration of every birth within fifteen days of the event. No interference with religious registration of births was proposed.

That hardly more than thirty per cent. of the Methodist Church members are giving to missions, notwithstanding the fact that there is no lack of money, was the statement made by Dr. Charles Manning, secretary of missions, Toronto. When the probable $100,000 Dominion deficit this year in missions was united with the $228,000 deficit for the preceding two years, the surplus of current income accrued during the war would be wiped out, said Dr. Manning.

NEW COLLEGE BUILDINGS.

Toronto, June 5.—The foundation of the new Trinity College was laid in Queen's Park yesterday afternoon. The procession of the dignitaries followed the same order as that maintained in 1851, when the original college was built.

SHORTER HOURS FOR DANCE HALLS

Sarnia, Ont., June 5.—Concern regarding the "objectionable influence" of the modern dance, especially in the effect upon the lives of students, continued uncompromising hostility to race track gambling, and the need for a continuance of the prohibition fight were expressed in resolutions brought in by the department of social service and evangelism and adopted at the London Methodist Conference here yesterday afternoon. The move to restrict the hours of dancing, making it compulsory to close the halls at 11:30 o'clock every night and keep them closed from that hour on Friday night until Monday, was also endorsed.

This is true in international as well as in national affairs. If we have tranquil states it is because the people believe in the regulation of the law and maintain the integrity of their courts."

TELLING WHY ROMAN MEAL

is a "cooling" summer cereal

Why? Because it is the only alkaline cereal. "Alkaline" means opposite of acid. The blood must be alkaline, or we are hot and miserable. It is alkaline when our foods are rich in alkali. Unrefined whole-grain cereals, beans, nuts, milk, vegetables, fruits are rich in alkali. Grains carry their alkali in their dark parts. These are refined out of white flour and modern dainty cereals, leaving white flour, modern corn and wheat cereals, from 150 to 200 parts in every 1,000, and modern oat cereals about 50 parts in every 1,000 parts "Excess Acid." Acid cereals cause acid blood. Acid blood is called "heated" blood. Alkaline, whole-grain cereals keep the blood as nature intended it, alkaline or "cool." Acid blood is no hotter than alkaline but it causes that "all in" feeling so common on a hot day to civilized people, who live largely upon "Excess-Acid" foods. Roman Meal is 400 parts in each 1,000 parts "Excess Alkali" because it is one-quarter Flaxin, the richest in alkaline salts of anything that grows. It "Cools" the blood, energizes and electrifies the mind and body on the hottest day. It corrects the "excess acid" of white flour, other cereals, meats, fats and sweets. Eat it in some form every day served with milk, or with milk as drink. Use plenty of vegetables and fruits and note the high pressure sense of fitness and well-being that is yours on the hottest day. The hottest tasting Roman Meal Product will keep you feeling cooler than the coldest tasting refined cereal, because it is alkaline. But you can now eat Roman Meal icy-cold and more deliciously tempting to the palate on a hot morning than is any other food. In all forms it aids digestion, positively relieves constipation. At grocers from coast to coast.

DISCOVERED AT DISCOVERY ISLAND.

Every move that British Columbia makes towards preventing the export of liquor from this Province to the neighboring States of the Union will be appreciated by the prohibition enforcement officers on the other side of the line. The last person in the world to envy them their task and duty would be the Attorney-General of this Province. We may therefore take it that his desire to assist the United States Government, and incidentally get to the bottom of large scale bootlegging in British Columbia, is borne of a very intimate appreciation of the difficulties which beset the path of law officers.

Saturday's raid upon Discovery Island seems to have been an exceedingly important affair and the haul that was made bears tribute to the procedure adopted and its successful prosecution. By reason of the fact that such large quantities of beer were discovered it would seem to be a case of investigation at the source of supply. It is obvious that the Attorney-General is now in possession of definite proof that beer sales are being made to purchasers other than the Government in active demonstration of the brewers' belief that their Dominion license entitles them to export their wares to whom they please. A nice point of law might easily cloud that phase of Saturday's incident as far as it could apply to the Government's relations with the sources of supply.

None the less the Attorney-General will very properly want to know how it was possible for the captured shipments to leave distillery and brewery—if British Columbia establishments—without the knowledge of one or more of the brewery inspectors employed by the Liquor Control Board. He will ask himself if any official had knowledge of the shipments and if so he will inquire why the Board's enforcement officers were not informed. If the goods were removed after the termination of the eight hours of vigilance that an inspector gives to his official duties at the brewery, Mr. Manson will very naturally consider the advisability of inaugurating a twenty-four hour shift to replace what then would have to be considered an inadequate period of supervision.

Whatever may be the result of these, to us, more important phases of the business which has just been uncovered it should be set down that Mr. Manson has commenced a new and vigorous programme that bids fair to reduce his own and his Department's troubles in the enforcement of the law, and also enable our friends over the border to handle their jobs with a little more prospect of success than has been the case hitherto. Meanwhile the money to be made on this side by those who care to take the risk, and the desire for the forbidden liquid across the way, will continue to present a formidable problem.

ONE KNOTTY POINT SETTLED.

Turkey has followed her own policy of obstinacy in all the provisions of the peace settlement that enabled her to do so. Her positive objection to any alteration in the maximum of her demands in respect of juridical guarantees looked like deadlocking the whole controversy indefinitely. But even this stumbling block has been removed to the apparent satisfaction of all parties concerned. The Turks have now consented to agree to the appointment of four foreign advisers who will be authorized to follow legal proceedings in all cases and make recommendations to the Turkish Ministry of Justice. These advisers are to be informed of all arrests and domiciliary searches.

Formerly the nationals of any country arrested in Turkey were turned over to and tried by a judge of their own nationality. Turkey objected to a continuance of this system and no doubt would have been sustained in her objection if she could have shown as good a record of government as she could point to in battle. The Ankara demand was that there be no interference of any kind and that Turkey be allowed to adopt the procedure of other lands. The arrangement now arrived at at Lausanne therefore is a fairly satisfactory compromise in that it enables something more than a watching brief to be held by foreign judges in the trial of their respective nationals. None the less it is an experiment that will have to be watched carefully. Turkey will be the loser if she violates the agreement.

SAVE THE GREEN TIMBER.

Vancouver is very properly perturbed over the suggestion that the green timber which frames the Pacific Highway from the international boundary to New Westminster may be logged and turned into dollars and cents.

Every British Columbian who recognizes the fact that this Province depends upon the tourist for a very substantial portion of its annual revenue will support the plea of numerous Mainland citizens that this magnificent stretch of road remain unstripped of its natural beauty.

Arguments that apply to the Pacific Highway apply to every scenic thoroughfare, that is contributing in even the smallest fashion to the general holiday appeal of the Province. Nothing must be done to damage the reputation which British Columbia is building up for itself in the tourist world. Without a through strip of highway from the Coast to the Eastern boundary of the Province we are already seriously handicapped; but we are able to counteract a fair amount of this heavy disadvantage by furnishing comfortable and pleasant access to numerous beauty spots. These points of attraction, however, will remain popular only as long as their value shall be recognized in the most obvious of forms.

