

MOVABLE FEAST

NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS TRAIN—TRI-STATE UNIVERSITY ON WHEELS

By Walt, Le Noir Church
"A movable feast." Yes, that's just what it is—a wonderful feast of good things, for body, mind and soul.
"Where?" On the magnificent National Preparedness Train, the Tri-State University-on-Wheels, which will roll into Glendale-the-Beneficial on the Salt Lake Route rails Saturday morning, May 26th, and remain here all day and most of the night, dispensing its largesse of priceless information to Glendale's people and Glendale's many thousand guests—all as free as the wine-like Glendale air and the pure, cool, delicious Glendale water flowing down from "The Blue Glendalian Mountains," which hold our happy people in the hollow of their eternal hands.

Come and see, and wonder, and enjoy, be welcomed, realizing when you reluctantly go away, that "the half had never been told." Yes, it is intensified education, demonstrated at the psychological moment, in the focus of our national need with the world events of the twentieth century, on the pivotal point of universal history.

The good results of the intensified education, flowing from that Traveling Tri-State University, are incalculable; for, like the brook that becomes the river, they will flow on forever. The marvel is that so many useful, practical things can be taught to the receptive eye and ear, in so small a space, in so short a time; laying the foundation for a breadth of realized education which will make, in a large way, for the up-building of our great Golden West, and be by it passed on to the Continent, the Hemisphere and to the World.

All hail the Tri-State University-on-Wheels!
(Who pays for such magnificent beneficence? The Salt Lake Route.)
"Encyclopedia Californiana, compiled by Douglas White." That would be a truthful description of the National Preparedness Train that will roll into Glendale the Grateful, Saturday, May 26th, managed by Douglas White, General Industrial Agent of the Salt Lake Route, the popular name for the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad.

Not only that, but Professor Douglas White is one of the most interesting lecturers on that wheeled university, southwestward moving like the star of empire. Furthermore, Professor Douglas White, Salt Lake Route General Industrial Agent, University-on-Wheels Dean and Lecturer, is also one of the leading writers of the Arrowhead Magazine (with a guide book section), published at Los Angeles by the Industrial Department of the Salt Lake Route. Read his enticing description, in the May number, of that 101-mile drive on "the Rim of the World." With the delights of that spectacular drive in view, who could grieve over lost or delayed tours through Switzerland or elsewhere.

Then, should you take that wonderful auto drive, you will be keyed up to the point of due appreciation of the paramount Glendale drive through "The Blue Glendalian Mountains."

Yesterday the Secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, who is also one of the Joint Committee on Information, spent most of the day on the National Preparedness Train at Ontario. He was given every opportunity to get information. (He got it.)

He was entertained in the private car (and also in the dining car) of General Industrial Agent Douglas White, of the Salt Lake Route, and by Dr. A. V. Bryant, of California University, who has charge of the daily program of procedure, and who gave the G. C. C. secretary the program for Glendale, May 26th, all of which will appear in the News next Monday.

The children, their mothers, their sisters, their cousins and their aunts are to be particularly well provided for in that most interesting program, and one stunt, not pulled off anywhere else, is reserved for Glendale. "Why?" Because only Glendale has "the makings."

The following letter just sent to the secretary, G. C. C. by special messenger, speaks for its interesting self.
Walt, Le Noir Church,
Secy. and Genl. Manager
Glendale Chamber of Commerce,
Glendale, Calif.

Dear Mr. Church:
You have asked me to tell you something of the National Preparedness Train that our company is operating in co-operation with the Agricultural Colleges of California, Utah and Nevada.

In spite of the fact that I may be

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

ENTHUSIASTIC BASEBALL RALLY SENIORS ARE HARD AT WORK

In the most enthusiastic athletic rally ever held in Glendale High School the baseball team yesterday, succeeded in instigating more "pep" into the whole student body than has ever been done before. The purpose of all this excitement was to arouse interest in the big game with Santa Barbara this afternoon. The assembly began by having the entire audience sing several patriotic songs, after which the baseball team, which had been assembled on the stage, sang a verse of America.

Mr. Wight, the coach of the team, was the first speaker, and he told of the importance of to-day's game, of the necessity for a large number of rooters, and of the success of the team all through the season. The next speaker was Lehman Crandall, the captain of the team, who overcame his modesty just long enough to say seven words. Following him the rest of the members of the team each said a few words, each one showing, however, that he is a better ball player than a speaker.

