high flight

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth,
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there
I've chased the shouting wind along and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace,
Where never lark, or even eagle, flew;
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

CAMU

CEILING AND VISIBILITY UNLIMITED
PRESENTS THE CLASS OF 44-C

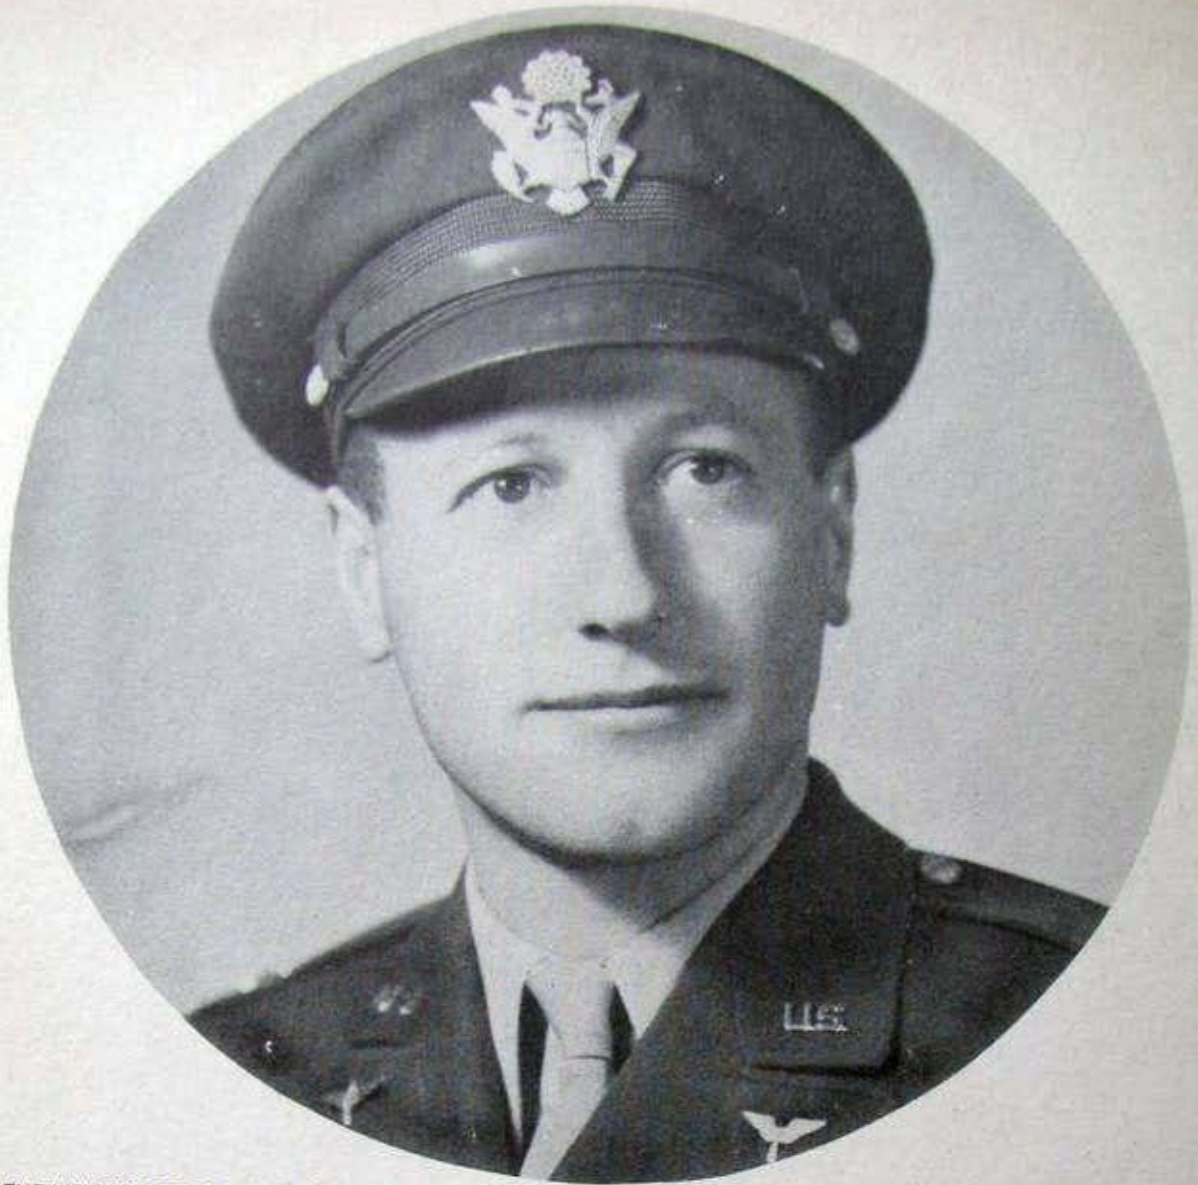

Noteworthy was that day of wrath
When first you rode that vagrant path
Astride a bolting, bright B-T
Cross runway, pasture and cross "T".

Noteworthy 'twas-Noteworthy make it!
Torque's the thing and twist'll take it,
Landing gear to spinner hub,
... This cart of black beelzebub.

So here we'll try to shun the wistful,
Make the page a bit more twistful,
And mark the blessings of the stork
Who flies unworried by his Torque!

TO THE MEMBERS OF CLASS 44-C:

Gentlemen:

You are one step closer to your goal. The step has been a pretty rough one I know. Some have faltered and fallen by the way—most of them because nature, heredity, and previous training had failed to equip them with the ability to adjust themselves to the environment of flying. A few were lacking in the self-discipline so essential to a good military pilot, and some simply lacked the stamina to stay in there and take it.

Of course your training schedule and supervisors were tough! After all, this war isn't being fought with cream puffs, but, Gentlemen, your training is not yet completed. You are really just arriving at the most interesting phase in a pilot's training—Advanced, Specialized and Transition Stages where the roughly hewn fledgling is rounded out into the finished product, the capable combat pilot who can whip anything and anyone in the world and knows it.

Before you leave us I would stress again—:

1. Never forget that you are a soldier. Be proud of the uniform you wear and wear it proudly!
2. So live that you will always be ready, physically and psychologically, to serve Our Nation and Our People to the peak of your ability.
3. Curb your spirit of exhibitionism until you can release it in combat with the enemy. Remember that lack of discipline has cost the Air Forces dearly in the lives of pilots who expended their all in foolish indulgence of a whim—the pilot's desire to show off.

You have done well, and in spite of impressions you might have gained from time to time, we are proud of you. We will be watching your careers as you move on to broader fields. Good Luck to each and every one of you.
