

PALACE GRAND BENEFIT

JUNIOR RED CROSS REALIZES $81 AS ITS SHARE OF RECEIPTS OF FRIDAY SHOW

Superintendent of Schools Richardson D. White reports that the Palace Grand benefit for the Junior Red Cross last Friday night yielded that organization about $81, which was a fine return, but not surprising to those who visited the theatre and saw the automobiles lining the curb, and the long line of ticket-holders reaching from the box office well into the middle of the street for the first performance, or the second performance for which another big audience gathered.

It was a beautiful performance for children from seven to seventy years and it would be hard to say which class of patrons enjoyed it most. It began with scenes from the boyhood of Lincoln (the serial which will feature the program every Friday), which were followed with absorbed attention. Then there was an interlude in which the High School orchestra played several numbers with spirit and intelligence under the able direction of Mrs. Gibson. A woodland background provided a pretty setting for the musicians, who were warmly applauded.

The concluding reel, "The Adventures of Carol," was then thrown upon the screen and proved a thrilling drama of the exciting experiences of a child patriot which ended happily for all concerned. If this initial program is a sample of the attractions to be provided at all of the Junior Red Cross benefits at the Palace Grand, the capacity of the house, increased though it has been, will be taxed to accommodate all who will want to attend these wholesome entertainments.

EPWORTH LEAGUE NOTES

Thirty-five young people have been appointed to serve on the local decorating committee to beautify the First Methodist Church of Glendale for the reception of members of the Pasadena District Epworth League, which holds its convention in this city Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 9, 10 and 11. Miss Jennie Lacy is chairman of this committee, which will meet at the church Wednesday evening.

A contract has been let to a professional for the decoration of the city for the great occasion. Flags and the national colors will be clustered and twined on the electroliers which line the business thoroughfares, and Glendale will present quite a festive appearance. A united effort should be made to make the visitors feel that they are welcomed.

DECLARE WAR AGAINST VACANT LOTS

Persons knowing of vacant lots not being cultivated are asked to report them to the Evening News. Give owners of lots if possible. Any one wishing to secure a lot to cultivate should apply at the Evening News office.

CRANFORD MUSICALE

CAST RECEIVES FINAL DRILLING AT DRESS REHEARSAL

After weeks of faithful rehearsing, the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club is fully primed for public appearance Thursday evening of this week at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium. The best musical talent of the city has been assembled for this event, given for the benefit of the local chapter of the Red Cross, and a record attendance is looked for.

The casting and the assigning of vocal numbers has been done so well that each part may be said to "fit like a glove." Mrs. Walter Stamps and Mrs. F. W. Pigg are rival candidates for first honors in irresistible comedy numbers of the vintage of long ago, while Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. Freeman Kelley and Mrs. J. T. Crampton burlesque in fine style a once-popular gem garnered from yesteryear. Underlying the comedy vein that clearly dominates, there is a sweet note of seriousness, giving balance to the production and making it eminently worth while and enjoyable. There will be solos by Mrs. Frank Arnold, Mrs. Gladys Gibbs Sherman and Mrs. Calvin Whiting; Mrs. L. N. Hagood and Miss Mildred Pray are down for instrumental numbers and the chorus also does good work. The stately minuet will be given in conclusion.

Tickets, which are 25 cents each, may be obtained from Mesdames Plasterer, Barton, Puffer, Leppelman, Balthis, Arnold, Ogg, Josephs or Mrs. Greenwalt, the latter being in charge of business end of the entertainment.

BUY A SMILE

CAMPAIGN TO SELL SMILEAGE BOOKS TO BE SHORT AND SNAPPY

J. N. McGillis, who is in charge of the Smileage drive for this community, and his committee are very optimistic about disposing of the 600 books assigned to Glendale. The number has been apportioned among various organizations and already a number of books have been disposed of. The matter was brought up in most of the churches yesterday and efforts will be made to sell the books apportioned, this week.

"When everyone understands the Smileage plan, there will be no trouble in disposing of the books," said a member of the committee. You buy a Smileage book at $1 or $5 containing coupons which will admit a man in uniform to the Liberty Theatre at any of the cantonments or camps given below. The books can not be used in France. Nearly every one has a relative or some boy friend in whom he is interested in one of the training camps, to whom he will be glad to mail this little bit of cheer.

Smileage books may be purchased at the office of Charles W. Kent & Son, 431 South Brand.

This is a national campaign and a goal of $1,000,000 has been set to provide clean, wholesome entertainment for the soldiers. The local committee is expecting Glendale to go over the top as gloriously as she did in the Liberty Loan Drive.

Smileage Books are good in the following camps where Liberty Theatres are now operating:

- Camp Beauregard, Louisiana.
 - Camp Custer, Michigan.
 - Camp Devens, Mass.
 - Camp Dix, New Jersey.
 - Camp Dodge, Iowa.
 - Camp Doniphan, Kansas.
 - Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia.
 - Camp Funston, Kansas.
 - Camp Gordon, Georgia.
 - Camp Grant, Illinois.
 - Camp Hancock, Georgia.
 - Camp Jackson, So. Carolina.
 - Camp Lee, Virginia.
 - Camp Cody, New Mexico.
 - Camp Lewis, Washington.
 - Camp Logan, Texas.
 - Camp MacArthur, Texas.
 - Camp Meade, Maryland.
 - Camp Merritt, New Jersey.
 - Camp Pike, Arkansas.
 - Camp Sevier, So. Carolina.
 - Camp Shelby, Mississippi.
 - Camp Sheridan, Alabama.
 - Camp Sharon, Ohio.
 - Camp Taylor, Kentucky.
 - Camp Travis, Texas.
 - Camp Upton, New York.
 - Camp Wadsworth, So. Carolina.
 - Camp Wheeler, Georgia.
- Additional theatres to be opened at following camps:
- Ft. Bliss, Texas.
 - Camp Fremont, Cal.
 - Camp Humphreys, Ver.
 - Camp Kearny, Cal.
 - Camp Hueart, Virginia.

At Camp Kearny Smileage Books are now being accepted at face value at all amusement concessions and theatres inside the lines. These concessions and amusements are privately owned.

OVERSEAS EQUIPMENT

Many members of the Coast Artillery companies at Fort MacArthur believe they are soon to go overseas because they have received every item of their overseas equipment, from hobnailed boots and gas masks to their trench helmets, or "tin derbies" as the American soldiers have named them. Those sent to Fort MacArthur are of the latest issue, perfectly plain and finished in an earth-color paint that causes them to blend into the trench background perfectly. A helmet lying on the ground looks like nothing so much as a smooth lump of dirt or ground-colored stone, it is said. The new helmets are protected on the inside by a felt band that is supposed to act as a shock absorber in case the metal is struck by a shell fragment.