The remainder of the time was spent by speeches on school spirit from various fans and fanettes throughout the audience. The order of the speakers was James McClusky, Dan Hagin, Guy Bennett, Mildred Wight, William Balthis, Miss Egger, Mr. Joy, Eloise Seaman and Mr. Howe. Several minutes were then devoted to some strenuous yelling under the leadership of Fred Dodge, after which the assembly broke up by singing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

As this is the time of year when the seniors are rather rushed for time, Mr. Howe has been "laying off" on his American history classes for the past week in consideration for the "poor, overworked" students. All week has been spent in reading the annual reports, and in this way the students are allowed to make up the time on back subjects.

GLENDALE CITY UNION

A very delightful meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday, Friday, afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Mottern, the Lutheran parsonage. About 25 members and friends were present. The program of the afternoon was two-fold: "Mothers' Meeting" and "Better Babies." This is a national movement. Mrs. J. T. Chandler, Superintendent of Mothers' meetings of the Local Union, had the exercises in charge and read a very helpful paper on the subject. Babies' Week or the Babies Saving Crusade started in 1914, originated by J. F. Edwards. It has spread to every state in the Union. The race marches forward on the feet of little children. Let us make a better Nation, as mothers. The first lesson is obedience, and the best way to teach that is carefulness in giving demands, giving no threats or bribes. Two very delightful numbers were given by the accomplished violinists, Ruth Palmer and Faith Tarling, and the pianist, Elizabeth Mottern.

Mrs. Mary Moore read from the Union Signal "The Don't of Babies."

Mrs. Kara Smart Root was then introduced and spoke very instructively and feelingly of "Better Mothers and Babies in Japan." She gave many touching stories of her work there and said that the W. C. T. U. missionary workers have been able to reach many out of the way places where other missionaries have never been. In describing one of her visits with her interpreter, the mother of one of our High School students, she told how the women all sat on the floor and how intent they were to hear her message, and how quickly they heeded her advice. Then one of them said: "Oh if this is true, and you Americans knew it, why, oh, why did you not come long ago and help us?" "That cry," said Mrs. Root, "rings always in my ears."

One very pleasing feature was the happy surprise to our dear president, Mrs. Smart, whose birthday has just been reached. Mrs. Moore, in a few well-chosen words, presented her with a very acceptable gift, a year's subscription to the Glendale Evening News, and the handsome city directory, by the members of her Union. Mrs. Smart responded in a very feeling manner.

A solo, "Little Pink Rose," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, was touchingly rendered by Elizabeth Mottern. Serving of delicious refreshments closed the very pleasant afternoon.
Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson leaves Sunday via San Francisco for Sacramento, where she will attend the state convention of the Parent-Teacher Associations as a delegate from the Glendale federation. She will visit friends both before and after the convention, returning home the following Sunday.

FEDERATION ELECTION

MRS. ARTHUR C. BROWN SUCCEEDS MRS. HUTCHINSON AS PRESIDENT

The annual meeting of the Glendale Federation, Parent-Teachers' association, was held Wednesday at the Intermediate school, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson presiding. Annual reports of officers and chairmen of committees were given and all indicated that the past year had been a prosperous one and that much good work had been done.

The playground committee will make no attempt to supervise public playgrounds this summer, feeling that they should do work in keeping with the spirit of the hour.

The domestic science committee will continue its work during the summer, working in connection with the food conservation committee of the county.

The president, in connection with her address, gave the federation a few words of advice for the future. She said the organization should demand the recognition it merits and then be sure to merit what it demands.

Officers to serve the coming year were elected. Mrs. Arthur C. Brown was chosen president; Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, vice-president; Mrs. Minette Sherman, recording secretary; Mrs. H. V. Henry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. S. Carmichael, treasurer; Mrs. John Robert White, parliamentarian; Mrs. Frank Ayars, historian; Mrs. Harry Duey, auditor.

The federation selected their retiring president, Mrs. Hutchinson, to represent them at the coming state convention at Sacramento, which convenes Tuesday, May 22, in the executive building of the state capitol. Governor Stephens will open the convention.

W. R. C. DELEGATES RETURN FROM LONG BEACH

The delegates of the Women's Relief Corps who attended the convention in Long Beach this past week, are again at home. The session closed Friday night, May 18th, 7:30. It was a grand and interesting convention throughout its entire sessions. The delegates were Mrs. W. M. Crawford, Mrs. Ella Watson, Mrs. Elizabeth Stafford, Mrs. Margaret Sanford, regularly elected. Imler, Department Inspector, N. P. Banks W. R. C. No. 67, and Mrs. Ada Atkinson, Corps President.

BURGER BACK TO GLENDALE

Friends of J. E. Burger of 311 East Fifth street will be pleased to know that he has returned to Glendale after selling his home in Council Bluffs, Iowa. The pulling power of Southern California climate, together with the advantage Glendale offers for a home, are the features which Mr. Burger prizes. We are glad that he is one of us again, and this time to remain. We wish him success and prosperity and feel sure that he will be one of Glendale's loyal citizens.

