WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman's Suffrage Association of Pennsylvania will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Wisse, 228 Iona avenue, on Friday afternoon, June 2, at three o'clock.

To all those who have the cause of Woman Suffrage at heart these meetings are not only interesting and instructive, but also afford an opportunity for a practical demonstration of that interest. It is with this in mind, that Mr. Wisse urges all the women who are favorable toward this great movement to come to this and future meetings and if possible ally themselves with the organization. A special invitation is therefore tendered to those who have never as yet identified themselves with suffrage, but who favor it.

LIGHTNING STRIKES TWO NARBERTH HOMES

During the heavy storm of last Friday afternoon lightning struck the homes of Arthur W. Cole, on Woodside avenue, and the home of Frank McDermon, on Montgomery avenue. A section of the stone chimney on the exterior and a lot of plaster from a third floor ceiling was the damage at Mr. Cole's. At Mr. McDermon's house parts of two bedroom ceilings were torn off.

NARBERTH WINS TWO GAMES

Breaks Tie With Paoli— Defeats Autocar Club In Morning, 11 to 3, While In Afternoon Trims Paoli Men's Club, 9 to 4

In one of the best games of the season, Narberth broke the tie with Paoli here Tuesday afternoon in a somewhat easy fashion.

Gibson pitched air-tight ball and the Hanley recruits could only connect safely five times. Eddie Ensinger starred with the bat for Narberth with three hits out of four times at bat, with Fleck and Koons having two hits apiece.

Paoli collected two of their hits in the third inning and scored two runs when Ryan received a base on balls and Jeffers followed with a single, as did also Calhoun.

Narberth scored two runs in the second inning when Walzer singled and stole second, while Ensinger and Gibson singled.

Narberth sewed the game up in the eighth inning when they scored three runs when Humphries singled, Stites doubled, Fleck singled and Walzer was safe on Paist's error.

For Paoli, Jeffers starred in the field, while the work of Koons, Stites and Davis shone brilliantly for Narberth.

The score:

Morning Game.

The Narberth Champs walloped the Autocar Club in a Main Line League game on the home grounds here Tuesday by the score of 11 to 3. A total of five hits for seven runs in the third inning, Durbin cleaning the bases with a slashing drive for four sacks, drove Titlow from the mound. Durbin twirled a wonderful game, keeping the visitors at his mercy. The champions played errorless ball.

SILVER JUBILEE OF THE RECTOR OF ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH

A local event of great interest to the Catholics of Narberth and vicinity was brought to a close on Tuesday of last week, too late for notice in the last issue of Our Town. This was the attainment by Rev. R. F. Cowley, rector of St. Margaret's Church of his quarter century mark in the priesthood, over fifteen years of which he has spent in Narberth as organizer and first pastor of St. Margaret's parish.

To the retiring disposition of Father Cowley and his desire for a quiet observance of his Silver Jubilee may be attributed the fact that no particular plans were laid for a formal celebration by the parishioners. In observance of the occasion and to please his parishioners, a solemn high mass of thanksgiving was celebrated by him at 10 A. M. on the Sunday previous to the anniversary date. Assisting him at this sacred function were Revs. Denis A. Corbett and Thomas C. Brennan, both of St. Charles' Seminary, Overbrook, as deacon and sub-deacon respectively. The preacher was Rev. James J. McCloskey, of St. Veronica's, Philadelphia, who spoke eloquently on the dignity of the priesthood, in the presence of a large congregation. Magnificent singing by a largely augmented choir, with Mr. S. A. Rudolph as tenor soloist, characterized the rendering of Mercadante's Mass, whilst the altars and sanctuary were resplendent in their wealth of floral decorations, electric lights and the sheen of silver ornamentation. The Misses McMenamin and Lynch had charge of the altar decorations.

The members of the congregation, however, were not disposed to allow the happy occasion to pass without asserting their prerogative and their right to offer congratulations to their pastor, which they did in a substantial manner. Unknown to him a quiet canvass of the parish had been previously made and a testimonial purse of $505 was raised in a short time, as a jubilee gift and a token of the esteem and loyalty of his people.

Sunday, May 21st, was the date fixed for the testimonial function. On that evening Father Cowley was summoned to the parish hall where he was warmly greeted on his entrance by a representative gathering of members of his congregation. After a few introductory remarks by Mr. A. W. Brockmeyer, the presentation address was made by John Gilroy, Esq., to which the Rev. Jubilarian responded briefly, assuring them of his appreciation of their great though unmerited kindness and his gratitude for such a manifestation of their loyalty and good will.

