BUSINESS MEN GIVE FREELY

Leusch Heads a Fair
to Gift Fund for Umatilla County With $50.

FOR PRIVATE FUND
AND COUNTY DONATION.

Men Are Willing to Raise
More Than the County Gives—C. E.
Leusch Believes That the Actual Owner Should Take the Merchandise Is Here Today and May Be Gone Tomorrow—Leusch Favors Public Denying the County so it Will Fall
to All.

Leusch or not Umatilla county has a creditable exhibit at the Clark fair at Portland and a question that is receiving consideration by business and property owners.

Leusch's county court has not yet appropriated. Interviews with merchants of Pendleton bring forth the fact that many are in favor of the county making a substantial appropriation and are willing to contribute to a public fund in case of the necessity.

Leusch expressed the opinion that the owners, inasmuch as they are the persons to receive the benefit, should take the initiative matter.

Leusch Gives $50.
Leusch does not want to overstep the boundaries of his large department store but he feels the need of something and he is willing to start with $50. I believe the county should contribute at least $1000 from the taxes levied on property owners of Umatilla county.

Leusch said: "In 1896 a United States senator came to Utah on behalf of the republican party and bargained with the ecclesiastical powers for the delivery of the electoral vote of Utah and surrounding states. It was impossible to carry out the bargain
at that time.
"In 1900 another emissary of the republican national party came and bargained for the same result for the electoral vote. The bargain was executed in Utah, which for years previously had given 1500 majority for Bryan. The state was turned over to the republican party at ecclesiastical dictation. This year similar bargains have been made.
"Before the death of the late Senator Hanna, President Roosevelt became fearful that Senator Kearns would take a Hanna delegation to the Chicago convention and a bargain was made by which if Senator Kearns would take a Roosevelt delegation to Chicago, the Smoot investigation, scheduled to be renewed at Salt Lake City during the summer,
would be postponed until after election. That bargain was carried out.
"Since that time and quite recently another emissary has appeared,
properly accredited with high authority from Washington. He has bargained for the delivery of the electoral vote to the state to the Roosevelt ticket."

FOR WHISKEY PEDDLING.
Three Pendleton People to Be Tried
on the Charge.
Deputy United States Marshal Jacob Proebstel, of Portland, is in Pendleton today serving subpoenas on witnesses to appear before the federal grand jury that convenes October 18. There are three indictments pending against Pendleton persons in the United States circuit court. All are for alleged violations of the state prohibiting the sale of liquor to allotment Indians. The cases are against Joe Williams, an Indian, and Thomas Murrill and Lee Baker, proprietors of the city brewery saloon.
"There is one murder case to come before the grand jury," said Mr.
Proebstel. "Louie Savage, a Grand Ronde Indian, is accused of killing a fellow tribesman."
Deputy Marshal Proebstel expects to complete his work in Pendleton today and will go on to Baker City tonight.

absurd "there is nothing there to answer the inquiry with.
"Besides, if we cannot show inquiry-ing Easterners something that will do the county credit, we will feel even worse, and ought to. It will be a shame if the county is not adequately represented, when it is possible to have one of the most valuable, beautiful and unusual exhibits that can be raised in any agricultural county in the entire United States.
"Further, I am in favor of every dollar being expended by some one who will be directly responsible to the people and authorities of this county. The Lewis and Clark commission should not be entrusted with a dollar of it. Let us employ, on a salary, someone to collect, classify, ship and arrange the exhibit, co-operating with the directors of the exposition. The exhibits will not cost anything, and $2000 can be made to go a long ways. I favor the $1000 appropriation by the county court under the conditions I have outlined."

RUSSIAN FARM HAND ASSAULTED BY COLORED TROOPER.

stabbed through the left lung last night by James M. Smarr, a colored may die. The stabbing occurred in an alley at the rear of Schwarz's saloon. It is alleged Wilsey interfered in a quarrel between the negro and a white civilian, when the latter turned on him. The soldier is in the county jail.