It is not necessary to ask our readers and the people of this Island generally how they would care to see our own important highway stripped of its natural grandeur. Imagine the Malahat and those more Northern sections of the Island highway flanked by jagged-off lands! We can almost hear the howl that would go up to high heaven were any such unforgivable vandalism mooted.

Small wonder that the people of Vancouver are up in arms at the prospect of the entrance to the Terminal City dropping to the level of an uninteresting approach to some highly industrialized section of the Old World—where every inch of space must yield commercial tribute in kind.

Dollars and cents come back to the public treasury by many other routes besides that represented by the more tangible transaction of buying and selling logs. And since when has British Columbia become so timber poor that roadside trees are threatened with the woodman's axe!

NO CHEER FOR GERMANY.

Germany will not be able to extract very much consolation from Premier Baldwin's statement to the Petit Parisien. The British Prime Minister confined himself to generalities and did not go beyond the expression of a desire to do his part towards restoring Europe to normal conditions. With the "greatest determination" he has promised to apply himself to this highly important task. He expects temporary checks but expects that success will crown our efforts in the end. Europe as a whole will agree with Mr. Baldwin that sooner or later some arrangement will be arrived at that will result in the withdrawal of French troops from Germany and bring the debtor nation to a more honest and straightforward recognition of her position and obligations.

Meanwhile statistics from Paris show that the devastation caused by German soldiery is a very long way short of replacement. Reconstruction has been truly marvellous; but France knows that for every franc she has expended in this connection Germany has spent about one franc only. Her records show that out of the 741,993 buildings that were wantonly destroyed 553,977 have been replaced—a remarkable achievement and proof of French recovery; but still a vivid reminder of the original loss. Nor must it be forgotten that there are still some 3,000 wrecked factories to be rebuilt and a vast amount of industrial machinery to be replaced. Only a little more than one tenth of the devastated fields have assumed their normal appearance. France must still battle with soil that was wilfully poisoned almost beyond recovery.

These are only some of the reasons why Germany, more than Mr. Baldwin, will have to negotiate with the "utmost determination" if France is going to substitute the argument which she has chosen to use with one that will be less irksome to Germany and more beneficial to the economic fabric of the Old World. It all comes back to the one fundamental point. Germany must make arrangements to pay her debt and give guarantees that will be acceptable to the "man in possession." Until she does that, and success "will crown our efforts in the end," of course, she must put up with the consequences; and other countries will have to do likewise. There seems to be no other way.

NOTE AND COMMENT

General Merkauloff says that Soviet rule is nearing its end. Yes, and the Soviet rulers are hastening the day.

All the world's a stage—even including the Houses of Parliament, says the newly-elected actress member for Berwick-upon-Tweed.

If anybody in this neighborhood suggests that Summer has not arrived in all its glory he will be dangerously near a "terminological inexactitude."

Premier Baldwin has said that Britain has no reparations plan. She has her own little troubles to look after. France will attend to reparations.

Von Tirpitz has given Chancellor Cuno some free advice about how to present a new note to Great Britain on the subject of reparations. This is one time when the submarine admiral thought it safe to give warning.

We are being told of the number of people who are leaving this country for the United States. When will some of these cheerful individuals who take a delight in spreading "blue ruin" tell us how many Canadians are coming back to their native land?

Some of the British Columbia Senators are going to oppose the bill that will give this Province the sole right to import liquor. Surely they do not wish to be catalogued in the same social scale as the bootlegger.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY.
Ottawa Citizen:—Honesty, said President Harding at a recent unveiling, is a panacea for the world's ailments. Maybe not for all of them, but for quite a bunch of them. If everybody were honest we could do without a lot of policemen, a much bigger lot of inspectors and supervisors, a much bigger lot of inventors who all up of nights devising thief-proof contraptions, half the laws and lawmakers and doctors and preachers and nine-tenths of mortal worry.

ROOM FOR FOREIGNERS.

Next Westminster Columbian:—The Canadian-born element appears in sufficiently large proportions in Canadian census figures, to justify an admission of foreign-born immigrants if they are of assimilable stock as of Northern Europe. The proportion of foreign-born to the English-speaking population is greater in the Prairie Provinces than in this Province, but even in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta there appears to be room for settlement by foreign-born without danger to the predominant race.

Mr. Downs is an authority, and much practical information may be expected.

RE ENGLISH PRIME MINISTERS.
To the Editor:—I was amused and much surprised at the statement you gave such prominence to and print in such bold type in to-night's Times, that the new Prime Minister of England, is the first Englishman to hold this office since the days of Lord Salisbury.
While I am delighted to again see an Englishman in the person of Mr. Stanley Baldwin Prime Minister of England, and hope that the position may long be filled by a man of like nationality, surely the statement you print must make one rub one's eyes, and wonder what the writer's definition of an Englishman is, or where he gets it from, or what he imagines an Englishman should consist of.
The Right Hon. H. H. Asquith, who was Prime Minister many years before the war, and also during the early stages of that great struggle, was born at Morley, near Leeds, Yorkshire, England, September 12, 1852, and comes of good old Yorkshire stock! His early years and school days, were spent near his

NEED MORE PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES

Dr. MacEachern Reviews Work of V. O. N. and Its Value to Dominion

In Canada approximately 878,548 persons annually require hospital care; only 25,826 general beds are available, and each bed has an average of twenty patients, according to a statement made by Dr. Malcolm MacEachern, M.D., C.M., Director of the Victorian Order of Nurses, at a meeting held in the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the local branch.

Dr. MacEachern quoted these figures to prove the value of the visiting nurse and to show the inadequacy of the 813 nurses who constitute the whole of the present public health nursing force of the Dominion. "There is a shortage in hospital beds in Canada of 125,000," continued the speaker; indicating some of the usefulness of the Victorian Order in supplying the shortage, in the rural districts particularly, by making it possible for patients to have nursing in their own homes; there were many cases which were not properly hospital cases. With nurses available to give dressings, bedside care, etc., it left the hospital beds free for genuine hospital cases. Although the V.O.N. did not advocate staying at home when sick, it was nevertheless true that between 15 and 20 per cent of the cases treated in local hospitals could be cared for at home if there were nurses available. Also, it was well known that hospitals were not on the increase, finding the question of finances too difficult. The V.O.N. nurse did not interfere with the work of the private nurse. On the other hand, the class of patient that could not afford to pay the private nurse should be visited by the type of nurse represented by the Victorian Order.

After describing the history and growth of the Order, the speaker paid a warm tribute to the work accomplished at the Saanich Health Centre stating that the people who had chosen that form of war memorial in preference to a monument had given a useful and enduring service to the community. The address was illustrated with a number of most interesting slides showing the varied phases of V.O.N. work and its ramifications. Mrs. Ross Sutherland presided and at the close extended the thanks of the gathering to the speaker.