BARACAS ENTERTAIN

Among the many social affairs given in Glendale last night was the one given by the Baracas of the First M. E. Sunday School for the Senior Department of that school. The party was held at the home of Mr. Harry Franey, 308 South Kenwood. A program of music and readings was given, after which a delightful evening was spent in playing games and at a late hour refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Music was furnished during the serving of the refreshments by the orchestra of the First M. E. Sunday School.

IMPORTANT DECISION

MUHLEMAN & CRUMP ATTORNEYS FOR PLAINTIFFS IN FAR-REACHING CASE

Judge Shenk of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, California, on May 17 decided three cases that are far reaching in their importance to property holders dealing with contractors for the erection of buildings, where the contractors purchase the lots, paying partly in cash and partly by giving a second encumbrance on the property in payment of the lot, the second encumbrance being taken subject to a first mortgage, the money for which is to be used in the erection of buildings. Many contractors have been pursuing this method of obtaining lots upon which to erect buildings. Some contractors, after obtaining the lots under such conditions, hypothecated the first mortgage and refused to comply with the terms of their agreement and construct the buildings. The effect of Judge Shenk's decision is to set aside such mortgages where the evidence shows fraud or collusion, or lack of proper investigation on the part of the person purchasing the first mortgage.

The firm of Muhleman & Crump, of which Frank L. Muhleman of our city, is a member, were attorneys for plaintiffs.

P. E. O. LUNCHEON

Mrs. R. E. Chase entertained Friday at a one o'clock luncheon at her home, 438 South Adams street. Guests were all members of P. E. O. chapters and the decorations were in the colors of that order, yellow and white. Yellow and white roses were used, and the beautifully appointed luncheon table was centered with a bowl of exquisite yellow rose buds and yellow crocheted baskets added a pretty touch. Covers were laid for Mrs. A. L. Weaver and Mrs. Archie Parker of Chapter B. A., Mrs. John Logan and Mrs. M. W. Ludden of Chapter A. H. and Mrs. John Pirtle and the hostess of Chapter L. The guest of honor was Mrs. Marion Garvin of Los Angeles, the newly elected state president. P. E. O. matters pertaining to this section were discussed and a very enjoyable afternoon followed the luncheon.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Ida Harris, 136 Jackson St., was given a delightful birthday dinner Wednesday evening, May 16th, by Mrs. William Thompson, at whose home she now resides.

The beautifully arranged table was covered with flowers carried out in the national colors, red, white and blue. When all were seated, little Helen Harris, dressed in white, daintily carried in to her grandmother a huge birthday cake almost as large as the little girl herself. In the center of the cake was a good sized flag which was imprinted in the frosting, and on the edge of the cake were blue stars. Some fifty-odd candles surrounded this, making it truly a piece of art.

Those outside of the home who enjoyed the birthday with Mrs. Harris, were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kirby Harris, Jr., and Miss Helen Harris, the granddaughter.

LUNCHEON PARTY

Mrs. C. W. McFadden, 1511 Burchett, was the hostess at a very delightful luncheon party Friday, May 18. The table was laid for twelve. The table was rich in the national colors, being carried out in red carnations and the national flag. The guests who enjoyed the affair with Mrs. McFadden were the Mesdames Laurence Ellis and A. W. Tower, W. E. Evans, Chas. Temple, Warren Roberts, Walter Stamps, Chas. Evans, H. P. Goodwin, Albert Pearce, J. G. Hunchberger, Howard Martin, of Los Angeles. Fancy work and conversation brought to a close a happy occasion.

ROOSEVELT HAS DONE HIS DUTY

Every citizen of the United States, regardless of political views, has been proud that an ex-president with military attainments volunteered to serve his country in the present great conflict between the United States and Germany. No man could have done more at this time of urgent need of patriotic and capable leaders. There were thousands and thousands of men in all parts of the United States who were ready to honestly and valiantly join Roosevelt in taking part in this great conflict. These men will undoubtedly have an opportunity to show their patriotism under the leadership of other able men, but from their viewpoint they seem to be proud to offer their services under the leadership of a man in whom they had great confidence as a military leader.

As this is not a time for people to worry over differences of opinion, all who favored Roosevelt being allowed to lead United States volunteers in France against Germany, will humbly submit to the will of the president of the United States, who has thought it best not to encourage such a movement. There are always more ways of solving great questions than one, and as President Wilson is now at the head of the Nation, it is only just and right to allow him to outline the military plans, as he will be held responsible in the end for all mistakes and of course is deserving of getting the credit of all successes.

A SWEET NAME

"My missus is the best of wives,"
Said foolish Mr. Bunny.
"The doctor says she has the hives
And so I call her 'Honey'."