—I the Culmination of Church Influence in Politics.

Salt Lake, Oct. 13.—Former Senator Frank Cannon, one of the most prominent Mormons in the country, has made the most sensational speech ever delivered in Utah. Cannon was the chief orator at a meeting of the American party, just organized of republican and democratic Gentiles, who are opposed to the domination
of the Mormon church in politics.
He said: "In 1896 a United States

taire publishes a dispatch stating that General Stoessel led 15,000 men in a

THE WALTERS ISLAND.
Owner Expresses Reluctance About
Disposing of It.
When asked about the proposition that he might dispose of the island to the city for a park, Fred Walters refused to state either that he is willing to sell, or how much he would take for the property. He in fact expresses reluctance about selling at any figure, fearing that the proximity of the race and the presence of the wing dam across the upper end would eventually lead to complications that would be unpleasant, if nothing more.
He admits that the island could be made a very pleasant place by the city, being ideal for the location of a band stand and development of a fine
shade and other attractions.

Will Cost $2500 and Comfortably
Seat 100 Pupils.
H. H. Gilbert, W. T. Harrison and Thomas Jacques, members of the Pilot Rock school board, are in town today starting the preliminaries for the erection of the new school house at that place. C. E. Troutman was chosen to draw up the plans, which will be submitted for bids in a short time.
The new building is to cost $2500,
be one story in height and consist of two rooms and hold from 90 to 100 pupils comfortably. It will be frame, and the intention is to have it completed by the first of January. It is planned to be more than an ordi-

Besides the two large school rooms,
there will be a smaller room for li-

he clearly defines the case against the inclusion of food. Raw material is among the list of contraband, ex-

British attitude in the correspond-

NOTES FROM ECHO

WATER WORKS DELAYED BY CONTRACTORS.

New Well is Finished—Many Immigrants Coming Into the Country—Proposed Ticket to Be Voted on at Coming City Election in December.

Echo, Oct. 13.—Petitions are in circulation for grading and sidewalking Main and Bridge streets, which will be presented to the city council Wednesday night of next week.

There is delay in work on the city water works on account of the bids by the companies furnishing the piping and other iron necessary not being acted upon as yet.

The new well for the water works is finished. It is 22 feet deep, 16 feet in diameter, and contains 16 feet of water of the finest quality. It furnishes a practically inexhaustible water supply, as a 10-horse power gasoline engine operating a centrifugal pump, failed to perceptibly lower the water after several hours' vigorous work.

Immigrants are arriving every day and scattering out through the country, and those already on the ground are putting in irrigation plants, some of which are operated by gasoline engines and others with wind mills. The people are vigorously adopting and putting into effect the policy of taking into their own hands the solution of the irrigation problems offered them. All have unbounded faith, and capital enough to make the desert blossom as the rose.

The following ticket is talked of to succeed to the various city offices as the result of the coming December election: Mayor, A. W. Robinson, manager of the Echo Lumber Co.; aldermen—Charles H. Miller, merchant; William Glasson, proprietor of the amusement parlors; H. C. Willis of the Echo News; Cloyd Oliver, sail-loon keeper; Frank Spke, stockman and inventor and compounder of the "Oregon Blackleg Cure."

There will be but one regular meeting of the present city council before the municipal election in December.

A petition is in circulation to change certain metes and bounds of the city to correspond with the special survey made some time ago by Geary Kimbrell, and which demonstrated several serious errors in the recorded plots.

"SIGN OF THE FOUR."

Conan Doyle's Great Dramatic Production at the Frazer Tonight.

"The Sign of the Four," which comes to the Frazer tonight, is a dramatization of Conan Doyle's vividly real novel. The play deals with the fortunes of the great Agra treasure, which cost many lives, and finally is the motive of a crime, the cause of a mystery which Sherlock Holmes is called upon to solve.

This he does in his characteristic way, and not only succeeds in overtaking the criminals, but wins, as well, the love of the much persecuted heroine, Mary Maston.

