THE PRESIDENT'S ADVICE.

President Wilson's interview with The New York World plainly is intended to guide the footsteps of the Democratic Convention...

MUST BE UNIFORM.

Whatever advantages there are in daylight saving will be more than offset, as far as this community is concerned, by the confusion and dislocation that will develop if general uniformity is lacking in its application.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

According to the opponents of government ownership of railroads in the convention of the American Federation of Labor which has just been debating that subject, the system brings the workers too directly under the domination of the state, which they claim is good for neither them nor the country.

TOO MUCH SECRECY.

It is extremely unfortunate that the Council of the League of Nations found it impossible to give a definite answer to Persia's appeal for assistance in repelling the Bolshevik invasion of her territory.

and the League postpones its action in reply to the Persian appeal. It must follow, therefore, that the Council will be guilty of a capital error unless it makes public the negotiations which have taken place between Teheran and Moscow...

NOVEL METHODS.

In nearly all the principal cities and towns of Great Britain organizations known as Tenants' Defence Leagues have been created as one of the results of rent profiteering and a fairly general landlordish habit of peremptory eviction.

POLICY JUSTIFIED?

To a Havas correspondent in Rome yesterday Premier Giovanni Giolitti endeavored to justify the foreign policy of his country before the war and confessed that he had used his influence in the early days of the great struggle towards an attitude of neutrality for Italy.

NOTE AND COMMENT

With half the people of Victoria using the extra hour of daylight and the other half wasting it there will be ample facility for a crop of truth pervasions.

A cable dispatch says "all London and much of England are buzzing" over Lord Beaverbrook's attack upon the League of Nations in his paper, The London Express.

Supporters of the Union Government in Parliament claim that Mr. Ballantyne, Minister of the Naval Service, has not taken them sufficiently into his confidence in respect of his plans on naval policy.

From the observations of the Hon. Walter Scott, who has just returned to his home in this city after a tour round the world, it may be gathered that the last has not been heard of the Amritsar affair.

KING'S DAUGHTERS WANT DEMOCRATIC ANNUAL ELECTION

Nomination System Changed at Provincial Convention Now in Session

A change in the methods of nominating for the executive officers was made at the afternoon session of the nineteenth Provincial convention of the King's Daughters in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church yesterday when a resolution was passed that "nominations for the nine executive members be made by the circles and forwarded through the District Secretary to the Provincial Secretary." A list of all nominations will be alphabetically tabulated and posted at the annual convention in an amended form, came from the Fairview Circle of Vancouver, and the principle of the suggestion was endorsed on the feeling that it would make for a more democratic election.

NURSES IN SAANICH PRESSED FOR FUNDS

The Council is Asked to Meet Unexpected Liabilities

"The nurses are doing an enormous amount of educational work," said Councillor Dooley, a member of the management committee of the Saanich branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses, to the Saanich Council last evening, when funds were advanced to liquidate some pressing liabilities.

Value to Community.

Councillor Dooley defended the increasing obligations by stating that the nurses had made 398 visits, 190 of which were on account of influenza. Half of the patients had been made to go to hospital except for the existence of the branch, and at $5 a day for the visit at an average of ten days in hospital the municipality would have to pay $5,900.

The Financial Position.

Mr. Sewell in part said: Accounts outstanding, $1,732.15; cash in bank, $64.29; Canadian Red Cross earned at July 1, $400; net liabilities, $1,065.76.

Response to Welcome.

Mrs. Hardie reported on behalf of the executive that Miss Leitch, their delegate to the national convention at St. Louis had been a great success. Mrs. Hardie's address of welcome to the visiting delegates was responded to by Mrs. Mackenzie from Vancouver, and Mrs. Elkington, from Cowichan, and Mrs. Currie, from Cloverdale.

FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS THROUGH ANIMALS

Valuable Work to Be Done by Co-operation of Governments

Wide-extended usefulness in preventing disease on its human side is closely allied with the movement, just started, to control and eventually to up-root disease in Canadian farm stock. Indeed, it may turn out to be the most beneficial part of the plan now under way to combat disease in livestock by the co-ordinated efforts of Dominion and Provincial Governments, farmers and packers.

The public has, within the last few years, been awakened to the enormous loss of human life, shown to be a greater mortality than that of war, resulting from tubercular disease. Yet the transmission of tuberculosis from farm products to humans has never been given the public a thousandth part of the attention it demands. Physicians have fought the disease in every thinkable way except in the Clinics have been opened in large centres throughout the world; expensive sanitoriums have been built; preventive treatment of all who come through nursing institutes and even the public schools. None of these, however, has struck so radically at the root cause of the human disease—the presence of tuberculosis in domestic livestock—as the new movement to eradicate disease from among farm animals. If for this feature of national health and the preservation of human life alone the movement claims the wholehearted support of all who have a better, wider and more humanitarian hope for the mass of the Canadian people.

Encouraging Beginning
An encouraging beginning has been made. A definite plan of work has been framed to co-ordinate the effort to combat disease in animals. It will be plain to farmers and stockmen that better prices will follow the raising of better stock—better because healthier, more robust animals which will feed well and make heavier weights in return for the expenditure of feed and labor.

Much could be done through direct aid by farmers and stockmen themselves. Everyone knows that the "Government can't do it all" case in South Dakota, where a similar campaign is under way, is recognized that one health officer could not inspect a large number of animals in many localities. A tuberculosis committee was therefore appointed by stockmen and farmers from among themselves. Each committee-man became a deputy health officer. Community meetings were held. People generally began to talk of better, disease-free cattle, and there was a spirit of general improvement. Good results are being reported and the work is going vigorously and continuously forward.

The fight is especially against tuberculosis in cattle. A farmer often wonders why his steers and heifers, in spite of good heavy feeding, do not thrive. A tuberculosis test probably probably is the cause. The Dominion Minister of Agriculture, Dr. S. F. Tolmie, in the House of Commons, on May 14, stated that the intention was to establish small centres of accredited, disease-free herds. By this means, the Health of Animals Branch hopes to eliminate tuberculosis from Dominion pure-breds. But the work would not be confined to pure-bred stock if present proposals are carried out.

in the United States. Latest returns show that only one half of one per cent. of our hogs are touched with this disease. The cleansing of our live stock also includes the eradication of other diseases. Contagious abortion and sterility have to be overcome, matters of health in animals which will have far-reaching results. When it is remembered that over one billion dollars are invested in Dominion livestock, it will be plain that if a saving of only one per cent. can be effected by prevention of disease, it represents a value of $10,000,000 to our farmers.

A COUNTERFEIT REASON.
"Yes, I still have the first pound note that I made," said the grey-haired passenger.
"Good gracious!" exclaimed his travelling acquaintance, "how did you keep it so long?"
"Well, it was very imperfect, being my first, and I'd have had trouble in passing it."—London Weekly Telegraph.

GRANDMA USED SAGE
TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs are disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

AMERICAN TEXTILES IN ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

Exports of American textiles to Argentina increased fifty-fold between 1913 and 1918, says Trade Commissioner L. S. Garry in "Textile Markets of Argentina, Uruguay and Paraguay," a bulletin just made public by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce. Taking advantage of the exceptional conditions brought about by the war, manufacturers of such articles in the United States succeeded in selling $18,814,000 worth of merchandise to the Argentinians in the fiscal year preceding the armistice, as compared with sales amounting to only $312,000 before the outbreak of hostilities in Europe. The United States now occupies the second position as a supplier of textiles to this important market, furnishing 18 per cent of the total imports. The retention and expansion of the trade thus developed will depend upon the ability of American exporters to satisfy exacting requirements in the face of determined post-war competition. The trade commissioner's investigations show that the textile trade of Argentina has always been dominated by British interests, nearly one-half the actual imports of piece goods being generally from that source. Practically all the imports of French goods consist of the higher-grade, finer materials in which labor and preparation represent a large proportion. The most remarkable increase made by any country in the piece-goods trade with Argentina has been that of Japan, which prior to the war occupied a negligible position, supplying less than $48,000 worth of goods per year, against almost $5,900,000 in 1918. This represents an increase for Japan of 4,512 per cent in volume and 10,142 per cent in value, giving that country fourth place among the supplying nations. The United States has sold to Argentina practically all classes of cotton, woolen and silk materials, and the general opinion of importers, Mr. Garry reports, is that American fabrics are, on the whole, well made and well designed. The buyers find among American goods many medium-classed fabrics suited to the demands of the Argentine market, and during the war prices were quite as advantageous as those quoted by other suppliers.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

World's Coal Production
Preliminary estimates indicate that the world's production of coal during 1919 amounted to some 1,170 million metric tons. This represents a decrease of about 15 per cent. as compared with 1918, and is only about equal to the output for 1910. Whereas in 1913 the United Kingdom, France, Belgium and Germany together produced 522 million tons of bituminous coal, last year their collective output was only 386 million tons, the decrease being, respectively, about 20, 50, 20 and 40 per cent. Comparing the same two years, production in the United States dropped 65 per cent. and in Canada 10 per cent.

Prepare For Development
The work of extending the Dolly Varden railway to the Wolf mine has commenced and the surveyors are on the ground laying out the work. It is understood that the contract for grading has already been let. The Wolf is three miles farther up the river than the Dolly Varden and is said to be just as rich as the other. The drills are all working and the country in that direction is a hive of industry.

On the North Star, James McAlenan is in charge of the work and a mill is being put in and development work is proceeding.

On the townsite at Alice Arm, everything is building up steadily and the place is becoming very busy.

Copper River Deposits
The Smithers Miners' and Prospectors' Association has endorsed the Copper River iron development. A letter dealing with the matter has been received by the commissioner of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade as follows:
"The members of this Association have followed with great interest, the campaign of publicity being carried on by the Prince Rupert Board of Trade for the establishment of an iron and steel industry to develop the resources of this part of British Columbia. Among the more than one hundred members of this Association, which includes almost every miner and prospector from Hazelton to Houston, there are many who have prospected on one or both forks of the Copper River and know from personal observation that the iron ore and coal deposits reported to be in that region are actually there.
"With these facts in mind the matter was discussed at a meeting of the Association held last night and the endorsed resolution was unanimously carried: This Association places itself on record as strongly endorsing the proposal of the establishment by the government of an iron and steel industry at the city of Prince Rupert or on the lower Skeena River to develop the enormous resources of the Copper River district in iron ore and coal, and that this resolution be forwarded to the Prince Rupert Board of Trade and to the Minister of Mines."
That studies in the Springtime mean nothing in the lives of school children is evident by the following answers to recent examination questions:
"Who were the Pilgrims?"
"The Pilgrims was a fresh king, so they picked some Mayflowers and came to America."
"What is the Adriatic question?"
"By the Adriatic question we mean the top part of the house, or attic, where the trunk and things are stored."
"Who was Robert Burns?"
"Robert Burns was a Scotch poet who earned his living making cigars."
"What is a cotton-gin?"
"The cotton-gin is a machine used to make gin out of cotton."
"What is a horse?"
"A horse has a leg on each corner with a hoof at the end and a tail down the back."

Women's Canadian Club.—The next meeting of the Women's Canadian Club will be held at the Empress Hotel on Tuesday at 3.15 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Stippel speaking on "Women's Place in the National Life." The soloist will be Miss Dorrell.

BRIEF LOCALS

Catholic Services.—Until further notice services in the Catholic churches will continue at the usual time.

On Visit to City.—V. A. Long, the well-known artist, in charge of the Empress Hotel for a short time.

A Long Centipede.—E. F. Cody, of 141 Madison Street, brought to The Times office to-day a centipede of exceptional size which came out of a water pipe in his residence on Wednesday afternoon. It was said to be eight inches long. At any rate it would not be welcome in a glass of Sooke water.

Prohibition Meeting.—A meeting will be held of the Ward VII. Prohibition Committee, Saanich, this evening at 8 p.m., at the Presbyterian Church, Tillicum and Walter Street, at which address will be given by Rev. R. M. Thompson and Mr. Chave, the district prohibition organizer.

Island Pictures.—The C. P. R. has now a camera party in charge of J. Gibson, in the Campbell River district, taking photographs of the entire island for use in advertising the wonders of the scenery in this section of the Dominion. The C. P. R. booklet will be attractively put up, and will form one of the most complete photographic records in existence of the island districts in views and stories.

Water Rates By-law.—Under the water purchase agreement the Saanich Council is pledged not to sell water at a lower rate than the city sells retail to customers. Under the circumstances, as the Council has had to revise its rates upwards as fixed in 1914, a by-law to give effect to the change was considered by the Saanich Council last evening.

Cadboro Bay Water Supply.—A satisfactory settlement has not yet been reached with regard to the supply of water around Cadboro Bay, where the Saanich Council was endeavoring to take over and extend an existing service. It was stated at the Council meeting last evening that water is retailing by the bucketful at 15 cents at some places around the Bay.

Killing Grasshoppers.—So many references have come through in telegrams and letters of the plagues of grasshoppers which infest certain parts of the prairie that a letter re- ceived from Medora, Man., here to- day will be of some interest. It is stated that the infestation is being molasses (very much as cut worms are attacked here) but the poison there is used in conjunction with oranges and lemons, not a common thing.

New Firms Opens Garage.—Harold Wilkinson and William Cragnell have taken over the premises lately oc- cupied by the Thoburn Garage, 825 Es- quimaux Road, where they are opening a fully-equipped garage. They have a complete machinery plant along with a large gasoline tank. Both members of the firm have had ten years' experience in the motor busi- ness. It is their intention to give both service and quality.

Will Repeat Concert.—The concert in aid of the Protestant Orphan- age, to be held at First Congrega- tional Church at 8.15 o'clock to-night, will be repeated at 3 o'clock to-mor- row afternoon.