"Oh, Dr. Thirdly," said old Mrs. Gusher after church "I enjoyed your sermon so much. It was simply grandiloquent."

NO SELFISHNESS

Governors seem to ask very little for themselves. Governor Miller of Delaware urges that the executive be given power to remove from office certain officials appointed by it; Governor Philipp of Wisconsin proposes the extension of the governor's term from two years to four; Governors Gunter of Colorado and McCall of Massachusetts recommend the building of an executive mansion, and Governor Byrne of South Dakota modestly suggests that the executive be empowered with sufficient authority to enable it to perform its duty effectively. But a few of them give the lawmakers a left-handed compliment. Governor Manning of South Carolina recommends that session be biennial instead of annual, and Governor Kendrick of Wyoming, that the number of members in each branch of the Legislature be reduced. No governor urges a lengthening of the legislative term! Two advocate far more radical measures than any of these. Governors Norbeck of South Dakota and Lister of Washington follow previous governors of Arizona, Kansas and Washington in recommending a one-chamber Legislature. Governor Lister would have it consist of twenty-five from each Congressional district. Dissatisfaction with government is further recognized in recommendations for fewer and less expensive elections. Governor Frazier of North Dakota proposes that the Legislature follow up the victory of the Non-Partisan League in November by providing a non-partisan ballot for all State and county offices, a recommendation made also by Lister of Washington.

INEFFECTUAL PRAYERS

Two old Scotch ladies were talking about the recent British successes. Said one: "Is it no wonderfu' that the British are aye victorious over the Germans?"
"Not a bit," said the other old lady. "Dinna ye ken the Breetish aye say their prayers before gain' into battle?"
"But canna the Germans say their prayers as weel?"
"Hoot!" was the reply, "jabbering bodies, wha could understan' them?"

AN IRRESISTIBLE CALL

Hulda, the Swedish maid, had served her mistress faithfully for a year, when one day she announced her intention of leaving.
"Why, Hulda, what is the matter? Is the work too hard? Or don't you like the wages?"
"De work he be all right, an' de vages he be, too, but de beau—he moost have me."—Minneapolis Tribune.

"Do you have any differences of opinion in your family?" "Terrible. Why, it couldn't be any worse if we were all members of the Supreme Court."—Life.

MOVABLE FEAST

deemed egotistical, I must tell you that, compared with past efforts along demonstration train lines, the National Preparedness Train is far and away the biggest thing ever sent out on wheels.

The greatest satisfaction possible is being derived from the fact that the people are realizing the magnitude and importance of this educational effort on the part of the Salt Lake Route and the three colleges, and are flocking by the thousands to greet the train and absorb the information that its corps of educators is carrying to the people.

The whole theme of the train may be summed up in the first line of the chorus that you so cleverly set to the air of Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, and in every car of its entire length the air is filled with the idea of "Plant, Plant, Plant."

The make-up of the train is specially arranged to meet present conditions and includes exhibit cars covering every phase of possible increase in our supply of food stuffs. An entire car is devoted to the culture of the bean and here are exhibited and described every type of bean grown in our western country with practical instruction as to time of planting, means of culture and the best bean to fit the many types of soil and the many varieties of climate in the country tributary to the Salt Lake Route.

Another car of no lesser importance is that devoted to forage crops as, by means of an increase in these important types of fodder, we shall be able to increase our meat supply and, with particular attention to hogs and poultry, this increase may be brought about with a minimum of delay.

Sugar is to be a prominent factor in our preparedness campaign and an entire car is devoted to the sugar beet, its product and the most successful means of its production.

The government has sent to the train one of the most interesting cars ever exhibited, covering every phase of Forestry. Included in the lessons of this government car are shown means for the protection and conservation of the great ranges upon which are fed millions of head of cattle and sheep with practical illustrations of fire protection systems and the operations of the ranger corps that is tireless in its efforts to maintain the efficiency of our great National Reserves.

Home Economics and Red Cross work are thoroughly covered on the train and given particular attention by means of special ladies' meetings held at every point visited.

Irrigation, dry farming, soils and the handling of every class of cereal crops is given a large space with practical working models of farms and ranches. Live stock and poultry are also illustrated and demonstrated in detail with working models of every type of farm equipment from the day-old chick brooder to the great ranch barn.

Power is an important factor in our present situation and a car is devoted to working equipment for every class of ranch and home operation, while a group of tractors give practical demonstration of what power is doing in the handling of great and small properties.

One thing I do wish to impress and that is the importance of this train's educational possibilities to the city man as well as to the real country farmer. The story told bears directly upon the man who can and will increase the earth's products in any ratio, whether it be by one hill of potatoes or one row of beans or by the breaking and planting of hundreds or thousands of new acres.

