"WELCOME! LITTLE STRANGER."

HARRY FURNISS'S ROYAL ACADEMY.

An Artistic Joke.

THE Exhibition consisted of eighty-seven pictures, in black and white of course, but otherwise similar in size and general appearance to those annually seen on the walls of Burlington House. Anyone who visited it must have seen that it was the result of many years of labour, and not a few of the pictures possessed an artistic value quite apart from their interest as pictorial travesties. A wish has been very generally expressed that some permanent record, in a portable shape, but in character consonant with the artistic purpose of the Exhibition, should be procurable by the public at large, both those who saw and those who did not see the originals at the Gainsborough Gallery and elsewhere.

To meet this wish an ALBUM, containing Reproductions of these EIGHTY-SEVEN PICTURES, with which will be included the contents of THE ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE, has been prepared and largely subscribed for. The issue of these Albums, however, which will be the only reproductions of the Exhibition, is strictly limited to ONE THOUSAND COPIES, each of which will be signed by the Artist.

It may be mentioned that the whole of this undertaking, from its conception to the present time, has been in

Mr. Furniss's own hands. This has enabled Mr. Furniss scrupulously to maintain the artistic character of the whole enterprise. In the preparation of this Album he has spared no time or expense in trying reproductions by the different processes at home and abroad, similar to those used in the Album of the Royal Academy Pictures of 1886, and the annual reproductions of the French Salon. Not, however, being satisfied with any of these cheaper methods, he has, regardless of the great cost, adopted the finest method of photogravure—viz., the Photo Intaglio process of A. and C. Dawson, No. 3, Farringdon Street, and Hogarth Works, Chiswick, the reproductions being made under his own supervision. Each plate is hand-printed, and will in every way surpass, for artistic quality, anything of the kind ever published.

As PHOTOGRAVURE is the best and most faithful, as well as the most expensive method, this Album is certain to be valuable, and a worthy and complete memorial of the "Artistic Joke"; whilst the price charged will be only £3 3s., the same as fixed, originally, when the adoption of the cheaper process was contemplated.

The size of the Album is Imperial Quarto (11 by 15 inches); the plates range, on an average, from 4 × 6 to 7½ × 9 inches. The whole is handsomely and tastefully bound in cloth and gilt edged.

AFTER THE THOUSAND VERITABLE Édition de Luxe WERE PRINTED, THE PLATES WERE DESTROYED.

The whole Edition is rapidly being exhausted and the price will be raised to FIVE Guineas in a few days.

* * * Orders should be forwarded to THE TYPOGRAPHIC-ETCHING CO., No. 3, Farringdon Street.

£3 3s. 6d. (including case for packing).

"The genius of Leech has never been seen to greater advantage than in this gallery."—Morning Post.

"We doubt whether in the whole range of the literary or pictorial art of the period, the earlier portion of the Victorian era has been elsewhere so vigorously, so truthfully, as well as so humorously portrayed as in JOHN LEECH'S inimitable pictures. The series has an importance beyond the amusement of the moment—it serves both to commemorate the genius of the artist and the character of the age."—Country Gentleman.

Her Majesty the Queen,

PICTORIALLY ARRANGED WITH ANNALS OF THE TIME

FROM THE CONTEMPORARY PAGES OF

"PUNCH."

"There can be no better book for a drawing-room table, to suggest subjects of talk. The arts of engraving have made rapid progress since these pictures first appeared, but it would be hard to surpass the pregnant humour of the more famous of the political cartoons. They put the points on all the critical periods of our Parliamentary history, and indicate in effective outline the action of political celebrities."—Times.

"It is surprising to find how complete a history of the times they present in vivid form, at least in its most salient features; and a history which is not confined to political events, but which catches and stereotypes many of the evanescent phases of popular fashion and opinion, which could hardly be preserved in any other way."—Guardian.

"This chronicle must have a place amongst standard books of reference."—Spectator.

In 3 Volumes, Royal quarto, elegant, price £2 2s.

"PUNT SAILING WITH THE STREAM."

(Reduced.)

"Mr. Leslie has a keen sense of the picturesque, while a genuine enthusiasm for the beauties of scenery to be found in the course of a leisurely boat-trip from Putney to Oxford, gives life and even force to what he says. . . . 'Our River' is not an exhaustive work, but it should be read by all persons who are in any way interested in the subject."—Times.

"The diction moves in a sort of endless ripple, now telling of water-weeds and bank-flowers and birds, now lingering pleasantly over some of the traditions and old-world lore of which the Thames furnishes such a goodly quantity."—Graphic.