The Farmer and the Taxes.—The question as to whether farming will "pay sufficiently to pay taxes" will be discussed at a meeting of Ward 7 Ratepayers' Association in Tillicum School on Monday evening, W. New- ton, M. S. of the Department of Agriculture, will be present and ad- dress the meeting on "The Economic Principle Governing Farming as a Business." Reeve Watson has also promised to be present.

Overhead Signs, Tea.—Under- ground establishments not being eligible for taxation, the Retail section of the Board of Trade last evening discussed the likelihood of the City Council calling a rate on overhanging balconies, signs over sidewalks, facades over hotels and theatres, and even awnings over stores. It was thought that the city would be persuaded to let the matter remain in abeyance.

Protests Commerce Reports.—Em- phatic protests against the unequal system of Board of Commerce re- ports was entered by Mr. Brock- hurst in the Retailers' meeting last night, who stated that it took one bookkeeper some fifteen days in the month alone to compile the colossal record required from the grocers. A sample of this report exhibited in the meeting disclosed voluminous in- formation of a very exacting nature required to be filled in by all who handled groceries, though other forms of trade were apparently exempt.

Will Go to Mainland.—Premier Oliver will cross to the Mainland to- night in order to be present at a public meeting to be held at Port Haney to-morrow evening. Mr. Oliver's remarks will deal with local road and school matters.

Inspector Arrives.—Inspector W. R. Dunwoody, of Grand Forks, Provincial Police, arrived here to-day to confer with the local office on several matters, amongst which being the murder of George Stanfield and the reward out for the perpetrator of the deed. A reward of $2,500 has been offered for information leading to the conviction of the murderer.

License Case Postponed.—The case of Swannell and Noonke, surveyors, for alleged infringement of the license regulations was set aside in court to- day for one week, which is to be a peremptory day. The action is being contested.

Suggests Season Tickets.—A system of season or commutation tickets on B. C. Electric Railway Company city lines has been suggested to the civic authorities by C. Dubois Mason in connection with the present nego- tiations between the city and the Railway Company.

Endorse Daylight Saving.—The Retail section of the Board of Trade in session last night endorsed the daylight saving efforts of the City Council with unanimity. There was little or no discussion necessary on the question, as all were in accord with the remarks of Mr. Beckwith to the effect that the city would be ridiculous to not be in the plan of its own with an isolated time ar- rangement.

Mr. Elliott Examined.—R. T. Elliott, K.C., appeared at the Court House to-day and submitted himself for exami- nation for discovery at the hands of M. B. Jackson, K.C., M.P.P., and Joseph Oliver, in the $50,000 libel suit. Premier Oliver is bringing against him for his Dolly Varden tele- grams at the close of the last session of the legislature. H. A. Maclean, K.C., Mr. Elliott's counsel, attended the examination. It lasted all morning. The Premier submitted himself for examination at the hands of Mr. Maclean two days ago.

Mapping Roads for Motorists.—Sidney H. Ellis, assistant secretary of the Automobile Club of Southern California, accompanied by Roscoe Dehan, arrived here from the South this morning and left this afternoon on an extended automobile tour of the upper island. They are compiling data for road maps for the use of southern tourists, and have just completed an extensive road tour of the Pacific Coast states making maps and gather- ing information of use to the vaca- tionist.

Who Makes Dollar Day.—From remarks of the Retail Merchants in session last night, it was apparent that Dollar Day this time had been "sprung" on them, it was alleged by the isolated action of a few. The meeting voted that in future the Dollar Day be made the subject of a special meeting to determine the date and secure cooperative action by all. The dates suggested were the second Saturdays in June and February. While under discussion Mr. O'Connell stated that the object of Dollar Day was not to sell goods for a dollar, but to attract visitors from all over the island, for which ample notice was necessary.

These pictures sold for $35 with a $20 certificate scheme that made it appear that the individual customer was getting a large reduction, it was alleged. Salesmen in charge of crews received $4.00 on each picture sold, with other facilities.

"It is called the Art Company," remarked Magistrate Jay, "but it appears to me to be a very highly commercialized form of Art. The canvasser has the first chance," said the magistrate, "and the higher you get the more there seems to be in it for the employees."

In passing sentence Magistrate Jay remarked: "It seems to me purely a commercial concern, and any company that resorts to such 'catch-me' methods, advertising as the 'largest in the world' and the world's best 'artists' is nothing but a fake." "It is surprising how peo- ple can be taken in by such poor work," he continued, and fined the accused, D. M. Stewart, $75, which included a trade license of $50.

Work is Wanted.

"The great difficulty with us to- day," he proceeded, "is the idea im- planted into men of the Anglo- Saxon race that it's beneath their dignity to work with their hands. Just as long as that principle governs us we're going down the toboggan slide. You know that Nature ab- horres a vacuum," remarked Mr. Oliver, and he went on to warn the people of Canada that unless they were active in working the lands for themselves, swarms of Orientals would soon be crowding the whites off the farms of the Pacific Coast. And the same condition applied to business, he said.

"I say the idea of it being undig- nified to work with one's hands is a fatal mistake and one we must cor- rect," the Premier declared. "The value of your producing lands, though, is nothing unless you mix your soil with brains! And the farmer has a right to expect from the use of his brains the remunera- tion that the professional man has learned to expect."

Want Preferential Trade.—At its luncheon to-day the Board of Trade, on motion of ex-President J. O. Cam- eron, went on record as favoring preferential trade relations between Can- ada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and all other self-governing countries within the British Empire. The resolution to this effect passed at the luncheon will be sent on to Premier Sir Robert Borden and to Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agricul- ture, who will be urged to do all in their power to bring about such re- lations.

CITY HAS NO MORAL RIGHT TO HOLD ELK LAKE, PREMIER SAYS

Precious Water Should Be Used to Develop Peninsula, He Declares

Victoria has no moral right to hold to the Elk Lake watershed and leave it lying idle when Elk Lake water is vitally needed to develop the Saanich Peninsula, Premier Oliver told the Board of Trade at its luncheon to- day. Strongly deprecating all action which tended to retard the develop- ment of the country's resources, Mr. Oliver urged Victoria and Saanich to get together and make some arrange- ment whereby Elk Lake water could be made to irrigate the farms of the Peninsula.

Mr. Oliver admitted that Victoria had shown excellent vision in secur- ing the Elk Lake watershed area, so that it could have a copious supply of water in the future, but, he went on, "in these days of progress and necessity we have to take steps that a few years ago, would seem revolu- tionary," the Premier asserted. "This local Government has laid down a principle that no one has the right to tie up the development of the coun- try's resources. Now, isn't Elk Lake a case of that kind? If Victoria has no use for Elk Lake, then I ask in God's name what right has Victoria to it? This is a case for co-oper- ation, for a get-together to utilize the resources that God put here. I have no use for these little legal techni- calities that form a bar to progress," the Premier went on, urging Saanich and Victoria to get together and make some use of the Elk Lake water in developing the Saanich Peninsula.

Discussing the possibilities of the Peninsula, along the lines outlined by Professor Stevenson, who also spoke, Mr. Oliver affirmed that the value of land in Saanich was exactly the same as the value of land in any other part of the world which produced the same quantity of produce, plus transportation charges.

Art Company's Agency

Court Concerns Seem to Be Bound to Have Trade License.

A concern styled the Dominion Art Company was charged with operat- ing without a proper license under the Trade License by-law in the City Police Court to-day.

J. C. Rolston, Vancouver, appeared for the accused and contended that the business of the concern was purely art work and not commer- cialized to any appreciable extent.

Examination of witnesses elicited the business of making paintings from original photographs, and that it also supplied these to the customer com- plete with frames at his option.

Mr. Katova, district manager for the Dominion Art Company, testified to the fact that the concern with headquarters at Toronto was only a branch of the larger organization in Chicago. He was not able to state what processes were used in the making of the arti- cles sold, but agreed that they might possibly be built on a basis of photo enlargement, slightly colored and re- touched.

Work is Wanted.

"The great difficulty with us to- day," he proceeded, "is the idea im- planted into men of the Anglo- Saxon race that it's beneath their dignity to work with their hands. Just as long as that principle governs us we're going down the toboggan slide. You know that Nature ab- horres a vacuum," remarked Mr. Oliver, and he went on to warn the people of Canada that unless they were active in working the lands for themselves, swarms of Orientals would soon be crowding the whites off the farms of the Pacific Coast. And the same condition applied to business, he said.

And the farmer has a right to expect from the use of his brains the remunera- tion that the professional man has learned to expect."

PLAN TO ENFORCE CURFEW SOON NOW

Stirred into action by the con- tinual pressure of local women's organizations, the civic authorities—or at least a considerable part of them—spent this morning hurrying about the city trying to find a way of en- forcing the Curfew Bylaw. Various schemes were tried but all save the blowing of the Phoenix Brewery whistle were abandoned as useless.

Alderman Patrick, father of the curfew plan, led a party of alder- men about to-day in an endeavor to find a system of curfew enforce- ment. First of all he got Fire Chief Vernon Stewart to ring the "lower bell" at the southwest corner of the City Hall, but this contrivance was unanimously voted as too soft in sound, and it was agreed that its chiming would not be heard outside of a half-mile radius.

Then the aldermen considered put- ting a hammer on the City Hall clock, as was suggested to Mayor Porter recently by a gentleman from Salt Spring Island. This, too, was abandoned because the gong was considered incapable of penetrating into the distant sections of the city. Then a plan was evolved whereby the Fire Chief's white motor car would tour the city at the curfew hour with its siren screaming. This, too, was rejected.

The plan recognized as most suit- able was that of flashing the city's arch and cluster lights, but City Electrician Hutchison killed this scheme by declaring that it would dislocate the whole system.

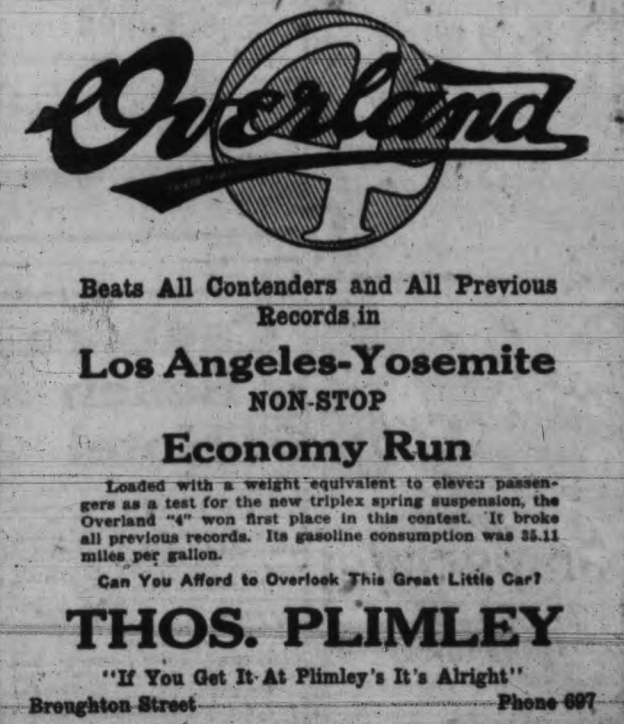

Finally Alderman Patrick set forth to the Brewery to arrange for the brewery whistle to blow at the cur- few hour. Up to noon to-day, how- ever, he had been unable to find the manager and make the necessary ar- rangements. He hopes, however, that by night all will be in readiness to enforce the Bylaw by next week.

MEETING AT SIDNEY

Men, Dr. King and M. B. Jackson, K.C., to Review Recent Session.

Legislation put through the House during the recent session will be reviewed by Hon. Dr. King, Minister of Public Works, and M. B. Jackson, K. C., M. P., before the elections of North Saanich, at the Esquimaux Theatre, to- day, at 8 o'clock this evening.

A delegation from the Sidney Board of Trade will wait upon the Minister of Public Works before the meeting with the object of securing an undertaking concerning the Government's plans in connection with the paving of the Es- quimaux Road from Saanich to Beacon Ave. and to the wharf at Sidney.

Heavy Hitting at Close Wins Game for Victoria

Capitals Touched Up McKay For Eight Hits and Six Runs in Last Two Innings of Last Evening's Game; Five Double Plays Feature Fielding of Teams.

Victoria, 9; Seattle, 4.
For six and one half innings last evening the Giants battled on even terms with Victoria but in the concluding frames Leard summoned his heavy artillery and McKay suffered a terrible pounding. The diminutive twirler was touched up for eight hits, including a triple by Zienke, in the seventh and eighth, and six runs crossed the plate. Russell James pitched effectively and had good control until the first of the eighth, when he found his arm giving away and in order to prevent further trouble Leard sent him to the dugout and Wee Kelly finished the game.

The Giants have not won many games this season and may not win many more, but they seem to be able to put up a keen fight and certainly never get anything like a fair share of the breaks. Boeize is proving a thorn in the side of the Capitals, who are anxious to break records in base-stealing. The Giants' catcher has the finest throwing arm in the league, and he usually gets the runners with yards to spare.

Seattle Started.
Seattle got away to an early lead. Nixon singled and Hoffman drove him home with a double to left field. Zienke put the Capitals on even terms in the second when he lifted the ball over the right field fence for four bases. Victoria grabbed another tally in the fourth on a base on balls to Brown, Carman's sacrifice and Dempsey's single. In the fifth Carman was hit by a pitched ball and stole second. Boeize made a perfect throw. But Shannon let it get by and the ball went to deep center, Carman scoring.

In the seventh the Giants came back at the Capitals and evened the score. Shannon was safe on Church's error and McKay shoved him along with a single. Channon scored on Grant's out, and McKay trotted in when James cut loose a wild pitch.

