HEMEROCALLIS OPHIR
Photographed at Hildemere August, 1934

O SPIRIT, why demand
Of God a sign,
When here, on every hand,
From shrub and vine
He beckons? In a garden long ago
He walked, and walks again where tulips grow

Who looks for miracles
Will find them here:
Dianthus and bluebells,
Snowdrops, appear
More wonderful than water turned to wine,
And hyacinths are happenings divine!

When flares the fire-weed
Behold the Master,
And let disciples heed
The hardy aster;
For in a moment when man thinketh not
The Lord of life comes to a garden plot.

ROBERT NORWOOD.

THE GARDEN THAT IS DIFFERENT

DOES anyone ever secure the very last flower he wants? We at Hildemere confess to an insatiable desire, which impels us to unceasing search for the new beauties that each year we add to our already long and varied list.

We are proud of the unusual choice that we are able to offer our patrons and proud of the quality of plant we offer, be it lineaged delphinium or gypsy wildling for the Rock Garden. We are glad too that no plant, however beautiful or rare, is included in our collection that cannot be made happy in our difficult climate.

No small part of our joy in our flowers comes to us in greeting anew year by year so many of you, our long time flower-friends. We count on seeing you again this season, and we hope any whom this little catalog may reach will accept its invitation. You will join the large number who find delight in visiting our Gardens and whose slogan is "Hildemere Plants Grow!"

From the wealth of bloom which our Gardens furnish throughout the season, we supply decoration both unusual and inexpensive for either the formal or informal occasion. Baskets filled to order; flowers cut while you wait.

Within reasonable radius of Hildemere we deliver plants on orders of $5 and upward. We feel however that whenever practicable you will prefer to come yourselves to our Gardens where you may see the plants growing and make your personal selection.
