Narberth's Happy Form of Christmas Greeting Has Become a Custom

We hang up garlands everywhere,
And bid the tapers twinkle fair.
—Susan Coolidge.

Two years ago—Christmas 1915—about three score Narberthites inaugurated the candle greeting as an expression of neighborliness to the passerby. These loyal home town folk responded to a suggestion made in Our Town by the writer, and the first silent salutation took the form of a single candle placed in each window visible to the street or streets near the individual's home.

In 1916, by actual count, there was a minimum of 115 homes which adopted the happy custom. And from the simple single candle form the salutation grew into geometric arrangements of candles displayed in every window of the house. One of the simpler of these arrangements was obtained by the use of two short candles and one tall candle, the tall candle being placed in the center and the two short candles on either side of the tall one. One home (that of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Woodworth, 429 Haverford avenue) displayed in every window candles arranged in form of a crescent. Various other arrangements showed versatility among those to whom the practice appealed.

Among those who have consistently done much to popularize the candle greeting in Narberth are: H. C. Gara, W. Arthur Cole, George M. Henry, John B. Williams, Norman Jefferies, Charles W. Thompson, Albert B. Eyre, W. S. Homer, Robert McCoy, Robert Pattison, O. S. Cook, R. L. Beatty, A. J. Loos, Roy E. Clark, Galen Gray, and very many others including Messrs. Laughlin, Booth, Howenstine, Marsh, Mulholland, William J. Jones, J. H. Jefferies, Dr. Faries, Barrie, Pedrick, Father Cowley, Ross, Green, Howes, Wright, Krell, Way and Shand.

H. C. Gara usually has had one of the simplest, yet most effective of illuminations, which is due to the large number of windows visible on one side of their house and to the use of a large plumber's candle instead of the smaller variety of candles usually sold for household use.

Scarcely a block was without at least one candle greeting last year; most blocks had several and some blocks had no houses that were without some form of the silent salute—the sign of "Peace on earth, good will to men" and of that true spirit of brotherhood which means real democracy; of having unselfish thought for others.

The candle greeting is a very old custom in England, but is used in few places in the United States, Baltimore being one of the few large cities to consistently repeat the practice year after year.

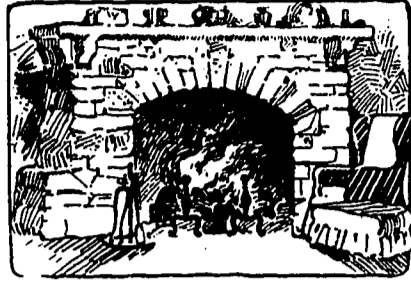

Narberth has adopted the greeting as its own and each year has found it more widely practiced. So let us beat last year's record—let us add every newcomer to the list and half as many more. Better still, let's see to it that every occupied house shows at least one candle on the eve of December 24. And let's keep them burning from 8.30 to midnight.

Last year many persons toured the town to view the illuminations while on their way to the several "watch" meetings. Do not disappoint these persons this year. Get your candles! BE PREPARED!

And just to increase cheer within doors for the home folks and for the out-of-town folk who may be guests, let every owner of a fireplace make use of it this holiday season of 1917. Get some wood of some kind—and burn it!

And to further increase the true atmosphere of an old-fashioned Christmas, let us hear the voices of the carolers early in the morning of Christmas Day. This feature is usually the contribution of the Chi Pi Sorority. Going to do your part this year, girls? Thanks!

W. A. C.

THE NEW NARBERTH PLAN—WHAT IT IS, HOW IT WILL WORK, AND WHAT IT WILL DO FOR ALL OUR RESIDENTS

HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY EVERY PHASE OF IT

This Week "Our Town" Begins the Publication of a Series of Articles That Will Explain All About the Plan—Every Resident Should Read These Articles and Be Prepared For the Town Meeting

Here is the first of a series of articles explaining The New Narberth Plan for economic and efficient purchasing of food supplies for the people of our borough. These articles will appear regularly in "Our Town," and when the last of the series has been printed and read, our residents will have a clear, comprehensive idea of The Narberth Plan—what it is, how it will work and what it will do.

We suggest that you cut each article from the paper and clip them all together so that you may refer to them later. It is an essential part of this Plan that the residents of our borough understand it thoroughly. This is particularly important in view of the town meeting, which will, in all probability, be called immediately after the Christmas holidays.