The Slaughter.
McKay began to wonder what had happened to his curves when the Capitals started to hammer them at their leisure. Paul let James' drive pass through his pinnons and Elliott and Church each singled filling the bases. Leard delivered a timely poke to left field and scored James and Elliott. Brown singled and Carman scored Church with a sacrifice fly to center field.

The Giants tried to tie up the game again in the eighth. Boeize got a free trip to first. James then left the diamond and Paul cracked Kelly's first ball to short left field. It looked like a safe hit, but Brown grabbed it around his shoestrings, after a fast

AMERICANS ONLY ONES IN THE TENNIS FINALS

London, June 18.—William T. Tilden, of Philadelphia, beat Zeno Shimidzu, of Japan, 6-1, 6-1, and William H. Johnston, of San Francisco, United States singles champion, defeated Major Dudley, 6-2, 6-3, in the semi-finals of the London lawn tennis championship tournament here to-day.

It only remains to be seen whether Johnston or Tilden is the better man in the finals to-morrow. In the fourth round of the doubles Shimidzu and Nicholas Mishu, of Roumania, beat the American player, Capt. Samuel Hardy, and Blackhead, of South Africa, 6-3, 6-7, 6-4.

In the second game Spokane staged a fine retaliatory performance and won handsomely by nine runs to two. The score:

Tacoma, June 18.—Yakima won an exciting game from Tacoma yesterday, 4 to 3, the home team losing with the bases full in the ninth inning. Valencia pitched a straight ball for Yakima for eight innings, but weakened in the last frame. Score:

FOUR RING TITLES WON BY LOCAL BOYS

Al Davies, Loses Out in 115-lb. Class by Farical Decision; Some Good Bouts

Four Pacific Northwest Amateur boxing champions now rest in Victoria. The titles were won at the tournament held at the Crystal Theatre last night. Al Davies took the 125-lb. title by default; F. Haigh won the 108-lb. championship; Teddy Yates triumphed at 135-lbs., and McKay came through with flying colors in the 145-lb. class.

At the bouts, which were characterized more by the humor of the decisions rendered than by an adherence to strict technicalities, Al Davies, the local featherweight, lost the 115-lb. bout to his Vancouver opponent, L. Colclough. Fortner, Victoria's representative in the 135-lb. class, lost to T. Gann, of Vancouver. McKay won over his 145-lb. opponent from the University of Washington. Aalto McKay was forced to default his match to 'Teddy Yates' because of an old wound on his nose breaking out in the bout with his Washington opponent. Downey was awarded the welterweight decision over Blyth, who ended the ninth round in poor condition. Teddy Yates won a decision from Joe Nestman. H. Colclough defaulted his match to F. Haigh, and Fortner defaulted his final match to J. Sharp.

The 165-lb. bout, first was easily won by W. Colclough over R. Woods. Al Davies won the 125-lb. title by default. The humor of the evening culminated in a mistake decision on the referee, Harry Boyd, who failed to decipher correctly the judges' decisions on the Davies-Colclough bout. Boyd interpreted the vote to mean that Colclough had won the decision. The decision was apparently adverse to the wishes of the Vancouver manager for he arose and made a ringing protest against the decision. After consulting the referee it was decided to let the bout go to an extra round in order to render a more favorable decision. At the end of the fourth round Referee Boyd seemed to be as much perplexed as ever. Then Al Davies came to the ropes and stated that as a means of settling the controversy he was personally willing to give the bout to the Vancouver man. Colclough was finally awarded the decision on a vote of 4 to 3. The whole thing terminated with Referee Boyd discovering that the judges' decisions at the end of the third round had been in favor of a draw.

Fortner Weakened.
Claude Fortner, who showed up well in the first two rounds of his bout with Blyth, was not so good. Fortner showed more skill than his opponent, but apparently lacked the endurance, as the bout was a fast one for the victor.

McKay in the 145 lbs. class, won over A. Aalto from Washington. The Washington man showed better form, but was unable to land any heavy blows to the jaw. Aalto was considerably taller than McKay, which made the match an amusing one as he experienced difficulty in hitting McKay at all.

In the welterweight match between Downey and Blyth the award went to Downey. Blyth showed up to better advantage than in his first bout. However, Downey hammered him with heavy telling blows, knocking him through the ropes in the last round. Blyth was not so good, and well but the strength of his opponent finally smashed down his defence. Blyth would probably have won on points in the first two rounds.

Fought Carefully.
Perhaps the most open sparring of the evening was witnessed in the match between Joe Nestman and Teddy Yates. Both men fought rather openly, bringing clearly at the referee's orders. Both men gave and received some heavy blows. Yates watched his man carefully and was able to get in some very effective punches when his opponent rushed at him. There was not much adverse criticism over the decision to Yates. The flyweight match was easily won by W. Colclough, who took an aggressive lead over Woods from the start. This match was stopped before the finish.

The extras of the evening were the open forum comments of spectators over the Davies-Colclough match. The position of the judges seemed to be an uneasy one. Harry Boyd confessed that in all his experience he had never had so difficult a decision to render. Al Davies displayed excellent sportsmanship in offering to settle the dispute by giving the match to Colclough. As it was, Davies could have probably won the bout on a technicality, as his opponent was two inches and a half pound over weight and the decision will finally be remains in abeyance.

L. Olive announced the bouts, and Harry Boyd officiated as referee, and Messrs. A. G. Bolton and Tom Saunders acted as judges.

ELKS AND VETS WILL STAGE A FINE GAME
There promises to be a grand old battle at the Stadium to-morrow evening when the Collieries-Vets club with the Elks, leaders of the City Baseball League. The Vets have had an idea all season that they should be up top but have hit a couple of hard bumps and are riding in the centre seat.

The game will commence at 6.30 o'clock. Alex. Braith will pitch for the Vets, with Bobbie Ross doing the receiving, and Ross will twirl for the Elks and Plows will catch.

Local Footballers Are Through With Mainland

Victoria and District Association Declines to Affiliate With B. C. P. F. A.; Will Proceed With Organization of Island League and Leave Vancouver Alone.

Relations between Island and Mainland football circles are considerably strained. The first intimation that all was not well was given to the public in the announcement that a special meeting of the Victoria and District Association would be held to reconsider the decision to affiliate with the B. C. P. F. A. This meeting was held last night and the delegates unanimously decided to cut adrift from the Mainland bodies and proceed immediately with the organization of an Island League.

For some time war was waged between the B. C. P. F. A. and the B. C. P. F. A. Each body was anxious to obtain control of football in this province, and a short time ago a conference of the D. F. A. was held in Winnipeg, and the B. C. P. F. A. was recognized as the controlling body. It then became the duty of the various clubs in the province to make known their affiliation either to remain with the B. C. P. F. A. or switch to the other body. Last week the Upper Island League decided to throw in its lot with the B. C. P. F. A., and early this week the Victoria and District League decided in favor of that body. However, some dissenting reports reached the local association, and the officials immediately decided to call a special meeting and re-consider the matter. As soon as the facts were laid before the delegates they decided to have nothing more to do with either of the Mainland bodies for the time being.

Going on Their Own.
Next week a meeting is to be held between representatives of the local association and the Upper Island Association to complete arrangements for the formation of the Island League. Both associations will conduct local leagues until Christmas, and then the best four teams in each league will enter in the Island League and play through the remainder of the season.

Expect French Team.
A letter was read at last night's meeting from William McLellan, formerly a Coquitlam player, who is now managing the La Vie au Grand Air du Madoc Football Club, of Bordeaux, which was beaten in the final for the French Cup by two goals to one last year. McLellan wrote to obtain terms from the local club for a match in this city. He expects to bring his team to this country next September, and is anxious for a game in Victoria. The association agreed to make a flattering offer to the team, believing that such a game would greatly arouse interest in soccer in this city.

To Hold Field Day.
The association decided to hold a field day in August, and the following committee was appointed to make arrangements: B. C. Livingstone, chairman, Jack Sullivan, George Williamson and W. J. Lynn.

Will Pick Locals.
At a meeting of the selection committee last evening the choice of the Victoria team was not completed. The local representatives will be picked from the following: Boss Johnson, Bill Patchell, Joe Dakers, Ernie Munro, F. Frogger, Bob McKay, Piggy Pottinger, Algie McGregor, Sugar McInnis, Joe Painter, Bert Johnston, Cyril Baker, Homer Alexander and Toots Plump.

The return of Cyril Baker to the champions' fold has been a source of much gratification to the local lacrosse fans. Cyril is one of the best local stick-handlers. He is fast, has a wicked shot and is tricky.

RUTH HIT GROOVED BALL OUT OF PARK

Williams Had Babe in Hole and Took Chance Which Resulted in Another Homerun

American League.
Chicago, June 18.—Babe Ruth, the home-run king of the New York Americans, yesterday made his nineteenth circuit drive of the season, the visitors winning from Chicago, 7 to 2. Ruth had struck out twice previously. A man was left stranded on base on each occasion. "Lefty" Williams wobbled in the fourth inning and after two were out, he walked Ward and Pipp. He then had the call two and two on Ruth and took a chance. He grooved a fast one waist high and the big slugger drove it over the right field bleachers wall. The high wind deprived Ruth of another homer in the last inning. He hit in the same direction, but the north wind carried it foul by a few feet. He followed this with a drive to first for two bases and was thrown out trying to stretch it into a triple. Mays kept the locals' hits scattered.

Got Fewer Hits But Won.
St. Louis, June 18.—St. Louis and Philadelphia indulged in a free hitting contest yesterday and while the latter outbatted the locals, St. Louis bunched its drives to better advantage and won, 12 to 9. It was the locals' eighth consecutive victory. Bigbee, who started for the visitors, allowed six straight hits and giving one pass. Austin, the first man to face Hasty, who succeeded Bigbee, hit a home run, driving in Williams, who had doubled. Sothorn was unsteady throughout and was relieved by Weisman in the ninth, while the bases were full with only one out.

CONDITIONS OF LABOR IN THIS PROVINCE

Report on 469 Industries Employing Over 61,676 Persons

Reports were tabulated from 469 firms in British Columbia with an aggregate payroll of $1,676 persons, in the Headquarters of the Employment Service of Canada, for the week ending May 15. As compared with their returns for May 8, firms in 16 industrial groups reported increases amounting to 611 persons and in 4 groups there were decreases amounting to 75 persons. The net decrease, during the week, therefore, was 144 persons or two-tenths of one per cent. An increase for the week of May 1 had been anticipated but as shown above, the additions were not realized. For the following week, however, it was estimated that 74 persons would be additionally employed by these employers. In comparison with their returns for January 17 these 469 firms reported that they had made increases in their staffs amounting to 4,277 persons, or seven and five-tenths per cent. In this comparison firms in 22 groups showed increases amounting to 4,318 persons and in 6 groups reductions were registered aggregating 41 persons.

Plus Industries
The largest increases during the week under review compared with returns from identical employers for the preceding week occurred in Water, Transportation, Railway Construction, Pulp and Paper Products, 157, 138 and 73 more persons, respectively, having been employed in these groups. In 13 other groups the increases were of minor character. For the following week firms in 4 industrial groups anticipated making further additions to their staffs, the anticipated increase of 169 persons in Railway Construction being the only substantial increase expected. Pulp and Paper Products, Water, Transportation, and 5 smaller groups anticipated having declines. The reduction expected in Water Transportation, however, was the only large decrease estimated. The remaining 5 plus groups anticipated having no changes.

Minus Industries
While the minus industries during the week of May 15, as compared with the returns for May 8, numbered 8, the declines of 282 persons and 207 persons registered in Iron and Steel Products and Lumber and Its Products, respectively, were the only considerable reductions, these in the other groups being nominal in character. In Iron and Steel Products the reduction was largely due to the shortage of steel. Both of the above mentioned groups, however, anticipated having some recovery during the following week. In 5 other minus industries increases for the following week were expected also; but in all cases the anticipated additions were small, 3 groups anticipated having no changes.

In comparison with the returns for January 17, large increases were registered by firms in the Railway Construction and Pulp and Paper group, 1919, and 412 persons respectively being additionally employed in these groups. Logging, Building Construction, Lumber and Its Products, Edible Plant Products, Non-Ferrous Metal Products Miscellaneous—Manufacturing Industries, Metal Goods, Telephone Operation, Wholesale Trade, Railway Transportation and Water Transportation recorded increases of between 160 and 200 persons, since the middle of January, those of 385 persons and 112 persons registered in Warton, Ont.—"I feel it my duty to let others know the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, and I hope this may be the means of inducing some sufferer to try these remedies for I know they will do all that is claimed for them. I took five or six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during expectancy and it did wonders for me. I had practically no suffering and have a lovely healthy baby girl. I have such confidence in the 'Favorite Prescription' I am continuing its use and it is building me up and supplying plenty of nourishment for my babe. I also took Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets for the relief of varicose veins and they certainly worked a miracle. I only took two bottles."—MRS. DAVID H. COLLINS, Warton, Ontario.

MOTHERHOOD

"Favorite Prescription" should have the full confidence of every woman in Canada because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package tablets, or to branch Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ontario.

Dr. Pierce long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and placed them with the druggists everywhere.

HORRIBLE CONDITIONS

FOUND IN POLAND

Sufferings of Several Thousands Doomed to Starvation

June 18.—"I must stand helpless at the deathbed of thousands of my brothers and sisters, who are doomed to starve and to die."

This is the way Isidore Hershefeld, director of Jewish relief work in Poland, describes his efforts to save millions of destitute Jews, including almost one million Jewish children, in a letter to Henry H. Rosenfeld, director of the American Jewish Relief Committee.