HONOR SOLDIER SON

James G. Lyon, of the 157th Field Hospital at Camp Kearny, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lyons, 911 Maple avenue, while on a five-day furlough. A dinner was given in his honor Sunday evening at which the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons, Bobbie Lyons, Isabel Lyons, Mrs. Burlingham and Miss Daphne Burlingham. Decorations of pink and white added to the appointments of the table, where a delicious meal was served. The dinner party was preceded by a very delightful motor trip to nearby points.

WEATHER FORECAST—Cloudy tonight. Tuesday fair. Light westerly winds.

BRITISH MAKE ADVANCES

IMPROVE POSITIONS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE SOMME—GERMAN TROOPS ARE EVIDENTLY LOSING MORALE

(By William Philip Simms, United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, May 6.—The British advanced 1200 yards on a front more than a mile wide between the Ancre and the Somme. North of the Somme, the Australians advanced 700 yards on a 1500-yard front and 500 yards on a front a mile wide.

The Germans have been blocked in Flanders for six days and at Amiens for thirty-five days. Their next move is alertly awaited by the allies.

Letters found on German prisoners addressed to relatives indicate that the Germans have lost their cocksureness, while the allies are highly optimistic.

LONDON, May 6.—General Haig announced today that the British had advanced their lines on a "considerable front" on both sides of the Somme, despite strong resistance. The enemy suffered heavily, especially at Morlancourt.

British positions in the south part of Flanders were greatly improved in local fighting.

AMERICANS SHELL MONTDIDIER

SIXTY THOUSAND SHELLS FROM AMERICAN GUNS COMPLETELY DEMOLISH GERMAN TRENCHES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, May 6.—It is announced that American artillery fired 60,000 shells into German trenches before a recent attack. The bombardment completely obliterated the trenches.

The Germans have begun a systematic destruction of Amiens, the same as that which annihilated Rheims. Two hundred shells and aerial torpedoes were fired into the city, causing heavy property damage, loss of life and endangering the cathedral and public buildings.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 6.—American guns are shelling Montdidier, Cantigny, Mesnil-St. Georges and other near-by towns recently captured by the Germans. There is heavy aerial activity on this section of the front.

BIG TROOP MOVEMENT, MAY AND JUNE

JULY AND AUGUST ARE MONTHS SCHEDULED FOR SHIPMENT OF MATERIALS, MUNITIONS AND SUPPLIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The supreme Court ruled today that draftees can be sent anywhere in the world to fight for the United States.

During May and June it is contemplated to move troops which will more than equal the combined strength of the Belgian and Portuguese armies on the west front.

In July and August troop shipping will decline to move more supplies.

In the fall methods of division separation to help the French and the British will be reunited.

It is now proposed to register men of 21 on June 5 to fill the Class 1 ranks being depleted by the new drafts.

LOS ANGELES BOY WOUNDED IN ACTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Today's casualty list reports fifteen missing believed captured at Seichprey, six killed in action, three dead of wounds, nine dead of disease, two accidentally killed, one dead from another cause, four severely wounded including Sergt. Roy Weigel of Los Angeles, and forty-eight slightly wounded.

MRS. RUDY WINS DIVORCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, May 6.—Mrs. Mabel Rudy was granted a divorce today from Dr. Leslie N. Rudy, formerly a prominent Glendale dentist. Mrs. Rudy sued on the grounds of desertion and undue intimacy with another woman.

FEDERAL COURT RESTORES OIL LANDS TO S. P.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the decision of Federal Judge Bean at Los Angeles cancelling the Southern Pacific company's patent to 6107 acres of oil land in the North Midway section. The reversal restores property worth $50,000,000 to the Southern Pacific.

MRS. POTTER PALMER DEAD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, May 6.—Mrs. Potter Palmer, Chicago society leader and one of the best known women in America, died of pneumonia in Florida this morning. She was 68 years old.

GLENDALE SUBSCRIBES $280,000

WITH MINIMUM QUOTA OF ABOUT $112,000, THIS COMMUNITY BUYS BONDS AMOUNTING TO PRACTICALLY TWO AND A HALF TIMES THAT SUM

Glendale's Central Committee for the Third Liberty Loan, of which F. H. Vesper is chairman, has completed its work in a manner of which Glendale has reason to be inordinately proud, and the result, $280,000 subscribed for bonds with an assigned quota about $112,000, is little short of marvelous. A report has been prepared by Vice-Chairman A. L. Lawshe, which is characteristic in its brevity, but which is big with facts which testify to the patriotic response of Glendale to the appeal of the government to help provide the sinews of war. Creditable as the report is to the subscribers, too much praise can not be given Mr. Lawshe and his chief assistant at headquarters, Mrs. O. H. Bellew, for the mastery with which the foundation for the drive was laid and for the manner in which it was organized and directed. It was some job and they did not spare themselves but put in long days of arduous service before and during the campaign. Cards were prepared for 8300 persons to be visited and solicited. These cards contained all the data which would be of interest or service to the canvassers and were made in duplicate. Since they were first prepared they have passed through Mrs. Bellew's hands seventeen times, and this statement should convey some idea of the detailed clerical work involved in such a successful drive as Glendale has witnessed.

No special district can be singled out for special mention, but the committee has been exceedingly gratified at the response made by Casa Verdugo, Tropic and all the outlying sections of the city, which has been one hundred per cent patriotic and then some.

Mr. Lawshe's report follows: "The Third Liberty Loan campaign for the district comprising Glendale, Casa Verdugo and Tropic, closed Saturday night at 9 o'clock with the district as a whole just a little short of 250% efficient.

"The quota of Glendale and Casa Verdugo was $95,900, while the sales aggregated $233,100. The quota of Tropic was $16,900, while the sales aggregated $46,900.

"The work of the various organizations, as far as now segregated, was as follows:

"Women's Committees, 184 subscriptions, aggregating $22,800.00.

"High School team, 87 subscriptions, aggregating $8,300.00.

"Grammar School team, 130 subscriptions, aggregating $8,900.00.

"All other teams, 1848 subscriptions, aggregating $240,000.

"In all, 2249 separate subscriptions, aggregating $280,000.00.

"At nine o'clock Saturday evening, as the figures were being brought together, the aggregate of the bond sales was shown to be $279,950.00, when Menzo Williams, captain of the Casa Verdugo team, who was present, insisted upon making an additional purchase of a $50.00 bond, in order to bring the total up to even figures, $280,000.00.