Last night Dr. MacEachern addressed a gathering at the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak, on the subject of the Order.

How Cleopatra Kept Her Youthful Complexion

The very same way you do, if you use Palmolive. The famous Queen of Beauty depended upon palm and olive oils to cleanse and beautify her skin. These same lotion-like cosmetic oils are blended in Palmolive. They impart their soothing, healing qualities to the profuse, creamy Palmolive lather, with which millions of modern women do their beautifying today.

CAPITOL

Dorothy Dalton, popular Paramount star, who will be seen at the Capitol Theatre all this week in her last Irving Willat Paramount production, "Fog Bound," recently was asked by an interviewer to describe her greatest thrill.

"I think that the biggest thrill of my life was the opening night of 'Aphrodite,' in New York several years ago.

"Before me was the prospect of starring in one of the biggest and most spectacular plays ever shown on Broadway. Although I had done some work on the stage, I had never had the privilege of doing anything quite so magnificent as this.

"There were the glorious settings and effects, the lights, the music, the wonderful cast of trained artists and the packed audience. My reception was wonderful. The flowers gorgeous and I did my part without any trouble.

"It seemed the supreme moment of my life—the big triumph of my career." Miss Dalton provides several thrills by her portrayal of a revenue officer's daughter in "Fog Bound."

The scenes of the story are laid in Florida and the atmosphere of the story, because of its locale, is more or less exotic. David Fowell plays opposite the star and heads an unusually capable supporting cast.

Cecil M. Hepworth, whose film version of W. A. Darlington's clever novel, "Alf's Button," is causing so much comment just now, is certainly to be congratulated upon his work.

It is without a shadow of a doubt, the cleverest and most consistent piece of film comedy presented briefly. The story is that Alf Higgins has been issued with an army tunic having a button on it made from Aladdin's lamp. Every rub of that button, inadvertently or otherwise, causes the slave of the button to appear to do whatever his master may wish. His conception of the likings of a coster Tommy is amusing in the extreme, as he varies his scenes from a box at a West-End presentation of "Hamlet" to the centre of a Turkish harem with its attendant boys of beauties.

The photography is splendid, the settings are beautiful as well as elaborate and the acting of the stars is of the high standard common to English artistry. The management of the Columbia Theatre where this film is showing for to-day and tomorrow can therefore feel assured that they have booked a winner.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Pronounced by D. W. Griffith to be one of the greatest pictures ever produced and a document from life, Richard Barthelmess' new starring production, "Fury," in which Dorothy Gish plays opposite him, is a classic of the sea. Unlike the way most pictures of the sea are made, Mr. Barthelmess and his supporting company lived for three weeks on an old schooner minus all comforts and conveniences, undergoing the same experiences as all the men who still sail the seven seas in wind-jammers.

"In spite of the hardships it was the most fascinating journey I have ever taken," Mr. Barthelmess says. "The mathematics of navigation became clear to me. I learned to read the compass and steer by it. The stories some of the old salts would tell of their experiences were romance carried to the nth degree.

"It's a lonesome life, though, in spite of the fact that you are never alone. There is no privacy. But to be cut off from the world for three weeks, without any communication, not even a wireless, makes you realize isolation as nothing else will. It sure seemed good to buy a newspaper when we rowed into Gloucester, and also to feel some of the comforts of home once again."

"Fury" is the attraction at the Royal all this week.

PANTAGES HAS VARIED ATTRACTIONS

Jugglery, Trained Dogs and Ponies, and Comedy Are Featured

Pantages Theatre will present a varied bill when Manager Jamieson welcomes patrons this evening for the first run of the current week.

Joe Bennett and Company head the bill, with a laugh provoking sketch, "Telephone Tangles." Gautier's Animated Toy Shop will delight the youthful members of the community as well as their elders, the well trained popes and dogs being extremely clever in an unusual array of tableaux and tricks.

"Fun in a Farmyard," by the McBannas, is an entirely new idea in jugglery, being also featured by witty comedians, "Tryst" and "East."

Connelly and Francis term themselves "Two Nice Folks," their songs, dances and instrumental offerings are excellent, the turn being one of the most successful on the bill.

Precedent to the vaudeville, Pantages offers two pictures, the feature being, "Gossip," with Gladys Walton in a story turning upon the adventures of a country girl in an unaccustomed city surroundings, while a Century comedy, "Oh, Nurse!" proves a real laugh maker.

"Amazing Ann," the play to be presented at The Playhouse commencing Wednesday, is the product of a rising star, Lechners Wort, whose work has been hailed by the critics as very much above the ordinary, and for whom a brilliant future has been prophesied.

The play is a comedy running through the piece is, a delicious undercurrent of pathos. We see the quiet home life of a typical English family suddenly disturbed by the advent of an enterprising young newspaper woman—Ann. Her cleverness and charm endear her to all hearts, and she succeeds in the end in capturing the heart of a young novelist, with whom she has fallen in love through reading his book.

In the hands of the Compton Comedy Company this delightful little comedy will give none of the charm which constituted its chief appeal when originally performed in London.

Everything depends on the point of view. You couldn't convince a mouse that a black cat was lucky.

JOY OF HEALTH WOMAN'S RIGHT

Mrs. Evans Freed from Female Weakness by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Michigan.—"I had female weakness with pains in my back, and I could not stand on my feet for any length of time. I was working in a factory but had to quit as I was too much on my feet. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me, and I can hardly believe it myself that I am well. Oh, it is a grand thing to have your health! I feel well all the time and can go out like other women and not feel that awful torture. When I took your medicine first I thought it should cure after the first bottle, but I am glad my husband kept me at it. I have had nine bottles and now I am well."—Mrs. JENNY EVANS, 1604 Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

If you are suffering from displacements, irregularities, backache, nervousness or other forms of female weakness, you should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The reason is given in letters like these, and we have published thousands of them. You may expect that a medicine that has helped other women will help you. Try it.

One of the most interesting and instructive song recitals heard in the city for some time was the recital given last evening in the Empress Hotel ballroom. The occasion marked the visit of two of Britain's famous musicians, one the Scottish dramatic contralto, Denna Parker, the other the celebrated composer and festival adjudicator, Granville Bantock. Both have for some time been associated with the Empress Hotel as the musical centres of the British Isles, and in the programme presented there were examples of careful selection, standardized perception, both of what to sing and how to interpret, keen and pleasing intelligence in the broad sense of the work, and an exaggerated, and little found wanting in an art so diligently studied by Will Make Big Effort to Recover Lost Silk Trade; Other Lines Taking Business Away From Japanese Companies; Osaka Shosen Kaisha Liners May Make Victoria From Orient in 11 Days divisional companies for building the so-called superior boats, which are to be of about 20,000 tons with a speed of about 18 knots.