Although over $5,000,000 marks were spent on American Jewish relief work in Poland during September, October and November, Mr. Hershefeld emphasizes that even this sum was a trivial pittance compared to the crying needs of the suffering people.

"My supply of adjectives to describe the situation here has long ago been exhausted. The present Winter will take its toll of many thousands of Jewish lives, among them many, many a trivial pittance. As a representative of the Joint Distribution Committee here, I must stand helpless at the deathbed of these thousands of my brothers and sisters."

"Can you help me save some of them, at least the little children?" "If our well-fed, well-clad people could see conditions here and hear the pitiful appeals which can not be adequately granted, I am sure that their hearts—broken, torn and bleeding as is mine—would move them to give much more generously."

Mr. Hershefeld likened his position to that of a mother with one loaf of bread and ten hungry children, which heartbroken, must stand by and watch her children starve.

"My heart beats for all the towns and districts, only a small part of which can be aided from your funds," the letter continued. "The twenty million marks we distributed in September and October and the fifteen million marks distributed in November, are far from sufficient to supply the terrible needs. America has been responding admirably in aid of these stricken people, but it has been far from enough."

READY TO FORGET.

Magistrate—"Do you want a lawyer to defend you?"

Prisoner—"Not particularly, sir."

PLAN ONE DRIVE FOR UNITED CHARITIES

Retail Section Would Combine All Solicitation For Money

To eliminate drives for all kinds of tag days, charity fetes and the hundred and one other forms of collecting money, the Retail Merchants section of the Board of Trade in session last night listened to a proposal broached by J. H. Beatty and J. D. O'Connell to establish a joint fund for all charities, to be distributed on a pro rata basis through the central office.

"The contribution to a list of united charities once a year would be of less drain on the individual retailer than the never ending call for money for this, that, and the other," stated Mr. Beatty. "A man could afford to set aside a definite sum in his estimates, and besides that would get time to do more work for himself," said Mr. O'Connell in support, and told of the War Chest activities in Detroit where the idea of grouping funds for all charities had worked well.

"The idea is that all standard charities be asked to render an estimate of what they will require to carry on, and that the total drive be made of the district once in the year, the money thus obtained to be apportioned out to the different societies according to their needs and results obtained," continued Mr. Beatty. "This would enable us to refer all individual solicitors of funds to the central board and all would share alike."

The matter was disposed of by being left to the executive to discuss, and further if feasible.

Brushes and combs are best washed in strong ammonia water. For the bristles it should be cold.

The Path to Health

For many thousands of women the Path to Health has certainly been through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When this great remedy was first introduced, and for many years after, skeptics frowned upon its curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by it has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands—doubt and skepticism have been swept away as by a mighty tidal wave, until today this purely vegetable medicine is recognized as the greatest remedy for woman's special ills in the world. This is because it is a wonderful tonic and reconstructer which acts directly and favorably upon the feminine organization and is a specific for that purpose.

WILL GREET ALL SISTER TEMPLES ON WAY TO OASIS

To-morrow, Sunday and Monday Shriners Will Pass Through City

The forty-sixth annual session of the Imperial Council, A.A.O.N.M.S., will convene in the oasis of Portland, Oregon, on June 22, 23 and 24, 1926.

The greatest caravan in the history of Shrinedom is now venturing its way through the busy streets of the oasis of Portland. For many of these nobles it will be a long journey, but one that will leave in the recesses of their minds lasting and pleasant memories. The portals of Shrinedom are wide open from Portland, Maine on the east to Portland, Oregon, on the west and from New Orleans on the south to Dawson on the north to extend the Moslem greeting to the caravans as they pass through the way to Portland, the "Mecca" of Shrinedom for June.

Gizah Temple of Victoria, B.C., will join with the temples of the Coast in extending Arabic greetings to the sister temples, passing through to the oasis. While their sojourn will be brief it will be like the snow of the desert, "warm enough to raise blisters on a cake of ice."

The first of the caravans to arrive will reach this city to-morrow at 3 p.m. via the C.P.R. boat and leave for Seattle at 4.30 p.m. This will consist of Aleppo Temple of Boston, some two hundred strong; Muratt Temple of Indianapolis, two hundred and fifty members; Damascus Temple of Rochester, two hundred and fifty members; and Syria Temple of Pittsburgh with one hundred nobles and eighty ladies. They will be accompanied by their bands and patrols.

Arranging for Reception. Committees from the local temple here have been working overtime for the last few days on the reception and entertainment of the nobles and their ladies during their all too brief stay in Victoria, the queen city of the coast. In abundance have been secured for presentation to the fair sex on their arrival by the Rose Committee. The Automobile Committee has arranged for sufficient cars to accommodate the entire party for a drive around our beautiful city. Special committees have been appointed to pilot those who do not wish to drive but may desire to visit the business portion of our city. As many, no doubt, will take advantage of this opportunity, the committee will see that they will have no difficulty in disposing of their superfluous cash, either Canadian or American, at par.

On Sunday a large delegation of Shriners will arrive from eastern Canada via the Grand Trunk Pacific boat, reaching Victoria about 8 a.m., leaving for Seattle at 11 a.m. This consists of Karnak Temple of Montreal, Mocha Temple of London, Ontario, Ramessis Temple of Toronto, Wa-wa Temple of Regina, Al Ashar Temple of Calgary, Khartoum Temple of Winnipeg, Luxor Temple of St. John, N.S., and Phylas Temple of Halifax, N.S. They will be met by the committees of Gizah Temple and fittingly entertained by the Potentate and his entire band.

And Still More. The C.P.R. Steamer Charlotte, arriving from Vancouver at 3 p.m., will have over eight hundred Shriners on board. They will arrive on their way to Portland and will be welcomed and shown the beauties of our city so far as the time of their remaining here will permit. They will leave on the same boat for Seattle at 4.30 p.m. This steamer will convey the local Temple's delegation to Seattle on its way to Portland. Noble Christie, the Potentate of Gizah Temple, and a large number of the members and ladies will accompany them on the pilgrimage. Three special cars have been secured for their accommodation from Seattle to Portland, in which city hotel reservations have been secured for the entire party.

The band which will accompany the patrol from this city will be in charge of Pipe Major D. Cameron, who has ten pipers and six drummers under his command. They will be arrayed in full Highland costume, and will uphold the reputation they have gained of being beyond question the finest pipe band on the coast.

The patrol, named "Gizah Temple Patrol" under the command of Capt. W. C. Thompson and Lieut. (Bob) Morrison consists of twenty-seven men, two standard bearers, and a quartermaster who will have charge of the Commissary Department. They will doubtless add fresh laurels to those gained at Seattle in 1915 when their splendid marching and perfectly executed evolutions were very favorably commented on by those who saw their manoeuvres at Woodland Park on that occasion. The steady attention to drill under the splendid instruction of the above named officers for the past few months has enabled them to arrive at the acme of perfection, seldom seen outside of the regular forces. This is in a measure no doubt, owing to the fact that the majority of the members of the patrol served under the colors during the Great War.

A full dress parade will be held prior to their going on board, at which time they will unite with the section from Vancouver, which is under the jurisdiction of the local Temple and under the command of Capt. Thompson.

AEROPLANE BREAKS PETROL FEED IN AIR

Unusual Accident Causes Forced Landing in Potato Field; Machine Resumes Flight

Starting from the Willows aerodrome for Courtenay at 3.45 this morning, the Curtiss machine of the Aerial Service, Ltd., piloted by W. H. Brown, with N. A. Goddard, broke a petrol feed pipe and had to land. A safe landing was made in the potato field of Hong Yuen, Chinese vegetable gardener, near Lansdowne Road, where the damage was speedily repaired, and the machine got away again for Courtenay at 10.45 a. m. The accomplishment of landing and taking off from a ploughed field is sufficiently novel to make a very good impression on all who understood the difficulty of manoeuvring the strange craft to and from the ground.

VISITOR FINDS WESTERN WOMEN DO GOOD WORK

Dr. Augusta Stowe-Gullen Praises Coast Women's Societies

"I think your women's organizations are doing great work in the West," Dr. Augusta Stowe-Gullen said this morning to The Times, "and I am going to say more about that this afternoon, when I hope to meet many of your leaders." The visitor is a leader in women's movements, and her opinion is worth having.

Dr. Stowe-Gullen explained that she had not intended to give an address in this city, as she was here on a holiday, but on finding the Women's Independent Political Association had arranged a reception for her to-day, expressed her willingness to say a few words.

This is the distinguished medical woman's first visit to the coast, and Dr. Stowe-Gullen is enthusiastic over the climate and scenery of the coast. She intends to return to Vancouver at the week-end to attend some of the sessions of the medical convention being held there next week before leaving for her home in Toronto.

SCOUT CONCERT TO-NIGHT.

A grand concert will be given by the Oak Bay Troop and Wolf Pack in the St. Columbia Church school-room to-night at 8 o'clock under the patronage of Brig.-General J. M. Ross, C.M.G. There will be scouting exercises, signaling displays, boxing and a dramatic farce under the direction of Lieut. R. R. Webb. A large attendance is expected to see the interesting programme which will be presented.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc. are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial stimulants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few tablets of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

GO TO CHURCH.

At the ample shrine of pleasure You have worshipped well and long On this day of so-called leisure, Yet you feel there's something wrong. Blaise is your air and jaded; Sabbath hours have lost their zest; Uter entul has invaded Every corner of your chest. Sport is shorn of all its glamor; Motoring proves no more a lure; So you come to me and clamor For a speedy psychic cure. Well, my friend, if fresh sensation Is the object of your search, And you want a consultation My advice is, go to church.

THRILLING RESCUE EFFECTED AT SEA

Crew of West Jester Transferred Kyo's Passengers and Fought Fire

Tokio, June 17.—(Associated Press)—Heroic work by the officers and crew of the American steamship West Jester outside Yokohama Harbor resulted in saving the Japanese steamship Kyo Maru, with seventy passengers from South America on board, from possible destruction by fire. It is announced in advices received from Kobe, whither the Kyo Maru was bound.

The Kyo Maru, which left Valparaiso April 3 and San Francisco May 1, carrying nitrate and a miscellaneous cargo, took fire in a storm at sea not far from Yokohama as she was steaming for Kobe. She sent out S. O. S. calls, and the American steamship responded.

Despite the dangerous seas running the West Jester crew launched boats, succeeded in getting men on board the Kyo Maru and helped extinguish the flames. They carried the women and children on board.

REGULATIONS ON BOUNDARY LAKES

Canadian Delegates at Genoa Would Confer With United States Representatives

Genoa, June 18.—Canadian delegates at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the International Seamen's Conference, strongly proclaimed the necessity for the presence of United States delegates at the conference in order to regulate questions affecting international navigation, as they said both Canada and the United States had common interests in the large lakes forming the boundary between the two nations.

"On behalf of the Canadian shipping interests, I strongly protest against any recommendation being made by this congress without hearing from our friends from the United States," declared Thomas Robb, secretary of the Shipping Federation of Montreal.

"It is a very serious matter to make any recommendation concerning such a large international and sea regulation without both parties being present, as these lakes are navigated by American and Canadian vessels. Regulations for navigation there are not international, but national regulations adopted by the United States and Canada."

"Trade between the two countries for the year ending March, 1919, amounted to over 14,000,000 tons, as these matters concern only the United States and Canada, it is essential they be dealt with by these two nations."

MORE GERMAN SHIPS WILL BE DELIVERED TO ALLIED COMMISSION

Berlin, June 18.—The Minister of Reconstruction has published a decree, made necessary by the terms of the Peace Treaty, expropriating 24 vessels now under construction in German shipyards. They include German-Hamburg-American line steamers, one of 20,800 tons. The others aggregate 56,000 tons. All will be delivered to the reparations commission on completion.

FISHERMEN READY FOR SOCKEYE RUN

Season For Most Popular Variety of Salmon Opens on July 1

British Columbia fishermen are fully prepared to wage war on King Salmon. Purse seines, gill nets, drag seines and trap nets are being finally overhauled, canneries boats and all that goes to make up a modern cannery's equipment, are being placed in a condition of readiness to handle the season's run.

For the past few weeks spring salmon have been caught in the Fraser and off the west coast of Vancouver Island, some by the seven-inch mesh gill net and some by troll. Next in order of appearance is the most widely sought and valuable of the species, the sockeye. Fishing for the sockeye will commence in the Fraser River and the waters contiguous to Vancouver Island south of the 49th parallel on July 1, when a 5-7-8-inch mesh gill net will be permitted. The remainder of District No. 1, such as Howe Sound and Burrard Inlet, will also be declared open to sockeye fishers July 1. North of the 49th parallel the small mesh net for sockeye will come into use June 29. Contemporaneous with this variety of the chums and pinks will make their appearance along the British Columbia coast, and in October will come the cohoes. The steelhead, which borders on the trout family, was found during the months of February and March.

About the same number of canneries will be in operation this year about the same number of licenses have been issued, and about the same number of fishermen will follow their calling, as in previous years, in spite of the "open fishing" policy. The industry, and all who compose the industry, are adjusting themselves to the changed conditions. Government fishery officials, while preparing to enforce all necessary regulations for the conservation of the fish, are seeking the co-operation of the fishermen and canners in this direction.

WANTS DAYLIGHT SAVING.

To the Editor.—We are now well into June and still the question of daylight saving is unsettled. Surely every worker, from master to errand boy or girl, thoroughly appreciated the extra hour of daylight for recreation during past years; and to me, a busy housewife, it seemed to prolong the whole summer.

I did read somewhere of a complaining mother—or was it an alderman?—who could not get the babies to sleep in the daylight. I would like to know how they manage all the year round with their babies' afternoon sleep? which is a very important thing with all children up to school age. Oh, no, this argument is too foolish altogether, and I think was written by some person with little or no knowledge of children and their care. What a world of darkness we would live in if left to the mercy of some. Let us hope the Mayor will settle this question at the earliest opportunity. Let there be light.