"These figures may be changed slightly in the final revision, but they will be increased rather than diminished.

"In addition to these 2749 separate subscriptions in Glendale and Tropic, there were over 550 persons reported by canvassers as having bought their bonds in Los Angeles or elsewhere."

DORAN STREET P. T. A. ELECTS

The Doran street Parent-Teacher association held its regular monthly meeting May 1, heard committee reports and elected officers for the coming year. The association has had thirty-seven members enrolled the past year. Reports showed excellent work had been done. After the business of the afternoon had been completed the ladies adjourned to the porch, where they sewed on materials furnished by the conservation committee of the Red Cross. The work had been planned in such a way that a great deal was accomplished.

The officers elected, who will be installed at the June meeting, are: Mrs. E. E. East, President. Mrs. L. Richardson, Vice-President. Mrs. P. Diederich, Secretary. Mrs. Fred Myton, Treasurer.

LINDSEY APPROVES PLAN

The Smileage Plan for furnishing good, lively, clean entertainment at the training camps received a big boost from Judge Ben B. Lindsey. In an interview with the special Smileage representative in Washington, which was forwarded to J. N. McGillis, the local Smileage chairman, Judge Lindsey stated:

"Smileage is not only an inspiration but one of the most practical helpful things of this war.

"I know something of the question of morality and discipline among the soldiers as I have seen it in Europe and at home during the war. They can not be solved by guard houses and jails. They are practical human questions. The 'Smileage' idea will do more to keep our boys the wholesome, manly fellows that most of them are and want to be, than all other forms of free entertainment combined.

"The helpful, stimulating, wholesome entertainment you are arranging for the boys at the camps is an absolute necessity. It is a patriotic duty to furnish Smileage. It will do almost as much to win the war as guns and ammunition."

The demand for Smileage has proved tremendous. This is the first time the public has had a chance to buy a real gift for a soldier friend, which is nationally known and is devised purely for pleasure. The wide and quick response has shown how great the need for Smileage Books was.

IMPORTANT HEARING

A public hearing on the question of renaming the streets in Greater Glendale will be held under the auspices of the trustees of the City of Glendale, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the City Hall. A more complete statement of the business to come before this hearing will be published in tomorrow's issue of the Evening News.

SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

Little Viola Bishop of 1509 Ivy street had a delightful party this afternoon in celebration of her seventh birthday. Seven little girls were entertained from 3:30 to 5 o'clock. Good time games that they all liked were played, there was a grab bag, and lovely birthday refreshments were served which included a beautiful birthday cake with seven candles on it, lots of brick ice cream and all the different kinds of candy.

WHO WANTS TO WORK?

There is almost a block of land not being cultivated north of Broadway between Kenwood and Jackson. It has been hinted that the greater portion of this vacant ground is ready to be used for any one who will crop it. Who is the industrious man?

Keep all channels of legitimate business going at a lively gait. Do not slow down on anything. Place war duties first—see that they get careful attention, and then local business duties next. Be sure, however, that local business duties have a place on your calendar. Without local business prosperity it will be difficult for the average one to make good his war subscription pledge.

LADIES' NIGHT

ELKS INAUGURATE ENJOYABLE SOCIAL FEATURE AT CLUB HOUSE

Under the able management of the entertainment committee, consisting of A. R. Dibbern, Chairman, and J. F. Hearnshaw, C. J. Wolfe, James Fitzgibbon and Mr. Bourne, Ladies' Night at the Elks' Club Saturday evening was a delightful and much larger affair than anticipated. Not less than 150 ladies and gentlemen were entertained with bowling, cards and dancing, and several charming vocal numbers were furnished by Mrs. A. B. Rosencrans of Chicago, sister of Mrs. Hearnshaw. Guests were present from Lancaster, Burbank, Van Nuys, Newhall and San Fernando. Musicians in the ball room were kept busy until 12 o'clock. A "Paul Jones" broke up all formality and made a homogeneous company which was further encouraged by the "partner by conquest" privilege granted the ladies who, when sitting during a dance, could rise and clap their hands and choose partners from the gentlemen on the floor. When thus chosen the gentlemen had to abandon the partners they had been dancing with. One popular dancer, it is reported, was conscripted ten times during a single number. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and the party was so much enjoyed that it is probable these regular monthly events will be among the most popular features of the Elks' Club.

MAKE Y. M. C. A. YOUR HOME

Every boy leaving this community to enter the army or the navy is invited to make the Y. M. C. A. his social and recreational center. It is his club. His uniform is his membership card. He will find writing paper and envelopes, magazines, books, companionship, amusement and recreation. He will find pleasant, clean, uplifting surroundings and Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries to serve him. Upon his arrival in camp he will be greeted by a Y. M. C. A. secretary. He will be made to feel at home. The privileges of the building are his absolutely. This work has been made possible because of contributions made by the people of this country.

On the transport crossing the ocean he will have the Y. M. C. A. administering to him. On his arrival he will find the welcoming Red Triangle. At the concentration camps in England and France, it will be with him and when he goes to the front he will find intrepid Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries in dugouts and huts under shell fire to serve him.

The Red Triangle of the Y. M. C. A. is for the boy from this community and this paper has been authorized to extend an invitation to him to make free use of it, wherever he finds it.

In order to bring the spirit of home just a little closer to the soldiers in the big cantonments on the Pacific Coast, the national war work council of the Y. M. C. A. in the western department is asking for a photograph of the most familiar spot in this community. From the picture a lantern slide will be made and thrown upon the screen in the Y. M. C. A. buildings.

An effort is being made to secure photographs from every town and hamlet in the west. The pictures must be clear so that the reproduction will be clear. These photographs should be sent to F. F. Runyon, Associate Secretary, National War Work Council, Y. M. C. A., 519 First National Bank Building, San Francisco, Cal.

A short description, giving the title of the picture and the town which it represents, should be written on the reverse side. Every city and community has its object of interest. It may be a busy corner, old building, fountain, adobe, cosy park, natural phenomena. Whatever it is, it will be a welcome sight to the boy away from home. It will be a reminder, an inspiration, an old friend, and will make him happy.

STATEMENT FROM BILLY SUNDAY

Most of the folks don't know what the man in the training camp is up against. You've got to give them something to do—something to take their minds off their work, once in a while. Keep the devil away. And then you sort of freshen them up so that they get a new grip on the work and can go at it harder. Fosdick has the right idea of efficiency, and we'll have a better army if he keeps up this sort of thing.