The country needs every possible increase, be it ever so small, and the slogan of this train is

"If you can not plant ten acres or ten thousand, plant ten square feet."

With this idea on the front page of its primer, this Preparedness Train is carrying the story of how best to increase and conserve our food supply to every producer, great and small, and urging the efficiency of the methods taught for the meeting of a condition that means, not alone the safety of the greatest nations of the earth, but an assurance of eternal peace as the reward for a hard-earned victory.

These, then, are my ideas as to the train, its operation and ultimate effect. It has aroused the deep interest of the people in the three states and, to my mind, is accomplishing the fullest measure of its desired result.

Very truly yours,
DOUGLAS WHITE.

The Life Insurance I sell is just as mutual as fraternal or assessment. ## THE EAGLE

We pick up the daily paper and we find that some hunter has had his fool's pride for a day. He has killed an eagle and has been given a stickful of praise for his prowess in the local press. The appearance of the eagle in frequented parts is the signal for assassination. It is nothing that life has gone from the skyline and from the landscape and that there is stilled the cry that was in keeping, as a great one has written, with "the shaggy and the untamed features of ocean and wood."

Dr. Benjamin Franklin said that the eagle was not a fit emblem of freedom. Almost while he was saying it Tobias Smollett was writing his "Ode to Independence," and he did not fail to consider the eagle:

Thy spirit, Independence, let me share,
Lord of the lion heart and eagle eye!
Thy steps I follow with my bosom bare,
Nor heed the storm that howls along the sky.
James G. Percival, who is not given a place with the great poets, did, however, soar with the eagle above the common level when he wrote:
Bird of the broad and sweeping wing,
Thy home is high in heaven,
Where wide the storms their banners fly

And the tempest clouds are driven.

Tennyson's picture of the eagle ought to save it. It will not save it, probably, although seemingly it is all sufficient for the task:

He clasps the crag with hooked hands;
Close to the sun in lonely lands,
Ring'd with the azure world he stands.

The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;
He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunderbolt he falls.

Nearly every State in the Union has a law which is intended to protect the golden and the bald-headed eagles, the only species known to the United States. The laws are on the books, but the fool gunners still are in the fields.—Chicago Evening Post.

Sunday Services at the Churches

LUTHERAN CHURCH

In the Church Calendar last Thursday was what is called "Ascension Day" in honor of our Lord's ascension after His earthly work was done and redemption was completed. This Sunday then is called "Sunday after Ascension." Being a church festival, it is always considered by the church of some practical importance. In accord therewith, the pastor of the Lutheran Church will preach this coming Sunday morning on "The Lord's Ascension; what the Church has Gained by It." Never heard your pastor preach on this important subject? All are invited to worship with us this Sunday 11 a. m. The evening subject is no less interesting and helpful, appealing mostly to Christian people, those who have lost faith in God, those who are despondent, discouraged, ready to abandon religion, namely, "Wanted, badly: A New Vision of God. Man, woman, you will want to hear this message in "The Friendly Church to-morrow night. Courteous ushers. A hymnbook for you. Good singing. Cosy new church. Comfortable seats. A smile and warm handshake. All welcome.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Seventh street near Everett. Mass at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Baptisms at 2 p. m. JAMES S. O'NEILL, Rector.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The pastor will preach both morning and evening. Morning worship 11 o'clock. Sermon topic, "The Nearness of God," a message of comfort for days of trial. Evening service 7:30. Subject: "A forsaken master." The Sabbath School meets at 9:30. Endeavor meetings at the usual hours: 3:00, 4:30, 6:15. The Bible Conference will have its opening session next Thursday evening 8 o'clock, with an address by Dr. R. A. Torrey, to which the general public is invited, as is true of all the sessions which follow. See display ad in this issue.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

"Magnificent Visions for Magnificent Souls" will be the subject for the Sunday morning sermon at the First Methodist Church. How do you measure up? Are you a visionary? Are visions worth while? If you are looking for a helpful message, hear this. Good music. At the evening hour of worship the pastor will speak on "That Real Estate Deal." You will find this a message worth while. There will be good musical selections by the choir. Bible School, 9:45 a. m. Class Meeting, 12:15 p. m. Epworth League, 6:30 p. m. Church location, Third and Dayton court.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, corner Second St. and Maryland avenue. Services, Sunday 11 a. m. The lesson sermon is from the Christian Science quarterly Bible lessons. Subject, Sunday, May 20th, "Mortals and Immortals." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening testimony meeting at 8. Reading room, 415 1/2 S. Brand Blvd., open daily except Sundays and holidays from 12 m. to 4 p. m.