THANKS PATRONS.

To the Editor.—On behalf of the Boys' Naval Brigade I take this opportunity of thanking those who patronized the Navy League Fete at the New Drill Hall, and also those who kindly gave up so much of their time, talent and energy towards making the fete a success.

The Boys of the Boys' Naval Brigade have been very much in evidence the last few days. To the casual eye these boys would appear to be just boys dressed up in naval costume, but more intimate acquaintance with them will soon demonstrate the fact that these are trained boys, well disciplined, thoroughly up in their work, ready and willing to undertake any job of sailing that may come their way.

A most important function of the Navy League is to fit the boys of the Naval Brigade to become future officers and men of a Canadian-built, Canadian-owned, Canadian-manned Merchant Marine, a combination of men, money and material destined to carry the manufactures and products of Canada to the far corners of the world.

Already the Navy League has sent seven boys to sea in the Merchant Service, several to the Fishery Protection Service, and the Blue Funnel Line and the Robert Dollar Line officials have signified their intention of drawing upon the Brigade for apprentices on their steamers.

The boys of the Brigade are being fitted to earn their living at sea just as the boys who go to the universities are fitted to earn their living as lawyers, doctors, and professional men. The boy upon leaving the Brigade only lacks actual sea training when he steps aboard his vessel.

A great objective of the Navy League at the present time is to obtain a schooner in order that we may give the boys a more practical course in seamanship. Halifax, Montreal, and Toronto have training ships for their boys, with a result they are turning out full-fledged sailors. Surely the citizens of Victoria who

ONLY PAINT, BUT IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

The hull of the S. S. Canadian Winner, which is to be launched from the Harbor Marine yard, June 29, is getting its first coat of black paint and is taking on a neat appearance.

The obliteration of the patchy and red-lead composition and the substitution of a uniform color is transforming the big steel hull.

The citizens of Victoria should appreciate the work that is being carried on by the Navy League, and rally to its support far more than in the case at present. Objectives such as these are not gained by indifference on the part of the citizenry, but can only be attained if the people as a unit place themselves behind the men who are devoting much time, thought and energy to such work.

It takes money to carry on this work, for instructors must be paid and there are many incidental expenses, but the men who are the guiding spirits of the movement are giving their services freely and willingly without remuneration. Surely the public can give a more liberal mead of financial support to this splendid work.

Membership in the League only costs two dollars a year, and subscriptions will be most acceptable and will be duly acknowledged if addressed to the Office of the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada, 1014 A Broad Street, in the basement of the Pemberton Building. GEO. G. BUSHBY, Governor Boys' Naval Brigade (Victoria Division) June 17, 1920.

The time used is Pacific standard, for the 120th meridian west. It is counted from 6 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Black numbers occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower low water.

Equivalent.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the dry dock at any tide, add 19.6 feet to the height of high water as above given.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly and the Mouse Teacher.

By HOWARD R. GARIS.

Copyright, 1920, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

One day, when Uncle Wiggly was out walking in the woods, near the Orange Ice Mountains, looking for an adventure, he heard a voice saying: "Oh, if I only had some one to help me! I cannot do it all alone. I need help!"

Uncle Wiggly stood still, pinked his trunk nose and thought: "That cannot be the Pipsewah or the Skeezicks," said the bunny rabbit gentleman to himself. "They never need help in trying to get my mouse. I'll see who it is."

So Uncle Wiggly peeked around the corner of the red lamp in the drug store and he saw a little brown Indian bear trying to make a canoe boat of pieces of white birch bark. And the little brown Indian bear, who was a cousin to Needle Striball, the other bear, was trying to pull a big piece of birch bark off a tall tree, only he couldn't do it.

"Wait a minute! I'll help you!"

offered Uncle Wiggly, when he saw that the little brown Indian bear was a friendly chap.

"Oh, thank you!" grunted the queer, cute little fellow, as he saw the bunny rabbit. "I just need help."

So with the aid of Uncle Wiggly, the birch bark canoe was soon built, and there were plenty of pieces of white sheets of birch bark left. The little brown Indian bear had not needed them for his boat.

"I have no money to pay you with, Uncle Wiggly, for helping me," grunted the Indian bear, "nor can I tell you where to find an adventure. But if you will take some of these pieces of white birch bark perhaps they will come in useful."

"Thank you, I will," said the rabbit gentleman, so he tucked a number of square pieces of the thin, white birch bark under his paw. Then, making a low and polite bow with his tall silk hat, Uncle Wiggly went on his way with the bark, and the queer little brown Indian bear got into his canoe and paddled away.

Uncle Wiggly hopped on his way through the wood, and he was just wondering if he might have another adventure when, all of a sudden, he heard a crackling in the bushes and he saw the bad old Skeezicks running away down the path through the trees as hard as he could run.

"My! That is certainly queer!" thought the bunny. "He is running away without even asking for any of my advice. I guess he didn't see me, and I'm glad of it."

Away and away ran the Skeez, and Uncle Wiggly remained hidden behind the bushes, with the pieces of white birch bark under his paw.

"I am certainly glad that Skeez didn't see me," murmured the bunny. "He acts as though he had been up to some trick or mischievous business. I hope he wasn't over to my hollow stump bungalow."

Uncle Wiggly waited until the Skeezicks was out of sight, and then the rabbit gentleman hopped on.

Soon he came to the hollow stump school, and, no sooner was he close enough to hear than he caught the sound of a voice saying:

"Oh, children, dear, I am sorry it happened! But it could not be helped. I guess you had better all go home for the rest of the day, until I can get the Board of Education to put in new blackboards."

"I'm trouble for the lady mouse teacher," said Uncle Wiggly to himself. "What happened?" he asked as he hopped inside the school.

"Oh, something terrible!" answered the lady mouse. "The bad old Skeezicks was just here, and he

PIONEERS OF VANCOUVER ISLAND

Records in Archives Dept. Other Names Solicited. (Prior to Confederation.)

In connection with the Hudson Bay Company's Pageant, in Victoria, a list of old time residents of Vancouver Island was compiled. As it was impracticable to include all in the parade a selection was made from the oldest residents.

The Provincial Librarian and Archivist took the opportunity at this time of making a permanent record of pioneers of Vancouver Island and forms were supplied to the persons whose names were submitted, calling for information as to date of arrival and personal records, photographs and so forth.

The Librarian desires to thank Messrs. Edgar Fawcett, R. T. Williams, Munro Miller and Fred Carney for their co-operation in compiling the list. Thanks are also extended to those who have so kindly responded by filling in forms.

The following is a list of persons resident prior to 1870 who have returned record forms, but in order to have the records as complete as possible pioneers whose names do not appear on this list are asked to communicate with the Provincial Librarian, Parliament Buildings, where forms may be obtained.

broke every one of our nice blackboards with a stone. There isn't a whole blackboard in the school, and I cannot teach the animal children their lessons. They must go home until we get new boards."

"Ha! Say not so!" cried the bunny. "White boards are just as good as black boards, and the children can write on the white boards with black sticks, instead of white chalk."

"But where can I get any white boards to use in the place of black boards?" asked the lady mouse teacher.

"Here!" cried Uncle Wiggly as he showed the pieces of white birch bark the little brown Indian bear had given him. "Then the bunny and the lady mouse and some of the animal boys fastened up the pieces of white birch bark over the blackboards which the Skeez had broken, and the animal children could have their lessons and did not have to go home until school was out."

So this teaches us that even cocoon-pie is good for something. And if the dining room floor doesn't try to jump up and hit the ceiling with the umbrella stand, fill tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and poor Jack.

MR. HARRIS DENIES HOLDING TICKET

Wheels of Chance Case Ends in Dismissal; No Evidence

Allen Fielding, with his son and daughter, were dismissed in the Esquimalt Police Court yesterday afternoon from a charge of operating a gambling game at the Gorge Park. Magistrate Jay held court in the Municipal Hall, with J. A. Alkman for the defendants and Clarence Harris prosecuting.

Mr. Harris prosecuted the defendant under section 236 of the Criminal Code, for running a "lucky wheel" in the amusement park at the Gorge. Contrary to statements made recently, when he was alleged to have bought a ticket in the wheel of chance, Mr. Harris stated in court yesterday that he did not have any direct evidence, thinking that his word would be sufficient.

Questioned by Mr. Alkman as to why he was constituting himself an amateur detective, Mr. Harris declined to answer. At the close of the proceedings Mr. Harris asked for an adjournment to call yet more witnesses, but the court considered that the charge was not tenable, and dismissed the case.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

at the Theatre

DOMINION

John Barrymore has received many tributes from audiences at the Dominion Theatre this week, where the talented star's remarkable performance in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" is on view, for the deft and effective manner in which he portrays the scene in which he is supposed, as the brutal "Mr. Hyde," to injure a small child.

In some respects, according to Mr. Barrymore, this was one of the most difficult episodes in the whole story. The part of the child was played by a little three-year-old screen actor. Barrymore, in his hideous make-up and costume as "Hyde," feared to frighten the child and spoil the scene. He approached very gingerly and hesitated a moment before laying hands on his small victim.

"Don't be afraid of me, mister," said the child, looking up at this gruesome creature without a sign of fear.

VARIETY

"The Spite Bride," a Selznick Picture starring Olive Thomas, which will be seen at the Variety Theatre to-day, is a drama of youthful impulse, full of thrills, tears, smiles, love and adventure. Never was this charming star so alluring, vivacious and utterly captivating; never was she cast in a better role than that of Tessa Doyle, the shy little dancing girl, who was innocent of the tricks this sordid world plays on the back-stage girl, especially if it knows that she is innocent. It was directed by Charles Giblyn, and the leading man is Robert Ellis, who scored a hit in "Upstairs and Down." When Millicent Lee jilted Billy Swayne, he thought that the world had come to an end. He decided that life was not worth living until he met his chum, Rodney Dolson, who was an optimist of the first order with a ready smile and willing hand for every friend. His advice to Billy was that he should immediately marry someone else and get his publicity in that way. It didn't make very much difference who the girl was, because he could pay her a couple of thousand and send her to Reno in a few weeks.

COLUMBIA

Tom Mix has done many dare-devil stunts for the screen, but his latest, made for his new William Fox photoplay, "The Coming of the Law," now at the Columbia, caps them all. In one scene Mix is walking along a mountain range. A member of a lawless gang shoots at him. The camera shows the man shooting, and then the lens is turned on Mix. Mix wanted to show the bullet in its flight, so he ordered Pat Christian to stand out of sight of the camera and shoot a hole through his necktie. Mix stood nonchalantly looking from the mountain top in Hollywood. Pat Christian pulled the trigger. His aim was a trifle faulty; for the bullet passed underneath the knot in the tie and scraped a thread on the neck button of Mix's shirt. Mix turned to Christian quietly and said: "You will have to do that over again, Pat. You didn't hit the tie." So Pat fired again as the camera ground, and this time the bullet speeded through the edge of the knotted tie.

PANTAGES

Few young married couples are inclined to take advice from their parents. If they would accept such advice perhaps there would be less domestic unhappiness. A strong argument in favor of the parents is advanced in "The Peacemaker," a comedy skit which is featured at the Pantages this week, with a talented cast headed by Arthur De Vov. Although the skit is constructed along comedy lines, there is a "punch" in every line and the story carries a vile time, and when an announcement is made that these two sterling artists are to appear, the subject is one of interest. In a cycle of individual songs this pair delight with their clean cut and refined act. Miss Dresser has won distinction in vaudeville, musical comedy and drama. Mr. Gardner has given a good account of himself wherever he has happened to be. It was probably his little role in the "Chocolate Soldier" that brought him most renown, as well as the principal role in "Madame Sherry." Together Miss Dresser and Mr. Gardner make a great team.

PRINCESS

As the fourth week's offering at the Princess Theatre the Mildred Page Players will present a four-act comedy that is guaranteed to cause a laugh every minute, "Believe Me Xantippe." This delightful play, which is as quaint in its conception as in its name, was the author of the $5,000 cash prize offered each year by Harvard, Yale and several of the other large Eastern educational institutions, for the best play submitted either by a student or a professional author. As a result of the $5,000 prize this contest has given many of the very greatest Broadway successes. Geo. Ade wrote "The College Widow" to compete for the prize. "Believe Me Xantippe" not only won for its author the $5,000 prize, but has made thousands of dollars as royalties and won him a world wide reputation as an author. Mr. Byron Aldman is personally directing the production and a wonderful evening's entertainment is promised. A revision of the matinee prices has been made and will be announced during the week-end. The curtain rises at 2.30 matinee and 8.30 in the evening.

TWO STARS COMING.

Harold Lloyd has a bevy of fair beauties supporting him in "His Royal Slynness," his newest two reel comedy, which will be shown at the Dominion all next week. This lively comedy is the story of a book agent who becomes Prince. Much of the action takes place in the Royal Court where, as the pseudo Prince, Lloyd flirts with the Lloydis in waiting. It is a rip roaring comedy and one of Lloyd's best.

May Allison, one of the most captivating comedienne of the screen, will be seen in "Fair and Warmer," one of the funniest farces ever written. A play that made London and New York hysterical with laughter and which, as a picture, with May Allison in the leading role, is a treat that no one should miss.

Lewis Stone, one of the foremost character actors of the screen, takes the role of John Keith, the hunted man, as well as the part of Derwent Coniston of the Royal Mounted Police in "The River's End," adapted from the novel of the same title by James Oliver Curwood. The picture, which is released through First National, will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre, beginning next Monday for four days only.