The drama of intrigue, mystery and love is unfolded and with intense dramatic interest, lightened by charming bits of humor and ludicrous situations. The interplay of Holmes, cool, commanding in moments of great danger, however, dominates every act, bringing to a denouement which is as unexpected as it is adventurous. Mr. True S. James is the Sherlock Holmes and the balance of the cast is in competent hands.

CHRISTIE TO PORTLAND.

Veterinarian Sells Out His Business and Removes to Portland Permanently.

Dr. J. Christie, who has been in this city for several years in the practice of the veterinary profession, has sold out to Dr. T. J. Lloyd, and leaves tonight for Portland, where he will reside permanently.

Dr. Christie has been deputy stock inspector for the state veterinarian, in Umatilla county, and is a member of the state veterinarian board. His successor as inspector has not yet been named.

The family of Dr. Lloyd is expected to arrive tonight from North Powder to occupy the house formerly occupied by Dr. Christie.

IN PENDLETON

Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Pendleton, what can it be?

W. A. Rose, living on Cottonwood street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were first brought to my notice some four years ago, when I was living in Peoria, Ill. At that time I was suffering severely from an attack of kidney complaint and could scarcely do a day's work. To stoop or rise after stooping hurt so acutely that I could hardly keep from crying out. When a man has suffered with a back which felt half the time as though it was broken, which could not stand the slightest pressure, when he could not sit down, stand or lie with any comfort and still has to go to his daily work he naturally becomes anxious about his condition. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills, used them and they cured me. About a year ago I came to Washington, and shortly afterwards noticed symptoms of my old trouble. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Brock & McComas Co.'s drug store and three boxes completely banished the trouble leaving no signs that I had even had a touch of kidney trouble in my life. Doan's Kidney Pills do all that is claimed for them. You are welcome to refer to me at any time and I will gladly give all particulars in a personal interview to anyone calling on me."

JETTY DESTROYED

WILL REQUIRE THREE YEARS TO REPAIR.

One Mile of Piling and Stone Wrecked and Washed to Sea—Loss Is Estimated at $1,200,000—Had the Jetty Stood Long Enough to Have Collected River Sand Around the Piling, No Storm Could Have Wrecked It.

For two years the government has been battling against the waves at the mouth of the Columbia river in building the mile of jetty that was recently swept to sea by a heavy swell rolling out over the bar.

Several million tons of rock had been hauled and floated on barges from Fisher's Landing, and piled into the sea, in the effort to change the current of the tides, as they sweep in and out, from the Columbia, and thus scour out a deeper channel over the bar, and divert the washing sands, that are carried down the current of the river, to either shore, instead of straight out to sea, as at present.

One swell of heavy seas, washed away a full mile of the jetty, destroyed the work of three years, and threw 500 men out of employment. It would have required but three months more to have completed the wing of the jetty extending toward the Fort Stevens shore. Now 5000 feet of that wing lies at the bottom of the sea and the immense task must be done over again.

The basis of the jetty was a row of piling, five deep, driven from 20 to 40 feet into the bed of the ocean, and banked up behind and between the piles with tons and tons of rock. To repair the destroyed section means that the entire mile of piling must be driven again, under greater difficulties than at first, because of the debris remaining from the wrecked jetty.

It is estimated that it will cost $1,200,000 to repair in full the damage done by the storm. Had the jetty been allowed to stand long enough to have collected a bed of sand around the piling and over the stone, no storm ever experienced at the mouth of the river could have removed it, but the soft earth in the bed of the ocean and the unsettled condition of the jetty made it an easy prey to the waves.

The 500 men employed on the rock quarries, on the scows, transporting rock to the jetty and in the work on the jetty itself, must now seek other employment for the winter.

WOULD FIGHT MITCHELL

Frank Freeman, of Oregon City, Would Arrange a Match.