Finally, and we make this statement as a warning and not as a threat—if the people of this country do not voluntarily solve the food problem, the force of circumstances and the power of the Government are going to compel them to take whatever action is necessary to the preservation of public health. The food problem is not going to solve itself. The demand for this country's food products is going to increase rather than decrease. When peace comes there is going to be an even greater demand for America's food products. Therefore, as a measure of self-preservation, we must solve our food problem. The Narberth Plan gives every indication of being THE solution from the standpoint of purchasing food supplies for the community.

THE NARBERTH PLAN—ARTICLE NO. 1—WHAT IT IS

The Narberth Plan is the name that has been given to a carefully and thoroughly worked out system for the purchase of food supplies under conditions more economic than at present. It is devised to meet, first, the immediate need for war-time conditions; second, to anticipate the action which will inevitably be taken by the Federal Food Administration to enforce sane marketing principles, unless some plan such as this is adopted by communities; and third, to develop a permanent plan for the most economical method of purchasing all food supplies.

The Narberth Plan is so named because a resident of Narberth, who is also an expert in the service of the Division of Markets of the Committee of Public Safety of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, devised it and offers it to the "Year 'Round Home Town." If it is not adopted here, it will be adopted elsewhere. If it is adopted here it will make Narberth noted throughout the United States as the town where its principles were first put in effect.

The Narberth Plan is not visionary. It is not impractical. It is not idealistic beyond realization. In these particulars it differs from so many other plans for lowering the cost of living, which have been and are being tried out in other communities. The Narberth Plan has been submitted for careful consideration and judgment to representatives of all of the parties whom it affects and by them has been accepted as the only practical plan for lowering the cost of living that has so far been suggested. Two other communities stand ready to adopt and inaugurate The Narberth Plan, but they will not have the opportunity to do so until Narberth itself decides upon it.

The Narberth Plan recognizes the necessity for the wholesaler and the retailer in supplying the needs of the consumer and seeks to co-ordinate the needs of the consumer with the abilities and facilities of these two sources of supplies. To do this, a fourth factor is embraced in the plan. The bank is called upon to fulfill a fundamental banking function in financing the transactions of the retailer with the wholesaler acting as the guarantor for a clientele of consumers whose individual credits are protected for the retailer in his buying operations with the wholesaler. Cash or a demand note amounting only to a moderate sum for each consumer, and deposited with the bank, makes this possible. Two of the leading banks in Philadelphia have passed upon the soundness of this plan from a banking point of view.

The Narberth Plan, therefore, is one which may be termed a "four-square" plan. It deals with the consumer, the retailer, the wholesaler and the bank. It differs from all previously devised plans in that it protects all of the parties to it and thus, to that extent at least, becomes less of a selfish project and more of a community project. It is the only plan which gives the retailer an assured "square deal" and at the same time guarantees to the consumer lower prices, better quality and improved service.

(Editor's note: Be sure to read the Second Article on The Narberth Plan in next week's issue of Our Town.)

CERTIFICATE STAMPS AS CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

One man came to the postoffice and bought a certificate with two stamps at $4.12 each attached, for his three grandchildren. These will be given at Christmas. During the coming year grandpa will continue sending stamps each month to the kiddies, and by the end of 1918 each will have a "Baby Bond" worth $100.

This is doing a double service—giving the children a splendid Christmas present and doing a patriotic service for our Country.

USE MONEY IN TOY BANKS TO BUY THRIFT STAMPS

Pennies, nickles and dimes do not earn anything while in the children's banks. They will earn interest if you buy savings stamps with them, and the small coins are in tremendous demand. The director of the Mint requests that all small coins be put in circulation.

Outlook Favorable For Continuation of "Our Town"

Since the publication of our appeal last week for better financial support of OUR TOWN, the management has had assurances from representative members of the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian Churches that they would do their share.

For the information of contributors of reading notices, we may say that where papers of this kind are run for profit, the charge for reading notices is usually 25 cents per inch. The cost runs about 15 cents per inch for such notices. Display advertising rates are, of course, higher. Our religious notices, running 15 to 20 inches each week, actually cost us from $2.25 to $3.00 per week, or from $117.00 to $156.00 per annum.

We expect no profit, and will be glad to receive at least part of the cost. Pastors and church members appreciate this service, as shown by the prompt response of three churches.

If the School Board, Y. M. C. A. and other organizations mentioned last week now join in helping finance the deficit, the future of the paper will be assured, and not dependent on the enforced contributions of private individuals.