The story calls for thrilling and breathless situations in almost every scene, and knowing Mr. Stone's ability to play such parts, Marshall Neilan selected him for the double role.

Mr. Stone has had a successful stage career. Many theatregoers remember his splendid acting in his most successful play, "Inside the Lines," which he later used as a film vehicle.

The girl was attempting to dance with a fat man who couldn't. The fat man was a great bungler, and he knew it. He gasped as they hobbled about. "It's awfully kind of you to dance with me—the worst dancer in the room!" Then he trod on her foot for the sixth time, and the girl replied: "Oh, how can you say so? Why, you hardly seem to touch the floor!"

EXCEPTIONAL BILL FOR ORPHEUM AGAIN

Special Stellar Attractions Include Louise Dresser

'Tis not too often that a star or stars like Louise Dresser and Jack Gardner, who are one of the headline acts on the Orpheum bill at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-night, Saturday matinee and night, make their appearance on Western vaudeville time, and when an announcement is made that these two sterling artists are to appear, the subject is one of interest. In a cycle of individual songs this pair delight with their clean cut and refined act. Miss Dresser has won distinction in vaudeville, musical comedy and drama. Mr. Gardner has given a good account of himself wherever he has happened to be. It was probably his little role in the "Chocolate Soldier" that brought him most renown, as well as the principal role in "Madame Sherry." Together Miss Dresser and Mr. Gardner make a great team.

A new face in vaudeville this year appearing on the bill at the Orpheum this week will be Miss Elsa Ryan, the former popular star of "Fog of My Heart." She appears here in a specially written little sketch called "Fog For Short." The vehicle provided for Miss Ryan's tour in the two-day is said to provide suitable scope for the many pretty touches that made her performance in "Fog" so popular. The advent of the little star is expected to round out a career embracing every variety of stage entertainment. Clara Morton, formerly of the Four Mortons, who has fashioned a reputation of her own will be heard here in a "Songologue." Solo work is her forte, and her appearance here will be reckoned with considerable interest. Miss Morton is quite alone in her effort to amuse, and has never been more successful than this season.

The title of a little skit which has much human interest attached in "At the Depot," as presented by Harrison Greene and Katherine Parker. It is a sort of modern minstrelsy afterpiece, but in the hands of the capable Greene and Parker it becomes one of the funniest black-face dialogues that has come into existence for a long time.

"Les Bouffons Musicale" in French meaning the musical buffoons. This is one of the French acts which have been signed up by the Orpheum, and is considered one of the notable novelties of the year, Palo and Palet, who present the act are artists. Their work is considered most entertaining and never fails to register the effect desired.

Darwinian demonstrators of fun is what the simian aggregation handled by Anita Diaz is called. Here's an act that pleases both old and young, and goes to show what constant training and a world of patience can do when it comes to putting the human idea into the brain of the alleged ancestors of the race. It is described as a remarkable group of anthropoid quadrumanous mammals who make glad the hearts of an audience.

Bringing what has become already a success in vaudeville from as many as sixteen countries—a whole league of nations as it were, the Novelty Clintons, who have been termed the "human grasshoppers," will offer an act unique from song to song. They are more than acrobats—scarcely can be placed in the same class. The orchestra and pictures will round out the bill.

PLAN BLACK-LIST FOR "DEAD-BEATS"

Retail Section Organize Credit Rating Bureau to List "Bad-Pays"

A Credit Rating Bureau of the Retail Section of the Board of Trade is to be formed after action taken by that body in session last night. The subject was broached by J. D. O'Connell, who stated that some such scheme was necessary to keep the business profits from being entirely swamped by the inevitable "dead-beat."

"Under discussion recently the executive was of the opinion that the Credit Rating Bureau would be a great boon and of immense value to the Board as a whole," said Mr. O'Connell. "The idea will take time to work up, but should be of practical value when complete."

"The Retail Merchants' Association already have one such bureau, and it is stated to be working satisfactorily," interjected another member.

Speaking to the question, J. L. Beckwith stated that the idea was a good one, "a miniature Bradstreet, I take it," but it must be very carefully thought out and worked out to avoid trouble. Personally, I question whether it would work advantageously in trying to get this information from the Board of Trade. Why not make it an informal arrangement between the individual merchants to supply data on request as to any particular "dead-beat."

Mr. Beckwith was here answered by a member who foresaw trouble in the latter suggestion. "Supposing the customer was a good one," he said, "the retail merchant might not like to pass him along, and might give a false report on his standing."

"It would reduce the cost of doing business," stated Mr. O'Connell, "to have a credit-rating-section with a list of dead-beats to be had on application."

"There might be 'come-backs' from those reported upon," stated Mr. Beckwith, "unless the information was rendered as a signed statement of fact to the secretary of the bureau, based on actual observations within the limits of the business of the individual."

Mr. O'Connell here brought up the matter of the other bureau already in existence, and there followed a discussion on dual organization and the relative merits of the two retail bodies. Finally Mr. O'Connell's motion to form the Credit Rating Bureau was carried, and the matter left in the hands of the secretary to work out as time went on.

On each pelt or skin not specifically mentioned in the regulations, a royalty or tax equal in amount to 5 per centum of the commercial value of the pelt or skin.

A $25 fee will be charged to any fur trader for a permit to buy furs at wholesale from licensed fur traders or at sales of furs at public auction.

AutoStrop Razor

-sharpens itself

ALL safety razors seem alike because of the similarity in size and appearance. As regards the AutoStrop Razor, however, the resemblance ends there. Its peculiar and additional advantage is, that without being larger than any other safety razor, it combines within itself a self-stropping feature that enables the user to keep the blade sharp without taking anything apart. It thus prevents dull blades and the expense of buying new ones.

You may not be interested in economy of blades, but surely you want a good shave and that is only possible with a stropped blade.

Any dealer will demonstrate the AutoStrop Razor to you, guarantee satisfaction or refund of purchase price. Only $5.00—complete with strop and twelve blades in an attractive assortment of cases. AutoStrop Safety Razor Co., Limited, AutoStrop Building, Toronto, Canada

CAMPAIGNERS WANT MORE SHIPBUILDING

Also Endorse Leadership of Sir Arthur Currie at Ypres

British Campaigners last night endorsed the efforts of the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, member for Victoria at Ottawa, to secure more shipbuilding for the Harbor Marine Company here. They passed a resolution dealing with the shipbuilding question.

They also telegraphed General Sir Arthur Currie that they have "passed a unanimous vote of confidence in your able and courageous leadership at the second battle of Ypres and throughout the campaign."

Col. Helson, cadet instructor, informed the meeting that the Central School Cadets had won the Campaigners' Shield in the cadet competition.

The shipbuilding resolution, which will be sent to Sir Robert Borden and Sir Henry Drayton, as well as to Dr. Tolmie, says:

"Whereas, the Harbor Marine Shipbuilding Association, of Victoria, has been, and is, materially helping in the civil re-establishment of our returned men;

"And whereas, the said association has made it its special duty to give employment to those of our returned citizens who are partially disabled;

"And whereas, the Harbor Marine was started on the distinct understanding that contracts for four steel ships would be given to the yard by the Dominion Government;

"And whereas, we, the British Campaigners deeply appreciate the great work that our sitting member, the Hon. Dr. Tolmie, has done,

KIDDIES PLAY WITH DEADLY CENTIPEDES

Alligators Prefer Men to Be Juicy and Tender, Carveth Wells Says

True man-eating and child-playing tiger stories, tales of enormous pythons, cobras and other reptiles which infest houses and trees, of flying lizards, creeping centipedes and alligators that with their tails strike men off boats and store them in the warm mud at the bottom of the river for three weeks before eating so that they will become juicy, tender and well-flavored, were told by Carveth Wells, explorer of the Malay jungles, in his lecture at the High School last night.

Mr. Wells, who has been in Victoria for the last two weeks, leaves to-day to take up his Chautauqua lecture tour.

During the evening he showed how the Malay negro dwarfs, living without clothes or civilization in the jungles and with an intelligence on a par with that of a chimpanzee, have made fire for centuries without flint or matches. It is done by compressed air in a small cylinder of buffalo horn fitted with a piston or plunger.

Mr. Wells told how Malay children play with the deadly centipede. They grab the creeper in their fist, knock off his head and poisonous tail and then let the thing wiggle.

The way wild elephants are caught and tamed by their own brothers already in captivity and civilized, was told by story and slides thrown on the screen. A slide of a wild man-eating tiger in his native lair of a rock cave was displayed. This was taken by a telephotographic lens as camera men are not keen on taking close-ups of tigers amid their caves.

Tapioca and commercial sago are made in Malay from the tuberous roots of the tapioca plant which takes fifteen months to grow. The roots are washed off and the milk crushed into vats. The floury mass at one stage of production is kneaded by a score of men who jump into it without any clothes on. It is then raised to the ceiling in large sacks, and allowed to seep through to the floor, drop by drop. The large drops are exported as tapioca and the small ones as sago.

Mimosa Plant Very Wise. The sensitive mimosa plant folds its leaves, curls its branches and then lies down on the ground on the approach of anybody. As soon as the alarm is given it raises and opens its leaves to the air. Mr. Wells said he has seen whole acres of this plant lie down on the approach of buffalo, which wanted to eat it.

"It is very unhealthy, but there is a great deal of money made in the Malay," said Mr. Wells. "Fortunes in tin and rubber are made there every year."

Mr. Wells told how natives use trained monkeys to go up the trees and gather coconuts for them. He showed samples of Malay weapons and with native robes demonstrated how the people of the country dress.

SAYS RETAILERS MADE PARTY "GOAT"

Protest, Convictions Under Pure Food Laws as Suffering For Sins of Others

The action of the pure food laws, under which the retailer is punished for the sins of the manufacturer, came in for extended discussion at a meeting of the Retail Section of the Board of Trade held last night.

A. Brockhurst broached the subject with an explanation of how the samples were taken by the Government analyst, who took unopened tins of foods and examined them, often to the conviction of the retailer for selling goods that were slightly over or under Government specifications.

J. L. Beckwith told a story of the food law in operation some time ago as regards the salmon pack. "Some of those in officialdom at Ottawa incorporate ideas that are utterly impracticable," he stated. "I remember when the order came out that salmon tins had to carry a label showing the weight of the contents irrespective of the liquid. Now everybody knew that when the salmon was packed there was no liquid, yet that regulation was rigidly enforced for eight months in spite of the laughter and tears of the united packers of the entire Dominion."

Mr. Brockhurst referred to the recent convictions under the food laws of the grocers for impure baking powder, manufactured in the East. Another mentioned the fact that hotelkeepers were fined for selling overproof beer, the product of a local manufacturer that was not supposed, and like cases in all of which the retailer was made the "goat" for the sins of commission and omission of the manufacturer. The matter was referred to the Council of the Board of Trade for settlement.

AMENDED TAXATION CAUSES CONFUSION

Retail Merchants Not Decided How to Collect

At a meeting of the Retail section of the Board of Trade last night, the luxury tax received some discussion. It was stated by H. S. Stevenson, who opened the subject, that there was considerable confusion prevalent amongst the local retailers and wholesalers as to whether the original budget or the amended tax was now operative.

Mr. Spence stated that he had been informed at the customs office only yesterday that the original budget was still the one to work upon, while others had been told that the notification of the amended sections appearing in the press were official, and to be taken note of for all collections under the new regime.

The confusion prevailing at present is said to be acute, and there was no definite ruling given on the matter in the assembly last night. Manufacturers entered a protest against the idea of the separate invoice for the collection of the two per cent, which they claim is entailing immense additional book-keeping on the part of all.

The difference between the original and amended sections of the luxury tax budget is working to the gain of some, while others would save if the condition were reversed, it was stated.

PLANS EXPEDITION IN THE OLYMPICS

Mountains Across Strait Are to Be Explored by Washington Alpinists

Mountaineering in the Olympics offers attractions which might well test the experienced alpinist. Although Victorians see the great range across the Strait, no great distance as the crow flies, towering in majesty along the edge of the Washington shore, few know them personally except those who have stayed in the hot springs district. Very little has been done of an exploratory character in the various groups which go to make up the range, and therefore it is with considerable interest that a mountaineering party's progress will be watched at the end of next month. It is expected that the party will leave Seattle about July 31, and make the endeavor.

Club Makes Arrangements
To lead a large party a hundred miles across such country is no small undertaking, say the Mountaineers. Every detail is carefully planned long beforehand by the outgoing committee, and every bit of the trail gone over. Cooks are employed, and pack-horses engaged to transport all commissary supplies as well as the thirty pounds of personal equipment allowed each member of the party. The trip is fairly strenuous and the Mountaineers say should be undertaken only by persons who enjoy camping and tramping, eating from a tin plate and sleeping under a canvas roof.

Ten Camps Planned
Ten camps will be made in all, the elevation being mostly between 3,000 and 4,000 feet. The majority of the camps will be one-night stands, but in the Dosewallips Basin the party will spend three whole days.

This will be the third visit of the Mountaineers' Club to the Olympics, the previous trips being in 1907 and 1913. However, the Peninsula this year is to be entered from a new angle, so that the first week will be spent in entirely new country. Leaving Brinnon, on Hood Canal, July 31, the party will proceed up the Dosewallips River to the Dosewallips Basin, which has approximately the same elevation as Paradise Valley on Mount Rainier. The main attraction at this camp will be the climb of Mount Anderson, 7,500 feet, the highest peak in the Anderson range.