On Monday the children of the parish had their say, and in the afternoon honored their pastor with an entertainment in the course of which he was presented with several congratulatory addresses and purses of silver. The first of these addresses entitled "A Silver Jubilee Tribute," was made by Miss Mary O'Connor, representing the children of the parish school, and was accompanied by a purse containing $25 in silver. The second entitled "Twenty-five years in God's Service," was made by Miss Ruth Diamond representing the Sunday school, and was accompanied by a bouquet of twenty-five roses. A recitation by Miss Mary Lacey entitled "The Silver Refiner" was followed by another silver offering of $25, whilst a hollow base ball, in which was concealed a similar sum and as much more as it would hold, was presented by Master Charles Burns, a representative of the children attending the public schools.

On Tuesday morning, the anniversary date of his ordination, Father Cowley celebrated low mass privately, except for the presence of a few friends.

NARBERTH CONTINUES WINNING STREAK

Beat Berwyn 11 to 3—Jim Moore Holds Manager Phytot's Sluggers Down To Seven Hits

In a rather loosely played game, the Narberth Champions gave Berwyn their first defeat on the home grounds last Saturday afternoon.

Moore, the Haverford School twirler, had the home team at his mercy all the time, holding them to seven scattered hits, no more than one being made in one inning.

Manager Walzer changed his lineup in the seventh inning and Berwyn collected their only runs of the game in that inning, when an error, two bases on balls, a single and a fielder's choice gave them their three runs.

Narberth scored in the first inning when Walter Humphries started off with a stinging double, and Koons followed him with a three-bagger, and was caught at the plate trying to stretch it into a home run.

It was in the third inning that Narberth forged ahead by scoring three runs on bases on balls to Humphries and Davis, two errors by the home team and on passed ball by Hayman.

Again in the fourth inning the Narberth bats got busy when Ensinger received a poke in the ribs, and Moore followed with a base on balls. Humphries also was issued a free pass to first, making three on with no one out. Flick Stites then singled, scoring two runners, and Vernon Fleck doubled, scoring Humphries, while Stites was caught at the plate.

Jim Moore Knocks Home Run.

Narberth scored their last two runs of the game in the seventh inning when Ensinger received a life on Kelly's error, and scored when Jim Moore clouted a home run out of the park.

Aged clergyman (to young curate)—Always remember in preaching a sermon that the great secret to success is simplicity. The beginner, after choosing his text, should divide his sermon into three parts. In the first part he tells the congregation what he is going to tell them; in the second part he tells them; and in the third part he tells them what he has told them!"

Some rare talent was shown at the school entertainment on Friday night when the High School pupils, under the direction of Miss Helen Wilson, rendered the operetta, "Nautical Knot." The assembly room was crowded, and everyone agreed that the pupils rendered a most excellent entertainment.

Considerable effort has been made by the postmaster through the columns of Our Town, placards displayed in the lobby of the post office and through other mediums to influence the patrons of the office in having their mail directed to their box number. The chief cause of trouble with consequent delay, at times, is with mail for servants or friends of patrons who are not well known to the post office employees. Patrons are again urged to co-operate with the post office force by getting the habit of having all mail for their post office box directed thereto. Where carrier service is in operation the street and house number are required, in Narberth the post office box number is important.

FLOWER SHOW
 JUNE 10TH

Attractive List of Classes For Exhibits

The Second Annual Flower Show, under the auspices of the Narberth Civic Association, will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Building on Saturday afternoon and evening, June 10th next. As last year, Mr. Stites will act as chairman of the committee having charge of the show, and it is expected that the exhibits to be shown this year will surpass those offered in 1915, when the Y. M. C. A. Building was crowded with appreciative on-lookers. More than thirty classes are offered for competition and an opportunity is given to every one, whether his garden be large or small, to enter an exhibit. In the Flower Show of last year many refrained from competing, evidently fearing that their offerings would be lost sight of in the larger exhibits. As a matter of fact, many of the most beautiful vases and baskets of flowers in the show were those containing only two or three beautiful specimens of roses, peonies and the like.

The children's class will again be a feature of the show. This year a first prize of $5 in gold and a second prize of $2.50 in gold is offered for the best and most attractive vase or basket of wild flowers shown by children under fifteen years of age. The competition in this class at last year's show was most spirited and great admiration was aroused by the attractiveness and beauty of the flowers shown by the children.