EDITORIAL

With the mercury hovering about the zero mark, our thoughts and sympathies go out to the boys in camp in their cheerless frame barracks. Much power to the loyal women who are knitting sweaters and scarfs for them.

Their frightful calamity at Halifax makes still another appeal to the country, and that there will be a prompt and generous response by the States goes without saying. The circumstances attendant on this disaster are peculiarly distressing, followed as it was by a freezing blizzard. Immediate relief is necessary to prevent further loss of life.

We are pleased to note that the appeal made last week for financial support to keep "Our Town" going has met with instant response from a number of the churches. Other organizations will doubtless do their share, and if the general public will be particular to remit promptly for their subscriptions to Miss Maizie J. Simpson, cashier, Box 118, Narberth P. O., it will save the cost of collecting, which is considerable. Advertisers should also be prompt in their remittances, remembering that every dollar goes to pay cost. Remember that this is "an experiment in co-operative journalism—no paid workers."

Next week Narberth residents will be visited by those in charge of the drive to increase the membership in the Red Cross by ten million new members. Think of what good your one dollar per annum will do, when multiplied by ten million. There are people in this country base enough to belittle the noble work done by the Red Cross for the whole of mankind—mainly paid spies, taking advantage of the hospitality of this extremely tolerant government. Whenever such people are discovered, they should be reported immediately to the Federal authorities for investigation. Narberth has already listed 300 members. Let that number be doubled or trebled next week.

As a fitting climax to the social activities of Christmas week, a Christmas dance is to be given in Elm Hall Friday, December 28, 1917. Proceeds for the benefit of the Red Cross. Remember this date.

ENLISTING DRAFTED MEN

Will Accept Them for Army or Navy Until December 15

A modification of War Department orders permits the enlistment of drafted men in the army or navy until December 15. The new ruling reads:

"Any registrant, even though he has been called by his local board to report for physical examination, may enlist until December 15, upon presentation to recruiting officer of a certificate from his local board that he will not be needed to fill any deferred quota of the board."

There has been a big increase in enlistments since this ruling was announced.

The navy has issued a call for medical and dental students to enlist in the National Medical Reserve Corps. The opportunity is limited and is open only until December 15. Students accepted in this branch of the service, it is stated, will not be called into active service before graduation, except under extraordinary circumstances. The students may, however, be called upon for a period of special training during their vacation. No commissions are guaranteed, but it is desired to enroll a force from which future commissioned officers may be drawn after intensive training in the service. Recruiting headquarters for this branch of the service are at the Naval Home, Twenty-fourth and Gray's Ferry road.

RED CROSS STARTS BIG DRIVE DECEMBER 17

Christmas Membership Campaign for Main Line to Be Opened at Bryn Mawr—To Get 3000 Members

With the slogan, "A Heart and a Dollar Are All You Need," before them, Red Cross workers of the Main Line Branch No. 1 will start their Christmas membership drive Monday, December 17, at Bryn Mawr, for 3000 new members. A big meeting will be held on Saturday next, December 15, at which the final plans will be announced.

Leading men and women of the Main Line will direct the campaign. The women workers will be divided into teams with a prominent society or club woman as captain.

Among those who have already been chosen are: Mrs. Richard E. Norton, Ardmore; Mrs. Cornish, Merion; Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, Narberth; Miss Margaret Tenny, Haverford; Mrs. King Wainwright, Bryn Mawr; Mrs. George Thayer, Rosemont; Mrs. Radcliffe Roberts, Villanova. Luncheon will be held for captains and teams each day of the campaign at 12:30 o'clock at the Bryn Mawr fire house. As soon as luncheon is over the teams will begin their active work in this most intensive drive.

The country's quota is set at 10,000,000 members. The campaign will close on December 24.

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING

That is the message that comes to us from our boys in the service.

"When I come back," said one man, "I want to find everything as before, and it will help me 'over there' to know the old home's just the same."

Don't you know that feeling? All of us have wandered away, some time or other, from the familiar scenes and well-loved places. Don't you remember the home-coming, and the lump that nearly choked you as you looked once again on each well-remembered thing?

It is hard to assume gaiety when none is there, but our boys would have us do it.

"With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
They have wandered away to a far, strange land."

And they bid us prove ourselves to be worthy of them.

As we look down the long vista of the future, with its possibilities and realizations, we come to feel more and more the need for courage, for control, for poise and sane judgment.

And so the message comes to us today in unmistakable terms.