Mount Olympus
Mount Olympus—invisible from Seattle—is but 8,200 feet in altitude, but its inaccessibility, its snowfields and deeply crevassed glaciers are said to make it well worth climbing, the more so as the mountain is famed for its treacherous disposition, and more than once has routed ambitious climbers who deemed lucky blizzards that sent them scampering with all the speed that caution allows back to the shelter of camp. So, indeed, is a lucky climber who is able to leave his signature in the brass record cylinder on the rocky tip of Mount Olympus.

A Wonderful Glissade
The "Big Climb" completed, the Mountaineers will proceed to camp at Low Divide. Here Lake Martha and Lake Margaret will provide good swimming for those who don't care for the climb of Mount Christie, 7,700 feet. Those who miss the swimming will be compensated by a glorious coast, or glissade, down the crest of the divide which separates the Quets and Quinault Valleys. This high-line trail will give unexcelled panoramas of the surrounding country, and completes the chain of trails from Hood Canal to the Pacific Ocean.

To the Sea
Lake Quinault is to be reached August 13, and from this point the party will be carried in Indian canoes thirty-five miles to Tahola, an Indian village on the Pacific. This is the most talked of part of the trip. There are rapids on the way, wild enough to be exciting, log jams where the outfit must be portaged, and mammoth trees which are such that the canoes can barely squeeze.

RAISING OF SHEEP.
In introducing the estimates for his department to the House of Commons the Hon. Dr. Tolme, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, pointed to the fact that in Australia there are no fewer than 80,000,000 sheep, in the United States, 40,000,000, in Great Britain 27,000,000, and in Canada only 3,500,000. As shown in The Agricultural Gazette of Canada for May efforts are being made in all the provinces to remedy this state of things. That is to say, encouragement is being given to the raising of sheep in a variety of ways—by pure-bred rams being distributed or sold on easy terms, by the holding of competitions, at which generous prizes are given for the best ewes and for the best flocks, by obtaining the highest price for wool through the Departments, and through the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers' Association, by organizing sheep sales, and, as in Ontario in particular, by placing flocks on a share basis. Amended legislation has also been passed for the protection of sheep from dogs. As a sample of the co-operative work that is being performed it might be mentioned that in Saskatchewan in the last four years the amount of wool produced by the co-operative branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture increased from 172 consignments, weighing 52,404 pounds, for which the average price realized was 17 1/2 cents, to 216 consignments, weighing 294,065 pounds, at an average price of 61 1/2 cents per pound. The articles in The Gazette would imply that what has been done in Saskatchewan is also being accomplished in the other Provinces of the Dominion.

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, stinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women become run-down and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Every task set must be tackled, worked at fairly, until done. But if all the lines you run on only lead you to Nowhere. And if your constant failures fill your soul with dull despair. If you see no earthly chance that circumstances will improve. You must run on other lines, and you must get out of that groove.

BRITAIN RECOVERS

Imports Increase, but Exports Grow More Rapidly.

In spite of the fact that Great Britain's imports during March totalled £177,000,000, which was an increase of £6,000,000 over the preceding month and included £58,000,000 worth of raw cotton, its excess of imports over exports for the month dropped sharply to a new low figure amounting to only £28,000,000. In February the United Kingdom's unfavorable trade balance was more than double this or nearly £62,000,000.

000,000 during the month preceding. The March exports, moreover, included a high percentage—namely, £122,000,000 worth—of strictly British goods, indicating the extent of the revival in British industries. Re-exports for the month amounted to £27,000,000 which also is a heavy increase over previous months and is equally significant of the progress being made by the United Kingdom in its efforts to recover its old-time supremacy as a market place for the world.

The fact that England is contriving, and thus far with quite conspicuous success, to correct its heavy adverse trade balance without reducing its imports is coming to be looked upon in this country as a particularly satisfactory revelation of British recuperative powers. Were the United Kingdom to be forced by circumstances—and it was feared in many quarters not so long ago that such would be the case—to curtail its imports substantially, the chances of recovering its pre-war trade and eventually working its

URGES EVERYBODY TO GET ON VOTERS' LIST

Those Who Do Not Cannot Vote at General Election If Held This Year

In the event of a provincial general election before the end of the present year it will be impossible for any qualified elector to vote unless he or she takes the precaution to register his or her name on or before July 15 next.

In making this fact perfectly clear to The Times representative this morning, Premier Oliver did not suggest that his warning had any specific relation to the Government's intentions in connection with an appeal to the electorate. It was merely to emphasize the necessity devolving upon every qualified voter to get on the new list if he or she is desirous of exercising the franchise on the occasion of the submission of the prohibition plebiscite in October.

The Premier regards the referendum as just as important a matter to the people of this Province as a general election; on that account he urges the voter to register while there is time and assist the Government in obtaining a really full registration.

Inclusion on a previous list is useless. All previous lists have been cancelled.

MR. NATION RESIGNS

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the British Columbia Patriotic Fund held in the Premier's office this morning the resignation of P. Nation, as honorary treasurer, was accepted with regrets and Miss Jessie C. Brown, the present secretary, was appointed to the position made vacant. There were present, besides Mr. Oliver, Sir Frank Barnard, Mr. Nation and Miss Brown.

WATER, PEOPLE, MONEY TO MAKE SAANICH GREAT

These and Small Farms Will Insure Future of Peninsula, Says Expert

Small farms, increased population, money at a low rate of interest and water for irrigation purposes—these factors will build up the great farming industry upon the Saanich Peninsula.

That was the keynote of a most interesting address delivered before the Board of Trade luncheon to-day at the Dominion Hotel by Professor Stevenson, Director of the Experimental Station at Basan Bay, who prophesied a splendid future for the southern end of Vancouver Island.

Size of Farms. Mr. Stevenson declared, in commenting that the farms of Saanich Peninsula would decrease in size in years to come until, in ten years, few would exceed twenty acres. What was most vitally needed for the development of the Peninsula was men, white men preferably of the Anglo-Saxon birth. Finally, money at a low rate of interest was required to render land producing in the shortest possible time. Some co-operative system, like that in vogue on the prairie, whereby the money could be secured with ease was necessary. Thirdly, the Peninsula needed water, though Mr. Stevenson admitted that Saanich could not expect Victoria to extend its water system under present conditions, and considering the present population of Saanich.

Ownership of Lake. "Saanich owns 'Elk Lake,' he asserted, "though the city may own the land about it. Millions of gallons of water are going to waste every day there that should be turned back on this land. People will come if we get water. If the coming of water is delayed, then development will be delayed proportionately.

Future Assured. There was placed in Canada which enjoyed the climate of Saanich, he affirmed, and as a result its future was assured. He felt, too, that Saanich could produce $2,000,000 per annum more than the rest of the island. "I have been very conservative in this estimate, and I would not be surprised if the increase would be $5,000,000," he declared. "But we must have people and we must get together and have cheap money.

"There is no doubt about the market—we have all the prairies and British Columbia. Saanich has been producing necessities—it should produce luxuries which will bring high prices and enable us to capitalize our land at $800 or $1,000 an acre. Business management is the most important feature of agriculture. If it were generally put into effect Saanich would develop marvellously.

"Saanich should not attempt to

HOSPITAL BOARD MAKES REPORT

Nurses' Eight-Hour Shift Gives Good Results at Duncan

A gratifying report of the board of the King's Daughters Hospital at Duncan was the feature of this morning's session of the nineteenth Provincial Convention in St. Andrew's Church. It was announced that Mrs. Mathieson would take over the duties of matron on July 1.

Miss Wilson, of Cowichan, spoke on the excellent work being done at the hospital and said that a medical inspector had found the conditions there excellent.

The eight-hour shift was working excellently, Miss Wilson said, though the nurses are liable to be called upon at any time for critical cases or operations. The training school is also doing good work, and the local doctors give lectures.

Mrs. Currie gave the report for Surrey District which now has three live and energetic circles. The circles much appreciated the yearly visit of the Provincial President, said Mrs. Currie.

A tribute to Mrs. Christmas, of Vancouver, literary secretary, was paid at the meeting.

Luncheon was served yesterday and to-day at the Hotel Douglas where the tables were prettily arranged in the King's Daughters parlour. The drive yesterday afternoon was greatly enjoyed, and the grounds at Government House were seen, the Lieutenant-Governor himself taking the delegates round the gardens.

NORMAN YARROW IS APPOINTED TO BOARD

Lieut.-Governor Prior has completed the selection of the three civilian members to be appointed to the B. C. Advisory Committee of the Air Board. It is announced to-day, with the name of Norman A. Yarrow. The other two names selected previously are H. O. Bell-irving and F. W. Peters. All that remains now to complete the committee of seven is the appointment from applicants for commissions in the Air Force under the new regulations of four members with former service in the Royal Air Force. When completed the committee will meet to elect its own chairman and establish a programme of work. The four remaining members will be chosen for representation in Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster. It is announced

REFUSE MOVE FOR RECONCILIATION

Effort to Bring City and Saanich Officials Together Fails

After an animated debate last evening the Saanich Council refused to seek an entente with the City Council, following the breaking off of relations with regard to the Elk Lake watershed.

Councillors Henderson and Dooley stoutly defended a policy of making peace, while Reeve Watson and Councillor Clark fought equally against a settlement.

In the end nothing was done, the Reeve declaring that an apology must precede any negotiations.

The Reeve remarked: Certain things which have happened just recently have only confirmed my opinion.

The Problem.
Councillor Dooley suggested a public statement of Saanich's case in the press, when Clerk Cowper raised the question as to how the cheques were to be issued long overdue in the Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee.

Councillor Henderson said the two councils had a great deal of business to transact together, water, sewers and similar questions in the near future. "We cannot afford to stand apart for ever," said the councillor, "even for the balance of this year." He declared the city aldermen were not willing to bear any ill will, and would welcome a reconciliation.

Reeve Watson did not think Saanich could take any steps after the insulting report of the Victoria members of the committee regarding Elk Lake.

Councillor Dooley still maintained that a public statement would be beneficial in clearing the air, which Councillor Clark was against the Saanich members doing anything until the city people showed a better disposition.

Clerk Cowper said that Alderman Todd had asked for a statement of the sums owing to the fund by the city.

Reeve Watson declared that it was all very well to talk of neighborliness, but the city did not show any disposition to come half way.

Councillor Henderson observed the general business between the two municipalities forced Saanich to do business with the city, whether they liked it or not.

Their Common Duty.
Councillor Clark contended that the duty of the two councils was to drive a hard bargain. If anything was done he was against any apologies being tendered, but when had the city ever met them sympathetically?

Councillor Henderson: No apologies are necessary. Let us start afresh.

Councillor Dooley: Can you point out any connection in which the city has put it over Saanich?

Councillor Henderson: All of you failed to turn up at the Elk Lake

SELECTS ARCHITECT FOR HEALTH CENTRE

Saanich Council Gives Work to Experienced Returned Officer

Major Spurgin, in conjunction with W. G. Rice, was appointed by the Saanich Council last evening as architect for the Saanich Health Centre, the former having been architect for the Soldiers' Housing Scheme, the latter having carried out the Municipal Hall extensions. Mr. Rice submitted to the committee the tentative plans of the health centre upon which the final design had been adopted.

There was one other applicant. The successful architects are both returned officers with practical experience of construction in Saanich. It was stated that Major Spurgin has retired from a supervisory capacity with the Co-operative Contract Company.

Major Spurgin will be held responsible for the work, the council decided.

A BENEIGHTED HEATHEN.

An American teacher undertook the task of convincing an indolent native son of the Philippines that it was his duty to get out and hustle.

"But why should I work?" inquired the guileless Filipino.

"In order to make money," declared the thrifty teacher.

"But what do I want with money?" persisted the brown brother.

"Why, when you get plenty of money you will be independent and will not have to work any more," replied the teacher.

"I don't have to work now," said the native—and the teacher gave it up in disgust.—Jewel (Kan.) Republican.

DEFER ACTION ON MOTOR BUS SERVICES

Part of the Sayward Estate Will Be Subdivided

Pending the Saanich Council passing a by-law with regard to jitney and bus regulations, which will probably be a preliminary to the municipalization of the services in Saanich, Councillor Dooley brought up the question of the Council approving a schedule of services at the meeting last evening.

While favoring the proposal, the Council decided not to press the matter in the immediate future, hoping that the advertised schedules would be respected without enforcement by by-law. These schedules of the transportation companies, the Council held, should be respected for the convenience of passengers.

New Sub-Division.
The Council approved a sub-division plan for a division into about five acre blocks for a 200-acre estate, part of the Sayward property, on the East Road, overlooking Elk Lake, and adjoining the road from the East Road to the Cordova Bay Road. The district is stated to be ideal for small holdings. The Council insisted on a 66-foot roadway through the property instead of the 40-foot roadway, which the promoters desired. This latter decision was in accordance with the municipal by-law.

Miscellaneous.
Mount Newton Cross Road is to be improved at a cost of $150, the Council decided.

A municipal official, preferably the assessor, will act as trustee in securing the land for re-sale to owners of the old right-of-way of the Victoria and Sidney Railway, between Keating and Stelly's Cross Roads.

The Council decided to amend the Bound By-Law to make it more stringent to prevent cattle pasturing on street lands.

It was stated that much danger exist from the habit of tethering animals on streets where the chains are allowed to reach over the sidewalk, many people having fallen in the dark thereby.

REPUDIATES CHECK ON SCHOOL BOARD

Saanich Council Deprecates Attitude of Parent-Teachers' Associations

"People are led into an unsatisfactory understanding of our attitude to the schools," said Councillor Henderson in the Saanich Council last evening when Reeve Watson drew attention to some remarks which had been made at the McKenzie Avenue School Parent-Teachers' Association meeting Tuesday evening. "We are blamed for interference in the private conduct of the schools for that which is not our fault at all," said Mr. Henderson. "We did not secure any reduction of the ordinary school estimates, and I do not see what else we can do."