"Why," said Billy, "you run across the same thing everywhere in business, nowadays. Look at the books on the psychology of organization and selling. Look at the big business places putting up parks and rest rooms and having ball teams—it gives the men something besides their work to bind them together. Did you ever go to a clam bake? Now, then, didn't you sort of ease off for the hard pull again at the work, when you came back? Sure you did. It's the same way with the soldiers. I never condemn the theatre as an institution, though there are a lot of things about a theatre I don't approve of. But here's a case of giving the soldier some decent amusement, just like he used to get in his home town, or letting the devil get busy when there isn't anything else on his mind. The devil would sure collect on a lot of boys, simply because he got 'em while they weren't looking. Give 'em the amusements—good, clean, snappy things; live stuff. They want it and they sure do need it. Smileage coupons will put it over in great shape. Good luck to Smileage. You'll have to print more books. The old folks back in the towns are going to jump at this chance.

"The Y. M. C. A. can't do this. They have their hands full with the religious and welfare work, let alone the rest of this. It's all needed, too."

Sunday passed a good compliment to the administration when he learned that the Y. M. C. A. and K. of C., and the American Library Association were all under the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities.

"Now, that's pretty good work," he said. "So that was Wilson's idea. Good for him."

"Yes," he went on, lying down on the top of the library table with his hands under his head, "that's getting organizations together. That's America for you. Give them each a part and let 'em go to it. And you pulled all the Chautauqua managers together, too. Good for you. They're a great bunch. They do a lot of good in the country. Lots of these smart alects in the city don't know about them, but they would learn a lot if they took the time they spent in Joe's place or some other gin mill to find out what is going on, and wise up to some of the things that would help 'em a lot.

"That proves it," said Billy, when he saw a letter that General Scott had written in regard to the need of theatres. He slapped his hand with the same gesture he uses when he is giving the devil a good crack in the ribs. "There's a man that knows the situation. He knows soldiering. He's been an Indian fighter. He'll have a gang with him when he goes across that'll make anything the Kaiser has look as sick as a gin mill when the town goes dry. Give the boys something to do to make the change as gradual as possible—that's good dope. Smileage is the way to do it. Go to it strong."

War work proved more attractive than paying teller in the Seaboard National Bank, New York, to Ellsworth Ferriera, so he enlisted in Y. M. C. A. and is serving the soldiers "over there."

SOVIET PROTESTS ACTION OF AMERICAN CONSUL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
 WASHINGTON, May 6.—The State Department received a protest today from the Soviet Republic of Russia, declaring that the American consul at Vladivostok had improperly encouraged a movement to establish a government in Siberia.

RUNS ON WAR GARDEN TICKET

Here's a new one! Robert N. Stanfield of Oregon is running for the United States Senate on the "war garden ticket." You know the women vote in Oregon and Stanfield has 20,000 war garden primers put out by the National War Garden Commission which he is giving to the women of Oregon as campaign literature. On these primers he has had printed "Compliments of Robert N. Stanfield." This is the first case on record of any one running for office with this kind of campaign literature. Stanfield's managers wired for the primers and now they are holding noon-day rallies and giving out the garden books.

THE WAY TO WIN

If you think you are beaten, you are. If you think you dare not, you don't. If you'd like to win, but you think you can't, It's almost a cinch that you won't. If you think you'll lose, you're lost. For out of the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will—It's all in the state of mind.

Personals

Miss Patrick from Santa Barbara, sister of Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, is her guest this week.

Members of the Knights Templar will meet tonight, Monday, at the Masonic Temple for the election of officers.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Logan of Kentucky is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jackson of 102 South Maryland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Offutt, formerly of 1104 1/2 West Broadway, Glendale, are moving to Wilmington, where Mr. Offutt is employed in the ship yards.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Fuller, of Lancaster, accompanied by their little son, George H., Jr., were guests at the Elks' Club Saturday evening for "Ladies' Night."

The Jolly Thirteen club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. H. L. Clotworthy of 150 West Tenth street. The club has recently lost one of its members in Mrs. A. C. Reed, who has moved to Long Beach.

A meeting of all committees for the Epworth League Convention is called for Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. Chairmen are asked to notify their assistants and every one is requested to be present on time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hartmann of 1020 Chestnut street will leave Thursday for St. Paul, Minnesota, where they will spend the summer visiting with relatives and looking after business interests. They plan to return to Glendale the first of October.

Members of the Executive Committee of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter are requested to bear in mind the committee meeting to be held at the residence of Chairman J. H. Braly, 205 North boulevard, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Important matters are up for consideration and every member is urged to be present.

Vice-Chairman A. L. Lawshe, Mrs. E. R. Blackburn, Cashier, H. B. Lynch, Chairman of Publicity, and Dr. Henry R. Harower, Chairman of Speakers, will attend a meeting of Red Cross Chairmen called for next Wednesday morning at Hotel Alexandria in Los Angeles, where matters in connection with the Red Cross drive will be considered.

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will meet this week Tuesday at the home hour at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, 101 South Brand boulevard. A paper on "The Women Poets of India" will be read by Mrs. Edgar W. Paek, and Mrs. J. C. Danford, City Librarian, will read from Tagore's "Gitanjali." As it will be a program of exceptional interest, it is hoped that all members will be present to enjoy it.

A reader of the Evening News reports the receipt of a letter from her soldier son written from "somewhere in France" acknowledging the arrival of a fruit cake which she had sent to him at Camp Lewis, but which failed to reach there before he left for the front. The item is of interest because it shows that Uncle Sam is at some pains to deliver to the addressees everything sent to our khaki-clad heroes, and also because the boy writes that in spite of its delay in reaching him it was the finest cake he ever tasted.

G. W. Calkins, his niece, Miss Coral Griffith, and S. G. Griffith are moving to Long Beach for the summer. Mr. Calkins has a fine position at San Pedro in the ship yards and finds it so hard going back and forth daily from Casa Verdugo to the yards that the family has decided to move to the beach temporarily. They will still keep their home and spend week ends here. Miss Griffith is also planning to spend alternate Fridays at Glendale Red Cross headquarters, where she is chairman of aviators' vests and of comfort bags. Mr. Griffith will come home frequently to look after his garden.

Wisdom is knowing what to do next; skill is knowing how to do it; virtue is doing.—David Starr Jordan.

BIG CARNIVAL

The big carnival, which is an annual event in the Tropico section of Greater Glendale, has been set for May 18th and committee chairmen have been appointed. They include the following list. Many are representatives of clubs and organizations which are active in the district, and which are all patriotically interested in the Red Cross, which will this year be the beneficiary.

General Chairman—Mrs. E. V. Bacon.

Supper Chairman—Mrs. Chauncey K. Lake.

