OBSERVATIONS.

BY THE EDITOR

Miss Edna Briggs and Ralph Hyde, editor and manager, respectively, of the graduation edition of the high school Oriole, wish us to state that they were not responsible for the taking of that paper to San Jose to print in the first place and do not wish to be held responsible. They claim many people are criticizing the graduating class and some are withholding patronage on account of it. Until this week we did not know who the editor or manager of the graduation number were, so our article last week was not intended or could not be construed as a reflection upon the editor or manager of the graduation number, which is always gotten out by the Seniors. We must say, however, that there are a few of the Seniors who are more than pleased because it was printed away from home. But we told the present manager as far back as last October that it would hurt the Seniors when the time came to get out the special, or large edition, which to be a success must be patronized liberally. Our article last week was not written with the view of injuring the success of the graduation number, but simply to protest against some of the methods employed during the past school year of going to San Jose and Santa Clara for printing which could just as well be done at home at as reasonable a price, if car fare and time count for anything, especially since it was for purposes of doing the Oriole and high school work that we placed in our office a modern printing press, electric motor and a new and up-to-date outfit of type, rule, borders and ornaments at a cost of some $600. And to be a little more plain will say that it didn't set very well when we saw work leaving town without giving us at least a chance at it, especially when some former work was still unsettled for at this office, dating back many months. To assist the last Senior managers to quit with a clear account we purchased the left-over graduation numbers to the amount of $7.50, and we trust the present printer will come to the rescue in case the manager gets left short on coin this year. By the way, any of last year's class, or anyone else can get one of last year's special at the low price of five cents each. We also have some of the 1904 special at same price. Call and get them. Guess you fully realize now why we turned loose last week, and we haven't told it all yet. But enough for this time. We wish the Seniors success with their special—it is a worthy undertaking.

The report of the three experts appointed by the Board of Supervisors to estimate the cost of repairing the county buildings has been handed in. Their esti-

A Mark of Refinement

Cleanliness of person is one of the most distinguishing marks of refinement, and commands at all times the highest respect. To promote cleanliness, install in your sleeping apartment or dressing room a snowy white, one-piece provided with an abundant flow of hot and cold running water.

It is very pleasant and convenient to arise in the morning and have at your touch a proper place for making the toilet, without having to partially dress in order to reach the bathroom—possibly to find it already occupied.

If you can possibly arrange space for a "Standard" Lavatory in your room, the cost will not compare with the resulting comforts.

We have sample one-piece "Standard" Lavatories in our showroom and respectfully invite you to examine them.

mate is as follows: Court House $27000; Hall of Records $52000; Hall of Justice $57800. A fifteen per cent increase may be necessary for the damages which will be found, but can not be told until the buildings are partly torn down. This is a much smaller damage than was expected and even with the fifteen per cent added the county will be getting off easy at $160,000. Of course this does not cover the Hospital, for which several thousand dollars more will be required. Architect Wolf has been instructed to prepare plans for the new County Hospital and the Lenzens for the repairs to the San Jose buildings. One thing which the report of the experts showed and which should prove of benefit in the planning for buildings to be erected in the future. It was the fact of inferior work above the foundations, the only exception being the old Court House. In the other two buildings not enough care was taken in properly wetting brick so that the mortar would hold; too careless about bonding the brick and facing stone; lack of strength of roofing material to hold the weight; not sufficient tying of the outer walls by means of heavy rods and washers, and other deficiencies. We are living in a day of graft and a calamity like this brings it to light.

We understand that Mr. Thomas has decided not to accept the roadmastership for the coming year, no doubt on account of his wishing to devote his entire time to his fruit interests. We understand that Supervisor Roll will endeavor to look out for this end of the township himself. If he succeeds in caring for this section as well as he does the section around Santa Clara we will have no "kick coming." But to us it would appear that a roadmaster in this thickly populated section would be a necessity and somehow our people are inclined to think that Santa Clara has about its full quota of county and township officers, etcetera. While we have had occasion to criticize Roadmaster Thomas yet we are ready to give him credit for having faithfully looked out for his district, over which he has had charge for so many years. A successor to him should be appointed and no doubt will be as soon as Supervisor Roll finds out the peoples' wishes.

FRUIT GROWERS' MEETING.

With a Clear Market Growers Should Hold for Three and Half Cents.

