Public Document Concerning Treatment of POW's

Article 2 of the regulations concerning the treatment of POW's (cf. the preceding number) provides that the POW Control Bureau should transact business concerning the treatment of POW's and the internees at the front. The scope of this "business concerning the treatment of POW's and those interned by the Army" is determined as follows:

1. Matters concerning general plans for treatment, such as accommodation, discipline, exchange, release, employment (for labor propaganda, etc), punishment and general allowances of POW's and those interned by the Army at the front.
2. Matters concerning labor of POW's.
3. Matters concerning correspondence of POW's.
4. Matters concerning punishment of POW's.
5. Matters corresponding to the preceding items No. 2 and 3 in the case of those interned by the Army at the front.