Confetti and Popcorn—Mrs. Joseph Griffin, assisted by Mrs. A. J. Chappius.

Concessions—Ed Shipman, assisted by Harry Schaffer, representing Knights of Pythias.

Dancing—Mrs. Glen Craig and Robert A. Oliver.

Pie—Mrs. Nina Richards, representing Woman's Relief Corps.

P. E. O. Booth—Mrs. Noble Ripley.

Candy Booth—Mrs. Tiny Hammond.

Aprons—Mrs. Mc. N. Barnes.

Pop Corn—Mrs. S. E. Brown, representing Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society.

Wienies—Mrs. Robt. Danner, assisted by Mrs. Charles Bruck, representing the Yeomen Lodge.

Ice Cream—Mrs. A. J. Becker, assisted by Francis Bacon.

Grab Bag—Mrs. Edwin Virden, representing the U. & I. Club.

Evening Program—Mrs. B. F. Cook.

The program will open at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon with the crowning of the May Queen, and procession of attendants in her train, which will be a very pretty feature, and which will be followed by a tournament for the entertainment of the queen. All the rooms in the Cerritos school will vie with each other in the production of novelties for this part of the program.

There will also be a parade of miniature floats and prizes will be given for the most novel or beautiful entries. The Boy Scouts of Eagle Rock will put on a thirty-minute drill, and there will be other numbers. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock and in the evening a program will be given and there will be fancy and informal dancing.

RED CROSS DANCE

The Red Cross dance given Friday night at Masonic Temple was highly satisfactory to the fifty couples who came out to enjoy it and also to the Junior Red Cross which benefited to the extent of $27. It was a very nice affair, at which Mrs. V. Price Brown and Mrs. John A. Logan of this city were chaperones. Mrs. Brown was credited with the compounding of the very delicious punch with which the dancers were refreshed during the evening. The committee, of which Berna Martin was chairman, wishes to thank the Sparr Fruit Company and Ralph Meeker for fruit generously donated for the punch, also the Masonic Lodge for $5 donated towards the rent of the hall.

THE HOLY SPIRIT A PERSON

"And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world can not receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you." Such was the text of the sermon given by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning on the subject of "The Holy Spirit, the Abiding Comforter." This was the first of a series of four on the general topic of "The Holy Spirit," to be preached each Sabbath morning in May.

Why waste time proving that the world is round, or that fire burns? Why then spend time arguing the personality of the Holy Spirit? What is needed in the church is constructive preaching. Dividing the subject under three heads: "The Comforter, what He is; 'the comfort,' what He gives, and 'the comforted,' who receive this divine One to 'abide' with them, the pastor made it wonderfully clear and practical to a large and intensely interested congregation.

Mileage means a stretch of miles. Smileage means a span of smiles.

You can not perform your patriotic duties by proxy.

STATE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

The thirty-sixth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Southern California will be held in Bakersfield May 7 to 10, 1918. The Glendale Union is entitled to five delegates beside Mrs. Smart, president, and Mrs. Gaylord, superintendent, who are ex officio members. One and one-third railroad fare has been secured on the certificate plan, and visitors are welcome to this provision. A full and very interesting program has been prepared, largely patriotic in character. Miss Anna A. Gordon, of Evanston, Illinois, president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and Commander in Chief of the White Ribbon Army, will be in attendance and review the troops.

Those who have earned the right to the title or captain, lieutenant, corporal, etc., will be decorated and receive their commissions from the commander in chief. The state will present to the government, through the National W. C. T. U., ambulances, hospital comforts, field kitchens, stereomographs, comfort bags, bandages, support for French orphans, home centers, etc., for which money has been secured in the recent "drive."

bandages, French orphans, home centers, etc., for which money has been secured in the recent "drive." In the Patriotic Congress twenty-three departments will tell how they respond to the nation's needs. Discussion—"Our Work in the Campaign for the Ratification of the Federal Amendment for National Constitutional Prohibition." Miss Gordon in one address will be attended by a Guard of Honor, young ladies representing the states that have ratified the amendment. Again, as a member of Advisory board of Woman's Committee, National Council of Defense, she will give an address on Co-ordination of War Work. There will be a pageant representing children of the other nations, and Mrs. Young will exhibit her "Columbia's New White Republic," revised and bought up to date in the cause of prohibition. The state president, Mrs. Stella B. Irvine of Riverside, will give her annual address on "The challenge of the Hour," and several other interesting speakers will be heard.

Bakersfield has twenty-two saloons, and through its mayor, board of trade, supervisors, many business men and organizations, gave an urgent invitation to the state organization to hold its convention in their wet city.

SERVICE CREDITS

In connection with the announcement that California will not be called upon to furnish any men for the May draft, it is interesting to know that since the first of January the local Exemption Board has inducted fifty registrants who have volunteered without waiting to be called. Some of the men have secured releases to go into the Navy.

The total number of men who have enlisted in the army from this district is 175, and 45 have enlisted in the Navy.

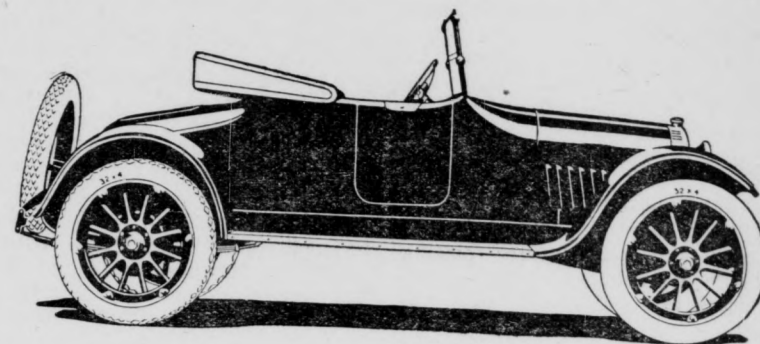

The total number of registrants inducted by this Board who have been accepted is 135. This takes no account of 37 men sent on recent draft calls on which reports have not been received as to whether they are accepted or rejected at the camps to which they went.

Mrs. Jackson, the Chief Clerk, states that applications are being received daily from registrants who are ready to go into service without waiting to be called.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Bull's Eye Garage
 The Garage at 428 Glendale avenue will be open for business on and after Monday, May 6, under the management of G. Haniquet, who has worked in garages about town for over two years. He has been identified with the automobile business for many years, holding a New York City license for a Locomobile steamer dated 1900, and during all these years he has worked on many different makes of cars. All those who have had cars repaired by Mr. Haniquet indorse his work highly. If you want high grade work on that overhaul job, remember the BULL'S EYE GARAGE. 20713

THE JAPANESE LABOR STATION announces that owing to the increasing cost of living they will advance their rates to 40 cents an hour; $1.50 for half a day and $2.75 for all day. These are the same rates that prevail in Los Angeles and Hollywood. 205-208

I'll Show You Real High Power!