However, in the operation of these ships the losses on each voyage will be heavy and the Government will have to provide sufficient subsidy money to take care of this phase of the problem before any of the shipping lines are going to accept the offer to build the boats.

During the past year the Japanese lines have lost the silk trade to a startling extent and the foreign lines have gained it to the same extent.

Five New Ways To whiter, cleaner, safer teeth —all late discoveries

Dental science has been seeking ways to better tooth protection. All old methods proved inadequate. Tooth troubles were constantly increasing. Very few escapes there. Beautiful teeth were seen less often than now.

The chief enemy

The chief tooth enemy was found to be film — that viscous film you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.

Avoid Harmful Grit

Pepsodent erodes the film and removes it without harmful scouring. Its polishing agent is far softer than enamel. Never use a film comb that contains harsh grit.

Much left intact

Old ways of brushing left much of that film intact, to cloud the teeth and night and day threaten serious damage.

Two ways were found to fight that film. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring. Able authorities proved

Other essentials

Other effects were found necessary and ways were discovered to bring them. All are now embodied in Pepsodent.

Prettier teeth came to millions

One result is prettier teeth. You see them everywhere — teeth you envy, maybe. But that is only a sign of cleaner, safer teeth. Film-coats, acids and deposits are effectively combated.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Cut out the coupon now.

Captain and Mrs. Sutherland Stewart, officers in charge of the Salvation Army social work with headquarters at 525-523 Johnson Street, have just received word from Colonel Morris, Chief Secretary for Canada West, that Commissioner Hodder promoted them to the rank of Ensign.

Tourist business up-island is commencing almost two weeks later than it did last year, according to reports received from various resorts outside of Victoria. At Shwigan Lake the big annual influx of holiday seekers is just commencing and the same is true of Cowichan. Hotel and resort managers are looking for business next weekend, and from that time on to the end of the season.

A number of deputations are expected to wait on the Saanich Council this evening at Royal Oak, a delegation from the Local Council of Women being expected to make representations as to the necessity of juvenile courts, while residents of the Blenkinsop-Road district intend to present a widely signed petition for the laying of two miles of four-inch water main, anticipated to cost about $3,000.

Rowles' boys' orchestra and chorus gave another of their excellent concerts last night in the Christ Church Cathedral schoolroom. It was in honor of the orchestra's conductor, who is leaving shortly on a visit to England. The concert was a most excellent one, and the solo selections and vocal numbers made it varied and all the more interesting. This boy's band won a prize in the May Day parade.

The Cathedral Women's Auxiliary yesterday afternoon listened with much interest to a talk by Miss Olive Snyder, general secretary of the Social Service League, in which she outlined the work of the League in Victoria. Mrs. Quantin presided. Little Miss Benwell contributed songs and Miss Montserrat rendered piano-forte solos which were much appreciated. The proceedings closed with the serving of tea.

Since the days when Papineau and MacKenzie were striving for the institution of a representative parliament Canada has never been so alive as at present to the question of her future status. Thoughtful men all over the Dominion are concerned about this matter, and citizens of Victoria will hear with satisfaction that a learned barrister from the sister city of the Mainland, Mr. George E. McCrossan, corporation counsel for Vancouver, will speak on this subject under the auspices of the Native Sons of Canada, Victoria, assembly No. 1, at the Empress Hotel on Saturday next, June 9, at 8 p.m.

The meeting here will be open to the public, and the Native Sons hope to have an audience representative of all classes and creeds political in this community. Preceding the meeting a club dinner will take place for the members of the assembly, beginning at 6.15 p.m., at which Mr. McCrossan will be the guest of honor. Invitations to the meeting have been sent to the Premier and his colleagues, and also to the Leader of the Opposition.

PROTESTS PLAN TO DOUBLE CITY LICENSE SCALE

Proposed increase of city business license fees 100 per cent. would place too heavy a burden upon business-men here, Mayor Reginald Hayward declared to-day as the City Council prepared to revise the city's license scale at its meeting to-night. "In my opinion it would be unfair to double the present license scale in view of the fact that general taxation has been increased," the Mayor told The Times. "A fifty or sixty per cent. increase, I believe, should be made." The Council should ponder carefully before fixing any new license scale, he declared. The scale proposed by the Chamber of Commerce, he said, was apparently quite fair, but he feared that it would bear too heavily on the small business-man. "The Chamber of Commerce scale was prepared with great care by able businessmen who undoubtedly tried to be equitable," the Mayor said. "It should be carefully examined, however, before it is adopted and changed where changes seem necessary."

PRESTON WIVES EXTRAVAGANCE IN WORKS SPENDING

Figures to prove that he did not overspend his appropriations last year by $14,000, as charged in the City Council last week, will be laid before the Council's Public Works Committee this week by City Engineer F. M. Preston. Mr. Preston is busy now compiling these figures and is at a loss to know how anyone ever thought that he had gone far outside the money voted to his department in 1922. He explained to-day that his estimates had been over a few thousand dollars but only after the Council had instructed his department to undertake extensive unemployment relief work not covered in his appropriations. The cost of this relief work, Mr. Preston explained to-day, was far more than the amount by which the total works estimates were exceeded.

VETERANS' SMOKER LARGELY ATTENDED

Three Hundred Toast His Majesty's Birthday Celebration A very pleasing entertainment and smoker was enjoyed last night by the Victoria Unit of the Army and Navy Veterans, 20th in number, at the Grand Hotel, in celebrating the birthday of His Majesty King George V. His Worship Mayor Reginald Hayward acted as chair, and proposed a toast to His Majesty which was replied to by Commander C. T. Beard, R.C.N. Comrade Seymour Rowlinson, president of the organization, proposed the toast, "Canada," and dwelt upon the assets of the Dominion as a whole, and particularly of Vancouver Island. Comrade Thomas, first vice-president of the organization, responded to the toast. A splendid musical programme was rendered during the evening. A conjuring act, by Frank Merryfield, assisted by his daughter Pearl, was greatly enjoyed. The following men contributed to the entertainment: C.P.O. Jones, R.C.N., C.P.O. Crocker, R.C.N., C.P.O. FUNERAL TO-DAY OF MRS. McPHILLIPS

Lovely Flowers at Obsequies of Wife of Well-Known Judge St. Andrew's Cathedral was filled with many sympathizing friends of the family, members of the judiciary and representatives of the legal profession this morning for the services over the remains of Mrs. Emily Sophia McPhillips, wife of Mr. Justice A. E. McPhillips, of the Appeal Court, British Columbia, who passed away on Saturday last. The funeral cortege left the family residence, 6100 Rogers, Rockland Avenue, at 9.15, proceeding to the Roman Catholic Cathedral, where Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Mgr. Leternie, assisted by Rev. Fathers A. B. Wood and Rev. J. C. B. Jones. There was an abundance of lovely floral tributes from friends throughout the Province. The pallbearers were Hon. Mr. Justice Martin, Hon. Mr. Justice Estlin, Hon. W. J. Bowser, Mr. Justice Burns, Mr. J. E. Angus and Major Bullock-Watson. In-charge was made in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