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

(Corner Fifth and Pacific) "Bible Sunday's Campaign Special." All aboard. Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The campaign is already launched. What part will we have in it? Are you interested? Then you will certainly be present. The pastor will speak at the morning service on the subject, "On the waves with Jesus, or Dark till Jesus Came." This will be a very helpful and practical sermon. The Epworth League and Sunday School as usual. All are invited.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

11:00 a. m.—The pastor, Dr. Willisford, will speak. Sermon topic, "Abiding Peace." 7:30 p. m.—Miss Marian Munday of Los Angeles will speak on "Rooms in the Heart." Miss Munday is the accomplished daughter of the pastor of the Hollywood Presbyterian church. She is a woman with a message, interesting and edifying. 9:45 a. m.—Sunday School. 6:15 p. m.—Junior C. E. 6:30 p. m.—Intermediate C. E. Church located at Third and Central. Every service interesting and helpful.

THE HOMELIKE CHURCH

The unified service is a grand success. It keeps the children in the church service, where they should be, and trains them in church attendance. Remember, be there promptly at 9:30, for the Sunday School begins at that time. Morning worship, 10:30 to 11:30. So there's just two hours of good, solid work for the Lord. Not very much to give Him out of a whole forenoon and afternoon once a week, is it? The subject for the morning sermon is "Christ's Counterpart." We can think of a good many texts that would give inspiration for this great subject. See if you can guess which one Bro. Cole will use.

In the evening Bro. Cole will comment on answers received from the men of the church to the question: "What do you now know that you wished you had known before you were 21?" He has some interesting answers and will give us a sermon on them that will stir all hearts. Don't miss it.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30, with prayer circle 10 minutes earlier. The young people are in a contest and every one on time at 6:20 counts big on points.

Be sure to attend all services at the "Homelike Church" corner Colorado and Louise, one block east of Brand.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner Third and Louise streets. Vernon H. Cowser, Pastor. 9:30 a. m.—Bible School, with graded classes for all ages. Orchestral music. Class for mothers with babies, and brotherhood class for men. Live-wire teachers, growing attendance and fine fellowship. Come and welcome. Will M. Wright, superintendent.

11 a. m.—The pastor preaches on "The Path to Prosperity."

6:30 p. m.—B. Y. P. Senior and Junior.

7:30 p. m.—The pastor preaches on "The greatest question in the world." Meeting thoroughly evangelistic. A sunny Sabbath home with a cordial welcome for all and a glad greeting for the stranger within our gates.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Corner Fifth and Louise streets. Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D., Rector. Services to-morrow, May 20th, Sunday after Ascension: Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m. Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon by the Rector, 11:00 a. m. Offertory anthem by the choir. In the afternoon a Sunday School mass meeting at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles, 3:00 p. m. No evening service.

KEEP THE PUMPS WORKING

Owners of irrigation pumping-plants throughout California are in a position to add greatly to the production of food supplies for the Allies by selling water to their neighbors at a reasonable cost during such times as their pumps are not needed for their own irrigation.

This is the conclusion of the College of Agriculture of the University of California, after a thorough survey of the irrigation resources of the State.

Few irrigation pumping-plants in California are now run continuously. A very large majority of them are not operated at night.

An emergency law just passed by the Legislature permits individuals to dispose of water without becoming public utilities and without incurring an obligation to continue to supply water in the future.

The Committee on Resources and Food Supply of the State Council of Defense urges owners of land near pumping-plants to make every effort to obtain water from such plants when they are not needed by their owners. Also, it urges owners of such pumping-plants to make the charges to their neighbors as low as possible, in order to stimulate the continuous use of pumping plants throughout the irrigation season during the war period.

USING OLD DRY CELLS

Amateurs will be interested in the hints given in Telephony, of Chicago, regarding the use of old dry cells. "To make the best wet batteries," writes the contributor, "take quart fruit jars, and put into each about one tablespoonful of powdered sal-ammoniac. Take an old dry cell with the zinc not too badly eaten—the better the zinc the better the wet battery—and punch a screwdriver once through the zinc half-way up the cell to admit the solution. Put the dry cell into a fruit jar, and fill to within half an inch of the top of the jar with rainwater." The writer goes on to suggest that two sets of cells be made up, for use alternately, so as to give each set a rest. "Don't let the old batteries stay in until all the zinc is gone, or your battery jar will be choked by swelling. Don't imagine you will not have to look at these batteries occasionally. You may have to add a little water and a little sal-ammoniac once every four or six weeks or replace the old dry cells. Almost everything needs a little attention occasionally, and batteries are not excepted."

MEN EXPECT TOO MUCH

Men expect women to rid the country of the alcohol habit, to secure a superior system of education, to rear and help the young, to divest politics of graft and to raise the tone of rural life. Why is woman expected to do so much? Why don't men do some of these great chores of the race?