Frank Freeman, of Oregon City, is desirous of a fight with Jack Mitchell, of this city. In answer to a letter his manager, Ed Reckner, says that the matter of weight cuts but little figure and that if a sufficiently large house can be guaranteed the kid will come.

Freeman offers to leave the matter of dividing the gate receipts with Mitchell. "I think 75 and 25 per cent would look right," says the manager, "but if Mitchell desires, the winner to take all."

If the fight is pulled off here it will be 20 rounds and will take place sometime after October 27. Reckner states that he has a boy named Gallagher whom he will match in a preliminary with any 124-pounder.

The letter from Reckner was written to V. G. Willison of this city, who is endeavoring to arrange the match.

Barney Mullen, the hard hitter, who has gone against Indian Joe Gregg, Rufe Turner and a bunch of the best ones, regardless of class, is disgusted with the Grand Ronde and is back in Pendleton. A fortnight ago Mullen received an invitation from the sheriff of Wallowa county to come to Enterprise where he would match him for a mill. Ever seeking a bout, Barney hastened to the railroadless county.

"What do you suppose I found there?" asked Barney with a contemptuous curl of his lip. "Why, this man Hurtubise, the balloonist, who can't even put up a fast go in a preliminary. They wanted me to fight him. When I fight, it is with scrappers, not aeronauts."

They will go first to Pilot Rock, then to Ukiah and to other points perhaps, in the southern part of the county; and then to John Day, Canyon City and other interior towns.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. Tomorrow! O tomorrow!
The day that I like best;
For, though my sunset's cloud-ed,
It's golden further west.
Observe the little sparrow;
Throughout the dark today,
She sings of her tomorrow
And the egg she's going to lay.
For though my sun's declining,
Behind yon hoary hill,
I know that it is shining
Beyond the summit still.
And, howe'er I sorrow,
I know 't will pass away;
God gives a glad tomorrow
For every sad today.

SPEED MADNESS.

In the races for the Vanderbilt cup Saturday one automobilist was instantly killed and another man—a millionaire—is dying from injuries received. Both victims of too fast and too reckless driving or "speed madness," as it is now called.

This "speed madness" is a new form of dementia which medical scientists have differentiated, classified and applied to people who drive automobiles recklessly through crowded streets and highways.

It is a form of dementia with which the public has become unpleasantly familiar and it is good to have it named. But something more than the mere name ought to be contributed by the scientists.

"Science," once said a sarcastic wit, "consists in giving a known fact a name and pigeon-holing it." If it is not to deserve this definition, science must do more with this well-recognized form of dementia than merely name it.

There is something more in this dementia than a madness for speed. It affects not only the motorist's reason, but his moral sense. The daily stories of automobilists running over and killing or injuring people and then hastening away without stopping to inquire as to the condition of their victims are not to be accounted for in any mere infirmity of reason.

This blunting of the ordinary feelings of humanity must in some way or other be connected with the practice of motoring, since the people who own motor cars are ordinarily persons of some social pretensions and acquainted with the obligations which civilization imposes upon human beings.

Out of their automobiles they are sane and have regard for the lives and limbs of others.

Medical science has achieved much in evolving the name "speed madness," but the name is not broad enough to cover the whole condition of mental and moral derangement.

And no less deplorable is that speed madness of the traveling public which causes the railroad companies to put trains to the limit, risking the horrible crash, the collision, the washout and the human mistake, in which hundreds are hurled to instant death, all too often.

If it were not for the constant nagging of the public for faster time, the railroads would reduce the schedule of passenger trains, because railroad men understand better than anyone else the awful perils of fast running, even with the best of care and the most scrupulous precautions.

"Speed madness" is not confined to automobilists, but is a craze that has been fastened on the American people.