REMAINDS GIVEN IN LIQUOR RAID CASES

(Continued from page 1) to be raised, Mr. Higgins agreed to produce Cochrane if wanted, that matter being adjourned until Tuesday for hearing. Other Craft Seized. Two more craft were added to the list of boats seized by the combined forces of Customs Department, Provincial Police and Royal Canadian Mounted Police on the Chatham Island group when officers yesterday took the gasoline launches Standard, of Anacortes, and the Syden, of Victoria, into tow. Both craft were taken to the Inner Harbor and the Standard handed over to the Customs and Immigration Department. Frank Kasch and P. L. Craignic and R. H. Elbro, taken on the Anacortes, were held in custody and turned over to the Immigration officers and later released. J. McGrath, of the Syden, says the police was on the craft and gave it to win the Standard by the police. Two American speed boats seen making a rendezvous with a Canadian craft in Canadian territorial waters made their escape by showing a clean pair of heels to the Ark, the boat used by the raiders. Customs Officers Norris, Bittancourt and others joined Constable White and Corporal Harvey in the later raid. The American craft, the Standard, is held for violation of customs regulations and the Canadian craft under suspicion for complicity in another matter. Further action is expected to-day.

INVESTORS MUST ACCEPT CANADIAN MONEY FROM CITY

City Finds It Has No Authority to Continue American Payments Holders of city-bonds who have been receiving interest in American money for years will have to take Canadian money for their July 1 payment, it was learned at the City Hall to-day. The city, it was explained, has discovered that it has no legal right to continue the payment in American funds and such payments cannot be legalized until the Legislature meets in the Fall. While a majority of the Council favors a continuance of American money payments there is no way to avoid the use of relatively cheaper Canadian money in the July payment. Faced with the necessity of passing its annual budget and appointing a new financial head, the City Council has allowed the bond interest question to drift for some weeks, but when it settles it will be taken soon, Mayor Hayward intimated to-day. City officials have the whole matter under advisement now, he explained. "As the Legislature cannot legalize payments in American money until the Fall it is obvious that the July interest will have to be paid in Canadian money," the Mayor said. Bond holders here have been waging an incessant fight to persuade the city to continue making its interest payments in American money. This is necessary to maintain the city's credit, they say. After long consideration the Council finally did so on record as favoring American payments and instructing city officials to see that such payments were legalized. This, as stated, cannot be done until the Fall session of the Legislature. It is possible that the city may make an arrangement with bond holders whereby they will be indemnified for the losses that they will sustain as a result of the July payments being made in Canadian money. Meanwhile the city has decided not to float any more loans for re-payment in American money so that the present trouble will not arise again in the future.

GARDEN PARTY WAS HELD AT METCHOSIN WITH SUCCESS Special to The Times. Metchosin.—The garden party and sale of work held at St. Mary's Vicarage, Metchosin, on Monday afternoon, under the auspices of the Metchosin Girls and Junior branch of the W.A. was very encouraging in its success. The vicarage grounds, with flying Union Jacks, looked very inviting, and the visitors as they arrived were greeted by the young players of the Girls' branch, Miss Constance Brown. Across the lawn, where croquet and clock golf were played, and in the shade of the trees, were the work stall with Miss E. Arden in charge, the candy stall, with Miss C. Blake in charge, and the ice cream booth, attended by Miss Barbara Brown. Each of the stall holders had for an assistant one of the Junior members. Cut out of the woods, with an attractive approach, was the prettiest of tea gardens, where Miss Helen Cosh made an excellent hostess, and where the visitors were served with tea by daintily clad little Juniors, who flitted about, reminding one of so many little wood nymphs. In the porch of the vicarage, the girls of William Head Quarantine Station were running guessing competitions, which added greatly to the afternoon's amusement. A very charming idea was carried out by each of the members inviting

Town Guard Goes To Post Derby Favorite

Over Million People Expected to Watch Running of British Turf Classic at Epsom To-morrow; Papyrus Is in Second Place in Wagering

London, June 5.—It looks as though Town Guard will go to the post the favorite in the Derby to-morrow. Although the odds have been fluctuating on this horse ever since the betting opened they now seem to give Town Guard first place with the public.

The betting is as follows: 11 to 2 against Town Guard, 7 to 1 against Papyrus, 8 to 1 against Pharos, 15 to 2 against Ellangowan, 19 to 2 against Legality, 13 to 1 against My Lord, 100 to 6 against Knockando taken and offered, 20 to 1 against Twelve Pointer offered and 25 to 1 taken, 25 to 1 against Parth taken and offered, 25 to 1 against Roger de Bushi and Salt Ash offered and 33 to 1 taken, 33 to 1 against Bold and Bad, 44 to 1 against Apron taken and offered.

Several changes have been made in the list of jockeys. J. Bullock will ride Salt Ash, J. Brennan will be on Bold and Bad, while F. Fox has been selected to ride Ton Boot.

London, June 5.—Interest in flat racing this season has been very keen, with large crowds attending the principal meetings and it will not be surprising if more people than ever before journey to Epsom Downs to-morrow to celebrate Derby Day, the most popular institution of the British Turf.

Most Coveted Prize. Of all the races run during the flat racing season, and there were over twenty-two hundred last year—the Derby is the most coveted prize. It has a place in Turf lore that no other race possesses.

Old Course Abandoned. Wednesday's race will be the 140th renewal of the Derby Stakes, run for the first time in 1780, just one year later than the Oaks and four years later than the St. Leger.

For a quarter of a mile the track is level and then a descent sets in until 240 yards from the finish, when the ground again rises. The course is a difficult one and the rise in the ground in the last furlong has brought about the downfall of many a contender whose prospects appeared promising up to that time.

This year, for the first time in the history of a premier classic race, a declaration of forfeits to be made in the year of running was included in the conditions for the Derby and Oaks. Of the 347 nominations for the Derby when the lists closed in November, 1921, only 37 horses were left in, with 68 for the Oaks, out of an original entry of 248.

The Favorites. Lord Woolavington, whose Town Guard and Knockando were left in after the final forfeits were declared, holds a strong hand for the chief classic. Knockando, running in public for the first time, finished second to Lord Rosebery's Ellangowan in the Two Thousand Guineas, being beaten by a head.

Inspection in the paddock, which was very strongly that there was room for much improvement in Knockando. Town Guard, the champion two-year-old colt last season, is considered much superior to Knockando.

Sidney Could Not Pass By Tough Defence

Esquimalt Hangs Up Its First Lacrosse Victory of Season By 4-2 Score

Esquimalt's defence proved too tough for the Sidney home to break through, and as a result the stick-handlers from the naval town chalked up their first victory of the season in the Victoria and District Lacrosse League, defeating Sidney by 4 goals to 2.