A process of extracting nitrogen from the atmosphere in commercial quantities without using electricity has been invented by a Japanese chemist.

WHAT IF RUSSIA FAILS?

It will be many a day perhaps before we shall know the truth as to the Russian revolution, but one thing admits of no doubt. If Russia can be turned back to autocracy, if it can be subdued by German intrigue, if it can be terrorized by the madness of liberty expressing itself in anarchy, the power of that great country on the side of the Allies must be lost.

This is a consideration which every opponent of the universal service bill at Washington should meet fairly and squarely. With Russia detached from Great Britain and France, or with Russia possibly subjected to the service of Germany, the war would take on new aspects of vital importance to all concerned. Not only would the great man-power of a vast territory be withdrawn from the Allies, but food resources of incalculable value would instantly become available to the enemy. It would then be seen that a war whose duration some of us have been figuring in months might easily be protracted for years.

The United States cannot ignore the possibilities of this situation without exposing itself to disaster and humiliation. No volunteer army hastily assembled in an emergency could possibly meet a crisis of that kind. Liberated by Russian defection, literally millions of German troops would be free to operate in France. If we were unready to meet them there and take the part which we have solemnly assumed, our declaration in favor of humanity and civilization would become only a ghastly jest.

Universal service contemplates the immediate creation of an efficient army of half a million men. With the utmost expedition, this force could not be made ready for service before next winter. After that, under the system proposed, it would be followed systematically at regular intervals by other armies of equal size, all trained and equipped. Let those who in sheer obstinacy adhere to the haphazard volunteer idea tell us, if they can, how they are going to meet this demand for one great army after another and how they are to supply the inevitable waste of carnage and disease.

Nations nowadays that make war easily or negligently are overcome. Nations nowadays that cling to hurried-boys methods, hit or miss, do not put conquering armies in the field. Nations nowadays that levy war in support of their highest ideals and then fail to sustain their purposes with all their strength are doomed to a sad awakening that may come too late. Nations nowadays that will not learn by the vicissitudes of others simply invite the fool's discipline which the school of experience never fails to impart.

The possibility of Russia's elimination from this contest means nothing less than an urgent demand for a million, perhaps several millions, of American troops in France. We can take no chances in an enterprise freely entered upon with a full knowledge of the consequences. We will be taking all the chances in the world if we neglect the paramount duty of the hour, which is service in the ranks and in the fleet, as well as service in the fields and factories.—N. Y. World.

MATHEMATICS AID TO LEADERS

In addition to his attainments as a chess player, Napoleon was a skillful mathematician, a science which has always attracted great soldiers. As a young man he was quite distinguished by his ready manipulation of mathematical formulae, and his keen mathematical brain was a big factor in his success as a general.

Washington also had a similar talent, and on one occasion he told the Rev. R. Gleig that he attributed much of his military success to his lifelong devotion to the science of numbers. Many other famous soldiers of the last century were adepts in rapid and accurate calculation, among them Lee, Jackson and Moltke. Washington, too, was a mathematician, a subject in which he was exceptionally proficient.

Gen. Joffre, had he not chosen the army as a profession, might have been a professor of mathematics, and the new French War Minister, M. Painleve, is one of the most brilliant of contemporary mathematicians. As a boy he was a mathematical prodigy, and before he entered politics he had written several books on advanced mathematical problems. Mathematical calculations and applied science will probably prove the most important factors in ending the world war, and the Allies have now a galaxy of scientific brains in their service.—London Chronicle.

PLAN PROFITABLE IN BRAZIL

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 19. Following an idea very similar to that adopted by James J. Hill in his "empire building," the Brazil Railway Company has established a number of "nucleus colonies" along its right-of-way through uninhabited sections of Brazil's interior. The colonists who settle in these towns are assisted by both the railroad company and the government until they become self supporting. Thirteen colonies consisting of 641 families, a total of 1,593 persons, have been established in the last year, and have proved that pioneering in Brazil is a prosperous business.

MAGNATES UNTOUCHED BY TAX BILL

New York, May 19. When June 1 reaches the baseball season the uncomplaining fan will begin to dig into his jeans for an extra two or three or five cents whenever he passes the turnstiles at a baseball park. That's the way the baseball magnates are going to pay their war tax. The efforts of Gov. John K. Tener, president of the National league, and of Ban Johnson, president of the American league, saved the magnates the trouble of handing out a percentage of their gross receipts. Gov. Tener's clear knowledge of the problem and his influence undoubtedly saved what probably would have been a bad day for baseball. Baseball is a little different from most businesses. A baseball club has to win a lot of baseball games to enjoy a really profitable season. Usually six clubs in an eight-club wheel are far enough down in the race to be losing ventures or be able only to struggle through with an even break. One club in any league is almost certain to have a losing season, and the rule generally works for two or three clubs. Baseball doesn't make fortunes for its backers. In its history there cannot be found one man who made a huge fortune directly from the income he derived from baseball. There are several relatively wealthy men in the game, and some of them have made a great deal of the money from baseball, but usually the rich man in baseball has accumulated dollars in some other venture. The tax will be levied by means of stamps, placed on the ticket by the fan. This is the plan that is working in Canada.