"Be happy this Christmas. Take care of our presents for use, and don't forget anybody. It will cheer us along the way to know you are lighting the Christmas candles and sitting around the blazing hearth."

From the front, the camp the sea, they say: "Keep the homes fires burning."—The Hoskins-man.

"Christmas Dance" benefit of the Red Cross, Elm Hall, Friday, December 28, 1917. Myers' full orchestra.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:—

If we had no fire company in Narberth, we would have little or no fire protection and would pay much higher insurance rates. The expenses of our fire organization are not paid by the borough, but by seventy-five live residents, who pay the annual membership dues of $3. Everybody else gets the protection and the low rates just the same, but pay nothing for these benefits. A fire department is not run for nothing and in our case the income does not equal the expenses. Any man who does not contribute his share would feel mighty ashamed if his home required the fire company's services. There is one parcel of twenty odd houses in the borough owned by non-residents. These houses are protected like yours and mine and enjoy the same low insurance rates, yet pay nothing for the privilege. On the other hand, you, and several others like you, own but one house and, under the present absurd scheme of things, pay for the protection of the cheap individuals who evade their dues and permit others to pay their bills. The only remedy is to make each property in Narberth pay its share by taxing it. Then the man who owns a house would pay his share and the man who owns ten houses would pay ten times as much. In this way there would be an equitable distribution of the expense which would not be heavy in any case when so spread out.

It is said that there are legal obstacles to such a method of supporting the fire company. If there are, a way certainly can be found to overcome them. "Where there's a will, there's a way." If one of our new councilmen will interest himself in this matter and push it to a successful conclusion, there will be some justification for his election, even if he doesn't accomplish another thing during his whole tenure of office. Don't let them say that Narberth is too stingy to properly support its fire company. Make the slackers pay!

Doesn't seem as tho' Santa could have much to do this year, judging by the comments on the Xmas question that one hears. Good chance to join the S. P. U. G. and stay joined. What a Godsend for poor father, if everybody comes to his or her senses on this Christmas present stuff.

The borough ought to furnish a step ladder with which pedestrians may climb the curb at Haverford and Narberth avenues alongside the coal yard. One good feature about that crossing is the deep rut in the road which compels some of the wild-eyed autoists to slow up or bust an axle, thus saving human lives.

Talking about the coal yard reminds me that if you want to get good and mad in order to start the day ready to lick an army, just go around there some morning and ask the accommodating and pleasant individual behind the desk to place your order for a little coal. If you want to get even madder, send your wife around there and see what happens. He's even more heroic in that case.

"Cub."

It won't do for us to say much of these most gorgeous boxes we have here, for the number we were able to secure was only part of what we ought to have! Never before have we had such handsome packages—such choice qualities—and it's surprised you will be to see how much less than $5, for instance, you will have to pay for what is obviously a big five-dollars'-worth! Excellent selections are here, too, for the gift to cost less than a dollar—and from then on up in easy stages! Better come in before Sunday!

"The Little Church on the Hill" will do honor to her soldier and sailor boys Sunday evening when the mothers present a Service Flag. The stars have been arranged in the shape of a cross, and with characteristic devotion, each of the mothers has sewed on the star for her own boy. Needless to say this flag will be a cherished possession of the church for all time.

Lieutenant D. N. Campbell Ross, a former student at Haverford College, and son of the Rev. Dr. George A. Ross, former pastor of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, has died of wounds received on the French front. The news reached Philadelphia in a cable dispatch from London, which said that Lieutenant Ross died in a casualty clearing station, November 30.

Many prominent clergymen and laymen attended the celebration Sunday, at St. Colman's Catholic Church, Ardmore, in honor of the sixty-one young men of the parish who have joined the armed forces of the United States. The ceremonies included the raising of a service flag with one star and the figure "61" beneath it. As others members of the parish answer the call to arms the figure will be changed.

The Kappa Sigma Phi Sorority was entertained at the home of Miss Alice Green, of 123 South Fifteenth street, on Thursday evening, December 6. The members had the opportunity of hearing vivid descriptions of camp life portrayed in letters written to Miss Green by her brothers who are both enlisted men, and who write with the most stirring patriotic spirit, convincing their readers of their courage, contentment and splendid treatment at the American camps.

Have you heard the latest? Yes! It's a fact, "The Nautical Knot," is to be given in Narberth again. We don't say that it's for "newcomers" only, for we know that even those who saw its first production here will want to be right on the first rows this time. "The Nautical Knot" is considered the cleverest bit of work ever produced by Narberth's younger set. Don't miss it! Saturday, December 29, at Elm Hall, and we dance afterwards with a good orchestra in full sway.