The game, which was played at Sidney, was played under ideal weather conditions. It was fast and clean, and while Sidney stepped along at a good pace, it could not beat the visitors' defence.

A costly accident to Marty Simpson, the Sidney goalie, may have far-reaching effects on the Victoria senior team. Simpson had a nasty spill in the last quarter and dislocated his elbow. He had to leave the field.

The second quarter was the fastest of the game. Passmore rushed through the field and scored a pretty goal for Esquimalt soon after the whistle went, and Jenner, Sidney's centre man, bounced a hot one past Pascoe. Stan Ross ended the scoring for the game by again finding the net for Esquimalt.

The outstanding feature of the game was the effective play of Esquimalt's defence. The Sidney home, fast and active though it is, was unable to get through for many shots at Pascoe.

Frank Smith handled the game in a satisfactory manner. The Esquimalt team was entertained in real Sidney style, and the winners, on their return to town, were loud in their praise of the hospitality of the farmers.

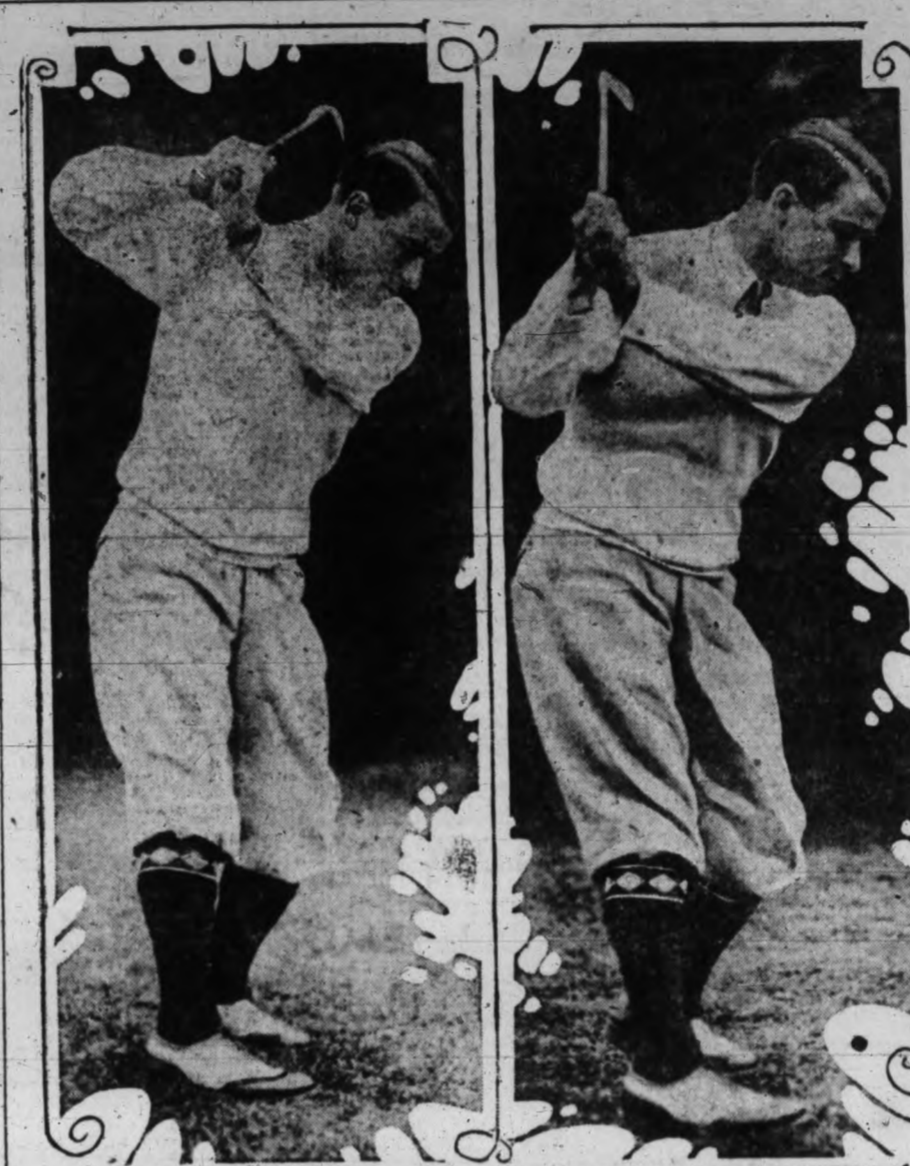

Game on Thursday. Esquimalt will appear in its next game on Thursday night, when it will tackle the fast-moving United Services at the Centennial Grounds. This should prove a thrilling game, as both teams are on edge for the tussle, and a big crowd is looked for.

How to Raise Elbow for Backswing of Drive

The posture for the backswing of the drive, shown in the picture at the left of the layout, is all right except for one thing which makes it all wrong. The right elbow is out of position. That is, it is raised and pointing outward instead of downward.

Raising the right elbow is generally the cause of slicing. In this position you are apt to come from the outside of the swing and cut across the ball. Also the right elbow should not be held too close to the body, because you will then obtain a hook.

You will notice in the "incorrect" picture that, although I have bent my left knee inward, I have not raised my left hip. No pivoting can be done properly if the left hip and the left knee are not turned in unison as the left heel is raised.

You will notice, too, in the picture on the left that the left shoulder is lowered, whereas it ought to be on a higher level than the right shoulder.

The picture showing the correct position of right elbow on backswing is portrayed with a maehe, but the position of the elbows is the same on the drive. The hands, though, are raised a little higher.

DR. CHOWN SPOKE OF CHURCH UNION

General Superintendent Addressed Alberta Methodist Conference

Edmonton, June 5.—Addressing the Methodist Conference in an official statement, Rev. Dr. Chown, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, yesterday afternoon touched on the subject of church union.

"The long continued suspension in connection with church union has had a very detrimental effect on the Methodist Church," he declared. "Our people for some years have hesitated to launch great programmes of activity lest the realization of union would bring them to a speedy termination. It is probably true of the Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist churches that they would be stronger to-day, but for the delay in the consummation of union. But we think that owing to the prevailing spirit of our people, we have suffered most. Methodists have been schooled from the very birth of the church to broad-minded liberality, and possess perhaps more than others a decidedly sanguine spirit which too readily anticipates speedy results. This does not condemn union, but argues for its hastening. I am happy to believe that the spirit of Presbyterianism is 'now or never.' If so, we heartily endorse it. If not, we must soon decide as to our future. We must go forward as God leads us into the greater time that is to be, but we must not anticipate."

Following his address, the Conference, amidst much enthusiasm, endorsed a resolution of appreciation for the veteran Methodist leader.

The session last night was given over to a young people's rally, a feature of which was a splendid outline of the work by Rev. W. E. Gal-lowsay, E. A. Field, Secretary of Religious Education in Alberta and British Columbia. In addition, there was a lantern lecture by Rev. F. C. Stephenson, M. D., secretary of the Young People's Forward Movement for Missions.