Next to the barbarous spectacle of war, the combat of the defiant unions and the insolent trusts, is the most inexcusable horror of civilization. It is announced that the Employers' Association will raise $100,000 to fight the coal miners' union in the anthracite strike, while the miners are also raising funds by assessments to carry on the struggle. What are these immense funds to be raised for? To what beneficial use will they be put? In what way will humanity or the employers or the miners be permanently benefited by the expenditure of this great store of wealth? Cannot the same result be reached by a cool and unimpassioned discussion of differences? Is not intelligence more potent than money? This great fund will be worse than wasted, hatred will be engendered in the struggle, want will be visited on the innocent and the outcome will not be conclusive nor permanent. The peace advocates could accomplish more by stopping strikes by the introduction of intelligence and arbitration than in any empty resolutions on the horrors of war. Strikes cause as much suffering as warfare, and they are ten thousand times less justifiable than most of the wars that are fought.

Little counties of Oregon that could be lost in one corner of Umatilla, are found on the ground with a fine exhibit at the Union depot in Portland. In the collection of the Oregon Information bureau, while this wonderful empire of wealth has only a fragmentary exhibit there, scattered over different parts of the room, with no system nor arrangement. Strangers viewing this exhibit find the little counties foremost with splendid collections of their products, and being unacquainted with the state, naturally conclude that the counties not represented there have nothing to exhibit. Is this true? Should this impression go out to the public?

Fortunately, Umatilla county has harvested a hay crop this year large enough to feed all the stock in the county, if it becomes necessary, on account of depressed markets, to hold them over. More cattlemen are able this year, than ever before, to hold over their herds and wait for a raise in prices. More sheepmen are prepared to hold their flocks and more farmers are prepared to hold their crops than ever before. It is an age of industrial independence in the Inland Empire, the producers being in condition to wait until the market comes to them, instead of their going to the market.

What are the poor widows to do? The Episcopal and Methodist church conferences have both declared against their ministers performing marriage ceremonies for divorced persons, and the other churches are swinging into line on the same subject. It is to be hoped that the justices of the peace don't join in the boycott against the helpless widow.

PARIS TO NEW YORK BY LAND.

Before the International Geographical Congress recently in session, there appeared for discussion the well-worn proposition of an international railroad to connect New York and Paris via Bering strait. M. Loicq de Lobel, who fathers the scheme, is so certain of its practicability that he is going to seek the aid of President Roosevelt in bringing about a convention with Russia, neutralizing the frozen strait between Alaska and Siberia. So far has the French enthusiast elaborated his plans that he even accounts for elevators which shall carry the Bering tunnel passengers to the surface that they may enjoy the picturesque view of the white ocean.

Not many years ago, when the idea of a round the world railroad was first advanced, the editors of three papers in New York, London and Paris, scenting the news feature in the idea, sent a journalist, Harry de Windt, over the route proposed by the projectors of the movement. In a book recently published, De Windt gives what appears to be a convincing refutation of all arguments for the scheme's practicability, by detailing the impassable condition of the northern Siberian country.

The regions about the Bering sea and for over a thousand miles west into the interior he shows to be but a floating morass in the short summer when the ice has left the ground, which no railroad could bridge at any expenditure of time and labor. In winter time the winds from the Arctic sweeping relentlessly over the treeless plains of snow, make life itself a questionable quantity. The tunneling of Bering strait would be only one of the minor engineering problems to be confronted, according to this explorer.

Despite these discouraging reports M. de Lobel's project continues to have a romantic interest. It is remembered that when the Atlantic cable was first proposed, the world scoffed, and there are those who hold that in this age of mechanical wonders there is no such word as "impossible."—San Francisco Call.

TEN MILLION JEWS.

Russia has in round numbers 5,000,000 Jews, Austria-Hungary comes next with 2,000,000, the United States comes third with a little over 1,000,000, Germany, Turkey and Great Britain have about 1,000,000 altogether. France, with her African possessions, has a few more than 200,000, and even far-off Abyssinia has something like an equal number. The census of Jews in the world is set down as 10,671,822 in the Jewish year book, which may be accepted as the highest authority on the subject, and near enough to accuracy for all political and statistical purposes.