The local branch of The Merion Title & Trust Co., will distribute to the Narberth members of the 1917 Christmas Club the sum of $16,000, which is an increase over last year of $7900, or nearly 100 per cent. This gives an idea of the growth of business at this office. Checks will be placed in the local mails Thursday, December 13. This distribution of cash just as the real Christmas shopping commences will be a great stimulant to Christmas business and much of it will go to local merchants. The new Christmas Club will be open for enrollment on and after December 24. All are cordially invited to join.

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Christmas 1917

The Christmas season this year will be celebrated with an unusual program characterized by strong addresses, beautiful music and artistic decorations.

On Christmas Sunday evening there will be a community choral service followed by a cantata sung by sixteen trained voices.

Something new and practical in a Christmas program is to be given by the Sunday school, Friday evening, December 28, at 7.30 o'clock. "The Good Samaritan Pantomime and Tableau," by twenty-six children and a reader.

This is the kind of a Sunday school entertainment that benefits the children who participate, and carries home to the audience a helpful lesson and tends to result in a response of practical value.

NEW STATION AND P. O.

There is a new sparkle of pride in all Merion. Its new station is complete. The Pennsylvania Railroad, recognizing the fact that the suburb is growing, has erected one of the handsomest stations on the Main Line in acknowledgment of the efforts of the Merion Civic Association, which has helped to make Merion the model suburb of Philadelphia, noted for its suburbs with beautiful homes and estates. The railroad co-operated enthusiastically with the association and the result is thorough-going equipment and beautiful architecture in the new building. On the south side of the railroad the station, which is modern in every particular, has been devoted entirely to the ticket and baggage office. On the north side the new postoffice has been erected separate from the station, with the idea that Merionites, returning from town, can stop for their mail without the necessity of going through the tunnel. The new buildings are welcomed as a great boon to Merion, both from artistic and practical standpoints.

"Christmas Dance," benefit of the Red Cross, Elm Hall, Friday, December 28, 1917. Myers' full orchestra.

MAIN LINE RED CROSS WILL START DRIVE WITH PARADE

The Main Line Red Cross campaign will open on Saturday, December 15, with a colorful motorcar procession from Merion to Villanova. There will be ten or fifteen cars in line and the chauffeur of each will be dressed as Santa Claus. Each car will be occupied by prominent women in Red Cross costume.

The Fraternal Benefit Association, with lodges and branches in the five counties covered by the southeastern chapter of the Red Cross, will be organized for a Red Cross membership campaign at a big meeting to be held at Grand Fraternity Hall, 1626 Arch street on December 12.

COMING!

On December 14, the Narberth Boys' Club will give a minstrel show for the benefit of the Boys' Club, and expects to give part of the proceeds to the Soldiers' Tobacco Fund. Nearly every member will be in the show, and the people of Narberth will see some unknown talent, as well as old comedians.

Baron Bean Harris, our old friend, is one of the end men, and will sing "They Go Wild Over Me;" John Dickie will sing the popular ballad, "I Don't Want to Get Well;" Arthur Cooke will sing "Then I'll Come Back to You;" Rose Howenstein will sing "Some Sunday Morning."

The above people appeared in the successful School Circus. Robert Sperry, a new boy with a fine voice, will sing "Listen to the Knocking of the Knitting Club;" Louis Jenkins will sing "Homeward Bound;" Sidney Trotter will sing "Won't You Say A Prayer For the Boys Over There;" Phillips Witherow will sing "When Yankee Doodle Learns to Parlez vous Francais." The latest jokes will be on hand.

The show is under the supervision of Miss Augusta Witherow, who has had many successes in Narberth and nearby towns. Miss Witherow is supervisor of music at Conshohocken Heights.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE FOR NARBERTH

To Be Given by the Pupils of the Public School Thursday Evening, December 20, at 8 o'clock, in the Narberth School Auditorium

EVERYBODY INVITED

Although held in the school auditorium, this carol is strictly a town affair. An annual community event in many towns, looked forward to by young and old, is to be begun in Narberth. What a splendid idea! The loved old carols to be given by children of our town year after year! The carol never grows "old." There are no songs loved by children and grandparents as these Christmas carols that tell the "old sweet story" over and over in so many quaint ways.