I've heard men talk about high power in their cars when I knew, all the time, that much of their power was absolutely lost.

Putting a 40 h. p. engine in a heavy automobile is like telling a big strapping man to move a heavy piano alone.

Oakland engineers have not only developed a high-powered engine—one that delivers 44 h. p. at 2600 r. p. m.—but they have placed it in a car noted for its scientific light-weight construction.

To every 48 pounds of this roomy, full-family Oakland Sensible Six, the high-speed overhead valve engine delivers one full working horse power.

As an example of consistent performance, Dr. T. C. Young of Glendale drove his Oakland six-cylinder roadster from Glendale to Big Bear Lake on April 30 in 4 hours and 35 minutes actual driving time, without replenishing the original supply of oil gasoline or water.

I'll be glad to demonstrate this real high power to you and your family at any time you say.

"SPIRIT OF HOLY GHOST"

In speaking on the subject, "Who or What is the Spirit of the Holy Ghost?" Rev. A. William Goetz, pastor of the Occult Science of Christ Church, Glendale, said in part:

Text, John 14:16, 17. "And I will pray the Father and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth in you, and shall be in you."

Understanding that the Holy Ghost of the Hebrew Prophet simply means Truth wheresoever you may find it, and in regard to all nature and all individuals, whether on this plane or another; we begin to get some light on the subject. Many think that the Holy Ghost is a white-robed Spirit who should whisper to certain individuals. We know that it is the Spirit of Truth that expresses the truth to whoever listens, and is therefore the Comforter that came to the disciples after the Christ left them and as it does to all of the disciples today that listen to the still small voice that speaketh from within. This still small voice is the voice of the God-Mind within each person that is always trying to manifest and lead each person along a pathway of peace and happiness.

To him that recognizes the Spirit of Truth knows that not one church, not one congregation, not one race, not one book, nor one people has the Truth cornered, but all have some truth or they would not exist. God omnipresent, or present everywhere; then God is in every person, in every church, in every country, be it Chinese, Hindue, Jewish, Catholic, Protestant or Spiritualist. God is everywhere, omnipresent. God is omnipotent or conscious of all. Then the God-Mind is the Consciousness of the needs of all, whether they be idol worshippers, pictures worshippers, altar worshippers, nature worshippers or book worshippers; to the Spirit of Truth it is impartial as God is conscious of the needs of all; therefore, according to the individual needs of that individual soul's progress along life's journey there is a mode of expression to God in the highest form that the mind of the individual can grasp. There is not one church that can meet the spiritual needs of all, but as we progress along the path of life the church that is not needed drops out of the Divine plan. There would not be one church of any denomination standing tomorrow if no one of God's children did not need the teachings of that denomination. Therefore, as God is conscious of that church let us not condemn any one church or denomination.

God is omnipotent, or potent for all ills and inharmonies of life. If we would but learn to turn our minds within to the God that has its existence within, for Christ said: "Ye are the temples of the living God," we would find that the Holy Ghost would lead our lives along the paths of peace, of happiness, or prosperity on every plane of consciousness, whether spiritual, mental or physical. Turn to God for the solution of all of life's problems and say, "Thy will be done."

Let us remember these truths as we listen to the teachings of the Elder Brother and Master, Jesus Christ. Holy Ghost or Spirit of Truth is another name for Universal Knowledge, and in the Universal Mind or God-Mind the knowledge of all things exists and may be revealed to any mind that will be still and in the prayer of faith desire truth. As with the disciples, upon whom descended the tongues of fire, so the voice of truth shall descend upon you and you shall speak with a voice of truth that shall burn its way into the hearts of men so that they may recognize the law of love and worship God in spirit and in truth.

Think what the spectacle of cheerful giving means to the enemy. BUY THRIFT STAMPS.

ASK FOR MR. WARD

ACT TO PUNISH SABOTAGE

The Department of Justice authorizes the following:

The act of Congress, entitled "An act to punish the willful injury or destruction of war material, or of war premises or utilities used in connection with war material, and for other purposes" (popularly known as the sabotage bill), approved April 20, 1918, is the most important and sweeping of all war statutes relating to hostile or antiwar activities.

It provides a punishment of a fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than 30 years, or both, for the willful injury or destruction of war material, war industries, or war utilities. The definition of "war materials" is so comprehensive as to include not only all munitions and supplies intended for the use of the military or naval forces of the United States or of the allies, but all munitions, supplies, and articles of every description adapted to or suitable for the use of the United States or any of the allies. It is not restricted, therefore, to munitions or supplies which are being manufactured for the United States Government by contract or subcontract.

It includes every possible kind of supplies of a nature which could be used by the United States Government or any of the allies in the prosecution of the war. It includes not only the finished articles, but all parts and ingredients. As almost everything which is being grown or made today is either for the use of the United States or the allies or suitable for such use, this bill practically protects articles and supplies of every character, the whole product of agriculture and industry in the United States. Whoever willfully destroys or injures or makes in a defective manner or causes to be made in a defective manner any of such supplies, materials, parts, or ingredients can be punished under this act.

The act protects in the same way all war premises, which is defined to mean all buildings, grounds, mines, or other places wherein any war material, as defined in the act, is produced, manufactured, repaired, stored, mined, extracted, distributed, loaded, unloaded, or transported and all machinery and appliances, that is, all the equipment engaged in the production or distribution of war material; also all forts, arsenals, navy yards, camps, persons or other military or naval stations of the United States or of any of the allies. It also includes war utilities, which means all railroads, electric lines, canals, wharves, vessels, engines, cars, aircraft or any other means of transportation over which or on which war material or troops may be transported. It is not restricted to railroads or vessels or other transportation facilities upon which war materials or troops are being transported, but includes all those which may be used in the transportation of war material or troops.

This practically means any part of the transportation system or transportation facilities of the United States. It also includes public utilities, which supply war industry plants, such as the water, light, telephone, and telegraph service to war industry plants or to forts, camps, and other military and naval stations.

In short, practically speaking, the whole industrial and agricultural resources of the United States, all of its transportation and shipping facilities, all of its public utilities and all parts thereof and all products of industry and agriculture and all parts thereof suitable for war use fall within the protection of this act. Nor is it necessary in a prosecution under this act to prove that the person guilty of injuring or destroying any war material or war premises or war utilities intended to interfere with the prosecution of the war. It is sufficient to prove that he had reason to believe that his act might injure, interfere with or obstruct the United States or one of the allies in preparing for or carrying on the war.

