The resignation took place because it was felt that Matsucka's presence would be a hindrence to the progress of the Japanese-American negotiations. The Third Konoye Cabinet was formed about July 20. The primary reason for the formation of this Cabinet was to expedite the proposed negotiations with the United States. While discussing the proposal I had occasion to have frequent interviews with Un- since August 1941. He expressed himself as being most anxious to continue Japanese-American negotistions and emphasized the fact that Konoyo should be delegated with full discretionary powers to negotiate with Roosevelt in order to settle the matter squickly as possible. On Octon: r 11.-1941 I poid c visit to CK! at his residence and told him that a meeting was to be held on the following day, October 12, at Prince Tonoye's house in Ogikubo and I housed that a strong stand would be taken by the Newy to support Frince Konoye, The Army hed alre We army was already hepoloss to continue the negotications and OKA, at that time, stated that Frince to offere configuration of to continue the negotistions. Leter, the same evening, I called on Navy Minister OTKAWA at his official residence at which time the Nevy Minister elso stated that he wished to avoid an American-Jepanesa war and that it was his desir that the negotiations be continued by all merns. He stated however that the wavy in view of its position as a fighting unit couldn't officielly make a statement that it was opposed to war. That it was the duty of the Nevy to observe orders if it became necessary to fight and time decision whether to wage war or not was a diplomatic question which was appropriately within the progince of the Fremier for determination. To these observations I expressed the wish that it would be well for the Navy Minister et the OCTMUPO Conference on the 12th of October to support Fremier Konoye in his offorts to continue America-Japane se negotiations.

The next morning, Occor, 12, I received a telephone cell from OK/ who stated that the Nevy Minister at the Confor ce being held the same date, intended to state that the decision for war or peace would be left in the hands of the Frime Minister. To further stated that the Nevy could not decide whether a war should be waged or not, that it was a matter to be determined by the Frime Minister athough it was desired that the Frime Minister should definitely pursue his course in order that war might be avoided. It that time OK/A observed that the Konoye Cabinet should not resion at the it might continue with its of orts to being about a compromise and that if it did resign there was a grave danger of war brathin out. To ure time to do everything possible to prevent Prince Konoye from resigning. He, therefore, stated that for all practical purposes he hoped that the American Jan as a negotiations would be successfully concluded.

Thereafter when the Third Konoye Cabinet resigned OK' expressed himself as being gloomy over the paperts of the American-Japanese negotiations. For after the resignation of the Third Konoye Cabinet OK' kept Frince Konoye informed of the subsequent developments per ining to the American-Japanese negotiations through me. He stated that this was because Prince Konoye was on of the important senior statesmen and it was his intention to activate Frince Konoye to continue his efforts to ring about peace between the United States and Japan.

OKA also stated that he did not think open should under any circumstances engage in a full scale conflict with a powerful country like the United States. However, he frequently expressed himself as being a subordinate who would be compelled to follow orders what it or not they were in accord with his own personal views.