BLOOD SO THIN—COULD NOT KEEP WARM

Says WINCARNIS Helped Him

"For months I had been in a terribly weak and rundown condition. I was so weak, in fact, that I always felt as if my legs were just about to double under me. My blood was so thin that I could not keep warm in cold weather. I could not eat much and what I did eat seemed to do me no good. One day a friend recommended Wincarnis so enthusiastically to me that I immediately bought a bottle. Before I had taken half the bottle, I realized that at last I had found something that was doing me good. I improved so fast, it was simply marvelous. Less than three bottles of Wincarnis have made me feel like a new man."

THE MAGIC SPOON

Part I.

Once he lived in a beautiful palace a Prince named Enrique. But though he was a Prince he was far from being happy, because he was a cripple, and walked with a limp that twisted his poor wasted body in the most grotesque of fashions.

—Because of this most of the time the Prince was carried about by four servants in a handsome gold and red chair with two long handles on each side.

Prince Enrique had five sisters, the Princesses—Carro, Ailla, Nitta, Lilla and Vasa; and such naughty creatures as they were, one seldom meets.

They cared very little for the poor little Prince when he was small, for they did not expect he would live to become King. And when he grew to manhood and the King said it was time for him to take a wife these naughty sisters began to make sport of him.

"Who will marry a cripple," laughed Princess Carro with a toss of her head. "Even a Prince could get only a beggar to marry him, deformed as you are."

"That is true," said Princess Nitta. "Our father should have more pride than to leave a King in his place that is a cripple. One of us should rule this weakling Prince."

Poor Prince Enrique heard all this and more, for his naughty sisters were not mindful of his feelings and took no trouble to hide their thoughts from him.

"So when the King told his son he must take a wife to become his Queen when he sat upon the throne as King," Prince Enrique told his mother that he must have for his bride a beggar.

ENGLISH BOXER WINS BOUT OVER NEW YORKER

London, June 5.—Roland Todd tonight defeated Augie Ratner, of New York, on points in a twenty round boxing contest for the middle-weight championship of England.

The referee's decision came as a surprise to many of the spectators, who greeted it with shouts of disapproval. Todd landed the greatest number of blows, but those of Ratner seemed much the harder. Ratner showed great surprise when the victor of the referee was given against him.

Todd floored Ratner for an instant in the second round. This was the only knockdown in the fight. Both men finished strong.

In proportion to population there are more automobiles in Mexico City than in any city of South America.

WIFE who could love him in spite of his deformity.

Princesses from far and near were brought to the Palace, but the Prince said no to all of them, for he knew each was seeking to become a Queen and could not bear even to look upon his poor deformed body.

One day as the Prince was sitting on the balcony of the Palace that overlooked the high road he saw coming along a poor beggar girl. When she reached the big gates of the Palace garden, where the five Princesses were walking, she stopped and asked for alms.

"Begone, beggar," said the Princess Vasa. "Have you any more charity at the Palace of Kings?"

"Here, poor girl, take this," called the Prince who had heard and seen all from the balcony. "The King's Palace is where you should come to help."

Now it happened that the beggar girl, whose name was Dulcia, was very pretty; and when she looked up at the Prince her blue eyes filled with tears, she smiled, and the Prince lost his heart.

"Is all this gold for me to keep?" asked Dulcia.

Yes, and there is more. Come back when that is gone and you shall have all that you need," replied the Prince with a smile so sweet that poor Dulcia lost her heart, too.

"A fine King you will make," said Princess Ailla, "throwing your gold to every beggar that comes along. You will have all the beggars in the land calling at your gate for charity."

"And where should they call if not at the King's gate?" inquired the Prince. "A King should look after his subjects."

That night the King died, and without a will, as poor Prince Enrique became King and took his father's place on the throne.

Women who remain single can console themselves with the thought that they were born that way.

Caesar had come back to Rome from Gaul a hero and conqueror. His new imitator, Napoleon, would come back from Egypt and India—Egypt and India were to be his Gaul. There was really none of the genius about which historians write so glibly in this decision. It was a merely and ill-considered imitation. The elements of failure stared him in the face. The way to Egypt and India was by the sea, and the British, in spite of two recent naval mutinies, whose importance Napoleon exaggerated, were stronger than the French at sea. Moreover, Egypt was a part of the Turkish empire, by no means a contemptible power in those days. Nevertheless he persuaded the Directory, which was his ally, to let him go.

Armed with a fleet of 13 ships, he started from Toulon in May, 1798, captured Malta, and had the good luck to evade the British fleet and arrive at Alexandria. He landed his troops hurriedly, and the battle of the Pyramids made him master of Egypt.

The main British fleet at that time was in the Atlantic outside Cadix, but the admiral had detached a force of his best ships, under Vice-Admiral Nelson—as great a genius in naval affairs as Napoleon in things military—to chase and engage the French flotilla. For a time Nelson sought the French fleet in vain, finally, on the evening of the first of August, he found it at anchor in Aboukir Bay.

He had caught it unawares; many of the men were ashore and camped in the tents on the beach. He had no charts, and it was a hazardous thing to sail into the shallow water in bad light. The French admiral, concluding, therefore, that his adversary would not attack before morning, and so made no haste in recalling his men aboard until it was too late to do so.

The working of that conspiracy is too intricate a story for our space; it involved a Cromwell-like disposal of the lower house of the Council of Five Hundred, and in this affair Napoleon lost his nerve. The deputies shouted at him and hustled him, and the scene, being very much frightened, he nearly fainted, stammered and could say nothing, but the situation was saved by his brother, who, by a series of blunders, soldiers and dispersed the council. This little hitch did not affect the final success of the scheme. The three consuls were installed at the Luxembourg palace, with two commissioners, to reconstruct the constitution.

Made First Consul

With all his confidence restored and sure of the support of the people, who supposed him to be honest, patriotic, republican, and able to bring about a good peace, Napoleon took a high hand with his colleagues and the commissioners. A constitution was produced in which the chief officer was to be called the First Consul, with enormous powers. He was to be Napoleon; this was part of the constitution. He was to be elected, or replaced at the end of ten years. He was to be assisted by a council of state, appointed by himself, which was to initiate legislation and send its proposals to two bodies, the legislative body (which could vote, but not discuss) and the Tribunate (which could discuss, but not vote), which were selected by an appointed senate from a special class, the "notabilities of France." This was the election of the notabilities of the departments, who were elected by the "notabilities of the commune," who were elected by the commune was universal.

This was the sole vestige of democracy in the astounding pyramid of the constitution. The French philosopher, Sieyès, who was one of the chief architects of the constitution, was so weary of France with her troubles and efforts, and so confident of the virtue and ability of the French people, that when, at the birth of the nineteenth century this constitution was submitted to the country it was carried by a vast majority. Napoleon, however, prepared to be peaceful, honest, and glorious.