As the entire material resources of the United States are engaged, directly or indirectly, in the prosecution of the war, everyone has reason to believe that any injury or destruction of any of these resources may injure, interfere with or obstruct the preparations for or the carrying on of the war. The fact that the act of injury or destruction, therefore, was not committed to benefit the enemy or for the purposes of hampering the prosecution of the war, will furnish no excuse in a prosecution under this act.

For the first time, the United States, through its Department of Justice, is by this act furnished with an effective weapon against all willful acts of destruction or injury which directly or indirectly weaken or retard the preparations for the war or the actual conduct of the war.

FUEL ORDER AFFECTING GREENHOUSES

The United States Fuel Administration has interpreted its regulation of April 24, restricting fuel for greenhouses by ruling that the exception made in favor of greenhouses in which vegetable plants were raised for "transplantation to produce summer vegetables" applied only to greenhouses exclusively devoted to that purpose.

More than 700 privately owned vessels have been purchased or chartered by the United States Navy.

AN EMERGENCY BROODER

This is the story of the resourcefulness of W. F. Brown of Prospect avenue, La Crescenta, who found a dead sitting hen on one of the nests in his poultry yard the other day when chicks were due. The "peep, peep" from the eggs proved they still had life though stone cold. Another hen wanted to sit and the eggs were promptly transferred to her nest. The next noon when Mr. Brown looked into the nest, he found Mistress Hen standing on a bunch of dead chickens, with three remaining who were all right and three eggs "peeping." Emergency measures were called for and he took a five-pound lard pail, made a hole in the bottom, inserted a 10-watt tungsten lamp in the inverted pail, under which he put chicks and eggs on a nice soft nest, turned on the light and the heat did the rest. The three eggs hatched all right and the six chickens, now ten days old, are fine as silk. Because of the constant light they eat night and day. Mr. Brown is so well pleased with the experiment that he recommends it to poultry raisers who do not want to bother with fussy hens.

INSPECTION OF ARMY SHOES

The shoes ordered by the Quartermaster Department for the soldiers in the cantonments and with the American Expeditionary Forces are subject to a rigid inspection by experts representing the Government and located in all factories. These experts make a detailed inspection throughout the manufacturing process. A final inspection is also made at the factories, where the production warrants it, and in the case of limited production final inspection is made at the Government depots. In each depot there is a chief shoe inspector who is responsible for the efficiency of the inspectors located in the various plants where contracts are being filled. Each shoe bears the stamp and name of the man who inspected it.

The Quartermaster Department, in its efforts to improve the standard of inspection, has organized a manufacturing control board, which is responsible for standardizing inspection in the factories where Government contracts are being carried out. The department reports an improvement in the quality of the goods and expects to reduce to a minimum the acceptance of merchandise below the standard.

NEW FRUIT LAW

The new fruit standardization laws, which became effective in July of last year, are to be enforced through the office of the county horticultural commissioner, whose duty it is to inspect all fruit shipments. Commissioner William Wood is in charge of the inspection in Los Angeles county and has a staff of nineteen deputy inspectors on duty.

Following is given section 9 of the Horticultural Statutes of California, applying to the marketing of berries:

"When packed, the berries in any container or sub-container shall be practically uniform throughout the container, in quality, color and maturity. Irregular containers shall be marked 'Irregular.'"

OHIO WAR GARDENS

The Department of Agriculture issues the following:

One large manufacturing concern in Ohio provided gardens for its employees in 1917, and required them to keep an accurate record of the time spent working the gardens and the value of the crop grown.

At the end of the season the results showed that the gardeners had received 92 cents an hour for their spare time spent in the gardens.

Another large manufacturing concern in Illinois plowed up a prize 40-acre alfalfa field and divided it into garden plots for the use of its employees. The results obtained from this garden plot far exceeded the expectations of both the company and its employees.

Manufacturers all over the country are providing gardens for their employees this year, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture.

BIG FRUIT CROP

E. H. Kennedy, manager of the Bonner Cannery, and G. H. Prince, the largest direct fruit drier in the section, states that Lankershim district will have a 100 per cent apricot and peach crop, says "The Laconic." The Bonner Company will run them full capacity throughout the season. G. H. Prince will go in a little bit heavier than usual, drying about 1000 tons of apricots and continuing heavy on peaches, which he has not done heretofore. The apricot crop is estimated at 4000 tons, and peaches at 6000 tons. Mr. Prince is taking up the housing question for his help and will erect suitable structures for them.

Several other small driers will help handle the big yield, but it is going to be one of the biggest tasks the district has ever undertaken.

MONACO

Monaco, the smallest independent principality in Europe, was the subject of the last session of the Art and Travel Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which meets regularly at the home of the curator, Mrs. Charles M. Turk, on Glendale avenue. As described by Mrs. Turk it has an area of about eight square miles and while there are three towns in its confines, i. e., Monaco, Condamine and Monte Carlo, its combined population is less than twenty thousand. Its ruler, Prince Albert of Monaco, is a scion of the house of Grimaldi, which has ruled here since the tenth century. The city of Monaco is the capital of this principality and is situated at the foot of the Tete de Chien on the lofty promontory overlooking the sea, amidst lovely orange, lemon and olive groves and is a renowned watering place.

Here is to be found the palace, a building of the Renaissance period, with crenelated towers, which may be visited during the absence of the family, and the Museum of Oceanography, which Prince Albert built and maintains at his own expense and which contains one of the finest and most important collections of its kind in the world.

The Cathedral of St. Nicholas is in Monaco and is a handsome modern structure, but if you prefer you may visit at Condamine the pilgrimage chapel of Ste. Devote, who is the patron saint of this little kingdom.

The markets are located here and are well worth a visit. Upon the occasion of one of our visits we noticed that many of the maids were buying great bunches of pumpkin blossoms and upon inquiry found that they were to be stuffed with chopped meat, fried in hot fat and served with the noon-day meal. They are considered a great delicacy and are really very good.

Condamine is a comparatively new town between Monaco and Monte Carlo and has a population of over 6000, with excellent hotels, and is a favorite health resort in the winter and a sea-bathing place in summer. The broad boulevard which runs from Monaco through Condamine to Monte Carlo is lined on either side with large pink and white oleander trees more than twenty-five feet in height, and when in bloom they form a never to be forgotten picture.