Nearly every man's liable to forget that his wife also has a mother-in-law.

THE HOUSE BEAUTIFUL.

She has fixed me a "smoking room" paneled in green,
With settees "severe" of outline,
And wretched oak tables (outrageously clean),
And couch covers, Persian design.
'Tis a chamber too perfect for me to employ
The pipe's grimy fiends to invoke;
So I ask with a sigh, as I put my pipe by,
"Where the deuce is a fellow to smoke?"

She has fixed me a library, splendid and rich (Mahogany's frightful to scratch),
There are shelves full of novels and treatises which
She bought for their bindings (they match).

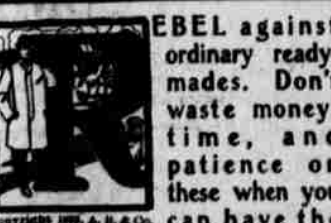

There's a grand antique chair at a grand antique desk,
Which frowns at the comfort I need,
When I ask with a roar at the library door,
"Where the deuce is a fellow to read?"

She has fixed me a living room, low-browed and deep,
With a touch of "colonial style,"
With hand-finished doors and such beautiful floors
That you shudder their sheen to defile.
Such "careless simplicity" neatly arranged,
More lounging could never forgive,
So I moan as I fade from the "living-room's shade,
"Where the deuce is a fellow to live?"

WILLIAM DIAL KILLS ASSAILANT

FORMER PENDLETON DRUG- GIST NOW POLICEMAN.

In a Street Fight at Spokane, Dial Was Forced to Kill a Jealous Husband Who Had Shot His Wife's Paramour and Then Attacked the Policeman Who Interfered—Dial Formerly O. E. & N. Conductor and an Unsuccessful Candidate for City Marshal of Pendleton.

William Dial, formerly of Pendleton and for the past three years a policeman at the Spokane force, Tuesday night at 11 o'clock shot and killed Otis Claud, proprietor of the Broadway cafe.

Claud was attempting to kill one H. C. Stiles, whom he accused of being intimate with his wife, when Dial and Officer Roff interfered. Claud turned the pistol on the officers after Roff had shot over his head as a warning, and was then shot in the stomach by Dial. Claud died almost instantly.

When the trouble began Mrs. Claud was in a hack, having made an appointment with Stiles. Claud, who was suspicious and very jealous, had "caught on" and tried to intercept Stiles on the latter's way to the hack, which was in waiting for Stiles with Mrs. Claud. Claud began firing at Stiles, who jumped into the hack and ordered the driver to run. Before the vehicle could get under way Claud shot Stiles twice—in the shoulder and in the right hip. Neither is a dangerous wound, and Stiles will soon recover.

Stiles ran away as soon as Claud fell from the effects of Dial's shot, and was found at the house of a friend in another part of town.

Dial for many years was a conductor on the O. E. & N. between Pendleton and Huntington. Afterward he invested in the drug business here, at the present site of the Koeppen drug store, the establishment being conducted by a man named Marshall. Dial sold out to U. State and later went to Spokane and was for a time a conductor on the Great Northern, with a freight run. His home is at 112 Indiana avenue, Spokane. His wife and three children are living. In 1897 Dial was an unsuccessful candidate against John Heathman for marshal of Pendleton.

NO COUNCIL MEETING. Absence of Councilmen and Mayor Prevents Business Session.

A man with a steam roller, "just as good as new," and a quorumless council met at the "city hall" last night. Chairman Dickson and Councilmen Johnson, Renn and Wells were the only city fathers present and after half an hour of waiting during which time subjects for from matters pertaining to Pendleton's affairs, were discussed, the meeting quietly disbanded.

A stranger appeared during the period of waiting and informed the councilmen that he represented a machinery company that had a second-hand road roller on its hands that could be purchased at a bargain. "I understand that Pendleton is desirous of purchasing a roller," he said.