Now surely here was opportunity such as never came to man before. Here was a position in which a man could put himself in fear of himself and search for God and serve God and man to the utmost. The old order of things was dead or dying, and new forces were dropping their veils and looking for a direction; the promise of a world republic and an enduring world empire was in the air.

Had this man any profundity of vision, any power of creative imagination, had he been accessible to any high ambition, he might have done work for mankind that would have made him the very sun of history.

All Europe and America, stirred by the first promise of a new age, was waiting for him. No France alone, France was in his hand, his instrument, to do with as he pleased, to war like an exquisite sword. There lacked nothing to this great occasion, and a noble imagination. And falling that, Napoleon could do no more than strut upon the crest of this great mountain of opportunity like a cockerel on a dunghill.

The figure he makes in history is one of almost incredible self-conceit, of vanity, greed and cunning, of calumnious contempt and disregard of all men left up and forward, and hurled their grapples across the chasm. Blood, watching from his own quarterdeck, sent out his voice in a clear call: with an oath, opened the Dutch admiral, and from Lord Willoughby there was a word of blame for Blood's seamanship in having risked all upon this gambler's throw of "defeat."

"There was no other chance," cried Blood, in broken-hearted frenzy.

But they had not yet completely faded, his spirit, and a score of sturdy rogues whom his whistle had summoned, were crouching for shelter amid the wreckage of the forecabin with grapples ready. Within nine or ten yards of the Victorious, when their way seemed open, and their forward deck already awash under the eyes of the jeering, sneering Frenchmen, those men leapt up and forward, and hurled their grapples across the chasm. "There was no other chance," cried Blood, in broken-hearted frenzy.

FOUL BAY BEACH TO GET ATTENTION

Residents to Form Improvement Association for Clean-Up Campaign

The condition of Foul Bay Beach, which has agitated the residents of Hollywood district for years has brought about concerted action by the proposed formation of the Foul Bay Improvement Association.

At this meeting the aims of the Association will be set forth and permanent officers elected. Ultimately it is hoped that the Association may assume the same importance in the district as does the Victoria West Brotherhood, in Victoria West.

At last week's conference it was pointed out that the city garbage either dumps the refuse of Victoria on an incoming tide or else does not dump it far enough out to prevent it from being washed ashore at Foul Bay. Decayed fruit and vegetables litter the beach at frequent intervals, and the stench is most objectionable. Another complaint registered was that a drain pipe from a sewer located on Crescent Road is broken halfway across the beach forming a breeding place for mosquitoes. The Bay end of this drain is plugged with sand, and the whole length of pipe must either be relaid or abandoned altogether, and the sewer plugged up. This spot, say residents of the vicinity, is a real menace to health, as is the garbage swept in from the dumping ground.

Tentative plans, as laid out at last week's meeting, provide for a conference between the Association's executive and members of the Parks and Beaches Committee of the City Council.

Realizing that the estimates for this year have been struck and that the appropriation allocated for Foul Bay Beach is altogether too small to meet the urgent needs of this popular resort, the Association hopes to work in harmony with the city authorities and to assist in every way possible to beautify the foreshore.

It is pointed out that hundreds of Victorians motor daily past this beach without knowing of its existence. Newcomers to the city are compelled to make inquiries in locating it, and the residents feel that signs should be placed at either end drawing the attention of motorists to the attraction close at hand.

Band Concerts.

The Association also intends to fight strenuously for band concerts. They feel that while the tourists should be entertained as far as possible, Hollywood district is entitled to some consideration when that subject is dealt with by the city authorities. They point out that Foul Bay Beach is on the Marine Drive, around which the sightseeing buses drive and that band concerts on the beach occasionally would prove a pleasant break in the swing around the city. In this connection it is planned to enlist the co-operation of the Publicity Bureau.

LUST TO KILL HAS DEVASTATED GAME OF THIS COUNTRY

M. B. Jackson, Chairman of Game Board, Tells Gyros Precautions Necessary

Ninety-five per cent of the game of the North American continent which was provided by Nature for food and for hunting has been destroyed through the lust to kill, and now precautions had to be taken to conserve the small portion which remained, according to a statement made by M. B. Jackson, M.P.P., chairman of the Game Conservation Board, in an address before the Gyro Club at its luncheon yesterday.

Mr. Jackson referred to a time forty years ago, when he pursued the game of the Mississippi Valley. At that time there were countless numbers of moose, deer, ducks, prairie chicken and other species of game, but through wanton destruction these vast herds and flocks had been devastated.

The speaker warned the Gyros to be wary of joining in any complaints against the actions of the Game Board in this provision. He said that sportsmen from time to time condemned the boards in respect of its severity in the closed season question, but he claimed such action to be necessary if the game was to be spared from complete annihilation.

Mr. Jackson said that the Game Board has arranged to hold a meeting this year at Fort George in order to get in intimate touch with the fur-men. The fur-trade is one of the major industries of the Province, stated the speaker, more than half a million dollars being done in fur-trading each year.

A question which was taking much of the time of the Game Board was the establishment of fur-farms, stated Mr. Jackson. Many of the Provincial fur animals "bet themselves to a state of semi-domesticity, and he was of the opinion that this would develop into a big industry in the future.

Stanley Featherston spoke briefly on the urgent need of connecting the terminal of the B.C. Electric Inter-urban line with the Ogden Point piers, in order that lumber cut on the peninsula might be sent to the piers for loading on deep sea ships. The Gyros left the question in the hands of the Civic Affairs Committee.

Miss Ruth Melville delighted the Gyros with two splendid vocal numbers.

IN 1858 the first oil well in North America was brought in at Oil Springs, Ontario. For a brief period this little district in Lambton County produced enough crude oil to meet the country's requirements. Canada's demands, however, soon exceeded this supply and since then it has been necessary to draw upon foreign fields, not only in the United States but in South America and Mexico.

Cannot Canada again develop sufficient petroleum production to supply her own needs? That question remains unanswered. Imperial Oil Limited has been a pioneer in a relentless search for oil and continues to spend heavily in the effort to locate further sources of supply. Geologists are constantly studying and charting every formation that suggests the probability of oil. Expert well drillers following their trail keep steadily at work, continually seeking to discover pools of oil which may some day make Canada independent of foreign supplies.

"Facts Worth Knowing" is a booklet which tells more fully of Canada's oil industry and deals particularly with the subject of gasoline. If you have not already received your copy, address IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED, 58 Church Street, Toronto, Room 711.

PREVENT FOREST FIRES

The fires that start each Summer might have come from YOUR cigarette-stub.

The Forest charred and burned might have been the result of YOUR camp-fire.

The wooded hillsides might have been blackened by YOUR lighted matches.

The burned farms might be the wages paid by YOUR thoughtlessness.

Idle logging camps might be the result of YOUR momentary-carelessness.

If forest fires annually destroy our natural wealth, if money is to be spent in fighting fires instead of building up the Province, then the loss is YOURS and that of the generations to come. Be careful.