Councillor Pim remarked that the School Board did not try to do anything to relieve lack of accommodation.

Clerk Cowper said the trustees were looking into the question of temporary buildings.

The Reeve passed on to the next business. No resolution was passed on the matter.

NEWS WAS SURPRISE

Albert Rylands Did Not Know He Was Suing Mr. Boulton in Court Until He Saw It in Newspaper.

How a man did not know that he was suing another for damages to his automobile until the Victoria Daily Times announced that he was, was told before Judge Lammiman today by Albert Rylands.

The Rylands car was smashed into at Pandora and Quadra Streets one night last November when it was dark and the street was wet, by one of the Boulton rent cars. Harold Beckwith is suing on behalf of Mr. Rylands.

On cross examination by John R. Green for Mr. Boulton, Mr. Rylands swore that although the action was commenced on February 18, he knew nothing about it until April 1.

"A fireman came up to me and told me that he saw I was suing Boulton," Mr. Rylands swore. "So I went and ten minutes later had a look at the Times of that night and sure enough my name was in the County Court list. A month before Mr. Boulton had told me that he heard that I was suing him and that was the first I knew that I was suing Boulton."

Oswald Barton, John Douglas Anderson, of 2325 Fifth Street, who was in the Rylands car, and Patrol Wagon Constable Henry Jones gave evidence as to the details of the collision.

The case is going on this afternoon.

GARDEN FETE AT ST. AIDAN'S

Fancy Fair Successfully Held in Grounds of the Manse.

A very successful fancy fair and sale of work was held yesterday evening in the grounds of the manse of St. Aidan's Church. There was a fine display of goods, produce and articles of various description, and the attendance was highly gratifying.

Business was brisk at the various stalls and much energy was shown by the ladies in disposing of low goods under their charge. The stallholders were: Fruit, flowers and vegetables, Misses Effie Lindsay and Lily Merritt; home cookery, Mrs. Crowther and Miss Nellie Knight; cut flowers, Mrs. White and Miss Hill; children's stall, Mrs. Clark; ice cream, Mrs. Potter and Miss Hunter; fancy goods, Mrs. F.

W. H. Burgess, manager of the White Water mine, at Nelson, reports that 25 men are working on the property on breaking ore and on development work. This includes leasing contractors. The best developments, he says, are at the No. 7 level, and present exploration is at bottom No. 14 level.

There are about 400,000 motor cars and trucks in Canada. The motor car is a great utility. It gives opportunity to many thousands of people—men, women and children—to get out into the country, to have recreation and pleasure that otherwise would be difficult for them to obtain. It is a great agency in the promotion of good roads. It is a great agency, too, in the promotion of good health. Anything that restricts its use is of public concern.

Does the waste of gasoline concern the person who does not own a car, might be asked. Let us see.

There are thousands of motor trucks. They do a great work in the transportation of various commodities. If the price of gasoline advances the cost of transporting goods will be increased. You will have to pay it in the higher prices you pay for meat, for vegetables, for milk, for eggs, for moving your household goods, for anything and everything you eat or use. Directly or indirectly it will be in the bill the general public has to pay.

One gallon of gasoline will provide the energy to move a one ton truck 15 miles, or, to put it another way, it will move 15 tons of freight one mile. If the users of automobiles would save the one-half gallon they now waste each day it would equal 109,500,000 ton miles of haulage.

It is estimated that more than 30,000 tractors will be used this year in Canada. All of these require gasoline or other refined oil fuel. Without these tractors, Canada could not plant her crops, let alone harvest and thresh them.

It has been figured that the 7,300,000 gallons of gasoline wasted per year in Canada is sufficient to plant, harvest and thresh 15,500,000 bushels of wheat. Think what it would mean to you, to Canada, and to the world if the production of Canada's food crops were curtailed.

There is a shortage of gasoline. In the last few years the demand for crude petroleum, practically all of which must be imported for the manufacture of gasoline in Canada, has increased more than 650 per cent. In a like period, production has increased only 150 per cent. A shortage of crude and high prices necessarily follow. Pennsylvania crude is to-day costing $6.10 and Oklahoma crude $3.60 per barrel at the wells, and these prices must be paid in American funds which adds another 10 per cent. These things render gasoline scarce and make it very high in cost.

Economy in gasoline means more than the general public appreciates. More gasoline is being used to-day than is being produced. That means that reserve stocks are being drawn upon. Curtailment of waste is imperative. It rests with users of gasoline to do voluntarily what otherwise they inevitably will be forced to do.

Save Gasoline.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

Jennings and Miss Brusky. Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Lister, Miss Phyllis Jennings were also busy in their different departments. There were several side shows, the hat trimming contest being won by Mr. White for the men and Master H. Beaumont for the boys. The shooting gallery and Aunt Sally departments were under the charge of Mr. Marchant and F. Lister and were a source of great attraction. The fair was organized by the Ladies' Auxiliary and they are highly delighted with the result of their efforts, as they will be able to add about $100 to the reduction of the debt on the manse which is rapidly disappearing.

RELIEF WILL AID WESTERN ASIA AS WELL AS EUROPE

The organization of the Canadian Jewish Relief Committee here is prosecuting a vigorous campaign from its offices on Government Street for relief in Eastern Europe and Western Asia. S. H. Ansell, campaign manager, says that prior to September 1, 1919, a sum of $1,181,574 was spent in the work of relief in Asiatic Turkey and the money was supplied by the Jews alone. Since that time this great work of relief has been taken up in a non-sectarian way and many millions of dollars have been collected on this continent and in Great Britain with the result that it has been possible to do much more in the way of relief not only in Syria and Turkey, but also in all the Eastern countries where there is great suffering.

Mr. Ansell points out that the organization is now doing more than ever before to alleviate suffering in Syria and Turkey. "Our commission there," he says, "has increased twenty fold."

BELL AT BEAVERDELL.

Duncan McIntosh, joint owner of the Bell mine at Beaverdell, is visiting Nelson. He states the Bell, which has been a steady producer for several years, is in good shape, and ore shipments are only held up for lack of labor. However, four men are working on a breaking ore averaging 175 ounces of silver, 8 per cent lead, and about 8 per cent zinc.

About 1,100 feet of driving and crosscutting has been done and seven good leads are exposed, three of which are now being worked.

WHITE WATER WINE.

W. H. Burgess, manager of the White Water mine, at Nelson, reports that 25 men are working on the property on breaking ore and on development work. This includes leasing contractors. The best developments, he says, are at the No. 7 level, and present exploration is at bottom No. 14 level.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

How the New Republic of Europe is Making Out; Only 3.38 Per Cent of the Whole is Not Productive.

Since the establishment of the Czechoslovak Republic on October 28, 1918, the progress of the Czechs and Slovaks, who then realized their long-cherished ambition to be regarded as a distinct people, has been watched with considerable interest. Living in a compact mass in Bohemia, Moravia, Austrian Silesia and Slovakia, their country is just a trifle larger than the state of Pennsylvania and as a whole rather mountainous, except that the Danube plain, which is richly endowed with forests. To be exact, this new Republic has an area of about 60,000 square miles, extending from the Bohemian city of Presburg on the south, and the upper Tisza on the east, its provisional boundaries are the present northern frontier of Hungary, the western frontier of the Danube, as far as the Danube, the Danube, as far as the outlet of the Elpel, the course of the Elpel as far as the Rimassombat, a line from the Rimassombat to the mouth of the Ugr River, the stream that empties as far as the Uzok heights. Besides Czechoslovakia, its population of nearly 13,000,000 includes many German, Magyar, Polish and Ruthenians. The principal cities are Prague, Brunn, Pilsen, Presburg, Burweis, Kladno and Olmutz.

Of its total area 50.47 per cent is devoted to field crops, 28.01 per cent to forests, 17.14 per cent to meadows, gardens and ponds; only 3.38 per cent is unproductive. In 1919, 99.9 per cent of the total population of Bohemia was employed in agriculture, in which great progress has been made during the last fifty years. The lands along the great rivers Labe, Vltava, Morava and Dyje are said to be among the most productive in Central Europe. Wheat, oats, rye and barley are the chief grain crops. The potato, which forms the staple food of the people, is extensively grown. The cultivation of the sugar beet has become of great importance, and previous to 1914 increased attention was being given to flax and hemp. For many years flax was so plentiful that they constituted an article of export in normal years the value of the annual harvest in Bohemia was estimated at 1,250,000,000 crowns ($250,000,000 normal exchange). In 1919, the chief crops were: 17,753,660 bushels of wheat, 39,965,715 bushels of rye, 67,508,750 bushels of oats, 32,431,468 bushels of barley, 137,800,000 pounds of vegetables, 129,316,000 bushels of potatoes, 1,939,300 tons of hay and 4,477,440 tons of sugar beets. The yield of stone fruit during the same year was 138,887 tons and all other fruits 47,858 tons. In 1914, Bohemia produced 25,900,000 pounds of hops. Although not so important as agriculture, the rearing of sheep, horses and cattle, and poultry and bee farming were extensively carried on. The forest has left the country practically bare of animal life. Forests occupy 3,769,067 acres in Bohemia, 532,577 acres in Moravia and 455,977 acres in Austria.

The minerals found include coal, lignite, iron, graphite, gold, silver, radium, lead, zinc, marble, granite, sandstone, limestone, white quartz and various kinds of clay suitable for the production of brick, tile, pottery and porcelain. In 1913, the last year for which figures could be obtained, the value of the mining products in Bohemia was $35,616,774 and its smelting-products $7,230,330. In Silesia the annual output of ores and refined metals is valued at $1,844,400 and in Austria $37,700. Bohemia produced in the same year gold to the value of $53,200, silver $1,200 and radium $11,400.

In practically all parts of the country manufacturing establishments are well developed. In proportion to population, Bohemia was more largely engaged in manufacturing than any other part of Austria-Hungary, having in 1914, 5,000 factories, employing 440,000 persons. In and near the city of Prague were established the Czechs a delicate artistic sense. These industries are capable of considerable development. The same can also be said of hand-made lace, the making of which is carried on in the villages as a household industry. According to the latest figures obtainable there are 108 sugar refineries in Bohemia, 48 in Moravia and 5 in Silesia. Of the 671 breweries in the country, 551 are in Bohemia, 93 in Moravia and 27 in Austria. In 1911, there were 350 distilleries in Bohemia. By Lisa Kahn, in "The World's Markets" published by R. G. Dun & Co.

WHAT THE CLUBS ARE DOING

Westminster's Kiwanians. "Our neighbors to the South from a Canadian viewpoint," was the subject of a very interesting address delivered by W. R. Dunlop, of Vancouver, to the New Westminster Kiwanis Club at the weekly luncheon this week. Mr. Dunlop, who is well known in literary circles both in Vancouver and this city, having given lectures on Shakespeare on several occasions, touched upon his observations made during a visit to California last Summer, some of his discoveries being decidedly new and placing before them American aspects of life at a different angle than is usually the case. Dr. Dunlop has little use for the slang that characterizes the American which has spread to this side of the international boundary line through the press and the radio. He thought the schools and colleges should take a decided stand upon this and eliminate it if possible. He pointed out in San Francisco harbor which he thought might well be followed in British Columbia was the nomenclature of the coast

Liquid or Plaster

They end corns now in this scientific way

People who know—millions of them—now end all corns in this way.

They apply Blue-jay, either in liquid or in plaster form. It means but a touch and takes but a jiffy.

The corn pain stops. Then the Blue-jay gently undrains the corn so it loosens and comes out.

The modern way
Blue-jay was invented by a chemist who studied corns.

It is made by a laboratory of world-wide repute.

Old-time treatments were harsh and inefficient. Blue-jay is gentle, quick and sure.

Now all corns are needless. All these pains can be avoided. To let corns remain while you are and pad them is folly.

You can stop a corn ache the moment it appears. You can end a corn completely before it can develop.

Blue-jay has proved these facts to millions. It will prove them to you—and tonight—if you let it.

Quit the old methods of dealing with corns and see what this new way means. Your druggist sells Blue-jay.

ferries and steamers. He instanced how much better the North Vancouver ferries would appear if given Indian names instead of the numerical names now used. On the Oakland ferry system one sees such latinized names as Piedmont or Alameda emblazoned over their paddle boxes.

DO YOU WANT TO GET THIN?
Mr. Banting, a London upholsterer, who introduced a famous system of weight-reducing more than fifty years ago, found that the exercise he imposed upon himself of rowing a heavy flat-bottomed boat deflated the end he had in view because it gave him such a sharp appetite that he absolutely could not help gratifying it!

He rowed on the river, and the fine fresh air naturally made him hungry. All outdoor exercises, if they agree with one, tend to make one hungry—and well-gratified, healthy hunger does not tend to reduce weight.

If you are getting too heavy, says a writer, the best course to pursue is to go in for physical exercise at a gymnasium, but—let me give a very necessary caution. First consider your age. I have known a great deal of serious mischief done to themselves by middle-aged men and women who—without any kind of medical advice—have gone in for violent exercises. They have never considered that in middle-age stoutness is often accompanied by a certain amount of weakness of the heart. A heart which, with ordinary care, might last over three score years and ten may fall if subjected to a strain too great for its muscle tissue and its valves to bear. Even young hearts are often damaged by over-exercise—how much greater the risk when hearts have lost the elasticity of youth.

There is a safe exercise everyone can try—it is of great value for weight-reduction. It is the exercise of early rising. Lying long in bed certainly tends to increase weight. If you are "putting on weight" too fast, get up at seven o'clock instead of nine or ten o'clock and take a sharp walk or skip for ten minutes or more before breakfast. You will find the result gratifying. Skipping regularly is a good weight-reducing exercise.—Tit-Bits.