- A complete list of the classes for competition is as follows:
 Class 1—Best vase or basket white roses, not over 6 blooms.
 Class 2—Best vase or basket pink roses, not over 6 blooms.
 Class 3—Best vase or basket red roses, not over 6 blooms.
 Class 4—Best vase or basket yellow roses, not over 6 blooms.
 Class 5—Best vase or basket climbing roses, one color, any number.
 Class 6—Best vase or basket climbing roses, mixed, any number.
 Class 7—Best vase or basket peonies, white, 3 blooms.
 Class 8—Best vase or basket, peonies, pink, 3 blooms.
 Class 9—Best vase or basket peonies, scarlet, 3 blooms.
 Class 10—Best vase or basket peonies, mixed, any number.
 Class 11—Best vase or basket delphinium (larkspur) light blue, 6 stalks.
 Class 12—Best vase or basket delphinium (larkspur) dark blue, 6 stalks.
 Class 13—Best 6 blooms columbine, single.
 Class 14—Best 6 blooms columbine, mixed colors.
 Class 15—Best vase or basket Canterbury Bells.
 Class 16—Best vase or basket Sweet William.
 Class 17—Best vase or basket Foxglove.
 Class 18—Best vase or basket Iris, any color.
 Class 19—Best vase or basket Poppies, any color.
 Class 20—Best vase or basket sweet peas.

- Class 21—Best vase or basket corn-flowers (centaurea).
 Class 22—Best vase or basket lilies, not less than three stalks.
 Class 23—Best vase or basket larkspur in combination with other flower or flowers.
 Class 24—Best vase roses, mixed.
 Class 25—Best arranged basket tea and hybrid roses.
 Class 26—Best arranged basket rambler roses.
 Class 27—Best arranged basket pansies, all colors.
 Class 28—Best vase or bowl hardy Scotch pinks.
 Class 29—Best vase Pyrethrum daisies, all colors.
 Class 30—Most attractive basket or vase of flowers of any kind or number.

Special Classes.
Children's Class—Best and most attractive vase or basket of wild flowers, first prize, $5 in gold; second prize, $2.50 in gold.
Suffrage Class—Best and most artistically arranged exhibit of yellow flowers, prize, two dozen growing plants.

Notes.
 Hood pitched a fine game for the Reserves, having his opponents at his mercy at all times.

The fielding feature was furnished by Scanlin and Jefferies with a rattling fast double play in the ninth.

Jacobs made a fine running catch of Humphreys' foul in the second.

"Jack" Jefferies played a bang up game in all departments, at the initial sack.

Crutchley pulled some fast work on the bases, stealing two bags on Owen Humphreys, the Reserves' star catcher.

Big Bill Humphreys hit in old time form, banging out three nice singles and being hit by a pitched ball on his four appearances at the plate.

THE NAUTICAL KNOT WAS SPLENDID SUCCESS

Entertainment Given By The High School Girls Largely Attended

"The Nautical Knot," presented by the High school girls on Friday evening was a splendid success. A large and responsive audience is always an incentive to the performers; this encouragement the girls had.

The people were out because they knew they would hear something good and they were not disappointed. The music was catchy but difficult and the rendition showed splendid work. The solos and individual speeches were especially good for amateurs.

The greatest value of the operetta was the benefit of the concentration required by the girls; the committing and rendering of the varied types of music showed what persistent efforts will accomplish.

We wanted the Narberth folks to see just what was being done on special lines and wished to increase the general school spirit. This was the purpose of the affair, rather than to raise money, hence the nominal admission of 25 cents was charged. Incidentally the proceeds were about seventy dollars.

All credit is due to Miss Helen Wilson, the instructor in music. She made all arrangements and with the aid of the girls put through the operetta.

A big and taking feature was the wharf scenery. This was arranged and crayed by Miss Wilson.

The affair was a good demonstration of what the music and art departments are doing for the pupils of our schools.

WORKING THE ORACLE

"I wish, John, that I had more sense when we were engaged," said the wife thoughtfully. "Then I wouldn't have destroyed all the letters you wrote me in the eighteen months of our courtship."

The husband smiled in a gratified way.

"I knew you would be sorry for that some day," he said.

"Indeed I am," was the reply. "I need a little extra money very badly just now, and a man called today to buy old paper. How wasteful we were!"