MIKE, TRENCH CAT, A $2,000 HERO

LONDON, May 19.—On an ordinary back-fence, yowling his love-song in the moonlight, Mike wouldn't be considered much of a cat. But in Red Cross Auctions so far he has realized $2,380 for wounded soldiers and his money powers seem good for that much more. Mike is the doggondest, unimpressivest cat to look at. Tail, ears, eyes, fur, purr and whiskers are his inventory. He isn't a mouser and he has a lazy predilection for lengthy snoozes in the sunshine. But he is a hero and that makes him valuable. Mike stuck around in the bitterest fighting at Mons and has been in nine other fierce engagements on the Western Front. Private Bradley, a killed Scotch lad rescued him and brought him to Aberdeen where Mike began being sold back and forth by Red Cross patrons.

SUMMER SESSION TO CONTINUE UNDISTURBED

The University of California announces that there is no foundation for the rumor that the Summer Session at Berkeley, from June 25 to August 4, may be given up. The Summer Session will proceed as announced, following immediately upon the special term of five weeks, devoted to aviation, hygiene, household management, relief work methods, etc., which is to be in session from May 21 to June 23. The indications, from the applications already received, are that the attendance at the Summer Session will be unusually large, as a host of people are planning to take advantage of the opportunity to equip themselves with knowledge of methods of home nursing, first aid for the injured, dietetics, household management, and public health methods, methods for charity administration and social welfare work, home economics, engineering, chemistry, surveying, mapping, and a vast variety of other subjects of particular usefulness to the community in wartime emergency.

A FOOD TIP

Why eat half-grown new potatoes? Why not wait until they are grown? Such is the hint toward accomplishing real food economy given by the Committee on Resources and Food Supplies by the State Council of Defense. In explanation, the committee says: "Early in May consumers of new potatoes were paying 8.5 cents for one pound of this table luxury. At the same time flour cost 7.3 cents a pound and sugar 10 cents a pound. "Measured on the basis of Calories in each of the three articles of food, the consumer was paying the following prices for each 1000 calories or units of force: "Flour, 4.6 cents. "Sugar, 5.5 cents. "New potatoes, 26.9 cents. "New potatoes are a prime luxury. Why not wait until they are grown?"

FORM SHAWL CLUB

PARIS, May 19.—American women in Paris have organized a "shawl club." The present purpose of the club is to knit shawls for the poor. If necessary at a later time the club will turn its many hands to knitting war socks for American soldiers.

Mrs. White: Did you go to church this morning? Mrs. Black: Yes, our telephone is out of order and I wanted to invite some friends to bridge tomorrow night.—Judge.

A FAMILY ORCHESTRA

When two people conduct an orchestra there is plot material. If the two are knit by marriage ties the plot thickens. Endicott and I conduct a family orchestra, he at the piano, I playing second violin. I know more about music than does Endicott; he is more musical than I. I keep the time; he has the temperament. Temperament is more noble than time, but time, I shall always insist, has its place, perhaps nowhere more appropriately than in an orchestra. He at the piano can dominate the situation more neatly than I. In my position among the strings, how ever, I can more readily organize a strike.

The rest of the pieces are presided over by our children, young people of inflexible spirit and chromatic moods. Sometimes we doubt whether we have our troupe under the rigid control which as parents we might expect to command. The conductivity of an orchestra, says our son Geoffrey, varies with the distance of the blood relationship between artists and conductor. When the children were little we held the pleasant theory that a family orchestra would draw us all close together, standing always as a symbol of our perfect harmony. That would be all right if the harmony would only go to suit us all equally at the same time. As it is our little band, in which observers find so touching a picture of hearthside unity, suggests sometimes all the elements of guerrilla warfare.—Atlantic Monthly.

HOW TO WASH THE FACE

When the hot water used for the facial bath is hot enough to sting the skin it is too hot to be beneficial. It is likely to cause the skin to become ultra sensitive, so that when it is exposed to the sun or wind it will burn and grow red. Hot water for bathing the face should be just hot enough to be used with perfect comfort.

After playing golf or motoring it is well to use a cleansing cream, rubbing it well into the skin and removing it after four or five minutes with a piece of absorbent cotton. Then dip a soft cloth in warm water and hold it against the face for a minute or two. Dry the skin gently with a towel with a gentle rotary movement.