KING'S DAUGHTERS

The regular monthly meeting of the King's Daughters' Circle was held in the Baptist Church Wednesday, 5th, with an attendance of thirty-one present. The ladies were busy sewing for the Red Cross. Mrs. Scott Crater and Mrs. Harry Derby acted as hostesses and served a very fine lunch, after which the president, Mrs. Fred Derby, opened the business meeting with Scripture reading and prayer, all joining in the singing. This was a busy session as the Christmas work was planned for.

Committees were appointed to send a ton of coal to a widow supporting her family of small children, a box of groceries to another mother and her little ones, besides the shut-ins, and several other worthy ones to be remembered. The King's Daughters are ever ready to help when help is needed. A barrel to be packed with groceries, vegetables and a turkey to be sent to the "Door of Hope." The chairman of this committee, Mrs. J. T. Darlington, requests that all contributions be sent to her home, 212 Hampden avenue, by December 15, so the barrel may be sent to reach them by Christmas, as the home is now at Whitmarsh.

Red Cross Membership Drive

The national movement to increase the membership of the Red Cross Society from five million to fifteen million is now under way throughout the entire country. As usual, our Main Line district is fully alive to the necessity of furthering the work, and is going about it systematically. The week of December 17 has been selected for the concentrated drive. There is to be a house-to-house canvass all along the Main Line.

For Narberth, Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites has been made division manager. She has appointed as captains, Mrs. Walter I. Dohard, Mrs. W. Arthur Cole and Mrs. Romaine C. Hoffman, each in charge of one of the three districts into which Narberth has been divided.

Mrs. Stites has listed about 300 members in Narberth. Of course, many others have membership in the Philadelphia district. It is interesting to record that the youngest Narberth member is Miss Eleanor Loos, who joined when she was one day old. Membership costs $1 yearly, and must be renewed at the end of each year. Those whose membership expires early in 1918 are asked to re-subscribe during the coming "drive week." This is in order that the membership year may begin uniformly, as nearly as possible.

Of course, people may join the society anywhere, but each locality desires, as far as possible, to have its residents members of its particular branch.

Isn't it queer how narrow minded those people are who disagree with you?

COMBINED PATRIOTIC AND MUSICAL SERVICE

Mothers to Present Service Flag to Methodist Church—Salute to Colors By Narberth Boy Scouts—Instrumental Trio: Violin, Cello, Organ—Mr. Bub Will Sing Patriotic Solos By Request—Stirring Congregational Singing of National Hymns

"The Little Church on the Hill" will be the scene of another impressive patriotic service this Sunday evening when the mothers of the boys in the Nation's service present a Service Flag. Actuated by love and patriotic devotion, the mothers are presenting a flag on which the stars have been sewed by their own hands. The stars are arranged in the form of a cross, the symbol of sacrifice and service.

With characteristic resourcefulness the pastor has arranged a program of great interest in which music and patriotism are happily blended. On behalf of the mothers the presentation speech will be delivered by the Hon. Fletcher W. Stites who, for several years has been the Sunday school teacher of most of the boys. Mr. Arthur Cole, Scoutmaster, will lead the Narberth Boy Scouts in the salute to the colors.

The musical parts of the service consist of selections by an instrumental trio composed of Elveta Bliss, violin; William P. Nash, cello; Vera Bernice Chesley, organ. Mr. Herman J. Bub, a member of the church and soloist in the Philadelphia Operatic Society will sing a patriotic number by request. A phase of the service appealing to every worshiper will be the congregational singing of National hymns in which everyone can take part, accompanied by organ, violin, cello and choir.

The families and friends of the enlisted men, soldiers of the past and present, friends and strangers are heartily welcome. Service begins promptly at 7.45 o'clock.

SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS

221 South Eighteenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

October 25, 1917.

NOTE—Please post in a conspicuous place in your headquarters and call to the attention of all departments. To all Branches and Auxiliaries: Millions of Surgical Dressings Wanted at Once Major Grayson-Murphy, American Red Cross, Chief of Commission in France, cables the following:—"Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent over with all possible speed. If this is not done immediately a serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable.

"The American women who compose the Red Cross should prepare with all the enthusiasm and speed possible the dressings which are going to mean life or death to our own men."

To visualize the great need of surgical dressings one has to reflect that only a few weeks ago two and one-half millions of surgical dressings went down in one ship, and that the cases are numerous where an entire box of dressings is used on one patient.

It is imperative that women of the Red Cross in southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter increase immediately this needed supply of surgical dressings that the front is calling for.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the names of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