And automatically his hand sought his pocket. A resourceful woman seldom has to ask for money straight out.

NEXT BEST THING.

Prometheus Pipton felt very seedy as he left the office to catch the 5.30 train to his suburban villa, so it was very opportune that his doctor should get into the same compartment.

"My word, Pipton!" exclaimed the man of medicine at once, "you're looking had to-day."

"Yes, I feel a bit off color," answered Pipton, feebly.

"Take my advice," said the doctor, "and go to Egypt for a month."

About six weeks later Pipton was sprightly stepping along the street when he met the pill-merchant again.

"What a great change, Pipton, since I saw you last," remarked the medical man, warmly. "You look absolutely in the pink."

"I never felt better in my life," was Pipton's unoriginal but joyful response.

"By the way, did you follow my advice, and go to Egypt?"

"Well, not exactly," answered Pipton, slowly, "but I did the next best thing. I went to the Zoo and had a ride on a camel."

TELL WHY?

Representative Bowdle, of Ohio, whose vigorous anti-suffrage speech was the feature of a suffrage debate, sat at a recent dinner party in Washington beside a suffragist.

The suffragist, desirous of showing woman's serfdom of servitude, said:

"Mr. Bowdle, why does a woman, when she married a man, take his name?"

But Mr. Bowdle, desirous to show woman's sheltered and easy economic position, smiled and answered:

"Why does she take everything else he's got?"

Y. M. C. A. NEWS OF WEEK

Monthly Meeting of Board—
 Camp Tohickon—Representation At Civic Exposition

Official Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Narberth Young Men's Christian Association will be held as usual, next Monday evening, June 5.

"Camp Tohickon"

This favorite spot is already the center of attraction for several of our Narberth boys. We will announce in next week's issue the boys who are planning to go.

How about your boy—could you give him a better vacation? It only costs $6 per week. Phone, Narberth 694-W, and Secretary Hampton will be pleased to call and explain all details. Now is the time to make your plans.

"Y. M. C. A. Represented at Civic Exposition."

The Young Men's Christian Association is one of the many organizations represented at the "Philadelphia To-day and To-morrow" Exposition, being held in the Commercial Museum Building. Read the following editorial from one of the newspapers and then be sure to visit the exposition:

"Philadelphia To-day and To-morrow" can now be seen at the Commercial Museum Building under agreeable circumstances. No movement of the kind has been more carefully designed for a better purpose. It has been frequently urged that the people of this city are without civic spirit and to a lamentable extent this is true and largely through ignorance. The area is extensive and the improvements are widespread, so that it has been difficult to get a clear comprehension of the situation.

"This condition no longer exists. It is possible in a short time at the exposition to comprehend what the city stands for in its civic capacity as well as industrially, educationally and sociologically. Every day lectures with moving picture films will be given so that those desiring to learn will have plenty of opportunity. We urge upon every citizen to visit the exposition and learn something which will be to his benefit and that of the city at large. We are on the eve of great improvement.

"Do not put off this important duty. People are prone to say they will do a thing 'some time' and that is apt to be never. Most of the grumbling against local conditions is made by those who know little or nothing of what the city has accomplished or its purposes and take no pains to find out.

"If these misguided individuals will make use of the opportunities at the 'To-day and To-morrow' Exposition' they will find that this city is forging ahead, that it has great plans for the future which can only be defeated by ignorance and stupidity, and we predict that all who do visit the show will become enthusiastic citizens, filled with hopes for the future and determined to do their part.

"The man who will not take this chance for an education in civics should never open his mouth to complain about Philadelphia."

How about Narberth? Does this strike home?

ON THE MAKE.

It was nearing Christmas, the time of peace and goodwill. The butcher's boy had been busy all day, and was now beginning to feel very despondent about the shortage of tips. His last errand was to take a present from his master to an old customer, who lived on the outskirts of the town.

Arriving at the house, he rang the bell, and was answered by the old gentleman himself. Handing up the basket he said, "From Mr. Smith."

"Come," said the old man, "that's not the way to address your customers; you should say, 'With Mr. —' But here, take my place, and I'll show you what I mean."

The boy gave the old man the basket. He mounted the steps with it on his arms, and then turned to the boy.

"With Mr. Smith's compliments, and will you accept this present?" said the old man.

"Haw!" replied the boy, diving his hand into his pocket and pulling out an imaginary coin, "Here's half a dollar for you."