Monte Carlo

Monte Carlo is a lovely little city of perhaps 4000 inhabitants, and is situated on an isolated elevation overlooking the sheltered bay of the Mediterranean, and is particularly beautiful, and while it is justly celebrated for its fine climate, its perfect roads, magnificent gardens, lovely promenades, elegant hotels and residences, it is more widely known for the gambling facilities it affords, for it is here that is located on a promontory at the east end of the town the most luxuriously appointed gambling establishment in the entire world. This society was founded in 1858 and prospered beyond all expectation until it finally became the Association of the Watering Place and The Strangers' Club of Monaco, with a capital stock of $6,000,000, divided into 60,000 shares, which held a contract, which was made by M. Francois Blanc for the concession, whereby the reigning prince was to be paid annually the sum of $350,000, and in addition to this the society was to bear all cost of the governing of the principality, and its expenditure per year for this purpose alone amounted to $4,000,000. The present Casino was built in 1878 by Charles Garnier, a celebrated architect of Paris, but the facade toward the sea was rebuilt in 1903. At the sides there are two statues, one of "Music" by Sara Bernhardt, the other "Dancing," by Gustave Dore. The interior is most sumptuously fitted up. In the vestibule you will find the office where tickets of admission must be obtained, and for which there is no charge. You are obliged to write your name and address in the register and a ticket good for twenty-four hours will be given you, thus enabling the management to investigate your record and learn whether you have ever visited the Casino before and have been assisted to leave after you have lost your all at the gaming table. If you have not, you are allowed to remain, but if you have, you are curtly told to leave the city at once, and there is no appeal from this order, for the "society" controls the courts and makes the laws. In the vestibule is the buffet, where drinks and light refreshments can be purchased.

The Salle de Jeu, or gambling rooms, are on the ground floor and are open daily from 10 a. m. until midnight. Minors and permanent residents of the principality are not admitted. On the floor above are the Salle des Fetes, Salon de Conversation and the reading room, reached by means of a moving staircase (escalier roulant). Two concerts are held daily in the Salle des Fetes, and an admission of 3 francs on week days and 5 francs on Thursdays and Sundays is charged, but for the non-affluent lover of music there are daily and nightly concerts on the terrace near the theater, given by a band of sixty pieces. These concerts are absolutely free and can be enjoyed by all.

The Tir aux Pigeons, or pigeon shoots, are held in January of each year, and the prize of 20,000 francs, or $4,000 attracts some of the best trap shots in the country.

The Casino gardens are lovely, and contain many rare trees and plants. The late King Leopold, of Belgium, was money-mad, and his last great ambition was to become the head of the Gambling Trust. He had gained all the wealth that robbery and torture could wring from the natives of Congo, and he was anxious to control another great source of tainted wealth, and divert to his own use the millions that the passion for gambling of weak Europeans and Americans could be made to yield. For several decades he worked to get Monte Carlo in his clutches.

Edmond Blanc, son of Francois Blanc, died, and the passion of his children for hobnobbing with royalty greatly facilitated Leopold's plan, for in order to take part in social functions they were obliged to dispose of parcels of stock from time to time, and the king's agent, Marquet, let none of it slip away from him. Finally when Marie Blanc was married to Prince Roland Bonaparte she gave him $10,000,000 and paid 50,000,000 francs in stock to his relatives in order to gain their good will, for they were greatly offended at this mesalliance, and the prince was also obliged to distribute portions of the stock given him, his cousin, Prince Victor Napoleon, being one of the beneficiaries.

When Victor Napoleon married King Leopold's daughter, Princess Clementine, he turned his stock over to a woman who was believed to be his wife, and all of this stock was later acquired by the gambling trust of which the King of Belgium was the head. Twenty years later, when Prince George of Greece married the daughter of Marie Blanc Bonaparte, the members of the royal family of Greece had to be propitiated (financially) in order to gain their consent to the alliance, and much of the stock given them was thrown on the market, to be snapped up by the same buyer. All this did not mean ruin to the Blanc family, however, for the concession was so very valuable that under the terms of the new contract, made in 1913, each of Edmond Blanc's four children receives $4,500,000 annually.

King Leopold's plan worked out to perfection, but success came after his death. His syndicate owns and controls a chain of gambling houses in all parts of the world, but Monte Carlo, with its long winter season, and visitors from every walk in life, is the most profitable and most prosperous of all the gambling infernos, for it pays all the expenses of Monaco, and her residents are relieved of all taxation. It supports an army of eighty-two men and four officers. It maintains a court marshal, two chamberlains and a chaplain.

It now pays Prince Albert $4,000,000 per year, his first divorced wife, now Countess Festetics of Hungary, $20,000, his second wife, also divorced, who was Alice Heine of New Orleans, $40,000, his son, Prince Louis, $40,000, and his deserted wife or sweetheart, Julia Meyer, $4,000 per year. It provides free transportation to any part of the world for those who find themselves penniless because of their losses at the tables.

It supports fifty detectives, whose sole duty is to persuade those contemplating suicide to carry out their plans elsewhere, but in case of such event, it provides free funerals and a cemetery where the unlucky victim of the system may rest after he has been robbed of his self respect and his earthly wealth.

A MOTHER'S POEM

The following little poem was pasted inside his sewing box lid when he left home. It was a gratifying joy to see how well he had preserved the box, reinforcing its broken places with adhesive plaster:

To My Son

"Do you know that your soul is of my soul such part That you seem to be fiber and core of my heart?"

None other can pain me as you, dear, can do! None other please me or praise me as you.

"Remember, the world will be quick with its blame. If shadow or stain ever darken your name.

"Like mother, like son," is a saying so true That the world will judge largely a mother by you.

"Be yours, then, the task, if task it shall be,

To force a proud world to do homage to me.

Be sure it will say, when its verdict you've won:

"She reaped as she sowed. Lo! this is her son."

People who have less than you are giving.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS. WORLD'S BEST INVESTMENT. By NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER, PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE. I trust that every American, rich or poor, young or old, man or woman, who can possibly do so, will purchase without delay, a War Savings Certificate, and affix to it as often as possible a $5 War Savings Stamp. Not all of us can bear arms or serve on ships. Not all of us can take posts of duty in the civil administration of the Government. All of us, however, can do our part by exercising rigid economy and making monthly savings of at least $5, which we can in this way lend to the Government. A War Savings Stamp is the best investment in the world. It earns as high a rate of interest as a first-class savings bank can pay. It is money lent directly to the Government, to aid in winning the war for progress and democracy. What more urgent call could be made to our patriotism than this? Every one of us who is receiving a salary or wages can do something, either through War-Savings Certificates or through Thrift Cards. Let every American hasten to get one or the other.