"We have no particular use for a roller," said Mr. Dickson. "we did discuss a rock crusher at one time." "Well, we've got rock crushers, too," said the agent and he began to reach for his sample case, but the council had adjourned.

The company travels in its own special cars and is supplied with a large amount of new and beautiful scenery.

This is their first residence in the city, although they are pioneers of this vicinity and have made a success of farming in the wheat district northwest of here.

WAS FOUND GUILTY

LAMONT WAS CONVICTED OF LARCENY BY BAILEE.

Two Other Indictments: for Forgery and Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses, Still Confront the Candy-maker—Not Known Whether He Will Be Brought to Trial Under Them or Not—Jury Was Out Five Minutes.

Found guilty of larceny by bailee, George Lamont, the candy-maker who defrauded his employer, C. W. Irvin, still faces two other indictments, forgery and obtaining goods by false pretenses. Lamont was tried on the first named charge this morning and the jury required but five minutes to bring in a verdict of guilty.

Lamont was employed by C. W. Irvin, a local confectioner, for several months. In July he departed for Portland with $400 of Irvin's money with the understanding that he was to use it to purchase machinery for the candy factory. He later is said to have secured about $300 more from Irvin. He failed to return, or to send the machinery or money and he was arrested.

Lamont did not take the stand this morning in his own defense. The three witnesses called by the state were: Irvin and his wife, and Sheriff Taylor. It is not known whether the convicted man will be tried on the other two charges. If the case just disposed of is appealed he may be brought to trial on the other indictments, but if not, they will perhaps be dropped.

The jury selected to try the case was composed of the following: J. O. Hales, F. A. Gordon, Frank Byrd, J. C. Pritchett, J. Seivers, W. P. Leach, J. H. Hudeman, A. L. Demaris, Joseph Wurzler, Gus Schubert, William Schemppf, W. S. Badley.

All are welcome to the services. Every evening, 7:45 to 9.

HELEN GOULD IN DENVER.

Popular Daughter of the Great Financier Visits Y. M. C. A. Organizations.

"Oh, how do you do? So glad to be with you! Now that's nice of you to say that—Oh, yes, perfectly lovely—never enjoyed a trip more in my life!"

Those were the first words of Miss Helen Gould, when President Slocum of Colorado college, who came north with the party, had assisted her to alight from the Missouri Pacific train which brought her to Denver, says the Denver Post.

Then she was introduced to President William M. Danner of the Denver Y. M. C. A.

"Oh, Mr. Danner, and you let the newspapers publish my picture, after all my instructions to you!"

"But, Miss Gould, I couldn't—"

"There, there—I suppose it could not be helped—never mind—it's all right, anyway, I suppose; but you know I do dislike notoriety."

And yet Miss Gould smiled up at Mr. Danner all the time and she seemed almost girlish and very nearly pretty, as her really beautiful brown eyes flashed and her red lips parted and her white teeth shone.

Indeed, it is a very charming old-maidliness, that of Miss Gould. She does not show her age excessively, either. Though her figure has lost some of its youthful lines and might be denominated "dumpy," she moves springily and her brown hair shows no glint of gray, and her voice is more than mellow; it is sweet.

Her Charm.

Five minutes with Miss Gould makes one understand why people of all parts and in all walks of life adore her so much. Though vivacious, she is gentle, and she smiles and is considerate, even though she chides.

She extended her hand gently to Vice-President Schlacks of the Denver & Rio Grande road and told him how she appreciated all his courtesies. She was genial and gracious to the entire committee from the Y. M. C. A. and said she knew she was going to like Denver more than ever after this visit.

John La Roque Says Not Guilty.

John La Roque, of Athena, who is under arrest for horse stealing, having been accused by his brother, Joe La Roque, of taking a horse belonging to him, was brought down from Athena last evening by Special Constable D. C. McIntyre, to stand trial in the circuit court. Mr. La Roque produced an old agreement signed by himself and brother, Joe, and placed on file in the office of the county clerk in 1882, in which both brothers agreed to use the brand "E.L." as a joint brand, and all stock owned by them, under this brand, to be owned in partnership. The agreement was filed by County Clerk J. B. Keeney.