With but scant advertising, a fair number of our growers were at the meeting Tuesday afternoon in I. O. O. F. Hall. Dr. E. C. Abbott was elected chairman and C. J. Ringe secretary. Before hearing from Messrs. Clayton and Strickland, the local growers were called upon to express their views upon the question of price for prunes, some of which we present.

J. J. Cornell believed the growers should hold for what was a right price—neither too high nor too low. He cited that hold-over prunes were commanding as high as 4½c. base at the present time. Must be organized to get prices.

Dr. C. N. Cooper believed that prunes would sell at a 4c. base just as readily as at a 2c. base, provided the Eastern jobbers can depend on a uniform price.

Jos. Bohnett is in favor of holding for 3½c. base until Aug. 1st.

Prof. A. B. Capp wanted to know if any one present actually knew of anyone selling yet and no sales were known to have been made around here. He was emphatic in his determination to hold for not less than 3½c.

Dr. Abbott is a firm believer in holding for 3½c. He also is very much opposed to permitting the packers to set the price on the growers fruit, especially in May or June, before it is known what the crop will be.

E. W. Allen believes in an open market at 3½c. and maintain that price.

H. B. Hall had been around among the orchards considerably but had not heard of any sales having been made. He sees no risk in holding prunes on an up market and a clear market.

C. J. Ringe did not believe this year's crop of dried apples would effect the price of prunes. He had letters from the apple districts of Missouri and elsewhere in which it is stated that the apple crops had been injured by the weather. He is for 3½c.

Mr. Clayton was introduced and made a strong plea for united action among the growers to get what is right for their fruit. He had nothing against the fruit packers but did not like their methods. He thinks the banks will not approve of the tendency of the packers to set the price and sell prunes before they own them, which is gambling. He refuted the statement made by the packers, (for the purpose of scaring the growers into selling now) that the banks would not loan money on prunes. Said that the banks had plenty of money to loan, therefore there is no reason for selling to the packers at a lower price. The growers should not be thus fooled. He also deprecated the present method of over-processing prunes. As to apricots he believed that $60 to $70 per ton would be the ruling price and that before the season was over some would get even $80, where choice fruit was needed by certain canners to fill orders.

Mr. Strickland said the crop around Edenvale, and south to Morgan Hill was good as to the prune but had heard of but one grower selling.

A motion was passed that it was the sense of those present that 3½c. basis price be agreed to until August 1st, at which time the growers of the whole valley will be called together in San Jose and take action as to price at that time.

Before adjourning President Ringe of the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co. explained the plan of the new company and urged those present to assist in pushing ahead the project.

A vote of thanks was given the visiting speakers and the Hall Association for use of the hall.

Fine ice cream that will "just melt in your mouth!" To be had at the Coffee Club June 26, 1906. Come out and patronize a worthy cause. Entertainment, ice cream and cake for 15c. Do not forget the date.

The Dodona graduation exercises were held at the high school Tuesday evening. No previous announcement having been furnished the press, very few knew of it and a small audience was the result. The program was also only partly carried out, being as follows: Quotations, Miscellaneous; address, E. Abbott; piano solo by Lisle Keesling, which was much appreciated; vocal solo by Miss Cora Rodeck, bringing out the rich qualities of her voice; reading, Calvin Bohnett; song, Glee Club. There were several impromptu talks. James Cutting, an alumnus, presented the diplomas, giving a short address.

The Junior Reception.

The Junior Reception to the Seniors, given last night at the home of Professor Smith was a successful social function. The spacious rooms of the home were artistically decorated in the class colors and the evening was most charmingly spent by the large number of guests. A program of rare excellence was rendered. The music by the high school orchestra was a feature. There were vocal solos by the Misses Meryl McCarty, Cora Rodeck, and Ethel Hills; a violin solo by Miss Della Archibald, a piano solo by Miss Avenel Brandenburg. Refreshments of punch and Nabiscos were served.

The Junior Farce.

The Junior Farce, "The School Mistress," given last Friday night was well attended. The parts sustained by Miss Copeland, Miss Bucknall, and Calvin Bohnett, Earl Brown and Floyd Bell were especially well taken. The vocal trio by Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Luther, which was rendered between acts was very fine, as was also the piano solo by Miss Brandenburg.

How to Break up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by the Farmers Union, Agent.