Looking for a Brother.

Henry Bloyd and his brother-in-law, Ross Jordan, of Paletine, Ind., arrived yesterday and have gone into the southern part of the county in search of the former's brother, Kester Bloyd, who wrote several weeks ago from Vancouver, Wash., that he was on his way to the southern part of Umatilla county to locate on government land. Subsequently they heard that he had been seen in La Grande by mutual acquaintances, but they failed to find any trace of him there and he has not taken out papers on government land. They think he is probably prospecting in the southern part of the county, or that he has gone farther into the interior.

Otto Koeppen Recovering.

Otto Koeppen has so far recovered from the operation upon his ankle as to be able to leave the hospital tomorrow. The last examination was thorough, and the abscess was not only thoroughly cleaned, but it was found that the bone was not in the slightest degree affected.

Marriage License Record.

John Wilfred Earl and Eldena Margaret Hendley, both of Umatilla county.

Clyde W. Frazier and Lulu E. Gilbert, both of Umatilla county.

A death certificate is the only decree ever awarded by the school of experience.

JUMPING UP

Is a great deal harder than jumping down. And yet people who have been for years running down in health expect to jump back at once. It takes years generally to make a man a confirmed dyspeptic, and he cannot expect to be cured in a few days.

There is no quicker means of cure for dyspepsia or other forms of stomach trouble than by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"I was taken sick two years ago," writes Rev. W. H. Patterson, of White Cloud, Wis., "with what the doctors thought was gastric trouble, indigestion of nervous dyspepsia, also constipation and inactive liver. I was in a dreadful condition. Tried several different doctors with but little result. I had gotten so feeble that I was almost past traveling about; had got down to 114 pounds. I went and bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and got the 'Pellets' and began following directions. When I had taken about five bottles I felt very much better and was greatly improved, and weighed one hundred and thirty-eight pounds. I will say that Dr. Pierce's medicines are a God-send to poor suffering humanity, and I advise any and all chronic sufferers to give them a fair trial and they will be satisfied."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

"All right," said the Mill, "I understand you want to be ground just right or there will be trouble. I'll do my part and see that you are 'granulated,' not 'pulverized,' as you pass through me. I know that coffee ground too fine tastes bitter. Skip along and keep your date with Kettle."

Nothing does with GOLDEN GATE COFFEE but satisfaction. No prices—no coupons—no crockery. 1 and 2 lb. aroma-tight tins. Never sold in bulk.

INSANE FROM INJURIES.

Traveler Injured in Perry Wreck Was a Highly Educated Man.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson, of Union county, passed down the O. E. & N. last night in charge of W. G. Miller, the unfortunate man who was severely injured in the wreck on the O. E. & N. at Perry about a month ago. Miller will be confined in the asylum until he recovers from his injuries. Since his accident he has been insane, having rational intervals of a few minutes, but has completely lost his memory and has partly lost his speech.

Miller is a highly educated man, being able to write the Pittman system of shorthand rapidly, as well as a beautiful long hand. He claims to have worked on several leading Pacific coast papers and to have been a court reporter somewhere, but has forgotten where.

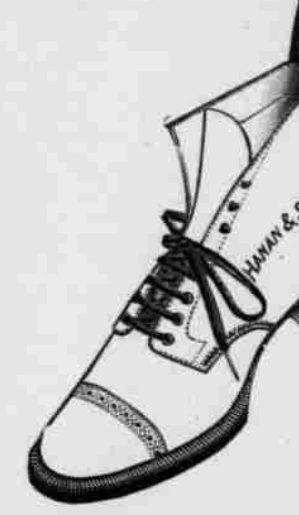

At the time of the accident in which he was injured, he was riding on the "blind baggage" between the mail car and tender of the engine, and was severely crushed. He was broke and looking for work and intended to stop off in La Grande.
